

Where World's Record Speckled Trout was Taken

Above, The new bungalow camps are built after this style. Below, Fishing scenes: left, Nipigon; right, Lake of the Woods.

FOR a distance of 880 miles, between Sudbury, the junction of the two main lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the Manitoba boundary, there are only twelve points with a population of over 200. This means that for 880 miles there are only twelve points at which civilization has to any extent encroached upon what is one of the last few remaining accessible wilderness regions of the North American continent. From the French River, north of the Georgian Bay and Lakes Huron and Superior to west of Kenora, a tract of land 880 miles long and of unknown depth is practically unexplored, and yet this part of Northern Ontario is one of the most richly endowed sections of Canada in natural beauty. Sylvan lakes, streams and larger waterways form a network through the country and almost incredible stories are told of the size and quantity of fish, particularly red and speckled trout to be found there. It is a well known fact of big game.

That this country is sparsely populated is alone responsible for the fact that it is not known to more tourists and sportsmen. Each year hundreds more are absorbed by the country, but the lack of accommodation has kept many more hundreds away. Three of the most fascinating districts of this glorious tract will therefore be rendered more attractive than ever by the erection this summer of comfortable bungalow camps at French River, Nipigon River and Kenora (Lake of the Woods). These camps will be similar to those which have proved so successful along the line of the Canadian Pacific in the Canadian Rockies. A well built central club house, where meals will be served and facilities provided for social diversions, will be surrounded by cosy little bungalows, designed for one, two or four persons, equipped simply but comfortably with a camp bed and a few other accessories. The simple construction and low cost of maintenance will enable the management to charge much lower rates than are possible in the standard hotels.

The French River bungalow camp is located on an elevation which commands a magnificent view of the main channel of the French, within 200 yards of the railway station. The scenery is characteristic of the Georgian Bay region, rocky islands, deep waterways, and dense pine forests in which all kinds of game abound.

The Nipigon is called the home of red and speckled trout, and with some truth, for it is undoubtedly the most prolific breeding place for these sporty fish in the world. The world's record speckled trout came from there in 1915 when Dr. J. W. Cook, of Fort William, Ont., took one out weighing 14 1/2 pounds and measuring 31 1/2 inches from head to tail and 11 1/2 inches across. What need to say more, unless it be that the scenery is equal to any seen at the French River or Lake of the Woods.

MOTOR PARTY OF SEVENTEEN FROM GLACE BAY

Through the Valley—In the Hub on the 25th.

For gas and oil chauffeur J. T. Foster, on the 25th, ran into the well-equipped establishment of the Colchester Battery and Vulcanizing Service, one door east of the Truro News office, with his party of seventeen merry-makers on a return trip from the Annapolis Valley to the downeast home in Glace Bay, C.B.

A news representative was on hand, and "Snag" reports they were a jolly lot of tourists. The party of 17 had ample room in a Red motor-truck, "C498 Nova Scotia register 1923," and their powerful engine of 60 h.p. moved them along to the full speed limit of the N. S. Motor Vehicle Act.

These motorists left their Cape Breton home last week and had a fine run to the Annapolis Valley, where they made a little visit with chauffeur Foster's brother mid orchards of growing apples and wide extending acreage of delicious ripe strawberries. The trip was most enjoyable; and the party left the "Hub" about 4 o'clock p.m. on the 25th on the last lap of their return journey, expecting to reach the greatest mining town in the Province on the 26th.

A Union Jack floated proudly from the front of the car, showing that this bunch of tourists were not followers of the disloyal "Reds"—a few of whom had shown themselves in their native town.

PUTS HEALTH AND VIM INTO WOMEN

So Says Mrs. MacPherson of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bertrand, Ontario. "I was always tired and the least exertion would put me out for a day or two. I had a pressing pain on the top of my head, pain in the part of my neck, and when I stooped over I could not get up without being because of pain in my back. I did not sleep well, and was nervous at the least noise. I keep house, but I was such a wreck that I could not sweep the floor nor wash the dishes without being down afterwards. A friend brought me some of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for her so I began to take it. With the first bottle I felt brighter and got so I could wash dishes and sweep without being down. Later I became regular again in my monthly terms. I have taken ten bottles all told and am now all better. I can truly say that your wonderful medicine cannot be beaten for putting health and vim into a woman." —Mrs. JAMES H. MACPHERSON, 308 Greenway St., Bertrand, Ont.

BUYERS PROTECTED BY ADVERTISING

Man Who Buys Standard Brands From Local Merchants Knows That He is Getting Full Value for His Money.

Time was when advertising did not occupy the place in the world of trade that it does today. It has not been so very many years ago that the people were suspicious of advertising. They were inclined to believe that the merchant was trying to fool them with his advertising, that he exaggerated the value of the merchandise he advertised and took that method of trying to get them to buy goods that he could not sell by the old established methods of merchandising.

Those days are gone. The public now realizes that it is the greatest beneficiary of advertising.

Advertising has done more in a decade to establish certain standards in merchandise than could have been accomplished in a hundred years by any other agency. The manufacturer who a few years ago merely made and sold clothes now makes and sells the Blank brand of clothes. The man who formerly just made hats now makes Blank's hats. And so it is with everything that one buys today. The manufacturer, by his advertising, has built up his business around a trade name and if he is to continue in business he must protect that trade name by maintaining such a high standard of quality that people when they buy his products will know just what they are getting. The consumer, when he goes into a store today, does not buy merchandise blindly, with the hope that it will prove to be worth the money. He buys standard goods that bear the trade-mark of the manufacturer and that are backed by the reputation not only of the merchant who sells them, but the manufacturer who makes them. This has been brought about by advertising.

No Reputation to Protect
All this applies to the retail merchants as a class but it does not apply to the mail order business. The man or woman who buys goods from a catalogue house is not protected by the manufacturer of the goods, for the reason that most manufacturers who sell goods to the mail order houses do not place their names upon the goods and therefore have no reputation to protect.

The great majority of articles listed and illustrated in the mail order catalogues are included in what is known among manufacturers as "stencil" stuff. These articles bear the name of the mail-order house which sells them instead of that of the manufacturer who makes them. It can readily be understood that any manufacturing concern which turns out goods that do not bear its name or trade-mark is likely to be a very unreliable institution. It is not building up any reputation on the quality of its goods, for its products have nothing to distinguish them from the products of any other concern. With no reputation to sustain and no change of creating a general demand for its goods the only concern of a manufacturing institution of this kind is to make stuff as cheaply as possible in order to obtain the largest possible profit on its products.

Same Price World Over
These facts are chiefly responsible for the generally prevailing idea that the home merchants do not sell goods as cheaply as the mail order house. They do sell the same quality of goods that the mail order house sells as cheaply as the mail order house sells it, but they cannot sell the standard, guaranteed products of responsible manufacturers at the same price at which the mail order house sells its nameless, unbranded merchandise. Standard goods bearing a registered trademark sell for the same price the world over and the manufacturer's guarantee stands back of them when they are sold in the smallest village in the country just the same as when they are sold to the stores of the larger cities.

This is what the national advertising of the manufacturers has done for the consumers of the country. It has enabled them to go into their home stores and buy merchandise which they know from the past experience or from the reputation and guarantee of the manufacturer will give them satisfaction. They are not buying blindly and hopefully when they buy from the merchants in their home towns. They are buying with the knowledge that they are getting their money's worth. When they buy advertised brands they are getting double protection, that which is afforded by the responsibility of the retail merchant and that which is given by the reputation and guarantee of the manufacturer. When they buy the unknown brands of goods that are offered by the mail order houses they are getting neither kind of protection.

A GOOD PRICE
Some of the first cargo of Canadian-store cattle sold in Scotland brought about twelve cents per lb. live weight. That is double the price obtainable for the best stockers sold at present on the Toronto market. Unless steamship rates are put up unreasonably high the export trade should prove profitable.—(Toronto Daily Star).

In our own home towns and villages, hosts of satisfied friends buy RED ROSE TEA today, as they did 28 years ago—because it is still the same good Tea.

Buy a can of RED ROSE COFFEE—its flavour will surely please you.

FROM ALASKA TO PICOTU, N. S.

Hector Commemorative Medal Presented to J. G. Grant.

Picotu, N. S.—An interesting little ceremony took place in the Hotel Wallace parlor before a representative number of citizens, when a Hector commemorative medal was presented to a member of the family of Mr. J. G. Grant, of Wrangel, Alaska. The medal was presented in recognition of the fact that the Grant family had covered more mileage in attending the Hector celebration than any other family in the Dominion. Mr. Grant is a native of Heathbell, N. S., and left these parts some thirty-one years ago for the Klondyke. Eventually he drifted into Alaska, and is now mayor of the town of Wrangel. The last trip made east was in 1915, and this year five of the family made the trip. The presentation was made by Principal C. L. Moore, of Picotu Academy, and the medal was delivered to the youngest member of the family on the present trip. It was indeed a happy thought which suggested such an idea, and the promoters are to be congratulated on their forethought.

THE COLORS OF THE FLAG

Every Canadian boy would do well to memorize this poem by Frederick George Scott, a Canadian poet. It voices the high patriotism and the truest courage.

What is the blue on our flag, boys?
The waves of the boundless sea,
Where our vessels ride in their timeless pride,
And the feet of the winds are free;
From the sun and the smiles of the coral isles
To the ice of the South and North,
With countless tread through tempests dread
The guardian ships go forth.

What is the white on our flag, boys?
The honor of our land,
Which burns in our sight like a beacon light,
And stands while the hills shall stand;

Yea, dearer than fame is our land's great name,
And we fight, wherever we be,
For the mothers and wives that pry for the lives
Of the brave hearts over the sea.

What is the red on our flag, boys?
The blood of our heroes slain
On the burning sands in the wild waste land
And the froth of the purple main,
And it cries to God from the crimsoned sod,
And the crest of the waves out-rolled,

That He sends us men to fight again
As our fathers fought of old.

We'll stand by the dear old flag, boys!
Whatever be said or done,
Though the shots come fast, as we face the blast,
And the foe be ten to one;—
Though our only reward be the thrust of the sword
And a bullet in heart or brain,
What matters one gone, if the flag float on
And Britain be lord of the main?

SOMETHING WRONG

A petition is being circulated throughout Canada by the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, calling for the removal of such members of the Board of Pension Commissioners and of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment "as have shown injustice towards dependents of deceased ex-service men or disabled ex-service men." It is evident from the numerous complaints which are being made by the Veterans' Alliance that a great deal of dissatisfaction exists regarding the way in which the Pension Commissioners have been dealing with the cases of disabled soldiers. The report of the Ralston Commission indicated that there was grave need for reform, and it is a great pity that the recommendations of that report were not enacted into law, so that all possibility of unfair treatment of the men who suffered fighting in the Great War should have been permanently removed.

That the officials of the department should have openly endeavored to influence the Senate to nullify the legislation, which had been passed by the House of Commons, shows that there is need for prompt and drastic readjustment of the situation. That the Pension Commissioners have lost the confidence of the Veterans' Association is indicated by the statement recently given out by Mr. McNeil, of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, as "an instance of the vicious cruelty regarding the dependents of the late Private A. E. Astles. Following discharge in October, 1917, he was awarded a 15 per cent pension for disabilities aggravated and originating on service. This was subsequently increased to 40 per cent and maintained at that rate until he was admitted to hospital for treatment. May 1st, 1920, he was awarded a total disability pension. This was continued until the date of his death, February 2nd, 1922. Death was caused by the disabilities for which he received pension."

Immediate application was made for pension on behalf of the widow and four children. Under two different sections of the Statute she was entitled to pension. Mrs. Astles was compelled to wait nine months for a decision. She finally sought charity, but, living under conditions of hardship, lost one of her children. Finally she was informed that the total disability pension in force for two years had been awarded in error, and that consequently she was not eligible for pension.

On May 4th, 1922, an emphatic protest was made to the Minister and the file discussed with the Secretary and Assistant Chief Medical Adviser of the Board. Both these officials agreed that a serious blunder had been committed and they provided a favorable recommendation. On May 14th this was confirmed by a letter stating that the Commissioners had favorably reconsidered the claim and that adjustment would be carried out. On July 9th, after prorogation of Parliament, J. Paton, the Pension Board Secretary, wrote the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, stating that the Commissioners had given further consideration to the claim and would not award pension until the point of law involved had been favorably decided upon by the Department of Justice.

"Mrs. Astles and her kiddies are legally entitled to pension," says C. Grant MacNeil, Secretary of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance. For over a year they have been forced to live on charity and forlorn hopes. The men who receive comfortable salaries to deal with her claim sneer at her need and bray with technicalities."

This is a statement making concrete charges which cannot be ignored. It is evidence of utter incompetence or of either neglect on the part of those in authority in the department. The Government would be well advised to make a thorough investigation and overhauling of the whole department. Canada cannot afford to allow any set of bureaucratic officials to deprive the dependents of our soldiers of simple justice, and to say rightful treatment, by the country which owes so much to them.—Chronicle.

PUBLIC OPINION THE DOMINANT INFLUENCE

A matter which has been agitated for a considerable length of time, namely the inauguration of an eight hour day at the Steel Plant in Sydney, may be nearer a final and satisfactory settlement than some other matters connected with labor issues. Steps have been taken by the United States Steel Corporation toward providing the eight hour day at their plants to take effect almost immediately. After this is done it is more or less reasonable to suppose that eight hour days will become the rule in the industry. It might be well to note that the concession has not been obtained as a result of strikes but because of the force of public opinion which has been exerted from press, pulpit and in various other ways against eleven and twelve hour days in laborious callings such as this. The results now about to be obtained illustrate very forcibly the part played by public opinion in settling disputed issues. Matters which do not have behind them the force of a pretty strong public opinion are likely to fall by the wayside, and well recognized by progressive factory owners. The result is a less temporary settlement of the analysis public opinion has influenced correctly and that is a factor in the settlement of disputes.

"APPLE BLOSSOMS" MAKES BIG HIT

Allison FitzRandolph and Rebecca McMillan. Mechanical Doll, who played the piano—Impersonated by Marion Fowler—music by Ethel Daniels. "Just Like a Doll," song and dance by Hattie Anderson and Kenneth Leslie. Cherry Blossom—Japanese song and dance with Japanese lanterns and costumes—Ruth Fowler and chorus. Song of Love—Marion Fowler with scart dance by Rebecca McMillan and Anna Marshall. Floral Dance—song by Wm. Donat with dance in old time costume by Misses Hortense Griffin, Ethel Daniels, Hattie Anderson and Lou Troop, very effectively done. Violin Solo, by John Donat. Clog dance, by John Donat, accompanied by the other Jack in the Box, Clarence FitzRandolph. "Maggie Blues," song by Hortense Griffin and Lou Troop—with dance by Misses Griffin, Troop, Daniels and Marshall. Wooden Soldiers—song by Wm. Donat, with dance and chorus. The entire programme was so good that it is difficult to single out any particular numbers as having been more pleasing than the rest. Special mention must be made, however, of "The Life of a Rose". This song was beautifully rendered by Mr. Leslie and exquisitely interpreted by Miss Daniels in a costume dance to a violin accompaniment by Mr. Leslie. Other numbers deserving of special mention are "The Floral Dance" sung by Wm. Donat; "The Lilac Tree", sung by Marion Fowler; "Cherry Blossom", by Ruth Fowler, and "Just Like a Doll", by Hattie Anderson and Kenneth Leslie, while in "Once Upon a Time" Alleen Fay showed a voice of great promise. The orchestra, which played extremely well, was composed of Ross Bishop, Clarence FitzRandolph, John Donat, Miss Doris Weare and Mrs. Leslie.

The clever posters and properties were by Miss Doris Weare and Mr. Owen Graves. Too much praise cannot be given the director and manager, Mrs. Leslie, to whose artistic skill and untiring efforts the success of the Follies is so largely due. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Leslie and to Miss Ethel Daniel of beautiful bouquets of flowers by little Master Douglas Arnold in pages costume, on behalf of the members of the "Follies".

NEW SUPERIOR CHEVROLET

Desired By All For Very Evident Reasons

THE reasons for the remarkable popularity of Chevrolet are very evident to any one who has examined the New Superior Models and compared them with other cars selling at or near their price.

Chevrolet, as a pleasant, comfortable, efficient, economical means of transportation, leaves nothing to be desired. Its construction ensures comfort on the longest trip; its mechanical design makes certain that it will perform as a good car should; its economy of operation is too well known to need comment.

Not only is Chevrolet desired for its ability to do things well, but also for its looks. It is a handsome car—long, low lines, high radiator and cowl, drum type headlamps, crown fenders—and its equipment is absolutely complete and modern.

See Chevrolet first.

12 INNINGS GAME AT KENTVILLE

Bridgetown Puts Up Best Game of Season With the Kentville Team—Loses 2-1.

Kentville defeated Bridgetown on Wednesday afternoon in an exhibition game by a score of two to one in 12 innings. The Middletons baseball team appeared on the field ready to play a league game.

The game was a fine exhibition of ball and developed into a pitchers' battle between Kolosky and Malcolm, with the local pitcher having the best support.

The batting of Lightie, Letch and Simmons and the fielding of Dinjian featured for Kentville. Grimshaw played a fine game for the visitors.

The locals scored their first run in the 5th when Dinjian hit safe stole 2nd and third and crossed the plate on an overthrow.

Bridgetown overthrew the score after two were out in the sixth. Phinney scoring on hits by Homer and R. Donaghy.

Kentville won in the 12th when Simmons hit safe, Walsh and Cox were out, but Lightie came through with a two-bagger and the run came over when Letch hit safe.

The game went to the sixth innings without a score when Dinjian scored by reason of an error by the Bridge-town short stop.

Walsh's brilliant throw from left field saved what looked like a sure enough run for the visitors in the tenth inning.

The game as a whole was a good sports-manlike game of ball and as such was enjoyed by the fans.

AS OTHERS SEE US 'DIVORCE COURTS' IN CANADA

Ottawa.—Marriages in Canada are successful, and families still are loyal to the "till death do us part" tradition. Divorces granted in the Dominion numbered only 544 in 1922, or two-thirds of one per cent. of all the marriages contracted, according to a report just compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Based on population, the report shows, divorces numbered seven to every 100,000 persons. Divorces in the United States, according to official figures for the last year on record, numbered 112 to every 100,000 people.

The 1922 figures, says the report, probably indicate that the wave of divorce due to the war has reached its highest point and is now on the decline. Total decrees granted last year showed a reduction of four compared with 1922. The remarkably low per cent. of divorces shows the stability of Canadian homes and institutions.

Of the total divorces granted, husbands received 316, or about 60 per cent., and wives 228, or about 40 per cent. British Columbia led in decrees issued, with 133, followed by Alberta with 129 and Manitoba with 97. One province, Prince Edward Island, granted no divorces.

The greater per cent. of the divorces were residents of cities. Comparatively few applications were made among the agricultural population. An investigation published by the United States Bureau of Education shows that of all the people in the United States who have performed distinguished service and received high honors, there was:— One person out of each 150,000 who had no schooling.

One person out of each 37,500 with a common school education. One person out of each 1,724 with a high school education. One person out of each 87 with a college education.

The above totals show the comparative chances of no schooling and with the different grades of education. Parents who give their children a common school education give them four times the chance to become a leader and receive distinction that the child of no schooling has. Those who give their children a high school education give them 87 times the chance and the parents who sacrifice and give their children a college education, give them more than 800 times the chance of the child without schooling.

Persons without any school do become leaders and perform notable service, but the number is few. When this investigation was made there were 5,000,000 persons in the United States who had no schooling and only 31 had earned distinction, while there were 1,000,000 with a college education and 5,783 of these had attained distinction.—Financial Post.

FIRE AT ANNAPOLIS

Quite a serious fire broke out shortly after four o'clock Tuesday morning of last week in the barn owned by Charles McCormick, adjoining his property on Saint George Street. The blaze was discovered and the alarm rung in by F. M. Dargie, owner of the adjacent property.

The fire, which practically destroyed the building, is thought to have originated from a short circuit in the wiring of a five-passenger Studebaker car, which occupied the main floor. The car is a total wreck, and a quantity of valuable mahogany furniture which was stored upstairs, is also badly damaged.

The barn was insured for a sum which will partially cover the loss, but there was no insurance on the car.

Miss Doris Healy returned home July 18th, having spent a pleasant two weeks visiting at the home of her friend, Miss Annie Morehouse, of Centreville, Digby Co.

Glad to report Mrs. M. R. Banks well again after quite a serious illness.

Mrs. Wallace Marshall and Mrs. Will Morse, of Arlington, were guests of Mrs. Joshua Banks on July 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Marshall and family, of Port Lorne, spent July 26th at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. A. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Healy visited Mr. and Mrs. David Hall of St. Croix Cove one day last week.

Mrs. Aseneth Brinton, of Port Lorne, is visiting Mrs. Edmund Bent at time of writing.

PENSIONS AND APPEALS

Examination of the new pension and appeal legislation as finally passed by Parliament shows that all vital points in the original measures have been retained. In the amending Pension Act the "insurance" principle has been approved for reinstatement. This alone is probably more far-reaching in its possible effects than any other clause. It restores the principle deleted without authority by the Board of Pension Commissioners nearly two years ago, that pensions are payable on account of injuries, disease, or aggravation of either, and which are attributable to or incurred during military service.

The symptoms of general debility vary according to the cause, but weakness is always present, a tendency to perspire and fatigue easily, ringing in the ears, sometimes black spots passing before the eyes, weak back, vertigo, wakefulness caused by inability to stop thinking and unrefreshing sleep. The cause of the trouble may be some drain on the system, or it may be mental or physical overwork, sometimes insufficient nutrition due to digestive disturbance.

If you have any or all of these symptoms try building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as the new blood courses through your veins there should be an increase in your appetite, a better digestion and soon—a renewal of strength and vigor. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, postpaid, at 50c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ACADIANS DAY AT GRAND PRAIRIE

Big Programme Has Been Arranged For August 23rd. Moncton, N. B.—Rev. A. D. Cormier, of Shediac, announces that the unveiling and blessing of the statue of Our Lady of the Assumption in the church at Grand Prairie, N. S., will take place on August 23rd next.

The programme will open with pontifical high mass and an appropriate sermon by one of the leading Acadian clergymen. In the afternoon there will be speeches by noted speakers. Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, and Hon. D. V. Landry, a former Provincial Secretary, will deliver addresses.

It is announced that the lot of land at the very point where the Acadians were embarked at the time of the expulsion in 1755, has been acquired and a suitable monument will be erected thereon in the near future.

In the meantime, on August 23rd, next, the Acadians will take formal possession of this land. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of people from all parts of the Maritime Provinces, United States and Quebec.

THE HOGGISH MR. DEMPSEY something like $300,000 for performing a few minutes in the ring. Dempsey and his manager Kearns are trusting mortals. They showed it when they insisted upon being paid down to the last cent before staging their fight. Then followed a scene of sordid haggling. Dempsey finally agreeing to take a mortgage on the town or some such thing for the unpaid balance.

The attempt of the little town of Shelby, Montana, to place itself permanently on the map via the pugilistic route was not what could be called a howling success. In fact it is very doubtful if the presence of Mr. Dempsey was worth a tenth of the money which the citizens of that town were obliged to extract from their own pockets in order to see Messrs. Dempsey and Gibbons perform. Dempsey, it will be remembered, was the gentleman who found it inconvenient to fight in the trenches for $1 per day, but who now demands for $1 per day, but who now demands something like $300,000 for performing a few minutes in the ring.

SUMMER CARE OF POULTRY

(Experimental Farms Note). There is a tendency among some people to believe that poultry do not require any special care during the summer months, and may be allowed practically to shift for themselves. While it is true that conditions are more favorable for growing stock, and for egg production in adult stock, yet at no time of the year is more care necessary to prevent disease and vermin than during the warm summer months. Poultry kept in close, stuffy sleeping quarters cannot be kept in the best condition of health, and are fit subjects for the ravages of lice and mites. It would be much better to have wire netting put in place of the glass windows in order that more fresh air might circulate in the house.

A very strict watch must be kept for any evidence of lice or mites as soon as warm weather commences. If lice are present on the birds, treat each bird individually with some Blue Mercury ointment, or some reliable dusting powder, and if red mites are present on the perches or walls, the birds should be removed from the house for a day or two, and the building thoroughly fumigated, followed by a really good cleaning of every part of the interior. A thorough occasional white-washing of the whole interior of the house will make the place more sanitary. Poultry confined to yards where there is no natural shade from the hot rays of the sun should be provided with shelter of some sort; sunflowers or arthrochokes planted in the yards and protected until they get a start, will provide most excellent shelter from the sun. Colony houses scattered through an orchard or cornfield make a very desirable place for the growing stock.

Filthy drinking vessels are the cause of a great many troubles in the poultry yards, which is kept in clean vessels in a sheltered place will benefit the stock to a large extent. Be sure that the young growing stock are well fed, to promote growth, and that they are given liberal rations where there is abundance of green feed and also animal feed in the form of insects, worms, etc.

Cull out the old stock that you do not intend to keep over for another year, and sell them early while the price is higher and while they are in good condition before they commence to moult.

J. D. LANG, Poultryman, Experimental Station, Lennoxville, Que.

She had spent most of her afternoon at the homestead and was returning home, being very deaf she did not hear the warning signal and applied the brakes, but the unfortunate woman stepped directly in front of the train and her body was hurled to the side of the track.

Miss Siverlight made her home with her son, Miss Mary J. Prizel. Her brother, William Siverlight, is the station master at Mapleton, the express was slowing down at the time of the accident, as a stop was to be made at Mapleton station only a short distance from the crossing.

LIBERAL WINS IN BY-ELECTION

Mayor F. L. Kelly, of North Sydney, the Liberal in the by-election in the Cape Breton North and Victoria election on the 31st ult. won by 356 majority over R. H. Butts, the Conservative candidate. Mr. D. McDonald, the Labor candidate, got 1555 votes and loses his deposit. The vote was:— Kelly ..... 4965 Butts ..... 4049 McDonald ..... 1552 Hon. D. D. McKenzie, in the 1921 election had a majority of 2339; but Mr. Kelly's majority is greater than any other candidate has had in this riding for thirty years.

Our conversation indicates the trend of the mind. From this standpoint some minds are shrouded in pessimism, while others see only the bright side. The high cost of neglect of farm machinery is a heavy drain on the farm.

Guard Baby's Health In The Summer

The Summer months are the most dangerous to children. The complaints of that season, which are cholera infantum, colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on so quickly that often a little one is beyond aid before the mother realizes he is ill. The mother must be on her guard to prevent these troubles, or if they do come on suddenly to banish them. No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during hot weather as Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the stomach and bowels and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

New Beauty for Dainty Fabrics

and much longer wear

The two worries you have in washing fine fabrics, dainty garments, are removed. You can launder them now with full confidence that fabric will not be harmed, or delicate colorings dulled.

Silks, satins, crepes, and dainty, expensive cottons come from the wash with new brilliance and beauty. In thousands of homes women are using PALMOLIVE PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES.

These pure white, creamy flakes give a wonderful "softened cream" lather that dissolves dirt magically.

And save money in two ways: By giving longer wear from fine fabric; and, being nothing but pure soap, they last longer—cutting soap cost.

You can't find anything better for use in the washing machine—for, in fact, for all laundry or household use.

In handy one-pound packages or bars. Order some today and begin saving next time you wash.
