WESTERNERS AGAIN DEMAND CONTROL NATURAL RESOURCES

Three Premiers in Ottawa Tomorrow—Final Refusal Is Almost Conceded.

REVIEW OF THE CASE
Ottawa, Dec. 12.—(Special)—This week from Alberta comes Premier Stewart, from Saskatchewan Premier Martin, and from Manitoba Premier Morris, to formulate demands on the federal government for the reversion to the prairie provinces of their natural resources. For fifteen years this has been an issue to the west and it has never imperilled the tenure of office of a government nor assisted its advocates in opposition. But it has been remarkable in illustrating the sudden reversal in principle of western Liberal leaders, who, relying upon the apathy or ignorance of their electorates, have changed their views on this issue over night without engaging their tenure of office. Liberal leaders who fought for federal control are now demanding that the provinces own and administer. Men of the same school who ridiculed and refused to appeal to the privy council on the legality of federal control are now threatening the federal government with such action. One Liberal leader, who supported federal control in two provincial elections, 1905 to 1908, then reversed his position in 1910, is now in the federal cabinet and must decide whether he is "fooling himself" from 1905 to 1910 or from 1910 to 1920.

STOLEN FUR COAT HAS BEEN FOUND

Apparel Worth Three Thousand Dollars Recovered in Montreal.

Detective-Sergeant Cronyn returned from Montreal last night with the $3,000 cash which was stolen several weeks ago from a wagon outside the Holt Renfrew Co., Adelaide and Yonge streets.

The coat was recovered thru information supplied by Thos. Sinclair, who was arrested in Montreal on charges of receiving stolen goods. The coat was recovered from the wagon which was standing outside the Holt Renfrew store, where it had been sent for storage by the owner, Sinclair is alleged to have stolen it from the wagon and to have shipped it to Montreal, later following it himself, and disposing of it.

SAYS TORONTO VOTE IS ALMOST INSULT

Cornwall Pastor Belittles Unemployment Grant—Refers to "Woodbine Pleasures."

Cornwall, Ont., Dec. 12.—Speaking of the condition in Toronto, St. John's Presbyterian Church here this morning, Rev. Hugh Munroe, M.A., pastor, strongly urged the need at the present time of service as a life motive. Wherever covetousness, as shown in commercialism, is allowed free sway, he said, appalling evils of corruption and inhumanity flow.

As an illustration, Mr. Munroe referred to the condition in Toronto, where 9,000 soldiers are said to be unemployed. The great majority of these were born outside of the Dominion of Canada, it was urged that we do not intrust our obligation to these men lightly.

Ten Cents From Each. Nearly all had long service records. To a city like Toronto to set aside $50,000 seemed like an insult. This would not be ten cents for each inhabitant, nor would it mean that more than $5 for each soldier. This is not enough for a city which can spend millions on a few days' pleasure at the Woodbine.

EUROPEAN HORDES HEAD FOR CANADA

Thousands of Refugees From Central and Eastern Europe Are Attempting Invasion, and Creating Difficult Situation—Immigration Department Disclaims Responsibility.

Ottawa, Dec. 12.—A difficult immigration situation is the result of an attempted invasion of Canada and the United States by thousands of refugees from central and eastern Europe. Action on the part of the Canadian parliament to check the movement may be found necessary at the coming session unless the present law and regulations prove sufficient to control the situation.

During the past few days the minister of immigration has received telegrams from many parts of Canada urging that Jewish immigrants now in the country be allowed to remain in Canada. Jews of means offered to deliver to the government bonds covering any required amount of guaranteeing that no Jews permitted to enter Canada with a specified time will become public charges during any specified period.

FIRST DEFECTIONS IN ITALIAN ARMY

Three Armored Cars Succeed in Reaching D'Annunzio's Headquarters.

Trieste, Dec. 12.—The first break in the regular Italian army occurred Saturday, when four armored cars started from Udine, three of which succeeded in reaching the palace of Gabriele D'Annunzio in Fiume. The fourth car was prevented from reaching its destination by a sentinel, who threw under its wheels obstacles which cut the tires, bringing it to a halt. The crew of the car, however, escaped and managed to reach Fiume on foot.

General Cavaglia, the Italian commander on Saturday went to Abbazia, Istria, known as "Nice of Italy," where he had conference with the commanders who are opposing the forces of D'Annunzio.

It is stated that owing to the impossible position of D'Annunzio, the government intends to send an ultimatum to him containing the threat of an offensive action. It is reported, however, that D'Annunzio would welcome any military demonstration.

FRANCE'S WAR LOSS STILL INDEFINITE

Delegates Are Going to Reparations Conference Without Exact Figures.

Paris, Dec. 12.—The French delegates to the Brussels reparations conference are going there without any exact figures as to the damages France sustained by reason of the war, according to the newspapers. Various organs, however, declare that they recognize that the Brussels conference will be only the preliminary stage and serve a useful purpose, even if definite propositions are not evolved.

Estimates made by the various French ministries of France's damages are said to total 230,000,000 francs, but Louis Dubois, president of the reparations commission, is reported to be dissatisfied with the form in which the documents were prepared and has refused to present them to the reparations commission. Therefore, it is asserted, a new set of figures are being prepared in accordance with the ideas of M. Dubois, but they will not be ready for two weeks.

Some of the newspapers contrast the high rank of the other representatives at Brussels with the official positions of the French delegates, M. Croisson and M. Seydoux, but all of them agree that as the Brussels conference will be a technical meeting, it is adequate to send technical experts. The French delegates are commented on as being able men, particularly M. Seydoux, who is declared to be endowed with a remarkable brain.

CAPTURE IN DUBLIN OF COMPLETE PLANT FOR MAKING BOMBS

Two Hundred Explosive Machines in Course of Manufacture Found.

Dublin, Dec. 12.—Dublin Castle's account of the Saturday's bomb plant, fully describes the factory as extensively and completely equipped with furnaces and machinery of a modern character. No workers were there at the time, but the moulds were still warm as the bombs had been freshly cast. Two hundred bombs in various stages of manufacture were found.

There was evidence, says the castle report, that the filling of the bombs was done in an extremely haphazard and dangerous manner, as detonators and loose powder mixed with all kinds of cartridges and scales of salignite and other explosives were found lying around the place.

HALCROW TO LEAD LABOR IN HOUSE

I. L. P. Appoints Hamilton Member—Unemployment Discussed.

The appointment of George Halcrow, M.L.A. for East Hamilton, as house leader of the Labor group in the provincial legislature, was announced Saturday.

George Halcrow, of Niagara Falls, and Mayor MacBride of Brantford were other nominees for the office of leader, but Mr. Halcrow, following Mayor MacBride's withdrawal, secured the first ballot.

The unemployed problem was dealt with at considerable length, the conclusion of the meeting being that the immediate requirement was not theoretical relief projects, but practical assistance to deserving families.

TO DEAL SHARPLY WITH MURDERERS

Officer Commanding "Republican Army" in Monaghan Issues Proclamation.

Dublin, Dec. 12.—A proclamation declaring that "the public must at once realize that Ireland is in a state of war with forces of the British crown," was issued over the signature of the officer commanding troops of the "Irish Republican Army" in County Monaghan.

The proclamation, which sets forth that armed gangs in County Monaghan have been attacking and murdering inoffensive citizens, says that "while we extend the hand of friendship to all Irishmen, murder gangs and their guides and informers shall be summarily dealt with."

The proclamation further explains recent raids for arms carried out in County Monaghan by stating they were ordered in anticipation of a similar order by the British government.

PART OF CORK CITY DESTROYED INCLUDING PUBLIC BUILDINGS FOLLOWING AMBUSH OF CADETS

Further Casualties In Raid and Ambush

Dublin, Dec. 12.—At Shankill, near Dublin, during raid yesterday by the military on a local club, when the club members were ranged against a wall with hands raised for the purpose of identification, William Owens, a clerk, was shot dead by some unknown person from the outside. A soldier was killed and two others were wounded, one of them seriously, when a military party was ambushed near Parnoy last Friday by armed civilians. The casualties among the attacking party are not known.

PRESS FOR ACTION ON PUBLIC WORKS

Labor and Returned Soldier Organizations to Unite in Appeal.

While the unemployment situation in the city has its serious aspects, it is believed by those in close touch with conditions that the outlook is by no means so grave as has been intimated in some quarters. The most extreme estimate is that 25,000 persons are out of work in Toronto, but it should be remembered that in the winter of 1914 no fewer than 38,000 persons registered themselves as workless. Moreover, the present situation offers more hope of relief in a short time than did that of six years ago.

EDUCATION SERVES A SMALL SECTION

Dr. McKay, Principal of Technical School, Says Not Practical Enough.

The opinion that the present educational facilities of the city and province were serving only a small section of the citizens was expressed by Dr. A. C. McKay, principal of the Technical School, when he addressed the students Saturday evening in the Labor Temple of the Independent Labor Party Forum. Vocational education, he declared, is either professional, agricultural, domestic, commercial or industrial, and he argued, only the first of these classifications did local facilities generally cater.

The newspaper correspondents attending the assembly of the League of Nations were especially invited to the demonstration, and understood quite clearly messages spoken by Lord Curzon and Lord Riddell from Cheshamford, Essex, five hundred miles away.

WESTERNERS AGAIN DEMAND RESOURCES

Sir Frederick Haultain and Hon. A. L. Sifton, in their "bill of rights," the resolution of the Ontario Territorial Legislature, asked for provincial autonomy, control of the natural resources, and the benefit of other parts of Canada. This received unanimous support in the Dominion committee.

Win for Federalists. In 1905 elections the Liberals supporting federal control won in both provinces. Again, in 1908, they won on the same issue. Hon. Sifton was appointed to, and returned to political life. He saved his party, but forced it to reverse its policy on control of natural resources.

Came March on Ottawa. After the cabinet came the march on Ottawa. There arrived in 1913 to meet the new government Hon. A. Sifton, Hon. Edmund Byrne and Hon. Walter Scott. They presented the Haultain-Sifton "bill of rights" Premier Borden had opposed these demands for six years, were in a militant mood and they were not immediately granted.

SOVIET TAKES HAND IN GREEK AFFAIRS

London, Dec. 12.—The Russian soviet government has suddenly taken part in the Greek troubles by sending a strong note of protest to Great Britain, France and Italy, against their "brutal interference in the affairs of the Hellenic people," according to a Moscow despatch to The Daily Herald.

The soviet does not threaten any action on behalf of Greece, but it predicts that the Greek laboring masses "soon will free themselves from the uncollected tutelage of imperialist powers."

The soviet has no sympathy with monarchism in Greece, Tchitcherin is reported as saying, "but it has a good deal with a people which, like its own, has resolved, in an inadequate manner, against the policy of the late government imposed upon it by an imperialist regime with the aid of foreign bayonets."

The Russian government, therefore, while utterly repudiating the justifications of the late government in using Russia's position as one of the three protecting powers in Greece, and correspondingly denouncing similar actions in Greece by Great Britain and France, nevertheless in the name and principle of the right of every nation to determine its own political administration and select its rulers, protests against the brutal and interference with the internal affairs of the Hellenic people now committed by the allied governments.

Why Gas Costs More. This year we paid increased taxes to the amount of $50,000 or $240,175.78 in all.

Why Gas Costs More. We paid $117,357.17 as a premium on exchange on our purchases of coal and other commodities in United States this past year.

Why Gas Costs More. High rates have been paid to labor, because of the increased cost of living; and had it not been for a wise policy of providing an effective system of labor-saving equipment the cost of gas would have been higher than it is.

Why Gas Costs More. There is no advantage to our shareholders in increasing the price of gas, because the dividend rate is fixed by law, and all surplus must go to reduce the price of gas.

NEWSPRINT FACES
KEEN COMPETITION

Scandinavian Products Vied
With Canadian Output
in U. S. Market.

New York, Dec. 11.—Representatives of a number of the leading Canadian pulp and paper companies arrived in New York yesterday and are holding a series of private conferences with a number of United States publishers. It is understood that the question of the price of newsprint for 1921 has entered largely into the discussion.

Recent importations of paper from the Scandinavian countries have indicated that Canadian mills during the coming year will meet with ever-increasing competition in the United States market. It is reported that several big United States publishers believe that a slump in price is coming as a result of the increased importations of paper from the Scandinavian countries.

Killing the Goose.
Announcement was made last week by the G. H. Mead Company, which markets the product of the Abitibi and Spanish River mills in the United States, that its contract price for the first six months of 1921 would be seven cents. The price of the Canadian Export Paper Company, which acts as United States sales agency for most of the other large Canadian mills, will not be increased over the present 6 1/2 cents during the first quarter of 1921.

The International will maintain the same figure, while the Great Northern has renewed all contracts for the whole year at 5 cents.

Canadians here who are interested in the export trade of the Dominion are of the opinion that the move of the Mead Company in increasing the price is likely to have a detrimental effect upon Canada's sales to the United States.

They point out that Swedish and Japanese paper is now available here at 6 1/2 cents, and that there are indications that there will be a big supply available from those sources. There are indications that many United States publishers will look to Europe for supplies if the Canadian price goes to seven cents.

In the meantime newsprint prices under control on the first of January will go to unprecedented levels. On that date most Canadian and United States newspapers will be paying $130 and $140 a ton as compared with $80 to $90 a year ago, and with around $40 a ton four years ago.

Belmont Distrusts
STAND OF ASQUITH
Newspapers Commend Lloyd
George's Determination to Press Present Bill.

Belfast, Dec. 11.—Criticism of the government's new policy toward Ireland was general in the newspaper comment here today, the objections being based on varying reasons. The Unionist press looks with suspicion upon the proposed Sinn Fein party. It points out that the government's statement was made on the invitation of former Premier Asquith, an advocate of out-and-out dominion home rule, who was apparently aware of its tenor. The Unionist newspapers, however, find comfort in the premier's promise to Ronald McNeill, to proceed with the Irish home rule bill.

With regard to the government's expected willingness to meet Sinn Fein members of parliament not guilty of crimes, The Irish News, which usually voices the views of Joseph Devlin, points out that two Sinn Fein members have decided to stay in jail, and that at least a dozen are in prison and that perhaps a score or more are "on the run," and it adds:

"Mr. Lloyd George's proposal resolves itself into the suggestion that those Sinn Fein members of parliament to whom Dublin Castle may give certificates of character can avail themselves of governmental safe conducts, and possibly meet some persons named under conditions otherwise unspecified to discuss the position of affairs without having any legal under which to raise even academic debate, and the bill for the partition of Ireland is to be signed by the King before Christmas, whatever may befall."

IRISH SOLUTION
STILL POSSIBLE
Bonar Law and Baron Birkenhead Make Significant Speeches.

London, Dec. 11.—Debate on the government's Irish policy is expected to be opened in the house of commons by Liberal leaders on Monday. Announcement of martial law in southwestern Ireland, made by Premier Lloyd George before the house yesterday, was accompanied by intimations that debate on the subject was not desired, but it appears probable the commons may be called upon to decide whether the cabinet's plans regarding Ireland are to be carried into execution without the acquiescence of the legislative branch of the government. This question, should it come to a vote, would test the stability of the Lloyd George cabinet.

Also the declaration of martial law in Ireland has been decided upon by the premier and his colleagues, the door to negotiations between the government and the Sinn Fein has not been closed. Sinn Fein members of parliament who desire to come to London to discuss means of ending the disturbing situation in their island are offered safe conducts, but men against whom charges of crime have been lodged will not be granted this concession.

It was pointed out today that the statement made by Baron Birkenhead, the lord chancellor, during the course of the debate on the home rule

SMALL IS ALIVE, MITCHELL'S VIEW

Clues Do Not Lead Back to Toronto, He Says in Montreal.

Montreal, Dec. 11.—Detective Austin R. Mitchell, of the Toronto police force, in charge of the investigation into the disappearance of Ambrose Joseph Small, the Toronto theatrical magnate, said last night that his trip to Montreal had been fairly satisfactory, although nothing of a startling or sensational nature has yet been uncovered. Mitchell has been in Montreal for three days.

"I have not been following the principal lead in my work in Montreal," said Mr. Mitchell. "I have been working on one of the important branches which may lead to something worth while."

Asked whether the results of his search here pointed back to Toronto, he replied, "No, what I find here does not lead me back to Toronto. Some features of the Montreal end of the case seem to point outside of Montreal, but not in the direction of Toronto."

PREMIER OFFERS PEACE OR SWORD

London Press Views on Irish
Policy Vary Very Widely.

London, Dec. 11.—Comment in this morning's newspapers relative to the government's Irish policy was, for the most part, restrained. The feature of the premier's speech that did not escape notice was the fact he was, in effect, holding an olive branch in one hand and the sword in the other. It evoked some questioning, but, generally speaking, was not regarded as banishing hope of success.

"Few will question the wisdom and propriety of the new policy," says The London Times, "if the government shows a true and settled purpose to encourage the forces making for honorable settlement. Martial law under responsible control is preferable to the existing system of indiscriminate and lawless reprisals."

PALACE FOR PONZI WITH VIEW OF OCEAN

Plymouth Jail Has Showers,
Steam Heat and Nice

Boston, Dec. 11.—Quarters that are palatial when compared with the average jail await Charles Ponzi, convicted "get-rich-quick" manipulator, in the Plymouth house of correction on Cape Cod. Ponzi will have his choice of 98 vacant rooms when serving the five-year sentence imposed by the federal court in Boston, and he may gain his freedom in less than two years under the conditions of parole applying to federal prisoners.

Here are some of the comforts he will have:
Every room an outside one and swept by ocean breezes as the house of correction faces the sea; steam heat, electric lights, telephone and shower baths. He will be entitled to one plug of tobacco a week, and may buy cigars and cigars as he pleases.

The present sheriff who will have supervision over Ponzi's confinement is Major Earl P. Blake, member of Governor Coolidge's staff. The sheriff, by the way, never calls them "prisoners," but compromises on "inmates."

FARMERS DEMAND FEDERAL COUNSEL

Only Way to Prevent Unfair
Freight Rates in West,
Say Agrarians.

Winnipeg, Dec. 11.—The Canadian Council of Agriculture has telegraphed Premier Meighen at Ottawa to urge that the government appoint legal counsel and railway experts to argue before the railway board on December 14, on behalf of eastern and western Canada, on the alleged discrimination against the west in the matter of freight rates.

N. P. Lambert, secretary, has sent the following wire to the premier: "With regard to announced sitting of railway commissioners on December 14 to consider the allegation that an unjust discrimination now exists against western Canada as compared with eastern Canada, the Canadian Council of Agriculture, in full session, instructed its executive to urge the federal government to appoint counsel and experts representing east and west to take this matter before the railway board and have issue decided. In urging this recommendation, the executive of the council believes the issue is of great national importance and not to be left to argument amongst the various independent commercial associations and interests, many of which already have reached the limit of their ability to stand further expense in appearing before the railway board."

GOOD INFLUENCE IS DEAN'S THEME

Yale University Preacher Points Lessons in Convocation Hall Sermon.

The influence of the good life was the theme which Dean C. R. Brown of Yale University treated yesterday morning in presenting the university sermon at Convocation Hall. The speaker lent a timely significance to his subject by showing the influence exerted by national character upon recent and current world fates.

"In 1914," he remarked, "the nations of central Europe possessed sufficient wealth and brilliancy to usher in the millennium. It could have come from such a source. But they lacked the essentials of goodness, and the four years which they brought to the world were the very reverse of the millennium."

"Again today the United States has sufficient wealth, brains and administrative ability in political and industrial fields to lead the world with a peace which should be as enveloping as the waves of the ocean. But the sad fact remains that we lack sufficient character, sufficient appreciation of the justice by which alone industry and class difficulties can be solved. And so we have not peace, but a dangerous unrest, which underlies all our American life, and which showed itself in the recent tragedy in Wall street."

Dean Brown took as his text the passage from the New Testament, in which the sick are spoken of as being placed by the wayside in order that they may fall within the shadow of the passing apostle, Peter. The influence of the good life, he continued, was like that of Peter's shadow, personal, unconscious and inevitable.

The influence of Peter, as stressed by the dean, was wholly personal. It was not the variety which is delegated to a committee, but rather that which depends solely upon individual effort. It was not a matter of the moment that the apostle had become aware of the potency attached to his shadow and had gloried in it, as the virtuous woman would have extinguished it.

CONSCIENCE CLEAR, BUT DEFRAUDED CITY

Confession is made in a letter to the city hall that $1,000 on the life of a man was collected from the city on a false plea. Four years ago the parents applied for a life insurance on their son's life, declaring that he had fulfilled the conditions by residing in Toronto for six months before enlisting. The money was paid to them at the rate of $30 a month. The father now writes that the son was not a resident of Toronto for six months and that the affidavit was improper. He says he is not financially able to make restitution and offer.

"Having made this confession, I feel that my conscience is now free and void of offence and unclouded."

HOUSING QUESTION POIGNANT PROBLEM

One of the Causes of Labor Unrest, Declares Speaker at Forum.

Poignant criticism of the housing problem in both eastern and western Canada and the present extraordinary lack of employment in the manufacturing centres featured the address of J. W. Bruce, member of the labor appeal board, who addressed a large gathering at the Open Forum yesterday afternoon. Mr. Bruce had special knowledge of the subject, since he was one of a royal commission on industrial relations, which toured Canada last year investigating the industrial problems of the country.

Mr. Bruce, in opening his address, stated that the primary function of the commission was to make a survey and to obtain information of the causes of unemployment, and that the commission was to be made up of representatives of employers and employees, respectively.

Turning to the question of unemployment, Mr. Bruce pointed out that the situation was more pronounced in western Canada than in the east, since labor in the west had been suffering from unemployment since the time was not far distant when labor was working fourteen hours a day and was being paid, which he denounced as sheer slavery.

Visit to Labor Bureau. The speaker then told of a visit to a labor bureau in Toronto. He books vacancies for 1500 on farms, and a waiting list of 800 unemployed who could not be induced to accept farm jobs, adding that the chief reason the men was the isolation and the low wages paid, while the wages paid were insufficient to maintain a family in the urban districts. The working man could not be satisfied by temporary jobs since the fear of unemployment was still on his mind.

In discussing the housing question the speaker told of a visit to a house in Vancouver, where they found the man, a woman and three children, all sleeping in one room. He said that in the Dominion, adding that there was nothing more likely to place the man to revolve it was this vile state of affairs that the industrial and trade unions, Mr. Bruce stated that the organized labor, a position, which was not likely to be accepted by the country, scored the National Chiropractic Union, who through the Rev. Father Hebert, had placed the plea that arbitration should be used to settle the matter.

Another Hostel for Soldiers' Children. New Home on Jarvis Street Will Accommodate About Fifty Needy Youngsters.

The third of the hostels, maintained by the soldiers' aid commission for the orphan or dependent children of men who have seen service, will this week receive its first quota of little soldiers.

The new hostel, which is situated at the head of Jarvis street, just south of Bloor, is a handsome old residence which has been adapted to its new purpose, and very little in the way of alteration has been necessary.

Already the dormitories are ready to receive white coats invitingly made up, and with the exception of a couple of additional beds, the house is complete.

Miss K. Kinderley, who is supervising the construction of hostels for soldiers' aid commission, has moved her headquarters from Pembroke street to Jarvis street, and has her quarters in the building, which is the engaging of the staff by a sister.

The new hostel will accommodate about 50 children.

Voices are barometers that tell many things if we but listen. When we heard the full, rich voice of Mme. D'Alvarez over the phone it told at once that she was a woman with a direct open personality to whom anything artificial was as opposed as are the north and south poles.

In answer to the knock at the door of the Kings Edward Hotel, the same rich voice said, "Come in," and we met the owner of the voice, the woman who has won the world over as the first to sing in Westminster Abbey. Madame's appearance is in keeping with her voice. More Italian than French.

When the singer expressed a little surprise at this statement, Madame's intellectual face lighted enthusiastically and she threw out her hands in an expansive gesture.

NOTING IRREGULAR IN HARBOR CONTRACT

ACCEPTED LOWEST TENDER

Chief Engineer E. L. Cousins, of the harbor commission, has issued a statement of all the factors pertaining to the signing of a contract with the Canadian-Stewart Co. in 1913.

He has given the Harbor Board his hearty support, believing this to be the first step towards making Toronto an ocean port.

The second step is the bringing into being of the Harborways System—and he is of the opinion that no stone should be left unturned looking to the consummation of this great work.

Under date of September 15, 1913, order-in-council (P.C. 2350) was passed dealing with tenders received for the construction of the harbor works in Toronto harbor.

Five tenders were received by the commission and opened in the board room in the presence of the board, harbor commission officials, and representatives of the contracting firms tendering thereon.

The following sealed tenders were numbered as received, and opened in the same order:

Name of tender—1. Messrs. Crowell, Sherman & Stalter Co., price per cubic yard, 20c; 2. Canadian Stewart Co., Ltd., 18c; 3. Sir John Jackson (Canada), Ltd., 20c; 4. Anglo-Canadian Contractors, Ltd., 24c; 5. Messrs. Harris and Harris, to price.

Note—No. 5 provided for harbor commission to pay actual cost of work plus rental on plant used, and $100,000 to Messrs. Harris and Harris for management of contract.

The tenders were then referred to the chief engineer, the consulting engineer and secretary for their report relative thereto.

Under date of June 2, 1913, a joint report signed by the above officials was forwarded to the commission, accompanied by a report from Solicitor McMaster relative to tenders Nos. 2 and 3 with deposit cheque.

Accepted Stewart Contract. At the meeting of the commissioners on June 2, 1913, the following minute (65) was passed:

"The engineer, consulting engineer, solicitor and secretary presented their report on the tenders for dredging in connection with the waterfront development received by the commissioners on May 28. The reports pointed out that two tenders, No. 2—Canadian Stewart Company, Limited, and No. 3—Sir John Jackson (Canada), Ltd., were very close, but that if the commissioners decided to insist on the retention of the marked cheque accompanying the tender and its deposit to their account, tender No. 3 would be 20 1/2 cents per cubic yard as against 19 3/4 cents for tender No. 2.

The solicitor also pointed out that the tender of Sir John Jackson Company contained a clause that the tender was subject to formal contract being approved on our behalf, and that the result of this clause might be that after the acceptance of the tender by the commissioners, the company might insist on conditions which would result in no contract being made.

"The commissioners decided unanimously that the deposit cheque would be retained as security and deposited to their account and on this basis the official recommendation of acceptance of tender No. 2, that of the Canadian Stewart Company, it was moved by Commissioner Goulay and carried that the commissioners decide to negotiate further with the Canadian Stewart Company regarding the completion of the contract and the engineer and solicitor were authorized to carry on such negotiations and report later to the commissioners."

SALVATION CALLED MATTER OF BELIEF

Rev. J. Inkster Gives Forceable Address at Knox Church Special Service.

"Does it matter what a man believes?" was the subject taken by Rev. John G. Inkster, B.A., preaching the first of a week's special series of sermons in Knox Church, Spadina avenue, last night.

"God's sake believe something," he admonished the young people, referring to the late Dr. Joseph Parker's appeal to the youth of London in 1900.

"If that appeal was necessary in 1900," said Mr. Inkster, "it is most assuredly necessary in Toronto in 1920. How many of the young men and women attending this hall do you know who know something of the trouble and temptation to young men and women released here from certain restrictions of home life. How easy it is to be carried away into blank oblivion. The devil believes and trembles."

The preacher's sermon, consisted of Bible verses to prove the need of belief in God, and the familiarity of Scripture to make man wise unto eternal life.

To Much Hate. "He that believeth shall not make haste," he quoted, "but such haste they have no time for anything. A man who believes will take time."

"He that believeth shall not be confounded," I would like to know one man in civilized life today who is not confounded with many problems. But the Bible says: 'He that believeth shall not be confounded.'"

"Who hath faith unless he hath belief," Mr. Inkster continued. "Then we are told that 'All that believed were of one mind.' Think of it. If we had all the same beliefs, we would be of one mind! The world is in chaos and we expect anything else when people have not the fear of a loving God in their hearts."

All Things Possible. "You can get me moved, you can heal the sick; it is being done literally today; all things are possible to him that believeth," the speaker said. "Let me tell you it does not matter what a man believes. All the world is filled with chaos because of unbelief. It is unbelief that is the cause of the unrest in the world. It does not matter what you believe, so long as you are sincere, it is another misleading statement. Christian science is one of the most damnable doctrines ever preached on the face of the earth," the speaker declared.

"It is the Christian Scientists, the Spiritualists and the so-called Bible Students that are changing the truth into a lie."

"It is not a matter of what you believe as long as you do right was quoted as another fallacy. 'There is no second chance,' he preached by the Bible 'and you are saved by the grace of God, and nothing else.'

Church is Powerful. "The real church was never so powerful as it is today, but there is, too, a great apostate church in the world. Let us make our religion our business. If the church of God were not a divine institution, it would be the most worthless thing on earth. Let our religion be cheap, but a holy thing."

"Every sinner that cries out says: 'What must I do?' Do nothing; just believe. 'Church with all her mistakes is the one thing that is saving the world today,' he declared, "and he is 'or hell' that refined Rome, France and Germany."

After a chase of several blocks, thru lanes, over fences and freight cars standing on the G.T.R. tracks in the vicinity of Front street, near Spadina avenue, plainclothesmen of Claremont Street Police Division yesterday afternoon arrested three young men on a charge of breaking into Northrup & Lyman Co., wholesale druggists, 492 West Wellington street.

During the chase, the detectives claim that the men emptied their pockets of their watches, 400 brushes, tooth paste, perfumes, besides freeing their arms of parcels containing similar articles.

The men taken in custody were: Frank Sanchez, 125 York street; Morris Lane, Markham street, and Joseph Weng, 677 West Richmond street. The three were arrested by Plainclothesmen McDermott, Dickson, Koester and Wilson.

The plainclothesmen discovered the burglary while driving along West Wellington street in the police auto. Upon examining the premises they found a rear window broken and things within a disarray. Getting back into the car they returned to Front street, where they saw three men with parcels under their arms. Becoming suspicious they drove up to the curb alongside the men and as they were about to alight, the three took to their heels, all separating.

EXPECT TO PASS IMMIGRATION BILL

Congressmen Favoring Two-Year Bar Confident of Killing Amendment.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The senate and house will convene tomorrow, with leaders hopeful of passage before adjournment of the first major legislation to be voted on at this session of congress.

The senate will resume its consideration of the agriculture committee resolution directing revival of the war finance corporation and the extension by the federal reserve system of liberal credits to farmers.

The informal understanding has been reached to bring the resolution to a vote before 3 p.m. tomorrow. The roll call on the measure is expected to be preceded by an attempt to strike out the provision relating to credit extension by the federal reserve system on the ground that it is unnecessary and useless.

The measure is expected to be completed today, its passage completed rapidly to a final vote on the Johnson bill to prohibit immigration. The measure as amended by the house in the committee of the whole would stop immigration for one year instead of for two years, as originally drafted. Advocates of the longer term have organized at congressmen held today to eliminate the one-year amendment when the measure comes before the house sitting in regular session.

Representative Baker, Democrat, California, assistant chairman of the immigration committee in urging enactment of the bill, said tonight that he expected the measure's supporters would have sufficient strength to vote down the amendment. Ultimate passage of the bill is regarded as assured.

The proposed resolution to repeal most of the war-time laws will have the right of way in the house after disposition of the immigration bill.

DENIES STUDENTS DANCE ON U.S. FLAG

Montreal, Dec. 12.—The statement that a howling mob of McGill University students tore down an American flag in Montreal on November 20, and spat on it, trampled it underfoot and then did a snake dance on the soiled and trampled remnants is wholly and unqualifiedly untrue. The entire story, which follows established on these false premises is equally untrue.

The above is the statement tonight of General Sir Arthur Currie, principal of the McGill University, when his attention was drawn to the issue of The Boston Sunday Advertiser of today's date, claiming that a desecration of the American flag had been perpetrated by McGill students at a dinner attended by campus leaders in the recent McGill strike.

The paper further states "that the incident has been called to the attention of United States Consul-General Halstead, who has not considered the story seriously."

The Russian Peril.

One would think that Lenin and Trotsky had their hands full at home, yet many European observers insist that they are none the less conducting a far-flung propaganda abroad. Among other things, they are said to be establishing schools in many countries for teaching Bolshevik doctrine in precise terms and words easy to understand. That might not be an unexcused evil, since by dint of calling this, that and the other person a "Bolshevik" the word has come to lose much of its force and nearly all of its meaning. We undoubtedly had the Soviet for a time in Winnipeg, and its wings and claws are the nearest we have come to first-hand information respecting the Bolsheviks and their doctrines in Canada. The sample was evidently not to the taste of the Canadian people, and perhaps information secured from the Winnipeg incident will be all we require for a long time to come.

The real Russian peril will be found, we venture to think, in the possibility of German penetration and German control of the gigantic empire about which it is so difficult for us to get any accurate information. The Lenin and Trotsky regime has lasted much longer than anyone deemed possible a year or two ago, and is already on speaking terms with the governments of Great Britain and the United States. Temptation to trade with a country so vast in population and so rich in natural resources is almost irresistible, and the information as to what the Russians have to trade with is more interesting than convincing. Vast stores of wheat, flax and oil are said to be available for speedy shipment and as a basis for huge credits. But the lack of transportation facilities and the general disorder prevailing throughout the country makes anything of the kind improbable.

But Russia is there, a great, big, human fact of the world, cannot get around, spreading over half continental Europe and a third of Asia. Her people constitute something like one-fourth of the world's white population. Their overhead machinery of national government, never of the best, may be badly disorganized, but they had, at least before the war, a well-developed system of communes or municipalities. The great majority of the people probably know or care little about the government at Petrograd, but furnish man and money thru their municipalities as requisitioning in much the same way as they did under the imperial regime. A community can, after all, carry on after a fashion no matter what government is in power, no matter what revolution or even civil war may be devastating the land.

Should German agents and sympathizers get hold of the central government they might be able to mobilize men and money in Russia in a menacing way. Lenin is quoted as saying that the Bolsheviks and the Germans are today in entire accord, but that sooner or later they will come to the parting of the ways. He says the Germans seek only revenge, while the Bolsheviks seek revolution. But the Germans who helped to put Lenin and Trotsky in power may find a way to supplant them before the forks of the road are reached.

Irish Emigration.

Emigration from Ireland, which almost stopped during the war, has begun again. The number of emigrants for 1920 will not reach previous levels, but there is every indication that a much larger number of people will be leaving the Emerald Isle for new homes in 1921. Naturally, the movement has caused considerable controversy. Unionists claim that the rising tide of emigration shows a disposition on the part of young men in the south of Ireland to defy the Sinn Fein mandate, which brands every emigrant as a deserter. On the other hand, it is pointed out that 4,000 of the 11,000 emigrants left from the province of Ulster.

The great majority of the emigrants went to the United States. During the past thirty years the flood of emigration from Ireland to this continent fell off perceptibly as compared with the preceding thirty years. This was due in part to the very considerable Irish emigration to Australia, and also to the greatly improved conditions in Ireland which followed the land legislation of the Balfour government. The peasant proprietor bid fair to be a fixture, and it was confidently predicted at one time that the large number of landowners in Ireland would tend to make that country conservative. Why these hopes have been disappointed, we need not for the moment discuss. The fact that many Irish people are pre-

The Murphy Charges.

The charges of Hon. Charles Murphy respecting the juggling of the soldiers' votes at the last Dominion election will cause no great excitement. Whatever irregularities may have occurred the fact is beyond dispute that an overwhelming majority of the Canadian people in 1917 desired the return of the Union government. They had their way and the government was given a big majority in the house. If that majority were too large, time has apparently redressed the grievance, since in one way or another it has been reduced from 70 to 50.

With the best intentions in the world, there were bound to be some irregularities in the taking and recording of the soldier vote. The safeguards built up by years of experience around the ordinary election could not be had in the case of soldiers voting in the field and thousands of miles away from home. In the American Civil War it was freely charged that the soldiers were voted en bloc in favor of the government, perhaps upon the principle enunciated by Koko in the opera "The Mikado." Having solemnly reported the decapitation of a man who turned up a few minutes after, alive and well, Koko explained this apparent discrepancy by saying "When the Mikado orders a man executed he is executed; why not say so at once and be done with it?"

Undoubtedly the soldiers overseas wanted reinforcements and were in favor of conscription and the return of the Union government. Whatever irregularities may have occurred did not do justice to irregularities nor does it make good any title to a seat in the house which is not valid under the law. On the contrary, irregularities deserve censure.

Still, the outstanding fact remains that the people at home and the soldiers in the field got what they wanted, at the time, at least. The will of the people was carried out. The election of 1917 is a thing of the past, and it is in the highest degree unlikely that we will ever have another election under a strain so severe, under circumstances so intense, or under circumstances so unusual. If years to come let us hope for many, many years, our elections will be held amid the conditions of peace and surrounded by all the safeguards which make any great fraud or even grave irregularity in an election almost out of the question.

Will Crerar and Drury Kindly Observe This?
Swift Current, Sask., Dec. 12.—Does real farming pay? Axel Nelson, of Pennant, is a firm believer that it does. Last year Mr. Nelson bought a quarter section of land 2 1/2 miles south of Pennant, for which he paid $2,000. He cropped the land this year and he sold 1,500 bushels of wheat some time ago at $2.60 a bushel, realizing $3,900 from the wheat, or $700 more than he paid for the land, and that is not all, as Mr. Nelson still has 800 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of oats left from this season's crop.

British Authors Seek Copyright Improvement
London, Nov. 25.—(By mail.)—The committee of management of the Incorporated Society of Authors, Playwrights and Composers is sending G. Herbert Thring, the society's secretary, on a mission to Canada in connection with the question of colonial and international copyright.
Mr. Thring also hopes to visit the United States. A large amount of property is held here by English authors and dramatists and great difficulties arise from time to time in dealing with United States publishers. Consequently, the committee feels that it is essential for some representative of the society to gather information on the spot and to arrange for the efficient conduct of the society's business in protecting the interests of its members.

THE MASKED WOMAN

"Red" Riley bulged, and those of Prof. Salwick blinked rapidly, she opened the purse and took out a sheaf of currency. They could see that the sheaf consisted of hundred-dollar bills.
"I suppose money talks with you, Mr. Riley," she said. "I know you type, and I know that you'll join us if you think there is enough money in it. You'll get your share of the profits if you work with me, stand loyal to me, and do as I command—and ask no questions. Here are two hundred-dollar bills, a table before you. If you pick them up, you'll be put into one of your pockets as you are my man."
"Red" Riley licked his lips, and several dollars and a spread of Madam Madcap's money in some pocket. He looked at her. He hesitated a moment longer, ran his finger around the table before him, and then extended a hand and picked up the two bills.
"Is my man?" he announced. "When do I eat?"

CHAPTER VII.
Waldron Makes a Mistake.
HAVING joined hands with Madam Madcap, "Red" Riley thought of nothing except serving her well and being a loyal subject. Therefore, he spent several days and a good deal of Madam Madcap's money in some pocket. He looked at her. He hesitated a moment longer, ran his finger around the table before him, and then extended a hand and picked up the two bills.
"Is my man?" he announced. "When do I eat?"

Madcap's Money in Some Pocket.
"I must learn your identity," Brone was whispering in her ear.
"That will probably be my name," she said.
"Oh, I give you permission to try," she answered. "If you are a man, you will know me. But why should you be so eager to know?"
"Brone did not reply; he merely pressed her closer. Brone was susceptible where pretty women were concerned, and this was a subtle perfume about her, she danced like a woman of his acquaintance. He whispered words were in a tone that made Brone's blood tingle.
The dance ended, and the infuriated Hamilton Brone returned her to the table. There she danced with Wallace Melkington.
"Brone might have been displeased could he have been behind them as they danced. Madam Madcap escorted her to the dancing floor, and before the dance ended, he also, was infatuated. Madam Madcap escorted her to the table again, the glasses filled with fresh wine, and Madam Madcap was speaking.
"You are a bit interested, you must make me some promises," she said. "You never presume upon this evening's acquaintance to introduce me to him, meet again, you are to remain away unless I beckon you. I mean, I mean, I mean, why be so cruel?" Brone asked.
"If you do not obey, I shall refuse to recognize you. If the answer is no, perhaps I may dance with you again."
"But we are not to know your true name?" Brone asked.
"That would spoil everything," Madam Madcap said. "Learn it—if you can. And now you must go. I mean, I mean, I mean, you must run away!"

Regarding the unemployment situation in York Township, R. O. ## AURA LEE LIFT THE S.P.A. CUP BEATING GRANITES BY A GOAL

Fully 3,500 fans turned up at the Arena Saturday night to assist in ushering in the 1921-22 hockey season and to see the coronation of Auralee 4, in the first of the S. P. A. challenge series. To Auralee goes the honor of being the first challengers to lift the S. P. A. mug, which was donated to the S. P. A. by the late Harry Watson, and at their demise it was turned over to the Granites to defend, and first crack out of the box, Auralee, by their win Saturday night, secured possession of it, and will be called upon to defend it against Kitchener next Saturday night.

The Arena looked epic and span, having been treated to a new coat of paint. The old, familiar faces in the box-office, and on the gates were missing, and the new officials got off right with the public by strictly enforcing the "no smoking" rule.

Auralee appeared in new red and white jerseys of a new design, while the Granites wore their old white of last year with a large "G" on the breast. Referee Steve Vair introduced Gen. Williams and Hon. Walter Rolfe to the players, then the notables faced off the puck and retired to the side lines to keep the mayor company.

For the first game of the season the pace was terrific, and Granites showed less condition than their opponents. It was a peppy exhibition, and Homerell and Harry Watson had to retire for repairs, but came right back on more. They both played a hard bodying game, and even Hugnle Fox caught the infection and spent a period on the fence for "milling." Auralee was no angels, either, as Hugnle seemed in all the mix-ups. Billy Burch had a couple of too frequent use of the knee netting him a couple of penalties.

Ernie Collett occupied the nets for Granites in the first two periods, and all four goals were charged up against him. He looked had on a couple of long ones that beat him. Crooks replaced him in the last period, and had to take the benefit of the doubt by the goal judge and the north end. Both were in the shots that he stopped with his body. The first was well over the goal line, but the second was not so pronounced, but a score resulted nevertheless.

Granites, from goal out, were relieved at some time of the game by Collett, while Harry Watson, Connacher and Hogarth of Auralee went the whole route. Burch and Minton worked nearly the whole sixty minutes, and it was Stevenson that required the relief, which was supplied by Rod Smylie and Moore, but their efforts were short. Watson, Homerell and Jeffrey started for Granites and performed the bulk of the work, but were relieved frequently by Agost and Munro.

Teams Compared.
 Charlie Stewart, in goal for Auralee, stood out. Connacher and Hogarth formed the best defence seen here for years, and with Stewart behind them should outshine any other three playing in the amateur ranks today. Stevenson plainly

Regina Delegate Also Avers That the Players Are Paid in Saskatchewan and Ontario—New Bodies Admitted, and Officers Elected at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Dec. 12.—(By Canadian Press.) Sensation followed sensation at Saturday meetings of the A. A. Startling developments, punctuated the discussion, and the union's president, Dr. Bruce Macdonald, was elected, Dr. Bruce Macdonald, re-assuming the presidency, had everything to do with the cutting down of the teams. The total number of men allowed by each team remains at eighteen, so that each team is allowed six substitutes in each game, instead of four, as formerly.

The adoption of this rule, which was done, after a long and heated discussion, had everything to do with the cutting down of the teams. The snap-back rule, which permits of more than one line-up, and hereafter, intercollegiate rugby teams will have only twelve men. The total number of men allowed by each team remains at eighteen, so that each team is allowed six substitutes in each game, instead of four, as formerly.

MEN!
HATS
 $2.25

TODAY marks the beginning of a drastic two-days' clearance of broken lines of Hats. To mention the names of the English and American makes involved would no doubt cause consternation in the ranks of haters, for it's doubtful if ever before such brands were offered at anything like $2.25. They're the kind that men choose, who wear the exclusive, the up-to-date, and the best.

Included also will be a few of the better class Canadian makes. Extra space will be reserved for this clearance and extra salespeople will be on hand, and sizes will be grouped separately.

The American Stiff Hats are of black fur felt with medium high crowns, leather sweatbands, and rolled brims. Sizes 6 7/8 to 7 1/2.

The English Stiff Hats are of black fur felt with leather sweatbands, slightly rolled brims and lower crowns than the American brand. Sizes 6 7/8 to 7 1/2.

The American and Canadian Fedoras, some in the present popular English style with bow at back, others in crease crown style with flaring brims, rolling brims and flat brims, are of fur felt, and obtainable in light green, grey, brown or black. All have leather sweatbands, and sizes range from 6 7/8 to 7 1/2 in the lot, but not in each line.

It's the hat opportunity of years, and one might be well advised to buy for future, if not immediate, use. The clearance will be spread over two days, but of course on the first day the selection will be best—so come this morning and at 8.30. Remember the price, $2.25, and the location—

GROUP O. H. A. TEAMS TONIGHT

De La Salle Juniors May Withdraw, Having Been Dropped From Prep Series.

By nightfall it is possible that De La Salle Juniors may have withdrawn from the O. H. A. as a protest against being dropped from the prep school group.

Tonight the morula meet to group the various teams and the cards have been shuffled and the stage set to freeze out the juniors from the college group and to place them in with Varsity Juniors and McMaster. The third group will then consist of Auralee, Parkdale and Moore.

The bond street boys felt the wind blowing against them some time ago, and Rev. Bro. Bernard, provincial of the order, declared that if they were frozen out, he they were the year they won the O.H.A. junior championship, and that he would not allow them to play in the prep school group, but the reverse somewhat by putting them in with Varsity Juniors, giving them a group of their own, but the reverse somewhat by putting them in with Varsity Juniors, giving them a group of their own, but the reverse somewhat by putting them in with Varsity Juniors, giving them a group of their own.

Of course the prep schools say that they should not be credited with five teams, in their group, but seriously enough this argument is only used when De La Salle appear to have a sporting chance to win the group. However, tonight will tell the tale.

St. Clare's A.C. held an important meeting yesterday morning at the suggestion of the church when the officers for 1921 were elected and are as follows: President, J. H. Bennett; secretary, J. J. McCurdy; secretary, Mr. Holmes; treasurer, P. Madden; board of directors, J. J. Woods, M. Welch and W. Tuzo. The club will hold their next meeting on Friday evening, Dec. 17, at 8 o'clock, and all players wishing to try out with last teams are requested to be present.

After the game Saturday night between Auralee and Granites, Moore and Parkdale juniors each had half an hour's practice.

Moore are graduates from the T.H.L. and had so many candidates out that it looked like public skating night. There were as many candidates out as the well known brand of pickles, and Steve

Allan Walker, representing the Ottawa City made a claim that overtures had been made to certain players, and that some special inducements to round up their teams, but no tangible evidence was offered, and President Quilly said that it makes sure that the amateur rules were not violated. All the league rules must be completed by Feb. 26 in all Van Cup play.

All clubs will be expected to have their certificates given out at this meeting. Questions of affiliation, reference, amendments to the rules and other important business will come up for discussion, and it is in the interests of all clubs that they have a representative present. The prospects for the coming season are particularly good, and junior and intermediate teams will be completed by the end of the season. Frank Carroll will likely coach the Argonauts hockey team. Mike Rodden is too busy for the work.

STOCK MARKET ENDED IN SOME CONFUSION

Caused by Renewed Selling of General List—New Advances of Saturday's Session Were Discouraging—

New York, Dec. 11.—The stock market ended the week in more or less confusion and disorder by reason of renewed selling of the general list, including dividend and non-dividend paying rails.

Suspension of the dividend on Fisk Rubber drew renewed attention to the present state of the automobile industry and its related specialties.

Apart from losses sustained by the rail, recessions in prominent issues comprising the food, motors, steel equipment and food groups ranged from 1 to 7 points, shorts continuing their operations with confidence.

The actual condition of local banks, as reported by the Clearing House, contained few items of more than passing interest.
