A few Pastoral Words,
TO THE MEMBERS AND ADHERENTS
OF ST. GABRIEL CHURCH.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

In the following pages, the record which you have made for yourselves in the year, 1895, is contained. Not all your record, of course. It is only in God's book that it is fully written out. The advancement which you may have made in spiritual life cannot be described with printers' ink. But the facts and figures of the Annual Report are held to be a good index even of the strength of the spiritual pulse-beat of the congregation; and, therefore, I heartily commend to your careful perusal the several items which fill these pages, if you would know what your standing is as a spiritual agency.

A glance at this pamphlet will make one thing at least clear, that there are departments of work enough and these of a sufficiently varied character, to enlist the sympathies and co-operation of everyone of you, young and old. If you shall not find your sphere, that which is most to your liking and best adapted to call into active exercise your zeal and enthusiasm in one of the organizations existing in connection with the congregation, you will find it in another. Whatever reasonable excuse used to exist in St. Gabriel's, that there was no scope for the energies of the young, can no longer be urged. And the older members acknowledge gladly the hearty interest which the young men and women of our church are taking in all that pertains to its highest welfare. The young people may well evince the most eager desire for the welfare of St. Gabriel's—it is the Lord's cause they are promoting, and they have a greater prospective interest in the church's prosperity and success, than the older people have. Their help even in clearing off the debt is, therefore, reasonably to be expected.

Again, the Trustees echo the call to the people to furnish them with larger means to carry out the purposes of the trust. And that is right. The church is a militant institution. It must never reach the stage at which it is to rest and be thankful. "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion!" It is far better to be advancing even if the limits of the congregation's means are transcended, than to be content to sink down into a condition of inertness, with a balance at the right side. "EXCELSIOR" must be inscribed on the banner of every prosperous church. Aspiring after better things, and forgetting the things that are behind, must be our ideal. The fact that there is a deficit in the finances at the end of the year is, therefore, a thing not wholly to be deplored. Had the Trustees been content to let the church edifice remain in the state of disrepair, which a nine years' occupancy had produced, they might have been able to show but a very slender balance against the year's undertakings; and this, considering the depressed condition of trade in the community, is perhaps as much as was to be expected. But hoping that better times may soon dawn, and trusting that during the present year no considerable extra expenditure may be called for, it becomes the duty of all to address themselves earnestly to the task of providing not only for the ordinary outlay of this year, but also to overtake at least a part of the debt, on account of repairs, carried on from last year.

Let me again earnestly press upon you the obligation resting on each of you, as part of the church's organization. You must not allow yourselves to think of the church as existing only to do you good, as an institution from which you are only to receive benefits. Its main object is rather to enlist your sympathies in doing good, and to rally you to joint efforts in furthering the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ. The church is as dependent upon you, as you are upon the church.

During the year, the mortgage debt on the edifice was reduced from $13,000 to $10,000. Within the year, 1896, it is hoped that it may be further reduced $2000. There are subscriptions due, by members of the congregation and friends outside, sufficient to provide for this. Let an earnest effort be made to collect these subscriptions. If the debt were reduced to $8000, at 5 p.c., it would greatly relieve the pressure on the congregation's finances. Our friends are, therefore, earnestly besought to signalize this year by paying up their subscriptions to the Building Fund.

"Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost."

Ever your faithful friend and pastor,

ROBERT CAMPBELL.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF ST. GABRIEL CHURCH.

For the year ending December 31st, 1895.

It is again with much pleasure that the Board of Trustees lay before the congregation their Annual Report of the financial and temporal affairs of the church for the year 1895.

It was deemed advisable that the Treasurer's statement be printed and distributed into the hands of the members at this meeting, so that each might have a better opportunity of seeing exactly how the finances of the church stand, and be prompted to do better in future.

As the Treasurer's Statement is the essence of the prosperity and vitality of the church, it is the earnest hope that all will give it their careful consideration.

The corresponding figures for the three previous years are also presented for the purpose of comparison as follows :

	1893.	1894.	1895.
Weekly Offerings,	$2731 95	$2665 46	$2522 99
Ordinary Collections,	450 55	482 95	421 23
Pew Rents,	169 75	213 50	166 50
Special Collections,	248 50	119 25	139 50
	$3600 75	$3481 16	$3250 22

It will be seen by the above figures that there has been a gradual decrease in the total revenue for the three years, a state of things that is much regretted by the Board. The willingness of some of our people by the gratifying increase as well as the regularity in paying the same is thoroughly appreciated, while it is regretted that the Treasurer Reports that the unpaid proportion of promised Weekly Offerings continues to increase; the past year showing arrears of about $324.15, and $70.00 for pew rents, the latter amount considered to be good, and no doubt will be collected, but the arrears for Weekly Offerings is not considered so favorable, and it is a subject for careful thought, that those in arrears should clearly see it their duty to carry out their obligation more faithfully.

It is not the wish that the keeping up of the finances should be a burden to anyone, and if any have promised more than they feel able to pay let them inform the treasurer, but give regularly what you can, and if by any reason whatever you should be absent from church see that your offering is made up the following Sabbath, as punctuality is the key to prosperity.

The Trustees would point out that they exercise the greatest economy possible with the proper maintenance of the church, making worthy provision for the worship of God, but in order to do this they depend upon every member and communicant to feel it his or her duty to give as the Lord hath prospered them.

The Purchase and Interest Fund has, as usual been made out in detail and will be submitted, but under this head the Trustees feel greatly thankful to our pastor, Dr. Campbell, for his untiring energy in raising the sum of $1500, from outside friends towards paying off some of the debt on the church property, in addition to other sums which he handed the trustees, which made it possible for us to reduce the debt from $13,000 to $10,000, which will, no doubt, make itself felt in the way of a saving of interest and prove a great boon to the congregation.

We would also wish to record our thanks to the Young People's Association for their handsome donation of $210.00 towards this fund.

During the year we have had some extra expense in the way of repairs to organ and tinting and cleaning basement, which made the expense heavier than usual, although they are repairs that can hardly be charged to this year only, as they are natural wear and tear.

On the last Sabbath in December our pastor, by a special request, from the pulpit asked the congregation to put forth a special effort to make up the deficit the response to which realized the sum of $139,50, although not being quite as much as expected, was well worthy of congratulation when we take into consideration the season of the year.

In reviewing the whole financial situation for the year, and taking into consideration the deficit, the Board thought it advisable to reduce the running expense of the church and try and make the expenditure balance with the income, but since then we have been greatly favored by our Choir Leader, seeing the extremity we were in kindly coming forward and offering to fulfill his duties as heretofore at a reduction of $200, (the Trustees to attend to the tuning of the organ). For this the Board extend to him their hearty thanks.

Before closing this report we would offer a word of encouragement to all. When we take into consideration the closeness of the great financial markets as well as lack of employment, we may well congratulate ourselves, as no doubt if we look around we will see others worse off than we are. Therefore let us not be discouraged but press on and make 1896 feel that everyone is contributing his mite to carry on Christ's work in old St. Gabriel.

The retiring Trustees at this time are :—

JOHN BECKINGHAM,
WM. ARNOTT,
ROBERT McCULLOCH,
ANDREW McALLISTER.

All of whom are eligible for re-election.

The whole respectfully submitted.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT.

The festival took place on the evening of Friday, January 24th, and although the night was stormy there was a large attendance of the children as well as of their parents and friends. The pastor occupied the chair. Refreshments were served from 6 to 7.30 p.m., and it is needless to say that the good things provided by the ladies had ample justice done them.

The report submitted showed on the roll of teachers and scholars at 31st December, 1895, 286 altogether, while the average attendance of all during the year was 210. Only one scholar died in 1895. The missionary collections amounted to $144.87—collected for all purposes $256.74; $32 worth of books was added to the Library. The Chinese Class was closed at the summer holidays, and was not afterwards resumed, as full provision was made in other morning schools for all the almond-eyed foreigners. Mr. A. A. Tait assists Rev. Dr. Campbell in conducting the Bible Class. The report was received and adopted, the missionary moneys were voted away, and then the programme prepared by the children was gone through with. The following received books in recognition of their regular attendance and good behaviour:—Susan Stuart, Lily Henderson, Lily Loughead, Madeline Haviland, Lillian Walker, Ruby Haviland, Victoria Walker, Edward Bickerstaff, Kenneth Bain, Arch. Ness, Leonard Hay and Robert Campbell Stuart.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

President,—Mrs. R. Campbell.

Vice-Presidents,—Mrs. Jas. Robertson and Miss Bertram.

Treasurer,—Miss Brophy.

Secretary,—Miss K. M. Campbell.

Representative on Executive Committee,—Miss Ferguson and Miss J. Brophy.

During the year just closed, the Auxiliary made some progress, in spite of difficulties and discouragements. The absence from the city of the President during the whole winter season, and the sudden departure for other fields of work of the energetic Secretary, Miss M. Lynch, were a serious set-back to the Society. However, the Vice-President, Mrs. Harper, and other members of the Auxiliary came forward to fill the gaps to the best of their ability, and the interest of the women of the congregation has increased rather than diminished on account of these difficulties.

There were six meetings held during the year, with an average attendance much the same as last year, though some new members have been attending.

This year, for the first time, the envelop system of collections was tried. The results have been very encouraging, the contributions in this way having been nearly trebled. Many who cannot attend the meetings, send their envelopes or put them on the plate in church.

In spite of the continued great financial depression, an increase over last year was reported, both in the collections and in membership subscriptions. All gave heartily, with hopes that they may do still better next year.

The Treasurer reported as follows :
