THREE YEAR CONTRACT

Tinker is to Get $36,000 and Says He is Stockholder—Man Who Prepared Reserve Clause Talks of It

(Canadian Press.) Chicago, Dec. 29.—The final paper by which Joe Tinker and Mordecai Brown for many years National League baseball stars, cast their lots with the Federal League, were signed in the hotel offices of the league last night. This was...

JOE TINKER confirmed by both players, who said also that their salaries had been guaranteed by a bonding company, which assured them full payment for their three years contract, regardless of what fate befell the league. Both said, too, that their departure from organized baseball into the new league had not been made without full investigation, which convinced them that the Federal League had sufficient financial backing to make a real competitor of the other leagues.

HUERTAS' MEN ARE AGAIN DEFEATED

Flee in Terror at Onslaught of Villa's Troops

Hundreds Leap Into River to Swim To American Side of Border But United States Troops Force Them Back

(Canadian Press.) Presidio, Texas, Dec. 30.—The federal army of 4,000 men at Ojinaga, opposite here, was put to flight last night by 4,500 constitutionalists sent by General Villa, from Chihuahua. In the darkness many of the federals crossed the river to the American side, but all except the wounded were forced back by the United States troops.

The final rout was preceded by three hours' battle, begun after dark. The rebels, marching through the deep canyons south of Ojinaga, completely wiped out the federal outposts. The news of defeat at Laguna Pasa, and Amulato, giving the rebels an unobstructed pass to within firing distance of Ojinaga itself, caused a frenzied retreat among the federals.

Plunge into River. About 400 of them plunged into the river to seek protection on the American side. They were forced back by Major McNamee, commander of the American forces.

Gunfight developed in the Ojinaga forts. General Salazar and General Oroso believing their men were about to desert, stood with drawn revolvers threatening to shoot those who did not obey.

The badly wounded were the only ones allowed to remain on this side, and these were cared for by Doctor Burgess of the United States army. The number killed on both sides was small, but many were reported injured. In their charge, after killing the outposts, the rebels were said to have left behind a field strewn with disabled federals, who had fallen from exhaustion in their efforts to get into the fort.

FELL DEAD IN MASONIC GATHERING AS THEY WERE ABOUT TO BEGIN BANQUET

Montreal, Dec. 30.—For the second time in the history of Masonic work in Montreal the celebration of St. John's day was marred by the sudden death of a member last evening at the opening of a banquet of Argyle Lodge, No. 68, John D'Almeida, seventy-eight years old, of Toronto, formerly of Montreal, a member of Argyle Lodge for thirty years, collapsed while sitting in a corner talking with a friend and died almost immediately.

SAYS 30,000 IN DANGER OF DEATH BY STARVATION OR BECAUSE OF THE COLD

Paris, Dec. 30.—Thirty thousand persons are in danger of starving or freezing to death in Albania, according to reports from William W. Howard, of New York, who has just finished a four hundred mile journey there. As a result of the Serbian occupation, he says, more than 100 villages and towns have been destroyed, 12,000 houses have been burned and 4,000 men, women and children killed. One hundred thousand persons are homeless and he estimates that one-third are likely to die of cold and hunger.

TWO I. C. R. MEN FAIL TO RESPOND

Bail Ordered Forfeited in Moncton Court—Only One of Trio on Hand

(Special to Times.) Moncton, N. B., Dec. 30.—The adjourned preliminary hearing in the case of three I. C. R. men—Leonard Hannab, Warren Beaumont and Fred Hendry—charged with rifling baggage of ladies on the I. C. R. train, came up before Judge Steyer this morning. Reference By J. A. Barry in Hearing of Another Case—Suspended Sentence on Allen Hammond

The case of the King vs. Allen Hammond, which came up for the second time in the trial of Judge Forbes, this morning afforded an opportunity for the trial of the McHugh case. In which Judge Forbes a few weeks ago said that the prisoner should not have been committed for trial. At the conclusion of the trial of Hammond, J. A. Barry, who appeared for the defence, may not weigh evidence, but the article omitted to set out that the magistrate may deliberate the complainant's evidence (which was not corroborated and was of a most contradictory nature) and discharge the accused. It was the same 'positive' evidence that Your Honor heard in the County Court, and upon which you felt the complainant might very well be indicted for perjury. To test the sincerity of the 'ministerial' theory take only one case of the very many, namely that of a citizen in West St. John charged a short time ago with incendiarism. The complainant in that case, a colored woman, gave 'positive' evidence. The accused alone rebutted her evidence. The magistrate discharged the accused. I believe it was supposed to be mistaken identity.

AUTO SHOW OFF UNTIL MARCH

The maritime automobile show, which was to have been held in the new armory from January 14 to 21, has been postponed until March 22 to 28. The change has been made to meet the wishes of the local dealers, who think that the former dates are too early and that they would not be able to get their new cars in time. The later dates are said to be more suitable for outside contractors.

B., murdered. She was positive of the identification.

The evening was spent in music and games and several prizes were distributed. A very enjoyable time was spent by all. Much of the success of the evening is due to the efforts of Mrs. J. S. Ford.

QUARTER CENTURY INVALID

Great Friend of Salvation Army and Advocate of Temperance—Royal Husband Oscar Died Soon After Golden Wedding

(Canadian Press.) Stockholm, Sweden, Dec. 30.—Queen Mother Sophia of Sweden died here today in her 78th year. She had suffered acutely for several days and succumbed to an attack of inflammation of the lungs. Her Majesty had been practically an invalid for more than a quarter of a century. She was subject to melancholia which necessitated a constant watch being kept on her by her medical attendants. She took very little part in court functions, devoting herself, whenever her malady permitted it, to enterprises of a religious nature. She was a great sympathizer with the Salvation Army, whose operations in Scandinavia, she followed with interest. At the same time, she was a strong advocate of temperance.

GOODS FOR HERE IN HALIFAX TWELVE DAYS AGO; NOT YET DELIVERED

An indignant merchant told The Times this morning that goods for his store arrived at Halifax in the Empress of Britain something like twelve days ago, and have not yet reached St. John. Other merchants made similar complaints. It appears that the merchants of St. John are suffering inconvenience because of the inability of the C. F. R. and I. C. R. to handle business rapidly by way of Halifax. Why should St. John goods lie for ten or twelve days at Halifax?

Turning Over The New Leaf

As the New Year approaches one naturally thinks of good resolutions and general reform. Here's a suggestion for turning over a new leaf that may bring you success and happiness.

If you have not been a reader of advertising, take today's Telegraph and Times and turn over the first leaf that will get your eyes focussed on the advertising.

If you do not see anything there that appeals to you—turn over another leaf.

Do it tomorrow—the next day—and the whole year.

You will be surprised at the good it will do you.

You will know more and spend less than ever before, for when you buy with that kind of knowledge that makes a dollar yield one hundred cents plus service.

Turn over a new leaf—to the success page.

BRIGHT COMEDY, THE TRAVELING SALESMEN, AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Thompson-Woods Company Produce Another Pleasing Success

Even in this progressive era, it is not every day in the week that one hears of such a romance as was enacted by the Thompson-Woods Stock Company in the Opera House last evening in "The Traveling Salesman." The scenes were laid at a little country railway station, "Grand Crossing," and here was begun on Christmas Day a few minutes before noon a charming romance which through many extremely laughable and also very touching scenes, culminated happily on the following day about 3 p. m. in an order on the hotel office to supply "a minister and two witnesses at once."

Beth Elliott was the station agent and telegraph operator, a pretty, winsome girl whose people were decent and who was the owner of a stretch of land made valuable by plans of the railway to expand. Rob Blake was a drummer, who had left the train at that station and been left there on Christmas Day. Though cold and practical at first, the pretty Beth's attitude towards Blake gradually "thawed," and they were soon calling together her Christmas dinner.

It was a case of "love at first glance." That night in the hotel with some other drummers in "friendly games" Blake heard from one scheme to defraud the girl of her land and sell it to the railway. He was able to thwart the scheme and though his motives were misconstrued at first, after some trying explanations, he was able to show that he had been acting for Beth's best interests, and as the curtain rang down on the last act she was enthralled in his embrace while they were waiting for a minister to officiate. It was a case of being wooed, won and wed in twenty-four hours.

Sam McHarry was the jovial, good-natured Blake, and he was so persuasive and convincing in his manner that none could resist him. His was the burden of the piece and that of Beth Elliott being by far the most prominent. Miss Brandt was pleasing and charming as Beth, being equally delightful in the lighter scenes of laughter and fun, as in the more exacting when anger and indignation were called for. She and Mr. McHarry were further praised in their respective roles.

Miss Bridges displayed her usual versatility in the character role of Mrs. Babbitt, and with Mr. St. John as Julius, a colored hater of the "Blitz" Hotel, provided an abundance of comedy. Mr. Drummond had a distasteful part as Boyer, and handled it most satisfactorily, while Mr. Weyer as Drury, an unscrupulous manufacturer, had little to do, but as might be said of the others, Messrs. Fleming, Fager and McCluskey, and Miss Derby, performed to the success of the production. Mr. Hodge as a chum of Blake's was well received and most likeable in the part.

"The Traveling Salesman" is another of those delightful comedies in which the Thompson-Woods company seem to excel. There is just sufficient plot to keep the theme of the author, James Forbes, who by the way has written a list of mirth-makers to his credit, well defined, and the laughter is by no means forced but altogether natural. It is clean and wholesome and found favor with all last evening. The audience present liked the show, and showed appreciation by curtain calls and frequent applause. "The Traveling Salesman" will be repeated for the balance of the week.

KNOCKABOUT FUN AND SOBS—IMPERIAL

A Strangely Mixed Bill That Kept Up the Holiday Spirit at the Big New Theatre

A European knockabout-burlesque act labelled The Sidonia stirred up a lot of merriment in Imperial Theatre yesterday afternoon, and evening and it looks as if the children have got another week of ticklish fun in store for them at this house as well as the grownups. These fun-makers perform in an artist's studio and intermingle their very clever lightening act work with a particularly funny humorous string of pantomime. It is not a talking act and its mirth-provoking qualities lie in the grotesque go-up of a tramp and the trick scenery employed in the sketch. The Imperial is giving its patrons a wide range of vaudeville as a side dish to its plentiful fare of good motion pictures and The Sidonia on the programme of Worcester, terehire, Sauc.

Heart throbs abounded in Vitagraph's two-part society playlet, "Love's Sunset," in which Earl Williams, Clara Kimball Young and Darwin Karr essayed the principal roles. With that clever attention to stage setting and scenic detail, and having eminent players acting the story, the emotional piece seemed to make a deep impression upon the people. The comedy number was Father's "Up Tree," and those who delight in taking trips abroad (via the screen) were pleased with Winter Sports in Australia and Scenes in Ancient Greece. Dolor Velleu sang acceptably.

The two-part feature "Hard Cash"—Charles Reader's great English novel—will be shown Wednesday and New Year's Day along with "The Week-end" and some comedies. On Friday and Saturday the Mary series will be resumed, being shifted to the week-end because of the upset in the Imperial's weekly plan due to the non-arrival of the "Hard Cash" picture at the first of the week.

LYRIC.

Corr and Latell, now appearing at the Lyric Theatre, are a versatile couple. They offer fifteen minutes of enjoyment, consisting of songs, music and dancing.

Miss Latell portrays a comedy character not often seen in this part of the world, but one that exists just the same. She appears as a rather slim country girl with a manner all her own, and her singing and talking creates an end of fun. And when it comes to doing the buck and wing, Miss Latell gives a demonstration of the art. For three seasons this lady was the character woman ones preceding it. Of special interest is the two part Broncho drama of Indian and military life, entitled in the Land of Dead Things. A number of sensational scenes are depicted in this picture and altogether the sand storm is shown waging war on all things human on the desert. As one blinding gust cuts its way through the air the horses drawing the baggage of the settler are seen to make a sudden bolt and dash away in quest of safety from the storm. Another scene is enacted when the Indians stampede the horses of the settler. Taking everything into consideration, in the Land of Dead Things is one of the best products of the Broncho seen at the Lyric in some time. The comedy elements

ORDER FROM INTERCOLONIAL.

Hon. J. D. Hasza, minister of marine and fisheries, was the principal speaker at a public meeting held last night in the Temple of Honor hall, Main street, under the auspices of the North End Conservative Association, John Thornton, president, in the chair. The Temple of Honor Band was in attendance. Mr. Hasza dealt at some length on the questions of reciprocity and the naval contribution. He advanced the old arguments against the former and for the latter. He referred to the possibility of the Portland Rolling Mills being forced to close down if business did not improve, and said he had taken the matter up with the management of the government railways and had heard that day that an order had been placed for 30,000 pounds of rolled iron and steel fittings, etc., with the mill for the Intercolonial Railway. Senators (Daniel and Thorne also spoke, and the song O Canada was rendered by Samuel Holder.

MR. ELKIN GETS WORD FROM THE LORD OF AVON
Crew All Safe—Sirdar, Which Went Down, Well Known Here

THE MCHUGH CASE IS REVIVED BEFORE JUDGE FORBES TODAY
The case seems to be similar to that of McHugh's, only McHugh was corroborated by several, and I am pointing this out simply to show what it is impossible to do because it is obvious who inspired the article. If the code is as strict as the writer claims, then let the law be carried out to the letter in all cases and perhaps it will be found it is well to change it—but I think it is not the law that needs to be changed.

THE MCHUGH CASE IS REVIVED BEFORE JUDGE FORBES TODAY
The Sirdar last summer was remodelled and converted into a three-masted schooner. She is 498 tons register and was under the command of Capt. Charles E. McDade, of Parrishboro. The Sirdar is owned by Mr. H. McLaughlin, of River John, N. S.

THE MCHUGH CASE IS REVIVED BEFORE JUDGE FORBES TODAY
The Avon was owned by R. C. Elkin, of this city, and was under the command of Capt. Albert Lawrence, of Hantsport, N. S. She was built in Hantsport thirteen years ago, and is registered at this port. Mr. Elkin stated that McHugh should be from the captain of the vessel this morning to the effect that the crew were all safe and the schooner had been abandoned, waterlogged, during the storm. The crew were all signed on in a southern port.

City Will Issue Bonds To Value of $132,000

Replies to Seventeen of Commissioner McLellan's Questions—Term of Office of Chief Blake Extended — $5,000 Grant to Exhibition

Bond issues to the total amount of $132,000 were authorized at the meeting of the Common Council yesterday afternoon; the city engineer submitted answers to the first seventeen questions regarding the water department, which had been asked by Commissioner McLellan; a grant of $5,000 for the St. John exhibition was authorized, and matters of routine were disposed of.

On the recommendation of the mayor, the controller was authorized to meet necessary payments in January until the estimates for 1914 have been adopted. The council agreed to issue the city engineer to L. C. Jennings for the Foundations Company, Ltd. at $50 per month.

Consideration was promised a tender of J. A. Lileky's for 10,000 feet hard pine at $41.50, which had been delayed in the mills.

The resignation of George R. Crosby from No. 6 Salvage Corps, and the appointments of R. D. Scott and Charles A. Cunningham were approved.

On motion of Commissioner McLellan the term of office of Chief Engineer Blake of the fire department was extended for six months pending the introduction of the commissioner's reorganization scheme.

R. O'Brien and W. F. Burditt presented the claims of the Exhibition Association and the council voted the usual grant of $5,000.

Commissioner McLellan said that the Dominion Coal Company was not proceeding rapidly enough with the work of protecting the west side ferry floats from the dust nuisance. Mayor Frink agreed, but said that the lease was only in effect from day to day and could be cancelled at any time they saw fit.

Notice of motion for the issue of debentures had been given on November 27, and the matter was voted on yesterday. Issues of five per cent bonds to the extent of $132,000 were unanimously voted for the following purposes:

Shedding the approaches to the ferry landing; street plant and machinery for the public works department; paving of Germain, Union, Queen and Sydney streets, and the north and south sides of King square; and the construction of a warehouse on Quinn's wharf—$75,000 in five per cent bonds maturing in ten years. Sewerage extensions in Adelaide road and Chardon street; water main extensions in Mount Pleasant avenue, Adelaide road, Douglas avenue and Chardon street; the rebuilding of the ferry wharf; the erection of a highway bridge in Alexandra street; and the purchase of two lots in Kennedy street—$50,000 in five per cent bonds, maturing in twenty years. Purchase of an auto truck for the public works department—$5,000 in five per cent bonds, maturing in five years.

Orders for 300 feet of hose for use on the west side, with details of fittings, etc., from the LaFrance Fire Engine Co.; the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company; W. H. Thorne & Co. Ltd.; Estey & Co. and the Dunlop Fire & Rubber Co. Ltd. were opened and referred to these instruments are not reliable under present conditions; they were installed when the pressure was from Little River reservoir, and much lighter than it is now, and they gave what were believed to be correct returns. Now that the head has increased, the portion known as the "throat" should also be increased from eight inches, the present size, to ten inches. This was recommended to the council three years ago and the parts were purchased, but they have not yet been installed. Besides this, they were only in operation during last year on March 28 and 29, April 6 to June 22 inclusive, and September 28 to 29 inclusive. Their registration has been from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 gallons per day, but the notices have been so short, in excess of the delivery ascertained by a pitometer. Thus it is that the readings of the Venturi meters with 8-inch throats are unreliable as circumstances.

11. There are no measurements of flow taken at the Marsh Bridge for the reason that there is no meter there. 12, 13, 14 and 15. There being no measuring apparatus at the end of the concrete pipe or at the end of the wood stave pipe or at the Magh Bridge, no meter can be run to these questions.

16. I understand you have taken a copy of the readings at Lake Latimer since the Venturi meters. 17. The sizes of pipes delivering from the Marsh Bridge into the distribution system are one 20-inch, two 18-inch, three 12-inch and one 10-inch.

The remainder of your communication is under consideration and calculations are being made whereon to base a reply, but the notices having been so short, my work is not yet finished.

Respectfully submitted,
(Sgd.) WILLIAM MURDOCH,
City Engineer.

The mayor remarked that in 1907 or 1908 there had been six fires at the same time in the neighborhood of the foot of King street, and that the pressure was adequate to send the water over the highest houses. He wondered what manipulations might have been made to alter such a state of affairs, which no longer existed, he said.

The mayor said that the distribution was no longer under the supervision of the city engineer, but in the hands of Mr. Doig. The question as to why the pressure had been lately so much worse than at that time was one, he said, which he had long thought of asking.

Commissioner McLellan asked the mayor if he knew who was at that time chairman of the water and sewerage board.

Mayor Frink—"I am not sure that I was not myself."

Commissioner McLellan remarked that any further questions on the matter would be well timed. "It has been hinted," he said, "that there has been trouble at the hydrants, but I think the trouble lies deeper than that."

He said that in his opinion the entire renewal of the distribution system would take ten years or more to complete at the present rate of the work. Commissioner Sheffield then urged the appropriation of even larger sums to water main renewals in future, if the distribution system was still in such a bad state, despite all that has recently been done to improve it.

The mayor said he had come to the conclusion that the city spent a lot of money on superstructure but little in foundations. He referred to a complete break in the east side water supply for many hours at a time about four years ago, saying that the 24-inch main from Little River, built a long time ago for low pressure, had been used for the Loch Lomond pressure, and that the main had burst, as a result.

"The pipe was repaired," he said, "but it has not been renewed, and it seems to me that we are in just as bad a position now as we were then."

In The Police Court

The twelve stewards and the cook, of the steamer Tyrolia, who were arrested for refusing duty on the high seas, were allowed to go yesterday in the police court after they had promised Magistrate Ritchie that they would obey the captain's orders in future. Moses White, charged with stealing a pair of trousers and traces from the chief officer of the steamer Stanley said he was drinking at the time and was allowed to go after signing the pledge for two years. Samuel Landry, arrested on suspicion of robbing a young lady on Canterbury street, was remanded. Policeman O'Leary told of making the arrest from a description given by the lady.

James McCavour, of Lorneville, while at work in the steamer Virginia last night, was struck on the head by a sling flooring, which fell into the hold where he was working, and was severely injured. He was attended by Dr. Wilson, of the Grampian, and later by Dr. F. L. Kenney. He was taken to his boarding house in Guilford street.

THE COAL POCKET

F. P. Starr, representing the Dominion Coal Company, called upon Mayor Frink this morning to report the progress made on the work of erecting a pocket to eliminate the dust nuisance at their coal pocket on North Rodney wharf. Mr. Starr said that they were working as fast as they could in view of the delay that was caused by waiting for the iron workers to complete some necessary parts. He was convinced that they would be able to solve the dust problem to the satisfaction of the patrons of the ferry. The mayor explained that all the city demanded was that they should do the work as rapidly as possible.

EAGLES FOR THE PARK

Some little time ago a bald eagle, often called bald-headed eagle (haliaeetus leucocephalus), the national emblem of the United States, was captured in Charlotte county, near the State of Maine. It is probably a native of the neighboring republic, and hearing of the movement northward, joined the exodus. It is now in Rockwood Park. This species is called "bald" not from the absence of feathers on its pate, but from the conspicuous whiteness of its head. The tail also is white, the former giving it a venerable or aged appearance. Though not common, it breeds in suitable situations in New Brunswick, and is found at times westward to the Pacific coast. A second eagle has lately been procured for the park. It was caught at Buatoche River, Kent county. Though similar in most respects to the other specimen, the last acquired differs in the absence of the gray or white head and tail, and some doubts were expressed as to its species. These have been set at rest by A. Gordon Leavitt, who pronounced it a young specimen of the bald eagle, the feathers on the head and tail not turning gray until the age of four—an earlier period than in the human race. The second bird is a very fine specimen, its wings when outstretched measuring seven feet from tip to tip. The two birds can, on the days, be seen getting on amicably together in a cage next the barn.

The person from whom the second bird was obtained said it was a male because, as he said, though it had for several months been in captivity, it has not laid any eggs, but it being a larger and finer bird than its mate, it is more probably a female, for in the case of the eagle the female, unlike most of the other birds and animals, is larger than the male, and in like manner, similar to the human family, the female is more comely and beautiful in appearance than the male. It is hoped, therefore, that in time some little ones may be added. A nest of the park next spring will be a cage enclosure for these eagles, an enclosure the size of a small house, sufficiently large to enable the birds to stretch their enormous wings as though in freedom. Will some generous citizen supply the want?

LAST OF SERVICE

Briardene in Port From West Indies Today

FROM HERE TO HALIFAX

Jolly Time on Corinthian Christmas Day—News of Other Steamers in the Service to St. John

The Pickford & Black Liner Briardene, under the command of the genial Captain Joseph Faulkner, arrived in port this morning from the West Indies and tied up at the McLeod wharf about 9 o'clock. She had rough weather for the greater part of her voyage, but came through in good order. She brought mail and a good cargo of molasses, sugar, coconuts and general freight, mostly for local consignees. After unloading, the Briardene will proceed to Halifax. Her sailing will close the Pickford & Black service between this port and the West Indies. The Oruro and Oromo are now tied up at Halifax, and it is not known what disposition will be made of them. The Briardene is under charter to the Pickford & Black line.

On the Corinthian Christmas Day was celebrated in real English style on board the Allan Line steamer Corinthian. On Christmas eve the crew gathered on deck and sang carols. On Christmas night the men did ample justice to a bounteous dinner of roast beef and plum duff, with all the necessary trimmings. After dinner a lengthy programme of songs and music was carried out and the men were addressed by the captain and chief officer. The following took part in the programme: A. Taylor, H. James, E. Murrin, Mrs. Bird, W. E. Collett, H. R. Waugh, A. Dixon, Mrs. Barry, W. Hayward, W. C. P. Stewart, W. Gilbert, D. Clements, Mrs. Riley, A. Dixon, J. Lemon, H. Chipman and W. Griffin. Royal mail steamer Scandinavian, of the Allan Line, from Liverpool for Halifax direct, was 480 miles east of Cape Race at 6:45 o'clock last night. Canadian government steamer Aberdeen is laid up for a few weeks on the West Side while her engines are being repaired. The Manchester Inventor sailed from Manchester on Monday at noon for St. John via Halifax with a good general cargo. The Manchester Corporation shifted at noon today to No. 2 berth to complete cargo. She will make a trip to St. John with a cargo of grain, and sail from here on Saturday.

SAY OUTLOOK HERE IN BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE IS CHEERFUL

Construction Work is Expected to Be Heavy During New Year

Architects and builders of this city report that the prospects for building operations on a large scale in an advanced condition of the real estate market, excellent, provided that the cost of building is not affected by any further advance in the meantime. Considerable work which was planned for last season was abandoned owing to the unsettled conditions caused by labor questions, the closing down of the hammer mills and similar circumstances. If nothing prevents, much of this work will be undertaken next year and in addition, there will be considerable new work.

One of the reasons for extended operations is the need of more houses to accommodate the increasing population of the city and to relieve the congestion which already exists. Several public buildings also are planned for the coming year. As a result of the steady progress of the city, which is reflected in the building plans, also has been shown to a marked degree by the condition of the real estate market. In spite of the slump caused by the lack of money in other parts of Canada, a fair number of transfers have been reported from week to week. The way in which local real estate prices have stood this year is taken as a substantial tribute to the actual values represented. As a result of this a prominent real estate man says that this city will be one of the first to respond as soon as money becomes easier and he looks for investments in local real estate on a larger scale even than in the spring of 1912 when the recognition of the opportunities offered here was the cause of extensive buying.

THE MARTELLO HOTEL BUILDING

Tenders for the purchase of the old Martello hotel building, now owned by the dominion government and last used as a detention hospital for immigrants, closed yesterday in Ottawa. As the tenders were to be sent direct, local officials have not yet learned whether or not any were submitted or whether they were acceptable. On the occasion of his last visit to St. John Doctor Montisambert, chief medical officer of the dominion, said that it was his desire to see a new and adequate plant for handling the medical quarters of the Immigration work at the port, with commodious quarters for the examinations and a suitable hospital for those who are to be sent direct, local officials were to be preparatory to providing new and better accommodation.

FOR 1914 A useful wall calendar of next design has been received from the Liverpool, London & Globe Insurance Company, for which W. M. Jarvis, Prince William street, is general agent.
