SOME SECRETS REVEALED

Bourassa's Lieutenant Makes Speech Which Will Bring Cold Comfort to Premier—He Attacks Naval Programme—Resolution Asking Postmaster-General to Reire

(Canadian Press)

Quebec, Nov. 2.—Armand Lavergne held a meeting at Lorette yesterday attended by many. A feature of his address was an attack on the government with regard to the naval policy. Postmaster-General Pelletier received considerable attention from the speaker, who said he had invited Mr. Pelletier to be present, but he had failed to appear. Lavergne was frequently applauded during his address. He was the only speaker.

(Canadian Press)

The meeting wound up with a resolution asking Mr. Pelletier to resign. Mr. Lavergne gave his version of how Mr. Pelletier had come into the cabinet, saying that when Mr. Borden invited Mr. Monk to accept a portfolio, the latter was expected to choose two other ministers. Mr. Monk wanted Mr. Teller and Armand Lavergne, but the latter replied he could not accept because he did not want to be a member of the cabinet.

(Canadian Press)

Mr. Pelletier, who was not informed that he had been appointed one of the ministers, went to Montreal with a delegation to protest against his entering the cabinet, claiming that it was a humiliation for him, to whom the position was named minister. Later we went to see where Mr. Pelletier met Mr. Borden and asked the minister for a copy of the letter which he had written to the premier on the matter.

SIXTEEN DROWN

Steamer Lost on Voyage From Montreal to Valleyfield

FOUR MEN SAVED

Cling for Hours to Raft Amid Tremendous Seas—Several Women and Children Among Those Drawed

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Nov. 2.—Sixteen persons are believed to have been drowned when the steamer Cecelia, a steamer plying between Montreal and Valleyfield was wrecked during yesterday's hurricane and went to the bottom of Ile Perrot in Lake St. Louis.

(Canadian Press)

Details of the catastrophe ascertained this morning were very meagre, but it is believed that of twenty on board, only four were saved. Captain Louis Ledue was among the drowned. The four men who escaped saved their lives only by clinging for four hours to a frail constructed raft, in the buffeting of tremendous waves. Two of them were finally blown ashore at Chateaugay, being blown on the beach utterly exhausted by their long struggle.

(Canadian Press)

The survivors are Lionel Ledue, son of the captain, M. Gosselin of Cacades, E. H. Ballegron of Cocles, and Felix Cousineau of St. Clet.

(Canadian Press)

The Cecelia was a new steamer built only last year. Her tonnage was 115. She was on the way to Valleyfield, having left the Lacine canal about one o'clock in the afternoon. Several women and children were among the passengers on the ill-fated vessel.

(Canadian Press)

The steamer itself was a complete loss. This morning sections of the debris had drifted along the borders of the lake, destroying all hope for the safety of the remainder of the crew and passengers.

(Canadian Press)

With the wind at a velocity close to sixty miles an hour, the little boat could make no headway. Her captain tried to turn tail and run before the gale, but this proved fruitless. As she swung the wind slammed her over. It was impossible to man a boat in the face of the wind. In fact there was no time, the tragedy coming with such appalling swiftness.

(Canadian Press)

Mr. Ballegron said: "We knew that the boat was drifting through in the darkness we could not see where we were going. We crashed into a sharp rock, which seemed to open the vessel like a sardine opener. There was a mighty crash, a splitting of wood and the women began to scream. The wind lashed the water over the sinking decks and washed everybody into the water. The boat in halves in one moment, had literally fallen into little pieces in the next. I grabbed a plank and clung to it until I was picked up."

(Canadian Press)

Mr. Cousineau said: "I never thought to look for a life preserver as a second of the cork came I was in the water. I saw one heroic action. A woman had a child in her arms and was trying to balance it on a plank. The stream was running very swiftly at the time and swept them away. I hear that no women were saved, as I presume that her action was unavailing after all."

(Canadian Press)

Port Hope, Ont. Nov. 2.—Late last night the steam barge Juneau, with her crew of 12, was wrecked on the rocks near Gull Light, east of Port Hope. The crew of three men and one woman took to the life boat and reached Port Hope after a perilous trip.

Austrian War Correspondent Sends Graphic Account of the Great Battle Fleeing Turks Leave Trail Through Villages Where Torch Was Applied and Christians Massacred

BRITISH CRUISERS TO SCENE OF WAR

Malta, Nov. 2.—The British cruisers Harman, D'Almeida and Havelock have been ordered to sail to the Levant forthwith. The British admiralty has ordered the other two vessels to places where they will be conveniently situated in case of emergencies.

(Canadian Press)

Venna, Nov. 2.—The Vienna Reichpost this morning prints a story sent by its correspondent with the Bulgarian army, Lieutenant Wagner. It is dated from the Bulgarian headquarters Thursday evening, and says: "I have just returned with a train of wounded after having spent three days at the front. For three days and nights I have not been out of my clothes. My poor horse could not move another step because of exhaustion. The great and final battle ended the decisive phase on Thursday morning, when the Bulgarian left wing at Burnahisar took the offensive with mighty impetus. The price for the final crash at Arna was a murderous opening engagement which lasted Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and on the fourth day, on the left wing, where the Bulgarian offensive from Sera by way of Viza against the Bulgarian left wing, had attempted to meet the enemy threatening their line of retreat, owing to the Bulgarian advance by way of Sera to Tchalatala. The Turks already had succeeded in holding back the advance body of Bulgarians beyond Kapsadere and Burnahisar."

(Canadian Press)

"On Tuesday morning, when the mighty Bulgarian center attack was delivered against their right wing from a line running from Uzunup to Hajitkali and the heights of Montiradigh, the Turks' front ranks were simply run down by a startlingly rapid and effective bayonet assault. The Bulgarian right wing, which was supported by artillery which was firing from the heights of Montiradigh, was also successful in holding back the Turkish right wing. The Bulgarian infantry was especially supported by artillery which was firing from the heights of Montiradigh, was also successful in holding back the Turkish right wing. London, Nov. 2.—Polling took place on Friday throughout England and Wales for the election of members to borough councils. Besides the local interest, the results are considered as showing to a certain extent the strength of the political parties.

(Canadian Press)

London, Nov. 2.—The London elector with regard to the management of local affairs is as strong as ever. In the city the Conservatives gained more than fifty seats, Liberals thirty and the Labour party none.

(Canadian Press)

St. Louis, Nov. 2.—W. C. Douglas, a director of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., was identified with several other corporations, was burned to death and more than twenty other persons were injured, probably fatally, and 150 occupants of the Berlin Hotel, an exclusive family hotel in the centre of the fashionable West End residence district were compelled to flee from the building in their night clothes, when a fire early today destroyed the building.

(Canadian Press)

Several others in the hotel were missing early today, and firemen are still searching the ruins for bodies. Douglas' body was found in the third story corridor. The loss of the building and contents is estimated at $250,000. The people are believed to have lost at least $100,000 in jewelry. A hose carriage on the way to the fire struck a street car and three of the red crew are believed to be fatally injured.

(Canadian Press)

Meanwhile on their own led while the Bulgarians succeeded by noon in breaking through the Turkish position, and engaging the whole Turkish wing. Here in the early afternoon began a general retreat on the line at Luleburgaz and Dedeli, along the railway and in the direction of Tchorli.

EX-PREMIER'S CONDITION IS THE CAUSE OF ANXIETY

Harbor matters were the subject of discussion at the meeting of the city commissioners at noon today. An application was received for the lease of the office and warehouse on the old Anchor Line wharf, which is the only city warehouse at present not rented. Decision was delayed until Monday and some of the commissioners will look over the property this afternoon.

A HOCKEY WAR

Ultimatum Comes From The Pacific to the East

Trouble Over Hyland and Johnson—This Afternoon's Football Matches in Upper Canada Are Important Ones

(Canadian Press)

Yanover, R. C., Nov. 2.—Officials of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association today issued an ultimatum to the National Hockey Association, and unless the eastern association takes a more favorable view of the terms to give a commission as submitted by the coast league at the annual meeting in Montreal on Saturday, Nov. 9, a hockey war is assured.

(Canadian Press)

As a conference of the coast league officials on Thursday it was decided to telegraph to President Quinn, of the N. H. A., to the effect that it would be impossible to send a representative to Montreal, but the P. C. H. A. was prepared to amalgamate if the eastern clubs waived all claims on Hyland and Johnson, the two who had joined the Montreal Wanderers.

(Canadian Press)

Frank Patrick, manager of the Vancouver team, has replied to S. E. Lichtenhein's letter which attempted to chastise the Pacific coast magnate. His reply promises to precipitate a general row in hockey circles, unless the National Hockey Association makes its position clear regarding Mr. Lichtenhein's status in eastern hockey.

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Nov. 2.—The results of the matches this afternoon in the three school rugby unions, will go a long way in deciding whether this year's laurels will rest, and in deciding the participants for dominion championship honors. The race in the inter-provincial is now between the Rough Riders and the Argonauts of Toronto. The former have a good lead should the Rough Riders win on their last game today, it will practically settle the honors of the inter-provincial for this season.

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa has won four games without a single loss, while the carmen have won three and lost one. Gerard, on whose punting the Rough Riders pin much faith may be able to play only fifteen minutes today on account of an injured shoulder. The micrologist gave a great deal of credit to this afternoon's match in Kingston. Varsity and McGill are now on even terms, each having won two games and lost one. They both have to meet Queens in Kingston and should either lose it will give the other the title.

(Canadian Press)

New York, Nov. 2.—The New York American says that betting on the election was more brisk in Wall street yesterday. A commissioner placed $100 against $200 that Roosevelt will get twice as many electoral votes as Taft, also $100 to $600 that Roosevelt gets three times the electoral vote of Taft and $100 to $600 that he gets four times as many. Wilson is still four to one, Silver to win two and a half to one $1,000 even that Roosevelt beats Taft, $1,000 even that Silver gets 10,000 plurality in Kings.

(Canadian Press)

One bet of $500 was placed against $500 that Roosevelt gets more popular votes than Taft. The name of Governor Hadley of Missouri is understood to have figured prominently in brief conferences which Republican leaders had with President Taft here last night over the vacancy on the Republican ticket, caused by the death of Vice-President Sherman.

(Canadian Press)

The president arrived here at 10:45 from Washington and spent the night at the Manhattan Hotel. He left this morning for Ulster, to attend Mr. Sherman's funeral.

ARMY IS NEEDED

Russia Shows Her Hand and European Crisis is Tightening—New Says Principle of Integrity of Ottoman Territory Cannot Be Maintained

(Special to Times)

London, Nov. 2.—The press here all ready to send warships to Constantinople to protect their nationalities but a well trained army must be there also to keep the rabble in check. But all Europe asks—If King Ferdinand reaches Constantinople will he quit on terms acceptable to Turkey and to the powers who, through long centuries, fought to secure for themselves this unique vastage ground. At the moment, however, it is of the possible horrors of Constantinople that most people think. It is difficult to believe that the fanatical population of Constantinople will remain unmoved while the guns of the Gallies are thundering almost at the gates of their city.

(Special to Times)

The authority of the Turkish government is already seriously compromised. What will happen if the Bulgarians pierce the lines of Tchalatala and, the vast Turkish army, equipped with defeat and furious with fanaticism, is driven by on the devoted city. It will be utterly beyond control. History records to what fanatic horrors the Turk turns in the hour of despair.

(Special to Times)

London, Nov. 2.—Russia shows her hand today and the European crisis is tightened. The Russian government, taking into consideration the decisive victories of the Balkan allies over the Turks, admits, after an exchange of views with the European powers, particularly with Austria-Hungary, that it is now impossible to maintain the principle of integrity of Ottoman territory, contrary to the formula elaborated by Messrs. Poincare and Saranoff previous to the outbreak of the war.

(Special to Times)

As a result of continuous criticism levelled by Russian opinion at the foreign office, M. Saranoff, the Russian foreign minister has declared that Russia, in accordance with her national traditions, will remain the faithful protector of the Slaves of the Balkan states and that her diplomacy will continue to pursue this end.

PARIS SAYS VICAR GENERAL TO THE POPE HAS RESIGNED

Paris, Nov. 2.—The Matin says that Cardinal Respighi, vicar general to Pope Pius, has resigned following an inquiry ordered by the Pope into the administration of the chancellor of the vicariate, Mgr. Fabri, and which, it is alleged, established favoritism. The cardinal, according to the Matin, deemed himself responsible for his subordinate's actions and tendered his resignation.

LAVERGNE AND BORDEN

Mr. Armand Lavergne has turned the spotlight upon Premier Borden, that eminent imperialist and naval champion. Mr. Lavergne tells us that he himself was offered a place in the cabinet, but told Mr. Borden that he must decline, and it was at his solicitation Mr. Pelletier was appointed. The important point about this is that it confirms the alliance between Mr. R. L. Borden and the leaders of the anti-British and anti-naval party in Quebec province. This exposure by Mr. Lavergne was not needed to convince the people of the truth of the statement, but it is none the less interesting. Mr. Pelletier got a seat in the cabinet because cabinet maker Lavergne wanted him there. Now Mr. Lavergne and his friends have called upon Mr. Pelletier to resign. It is a very interesting situation—for Mr. Lavergne's other ally, the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden.

THE WAR

Despite the threat of some despatches from Constantinople, the Turk appears to be thoroughly beaten by the allied armies of the Balkan states and Greece. The talk in the Bulgarian capital is now the dictation of terms of peace at Constantinople itself. The temper of the allies is indicated by the remark of a Sofia journal that when Turkey desires to treat she may do so with her feet direct, and not through the medium of other powers. A complete and early triumph for the allies would probably be the best thing that could now happen. The longer this affair is drawn out the more danger there will be of the development of conditions involving other powers as principals in the dispute, rather than as peace-makers.

ROADS IN ONTARIO

The engineer of the Ontario department of public works says that Ontario has spent enough on roads in the past one hundred years to have excellent trunk roads between all the important cities of the province. He contends that the province itself should take up the work, and not leave it to the municipalities or to be done by statute labor. He would have the province carefully planned by engineers, and a system of roads between the cities devised. The province should then build these trunk roads, even if it were necessary to impose a special tax. They should be built as English roads are, to last for generations. It would then be the duty of the municipalities to keep in condition the feeders to these great roads, and the latter would furnish an object lesson for them in the work. The engineer complains that too much of the road work is now done in the most primitive fashion and must be done over again about every second year.

The play, Pygmalion and Galatea, was repeated last evening in the auditorium of the high school. The hall was well filled and a large amount was realized for the benefit of the High School Athletic Club.

Commissioners Scholfield and Agar met Hon. F. Cochrane, minister of railways, at St. John's yesterday and proceeded with him to Moncton in his private car. They discussed with him the sugar refinery site and are now in a position to deal with the promoters of the project.

S. Walker, representing a firm of Manchester importers, arrived in the city yesterday to arrange for the purchase of provincial products. He said that with a better steamship service St. John would get a very much larger share of Manchester's trade, as much of the traffic which now goes through Boston and New York could be handled more satisfactorily through St. John. He also advocated a vigorous campaign to make known the advantages which this province offers to immigrants.

Professor Richard Norton, of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, delivered an interesting lecture last evening before the St. John branch of the Archaeological Society in the Natural History Society rooms, speaking on "American Excavations at Cyrene, North Africa." The lecture proved of interest and profit, and was greatly enjoyed, and the speaker was appreciated through the showing of scenes about Cyrene. The professor was tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

It has been reported that timbers are being used in the construction of the wharf at Public Landing which are not up to the specifications and that when the timbers refused to accept them the contractor threw up the job, but it is said that the work is now being carried on by the government and the timbers which were rejected by the inspector are being purchased for use in the wharf by the government employees.

At a meeting of the Slaughter House Commissioners held yesterday Dr. D. E. Bergman was elected secretary-treasurer. Inspector Simon reported the killing of 474 cattle, 3,885 sheep and 39 calves last month.

DRAMATIC SNAP. A number of players and playwrights at the Laubs' Club were discussing the question of what constitutes the "snap" so persistently demanded of the dramatist by the manager of today.

"I have talked to so many managers on this subject," said one writer, "but none has been able to give me any very definite notion as to just what 'snap' is."

"I can help you out," said Eugene Walter. "I have an idea for a one-act play that just bursts with 'snap.' I'll give it to you. Here it is."

"Play opens with man and woman in drawing room, seated side by side on a sofa and embracing each other passionately."

"Enter to them a man with a suitcase and an umbrella. He is, of course, to all intents, husband unexpectedly returned."

"Husband no sooner takes in the situation that he yanks out a revolver and shoots both man and woman."

"Then he takes out his glasses, puts them on, and looks about him, and suddenly gives a start."

"'Merciful heavens!' he exclaims. 'I'm on the wrong floor!'"

Royal Commission in England Takes up Phase of Emigration

DANGER, SAY REPORTS

Better System of Caring for Females Coming From Old Country is Advocated — A Letter Written From the Dominion

(Times Special Correspondence)
London, Oct. 22.—Emigration has occupied the central position in Canadian circles for the last two weeks. Ladies' reports acquire that have been conducted, the dominion's royal commission is delving to the bottom of matters pertaining to emigration, and evidence which, up to the present, has been given, is attracting wide attention.

Several months ago, in these columns it was pointed out that the existence of the white slave traffic in Canada was being inquired into on this side, and, although at that time evidence had not been gathered, sufficient information had been furnished that this traffic existed, and in such dimensions as to warrant prompt remedial measures.

Just before he left for Canada, Mr. Borden, was spoken to about it and was sufficiently impressed with the representations made to him that he requested a confidential statement to be prepared for his consideration.

Serious attention has been drawn this week to the sex problem in Canada, under the heading "Canada's Dangers," a correspondent of a Manchester paper now in the dominion writes that people in England have no conception of the dangers that await English girls and women who emigrate to Canada. "The move about from town to town, spending as they earn, and gradually drift 'out west,' where to many the moral life and order of things is unimagined horrors." The writer cites many instances of girls who have landed in Canada with high hopes and joyous expectations, who but a few months later have been submerged in the ever-increasing ranks of the underworld.

"If mothers in England," he continues, "only knew the temptations which beset their daughters immediately they set foot on these shores! The very atmosphere seems to weaken the moral fibre and render young girls unfit for the mode and manner of life as it is lived in many Canadian cities."

Intemperance has reached a fearful pitch, and in this respect, Montreal imports for its own use two shiploads of gin annually—one in the spring and one in the autumn. Gin is the principal drink, and it is responsible for the downfall of hundreds of women, who are lured into the bars before they realize what is happening.

The writer concludes by saying:—"Far better keep your girls at home on lower wages than send them out here, where too often they sink into the lower depths of misery and are lost sight of forever."

Giving evidence before the dominion's royal commission this week, Lady Knightly of Fawley and the Hon. Mrs. Ellen Joyce, whose knowledge of and interest in Canada are well known, suggested improvements in the present methods of taking care of female emigrants in Canada. Their information showed that attempts were made to corrupt the girls on board ship, and that on their arrival at ports to persuade them to abandon domestic work were made. Lady Knightly affirms that their society had been informed of cases where girls have disappeared altogether.

The number of hotels in Canada were not sufficient, and the sleeping arrangements on the trains were not satisfactory as far as unattended females were concerned. Reference also was made to booking agents who advanced passage money to girls under conditions that did not leave them free agents; and that one booking agent acted on behalf of the Mormons.

This, of course, strikes at the root of the trouble. For some time it has been recognized that there was an avenue through which the traffic could be spread. It is a fact that the number of agents who advance full fares to domestic servants has increased lately, and many firms send out hundreds of girls during the season. While it would be an unjust aspersion on the characters of honorable booking agents to assume that they are engaged in this business, the position is that the way is open for them to do so. An agent can appoint a representative in Canada to receive girls to whom he advanced full fares, and unless there be strict government supervision a serious danger exists.

The matter has occupied the serious attention of some of those connected with Canadian emigration in this country, and the opinion is advanced that the only efficient measure of protection is that the placing in positions of British girls should be in the hands of fully authorized government officials. Henry Page Croft, M.P., says: "The Canadian west possesses five men for every woman. This is unnatural and unhealthy, and unless the evil is grappled with, will have serious consequences for the future growth and character of the dominion."

"The United Kingdom has one and a half million too many women, while Canada has a million too few, and if the government of the empire have regard for the first laws of nature they will adjust the balance to the benefit of all, by assisting emigration, if necessary by free passages for British women to the west of Canada, where, one can say without hesitation, with proper organization, there are limitless opportunities for all classes of women."

Light Brigade at Balaklava it is yet to be seen here. No wonder the British rang with applause as the firing ceased amidst fifty-eight years ago in the Crimea when the British and Russian forces were in a production that must have cost a small fortune. There is a great stretch of country shown on the picture and it is alive with the soldiers of either army. The British leader and his staff, the aide-de-camp and their gallant horses, the Russian artillery, all are shown. There is keen interest as the commander-in-chief is seen to give the order which was to be misconstrued and lead to one of the most gallant incidents in British history. Facing certain death, the "Noble Six Hundred" are seen to wheel into line and, at the charge, ride headlong up to the very crest of the enemy's cannon. Horses and riders fall on all sides, mowed down by the cannon shot; still on the road go right through the Russian battle lines. And then the return! A shattered and broken remnant, many of the men wounded, files past the commander and his cheering staff. It is a great picture and the orchestra, as usual, arose to the occasion and added to the stirring of patriotism.

The rest of the programme includes a very fine series of world events in the Palace weekly and a good Esanay Comedy, "The Pure Love Test." There are also two solos.

SOMETHING DOING AT THE STAR.

The little Star Theatre in North End closes the week with one of its accustomed first-class bills—a programme which the management always saves for the tireless working man who finds it impossible to enjoy the show when the rush of work is throughout the week. Last evening large crowds enjoyed this list of pictures despite the inclement weather. On Monday the Star is going to make its patrons doubly glad with a feature that as a novel has entranced the world: It is none other than Ouida's strong military story "Under Two Flags," which is to be shown in double reels. Be early for this great attraction Monday.

FATHER CARSON DEAD

Succumbs in Carney Hospital—Body Will Be Brought Here, Likely on Monday

Amongst a wide circle of friends not only in St. John, where he formerly belonged, but in many other parts of the province, where he was well known, the news of the death of Rev. John Francis Carson yesterday afternoon in Carney Hospital, Boston, caused sincere regret. He was fifty-eight years of age, and a son of the late William and Mary Carson. After being educated at the public schools here, and later at St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, he took his scholarship and theological training in Laval and was elevated to the priesthood on May 15, 1883. For his first year he was stationed at the cathedral in this city, after which he was transferred to Melrose, Westmorland county, as curate to the parish priest, Rev. Father Bradley. He remained there only a short time as his ability was recognized and caused his promotion to be parish priest in Rexton. A short time later he was again removed to Westmorland county and after four years of faithful and efficient service was assigned to the pastorate at St. George, where he made himself beloved and respected by not only the members of his own flock, but by the people of the town in general. He was popular with all classes and made friends readily and easily retained them by his genial and pleasing disposition and all will be grieved to learn of his death.

Although of sturdy physique, and appearing in excellent health, the strain of years of zealous endeavor in the Master's work had begun to tell upon Father Carson, and since he was stricken with paralysis last year he had not completely recovered. Four weeks ago he entered Carney Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate one of his feet. The operation proved too much and complications set in. He died last evening about six o'clock.

Three sisters, Mrs. C. B. Dever of Main street, this city, and Misses Annie and Elizabeth Carson of St. George, and three brothers, William, Patrick and Henry, of Boston, survive. Arrangements for the funeral are not yet completed. J. Harry Dever, his nephew, of Harrison street, left this morning for Boston to accompany the body to this city, where interment will take place. It will probably arrive on Monday at noon.

CARRIED OUT INSTRUCTIONS.

"Now," said the decorator to his brand new assistant, "you have finished your work for the week. But if you'll stay and mind the shop for a minute, whilst I go out, I'll give you an extra quarter. Mind you don't forget any messages or orders, and be sure you clearly understand them." The assistant declared that he clearly understood his master.

Twenty minutes later the master came back and demanded if anybody had come in.

"Yes," answered the youth. "Nobody's been in except somebody as wanted somebody to go somewhere sometime to do something. But I told him in no time as on Saturday afternoons there warn't no nobody nohow. He said in that case he refused your acceptance of the job, but not giving you, 'cause he makes nothing of anyone who does anything anyhow, and never gets nothing done when never expected."

The boy got the quarter—and the sack.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The Bank of Montreal is negotiating for a corner property in Woodstock with the intention of erecting a brick or stone building on the site. It is reported that a suit for heavy damages will be brought against the C. F. Woodstock, N. B., who was killed by being hit by a train on October 22. Professor Barnes of McGill University has submitted an interim report to the government on his investigation of measles whereby ships may learn of the nearness of land and ice. He spent the summer in this work in the St. Lawrence, the Straits of Belleisle and on the coast of Labrador. He has secured reliable results that he urges the government to require all vessels to carry accurate temperature recorders. He will continue his work during the winter and in the spring another steamer will be fitted out for further experiments.

Work in connection with the founding of the Saskatchewan College, of which Rev. A. A. Graham, formerly pastor of St. David's Presbyterian church in this city, is principal, has made great progress. Forty five acres of land were set aside by the city council of Moosejaw, and a commodious three story college building and a separate residence for the principal have been erected. A tract of land in Snider township, in Ontario, has been secured by a company to establish a nickel smelting industry there. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, in Montreal yesterday, speaking of the Nova Scotia section of the C. F. R., said that the line was now being placed in condition which would bring it up to the C. P. R. standard. District Attorney Whitman yesterday received a telegram at his office in New York to "be on the lookout for four thugs coming on the Chicago train, 3 p. m. Saturday." It is said that there may be a plot to assassinate him for his work in connection with the Becker trial. Engineer Juncos and Fireman Ruellard of a C. P. R. train, were killed yesterday at Laneris and the conductor and baggage man injured when the train ran into an open switch and jumped the track. Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of rail ways, in Montreal yesterday, received deputations from the city council and board of trade. Among other things, he said that the government would start soon to operate the Transcontinental in New Brunswick. The minister said that he was waiting for a report from Professor Kirkpatrick in the matter of the Salisbury & Harvey Railway being taken over. If the report were favorable the government would do its part. Boston, Nov. 1.—Prof. J. Sears, an attendant at the Bridgewater Poor Farm, West. Cleaned Corsets at 8c. package. Regular 9c. Tea for 25c. per pound. Apples from $1.00 a barrel up. Apples from 15c. a peck up. Best Seeded Raisins at 8c. package. Best Cleaned Corsets at 8c. package. Regular 9c. MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE. At St. Andrews some years ago an old farmer and his ploughman were cutting a bank of sand from a party of volunteers, who were then on foot at practice. A stray bullet struck the ploughman on the leg, and he immediately dropped, exclaiming: "I'm shot!" Without more ado the farmer scrambled up the bank and, waving his hand to the volunteers, shouted: "They, lads, stop that, will ye? You've shot a man, and it might has been the horse!"

Old Falacy That Drunkenness Cannot Be Cured Exploded

Many men drink who desire to stop the habit. Whiskey, however, has undermined the constitution and created a craving that is not to be denied, and the man must have whiskey or something that will remove the craving and build up the system and restore the nerves.

DON'T LAUGH AT A DRUNKEN MAN

His poor unfortunate ones at home have to suffer. Think of the wife or mother who sits up night after night waiting for his return; watch the children run and hide their faces when he comes in.

He has probably just drawn his pay, clothes are soiled, eyes inflamed; knows he has done wrong; now trying to get home.

When asked why his wife lives with him, she says that drink is his only fault, that when he is sober he is the best hearted fellow in the world—to good-hearted; he loves his children and would give them his last cent. But you cannot depend upon him. Pay day comes, rent is due, groceries needed, children in rags, and why does he do it? Craving for strong drink, of course.

Dr. Neal has discovered a sure, safe and reliable cure, administered to patients either in their own home or at our hospital.

HELP FOR WEAK, BROKEN DOWN MEN AND WOMEN

Worry---Worry---Worry! It's Not Work But Worry That Kills

It's true that hard work has laid many a man on the shelf, but for every man who has been put out of commission by hard work hundreds have been sent to the scrap heap through some sort of depression or stress.

Disease also has played its part in making the thousands of nervous and physical wrecks we encounter every day.

Never mind the cause; it's the condition that confronts us. Give me a man who has lost his health and vigor through any cause, who lacks the strength and energy of a Manly Man, and I can restore his vitality, build up his strength and vigor, and give him back the energy and ambition of Youth! My Electric Belt is a Natural remedy, a time-tried remedy!

Its powerful current enters the body through cushioned electrodes, without shock, sting or burn, and properly arranged for each case, its wonderful force is sent direct to any weakened part of the system.

For hours at a time—in the daytime, or, better still, during the night while you sleep, my Belt saturates your body with its drowsy vitalizing power.

I can prove to you that my Belt does all I claim for it. Is not the word of honest men and women who freely state their testimony good evidence?

Dear Sir— I have used your Belt since last November, and I feel much better. I am well pleased with the Belt. It has proved itself to be.

DANIEL CHATTERTON,
Cohasset, Ont.

Dear Sir— I have worn your Belt for a month now, and I am glad to say that I have received the greatest benefits from it. My back is a great deal stronger, and the pain in my legs and arms have gone and I am feeling like a new man already. You may use this letter in any way you wish. Wishing you every success, I remain,

"PAIN COMPLETELY LEFT ME"

So Says Thomas Stephenson after Taking GIN PILLS

O those who have suffered, year in and year out, from the dragging misery of Kidney Disease, anything that will relieve the pain is a blessing indeed. That is just what a well-known resident of Lachute Mills, Que., and his wife both found in GIN PILLS.

Lachute Mills, P. Q.

"I was troubled for many years with Kidney Disease, and a friend told me to take GIN PILLS. After taking a few boxes, I was greatly relieved, and after finishing the twelfth box, the pain completely left me.

I can safely recommend anyone suffering from Kidney Trouble to give a fair trial to GIN PILLS."

THOMAS STEPHENSON.

Would you welcome such a relief? Then take GIN PILLS. They go right to the spot—ease the pain almost at once—neutralize the Uric Acid which is causing all the trouble—strengthen the kidneys so that they will be able to keep the blood pure—and quickly take away that weakness and tenderness of the back which undermines the energy and vigor of manhood and womanhood.

Don't pass GIN PILLS without a trial. Every box sold on the positive guarantee that if six boxes, used according to directions, do not help you, your money will be cheerfully refunded.

ELECTION DAY ON TUESDAY
News and Gossip of the Political Campaign in the United States—The Size of the Vote

Next Tuesday will see the election in the United States, but one of the peculiar possibilities in this triangular contest for the presidency is that the election may not decide the presidency, for failure of any one of the three leading candidates to obtain a clear majority of electoral votes over his two opponents will throw upon Congress the burden of electing a president. The political correspondent of the Boston Transcript from under the shadow of the headquarters of the three presidential candidates, writes of the election, as well as that of President Taft's election, that is responsible for the anxiety in the Democratic camp, in spite of the indications that the contest is narrowing down to a fight between the Republican and the Democratic with the latter in the issue, the outlook for Roosevelt to carry California and possibly three or four other states, makes the possibility of a third something more than a matter of speculation.

Many Cross Currents
Unquestionably there is a defection from Wilson to Taft among the workingmen and from Wilson to Taft among the middle class, but the real test will be a Republican who will vote for Wilson in order to defeat the defeat of Roosevelt, and some Republicans will vote for Wilson as the safest means of defeating Taft, but the danger of the latter class is not large. These cross currents—and there are many others—only make the more hazardous the issue, it is especially in Vermont as a barometer state would be established for many years to come, for the Republican candidate for governor failed to receive a majority of the votes cast at the election was driven into the legislature, which, in turn, elected a Republican governor.

Home Might Be Decided
Not with a view to emphasizing the probability of such a contingency but only to suggest it for consideration, it is interesting to reflect that the House of Representatives, should it be called as at present constituted to elect a president, would probably be divided into three camps. The first would be those who would support the constitution call for a vote by states. There are twenty-two delegations from the House of Representatives, and twenty-two with the Democratic candidate, and four are evenly divided, but the half of the delegations in Rhode Island and word comes from that state that Congressman Utter, the Republican candidate for governor failed to receive a majority of the votes cast at the election was driven into the legislature, which, in turn, elected a Republican governor.

Salt Rheum Came Out on Hands
Formed Watery Pimples, Itchy and Had Horrible Burning Sensation, Lost Some of Finger Nails. Could Not Open Hands. Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

235 N. Limer St., Toronto, Ontario.

"For seven years I have been troubled with salt-rheum. It came out on my hands and formed watery pimples all over them which became very itchy and it had a horrible burning sensation which could not be cured by any of the usual remedies without a lot of pain. It came out on my hands in the fall and remained there all winter. I was very miserable and by using them there was a great improvement. Then I went to the druggist and bought one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment; after using them I am glad to say I am completely cured. I had given up all hope of being cured. I can say to all those who have suffered as I have, not to lose courage but to give Cuticura Remedies a fair trial."

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded the most economical treatment for salt-rheum of the skin and scalp that torments, itches, burns, and causes sleep. This Dear Old Lady was a nurse to the sick and wounded during the Civil War. Twenty-three years ago at a time when her doctor thought she could not recover from her illness and when he advised her to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Look at her photograph. What a pleasing picture of health and content she makes now, in her advancing years—her brain alert, eyes bright and memory clear. It is within your power to maintain your faculties, your activity and willing, pleased friendship if you will but make an effort to do so.

"If you are not aging gracefully, if you suffer from fits which you should not, if your faculties are becoming impaired, if the attention and interest of your friends are lessening, perhaps you can benefit from the experience of Mrs. Kane. Advice is as good as it turns out to be. The advice of Mrs. Kane's doctor to her was pretty good, she thinks. See if you agree with her. Read her letter, which follows:

"I am 72 years old and have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for the past 22 years. When I first took it, my doctor said it was only a question of a few months before I would die from that dreaded disease, consumption. The doctor said it was no use to take any other medicine, but advised to take lots of eggs and milk, and use about half a wineglass of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in each glass of eggs and milk, and to eat as much food as possible.

"At the expiration of ten months my cold disappeared and I gained in weight steadily, and today I weigh 185 pounds. My memory is so very good that I can remember things that happened as far back as the battle of Hampton Roads, between the Monitor and Merrimack, on March 9, 1862. I was then nursing the sick and wounded of the Union, which I did till the war was over.

"I went to Canton, China, as a missionary nurse, in 1875 to 1880, and can recall many of the disastrous events, such as famine and plague, during this period in China. Hoping that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey will do for others what it has done for me, I remain, Yours very truly, Mrs. E. Kane, 2043 Palmetto Street, Brooklyn, N. Y."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

does more toward restoring and maintaining good health, unimpaired memory and faculties in men and women than all other medicines combined. It is nature's true tonic-stimulant. Note that Mrs. Kane gained in weight steadily, and her cold disappeared. Her doctor believed she would die of consumption. He prescribed Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. She recovered, and today, 22 years after her serious illness, for which she took Duffy's, at the age of 72 she is alive and well and weighs 185 pounds.

Determine today to regain your own health and strength. Make up your mind to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. See that you get Duffy's. Write our doctors for advice. They will give it absolutely free and in confidence. You will also receive a valuable illustrated medical booklet.

Sold in SEaled BOTTLES ONLY by druggists, grocers and hotels. In writing, address:

JOHN'S GREAT TRAFFIC PROBLEM

Millions and Millions Of Passengers To Care For

A PEEP INTO THE MINT

There Were Nearly 12,000,000 Coins Made There Last Year—Buckingham Palace to Be Renovated—A Rush of People For The Raikium Cure Treatment

(Times Special Correspondence) London, Oct. 22.—The extraordinary complexity of the London traffic problem makes any exact comparison between the number of passengers carried by particular kinds of transport almost impossible. Not only would more statistics be required than are at present available, but considerable adjustments would be necessary in view of the varying conditions.

It is possible, however, to construct a table which gives one some idea of the relative popularity of the various methods, although, of course, the busy or biased student must be warned from jumping to conclusions after a brief study of the figures.

For the sake of comparison, it is a pity that all passenger-carrying concerns do not make up their accounts to the same date. The figures of most of the concerns, however, are given annually to the public in the form of a balance sheet. The railway balance sheets for 1911 and the bus companies for 1912 are available for comparison. As regards the taxi-cab companies, no figures as to the number of passengers carried are obtainable.

Owing to the constantly changing conditions there is a considerable fluctuation in the figures of most of the concerns. The loss or gain by the bus or tram from one system to another is partly offset by the swelling tide of London's traffic as a whole, and this ebbs and flows takes place not only between the systems given in the table but also between them and the tram railways, which do not publish separate figures of their suburban passengers.

For instance, the chairman of the London, Brighton & South Coast Railway said at the last half-yearly meeting that during the last two and a half years four million additional passengers had been carried over the electric sections of the company's line. Again, the attractions of the "big exhibition" will swell the number of passengers carried on the Metropolitan, the District, the Metropolitan, or the Central London to the tune of hundreds of thousands.

In choosing, therefore, a period of which is desired to tabulate comparatively the numbers of passengers carried one is faced with certain objections to whatever length of period is chosen. With a six-month period, however, a fairly good comparison may be obtained. The table below gives some idea of the relative popularity of the various methods, and at the same time of the total of persons carried and of the value of the coins.

Table with columns: Passengers, Value of coins. Rows: Trains, Buses, East Ham, London Electric, Metropolitan, District, Central London, City & South London, East London, G. O., National Steam Car, Grand total.

Now, if these figures are compared with similar figures, so far as they exist, for the year ending 1911, it will be found that an enormous increase has taken place owing to the improved services not only in London but also elsewhere.

Big as is the total in the table, it is almost certain that it shows only a fraction of the total number of persons carried, as well as of the value of the coins. The Royal Mint brooks no rivals, and one almost fears a chuckle of satisfaction as the report mentions that for 1911 some 2,170 counterfeit coins were taken possession of by the police, twenty-seven persons were convicted of making counterfeit coins, sixteen for possessing moulds, etc., and twenty-four for "uttering" or circulating counterfeit coins after previous conviction.

November 4 is the date fixed for the unveiling of the Shakespeare memorial in Southwark Cathedral and Sir Sidney Lee will perform the ceremony. The memorial is continued on page 10, fifth column.

SANG FOR TWO WHOLE DAYS AND NIGHTS

Prisoner in Scotch Jail Roared Glory Song Forty Eight Hours

NO STOP EVEN TO EAT

Collapse Followed By Failure To Remember Anything About His Performance — A Dangerous Suggestion in This For Militant Suffragettes

(Times Special Correspondence)

Glasgow, Oct. 19.—Angus McFee is laid up. He is suffering from the effects of over-singing, and will have to "bide a wee" in the infirmary of the Argyll county prison, of which institution he is at present an involuntary resident. Angus has that tired feeling in an acute form, and no wonder, considering that for two days and two nights he entertained the hospitable portals of the county jail last Saturday he lifted up his voice in song without stopping except to take breath and without touching any kind of refreshment, either of a solid or a liquid nature.

During most of the time, Angus was rendering the famous "Glory" song. The prison authorities, who did everything in their power, short of gagging McFee, to bring his vocal recital to a close, regard his performance as a record, and the Scot might be expected, when he emerges from "quod," about the end of this month, to challenge all comers to vocal contests. Nevertheless, it was not for the extreme bad effect that his prolonged solo had had upon him.

Meanwhile the authorities are believed to be keeping the episode from reaching the ears of the leaders of the suffragette movement, for, had as the famous "hunger strike" inaugurated by imprisoned militants have proved to cope with the barba idea of a continuous concert by a prattling woman is enough to make the stoutest official heart quail.

Sang Until He Collapsed

Angus McFee did not bring his non-stop concert to an end of his own accord. He sang until he collapsed, and was found unconscious on the floor of his cell. This is not the first time that he has partaken of the hospitality of His Majesty's prison at Argyll, but it is the first time he has ever been known to sing to such a point of collapse. He was singing for forty-eight hours while within its walls. This time McFee is in duress for failing to comply strictly with the eight commandments, and he rendered the first item on his list of the vocal programme while on leave for the local house of correction in the "Black Maria."

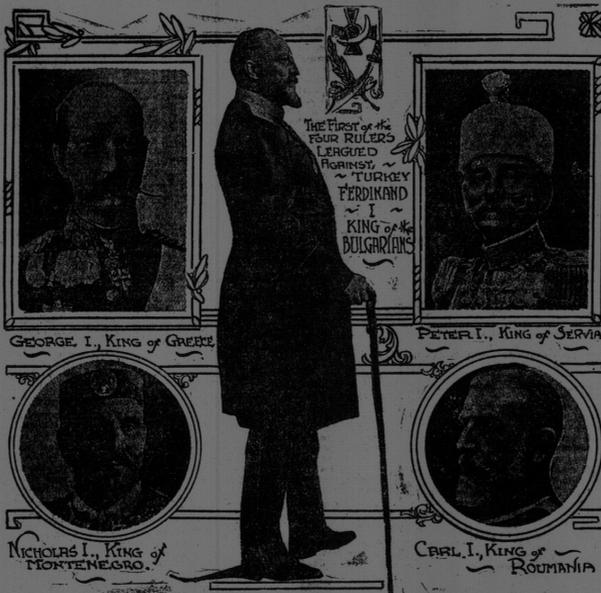

The police constable on the steps of that conveyance when he heard one of his passengers suddenly break into Harry Lauder's world-renowned ditty, "I Love a Soldier," was the first to be alerted. He discovered that the singer was Angus McFee, who by his singing had broken the desert Lauder in favor of Burns, and was singing "The Banks and Braes of Bonnie Doon" with all the strength of an extremely powerful pair of lungs. In vain was he ordered to give over and "come awa' out." He merely switched on "The Banks and Braes" and turned on the famous "Glory" song and failed to budge until two warders came to get him. He was then dragged Jim out in the direction of his cell. On the way to it he missed a note of "G," that will be given for him, and when a warder visited him in his cell, he was still singing of "The Banks and Braes of Bonnie Doon." When warned that he would be punished if he failed to submit forthwith, McFee sang louder, if possible, than he had done before.

This was about 2.30 in the afternoon, and the governor of the prison who had been asked what was to be done with the human gramophone, opined that when McFee got hungry he would cease up and peck a bit. When tea time came, however, the prisoner declined to touch food. He preferred to sing. By this time he had sung the "Glory" song about 100 times and was still going strong. The endless concert, however, was beginning to wear on the nerves and tempers of the other hard cases in McFee's neighborhood, and the prison doctor ordered the vocalist to another part of the prison. On the way McFee sang the "Glory" song with as much energy as if he had just started on it, and when he got in his new quarters, made the prison ring with it.

Then another doctor had a look at him and suggested to him that it was about time to sing "God Save the King," and quit, but apparently McFee could not hear the medical man, and he went on singing as if his life depended upon it. Only the fact that he had put up at the hotel before, as it were, had given any trouble saved him from being sternly dealt with, but in view of this the doctors agreed to put him in a cell as far apart from the others as possible and let him sing till he got tired. This was done, and a warder was put on guard for the night. All through the night McFee sang the "Glory" song with a zest that, however, had entraped his authors, and he went on singing it all the next day and night.

It was about breakfast time on the third day that the warder, looking in to see if McFee had eaten anything, found him unconscious on the floor of his cell. He slept for twelve hours and woke refreshed but feeble. When they asked him why he had sung so hard, he denied that he had warbled as much as a note, and obviously had forgotten the whole business.

THE RULERS IN THE BALKANS

New Pictures of the Kings Who Are Controlling the Destinies of Five Nations Now Fighting Turkey

Constantinople, Nov. 1 (midnight)—Whatever the issue of the terrible battle now raging on the western slopes of the Istranda Mountains in Thrace, it undoubtedly will be reckoned among the world's great struggles. Almost unintermittently for four days and three nights the battle has proceeded, the waning moon having afforded sufficient light for the armies to continue their murderous onslaughts against each other.

Turk and Bulgar are locked in a grapple which will be broken only by the decisive defeat of one or the other. The complete death of news from the front Wednesday and Thursday had given rise to a feeling of despondency, and general rumors of Turkish reverses gained currency. Today's official reports prove these rumors to be unfounded. Telegrams from various sources gave favorable accounts of the military situation, and the troops commanded by Mahmud Mukhtar in the vicinity of Vias were especially commended.

The Turkish forces were reported not merely to have held their own but to have effected an important advance which was threatening the Bulgarian rear. If this Turkish column joins hands with the garrison at Adrianople the Bulgarian army will be practically surrounded and its position very desperate.

Some idea of the desperate nature of the situation the Bulgarian commanders have withdrawn the army at Kustendje and their forces before Adrianople and that these troops are being hurried to support the main Bulgarian army's centre.

It is alleged that realizing the gravity of the situation the Bulgarian commanders have withdrawn the army at Kustendje and their forces before Adrianople and that these troops are being hurried to support the main Bulgarian army's centre.

They cheered and appeared to be in the best of spirits. At about 11 o'clock the Greek army in the town of Serbia, just across the Greek frontier in Turkey, they say that seeing Turkish troops in passing through the village of Malassa ordered the Greek inhabitants to follow them on peril of being massacred by Turkish cavalry.

On refusing, fifty-two of the Greeks were made prisoners and taken to Serbia and lodged in the jail, in which were seventy-three others of their companions. Later the governor of the prison told the Greeks they were free, and ordered them to leave the building. On emerging, the Greeks were surrounded by soldiers and an armed mob, who began to massacre them. Only four of the Greeks escaped with their lives. When the massacre was over a soldier cut off the noses and hands of the dead men. Despatches from Arta say that Turkish atrocities in Albania are continuing, and that the inhabitants of Epirus are fleeing to Arta and the mountains.

our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color. Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Agents—Wasson—100 King and 889 Main streets.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "cage top" which

"CASCARETS" FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Greatly But Thoroughly Cleanse and Regulate Your Stomach, Liver and Bowels While You Sleep

That awful sourness, belching of acid and flat gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, nausea and indigestion, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause, is not your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

The population of Belfast increased by more than 10 per cent between 1901 and 1911—from 340,180 to 380,947—and in the latter year the city contained nearly 24,000 more females than males.

BULGARIAN BOY SCOUTS

Prospers of the Balkan-Turkish war, here is an interesting photograph showing enthusiastic boy scouts of Bulgaria being drilled by an officer of the army. Bulgarian patriotism, which has never been doubted is more marked now than ever before, even the boys not yet out of their teens volunteering to go to the front. They display a pronounced ability for military and in a country where the males are nearly all called upon to bear arms, this preliminary training is of untold value to the Bulgarian government.

WHY HAVE I PLANNED TO WRITE THEM OUT

SOCIETY WOMAN, NOVELIST AND SHOP-KEEPER

Lady Angela Forbes Has Another of Her Books Published

LONDON SOCIETY NEWS

Duchess of Marlborough Finds Yet Another Outlet for Her Money and Her Sympathy — News of Canadians Across the Atlantic

(Times Special Correspondence)

London, Oct. 22.—Most refreshingly unconventional and original is Lady Angela Forbes, who has just published her third novel, called "The New Lady Berington." She comes of Erskine stock, every one of whose members is noted for doing something interesting. There are, for instance, her brother, Lord Rosslyn, who has tried almost every form of notoriety, and her sister, the lovely Duchess of Sutherland. The Countess of Warwick and Lady Algernon Gordon-Lennox, her half-sisters, are two of the best known English society women.

Lady Angela has tried her hand at lots of things and succeeded fairly well at most of them. Her books sell in thousands. They are smartly written, and she invariably skates on the thinnest of propriety "ice." Her first book was supposed to be a fact that caused her sprightly ladyship much amusement. She is fond, too, of drawing her characters from life.

Madame Lorry, who owns a house at Columbus, has Bonnet on the brain. Every new tenant who wears trousers she suspects of being a still active member of the tragic band. A few days ago she gave notice to three of her lodgers, young men whose adoration of collars and neckties had aroused her ever-alert suspicions. The youths left meekly, and in order, but Madame Lorry found consolation. Her very meekness made her anxious. As soon as they were gone she went to inspect the rooms they had left. In one of them she noticed that a plank in the floor had been recently displaced. She lifted it and peered beneath. With a cry she leapt back. Her intuition had not been wrong. There lay an infernal machine with its train of black-powder sinister and ominous fuses.

Madame Lorry had not read her evening papers for nothing. She fled from room crying: "Save yourselves, the house is going to blow up!" The tenants hurriedly fled from the house, which was soon in an uproar. Then up came a couple of bold constables, who entered the house, and with infinite precautions, raised the plank. A moment later they, too, were in the street, their features contorted with terror, but with laughter. The good lady had mistaken coffee-ground for powder, and the lady sport of a casual pointer for a murderous fove.

Rush "Exam." Then Off to War M. Popoff, a Bulgarian student at the Sorbonne, was anxious to take his degree before he took his musket. He fled from office he received an order to return to Bulgaria and join a regiment at the front. M. Popoff had just completed his long and exhaustive study of the movements of the planet Venus, and did not wish to lose the fruits of the labors of years. Unfortunately, the autumn session had just begun at the Sorbonne, and the members of the examining board were still rusticated by hill and sea. However, M. Popoff's request for immediate examination touched an answering chord of patriotism in the breast of the dean of the Faculty of Science, M. Appel. An extraordinary meeting of the board of examiners was convened, and for an hour M. Popoff expatiated on the motions of the planet with such eloquence and erudition that he left the examination room as Dr. Popoff. No doubt he will beguile the lull hours of bivouac by studying the stars.

One of distress drew passively, the other morning, to the grounds of a house at Courbevoie. They followed the direction of the breeze to a well in the centre of the garden. Near the well a young girl of seventeen was discovered, half-dead, and bleeding from a wound in the throat. She had come down, said, hearing the barking of dogs, to shut up the fowling-house. Suddenly a man had rushed at her and struck her, and upon her showing sign she drew a dagger, stabbed her, and then threw her into the well. She gave a full description of the man.

As the struggle must have been carried on in darkness, the suspicion of the police were aroused by the detail of the description. To establish the truth they made use of a stratagem. They told the girl that the cleanness of her portrait led no doubt as to the identity of her assailant, who, in all probability, paid the last penalty of the law. Upon this, faced with a sudden and unlooked-for responsibility, she confessed that her story was a myth, that what had really happened was that the solitude of the house where she was maid, and which was empty, had so preyed upon her mind that she at last determined to take her own life, and that, taking with her a kitchen knife,

The Bandit Scare Still is Strong In Paris

GETS DEGREE; OFF TO WAR

Bulgarian Student Given Rush Examination — Freak of Girl Who Tried Suicide — Moving Picture Man Gets Wrong Ear of Judge in Court Matter

(Times Special Correspondence)

Paris, Oct. 22.—It will be remembered how many devices were tried, and with how little success, against the gang of motor car bandits, when Bonnet and his companions were finally cornered until the building, where they were entrenched, was blown down. This led to numerous suggestions for the future, one being to use formal, whose fumes would stupefy the criminal, and the compel them to quit their abetter.

From Nanning, the French penal settlement in the Pacific, comes a story of the actual employment of this method. A convict on a ticket-of-leave, one Francoschi, aged 68, had married a girl of 25. He persistently maltreated her, and finally attempted to shoot her. The woman fled, and the man barricaded himself in and fired at everybody approaching the house, finally killing about half-a-dozen. According to a report from the penitentiary, after an hour or two a local chemist offered to try to stupefy Francoschi, and, assisted by one or two citizens at the penitentiary, he managed to introduce a nozzle of a pipe under the door. He then began pumping formal for another hour, at the end of which period Francoschi, unable to breathe any longer, dashed out a revolver in one hand and a carbine in the other.

Francoschi's appearance was the signal for renewed firing, and one of the warders engaged in a regular duel with the prisoner, with the result that the bandit dropped his carbine. The result of the official account of the acting governor, all the available forces in the penal settlement of Nanning were mobilized for this siege, which was almost an exact counterpart of those at Chioy and Nogat. The effect of the use of formal on this occasion appears fully to justify its adoption in any future similar emergency.

Report of Boys' Work Committee For First Year — An Article Worthy of Careful Reading

(Amherst News.)

The first year of the work being done under the boys' work committee closed on September 1, and the ground covered will be of interest to all who have supported and co-operated with the movement.

All of the work has been based on co-operation with institutions of the community, the home, the school and the church, and in the results gained the credit has been with the people of Amherst who have given the work their best thought and friendly interest as well as their financial support.

The first two months, August and September, 1913, were given to a study of conditions and the mapping out of the programme for the fall and winter.

In co-operation with the church a series of lectures to Sunday school teachers and workers was given, the lectures, six in number, were attended by 400 people, an average of 90 per lecture.

This was followed by a teachers' training class for young men, attended by 120 representatives of the different churches, and a number of whom are now teaching boys' classes.

Something over thirty-five addresses to the young people's societies, brotherhoods, congregations and special groups, were given during the winter.

In co-operation with the school a series of lectures to the boys and girls, young men and young women, as well as business men and the weekly attendance at these lectures has been over 1000.

In consultation with pastors and others, a series of social service studies were conducted for the winter.

The inter-church older boys meeting was held and attended by 1000 people.

The inter-church older boys meeting was held and attended by 1000 people.

In co-operation with the school, a series of lectures to the boys and girls, young men and young women, as well as business men and the weekly attendance at these lectures has been over 1000.

The most important step was that of the introduction of medical inspection and the work being done by the school nurse.

Through the granting of the use of the West Highlands school at night during March and part of May, many activities were conducted for employed boys and young women, and for the residents of the neighborhood generally. The figures for the work there for the two and one-half months are as follows:

Employed boys and girls in gymnasium classes . . . . . 102
 Total attendance at these classes . . . . . 102
 Physical examinations and measurements . . . . . 103
 First aid instruction . . . . . 103
 For all and social evenings, attendance . . . . . 278
 Five educational lectures and talks in connection with the work . . . . . 490
 Expense of conducting the work about $32.00 in the physical work which was carried on largely in the evening.

The committee of the men's church conducted the basket ball league conducted during the winter.

Total attendance at gymnasium classes . . . . . 5672
 Physical examinations . . . . . 428
 The West Highlands building is the first to be used in the dominion. Toronto, Halifax, St. John, and in Winnipeg, the matter is now being taken up by the committee of the men's church during the winter of 1913-14.

With the coming of summer the organization of the playground activities, and again through the co-operation of the school board and the federation athletic committee the academy grounds were given for use. In addition, Arthur Chubb has given of his property for the use of the playground.

In co-operation with the Methodist mission on the Highlands.

The work of the summer work has been published previously, and the interest in and value of this work was well shown by the attendance at the fields and games.

The work of Mr. McKinnon and the churches take up the movement in connection with the Sunday school classes.

With a group, some sixty, of the boys, the scout work has been of benefit, the aim has been rather to do good work than to do less work with a larger number, and the growth will be steady as the churches take up the movement in connection with the Sunday school classes.

The work being done through co-operation of the girls' work committee and their secretary, Miss Chase, speaks for itself, and the homes whose girls are being reached through their need and are trying to meet it.

Again in this work Amherst is the first in Canada or the United States, to realize the need in this way, but already the help given to his department.

The secretary this summer was a member of the faculty at the Canadian association, summer school for training workers, and has also visited many points to help associations, churches, Sunday schools, playground associations and civic clubs with problems similar to those encountered here.

A work of the kind being developed by the Amherst committee cannot be done in a hurry and many things that need attention have not even been touched as yet, but with the continued support and co-operation of the churches and the people generally the work will be developed and strengthened as the time goes on.

In comparison with the old line of work being done by other associations, the results here are of more than passing interest, and show beyond a doubt that starting along the broader lines Amherst has made no mistake.

The committee composed of H. L. Henson, C. S. Sutherland, E. C. MacPherson, P. L. Miller, A. D. Ross, C. L. Martin, Dr. J. G. McDougall and V. A. Barnwell, will be glad to receive any constructive suggestion and criticisms as they map out the work for the coming season.

"I hear," said Lou to his friend Dick, who had happened to meet one morning, "that Maude has broken her engagement with you."

"Yes," answered Dick, "it's true."

"Well, I'm sorry, old man. Why did she break it?"

"Why, merely because I stole a kiss," said Dick.

"What?" cried Lou, "why, he must be crazy to object to having his fiancée steal a kiss from her?"

"Well," explained Dick, "the trouble was I didn't steal it from her."

al, which is the work of Henry McCarthy an ecclesiastical sculptor, consists of a Gothic shrine, within which lies in sentimental attitude a life-sized alabaster figure of the poet. Upon the base below the figure are carved five shields, as in the centre displaying the arms of Shakespeare. The panel behind the figure shows the poet's royal coat of arms. This shrine is placed in the Church of St. Saviour's, Clerkenwell, and a portion of old London Bridge.

Buckingham Palace

Much has been written lately concerning the future of Buckingham Palace, and now it is said on seemingly good authority that the royal residence is to be replaced with an imposing frontage of red and white Portland stone. The existing dark exterior is to be replaced with an imposing frontage of white Portland stone. Buckingham Palace has for almost a century been regarded as the ugliest royal residence in the world. It is due to a lack of money when it was rebuilt in 1824 by Joseph Nash, and to the fact that it was the first architect designed.

There is such a rush for treatment under the new system that the Radcliffe Institute, adjacent to Oxford Circus, is to be extended. So many patients are waiting for treatment that operations are to begin almost immediately. Although the institute was opened only in August last year, the number of patients has recently been enlarged, and the building kept open until eleven o'clock at night in order to meet the demand for treatment.

People living in the Kensington workhouse had quite an unexpected treat this week. A young Chinese girl, found wandering in the streets, was taken to the institute, and although she did not speak a word of English, quickly made herself at home. She produced a case of knives and performed some wonderful juggling feats to the great delight of all. This Chinese girl is less than four feet high, and weighs only 40 lbs. She is in accordance with the Chinese custom of infanticide.

There is apparently some hope for the relief of the traffic problem in London. It is reported that the London telephone service, and the authorities who have been made against the service ever since the post office took over the telephone system, are to be provided with new numbers on January 1, when many lines also will be discontinued.

To a young Chinese sculptor has fallen the honor to execute a bust of the late King Edward, which is to be placed in the entrance of the new Middlesex County Hall at Westminster. He is P. Bryant and has already finished a bust of the late King, which is now in the drawing-room at Marlborough House, and is acknowledged to be one of the finest sculptured likenesses of His late Majesty in existence.

Youthful, Beautiful Skin Easy to Have

(From The Clubwoman.)

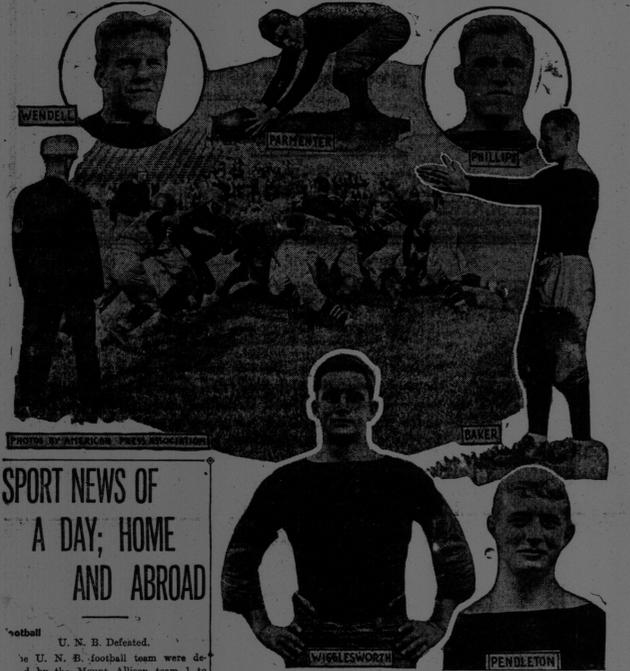

You may be as healthy as a bird in the air, and yet your complexion is suffering. Changing seasons and temperatures, winds, dust and dirt, are apt to injure your skin, even though your general health be good. When these external influences spoil the complexion, the natural thing is to remove the spots by external means. Ordinary macerated will do this. It will actually absorb the weather-beaten film-skin, and leave a brand new complexion, a new skin. The exquisitely beautiful and youthful complexion that is acquired, comes so easily, without harm or discomfort, there's no reason why any woman should not adopt this simple treatment. Poor Little Jeff, He Loses a Great Chance

By "Bud" Fisher

SOME OF THE PLAYERS WHO WILL CLASH ON THE GRIDIRON AT CAMBRIDGE TODAY

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 2.—The old rivals, topsoilers of the gridiron, Princeton and Harvard, will meet in the stadium here today for their first clash on Harvard soil since 1889. Both elevens are in fine condition and a hard fought battle is anticipated. Harvard and Princeton in their early games had developed a scoring attack with great possibilities, a defense which had not been penetrated to any great extent and individual stars who had been more than living up to expectations.

Harvard recently played Brown to a standstill in a game which was characterized by a great many misplays on the part of the Brown team and by the aggressiveness of the Harvard eleven in taking advantage of these weaknesses in Brown's play. Harvard was more powerful than Brown, both in the back field and the run line.

Princeton's defeat of Dartmouth cannot but elevate the Tiger stock. The versatility of the Tiger backs was in evidence from start to finish, but the Princeton defense did not prove itself irrefragable. Harvard's defense has been more consistent. This should give the Crimson eleven a slight advantage but a dependable one. It cannot be claimed that the Princeton line is irresistible. Dartmouth was able to gain substantially through it, and the Granite State boys are not the first eleven to accomplish the feat since the season opened.

The probable lineup of the elevens is as follows: Harvard—Fulton, left end; Storer, left tackle; Driscoll, left guard; Parmenter, center; Trumbull, right guard; Hitchcock, right tackle; Coolidge, right end; Bradley, quarterback; Harwick, left halfback; Beckley, right halfback; Wendell, fullback. Princeton—Andrews, left end; Phillips, left tackle; Shook, left guard; Blumenthal, center; Logan, right guard; E. Trenkman, right tackle; F. Trenkman, right end; S. Baker, quarterback; Pondell, left halfback; E. Waller, right halfback; De Witt, fullback. The picture shows a scene in the recent Dartmouth-Princeton game.

Beall will fight it out for the centre position. Henry, catcher, and Shanks, outfielder, of the Washington team, both began the off season by having their tonsils removed in a Washington hospital. Brick Owens, a National League umpire, who made a great success this year and fully lived up to the reputation he acquired in the American Association, is acquired in the Chicago White Sox. The rumor originated in Pittsfield, where "Big Ed" Walsh of the White Sox was this week attending the wedding of his teammate.

Walsh said that O'Brien would figure in a trade during the winter months, and would be one of the White Sox to report under Manager Callahan next spring. Walsh did not say who was to figure in the trade from the Chicago side, but declared he had heard from reliable sources that Harry Lord, the third baseman, and "Rollo" Zieder were due to be traded. Diamond Sparkles.

Whoever succeeds Roger Bremanhan at St. Louis will have his hands full from the very start. No less than seven of the best players on the team are due to renew contracts in the spring. Many of them are dissatisfied with their salary and it will be no easy task to coax them into signing. Big Ed Konecny of St. Louis, it is said, will demand $6,000 next season. Three-Fingered Brown may bid farewell to the game. He has gone to the coast after a fruitless endeavor to get Mr. Grayson, owner of the Louisville club, to appoint him manager, and declares he will probably stay there. Hennie Zimmerman has been voted the most popular player in Chicago. He won first prize in a race with the renowned Ed Walsh. Joe Birmingham will take up his duties with the Naps next season as bench manager if he can find a man to hold down his place in the outfield. He considers Jackson a fixture in right and Graney a certainty in left. Ryan, Liebold and

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY TO BUY

One Dollar Corsets For 59 Cents

They are the same Corset that we sold three weeks ago, and made by the D. & A. Corset Company. With non-rustible and unbreakable steels, the side steels being arranged in a way that one slips over the other, and the four garters that are attached to the corsets are supported partly from the waistline and partly from the hip.

The corset is covered with French cotille and is without doubt the biggest corset bargain that St. John ladies have ever had the opportunity of indulging in.

We have other lines of D. & A. Corsets from 50 cents to $3.50 a pair. Sizes from 19 to 30.

BAY PROPERTIES ARE SOLD

Clayton Bros. Buy T. M. Wisted Building and Plan to Build Hall - Tisdale Block Purchased

Another transaction in Brussels street water mark for lot values in the new section of the city. The property sold was the block of Tisdale Place on the corner of Loch Lomond and Red Head roads, including sixteen lots and measuring 14,000. This is the third sale for some of these lots. They were split up among half a dozen owners each of whom will have a very attractive profit on their original investment.

Toronto Man Will Buy
J. E. McCready of Toronto, who has been in St. John looking over the real estate offerings has been sufficiently impressed with the investment opportunities here to decide to take some of the properties west with him. Speaking to a Times reporter this morning he expressed the greatest confidence in the future growth of the city but appeared to be as much impressed with the lack of progressiveness displayed in making the advantages of the city known. Referring to the lack of confidence displayed by St. John people he said that it is his desire to sell St. John properties in the west than it is here and also that western propositions can be sold more readily in St. John than local properties.

Recent developments point to a renewal of activity in the sale and purchase of lots in East St. John. During the last few weeks there has been more buying in that district than there has been for some time, probably as a result of the rumors that the arrangements for the establishment of the steel industry have been completed, and as soon as the definite announcement is made it is expected that there will be a lively demand in the market for property in that section. An indication of this is a sale which was completed yesterday which sets a high

THE MARINE WHARF.
The tenders for the new marine wharf which is to be constructed at West St. John were to be opened this week, and the time has been extended by the marine department until Nov. 10.

AUTO PARTY TO FREDERICTON.
An automobile party, composed of Percy W. Thomson, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Alexander McMillan, E. M. Olive, and F. W. Fraser will leave for Fredericton tomorrow morning in Mr. Thomson's auto. They will return home tomorrow night.

HARVESTERS HOME.
Two cars filled with maritime province men who had gone west in the early fall to aid in the harvesting of the crops, were attached to the Montreal express arriving at noon today. The men were mostly from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

THE INTERDICT LAW.
Inspector Jones, speaking at a statement made at the meeting of the Associated Charities on Thursday that interdicts had little trouble in getting liquor, says that in many cases the law has proved of great value by removing temptation from the way of men inclined to intemperance and that those who evade it must do so at the expense of considerable trouble and money.

GOING HOME TO FIGHT.
Inspired by the zeal of patriots, and anxious to join in the war against the Turks, about twelve Greek passed through the city today on their way to the states to take a steamer for their native land. George Chagaris, who has conducted a poolroom and tobacco store in Mill street, left last night to join the Greek army at the front, and after the fight is fought, if no Turkish bullet lays him low, he will take unto himself a little Grecian maiden who is willing to change her name to Chagaris.

THE SLAUGHTER HOUSES.
The monthly meeting of the Slaughter House Commissioners was held yesterday afternoon. It was decided to fill the position of secretary treasurer, which has been vacant for many years, and Dr. D. E. Health Report in St. John Promises to be Satisfactory

When the annual report of the secretary of the board of health, T. M. Burns, is presented at this month's meeting, it will show a vast improvement in general health statistics for this year over others that have passed. The percentage of infectious diseases will be nearly fifty per cent lower than in other years, which is a most gratifying condition of affairs. This does not include consumption, for which the tables are kept separate. The climatic conditions this year greatly helped the board in their work of keeping down disease germs.

HIS EYE TAKEN OUT

James E. Day Operated on Today - Was Hurt in Boston While There to See Ball Games

An operation was performed this morning upon James E. Day, of 31 Crown street, by Dr. J. G. R. Crawford, assisted by Dr. H. Lumbey, when one of his eyes was removed and a piece of steel taken from the interior. He will be deprived of the sight of the eye, but it was only a matter of saving the other. The operation was successful.

Mr. Day was one of those who went from St. John to see the world's series ball games in Boston last month. He was walking through one of the streets of the Hub one day when he was struck in the eye by a baseball. He glanced towards the thrower, and he found later that it was a piece of steel.

NEARING CLOSE OF NEGOTIATIONS OVER SUGAR REFINERY

Mr. Anson is to Be Here For Another Conference on Monday

Monday will witness another step in the negotiations between the promoters of the sugar refinery and the city commissioners regarding the concessions required by the former. Word was received at City Hall today that F. H. Anson, of Montreal, would be here on Monday to meet the commissioners once more, and a conference has been arranged for Monday afternoon following the regular meeting of the council.

ST. JOHN SCHOOLS AS SOCIAL CENTRES

A special meeting of the school board will be held on Tuesday afternoon next at four o'clock to hear a delegation from the Pigeonrock Association on the subject of opening one or more of the school buildings in the evenings as social centres for educational purposes. John Bradford will be asked to attend and state briefly the nature of the work done in Amherst school buildings in the evenings.

A BOOST FOR ST. JOHN

This week's issue of the Contract Record and Engineering Review of Toronto devotes nearly two pages to a description of the great work being done at East St. John, with two views showing the huge plant of Norton Griffiths & Co. at work, and another showing Courtenay Bay as it will appear when the government's plans are carried out in full. The article points out that the ultimate expenditure will involve at least $50,000,000, and sets out accurately the position of St. John in relation to the transportation system of Canada. Reference is also made to the great work being done at West St. John, and the large factories and other big buildings now under construction, as well as street railway expansion and the government's new marine dock.
