SENSATIONS IN FRENCH POLITICS

Ministerial Intrigues Are Reported Following Cabinet Downfall

Private Financial Schemes Fostered in the Negotiations with Germany is Statement in Newspaper

(Canadian Press) Paris, Jan. 12.—Sensational revelations have followed the fall of Premier Caillaux. There is a general belief that official documents and therefore presumably emanate from friends of the ex-minister, M. De Selves.

Over the signature of Andre Morizot, M. Jaures' private secretary, a particularly direct statement to this effect is headed, "The Financial Interest Underlying the Negotiations." M. Morizot begins by declaring that the foreign editor of the Temps, the Paris representative of the Congo Kamerun Railway, the Berlin correspondent of the Temps, and Herr Sontag, chief of the German colonial party, and a deputy in the Reichstag, "concluded the negotiations from beginning to end."

"It is M. Dardaine who, in his newspaper, has constantly put the screws on successive ministers. Banned from Quai D'Orsay, he has not been, under the Caillaux administration, the confident and the familiar of the whole ministry, but has remained in contact with him, that is, over the head of Minister De Selves, M. Caillaux has carried on all the secret manoeuvres of the last year."

"Today there is a perfect understanding between the different financiers. They have pulled off their skin. The directors of the Le Monde, which includes the majority of the Congo Kamerun Railway, M. Linder, editor of the Temps, and M. Paul Boyer, editor of the Temps, have just received 70,000 of German shares, payable after the realization of the agreement. They have just selected to join them on the board two German financiers, Doctor Kautsky and Herr Sontag, former governor of Kamerun. This has been printed by a financial journal."

D. L. HUTCHINSON, Director. SUGAR AND MOLASSES. Sugar and molasses are reported cheaper this week than for some time. They had seen on the upward trend for quite a while, and in fact, had reached what was considered practically a record in this city regarding price. A drop of ten cents was made in sugar on Thursday afternoon, the arrival of 200 hundredweight bags caused a drop of two or three cents that commodity. There is not much the old stock on hand, and the new stocks forced the price.

THRILLING STORY FROM MISSIONARY

Peril of 25 Members of Canadian Methodist Mission in China

Flight to Safety

(Canadian Press) Montreal, Jan. 13.—The thrilling adventures of twenty-five Canadian Methodist missionaries in their flight through the heart of the Chinese rebellion is related in a cable to the Herald today from T. E. Heyman of the Canadian Missionary Printing Press at Cheng Tu.

"Making their way past desolated and burning towns, the party, says Mr. Heyman, did not complete the running of the gauntlet from within sight of the mountains of Tibet to the Pacific coast without being in peril from both government and rebel forces.

"At Hoking we were fired upon repeatedly by imperial troops and time and again our household was struck, but we escaped unhurt. Only one of the native boatmen was seriously wounded. Several of us Canadians had almost miraculous escapes.

"We did not leave Chengtu until we were ordered to do so by Mr. Wilkinson, the British consul general. On Dec. 12 we set forth under escort from Chengtu. There were 100 of us in all, comprising nearly ninety members of the Canadian Methodist mission, including the missionaries and their wives, besides our forty Japanese and persons of other nationalities.

"The first part of the journey we made overland. Then we reached deeper water and took the boats, being split up into a number of different parties.

"Two miles above Hoking we reached the British port of Waihsien. We had experienced a great sense of relief. We are safe now we thought, but to our surprise the captain refused to afford us any protection. He turned a deaf ear to our appeals. He sent us on down the river through a district that already had been infested with marauders and full of peril. Had the gunboat been with us it is altogether unlikely that we should have been fired upon as we were. Much indignation is felt among our party and the British officials who have been doing their utmost to protect the foreigners.

"We are making a strong protest to Admiral Sir Alfred E. Wainwright, commander in chief of the British vessels here, and the matter has been brought to the attention of the British consul general.

"Our section of the Chengtu refugee party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Drey, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Heyman, all of Toronto; Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crutcher, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Barber, Rev. W. Small, Mr. J. M. Payne, Rev. G. R. Jones, of the general board, and Miss McNaughton, Miss McPherson, Miss Edinburgh, Miss Shattworth, and Miss Thompson of the Women's Missionary Society.

CRAWFORD HOUSE OWNERS IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT. One of Boston's Oldest Hotels in Financial Trouble — Employees Among Creditors. Boston, Jan. 13.—Henry Goodwin and George H. Rimbach, conducting the Crawford House, Brattle and Court streets, one of the oldest hotels in the city, have confessed bankruptcy, attorneys Alfred S. Hayes and Alvah G. Sleeper filing a petition at the United States District Court on their behalf.

AUTO THROUGH THE ICE, FIVE ARE DROWNED

Two Men and Three Women Lost in Water At Trenton, N. J.

THIRD MAN WAS SAVED

(Canadian Press) Trenton, N. J., Jan. 13.—Ducking through the darkness in zero weather, two men and three women were drowned early today when an automobile in which they were riding ran on the ice covering an artificial stream of water used by a power plant, outside the city.

The men were Donald Lord, son of a former supreme court justice, and Chester A. Vanelef, an automobile salesman. The women are well known. One was Margaret Lindell, and another was named Maitry or Malvey. The third is believed to have been Anna Hazel. Her body has not been recovered.

Frederick M. Foster, a third man in the party, who was running the automobile, escaped drowning but is suffering from exposure. Foster managed to escape from the machine after it had broken through the ice, and ran nearly a mile to secure help. The accident happened at a point where there is a sharp bend in a road, and it is believed that Foster had become entangled with the coil and that he was unable to control the steering wheel, as he was faintly familiar with the road. Foster was in another serious accident at New Brunswick some months ago.

SHOT HIMSELF BY ORDER OF MOTHER. Her Sorrow for Sons' Misdeeds Led Her to Order Him to Commit Suicide. Budapest, Jan. 13.—The sorrow of a mother for the misdeeds of her son led her to order him to commit suicide. The son, Zoltan Lythinsky, is alleged to have been concerned in bank frauds involving more than $50,000.

He attempted to make an attempt on his life at the command of his mother, who had learned of the frauds. The woman, who is alleged to have been in the city, and hand it to Zoltan with the remark: "You must die in order to make your family happy."

The mother went into the room and waited to see her son shoot himself. He did so, but the wound was not serious, and he is now recovering in the hospital. She has confessed that she was coerced in the matter.

UPRISING IN CRETE. London, Jan. 13.—A despatch to the London Times from Crete states that the supporters of Venizelos of Greece and all the Christians have joined the insurrectionary movement and that the executive have been converted to the cause. An insurrectionary committee governs the island and is preparing to send Cretan deputies to Athens for the next session of the Greek parliament. A short time ago serious trouble was caused by the Cretan who, in their desire for union with Greece, elected deputies to the Greek parliament. The deputies started for Athens but severe measures were taken to keep them out of Greece. About the same time a revolutionary party made its appearance in Crete and according to the despatch, apparently has the government under its complete control.

MAINE CENTRAL TO BUILD RAILWAY TO MEGANTIC? Portland, Jan. 13.—Official announcement that the directors of the Rangeley Lakes & Megantic railroad have voted to commence the construction of a line from Oquossoc, the present terminus of the Portland and Rangeley division of the Maine Central railroad to Kennebec, a distance of ten miles, is made.

Work on the proposed line will start as soon as the contracts are let. It is believed that eventually the line will be continued to Megantic, where connections may be had with the Canadian Pacific, giving the Maine Central direct connections from Portland to Quebec.

PROMINENT ODDFELLOW DEAD. Portland, Me., Jan. 12.—Herbert W. Supra, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Maine, I. O. O. F., and also grand scribe of the grand encampment, died at his home here yesterday, after making a brave fight at an at a week of typhoid fever that prostrated him about two weeks ago, the third attack of the same disease that he has had during recent years. Mr. Supra was born in Portland in 1868.

SOCIALIST GAIN IN GERMANY CHIEFLY AT RADICALS' EXPENSE

Results of Yesterday's Elections Now Given Practically Complete

Conservative Party Won, 237 Seats

(Canadian Press) Berlin, Jan. 13.—At daylight today, with returns from yesterday's election practically complete it was apparent that the rebalancing must be awaited before the character of the new parliament would be definitely known.

The results, with only forty-seven districts missed, are as follows: Socialists—Seventy-two; a net gain of twenty-four, reballots 113. Conservatives—Seventy-two, thirty-two, a net loss of eighteen, reballots, sixty-five. Centre—Seventy-two, thirty-two, a net loss of ten, reballots, thirty-five. National Liberals—Seventy-two, a net loss of fifteen, reballots, thirty-five. Radicals—Seventy-two, a net loss of twelve, reballots, thirty-one.

The Socialist gain, it appears, are mainly at the expense of the radicals, who are greatly disappointed at their showing. They will return to the Reichstag with hardly more than three-fifths of their former strength.

LOCAL NEWS. THE GO-AHEAD TIME. I. C. Stewart of the Maritime Merchant, who is in the city, will leave this evening for Montreal. He is making his annual visit in connection with the spring run of the steamer, when this year will make special note of the forward movement in the maritime provinces.

INVESTIGATION OF SALOONS. Members of the liquor license commission spent yesterday afternoon making an inspection of the saloons in the city. The commission, which was headed by the city clerk, and included the district with the exception of Dock Street. They intend to complete the inspection of Dock Street and in the North End on Monday.

A BABY'S DEATH. The death of an infant took place under circumstances in the city this week. The child, born on Dec. 10, was named Stewart, son of George Stewart, colored, of Union Alley. It died by the death of its mother, Mrs. Stewart, who died in the same hospital. The child was born on Dec. 10, and died on Dec. 12.

DEBATE TOMORROW. In St. Peter's Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow afternoon a debate will be held on the respective advantages of railroads as against the navigation. James McIntyre will lead the affirmative upholding navigation, and will be assisted by John Rodney and John White. James Dyer will lead the negative, assisted by A. Howard and L. McManis. Joseph Harrington, secretary of St. Michael's school, will act as judge.

FRATERNAL VISIT. The date of the annual fraternal visit of the St. Peter's Y. M. C. A. has been changed to Thursday, Jan. 18, instead of Wednesday. The invitation has been extended to the members of the Father Mathew Association and Y. M. C. A. of St. Joseph, as well as to the presidents of the other Catholic societies. The members of the societies are invited to assemble in their rooms and go in a body to the North End rooms. The orchestra of the association will play a musical programme, and there will be other numbers.

DIED IN MONTREAL. Mrs. Rose Woodland, wife of Frank Woodland, died in Montreal on Wednesday last, at her home there, after a long illness. Mrs. Woodland was a native of Montreal, and was only twenty-four years of age. She is survived by her husband and one child. Mr. Woodland is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodland, of 217 Charlotte street, this city. Many St. John friends will sympathize with him in his loss. His mother went to Montreal on Monday last. The funeral took place on Friday to Mount Royal Cemetery.

WINNIPEG IS AT WAR WITH SOCIAL EVIL

New Police Commission Gives up the Idea of Segregation

Fines of $500 and Even $1,000 Did Not Keep Women in Area Allocated to Them and up Town Streets Have Been Inevaded

(Canadian Press) Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 13.—Winnipeg's new police commission, organized yesterday, has declared war on the segregation of the social evil. Two years ago the old police commission adopted the radical policy of setting aside a section of the city for the use of the "social evil," if the women observed certain regulations, they could remain unmolested.

The principal reason for the change is the failure of the policy of segregation to segregate. Houses of ill-fame in the city of seventy were grouped in Raschel street, but after a few days the police proved too great an attraction and houses farther up town were apparent. Despite the vigilance of the police, more than 100 houses were established outside the area. Fines of $500 and even $1,000 were imposed, but this has not lessened the evil. Today three out of the four streets in the segregated area are empty and "no le" signs are on the doors.

Perms, Grandbrook and Leithbridge are the only streets in western Canada that are segregated areas of social vice are permitted by the authorities.

PIERCED HIS FOOT WITH DARING NEEDLE. Jacob Friday Seemed to Suffer No Pain—Tried to Kill Wife in a Crazy Spree. Welland, Ont., Jan. 13.—Jacob Friday, sixty years old, residing near Welland, became violently insane and after breaking all the windows of his house, attempted to kill his wife with a dangerous needle, which protruded half an inch above the foot, and half an inch below. The old man showed no evidence of suffering.

DARING FEAT TO DODGE CUSTOMS OFFICIALS. Smugglers on Belgian-France Border Get Away With Big Lot of Tobacco. Paris, Jan. 13.—A daring feat has been accomplished by a band of smugglers on the main road running from Belgium into France.

A few days ago the Lille excise officers viewed a plan to run a large consignment of contraband tobacco in a motor-car. The smugglers' plan was to cross the frontier near Houthain and follow the main road to Lille. The captain of the Lille excise station had the leading of the car, closely watched and arranged for word to be sent to him the night the smugglers departed.

Finally a message came that the dash would be made. After dark the captain took thirty excise-men and laid an ambush for the smugglers, and a stout rope was stretched across the main road. After being in wait a long time the excise-men heard the hum of a car traveling at a great rate towards the darkness.

Two officers stood about 100 yards from where the cable was stretched, and cried out, "Halt! We are customs officers." Instead of stopping the driver increased his speed and the car plunged forward until its headlights showed the gleaming steel cable in its path.

With a shout of triumph the excitement of the wheel to the left and deliberately put the vehicle on to the metals of the light railway running alongside the road. Although a train was but 100 yards behind him, the chauffeur never flinched and the car, after a terrific jolting, regained the road. Once the ambush was passed the car vanished with its precious load into the night.

KELHER LOSES APPEAL. Boston, Jan. 13.—The appeal taken by Wm. J. (Big Bill) Kelher from the decision of the U. S. District court which convicted him of aiding and abetting Bookkeeper Geo. W. Coleman to abstract $37,000 from the National City Bank of Cambridge, was dismissed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday. Kelher is confined in the East Cambridge jail pending the decision and is under sentence of eighteen years in the state prison. Unless the case is carried to the United States supreme court, Kelher will soon be transferred to Charlestown.

THIRTEEN BELOW IN CITY TODAY

Thermometer Tumbles To Lowest Point Recorded This Winter

GENERAL OVER PROVINCE

Reports from Central Points in New Brunswick Show Many Worse off Than St. John—Montreal Has Longest Cold Spell in Years

St. John had its coldest day of the season today. The mercury during the morning dropped as low as thirteen points below zero. At noon the weather had moderated but the thermometer registered five below. During the early part of the morning the fog was intense, and business men and others found things mighty uncomfortable journeying to work.

At East St. John thermometers registered from sixteen to eighteen below the mark, and in Fairville sixteen.

The effect of the present cold wave is ready to be seen in shipping and other commercial circles here. Several of the liners now in port are being delayed waiting for cargo, the cause being that the cargo is being held up by the ice in the bay.

Reports to the Times say: Fredericton—Fourteen below, northwest wind, clear and cold. Sussex—Fifteen below. Edmundston—Clear, twenty-seven below. Woodstock—Twenty-five below, moderate wind, clear. St. Stephen—Northerly winds, fair, eleven below. Moncton—Fine and cold, westerly winds, moderate, five below. Halifax, N. S.—Fine and cold, three above, northwest wind, fifteen miles an hour. Sydney, N. S.—Moderate west wind, light snow last night, lowest since midnight, five above.

Montreal, Jan. 13.—When the day was ushered in, with thermometers registering fifteen below zero, eighty continuous hours of weather below the mark, had been registered. Today is the tenth in succession that the mercury has gone below zero, that the minimum for the twenty-four hours not being above since Wednesday, January 8.

The coldest of the ten day period of zero weather was on Saturday last when nineteen below was registered at nine o'clock in the morning. The spell of weather has been unusual for Montreal. During the last decade periods of cold weather have not extended beyond six or seven days.

New York, Jan. 13.—This was the coldest day New York has experienced in eight years. From five degrees above zero at midnight, the mercury went steadily down, until at half-past six a.m. it was three below.

TRAGEDIES IN COLD IN THE CANADIAN WEST. Prospector's Frozen to Death Crossing Lake—Hospital Patients Carried From Burning Building at 20 Below. (Canadian Press) South Porcupine, Ont., Jan. 13.—J. W. Muir and Joe Lingault, two prospectors, were frozen to death while crossing Night Hawk Lake on the way to Thomas township. The temperature was more than forty below. The stiffened bodies were found by a relief party sent out from Golden City. Three other men named Burrows, O'Connor and Johnston, are said to be missing. All five were on the way to do assessment work. The cold was intensified by a cutting west wind.

Edmonton, Alts. Jan. 13.—With the mercury at twenty-five below zero, and a hurricane sweeping over the north Saskatchewan valley, twenty-five patients were rushed out of the burning Edmonton Hospital at midnight, narrowly escaping frostbite. Half of the building was burned.

WARNS ENGLAND TO BE PREPARED

Lord Rosebery Calls On Nation to Back Up Foreign Policy

POSSIBILITY OF A GREAT WAR

(Canadian Press) London, Jan. 13.—Lord Rosebery, in a speech at Glasgow University yesterday, warned the nation of the necessity of backing up the country's foreign policy which he said, for room or evil, had now embraced England in the continental system and might at any moment bring the country into contact with armies numbering millions.

"We have entered into liabilities," said Lord Rosebery, "no less binding because not written, which might lead us into one of the great Armageddons which sometimes have ravaged Europe, and which would be greater than any war since the fall of Napoleon."

Lord Rosebery said he did not desire to make the flash news, but the position was one of extreme danger, and one for which it was impossible to be over-prepared.

Majesty General Sir Frederick Maughan, one of the ablest writers in the British army, died today. He was born in 1841. The Times editorially reviewing the Canadian parliament situation, believes it extremely unlikely that the next few months will see any strikingly new developments in Canadian policy. It says that the most important problems have already been reserved for prolonged investigation. The paper comments the right Hon. Mr. Borden's decision to take personal charge of imperial and foreign relations by transferring the Canadian department for external affairs from the secretary of state to the office of the prime minister.

IMPERIAL ARMY ON MARCH TO GIVE BATTLE TO THE REVOLUTIONARIES. Peking, Jan. 13.—The whole of the imperial army at Hankow has started on its way to Ho-Nan with the object of encountering and destroying a revolutionary army operating in the province. The imperial army intend to recapture several towns in the province of Ho-Nan and southern Chihli, which had gone over to the revolutionaries. It is hoped that in the event of the downfall of the imperial government the integrity of China will point out that the transfer of the capital from Peking to Nanking, as is proposed, will be inimical to the interests of China, and the general situation become more disturbed than it is at present.

The patriotic fund being raised among the Manchus prior to carry on the campaign for the suppression of the revolution, has reached up to the present $30,000, (approximately $38,000). It is stated in authoritative circles that Doctor Wu Ting Fang, minister of justice in the republican cabinet, has telegraphed from Nanking to Premier Yuan Shi Kai, proposing an extension of the armistice for twelve days.

It is reported that Sir John A. Gordon, the British minister, has informed Premier Yuan Shi Kai that Great Britain would not be satisfied with any government of which Yuan Shi Kai was the head.

RIOTOUS OUTBREAK BY FOREIGN OPERATIVES IN LAWRENCE, MASS., MILLS. Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 13.—The mill district of this city was thrown into a state of disorder by a riotous outbreak yesterday, on the part of hundreds of Italians and other foreign operatives, who left their work in the Wood, Ayer and Washington mills of the American Woolen Company because they objected to a reduction of two hours pay a week under the working of the new fifty-four hours law. Several persons were severely injured, a number of operatives fainting, and six arrests were made.

Nearly 11,000 operatives were idle, and the feeling was general that the strike might involve the 25,000 mill workers in the city.

ROBERT B. SMITH'S DWELLING BURNED

Fredericton, Jan. 12.—(Special)—The dwelling house of Robert B. Smith, lumberman, at Oromocto was destroyed by fire at noon today with the barns and outbuildings. Mr. Smith and his wife are absent from home and the children have been cared for by neighbors. The loss will be $9,000.

Last night was the coldest this season. The mercury in the thermometer registered below.

Harris Lavell and Joseph Murphy, arrested in St. John on charges of burglarizing Mot's store at Roushounish place yesterday and were sentenced to two months' imprisonment. They say they belong to Cleveland, Ohio, and were transported to St. John.

THE LATEST FROM THE ELECTIONS IN GERMANY

Unofficial returns have been received from all the 397 constituencies, but owing to discrepancies in the tallies it is difficult to make any definite prediction of the complexion of the new Reichstag. There are 180 constituencies in which a second ballot will be necessary. The Conservative-Clerical coalition has been badly shaken. Its absolute majority is probably a thing of the past, but the combination of the two powerful parties must still be reckoned with as the strongest factor in the Reichstag.

The Socialists have run up the number of their elected members already to sixty-four, or, according to some reports, sixty-six, of which twenty-six were taken from members of other parties, and the Socialists are also considered in 122 second ballots. They need only to hold their own in the re-balloting to return to the Reichstag as strong numerically as they were in 1907, when their representation reached high mark.

NO PASTOR YET

St. David's church, which has been without a pastor since the first of July, is still without any particular prospect of calling one. The parish supply committee has decided to continue engaging temporary supply for several weeks longer in the hope that the congregation may be able to unite on the choice of a minister.

PRINCE WILLIAM STREET CHANGES

The Robert Reform Company, Limited, steamship agents, have secured a lease of the ground floor of the Troop building from new owners, the Board of Trade. The Reform Company vacate their present offices in the Bayard building, owing to its purchase by the dominion government in connection with their arrangements for the adjoining sites.

It has not been announced definitely whether the new post office is to be built this year or next, but the appropriation of $100,000 for the purpose has been taken to indicate that the government is going ahead with the plans right away, and the tenants of the Bayard building are accordingly looking for new quarters.

The Troop building will afford splendid offices for the steamship agency, and as H. C. Schofield, the manager, is president of the board of trade this year, the arrangement will be a convenient one for the latter organization also.

Kuonwin and Gilchrist, insurance underwriters, who occupy offices on the ground floor of the Bayard building, have engaged a suite of offices in the Pugsley building on the corner of Canterbury and Prince William streets, secured by Hon. Wm. Pugsley and the International Railway, and will move into them as soon as they are ready. Large rent for the year has been built into the office.

The other tenants of the Bayard building include White & Clarke, the Great West Life Insurance Company on the ground floor, T. T. Lantaulin in the basement and second floors, and the upper part of about fifty flats. H. J. Garson, who is the owner, has had plans for the necessary changes drawn up, and he is intended to put them into effect for a year or until the post office is nearing completion.

REXTON MAN MISSING SINCE LAST AUGUST

Baby He Has Never Seen Awaited Return of John Maillet

(Richibucto Review)

Rexton people are discussing the circumstances connected with the disappearance of John Maillet. The missing man left the town in August last, in company with a man named Edward, on an outfitting trip. They visited several resorts, and finally made headquarters on an island near Bay du Vin, and this was the last seen of Maillet. Edward says he went to the mainland one day, and on his return his companion was nowhere to be found.

The statement is made that no other persons were on the island, and the only means of reaching the mainland was by boat, and the only boat in the vicinity was the one used by Edward. Inquiries made of the river and in the lumber camps failed to locate the missing man, who has never been seen since Edward left him on the island. His wife has never heard from him, and has almost given up hope of seeing him again. A child was born some after he went away and the authorities have been looking after the mother and baby. They belong in Berlin, N. H., and will probably be sent there.

Many rumors are afloat which, if well founded, would seem to demand an investigation into the strange disappearance of the man.

A WIFE'S INFLUENCE

Lookers-on often see the wonderful influence a wife can exert for the good or failure of her husband. By a gracious, genial manner she may win honors of triumph for him. In nearly every walk of life, where he has to look to the generous public for a livelihood, she can help him make the yoke easier and the burden lighter. This is sure to be so where love has entered into the sacrament of a union of two hearts. With knowledge, the help, and the strength that come from a husband and wife thoroughly understanding one another, marriage becomes a veritable heaven on earth.

One of the greatest mistakes is that of forming a union upon a money basis. Of course, there are many mercenary women who can and do marry for a home and for the support of their children. The cause of death were senility, but pneumonia, diphtheria, smothered, tuberculosis, acute bronchitis, premature birth, cardiac failure, carcinoma of liver and chronic pleuritis, one each.

LET US ALL REJOICE

"I had the young man fired for partisanship. There are a lot more who are going to get the axe."

There's a lofty and noble declaration of principles and purpose for you. By whom made? By Mr. Wilcox, M. P. Who is Mr. Wilcox? He is a patriot, an empire-saver, an enthusiastic supporter of the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden.

When and where did Mr. Wilcox deliver himself of these immortal sayings? In his place in parliament, after having declared with firmness and pride that he had secured the dismissal of an official twenty-five years old to put one of sixty in his place.

"I had the young man fired for partisanship," cried Mr. Wilcox, and there was the ring of a mortal challenge in his voice as he went on—"There are a lot more who are going to get the axe."

What a great and glorious New Year resolution for a patriot! Who but an empire-saver and flag-bearer of sorts could give expression to such noble sentiments in such simple and robust language?

"There are a lot more who are going to get the axe." Could language be simpler, more direct, more expressive? We wot not.

When Mr. Wilcox made this famous declaration, he doubtless had his eye fixed on "our great leader," the civil service reformer, the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden. For Mr. Borden is pledged to reform the civil service. Mr. Wilcox will assist. As soon as all the grit partisans are "fired" and tory partisans put in their places, the thing will be done. If any man ask how the civil service can be purified by merely replacing one partisan with another, the answer is simple. One is a grit partisan and the other a tory. Also, as Mr. Monk says—"We are here and you are there."

Blessed, therefore, are the tory partisans, for they shall be rewarded with office, though their partisanship be as near to their years' fustic as Mr. Wilcox, are in hand, will see that their enemies are dealt with after the manner of the Chinese executioner.

ANCIENT LABOR UNIONS

The date of the earliest labor organization cannot be fixed in the past, but at least as early as 1200 before Christ we are told that one Menesthus of Athens acrossed the aristocrats and demanded for the people the right to be initiated into the Eleusinian mysteries. There must have been at least some understanding among the workmen of that time, and one of their first privileges was that they were excluded from the aristocratic religious rites, the aristocratic teaching that workmen had no souls.

References are found to trade unions in the Bible in the time of Solomon. Hiram of Tyre, who is said to be the architect of the temple at Jerusalem, brought with him from Tyre 3,500 foremen and 40,000 free artificers for that work. Mr. C. Osborne Ward, in his "Ancient Lowly," informs us that Sothias was a member of one of the ancient unions and that his last words as he lay dying was to remind the brethren that they owed their cook for a chicken on which they had feasted. To infer from this incident in the life of Sothias that he was a member of a labor union is building upon a most insecure foundation. One thing is certain that he was most irregular in his work, and his companions in labor could not have accomplished much with the numerous questions he would be continually putting to them.

It is certain that the Roman world was very effectively organized at the beginning of the Christian era, and when the first preachers of the Gospel went forth they found among the guilds their most fruitful soil. The church was first developed where these unions were strong, as in Pergamos, Laodicea and Ephesus. In fact some authorities have maintained that Christianity was simply a movement of organized labor, and that the early Christians strove in public to achieve an equality which they had long preached and striven for in private.

The guild probably grew from the family, and it was at first connected with the religious cult. It still has a strong ethical value, and its influence in teaching the lesson of team-work and co-operation can hardly be over estimated.

Civil service reform, now that Mr. Borden is in power, appears to mean that offices must be found at any cost for his clamorous followers.

The last year was one of great activity and progress in Moncton, but the city council is able to show a surplus on ordinary expenditures.

Public sentiment in the United States is subject to quick changes. An unusual method of expression. An illustration is found in the fact that in the case of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richardson letters are pouring in urging that the death penalty be carried out. There must be something wrong with the administration of justice in a country when the people are afraid to trust the administration to those who are responsible for it.

The view of the playground committee, that while the work of preparing the grounds at the entrance to Rockwood Park should be proceeded with, there should also be the beginning of a movement to provide neighborhood playgrounds for small children in various parts of the city, will be generally shared by the citizens.

zens. The longer it is delayed the more difficult it may be to secure suitable locations.

The value of the exports by the winter steamships from St. John is still more than a million dollars in excess of that for the like period last year.

Fixing a level tax rate does not lessen the needs of the city for an increasing expenditure. The city council must now meet this problem.

The parole system in connection with Dominion penitentiaries is shown by the annual report to have produced excellent results. It is stated that out of 3,781 prisoners paroled in the last eleven years, 3,580 settled down into honest life, so far as the evidence has gone.

In the city of Missoula, Montana, there is published every year a list of delinquent taxpayers on real property, stating the location of the property and the amount due. If, within a reasonable time the amounts are not paid, the property is sold.

The committee on the prison farm, having failed to secure an opinion on one property which they regarded as desirable, have promptly taken an option on another. The matter will come before the municipal council next Tuesday, and should receive the very serious consideration of that body.

The cables indicate that there was an unexpected result in the German elections. The Socialists, Radicals and Liberals were expected to line up against the Conservatives and Conservatives, but the early results of the polling show that the net gains made by Socialists were chiefly at the expense of the Liberals and Radicals.

The task of securing a new cabinet for France has developed so much difficulty that President Fallieres has summoned the leading statesmen of the country in conference. Doubtless, the result will be the formation of a strong cabinet, for such in the present state of international affairs is greatly needed.

The financial record of the last year in Canada shows a surplus of about $30,000,000 and a reduction of $13,500,000 in the net debt. The Borden government therefore, with "very firmness" in their time of coming into power, they have an enormous surplus and a steadily increasing revenue. This is a result of the fifteen years of Liberal rule in Canada, and the country will be indeed fortunate if the present government, when its turn comes to quit office, is able to show as fine a record.

The Standard states editorially that the million dollars in the estimates for harbor improvements at St. John includes the preliminary work at Courtenay Bay, and adds that there is no doubt that the work will proceed along lines "that will secure a fitting terminal for the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Canadian Northern, and the Intercolonial, as well as providing a dry dock and other needed facilities for the growing trade of the port."

What the people of St. John are asking at the present time is not an assurance from the Standard but a definite statement from Premier Borden or the Hon. Mr. Hazen. Why is that statement withheld?

THE DEATH OF WALLACE

January 10, 1912. To the Editor of the Times:—Sir,—I would like to ask the readers of the Times if any of them have in their possession a copy of a poem that appeared in one of the St. John papers some thirty-five years ago, or more, perhaps, entitled "The Death of Wallace." If so, would they send to the St. John Times, and would you insert it in your paper, and greatly oblige.

Yours truly, WALLACE A. QUEEN, Queen's Co., N. B.

IS IT LOVE (E. L. in the Spectator, London). Is it love, is it hate, this clasp by the sea of land, Entangling, swirling, revolving, escaping on to the strand, Escaping, yet never escaped, never utterly gone from reach, Which is it? I fain would know, as I watch at hand, Here on the beach.

To-night they seem weary of warfare, these ancient foes, Weary of love as of hate, of eddying kisses or blows, Even as we, as I grow weary of eddying thought, Of the waves of the mind, of the soul, and its bubble-like work, of the waste and the wild, Older and stranger than speech.

IN LIGHTER VEIN THE DIFFERENCE "Have you a fireless cooker?" "No, but I've got a cookless fire."— Baltimore American.

DON'T MISS THIS If a woman has one daughter, who goes away, the Mrs. misses the Miss and the Miss misses the Mrs. If she has two daughters and both are away, the Mrs. misses the Misses and the Misses miss the Mrs. If she has three daughters and two are at one place and one at another, the Mrs. misses the Miss and the Misses miss the Mrs. and the Misses miss the Mrs. and the Misses miss the Mrs. If she has four daughters she has and two are away from home and separated, the Mrs. misses the Miss and the Misses miss the Misses and the Mrs., while the Misses miss the Mrs. and the Misses miss the Mrs. and the Misses miss the Mrs. So they would all better remain at home with the Mr. of the Mrs.—Judge.

AN ENGINEERING FORMULA. A road that leads to sure success. Can anywhere be made. Stands without the need of other people's aid. The formula is simple, too. Disolving what was planned. The road must be macadamized. With lots of grit and sand. Some try to build their roads on luck. But that's uneven stuff. It may hold out a mile or two, And then turn out too rough; Half-finished roads, begun with it, Stretch out on every hand. But the real highways that go on Are laid with grit and sand.

PARIS TAKES THE PRIZE FOR FRAUD. A Rat in Dog's Skin Sold to Lady as Rare Canine Treasure. Paris, Jan. 13.—The renewal of the fashion for small dogs has just led to a remarkable case of fraud, of which the victim is one of the best-known women in Paris society. Toy dogs have once again come into special favor in Paris, partly on account of the restriction of the tramways and underground and district railways concerning the right to take a dog with one while traveling about the city.

SMUGGLERS USE 'DOGS' TO HELP THEM AVOID DUTIES. Italian Method of Training Them to Assist in Contraband Work. Rome, Jan. 12.—The "Finanziere" organ of the Italian customs officials, gives an interesting account of the manner in which dogs are trained by smugglers to assist in their operations. The canine pupil is submitted to various torments in Swiss territory, one after being repeatedly shot at by one of the gang, and on getting home again which side are its friends and on which its enemies. The dog is then taken back to Switzerland, where it is laden with sugar, tobacco and other articles of contraband, and is then allowed to escape back to its kind treatment. All it would need friends in Italy.

East Indians Look on Capture as Good Omen - Brahmins Hold Service and There is Great Rejoicing

(Times' Special Correspondence) Bangkok, Dec. 2.-For a good many centuries the so-called "white elephant" has been regarded in Ceylon, Burma, India, China, and especially in Siam, as a kind of amulet or talisman, and is possessed only by kings, to be endowed with high-sounding titles, and to be treated with awe and veneration, while in bygone centuries the power of potentates in this portion of Asia was gauged to a very considerable extent by the number of white elephants they possessed.

FABLES IN SLANG Series of 1912 -- BY GEO. ADE

THE NEW FABLE OF THE THROUGH TRAIN, THE PASSENGERS AND NOTHING DOING IN THE WAY OF TRANSFERS

They Had Themselves Photographed With Their Heads Together

Two High School Geologists named Lib and Angie were very thick. They had themselves photographed with their heads together and used to dab themselves with the same piece of Chamoo.

Each Girl kept a Nightie at the Other Girl's House, and long after they had retired the Innkeeper would hear Snore-d Giggles, interspersed with Fragments of what He said to Her and what She said to Him.

The Period of their Adolescence was about 30 years ago, when Romance was still alive and Knighthood was in Flower around every Dancing Academy West of Pittsburgh.

The two Chams had made a Pact. They were to be Friends forever and ever and ever and neither was to hold out anything from the other.

Each carried in a Locket a Four-Leaf Clover presented by one to whom she had loved her Soul.

After supplementing the Grand Schools with a full course of Mrs. Southworth and learning to play "The Maiden's Prayer" on the Melodion, nought remained for them in the way of passionate Diversion except to go ahead and get Married.

They waited three years for the Fairy Prince of their Dreams to come clattering down Main Street in his Coach all White and Gold, and then began to mistrust the Schedule. So they effected the small Compromise, falling gracefully into the awkward Embrace of two courted Lizards, named Otis and Wilbur.

In the Shake-off it befell that Angie got Wilbur and Lib drew Otis. The two Brides were somewhat envious, as the Wilbur was well-to-do, whereas the Pompous Otis was a large and snappy Eyes, while Otis was

THE HERPICIDE GIRL Says Everyone Can Have Beautiful Hair

I am really ashamed of some of my girl friends when I look at their hair. There is no sense in having such looking locks. It simply shows that they are not being scrupulously neat in every other way, they are careless about their hair.

This, anyway, wispy hair generally indicates dandruff and dandruff is caused by a germ. Newbro's Herpicide will kill the germ and keep the scalp as clean and healthy as can be. This permits the hair to grow naturally, and luxuriantly.

For sale at drug stores. One dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications obtained at the better barber shops. Send 10c in postage for sample and book to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. E. Clinton Brown, special agent, corner Union and Waterloo streets.

BESSIE WASN'T THAT KIND (San Francisco Chronicle)

"I wouldn't drink out of that cup," said little Joannie to the well-dressed young stranger, "that's Bessie's cup, and she's very particular who drinks out of it."

"Ah," said the young man, as he drank the cup dry, "I feel honored to drink out of Bessie's cup. Bessie's your youngest sister, isn't she?"

"Not much! Bessie's my dog."

"After all, there isn't much difference between the editor and the office boy. You're joking."

"Not at all. The editor fills the waste baskets and the office boy empties them."

Notice to Fat Women

Presumably you know, ladies, that the proper caper nowadays is lines. Curves are passé. You have got to take off your fat. This must be done in one of three ways.

By dieting, by exercise, or by means of Marmola's Prescription Tablets. The two former will keep you busy for months and punish you pretty severely. The latter will cost you 75 cents at the druggist's. The tablets will not make any alteration in your diet necessary, and yet in all probability, before you have used up one case, you will be losing from 12 to 16 pounds of fat a day.

Which method do you like the best?

If you fancy this pleasant method of getting off the fat, see your druggist for a quantity of Marmola's Prescription Tablets. The treatment is very economical. It is, also, quite harmless, for the tablets are made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription.

THE APPROPRIATE HYMN (Mason Telegraph)

At a Baptist convention the preacher who delivered the convention sermon read from manuscript. He used small sheets of paper, and as he read one he laid it aside on the pulpit. As the sermon was long (and many leaves), the minister, in the end, said:—"We will close the service by the choir selecting some appropriate hymn." And that choir, by association of ideas, unconsciously sang "Leaves, Nothing But Leaves."

MODIFIED JOY. (Chicago Tribune)

"Osgoodson," said his father, "you have a Christmas present of a little sister. Which I presume I may accept," sniled the little Boston boy, "without prejudice to the non-occasional set of articles. I presume you'll be pleased to have a complete works you promised me, you remember, six months ago."

ENGLAND AND INDIA; BRITISH PRESS COMMENT ON RECENT GREAT EVENTS

(Literary Digest) India has been a great source of anxiety to the English government for the last few years. The papers, Indian and European, have been filled with wild rumors of disaffection...

Half a month's pay granted to all non-commissioned officers, men, and reservists of the British Army in India and the Indian Army.

Native officers and men of the Indian Army henceforth to be eligible for the Victoria Cross.

Half a month's pay granted to subordinate civil servants.

Civil debtors now in prison, whose debts may be small, and due not to fraud but to real poverty, shall be discharged and their debts paid.

The Bengal arrangement is explained by the Manchester Guardian:

"The problem of Bengal is dealt with in a fashion that makes all recent alterations of boundaries look petty and timorous by comparison. Two things in this connection have long been manifest—first, that without some readjustment in the premier provinces no hope could be entertained of the reestablishment of cordial relations between ruler and ruled; secondly, that a return to the status quo ante was out of the question. The new Bengal will be markedly different from the old, but it will have the essential merit of uniting under one authority the Bengal-speaking people split asunder by the Curzon partition of 1905."

By this new arrangement "the crucial Bengal question, which was cut in half by the Curzon partition, recovers its unity and an administration of its own under the Governor-in-Council," remarks the London Westminster Gazette.

Irrespective of this practical side of the Imperial Coronation at Delhi, it seems as if when the correspondent of the London Daily Mail declared "the greatest pageant of all time took place at Delhi yesterday," he was recalling the words of Lord Curzon uttered seven years ago:—"The moment imagination has gone out of your Asiatic policy, your Empire will dwindle and decay."

As the London Standard remarks:—"The decorative details of an Indian pageant are, far from being unimportant, Lord Lytton, in a private letter to Lord Bunsford, quaintly compared them to certain parts of an animal which are of no use to the butcher, but from which, as he said, artists draw ornaments that move armies and influence princes."

That was the poet-Viceroy's excuse for what he feared might be considered his fussiness or frivolity in dwelling on the decorative side of his Imperialism with large popular education, with further generous grants in the future.

Three hundred and thirty-three thousand pounds to be spent in promoting popular education, with further generous grants in the future.

The decorative details of an Indian pageant are, far from being unimportant, Lord Lytton, in a private letter to Lord Bunsford, quaintly compared them to certain parts of an animal which are of no use to the butcher, but from which, as he said, artists draw ornaments that move armies and influence princes.

shall be greatly surprised if it throws its shade on the real significance of the event.

The "real significance of the event," is dwelt upon at some length by the London Times. This paper admits that in Hindustan there has been "an undeniable, but somewhat artificial, growth of national sentiment."

There have been seen "jealous and antagonistic between races and creeds and castes." The danger threatened by such division made "the vast majority of Indians all the more fully aware of the necessity of British rule."

But "the Eastern mind requires something more than a mere symbol." The Durbar has given it what it requires. This paper thus dwells upon the point that Orientals are better taught through the eye than through the ear or printed page.

"It requires the living presence of the Crown, a presence that can be seen and almost touched. That is, we believe, the true significance of the personal homage from the princes and peoples of India, summoned for the first time in history into the actual presence of their Western Sovereign wearing before their eyes the crown and mantle of Empire. That they have so seen him is the message—an all-sufficient message in itself—which they will carry back with them to all parts of the Indian Empire. To us the King-Emperor will carry back the echo of that message in the assurance of India's abiding loyalty to the British Crown—not to fall into supine indifference to the immense and growing difficulties of our task as the rulers of India, but to stimulate us to a fresh sense of our great responsibilities and of the lofty, if at times onerous, duties conferred upon us by the sanctity of three hundred millions of people, whom, in His Majesty's own words, it is our mission to advance in the ways of peace, prosperity, and contentment."

That was the poet-Viceroy's excuse for what he feared might be considered his fussiness or frivolity in dwelling on the decorative side of his Imperialism with large popular education, with further generous grants in the future.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but It Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a male weakness and stomach trouble and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it. He said it was a good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am a glad I did, for it has cured me."

I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I say to every suffering woman if the medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will.—Mrs. J. J. JAMES, 3923 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, an woman who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ailments to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community, you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WASTED AWAY TO A SHADOW

"Fruit-a-Lives" Cured Me After 12 Years Suffering.

Hull, Que., Dec. 24th, 1910. For the past twelve years I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. Finally, in March, 1908, I suffered such tortures that I was compelled to stay in bed. I could not digest my food and everything I ate caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation, and at times I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks.

"Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicine but did me no good. My weight came down to only 80 pounds and everything I ate was going to the floor. Finally I had the good fortune to buy 'Fruit-a-Lives' and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy and to the astonishment of my friends, I improved. Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds (and this is more than I ever weighed, even before my illness). I attribute my cure solely to 'Fruit-a-Lives'."

SINGLE TAX VOTE FOR SEATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 12.—Two charter amendments applying single tax to municipal taxation have been introduced by the city council, and will be submitted to the voters at the next general election. One provides for the immediate establishment of a land tax, by which all the city's revenues shall be gathered, and the other for a complete system of single taxation, to be arrived at by gradual process.

A SEVERE COLD DEVELOPED INTO PNEUMONIA

Doctors Said He Would Not Live. DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED HIM.

The much stress cannot be laid on the fact that when a person catches cold it must be attended to immediately, or serious results are liable to follow. There is only one way to prevent pneumonia, and that is, to cure the cold just as soon as it appears.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this quickly and effectively. Mr. Hugh McLeod, Estherville, Sask., writes: "My little boy took a very severe cold, and it developed into pneumonia. The doctor said he would not live. I got some of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and he began to improve. Now he is a strong, healthy child, and shows no sign of it coming back."

INCREASE OF $25,000 IN ASSESSMENT

Treasury Board Leaves Some Financial Problems to Council to Solve—The Figures

An increase of more than $25,000 in the assessment for 1912 is shown in the estimates passed by the treasury board yesterday afternoon. This would equal an increase in the tax rate of more than two cents per hundred, but as the rate is now 81.84 and the limit is fixed by law at 81.88, some other solution of the difficulty will have to be found. The chairman announced that little assistance could be expected from the board of assessors as they have already raised the assessment values about as high as they can go. The problem was left to the common council for solution.

The total increase in the estimates was $24,187, but this was reduced by cutting the estimates of the ferry department from $10,000 to $1,000. Another important change made was the addition of $2,000 to the estimates for the board of public works to provide for the first expenditure on the public playgrounds at Gilbert's Lane.

Table with columns: Department, Estimate, Warrant, Increase. Rows include Schools, Sewer, Streets, Lights, Police, Hydrants, Fire department, Exhibition, Library, Ferry, Interest, Horticultural Society, Totals.

Less reduction on ferry department. Net increase in estimates. $25,227.

MORNING LOCALS

At the annual meeting of the U. N. B. Alumni Association, which took place in the equity court rooms last evening, it was decided to hold the alumni dinner this year in Fredericton the night before. The meeting was not largely attended. A council meeting was held in the afternoon, at which considerable routine business was transacted.

NERVES AT HIGH TENSION

Necessary in This Age of Keen Competition and Great Accomplishment. When the Body Fails to Support the Brain Seek the Help of DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Nervous people are the salt of the earth. The great men and great women are usually those of nervous temperament. But it takes an enormous quantity of blood to supply energy to the great brain or a highly tensioned nervous system. Digestion fails because nerve force is lacking to control the flow of digestive fluids. A little extra excitement is followed by the agony of a sleepless night. You are easily irritated and lose patience, you lack the reserve force which is necessary for success and to ward off disease. Unfortunately nervous diseases do not right themselves, and since your digestive system fails to supply sufficient nourishment you must seek external assistance such as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

WILL BE THE BEST FINANCIAL SHOWING CANADA HAS MADE

Credit is to the Laurier Government — Dismissal of Liberals Brought up in House

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—The new government is still leading towards another large "financing surplus." The revenue for the first nine months of the current fiscal year totalled nearly $100,000,000, with total expenditures of only some $73,000,000. The increase in revenue over the first nine months of last year was $25,115,115, although the figures of expenditure are of course somewhat incomplete since they represent only the returns presented to the finance department up to Dec. 31.

The end of the year will probably show a surplus of approximately $20,000,000. The total net debt of the dominion at the end of the calendar year was $315,265,615, less than the $318,000,000 reported on Dec. 31, 1910. The minister of finance has been one of the big executioners and when his estimates came before the house today, Hon. Mr. Pugsley wanted to know for what office Liberals were being dismissed.

Mr. Pugsley said the collector of customs at Chatham, Mr. Fayton, had been dismissed because he had gone to a meeting to hear Hon. Mr. Sifton, who had discussed reciprocity and returned to it as a Conservative. Mr. Sifton had invited any one who desired to ask him any question they desired. Mr. Pugsley said that reciprocity was in the form of a treaty or an agreement, that it was a political question, and that it was not a business question.

RECENT DEATHS

After an illness of more than three years, due to heart trouble, the death of Malcolm C. McRobbie occurred last night at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mary McRobbie, 43 Hartwood street, North End. He was 67 years of age and is survived by one brother, J. H. McRobbie, of this city and another brother, W. W. McRobbie, of Lynn, Mass. He was unmarried.

THE LID DOWN TIGHT ON SUNDAY

Chickasha, Ok., Jan. 13.—If it is not declared illegal by the courts, this city will have the most drastic closing day of any city in the United States. It declares nothing shall be sold for a profit on Sunday. The ordinance is the result of an agitation begun by the ministers of the city against Sunday theatre. A faction in the city council that was in favor of Sunday theatre retaliated by passing an ordinance which would close on Sunday every business in the city run for profit.

ST. DAVID'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

The annual meeting of St. David's church Sunday school officers and teachers was held in the church parlor on Wednesday evening. The honorary superintendent, Andrew Malcolm, occupied the chair. After the minutes of previous meetings had been read and adopted Robert Reid, the superintendent, presented his tenth annual report, reviewing the work of the year, showing that the total enrollment of school was 483, as follows: Main school, 302; home department, 86; cradle roll, 33. The report of the secretary, I. Frank Archibald, showed the school was made up of the following twenty-seven classes: Three men and three women's Bible classes, two teacher training classes, seven boys' and eleven girls' classes and one primary class. The attendance showed an average of 182, an increase of eight over the previous year. The enrollment of the main school also showed an increase of four. Two record attendances were also noted, one of 304 and one of 308. The names of three pupils were read who had attended school every Sunday during the year, as follows: Robt. M. Sommerville, Jean H. Sommerville and Morris Watson. The financial report presented by W. B. Scarriff showed that the school raised for its own use $185.73 and disbursed $188.28. For missions $220.80 was raised and $223.81 disbursed. The home department showed receipts to be $46.59, disbursed for missions, $25; for papers, etc., $3.46. The total receipts were $332.12, and a balance from 1910 of $115.02 made in all $447.14. The total disbursements were $472.15, leaving a balance of $64.99.

NEWEST THING IN FLYING MACHINES

Mons. Deutch's Aero-Berline "one of the most interesting exhibits at the aviation expo now being held in Paris is the aeroplane fitted with a limousine ordered by Mons. Deutch (de la Bourbe), which is on view in one of the stands of Mons. Bleriot. It is a large monoplane which looks like an ordinary automobile fitted with wings. The aerial chauffeur sits in front. Inside are four richly upholstered seats placed "a-vis-a-vis" for passengers. There are doors on both sides. The body is made of mahogany and the inside is lined with air cushions to break the shock in case of rough travelling. The windows are made of some transparent material shaped in such a way as to offer as little resistance to the wind as possible.

was very interesting throughout and all present seemed to think that they had received the worth of their money. The visitors were lighter than the local and were without McLaughlin, their regular center, who missed the train, but all seemed to be good starters and handled their sticks well. Cook on the wing was conspicuous in practically all the rushes. The 62nd Regiment team made a very favorable impression and the work of "Bumps" McAvity came in for a great amount of applause. Colonel J. L. McAvity officiated in starting the game by putting the puck in play. The band of the 62nd Regiment was present and their playing was a feature of the evening, the music making the delays in the game seem very short.

COTTON MARKET

Wall Street Letter Reviewing the Situation and Taking a Look Ahead. (From E. C. Randolph's Weekly Market Letter, furnished by J. M. Robinson & Sons). New York, Jan. 9.—The more bullish average of sentiment noted in our letter of last week has continued in evidence, and while fluctuations have been more or less irregular with the market, nervous and unsettled, the undertone has been very steady on bull support and covering, while prices at the best point of yesterday, showed a recovery of between eighty-five and ninety points from the low records of last month. While a number of features have contributed to this rally, the main factor has been the steadiness that the market has shown in the face of adverse news since the publication of the government's crop estimate last month, and the support of leading spot interests whose operations in this market are supposed to be at once the working out of various straddles between markets and months; an effort to force contracts nearer a parity with white cotton; and, possibly, at the same time provide a better outlet for such low grades as they may be getting with round lots in the south, for which they have no immediate, or at least no immediate adequate demand. Cotton continues to come here, in comparatively small lots, but quite steadily, and the local stock has increased to about 157,000 bales. Conflicting reports as to the Lancashire labor situation have doubtless been responsible for much of the irregularity, while the small into-sight movement and less bearish visible supply statement of last Friday was probably a factor in Monday's advance. At the same time we know that the weather in the south has been unfavorable both for ginning and lint movement, and when we compare today's ginning report with the total lint, we find so much cotton remaining in the interior that the bullishness of a smaller insight from the standpoint of ultimate results must certainly be regarded as dubious. We find quite a general disposition in local circles to take a much more optimistic view of the trade outlook. This is in

HARD LINES

(Princeton Tiger) He took her about her delicate little waist and lifted her lightly up into his arms. Her eyes closed and a wisp of her golden hair caressed his forehead. His breath was fanning the waxen cheek. Suddenly he set her down almost harshly. "Go!" he said. "Is my name is tough work in the doll department?"

FOR CAUSE

(Chicago Tribune) "Judge," said the caller, "I wish you'd tell me what I have to do to get my name changed." "What is your present name?" "Bennett Lemuel Zebulon Bubb." "Your objection to your name is that it is too long, I presume. Why can't you just use your initials?" "That only makes it worse, Judge. Whenever I give my name as B. L. Z. Bubb, somebody snickers."
