THE OPEN HAND NOW READY FOR PUBLIC

Long Looked for Reprint of Epic Poem
Recounting Early Days Along
St. John River

Promised more than a year ago, it is only this week that The Observer is able to announce the completion of the work of printing a new edition of 'The Open Hand; a Tale of Maine and New Brunswick, founded on Historical Facts and sustained by Tradition.' The book was written sixty years ago by W. D. Kearney, a native of this county and first printed in 1864 in Presque Isle, Me., by W. S. Gilman. It is an epic poem of thrilling interest and the scenes of swift action are laid around Meductie Fort, while the most bloody deeds were committed on the island a mile below Hartland. The tale, as stated, is founded on historical facts, and several people in Carleton county readily trace their ancestry to the youth here and heroine.

The book offered by The Observer is a small pamphlet neatly printed and modestly attractive. Its pages, 7x10 inches in size and numbering 60, contain the story in unadorned and unvarnished form. The cost of producing the work is just double what it would have been if we had been able to complete it when the idea of its reproduction was first contemplated. Before we could deliver a single copy, orders nearly sufficient to absorb the whole edition were received. Already the cost of merely wrapping and mailing out orders has reached $75, in addition to the cost of the book itself. We urge every person who receives the book, or books ordered to promptly remit one dollar for each. Several hundred dollars are tied up in the enterprise, and printers have been struck by the high cost of everything to a greater extent than any other industry. The paper in 'The Open Hand' cost seven times as much, and the workmen who produced the book drew three times the wages as they have been the last four years ago. So pay promptly for your book. Those residing in Hartland and nearby may get their copies by calling at The Observer Office.

There are still a number of copies not spoken for and these will be sent to any address or sold over the counter for one dollar each. Orders may be sent by mail, addressing The Carleton Observer, Ltd., Hartland, N. B., and enclosing $1.00 for each.

Wife of Col. J. D. Baird Dead

Mrs. John D. Baird of Matlock Beach, Manitoba, died in Belkirk Hospital on Saturday, Dec. 11, at one o'clock. The Baird family were formerly of Grafton and moved to Manitoba some fifteen years ago. Mrs. Baird was the daughter of the late Alexander Henderson and wife of the late John D. Baird. She is survived by her eight children: Mrs. Frank Brown of Winnipeg, Mrs. Chas. Freebaird of Montreal, Mrs. Fred B. Hebert of New Rockford, North Dakota, Mrs. Gordon Thorpe of Brookville, Ont., J. Harris Baird, Seattle, Wash., Kenneth of Winnipeg, Saundie and Robert at home, and her two sisters, Miss Emma Henderson of Woodstock and Mrs. S. B. Miller of Hartland. She was interred in the Winnipeg Cemetery on Monday, Dec. 13.

GONE BACK TO ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Armand, who for many years have been residents of Glassville, sail on the Corsican from St. John for their old home in Chiswick, England. Mr. Armand, during his stay in Glassville, has taken a very deep interest in the business and social life of the community. Before coming to Canada he was for many years connected with the Imperial Army and during that time held important position in England and also in India and Hong Kong. They will be very much missed by a host of friends who much regret their departure.

MRS. DAVID NOBLE

Mrs. David Noble died at her home, Lower Brighton on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 12. She leaves a husband and one son, Milford at Mars Hill; two grandchildren that live with them, Allen and Miss Noble; four brothers, Mr. Brown, Lower Brighton; Allen Brown, Smyrna Mills, Me.; Spurgeon Brown, Mars Hill; Odour Brown, South Portland; one sister, Mrs. R. Robinson, Parsboro, Me. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon conducted by Rev. E. A. Tritter, Hartland.

UNITED BAPTIST QUARTERLY MEETINGS

The quarterly meetings of the second district were held in the United Baptist Church at Coldstream on Dec. 13. The first session was held at 7.30. Two addresses were given during the evening. The first speaker being Rev. L. E. Ackland of Woodstock, who gave an able address on "Loyalty to the Home." Following this was another splendid address by Rev. E. A. Tritter of Hartland, on "Loyalty to the Sabbath."

The second session convened at 10 a.m., Tuesday, and a stirring and much appreciated address was given by Rev. L. A. Fenwick of Jacksonville. His topic was "The Miraculous Draft of Fishes" (Luke 5). At 2 p.m., the handful of loyal ones met in their third session and listened to another forceful address by Rev. L. A. Fenwick, entitled "Individual Loyalty to Christ." The fourth and last session met Tuesday evening at 7.30 and listened to a great theme by Pastor H. R. Bell, who is now shepherding the Centreville group of United Baptist churches. Mr. Bell's theme was "How to Promote a Revival." His address was on Nehemiah in his great task of rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem. "I only wish that space were available to give a brief outline, at least, of each of the stirring addresses that were given by our local 'under-shepherds' in the recent quarterly meetings. In order to have a revival, Mr. Bell stated that a number of qualifications were essential. In the case of Nehemiah he had a vision of the great task of rebuilding the walls and uniting the people once again. Second: Nehemiah had a vision of the ruin and the need of a revival. He also realized the resources available. He did not forget, either, that prayer and intercession was a vital factor in his great work. In the case of Nehemiah he had opposition, as is always evident, when a good work is begun in a town or city. These are a few of the side-lights on a large subject and it is regretted that many more people did not make a special effort to attend at least a part, if not the whole, of these inspiring and helpful services. Rev. C. E. Bell of the Coldstream group of churches, with the assistance of Emoch Sababrook and S. S. Page, served on the entertainment committee, and I can assure you that they only wished that their task had not been more strenuous. The Coldstream people are a hospitable people and no pains were spared on their part to make the meetings a success."

AMONG THE LUMBER CAMPS

I enjoyed a pleasant trip among some of the lumber camps just recently.

The first visited was that of Miles Sherwood on the Pokok stream. The men are comfortably housed in a brand new set of camps and appear very contented at their work. Mrs. Sherwood, daughter and daughter-in-law form the cooking staff, and believe me, the men have no reason to complain from the food placed before them. The following are employed by Mr. Sherwood: Ernest Clark, Norman Shaw, Kenneth Hallett, Spurgeon Craig, Harold Newell, Addington Newell, Lee Orser, Claude Orser, Guy Pratt, Frank Pratt, Archie Bubar, Stephen Bubar, Humphrey Bubar, John Swim, Horace Clark, Harry Downey, Clayton Clark, Miles Brewster, Hartley Sherwood, Leslie McKenzie, Allen Foster, Burtrem Smith, Enoch Sherwood and Roy Sherwood.

Over on the Nashwaak waters is Rankin Chute's camp with its smiling and obliging cook, J. C. Hull. The following men are employed by Mr. Chute: Murray London, Clarence Clark, Jos Carter, Edgar Haywood, Oscar Haywood, Jake Wallace, Otto Wallace, Percy Shaw, Bunyan Hull, Jas. Hill, Fred McLaughlin, Chas. Glazier, Harry Rockwell, John Delong, Chas. Wassen, Guy Mean, William Mean, Manzer Mean, John Downey, Joe McDonald, Phillip Paul, L. P. Clark, Walter Clark, Ray Clark, Richard Thorne, Oscar Treacartin, Blake Laskey, Olmer Shaw, Reid Greer, Clarence Greer, John Foster, Finnmore Clark, Theo. Clark, Harry Gye and Herbert Ellis.

A short distance from this camp is another operated by Wm. Orser of Carlisle. His cook is Fred Crawford, who formerly lived in Hartland. Mr. Orser has a crew of about 25 men. About a mile and a half farther down the stream is still another camp managed by Abe Chute, with a crew of about 47 men. The cook is Jesse Morehouse and cookee Raymond Dickenson of Windsor. It was surprising to note how well the men are fed in the lumber camps of today and certainly the lumberman has no complaint at the variety and quality of the food he is getting these days, to say nothing of the splendid wages he is receiving.

There are a number of other camps not far distant from these I have mentioned, which I was unable to visit this time, but hope to call on them possibly during the winter sometime. Deer is very plentiful in these lumberwoods while moose is rather scarce.

When Mother's Advice is Most Needed

A GIRL'S future health and happiness depends to a large extent on conditions during the adolescent period.

At about fourteen years of age important mental and physical changes are taking place, which every girl should understand. Then it is that she needs the care and advice of her mother.

Unfortunately this is about the time when school work and examinations are likely to prove an excessive strain on the nervous system.

Anaemia, chlorosis or nervous breakdown in the form of St. Vitus' dance are not uncommon at this age.

There is a failure of the blood to supply the nourishment required by the nervous system. Excessive mental effort consumes the nervous energy required to insure good digestion and the proper functioning of the vital organs.

It is surprising to find how quickly the nervous system responds to the restorative influence of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. There is no longer any question that this treatment is admirably suited to help girls through this most critical period of their lives.

In almost every community are many cases to prove the exceptional restorative influence of this well-known treatment.

The use of the nerve food stimulates the appetite, improves digestion, and builds up the system in every way.

Miss Rena B. Crossland, Kempt, Queen's Co., N.S., writes: "I feel it a duty, as well as a privilege, to tell of the wonderful benefit I derived from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. In March, 1917, I had anaemia of the brain, and the mental and physical suffering I endured is indescribable. I had treatment from three doctors, and for twelve days was unconscious; while for three months I was fed and cared for like an infant. My mother was so anxious for me to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that she crushed it and baked it in my food. After using two boxes I could feed myself, and after using it for two months, my health improved so rapidly that doctors and friends said my recovery was a miracle.

"I cannot recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food too highly, even to those who seem to be facing death. We keep it in the house now, and I use it occasionally to 'keep fit.' I shall always regret that I did not follow my mother's advice and use it while I was away teaching, whenever I felt nervous or tired. But as I had no serious illness and did not realize the value of it, I neglected heading off a mother's advice until it was too late and I had a complete breakdown. But, thanks to Providence and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I have been enjoying my former health and strength for the past two years."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.

THE UNDEFENDED LINE

[The following poem was written by Harry H. Perkins, formerly of Connell, and a brother-in-law of Sheriff Foster.]

From the day that Cain slew Abel,
And the world with strife was torn,
"Man's inhumanity to man"
Has millions caused to mourn.
Old mother earth moves 'round the same
As in the days of yore,
Man runs his course, oft winning fame,
And nations rise and fall again,
By the cannon's cruel roar.

Yet could we with our brothers dwell
In peace, as God doth plan,
A story of shame we need not tell,
Of boundaries guarded by works of hell,
But the Brotherhood of Man.

Sad hearts look back on the last decade
To dear ones, o'er and o'er,
Who bled and paid, a sacrifice made,
To the greed of man for more.

One grand example we hail with pride
Of nations who dwell in peace,
Two peoples of honor, true and tried,
With a motto "War must cease!"

From where the great lakes in the south
Their ceaseless billows pour,
To the giant Mackenzie's frozen mouth,
Two thousand miles and more,—

From Esquimalt to Labrador,
No fairer country seen,
The "Maple Leaf" floats over all,
We hail her as our queen.

We have a southern neighbor great
He rules a vast domain,
From the gorgeous glow of the Golden Gate
To the rugged coast of Maine.

His is the "Starry Banner" bright
Of the grand United States!
And though we often talk it over,
We have long been running mates.

He is a great old chieftain rare,
And his wisdom surely grows
When he woos that goodly damsel fair
"Our lady of the Snows."

She smiles a gracious welcome true,
Her desire is but to please,
With a hope to rule in justice too,
O'er mountains, plains and seas.

We are a happy people blest,
Our boys are brave and tried,
They have marched beside your noble lads,
And with them they bled and died.

Our friendship is deep-rooted, strong
Like a giant towering pine;
We have no bulwarks, forts or guns,
But an "Undefended Line."

"No foe will strike you from the north
Those deadly treacherous blows,
For my boys will fight for naught but right."
Says Our Lady of the Snows.

Then hail to "The Stars and Stripes" sublime!
To the glorious "Maple Leaf"! May their folds entwine to the end of time,
And never come to grief.

As they wave o'er the homes of the brave and free,
Untarnished, like gold, they'll shine,
A pledge of honor from sea to sea,
O'er the "Undefended Line."

BIG LIQUOR RAIDS ALONG UPPER ST. JOHN RIVER

Much Secreted Contraband Found in Hotel at Van Buren, on Victoria County Border and at Fort Fairfield

St. Leonard's, Dec. 13.—Ben Violette's hotel, the Hammond House, at Van Buren, was raided by liquor officers and sixteen cases of liquor were found concealed in a wing of the building. The liquor was found in an aperture back of the vegetable bin. The raid was made by W. J. Christie and Deputy Sheriffs Leighton and Glou.

Federal officers also raided Ben Condon's line house situated on the boundary between Victoria county and Limestone. They seized eight cases of whiskey and twenty gallons of alcohol. The officers, Inspector Rogan and Beck, say that this point has been a source of supply for the Limestone country on both sides of the line.

The officers also raided the Exchange Hotel at Fort Fairfield, conducted by Robert J. McKee. They found hidden in a closet of a room behind a false door four hundred quarts of liquor. McKee was visiting relatives in New Brunswick at the time of the raid.

GRAND FALLS POWER

Presumably in connection with Grand Falls possibilities, the provincial government, at the request of the International Pulp & Paper Co., will hear representatives of the company at a meeting of the government executive, either in St. John or Fredericton, next week. It will be recalled that the International Pulp & Paper Co. recently invited manufacturers who desire power to send in estimates of their requirements. It is evident that the action of the government in commencing hydro development in the Musquash and in planning water power plants for other sections of the province, has galvanized into activity private corporations which hold water power right in New Brunswick.

SIXTY DOLLARS PER MONTH BEING PAID

In One Camp the Men Demanded $90
—Quit Work When the Boss Failed to Come Across

Wages in the lumber woods in this vicinity have taken quite a drop during the past week and it is said that a further cut may come after the first of the year. The prevailing rate of wages at the present time is $60 per month and board, whereas last season $75 per month and board was paid. In one camp on the St. John River a crew of men who were working for $60 a month, lately made a demand on their employer for $90 but he was unable to see his way clear to grant their request. As a result fifteen of the men quit work claiming that they could do better elsewhere. The prevailing rate however is in the vicinity of $60, which amounts to $2.30 per day and board. Lumbermen say that they can get all the men they want at this figure and the unstable condition of the lumber market will not allow them to pay any more. Lumber operators declare that the chances of pulling out ahead this season in the lumbering game are not very bright, and that they are merely operating a few camps for the purpose of keeping up their organization. It is said that in the Maine woods at the present time the wages being paid to lumbermen range from $52 to $60 a month and board.—Mail.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

[Lowbrow Stuff by the Poet Low-rate, Dedicated to the College of Prudes.]

Little girl, you look so small,
Don't you wear no clothes at all?
Don't you wear no shimmy shirt?
Don't you wear no petty-skirt?
Just your corsets and your hose—
Are those all your underclothes?

Little girl, you look so slight
When I see you in the light.
With your skirts cut rather high
Won't you catch a cold and die?
Ain't you 'fraid to show your calf?
It must make some fellers laugh.

Little girl, what is the cause
Why your clothes is made of gauze?
Don't you wear no undervest
When you go out fully dressed
Do you like those peek-a-boos?
'Stead of normal underclothes?

Little girl, your 'spenders show.
When the sunlight plays on you
I can see your tinted flesh
When you go out fully dressed.
Is it modest, do you 'pose,
Not to wear no underclothes?

Little girl, your socks has shoals
Of those tiny little holes.
Why you want to show your limb
I don't know—is it a whim?
Do you want to catch the eye
Of each feller passin' by?

Little girl, where is the charm
In your long uncovered arm;
Is there for birds to peck?
And your long uncovered neck,
Little girl, I tell you those,

OWES HER LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

After Years of Suffering with Dyspepsia, this Fruit Medicine Gave Relief

Mlle. ANTOINETTE BOUCHER

917 Dorion St., Montreal.

"I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' for this remedy relieved me when I had abandoned all hope of ever recovering my health. I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good.

I read something about 'Fruit-a-tives' being good for all Stomach Troubles and Disorders of Digestion so I tried them. After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia and my general health was restored.

I thank the great fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', for this wonderful relief."

Ain't so nice as underclothes.

Little girl, now listen here—
You would be just twice as dear
If you'd cover up your charms,
Neck, legs, back, and both your arms.
I would take you to the shows
If you'd wear some underclothes

Little girl, your mystery,
Luring charm and modesty,
Is what makes us fellers keen
To possess a little Queen;
But no lover—goodness knows—
Wants a girl 'thout underclothes.

I must wear a coat of mail,
Clothe from head to big toe-nail.
I must cover up my form
Even when the weather's warm;
Can't enjoy the swimmer's throes
Less I garb in underclothes.

PROGRESS OF REVIVAL SERVICES

The meetings in the Reformed Baptist church are still in progress with the interest good. Last Sunday was a day of victory and power, with a large attendance at all three services. In the afternoon and evening the church was filled with attentive audiences who listened with pleasure and profit to the able sermon of Evangelist Smith. The meetings will continue until over next Sunday. A service of praise begins at 10 a.m. with preaching at 11. The topics for Sunday will be as follows: 11 a.m. "The Soul's Satisfaction;" 2.30 p.m. "A Lesson in Preparedness;" 7.30 p.m. "Eternity, Where?" There will be a meeting for prayer every day between the hours of 11.30 a.m. and 1 p.m., and every evening at 7.30, excepting Saturday evening when a street meeting will be held at 8. All are invited to help us in these services.—Contributed.

During the month The Observer has enjoyed the peak-load of advertising, and inroads have been made on the news columns. This will be made up later in increased news service. But the ads are interesting. Aren't they now?

He claims his stock of Christmas goods is fully equal to any display and his prices in many cases are lower. He thanks the people for their generous custom and wishes one and all a merry Christmas. Look out for announcement of his special sale immediately following Christmas.

Miss Erna Matheson left yesterday for her home in Summerside, P.E.I. For several seasons Miss Matheson was chief of the millinery department of Keith & Plummer, Ltd., and while here made many close friends. A month ago she was injured while coasting with a party of young people and has been unable to attend to her duties since. Miss Helen Winter accompanied her on her journey as far as McAdam.

The Cause of Heart Trouble

Faulty digestion causes the generation of gases in the stomach which inflate and press down on the heart and interfere with its regular action, causing faintness and pain. 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup after meals sets digestion right, which allows the heart to beat full and regular.

Mrs. F. P. Tinker of Ottawa Passes Away

Many friends in New Brunswick and the State of Maine will hear with sincere regret of the passing away of Mrs. Margaret Tinker, wife of Frank P. Tinker of Ottawa, whose death occurred Monday morning, December 8. Mrs. Tinker was the second daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. James Tibbitts of Andover, and spent her girlhood days in this village where she was loved by all. In August Mrs. Tinker was operated on for appendicitis from which she partly recovered, being able to take walk and drives, etc. and her friends hoped that eventually her good health would be restored to her, but about six weeks ago she again became ill and was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal where she received the most careful surgical and medical help that could be secured. But all without avail, about two weeks ago she was conveyed to her home in Ottawa, where last Monday morning she passed quietly and peacefully away, surrounded by ones she loved. She is survived by her husband and one son, George; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Tibbitts of Andover; two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Bedell of St. John and Mrs. Arthur McKenzie of St. Stephen, and a large number of relatives.

The funeral took place last Wednesday, the service being conducted by the Rev. Canon Whalley. Interment was made in one of the large cemeteries in Ottawa. The sincere sympathy of all are extended to the mourning ones in their hour of grief and sadness.

FLORENCEVILLE FACTS

(By an occasional correspondent)

The ladies of the U. B. Missionary Aid society held a bean supper at the home of Mrs. H. M. Estey on "Crusade Day," Nov. 25. The sum of $34 was realized and four new members secured.

Miss Ruddick of St. John, a Red Cross nurse, spoke in the Methodist church on Nov. 30. Her talk on the care of children's health in the school; the needs of the Soldiers in the different hospitals in New Brunswick that had been to the war and returned sick and maimed and in behalf of the seven million starving children in Central Europe was listened to with much interest.

The ladies of the Red Cross met at the home of Mrs. C. W. Boyer on Wednesday afternoon to sew. They are giving a donation of bed linen to the hospital in Woodstock. After the work was finished dainty refreshments were served.

The many friends of Mrs. Tom Boyer are glad to hear that she is home from the hospital.

Master Hugh Gordon underwent a successful operation for tonsils and adenoids in the St. John hospital last week.

Mrs. Geo. Wheeler and Mrs. C. W. Boyer have been collecting for the war stricken children in eastern Europe. They met with a hearty response from all.

CLUB FORMED FOR WOODSTOCK BOYS

The male students of the public schools and of the Carleton county Vocational school of Woodstock have formed a club under the direction of S. C. Heckbert, instructor in manual training and farm mechanics at the vocational school, for the purpose of operating an open air rink, maintaining recreation and reading rooms, and for the erection of a camp in the woods near the town, all with the idea of promoting clean sport in the town which, at the present time, has little recreation to offer the boys, being without a covered rink and a gymnasium. A hockey league is being formed and the various county teams will be induced to enter it. Most of the river towns are carrying out a hockey programme and a good league might easily be formed in Carleton county. It is hoped that opportunities for games with high school teams from the larger towns of the western and southern parts of the province will be found.

TO THE FARMERS OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Gentlemen:

The season is approaching when the Fertilizer Agent will call on you to purchase for next year, and I would urge the farmers of New Brunswick not to buy at present quotations, nor to give orders with the understanding that they will be protected against any decline.

We are face to face with the lower values, and we must produce cheaper or lose money. We cannot pay present prices on Fertilizer, and the Companies who handle these goods must reduce their quotations substantially if they expect the farmers of New Brunswick to buy, and take the risk. I feel it my duty to warn the farmers in this matter in view of the outlook for the future. Don't buy at present prices. If you have bought cancel your order.

THOUGHT SHE'D HAVE TO GIVE UP

Mrs. Kenny Had Suffered Eight Years Before Taking Tanlac—Is Now Well and Happy

"I'll never stop praising Tanlac since it's helped me so much, and I feel just like going out and telling everybody about it," said Mrs. O. R. Kenny of 75 Dresden Row, Halifax, N. S.

"For the past eight years I suffered dreadfully with stomach trouble and chronic indigestion. My appetite was poor, and for years I don't think I ate a good hearty meal. The little I ate soured on my stomach and caused gas to press up into my chest and throat until I could hardly breathe. I had awful headaches that kept me confined to my bed for days at a time and left me in a terrible weakened condition. At night I was so nervous and restless I could scarcely sleep. I had no energy to do my housework, and I thought I would have to give up altogether, as I was getting worse all the time.

"I got a bottle of Tanlac one day and it gave me so much relief I kept on taking it until I had finished my seventh bottle and all my trouble had disappeared. My appetite is just splendid and I no longer suffer from indigestion or gas on my stomach. My breathing is free and easy and I never have a sign of a headache. I sleep like a child and have regained all my strength and energy so that my housework is a real pleasure. I've also gained ten pounds in weight and am feeling just fine in every way."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Company, and E. L. Fleish, Bloomfield, and by the leading druggists in every town.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

Early last Spring a gentleman drove into our Battery Service Station with an inoperative battery, the result of Winter neglect. He had reached the conclusion that "the battery was no good."

We of course had to explain that the battery hadn't been properly cared for during the long months of Winter inactivity; depreciation had been rapid and the battery was practically worthless. But the owner remembered the home-made "care" he had given his battery, and said: "Why I took the Battery off the car, brought it to the house and put it in the cellar behind the furnace. What more could you expect?"

The Service Man then explained in detail how a battery must be stored and cared for during the cold months—how it must be recharged to keep it in condition to resist cold weather and prevent internal injury while idle. "Of course, I see my mistake now," replied the owner. "but if I were a car dealer or garage, I'd warn my customers about such things."

May we suggest this be YOUR WARNING to insure yourself against unnecessary battery expense next Spring, by leaving your battery with us this Winter?

CLEANING UP

By MYRA E. MAJOR

(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

There were six boarders at the home of Mrs. Luella Goodwin and they were a congenial and pretty well satisfied sextette. There was a Mr. Edith Gray and his young wife, the two Misses Ward, spinners, Gordon Lisle and Millie Forrester, the young man last named was an industrial engineer, the young lady an assistant bookkeeper, and with them principally the story has to do.

The Grays had just started out in married life, Gordon Lisle was at the time working on a salary and Miss Forrester was a beginner in her then existing position. She and the Grays were content to occupy rooms on the third floor, while Lisle had an apartment in the half attic. The Misses Ward, having an income from a small estate, were able to pay for more pretentious quarters on the floor below, but these grades of means did not affect the regard with which Mrs. Goodwin considered them. All were welcome to the double parlor on the first floor, and many pleasant concert evenings they passed, Mrs. Goodwin the delighted high priestess of so much harmony and comfort, Millie at the piano, Lisle accompanying her with his violin, the spinners always called upon for an old time duet and the Grays in an ecstasy of enjoyment sentimentally holding hands.

It was when there was a break in this perfect circle that Millie grew sad and thoughtful and the others lost their former home interest. The young man had told his friends enough to indicate that he had lingered in the city to contest a lawsuit which involved a large amount due him from an engineering corporation. The case went against him and he was a very much disappointed man.

"Somehow I lost all the important papers in the matter," he told Millie sorrowfully the evening they parted. "I have got to go back to hard work, penniless and defrauded. It is a disappointment to have you go out of my life, Miss Forrester," he added with deep feeling, "for your company has been a pleasure and an inspiration to me. I have asked my sister, Mrs. Bartley, to invite you to her home, for she will miss you, too, and it will be a solace to me to realize that you two are sometimes thinking of me."

"I shall never forget you," answered Millie with truth and emotion, and she broke down in tears at his departure.

Once a week after that an invitation Millie was an evening guest of Lisle's sister. They became true friends and more so than ever when on one occasion Mrs. Bartley told Millie that she was the only girl Gordon had ever loved and Millie, overcome, confessed that he had won the affection she had never before revealed. In heart to heart sympathy those two read the frequent letters the brother wrote to his sister and they sent back messages of hope and cheer.

Mrs. Goodwin, the kindly landlady, took her first vacation in twenty years and by a mere coincidence exactly at the time that Millie was apportioned hers. A helpful impulse came to the latter after she had decided that she would remain in the city during the two weeks spell of leisure. Mrs. Goodwin had been kind and motherly toward her and Millie set at work to repay all her friendly consideration. The portly landlady did her best, but amid her multitudinous duties she neglected cleaning house that spring. The vacant room that Lisle had occupied had not found another tenant.

In a systematic way Millie started to have a grand surprise for Mrs. Goodwin when she returned. Mrs. Gray gave her what assistance she could and the cleaning up program was good practice for the bride of a year and gave Millie a new insight as to household work.

Somehow it saddened, yet engrossed her to work in the room that Lisle had occupied. It had not been touched since his departure and he had left some framed pictures on the wall, there was an old straw hat in a closet and in wastebasket pencil sketches of bridge and conduit work that he had mapped out. On a window ledge Millie came upon a faded rose bud. She wondered if it was one she had worn in her hair and gave to him one evening.

Millie did not evade a thorough renovation of the neglected room. There was a wardrobe chest of drawers set in a niche and all of these she dislodged and scrubbed and made sweet and clean. As she was setting one back in the place her eyes fell upon a crushed package of papers wedged in behind a sliding board and the bottom of the wardrobe. She drew it forth. Ten minutes later, hurriedly dressed and all in a flutter, Millie hastened from the house to seek the sister of the man she loved.

"These must be the missing papers your brother so often told me about," spoke Millie breathlessly. "Oh! if so, do they not mean something to him?" and Mrs. Bartley uttered a glad cry as she looked them over.

"Oh, Millie!" she cried joyously, "they are the precious documents, indeed! We must wire Gordon at once. You glorious girl! You have restored his fortune and"—she paused and bestowed upon Millie an interrogative glance.

"Yes," replied Millie frankly and fervently, "and love, true and lasting, as it was his long ago."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Rev. W. C. Machum of St. John, Field Secretary of the Baptist Sunday School Association and allied movements, occupied the United Baptist church on Sunday morning and preached a very stirring sermon from Colossians 1:3.

The members of the United Baptist church anticipate holding a social on the last Friday evening of the year, Dec. 30. A most pleasant evening will be spent, followed by light refreshments.
