TESTIMONIALS. "It is, undoubtedly, the most complete Dictionary of the English language that had ever been published, and acts with stands being an other Dictionary of that language will be required. It lis, in every respect, the superior to the fullo cultinough Johnston's Dictionary. The introductory matter—on the origin and progress of language—buyst ology—the changes of the English language, and other topics—contains an apamenase mans of useful information, which must have cost the author a very great degree of isbur and research. The pronunciation of Seripural, Classical, and Geographical names, forms a most valuable appendix to the Dictionary, and cannot be too highly appreciated. "—Bommas Dick, (dasher of the Christon Philosopher, & D. Broughty Perry, non Divides, Sept. 18, 1886.
"In regard to promisenciation, we feel perfectly missing

Broughty Perry, near Mandea, Sept. 12, 1848.

"In regard to pronunciation, we feel perfectly satisfied that this revision places that subject on a truer ground than any other work of the find. The system of pronuncing conforms to a pure and many taste, adapted to the character of the language, and is far removed from all affectation and more fishion." It is now, as we fully believe, in this revision, prough down to the true circumstances of the community in all respected. And we hope it will find its way rapidly, not only to the schools and the study-but to the packer, he coughting-room, and to the every day purposes of life,"—Him. Wim. B. Calhoung Dec., 1947.

"We venture to say that there is no Dictionary in the English language which combines so many gavantaged, with such conounty of price, beauty of execution, compactness and closureus, as this Quebro Edition of Webster,"—M. SAVED FROM DEATH!!

The ony of Ma. Nather Matherwa. a highly respect ble and wealthy citizen of Newerk, N. J. Da. G. W. Halset.—I believe your Forest Wine and Fills have been the means of saving my life. When I commonced taking them, I lad at the point of death, with Dropsy, Piles, and Asthma. My Physicians had given me over as post cure, and my tamily had lost all hope of my recovery. While in this deadth situation, your provide and Pills were procured for me, and before I had firstheed the first bottle of the Wine, and box of Pills. I experienced great relief; my began now to revive, and after continuing the use of your medicines for about a month, the Files and Asthma were completely earded. The Dropsy, with which my life was placed in such great danger, was also nearly gone. I have continued the use of your Medicines fund the present time, and I now enjoy as perfect health as ever I did in my life, although I am more than sixty years of age. I service my recovery entirely to the use of your excellent Medicines. Several of my neighbor have also used them with similar suncess in obstinate complaints, and I can cheerfully recommend them to the public.
