Wolfville Baptist Church

GIVES CORDIAL WELCOME TO NEW PASTOR

On Thursday evening of last week a very successful and pleasant reception was given by the congregation of the Baptist church in honor of their new minister, Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D. The meeting was held in the Sunday school room and was most gracefully presided over by Rev. Dr. Gates. There was a large attendance of members of the congregation and invited friends.

After an earnest prayer by the venerable Rev. M. P. Freeman, the chairman called upon Rev. Dr. Cohoon to give the address of welcome to the new pastor. A happier choice could not have been made. Dr. Cohoon always says the right thing and in his address on this occasion he excelled himself. He cordially welcomed the new pastor and outlined the needs of the congregation and stated his gratification that such a wise choice had been made.

Dr. Cutten, extended the welcome on behalf of the educational institutions and Mayor Hales on behalf of the town.

Addresses of welcome were also given by Rev. R. F. Dixon and Rev. C. W. Miller, Rev. Mr. Watts, of the Methodist church, being out of town. Col. Beattie, of Ottawa, an old soldier friend of Rev. Mr. MacDonald, was also present and gave an interesting address.

The chairman then called upon Rev. Dr. MacDonald, who in an excellent address carried the minds of himself and family for the cordial welcome, and spoke briefly of the work which he had undertaken here. He impressed his listeners as being well qualified for the important position which he has accepted.

At the close of the meeting those present were given the privilege of meeting Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald and Miss MacDonald, after which the company was invited to the dining-room of the church, where refreshments were served and a most enjoyable hour was spent.

THE ACADIAN congratulates the Baptist people of this community on the happy settlement that has been effected, and begs to tender best wishes for the prosperity of church and pastor.

Armistice Day at Acadia

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE.

The first anniversary of the signing of the Armistice was celebrated at Acadia in a most solemn and impressive manner. At 10.30 a. m. the faculty and students of the three institutions assembled in College Hall. President Cutten presided and introduced Lt. Col. E. W. MacDonald, D. S. O., M. C., late O. C. of the 10th Infantry Battalion, who addressed a few words of greeting to the students. He was followed by Lt. Col. the Rev. J. H. MacDonald, C. B. E., who paid a glowing tribute to those who had fallen in battle. Dr. Cutten conducted the Chapel Exercises during which silent tribute was paid, while the bell tolled, to those who will not return. A number of citizens of Wolfville occupied seats in the galleries.

Look to Your Town

As you travel through the country you pass through many small towns, all of about the same size and all more or less alike. And yet, as you look at them through the train window, they make different impressions upon you. As you pass through one town you will think, "What an attractive town. I should like to live here." And yet, a town only a few miles distant will create in you a feeling of aversion. What is the difference in the two places? The answer can usually be found in the fact that one gives the appearance of prosperity and "pos" and the other does not. The streets of the first will be clean, usually paved, the lawns will be well kept, the houses painted, and the people you can see from the train will be bustling about as though they had plenty to do and were glad to do it. The second town, on the other hand, will appear slovenly and ill-kept. Tumble-down houses set in weed-choked lawns, board walks, streets strewn with paper, will meet your gaze, and the people on the station platforms and hanging around the unswept steps of the town stores will give you the impression that they do nothing and are nothing. If we want to attract people to our town we must be careful of the impression we make upon them. We must try not to let slide the little things

Acadia Wins From U. N. B.

WOLFVILLE COLLEGIANS SCORED ONE TRY AGAINST NEW BRUNSWICK PLAYERS, WHICH PROVIDED THE ONLY SCORE OF THE GAME.

In one of the greatest Rugby games ever played on the local grounds, Acadia's warriors defeated the University of New Brunswick players on Tuesday, score being 3 to 0, in the final game of the Western section of the Intercollegiate league, and are now qualified to meet Dalhousie for the Maritim championship at Truro, on Tuesday.

Fully 2,000 spectators were in attendance, and the dashing plays which featured throughout came in for rounds of applause. Fresh from a victory over Mount Allison, the U. N. B. players arrived in town early in the morning, and when they entered the field their faces bore looks of confidence but Acadia's one try in the second period broke the hearts of the U. N. B. players, who were unable to get over the red and blue line. Wild excitement prevailed throughout, and the home team was well supported by the entire student body and friends of the university, who came from all parts of the province.

At three o'clock, Referee W. C. Ross, of Halifax, blew his whistle for the face off. U. N. B.'s scrim worked better than their opponents, and the ball was on the Acadia five yard line for full five minutes in the first period, but toward the end, the ball was bolstered up and beat the New Brunswickers back to their twenty five yard line.

The first period ended without score, Acadia came back strong in the second frame, and although the U. N. B. scrim worked splendidly, Acadia's backs got in some fine runs. With fifteen minutes of the second period gone, Half Back Johnson received a pass on the U. N. B. twenty-five yard line and scored the first and only try of the game. Acadia did not convert, and the game ended with Acadia University 3, University of New Brunswick nil. Dave Rogers, Steeves, Dobson and Johnson played in good form, but the work of fullback Parker was especially brilliant. Burden and MacLean played well for U. N. B.

A Tablet Unveiled

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH REMEMBERS FALLEN BOYS.

A tablet to the memory of the members of St. John's congregation who fell in the late war, was unveiled last Sunday in the church by the rector, Rev. R. F. Dixon. There was a large congregation and appropriate psalms and hymns and prayers were said and sung. The usual service was held until after the scripture lesson, when the rector turned to the tablet and removed the flag with which it was draped with these words, "In the faith of Jesus Christ and to the glory of God, I unveil this tablet to the memory of the following members of this congregation. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

After two prayers, appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and a hymn, the regular service was resumed at the Apostles' Creed, at the conclusion of which the rector preached from the words, "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy."

The tablet is inscribed as follows:—

"To the glory of God and in loving memory of the following members of this congregation who fell in the Great War—1914-1918:

Robt. C. Borden
Chester Dakin
Kenneth C. Dixon
Bernard Horsfall
Walter Lynch
George Kesbie

I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

Erected by the congregation. The tablet is a fine piece of work and was supplied by Messrs. Birks of Montreal. It is of polished brass enclosed in a handsome black oak frame.

High Tides do Damage

The tide on Sunday last is said to have been the highest for a great many years, and great damage was done to the dykes. The running dykes between Wolfville and Port Williams were broken in a number of places and the land was overflowed up to the railway track. The Wickwire Dyke suffered severely and the Grand Pre Dyke to a considerable extent. The river dykes were also badly broken. Reports from various county indicate that the dykes there also were badly damaged. A great deal of labor will be necessary in order to repair the dykes before the next run of high tides.

Victory Loan Campaign.

WOLFVILLE MUST SPEED UP IN ORDER TO WIN FLAG.

The Victory Loan Campaign is drawing to a close and every one must subscribe to the limit during the last few days. No one doubts but what Kings county will reach its objective, but we do not want to be content with that. We should do as well if not better than last year.

Wolfville is still about $20,000 behind its objective, the total on Wednesday night being about $100,000. We must get busy and win the Honor Flag and at least one crest by Saturday night. Gaspereau has subscribed $25,700 and won the honor flag and are still going strong. The Grand Pre district has $21,400, only a few thousand short of its objective. Greenwich has subscribed only $6000, but hopes to have a flag by Saturday night.

The remainder of the country is doing splendidly. Kentville has won its Honor Flag and is well on towards a Crest. Up to Wednesday night Kentville had subscribed about $140,000. Other places winning flags are Kingston, Alesford, Berwick, Somerset, Grafton, Burlington, Ward 4, Port Williams, Canard, South Berwick, Scotts Bay, New Minas and Canaan.

Premier R. L. Borden has subscribed $25,000 towards the campaign in this, his native county.

The Memorial Hospital

On Monday last there was a meeting in Town Hall, Kentville, of the Executive of the Kings county Memorial Hospital with practically a full membership present. Matters of importance were discussed, including the desirability of certain available sites located centrally in the county, but no definite decisions were made. It was resolved to give a public dinner in Kentville during December to which the municipal councillors and others interested would be invited. Each councillor has the privilege of asking two persons in his constituency interested in the project. Dr. MacDougall, of Halifax, will be present.

Mr. E. E. Young, American Consul General at Halifax since 1913, has received word from Washington of his transfer to Southern Russia, where he will take charge of American affairs. He will leave as soon as is practicable for Odessa which will be his headquarters. Mr. Young is now residing in Wolfville.

Notes and Comments

A Montreal Jew, a shrewd observer, says that Canada should have prosperity until 1921 when he looks for supply catching up with demand and the possibilities of an industrial depression.

Prohibition will have its advantages. According to Dr. William J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., the average man will live fifteen years longer without it. He made the statement before the annual meeting of surgeons at the Waldorf, New York city.

Major General E. W. B. Morrison, K.C.M.G., was formally knighted by the Prince of Wales at Ottawa last week. Sir Edward has the distinction of being the first man the Prince has knighted and the last man on the final list of Canadian title honors.

President Wilson has set aside Thursday, November 27, as Thanksgiving Day, in a proclamation which said the country looked forward "with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifices of the nations will find recompense in a world at peace."

Little Dick Ticken was the victim of a foolish Hallowe'en prank at Vancouver, B. C. His lifeless body was found on the pavement huddled beneath a lowered street lamp. The police ascertained that a number of youths lowered the lamp and left it. Apparently the little victim came in contact with it and was electrocuted.

The reason Summerside goes ahead so nicely, says a man from Charlottetown, is that every living soul and the small dog under the waggon works unitedly for Summerside, thinks Summerside, talks Summerside and works for Summerside. We commend this spirit in large measure to the people of Wolfville. It will cause any town to progress.

The Treaty of Versailles and the peace settlement with Germany will become effective, it is asserted in well informed circles in Paris, on November 28th. The signature of the protocol and the exchange of ratifications between Germany and such allied powers as have then ratified the treaty, will take place on that date, it is reported.

The forty-eight hour week was adopted by the International Labor Conference at Washington last week after a five hour fight for the passage of the resolution. The vote was 55 to 2. The two recorded votes against the motion for adoption were Mr. Draper, Canadian workers' delegate, and Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor. The working week, however, is to be governed by the exigencies of the different plants and industries and agreements for longer working hours may be made where employees and operators find it necessary and employees willingly enter into such agreement.

Scotland is to vote on liquor licenses this coming Summer. Electors will have a threefold choice. By a cross on the ballot paper they can signify their preference for: No change in the number of licenses, Reduction of licenses, Abolition of all licenses. If abolition is carried, all licenses will end on May 28 following. But this "No license" reduction can be carried only if 55 per cent. of the votes recorded are in favor of it and if these number not less than 35 per cent of the electors on the register. If a district goes "dry" the sale of drink will stop entirely with this exception, that under special circumstances the licensing board may allow certain hotels or restaurants to sell drink to residents or to those taking a meal, but there is to be no drinking-bar.

You Can--If You Think You Can

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think that you dare not,
you don't;
If you'd like to win, but think you can't
It's all not a "cinch" you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost,
For out in the world you find Success begins with a fellow's will--
It's all in the state of mind.

Full many a race is lost
E're even a step is run,
And many a coward falls
E're even his work's begun.
Think big, and your deeds will grow,
Think small, and you'll fall behind,
Think that you can, and you will--
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you'r outclassed, you are:
You've got to think high torise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

Children Driving Autos

Argus, who conducts the "By the Way" column in the Halifax Chronicle, puts very nicely as follows a thought that has sometimes occurred to us when seeing automobiles guided by youths:

It is certainly not my intention to attempt to deprive the children of an enjoyable pastime but I wonder just what the age limit is in respect to children driving autos. A few days ago I noticed a little chap driving a large car—very skillfully too—but he could scarcely have been more than thirteen or fourteen years. Minors at the steering wheel may be quite all right so long as no emergency arrives, but I am inclined to think that in the event of a sudden call for an instantaneous decision there might be serious consequences.

THIS WEAK, NERVOUS MOTHER

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was very weak, always tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and he said I had nervous indigestion, which added to my weak condition kept me worrying most of the time—and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my husband wanted me to try it. I took it for a week and felt a little better. I kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness."—Mrs. J. WORTHLINE, 2842 North Taylor St., Philadelphia Pa.

The majority of mothers nowadays overdo, there are so many demands upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down, nervous condition with headaches, back-ache, irritability and depression—and soon more serious ailments develop. It is at such periods in life that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will restore a normal healthy condition, as it did to Mrs. Worthline.

Protecting the Birds

Mr. R. W. Tufts, of Wolfville, Nova Scotia, has recently been appointed by the Civil Service Commission to the position of Game Officer in charge of the administration of the Migratory Birds Convention Act in the Maritime Provinces.

Under this Act the open seasons for migratory game birds are limited to a period of three and one-half months, and insectivorous birds and many birds, other than game birds, are protected throughout the year. In addition, many of the species of shore-birds and the eider ducks are protected throughout the year.

Any person having these protected birds in their possession is liable to a heavy penalty, and any equipment used in capturing them illegally may be confiscated.

As Mr. Tufts will be supported by an able staff of deputy officers, any person who goes afield with a gun should be sure of the provisions of this federal law.

The Migratory Birds Convention Act is administered for all Canada by the Dominion Parks Branch of the Department of the Interior, and further information may be obtained by addressing the Commissioner of that branch at Ottawa.

OVERLAND 4 has been tested as no car has ever been tested before. 250,000 miles of mountain trails, desert sand, heat, cold, mud and dust, demonstrated the quality of every part of the car long before we began manufacturing.

This remarkable test showed conclusively that Three-Point Suspension Springs, exclusive with Overland, are the greatest improvement in riding comfort since the introduction of pneumatic tires.

Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Springs at both ends of a 130-inch Springbase gives the road steadiness of the heavy car of long wheelbase.

A Tonic for the Nerves

THE ONLY REAL NERVE TONIC IS A GOOD SUPPLY OF RICH, RED BLOOD.

"If people would only attend to their blood, instead of worrying themselves ill," said an eminent nerve specialist, "we doctors would not see our consulting rooms crowded with nervous wrecks. More people suffer from worry than anything else."

The sort of thing which the specialist spoke of is the nervous run-down condition caused by overwork and the many anxieties of to-day. Sufferers find themselves tired, morose, low-spirited and unable to keep their minds on anything. Any sudden noise hurts like a blow. They are full of groundless fears, and do not sleep well at night. Headaches, neuritis and other nerve pains are part of the misery, and it all comes from starved nerves.

Doctoring the nerves with poisonous sedatives is a terrible mistake. The only real nerve tonic is a good supply of rich, red blood. Therefore to cure nervousness and run-down health Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be taken. These pills actually make new, rich blood, which strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite, gives new strength and spirits, and makes hitherto despondent people bright and cheerful. If you are at all "out of sorts" you should begin curing yourself to-day by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Clever Musical Show Coming--"My Soldier Girl"

The most talked of musical show of the entire season is the brilliant musical spectacle, "My Soldier Girl", coming to the Opera House, Tuesday night, Nov. 18th.

The gorgeous costumes are fashion plates of the latest design, the novel numbers are staged under the careful direction of one of our best ballet masters, and the feature novelties are many.—"Flirtation Walk", an illuminated run-board extending from the stage nearly half way to the rear wall of the theater and the many numbers introduced on the "walk" of fernew and amusing entertainment, while an aerial flight, moon dance at the lawn fete, a grand illumination of New York City, and bewitching 'pony' ballet in the Follies, are a few of the feature novelties. An elaborate production with gorgeous costumes form a back-ground for a brilliant cast and big "pony" ballet, who present the big spectacle in all its merry-making. There are some twenty musical hits, including "My Soldier Girl", "Jasper's Ragtime Band", "That Dixie Wedding Tune", "Wrap Me In a Bundle of Love" and "Won't You Be My Beau", which are the popular favorites.

Historical Review

By Mrs. L. Hetherington.
Ancient history tells us that as far back as 700 B. C. Mercenius slew his wife with a club for taking a drink of wine and was acquitted of murder by Romulus, who was the author of the law which permitted a husband to kill his wife for drinking wine. Referring to intemperance, Queen Boadicea, in 61 A.D., addressing her soldiers said: "To us every herb and root are food; every juice our oil, and water is our wine."

In America from the year 1750 until the beginning of the temperance agitation, was a period of sad debauchery. The mother was stupefied heavily with intoxicants while in labor. The babe was given liquor, too, for medicine. Alcohol ruled at weddings and christenings, also at funerals.

About 1840 a temperance society was organized at Baltimore composed mostly of drunkards of long standing. Through the tears and pleadings of his twelve-year-old daughter, Hannah, John Hawkins, a confirmed drunkard, was among the first to join this society. He was a man of extraordinary ability and soon developed into a powerful speaker.

The work grew rapidly and it was his influence which added force and life to the movement. In a two weeks' series of rallies in New York, 2,500 drunkards pledged themselves to give up drink.

At the first anniversary of the founding of this society in Baltimore, April 5th, 1841, six thousand men marched in the street procession.

And so through the influence at the beginning of this little twelve-year-old girl the good work went on.

At this time began the organization of the women all over the City of New York into the Martha Washington Societies, and the movement continued to sweep the country until in 1846 there were not less than five million teetotalers in the country, members of some ten thousand total abstinence societies.

Susan B. Anthony was twenty-seven years old when she began her public career in New York State in 1848 as a temperance lecturer and organizer. A few years later she was refused admission to a temperance convention on account of her sex. In 1852 she helped to organize the New York Women's State Temperance Society. In 1853 Dr. Marsh, in his "Temperance Recollections," speaks of a prodigy, a female from western New York who presented herself on the platform at a temperance convention, expressed much interest in the cause.

In 1870 the Ohio Legislature permitted women to sue saloon-keepers for damages arising from the sale of liquor to inebriate husbands. About this time Mrs. E. D. Stewart (Mother Stewart) began her career as a temperance lecturer and worker.—To be continued.

A cycling dude was riding along when his hat blew off. A passing countryman picked it up and took it to him as he circled round, saving him the trouble of getting off his machine.

"I weally must get some string to keep this bally hat on," muttered the rider, as he wheeled off without a word of thanks.

The countryman's reply was short but expressive: "Get a nail, gov'nor!"

Editorial Jottings.

It will be of interest to Canadians to hear that their old commander, Lord Byng, has been permitted to retire from the army to become chairman of the United Services Fund, which administers the accumulated profits of the army canteens.

The New York longshoremen have ended their strike with no gain in wages or working hours, but with themselves and the world some $20,000,000 poorer than when they rejected their Union leaders' order and walked out. And the poor old public must settle the bill!

There was, as the New York Times says, one golden word for all the world in M. Clemenceau's speech at Strassburg. The world's only salvation from the social and economic "chaos from which it is now emerging is work." That is the proverb, that should be the watchword, of this time. Only by work, only by a hard and solid long day's work, only by continuous, steady production, can the world go on. M. Clemenceau utters the strong and necessary gospel of the whole world.

At 11 o'clock on Tuesday—Armistice Day—the whistle at Wright's wood-working mill was blown, in order to call a complete cessation of activities on the part of citizens, in recognition of the sacrifice made by our brave boys who gave their lives in the great world-war. The call was pretty generally complied with, but as no public notice had been given a number did not know what the whistle meant and went on with their work as usual. This is to be regretted. The custom is a good one and should be perpetuated. Every year when the 11th of November comes around our people should be thus reminded of the debt they owe and can never pay.

The parliamentary session which closed at Ottawa on Monday was unique in many particulars. Called for a distinct purpose and that accomplished, members were preparing to disperse when the government introduced legislation that added 8,000 miles of railway to the government system. This was followed by a special committee of the soldiers' civil re-establishment system and resulted in a further expenditure of $50,000,000 for this purpose. After several attempts to provide for complete provincial prohibition it was in the dying hours of this session that it was accomplished. The session, characterized as a "joke," and one to provide an additional indemnity for the members, became one of the most momentous in our history and in which the additional sessional remuneration was earned both by commoners and senators.

The Soldier Slighted

Dear Sir,—Kindly allow me a few lines with which to congratulate the citizens of Wolfville, and especially the Mayor and Town Council, for the impressive manner in which they commemorated Armistice Day and all that the day means to civilization. If, perchance, our Comrades "over there" have felt any misapprehension of their sacrifice in the past such a display of appreciation as was shown in town on Tuesday will no doubt remove any such thoughts from their minds.

"When war is rife, and danger nigh,
 "God and the Soldier is all the cry,
 "When war is o'er, and wrongs are righted
 "God is forgot, and the Soldier slighted."
 I thank you. C. O. F.

Historical Sites in Nova Scotia

NOVA SCOTIA CONTAINS MORE SPOTS CONSECRATED BY BLOOD AND HEROIC EFFORT THAN ANY OTHER PART OF THE ENTIRE DOMINION

The Dominion government has created a board to look after the historic sites and monuments in Canada. Nova Scotia contains more spots consecrated by blood and heroic effort than any part of Canada—and probably any similar portion of America. The tide of battle swept around the coasts of this province a hundred years before Ontario was heard of, except by Jesuit Fathers, whose matchless courage and self-sacrifice as bearers of the Cross first led them to penetrate those western wilds. This is a late day to commemorate by permanent monuments so much that is worthy and that inculcates high ideals of national duty, but that the work has been determined upon will be received with gratification.

Louisburg, Piziquid, at Windsor, Fort Cumberland and Annapolis Royal, will be to some extent restored and will be under perpetual care. The remains of La Tour's old fort, De Razilly's grave at Fort Point, Canso, with its long history, the wonderful exploit planned by De Ramesay against Noble's command at Grand Pre, the episode at Bloody Creek near Bridgewater, are only a few of many places in this province that will no doubt come under the purview of the board.

The Quebec battlefields commission has spent some three millions of dollars in making a national park of the place where Wolf and Montcalm fought out the destiny of this continent, and work is now nearing an end. It is not too soon that other parts of Canada were receiving attention.

The board is honorary and advisory. Its members are General Cruikshank, Dr. Benjamin Sulte, historian and ex-president of the Royal Society, Dr. Coyne, of St. Thomas, historian and member of Senate of Toronto University; W. C. Milner, Dominion archivist of the Eastern section of Canada. The Dominion is represented on the board by J. B. Harkness, of the Park's Commission, and Mr. Williamson, of the same board, who acts as secretary.

Who's Who Among Canadian Authors

H. A. CODY

Good, clean, wholesome novels, unique in plot and abounding in action, adventure, are the productions of H. A. Cody. His early experience as a missionary in the Yukon district supplied him with material which he uses so successfully as the background of his books of Western life. As a clergyman who enters into activities and daily problems of his community he has, in other stories, helped to show the place of the preacher and the church in the life of the people.

Rev. Hiram Alfred Cody was born in New Brunswick in 1872, ordained to the Anglican priesthood in 1898, missionary and rector in the Yukon district for six years. Since then he has been rector of St. James' Church at St. John, New Brunswick.

Mr. Cody's new story "The Touch of Abner" is a humorous one. Perhaps its style might be compared to the Joseph Lincoln story book though altogether different. Mr. Cody believes there is enough sadness in the world and he has put a chuckle or a laugh on every page.

The hero of the story is Abner Andrews of Ash Point. He and his wife, Tildy, attend a meeting of the influential people of the town of Glucom to arrange about the building of an Orphanage. When Abner sees how few are subscribing he offers the sum of one thousand dollars, when he hasn't a cent to bless himself with. But he has a farm which is a valuable gravel bed and needed by the Government for railway ballast. Government grafters are after his farm and Abner opposes them and gets into all kinds of trouble. He has a beautiful daughter, Jess, who has attended the Seminary and has come home with a head full of Social Service Work. Her special friend, Belle Rivers, only child of the Attorney-General, visits her. Abner believes in the re-incarnation theory and his neighbor, Zeb Burns, is daft on The Lost Ten Tribes of Israel.

You are sure to enjoy the chapter where Lawyer Rackshaw, who is trying to get the gravel bed and who plays a mean trick upon the old farmer, receives a box of rats from Abner, or the chapter where Abner is in jail for beating up the Editor of The Live Wire, who has written a nasty article about Abner's wife and her experiences with a neighbor's chauffeur who ran away with her one night.

Altogether Mr. Cody has given us a live and humorous story, one that will be welcomed by his many readers. Cloth, $1.50.

Humor of The Country

Old Giles was taking out an insurance policy on his life, and he and his wife were puzzling over the forms that had arrived for him to sign. "Yer see this?" said Giles, "it says, 'age of your father if living.' Suppose I must fill it in, and a few days later Giles received a visit from the agent. "What do you mean by your form?" said the agent. "You state your father's age as 110. That is ridiculous. "No, it ain't," replied Giles; "Your form says, 'if living,' and that's the age he'd be if he was alive now."

"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches and did not sleep well at night. Finally, a friend told me to try "Fruit-a-tives". In a week, the Constipation was corrected and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

Weariness

By Walt Mason.
If you're tired, O toiling brothers, of the chores you have to do, there are forty million others who are just as tired as you. Sometimes when my back is aching, and my feet are tired and sore, I remark, "It's no use making earnest efforts any more; for I'm weary of my burden, and my heart is cold as ice; and I fail to see a guerdon I consider worth the price. Oh, I'm tired of splitting kindling and I'm tired of packing coal; all the dreams I had are dwindling and my hopes are in the hole. All the jobs I do are botches and I'm weary of it all; I am tired of winding watches, and I'm tired of playing ball." And I look around for pity, and I find to my surprise that the whole immortal city fairly swarms with weary guys. They are tired of digging taters, tired of dodging the police, tired of shoeing alligators, tired of herding ducks and geese. They are weary, ever, always, tired of all this world provides; they are tired of growing galways, tired of tanning children's hides. So I'm tired of being weary when I hear the others sob; though the life be dreary, I won't travel with the mob.

Mother's Bill.

A ten-year-old overheard a conversation about certain bills for service rendered which had been paid, and conceived the idea of making out a bill of his own services. So the next morning he laid his statement of account on his mother's breakfast plate: "Mother owes Willie for carrying coal six times, twenty cents; for bringing water lots of times, thirty cents; for going ten errands, fifteen cents; total sixty-five cents." His mother read the bill, but said nothing.

That evening Willie found on his plate the sixty-five cents and also another bill, which read as follows:

"Willie owes mother for his happy home of ten years, nothing; for his food and clothing, nothing; total, nothing." When Billy saw the sixty-five cents he was pleased, but when he read his mother's note his eyes became dim and his lips quivered. Then he took the money to his mother, threw his arms around her neck, and begged that she would let him do lots of things for her! Mother's bill is rarely presented, but it will pay each child to think it over for himself, and then pay it in love and service.

Torture of the Inquisition A Modern Example of Suffering

People suffer—suffer torments—with help at hand. Gin Pills can overcome pain in the most marvelous way—all the suffering which follows in the wake of weak or diseased kidneys, such as rheumatism, sciatic neuralgia, stone in the bladder, excruciating backache, stiff and swollen joints and ankles, yields quickly to the soothing, healing, strengthening power of Gin Pills, which contain Juniper, and seven other valuable diuretics and antiseptics.

Mr. Arnold McAskell, of Hants, N.S., writes as follows:

"For a long time I suffered from a pain in my back and could not move without agony. I grew worse until confined to bed. A friend advised me to use Gin Pills. Before I had used one box I began to feel better. By the time I had finished two, I was completely cured. I cannot say too much in favor of these pills and I recommend them strongly to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

At the first suggestion of pain in the back get Gin Pills from your druggist or dealer. Each box is guaranteed to relieve—or money back. 50c a box. Free sample, sufficient to show its value, sent on request.

Origin of a Title

The eldest son of the reigning monarch of Great Britain and the heir apparent to the Imperial throne is always known as the Prince of Wales. It is the only case in which the title of prince as applied to a member of a royal family is a territorial one, and the story of how it came into existence has been told many times, is one of the most picturesque incidents in English history. King Edward I, one of the early Empire builders, ended the long series of wars between the English and the Welsh by bringing Wales into the union. In the conference, at which peace was concluded with the people of Wales, King Edward promised to give them a prince who could not speak a word of English. Evidently the prejudices of language existed then as they do today. Anyway the offer seemed to have pleased the Welsh, but they discovered that the canny king had played them a trick. It was true that the eldest son of the royal household could not speak a word of English, but when he was presented to the Welsh chieftains they found that their prince was a new born baby, who spoke no words of any language.

An Appreciation of Rev. M. P. Freeman

At the last monthly Conference meeting of the Wolfville Baptist church, the following resolution, presented by Rev. C. H. Martell, was unanimously passed and ordered to be placed on the Church records:—

As the time has come when Rev. M. P. Freeman must be relieved from the office of Sec'y-Treas. of the Tabernacle work, we desire to place on record the following note of appreciation:—

Rev. M. P. Freeman has given to the Baptist Church of Wolfville, especially in connection with the Tabernacle, many years of splendid service—a service in which is seen a pure life, a warm heart, a devout spirit and consecrated faithfulness. Bro. Freeman never desired a great name, nor sought a large place, but was always exceedingly careful to do God's work well in every relation. He wanted nothing for himself, but all for his Lord—a man who showed signs of the divine presence in presenting the gospel of Jesus Christ in beautiful thoughts, clear vision and delightful obedience. In all the experiences of life he finds opportunity to show the finest loyalty, always ready to forgive an injury, always ready to impart a kindness, always keeping his temper and controlling his tongue. He ever seeks to lead men into the love of God, greater missionary zeal, larger liberality, and a nobler manhood. We pray he may be long spared to be associated with us, and that his cottage may be the home of the Lord all his days.

King's is the first college in the Maritime Provinces to have a wireless set in operation. Messages are received nightly from ships, as well as from stations in Canada and the United States. The correct time is also received at night from Washington. The approximate range of the college station is to be one thousand miles transmitting, and four thousand miles receiving, which will include, besides stations on this continent, several of the high powered European stations.

A wireless club has been formed under the name of King's College Radio Club, and meetings are to be held periodically throughout the year for the study of the art.

Weather conditions permitting, Mr. S. B. Chute (the Apple King) expects to complete apple gathering this week. The total crop from Mr. Chute's extensive orchards will possibly exceed 15,000 barrels. His loss from the severe frost of the night of October 20th was slight compared with the extent of unpicked fruit, being 200 barrels.—Berwick Register.

Victory Loan Prize Essay

A. C. A. STUDENT WINS PRIZE.

The committee appointed to judge the essays submitted by colleges and collegiate schools in Nova Scotia on the subject of the Victory Loan, 1919, have reported that they have read some fifty essays submitted and that they have awarded the prizes to Murray Baker, of the Acadia Collegiate and Business Academy, Wolfville, and Wilfred M. Marshall, of Halifax, a student at Dalhousie University. They found both essays of equal merit and recommended that each be awarded a Victory bond. The judges were Mr. Justice Chisholm, Rev. H. W. Cunningham, rector of St. George's, and Major J. W. Logan, of the Halifax Academy.
