CIVIC GOVERNMENT

Holds First Meeting in New Quarters —Town Manager Makes Recommendations

The regular July sitting of the Council was held on Wednesday evening with Mayor Phinney and all the Councilors present. It was the first meeting in the new Council Chamber, which presents a very good appearance. The new room provides more accommodation than the old, is neatly fitted up and fills the bill admirably.

Manager Stairs presented a statement of the expenditures during June in the various departments as follows:

Water	$308.13
Poor	250.00
Streets	667.89
Sewers	186.11

Expenditure in the Water Department had been occasioned for pipe and materials and a number of small repairs. In the case of the Poor the bills had been for patients at the N. S. Hospital and the support of the town's poor. The amount expended on sewers had been for pipe, clearing out catch-basins and work on the western outlet. Street work had included needed repairs on Maple avenue and street cleaning, etc. The chairman of this committee reported that a little more than half the allotment for this service had already been expended.

Councillor Belmont, for the Finance Committee, reported receipts during the past month $2403.44, and disbursements $4797.44. The credit balance at the bank at the end of June was $2951.17.

A petition was read from residents of Maple avenue asking that the street lights might be extended to that section of the town. This was referred to the Town Manager for report.

Councillor Reid gave notice that at the August meeting he would introduce a resolution to amend the sewer by-laws so as to increase the regular frontage tax paid by the owner of property within the sewer section from fifty cents to seventy-five cents per foot.

It was decided to place another street light on Pleasant street, midway between Highland and Gaspeaux avenues. This will provide a light at each end and three between and should make the street fairly well lighted.

A resolution was passed appointing Tom Stairs, Inspector of Plumbing, Building Inspector, etc.

A number of bills were presented by the Town Manager and ordered paid. These included the following: L. W. Sleep, Streets, Sewer, Water Departments and hardware for new Town Office, $34.24; H. L. Gates, for work on Town Office, $173.68; Electric Commission, $48.11. Other bills were as follows:

H. E. Blakney	$ 1.75
Jas. Robertson	30.68
T. McAvity & Son	6.27
H. R. Pierce	6.30
A. & W. Mackinlay Ltd.	15.73
Chas. H. Artz	7.50
R. E. Harris & Sons	105.12
Burton Croft	14.00
T. C. Allen & Co.	5.37
Davidson Bros.	26.15

The Council authorized the payment of $100 to Manager Stairs for expenses in moving his effects from Halifax.

The Manager reported on a number of matters which received the attention of the Council.

One of these related to the work now in progress on Mr. L. E. Duncanson's barn on Gaspeaux avenue, for which it was now claimed no permit had been given. Mr. Duncanson was heard respecting the undertaking and a resolution was passed holding up the work until the necessary requirements had been complied with.

Mr. Stairs also reported again respecting the sewer extension at the west end of the town, towards the expense of which one of the property owners, Dr. Bagar, had generously agreed to contribute the sum of $500. This work Mr. Stairs regarded as necessary. Coun. Whidden stated that the consent of a majority of those affected or an order from the Public Health Board would be necessary before the work could be entered upon. The necessary steps were ordered to be taken.

Another suggestion made by Mr. Stairs was in connection with Gaspeaux avenue. This street throughout most of its length is fifty feet in width, but as it approaches Main street the width is reduced to forty-seven feet. It was suggested that steps be taken to locate the original bounds and if possible have the street made the required width. The Manager was directed to take up the matter with the owners of adjacent property and ascertain what arrangements could be made.

Mr. Stairs also suggested that a change be made in the method of cleaning the streets. His plan was along the same line as that outlined by THE ACADIAN some weeks ago. The present method of a clean-up once a week was not found

GREENWICH NEWS

Our school closed last Friday for summer vacation. No public examinations this year, owing to a large number of the pupils being absent the last few weeks and the school being closed a week first of June, but we understand pupils did well in class examinations. Fifty names of pupils on register but not the usual number in attendance.

A few of our young people enjoyed a dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cox, Wednesday, June 27th, also a few guests present from Port Williams.

CHURCH PARADE

The largest Church Parade of the young people's organizations ever held in Wolfville took place on Sunday last. The Girl Guides, Wolf Cubs and Boy Scouts, proceeded by the junior section of the Wolfville Band, who are all, or have been, Scouts, under the leadership of Mr. Rau, marched to the Baptist church. The whole service emphasized the fact that it was Dominion Day and the sermon by Dr. MacDonald brought home to the boys and girls the obligation to reverence as promised by them all in their promise to "Honor God and the King". The Girl Guides are particularly deserving of praise for their neat appearance, all being in uniform.

While it is realized that a boy may be a good Cub or Scout without a uniform yet it is very desirable that they should be dressed alike if possible. The Scout uniform is well known and that of the Wolf Cub consists of blue sweater and shorts and green cap. The outfit is all useful and parents are asked to supply their boys with uniforms if possible. The regulation shirts, shorts, sweaters, etc. may be purchased at a very low price from the Boy Scouts Association, Ottawa, or a good substitute may be obtained from the local dealers.

to give satisfaction, and Mr. Stairs suggested that a daily patrol be made and waste matter gathered up. A resolution was passed approving of the change.

Another change proposed was that provision should be made for a cash deposit by any person asking permission to open new streets or sidewalks so that proper refilling and grading should be guaranteed. No action was taken.

Mr. Stairs advised the purchase of a new typewriter for the use of the Town Office and this was referred to the Finance Committee, as was also the request of the Town Clerk for a vacation during the month of August.

HANTSPORT NOTES

Mrs. John Taylor
The death of Mrs. Taylor, relict of John Taylor, occurred at Granville Ferry last week. Mrs. Taylor resided in Hantsport practically all her married life. Several years ago she went to Granville Ferry to reside with her brother Phineas Phinney, who predeceased her about a year ago. The deceased was well known and highly esteemed here. The remains were brought to Hantsport on Friday and interred in River Bank Cemetery.

A Splendid Entertainment
Hantsport certainly enjoyed a rare treat on Thursday evening, when the members of the Canning Dramatic Club produced the three act comedy, "The Colonel's Maid", in the Empire Theatre. Mere words are inadequate to describe the superb acting of those representing the different characters, which was of the highest form and well deserving of the hearty applauses of the large and appreciative audience. Suffice to say that those taking part in the play executed their parts in such a way that would have reflected credit on professionals. The superior acting of Rudolph Schaffheitlin as the autocratic Colonel, Robert Budd, and Mrs. R. Eaton as Mrs. John Carrol, the persistent and indefatigable match maker, was received with enthusiastic applause. Miss Ella Blenus, as Marjorie Byrd, made a delightfully coquettish maid, while Mrs. John Brown, as Julia, the winsome daughter of Mrs. Carrol was quite irresistible. D. H. Gosse as Ned Graydon, though somewhat absent minded made an ideal as well as a very persistent lover. Dr. Stanley Spicer, as Colonel Richard Byrd, the sworn enemy of Col. Budd, could not have appeared to better advantage. Kenneth Parker, the headstrong son of Col. Budd, who emphatically refused to be coerced into a matrimonial alliance with his cousin Julia, left nothing to be desired, while "last but not least" Mrs. Alfred Ellis, who took the part of Ching a Ling the Chinese servant was a scream, keeping the audience convulsed with laughter. Before the presentation of the play a splendid repertoire of music was given by the Canning Orchestra as well as selections between the acts. The personnel of the orchestra is as follows:

Viola—Miss Dora Schaffheitlin.
Violins—Mrs. F. Chute, Mrs. W. Dickie.
Rev. T. W. Hodgson, Otto Schaffheitlin.
Cornet—Mrs. Chas. Cox.
Cello—Rudolph Schaffheitlin.
Flute—John Millett.
Pianist—Mrs. A. D. Payzant.
Director—Mrs. Chas. Sinnett.

The Hantsport School closed on June 22, the out of town teachers leaving for their respective homes the following week. Principal Jacques and family for their former home in Wilmot, Annapolis county. Miss Campbell, Bear River, and Miss Anterson, Sydney. The following will compose the Hantsport School staff for the ensuing year: Mr. Kenneth Parker, principal; Mrs. Daisy Fraser, Preparatory; Miss Gladys Masters, Intermediate; Miss Campbell, Advanced Primary; and Miss E. Hume, Primary. Mr. Jacques who successfully filled the position of principal for two years, tendered his resignation at the end of the term, which was accepted by the School Board.

Rev. G. O. Cheese and family are occupying their summer cottage at Dargies Lake, Annapolis County.

Mrs. E. A. Corbin and Mr. R. Blois were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Blois.

Miss Elmira Borden, who has been principal of the school at Vermilion, Alberta, and Miss Jessie Borden, a recent graduate in Domestic Science at Geulph, Ont., arrived home on Friday and will spend the vacation season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Borden.

Miss Esther Gould, of Wolfville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Carrie Allen.

The Rev. M. G. Durkee, of Parrsboro, filled the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday.

Miss Aileen Yeaton returned on Monday after an extended visit of several months at the home of her aunt, Mrs. B. Newcombe, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mrs. Neil Walker, of Bridgetown, is the guest of her aunt Mrs. A. McDonald.

News of the marriage of Evelyn Irene Gunn, youngest daughter of the late Angus L. and Mrs. Gunn, of Hantsport, to John Alexander McDonald Stibbard, of Chicago, June the fifteenth, will be learned with much interest by their many friends in Hantsport. Mr. and Mrs. Stibbard will be "At Home" after August the first at their home in Weyburn, Saskatchewan.

Mrs. Harry Woolaver, Miss Frances Woolaver and Master Lawrence, of Silerica, Mass., arrived in Hantsport for the summer season which they will spend at the home of Mrs. Woolaver's mother, Mrs. John Rolph. They motored from Yarmouth in their car.

Mr. Percy Dickson, who has been visiting his mother for several weeks, left on Saturday for New York en route for Honduras. He was accompanied by

WATERFRONT IMPROVEMENTS

Better Accommodation Provided At Government Wharf

A number of improvements have been made recently in conditions at the government wharf which provide very much better accommodation for passengers arriving or departing by the "Prince Albert". Mr. J. L. Franklin, who has the care of this property, has repaired the roadway leading on to the wharf and moved and fitted up the old shed, which now does service as a waiting-place for patrons of the boat. At high tides the wharf has in the past been covered with water and Mr. Franklin has provided for this by raising the flooring considerably so that passengers are now able to land from or enter the steamer with comfort and safety. While conditions are not yet what they should be Mr. Franklin deserves much credit for the interest which he has taken, and the improvements that he has been able to secure.

The street leading to the wharf has had no work done on it this season and is in rather bad condition and needs immediate attention. This road is used considerably during the summer months and a small outlay properly expended would improve it greatly.

The "Prince Albert" has been unusually well patronized so far this season and if facilities for loading and unloading cars were provided there would be a large tourist travel. As it is cars are obliged to go to Kingsport and many drivers prefer to go around by the road.

BAND CONCERT

Main street presented a busy appearance on Tuesday evening there being a large crowd in town to hear the concert by the Wolfville Band. A band stand has been fitted up temporarily on the roof of "The Palms" and this proved to be a much better place than the school grounds. The concerts will be held every Tuesday evening during the summer and should be a big drawing card. The following program was much enjoyed this week:

1. March—Happy Days. Mackie-Beyer
2. Waltz—In Foveland. Schumann
3. March—Vallencia. Mendelssohn
4. Overture—Golden Days. Mackie-Beyer
5. Waltz—Blue Danube. Strauss
6. March—Officer of the Day. Hall
7. Serenade—In the Twilight. Mackie-Beyer
8. March—Across the Isthmus. Evans
9. Waltz—Ever True. Mackie-Beyer
10. March—To the Front. Day

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

THE CANNING ACADIAN

With this issue THE ACADIAN begins another department which the publishers believe will be appreciated by its readers. Canning is the centre of perhaps the best agricultural section of this county and its people have in past years contributed much towards its industry along various lines. Men who have had their homes there have occupied leading positions in public affairs. Embowered in their orchards and shade-trees, the natural beauty of the place is unsurpassed and its citizens are prosperous and progressive.

With three other newspapers in the county Canning is not possessed of such an institution and to provide partially for the need THE ACADIAN this week opens a department that will be devoted exclusively to the interests of that flourishing community. In its columns will be found news items, local sketches, business announcements, etc., which will make better known the history of the section and the advantages which it has to offer. It is hoped that through this medium any existing grievances may be corrected and beneficial innovations may be ushered in. The publishers of THE ACADIAN bespeak the hearty co-operation of residents of Canning and vicinity in this venture which we trust may be mutually advantageous to all concerned. Business men of the place have expressed themselves as pleased with the idea and leading citizens of all classes have promised their assistance. The publishers promise to do their utmost to merit the support which will be necessary to make this venture the success which we trust it may become.

THE WOLFVILLE-KENTVILLE ROAD

Considerable rather unfavorable comment is heard regarding the present condition of the Wolfville-Kentville road which has been receiving the attention of the provincial highways board during the past year. This road has cost a large amount of money and while it was generally conceded by the public that such a method of construction as was employed could not in the nature of things be otherwise than transient it was confidently hoped that for a time at least the two sister towns would enjoy the benefits that might reasonably be expected to result from such a large outlay of public money.

It will be remembered that when the work was contemplated a strong delegation waited upon the government urging that in the preparation of this important and much used stretch of highway so far as possible the work should be of a permanent character. Such a roadway as has been adopted by the towns of Wolfville and Kentville was requested. Instead the gravel-road policy was adopted and from present appearances this is likely to be anything but satisfactory. At present the roadway is showing signs of wear and in places is practically as rough as it was before the work was undertaken. There is a report that the road has not yet been taken over from the contractors and that as yet it is in an unfinished state, and it is devoutly to be hoped that this is true as its present condition in no way justifies the large expenditure that has been made upon it.

GOOD APPLE CROP PROMISED

The outlook for a good apple crop is regarded by those who ought to know as most encouraging. The fruit has set well and conditions so far have been just right for its development. Orchards have in most cases received considerable attention and it is evidently the purpose of orchardists to seek to produce a superior quality of fruit. If the Annapolis Valley is to maintain the reputation of former years our people must needs adopt the very best possible methods.

We need better organization in the direction, not only of growth, but also in the packing and marketing of our fruit. The fact that in the province of Ontario they have recently secured the services of an expert from British Columbia to instruct in box packing is most suggestive. The western province has certainly demonstrated the advantages of this method of packing which is well worth looking into on the part of our growers.

In the matter of the marketing of our apples there is unquestionably much room for improvement as is evidenced by the fact that even in our own markets in many instances we have been unable to compete on favorable terms with the product of British Columbia.

THE BUS SERVICE

Much dissatisfaction exists in all sections affected by the bus service over the apparent unjust treatment which it has received at the hands of the Board of Public Utilities. In view of the fact that railway and steamship services receive substantial bonuses from the government it is very properly argued that no undue obstacle should be placed in the way of an institution which provides such a satisfactory service. The present tax imposed makes it highly improbable that the undertaking can be continued with any reasonable profit and its discontinuance at the present time would be most unfortunate. It is to be hoped that some arrangement may be made that will at least withdraw any impediment to what is bound to be, if not interfered with, a real public convenience.

A GOOD HAY CROP

The grass harvest is now about ready and promises to be an abundant one. In their wealth of bloom and odor the fields are a picture and a drive through the country at this time is a delight to the senses. A good hay crop is a promise of prosperity as it means the possibility of an increased live stock and a consequent greater production along every line of agricultural activity. For the past two or three years this crop has been below the normal and the present outlook is very encouraging. Next week should see hay operations in full swing as according to reliable authorities, an undue postponement is almost sure to mean inferior quality.

The condition of the old Main street cemetery is such as to demand some immediate attention. Situated as it is in a most frequented section, its appearance is not such as to be a credit to this enterprising town. Visitors to Wolfville will naturally conclude that our citizens are neglectful regarding the resting-place of their forefathers if the present untidy and unkept condition is allowed to continue.

Several changes have been made in the staff of Acadia Collegiate and Business Academy. Dr. Archibald has secured the services of H. H. Wetmore, B. A., and J. H. Dexter for the collegiate department, who have both been during the past year on the Pictou Academy staff. Mr. Ernest D. Pace, of Taunton, Mass., will succeed Miss MacGregor in the business department. A Telephone Call Can Put "Zip" Into A Holiday

The Business man is apt to take his holidays sadly. Even the achievement of a raking drive on the golf course or the successful ending to a prolonged tussle with a plump and speckled big fellow at the lake fails to inspire him with more than modified rapture.

And all because he lets the shadow of "the office" haunt him: because he is filled with imaginings of the sins of omission and commission that are being committed there in his absence!

A pity! for he could so easily banish that shadow and still those imaginings.

A few words to "Long Distance" of a morning would put him in touch with his office and give him the chance of learning just how well things are going there.

Then carefree, easy-minded, he could enter with vim into the enjoyment of his holiday.

A Page Full of Interest to the Owner or Prospective Owner of an Automobile.

HOW POWER IS GENERATED

Power is developed in the gasoline engine by taking a charge of fuel mixed with air into the cylinders, compressing it and igniting it so that it will burn, produce heat and pressure. This pressure is exerted on the generator and led to the spark plug and, through various connections, to the rear wheels.

The ignition of the mixture is obtained universally today through the use of an electric spark. To produce this spark at a desired point in the cylinder a spark-plug is employed. Practically all automobile engines use the jump spark. In the jump spark type of plug there are two metal points projecting into the cylinder. These points are insulated from each other electrically by means of a porcelain or mica sleeve, and the ends of the points are set so that there is a space of about 1-32 of an inch between them.

A very high electrical pressure is generated and led to the spark plug by means of a wire which is attached to the terminal communicating with one of the points. The pressure is sufficient to cause the electricity to jump the small gap separating the two points, causing an electric spark. It is this spark which ignites the explosive gas in the cylinder.

High Tension Magneto

To generate this high pressure, or high voltage current, there are two general systems employed: First, the high tension magneto which is entirely self contained and generates current only when the engine is running. This system is used on very few cars today. The second system, the battery ignition system, has come into general use because the battery is required for lights and starting and is, therefore, present for ignition purposes.

In the battery system a low pressure current, usually of six volts, is supplied by the battery to an induction coil. The induction coil is so constructed that it transforms or changes this low pressure to the high pressure required by the spark plug. In order to obtain the spark, it is necessary to have the low pressure primary current that flows from the battery through the coil interrupted and for this purpose interrupter points are provided. These are included in the igniter, which also has provision for distributing the higher pressure secondary current to the different cylinders, as a spark is required by each.

The action is somewhat as follows: When the switch is turned on at the dash the current may flow from the battery through the primary winding of the induction coil, then to the interrupter and from the interrupter to the switch and thence back to the battery. This gives a complete circuit and current will continue to flow as long as these conditions remain the same.

What Causes the Spark

When the crank shaft of the engine is revolved a shaft in the igniter, which is geared to it, revolves also. When the crank shaft has reached a position where it is desirable to have power applied to it, a cam on the shaft in the "igniter" causes the interrupter points to separate and stop the flow of current in the primary circuit. When the current stops flowing in the primary winding of the coil certain magnetic changes take place in the coil which energizes the secondary winding of the coil. This creates the high tension current which travels to the spark plug and causes the spark which ignites the gas.

In order that this high tension current may be delivered to the proper cylinder it is led from the induction coil to the igniter, where it enters the distributor, which is really a revolving switch, and directs it to the proper spark plug. The spark plugs of all cylinders are connected by wires to the distributor which delivers a spark to each in its turn. When it is desired to stop the engine the ignition switch is turned to "off" position, which causes a break in the primary circuit, consequently no current can flow from the battery to the coil and no secondary current will be generated to supply the spark plug.

Overheating Induction Coil

It sometimes happens that the operator forgets to turn off the switch when the engine is stopped, through stalling or otherwise. The result is that the current may continue to flow, which will discharge the battery and overheat the induction coil. To prevent this some systems are supplied with a resistance unit to limit the amount of current that can flow so that little damage can be done.

Other systems employ an automatic switch, which is operated by a thermostat. With this device, when the switch is left on after the engine is stopped, the current flowing heats the thermostat. This operates a mechanism that automatically opens the primary circuit.

In the modern battery systems the current drawn from the battery for ignition is replaced by a generator whenever the engine is running. As a matter of fact, when the engine is running at normal touring speed the generator produces enough current to the battery to make up for that which was drawn from the battery for starting, lights and ignition when the engine was not running. Thus, generally speaking, when the engine is running, the battery system of ignition draws its current from the generator. When the engine is idle or turning at very slow speed its current is drawn from the battery.

USE EYES AND SAVE CASH

Many a car owner could repeat the jobs I do to his car if he would just watch me work. Instead of trying to learn—so that they won't have to be towed home some day—most of my customers start raving over the conditions of the roads and other things that have no bearing on the repair work.

A man came in here the other day with the complaint that his engine overheated. Said he drained off the water and poured in fresh. Proved to me that the fan belt was tight enough. Had enough of the right kind of oil in the crank-case. The brakes were not dragging. And, in general, everything seemed to be all right—except the engine kept right on overheating.

I knew what the trouble was and started remedying it. The timing was a little late. I told him so. But oddly enough, the moment I removed the distributor head and started adjusting the position of the breaker cam he struck up a conversation with one of my men about the cost of having his radiator reworked.

All I was doing was changing the position of the breaker cam so that the points would break an instant sooner. To turn the cam it was first necessary to loosen the screw that locks the adjustment. After making the necessary change I locked the adjustment again, but I must admit I was strongly tempted to leave the screw a little loose—just so that in a few days the owner would be caught on the road with his timing all upset.

It would be a lesson to him to learn how to do a simple job like this himself. He may never have to depend upon his own brain for a job like this, but the knowledge of "how to" is a habit that saves many an hour of worry and many a dollar on repairs. Repairers are always handing out this information to any motorist who'll take the trouble to keep his eyes and ears open.

Some women have such a keen sense of humor that they take their husbands as a joke.

WONDERFUL VALUE FOR $2.00

It is a source of constant wonder to publishers the world over how The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal can be printed and mailed to any part of Canada for the small subscription price of two dollars a year.

Some other papers may quote a lower subscription price but they do not contain one-fifth, nor in many cases not even one-tenth of the reading matter published each week by the Family Herald and Weekly Star. People everywhere are now selecting their reading material with greater discrimination than in the past. Instead of being loaded with a lot of second rate papers and magazines, they are now saving money by discarding the chaff and subscribing to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal—the one big all-round journal that provides in its seventy-two pages every week an ample volume and variety of reading to satisfy every member of the family.

In addition to being the best informed, most practical and helpful paper for farmers, the Family Herald and Weekly Star provides the best of serial and short stories, complete departments for women and young folks, powerful editorials on the most important topics of the day, a complete weekly digest of world news, in fact a veritable library of information, entertainment and inspiration. On account of its clean, wholesome and helpful character, its phenomenal value and powerful influence for good, it is not too much to say that the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal should be in every Canadian home.

Canada Confident of the Future

CANADA is endeavoring to regain her after-the-war stride in the midst of many difficulties. — debt, deflation and depression being some of them.

Quack remedies and academic theories beset her path on every side. Some suggest that our debt worries can best be eased by going further into debt. Others preach blue ruin, decry their own country and indulge in mischievous propaganda generally, while still others look for a new social order or some miraculous sign to indicate a better coming day—all this in apparent forgetfulness of the fact that just as there was no royal road to win the war, there is now no royal road to pay for it or regain our former buoyancy, vigor and confidence.

Some are leaving Canada hoping to escape taxation, only to find there is no escape anywhere. In seeking for easy remedies too many of us overlook the fact that the greatest remedy is honest, hard work faithfully and intelligently performed, accompanied by old-fashioned thrift.

It takes time, it takes patience, it takes grit. But every Canadian knows in his heart that Canada is coming through all right.

Our Experience Proves It

Look back over the path Canada has trod. The French Colonists, cut off from civilization by 3,000 miles of sea, faced a continent—a wilderness—without the aid of even a blazed trail. They had to fight savages, frosts, scurvy, loneliness and starvation.

The United Empire Loyalists subdued an unbroken forest in one generation, growing their first wheat amid the stumps and snags of the new clearing.

The Selkirk settlers came to Manitoba when the prairie was a buffalo pasture, and grew wheat where none had grown before and where those who knew the country best at that time said wheat would never grow. Today the Canadian prairies grow the finest wheat in the world.

In proportion to population Canada stands to-day among the wealthiest nations in the world, with average savings on deposit per family of $800. Canada's foreign trade per head of population stands amongst the highest of the commercial nations, being $192 per capita in 1922-23, as compared with $135 in 1913-14, the "peak" year before the war.

New Opportunities for Canada

In Canada, although prices in the world markets fell below war level, our farmers reaped last autumn the largest grain crop in Canadian history, and Canada became the world's largest exporter of wheat, thus in large measure making up for lower prices.

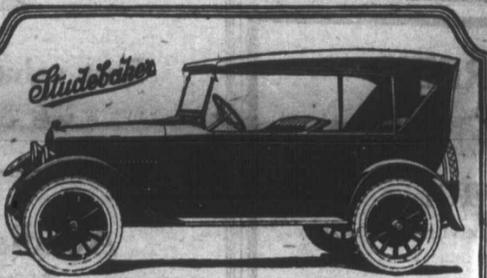

Last year, Great Britain, after an agitation extending over thirty years, removed the embargo on Canadian cattle, and a profitable and practically unlimited trade is opening up for Canadian stockers and feeders.

"The 20th Century belongs to Canada"—if Canadians keep faith.

The next article will suggest practical opportunities for profit making on our Canadian farms.

STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX TOURING CAR $1375

More Cars Shake Themselves to Pieces Than Ever Wear Out

Charge that up to vibration—the constant trembling that causes cars to grow old prematurely by racking the chassis, destroying the "metal life" of vital parts, loosening up bodies and causing squeaks and rattles. Frequent, costly repairs are the result.

The Studebaker Light-Six is free from vibration than any car of its approximate size or weight yet produced. This has been accomplished largely by machining the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces—a practice used by Studebaker exclusively on cars at this price and not to be found on any other car in Canada selling for less than $3500.

Aside from its mechanical excellence, the Light-Six is handsome in design, extremely comfortable, sturdy, and we believe the most economical car to buy and operate ever offered at $1375 or anywhere near this figure. It is powerful, flexible, speedy, easy to handle and convenient to park.

The Light Six is well worthy of the Studebaker name, which for 71 years has stood for unflinching integrity, quality and value.

COLLINS-NEILY

AYLESFORD, June 27.—One of the most outstanding social events of the season was the wedding here last night of Evelyn, daughter of the late Lambert O. and Mrs. Neily, of this place, to Dr. R. J. Collins, newly appointed medical superintendent of Riverglade Sanatorium, New Brunswick, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Collins, of Conneaut, Ohio. The ceremony took place in the Baptist Church, Rev. G. P. Raymond, of Berwick officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Saunders, pastor of the church. The interior was decorated with wild flowers of the month, white, yellow and green being the predominant color scheme. The bride was given away by her brother Ernest. She wore a dress of white crepe romaine beaded with crystal, with a court train, and a headpiece of nagercoil lace. Her bouquet was of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaid was Miss Alice Fair, daughter of Leslie R. Fair, of Aylesford. Her dress was of geranium colored crepe romaine and hat of grey and silver. She carried a bouquet of mauve sweet peas. The groomsmen were Dr. T. M. Sieniewicz, of Halifax, Pauline Neily, niece of the bride, attended as flower girl. The ushers were R. Roop, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, and Elmo Selfridge. Cecil Selfridge sang "Oh! Promise Me", and Mrs. J. D. Clark, Kentville, was at the organ assisted by Miss Joyce Clark, violinist.

A reception for relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride was held after the ceremony, following which Mr. and Mrs. Collins left for Annapolis on the first stage of their journey to Riverglade, where Dr. Collins will take over his duties at once. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum and diamond bar pin.

Dr. Collins was for several years assistant medical superintendent at the Nova Scotia Sanatorium, Kentville, and has recently been associated with Dr. Parfitt at Calador Sanatorium, Oranvurst, Ontario. The bride is a graduate in voice culture at Acadia University and is well known in provincial musical circles. She has also studied voice culture in Boston and other cities. Her father was one of the pioneer apple exporters of Nova Scotia.

Kentville lost an old and highly esteemed citizen by the death of Mr. John Carroll, for twenty-five years the efficient Town Clerk at that place, which occurred on Wednesday. He had a long and useful career in the employ of the Windsor & Annapolis and Dominion Atlantic Railways, having begun as chairman with the engineer in charge of the construction work in 1867. When the road was opened in August 1869 he served in the capacity of breakman and filled other positions, including conductor, until he became traffic superintendent in 1882 and assistant manager and general freight

Miss Edith Lynwood Winn, violiniste, and Miss Bertha Wesselhoft Swift, teacher of voice, of Boston, will accept a limited number of pupils at Kentville and Wolfville during July and August. Highest References. Address at Kingsport, in care of Mrs. J. D. Clarke. 36-41.

The death occurred recently at her home in Amherst, of Mrs. John C. Jones, a former resident of Wolfville. Before her marriage the deceased was Miss Denovan, daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Denovan, a retired Baptist clergyman of Toronto, who built and occupied the residence at Lower Wolfville now owned by Mr. W. K. Fraser. Old friends in this town learned of her death with regret.

The annual picnic of the pupils of the Wolfville High School was held on Tuesday of this week at Starrs Point. Principal Silver was in charge and left nothing undone to secure the comfort and pleasure of the party. The chaperones were Mrs. (Capt.) Lockhart, Miss West and Miss Welch. Automobiles provided safe and satisfactory transportation and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Evangeline Beach opened for the season on Monday. The weather was ideal and there were a large number present, many coming by auto from all parts of Kings and Hants counties. The Wolfville Band was present all afternoon and furnished a splendid program which was much enjoyed. The tide served at about three o'clock and quite a number were in bathing. In the evening a dance was held at the pavilion and music was furnished by the Band Orchestra.

On account of the rain last Friday no game was played in the Town Baseball League. The game scheduled for tonight is between the East End and West End and next week the two postponed games will be played. Monday the West End and The Hill will play and Friday the East End and The Hill. These are the final games of the first series and should draw a good crowd as the three teams are now tied for first place and some close and exciting ball will no doubt be witnessed.

The death took place on Sunday last at her home in Halifax, of Margaret Stewart, wife of Dr. A. J. Cowie, and mother of Mr. Gordon Cowie, of this town. The deceased had reached the advanced age of eighty-two years and was a lady highly esteemed. She was for some time a resident of Wolfville and the news of her passing was heard with sincere regret by many Wolfville friends, who will join THE ACADIAN in sympathy for the bereaved husband and family.

DEATHS HARVEST Mrs. Alexander Borden Mrs. Alexander Borden passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Forsythe, Sr., Sheffield Mills, on Thursday after a few days illness, aged 84 years. Mrs. Borden, who was a daughter of the late Ashal Bentley, was a life long member of Canning Methodist Church and interested in all that stood for the best in life. Those left to mourn their loss are two sons, William, residing in the Yukon, and John, of Sheffield Mills and two daughters, Mary, wife of Thomas Pearson, of California, and Margaret, wife of Thomas Forsythe, Sr. with whom she resided. John Bentley, Halifax, Abraham Bentley, Middleton, Avery Bentley, Canning, Bradford Bentley, of Winnipeg are brothers of the deceased, the sisters being Mrs. Daniel Lamb, Winnipeg, and Mrs. Elizabeth Layton, Halifax. The funeral took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Forsythe, and was largely attended. The service conducted by Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson, assisted by Rev. G. A. Logan was a very beautiful one. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Burgess, Emerson Taylor, Whitfield Ellis, Byron Newcombe. The floral offerings were many. Interment was at Hillaton. Gertrude Agnes Hiltz There passed away on Friday Gertrude Agnes daughter of Mrs. Agnes Hiltz, Kingsport. The life of Gertrude Hiltz, who for several years has been an invalid is an example of the comfort which alone comes from loving trust in the Saviour. Hers was the life of a true soldier of Jesus Christ and the country side mourns their loss. A sorrowing and devoted mother, one sister, Mabel, wife of B. G. Burgoyne, Mahone Bay, and five brothers, Frederick, William, Edgar, Cecil, Harry, survive. The funeral, which took place from St. Thomas' church was a very large and representative one. The comforting service was conducted by Rev. Gordon C. Brown, "Peace Perfect Peace", "Abide With Me", and "The Resurrection Morning" being sung. The pall bearers were four brothers, William, Edgar, Cecil, and Harry Hiltz. Interment was at Habitat. Mrs. George Morey Mrs. George Morey, a beloved citizen of this town, passed away at her home on Friday after a short illness, aged 65 years. Mr. and Mrs. Morey came from London nearly 25 years ago and have meant much to the life of the community. A devoted member of Christ church, where for 25 years she occupied the position of organist, and an active member of the Ladies' Aid, she will be greatly missed. The funeral was held from the late residence on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The service, conducted by Rev. Gordon C. Brown, assisted by Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson, was a beautiful one and found a response in the hearts of all present. The pall bearers were Messrs. Fletcher McBride, William Davidson, Ira Cox, John Ross. The floral offerings were very beautiful testifying to the loving regard with which the late Mrs. Morey was held by the entire community, whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved husband. WHY DO WE CALL VOTING "POLLING"? Voting was originally just a simple counting of heads or "polls". The word has figured in our tongue for centuries. Every child has read in history of the Poll or Head Tax, and even today we often refer to people's "polls" as meaning heads. In 1832 the Reform Act was passed. This act was the first of a series, all aiming at a more adequate representation of the people. Before then, the electorate comprised a very small proportion of the population, only freemen and a few other privileged people being allowed to vote. As a result, many a little borough had only a dozen or so electors. These were summoned to the market or other centre, and voted by a show of hands. Sometimes the defeated candidate demanded a poll, and a booth would be erected in which each elector would come and record his vote personally. This was the original "poll", and though the electorate has been successively enlarged, and the system of public voting long abolished, we still keep the old-time word. A GOOD EXAMPLE

The Dean of Windsor, England, who was recently making a visit to the United States, is evidently a man of common sense.
 The liquor question is a much discussed one in the United States; and it is natural that one of the first questions put to a distinguished visitor should be prompted by a desire to get his views on that subject. The Dean, however, was wary; and his popularity in the country was none the less on account of his prudence.
 Many a time he was asked what he thought about prohibition. He effectually fenced by replying that while in a foreign country he considered it bad form either to criticize its institutions or break its laws. Consequently he declined to talk about prohibition—and he drank water.
 The Dean's is an example of good citizenship and good neighborliness. Good citizenship means obedience to law. There are many of us in this country who might with advantage to ourselves and public morals take a lesson from the Dean. We may differ in opinion in regard to the expediency of prohibition. It is a legitimate subject for public consideration. But while it is the law, citizens who regard themselves as exemplary persons should be content to obey it. If they do not they need not be surprised when persons who feel less responsibility treat the law with contempt.—Halifax Herald.

CANADA'S PROSPERITY

Through Us Or In Spite of Us?

When the war was on and this country was putting forth every effort, at home and overseas, to aid the allied cause, a great spirit of confidence and faith, of willingness to work, economize and sacrifice, filled every class of the community from the highest to the lowest. As a result, Canada's honourable war record has set her high among the nations, with a place at the Imperial Council percentage of farms owned by farmers in this country have been acquired and paid for in the farmer's own lifetime. For the present and future generations there is exactly the same opportunity. True, with each generation, and perhaps oftener, we may have to change our type of crops to meet changing market requirements, but surely that is a trifling task compared with that of those who had to establish themselves in a new country, create their farm, their community, their markets, and their civilization.

During the war years, the farmer, like most others, became unreasonably optimistic. As in other industries, he over-capitalized, tied up too much money in extravagant buildings, and expensive machinery, bought tractors to get the crops in more quickly and easily, without considering whether the actual earning power of these warranted the investment. With the depression, which has followed, this over-expansion has been a serious burden and has shaken the faith of some in ultimate success.

We must get back the indomitable courage and untiring effort of Canada's early days. The farmer must remember that in the last analysis he is infinitely better off than the wage-earner of the city. True, his cash income may sometimes be small, but he can, at the very worst, gain his living from the soil, while in the city the larger wage soon melts away in paying for things which on the farm involves no cash outlay. The farm products are necessities of life and must always command a market. The products of city industries must often create their market and their sale is subject to wide fluctuations. Sure of a market, then, the farmer's main problem is simply the lowering of cost of production to permit of a fair margin of profit even at present prices. This can be done and is being done.

table and a voice in international affairs. Canada must and will come, with equal honour, through the troublous times of post-war adjustment. The only question is, will all of us help—or some of us hinder, by pessimism, apathy, or class jealousy?

To the Canadian farmer this question comes with a peculiar force. Agriculture must be the economic balance wheel of this or any nation. It is an occupation where nature herself demands energy, courage, economy, and efficiency. These sturdy qualities radiate from our farms to industries in other walks of life, where so many leaders were country born and bred.

The farm home and farm life as the source of what has been and is the strongest and truest in our national character is interwoven with the history of Canada from its infancy. The settlers on the shores of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, toiling to clear a patch of forest and sowing their grain among the stumps; Hebert and the pioneers of New France, fighting Indians, enduring privations, wrestling merely a rude living from their small clearings, but full of faith in the future, if not for them, then for generations yet to come; the men who rescued Upper Canada from the wilderness; the Red River colonists, who, after two years of complete destruction of their crops, sent a party to the Mississippi for seed grain for the next year and won! These men made possible the Canada of today.

The farmers of Canada, then, have a rich history and a noble tradition to live up to. Upon them Canada's progress has always, in the main, depended; upon them it will always, in the main, depend.

What, then, is necessary for the farmers of today? Simply the application of those qualities we have referred to—energy, courage, economy and efficiency, and under present-day conditions the return is sure and speedy. A very high

We may call attention to the advertisement placed in this issue by the Federal Department of Agriculture. It is more than an advertisement, it is a call to united and cheerful effort, a summons to the Canadian spirit of the "will to win" which has burned so brightly throughout Canada's history—a spirit which is so well shown in a message received in Ottawa only a few days ago from one of the foremost farmers of the Province of Alberta. He says: "It started to rain the last part of the week, and this coming after the recent heavy rains has put the soil in a condition that it has not been in at this time of the year since 1916; the farmers are consequently very jubilant and if optimism could pay debts the farmers of Southern Alberta could by next fall cancel our National Debt."

LLOYD AGAIN FURNISHES EVER-LASTING LAUGHTER

Harold Lloyd has again proven that he is the most consistent funmaker on the screen by his latest Pathe, five reel comedy, "Dr. Jack", which will be seen Monday and Tuesday at the Opera House. There are comedians who make exceedingly funny pictures, but Lloyd is the most consistent and dependable of the Sons of Laughter. "Grandma's Boy" seemed to us to be the perfect comedy—until we saw "Dr. Jack".

In "Dr. Jack", Lloyd has again given us a comedy with a serious vein running through it, but the laughter is continuous and everlasting. Never was there anything funnier screened than Lloyd's acrobatic antics in his wierd disguise as the madman. The poker game was a gem of cleverness, as was the comedian's scene with the little freckled kid. Then there was his ride on the back of the bronco-like calf, and—but why continue? It was a laugh from start to finish. Harold Lloyd is seen in the title role, that of a young doctor who cures ills by the "sunshine method". The fast and furious Lloydian comedy is interwoven with a charming love story, and here the comedian fairly outshines all the Great Loves of the screen. It's a great comedy and you really can't afford to miss it.

VERY SIMPLE

Old Sandy, the shepherd, was very proud when his son won a scholarship at the Agricultural College, and told the news to all his friends and neighbors.

Walking down a lane one day he was accosted by another shepherd, who stopped for a chat.

"Hoo's your lad getting on 'at the Agricultural College?" inquired his friend.

"Oh, fine!" was Sandy's reply. "He's just learnt a quick, new way to count sheep. Wonder you an' me didn't think o' it before."

"An' what is that, Sandy?" asked the other shepherd.

"He simply counts their legs and divides by four."

Miss Laura Mapplebeck, of Victoria Harbor, spent the holiday season with her friend, Miss Lucy Cogswell.

A rare treat was enjoyed by the people of Port Williams and vicinity on Wednesday evening, when Miss Leah Whidden, of Wolfville, gave a recital, assisted by the "Loyal Workers" Sunday School Class. Her selections were wholly from the Bible and were beautifully rendered.

Mrs. Green, of Dartmouth, accompanied by her three children, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles MacKenzie.

Mr. Austin Beatty and wife, of Massachusetts, have been visiting Mr. Beatty's sister, Mrs. Pauline Newcombe, Belcher Street.

The Operetta entitled, "A Day in Flowerdom", which was given by the young folk of Port Williams, under the direction of Mrs. O. G. Cogswell, was repeated last Friday evening in Grand Pre, and everyone pronounced it a grand success.

The annual picnic of the Women's Institutes was held on the grounds of the Experimental Farm on Thursday, July 5th.

On his return he spent two weeks in Toronto with his daughter, Dr. Lillian Chase, who has accepted an appointment in the "Toronto General Hospital" and from there he enjoyed a motor trip to Niagara Falls. Mr. Chase also visited Guilph and attended the Alumni meeting of the O. A. C. from which he graduated in 1882. Here he was an especial guest, as his daughter, Miss Susie Chase, was the first lady graduate from that college.

Mrs. T. E. Smith, of Clarence, is spending a few weeks with her sister-in-law, Miss Eliza Abbott, Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Rourke, of Falmouth, motored to Church Street on Monday and spent the day with their son.

The annual Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival of the United Baptist Church, Port Williams, will be held Monday evening, July 9th, on the grounds of Mr. Justin E. Gates. Supper will be served, also ice cream and strawberries. This festival is under the management of the "Loyal Workers" S. S. class, who have already made themselves famous for their good suppers and entertainments. Supper 25 cents. Proceeds for reseating church.

The women of the Maritime Provinces know good tea, there is no doubt about that. If there were any doubt how would you explain the sale of such a large quantity of MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE, as was made last year. MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE is a tea for particular people; a people who demand the best there is in flavor; it is this class of people that is calling for this tea.

PLEASANT GATHERING AT PORT WILLIAMS

One of the recent social events of exceptional interest was the celebration held in honor of Robie Murphy at the residence of A. C. Murphy, Port Williams, on the occasion of his twenty-fifth birthday.

The party, which was a complete surprise, was planned mainly by the Boy Scouts of the Beaver Patrol of which Mr. Murphy is master, showing the high esteem in which he is held.

Fifteen guests sat down at the table in the spacious dining room which was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of blue and yellow, those being the Scout colors, with a profusion of apple blossoms. One highly artistic feature of the decoration was the streamers of blue and yellow which hung gracefully from the chandelier to the plate of each guest. In the centre of the table was the birthday cake proudly bearing twenty-five candles of all colors and containing a variety of souvenirs which caused much merriment.

After supper the Scouts arrived in full force and after giving their lusty "yell" were invited in and generously treated to ice cream and during the evening presented their leader with a handsome belt.

In addition to Port Williams friends who gathered to extend their best wishes, there were also present friends from Halifax and other places.

At a late hour the company dispersed but the happy memories of the occasion will not soon pass away.

Mr. Murphy served his country in the Great War during 1915-1918 and now is doing as great a service for his county and community by instilling the highest principles of manhood into the boys who come under his influence.
