The officers protested they could not travel with the men and as the train pulled out they were endeavoring, the somewhat unsuccess fully, to eject the men forcibly. Sir Ashley Sparks, K.B.E., director of the min'stry of shipping, discussed the withdrawal of the monster ships from withdrawal of the monster ships from the Canadian troops service. He said the Olympic and Aquitania had been taken from the Halifax route for two reasons. One was the inferiority of the port of Halifax as compared with New York for ships of the monster type, and the necessity of dealing with the returned troops mevement as a whole, as equitably as pessible.

"Acme" Came up to the Standard for Evenness of STRENGTH, BLEACH, DYE and FINISH

It should be good; it should give the best of satisfaction, because every care and thought is given it in manufacture. For instance, "Sakelarides" is considered to be the best cotton obtainable for commercial purposes because it is long stapled. It grows near the great Assouan dam on the banks of the Nile in far-away Egypt. Necessarily it costs more than most cotton, but the satisfaction it gives is worth the price; and every endeavor is made to have "Acme" wholly of "Sakelarides." (Failing this only the finest grade Sea Island cotton is used.)

From Egypt it is taken to Lancashire, the home of the thread industry, where it is put through the many phases of spinning. From England it comes to our own thread factory, where it is twisted, bleached, dyed, and put on spools.

"Acme" thread should give the best of results, for it ranks with the best for quality. Here a point arises about thread that may prove interesting to you. And that is, a certain sized thread must be used with a certain sized needle, otherwise trouble may be expected, frequent breaks and knots being the result. For instance, if one were sewing on a we believe Ald. Honeyford and others do much to delay progress in this direction by talking about single tax. It isn't single tax they want, nor anything like it. It is a reform in the taxation of land values, placing the tax on land values which are in escapable, and taxes on which fall on the owners who contribute nothing to the development of the community by building or improvements as well as upon those who do so by their in vestments in building. No alderman with the slightest glimmer of the sense of justice in his composition can say that it is fair to load up the man who tries to halp the community by the provincial and upright. They may not have a man who tries to halp the community of the tax and taxes on the owners that the selection is being renched. Trees were burning at the two last named places. The fire in the freight car was at a point near the Eastern avenue crossing my feelings, or in interest. But it was the best I could do.

A token of the new spirit is to be found in the appointment of Col. C. H. Mitchell, C.M.G., D.S.O., to succeed Prof. Ellis as Dean of Applied Science. The scientific standards of the university will mark its place in the academic world. The new building program also indicates that this aspect of educational development is to be kept in prominence, and the provincial university should be second to none in this respect. The government should be economical anywhere rather than in this matter of university expansion. Ontario cannot afford to take second place in science

Sloan's Liniment Brings Comforting Relief from After-effects of Exposure, Rheumatic Aches, Pains, Sprains and Strains.

EXPOSURE to all kinds of weather and dampness was the duty of the boys on land and sea. The result was, in many cases, rheumatic aches, sore and stiff muscles, sprains and strains, chilblains and neuralgia.

of such bodily stress.

Thiry-seven years it has been a friend indeed to pain-racked humanity. This message of appreciation for Sloan's Lini-

DENTALS DEFEAT

Before Record Crowd Saturday Night in Toronto Arena.

AND TIED UP THE GROUP

Visitors Caught Up in the Final Period, But Could Not Stand the Pace.

Dentals tied up number one senior O.H.A. group at the Arena on Saturday night when they defeated the Hamilton Tigers by a score of 4-2 before the largest crowd that was ever in the Toronto Arena. The crowd was over 200 greater than the previous record and 7573 paid admissions was the figure handed out as official by the Arena management. The fans lined up early, and at 4 o'clock the lines were extended some distance both ways on Mutual street, waiting for the general admission tickets that went on sale at 8.15. It was 8.50 before the crowd was all in the rink and the game was started at nine o'clock. Trouble with one of the goal lights caused another ten minutes' delay, and it was 3.15 before the game was under way.

The first period went by without a score, and the play was of an individual order. Dentals scored the only goal in the second period, when Hudson beat Rheaume with a long shot from outside the defense. Dentals outscored Hamilton 3-2 in the final session. Stewart put up an even better exhibition than usual, while Brown and Eox were always prominent, the former being easily the best man on the ice. Roach was good and Green played one of the nicest 'games he has ever turned in.

They're Off.

Play was off at a fast clip, but was mostly individual efforts. The Tiger defense apparently started with the idea of slowing up the speedy Dents, and their efforts did not meet with the approval of the officials and Reise was benched twice in succession, and Green also was invited to take a rest. After this they settled down and some fast play resulted, with both goalers made some marvelous stops. There was no score this period.

Starting the second period, McCarthy missed a pass from Matte when they was started at nine o'clock. Trouble marvelous, stops. There was no score this period.

Starting the second period, McCarthy missed a pass from Matte when they apparently had the defense flatfooted. Brown put in a great rush and Hudson took the puck away from McCarthy at centre ice and went in and beat Rheaume from outside the defense. This goal woke them all up and both teams tore up and down at a great clip. Matte and Green showed some great rushing at this functure, and the forwards were combining better. The Tigers peppered Stewart hard, but he turned them all aside, Hudson and Box went down and Rheaume made a sensational play to turn their effort aside.

GAME PROTECTION IN CANADA GOVERNMENTS TO CO-OPERATE

What wild life means to Canada and her people ban only be estimated by those most closely in touch with this great natural resource. Rumors of Price-Fixing for Basic Commodities Wipe Out Advances.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Persistent heavy speculative selling, associated with gossip about price fixing for basic commodities, more than wiped out advances today in the corn market. The close was nervous at the same as yesterday's finish, to 3 1-4c net lower, with May $1.12 'o $1.12 1-8 and July $1.08 1-4 to $1.08 1-2. Oats lost 1-2c to 1c. In provisions there were gains of 37c to 95c.

At first the corn market had an upward 'slant', owing to week-end adjustment of trades and to reports that indeed dincrease of selling by rural holders was looked for. Moreover, advices were at hand that the entente allies were unwilling to accept the export conditions which the Argentine Government was said to be trying to enforce. Houses with eastern connections, tho, took an aggressively bearish attitude and finally succeeded in bringing about declines. Gossip that a further downward movement of commodity prices was inevitable factorial forms of the downward movement of commodity prices was inevitable factorial forms. The control of the provision of the set-back considerable, to do with the set-back considerable to do with the set-back considerable, to do with the set-back considerable to of commodity prices was inevitable had considerable to do with the set-back, and so, too, had a sudden development of hedging here in the February option.

Oats were weak thruout the day.
Support was lacking.
Reports that packers had received liberal new orders from the government hoisted provisions. Shipments during the week were far in excess of the otal a year ago.

HOLLINGER STRONG

Well on to a quarter of a million shares in two hours' trading was the showing made on the Standard Ex-change on Saturday morning, and altho the transactions could not be described as of record dimensions, the figures tell a story of much activity. While it is true that low-priced issues contributed, as on Friday, a large proportion of the dealings, much interest was shown in Hollinger, and the 5-point rise in the price to 6.30, with odd lots selling up to 6.35, equaling the best levels since the early months of 1917, made it clear that the annual report was given a bullish interpretation. OUR long established policy of selling through responsible dealers is getting stronger each year. We look after our customers by having a stock in the different localities where one can see and judge what is wanted, just as you go to your grocer or butcher or dry-goods merchant. Wouldn't it be next to impossible to buy such commodities by mail from a catalogue?

Your interests are best protected when you know what you are buying and when you do not have to pay for it until you know it is right.

The Frost Steel and Wire Company have never changed from this policy.

The needs of the war have made a great scarcity not only of material, but of skilled men in every line of trade. You therefore need to be more particular in your fence buying than ever before. Cheapness and quality never did go together and much less chance now. Frost Fence has a reputation to preserve and continue with its customers and dealers. You'll always get the best we can make for you and that means the best fence you can get anywhere. If you do not get fence satisfaction from Frost Fence, you'll get it nowhere.

Rumors Current on Mergers

With the revival of interest in gold mining, all kinds of rumors are afloat as to possible mergers. It is fully expected that another attempt will be made to join up the Dome and Dome Extension. Rumor was also busy on Saturday regarding the West Dome, Preston East Dome and Dome Lake. Mining men are of the opinion that the linking up of several of the Porcupine proper-ties into groups like the Hollin-ger and McIntyre would be advantageous to shareholders and would make presentable offerwhich is beginning to take a renewed interest in the Ontario gold camps.

THE MINING MARKET

Trading was brisk on the Standard Exchange on Saturday morning, sales running over 240,000 shares during a two-hour session. The market showed a tendency to broaden and transactions were well distributed over the entire list. Increased interest is being taken in the Gold Stocks, and advanced quotations were shown, ranging from a fraction of a cent on Imperial to ten cents on Hollinger, the advance in the latter doubtless inspired by the remarkably good annual report just published. Hollinger undoubtedly looks attractive from an investment standpoint, and indications point to an early increase in the dividend rate. Amongst the gold mining companies with known ore reserves is one selling apparently much below its real value. This stock should show a good advance when active work is resumed on the property. Write us for particulars.

being the east half of the south half of lot 9, in the first concession of the famous Township of Tisdale. The Sovereign Porcupine Gold Mines also owns in fee two mining claims containing eighty acres.

This property is three-quarters of a mile south of the company's area of coarse-grained lava. By the present wagon road the railway stations at Schumacher and Timmins are less than two miles distant. McDonald Lake is within 20 chains; the Hydro-Electric power line from Wawaiton crosses the property; there are ample supplies of wood available, and every facility for efficient and economical mining and milling.

As yet only the statutory work has been done on these claims, but the results are unusually satisfactory. Vein No. 1 is 20 feet wide, with assays from $4 to $19.

Veins 2 and 3 intersect each other at right angles, and near the point of junction assays of $43 and $220 in gold were obtained.

Then in the southeastern section of the property there are three strong parallel veins, about 50 feet apart. It is probable that they will come together in depth and form one immense ore body.

Across the northern portion of the claims there is a pronounced zone of shearing and mineralization at least 40 feet wide. It has a northwest, southeast strike, is highly silicified and carries actinolite and other minerals associated with gold-bearing rocks.

In its extensive shearing, and in other respects also, this property closely resembles the western portion of the Hollinger Consolidated. The country rock on both is soft and schistose, and has been strongly impregnated with fine-grained pyrite. Indeed, it can be affirmed, without fear of contradiction. that in structure, strike and some other features, the No. 1 vein resembles the main vein on the Hollinger. Consolidated.

The ore bodies on this property are of unusual size, even in this region of very large deposits, and money judiciously expended in their development is sure of an ample reward.

N.B.—The foregoing was prepared by a disinterested expert who has examined the property.

Most people now understand that a high capitalization reduces dividends. It is somewhat analogous to keeping up a large family instead of a small one. We find that we have not been quite fair to the Sovereign Porcupine in all we have already said on the question of the rate of dividend. When we began the sale of the present issue of 100,000 shares at 25 cents, 70 per cent. of the entire capitalization was in the treasury of the company. When the sale is closed there will be cash on hand and 60 per cent. of the stock. But the cash will probably increase the value of the property at least $100,000, and it may be more. In such case we will be fully justified in making the nest issue at 50 cents, for at 25 cents we are placing only a present value of $100,000 on the three choice parcels of mining ground.
