C.P.R. EASES B. & M. BRANCH, SAYS REPORT

OFFICIALS OF ROAD REFUSE TO CONFIRM STORY

Newport to Sherbrooke Line Is Branch Affected

TRAFFIC HEAVY

Efforts to Connect With Boston And Atlantic Seaboard Is Hinted

NEWPORT, N. B., Nov. 14.—It is learned here, on what appears to be good authority, that negotiations are well advanced by which the Canadian Pacific Railway will take over a portion of the Boston and Maine Railway.

According to reports, officials of the Canadian road are in Boston at present in connection with the negotiations.

OFFICIALS SILENT

Officials of the railway here decline to discuss or deny the rumors. It is said that this lease, if effected,

CONFIRMATION LACKING.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—Questioned as to whether there was any truth in the report that the Canadian Pacific Railway was going to lease a part of the Boston and Maine Railway general officials of the Canadian Pacific here stated that they had no announcement to make.

would involve the Newport-Sherbrooke line of the B. & M., and that this section might very likely be operated by the Quebec Central, a subsidiary of the C. P. R.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Nov. 14.—Inquiry at the local Quebec Central offices failed to bring official confirmation of the Newport despatches. The record was advised that there was no statement to be made with regard to the rumors.

A Boston and Maine conductor, in town today, characterized them as "absurd."

MOVE CREDITED

Reports from other sources indicate that there is a basis of fact in the report, though negotiations are perhaps not concluded.

In years past there have been numerous rumors and predictions of the C. P. R. extension with New England. C. P. R. passenger and freight business in that direction has always been heavy. It would now appear that some move is in the process of development.

The Canadian National has its lines in New England to Portland and over the Vermont Central. Whether or not the Canadian Pacific is reaching towards Boston and the Atlantic seaboard will no doubt develop shortly.

DEBT SETTLEMENT PLEASES ITALY

ROME, Nov. 14.—The satisfaction which was shown with the first announcement that an agreement had been reached at Washington between the Italian debt mission and the United States debt funding committee, turned to joy, when the details and the terms of the agreement were announced.

While such journals as the Giornale d'Italia point out that the burdens placed by the agreement upon future generations of Italians, is no trifling consideration, the press generally does not hesitate to note with extreme satisfaction the part of the United States of $1,718,000,000 represents a sum of no mean proportions.

NEGRO SLAYER GETS DEATH SENTENCE

Man The Law Forgot to Execute is Again Committed to Electric Chair

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 14.—Johnny Washington, negro slayer, the "man whom the law forgot," will go to his death in the electric chair next today.

Clemency was denied him yesterday afternoon. Washington's case gained prominence some time ago when the state forgot his execution date. The negro, pacing the death cell, of McAuliffe Prison, found an unexpected stay of execution.

Meanwhile the courts got into action again and re-sentenced him to die. He had been convicted of murdering an El Dorado town marshal who surprised him in the act of committing a robbery.

Natives In Cape Province To Lose Franchise, Says Herzog

SMITHFIELD, Orange Free State, Nov. 14.—A decision totally to deprive natives of the Cape Province of their right to the franchise is announced here. Premier Herzog declares it is impossible to extend similar franchise to the other provinces of the South African Union, for this would mean the ruin of European civilization.

Experts, the Premier added, figure that the native voters in the Cape Province, within 50 years, would outnumber the white voters and the change was necessary. The government proposed to withdraw the native franchise in the Cape Province, and instead give the right to natives throughout the Union to elect seven Europeans to represent them in the legislative assembly in addition to the quota of representatives provided for by the constitution.

Among other proposals dealing with the native problem are to give them the additional land already promised, and to train them for self-administration.

SUPPRESSION OF TRADE UNIONS CAUSES ANGER

Hostility Is Expected If He Comes To Britain

POLICE PREPARED

Capable of Handling Situation If Communists and Fascists Start Trouble

LONDON, Nov. 14.—With Mussolini come to England, and if he comes, will his arrival be the signal for hostile demonstrations against him by union labor? Such hostility would seriously embarrass the British government if he comes to the country as an invited guest to attend his signature to the Locarno treaty, and yet it is difficult to see how he could avoid open hostility if he comes.

In spite of semi-official statements from Labor headquarters there is little doubt that Labor leaders will boycott the Italian leader if he comes and that Labor will refuse to take part in any public functions to which he may be invited.

LIBERALS MAY JOIN

It is possible also that some Liberals would join in this protest against his presence which would irritate the people of Italy, who are none too favorably disposed towards England at this time.

Of course if he comes trouble may be expected from the small but violent and of British Communists who will demonstrate against Mussolini and this would create a serious situation.

COOK OPPOSES

J. Cook, the miners' fiery leader, says "I certainly won't be with this man since he suppressed trades unionism in Italy. Moreover I do not forget that Mussolini refused the right of the political party which he led to carry on their propaganda and adopted a most obnoxious attitude towards the press. I would put every obstacle in my power in the way of Mussolini's recognition in this country."

Charles Ammon, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty during the administration of MacDonald said "there ought to be a public protest against Mussolini coming here."

It is suggested that Mussolini does not come to this country because he is still angry with Stanley Baldwin for the statement that "Britain does not want a Mussolini," for it is known that he is anxious to come.

The new form of "currency" is made necessary owing to the difficulty of getting the regular Soviet money to Kara Kala, which is buried deep in the mountains of Armenia.

The campaign generally has been very orderly. Premier Bruce, and the members of his cabinet, expressed confidence today that the government would be returned to power.

Former Premier Hughes, in a final shot, declared that the new parliament could be made a thing of beauty and a joy forever, or a thing which the very devils in Hell would spit at.

At the time the commonwealth parliament was dissolved, the standing of the parties was: Labor, 29; Nationalists, 27; Country Party, 14; Liberals, 4; Independent, 1. Total 78. The present government is a coalition of the Nationalist Party and the Country Party.

DAMAGE DONE TO PROPERTY IS VERY HEAVY

HORSE DRAWN VEHICLES ARE OVERTURNED IN STREETS

SHIPS DELAYED

ROOF OF ORPHANAGE BLOWN OFF; CHILDREN THROWN INTO PANIC

QUEBEC, Que., Nov. 14.—Roots of buildings were torn away, horse-drawn vehicles overturned in the streets of the city, and navigation on the St. Lawrence was completely tied up by the terrific northeast gale that struck Quebec yesterday and continued throughout the day. It is declared to have been the worst storm to visit Quebec in the month of November in the past 10 years.

No marine mishaps on the St. Lawrence were reported, but it was learned that the passenger liners on their way to Quebec and Montreal, were obliged to anchor in the lower St. Lawrence, until the gale subsided somewhat.

VESSELS DELAYED.

Two of these vessels, the Marburn and Regina, this morning, were still standing off Father Point, waiting for an opportunity to take on their pilots. Several attempts were made last evening to take pilots out to the liners, but the pilot tenders experienced such heavy seas that her captain was obliged to turn back for safety's sake. The Montclair after waiting 20 hours at her berth here, managed to pull away from her wharf at 4:30 this morning and sail for Montreal.

The storm left its mark on several buildings in the city, and panic broke out among the 700 children in the St. Malo Sisters' Convent, at the corner of Marie De L'Incarnation and Ste Therese streets, when the roof of that institution was blown off. The children were terror-stricken, believing that an earthquake had struck the city. The roof of police station No. 2, Berthelot street, was also blown off the roof of the Lemurier Tobacco Company held up traffic on St. Valier street.

BOATMAN DROWNED.

Achilles Auger, a boatman, of Lotbiniere County, was accidentally drowned during the storm of yesterday, when, after waiting for the greater part of the day, he tried to cross the river to look after some of his boats, which were on the opposite shore.

GRADE 2 PUPILS
FOUND SMOKING

Many Youngsters Confirmed
Tobacco Users, Says Campbell Nurse

Red Cross Society Takes Action
to See That Selling Law Observed

In investigating the lamentable practice of cigarette-smoking among local school pupils of tender age, Miss MacPhail, the public health nurse here, has made an important and rather startling discovery in learning that many youngsters in the lower grades are apparently confirmed tobacco-users, says the Campbellton Graphic, which continues: The discovery—at first made on a casual basis—disclosed the disturbing fact that even many pupils in Grade II, are smoking regularly. One youngster in Grade III, when questioned, replied with something of the air of an old smoker, that he smoked "about a box a day."

TO TRY TO STOP IT.
In other grades, too, the habit is even more deeply rooted and the situation, regarded from any angle, is frankly disturbing. When asked where they secured their cigarettes in most cases the pupils replied, "Oh, anywhere." Several of course, were able to state at what stores they obtained their "smokes," but all names mentioned are withheld for obvious reasons. Following this discovery, however, the Red Cross Society propose to see that the situation is remedied at once. The law prohibits the sale of tobacco in any form to minors and it is the intention of the society to see that this regulation is adhered to. There is no desire to lay any charge against any particular merchant at present as a great many children frequently buy tobacco for a parent, but the society are now further investigating the matter and following this warning will take whatever measures are considered necessary to have the law observed by all.

DAMAGE DONE
TO PROPERTY
IS VERY HEAVY

England for 24 hours were abating somewhat today, but left in their wake a toll of two dead, a number of injured, and heavy property damage. The schooner Northern Light went ashore near the breakwater at Rockland, Maine, and the coast guard patrol boat 135, was driven on to Menemsha breakwater, on Martha's Vineyard. Both crews were safe. Ample storm warnings enabled coastal shipping, for the most part, to escape the full fury of the gale, which reached a velocity of 80 miles an hour at points along the water front.

TWO ELECTROCUTED.
Inland, the gale blew down trees and poles, shattered small buildings and unroofed others, causing heaviest damage in the Northern States. A torrential downpour washed out roads, flooded lowlands and generally delayed automobile, railroad and trolley traffic. A fire engine brought down by fallen trees and poles disrupted telephone and electric light service in many places and two met death by electrocution, while engaged in repair work. Jesse Neville, an electric light company lineman, was killed in New Haven, Conn., and Richard Dimaria, a paper mill company employe in Pittsfield, was electrocuted in the mill machinery, which was believed to have become charged when a tree was blown across high tension wires leading to the mill.

INJURED AT SEA.
The fishing schooner Eleanor reached Portland, Maine, yesterday, with stories of a sick man nearly drowned in his bunk, when heavy seas flooded the forecastle; the cook was galleyed when hurled against the galley stove, and a seaman was swept to the rail on one wave and then landed on his feet amidships by another.

The Northern Light, which is high and dry near the Rockland Breakwater, probably will break up at the next high water, coast guardsmen said, but at Martha's Vineyard hope was expressed that the patrol boat would be pulled off on a flood tide.

Chief Inspector Hawthorne Here
J. B. Hawthorne, chief liquor inspector, who arrived in the city at noon today from Fredericton, said he had nothing to give out about the vendor's licenses in the province, as the official list would appear in the next issue of the Gazette.

Of the nine licenses granted in Saint John, as announced yesterday, he said four were renewals, those of Watson R. Dunlop, E. R. W. Ingham and W. N. McKel, in West Saint John, and Fullerton Brothers, 297 Charlotte street. The other five, J. E. Gorman, Germain street; S. H. Hawker, Queen street; W. J. Powers, Prince Edward street; Harry Cohen, Dock street; and S. M. Wetmore, Queen street, were new vendors.

Those who did not have their licenses renewed, the inspector said, were now officially out of business, but would be given opportunity to dispose of the stock they had on hand. He said he thought it likely they would ship it back to the Liquor Commission and that body would refund the money paid for the goods. This, he said, had been the custom in the past.

EMBARGO PUT ON ALL GRAIN TO WEST COAST

C. P. Superintendent Says Ban Will Remain Until Conditions Better

CONGESTION REPORTED IN TWO DISTRICTS

Limited Facilities Retard Treatment at Winnipeg and Vancouver

MONTREAL, Nov. 13—Effective midnight Saturday, Nov. 14, an absolute embargo on all grain to the Pacific Coast will be imposed and will remain in effect until such time as conditions now prevalent are relieved.

E. D. Cottrell, superintendent of transportation, western lines, C. P. R., stationed at Winnipeg, is authority for the above statement. Mr. Cottrell, who reported to headquarters of the system here today, gave reasons as follows for the embargo.

During practically the whole of October weather conditions have been the worst for some years in the west. It has been cold and wet and even snow in some sections with considerable severity of frost at times. On account of this, much of the western wheat crop has turned out tough and damp and the necessity for treatment of this wheat has led to great congestion at Calgary and Vancouver, due to limited facilities available for such treatment at those points. Until this congestion can be relieved it is obvious that the only and best course to pursue is to impose an embargo on the carriage of wheat to Calgary and Vancouver and this will be done.

Several months ago the Canadian Pacific Railway commenced the operation of Compartment Sleeping Cars on train leaving Saint John for Montreal at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, as well as train leaving Montreal at 7 in the evening. The results have been highly satisfactory, and patrons are greatly pleased with the new idea. Of course, such sleepers have always formed part of the standard equipment on the more important Canadian Pacific and travelers from and to the Maritime Provinces are glad to know of the addition of this class of sleeper to the regular equipment of these particular trains. When it comes to comfort and luxury at not too great an expense, the three compartments in the car meets all the requirements of the most exacting passenger, and in price than the standard drawing room, designed and equipped in practically the same fashion, they afford the strictest privacy, and more generally known there will be growing demand for compartments, which will insure Canadian Pacific patrons the very best of service in travel requirements.

These magnificent ships offer you the greatest possible comfort and service—excellent meals—the abundant entertainment and sport to ensure a most enjoyable trip.

Chemists Produce Rubber From Potatoes

Synthetic India Said to Compare Favorably in Elasticity With Distilled Sap of Rubber Trees; German Discovery Reported Accidental

BERLIN, Nov. 14—Berlin chemists have succeeded in producing synthetic rubber from potatoes.

The synthetic product is said to compare favorably in elasticity with the distilled sap of rubber trees. According to Chemikerzeitung, the discovery was accidental. Various chemists endeavoring to establish the chemical composition of India rubber, isolated isoprene, the most important ingredient of rubber. Isoprene, it was found, is contained in potatoes. The chemists abandoned their original research and, concentrating on potatoes, developed a method of combining the potato isoprene with other chemicals to produce synthetic rubber.

RAMSAY M'DONALD TO LECTURE IN U. S.

Will Begin in December or January—Proposal Not Known to Followers

LONDON, Nov. 14—Raphael Herman, the Californian Peace Prize giver, is arranging a lecture tour in the United States for the Socialist Premier Ramsay MacDonald.

The tour will be from coast to coast, and will begin at the end of this year or during the first month of next year. There have been many speculations as to the reason for the frequent meetings and discussions between Britain's first Socialist premier and Raphael Herman, but it was generally thought that they were considering some form of literary enterprise.

Mr. MacDonald's coming U. S. trip is not yet known to his followers. When it does become known it is anticipated that there will be many questions as to how much the Socialist party funds will benefit from the trip.

Is to be in Effect on Bangor and Aroostook and C. P. R.

CARIBOU, Me., Nov. 13—At a meeting of the shippers' committee of the New England Shippers' Advisory Board and representatives of the Eastman Car Company here today, the Bangor and Aroostook and Canadian Pacific railroads arranged with the Eastman Car Company for a 2,000 car charcoal heater service from Aroostook to Bangor with effect Dec. 1.

These heaters are expected to greatly increase the shipping facilities. The committee also voted to ask the Boston and Maine, New York Central, and New Haven Railroads to place embargoes on shippers or buyers who accumulate shipments in excess of their normal outlets or handling facilities, rather than at the receiving end, which will help the receivers and conditions generally.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 14, 1925.

TAKING RISKS.

Lloyd George, in discussing the work of the Locarno conference, made effective reply to those who are inclined to oppose international compacts designed to keep the peace, on the ground that they are likely to involve dangerous commitments.

Any government engaged in such a work, in whatever country, is active, would be bound to encounter risks, he said. "But, he went on, "everything we do has its risks, and if you take risks for war, in God's name, why not take risks for peace?"

Picturesque and forcible as of old, Lloyd George thus brings home the truth that the overwhelming importance of preparation for lasting peace, while it involves risks, and sacrifices as well, must have the support of all men of good will. In time of war, no risk, no effort, no sacrifice is counted too great. In the same atmosphere of sense of national peril rouses the whole people. It is difficult to create the enthusiasm and the unity of effort for peace that appears natural in war time, but thoughtful men throughout the world realize more clearly every day that prevention is the noblest of enterprises.

If the nations are led henceforth to devote to peace organization even a fraction of the ability, the money and the vigor which in former days they have devoted to warlike preparation as well as to war itself, the harvest will be great and beneficent beyond measurement. There are obstacles in the way of peace, but if they are approached with something like the determination which marks the nations in war, they can be overcome. The path is not smooth. There may be temporary reverses along the way, but reverses must not be accepted as defeat. Lloyd George rightly urges that the risks for peace be taken, in order that the far more dangerous and disastrous risks of war may be averted.

ADVISING THE MARITIMES.

The Ottawa Citizen gives thoughtful consideration to political and business conditions in the Maritime Provinces, and in the course of a friendly editorial, agrees that the Maritimes "have every right to press for action on the part of the Federal Parliament. It decides that "under the stress of trade depression, party lines have been shot to pieces" in this part of the country, and that the nature of the vote here indicates not as much partisan sentiment as dissatisfaction over our lack of progress as compared with that in other parts of Canada.

So far, so good. The Citizen then follows the course of some other Canadian newspapers in suggesting that our government ought to be sufficient for the three Maritime Provinces, and that we might eliminate "about sixty per cent." of the cost of administration by some form of Maritime union. The amount of money that would be saved by that course is, as a matter of fact, by no means certain, and while it is true that the cost of all three legislatures in the Maritimes, and of all the machinery of government, is great, Maritime union is not the question before the meeting. Very likely the cost of administration in the city of Ottawa is greater than it should be, and, if so, the people of Ottawa have the remedy in their own hands, difficult as it may be for them to apply it. But, if the city of Ottawa were suffering, and had long suffered, material injustice at the hands of the Province of Ontario, it would give Ottawa little comfort to be reminded that it might reduce its civic expenditure. It would probably reply that the larger issue was the one calling for treatment. It is so with the Maritimes. The reduction of their local expenditures in connection with government, important as that may be, would not solve their larger problems, some of which are being presented to representatives of the other provinces at Winnipeg. The question of our ports, of easier access to our natural markets, of immigration to stimulate our agriculture and make fertile our vacant acres, are matters of federal as well as of local concern. We have been too long taxed for Canadian enterprises from which we have derived little or no return. A noteworthy instance of this is our contribution for a quarter of a century to the expenditures on immigration which have given a vast increase of population to the West and thereby furnished additional markets for Ontario and Quebec. The growth of the prairie country has been accompanied by a tremendous expansion of the industries of the Central Provinces, so that they have had a direct return for their share of the money which has gone into Western immigration. That is not the case with the Maritimes. Our share of the cost of the canals and of the railways now included in the Canadian National system comes under the same head. We have not profited by that expenditure and that railway expansion as the other provinces have. The Maritimes must not be expected to forego their claims for justice at the hands of the Dominion because it is possible to remind us that we have too much local government machinery for a population of a million. The Maritimes must look forward to a much more rapid increase of population if Confederation is going to pay dividends all round. While we have only a million people in these three provinces to-day, we should have twice as many, and when we have begun to keep pace with the growth of the rest of the country the problems of local government will be less difficult, if not impossible.

We fully realize that the Citizen, in referring to our over-abundant legislative machinery, is not in any sense attempting to ignore Maritime duties for far play in the matter of benefits flowing from the larger federal policies and expenditures. That is shown by its assertion that the Maritimes have every right to press for action on the part of the Federal Parliament. It sees, no doubt, that our lack of growth is not due to the fact that we have three rather expensive governments, but to other causes which there is at present a very resolute determination to remove or modify.

A wide circle of friends in the Maritime Provinces, and in New Brunswick particularly, will congratulate Mr. C. E. Neill, a son of this province, general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, upon his election to the distinguished office of president of the Canadian Bankers' Association. It is, as the Montreal Gazette observes, "a personal tribute as well as an acknowledgment of the very high place which the Royal Bank occupies in the financial world of this Continent. The presidency of the Bankers' Association is thus an office of such exacting duties that the field of specially qualified men is necessarily limited, even among trained and experienced banking executives. Mr. Neill takes his place in an imposing succession of very able financiers and is eminently qualified for the mantle which they have so worthily worn."

This is election day in Australia, where Premier Bruce has asked the Commonwealth to administer a rebuke to the Communist and to establish representative government so strongly as to be free from the paralysis which a dangerous minority has sought to impose upon it. That the struggle has developed some liveliness is indicated by an utterance by former Premier Hughes, who declares that "the new Parliament can be made a thing of beauty and a joy forever, or a thing which the very devils in Hell would spit at." The new Parliament may be neither of those things precisely, but the indications are that it will be stronger than the last one, and that the government will be sustained and given a safe margin of power. Compulsory voting is introduced for the first time, and those who refrain from voting without reasonable excuse are to be fined ten dollars.

Dinner Stories

PAT KELLY came home one night a little to the bad from whiskey and went to bed with a somewhat hazy idea of things. In the night he was aroused by the cry of "fire," and in his anxiety to make a hasty toilet and not wholly recovered from the effects of his indiscretion earlier in the evening, he donned his trousers hind side before. As he started down the stairs, he slipped and fell, rolling to the bottom of the flight. A friend rushed to his assistance and exclaimed: "Are you hurt, Pat?" Kelly got on his feet slowly, and after an intent and analytical examination of his trousers, said: "No, but I got a h—l of a twist."

IN PIONEER days in one of the western states an Englishman, an Irishman and a Scotchman were found guilty of murder and sentenced to death, but were allowed to decide the manner of death for themselves. The Scotchman promptly chose to be hanged on an ash tree, the Englishman chose an oak, but Pat said: "If you please, your honor, I'd rather be hung on a gooseberry bush." "That's not big enough," said the judge. "Begorry, thin," replied Pat, brightening up, "O'D'll wait till it grows."

The Best of Advice

DO YOU hope to see the day when machines will relieve man from the necessity of labor? Would you change our subject to physical laws, our exposure to hunger and cold, and the necessity of conflicts with the material world? Then you do not have Man's best interests at heart. Man owes his growth, his energy, chiefly to that striving of the will, that conflict with difficulty, which we call effort. Easy, pleasant work does not make robust minds. Does not train them to endurance. To perseverance. To steady force of will, that force without which all other acquisitions avail nothing. I would not, if I could, so temper the elements that they should infuse into us only grateful sensations, that they should make vegetation so exuberant as to anticipate every want, and minerals so ductile as to offer no resistance to our strength and skill, William Ellery Channing declared. "Such a world would make a contemptible race."

Poems That Live

ONE WORD IS TOO OFTEN PROFANED. One word is too often profaned For me to profane it. One feeling too falsely disdained For thee to disdain it. One hope is too like despair For prudence to smother. And pity from thee more dear Than that from another. I can give not what men call love; But wilt thou accept not? The worship the heart lifts above And the heavens reject not; The desire of the moth for the star, Of the night for the morn'g; The devotion of something afar From the sphere of our sorrow? —Percy Bysshe Shelley.

This Canada of Ours. (London Free Press). We have many reasons for thankfulness in Canada. We know little of poverty and nothing of famine. As some one has said: "The only famine we know much about is the famine of cars to carry the grain across the country." The resources of this country are sufficient to bring happiness to all if we will only live in the spirit of co-operation and helpfulness, rather than of greed and grab. When it's zero weather on the street and eighty degrees in your steam-heated office, don't wear street clothes in your steam-heated office.

WEMBLEY AND TRADE

(From London Times). The exhibition has been called many things: "An imperial playground," "a university of empire," "the empire's shop-window," each of which phrases emphasizes one aspect of the great family gathering. It has been a place where people from all parts of the Empire have foregathered for their pleasure and their amusement. It has been a place where much was to be learned. It put frankly in the forefront of its aims the desire to increase the Empire's trade; which is the surest way to build up our home industries and to reduce our unemployment. And it has achieved much, though how much cannot yet be estimated; for its influence will not end with the closing of its gates.

(Kingston Whig). President Coolidge says the present-day need of the youth of America is "more home control through parental action." He has wisely said, the home, the corner-stone of the nation, should control youth preferably to the constant demand for governmental responsibility in the rearing of children. Too many parents are neglecting their duty in the real well-being of their children. But then some parents cannot lead, for their upbringing had been sadly neglected. Haphazard ways in rearing children are always disastrous both to the child and to the State.

IN A SERMON, "Has Prohibition Failed," Dr. S. Parks Cadman, author and church leader, gave the following summary:

"A majority of the working men and women of the country have become supporters of prohibition and favor its enforcement. "No one advocates return of the common barroom; the saloon is dead. "Bootleggers of alien birth should be deported. "Depend upon moral suasion rather than upon politics for safeguarding the prohibition movement. "Supposed personal rights of the individual have been invaded by the Volstead act, but this invasion is justified in the interest of the public good. "Violators of the law today include social elements and persons of wealth, whose example is fostering the evil of drinking among some of the youth, causing thousands of young people to race down the road of rum and ruin. "While some of our social sets and leaders persist in ignoring the law and use all the liquors they can get, the mass of the people are behind the prohibition movement," asserted Dr. Cadman. "A majority of the working men and women of the country favor prohibition and recognize the benefits to themselves that have come from it. So long as they stand true to their convictions in this respect there can be no successful attacks on prohibition by its enemies. "You need not think that revocation of this law is likely. However, I advise churches not to place too much confidence in politics in efforts to uphold the law. Use moral suasion rather than politics. Do away with all bitter-ings and let us determine this question, finally and completely.

"Prohibition has resulted from the evils and long record of lawlessness to the bootlegger, and that part of society that traffics with him as a partner in his crime. If I had my way all bootleggers of alien birth would be deported. "I know of no man with a brain so anemic as to desire the return of the old evil of the liquor traffic; the saloon is dead. The welfare of the young and of future generations is a positive trust to us all, and particularly to the churches, the colleges and other educational organizations, to maintain the prohibition law and deal with the real dangers that menace and would destroy it."

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, Nov. 13.—Tabora is a township on the Central Railway in Tanganyika Territory. It boasts a main street, a few shops, railway sheds, a native market, a railway station, and is in the heart of a lion district where European inhabitants sleep within reach of a rifle.

Two natives who were passing met the lioness face to face, and with a stroke of her paw she felled one native to the ground, while the other made good his escape. For a few minutes the animal sat over her victim and growled. She sat one minute too long for a district superintendent of the line sent a bullet into her stomach and she jumped.

Then she charged her tormentor but a second bullet found her heart. The accurate shooting of the superintendent saved the lioness from the native.

Such excitements are common in Tabora. A few months ago two lions walked into the native market and helped themselves to a meat breakfast.

Weddings

Keith-Hehn. A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at 3 p. m. on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hehn, at Sidsbury, Alta., when their eldest daughter, Emma Lucile, became the bride of Ward Carmel Keith.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Miller, of Pennant, Sask., brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride, who looked charming in a rust colored cut velvet gown and carrying a lovely bouquet of roses, entered the drawing room to the strains of the bridal march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Edna Hehn, sister of the bride. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the wedding.

After the good wishes of those present were extended the company adjourned to the dining room, where a dainty luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith left on the evening train for a short trip to Calgary. The numerous and lovely gifts testified to the popularity of the young pair.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keith, of Havelock, N. B., and previous to going west taught school in this province.

Voices Indignation Over Mother's Day

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 13.—Captain Irving O. Hay, the original of Richard Harding Davis' Captain O'Day, in the "Soldier of Fortune," voiced his indignation against Mother's Day and similar sentimental observances in an address here before the Kiwanis Club yesterday.

"We allow Greek flower vendors to sell carnations worth a nickel for 50 cents," he said. "What the country really needs is to get away from all this silly stuff and get back to Sunday morning church services, the flag and the home."

Dry Enforcement Is Failure in Russia

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Prohibition was abandoned in Russia after a 10-year trial because the government found it impossible to enforce it, according to Captain Paxton Hibben, executive secretary of the American Committee for the relief of Russian children.

Captain Hibben has just returned from Russia. "Home-brewers," not "bootleggers," caused the downfall of prohibition in the land of Bolshevism, he said. "There never was such open violation of prohibition in Russia as there is in New York," he added.

Tolerance Necessary for Ideal Friendship—“Sweet Sixteen,” Who Talks Herself Out of Being Popular—The Wife Who Married Too Young.

DEAR MISS DIX—Would you mind telling me just what is your idea of friendship? I consider it a give-and-take proposition, and there are times when I give much more than I take, yet I get more pleasure from the giving. But to be a little more concrete: I have several friends who have all the qualities I would desire in the ideal friend; one of them when I sorely needed it to let me have a sum of money and in so doing I knew that he was making a great sacrifice. I, of course, refused. On the other hand, I have another friend who has a heart of gold, yet he is careless and irresponsible; I lend him my car sometimes, and he does not always bring it back in the same condition that he received it. My folks say that he is just making a good thing of me, yet I find that I love him for just what he is—his big, careless irresponsible self. What do you think? D. M. A.

ANSWER: I think that you have a fine and noble conception of friendship. The only way we can get any pleasure out of our friends is by accepting them as they are, instead of trying to make them over according to some little standardized pattern of our own.

As a matter of fact, the thing that kills friendship oftener than anything else is the effort people make to force their friends to conform to all their ways and prejudices. Their friends must think as they think, must live as they live, must read the books they read, and play the same political ticket, must hold their own religious, beliefs, and vote the same kind of bridge that they play.

Most of us get tired of their petty tyranny and rebel against it. The friendship that we have to buy with our personal liberty comes at too high a price, and so we drift away from those whom we really love, and an affection that might have beautified our lives is lost.

You will invariably find that people who complain that they have no friends are men and women of the rigid reformer type, who feel they have a right to police the lives of those with whom they associate. Cassius said to Brutus: “A friend should bear with a friend's infirmities.” He may even do more. He may love him the more and be more tender to him because of certain weaknesses that call forth in us a sympathy and a protective quality that we do not give to the strong.

The thing that makes friendship so rich is that we can love a dozen different people for a dozen different qualities. We can admire and lean on John because he is so competent and strong, and we love James because he is a Peter Pan who will never grow up and realize a man's responsibilities. We can love Bill because he is witty and brilliant and cynical, and Percy because his head and heart are full of beautiful dreams, and he is as confiding as a child.

But you already know all of this and more, for you have the gift of friendship, which, believe me, is God's benediction on a man. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a 16-year-old girl, good-looking and well dressed, but I talk an awful lot, and never stop to think before I speak. But here is my tale of woe. I can't seem to make a hit with the boys. Do you think my talking too much has anything to do with it? SWEET SIXTEEN.

ANSWER: I should say yes, because, if you chatter all the time without putting any thought into what you are saying, you must be such a bore that you can't wonder that anybody flees from you. Believe me, my dear child, there is no one else in the world so tired as the woman who just rambles. Conversation, to be agreeable, is a give-and-take proposition. It is not a one-woman game. Everybody must be drawn into it, and take part in it.

Nobody wants to listen to the individuals who monologue along, no matter what experiences they have had, no matter how famous they may be. Consider, then, how a little 16-year-old girl, who is such a chatterbox that nobody can shut her up, must get upon the nerves of those who are afflicted with her society. When you are older you will learn a very cynical fact, and that is that the general public hasn't the faintest interest in our private affairs, and doesn't want to hear a thing about where we spent the summer, or what a peachy fellow we met, or the wonderful hay ride we took. Nor does it want to hear about our ailments, or our operations, or our cooks, or our husbands, or our wives, or our children, or our men servants, or our maid servants, or anything else that concerns us.

On the contrary, it wants to tell us all the thrilling details of its own private history, and if we listen with an assumed expression, and ask a few questions that show an intelligent interest, we get the reputation of being spellbinders.

As for your speaking without thinking, and saying the first thing that pops in your head, that is folly beyond compare. It savors of idiocy. Correct that fault immediately. Otherwise, it will lead you into every sort of embarrassing predicament.

And cultivate the habit of silence and meditation. Nothing will do more to make you attractive in men's eyes, or to fit you to become a more desirable wife. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a woman of 24, with three small children. My husband is a fine man, kind and good and tender, a good provider, a model husband and father.

But I married when I was only 17, and now I am not satisfied. Many a night I cry myself to sleep over my mistake in marriage. My husband does not suspect how I feel. I make a happy home for him, prepare a good dinner, have the children dolled up when he returns from work, and greet him with a smile, but my heart is dull as rust. HELEN.

ANSWER: Yours is the common tragedy of those who marry too young. The man who freed the fancy of the schoolgirl doesn't appeal to the woman of 24. He may be all that is good and kind, but as an old colored woman said, “She's done lost her taste for him.” And you can't argue with tastes. You can't change likings into love again. You can't bring lukewarm affection up to the boiling point once more. You can't put back into matrimony the thrill after it has once been lost.

But there is no use in crying over spilled milk. What you did, you did, and it is clearly your duty to carry on, and make the best of the bargain you have made. You are in honor bound to make happy the husband who has done his part so well. You have no right to punish him for your mistake. And you have your obligation to your children. No woman has a right to consider her happiness when it conflicts with her children's good.

My advice to you is to think as little as you can about your dissatisfaction with your life. Don't brood over what might have been, for that way madness lies. And above all, shut your heart against other men. You can keep them out if you are on guard, and that will save you the worst suffering. And remember that if you do your duty, you will have for your comfort the peace that passes all understanding. DOROTHY DIX. Copyright by Public Ledger Company.

FASHION FANCIES

By Miss Lisbeth THE coat dress—simple and practical—is a great favorite with women generally. And so many of these dresses use a bit of fur for trimming. The one illustrated has a collar, cuffs and hem banding in front of rabbit fur. It is also trimmed with leather. The material is sandalwood crepe corduroy. The skirt has a front fullness and a row of small buttons running from the neck to hem in front carries out the coat effect.

“Furfural” May Develop Into Giant Industry

By DAVID DIEZ. AMERICAN chemists give promise of developing a new industry destined to grow to the proportions of the famous coal-tar industry which has cost many its commercial supremacy in the days before the war and enabled Germany to hold out at least a “car longer” in the war than she might have otherwise. This new industry, according to Carl S. Miner, famous American chemist and head of the Miner Laboratories of Chicago, is the furfural industry. The importance of furfural was recognized by the executive committee of the Tenth Exposition of Chemical Industries at New York, who had it included in the Court of Achievement at the exposition. This court included the recent important achievements in the world of chemistry. Like the coal-tar industry, the furfural industry is destined to grow out of the chemist's hatred of waste. Sayings “waste” to a chemist like waving a red flag in front of a bull. The chemist's ambition is to convert “waste” into “by-products.” The coal-tar industry illustrates this. Coke was formerly made in so-called beehive ovens. These were ovens which resembled beehives open at the top. These ovens delivered nothing but coke. Then as time went on the by-product, the coke oven gas, was developed and perfected. Now in addition to obtaining the coke, the gas given off in the process is saved and used for heating purposes. In addition, the volatile matter of the coke is saved and dissolved in water to form a tar-like liquid, the so-called coal-tar. The processes of distillation this is an in component parts and put through chemical processes that yield such drugs, high explosives and many substances which did not even exist before. Miner believes that the same thing can be done with furfural. Furfural also resulted from the chemist's desire to utilize waste. Furfural is an oily liquid, white in color. Its chemical make-up is carbon, hydrogen and oxygen; it is an aldehyde, that is, a chemical compound which is intermediate between an alcohol and an acid. Chemists didn't start out to find furfural. Instead they started out to find a way of utilizing the oat hulls which were left over from milling processes during the manufacture of rolled oats as a breakfast food. Hundreds of tons of hulls were being left over daily and in danger of going to waste. They could not be used successfully as a fuel and they proved of little value as a cattle feed because they were only fifty per cent digestible. Chemists set out to find a way of making these hulls more digestible. Various methods were tried out, including an acid method. This method produced considerable furfural which interfered altogether with the use of the hulls as cattle food. While studying methods for removing the furfural, it occurred to the chemists that sufficient furfural could be manufactured in this way to make it worth while to use the oat hulls as a raw material from which to carry on the commercial manufacture of furfural. This is now being done by a relatively simple process in which the hulls are treated with acid and steam in large containers called rotary digesters. The liquid resulting in the digesters is then distilled to remove the furfural. Furfural is of use to the industrial world in exactly the same way that coal-tar is. In its original state, it is of little value. Its value lies in what can be done with it. It is now being used in the manufacture of varnishes and resins, in the manufacture of germicides and preservative compounds, and in the manufacture of dyes. Miner believes that furfural offers the same field to the students of synthetic chemistry that coal-tar did. He believes that an endless number of valuable dyes, drugs and the like may be the outcome of further study in this field.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON. THREE RIDDLES. “Let's ask riddles,” said Nancy. “They're more fun than a box of monkeys,” said Nick. “Do you know any?” asked Mister Corn Dodger in surprise. “Lots,” said Nancy. “That is, I know one. No, no, no, with a certain amount of guesswork.” “Well, that's beginning anyway,” said Mister Dodger. “We are now going to have some riddles. ‘Will evering, please, be seated again.’ For after Humpty Dumpty's story all the High Jinks people had stood right up, so he couldn't tell another. As the Scar Crew whispered to the Sweep, it was the worst he'd ever heard.” “All ready,” said Mister Dodger. “So Nancy said, ‘What goes round a button?’” “A buttonhole,” cried all the High Jinks people together. “That's easy.” “Oh, is it?” said Nancy. “Well, you're wrong. It isn't a buttonhole. It's a button.” “Well, I declare!” said the Scar Crew. “That's right. They do. I've seen a buttonhole,” said Nick. “It's a sort of tower that goes round a button, too, so I do.” “What's that—a shoe-button?” asked Mister Corn Dodger quickly. “No, sir, I don't know what that is,” said the Scar Crew. “It's a cross old daddy sheep. He can but like everything.” “Some people like to talk a lot,” said Mister Corn Dodger severely. “That may be true, but the right answer to the riddle is goat. Goat! Goat!” “I know another one like it,” said Nancy. “Instantly you could have heard a pin drop. For nobody wanted to miss a word when there was a riddle going on.” “What is a button?” asked Nancy. “Nobody knew that, of course. I shouldn't know myself if I hadn't looked it up in the dictionary.” “But mind you, the Wise-Man-Of-Our-Town knew.” “A button,” said he. “It's a sort of tower that sticks out on a fort or castle. It helps you to see in any direction.” “That's right,” said Nancy with a merry nod, which made the flap on her starched white cap go flippity flop like wings. “But there is another kind of button. Can you guess that?” “Give up,” said one High Jinks person after another. “What other kind of button is there?” “A Nanny-goat,” said Nancy. “I could just laugh myself to death,” said the Wise Man, which meant that he couldn't do any such thing. He was completely disgusted to think that he couldn't guess an easy riddle like that. But all the others did laugh heartily.

HOW TO RELIEVE CHILDREN'S COLDS

Avoid Serious Results by Using Baby's Own Tablets. When a child shows the first symptoms of a cold, such as sneezing, redness of the eyes, clogged or running nose, prompt measures for relief may avert serious results. Mothers should always have on hand some simple, safe and effective remedy for immediate use. Baby's Own Tablets act quickly, contain no opiates or narcotics, are tasteless and harmless. Mrs. Joseph Cadieux, Holyoke, Mass., says:—“I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and find them a very satisfactory medicine. When my little boy had a cold I gave him the Tablets at night and he was well next day. I gave them to the children for constipation and they always do good. I think Baby's Own Tablets are much easier to give a child than liquid medicine. I recommend the Tablets to all mothers who have small children and believe they should always be kept on hand.” Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

They Won't Let Mary Grow Up—And So She Doesn't

By JACK JUNGMEYER. Vital, exuberant youth, when left to its own semi-sanguine, semi-barbaric devices, dramatizes itself with the baroque zest and melodramatic swag which Mary Pickford delightfully captures in “Little Annie Rooney.” From the popular standpoint this is the ideal role for Mary—the tempestuous hoyden daughter of a New York cop, who with scrapping fists and melting heart dominates her East Side environment. Eternal youth, shaking impudent curls in the face of a sardonic world. “Little Annie Rooney” is from an original screen story cut precisely to Mary's measure, containing all the elements which have combined to give Miss Pickford film immortality, and directed by William Beaudine, whose talents exactly fit this type of production. Its simple comedy is swift and hilarious and acrobatic. Its pathos is poignantly modulated to enhance the laughs. And there is something supremely fine and artistic in the collusion of the Irish girl and a Yiddish neighbor boy as they gallantly face battle, trouble, sorrow and sacrifice. Most of Mary Pickford's constant admirers demand her in childish roles. For those “Little Annie Rooney” is a by-request presentation. And Mary, whose sustained youthfulness is the marvel of a million ladies, may thank these insistent patrons for keeping back the encroachment of age. We are made by the roles we play. And folk simply won't let Mary grow up.

Girls! Try this! When combing and brushing your hair, just moisten your hair-brush with a little "Dandarine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can dress your hair immediately and it will appear twice as thick and heavy, an abundance of gleamy, wavy hair, sparkling with life, incomparably soft, fresh, youthful.

Besides beautifying the hair, a 3-cent bottle of refreshing, fragrant "Dandarine" from any drug or toilet counter will do wonders, particularly if the hair is dry, thin, brittle, faded or streaked with gray from constant curling and waving which burn the color, lustre and very life from any woman's hair.

"Dandarine" acts on the hair like fresh showers of rain and sunshine and on vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates, nourishes and strengthens them, stopping falling hair and helping the hair to grow thick, healthy and luxuriant.

MINERS BLAME LOW WAGES, TOO MANY BOSSES

Working Conditions Also Blamed for Troubles in Cape Breton

MUCH TIME IS LOST; OUTPUT IS LESSENER

Say Housing Undesirable and Petty Disputes Daily Cause Discontent

SYDNEY, N. S., Nov. 13.—The Royal Commission under the chairmanship of Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, investigating the coal industry of Nova Scotia, continued its evidence taking sessions here today and when adjournment was taken at 4 o'clock this afternoon, had completed the hearing of 20 witnesses called by the United Mine Workers' Executive of District 26 since the sittings commenced Wednesday forenoon.

So far the witnesses examined have all been drawn from the various colliery districts in the Southern Cape Breton field and their testimony relates to wages, working and housing conditions in that area. Witnesses from the northern Cape Breton collieries of Florence and Sydney Mines, will be heard early next week. There are still a number of witnesses from the Southern field to testify.

EACH TELLS OWN STORY.

The policy adopted by the commission in getting the evidence of the miners, is to let each man tell his own story in his own way, subject to questions, either from the commission, the corporation officials or members of the United Mine Workers Executive. Cross-examination of witnesses by corporation legal counsel is not permitted. To date, President R. M. Wolvin, Vice-President J. E. McLurg and General Superintendent of Mines A. H. MacNeil, have conducted the testimony for the corporation and U. M. W. District President J. W. McLeod and District Secretary A. A. MacKay, for the Miners. In the main the questions submitted to witnesses from both sides are asked with a view to clarifying testimony on certain points.

PRESS BAN CONTINUES.

The commission's ban on press reports of the evidence is still in effect and the following official statement covering this afternoon's session was issued tonight: "Continuing his evidence before the coal commission at the afternoon session, Clarence Kearney, of Number 16 Colliery, stated that miners should not have to push boxes. This is a horse's work and the company did not supply enough animals. The shortage means that the men have to tip the boxes, weighing some 900 pounds. Roads and

GERMANY SEES PROSPERITY IN PACT WITH RUSSIA

German business men are building high hopes upon the prospects of huge commerce with Russia, opened up by signing of the trade agreement between the two countries. Germany sees Russia as a vast market for its manufactures; and the Soviets expect in turn, to be able to dispose of great quantities of raw materials in the Rhineland. boxes and had donkey engines, there were petty disputes every day, which caused discontent and bitter feeling. There were cases of men taken from their regular work at the face and put to work pulling stones, receiving lower rates of wages for that work than agreed upon in the wages schedule.

HARMONY SUGGESTED.

"As a remedy for the recurring disputes, Mr. Wilson suggested the introduction of harmony between the company and the men. This could be done by stopping the reduction of wages, which has happened every year since 1921.

"Albert Cloake, of New Waterford, testified that he received $3.25 daily, and gets regular employment. He believed that the men were not better off with lower wages, even though they had steady work.

MORE MONEY WANTED.

"The cause of strife here was the want of more money by the men. At present they were not at rest with the merchants to whom they were indebted, nor their wives and children who needed more food and more clothing. His children were kept from school the last three weeks, and with his present wages had meat only twice a week.

"Thomas Pearson, handpick miner, working at No. 14 Colliery in New Waterford, gave technical evidence as to the working of the rooms in that mine. He advocated the installation of an emergency steam boiler, and believed that the company and the men should become more sociable.

"He said that his wages averaged about $2 daily. In order to remedy certain aspects of the problem the witness believed that the underground manager should have all power to adjust local complaints.

POTATOES UP IN WEST MORLAND

Tuber Prices, However, Remain Stationary in Aroostook District

Lower Prices From Europe Endanger Canadian Market in Cuba

SHELDIAK, Nov. 13.—The prices of potatoes paid by shippers to producers have advanced once more in Westmorland and Kent counties today. The buyers here increased the quotation to $3.50 a barrel. In Buteochuac and other places in Kent county $4 is being paid. Even at the advance, tubers are not moving in great quantities, numerous producers apparently awaiting further developments in the market.

EUROPE NOT FEARED.

Shippers are holding quite large stocks, due in part to congestion in the Cuban and eastern American markets. Although there have been reports of declines in prices at a few shipping centres in other parts of Canada, there has been no weakening of the situation here.

European potatoes in competition are not feared this year as disease is reported in several countries across the water. Firm prices all along the line in America are expected until winter, if not until spring. There will probably be fluctuations in the opinion of some of the buyers, but no slump.

AT A STANDSTILL.

PRESQUE ISLE, Me., Nov. 13.—The potato market in Aroostook is at a complete standstill with no stock offering and no shipments. No improvement is expected until the embargo is raised on shipments and the buyers replenish their capital by turning over the European markets, the potato trade between Saint John and Havana will diminish to a considerable extent in the opinion of Manuel Felipe Y. Peros, of Peros & Co., Havana, Cuba, and special representative of the Canadian-American Trading Company on a mission to investigate conditions here. Mr. Peros arrived in the city last evening from Charlottetown where he has been looking over the situation.

GIVES FIGURES.

"Naturally, it is a question of dollars and cents with the Cuban people," said Mr. Peros last night, "and I must say we have little complaint regarding the European market. But when European dealers quote us around $3 for a 180-pound bag and our Canadian dealers much higher, we can only take advantage of the best bargain offering. In this matter also, our government keeps a very watchful eye. During the last season, the companies I represent took between 600,000 and 700,000 bags from New Brunswick, so you can see it is a profitable trade."

GOING TO WOODSTOCK.

"I was delighted with the quality of the Prince Edward Island potato but the price they quoted me was around $4.50," Mr. Peros said he expected to leave this morning for Woodstock to interview the chief exporters in that district about shipments this winter from there to Cuba. He said if suitable arrangements could be completed, some heavy shipments would be made.

BAN ON IN CUBA.

Mr. Peros was here last week in conference with several of the dealers. He expects to leave for home about the latter part of next week. While in the city Mr. Peros conferred with the Cuban consul here, Ruffino G. Betancourt.

There is a ban at present on the importation of European potatoes into Cuba but when he left Havana Mr. Peros said it looked as though this embargo would be lifted. He said he was very receptive to any definite word from the Havana office yet in regard to lifting this ban.

CONGESTION RELIEVED.

Canadian Press Dispatch. CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Nov. 13.—The arrival of a number of box cars from the Canadian National Railways yesterday relieved the potato situation, which was causing shippers considerable alarm, owing to the approaching frosty weather. Water shipments also will relieve the congestion. One steamer will sail today for New York, with 40,000 bushels, and the steamer Oakild is due today, from Montreal, to load 60,000 bushels of seed for Long Island.

STRONG STURDY CHILDREN

Father John's Medicine Keeps Youngsters in Robust Health

Isn't this little fellow the very picture of health? Strong and sturdy—brimful of vim, energy and high spirits which go only with a healthy body.

His name is Alphonse Remillard, of St. Michel Station, Cote de Napierville, Quebec. Father John's Medicine has helped to make him the manly little chap he is.

Mr. Adrien Remillard, his father, is enthusiastic about Father John's Medicine and recommends it highly. He writes: "Enclosed is a photo of my little son, Alphonse, who is now in such excellent health since taking Father John's Medicine. For five years we have all taken Father John's Medicine and are very much pleased with it."

For building up little bodies which have become weak and run down Father John's Medicine has proven to be very reliable. For 70 years this old-fashioned medicine has been used, and parents everywhere have perfect confidence in it, because it contains nothing but rich, pure, wholesome nourishment.

It is a food-tonic containing strength-building, energy-producing elements which are easily digested and assimilated by even weakened systems without imposing a burden on the digestive organs. Father John's Medicine is especially valuable in building up the body after an attack of Bronchitis, Grippe or Flu, because it enriches the blood, helps to form new tissue and thus repairs the damage wrought by disease germs.

As it contains no alcohol or dangerous drugs, it is perfectly safe for the children.

"Whatever ails you, Jennie? You look so tired out"

"Oh, I'm nearly dead. I never felt so fagged out in all my life."

"Are you sick?"

"Not exactly sick, perhaps, but I have not felt right for weeks. I can never get rested."

"Your health must be run-down."

"Yes, I suppose it is. Mother has been warning me that I am living too fast these days. Burning the candle at both ends, as she says."

"Perhaps it's your nerves."

"Yes, I suppose it is. You know I am working every day at the office and I have been on the gad nearly every night until I can't stand it any longer."

"You won't mind using the Nerve Food, for it is so mild and gentle in action that it will not cause you any inconvenience, and you certainly will feel so much better after using it for a few days."

"How long will I have to take it?"

"Oh, you may have to keep up the treatment for two or three months if you want to get your nervous system thoroughly built up. It slowly and certainly improves the quality of the blood so that the nerves and the system generally are nourished back to health and vigor."

"I will get half a dozen boxes to-morrow and go at it in earnest, for I don't want to have a nervous breakdown and spend weeks or months in bed. I am so glad you reminded me about this treatment."

Some of the ladies of the church served the banquet.

During the evening Rev. R. G. Fulton, pastor of the church, made the presentation of a purse and piece of gold to Mrs. Marshall Austin on behalf of the choir members. INFIRMARY DESIRES X-RAY CO-OPERATION

Debit Balance is $17,494.22 -Month's Receipts Are $12,827.15

A delegation from the Women's Hospital Aid waited on the board of commissioners of the General Public Hospital at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon and asked the board to assume responsibility for maintaining the social service department which the Aid has provided for some time.

Consideration of the matter was promised by the commissioners. The delegation consisted of Mrs. J. B. Travers, president; Mrs. J. J. Stothart and Mrs. George Ewing.

The Saint John Infirmary asked the board to appoint a committee to confer with a committee from the Infirmary with regard to co-operation in the matter of X-ray work, suggesting that such co-operation might be mutually beneficial.

The board appointed as the committee M. E. Agar, president; Mrs. J. Y. McLellan, Dr. W. F. Roberts and J. King Kelley. The committee expects to be able to report at the adjourned meeting to be held next Friday.

R. H. Gale, superintendent, was authorized to take out letters of administration with reference to the estate of a child that died in the hospital.

Mr. Gale and the commissioner of the month were authorized to inquire further regarding applications received for internships.

M. E. Agar, president, was in the chair. Others present were Commissioners Mrs. J. Y. McLellan, Lieut.-Col. Alexander McMillan, Dr. W. W. White, W. E. Emerson, J. L. O'Brien, Dr. W. F. Roberts, J. King Kelley and R. H. Gale, superintendent.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORTS. The superintendent's report showed the average number of patients in October had been 130.6 and there had been 22 deaths. A great majority of the deaths were children. Operations in the operating room numbered 68 and 112 in the outpatient department, where 690 treatments were given.

As the appointee for pupil dietitian could not come, an effort was being made to secure a substitute. The in-

The terrace in front of the hospital had been cleared of stone and was ready for seeding.

Some plaster work in the new part of the annex had fallen and the architect was looking into the cause. This was the second time plaster had fallen in the new annex. A leak in the high pressure steam line, serving the sterilizers, had been repaired.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The financial statement showed receipts $12,827.15, including city chamberlain $7,800.64; pay patients, $8,389.80, and X-ray, $1,671.50. Unpaid accounts totalled $17,736.10, making the debit balance $17,494.22. The expenses included charges for repairs amounting to $3,200.

Miss M. Murdock, R. N., superintendent of nurses, reported nine graduates and 65 pupil nurses enrolled. Miss Hilda Harris reported for duty, as a head nurse, on Oct. 10.

OTHER REPORTS.

Dr. C. L. Emerson submitted a routine report for the medical board. Dr. O. B. Evans, for the outdoor department, reported 185 patients, 690 visits made and 112 operations performed.

Miss Margaret A. Stewart, dietitian, reported 23,757 meals served, the cost being slightly higher than in the previous month, as well as in October last year.

Routine reports were presented by Miss E. J. Mitchell, R. N., matron, and Miss J. Sandall, linen matron.

Miss Belle B. Howe, social service nurse, reported 75 visits in October, 19 tons and adnoid cases, $30 collected, clothes given three families and four cases reported to the Women's Hospital Aid.

There was some discussion concerning care of incurable cases, reference being made to pitiable circumstances which made certain cases ineligible for institutional care.

As the indebtedness was $17,494.22, attention was drawn to the fact that the county still owed the hospital $14,000 and that $2,200 was to be received from bond issue for repairs.

URGES MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

Mr. Agar said he would urge the council to make monthly payments to the hospital as it did to the county institutions.

With reference to the large number of deaths it was said there had been an epidemic of enteritis in one of the orphanages and some of the cases had been only three or four hours in the hospital. Several cases of malnutrition were also reported.

Colonel McMillan, as commissioner of the month, paid a special tribute to the dietitian's department and said the meals and the manner of serving were excellent.

COAL CONTRACTS

Contracts for supplying 750 tons of slack coal were awarded by the General Public Hospital Commission.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—An employee in the Veterans' Bureau can't even get a breath of fresh air without an order from Director General Hines, it has been revealed.

More than 300 workers in the insurance division of the bureau working in poorly ventilated offices because orders from Gen. Hines which would permit them to open the windows have not come through this year.

Last year the rule came through on time, but because of the tangle of governmental red tape the order as not reached its destination as yet, and the employees have no permission to open the windows.

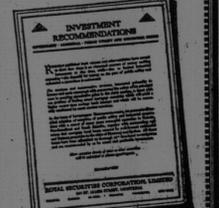

Negative Wins Debate of Interest at Y. M. C. A. Social Evening

The first of the fireside after class social evenings for the senior group of the Y. M. C. A. membership was held last night, when about 80 young men gathered around the fire. A debate on the resolution that there should be a special tax on bachelors afforded much amusement. The affirmative was upheld by James Chown, Stanley Goodwin and F. D. Tweedie, while the negative found champions in Edgar Peters, George Price and Douglas Angeline. The negative was judged to have won the case. The judges were D. Gordon Willet, Ralph McCready and Rev. George Moore. I. Newton PanJoy, convener for the fireside socials, was the chairman.

J. M. Queen, formerly of this city, and now of Hollywood, Calif., arrived in the city yesterday in connection with business matters. He is registered at the Royal.

LOCK GONE FROM FIRE-RAZED GARAGE

Evidence Door Tampered With — Coach Destroyed in Yarmouth Blaze

YARMOUTH, Nov. 13.—An alarm of fire followed quickly by the second at 4:30 this morning, called out the department for a fire which destroyed the garage and automobile coach belonging to Fred L. Phillips at Yarmouth South.

Mr. Phillips was awakened by the snap and crackle of the fire. He hurried to the garage expecting to get the coach out. So he had the fire advanced, however, that he was unable to get to the door, but could see that the coach had been drawn and the lock was gone.

ONLY PARTLY INSURED

The walls collapsed and the gas tank of the car was leaking. Owing to the heat a pressure was created which drove the gasoline towards a row of cars setting them on fire and Mr. Phillips had to turn his attention in that direction to prevent further spread of the flames. Mr. Phillips is quite at a loss to understand the origin of the fire. He had not used his car since Wednesday when he had it thoroughly cleaned and afterwards drained to prevent freezing. The loss to him is quite severe as the coach was practically new and with the garage was only partially covered by insurance.

Westway Believed Will Be a Wreck

YARMOUTH, Nov. 13.—The tug C. D., which on Tuesday afternoon was sent to the assistance of the Westmouth near schooner Westway, ashore near Brier Island, returned this afternoon. The vessel lies on the bar between Gull Rock and the island and all efforts made by the C. D. 98 failed to float the vessel. Yesterday it was thought the schooner shifted a few feet but owing to the terrific current and the tide turning the tug was obliged to leave the vessel until this morning when the tide would be several inches higher. The attempt today, however, was fruitless and the vessel was left. At present the schooner is lying easy but, owing to the very exposed position to heavy southwesterly or westerly weather, the Westway will likely become a total wreck.

4 Liberal M. P.'s Branded as Bores

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Austin Hopkinson, M. P., addressing the members of the Mosley Conservative Club the other day, referred to bores in Parliament.

In the ranks of the Liberal party in the House of Commons, he said, there are at least four of the most appalling bores who ever sent members of Parliament to sleep. It was a marvel how the Liberal party had collected so many bores, who could never say anything that could possibly interest or inform anyone listening to them.

According to the number of road hogs abroad, there should be no shortage in pig skins this season.

Make Money At Home!

No Selling No Canvassing Regular Pay Cheques

If from $35 to $55 a month for your spare time at home interests you read this message

I Pay You Cash Every month I pay out thousands of dollars to those who knit socks for me. My family of workers cover the whole Dominion. Distance makes no difference. Whether just a few dollars a week are wanted for little extras or a steady income is required—the Auto-Knitter will provide it. That is one of the splendid things about its Home-Earnings Plan—there is no limit to the money that can be made. Just as long as anyone will operate the machine—Pay Cheques will come.

HOW WOULD you like a special income of your very own—extra money to spend just as you please? Not thousands of dollars but say from $35.00 to $55.00 a month the whole year 'round! Then sell me your spare time. Those hours and half hours that might otherwise be lost. Why not turn them into needed dollars? I will pay you cash for every hour of your time that you can spare. Your pay cheques will come to you regularly and their size will depend upon how much time you can spare to the work.

Read What These Delighted Workers Say I have over one thousand letters here in my office written by men and women who are only too glad to tell others of their success. I only wish that I could print them all for you to read! Think how pleased Mrs. George Poole, of Ontario, must be that she sent me her name over four years ago. Here is part of her last letter: "I have had my machine over four years and I would not be without it for anything, since taking up the work I have never been without money. As we live three miles from town I have always wanted a car, and now I have one which my Auto-Knitter is paying for. Last winter I cleared $525.00." And Mrs. E. Parks, of Alberta, not only finds the work easy and pleasant, but actually restful. Here is what she says: "When I feel tired and want to rest myself I sit at the machine and knit. I can make three pairs of socks an hour. I have made thirteen pairs in four hours." And Miss M. Hollinsworth, of Saskatchewan, is pleased to tell of her dealings with me. She closes her letter in this way: "I can make two pairs of socks an hour and the Company take all that I can knit. I always receive my pay cheque and yarn promptly. During January and February I made $150.00." While most of my workers are women, hundreds of men find it profitable to fill in their spare time. Here is what Mr. Arlington Fraser, of Ontario, has to say about the work: "I was a little afraid of starting as I had never seen a knitting machine, but with the help of the instructions it was easy. At first I could only make one pair of socks an hour but now I can make three pairs. I have only had the machine five months and I have made $325.00 in my spare time." And so it goes, hundreds and hundreds of letters are here in my office, proving beyond all doubt that the Home-Earning Plan, which I started ten years ago, has been a blessing to men and women all over the Dominion.

Here is the Plan Sitting in the comfort of your own home you knit socks for me with the Auto-Knitter—a wonderful machine that will knit a pair of beautiful wool socks in half an hour. I pay you cash for the knitting—so much a pair—and in addition, I keep you supplied with the yarn that you use.

You Need Never Be Without Money Think what it would mean to have a Provider in the home that would never fail you! A never-ending Money-Maker. There can be no dull times for my workers because every hour of their spare time is contracted for. Summer and Winter—long hours or short—I guarantee a fixed unchanging price for every pair of socks that are knit.

Experience is Not Necessary It is not necessary that you know one thing about knitting in order to start. I doubt if one of my workers ever saw a knitting machine until their own arrived. A set of simply written instructions teaches you the work. If you can read and count, you can Auto-Knit.

Diced, injured, your sight remains impaired. You do not see with your eyes, you see with your brain. Your eyes are mechanical arrangements and, like all such, need constant attention. Exposure to dust, dirt, chemical fumes, present in the atmosphere, dissolved ferns, floating in the air, rough winds, flare of artificial light, all tend to irritate the eyes, causing them to itch, burn, smart, water, pucker, blur; the lids become inflamed and headache or full or sharp pain results. These danger signals are not only annoying, but they warn you that, if neglected, such internal irritation will in time seriously affect the internal mechanism which is necessary to enable your brain to see. Feed such danger signals. Consult your own comfort. Get a package of Bon-Opto, a harmless, helpful, soothing, cooling, cleansing medicine for the eyes. Its composition is not secret. SOGGY FIELD EXPECTED FOR MACTIER CUP GAME THIS AFTERNOON

MONTREAL FANS ROUSED OVER TODAY'S GAME

Former International Referee Will Handle Whistle for Contest

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.— Full strength, with "Chip" Seely lay on the three-quarter line, and led by Captain Paul Fraser, University of New Brunswick invaded Montreal today, with the purpose of taking from the Montreal English Club, the McTier trophy, emblematic of the English rugby championship of Eastern Canada.

Montreal hopes to have Foukes at full back, after a two weeks' layoff on account of injuries. But Archibald, one of their Maritime importations on the forward line, and former Mount Allison player, will be missing, having been cut away by illness in his family.

Foukes' return with his safe fielding and long kicking, is expected to make the Montreal back field very formidable, especially if they have retained the combination displayed when they smothered Toronto British here last Monday. Jim Scriven, former University Wanderers player, who scored thirteen points on Monday, will be on the three-quarter line, while Bobby McCoy, another ex-Wanderer, will play on the wing. Stech, third member of the Halifax Red and Blacks, is slated for the forward line.

Montreal is recognized as having the best material it has had in years, and their chief difficulty has been getting a team scattered over the city together for practice. However, they were in a game Saturday and Monday against Sun Life, and Toronto, has done much to coordinate them.

University of New Brunswick is looked to put on the field a team of flashing young players, whose chief danger lies in a tendency to get stage struck. Their recovery last Saturday, to tie a game with the Atlantic University, after the latter had rolled up a 5 to 0 score, is taken to show that they have worked nervousness out of their systems.

This is the first visit of the Fredericton Collegians to Montreal, and today's game has aroused the most interest taken in the city since the English-English game, that has been the case for a long time, at least since Halifax Wanderers played here two years ago.

H. B. Helron, who refereed Scotland vs. Ireland, at Edinburgh some years ago, has been appointed to handle the game. Playing conditions at the time of writing, were anything but good. It rained most of yesterday and last night. This morning, it is overcast with possibilities of sleet still more rain. Probable line-up:

Yale Bulldog Rules Slight Favorite Over The Princeton Tiger

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN A. DUNLOP.

TODAY is the big day for the University of New Brunswick and its championship rugby team. Having set a new scoring record for U. N. B. teams while grabbing off the inter-collegiate title, Paul Fraser and his band, like Alexander of old, brought out a rusty telescope and after sweeping the horizon fixed their gaze on the trophy donated by Mr. A. D. MacTier for the championship of eastern Canada. Its outline fascinated them so they almost forgot about competing their job on the Maritime title and in a hurried game at Sackville, they so far forgot themselves to allow the Nova Scotia boys to score on them. We are of the opinion that Mr. MacTier and his cup are responsible for this lamentable lapse and it will be a rather sad homecoming, if after all this ardent wooing, the young sheiks from U. N. B. do not collar that cup in Montreal today. In fact, when Paul Fraser went into a Fredericton ice cream parlor the other day, he is said to have absent-mindedly replied to the clerk's question by saying, "Give me a MacTier Cup." With the usual sangfroid of ice cream merchants, the clerk promptly dished up a mysterious concoction, placed it in front of the U. N. B. captain, remarking, "Here you are, sir, here is your McBeer Cup. It's a great hit these days." After spilling this yarn, we can see Coach "Burdo" Burden muttering to himself about his young charges breaking training rules. It would be a real honor, however, for our New Brunswick boys to win this fine trophy and Fredericton is not the only town that is going to await with interest the result of today's game.

"BAKER and Smithy to Meet" says a New York headline. The bride's biscuits and the avril will settle the question at last. All we need is the chorus to make the battle complete.

PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY in Montreal opens with a loud fanfare on Monday night next when the Victoria Cougars, champions of the world, meet the Montreal Maroons while on Wednesday night, the Pacific Coast visitors take on Canadians, who lost out in the finals against the Cougars last year after the Hamilton outfit refused to go west. The Cougars' star is Frederickson, who played on the Winnipeg Falcons the time they won the Olympic title in 1920. Against him, the Maroons will pit Nelson Stewart, United States star, while the Canadiens have the flashy Howie Morenz. The proposals of the Saint John hockey club to have a Montreal amateur team here for the opening night arouses some interest in the prospects this year for the Montreal senior teams. Victoria, champion last year, are somewhat ridiculed because of Sig Slater's departure for New York and the fact that "Boo" Anderson will not play this year. Nationals will place a strong team on the ice this year with Dave Campbell and Beaulieu, a University of Montreal star, on the defence. Brisebois, who was with the Sons of Ireland, Quebec, last year, will probably play centre for the French-Canadian team. The Sons of Ireland, with whom several P. E. I. stars performed last year, expect to be even stronger this year by adding several members of the defunct Three Rivers team.

CANADA'S national summer game, lacrosse, will be played next spring at several of the larger American universities with the Oxford-Cambridge team as guests. The first game is set at Maryland on April 3.

MR. BENJAMIN LEINER, whose ring camouflage is Benny Leonard, has started some propaganda to return to the ring. Far be it from us to object to Mr. Leonard's graceful re-entry into the prize-fighting business in an heroic effort to keep the famous wolf off the doorsteps but what we do object to is the reasons advanced. There has been a lingering suspicion that Mr. Leonard retired from the ring because competition had grown so stale that he figured a quiet spell among the moth balls would do him no harm while Mr. Tex Rickard built up a prospect for him to flatten the dice course of time. No hearing any wild demand for his return, Benny breaks forth yesterday with the statement that he would like to return to the ring and probably would next summer. "Just as soon as I can overcome my mother's objections," Benny pipes sweetly. Every time Benny used to hook up in his palmy days, he would announce it was his last fight and the only reason that he was doing it was to get enough money to send his mother on that promised trip to Europe. New York reporters faithfully scanned the outgoing passenger lists for years but Benny's famous mother never took that trip. Benny, of course, never quite made enough to send her. It got so bad that Mr. McGehean of the New York Tribune suggested taking up a collection among the boys to help Benny along but apparently it fell on deaf ears. The Missouri guys down there were rather coarse in their language when the subject was broached. We sincerely hope that Benny does return because the days are drawing on now when he won't be able to look a promoter in the eye and say "A100,000—take it or leave it." Benny is a great little talker and a great little fighter and we hope he means business.

CANADIENS SIGN REGIS LEPINE FOR 3 YEARS

Victoria Cougars Arrive in Metropolis for Games Next Week

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—The Victoria Cougars, holders of the Stanley Cup, arrived here from Winnipeg this morning. At noon the Montreal team will meet Montreal in the first of the two-game exhibition series here Monday night. Hector Lepine, well known Montreal amateur hockey player, and last year with Pittsburgh, has been signed by Canadians to a three-year contract. Thus the French team has added to its roster, one of the leading amateur forwards, a player who can fill in at either left wing or centre ice. His acquisition should fill a big gap, as in the last two years, Canadians have lacked a first rate substitute to relieve Joliat on left wing.

The Canadiens also expect to sign other amateurs. Manager Dandurand will not announce just whom, but he has been closely watching Gaudreault and Cormier, last year with the Bankers' League, Rene Fournier, Montreal boy, who played in London, last winter, and Laroche, a forward from Sorel.

LAMB HANGS ON

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 14.—Continuing their daily workouts, the Senators are through another smart practice at the auditorium last evening. From appearances, it would seem that most of the Ottawa aggregation is in extra good condition. Captain George Boucher, is taking his time, not rushing his condition, but on two or three occasions, cut loose with some of the brilliant as ever while Lamb and Kilrea both shone.

PECK TO MINORS

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The latest warm air current to go whistling through the hot stove league, has Roger Peckinpah slated to step out of the minor league ranks to play for the Pacific Coast League. The Washington Senators are about to ask waivers on the veteran shortstop, according to the report.

HALIFAX LADIES LOST

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 14.—The Ladies' Group Hockey team of the University of Maine defeated Dalhousie 4-0 in the latter's campus 1 to 0 yesterday afternoon.

In the McAvity League series on Imperial alleys last night the A. P. Elks managed to win all four points from the Moulding Shop. The scores follow:

Aquatic Stars Plan For Next Summer

Having cornered a room full of trophies and several pages of records in the amateur ranks, Miss Gertrude Eperle and Miss Helen Wainwright, are contemplating entering the professional field and devoting their time to teaching the art and to giving exhibitions about the country later on. The possibilities are that they might later be included in a series of matches with Miss Wainwright and Miss James. What an assault on the records these stars would make pitted against each other!

Miss Wainwright, after winning a series of last summer smashed several pro records. Her speed in many events has approached that of the greatest men swimmers.

SUNDERLAND TO PLAY LEICESTER

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Scheduled encounters in the first division of the English Football League on Saturday are not of such a nature as to arouse the excitement of the fans, for in the main they bring the leading teams into conflict with those that are mediocre. For Sunderland, still enthroned in the place of honor, the task ought not to be difficult. They travel to Leicester for the first engagement of these teams this year. Leicester City arrived in the senior string from the second division this season. In this company they have not fulfilled all that was expected of them. They began the season well, but after the second game they ran into a series of five defeats in a row. Three weeks have been picked up since then—one of them at the expense of Tottenham Hotspur—but they relapsed again last Saturday when Cardiff City took them out to grass by 3 to 2. In their last few games, the leaders themselves have left much to be desired, for it is all of three weeks since they acquired full points, the last occasion being against Bolton Wanderers on Oct. 24.

ARSENAL'S ADVANTAGE

Arsenal have the advantage of local in their tourney with Bury, and additional to this they find themselves traveling in good form. Their last two games have been won in decisive fashion, while out of the last seven played Bury have obtained the points in only one. The augurs would seem to read a hard proposition when they travel to the Tyneside to engage Newcastle United. Of all the teams in the league, the most uncertain is Newcastle, the most uncertain in Newcastle, are inclined to suffer from over-confidence, but placed in opposition to the leaders, and the Northumbrians will always give them a hard game. This has been evidenced time and again this season.

SIKI BEATEN AGAIN

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 14.—Lee Anderson, New York light heavyweight, was awarded a decision over battling Siki, after a round in decisive fashion. The fight was slow and tame throughout, and was received by the spectators with mingled approval, disgust and laughter.

DUNDEE WON

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Mike Dundee, of Philadelphia, won a ten round judges' decision from Andy Tucker here last night, scoring a knockdown in the fourth round, for a count of nine. Dundee weighed 121½, two pounds less than Tucker.

GREB WON EASILY

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Harry Greb, middleweight champion of the world, decisively outpointed Tony Young Marillo, of New Orleans here last night in their fifteen round bout.

RED HERRING WON

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 14.—Red Herring, of Gulfport, Miss., won the judges' decision over Sid Barbarian, Detroit, in ten rounds here last night.

Halifax To Dispute U.N.B.'s McTier Game

WANDERERS and Dalhousie players, at present tied for the championship of the Halifax City Rugby League, will not recognize the McTier Trophy as emblematic of the English Rugby championship of Eastern Canada. Both local teams contend that U. N. B. has no right to represent the Maritime provinces and that the winner of the U. N. B.—Montreal game at Montreal Saturday will not be considered champion of Eastern Canada. U. N. B. recognizes the championship of Eastern Canada. The Dalhousie-Wanderers game on Saturday.

Hooper To Head Fredericton Club

The annual meeting of the Fredericton Sporting and Driving Club was held Thursday night at the Exhibition of Arts. The officers of the past year were re-elected as follows: President—W. S. Hooper, Vice-president—E. Howes, Secretary—D. W. Griffith, Treasurer—C. D. Holder.

NATIONALS TRIM M. R. A. TEAM, 32-4

Junior Basketball League Opens Last Night—Other Games Today. In the opening game of the Junior Basketball League series played on the Y. M. C. I. floor last night, the National A. C. defeated M. R. A. by a score of 32 to 4. The winners played an exceptionally good defensive game from start to finish and the forwards played hard. K. Franklin was the star of the evening. H. G. Hutton, physical director of the Y. M. C. I., handled the whistle to the satisfaction of both teams. The Nationals say that they are handicapped by the lack of a floor to practice on.

Bootlegger King May Go To Prison

BANGOR, Nov. 13.—Winfield L. Strout, of Bangor, would be sentenced to 18 months in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. Judge A. Peters indicated to Strout's counsel today, in continuing the case to the January term of the district court to be held in Portland. Continuance was granted to allow Strout to adjust his business affairs. Strout pleaded guilty to numerous counts of conspiracy in possessing and transporting intoxicating liquors.

Heir Forsakes Jazz For Tango Music

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Prince of Wales has forsaken his old love, the ukulele for the bandoleon, which he brought back with him from South America. This instrument is used in the tango bands, which are now the rage in London. It is like an elaborate concertina, and is possessed of very sweet, mellow tone. It is a difficult instrument to play, but the Prince is taking daily lessons from the bandoleonist of Vardell's Savoy-Tango Band, which arrived at the Savoy about a month ago, and which was the first real French tango band that London had ever heard.

Judge Competent; Penalty Must Stand

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.—Judge Casson, notwithstanding his elevation to the bench, remained a member of the bar of the Province of Quebec and was, therefore, qualified to sit as acting recorder, in a case under the provision of the city charter, according to the unanimous decision given today by the Court of Appeals, dividing the three judges. The judgment upholds the conviction of five women who were sentenced last summer by Judge Casson as acting recorder, to serve six months in jail for keeping disorderly houses.

Nationals To Play Against Wanderers

There is considerable interest in the intermediate football game to be played on Sand Cove field this afternoon when the Nationals and Wanderers will clash. On account of his most satisfactory work last Saturday, R. H. Bennett has been selected to referee.

Annual Meeting

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The annual meeting of the International Baseball League will be held here either Sunday, December 7, or December 14, John Conway Toole, president of the league, announced today. The by-laws of the league stipulate the meeting must be held in an International League city December 14, but in view of the major league meeting here during that period, President Toole has asked for a mail vote to shift the scene to New York, and the date one week ahead to correspond with the major league conferences.

RECORD GROWD IS EXPECTED AT FAIR CLASSIC

Unbeaten Dartmouth Eleven Tackles Chicago Today

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 14.— Yale's bulldog rules a slight favorite over the Princeton tiger for the second game of the Big Three card here in the Yale Bowl this afternoon, when a record crowd is expected to see these ancient rivals in their 1925 frolic. Yale is victor in the series with Princeton to date, having won 26 games to Princeton's 14. Nine contests were tied. The present tilt continues the longest intercollegiate football competition in America. By defeating Yale, Princeton would become champion of the Big Three, while a victory for the Blue would leave the series open.

More than 50 extra trains will be operated by the New Haven Railroad for the convenience of football enthusiasts. Twenty-three special trains from New York to New Haven are scheduled, and two additional trains from Bridgeport, one from Stamford, one from Boston and one from Hartford. The return service will require approximately the same number of trains. Yale's football alignment against the Tigers will not be decided until just previous to kick-off in the Bowl, because of minor injuries, according to a statement authorized by the coaches. Today Larry Noble, who has had only three days of practice since his return to the right flank berth. The improvement in the condition of Billy Weiler has made him a possibility to start the play ahead of Richards and instead of Sturhahn if the coaches decide not to use the latter. Chances favor beginning the game with Sturhahn at left guard.

FLINT, Mich., Nov. 14.—Dartmouth's football team worked out here Friday for practice. Coach Richards has had a hard rain and muddy field. Kicking, dummy scrimmage and about half an hour of forward passing with the second and third teams opposing the varsity featured the workout. Although no tackling was permitted, the men were soaking wet and covered with mud. The Dartmouth party is made up of about 60 persons, 35 of whom are players.

Bootlegger King May Go To Prison

BANGOR, Nov. 13.—Winfield L. Strout, of Bangor, would be sentenced to 18 months in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. Judge A. Peters indicated to Strout's counsel today, in continuing the case to the January term of the district court to be held in Portland. Continuance was granted to allow Strout to adjust his business affairs. Strout pleaded guilty to numerous counts of conspiracy in possessing and transporting intoxicating liquors.

Heir Forsakes Jazz For Tango Music

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Prince of Wales has forsaken his old love, the ukulele for the bandoleon, which he brought back with him from South America. This instrument is used in the tango bands, which are now the rage in London. It is like an elaborate concertina, and is possessed of very sweet, mellow tone. It is a difficult instrument to play, but the Prince is taking daily lessons from the bandoleonist of Vardell's Savoy-Tango Band, which arrived at the Savoy about a month ago, and which was the first real French tango band that London had ever heard.

Judge Competent; Penalty Must Stand

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.—Judge Casson, notwithstanding his elevation to the bench, remained a member of the bar of the Province of Quebec and was, therefore, qualified to sit as acting recorder, in a case under the provision of the city charter, according to the unanimous decision given today by the Court of Appeals, dividing the three judges. The judgment upholds the conviction of five women who were sentenced last summer by Judge Casson as acting recorder, to serve six months in jail for keeping disorderly houses.

Opera Musicians, Stage Hands May Join Dressmakers' Strike

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The costume makers of the Metropolitan Opera House have gone on strike and a sympathetic walk-out may be called by the musicians, electricians, stage hands and dressers, all of whom are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Boris Drasin, manager of Local 28 of the International Ladies' Garment Workers, said that he would lay this aspect of the strike before the Federation unless a settlement was effected soon.

The striking costume makers number about 25. They walked out on November 4. Several pickets, who made their appearance in the vicinity of the Opera House, but there has been no trouble and neither the union officials nor the Opera House management expects any. An investigation by the Federation must be made before the prospective sympathetic strike can be called.

The strike resulted from the recent reorganization of the Metropolitan costume shop, following the engagement of N. E. Lussolotti as head of the workshop and the termination of the union agreement on September 13. The Metropolitan wanted to choose its own workers, but the union insisted that the old ones be taken back, the company at length agreeing to take back four men and four women, to be guaranteed forty weeks' employment, and nine others, to be hired later, were guaranteed 35 weeks.

The eight went to work on October 21, but did not include one woman, a specialist, thought to be essential to the shop. The Metropolitan asked that she be sent back, but the union insisted that she take her chances with the lottery. On this point and on the additional contention of the Metropolitan that it has a right to contract its costumes out of the disagreement was granted. The union charges that the Metropolitan broke its agreement to abide by the lottery, and that it intends to demonize its costume shop.

An official of the company said that he could see little chance of an agreement unless the Metropolitan was granted the right to choose its own workers.

THE STORY IS A ROMANCE of high hearts and open roads—an outdoor picture of the most virile type. The picture gets its name from the fact that most of the action takes place on a famous stream flowing through the quaint regions of Quebec. Some of the high spots include: The hero (Holt) traveling all around the world to Canada to beat up a man who had killed his father; the result is a terrific screen fight; Holt racing down a raging torrent in a frail canoe ahead of a million on-rushing logs.

Reds Preach in Vain. (American Mercury.)

Let a lone Red arise to annoy a bar-room full of Michigan lumberjacks, and at once the fire alarm sounds and the full military and naval forces of the nation are summoned to put down the outrage. But how many Americans would the Reds convert to their rubbish, even supposing them free to spout it on every street-corner? Probably not enough, all told, to make a day's hunting for a regiment of militia. The American's mind simply does not run in that direction; he wants to keep his Ford, even at the cost of losing the Bill of Rights.

BUILD ON SITE OF GEM THEATRE

Film Concerns Plan to Begin Operations About April 1

Will be Fire-proof Film Structure of General Movement

Oscar R. Hanson, Canadian general manager of Educational Film Inc., and Percy C. Taylor, occupying a similar position for Film Booking Offices of America, are in the city from Toronto, making final arrangements through their local managers and C. J. Melliday, attorney, for the erection of a fireproof film building on the site of the old Gem Theatre, Waterloo street. The Gem was destroyed by fire a few years ago.

Other film organizations interested in this building are First National Pictures, Ltd., the Fox Film Corporation. The structure will have two double floors and a large basement. The four film agencies will have identical quarters of modern type facilities. The building will be utilized mutually as a projection room for customers and censors.

WILL BUILD IN SPRING. It is expected the building will be commenced about April 1 and those interested in erecting it say concrete can be poured and finishing work completed in from 60 to 75 days. Mr. Melliday is representing the local parties making the investment.

The recent decision of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation and Regal Films, Ltd. to have their own fireproof offices and storage in Princess street and now the same idea from the four companies here mentioned, is said to have started a general movement among the film offices to secure modern quarters. In fact the Saint John building activity in film circles is part of a universal movement among picture corporations to make their housing facilities absolutely danger-proof—an order issued by their central bureau of management, a sort of film board of trade.

Proposes Official Registrar For Saint John Voting List

Commissioner Frink said this morning that he intended taking up with the city solicitor the matter of some changes in the revisors act. As one of the revisors for this year he looked over the city voting list and found that in many cases duplications of names occurred, in some cases the name being on in two or three wards. In Halifax there is an official registrar to that official before his or her name can be placed on the list and it is the intention of the commissioner to ask that the provincial government enact legislation along these lines for Saint John.
