Damascus In Hands of British; Allies in Full Sway on West Front

The British Are In Damascus

London, Oct. 2—Damascus, the capital of Syria, was occupied by General Allenby's forces on Tuesday morning, according to an official statement issued today by the British war office.

Amsterdam, Oct. 2—The Turkish cabinet, according to a telegram published by the Cologne Gazette, has decided "in all circumstances to adhere to the alliance with the Central Powers."

London, Oct. 2—The Turkish commandant at Damascus has asked for terms for the surrender of the city to General Allenby's forces, says the Manchester Guardian reports. It is expected that troops of the British army in Palestine will enter the city today.

Fight Hard As St. Quentin Lost

Germans Fail to Match French; Further Gains of Importance Near Rheims; Massif of Thiery Wholly in French Hands

Paris, Oct. 2—Heavy fighting took place in St. Quentin last night. Resistance stubbornly the German were driven back to the east bank of the canal. West and north of Rheims the French have made further important gains.

Northwest of Rheims the French have taken Poisson and Thif and have reached the southern outskirts of Villers-Franqueux. North of Rheims they have pushed forward their line to the outskirts of Betheny. There was no change on the Champagne front during the night.

PAST ST. QUENTIN

Paris, Oct. 2—The French troops have now passed beyond St. Quentin. Northeast, east and southeast of the town, according to the Havas Agency, they hold a line running along the Somme from Tronquoy to Rosoy and then along the St. Quentin-La Fere road to the River Oise at Vendesil.

RETREAT MORE HURRIED

Paris, Oct. 2—The armies of Generals Gossard and Bertelot on the front east of Rheims continued to advance today against the Germans, who appeared to be falling back more hurriedly than at any time since Sept. 26.

AMERICANS HAVE HARD FIGHTING

Germans Organize Increasingly Bitter Defence

HEAVY COUNTER-ATTACK

Hours to Check it But Hundreds Paid Dearly—Some Hundreds of Americans in Tight Place Between Cambrai and Saint Quentin

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 1—(By the Associated Press)—The enemy is organizing an increasingly bitter defence, utilizing every available means to hold back the American troops. North and northeast of Clerges shell holes have been fortified for a distance of nearly a mile. On the left a new enemy division has been thrown into the fighting, and a heavy counter-attack followed its appearance, which could not be checked for several hours. When the check did come it was disastrous for the enemy, for he had pushed forward this division further than those adjoining, and it soon collapsed.

Before the American advance the Germans hit the country with tank mines, apparently anticipating a withdrawal. Scores of British-made tanks, many of them manned by American crews, are co-operating in the American advance. One of these rolled over a mine and was blown up, one casualty resulting. The others got through and did great execution.

These American tank crews were used in England and had been waiting behind the front for the attack. They rolled along before the infantry and directly in the rear of a creeping barrage and cleared many machine gun nests. After the manner of the British, the Americans drove their machines right on top of the German machine gun nests, and so far as hard-panned the enemy's activity.

AUTO TRUCK STOLEN

City Fuel Company's Shed Broken Into Through Night

The shed of the City Fuel Company was broken into last night and the company's auto truck, valued at $1,000, was stolen. The robbery was one of the boldest perpetrated in the city for some time. The large doors of the shed were smashed in and the truck was taken out and must have been run through the city streets. C. A. Clark, manager of the company, feels that it will be possible to locate the truck as on the sides of it is the name "City Fuel Company."

RAILWAY DISASTER IN SWEDEN; 350 ARE KILLED; 50 CHILDREN

London, Oct. 2—Three hundred and fifty persons have been killed, it is feared, in a railway accident north of Malmo, Sweden. Fifty children, who were returning to Stockholm from the country are among the dead.

POLICE COURT.

E. Manuel Desroche and Max Williams, both of this city, were before the police magistrate this morning, charged by the dominion police with not having their exemption papers on them when escorted. Both young men gave a satisfactory explanation and were allowed to go on suspended sentence. J. Starr Richard was before the court on a charge of stealing two canvas coverings from carpenters working at the Dufferin Hotel. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded.

efforts, the result of which is not known. Furious fighting continues here. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 1—(By the Associated Press)—German efforts to penetrate or bend the line between the Meuse and the Aisne dwindled rapidly today. One minor counter-attack, some outposts skirmishing and a half-hearted bombardment characterized the enemy's activity.

FORCING GERMANS INTO A GENERAL RETREAT ON WEST

Can Ludendorff Prevent It Becoming a Disaster? That Is The Question

Fall of St. Quentin Shakes Whole German System—Crown Prince is in Bad Fix—Resounding Triumph for the Allies' Forces

Paris, Oct. 2—St. Quentin is taken and the corner stone of the Hindenburg system has fallen.

Thanks to the prodigious and unrelenting efforts of the armies of General Debeney and General Rawlingson, under the general direction of General Fayolle, that line soldier who commands the group of armies in that sector, is a most resounding triumph. But it is not the only place where victory smiled upon the Allied arms.

Belgian forces, strongly opposed, are making headway toward Roulers and Menin. The Germans are preparing to evacuate the Lille region. British armies around Cambrai are successfully fighting one of the fiercest battles of the war. General Blandin is driving the enemy back between Ypres and the Aisne and General Gossard has reached Challenge, the important railroad centre at the western opening of Grand Pre esp.

WHOLE SYSTEM SHAKEN

St. Quentin's fall shakes the whole German system. Its effect will be widespread. This will be accentuated by the strong push that is being made in the upper Oise Valley. The Allies here are across the multiple waterways upon which the enemy so largely bases his defences. Before them lies the open country which is ideal for tanks. Under the circumstances it is one of the questions that the crown prince's armies can hold their positions on the Ailette and the Aisne. Outflanked from the north and harried by General Mangin, who is now along the Aisne as far as south of Craonne, the crown prince's armies are in a much graver position than were those of Generals Von Boehm and Von Hutier on the Marne and Avre in July. The same danger threatens the armies opposing Gossard.

ADVANCE OF 75 MILES IN A FORTNIGHT

Allies Have Held on Both Banks of Dvina River

Archangel, Oct. 1—(By the Associated Press)—British, French, American and Russian troops today occupy villages on both banks of the Dvina River to a point 125 miles north of Kotlas, in the government of Volodga. They have advanced seventy-five miles in the last two weeks and they are now about 875 miles southeast of Archangel. The river is blocked farther south by both mines and barges which have been sunk in the channel. Up the Vaga River, however, progress is unobstructed and Allied forces are occupying the important town of Shemkusk. The aurora borealis is already flaming in the northern sky.

In their advance up the Dvina, the land forces have met with virtually no resistance since Sept. 21, when the Americans were subjected to heavy machine gun fire for five hours at Seltako.

British Tear New Wide Gaps In The German Line

Smash Their Way Through Between St. Quentin and Lecatelet

Former Place Afire in Several Parts; Enemy Plot at Cambrai Failed; All's Well Along the Line

London, Oct. 2—Wide gaps have been torn in the German line between St. Quentin and Lecatelet by Field Marshal Haig's forces. The British commander reported today the breaking of the German line on the Fossoenne-Beaurevoir front. This was done by the 32nd division.

(Beaurevoir is two and a half miles east of Lecatelet and Fossoenne is nearly five miles northeast of St. Quentin.)

Sequehart, four and a half miles southeast of Bellcourt, has been captured, as has the hamlet of Preselles, just to the north. The Australians completed capture of the enemy's defence south of Lecatelet and Gouy.

South of Cambrai British troops, including Scottish and New Zealanders, have occupied Crevecoeur and Rumiilly.

STILL PRESSING ON.

London, Oct. 2—The British are pushing farther into the German positions on the front between St. Quentin and Lecatelet. Field Marshal Haig reported today that the Australians had finished the work of clearing out the German defences south of Lecatelet and Gouy and had freed Juncourt, just to the south, of enemy troops.

NEW GAINS IN FLANDERS.

London, Oct. 2—British and Belgian troops have made fresh progress in the direction of Hoogebeke and Roulers and the British have seized Ledeghem, on the Roulers-Menin railway, according to the Belgian official statement issued last night. A British detachment has crossed the Lys between Werwicq and Commines.

ST. QUENTIN AFIRE.

Paris, Oct. 2—St. Quentin is burning at several points, according to Premier Clemenceau, who informed Marcel Huys of the Echo de Paris today that French aviators have great difficulty in flying over their territory because of the smoke rising from it.

FOILED ENEMY AT CAMBRAI.

Paris, Oct. 2—(Havas Agency)—Cambrai has been mined, but the British forces have fought around the town and then have foiled the plans of the enemy. The Germans decided on September 1 to burn Cambrai, and forced the civilian population to leave.

ROULERS AND MENIN AFIRE.

Paris, Oct. 1—(Havas Agency)—The towns of Menin and Roulers, railway junctions in Flanders, have been set on fire by the Germans in face of the advancing Belgian, British and French troops. French guns now control the railway line running from Ottend through Thourout and Roulers to Courtrai.

British monitors are co-operating actively in bombarding the German lines on and near the coast.

FURTHER WORD FROM GUNNER E. COMEAU

A letter to Mrs. Louis Comeau brings further word from her son, Gunner Edmond Comeau, who, as previously announced, was wounded on Sept. 8. The brave young soldier was more seriously wounded than first reported. Bursting shrapnel struck him in the mouth, breaking his upper teeth and cutting his palate and tongue. He was also hit below the right elbow. Gunner Comeau is now in Brighton hospital, England. Friends will hope for his speedy restoration to full health and strength and safe return from the war.

The shark was about seven or eight feet long and weighed about 200 pounds.

BIG THINGS ON WEST BEFORE SNOW FLIES

With the British Armies in Flanders, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Field Marshal Haig's forces today captured Kolleghecampelle and advanced for a distance of 3,000 yards southwards to the line of the Scheldt. The German line of defence has been broken. It is now only the line of the Scheldt and the British advance threatens the German line of retreat to the Oise Valley and also from the Massif of the Ardennes. Between the Aisne and the Vesle French troops in the last three days have advanced on a front of ten miles. The Germans are now retreating towards the Vesle River and the lines to the north of that city are in a state of confusion. In view of the loss of St. Quentin and the lines to the north of that city an enemy retirement on a fairly large scale is probable. Given fairly good weather some very big changes on the western front may be seen before winter.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood—that is, blood that is impure and contains germs—is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrhs in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles. It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.

Foch Prevents Concentration At Any One Point

His Success Not Alone Capturing of Towns and Cannon and Men—Operations May Enter New Phase at Any Time

French Headquarters in France, Oct. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—Four battles are being fought from Flanders to the Meuse. They are being fought on a front of 100 miles and occupy the Germans to such an extent that they have been unable to concentrate the forces for shortening their lines. If the hypothesis is true that they did so in order to obtain reserves with which to constitute a maneuvering force.

Instead of employing those reserves in an effort to regain the initiative in certain positions, they have been obliged to call upon them to reinforce the troops in the points necessarily threatened and to replace depleted divisions.

The success of Marshal Foch's tactics, it is pointed out, is not alone in the liberation of villages and towns and prisoners and cannon captured, but in the fact that the Germans are unable to disperse their reserves that they are unable to concentrate the reserves necessary to maintain their positions, including the redoubtable Hindenburg line.

The operations that have accomplished these results are still in full development and it is expected that the pressure to draw final conclusions from them, as they may enter a new phase at any time.

CLIMBS OUT ON WING OF BURNING AIRPLANE

Capt. Trickett Saves His Life and That of His Pilot by Daring Exploit. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Captain Charles T. Trickett, of Sander, Texas, acting as an observer, saved his own life and that of his pilot by a thrilling exploit in the air. The gasoline tank of the airplane was set on fire by a German aviator's machine gun while the American machine was fighting a thousand yards in the air in the region of Nantalis.

When the fire burst from the tank between the seats of the pilot and the observer, Captain Trickett made desperate efforts to extinguish the flames, which the wind was forcing in his direction. To remain in his seat meant to be burned to death.

Captain Trickett's only resource was to climb out on the wing of the machine and cling to the wires. This he did, and the pilot then steered the machine safely to earth.

LUDENDORFF IS BEATEN.

"A general German retreat becomes more and more imperative. The problem for General Ludendorff is how to prevent it from being converted into a complete disaster."

This news from the western front is quite as significant and affords as much cause for Allied rejoicing as that from Bulgaria. St. Quentin has fallen, and its fall has shaken the whole system of defence on the western front. The Hindenburg line is utterly broken. Its corner stone has collapsed. It is not merely a question of a further retirement for the German armies, but whether they may be able to avert complete disaster. The blows delivered by Foch at chosen points in orderly succession and with irresistible force have made it impossible for the enemy to gather an army of reserve. Division after division must be thrown in to be decimated in a hopeless struggle to stop the Allied advance. The whole front is ablaze. Belgium, British, French and American are all driving forward and taking heavy toll of the rapidly lessening German forces. The more bitterly the latter fight the greater are their losses. And now they must take to the open country, and try to rally in new positions far behind the Hindenburg line, with an alert, superior and relentless enemy hard at their heels. We are on the eve of still greater events on the western front. More glorious news is yet in store.

HOW THE KAISER BLEEDS.

The Kaiser's latest message reads: "I have the confident hope that the whole German people in these most serious times will resolutely gather around me and give their blood and wealth until the last breath for the defence of the Fatherland against the shameful enemy plans."

A paragraph in a recent issue of the Toronto Star appears to be a very proper comment on the Kaiser's appeal. The Star said:

"The Kaiser has six sons, and all of them conspicuous soldiers, who have cut quite a dash all through the war, but always at a safe distance from where the bleeding and the dying were being done. Why did not Wilhelm, when exacting the promise from the Germans on the Lorraine front that they would die where they stood, give evidence of his own good faith by leaving one or two of his numerous sons on the spot pledged like the rest to win or perish there?"

THE WEST PROSPEROUS.

Western Canada has had a prosperous year. Mr. W. D. Matthews, who toured the west with Lord Shaughnessy, said last week in an interview in Toronto:

"The crop situation compares very favorably with that of last year and much better than was thought possible a few weeks ago. The man-power problem, which at first appeared rather threatening, has been satisfactorily managed, sufficient labor being recruited, and it is estimated that the total yield of wheat this year will be around 160,000,000 to 170,000,000 bushels. With the high price of wheat prevailing, this should prove of immense benefit to the Northwest. Threshing has been going on for some time and in some places the grain has been taken to the elevators. Of course, in spots, the crops are not so good, but taking it all around, the situation is an encouraging one. I don't think I have ever seen the western cities looking so prosperous."

In the west as well as in the east the problem of securing farm help was solved more satisfactorily than had been anticipated early in the season. It is a great relief to know that Canada's harvest is large, for the world's need is greater than it was a year ago, and it may be far greater a year hence.

THE WOMAN'S COUNCIL.

The visit of Mrs. W. E. Sandford, president of the National Council of Women of Canada, to St. John will have the effect of stimulating greatly the local interest in the work of this great federation of societies laboring for social improvement. Those who heard the simple but eloquent and impressive message of the national president cannot but be influenced thereby to a broader vision and a more earnest desire to have a share in the splendid work of this great organization. Of special interest and value was her reference to the use by women of the newly acquired franchise. She rightly holds that it would be a misfortune if the women merely swelled the ranks of bitter partisanship and failed to use the franchise with a solemn recognition of a duty to be performed for the advancement of human welfare. The form the new democracy after the war will take will depend a good deal upon the manner in which the enfranchised women use their power to influence legislation along social lines. They are fortunate in the leadership of such women as those who conduct the affairs of the National Council.

LIEUTENANT BELL.

St. John today rejoices in the recognition of the gallantry of Lieut. Thomas Moffat Bell. This intrepid young officer, in a raid on the German forces, "killed fifteen captured one, and drove the remainder into our barrage." Nothing short of a superb quality of courage and coolness could sustain a soldier under such conditions. Lieut. Bell possessed that quality, and gave the Germans another grim reason to fear the onslaught of the men from Canada. Since the peace of the world can only be restored and assured by killing Germans, the deeds of men like this young soldier from St. John are of imperishable value to the world; but of still greater value are those qualities which enable such a man to take his life in his hand and voluntarily risk it all in the path of duty.

German and Austrians still control vital points on the railway which connects their countries with Turkey. Mr. Frank H. Simonds points out that the next move of the Allies must be to cut that line of communication by advancing and seizing Nish. They can then advance to Belgrade, which looks across to the plains of Hungary, and link up with Roumania, which would then re-enter the war on their side. Can the enemy spare enough men to make stand against them? This, in view of the situation on the western front, is highly improbable. As for Turkey, it is said Bulgaria would not object to taking a hand with the Allies against her. It is easy to believe that the developments of the last few days in that quarter have caused consternation in Vienna and Berlin.

The presence of three Japanese officers in uniform at last night's meeting in the Veterans' Hall was most interesting feature. They were given a splendid reception, and Colonel Hirayama gave a very interesting brief account of Japan's part in the war. References to the Anglo-Japanese alliance were heartily applauded, for Japan has done and is doing notable service in the war. Her fleet has rendered noble service and now her army in Siberia is winning victories for the Allied cause.

It is now announced that plans are under consideration for a reform of the parliamentary system, both in Germany and in the kingdom of Russia. The real reform will come on the heels of a revolution. The Junkers have delayed too long. Both Germany and Austria are in the path of the whirlwind. When it strikes the Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs will be looking for a storm-cellar.

Moncton last evening celebrated the recent Allied successes with a procession and public meeting. St. John has hung out a flag or two, but otherwise seems unconscious of what our sons and their Allies have been doing lately in the war zone.

The Allies in northern Russia are steadily gaining ground. They have advanced seventy-five miles in two weeks. We may soon expect to hear still more cheering news from Russia.

With what royal satisfaction must King Albert lead the troops that are driving the Germans out of Flanders. Already the German submarine bases are in danger of being cut off from communication.

The Germans appear to be making a more desperate effort to check the Americans than any other of the Allies. This will stiffen the determination of the United States to achieve victory.

The Spanish journalists who fought duels yesterday should go to the front. It is pleasing to observe that the programers got the worst of both encounters.

To subscribe to the Victory Loan is to help win the war.

ENGINEERS' DEPOT HERE.

The re-organization of all military engineer services gives Halifax and St. John each an Engineer Depot of their own. All men recruited for the present in this branch of the service in New Brunswick will be located in Sussex and in the winter the headquarters will be in the Martlet Tower, West St. John. The St. John Depot will be under the command of Lieut. G. H. Curry. The full establishment of the depot will be 172 men all ranks, consisting of an O. C., Lieut. Curry, an adjutant and a quartermaster. Hereafter the men secured for the engineers were forwarded to St. John, Quebec.

To God the glory—We, who lie humbly beneath the quiet sky,
Have drawn the water, hewn the wood,
And made the best of life we could,
Winning the sweetness born of strength,
And, through much striving, peace at length.

Still on the blue horizon sleep
The curving hill lines; and there sweep
Cloud shadows over vale and hill,
Now chased by sunlight and now still:
The Locusts chant amid the trees:
Above the clover hum the bees:
Its depths of woe, its heights of weal,
And cricket chirping in the grass
Make sweet the long days as they pass.

To God the glory—We, who dwell
Long in these quiet vales, have felt
All that there is in life to feel:
And glad to die, its heights of weal,
And to our children's children leave
Inheritance to joy and grief,
And fight triumphantly as we
To God the glory still shall be!

A colored conscript on his way to the train with a number of other prospective soldiers, was greeted by a friend.

Wife—My dear, I left my thimble in the pocket of my new dress, and I wish you'd run upstairs and get it.

Husband—Now, see here, I'm not going off on any such job as that.

"How foolish you are. Nothing is easier than finding the pocket in a dress. All you have to do is to slip it on."

"Slip what on?"

"The dress, of course. But you needn't try to button it, you know."

"Well then what?"

"Use common sense, of course. All you have to do after the dress is on is to dive down and crossways and a little slanting, and up and around, just as you see ladies do in a shop, and your hand will get straight into the pocket."

FLYING TO CHANGE WORLD.

British Aviators Believe It Will Broaden Men's Thought.

Behind the British Lines in France, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Flying, in the opinion of British aviators, is going to change the character of the world's thought. It will have a broadening influence, and it will bring a fresher, cleaner flow of ideas into the brains of men.

A man, the flyers argue, who has seen before him at the same time the cliffs of England, the long flat fields of Holland, and the smiling countryside of Belgium and France, is bound to think in a different way than a man whose horizon has always been bounded by bricks and mortar, or even by hill and dale.

Traveling may have made him think nationally, but flying will make him think far more largely. He will see England and France lying close to each other, separated only by a shining strip of water. He will see the green and brown mosaic of Belgium, which in its turn merges into the distant shadow of Holland, while still further on, across the wide Scheldt he will see the distant low lands sweep over the rim of the world.

How will he regard petty spites between individuals and cliques then, the birdman asks. He can cover with his thumb from the heights a feverish city bustling and petty their quarrels, and jealousies, and hates will seem.

The true meaning of human intercourse and friendship will come home to him. He will gain an almost divine outlook upon the world. He will smile to see the little brown smudges, which are great towns, and the fine-down spider threads, which are the great railway systems. Intrigues, dishonesty, civil strife—all will seem to him contemptible. Perhaps, say the aviators, this is the new view which will bring the millennium.

No Humbug! Lift Off Corns

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift a corn or callus off with fingers.

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freestone recently discovered by a Concednat man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freestone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn, and instantly, yes, immediately, all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it out root and all, with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freestone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, the hardened callus on bottom of feet, just seem to shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.

Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on your dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

DOMINION RUBBER SYSTEM AND ASSOCIATED COMPANIES

Why Dominion Belting Gives Superior Service

Over fifty years of practical belt making to meet special demands and conditions of Canadian Manufacturers has given us a fund of knowledge and experience that will prove invaluable to every user of belting.

We have determined to a scientific exactness the kind of fabric and rubber that gives the best service in each size of belt—the degree of temperature and the time necessary for proper curing and the correct construction of each belt for a given purpose.

We have developed our Dominion Friction Surface Belt to a point where it gives a pulley grip that has proved, in competitive tests, to be greater than that of any other belt made.

Before shipment is made every Dominion Rubber System Belt is tested in our laboratory for pulley grip—tensile strength—weight and cohesion of the plies.

This "proving up" process is the "safety first" measure that insures each belt meeting the high standard for quality and uniformity set by the Dominion Rubber System.

The superior service rendered by Dominion Rubber System Belting in actual use is only a part of the service rendered by the Dominion Rubber System—we maintain a free advisory department in charge of belting engineers—not merely salesmen but technical experts who know belting and machinery requirements thoroughly.

Through our service branches these experts and the facilities of Canada's largest rubber organization are at your service whether you are, at present, a customer or not.

If you are in trouble, phone, wire or write our nearest branch and test our emergency service.

Daily Fish Bulletin

Issued by Canada Food Board.

Everybody who lunches at the downtown cafeteria comes up against this problem every day—fresh or fish. It is a sign of the times that the fish counter gets so much attention now. Once it was little more than a Friday institution. Now it is an all-the-week-round affair.

Watch the man who swings up a scale for a plate of fish. He's a good food conservationist and he is more in pocket than the other fellow who keeps to a meat diet, in spite of all he is hearing about the advantages of using more fish.

Food Board Flashes For Feminine Folk

No Man's Land is soon to grow crops. The French Government has made arrangements for bringing back into cultivation the desolate and war-torn areas from which the enemy has been driven. The dense population of France makes prompt agricultural restoration necessary to relieve the food situation. Preference will be given to farmers who originally lived in the invaded regions.

The women who have kept the men of France fed for four years will help in restoring the shell-torn agricultural areas from which the Germans have been driven.

FOOD BOARD TAKES SURPLUS BUTTER

Company Defied Board, So Its Excess Holding is Sold and Sent to Allies

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The Canada Food Board has seized and forced the sale of 392,800 pounds of creamery butter stored by the Dominion Fish & Fruit Company, Limited, which without permission and in spite of remonstrance from the Canada Food Board, held a greater quantity of butter than was reasonably necessary to supply its own Canadian requirements, based on last year's sales to the ordinary trade.

Under the War Order the Canada Food Board seized 392,800 pounds of the butter, and gave it the option of having the excess butter consigned or sold to the Dairy Produce Commission for shipment to Great Britain and her allies. The company chose the latter alternative, and the butter is now on its way to Britain.

The accumulation of butter during the recent butter-producing season for Quebec was in competition with the purchasing agents of Great Britain and her allies. The limited supplies reaching them.

To uphold the regulations of the Canada Food Board, the latter had Great Britain and her allies were properly supplied with creamery butter the Canada Food Board seized the surplus.

20,000,000 BUSHELS OF FOODSTUFFS IN MANITOBA.

Montreal, Sept. 27.—The C. P. R. gives in official figures an interesting record of the phenomenal productive energy of Manitoba this year. Fully 20,000,000 bushels of foodstuffs will be known grown in excess records of the past year, which means the farmers will have an additional $40,000,000 more than the average received last year. There will be 31,000,000 bushels of wheat at $105,000,000, as compared with the record of last year which showed a total value of $87,500,000. The three crops—barley, wheat and oats—will come to, in money, some $200,000,000. Other crops have been correspondingly successful, and Manitoba is in high spirits. If equally large results cannot be boasted in the other provinces, the farmers all over the west are hopeful. They are getting high prices, the crops are more varied; there are manufactures to correspond with the agricultural output, and the outlook is most hopeful.

NATIONAL INTERESTS COME BEFORE LUXURY.

British People Requested to Co-operate in Reducing Fire and Light Bills

Well-lighted and well-heated hotels and restaurants will be unknown this winter in England, according to a London newspaper.

The rationing of hotels and restaurants and the catering trade generally is being officially dealt with by the coal controller, who urges the public to assist by careful use of coal, gas and electricity, and asks the public to co-operate by not demanding fire and light that can possibly be done without.

This applies to hotels, clubs, boarding houses, lodging houses, hotels, restaurants, cafes, eating houses, communal kitchens and so on.

The controller asks for subdued lighting in lounge and dining rooms, and for the abolition in showcases and of multiple lights in bedrooms. It is essential that guests should realize that hotels and restaurants are severely rationed for light and fuel, and it is confidently hoped that the public by sound and sensible support will help to put the national interests before comfort and luxury.

COMPOUND FAT RIVAL TO OLEO

Looks Like Potted Butter and Goes Farther Than Margarine.

Butter, oleomargarine, and dripping are, according to The London Chronicle, to have a rival in compound fat—which looks like potted butter—and at 4s 4d a lb., is said to be cheaper than margarine at 1s. 2d, because it goes farther. Its value is as a cooking fat. The present output, controlled by the Oils and Fat Branch of the Food Ministry, is 1,400 tons weekly—equal to an ounce per head of the population; and it is supplied to caterers, bakers, and fish fryers. A wider market is expected when supplies are forthcoming.

NEGOTIATIONS WITH NEWFOUNDLAND OVER MILITARY SERVICE ACT

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—Negotiations arising out of the circumstance that young men from Newfoundland not permanently resident in Canada or earning their living here are exempt from military service have been in progress between the dominion government and the government of Newfoundland. The central appeal judge under the Military Service Act recently ruled that students coming to Canada temporarily are not subject to the act, the result being that some natives of the island colony may avoid their military responsibilities while in the dominion.

The secretary of state for external affairs has suggested that the Canadian government should stipulate with Newfoundland a limited period within which residents of either country living in the other might elect to return to their own

DETROIT BRIDGES IN OLD TIMES

Detroit News: In the former villa of Pope Julius III, in Rome, which is now used as an Etruscan museum, there is exhibited an excellent specimen of a gold dental bridge in proper position in a skull taken from an Etruscan tomb in Clivis Castellana, a town in Etruria situated upon the proposed site of Veii. The latter town was utterly destroyed before the time of Christ, so a conservative estimate would put the age of this dental bridge at more than 2,000 years.

VICTORIES FOR THREE OF FRENCH ARMIES TUESDAY

Important Gains by Generals Debarney, Berthelot and Gouraud—Serious Losses for Germans

With the French Armies in France, Oct. 1—(By the Associated Press)—Three French armies won important successes today. While General Debarney's forces were passing through St. Quentin to Rouvrou, across the Somme, General Berthelot's army made a big gain on the St. Thierry, east, north-west of Rheims. Further east, General Gouraud's army advanced still farther north toward vital German positions. His line was pushed on to the west of Rheims. The French armies are attacking along the whole front in the Champagne sector, advanced north of Aube to within 1,000 yards of Liry. Further east, north of the Marne, they were obtained in the advance north of Bouconville and Berrville. His line was pushed on to the west of Rheims. THE K. C. DRIVE

(Toronto Star)

A campaign to collect $150,000 in Toronto for the erection of Catholic army monuments will be launched next Wednesday to continue throughout the week. Not only Catholics, but Protestants of every denomination in the city will unite in making the big drive a success. In this instance a unity of the church and other political groups, including the Ontario Y. M. C. A., will speak, as well as Norman Sommersville, another Protestant.

The campaign will open on Tuesday in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, when a meeting will be held. Bishop Fallon of London, Ont., will be the principal speaker. G. A. Warburton, director of the Toronto Y. M. C. A., will speak, as well as Norman Sommersville, another Protestant.

A large choir, composed of the best vocalists from all the Protestant churches in the city, will sing for a half hour before the meeting and afterwards. The first rehearsal was called for yesterday. More than 800 business men in Toronto set their business aside and attended the rehearsal. "This feat is remarkable," said Ralph Conroy, publicity director, today, "and the enthusiasm shown among them for the drive is a success."

The plans as to how the money will be collected have not been given out, but Mr. Conroy says that the scheme is such that every man, woman and child in the city will have a chance to give his share. Four hundred business men will, however, take part in making the drive a success.

"No business man whom we have asked to help," said Mr. Conroy, "has refused. The campaign is being equipped with the necessity for places of worship among the Catholic soldiers in France. Father Burke first asked for my aid, and I will see my end of the thing through to the finish."

At all times to boys of every denomination," he continued, "but there is no place where the Catholic boys can receive the Holy Communion, according to the faith, before they enter the Catholic boys feel that they want this, as a body of Protestants, men think it is their duty to have it. The same as our boys can have whatever sort of religious service they have been accustomed to throughout their lives, each according to their faith."

Time changes effective on September 29, on Canadian Government Railways Lines, will only slightly affect trains leaving St. John, No. 14 "Express" which connects with No. 200 eastbound "Ocean Limited" for Halifax at Monday, will leave at 8:10 p. m., instead of 12:30 noon, and will not run on Sunday, No. 10, the "Night Express," will depart at 11:35 p. m. The "Maritime Express" will be the daily train between Halifax and Montreal after the change, and the "Ocean Limited" will run daily except Sunday out of Halifax.

Passengers for the Prince Edward Island will make connection by taking No. 18 Express leaving at 7:10 a. m., connecting at Sackville with train leaving for Charlottetown at 1:00 p. m. No. 18 will wait twenty-seven (27) minutes at Sackville for dinner, and the new restaurant in the station will cater to the needs of travelers desiring lunches or meals. Passengers for the Island will have ample time to enjoy a meal there.

There is practically no change in the time of trains arriving. No. 18 Express will arrive at 6:30 p. m. as usual, but not on Sunday. No. 88 and 338 Suburban between St. John and Hampton will be discontinued.

EFFICIENCY METHODS IN RETAIL STORES

Those who had the privilege of hearing Frank Stockdale in the board of Trade roads last evening carried away with them many new ideas which will be of great benefit to them in getting the best results from their employees. The basic idea as emphasized by Stockdale was cooperation between the merchant and his sales force. "A man who is not trying to get his employees to do his business," he said, "is on the other hand 'An employee who is willing to up to the merchant's level.'"

"The customer comes before the clerk, though it is hard to make some people believe this. The customer runs all the merchant's stores. In other words the merchants carry what the customer needs or wants," said Mr. Stockdale, "and on to say that the way to bring this before the people was to study their needs from past experience, and to keep them posted through the medium of advertising from time to time as to what they could expect to meet their wishes."

The clerk could be of the greatest assistance only by knowing the goods and where to find them readily. This meant proper classification and intelligent display.

Mr. Stockdale advised the merchants to enter to the needs of the people and this point was well illustrated by suggesting that at this time druggists should advertise special preparations for Spanish influenza and should have a list prepared of the best remedies. Yesterday afternoon a special round table talk for the druggists was given by Mr. Stockdale in the association rooms, German street.

CURB BRITISH BOOZE TRADE

Drunkenness and Death From Alcoholism Show Big Decline

Treating Abolished—This a Large Factor in the Spread of Temperance

London, Sept. 10.—(Canadian Press Correspondence)—Drunkenness and deaths from alcoholism in the United Kingdom show a decline ranging from 85 to 90 per cent since the war regulations against drinking were instituted by the government three years ago, according to Lord D'Abernon, chairman of the Liquor Control Board.

Abolition of the custom of "treating," and drinking on an empty stomach, and the virtual extinction of the saloon loafer, were the main factors contributing to the growing temperance, Lord D'Abernon told the Associated Press.

"The lines on which we have proceeded," he continued, "are to a large extent novel, and they have succeeded beyond expectation. Nor is there any evidence of growth of the drug habit, which is usually one of the consequences of too drastic interference with facilities for obtaining liquor."

"This happy absence of undesirable features I attribute to the fact that, while facilities have been greatly curtailed—the liquor shops being open five and a half hours daily compared with eighteen or nineteen before the war—our arrangement of two periods, one at midday and the other in the evening, has been found sufficient by those who desire reasonable refreshment and nothing more, and those are, of course, the vast majority of drinkers. We are not out to interfere with them. It is the loafer and soaker, who would drink if he could from dawn to dusk, who interfere with national efficiency, and whom we are out to stop. I think we have succeeded in that."

Drinking on an empty stomach, he remarked, was one of the causes of intoxication, which the hours fixed for the sale of liquor tend to check. Those hours are from noon to 2:30 and from 6:30 to 9:30 in the evening. Most drinks, consequently, are taken with meals.

On charts illustrating the temperance advance in England and Wales, Lord D'Abernon traced the decline of illis incident to alcoholism. "The delirium tremens and alcohol monomania," he said, "are of special importance as showing that there cannot have been any diversion of excessive drinking from the public house to the home."

He thought that the abolition of treating had also contributed largely to the gain in temperance. "This measure," he said, "had as its objective the elimination of the custom whereby groups of workers, after receiving their week's wages, spent a considerable part of it in 'standing their owners' until each member of the party had in turn paid for drinks all round—the detriment both of their working efficiency and of the happiness of their wives and families. The wonderful sobriety of the army and navy is due in no small degree to the restrictions on treating."

"Altogether, we have much reason for satisfaction. Under conditions which on previous occasions had led to a great increase of intemperance—the great demand for labor, plenty of money, perpetual excitement and strain—we in this country are able to record an unprecedented decrease of intemperance. There has been a great saving in national efficiency, a great saving of life and improvement in the public health."

"No similar progress has so far as I am aware, been accomplished in any country at any period. The British public have shown their comprehension of the vital importance of maximum efficiency by accepting severe discipline in the best possible spirit. Now that the immense national benefit is proved, they will certainly never go back to pre-war conditions."

NEWS NOTES ABOUT PROMINENT BAPTISTS

Col. Eric MacDonald Named Hero of Action Which Broke German Line

(Maritime Baptists.) Rev. S. Gray, who has held pastorates at Upper Gagetown and Newcastle, has removed to Ontario.

Rev. Gideon Swin has been spending a few Sundays on the Brown's Flat field. In earlier days he was pastor there for a time, and he and the congregations have alike enjoyed the renewing of old associations and friendships.

We are sorry to learn that Rev. Neil MacLean's change of pastorate, mentioned in this column last week, was in a large measure due to the ill-health of Mrs. MacLean. In accepting the call to the Tobique will have the desired effect in restoring Mrs. MacLean to her usual health.

Rev. W. W. McMaster, for some years pastor of the German street church, St. John, has just closed his pastorate of nine years with the First Baptist church of Washington, D. C. He has accepted a call to the same church in the James street church of Hamilton, Ont.

Sorrow has entered another Baptist pastorage because of the sacrifice which war entails. On Sept. 1 Rev. I. E. Van Wart, pastor of the Norton field, received a telegram conveying the sad news that his second son, Wendell, had been killed in action on Aug. 28. The order and only remaining son, Vernon, is at present in England training for a commission. The sympathy of all will be extended to Pastor and Mrs. Van Wart and the other members of the household.

Rev. J. S. McFadden has been moved from the Jordan Sanatorium, Riverdale, to the St. John County Hospital, East St. John. We regret that we are unable to report any improvement in his condition.

Prof. Aaron J. Perry, who has been spending the summer in New Brunswick, passed through St. John recently on his return journey west. Before proceeding to Winnipeg he spent a week with his sisters at East Livermore, Me. Prof. Perry is a graduate of Acadia, of the class of 1894, and has been several years on the staff of the University of Manitoba.

Ernest Strohens, who has been serving the North Brookfield, N. S., field, is now taking a much needed rest at his home in South Devon, N. B. Although considerably run down when he closed his work at North Brookfield, the rest he is now enjoying is being very beneficial and he hopes to be in a condition for work by the middle of October.

We have learned that the hero of the memorable action which broke the Droop's Quiet switch line was Col. Eric MacDonald, whose battalion led the successful attack upon the formidable defense. For his work on this occasion he was personally complimented by General Currie. General Hays also made special mention of the conduct of the battalion. We have a suspicion that his father, Col. (Rev.) J. H. MacDonald, is somewhat proud of the record of his gallant son.

On Sept. 17 Rev. David Allan Steele, D. D., pastor emeritus of the First Baptist church, Amherst, was eighty years young.

Real Economy in Your Lighting THE truly economical electric lamp is a good lamp—bought with discrimination because of its quality. Let us tell you why LACO TUNGSTEN LAMPS are superior—why they are essentially "quality" lamps, and therefore, an economical investment.

CIGARETTE HEART GOES WITH THE HABIT. Disuse of the "Eternal" Flag Enables Discharged Men to Be Cured. Difficulties are being experienced by the hospitals in the treatment of men after their discharge from the army, says a London paper.

Say NO! Illustration of a man in a military uniform sitting at a desk with a typewriter. Text: "You might as well have it," whispers temptation, but your Canadian Patriotism says "No!"

Occasionally the hospital was put in a difficult position because the physician or surgeon entirely disagreed with the discharge of a man from the army at all. No sign of disease, for instance, could be found in certain cases where men had been discharged for heart disease, for the symptoms had disappeared with a cessation of the eternal cigarette habit.

THE tempting suggestions of selfishness meet no response from a patriot. For he knows that selfishness and self-indulgence are just now the allies of the Hun—they fight on Germany's side against Canada.

When the devil-whisper says "You might as well have it," every true Canadian answers "No!" Except for the bare necessities of life, we should not be spending five cents a day.

For every expenditure we make on things not absolutely necessary directly affects the fighting strength of Canada and her allies. The materials that go into the making of things you can do without are needed for our soldiers overseas.

Many of those materials which enter into our unnecessary purchases are brought from other countries and occupy precious space in ships; space sorely needed for those cargoes which can be used for the winning of the war.

The labor that fashions the things we unnecessarily use is labor which could and would be employed to real advantage in the production of war necessities. Knowing all this, how dare you divert a single unnecessary dollar from your country's war effort!

The shame that must inevitably follow your every self-indulgence, at so grave a time, will be your fitting punishment—if you persist in buying the things you merely want and do not need. Resist indulgence, cultivate thrift—for thrift is an evidence of patriotism. And the money you save by thrift will be yours to lend to your country whenever the call comes.

City Council Approves Housing Wiring Plans

Salaries Increased

Committee Appointed to Investigate Educational Conditions in County and Recommend Plans for Improvement

A meeting of the county council yesterday afternoon a recommendation of the committee of finance for the estimate for wiring the public hospital, epidemic hospital and summer home and that the committee call for new rates, the expenditure not to exceed $10,000, was adopted. It was also decided to give the township of St. John an increase in salary of $10 a month, discussion regarding the school system and educational disadvantages in various local places and a committee appointed to look into the situation a view to bettering it.

Mr. Golden presided and those present were, Councilors Howard, Shaw, Shillington, Thompson, O'Donnell, McLellan, Bullock, Fisher, Hill, O'Brien, Bentley and Stephenson.

At the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting the report of the committee was submitted. It is as follows:

The commissioners of the General Hospital, having called tenders for the main hospital, epidemic hospital, and summer home, and received bids in excess of the sum given them by their expert, requested that further provision be made for meeting a larger bill. The committee recommended that the board call for new tenders, whole work not to exceed $10,500, the payment be financed with bonds to cover the total of the estimate, provided the minister will authorize a bond issue for $10,500.

The committee having been addressed by B. M. Baxter, R.C., Judge H. O. Wemyss and C. F. Sanford, members of the Saint John Law Society, urging endorsement of a petition to the minister for an increase in salary of $100 to salary of the registrar for the city and county of St. John, and the making of provisions for seats by the municipality in case of shortage, recommended that the committee advise the minister in support of their approval of the petition and their willingness to meet any deficit arising from year to year.

The committee of the General Hospital having represented that it costs about $800 annually for ice that a modern refrigeration plant be installed for about $4,000, the committee recommended that the board be authorized to install a refrigeration plant having a capacity of 800 tons of water per day and with sufficient power to supply hospital and refrigerating temperature at an annual expenditure of $4,000, provided finance minister of Canada will issue a bond issue for the work; the payment of the same to be raised with the bank until completed, in the council will issue bonds.

The local board of health having received an estimated excess of expenditure of $285 over amount voted to group with threatened epidemic epidemic committee recommended the committee recommend the minister be authorized to issue a bond issue for $285.75.

The committee recommended the minister by the county treasurer of the

HAVE DARK HAIR

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application of two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Councillor Howard of St. Martins said that it appeared that the whole school system was wrong and he believed that the parishes should be made into a district and that all be assessed alike.

Councillor O'Brien suggested that a committee be appointed, one from each parish, to investigate the matter and see if anything could be done to better conditions. His suggestion was put in the form of a motion and carried.

Warden Golden then named the following: Councillor Howard of St. Martins, Councillor Shillington of St. John, Councillor O'Donnell of Musquash and Councillor O'Brien of Lancaster.

The council adjourned.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Ready done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known ready-made cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 3 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar, or clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 18 ounces of really the best cough syrup than you could buy ready-made, and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never fails.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of the cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the mucus throes, and kills the sore, irritated membrane so gently and easily that it is really a day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and cold, whooping cough, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "3 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything less. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

From northern Belgium to the region of Verdun, the fighting is still continuing with activity on various fronts, and with the Entente forces continuing to make gains in the Argonne, which are seriously impeding the enemy lines.

In Flanders the Belgians and British in the region from Dixmude to Arras have further driven in their sharp wedge eastward, capturing important towns and cutting lines of communication necessary to the continued holding by the Germans of their submarine bases on the North Sea.

From Cambrai to St. Quentin, notwithstanding most violent reactions from the Germans, the British, American and French again have won heavily fortified positions of the enemy all along the front. The town of St. Quentin at last has been taken by the French, and the enemy, realizing that Cambrai no longer is tenable has given it up to the north. Midway between the two towns the remaining portions of the Hindenburg line are slowly being demolished, although the Germans have imposed the strength of nearly half a million men against the Allied troops to hold the front, the breaking through of which in conjunction with the successful maneuvers in Flanders, along the Aisne and Champagne, would mean disaster.

French Dominate Aisne Valley. Between the Aisne and Aisne rivers the French continue to push the Germans north of the Aisne, while in the Argonne the French, in conjunction with the Americans, are steadily advancing northward. Their guns now dominate the Argonne Forest, while on the other side of the forest the Americans are slowly coming up the Aisne valley from the south and soon will be in a position with the French to nip this great wooded bastion between the fingers of the German line.

In the mountain region of the Italian front there has been a considerable increase in the activity, and it is probable that Marshal Foch soon will begin an offensive here against the Austro-Hungarian.

General Allenby in Palestine has surrounded Damascus and French cavalry has captured the city. The British have also captured the Mediterranean Sea coast toward Beirut.

The Macedonian theatre west of Lake Ohrida the Austrians are evacuating territory in Albania, probably indicating that they are preparing to withdraw from the Balkans. The British are in a serious predicament, far from home and with their backs to the wall.

Peace Riots in Berlin. Peace demonstrations have been held in Berlin in which police intervention became necessary. Some excesses were committed by the demonstrators as the evening drew to a close. The possibility of a cabinet crisis in Germany is indicated by the resignation of the imperial chancellor, vice-chancellor and foreign minister.

The recent fighting in France and Flanders the German losses in men killed or wounded and in guns captured have been enormous. The Belgians the Germans lost virtually all their forward defensive positions and some heavy armaments. Many men were made prisoners. MORNING WAR SUMMARY

New York, Oct. 1.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following: The town of St. Quentin, upon which the Germans had so firmly builded their hopes of proving an insuperable barrier to the Allies, is at last being entered by the French, and seemingly the gateway is open to Marshal Foch for a swift advance eastward to his task of recapturing northern France.

Meanwhile the Germans and their allies on all the battle fronts have continued to play a losing game and report has it that the Turks, realizing a critical situation through successive defeats and withdrawal of Bulgaria from the war are sending out "peace feelers."

From northern Belgium to the region of Verdun, the fighting is still continuing with activity on various fronts, and with the Entente forces continuing to make gains in the Argonne, which are seriously impeding the enemy lines.

In Flanders the Belgians and British in the region from Dixmude to Arras have further driven in their sharp wedge eastward, capturing important towns and cutting lines of communication necessary to the continued holding by the Germans of their submarine bases on the North Sea.

From Cambrai to St. Quentin, notwithstanding most violent reactions from the Germans, the British, American and French again have won heavily fortified positions of the enemy all along the front. The town of St. Quentin at last has been taken by the French, and the enemy, realizing that Cambrai no longer is tenable has given it up to the north. Midway between the two towns the remaining portions of the Hindenburg line are slowly being demolished, although the Germans have imposed the strength of nearly half a million men against the Allied troops to hold the front, the breaking through of which in conjunction with the successful maneuvers in Flanders, along the Aisne and Champagne, would mean disaster.

French Dominate Aisne Valley. Between the Aisne and Aisne rivers the French continue to push the Germans north of the Aisne, while in the Argonne the French, in conjunction with the Americans, are steadily advancing northward. Their guns now dominate the Argonne Forest, while on the other side of the forest the Americans are slowly coming up the Aisne valley from the south and soon will be in a position with the French to nip this great wooded bastion between the fingers of the German line.

In the mountain region of the Italian front there has been a considerable increase in the activity, and it is probable that Marshal Foch soon will begin an offensive here against the Austro-Hungarian.

General Allenby in Palestine has surrounded Damascus and French cavalry has captured the city. The British have also captured the Mediterranean Sea coast toward Beirut.

The Macedonian theatre west of Lake Ohrida the Austrians are evacuating territory in Albania, probably indicating that they are preparing to withdraw from the Balkans. The British are in a serious predicament, far from home and with their backs to the wall.

ARGUMENT CONCLUDED IN SISTER MARY BASIL CASE

Toronto, Oct. 1.—The part taken by Dr. Phelan in the alleged attempted abduction of Sister Basil was dealt with today by W. N. Tilley, K. C., counsel for the plaintiff, in the appeal before the appellate court on behalf of Archbishop Spratt, Dr. Phelan, and the Mother Superior, against an award of $25,000 to Sister Basil. Mr. Tilley, in his arguments, claimed that Dr. Phelan was liable, and that his participation had been fully established. He also claimed that there was no animosity on the part of the archbishop towards Sister Basil. Mr. McCarthy declared that Father Dea was responsible for the whole trouble, and that he wanted to "knife the archbishop." As to the liability of the Roman Catholic corporation, Mr. McCarthy argued that, even if the archbishop was liable, it would be in his individual capacity only.

SECOND CALL THIS FALL LIKELY FOR 20 YEARS

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—The military service council, having almost exhausted the resources of Class I called out under the Military Service Act, is now asking the government to do the policy to be adopted in regard to calling out further classes under the provisions of the act. The question will be taken up by the cabinet on Sir Robert Borden's return a few days hence from his fortnight's holiday in the south. The probability is that the next call will be issued this fall and will be for the 25,000 young men who have attained the age of twenty years since Class I is called.

LOCAL COUNCIL HEARS LEADER

Mrs. W. E. Sanford Addresses Meeting of Ladies in Veterans' Hall—I. O. D. E. Split Discussed

Mrs. W. E. Sanford, president of the National Council of Women, was the chief speaker at a public meeting held last evening in the Veterans' Hall.

At the evening meeting Mrs. E. A. Albertson Smith presided and was supported on the platform by Mrs. Sanford, Miss Carmichael, Mrs. McLean and Miss Leavitt. In a most able speech Mrs. Smith set forth the high ideals for which the council strives, and told of its far-reaching powers as an international federation of all women's societies, patriotic, benevolent, educational and religious. She spoke of the empire of honor as being a woman's "empire builder."

Miss Carmichael had represented the St. John Council at the annual National meeting, and in an admirable address she described the programme carried out there, making special reference to the alterations in the constitution which were discussed and the suggestions which were made with regard to the care of the feeble-minded and the formation of an organization of those engaged in household services. Miss Carmichael also touched on the retirement of the I. O. D. E. from the ranks of the Women's Council.

Miss Amelia Haley, corresponding secretary of the local council was specially asked by the guest of honor to give a report of its last year's work and a very well written report she set forth the great achievements of the council in particular drawing the attention of the meeting to its gift of $2,000 to the Children's Aid which the city fathers.

Japanese Speaker. A. O. Skinner made a very brief speech and Captain Stokes, of the Y. M. C. A., introduced Colonel Hirayama, who also said a few much appreciated words. Rev. Captain G. A. Kurling spoke of the Japanese alliance and expressed the devout hope that the war clouds might soon be swept away.

A. M. Belding said he considered the occasion a unique one and was very glad to have been present. He also paid a tribute of praise to the council and said that Mrs. Sanford's remarks concerning the casting of votes by women touched the most important question for women today.

The musical part of the programme was added in a very marked degree to the great enjoyment and pleasure of the evening and the thanks of all were due to the Misses Nellie and Josephine Lynch, Marian Hogan, Mrs. Furlong, Schmidt and Miss Furlong for their kind services and to Miss Amelia Green for her greatly appreciated recitation "Courage" which was so appropriate to the occasion and rendered in a most delightful way.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 1.—Delegates from all over the dominion and Newfoundland were flowing to Hamilton today for the opening session of the quadrennial session of the Methodist Church of Canada, which opens tomorrow morning in the First Methodist church. Rev. Dr. S. C. Chow, J. L. D., general superintendent and presiding officer of the conference, and Rev. T. Albert Moore, secretary of the conference, who also holds the position of secretary of social service and evangelism, were among the early arrivals.

The public reception of the delegates will take place in the evening, when Mayor Booker will welcome the delegates, responding addresses being made by Chief Justice McKeown, of St. John, and Rev. Dr. Chown.

ORGANIZED FOR VICTORY LOAN

City and County Forces Preparing for Big Drive—Every Man, Woman and Child Must Buy This Time, Says Chairman

Second only to the military organization which is driving the Germans back is the home front, represented in part by the executive committee for the city and county of St. John, to make the big drive on October 28 for an application on every man, woman and child, for Canada's second Victory bond, under Stanley E. Elkin, M. P., chairman of the committee.

The central committee have been meeting three times a week since August 28. In speaking to The Telegraph, yesterday, Mr. Elkin had great praise for the business-like way in which the committee were acting in attending the meetings regularly and cleaning up the routine from day to day. He made special reference to the valuable assistance rendered by R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the advertising committee. The captain of each ward is to be assisted in his work by a representative on the committee. The ward captains have been assigned as follows:

The team from Guys ward will look after the county as well with the exception of Fairville and Beaconsfield, which will be canvassed by the same team as last year.

Ninety-five salesmen have already been selected, each name having been passed upon by the committee. They have been instructed that they are on the king's business and are executing a mission from the boys overseas and that there is no limit to the amount except, as Mr. Elkin put it in his own words: "One out of twelve of the population bought bonds last year. This year our aim is one in one. I cannot put it any stronger."

Headquarters for the campaign are at present in the Robinson building, but will be transferred to the present offices of the Union Bank when that institution will remove to the old Robinson building, which they have recently purchased. Following are the names of the central committee: S. E. Elkin, M. P., Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Frank T. Lewis, H. C. Schofield, H. L. Genter, W. M. Ryan, H. H. McLellan, J. S. Gregory, F. C. Beatty, W. War Anniversary At The Front

Canadians Too Busy To Stop To Celebrate

Marked By Service

Hard to Realize That Four Years of War Have Passed Over Sunny France—Soldiers Out to Prevent Another War Anniversary

(By Lacey Amy, Special Correspondent of The Times)

With the Canadian Forces, France, Aug. 4—the sun is just setting on the anniversary of the momentous event of history. Throughout the churches of England, and, I suppose, of Canada, there have been held ceremonies befitting the occasion. And the hearts of the people have throbbled with feeling, their eyes have wept with memories and fears, their lips moved in prayer, their minds bent to wishes of before expressed. It is to those at home that Remembrance Day is fraught with intensity and celebrated with humblest supplication.

Here with the Canadian forces the day means little, though an attempt has been made by the Chaplain Services to recognize it in the Sunday worship. There are too many other serious things about the war for the fighting man to pay much attention to dates that make history; when his thoughts get off the war, they are turned to the lighter things that make the struggle less of a mental and physical strain. And at this moment there is in the air the thrill of tremendous preparation, of ominous events. Today differs from any other Sunday only in the shadow of coming battle. The beginning of the fifth year of war means nothing by date; in the bulk it is as yesterday—another day's march towards victory long delayed.

This morning I climbed the long sloping road towards the front lines. It was a brilliant Sunday morn, with such visibility as has not come to us for many a day. As I sat on the bank above the road and looked out over the town, it was hard to believe that four years of dire warfare had passed over this beautiful country. Down before me and up the long slope across the valley were the solid fields of grain, seemingly as well tilled and as productive as labor could make them. Yet all the men are at the front. The pattern of the various colored grains and vegetables was like a huge checkerboard carefully planned and built. Only the colors defined the fields, for there are fences only about the pasture lands in France. Along the top of the distant ridge was a long row of picturesque poplars, the ladies of the forest. A white spot near the crest I knew to be a lime quarry, where a century-old kiln is overgrown with grass and the chalk is crumbling these many years. Further down the hill the wreck of a windmill, deflected in its desuetude, was the touch of foreign life, its long, gaunt arms ungreen now and defying the strongest winds. Just before me stood the weather-beaten stone of a shrine, placed as usual at a crossroads; and over the valley another of similar architecture reminded the traveler leaving town for the west.

The town itself nestled, almost invisible, among its trees, only a red roof here and there, and the tower clock ringing it out. Roads ran thickly along the valley—roads now full of military movement, but concealed in the folds of the landscape. But the chugging of motorcycles and jorries told the story. Within sight was not a movement. And about me was only the "ventriloquist peep" of a partridge, and the incessant song of the lark. A soldier in French gray moved into the scene and peered through the iron gates of the shrine just below me, then came on up the hill and saluted as he trudged on his way. But deep in the green of the trees an unseen cornet was playing the hymns of his homeland. And there is nothing like a cornet for carrying through space with softness combined with clarity. It almost seemed that the road traffic stood still to listen.

The time for morning service was approaching. Down the hill into the town I passed through almost deserted streets. Notices of the anniversary services had been posted in the messes. The men were paraded. I walked through a yard filled with the accoutrements of war yet as orderly as only army material can be arranged. A large tent in an orchard was the place of worship, but the day being fine, service was to be held beneath the trees. Two hundred men were drawn up on a slope in formal line, an officer in front. To one side stood a group of officers. In the centre front was the white and black surplice of the clergyman beside his flag-draped altar.

There was nothing sombre about the service. After the usual forms and three hymns which the boys seemed to know well enough to sing without books, we sat on the grass for the personal talk that would be called a sermon back home. It was a simple fifteen-minute conversation on a text whose figure is of the race course: "Let us run with patience the race that is set before us." About us continued the every-day tasks that dare not stop for Sunday. A railway station looked down on us, and the shunting of a busy engine broke in without interrupting the service. A cartload of grass squeaked its way down the road. Two old Frenchmen leaned on a gate at the entrance to the orchard and marvelled, I suppose, at this strange form of worship. At the other end were the small tents of the soldiers, and in order in the midst of preparations for dinner. And in the sunlight the oaks hummed at their work among the flowers and clover in which we lay. Later—but far on in the night, I was awakened by the unceasing efforts of the army to ensure that there be no fifth anniversary. As once before—about which I have written—the measured thud of drums carried to our Allies for many months to come. It is certain that if the enemy is forced to evacuate the region, he will systematically complete the destruction by dynamiting shafts and underground workings. To make good such damage will involve a vast amount of labor and a long period of time. Even longer will be the job of pumping out the flooded pits. Throughout the war French pits on the Allied side of the line, in some cases close up to it, have been kept going with

FUEL SCARCITY TO BRING UNION

New Controller Has Scheme For the Rural Churches of Ontario (Toronto Globe)

Many churches of the province will likely have to close their doors during the winter months in order to save coal, and union services will be the probable outcome. The new Ontario fuel controller, R. Home Smith, is convinced that a great saving of coal consumption can be brought about in this way. On Monday morning he addressed the Toronto General Ministerial Association, which Rev. Dr. W. H. Hincks is chairman, and asked the co-operation of the clergymen in bringing this about. Last winter, it will be remembered, there was some criticism of the large amount of coal being used to heat churches, when it was felt that two or three or four churches could have held union services. Thus, it would have been necessary to heat only one edifice instead of three or four. The fuel controller is determined that there will be no opportunity for such criticism this winter. Mr. Smith believes that the city churches will be able to bring about a considerable saving. He is equally convinced that the churches in the country heroic contangy. Work at these pits heads has been carried on by old men, often for weeks together under intermittent shell-fire, with many casualties. There can thus be no relaxation of the British effort to relieve the coal necessities of France.

For Thrift

TO win the war, Money is needed. So that—Thrift is a War Service. Every dollar you save instead of spending thoughtlessly, releases labour in some form—labour sorely needed for war purposes. Thrift is enforced in the use of many things today, such as flour, sugar, and coal, by the simple expedient of limiting the amount one may buy. But thousands of extravagant habits flourish unchecked, and these are contributory hindrances to an early peace. Such habits are accomplices of the Kaiser. For instance, there is no excuse for a man hiring another man to shave him. It wastes time, money and vital labour. You can shave yourself better with a Gillette Safety Razor in five minutes. Buy a Gillette and wipe out the dollar a week expense. At the end of a year you have saved practically $52. With such a saving you can buy a $50 War Bond (the purchase of which enables the Government to produce 15,000 cartridges), and you still have the finest razor in the world, good for an unlimited number of inimitable daily shaves—shaves that leave the skin perfectly smooth. The touch of the Gillette is thoroughly agreeable to the most tender skin. Thrift will help to win the war. Gillette Razors are doing their share—at home and at the front.

THE BOYS "OVER THERE" Don't forget the boys "over there" use and lose more Gillette Blades than you would. Make a practice of enclosing a packet of blades in letters going overseas. Keep a CARTON of packets handy. Any jeweler, druggist, or hardware dealer will be glad to show you his assortment of Gillette Razors today. The price is five dollars.

Year's Shipbuilding Sets World's Record
American Yards Turned Out 1,956,455 Tons in Last 12 Months, Greatest in History
Washington, Sept. 30.-American shipyards established a new world's record for the twelve months since Sept. 26, 1917, when the total construction for the year was 1,956,455 gross tons. The previous world's record for twelve months was made by the British government during the calendar year 1918, when 1,692,033 gross tons were launched. The figures in connection with this remarkable record, which placed the United States unquestionably in the lead as the greatest shipbuilding nation, were supplied by the Bureau of Navigation of the Department of Commerce. The construction figures, like those of the British Admiralty on which the 1918 British record was based, include all construction of over 100 gross tons. All of the American ships included in the total announced have been officially numbered by the bureau. There apparently is no further reason to doubt that the output of the American yards will increase rapidly from this time and that a much larger total will be turned out during the twelve months to come. All of the officials are agreed that the United States will not, from this time, relinquish its place as the leading shipbuilding nation. E. T. Chamberlain, Commissioner of Navigation, set forth the facts in this memorandum which he sent today to Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board. "We have gone over the top this morning in shipbuilding. In the twelve months ended just now (10 a. m., Sept. 26), American shipyards have built and launched for the Commerce Department, Bureau of Navigation, has officially numbered 1,956,455 gross tons, passing the previous high record of the United Kingdom for 1918 calendar year, 1,692,033 gross tons launched, of which 1,793,287 gross tons completed. (Lloyd's returns.) The United States for twenty months to date completed 1,956,455 gross tons and the United Kingdom for eleven months ended Aug. 31 completed 1,612,640 gross tons. Together 3,469,095 tons completed, exceeding the world's record of 3,282,822 gross tons, launched by all nations in the calendar year 1917. It is believed that within a short time the output of the American yards will be considerably in excess each month of the total sinkings by German submarines, including the allied and neutral ships destroyed. Extensive preparations are being made to man the new ships. The Navy Department is training 22,900 officers and 200,000 men to place on ships which are turned over by the Shipping Board to the War Department. These ships will be used as transports and for the carrying of munitions and other supplies. An additional 4,000 men are being trained each month as civilian crews to man ships in other service.

WHAT KIND OF BRAIN IS REQUIRED IN GOLF?
Question Discussed Pro and Con By New York Evening Post.
"WHAT is the best kind of a brain for a golfer to have?" is the very interesting question asked by a writer in the New York Evening Post. According to the Post's contributor, "many argue that the individual with highly developed artistic tastes makes the best exponent, while others contend that the only brain fit for the golfer is one of extreme dullness. Those who contend that dullness is necessary to good play hold the view that the golfer must be a simpleton for the simple reason that he thinks too quickly, too perceptively and altogether too much. "It is a soothing reflection for the great army of duffers who, even if they are not yet risen to fame in art or commerce, can take much heart of grace from their constant fooling. But to evert to the serious side, golf requires in many instances develops a particular kind of intellect, which declines to be thrown off its balance by either success or adversity. The person who

One Against Twenty.
Another two-seater machine, while escorting a bombing formation, sighted twenty German fighting planes. The pilot instantly dived to the attack, and selected his first victim. He closed, and putting in a burst of machine-gun fire at a distance of only a few feet, saw the German pilot go down in flames. Alarmed by the suddenness of his attack, the other Germans had scattered somewhat, and the Englishman was able to dive on another. Unfortunately, however, just as he came within range his gun jammed, and at the same moment several Germans attacked his machine from the rear. His observer now came into the running, and opening fire, sent one of the following enemy machines spinning earthward. Having cleared the jam the pilot, anxious to make up for his lost time, manoeuvred at furious speed, and succeeded in getting a third German across his front, where he opened fire at short range and sent his opponent whirling down in a burning mass. Raid on Hun Drome.
The same day a highly successful raid was carried out on a German air-drome by combined British and American squadrons. Successive formations, flying very low, released their bombs on hangars, machines on the ground, and hutments. Six machines on the ground were destroyed by fire and two more by direct hits; two large Gothas and several smaller hangars were enveloped in flames.

GIANT IN THE U. S. ARMY.
Mississippi Negro Six Feet Eight Who Weighs 365 Pounds.
The systematic plan whereby a civilian recruit is converted quickly into a khaki-clad individual, soon after he reaches camp, ran against a snag when the quartermaster attempted to fit a negro who arrived with a contingent of boys from Mississippi. The young man loomed up like a genuine Goliath. He is six feet eight inches tall, weighs 365 pounds and as to shoes-well, after due measurements were made it was estimated that he needed a pair of 21s-and "where ain't no such." Officers at the receiving station were in a dilemma. They had a consultation and decided to call in outside experts. Togs and shoes for the new recruit must be made to order. So a shoemaker and tailor were summoned from Junction City, and they agreed to assume the responsibility for uniforming the dusky giant from the southland. The shoes made for him are seventeen inches long, and there is just three times the quantity of cloth in his uniform that the average uniform requires. His comrades from Mississippi declare he is strong, even beyond his size.-Camp Funston despatch in Kansas City Star.

PARENT-BELINGWOOD.
 A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bellingwood, 174 Adelaide street, on Tuesday, when their only daughter, Gladys Averis, was united in marriage to Cole W. Partridge by Rev. I. W. Williamson, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father and she looked charming in a suit of African brown and picture hat to match and set of blue and white, a present of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. Many beautiful presents were received, consisting of linen, cut glass and silver; and a substantial check from the parents of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Partridge left on the Fredericton train for a tour of the province and on their return will reside at 109 St. James street. Among the out of town guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Y. Daboll of Grand Manan.

NEW HONOR TO A ST. JOHN FAMILY IN HONORABLE RECORD
Sergeant Major James Strachan Has Won the Distinguished Conduct Medal
 Another honor has come to a family whose military record already was an enviable one. Mrs. J. Erickson of 179 Brittain street, who has just been advised that her son, Sergeant-Major James Strachan, had been slightly wounded, has also received word that he has been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal for gallantry in the field of battle. He was struck by shrapnel while carrying a wounded officer to his battalion to a place of safety through a region swept with shot and shell, and it is believed that his action in risking his life to save that of his officer is responsible for the decoration.

LIEUTENANT T. M. BELL
Military Cross Won by Son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell—He is Wounded But Coming on Well—A Stirring Story of War
 A brief despatch received over the press wires today tells with official correctness of the gallant deeds of a local boy. Only a few words are used in the telling but they convey a story of utmost gallantry and splendid achievement. The colleague reads:
 "Several other officers have been decorated for gallantry during raids. They include Lieut. Thomas Moffett Bell, St. John, N. B., who killed fifteen Germans, captured one, and drove the remainder into our barrage."
 It is a matter for regret that the official records do not tell more of this heroic incident, for the hero of the achievement, with modest reticence, does not seem inclined to tell the story himself. In time, perhaps, witnesses of his deeds may give to his friends a record which will do justice to the valor which the despatch indicates.
 Early in August his family heard indirectly that Lieutenant Bell had won the military cross but a request for information merely brought the reply from him that it was his men who were entitled to the credit and the decoration, rather than himself.
 Lieutenant Bell, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell of St. John and Robbsey, had graduated from the Rothesay Collegiate School and entered upon his studies in King's University at Windsor, N. S., when war was declared. He lost little time in returning home to enlist and promptly enrolled in November, 1914, in the now famous Fighting 20th Battalion, in which he was assigned to the signal section. In order to be with weak Brock of Rothesay, an intimate friend, who since then has given his life on the battlefield, he transferred to the C. A. S. C. and left St. John with that unit in April, 1915. While in England he secured his commission but, moved by a desire to get into the real fighting, sought his transfer to the infantry. When this went through and after a period of training in England, he went to France as a subaltern in the 25th Nova Scotia battalion. He received a shrapnel wound in the shoulder at Paschendale but remained on duty.
 It was at the beginning of last August that the raid in which he so distinguished himself occurred and in which he won the military cross. He was given leave, already overdue, and left for England on August 7. The first news that he received on his arrival was of the part his battalion had taken in the beginning of the big drive when his unit bore its full share of the fighting and paid the price in heavy losses of officers and men. He returned to his home only a few days later was wounded with shrapnel in the shin, which necessitated his removal to a base hospital. Dr. Stanley Bridges, son of Dr. H. S. Bridges of this city, and who went overseas with a Harvard medical unit, happened to be attached to the staff of a nearby hospital and soon came across Lieutenant Bell, who had been his pupil while he was acting as instructor at the Rothesay College a few years ago. In a reassuring letter to Lieutenant Bell's mother, Captain Bridges says the wound is slight and has nearly healed.
 Lieutenant Bell enlisted when barely of military age and is now but twenty-two years of age. His sister, Miss Katharine, is overseas, having devoted the last two years to voluntary work with the Soldiers' Field Comforts Commission in England.

DOCTOR'S ADVICE
 Local Physician Has a Word to Say About Spanish Influenza
 A local physician remarked today that if fear of Spanish influenza resulted in a cessation of the habit many people have of coughing or sneezing in their neighbors' faces it would do a vast deal of good. It is not only a filthy but a dangerous habit. Nor is it enough, he said, to cough or sneeze behind your hand. In every case a handkerchief should be used.
 In Quebec.
 Quebec, Oct. 2.—The dreaded Spanish gripe has broken out here amongst the soldiers quartered at the drill hall and in the citadel and as a result both barracks have been quarantined, about 1,000 men are affected by the order.
 Several cases developed today in the plant of the Northern American Arms Company, five men having taken the disease.
 A special meeting of the municipal board of health is called for this afternoon. Coroner Jolicoeur has announced that he will give out figures, facts and names to prove that there were cases here and that the civic health bureau closed its eyes to the gravity of the situation.
 Rife in Vermont.
 Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 2.—Dr. H. L. Paine, inspector for the Vermont board of health, announced last night there are 1,200 cases of Spanish influenza in this city and 2,000 in Barre.
 Halifax Doctors Help.
 Halifax, Oct. 2.—The medical profession of Halifax decided yesterday to answer the urgent call of the state of Massachusetts for medical assistance to fight the spread of Spanish influenza, accepting the offer of Dr. Lassel, Dr. Thomas and Dr. McDougall to proceed to Boston this morning. Several detachments of nurses are already doing excellent work in Boston. Governor McCall of Massachusetts has wired a letter of thanks to Lieut.-Governor Grant from the commonwealth.

CANADIAN OFFICIAL RECORD, WEEKLY ISSUE.
 Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The first number of the Canadian Official Record, which is to be published weekly under the direction of M. E. Nichols, director of public information, was issued yesterday. It contains, in full, all recent orders-in-council, covering important matters relating to the war and domestic problems dealt with by the government.

AMONG BEST OF CANADA'S DOGS IN LOCAL SHOW
 The tenth annual bench show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club was opened this afternoon in St. Andrew's rink and from all over the province the most successful ever held in the maritime provinces. There are 215 entries in the show and many of these are the finest dogs in Canada. Included in the list are Alredales, Boston terriers, wire-haired terriers, Irish terriers, Scotch terriers, collies, bulldogs, St. Bernards and sporting dogs. The large entry list and the success so far attained can be largely attributed to the untiring efforts of the president of the N. B. Kennel Club, Walter C. McKay, who has worked day and night in an effort to make the show the best ever held east of Montreal.
 C. H. Davis of New York, who is reputed to be one of the best judges in the United States, is in the city and will be in charge of the awards. He commenced judging at 8 o'clock this afternoon and will continue until he has completed the entire entry list.
 Champion greyhounds, crack Alredales, valuable bulldogs and prize collie dogs have arrived at the show from Toronto and Montreal and bid fair to clean up some of the prizes. Included in the outside entries is the famous cocker spaniel Oakley Magnie, from Toronto. This dog has been winning all over the country and will in all probability achieve new honors here. John McNeely of Fredericton has sent in nine entries and competition between these and local dogs should be keen.
 Among the large number of local entries are some exceptionally well bred dogs in many classes and not a few of the St. John fanciers are anticipating cleaning up big prizes at the show. Among the Irish terriers are three crack dogs. One was entered by W. George Gray, Crowe Gill Fannie, by Champion Vickers; Ignite and Crowe Gill Shellas. Another is Maritime Michael, owned by R. Magee, imported from Pittsburgh, and a third is Coast Native Boffie, a six-months old puppie imported from Toronto.
