(Special to Times.) Moncton, N. B., Nov. 27.—A joint committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors is in session here preparing the schedule of pay to be submitted to General Manager Gutelius of the I. C. R. When a joint committee met here last summer to confer with the management there was trouble over the question of a general raise of pay to the conductors and brakemen. A new system of running passenger crews resulted in the setting back of thirty brakemen and this led to a strained situation that the management finally restored the old passenger status.

Epervaux, France, Nov. 27.—Two military aviators were burned to death here yesterday. The aeroplane in which they were flying dashed into a tree and burst into flames. The men were burned beyond recognition. A fire engine met with the mishap when the aviators were making a landing. Policeman Brings Runaway To Earth

Henry Edge Then Fired Three Shots as he Fleed Before Pursuing Constable—Bullet From Latter's Revolver Lodges in Neck and Chases Ends

(Canadian Press) Montreal, Nov. 27.—With a .22-calibre revolver, Henry Edge first fired point blank at a girl at the corner of Hutchison and Laurier streets last night and then fired three shots at a policeman who chased him up Park avenue. At last he fell near the corner of Fairmount avenue with a bullet from Constable Chiodini's revolver in his neck. It was a dramatic chase that ended in the fugitive's downfall. One bullet from Edge's revolver passed between Constable Chiodini's legs, as the policeman followed close in the wake of the runaway. Another bullet shattered the window of a drug store. Once again Edge blazed at the policeman, who finally realized that it was a matter of the fugitive's life against his.

EXPLAINING IT TO LADY.

The Excess Baggage Rule Was a New One to Her, But She Was Equal to the Occasion.

"We will have to charge you excess baggage on that trunk, ma'am." "Excess baggage? What is that?" "We charge extra for all trunks over a certain size." "But they never wanted to charge me extra for this trunk before."

"It's a new rule." "Absurd. Why, I have hardly anything in it. One man carried it down stairs and put it into the wagon, and he was a little bit of a man, too."

"It doesn't make no difference how light it is. We have to charge by the size."

"Where's the head man here?" "He isn't around now, but it wouldn't make any difference. He couldn't change the rule."

"Here's a quarter for you. Now check that trunk right away. It's getting so that one can't get anything done without tipping."

"I'm sorry, ma'am, but I can't check the trunk unless you pay the excess." "I just offered you a quarter, didn't I?"

"That ain't enough. It'll cost you $1.25." "I won't be robbed in this way. I'll see the president of the company just as soon as I get back. Hurry and check that trunk. I have no time to fool with you any longer. And I shan't give you the quarter now, either."

"I don't want your quarter, but that trunk can't go unless you pay the excess." "Goodness sakes, how exasperating. Here's 50 cents. Now give me my check. I never saw anything so barefaced in all my life."

"I told you before it was $1.25." "Lift the end of it. It's almost as light as a feather. I don't suppose it weighs half as much as that little trunk next to it."

"Do you mean to tell me that you charge tall people more than you do short people for riding on your trains?" "No. They all go for the same price."

"Then why have you the brass to stand there and tell me you charge extra for trunks merely because they happen to be big?"

"Thanks is different from people." "Do you know what I think of you?" "I'm sorry, ma'am, but I got to obey the rules."

"Well, I suppose if I've got to be robbed I may as well give in and be done with it. Here's 65 cents. Now that's all you're going to get. Give me my check right away."

"It's $1.25, ma'am." "For goodness sake, man, why do you insist on $1.25. Have you a sick child or what is the matter?"

"The excess amounts to that much." "Don't speak to me again about excess. I hate that word. If you mention it again I'll scream. Will you take $1 and be satisfied?"

"It's $1.25."

"I'm sorry, ma'am, but I can't check the trunk unless you pay the excess."

"JUST FOR FUN OF IT"

700 Evidence in Connection with Augusta Asylum Inquiry

ists, Maine, Nov. 27.—Testimony of an attendant, J. J. McKenney, a patient in the Augusta State Hospital for the Insane, "just for the fun of it," was given yesterday by Charles H. Pullen, a former attendant, at the hearing on charges of mismanagement against Dr. Henry W. Miller, the superintendent. Pullen said that a nurse had instructed him not to feed one of the patients, as he was vain. The witness said that the patient received no nourishment, and died two days later.

IS THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE

Looking forward to health and life it is possible that you are not doing the conditions necessary to attain it. Careful eating and abstemious preservation of the vitality of the digestive and excretory organs, is of the greatest importance.

It has been rather pertinently suggested that the "time-worn" safety of Discipline First. The idea is one that will probably "summed it up" for many coal engineers. While revolutionary in character, it offers a more tangible basis for procedure and there are many who will, no doubt, believe that it is an attack at the root of the trouble.

Of the total fatalities, both inside and outside of the mines, it is well known that nearly half of these are due to falls of various kinds. Is it not a fact that one of the most rigid rules at all mines is that timbering must be kept up to the face so that every place will be safe? It is clear, therefore, that we have a single case (and one which is responsible for half of our total fatalities) in which the trouble is either directly or indirectly a violation of rules.

Local Film Favorites in Two Good Pictures—Pleasing Musical Numbers

A two reel drama of western military life entitled "Trooper Billy" was presented yesterday at the Gen Theatre by the Kaleem Co., with local favorites—among them Gen Blackwell—in the cast. It was a powerful drama of love, honor and adventure, and scored a distinct success with those who witnessed its presentation. The scenes were capably depicted and the various roles were taken most successfully.

In addition to this feature there was a Vitaphone comedy "An Elopement at Home" given with such favorites as Norma Talmadge, Leo Delaney and Wm. Shea taking part, and they certainly provoked the heartiest laughter amongst the Gen audiences. E. A. Albee had a pleasing song number and the orchestra under H. W. Burahans' direction played many charming novelties. This programme will be given again this evening.

SANDS OF THE DESERT

The Real Barren Spots of Northern Africa Have Hills and Valleys Just Like Any Other Section.

Sand as a feature of desert landscapes is not so prominent, as ordinarily supposed. Dunes of size are to be found in few places in America away from the seashore, but in Northern Africa most extensive areas are occupied by huge ridges. One may travel for days without seeing either a mound or the unbroken stretches of sand which figure so largely in literature.

Despite these facts, there is enough of fine particles of dust and broken rock present everywhere to become unpleasantly noticeable in a wind. One soon becomes accustomed to grit in the pockets, but when it finds a resting place in the footgear it becomes really obtrusive.

The least motion of the air disturbs the finer dust on the surface of the ground, and with increasing force of the wind larger particles are lifted and moved along, pelting and abrading everything in their path. The downward action of rain and streams carries mountains and hills into ridges and gullies, double-page engraving, text illustrations, and educational charts, all for one coupon and $1.98.

The wearing action of the horizontally moving sand blast results in rounded contours much like half an egg, behind which there is no real shelter. When looking for a camping place at the close of the day, Abou Salen would maneuver to leeward of a small hill, seeking for a spot in which the blast sand was falling, for no place would be entirely free from it if there was any wind motion. When he came to a quieter place which might be directly against the blast

A GREAT REFORM

A full report of the great speech made the other day by Mr. Lloyd George, on land reform as it relates to conditions in towns and cities, reveals the British government's plan as one which goes to the root of the whole trouble and promises splendid results.

The speaker concerned himself in his address with the land problem in its relation to town planning, housing, and every sort of municipal improvement, including better facilities for transport between congested districts in the city and the suburbs in the country.

Mr. Lloyd George pointed out that the prosperity of the country and of the town are inter-dependent. Neither can prosper if the other is in a state of decay. It was most important to improve the conditions in the rural districts, but just as important to relieve the grievances to which a mistaken policy with regard to land has given rise in the cities and towns.

Land enters into everything in the town, or the industry of the town, the trade and commerce, the recreation of the town, the education of children, sanitation, water, light, and housing. Land enters as an essential element into every one of these conditions.

The speaker here observed that in making this statement he was not using the language of politicians, but of medical officers of health, who pointed to many a district in most of the towns where the dwellings were unfit for human habitation, and were a scandal and a disgrace to a civilized country.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27
The Hon. Sir Allen Aylesworth, former minister of justice in the Laurier government, is fifty-nine years of age today.

Lt. Col. Richard Cobdigan of Montreal, who is prominent in military circles and has been president of the Dominion Artillery Association, was born in Montreal on Nov. 27, 1860.

W. D. Dimock, a prominent citizen of Truro, N. S., and editor of the News, is sixty-seven years old today.

Sammy was not prone to overexertion in the classroom; therefore his mother was both surprised and delighted when he came home one noon with the announcement: "I got 100 this morning."

"Do you know, Miss Huff, I have just read of an artist who painted such wonderful life-like cobwebs on the ceiling of his studio that his servant devoted an hour to trying to brush them down."

Little Anna received three dolls among her Christmas gifts. Her abundant supply caused her to become slightly restless, and one day an arm came off, exposing the sawdust stuffing.

"Does the baby talk yet?" asked a friend of the family of the little brother. "Naw," replied the little brother disgustedly, "he don't need to talk. All he has to do is yell, and get everything in the house worth having."

A musician once wrote that he had Struss' "Elektra" or his "Domestic Symphony" always made him think of the old Scotch piper who said: "Ah, there's a nice night I shall never forget. There were 19 pipers beside myself in a wee bit parish a' playin' different tunes. I just thought I was in heaven."

An Odorous Spirit
A woman who attended a spiritualistic seance was invited by the medium to go up to the cabinet and receive a message from the one who has departed to the other side of life.

The imperfectness of a hand-drawn circle, the unevenness of a badly formed cube, the sodden glare of a fish's eye, are comparable to the faults of imperfect diamonds.

A certain bishop with rather a reputation for verbosity rose to address the House of Lords on some important question. He began "I shall divide my speech into 12 heads." His listeners shivered and thought of the door.

At the close of his address he got on his legs and begged to interpose a little anecdote. "A friend of mine," said the noble marquis, "was returning home late one night, when, opposite St. Paul's, he saw a drunken man trying to ascertain the time on the big clock there. At the moment it began to strike, and slowly tolled out 12. The man listened, looked hard at the clock and said, 'Confound you, why couldn't you have said that all at once!'"

The chamber, needless to say, resounded with laughter, in which the noble lord joined heartily; and what was more, he looked the part.

AMERICAN GREEKS

RETURN FROM WAR
New York, Nov. 27.—Two hundred Greeks who left this country at the outbreak of the Turkish-Balkan war to fight in their country's battles, returned yesterday, arriving here on the steamship Ionian. Many of them saw service in the big engagements of the conflict.

The Ionian was purchased by the Greek Line to take the place of the company's steamer Macedonia, which was torpedoed by the Turks during the war, in which she was employed as a transport.

And the sups, I wren, is in between,
And they're grinding him fine, to gether!

For the owners howl for profits
And the miners howl for pay,
And both sides whoop at the poor old
Sups.

He always sleeps with his boots on

By study and fret and toil and sw
He's mastered the mining craft,

MEANS COAL COMPANY MUST QUIT ON DEC. 1

Mr. McLellan—Yes, I would refuse both although it would be fair to give them a reasonable time to get out.

Commissioner Wignore seconded the resolution, saying that the only terms on which he would approve of re-opening the matter would be on the promise of the company to roof over the entire West Side flats and the passenger enclosure.

Commissioner McLellan—I have no desire to crush out the Dominion Coal Company of the C. P. R. but I do feel that the feelings of the people must be met and satisfied.

TUMOR IN THE STOMACH

Completely Removed When She Took "Fruit-tives"

Newbury, Ont., April 4th, 1913. "Some years ago, I was sick in bed, and thought I was going to die. I had a growth in my stomach, which the doctors said was a tumor and they said that the only thing to do was to go to the hospital and have the tumor cut out.

At this time, my mother in Alvinston sent to me some "Fruit-tives" and I decided to try them as she had heard of another woman who had been cured of a similar growth in the stomach by taking "Fruit-tives."

To please my mother, I began to take "Fruit-tives" with the happy result that they cured me. I have not been to see a doctor since and my health is first-class.

"I recommend "Fruit-tives" every time I get a chance and I will be glad to have you publish this letter as some other woman may now be a sufferer from the same trouble and "Fruit-tives" will cure her.

Tories Oppose Fair Play To Moncton and Eastward

(Moncton Transcript) Our esteemed contemporary, The Chatham, N. B. World, still hangs away at the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway to Moncton, and in that respect it is a consistent supporter of Premier Fleming, who declares it to be "a colossal blunder." The World, however, does not see how the Liberals can condemn Mr. Fleming, for building the Valley Railway, but the Liberals do not condemn him or anybody else for building the Valley Railway. The Liberals in this section of the province take a broad view of the rights of other parts of the province to fair play and consideration, and are willing to give and take. The Moncton Liberals have even gone so far as to place on record their approval of the Valley Railway, but they object to the exclusion of the Grand Trunk Pacific in its construction to Moncton, from the favor of a premier, who should be impartial in his desire to develop all parts of the province. Here is what the Moncton Liberals at their Club meeting on Friday evening last by resolution declared, and in that resolution, they practically swept away the whole of the contention set forth by our Chatham contemporary. The resolution is as follows:—

Moved by J. T. Hawke, seconded by R. A. Stevens. "That Whereas, the Hon. Mr. Fleming, premier of the province of New Brunswick, in a speech delivered at St. John a few days since, declared the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway to the city of Moncton was a colossal blunder; and Whereas, he further declared that he was supporting the construction of the Valley Railway so-called as a means of correcting the alleged colossal blunder, caused by the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific to Moncton; and Whereas, the construction of the Valley Railway originally proposed under Liberal rule, was as a means of developing trade and commerce down the valley of the river St. John, which is a proposal standing upon its own merits, without any hostility towards the development of the central portion of the province and the connection of the Grand Trunk Pacific with the city of Moncton;—

"Therefore, be it resolved, that this Moncton Liberals Club unanimously condemns the ill name of the Hon. Mr. Fleming that the Grand Trunk Pacific construction to Moncton city was a colossal blunder, as being an utterance unworthy of a statesman who, as premier, should be impartial towards all sections of the province in carrying out and supporting a policy of general development;—

"And Therefore, be it further resolved, that this Club will with unremitting effort continue to oppose the present provincial government and seek to replace it by provincial statesmen, who take a broad statesmanlike view of their duties respecting the development of the industrial, commercial and natural resources of the province, on lines consonant with the general well-being and not inimical to the interests of any section thereof."

But the Daily Gleaner of Fredericton is also heard from. It is even worse than The Chatham World. It fails to take into recognition the fact that there is a large portion of the province of New Brunswick, which has rights as well as the portion forming its constituency, and it also ignores that there is the great province of Nova Scotia lying beyond.

Here is what it says:— Had he (Premier Fleming) said that in building the road along the route chosen, the Laurier government, committed an infamous fraud, or a gigantic steal, he would have been a good deal nearer the truth, than when he described it as only a "blunder." Even "crime" would be better. The excuse was made at the time that to build the road down the St. John valley would cost an infinitely greater amount of money than to take it across the province."

What narrow sectionalism is displayed by our Fredericton Tory contemporary! What has the question of relative cost to do with the matter? The people of Nova Scotia have rights as well as the people of New Brunswick. This journal has never seen any logical objection to the construction of the Valley Railway, and giving the people of St. John an opportunity of shorter connection with the west, even if the grades be greater. Here we are willing to bear as a people, our share of the cost of constructing the Valley Railway, operated and controlled as a part of the Intercolonial Railway system, but on the other hand we take the ground that the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway to Moncton was an act of justice to this part of the province and to the outlying portions of Canada east of us.

And Whereas, the construction of the Valley Railway originally proposed under Liberal rule, was as a means of developing trade and commerce down the valley of the river St. John, which is a proposal standing upon its own merits, without any hostility towards the development of the central portion of the province and the connection of the Grand Trunk Pacific with the city of Moncton;—

"Therefore, be it resolved, that this Moncton Liberals Club unanimously condemns the ill name of the Hon. Mr. Fleming that the Grand Trunk Pacific construction to Moncton city was a colossal blunder, as being an utterance unworthy of a statesman who, as premier, should be impartial towards all sections of the province in carrying out and supporting a policy of general development;—

"And Therefore, be it further resolved, that this Club will with unremitting effort continue to oppose the present provincial government and seek to replace it by provincial statesmen, who take a broad statesmanlike view of their duties respecting the development of the industrial, commercial and natural resources of the province, on lines consonant with the general well-being and not inimical to the interests of any section thereof."

Evangelist McPherson's Sermon in Douglas Avenue Church Last Evening

Evangelist Lowell C. McPherson preached last evening in the Douglas Avenue Christian church on the subject, "True Heroism." Mark 12:41-44 and Mark 14:1-9 were the lesson passages of scripture. Mr. McPherson said in part:— "Here the Holy Spirit conspicuously records the heart-felt offerings of two inconspicuous women, and Jesus commended their acts, stating that what Mary of Bethany did would be published wherever His gospel would be preached. One of these women was a poor widow among the rich and the other was a woman whose unalloyed love for her Master prompted her to make Him an offering of the most costly material possession she had as an expression of her gratitude to Him. These women regarded not such offerings as sacrifice. Sincere devotion to God is never regarded by the one rendering it as a sacrifice. "There were some standing by who measured what these women did by human standards of property and propriety. But Jesus' esteem of the heart is not of the intellect nor learning, nor bank stock. Expressive desire of over-burdened hearts overflowing in love is the richest offering to God. There is nothing too costly to express the most valuable thing in the world—disinterested love. "Heroism is not always conspicuous. It is most often unregistered by mankind, but never passed by unnoticed by our Heavenly Father. There are hard-working fathers and mothers as true as steel to God and to their children, in prayer and love and industry, who are among the greatest heroes and heroines of earth. Heroism puts in peril the lower for the higher elements of our being. "A cowardly man can never be a hero on occasions. Heroism must be in the very heart and fibre of a man. Then occasions discover to the world what God knows. "It is cowardly to reject Jesus Christ, to justify scepticism and infidelity. "The Power of Faith" is the subject for this evening.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have headache and dull misery in the kidney regions, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the ash of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble. Lucky Fish Don't Cackle A man was being shown over a trout farm. "Ah!" he said thoughtfully, "Provided I knew what it was doing when it made fishes cackleless." "How do you mean?" he was asked. "Well, I understand that fishes lay millions of eggs every year. What if they cackled like hens over every egg they laid?"

When the knee got warm, it burned worse, and the itching and burning and smarting were almost unbearable. I tried various remedies, but got no better, so I decided to go to Montreal and take special treatment. I received treatment at the Montreal General Hospital for thirteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was not cured, and almost gave in. A friend advised me to give Zam-Buk a trial.

MAINE'S EFFORT TO PUT BAN ON OUR POTATOES

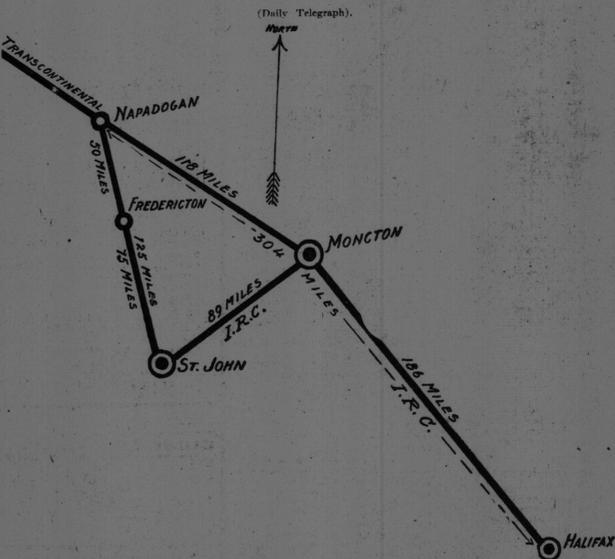

Writing to the Bangor Commercial on the protest against Canadian potatoes being allowed across the border, W. A. Martin of Houlton, says: "Pottery scab of potatoes, a disease long prevalent in Europe, has obtained a foothold in Canada. Specimens from many fields of New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia showed typical and pronounced cases. This disease is now in America and there is not much definite data, but English pathologists consider it very destructive."

ST. JOHN'S GRAVE DANGER OF LOSING THE G. T. P. TRAFFIC UNLESS THIS PORT WAKES UP

Branch Line of Fifty Miles From Napadogan to Fredericton Must Be Built to Give G. T. P. Short Cut to This Port, and Gagetown—St. John Section Must Be Rushed—G. T. P. Will Be Hauling Through Freight Next Summer, and How Will St. John Get It?

THE DIAGRAM SHOWS HOW ST. JOHN WOULD GET THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC TRAFFIC IF THE TRANSCONTINENTAL HAD A CONNECTION WITH THE VALLEY RAILWAY AT FREDERICTON. THIS NECESSARY LINK, THE FIFTY MILES FROM NAPADOGAN TO FREDERICTON, IS NOT EVEN SURVEYED. ALSO, THERE IS THE GAGETOWN-ST. JOHN LINK, NOT YET BEGUN, UNLESS THESE ARE BUILT AT ONCE ST. JOHN'S GREAT ADVANTAGE OF 179 MILES OVER HALIFAX IS LOST. THE DISTANCES SHOWN ON THE DIAGRAM INDICATE ST. JOHN AS THE OBVIOUS WINTER PORT OF THE G. T. P. BUT—READ THE STORY BELOW.

Do the people of St. John realize their position with respect to the through export and import freight of the Grand Trunk Pacific? The G. T. P. will be hauling freight over the National Transcontinental next summer. How is the freight to come to St. John?

From Napadogan to St. John, via Fredericton and the Valley Railway, is 125 miles. From Napadogan to Halifax, via Moncton, is 304 miles. But the line from Napadogan to Halifax is built and in operation, while the line from Napadogan to Fredericton is not even surveyed, and there is as yet no real sign that the Valley Railroad company is going to build, within a reasonable time, the section of railway between Gagetown and St. John, even if the route has been finally decided upon. Hon. Mr. Fenning in his last public utterance on this question deemed it unwise, or inexpedient, even to say on which side of the St. John river this part of the railway will be built.

Now, unless the branch line is built from Napadogan to Fredericton, a distance of fifty miles, the G. T. P. will have no short cut into St. John. To build this branch line from Napadogan to Fredericton is going to cost somebody $2,000,000 or $2,500,000. But, so far as St. John is concerned, this Napadogan branch is the key to the whole transportation situation. Without that branch—and unless it is built in time—St. John is hopelessly side-tracked in spite of its decisive advantage, normally, in point of distance.

A glance at the diagram printed herewith shows that St. John is the natural objective point for the G. T. P. freight. From Napadogan to Fredericton, and on to St. John, the engineers will find a grade not exceeding twenty-one feet in the mile or four tenths of one per cent, the standard grade of the National Transcontinental.

To haul freight past Napadogan is to haul it away from tide water, and to haul it past Moncton is not only to haul it away from tide water but to haul it up hill, for some of the intercolonial grades are more than 100 feet in the mile; and a train which could be hauled easily by one locomotive over the Transcontinental to Napadogan, and through Fredericton to St. John, would have to be divided, or would require two engines, to haul it over the Cobequid range to Halifax, 304 miles from Napadogan, up hill and down, as compared with 125 miles practically level from Napadogan to St. John. To glance at the diagram, showing the comparative distances, and to know the grade, is to be convinced, of hand, that St. John is the port that must get the G. T. P. business; but, to repeat, the road from Napadogan to Halifax by way of Moncton is built and in operation, and not a tap has been struck on the necessary link from Napadogan to Fredericton, or on the link from Gagetown to St. John, which, if the eastern route is followed, must include two very difficult and expensive bridges over the St. John and Kennebec rivers.

If the Province of New Brunswick and the City of St. John are alive to their interests, if, indeed, the fair rules of national transportation are to be followed, steps must be taken at once to induce the Dominion Government and the National Transcontinental to come to terms respecting the construction of the necessary line from Napadogan to Fredericton and its rapid completion, together with the completion of the Valley Railway from Gagetown to St. John.

Unless these links are arranged for—unless this proposition is nailed down—this city and this province must be contented to see the freight of the G. T. P. carried to a port 179 miles more distant from Napadogan than St. John.

What are the Mayor and the Commissioners of St. John, and the St. John Board of Trade, and the business leaders of the community going to do about it?

It must be remembered, also, that with the precedent of the Gutelius-Bostworth agreement before us, the G. T. P. will be in a position to demand Gutelius rates over the Intercolonial from Moncton to Halifax, a concession of the most dangerous character inasmuch as it would mean practically wiping out 179 miles of extra distance for the benefit of Halifax and to the injury of St. John.

What is the use of constructing terminal facilities at Courtney Bay so long as there is no provision to build the spur from Napadogan to Fredericton and to have the G. T. P. use it and reach St. John by the shortest feasible route?

Once more, what do the Mayor and Commissioners, and the St. John Board, and all others who have a stake in St. John, propose to do about it?

SEEK TRADE AND MINISTERS

Twin Campaigns Now Being Carried on For Canada in Old Country

(Times Special Correspondence) London, Nov. 11.—During the year there has been a great awakening of interest in the part of British manufacturers as to the value of the Canadian market, and C. F. Roland, publicity commissioner of Winnipeg, who is at present in London, is finding very promising conditions for his work of impressing British manufacturers with the industrial opportunities which exist in Winnipeg.

It is too early to say that his efforts have any tangible results up to the present, but it may be said with confidence that the sequel of his visit may be the establishment of more British industries in the western city. His visit has given rise to the very sensible suggestion that the publicity commissioners and secretaries of boards of trade and other similar officials might visit their respective cities, make periodical visits to this country. By all accounts, the British manufacturer is a very somnolent person, very largely oblivious of the trade openings in various parts of the dominion. It is felt that a very effective way of bringing about a change would be to send over energetic official representatives competent to deal with the big industrial men of Great Britain.

Mr. Roland is also working in connection with the extension of the activities of the Imperial Home Re-Union Association.

Another Winnipeg man who is very much in the public eye at the present time is the Rev. A. B. Cousins. His search, however, is not for manufacturers, but for ministers. As the Lord Bishop of Bristol, who presided at one of his meetings, said, Canada offered one of the most important problems which faced the Church of England today.

Appeals have been made indiscriminately in different parishes, dioceses, and towns and it has become necessary to form a body that will call itself the Church of England Fund for work in Canada.

The needs for the work there were tremendous, said the bishop, and the Church of England should wake up and send workers over there in proportion as the population increased. At present they were giving some men to the work, but they should supplement them with money.

Rev. Mr. Cousins advanced an idea new on this side in support of his claim. Let England, he said, send them over some of their public school boys, and they would turn them into parsons. Their education would cost less and be equally good, and such persons would get into the spirit of the country in a way that an ordained man sent out to Canada would never be able to do.

Rev. W. R. Adams of Qu'Appelle, has also been here prosecuting similar work, and in various parts of the country is meeting with success. Rev. T. A. Horne of Saskatchewan, is addressing large audiences on the same theme, and Bishop Robins of Athabasca is giving most interesting accounts of his work in North-West Canada.

Home Missions. The home mission committee of the Presbyterian Synod met in Halifax on Tuesday last. Rev. James Ross, superintendent of missions; Rev. Gordon Dickie, convener for the presbytery of St. John, and Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, members of the committee, returned to the city last evening. The report of student missionaries was one of the chief items on the docket of business. Between fifty and sixty students were employed in the home mission fields last summer, and more than thirty of those labored in New Brunswick. Six fields in the presbytery of St. John were self-sustaining this year, and only small grants were necessary for the others.

The reports from this province are more satisfactory as far as finances are concerned than those of any other province. A new departure was the permission given to the women's missionary society to appoint representatives to sit at the next meeting of the home mission board.

Discount Abolished. The Public Utilities Commission, yesterday afternoon granted permission to the New Brunswick Telephone Co. to abolish the discount to suburban long distance tolls between Sackville and Port Elgin, which was the request application filed by the company, months ago.

HON. W. S. FIELDING

(Halifax Recorder, Monday)

Hon. W. S. Fielding completed sixty-five years on Monday, and seldom has a life been filled with such concrete activities and notable accomplishment as that of this remarkable Nova Scotian. Neither title nor wealth smiled upon his cradle, but his own native energy, determination and ability were the "open sesame" to success. His public career may be said to have commenced on his taking a position with the "Chronicle". From one position to another he rose rapidly, evidencing great ability in each, but to lengthen the catalogue gave a splendid opportunity for the display of his genius.

As a political journalist he was a worthy compeer of George Brown, and his pen, though never dipped in gall, was the most formidable weapon of political controversy, ever wielded by any man in this province save only Joseph Howe, and the pen of Howe only surpassed the pen of Fielding in the quality of eloquence. At thirty-four he entered the local parliament. At thirty-six he became premier and held this position for twelve successive years, retiring in 1896 to accept the position of federal finance minister, which he retained for fifteen years, proving the greatest master of financial exposition in the history of the Dominion.

Measure after measure marked his occupancy of the position. He reduced the tariff rates, arranged the details of British preference, and transformed Canada from a deficit-record to a surplus-record nation. His tireless energy, his vast knowledge of political and economic details, his readiness, acumen and power in debate, his unflinching platform utterances, all combined to place him in the very forefront of imperial statesmen. Until the name of Fielding became almost as well known in Britain and Australasia as in the Dominion. His defeat on the reciprocity question was an incident in his career that gave no glory to his opponents and in no way detracted from his greatness or his fame, and their greatest error is lest he should be again returned to parliament for those who have temporarily taken his place are the very foremost of imperial statesmen.

He returns to Canada to edit the Montreal "Telegraph" and his return marks an era in Canadian present-day journalism.

SCHOOL TO BE OPENED ON MONDAY DEC. 1

Central Building the Place, Wm. S. Vial and Rex. R. Cormier Instructors

The evening technical school, conducted last winter in the Centennial school building by the board of school trustees, will be reopened on Monday evening, December 2nd.

There will be a class in elementary mechanical drawing on Monday and Wednesday evenings and one in advanced work on Friday evenings. Both these classes will be under the direction of R. K. Cormier, principal of the King Edward School.

There will also be a class on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in commercial arithmetic under the direction of Rex. R. Cormier, principal of the King Edward School.

The classes will start at seven p. m. A registration fee of $2 will be required for each student on admission to class, returnable on the basis of attendance as follows:—

Whole fee returned for 100 per cent attendance.

Four-fifths for 90 to 99 per cent attendance.

Two-thirds for 80 to 89 per cent attendance.

Three-fifths for 70 to 79 per cent attendance.

Two-fifths for 60 to 69 per cent attendance.

The fee is charged to insure attendance and it will be seen that any student who makes full time obtains his tuition absolutely free. Those wishing to join the classes should call at Centennial School on the evenings mentioned.

It may be hoped that much larger classes than last year will be formed, and that more young men will realize the great opportunity offered them to make themselves more competent and therefore able to earn good wages.

ANOTHER TORY ROW

Affairs in Western Section of County Are in a Pretty Turmoil

One wing of the Conservative party in this county is in active revolt and if satisfaction is not obtained there probably will be some secessions from the ranks.

The election of district officers on Tuesday evening, which was the occasion for several far-fetched rows about the city, is also the cause of the trouble in the county.

The scene of the strife is the parish of Musquash where W. J. Dean has long been regarded as the favorite of the parish forces. There have been complaints that his rule was neither wise nor just and this year plans were made to wrest the power from his grasp.

It has always been the custom to hold the various political meetings at the village of Musquash where Mr. Dean resides, and it has been whispered that sometimes members of the party in other sections of the parish were not notified of the meeting if it was suspected that they were not in favor of the continuance of the existing regime. This year his opponents stole a march on Mr. Dean and by the petitioning of the electors secured a change from Musquash to Chance Harbor. This was duly advertised before Mr. Dean became aware of his betrayal and, although he had the sympathy and support of the machine at headquarters, it was too late to make another change.

Instead of fighting for supremacy on new ground Mr. Dean adopted the original course of calling a meeting of his own at Musquash. The meeting was held and he was re-elected chairman, with Fred Thompson as vice-chairman and George Anderson as secretary.

In the meantime the regular convention was held at Chance Harbor and the man who was Mr. Dean's choice for vice-chairman, Fred Thompson, was elected chairman by the regulars who also chose Fred Cliback as vice-chairman and Burton Wynn as secretary.

If Mr. Dean's convention and his own election are not recognized by the party it is said that he will leave the party. Instead of crossing to the opposition, however, it is said that it is his intention to organize an independent party of his own within the county and make things lively generally for the politicians who have gone back on him.

NEW CHAPTER OF DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE IS ORGANIZED

A new chapter of the Daughters of the Empire was organized in this city yesterday at a meeting held for that purpose in the Opera House building. The election of officers took place and the organization was completed but no decisions were reached regarding the name of the new chapter nor the nature of the work which will be taken up. These matters will be dealt with at the next meeting. The officers elected were: Mrs. F. E. Sayre and Mrs. George K. McLeod, vice-regents; Mrs. Simon Jones, secretary; Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, treasurer; Mrs. M. H. Edwards, standard bearer.

BROTHERHOOD SOCIAL

The brotherhood of the Charlotte street United Baptist church, West End, gave a social in the vestry of the church last evening which was much enjoyed by a large number of people. The programme consisted of readings by Mrs. Archibald, Mr. Wasson, and Miss Beattie; dialogue by Mr. C. Campbell and Miss Campbell; piano solo, G. White; song in Telegu language by Miss Archibald and two solos by Mr. Lanyon. After games and refreshments the people dispersed feeling that the brotherhood had made a real hit in their first effort in this line.

SUBSIDIARY-MAYALL

An interesting wedding took place last evening at the Coronation House, Ben Lomond, when Miss Margaret Mayall, daughter of the proprietor, Charles Mayall, was united in marriage to Howard E. Sutcliffe. The bride was dressed in pale blue silk with an over-dress of lace. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Skinner. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Sutcliffe will reside at Ben Lomond. They received many presents from friends. The bride's traveling dress was of navy blue, tailor made.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

IN MARCH TO CATHEDRAL

Pontifical Mass Celebrated by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc

MEN MADE NICE TURN-OUT

New Feature Presence of Fourth Degree Men Wearing insignia—Exemplification of Degrees This Afternoon and Evening

Ideal weather conditions favored the Knights of Columbus of St. John Council, 987, today in their parade to the Cathedral, where they attended pontifical high mass, celebrated by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc. The knights presented a most creditable appearance as they marched along, the fourth degree members in the fore rank wearing their baldrics, then the general membership, and the officers of the council bringing up the rear. The City Cornet Band rendered several martial airs. The knights met in their headquarters in Coburg street and marched via Charlotte, north side King Square, Sydney and Waterloo streets.

Arrived at the Cathedral they found special pew reservations. In honor of the event, the altar was decorated with silken drapings in the colors of the Columbian order, the bishop's throne, and the pulpit also, and in addition to the colors, shields bearing the initials "K. of C." were in place, with "K. of C." crests about the feet of the altar. Assisting His Lordship were Rev. Wm. Duke, Rev. D. S. O'Keefe, Rev. M. O'Brien, and Rev. Miles Howley, while Rev. Father Donahue and Rev. Father Murphy, of Debeuc, were in the sanctuary with Very Rev. W. E. Chapman, V. G., who preached.

Monsignor Chapman, who has been chaplain of the council in St. John since its inception, gave a forceful and appealing sermon, dwelling upon the objects of the order, its success, growth and future. He referred to the incorporation of a body of ten or twelve men by Rev. M. J. McElvany in New Haven, Conn., in 1882, as the start of the order, and then traced the growth to the present encouraging standing of some 800,000 members, scattered throughout Canada and the United States in all of the principal and other cities.

The speaker compared the advance of the order with the sowing of the grain of mustard seed which grew to such large dimensions that it became a tree in the branches of which the birds of the air rested.

In stirring tones Father Chapman made reference to the chief objects of the order, dealing at some length upon the idea of fostering a strong spirit of Catholicity, spreading good example by conduct and speech, and practicing the great works of charity. Towards these objects as well as towards Catholic education he said the order had accomplished much. "Here in St. John," said the speaker, "we are just getting on our feet. We have established ourselves in a magnificent way, and now that we are so comfortably settled let us work to the benefit of our fellow citizens, good for others and endeavor to execute the objects for which we are organized. The church needs the help of the apostles of the laity. Let us show our wealth in numbers and example, even though our treasury is empty. Our example is the best sermon we can preach, so let us always endeavor to show by our conduct and word of mouth that we are valiant Knights of Columbus and in so doing help counteract the many heresies which are used to attack the church."

I expressed the hope that the Knights of Columbus would be the means of propagating true doctrines and defending the church without her enemies, from the onslaughts of socialism and other foes, as did Manning and Newman defend her manfully when she was assailed by the advocates of evolution. "Let us live good lives," said Father Chapman in his closing remarks, "and be ever ready to defend our religion, give good example by conduct and speech, and in so doing we shall be crowned with further blessings here below, and later receive the eternal blessing of the hereafter."

The chaplain was heard with close attention by the members present as well as by others who attended. His sermon was greatly enjoyed. Knight Arthur S. Godcoe presided at the organ and some members of the council augmented the choir.

After the mass the Knights again formed in line and returned to their rooms in Coburg street. There this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the first degree was exemplified before a class of about twenty candidates, while at four o'clock with a class of about forty-five candidates, the second degree was exemplified. This evening at eight o'clock the third degree will be exemplified with a class of about sixty-five candidates. Many visiting knights from other councils are expected in the city this afternoon to be present at the degree.

WEDDING THIS MORNING

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at the Church of St. John the Baptist, Broad street, when Miss Kathleen B. Collins was united in marriage to Wm. T. Lagough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter Donahue, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was given away by her brother, John Collins. She looked charming in a tailored suit of navy blue, with a pearl grey hat with ostrich plumes and carrying a white prayer book. She was attended by Miss Maud Readdy, who wore a suit of grey with a black paque velvet hat with white plumes. Angus Callaghan supported the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. G. Thompson, 208 Charlotte street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lagough left on the early train on a honeymoon trip to upper Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in Richibucto.

The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of mink furs; to the bride a pearl brooch and to the best man a set of gold cufflinks. Mr. and Mrs. Lagough were the recipients of many useful and costly presents of silver, glass and linen.
