THE DEATH OF ANNIS WAS DUE TO THE ACT OF GOD

Chief Counsel for Captain Peter C. Hains Makes This Statement in His Plea to the Jury—State Must Prove That Captain Hains Was Sane.

Flushing, May 10.—When court opened today John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for Captain Peter C. Hains Jr., on trial for killing Wm. E. Annis, began his last plea to the jury for his client. Mr. McIntyre said his summing up would occupy about four hours. There is a possibility that the case may go to the jury late today, but it is more likely that Justice Garretson will adjourn after both sides have their last word to the jury and deliver his charge tomorrow morning. In opening his plea Mr. McIntyre said: "It was the act of God that directed the course of Hains and when he took the life of the man who ruined his home, the meeting between Annis and the defendant was accidental, there was no intention to kill."

"The state intends to show that he was in a normal state of mind by a few cursory observations abstracted from a mass of matter even though his actions may have been rational at times, medical science shows that insane people often speak and act rationally. "Was it a mental shock sufficient to unbalance his mind when this unfortunate man learned of his wife's infatuation from her own lips? It was then that melancholy seized the emotions of his heart. He then and afterwards taunted and tortured his brain, accelerated his will and directed the course of his actions. "Mr. McIntyre criticised the state's hypothetical question and declared that the speech and conduct of the defendant as therein related was taken from unimpaired incidents, which might have occurred to any man sane or insane. "I do not deny that this man had lucid intervals and rational moments when he talked and acted like a normal man, many insane persons have such periods of rationality," said Mr. McIntyre.

PRACTICAL JOKE DROVE HIM INSANE

Seven-year-old Boy May Never Recover His Reason as the Result of Being Badly Frightened by Young Companions

Trecoma, Wash., May 10.—Baving in his childish fashion, hysterical beyond all efforts to quiet him, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sealey, around whose neck, in a spirit of fun, a companion, a week ago, wound a dead snake, may never recover his reason. The children were playing near the Sealey home, when one of them found a dead snake. Picking it up without being observed by the other children, he quietly approached the Sealey child from behind and suddenly wrapped it around his neck and wadded it so that the snake had jumped upon him. This sight of the snake, with the excited yell of the joker, and the fact that the child for a moment could not jerk the snake away from his throat, toppled the boy's reason.

PROPERTY LOSSES IN TURKISH RIOTS

American Missionary Stations Did Not Suffer Heavily During Anti-Christian Rioting in Asia Minor.

Constantinople, May 10.—A survey of the property losses during the recent anti-Christian riots in Asia Minor, shows that the American missionary stations did not suffer heavily. It is believed $100,000 will cover the American property losses. The only loss of life was at Adana, where the Rev. Henry Maurer and Daniel Minor Rogers, were shot down while attempting to put out a fire that threatened the missionary buildings here. The financial losses have been allotted as follows: In the province of Adana, $40,000; at Kessab, about the reported burning of the missionary buildings he confirmed, $30,000; and in the city of Adana, $1,500. This last was incurred through the pulling down or burning of buildings attached to the girls' school.

WHARFAGE COST $1,000

British Ship Norwood Laid up in East Boston 372 Days About to Sail With Cargo.

Boston, Mass., May 9.—For 372 days the British ship Norwood has been laid up in East Boston, her owners refusing charges which they said would not pay operating expenses. Wharfage has cost upward of $1,000 according to report, and the handsome craft, a familiar sight to persons who travel by ferry was regarded by some as a fixture of the water front. But the Norwood disappeared from her berth at the National docks Saturday, and people wondered when they saw her taking on sand at the ballast pier in South Boston. After a year's delay she is about to make a passage to Buenos Ayres with a full cargo of lumber, which will be loaded at Vermont, N. S. The sand will be used for ballast to her loading port.

BILLY WHITLA'S KIDNAPPERS SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY

James Boyle Goes to Western Penitentiary at Pittsburg for a Life Term While Mrs. Boyle is Sentenced to 25 Years, a $5,000 Fine and to Pay Cost of Prosecution

Merced, Pa., May 10.—James Boyle was sentenced today to imprisonment in the western penitentiary at Pittsburg for the kidnaping of Billy Whittle. Mrs. Boyle, indicted as Mary Doe, received a sentence of 25 years with a fine of $5,000, and the cost of the prosecution. Boyle did not utter a word prior to his sentence. His counsel however made a plea for both Boyle and his wife, pleading for leniency in both cases. He stated that until a recent period the extreme penalty for kidnaping in this state was ten years, and in view of the fact that the boy had been treated with every consideration and that all care had been taken not to inflict unnecessary mental anguish upon the parents he felt leniency might be asked for with propriety.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

Young Man Has His Foot Amputated as the Result of an Accident Which He Sustained While Practising Athletics.

R. staff, has been undergoing treatment at Victoria Hospital for the past year for illness caused by an accident which befell him while practising athletics. Recently the physicians found it necessary to amputate his foot. While his condition is serious, hope for his recovery has not been abandoned. POLICEMAN STABBED IN NEW YORK STREET

Man Arrested Ten Years Ago Takes Vengeance on Man Who Arrested Him.

New York, May 10.—Because Antonio Crizento, then a policeman, arrested Angelo Calvini in Italy ten years ago, he was stabbed twenty-six times early today in East 104th street. At the time of the arrest Calvini vowed vengeance and they met for the first time today. When a policeman arrived, Crizento was lying on his back on the sidewalk with his old enemy sitting on his chest and jabbing the blade of a pen-knife into his face and body. Although terrified, the hospital authorities say Crizento may not die because the blade of the knife was short.

ROOSEVELT SHOOT A BIG BULL RHINO

Ex-President's Hunting Party in British East Africa is Having Excellent Success

Nairobi, British East Africa, May 10.—From Ex-President Roosevelt's camp near Machakos, word was brought today that the luck of the party continues, and that fifteen varieties of game including a bull rhinoceros have been bagged on the last expedition. The rhinoceros was charging Mr. Roosevelt when the hunter fired. The distance was 14 paces, and the animal fell dead. The naturalists of the party are kept busy preparing the trophies which are brought in daily. Forty-five skins already have been prepared for the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

THE LA TOUR ROAD RACE

The intermediate road race to be held on the afternoon of the 18th under the auspices of La Tour Section T. H. is exciting much interest in sporting circles. It will be the biggest intermediate event held here for some years.

It is expected there will be 25 or 30 entries among them some of the fastest men in the province. The course will be from Spruce Lake to Market Square, W. E., finishing at Parson's Corner, a distance of 7 1/4 miles. One of the large automobiles from the Pugsley garage will probably convey the boys to the lake. Murray C. Brown has offered a handsome gold medal as 1st prize. R. H. Parsons, a silver for second and J. H. Belyea, a third. Entries will close on Saturday 10th inst. and should be sent to R. H. Parsons, W. E. before that date.

THE MAURETANIA MADE A NEW RECORD

Big Liner Arrived off Daunt's Rock This Morning Beating All Previous Records for an East Bound Trip Across the Atlantic

Queenstown, May 10.—The steamer Mauretania arrived off Daunt's Rock at 10.54 this morning, beating her own previous record and all other eastbound by 24 minutes. She would have done still better had she not been delayed by fog off Fastnet. Although an official announcement as to the exact time of the Mauretania's arrival in this case to extend imprisonment until any fine imposed has been paid. District Attorney Linger today issued the following statement: "I read in Pittsburg newspapers on Saturday and Sunday that a third party was alleged to have been implicated in the kidnaping of Billy Whittle, and also that this party is alleged to have been connected with an alleged murder in Youngstown, Ohio. For the purpose of giving Boyle and Mrs. Boyle an opportunity to bring this third party into the case, I visited them in jail yesterday and today asked them for the information which they claim to possess in regard to these matters. Both, however, continue to maintain the air of mystery which has characterized them, especially in view of the fact that I am making an investigation and should I find a particle of difference whom the prosecution may hit. In spite of the silence of the Boyles, Mercer County officials are going ahead with the investigation, and will proceed with such time as they are able to ascertain that the case can be either prosecuted vigorously or dropped entirely."

VANCOUVER MAY GIVE JAPANESE SHIPS A COOL RECEPTION

Residents of Pacific Coast City are Not Disposed to Be Particularly Friendly to Visiting Japanese Battleships—Celebration Will Be Badly Mixed

Vancouver, B. C., May 10.—(Special)—The celebration of the visit of the Japanese cruisers Aso and Matsuyama to Vancouver, B. C., is likely to be a badly mixed affair, as is shown by the marked position to the celebration arrangement in civic quarters. The civic finance committee, by a very decided majority, has turned down the recommendation of Mayor Douglas for a $1,000 donation to the militia officers in aid of a parade and entertainment expense. Mr. McMillan declared, when the militia deputation presented its request for an appropriation, that Vancouver ought rather to show the Japs "how well we are prepared to shoot them." Four aldermen out of five voted with Mr. McMillan, despite the protests of the militia men, that their action was against imperial ethics, and that Vancouver should entertain trade relations with Japan. The trades and labor council has also officially decided that no labor organizations should take any part whatever in the celebration. All this in the face of the published appeal of the mayor to the citizens to make the affair a success.

MISSION WORK IN THE CANADIAN WEST

Rev. W. T. Stackhouse Preached an Excellent Sermon on This Theme in Brussels St. Church Last Evening

Rev. W. T. Stackhouse, general secretary for Canada of the Baptist branch of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, gave a very interesting address in Brussels street Baptist church last evening. The work that had been done in western Canada in the past 35 years. He took for his text a verse in Nehemiah—"The work is great and large."

It was some 35 years ago, he said, that Alexander McKenzie, the pioneer missionary, who is a pioneer still, found his way to Winnipeg, and established a church in that fine little town. There were seven members of the church, including the missionary. Today there has been organized the Baptist convention of western Canada, four associations—one in each province, two conferences, one denominational paper, and two colleges, one in Brandon, Man., with about 300 students, and one in Sumnerland, B. C., with over 100 students.

There are now nearly 13,000 church members, 200 churches, 126 missionary stations, about 50 preaching stations. There are also 22 German, 18 Scandinavian, 3 Russian and 2 Galician churches, where the gospel is preached in those languages. In all there are 46 non-English churches, with a membership of 2,500, all of which were gathered together in the last 20 years.

The speaker told of the changes he had seen even in the last five years, telling where he had driven five years ago when night was seen but the coyote or the prairie hen, are now traversed by railways and the noise of industrial progress is heard.

WILL GO AFTER THE BEER MEN

Proprietors of Soft Beer Shops Who Kept Open After 5 O'clock on Saturday Last, Will Be Prosecuted.

Liquor License Inspector Jones and G. A. Henderson, the police court clerk, were in conference this morning, and it was definitely decided to institute proceedings against the proprietors of soft beer shops which were open after 5 o'clock on Saturday. On Saturday afternoon the inspector visited the stores of Myles Carroll, J. Connelly and T. Dracoll and notified them that they must close at the regulated hour regardless of the groceries and fruit that appeared in the windows of those shops. The liquor interests have in circulation about the city a petition for the restoration of the old liquor law, and are soliciting signatures.

TWELVE MORE MEN FOR THE MOUNTED POLICE

It would seem that the efforts of the officers of the Northwest Mounted Police who are here seeking recruits will meet with a hearty response. Eleven have been passed by the doctor and twelve more are to be examined as to their fitness.

Sergeant McArthur will leave tonight for his home in Ontario, having been called away by illness in his family. Mayor Rutledge will remain until the end of the week, by which time he hopes to have about forty recruits.

Word reached the city today from McAdam that some of the checks stolen from the business, Rev. Dr. W. L. Archibald, C. P. R. driver David Teacraft, have been found in a hen house near by his home by some children.

No. 3 Battery, 3rd Regiment C. M., was paraded at Fort Howe Army Camp, Tuesday 11th inst., at 8 o'clock, for issue of clothing, and reorganization.

DR. DANIEL'S HERO Dr. J. W. Daniel, a few weeks ago, spent some weeks in St. John, and occupied part of the time in telling the Standard and the other morning news glorious news of the Conservative party's gains in strength and brain power. The Standard, astonished to hear of these gains, of which there had been no visible evidence, asked for particulars, and Dr. Daniel told of Mr. Glen Campbell, M. P., for Dauphin, describing his height, his will and woe, and his escape from the Indians through the intervention of a beautiful maiden who subsequently became his wife. This Indian story was merely a revised version of the story of Capt. John Smith and Pocahontas, but it was good enough for Dr. Daniel and the Standard.

Since Dr. Daniel returned to Ottawa things have been happening to his hero which suggest that the guileless member for St. John city mistook the character and capacity of the professional westerner. The Manitoba Free Press knows Mr. Glen Campbell. He was recently roughly handled in the House by two westerners, Dr. Molloy of Provencher, and Dr. Neely of Humboldt. The Free Press says: "The member from Dauphin started out at Ottawa to pose as the 'typical westerner' of a certain class of novels and plays written by Easterners for Eastern consumption. At the rate he was going, it would not have been surprising if he had ridden into the House of Commons chamber on a broncho some afternoon, and sent his sombrero sailing to the Speaker's feet, taking a couple of shots carelessly at the mace with his left hand and calling one of the pages to look and see if he had not hit the lion in the left eye and the unicorn square on the horn, and then entered upon a speech about the readiness of the boys out where he came from to organize ranging bees. In a wild West show give performances in the East, he might give a 'typical westerner' his 'big, breezy, well as a 'typical westerner,' his 'free, fearless,' 'shooting straight and speaking the truth.' In Parliament he has not made a success of the role. In fact, he is already played out. He has succeeded only in making himself ridiculous.

"Never before was a loud and swaggering member of Parliament made to look as cheap as the burly 'typical westerner' from Dauphin was made to look when Dr. Molloy stated the facts in regard to the deferring of the election in the Provincial Constituency of Gilbert Plains, Mr. Glen Campbell's own constituency, in 1907. Dr. Molloy's 'typical westerner' facts came after the House that 'out there' where he came from the boys would stand for any postponed elections, and that he had told the Returning Officer in Dauphin in the Dominion election last year that if there was any deferring of the election, he, the Returning Officer, would take a prominent part in a hanging 'bee,' and accordingly the election was deferred. What a thrilling piece of 'typical westerner' for a cheap melodrama! No wonder the house laughed when Dr. Molloy told of the deferring of provincial elections for Mr. Glen Campbell's benefit. Dr. Neely said that during the Federal campaign Mr. Campbell stated that he, Campbell, had to spend $2,000 in bribing an official of the Department of the Interior.

Dr. Neely continued: "This hon. gentleman, this self-confessed briber, if these statements are true, and I give the hon. gentleman the privilege of denying that they are true— Mr. Campbell—I want to tell this House that I have never in my life applied for any right or franchise from this government or any other government. Mr. Carvell—Go on and make your statement.

Mr. Campbell—That any other man, Liberal or Conservative, did not have the absolute right to make application for anything. Mr. Carvell—Answer that question. Did you make the statement? Dr. Neely—I rise to a point of order. The hon. gentleman is not making a statement in answer to the question. Mr. Speaker—The hon. gentleman is making a statement and should be heard. Mr. Campbell—If the hon. gentleman wants an answer to his question I will give the same answer to the question here that I gave on the public platform in Dauphin when the hon. member for Brandon (Mr. Sifton) was there supporting his brother-in-law. I think that these hon. gentlemen knew all about the matter as well as I knew about it, and if they choose to give away the name of the official they are welcome to it.

"Dr. Neely—I am sure the members of this House will agree with me that a just statement in answer to a straight and direct question was never given by a member of this House. The hon. gentleman evades the point at issue. If he has information that a gratuity was obtained by a Western Saskatchewan member of this House, I say it is his duty, now that he has been elected by the people of this constituency to represent them in this House, to represent Western Canada and all Canada, and put that information in the hands of the Minister of the Interior that the official may be properly punished for his conduct in accepting such a bribe. But, if it is true that the hon. gentleman made the statement that he had spent $2,000 to bribe an official in the Interior Department surely it comes with very bad grace from the hon. gentleman, who admits himself to be a briber of government officials, to get up here and besmear the fair name of the honored Premier of the Province of Saskatchewan. These statements made by the hon. member for Dauphin in the late election were brought to the attention of the Minister of the Interior, who, speaking at Macleod on October 1, on these points, made this statement:

"Mr. Campbell now said that he had to bribe an official with $2,000 in connection with procuring the lease. Such a statement on the eve of an election was not good enough. Mr. Campbell, to be believed, must name the official and give proof of the bribery. If Mr. Campbell did this, as Minister of the Interior, under the law, I would be bound to either prove this charge, naming the offender, or withdraw. If he did neither, he was merely a despicable slanderer. That was a challenge that was thrown by the Minister of the Interior at this hon. gentleman and at the statements he was making to the people of his constituency."

"But," says the Free Press, "the Conservatives in opposition, from Mr. George E. Foster down to that collapsed phenomenon, the 'typical westerner' from Dauphin, deal only in insinuations. If they believe they have the truth on their side, why do they not speak out straight and prove to the country that they have the courage to take their political lives in their hands."

The lady who saved Mr. Glen Campbell from the Indians did Canada no great service.

The New Brunswick Conservatives will have a parade after the House rises. The order of procession, in part, will be as follows: 1. Premier Hazen, bearing an illuminated motto with the words: "I read the affidavit and I appointed the commission. I done my d—t; angels couldn't do no more!" 2. Copy of The Affidavit, on a wagon, drawn by the winners of the Mayes' Prize for Department. 3. Illuminated portrait of The Author of the aforesaid affidavit. 4. O. S. Crockett, M. P., holding aloft, or therabouts, a copy of his 24-hour speech, and crying, at short intervals, "Hear, hear!" 5. Dr. J. W. Daniel bearing twin mottoes: "Damn Courtenay Bay," and, "I am not the father of the affidavit and I make no insinuation."

6. Report of the Central Railway Commission, nailed to uprights to show the shot holes. 7. Group of Commissioners, reserve forces of affidavit makers, and other Broad Conservatives. 8. "Gershan."

If Premier Hazen had believed the Landry commission's report, would he not have begun the legal proceedings which the report suggested?

IT WAS ELIZABETH

Local Elks are having a lot of fun with a number of their lodges, a Fifteenth street Jeweller, says The Denver Post. The other day his wife was in the jewelry store when she saw a woman who she recognized as Elizabeth. "Who is this?" demanded the Jeweller's wife. "Elizabeth," said the woman. "Well, Elizabeth, this is his wife. Now, madam, what do you want?" "I want to speak to Mr. H—," said the woman. "You'll talk to me," said the Jeweller's wife. "Please let me speak to Mr. H—," said the woman. "The Jeweller's wife grow angry. 'Look here young lady,' she said, 'who are you that calls my husband and insists on talking to him?' 'In the telephone operator at Elizabeth,' came the reply. "The Elks take turns calling the Jeweller up and telling him it's Elizabeth.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

A MUSICAL PIRATE. "What do you think of Miss Callhope's voice?" whispered the tall girl with the long hair, who had just entered the room. "She sings like a pirate," growled the rude man in the star cap. "Gracious! And what is the resemblance?" "She's rough on the high C's,"—Chicago Daily News.

AN ALIBI

The milkman stood before her, nervously twisting his hat in his hands. "You have come at last," she said, sternly. "You have come at last, madam. You sent for me, I believe," he replied. "I want to tell you that I found a misnomer in the milk yesterday morning. 'I am sorry, madam, but if the cows will drink from the brook instead of from the trough I cannot help it.'—Harpur's Weekly.

HAPPY THOUGHT.

"Tired, Tinkham?" "I haven't tasted meat for weeks." "So, Soakum—" "Well, go out to the woodshed and get a few chickens."—Chicago Daily News.

MAKING IT PLEASANT FOR HIM.

"Gentlemen, said the toastmaster at the banquet, "I have had the honor to receive several orders this evening, and I am sure you will all enjoy them very much. I have purposely kept one of our best specialties for you, and after you have heard him I know you will be glad to go home and eat it." "No, no," said the host, "I will not eat it. I will give it to my wife." "Can't you see that he hasn't a tooth in his head?"—Chicago Tribune.

A NEW LANGUAGE.

One day while George Ade was travelling in the West, he happened to meet a young man in heated discussion with an old man. The latter, a school teacher from Indiana, complained to Mr. Ade of the young man's study of Arabic for years, in preparation for the trip to Mecca. "I don't know what you are talking about," said Ade, casually. "Can't you see that he hasn't a tooth in his head?"—Chicago Tribune.

NO RETURN TICKET.

The accommodation train had pulled up on a siding to let a fast express pass. As it was passing on to the main track, a passenger passed that the conductor put out his hand to shake hands with the conductor. "No, no," exclaimed the man, holding up his hand. "I don't want to shake hands with a man who hasn't a return ticket."—Judge.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

New Brunswick

A hearing of interest to sardine packers and all others interested in the sardine business, was held at St. Andrews during the week by the special fishery inspector appointed by the Dominion government. The evidence brought out at this and at subsequent hearings was forwarded to Ottawa, where the findings will be made and judgment rendered. The investigation was to determine the right under the franchise to the sardine packers to operate certain weirs in Passamaquoddy bay are held, the primary object of the investigation being to prove that the weirs in question are operated by Americans under the name of local parties. This contention is made by certain Charlottetown packers who are desirous of purchasing or lease, of all desirable weirs in the neighboring county, which would leave them independent of the sardine county fishermen and practically give them control of the herring fishing industry along the coast on both sides of the line.

The Commissioner of Education has appointed Friday, 21st inst., as Arbor Day for schools in Prince Edward Island, and recommends that it also be observed as Empire Day.

The drift ice which is yet hovering about the Cape Breton coast will put the lobster fishermen behind in their season's work. The month of May is always the best month of the season for lobsters, and every day now that the season is open, that the fishermen are prevented from getting to work means quite a loss to them. Between the lateness of the drift ice and the lack of an agreement of price between the fishermen and the packers, the outlook at present is not satisfactory.

At a recent meeting of the board of trade council of Halifax, the merchants' excursion to Yarmouth was discussed. It is proposed to make the trip a three days' one, stops being made at the principal points between Halifax and Yarmouth, the places of stopping being different from those of the present excursion. The excursion is planned for about June 10th, "apple blossom time," and the rate will depend altogether upon the number of merchants.

Shelburne's rate of taxation this year is $2.75 on the $100, including the school rate of $1.15.

Smelts have not been as plentiful as usual at Windsor although some fishermen made fairly good hauls. Gasperaux have been in the market the past week, but not in large quantities. The sealing steamer Bothick owned by Job Brothers of St. John's, Nfld., has reached North Sydney. The Bothick was the most successful of the sealing fleet, having landed 35,000 seals. The steamer took in 200 tons of bunker coal and left for the south where she goes to engage in the fruit trade.

John Woodruff, who was convicted of selling Royal beer at Yarmouth after a few days' incarceration, paid his fine and was released. Two Frenchmen from a fishing schooner anchored in North Sydney harbor had an experience recently which came near ending disastrously. The men were rowing away from the vessel in a dory when the movement of one of them in the boat caused it to upset throwing both occupants into the water. The dory turned bottom up and all they could do was to hang on and lustily call for help. They were rescued.

While in New Brunswick Frank Newell purchased at Sussex a handsome pair of black horses for A. K. VanHorne of Yarmouth. They are five-year-olds, with but 13 days difference in their ages. One weighs 1,183 pounds and the other 1,181.

Captain Gilbert of the schooner George Cuthbertman at present undergoing repairs at Yarmouth went to New York on Wednesday.

Monday as a witness in a case before the court.

Last Monday afternoon Mary Myrtle, the three year daughter of John and Clara, while amusing herself by igniting matches, set her clothing on fire, and before the flames could be extinguished she was severely burned about the limbs, and died.

The little 8-year-old son of Harry Meisler, of New Ross, Lunenburg, while out fishing at Gold River with a companion on May 4 was lost in the woods and has not yet been found. The two boys returned and alarmed the neighborhood with his report that his companion was lost. Searching parties were at once organized and the woods were scoured all Saturday night, facing a heavy electric storm. All day Sunday and Monday the search was continued. H. C. Lumber company are aiding the searchers but no trace of the little boy was found up to Friday.

It is understood that a Tuxet Wedge syndicate have decided to purchase good sized freight steamer which will be put into commission after the embargo on foreign steamers in Canadian coastal waters becomes effective.

The bodies of the two Porters, who were drowned at Pembroke, have not been recovered nor has that of G. M. Deane, who succumbed at Kentville. Search, however, has not yet been abandoned in either case.

At the district meeting of the Baptist churches of Digby county held at Weymouth recently a resolution was passed to the effect that the Dominion Atlantic Railway contemplated the running of a Sydney train over their line during the summer that the meeting, representing the Baptist churches of Digby county, would protest against the running of such trains.

The recent bad weather has interfered with the putting down the fish traps at Port Maitland, Sandford and Cranberry Head. About five fine days will be required before the work is finished.

A large fish store, owned by E. Morine, at Port Medway, was totally destroyed by fire last week.

The Argyle municipal council met and it refused to place any restrictions on the running of automobiles.

The bill to incorporate the Fundy Tidal Power Co. was killed in the Senate on Wednesday.

It is now understood that the provincial government will decline to grant incorporation to Tuxet Wedge owing to pressure from districts in the municipality.

DRESS REFORM NEEDED

The Outlook. Mrs. J. Gardner Merritt, the sculptor, is very fond of illustrating the need of dress reform for women by the following experience:

"I heard a young man, a rather lazy young man, tell a pretty girl the other day that he envied women her idleness that he would like to have been born a woman."

"The girl, tossing her head and snorting, answered: 'You'd like to be a woman! Oh, yes! Just try it for a day! Fasten a blanket and counterpane round your waist so tight you can't draw a full breath or eat a hearty meal; have your hair all loose and dirty, so that it keeps tickling your ears and getting into your eyes; wear high-heeled shoes and gloves a size too small for you; cover your face with a veil full of spots, that make you squint; fix a huge hat on with pins so that every time the wind blows it pulls your hair out by the roots; and then, without any pockets, and with a three-inch square of lace to show your nose with, go for a walk, and enjoy yourself. You would like it!'"

ST. JIVES AGAIN CAPTURED THE $10,000 MARATHON IN NEW YORK

It Was a Very Hard Race and French Runner Earned His Victory—Svanberg Second and Crook Third

New York, May 9.—Grand international marathon distance 26 miles 385 yards, purse of $10,000, thirteen starters, five seven to finish to share in the prize—$5,000 to first, $2,000 to second, $1,000 to third, etc. Winner, Henri St. Yves, France; time, 2:44:05. Second, John Svanberg, Sweden; time 2:52:05. Third, Ted Crook, United States; time 2:53:10. Fourth, Fred Simpson, Canada; time 2:54:10. Fifth, Fred Appley, England; time 2:54:15. Sixth, Donnie Fitts, Italy; time 2:54:20. Seventh, Edouard Cibot, France; time 2:54:25. Attendance, 50,000.

In a grueling race during which runner after runner collapsed only to struggle on again with almost superhuman effort to the end, Henri St. Yves, the stocky little Frenchman, who jumped into the race a month ago by defeating such heavyweights as John Svanberg and Longboat in the first great professional marathon race, won the $10,000 New York today took the measure of twelve sturdy competitors in an international marathon race at the Polo grounds and topped home a winner by the margin of five, five or five-sixths of a mile.

John Svanberg, carrying the blue and yellow of Sweden, finished second after one of the pluckiest efforts ever witnessed on the running track, and Ted Crook, an unknown runner from Fall River (Mass.), staggered over the tape in third place, thus earning a measure of glory for America.

Henri St. Yves, who was considered a likely winner before the race, finished no better than sixth, his margin being less than one part of the race proving too great a handicap for him to overcome at the end.

The fourth and fifth men, Fred Simpson, the Indian, and Fred Appley, the English entry, plodded their way to the end, as did Edouard Cibot, the French six-day winner of the Paris marathon.

John D. Marsh, the Canadian entrant, after running second to St. Yves for fifteen miles, found the pace much for him and gave it up in the twenty-fifth mile when all hope of qualifying for the purse money had been lost.

Of the other contestants, Tom Morley, of Yorkers, only recently turned professional, ran in the sixteenth mile and had to be helped by the other runners. Pat White and Louis Maloney, running for Ireland; Louis Svanberg, running for Sweden; and Edouard Cibot, running for France, plodded on doggedly to the end.

St. Yves' time, 2:44:05, was almost four minutes slower than the mark set for the first time in the history of the race at the Polo grounds, a pace at which the first ten miles was run, but which the runner was very much faster than that at which the former was traveled.

The race brought to the Polo grounds a crowd of nearly 20,000 enthusiasts, a great many of whom were in their seats before the start. The weather was ideal. The air had just enough crispness to it to make the strain of running as light as possible. Nevertheless, the spectators who had gathered for the first ten miles soon told on the runners and some of them were seen to be struggling to go on again, spurred by their trainers, the shouts of the spectators and the lively music of the band.

ST. JOHN ELEVEN WON FIRST CRICKET MATCH

A cricket match—the first of the season—was played on Saturday afternoon between an eleven of the St. John Cricket Club and Robesay College on the college grounds at Robesay and resulted in a victory for the St. John club by thirty-three runs. F. R. Fairweather, who captained the college team, was the top batsman, making 57 runs. The St. John team, made twenty-eight runs. The boys showed up well in fielding and with more practice in batting should turn out a strong eleven.

The game was played on matting and an excellent crease had been prepared. Rev. W. J. Hibbert, who captained the college team, was the top batsman, making 57 runs. The St. John team, made twenty-eight runs. The boys showed up well in fielding and with more practice in batting should turn out a strong eleven.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF SPORT

The acting president of the National League, John A. Heydler, is one of the most popular men in baseball. He has been filling the position of head of the league since the temporary retirement of Harry Pulliam a few months ago through illness in a manner that could not be overpraised. Heydler is a great worker, but is one of the most modest of men. Harry Pulliam appointed Heydler as his secretary in 1903. In 1907 the National League elected him to the dual position of secretary-treasurer. His salary has been $10,000 a year. He is a native of the Empire State. He was born in Lafarville July 10, 1868. He started out in life as a printer's devil on a Rochester newspaper. On the Rochester lot he played base ball and he has become a professional player and has not manifested a taste for politics. He entered the government service at Washington. He helped organize clubs and leagues in Washington, umpired for a time in the National League, ran a correspondence bureau and, entering newspaper work rose to the dignity of sporting editor.

SHRUBB EASILY WON FROM TOM LONGBOAT

Time Was Fast But Englishman Was Handicapped by a Blistered Foot.

Montreal, May 9.—Before a gathering of upwards of 5,000 people at the M. A. A. track on Saturday, Alfred Shrub, the English runner, made good his often repeated claim of superiority over Longboat, the Indian, at a distance of fifteen miles.

Shrub won by about 50 yards, a little less than a lap of the M. A. A. track. In the last time of the race, the Englishman ran a mile in 17:30, while Longboat finished the distance in 1:00:15. The Englishman's time is claimed, is faster than ever made for fifteen miles in America. Shrub's time is also a record. He is not a fifteen-mile runner. He likes the longer route and so his time is a creditable performance and led some to think that perhaps he had been paying more attention to training races than reports would lead them to believe.

The receipts were about $5,000. The runner, it is stated, will receive $1,000 each, and when expenses have been met there will probably be $1,000 to be divided among the three runners. On Saturday afternoon they were able to get in a thorough workout of three hours. They were able to get in with continued practice promises to be well able to compete successfully in the coming games. Among those at practice were Capt. E. Ramsey, Copeland, Root, Dr. Malcolm.

RIOT AT A BALL GAME

Brooklyn, May 8.—A three-cornered fight between Lennox on one side and Knabe and Gleason on the other nearly caused a riot at the game between Brooklyn and Philadelphia today in the fifth inning. Knabe, who was going to third base on Timus single, applied Lennox, although he appeared to have plenty of room to pass the Brooklyn man. Lennox refused to let Knabe pass and the two fought for some time.

When You Can't Sleep

There is many a man and woman toiling night after night upon a sleepless bed. Their eyes do not close in the great refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are quiet. Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system, that it cannot be quieted.

Or again, you have a sinking sensation, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and that leaves you for the night. If you allow these conditions to continue for a short period, you will begin to feel your health declining. It is the nerves and heart not acting rightly, and they can only be set right by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They soon induce healthy, refreshing sleep, not by deadening the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action.

Mrs. E. Nutt, St. Mary's, Ont., writes:— "I can gladly recommend your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as I was so badly troubled with my nerves. I was so bad, I could not sleep at night without the lamp burning, but after taking four boxes of the pills I became all right again."

Price, 50 cents per box; 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

They were able to get in with continued practice promises to be well able to compete successfully in the coming games. Among those at practice were Capt. E. Ramsey, Copeland, Root, Dr. Malcolm.

NOT DRUGS

Food Bid It.

After using laxative and cathartic medicines from childhood a case of chronic and apparently incurable constipation yielded to the nutritious food, Grape-Nuts, in a few days.

"From early childhood I suffered with such terrible constipation that I had to use laxatives continuously going from one drug to another and suffering more or less all the time.

A prominent physician whom I consulted told me the muscles of the digestive organs were partially paralyzed and could not perform their work without help of some kind, so I have tried at different times about every cathartic and laxative known, but found no help that was at all permanent. I had finally become discouraged and had given my case up as hopeless when I began to use the pre-digested food, Grape Nuts.

"Although I had not expected this food to help my trouble, my great surprise was that it did so immediately from the first and in a few days I was convinced that this was just what my system needed.

The bowels performed their functions regularly and I am now completely and permanently cured of this awful trouble.

Naughty Little Lucy's Lesson

Little Lucy was an only child. Therefore, she seldom had to divide her playthings with other children. Of course, when her little friends came to see her, she would joyfully have given them her toys to play with, but such was not the case. She was a bit selfish, and not only wanted her company's playthings, but her own as well.

One day Bertha and Flossie Grey came to visit Lucy, and brought with them their dolls and their playthings. Lucy, who was always so glad to have her little friends, was not so glad to see them. She was a bit selfish, and not only wanted her company's playthings, but her own as well.

"I want to play with your doll and go-cart," said Lucy, speaking to Bertha. "And I want Flossie's chair."

Bertha and Flossie gave up the playthings desired by Lucy, but Bertha asked to be allowed to play with Lucy's big doll. "Oh, no!" cried Lucy. "You might spoil her dress or muss her hair. No, I won't allow anyone but myself to play with my dollie."

"But you are playing with mine," protested Bertha. "I am not afraid to let you handle my dollie, and Flossie isn't afraid to let you have her chair. If we give our playthings to you, Lucy, you should allow us your playthings in return."

"No, I won't," said Lucy. "My playthings belong to just me, and I won't let others play with them." And she pouted disagreeably.

"Well, give back my dollie to me, and Flossie's chair to her," said Bertha. "If we can't have your things, you should not want ours. It isn't fair of you, Lucy."

Lucy began to cry, and declared her friends were very unkind to her. She began upon Bertha and Flossie tried persuading her, saying she might have their things if she would not feel aggrieved. But she kept on crying, and the more she was coaxed, the more she acted naughtily.

At last Bertha and Flossie decided to go home, and gathering up their playthings, made ready to start. Lucy, really wanting them to say, began crying all the louder, saying, "Oh, you are bad girls, and I won't like you if you run home this way, so I won't."

"But you do not treat us nicely," protested Flossie. "No, you do not want to play fair," said Bertha. "We like to play with little girls who play fair, and who do not quarrel or cry. We'll just run away, and maybe go to Laura Enell's house; for she is always so glad to have us play with her, and she never refuses to give us her playthings when we are leaving her."

Lucy was too stubborn just then to say she was sorry for her naughty conduct, and sat pouting while Bertha and Flossie went out of the carriage and off towards Laura's home. But the moment her company had gone, Lucy ran into her house and begged her mother to allow her to go to play for an hour with Tommy and Myrtle Brown.

"But aren't Bertha and Flossie visiting you?" asked Lucy's mamma. Then, a little at a time Lucy's mamma drew from her the cause of Bertha and Flossie's short stay, and, taking her little girl on her knee, she explained how selfish children never had any friends, and how unhappy their unkindly conduct towards others made not only themselves, but those most nearly concerned.

"But aren't Bertha and Flossie visiting you?" asked Lucy's mamma. "I can't live a successful life, for she or he thinks only of herself or himself, and never tries to make others happy. Now, don't you think you would be much happier had you been nice towards Bertha and Flossie?"

PRESENTS' NEEDS OF ACADIA COLLEGE

Rev. W. Archibald, field secretary of Acadia College, speaking at the Waterloo Baptist church last evening on Christian Education. The speaker dwelt on the work that was being carried on in Acadia and its importance to the Baptist church as a whole. He told of the needs of the institution and urged them upon the practice of family worship and of the difference in the audiences in the churches of the present day and in the past. The appeal today was not to men's fear of God of punishment, but rather to a God of love. An appeal was made to their honesty, their love of justice and fair play and their attitude toward their fellow men.

Amherst, May 7.—Amherst College conferred the degree of doctor of laws tonight in connection with exercises in dedication of the portrait of Joseph Harry Nesima, a Japanese graduate of the college in 1870.

Left no address behind; but very soon Skiggs sent Skiggs a note and had a change of mind. Skiggs advertised, Skiggs sent her back, Skiggs here the moral lies, Skiggs now had returned so with Skiggs—It pays to advertise.

BOY GOES HUNGRY TO FREE HIS FATHER

Fifteen-year-old Son of William Guthro Deprives Himself of Food to Save Money to Pay Father's Fine.

The fifteen-year-old son of William Guthro, who figured in the report by the policemen of the poverty that exists in the Guthro household on Pond street, visited the jail this morning and gave Turkey Cunningham $4. He urged the turkey to offer the sum to the magistrate for his father's liberty. Guthro is in jail serving a two months' term in default of payment of an eight dollar fine for intoxication at midnight ten days ago, with George Brown on George street, a short distance from Guthro's quarters. The boy earns in the vicinity of $3 per week as tin-smith's apprentice with a German street-tinmith, and since his father's confinement has carried food to him daily. The balance has not been sufficient to provide the boy and his younger brother with sustenance or fuel, and they are on the verge of starvation and when two policemen entered the apartments on Saturday night in consequence of reports from the neighbors, there was no fuel. These privations have been undergone in order to accumulate enough to obtain the freedom of their father. They have lived a precarious existence for some years, particularly when their father was in jail, which was a frequent occurrence. When in straits one of the boys pilfered coal from the yard of the York Point slip and was arrested.

The magistrate deferred the acceptance of the amount proffered until tonight in view of Guthro's previous broken promises to him when he was released under similar circumstances.

A CITIZEN-PROTESTS

Editor of "The Times":—

Sir—I was somewhat astonished, when I read an article in your paper on Saturday night giving a minute description of the methods used by our newly found Sheriff Holmes and Dr. Watson of our police force, in the conviction of two hotel proprietors for the alleged violation of the Liquor Law some two weeks ago.

Does it seem reasonable that citizens may be molested, their names taken and served with a subpoena, to appear in court, if they happen to be seen leaving his hotel during the hours when the bar is supposed to be closed?

I may be ignorant on the point of law on this subject, but it seems to me none the less, to a citizen of a free city and an enactment on the rights of a British subject. If this is what is going to be the outcome of no view, which I believe is the ultimate view of the temperance party, I think they had better leave the question alone. If they cannot handle it in a more business like way and leave nothing behind them but a bungled and mismanaged affair.

If the watch dogs of the law are getting overworked that they cannot convict the liquor vendor in a just and business like way, if he violates the law I would suggest that they procure five or six blood hounds and station them at the entrance of each hotel during prohibited hours. They may be able to detect the smell of liquor on each man who has procured a drink, as he departs. This at least would allow the citizens who might call at an hotel on a matter of business, to proceed home unmolested and would do away with the necessity of their appearing with common vagabonds in the police court at the order of a subpoena from some would-be meddlesome detective, or their superiors, the provincial government or the common council.

If Mr. Hazen, or the chairman of the safety board can publicly uphold this law let them come forward and do so through your columns. We shall then be able to judge at the next session whether the citizens will stand for the continuance of such legislation if such law there is.

"CITIZEN."

After a consultation between the father of Ambrose Lenihan, aged 11, who was arrested on Saturday morning for one year's truancy from school, and Judge Ritchie this morning, the boy was liberated, providing that the father takes him to South Bay, where Lenihan is employed. Lenihan, senior stated that he was at home only at intervals, and they were not of sufficient length to enable him to control the refractory lad. The boy will become a pupil at the school in South Bay.
