Mr. Buchanan's Letter

(Accidentally omitted last issue)
To the Editor of Granite Town Greetings.
Dear Sir,
Allow me through the columns of your welcome paper to express the deep gratitude of the Pastor and family to the kind people of the St. George and Second Falls Baptist churches for their kind words of farewell and their tokens of love and esteem for us. The experiences of the Lord's Day just past, will ever live sacred in the memory of the Pastor. We thank God, that the pain of parting is alleviated by the Christian tie that ought can sever, the hope of meeting again in Christ. We wish you success in your work Mr. Editor, and say goodbye with best wishes to the kind people of St. George.

Rev. E. V. Buchanan,
St. George, N. B.

L'Etete Boy Drowned

St. Andrews, Sept. 9.—A drowning accident happened in Robinson, Me. this morning, resulting in the death of Lehoe McGraw, one of the crew of the steamer G. B. Otis. He was a son of Harry McGraw, of Letete, age 19, and leaves his father, four brothers and one sister. The captain of the steamer called him this morning about 3 o'clock, and he went on deck whistling cheerily. Afterwards they heard him call out, and when they got on deck he was not to be found. The body was found this afternoon and brought here and will be taken to Letete for interment.

Don't forget that your neighbor though he differs from you politically may be just as honest in his convictions as you, that this is a free country where freedom of opinion is one of the biggest of the broad foundation-stones of our government, and there would be an end of that form of government without it. Be tolerant therefore, or rather not tolerant but rational, patriotic and good natured. Stand by your convictions and let your neighbor stand by his if so disposed. Keep cool. Argue politics if you will, but do it calmly and reasonably, and bear this fact always in mind, that just as you have made-up your mind unalterably as to the way in which you will vote, ninety-nine hundredths of the voting population has done the same thing—Review.

Maine Goes Democrat

With a majority of 6,500 Col. Frederick W. Plaisted of Augusta, defeated Bert M. Fernald of Poland for Governor of Maine. The Republicans received a complete surprise and cannot in any way account for their overwhelming defeat. The political page had to be turned back to 1890 for even a reversal of the Republicans and there it was found that Col. Plaisted's father, Harris M. Plaisted was made governor on a fusion ticket by a narrow margin of 169 votes. All the other Maine governors since 1855, have been Republicans.

Town Council

The Town Council met in regular session on Monday evening. In the absence of the Mayor, Ald. Craig was appointed Chairman. Present—Ald. McKenzie, Seelye, Bogue, Meating and Kent. The Marshall's report for July and August showing a collection of $38.83 on wharfage and licenses was ordered to be placed on file. The following bills were ordered to be paid: Milne Coutts & Co. $2.80, Grant & Morin $2.30, William Spinney $24.95, Arthur Maxwell $14.00, L. W. Goodell $400, L. McCarten $7.20, Alfred Spiney $24.75, A. C. Kennedy $120.00. The Marshall's salary of $45.80 was ordered to be paid. Meeting then adjourned.

A Miraculous Escape.

Ashtabula, Ohio, Sept. 5.—Climbing from the wreckage of his buggy on the pilot of a locomotive flying at the rate of fifty miles an hour, Fred Minor, aged 18, clambered up on the running board of the engine and into the engine cab. His escape was near to the miraculous. The engine on the Lake Shore Railroad struck his horse and buggy a few miles out of town. The horse was killed, and Minor, wedged in the wreckage of the buggy, remained on the pilot of the rushing engine. Indignant, he climbed into the cab, he says, to tell the engineer what he thought of him. He claimed that the engine had no headlights. The engine stopped to let him off, Minor pointing out that his parents would expect him home early, and he walked the six miles back to town. He was not hurt.

A Great Exhibit

Connors Bros., Ltd. Well Represented at the Big Fair.

Practically the only first-class exhibit from Charlotte County at the St. John Exhibition was that of Connors Bros. Ltd., of Blacks Harbor. It is no wonder that 'Connors Bros. sardines' is a familiar phrase with all users of canned goods throughout the Dominion. An enterprising firm will always advertise its goods: on the other hand a firm which does not advertise is not only being kept in the back ground while others are going ahead by leaps and bounds, but exposes the fact that its goods are of an inferior quality. The booth which represented Connors Bros. was filled with a copious supply and a fine assortment of canned goods including, sardines, kippered herring, finen haddie, pork and beans, blueberries, etc. Thousands of sight seers are gazing at this booth daily and many remarks are heard which are favorable indeed. The long pillars and railings encircling this booth are made of cans piled one upon the other and the intervening spaces are filled with artistic decorations. Mr. McLean who has charge of the booth is very attentive to the public and answers thousands of queries and informing the public that all the products of the firm can be purchased from all the first class dealers in the provinces. All the leading grocers and wholesalers in St. John handle this entire line, the sale of which are rapidly increasing. The attention of Connors Bros. is not only confined to the canning of fish. They are also famous for their canned pork and beans and blueberries, for which the demand is great. General attention is also attracted to the exhibit of curious at the booth including coral shells and a king crab which is exceptionally large and of a very rare species. Practically everything which is turned out by the company is shown and also harmoniously displayed that even those who are not personally interested cannot help but be attracted. Great trouble and expense in placing their exhibit before the public in such a careful manner has been no barrier to this enterprising firm. We congratulate Connors Bros. upon their magnificent display and hope that their business will continue to boom. An honest firm with honest goods cannot help it.

OBITUARY

ROBERT A. SUTHERLAND
Mr. Robert A. Sutherland who died suddenly Friday morning September 2, 1910, at No. 9 James Street, Franklin Square, Boston, had been a member of our household for ten years, and a resident of Boston over thirty years. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances, as he had responsible positions for many years in Peoples Institute at Roxbury, also in Brooklyn, at St. Saviours Episcopal church, and time of death was employed in Wells Memorial Institute, Boston. He was a brother of Mrs. Elizabeth Billings of Jamaica Plain. Three years ago Mr. Sutherland was ill, and diagnosis of physician was a weak heart. He responded quickly to treatment owing to wonderful vitality, one year ago, he fell and fractured three ribs, splintered lung, he recovered, and had been well, excepting dizziness, which occurred frequently, causing great fatigue, and thoughts from the best authors. He loved children. Flowers, plants brightened his room, he was happy caring for them. He loved his home at evening was always in his room and with books and papers spent the time reading, and resting, while peace and quiet cast a gentle spell about him. Mr. Sutherland has gone from our sight, but never from our memory. We know it is not death,—but life, full and free. We rejoice for his words spoken two weeks ago—'Life is sweet to live but I am ready at any moment to go.'
We see the end, the house of God But not the path, to that abode, For God, in ways he had not known Will lead his own."

Priest Thrashed

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—Rev. Father Tracy, of St. Louis, Mo., thrashed a young man, C. Lenihan of Sioux city, Mo., who was a salesman, who subsequently was arrested and locked up.

Father Tracy was talking with some friends, when, according to the witness, Lenihan stepped up, and making an insulting remark to him, struck him in the face. Blood spattered from Father Tracy's nose. Before he could arise from his chair Lenihan snatched off the Roman collar and threw it in the sidewalk.

In an instant Father Tracy, landing twice on Lenihan's face, started again in a heap. He struck Lenihan on the nose, and the salesman went down again. This was repeated and the police arrived to take his place in the fight and to separate the men standing around who were momentarily too excited to respond.

Father Tracy had on his spectacles, and as Lenihan approached, he crouched to avoid a possible blow in the eye. Then he landed another blow on Lenihan's face, and the salesman went down again. This was repeated and the police arrived to take his place in the fight and to separate the men standing around who were momentarily too excited to respond.

Advice to Judge

A colored man was brought before a justice judge charged with stealing chickens. He pleaded guilty and received sentence, when the judge asked how it was he managed to lift these chickens right under the window of the owners house when there was a dog in the yard.

"It wouldn't be no use, judge," said the man, "to try to explain dis thing 'y'all. If you was to try it you like as not would get yer hide full of shot an' get no chickens, nuther. If yo' want to engage in any rascality, judge, yo' better stick to de bench where you an' faniliar."

BE A BOOSTER

Don't hold back, wait for no one. If you see more 'feller tryin' to make some project go, you can boost it up a trifle.

That's your cue to let him know that you're goin' to boost it. Just because it ain't your 'shout,' but your goin' to boost a little, 'cause he's got 'the best thing out'.

You know some feller's failin', but forge 'em cause you know that same feller's got some good points. Them's the ones you want to show. Cast your loaves out on the waters, 'The'll come back,' 'sa true. Maybe they will come back, 'battered,' When some feller boost for you.

High Heels Cost Life Of Wife and Neighbors

High heel shoes, which she wore, were responsible for the drowning of Mrs. Kate Perle and her husband, Louis Perle, in Lake Quinsigamond last week. Mrs. Perle was the leading lady of the Manhattan opera company, which has been playing all summer at the White City Casino. Her husband was the musical director.

Mrs. Perle's little sister, Margaret Nice, arrived from New York to spend Labor-day with them. To teach her how to row they took her out in the boat. The other people started to change seats. In so doing Mrs. Perle's heels caught on an obstruction in the bottom of the boat and she was thrown overboard. Her husband jumped in to save her and called for help, which did not come in time. The little girl did not even get wet.

Mrs. Perle, who was 39 years old, was the daughter of Eugene Nice, an artist, of New York.

Wiring a Plane

Writing a plane requires one of the very best and best 7-0 wire. These single strings are necessary.

Cable came from each end and has been used since the earliest times. It formed part of the rigging of the triremes in Egyptian times and was used by Greek and Roman engineers and architects.

Wind locks like a cat's paw on the blades of a propeller is to be seen in a saw in New South Wales. The front of this tiny, downward in one and a half foot across and the depth is six feet, while the entire height of the perpendicular walls is the same. Oddly enough, the beam is unsharpened, and the occupants find it quite comfortable.

Many of the vegetables we daily use on our dinner tables were in use in Bible times. It is known, for instance, that asparagus was grown 200 years before the birth of Christ, while lettuce was cultivated as far back as 500 B. C.

Should They go to College

In our advertising columns will be found the advertisement of two of our educational institutions, two of the best in the Dominion.

Now the question arises, should our young men and women take advantage of the opportunities furnished by such institutions? The question is not a new one but one that is discussed a great deal, and of course receives a Yes and No answer. As for ourselves we would hesitate in giving so direct and decided reply. So much depends on circumstances that a direct answer seems impossible. That every young man or woman should go to college is just as nonsensical as that no one should go at all. Real genius is independent of all conditions, hence some of the world's greatest men never entered a college door. Indeed it is possible that a college education might sometimes cripple and spoil the genius with which some are born, but on the other hand, all other things being equal, a college education is necessarily of great value. Because education is necessarily of great value because the college has failed to make something of all who have attended it even because there may be some graduated ignoramus strutting about with a B. A. appendage to their names is no argument against the college or education.

The college is not a laboratory for the manufacture of brains. The college cannot change the nature of men or women. If they go into college without brains, they will as a rule come out the same. As that great man whose death was chronicled in our last issue, and whose loss the educational world deplores, once said as he stood before a graduating class of exceptional strength. "Well gentlemen if I have been successful in giving to the world a class of strength and character, it is of the material you gave me to work with."

A college develops, but does not create. The question of going to college or not then, can only be solved by knowing the individual, the college and the circumstances incident to the case. Some young men or women will no more take an education than some coarse, rough stone will take a polish. To attempt to educate them would be money thrown away. But will we condemn the college because of this? As well condemn our excellent equipped granite mills because they cannot polish all kinds of stone.

On the other hand, granting the possession of mind and character, there is nothing that can add to its power and usefulness like a college education. Here the mind is taught work. Here a development process is being carried on continuously. Foundations for future growth and development are being laid. A selection of the right kind of material, and well invested. A money investment that returns through the lives of the young men and things. If you invest in a granite mill, you would expect it to open up a new world of opportunity. If you invest in a college, you would expect it to open up a new world of opportunity. If you invest in a college, you would expect it to open up a new world of opportunity.

A Word Concerning Advertising

Since taking up our work on the paper we have always been more or less of a crank on patronizing home industries. We have been receiving several offers from those hated enemies of our local merchants—the mail-order houses—who wished to place a large amount of advertising with us allowing us the rate of 10 cts. per inch. Now, loyal to our town and its merchants, we refused these offers although needless to say we were sorely pressed for funds. Then, our paper not being upon a paying basis, we notified our local advertisers that the rate of advertising would be increased to about six cents per inch. Previously we had received only about four cents per inch, and in some cases even less. Now without even coming to us and telling us that they were unable to pay the rate which we asked and trying to compromise with us and take a smaller space, two or three of our main advertisers ordered that their ads be discontinued at once. Others came to us in a manly way and told us that they could not pay this rate but would gladly pay the same amount which they had been paying for a smaller space, but they would keep their ad in the paper and do all they could to help our paper along. Now in view of this we were compelled to get outside assistance and took ads. from Calais and St. Stephen firms who paid us 6 and 7 cts. per inch. We were sorry to take in this outside work and thus take a portion of trade out of town but we cannot run a paper for our health. It is for the purpose of making some explanation to our remaining advertisers we write this. "The just must suffer with the unjust" so we claim that we are incalculable for the ground we have taken.

Correspondence.

(We are not responsible for the opinion of correspondents.)

Milltown, N. B.

Sept. 1st, 1910

To the Editor of Greetings:—

Sir,
In your paper of August 31st 1910 we find the following. The boys who played for Milltown etc. The second part of your article is the one we wish to take exception to and do take exception to the same. We regret to say that owing to their misconduct Mr. Murray was obliged to eject them from his hotel. It seems too bad that Milltown should have the name of sending a bunch of rowdies to represent them on the diamond.

Now Sir in that section of your article you are entirely mistaken. Mr. Murray did not have to eject or throw anyone from his hotel, neither did he request them to leave. When informed that the boys were going to stay there he said he did not have rooms for them all, but he would do the best he could for some of the boys, but others of the team he did not wish, but none were ejected from his hotel. And were you to ask Mr. Murray concerning the matter he would tell you the same. In saying that Milltown players are a bunch of rowdies, you are again mistaken there are some whose actions were anything but gentlemanly, as we know. But even so that does not give you the right to state world wide through your paper that all the players on said team were rowdies. As a man go to Mr. Murray of the Victoria Hotel and ask him if the players who remained at his place committed any act of rowdism. Those players Sir are the one who take exception to your article and you have no right in any way neither on your streets nor at Mr. Murray's hotel by their actions to be classified as you have classified them as rowdies. Those men are S. McIntosh Mgr. L. McIntosh Capt. Adelbert Key and the writer of this article. We do not wish to have any trouble or bad feelings over this matter but we do think that an apology through your paper is due us had you inserted the word some in your article it would have been much better but you leave it for the public to think all were ejected and as on page 4 you give the names of all players and your article on the first page probably a correction of the same in your next edition would be satisfactory to all concerned. Hoping this will meet your approval.

I Remain Yours etc.
Eustace Church,

THE WEEK IN ST. GEORGE

Mr. and Mrs. Tilley Moran, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl.

Born—At St. George Sept. 24th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. K. Kernighan a son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McNitt, (nee Miss Alice Young) are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl.

We would call attention to the ad. of Messing and Douglas on our first page. These young men can make your suit or overcoat with the latest styles.

Red Rose Tea had one of the most attractive booths at the St. John Exhibition. Many people stopped and enjoyed a cup of Red Rose Tea or Coffee and were delighted. Be sure and ask for Red Rose.

If you need anything in the clothing or furnishing line at this time of year, it is a good time to save. Henson Bros. Cash Clearance Sale is still on, and the bargains they are offering are worth looking after. We would advise you to call and see them.

The Sunn. Coasters Bros. arrived in port yesterday and discharged freight. The sunn. is receiving a coat of paint which will add greatly to the appearance of the little boat. As a money saver to local merchants on the St. John—St. George route the boat is indeed an indispensable convenience.

The work of extending the wharf has been practically completed only the finishing touches remaining. The crew has been a hot one as the work has only taken about two months. We have now a fine large wharf capable of handling three large vessels. Well done, Mr. Milliken.

A good position can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, Ohio, or Philadelphia, Pa.

A party of high school boys and girls enjoyed a trip to Back Bay on Saturday last. The trip, which took the form of a bay race, was arranged to convey the baseball team to Back Bay where the team of that place met our boys. The game was called at 3.30, and was closely contested throughout. A feature of the game was the good work of Hooper and Lasker as battery for Back Bay, who got in some good work. Johnson pitched a good game for St. George. The game ended in favor of the Nestorians with a score of 10-8. After taking supper and joining in the games and amusements which were taking place on the grounds the party left for home arriving about 10.30 p. m. The party consisted of Misses Kelman, Danilla, L. Dodds, Goes, Dines and Messrs. Hibbard, Johnson (2) Young (2), Campbell, Machum, Stewart and E. Dowe.

The entertainment given by Mr. Chas. Cooke Indian entertainer and singer was very slimly attended on Friday evening. Those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance were delighted with Mr. Cooke's selections. He was possessed of a powerful rich voice and sang many Indian and popular songs. His Indian costume was perfect in every detail. He gave an interesting talk on Indian customs, etc., which was instructive, the audience being informed of many peculiar facts of which they were previously ignorant. Mr. Joseph Murray and Miss Jennie Meating assisted with voice and piano and delighted the audience. Had the people of the town been aware of this fact that this was rare opportunity of hearing something good they would no doubt have turned out in force. Mr. Cooke may visit us again and if this be the case he may be assured of a much larger audience. The Red Granite Division under whose auspices Mr. Cooke entertained met a deficit of $2.50.

Notice—All bills due the firm of Hanson Bros. must be settled by cash or otherwise on or before March, 1st, 1911.

Now for your winter suits and overcoats. Frauley Bros. have all the latest styles in these. Also a nice assortment of sweaters.

On Tuesday afternoon a large concourse of people witnessed the unveiling of Tillie's Monument at St. John. The speakers were Premier Hazen, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Sir Sanford Flemming and Mayor Frank. This is the second monument unveiled in St. John within the past three months.

Miss M. T. Crabbe of St. Stephen business college is visiting Montreal, Toronto and Boston. Miss Crabbe will spend considerable time in the educational institutions for new methods in the interest of the college work before returning to St. Stephen for the opening of the school on the 15th of September.

Last night all the Mungundahic river was flowing through a ten inch pipe! This statement may seem somewhat incredible but nevertheless such was the case. While the men employed by the Pulp Co. were building up the new dam the water arose above its own level at the lake and thus the flow was stopped. A ten inch pipe beneath the dam carried off the surplus water. The repairing is nearly complete and everything will be running full blast again next week.

Nestorian Society

On Friday afternoon the Nestorian Society of the High School, held its weekly meeting and the following was the program: Recitation—Keep Trying, Laura Meating, Impromptu—Tilley's Monument, Ray, Cawley Essay—Excursion from Letete to McLeaves Island—Winnifred McLean, Speech—England's Navy—Verona Connell, Recited at current events Grade XI, Song of Sir Walter Scott—A Johnston, Debate, "Resolved that a lie is sometimes justifiable" The most interesting part of the program was the debate in which the affirmative was supported by Allan Keesenette and John Dewar, while Principal Machum and Miss Hazel Dines upheld the Negative. Many interesting points were presented by both sides and the president decided in favor of the Negative. Miss Cawley's of reading "Tilley's Monument" was well written and instructive. The pupils are taking considerable interest in the society meetings.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impair digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

He Didn't Even Start

The dark world had become rosy and sweet. A new dawn had entered into Harkaway's vision, and it was all glorious golden. Mabel as they paced the sands on that wonderful moonlight night had yielded to his passionate entreaties, in which he had voiced all the aspirations of his ardent nature and had spoken a soft yes to his question.

"Yes, Harold," she had murmured, with a shy glance at the moon—"yes, dear, I will be your wife."

For a long while Harkaway was silent. He feared to break the spell of the moment with ordinary human speech. So far and away beyond his real expectations had her answer been that it was difficult for him for the time being to realize that it was not all a dream, and who could tell but that the sound of his own voice would awaken him to a lonely reality? Thus they walked on for a brief period, and then, summoning his courage to his aid, he ventured:

"Say it again, Mabel: let the enchanting accent come once more to my devoted ears that I may know it is true!"

"Yes, Harold, she repeated—"yes, dear, I will be your wife."

He folded her in his arms, and a kindly cloud obscured the moon for a second, as though to hide her blushes.

"Tomorrow I shall go to New York," he cried, his heart elate. "What is your father's address, sweetheart?"

"Father?" she repeated. "Oh, father's address! Why, it is steen hundred and two Wall street. What do you want daddy's address for, dear?"

"I am going to ask him to smile upon our"—he began.

"Oh, no, Harold," she remonstrated. "I wouldn't do that. Dad's very busy, and we never bother him with little things."

"Little things?" he cried.

"Yes, dear; they annoy him very much indeed," she replied. "I don't think I'm engaged to a single man now who's been to see popper. It makes him so mad when the fall comes and I break off.—Harper's Weekly.

Frederickton, Sept. 7.—Mystery still surrounds the finding of part of the skeleton of an infant child under the floor of the bathroom at Linden Hall; Dr. J. W. Weaver, coroner, in whose possession the bones are now has, communicated with Attorney General Hazen, but has not as yet had time to get a reply to his letter:

George Bellake, who resided at Linden Hall, a year or so ago, when he read of the ghastly find expressed the opinion that the bones were those of a cat which disappeared while he was living there; it also became reported about the city that the bones were those of a cat, but Dr. Weaver said he was positive the remains were not those of a cat or other animal, but of a child.

"See, darling," said a mother to a little lad as she pointed to some London waifs, "those poor little boys have no kind father and mother and no good aunt Jane!" "Oh," cried the son, who did not get on well with his mother's sister, "let's give them Aunt Jane!"

The Holy Ghost's bark Kingdon is still ashore at Mud Island off Yarmouth, N. S. it is being patched up.

Residents of a district of Fitchburg want the public fountain in that district cleaned because a monkey, accompanying a hand-organ, was seen to drink from one of the cups.

A tramp under arrest in the Oklahoma city police court said to the judge: "Your honor, if you will dismiss the complain against me I will get so far away from your beautiful village that it will take $20 to send you a postal card," and the judge discharged him.

A Pittsfield man complained to the owner of a pond in that locality that boys swimming in the pond were a nuisance. The owner gave the complainant permission to put up a sign. It read: "No Lolling or Swimming on these Grounds—Order by—. If caught Law Will be Forced."

Here is an illustration of the remarkable growth of potatoes in Aroostook county, Maine. Charles Perry, the postmaster of Limestone, planted a green mountain potato on the 29th of June and on the 29th of August, just two months from the day the seed was planted, Mr. Perry dug the potatoes and took out one which weighed 13 and one-half ounces.

Be Somebody

The world is wide. If you wish to be somebody "pitch in." The brave always have friends. Where others have gone you can go. If the old track doesn't suit you, make a new one; somebody will walk in it. Don't hurry too fast, especially till you know the road or become acquainted with your team. Mind your own business and look after it yourself. Don't stop to gossip. You may grow weary, but remember this is not a world of ease, and rest lies beyond. Success is never obtained in a country like this without effort. If you fail once try again. If you fall down get up! If it is dark, strike a light. If in the shade move around; if there is a shadow on one side there is sure to be sunshine on the other. It takes longer to skin an elephant than a mouse, but the skin is worth something. Never be content with doing what another has done—excel him. A trade is a good thing to have it is better than gold—being a larger premium, but to make a premium, the trade must be perfect. Determine in your mind to be a good workman. Never slip your work. Every job you do is a sign. Poor signs are against success. People always speak well of a man who minds his own business, and who seems disposed to be somebody. This is a queer world; many people are watching us, and help often comes when and from whom we least expect. Confidence is the safe in which men often deposit rich treasures, and as you prove worthy so will your reward of success be.—Canadian Workman.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition combined in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine or scores concocted, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

He Didn't Even Start

The dark world had become rosy and sweet. A new dawn had entered into Harkaway's vision, and it was all glorious golden. Mabel as they paced the sands on that wonderful moonlight night had yielded to his passionate entreaties, in which he had voiced all the aspirations of his ardent nature and had spoken a soft yes to his question.

"Yes, Harold," she had murmured, with a shy glance at the moon—"yes, dear, I will be your wife."

For a long while Harkaway was silent. He feared to break the spell of the moment with ordinary human speech. So far and away beyond his real expectations had her answer been that it was difficult for him for the time being to realize that it was not all a dream, and who could tell but that the sound of his own voice would awaken him to a lonely reality? Thus they walked on for a brief period, and then, summoning his courage to his aid, he ventured:

"Say it again, Mabel! let the enchanting accent come once more to my devoted ears that I may know it is true!"

"Yes, Harold she repeated—"yes, dear, I will be your wife."

He folded her in his arms, and a kindly cloud obscured the moon for a second, as though to hide her blushes.

"Tomorrow I shall go to New York," he cried, his heart elate. "What is your father's address, sweetheart?"

"Father?" she repeated. "Oh, father's address! Why, it is steen hundred and two Wall street. What do you want daddy's address for, dear?"

"I am going to ask him to smile upon our"—he began.

"Oh, no, Harold," she remonstrated. "I wouldn't do that. Dad's very busy, and we never bother him with little things."

"Little things?" he cried.

"Yes, dear; they annoy him very much indeed," she replied. "I don't think I'm engaged to a single man now who's been to see popper. It makes him so mad when the fall comes and I break off.—Harper's Weekly.

Re-United at the Church Door.

A deeply touching story comes from Ottawa of a girl lost and found. Two years ago there disappeared the seventeen year old daughter of a well to do family in Krasnobrod in the government of Lubin. A few years ago the mother of the lost child paid a visit to the district Yahrmarka. There, near the church door she gave alms to a blind girl saying, "Pray for my child, my dear, whom I lost two years ago. She is certainly dead!"

The blind girl had scarcely heard the lady's voice before she recognized it, and sprang to her feet saying "Mamma, I am your Maria!" It then transpired that the girl had been stolen by professional beggars, her eyes burnt, and her hands cruelly crippled, in order to cause the sympathy of the charitable.

The police have arrested seventy beggars at the Yahrmarka in connection with the kidnapping of the child.

Right to Rule

The Emperor of Germany is hitting the personal not again and as pride generally before a fall we expect to see the Reichstag take another fall out of William pretty soon.

In the course of a speech at Konigsberg the Emperor said:

"My grandfather, again by his own right placed the Prussian crown upon his own head and again proclaimed

Interesting Items.

The Holy Ghost's bark Kingdon is still ashore at Mud Island off Yarmouth, N. S. it is being patched up.

Residents of a district of Fitchburg want the public fountain in that district cleaned because a monkey, accompanying a hand-organ, was seen to drink from one of the cups.

While the station agent Mr. Lowerson of Coldbrook, was out for his meal hour Tuesday a thief or thieves entered the window and got away with the contents of the till $18.

Clarence Kissel of Lock Haven, Pa. picked on his father's farm at Dambarton a Toronto that weighed two pounds and six ounces. It was 19 and one-half inches in circumference and 4 and three-quarter inches in diameter.

When George Lack of Granite city, Ill. was arrested for killing a brown thrush contrary to law he attempted to swallow the bird, but feathers protruding from his mouth betrayed him and he was locked up.

A tramp under arrest in the Oklahoma city police court said to the judge: "Your honor, if you will dismiss the complain against me I will get so far away from your beautiful village that it will take $20 to send you a postal card, and the judge discharged him.

A Pittsfield man complained to the owner of a pond in that locality that boys swimming in the pond were a nuisance. The owner gave the complainant permission to put up a sign. It read: "No Loafing or Swimming on these Grounds—Order by.— If caught Law Will be Forced."

Here is an illustration of the remarkable growth of potatoes in Aroostook county, Maine. Charles Perry, the postmaster of Limestone, planted a green mountain potato on the 29th of June and on the 29th of August, just two months from the day the seed was planted, Mr. Perry dug the potatoes and took out one which weighed 13 and one-half ounces.

Be Somebody

The world is wide. If you wish to be somebody "pitch in." The brave always have friends. Where others have gone you can go. If the old track doesn't suit you, make a new one; somebody will walk in it. Don't hurry too fast, especially till you know the road or become acquainted with your team. Mind your own business and look after it yourself. Don't stop to gossip. You may grow weary, but remember this is not a world of ease, and rest lies beyond.

Success is never obtained in a country like this without effort. If you fail once try again. If you fall down get up! If it is dark, strike a light. If in the shade move around; if there is a shade on one side there is sure to be sunshine on the other. It takes longer to skin an elephant than a mouse, but the skin is worth something. Never be content with doing what another has done—excel him. A trade is a good thing to have it is better than gold—being a larger premium, but to make a premium, the trade must be perfect. Determine in your mind to be a good workman. Never slip your work. Every job you do is a sign. Poor signs are against success. People always speak well of a man who minds his own business, and who seems disposed to be somebody. This is a queer world; many people are watching us, and help often comes when and from whom we least expect. Confidence is the safe in which men often deposit rich treasures, and as you prove worthy so will your reward of success be.—Canadian Workman.

Frederickton, Sept. 7.—Mystery still surrounds the finding of part of the skeleton of an infant child under the floor of the bathroom at Linden Hall; Dr. J. W. Weaver, coroner, in whose possession the bones are now has, communicated with Attorney General Hazen, but has not as yet had time to get a reply to his letter.

George Bellack, who resided at Linden Hall, a year or so ago, when he read of the ghastly find expressed the opinion that the bones were those of a cat which disappeared while he was living there; It also became reported about the city that the bones were those of a cat, but Dr. Weaver said he was positive the remains were not those of a cat or other animal, but of a child.
