Right in unchanging beauty They have hurried on to face, Reckoning us from the shadows On to the heaven-lit shore; On in the world's cold darkness, Sending their warm soft rays, Waiting us—calling us upward— Beautiful days.

Maritime Farmer.

The Quebec Elections.

The Quebec elections Thursday, resulted disastrously to the Ross Government, which, if not really defeated, will have a majority of only one or two. Mercier and his lieutenants have literally swept the Province, winning at least twenty seats from the Government Conservatives that have never before been carried by the Rielites.

It is difficult to get the exact standing of the parties, in the new House. The Montreal Witness, independent Grit, divides them thus: recognized Conservatives 27, recognized Liberals 31, Nationalists 6, with the Chocomaitsi election not yet held. The Nationalists, who are Conservatives, therefore hold the balance of power. The Montreal Star, independent Conservative, says:—

"The Ross Nationalists are in a desperate hurry for the Government to resign. The Government would not do anything so idiotic. It is by no means certain that the Conservatives are in a minority yet, but they soon would be if they were to resign. Constitutional usage make it incumbent upon them to retain office until they are ousted by an adverse vote of the Legislature, and they will hardly allow themselves to be hurried by the impetuous and unscrupulous tactics of the Opposition, before it is certain that they are in a majority."

"Our own opinion is, from studying the returns and comparing the statements of both parties, that the Government will be able to command a very small majority. The only Grit general Quebec has had since Confederation, existed by the casting vote of the Speaker, and the Ross Government may have to follow that illustrious precedent."

Mr. Blake's French organs are frantic with delight. "La Patrie," the chief of them exclaims:—

"The struggle is over and the Province may be united. It has lived under the banner of the Union, and we will have the united Province. The day of the conquest of 1854 is a day that will be remembered. On the morning of the contest this journal thus appealed to the electors:—

"On the 10th of Nov. our young Catholic nation received the baptism of blood. It received it in the hands of the hero of the hour, the noble and brave Sir John A. Macdonald. A French Canadian, a noble man, paid with his blood for the necessity of maintaining the anti-French political party. We will not be struck down; let us go, let us be strong; let us be united."

And so it is, that Riel dead, is more powerful than Riel alive. We have no desire to conceal the full significance of the result. The corpse of a rehandoned murderer, has become the ally of Blake and his Grit supporters. The French Canadians of Quebec on the race and revenge city, have nearly succeeded, if not altogether, in destroying a good government and all Gritdom connection. "Secessionists in Nova Scotia, annexationists in New Brunswick, Rielites in Quebec, and rebels in the Northwest," all shout in chorus of delight, Mercier's triumph.

The City Hall Meeting.

The Conservatives of York have every reason to feel satisfied with the result of the meeting in the City Hall last Thursday evening, addressed by Hon. Messrs. Thompson, White and Foster. The Hall was well filled with an appreciative audience, composed largely of intelligent electors, representing both parties, and the Ministers were given a splendid hearing. Mr. Wetmore's remarks in introducing the visitors, were well chosen. Mr. Temple M. P., who received a very cordial reception from his constituents, gave briefly his reasons for supporting the Government which has done so much for York County, and made the announcement that he will be a candidate for re-election. We need not add that the Ministers themselves held the close attention of their audience, as they successfully defended the policy of the Government, and triumphantly answered some of the charges made against the administration. Mr. Thompson spoke first, and at once captivated the people by his eloquent and earnest remarks. Mr. White led a splendid impression, and Mr. Foster quite excelled himself. There was an entire absence of abuse and misrepresentation, so common with the Opposition. Not one discourteous word was uttered by any of the speakers. Today we publish the speeches of Messrs. Thompson and White, and we invite our readers to a careful perusal of them. Next week, Mr. Foster's will appear, and we shall take occasion at another time to refer more particularly to the matters treated by the Ministers.

A large number of our citizens will doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity to hear Mr. Justin McCarthy, M. P. in the City Hall, to-morrow evening. The subject of his lecture is "English Statesmen." Mr. McCarthy is one of the most eminent of living Irishmen. He is known as a journalist, a statesman, a historian, and a novelist, and in all of these fields, he has achieved great distinction. After the lecture, the members of the Patriotic Society are to dine the distinguished visitor at the Queen Hotel.

Hon. A. G. Blair has sent a telegram to Mercier, the Rielite leader in Quebec, congratulating him on his success in the race and revenge movement. We may conclude, therefore, that Mr. Blair is among those who believe Riel to have been a patriot.

The Telegraph, as a respectable newspaper, ought to be above publishing the silly and untruthful report of the Conservative meeting here Thursday night, sent by one of its own staff. Such misrepresentation will not help its party, or its own reputation.

The Grit party of York are to hold a convention on the 26th inst., to nominate a candidate for the Commons, in anticipation of a general election this autumn.

Mr. Charles Burpee, M. P. who has been canvassing in Sunbury for two months, has called a convention of his party to select a candidate for the Commons.

The Doings of the Week Concisely Chronicled.

In another column of this paper will be found an advertisement of a Cataract remedy, which is a simple and safe remedy for the terrible scourge, Dr. S. L. Lammiman & Co., the proprietors, are a responsible firm, and anyone who writes them will receive prompt attention and square dealing.

Among the Himalaya's passengers from Halifax the other day was Miss Drury, daughter of W. C. Drury, the Registrar of Probates at St. John's. She goes to Bermuda to be married to Captain Curtis, the retiring commander of the Canada. From Bermuda the happy couple will go to England by the Himalaya. Miss Drury is a niece of Chief Justice Allen.

Mr. Letitia Yeomans of Picton, Ontario, a well-known temperance advocate, told Nicholas Flood Davis, during his visit to Regina, that she looks to John Macdonald to Canada. In an interview she had with the Hon. Mr. Davis, she expressed her hope that public opinion demanding prohibition would be in his power to give prohibition to Canada.

David Kennedy, father of the Kennedy family of Scotch origin, died at the Windsor hotel, Stratford, Ontario, last Wednesday morning from an attack of dysentery. He had been ailing for two or three weeks, but his illness was aggravated by a week ago yesterday, when he reached here, and under medical advice, decided to return to his home in Stratford, Ontario, where he was taken to Edinburgh for treatment.

Five students at the Maine State college are having their names suspended for a week for their conduct in a recent election. The other students cut all relations. Thursday morning the faculty assembled the students, and took counsel with them, and a morning with the senior class, and asked if they were willing to go into retirement, and if not, to be expelled. The students have had justice done them, and were ordered to leave town.

A writer in the Toronto World holds a very high opinion of Hon. G. E. Foster, the speaker. "As for Sir John's colleagues, Prof. Ross, the youngest of them, is making a name for himself, and would not be surprised to see him on the road through Ontario. He is a good speaker, and above all patriotic. His speech at the Murray Canal demonstration, and at Bellefleur, were of a high order, and showed an intimate knowledge of the other ministers, of the interior and of Canada."

George W. McMillen, one of the wealthiest Reformers of Picton, Ontario, who is best known through his connection with the Picton scandal, has been elected to the House of Commons, and has been proposed as the Reform candidate for Prince Edward for the Ontario election, called by the meeting of citizens in the Township Hall of Ameliasburg, on the 18th inst., to discuss the question of annexation to the United States. After Mr. McMillen had spoken in favor of annexation, he was replied to by Rev. John Halliwell, who spoke in favor of the Union, and J. R. Halliwell. The question was then put to the vote of the large audience who unanimously carried the annexation. Mr. McMillen's proposed return to the House of Commons, was warmly received.

The town of Ameliasburg was swept by a terrible conflagration last Thursday which nearly wiped it out of existence. The burning of the houses of the hardware factor, and before it could be controlled, destroyed sixty-two dwellings, eight stores, two hotels, two boarding-houses, five boarding-houses and one hundred and thirty stores, offices and business places. The loss of property is estimated at $1,000,000. Many factory hands lived in boarding-houses which are burned out. Very little property of clothing was saved, and many are in sore distress. The total loss is estimated in round numbers at least half a million dollars. All property insured by insurance except the hardware factor, which could not procure insurance. The hardware factor's loss is estimated at least one hundred thousand dollars of property. Much stock is being destroyed, and many are in sore distress.

A wedding occurred on the stage of the Alexander Hamilton on the Bowery, New York, last Thursday evening. The bride was the Princess Lucy, 19 years old, 27 inches high, and 28 pounds in weight. The groom was General Rinebeck, who weighs 40 pounds, is 38 inches in height, and 20 years of age. The pair stood on a small table in the center of the stage. The bride, who is bright looking and quite pretty, wore a train of white silk with a lace border, and a crown of white flowers. The groom wore a military coat, and a sword at his side. The ceremony was performed in an amused manner, and the bride and groom were both very happy. The bride's father, who is a wealthy merchant, is said to be about the age of his children as a good Republican citizen of the United States.

A big crowd of well-known horsemen assembled at the sale of Lord-Liard's celebrated horses at Jobstown, New Jersey, Friday. The stock sold was said to represent an estimated value of a million dollars. The stallion Ironsides, foaled in 1878, was the greatest horse ever known in the history of the world. He is the only American horse that has won the English Derby, and the only one that has won the Kentucky Derby, and the only one that has won the Preakness Stakes, and the only one that has won the Belmont Stakes.
