At a recent great ball at the Russian court all the ladies appeared in white, without any other ornaments than diamonds, pearls and their own beauty. The Empress herself was present, and danced in nearly every dance. The scene is said to have been marvelously beautiful. The White Room in the Winter Palace, where the ball was held, is so large that 3,000 persons danced there with ease.

Prince Bismarck is fond of walking, and whenever his health allows he still goes out on foot (always accompanied by hisbig dog), and wears his military cap and tunic; but, instead of dangling a sword, as a few years back, he now leans on a cane. When the hastead of danging a word, as a When the young Emperor William either rides or walks out he is invariably in full regimentals, with a long cavalry sabre hung from his waist, and on foot it is his custom to manipulate in addition a stick, not quite as substantial, however, as the stout, tall

An interesting controversy is under way An interesting controversy is under way in the English papers as to whether ladies should ride man fashion, it having been inted that several well-known lady riders ontemplated taking a bold step this season that direction. Field, in a long editorial, condemns the scheme, declaring that the side saddle is a better seat for the woman than the cross saddle safer and more comside saddle is a better seat for the woman than the cross saddle, safer and more comfortable while riding, and less dangerous in case of accident. Among other arguments it advances is the one that the natural roundness of a woman's limbs renders her unable to keep a secure seat on a cross saddle. Plump and round-limbed men, it asserts, can never be good riders.

Murder Mystery.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 3.—Some facts came to light Saturday in regard to the man found in the subway near Princeton some days ago. When the Toronto express arrived two large wooden chests, addressed to H. Benweil, Clinton, Ont., were found in the bonded compartment of the Canadian Express Company's office here, having arrived on Feb. 18 in bond through the United States from New York. Upon making inquiries at the hotels it was learned that two young Englishmen by the names of J. Burchell and Mr. Pelley, the former a married man who had his wife with him, had been stopping at Mr. Baldwin's private boarding-house for the past two weeks, and knew something of who the man found dead at Princeton was, and that Mr. Burchell and wife had left here Friday for Princeton and Mr. Pelley had returned to New York the same day.

BURCHELL'S STATEMENT.

It was learned at Mr. Baldwin's that Burchell would return this evening, and he did by the 8 o'clock G. T. R. train, and the following statement was made by him: "The dead man's name was Fred. C. Benwell, of London, Eng. He was 34 years of age, and well connected, his father being an officer in the British army.

Burnell was arrested, being tomate to wis boarding-house.

It has come to light since the arrest that Burchell was in this place one year ago accompanied by his wife, the same woman that is with him now, and stopped at the Imperial Hotel, registering as Mr. and Mrs. Somerset, arriving at midnight and remaining a day or two. Upon their return on Feb. 19 last they went to the same hotel. The proprietor recognizing them, they renewed their acquaintance, but said that on account of his good family connections and his coming on this trip trading in horses he took the name of Burchell and wished to be called and known by that alias.

THE SUSPECT.

Burchell has a dark complexion, black mustache, sharp features, front teeth badly decayed, is about 5 feet 9 inches, weighs about 150 pounds, about 30 years of age, has a tired expression around the eyes and is of a jovial disposition. His wife is a slender, rather pleasant-faced blonde, and has the appearance of being a highly-educated and refined English lady. Burchell will be brought up this morning for a hearing before the Polico Magistrate.

doubt but that the motive for the murder of Benwell was to obtain his money, and it may turn out that he may have had a large sum, coming as he did to Canada to purchase a farm in the best part of Ontario. It is even said that he intended to visit the fine stock-farm of T. C. Patterson, near Eastwood, and look that outfit over, having heard that a portion of it was in the market. One of the strangest things about this murder is that the body was discovered in the loneliest part of the county of Oxford. If Benweil's old country friends knew anything of the murder then how did they know of so lonely and desolate a spot to deposit the body? It would be supposed that no one but a person with a thorough knowledge of the whole neighboring country could select the Blenheim swamp as a hiding place for his ghastly victim. There is abundant evidence to show that Benwell was not murdered where he was found. He was done for at some other point and his life-less body driven to the swamp where it was expected it would never be found.

Dr. Talmage Discourses on the Revision of Greeds.

BROOKLYN, March 2.—At the Tabernacle this morning the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D.D., said he though the new Brooklyn, Tabernacle would be dedicated in September. The subject of his discourse was "Revision of Creeds," and he took for his text John, xi., 4: "Loose him, and let him go." Dr. Talmage gaid:

My Bible is, at the place of this text, written all over with lead penell marks made last December at Bethany on the ruins of the house of his the property of the summer evening retreat of Jesus. After spending the day in the hot city of Jerusalem he would come out there almost every evening to the house of his three friends. I think the occupants of that house were orphan, and the son and two daughters must have inherited property, for it must have inherited property, for it must have been, judging from what I saw of the foundations and size of the rooms an opulent home. Lazarus, the brother, was now the head of the household and his sisters were in consternation. Father gone and mother gone, they feel very nervous lest they be set his brother also. Discasse his its quick. From the characteristics otherwhere exclosed I judge that Martha prepared the medicine and made tempting dishes of food for the poor appetite of the send and the most poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the contact of the poor appetite of the send and the poor appetite of the send and the poor appetite of the send an dismounted from our horses on the way up from Jordan to the Dead Sea. Bethany was the summer evening retreat of Josus. After spending the day in the hot city of Jerusalem he would come out there almost every evening to the house of his three friends. I think the occupants of that house were orphans, for the father and mother are not mentioned. But the son and two deaphers must have inherited property, for it must have been, judging from what I saw of the foundations and size of the rooms an opulent home. Lazarus, the brother, was now the head of the household and his sisters depended on him and were proud of him, for he was very popular and everybody liked him, and these girls wice of him for he was very popular and everybody liked him, and these girls where the summer of him for he was very popular and everybody liked him, and these girls where the summer of him for he was very popular and everybody liked him, and these girls where the him of him for he was very popular and everybody liked him, and these girls where and hard hard head of the household and his sisters were in consternation. The regular meeting of the Societies
Demonstration Committee was neld in the City Hall on Saturday evening. Present:
Mr. John Fairgrieve (chairman), Messrs.

Logie, Peters, Wallace, Gillett, Matthews, Webb, Gardner, Croft, Tuxford Secretary T. H. Lowe. A communication from the Secretary of the Board of Trade, stating that there was not sufficient warrant for the calling of a meeting of their committee again, was filed and placed on the minutes. Mr. Rossiter, one of the committee appointed to canvass the hotel-keepers reported that some had responded generously, while others gave the matter the cold shoulder completely.

Chairman Fairgrieve called attention to an article which appeared in the ADVERTISER of Friday last under the heading "Will It Fail?" and handed a copy of it to Secretary Lowe to read. The Secretary proceeded to read it, punctuating it with comments of his own, for which he was sharply called to order by the Chairman. Mr. Fairgrieve expressed the opinion that if the committee did not receive more financial support the carnival would go to the wall.

Mr. John Walters suggested that a sub-the wall.

Mr. John Walters suggested that a subscription list be opened and published in the papers, as it would not do to trust to the lodges alone, as some of them were weak and had not the money available.

Mr. Wallace was of the opinion that the matter should be thoroughly and freely advertised in the city press. He thought that the ADVERTISER Company had done remarkably well in this regard and set a good example.

that the Advertiser Company had done remarkably well in this regard and set a good example.

Mr. E. Gillett proffered his services as a canvasser on Saturday afternoon.
On motion the names of the Chairman and Mr. G. Hiscox were added to the list of canvassers, and appointed to wait on the city press and ask them to help the committee along.

Mr. A. E. Peters stated that Mr. L. K. Cameron, of the Advertiser Company, had promised to do everything in his power to help along the work of the committee.

Several members of the committee representing societies said the reason for the non-interest shown in some quarters was because they were not sure where the liability would end.

Mr. McLelland thought that a great difficulty would be obviated if the seal was removed from the credentials.

Mr. Fairgrieve—I would be willing to take the word of honor of any court for Sl. But, if we as a committee must pay them. Any lodge that has a seal should attach it to their credentials and show that they are willing to pay a fair share. In case they do not I for one will not take any responsibility for such debts. The word of honor would be all very well with the men on the committee, but it would be more difficult when it came before the lodges.

Mr. McLelland moved that the clause was the moved from the committee, but it would be more difficult when it came before the lodges.

Mr. McLelland moved that the clause directing the attaching of the court seal be rescined so that all might be placed on an equal footing in case of a deficit. Messrs. Tuxford and Gillett opposed Mr. McLel.

Tuxford and Gillett opposed Mr. Melerland's motion.

After further discussion Chairman Fairgrieve said the matter would have to stand as a notice of motion. It will come up for discussion at the meeting two weeks hence.

Mr. G. Hiscox asked whether the delegates whose credentials had not the seal would have a vote. Chairman Fairgrieve replied that they would not have a vote until the motion shall be amended.

AT LAST!

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terr results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and dangerous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay amoment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with inspannia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact *Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

tolerably sure, as the recent hanging proves. BECAUSE the late John Jacob Astor left $750,000 for public and charitable purposes in the city by the growth of which he and his father made all their wealth, he has been belauded by many newspapers as a philanthropist. It must not be forgotten, however, that after paying out the bequests, $150,000,000 will be left for the son of the deceased millionaire. If a man worth $150,000 were to die in London, and leave $750 to charities, would there be much fuss about his benevolence?

THE Hamilton Times asserts that for nearly three months the molders of that city have been out of work, a state of actually a scarcity of tradesmen at the present time. The Engineering and Minpresent time. The Engineering and Mining Journal says: "It is reported that the application for skilled workmen is such that the unions cannot supply all that are needed. Even in which the humblest of the people, lie of 'a million of men out of employment' is no longer heard in the land."

Ir seems decidedly unfair that in a granted that the next general election will either be very soon, or postponed till there is an opportunity to again gerrymander the constituencies on the findings of the census of 1891.

The company also proposes and shipped. The company also proposes to pay 50 cents per gallon for the oil made from seals that may be taken from the islands and sold by it; also to furnish free of charge to the native inhabitants of the islands annually such quantity or number of dried sal-mon as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct; also to furnish, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to the native inhabitants the salt and barrels necessary for preserving meat. It also engages to maintain a public school on each island for not less than eight months a year, and to duly compensate the islanders for all work performed. During the first year the number of skins to be taken is limited to 60,000, and in subsequent years the Secretary of the Treasury can decide the number. It is apparent that this official remains pretty much boss of the situation. There will be great temptation to "stand in" with the monopolists. How the new company will be affected by the regulations that are expected to result from the present international conference on the preservation of the seal remains to be seen.

NOT SO VERY PRAISEWORTHY

The Chicago Tribune is sounding the raises of President Harrison because he woked the unjust centence of a court martial upon a private soldier away up in northwest, and administered a the wild deserved rebuke to the officer who directed the trial. We do not know what else the Boswell, one of Toronto's dyed-in-the-wool President of the United States could have done when the matter was called to his anti-Jesuit agitation was at its height, and notice. He did the least to be expected of him, and he acted only after the Tribune position to the course dictated on that itself had most pointedly and elaborately demanded interference at his hands. country where so many changes take place in a year, the voters' lists should not be revised every year. What crowds of people would be without votes in municipal elections, for example, if the lists were left unpurged and unamended for three or four years, as were the Dominion lists, compiled to suit the whim of the Tory bosses who dared not trust the electorate to vote on the honestly-compiled municipal lists. The system, autocrat Chapleau has told Parliament, will be continued. It has already cost the taxpayers over $566,000, and to reconcile them to it the Government says that the revision will not take place yearly, but be fixed by Ministers to suit themselves. Mr. Platt, M.P., desires to let the public know whether or not a revision may be expected in 1890, and will ask the question to night. If the answer is "No revision to hight. Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

The Asylum Insurance Suit.

The last number of the Budget says: The Attorney-General of Outario vs. the Ætna et al 24 insurance companies, in the matter of the insurance on fhe Asylum for the Insone, London, Ont., destruction of a section of the main building in December, 1888. The claim was $16,639 19, divided equally among the 24 companies. At the trial before the Assize Judges in Toronto, a jury was dispensed with by both parties. The judgment was given for the Attorney-General with costs. It was then taken to the Court of Appeal by the defendant companies, and now the unanimous judgment of the Court of Appeal has been rendered affiming, with costs, the decision of the court below, thus leaving the victory with the Attorney-General, and confirming the view generally of authorities on insurance law.
