

In the Pale Moonlight

Boston Won the First Game for the Temple Cup.

Medicos of the Western University at Bat.

The London Rugby Football Club Fully Organized.

Turf, Cricket, Cycling and Other Sporting Events.

BASEBALL.

FOR THE TEMPLE CUP.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 5. — The new champions took the first game for the Temple cup yesterday, defeating the Baltimore in a close contest, more through a combination of lucky hits and daring base-running, assisted by darkness in the last two innings, than by any superiority of play. Neither team showed championship form, while the work of the home team was at times very much below the mark. The Orioles batted Nichols for the first time, and would have given Lewis a similar dose if they could have seen the ball in the last two innings of the game, the umpire, keeping the players at it until some time after sundown. The weather was perfect, and one of the highest crowds of the year turned out. Jennings was easily the star of the game, his batting being terrific, while his great work at short was much better than that of his rival, Long. For the home team, Capt. Duffy led his men in hitting and base-running, while Hamilton took two files in the field on the dead run. Score: Boston..... R. H. E. Baltimore..... 12 20 4

Batteries—Nichols, Lewis and Bergen; Nops and Clark.

SAWBONES AT BAT.

An interesting game of baseball was played on Monday afternoon by the Western medicals on the university campus. The opposing sides were drawn from the first and second year vs. the third and fourth year. The game resulted in a victory for the first and second year. Score: R. H. E. 1st and 2nd year..... 16 17 4 3rd and 4th year..... 12 20 4

Batteries—Hecher and Armstrong; Clark, Bakins and Clay. Umpire, McMillan.

TURKISH VIEW OF AN OUTFIT.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Winthrop Hopkins, of this city, is a professor of mathematics in Roberts College, Constantinople. He came here to visit his father, Rev. S. C. Hopkins, this summer, and when he returned to Europe a few weeks ago he took with him a baseball catcher's mask and gloves for one of the students. The Turkish customs officers found them in one of Prof. Hopkins' trunks, and concluding that they were a part of an assassin's outfit, confiscated them and placed the professor under surveillance. The intervention of the United States minister was necessary before the owner could get possession of the implements, and when they were recovered they were of no value. The mask had been battered out of shape and the gloves were full of holes made by the probes of the examiners.

FLYS. It is doubtful if Sockalexis can get in shape to play next season. His blood poisoning is serious.

The Friday and Saturday games at Baltimore put $4,000 into the Boston treasury. Monday's game would add about $3,000 to this sum.

Arthur Irwin is reported to have made about $10,000 this season for Toronto venture. The Canadians have gone wild over baseball.

Boston wants Pitcher Donahue, who is under suspension by St. Louis, and has offered $5,000 for him. Chris will take the money without a doubt.

Bill Lange, of Brooklyn, earned a run out of 18 games this year on account of sickness. Everett out of 32. Callahan 15, Dahlan 48 and Decker 22.

Checkard, of Brooklyn, earned a job for himself next season by swatting the ball for two home runs on Saturday.

The story is now going the rounds that Jim Corbett is in very bad shape.

DANGEROUS NEGLIGENCE. Some people have as little regard for their health as the man who goes into a powder magazine smoking a pipe for his safety. If there is any difference in their reckless negligence it is in favor of the latter.

Health is the most precious gift of nature. The aim of all should be its preservation. It is easier to retain than to regain once it is lost. Keep the blood pure and the system strong and healthful and you will be able to withstand disease.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt has done this for many—it will do it for you. A teaspoonful every morning, before breakfast, keeps you in a state of insusceptibility to disease. Here are some words of praise we have received from prominent persons in England.

Mr. Sims Reeves says: "This preparation is a great boon, simple, refreshing and effective."

Madame Marie Rose says: "I have used your Abbey's Effervescent Salt with remarkable results. It is really wonderful."

Sir Henry Irving says: "It has certainly not been over-rated."

Madame Claretta Wilson says: "I have much pleasure in stating that I find your Abbey's Effervescent Salt a very refreshing and agreeable beverage."

Our booklet "An Invitation to Health" may interest you—it's free. This great English Preparation can be had of all druggists.

Price 2/6 or 6/6 a bottle.

THE ABBEY EFFERVESCENT SALT CO., LIMITED, MONTREAL, CANADA.

and appears to be in the first stages of consumption.

Ned Hanlon was offered a quarter interest in the Pittsburgh club and a yearly salary of $12,000 to take charge of the Pirates before Watkins was signed for the position. Hanlon will manage the Baltimore next season.

What amazed the Baltimore batsmen most in the recent series with Boston was the quickness of Collins and Tenney in handling bunt hits. Tenney has the trick down so fine that he often prevents sacrifices by catching the base-runner at second.

Fred Pfeiffer has been offered the management of the Minneapolis team for next season. He is also sure of a place on Nick Young's staff of umpires next year. Yet a week ago he was penniless, and was the recipient of a benefit at Chicago.

McAllister, of Cleveland, is a pretty good utility man. This year he has pitched a number of games, covered the catcher's position when necessary, and played infield and outfield positions the balance of the season. Cleveland developed Wallace, another man who is a pitcher, into one of the best third basemen in the league.

WHEEL.

MICHAEL'S DEFEAT.

Although Jimmy Michael was defeated on Saturday by Frank Starbuck, the "hard luck" rider, no one is willing to admit that he is a better rider than the Welshman. The finish was extremely close, Starbuck winning in the 25 miles by only six yards. The time was 47:02 2-5, while Michael's time was only one-fifth of a second slower.

Before Michael can claim the world's championship, he must defeat J. W. McKinnon, of England. Stocks has every record that Michael has made. His last was to break every record between 6 and 32 miles. He made the 32 miles in 41:34 2-5. This record is 2:43 2-5 better than Michael made at Manhattan Beach. Stocks' record, however, was on indoor track, while Michael's was made against a strong wind. Stocks is coming to this rider cannot stay there at much slower than a two-minute gait. This gives some idea of the scientific point to which the foreigners have brought their tracks and the paced games.

Michael's wife is in Chicago, where Michael announces his intention of building a house at the close of the racing season. As Jimmy has won only $13,800 this year, and his salary will bring this amount close up to $20,000 before the year closes, he ought to be able to build a little "shack" at least.

SPOKES.

Bald, accompanied by A. G. Bald, elder, of the New York Journal, will sail for Europe Oct. 13. Bald expects to come about month of six weeks, perhaps longer. He will carefully look over the racing ground in England and France, and if he thinks that there is any value in the mask had been battered out of shape and the gloves were full of holes made by the probes of the examiners.

It is doubtful if Sockalexis can get in shape to play next season. His blood poisoning is serious.

The Friday and Saturday games at Baltimore put $4,000 into the Boston treasury. Monday's game would add about $3,000 to this sum.

Arthur Irwin is reported to have made about $10,000 this season for Toronto venture. The Canadians have gone wild over baseball.

Boston wants Pitcher Donahue, who is under suspension by St. Louis, and has offered $5,000 for him. Chris will take the money without a doubt.

Bill Lange, of Brooklyn, earned a run out of 18 games this year on account of sickness. Everett out of 32. Callahan 15, Dahlan 48 and Decker 22.

Checkard, of Brooklyn, earned a job for himself next season by swatting the ball for two home runs on Saturday.

The story is now going the rounds that Jim Corbett is in very bad shape.

and appears to be in the first stages of consumption.

Ned Hanlon was offered a quarter interest in the Pittsburgh club and a yearly salary of $12,000 to take charge of the Pirates before Watkins was signed for the position. Hanlon will manage the Baltimore next season.

What amazed the Baltimore batsmen most in the recent series with Boston was the quickness of Collins and Tenney in handling bunt hits. Tenney has the trick down so fine that he often prevents sacrifices by catching the base-runner at second.

Fred Pfeiffer has been offered the management of the Minneapolis team for next season. He is also sure of a place on Nick Young's staff of umpires next year. Yet a week ago he was penniless, and was the recipient of a benefit at Chicago.

McAllister, of Cleveland, is a pretty good utility man. This year he has pitched a number of games, covered the catcher's position when necessary, and played infield and outfield positions the balance of the season. Cleveland developed Wallace, another man who is a pitcher, into one of the best third basemen in the league.

WHEEL.

MICHAEL'S DEFEAT.

Although Jimmy Michael was defeated on Saturday by Frank Starbuck, the "hard luck" rider, no one is willing to admit that he is a better rider than the Welshman. The finish was extremely close, Starbuck winning in the 25 miles by only six yards. The time was 47:02 2-5, while Michael's time was only one-fifth of a second slower.

Before Michael can claim the world's championship, he must defeat J. W. McKinnon, of England. Stocks has every record that Michael has made. His last was to break every record between 6 and 32 miles. He made the 32 miles in 41:34 2-5. This record is 2:43 2-5 better than Michael made at Manhattan Beach. Stocks' record, however, was on indoor track, while Michael's was made against a strong wind. Stocks is coming to this rider cannot stay there at much slower than a two-minute gait. This gives some idea of the scientific point to which the foreigners have brought their tracks and the paced games.

Michael's wife is in Chicago, where Michael announces his intention of building a house at the close of the racing season. As Jimmy has won only $13,800 this year, and his salary will bring this amount close up to $20,000 before the year closes, he ought to be able to build a little "shack" at least.

SPOKES.

Bald, accompanied by A. G. Bald, elder, of the New York Journal, will sail for Europe Oct. 13. Bald expects to come about month of six weeks, perhaps longer. He will carefully look over the racing ground in England and France, and if he thinks that there is any value in the mask had been battered out of shape and the gloves were full of holes made by the probes of the examiners.

It is doubtful if Sockalexis can get in shape to play next season. His blood poisoning is serious.

The Friday and Saturday games at Baltimore put $4,000 into the Boston treasury. Monday's game would add about $3,000 to this sum.

Arthur Irwin is reported to have made about $10,000 this season for Toronto venture. The Canadians have gone wild over baseball.

Boston wants Pitcher Donahue, who is under suspension by St. Louis, and has offered $5,000 for him. Chris will take the money without a doubt.

Bill Lange, of Brooklyn, earned a run out of 18 games this year on account of sickness. Everett out of 32. Callahan 15, Dahlan 48 and Decker 22.

Checkard, of Brooklyn, earned a job for himself next season by swatting the ball for two home runs on Saturday.

The story is now going the rounds that Jim Corbett is in very bad shape.

and appears to be in the first stages of consumption.

Ned Hanlon was offered a quarter interest in the Pittsburgh club and a yearly salary of $12,000 to take charge of the Pirates before Watkins was signed for the position. Hanlon will manage the Baltimore next season.

What amazed the Baltimore batsmen most in the recent series with Boston was the quickness of Collins and Tenney in handling bunt hits. Tenney has the trick down so fine that he often prevents sacrifices by catching the base-runner at second.

Fred Pfeiffer has been offered the management of the Minneapolis team for next season. He is also sure of a place on Nick Young's staff of umpires next year. Yet a week ago he was penniless, and was the recipient of a benefit at Chicago.

McAllister, of Cleveland, is a pretty good utility man. This year he has pitched a number of games, covered the catcher's position when necessary, and played infield and outfield positions the balance of the season. Cleveland developed Wallace, another man who is a pitcher, into one of the best third basemen in the league.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

costs more than other medicines. But then it cures more than other medicines.

Most of the cheap cough medicines merely palliate; they afford local and temporary relief. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral does not patch up or palliate. It cures.

Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, and every other cough, will, when other remedies fail, yield to

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

It has a record of 50 years of cures. Send for the "Curebook"—free.

J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

his horses, being third on the list of winning horsesmen.

At Aymer on Saturday, Gold Ring gave an exhibition without a driver in 2:19, doing the first half in 1:11 and the second half in 1:08.

King Binger, the runner, has been sold for $1,200 in Chicago.

Imp, Bothen, the sire of Requitul and other good ones, is dead in Louisville. He was valued at $30,000.

Little Joker, the winner of the 2:30 pace at Springfield on Saturday, has been protested. It is alleged that he is a ringer.

ATHLETICS.

A DRAW.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 5.—The twenty rounds whiff Frank Erno, of Buffalo, the once conquerer of George Dixon, and Jim Popp, were billed to go at a draw at the close of the Toronto Athletic Club Saturday night.

Each man landed a number of cutting blows, Erno's face being somewhat disfigured at one time. Neither had any decided advantage, and the referee, in accordance with the agreement made between Erno and Popp themselves, declared it to be a draw.

Both men being on their feet and apparently equally strong at the end of the twentieth round. The men fought for a purse of $400, which will be divided.

CORBETT'S PURCHASE.

New York, Oct. 5.—James J. Corbett, the ex-champion pugilist, has bought the three-story limestone front on the corner of 125 West One Hundred and Nineteenth streets, between Lenox and Seventh avenues. Corbett will live in the house. He paid about $27,000 for the place.

THE LUTGERT TRIAL

Seems Likely to Last for Three More Weeks—Battle of the Bones.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The seventh week of the trial of James J. Luetgert, the alleged wife murderer, opened yesterday with an undiminished crush of people, at the criminal court building. Only those who possessed tickets were admitted.

The trial will last at least three weeks today. "When the defense closes we shall have at least a week of rebuttal," said the prosecutor.

When the defense will come along with another week of the same kind of evidence. If we get through with the speeches in a week's time we shall be doing well."

The battle of the bones was waged all day, one set of experts disputing the identifications and theories of the other. Luetgert is not likely to go on the witness stand until next week.

He is still impatient to tell his story. "In three hours' time I could convince that jury of my innocence," said Luetgert. "I will give it to them straight, and make them believe me when I get on the stand. They can't lie Luetgert to the gallows. My story will make everything plain."

Autumn Fashions and Diamond Dyes.

Golden Brown Will Be in Favor This Season.

The Diamond Dyes have two great necessary foundation qualities. They are true agents of economy, and they are also fashion creators.

Color, shade and tone count immensely in the world of fashion. The woman who wears an out-of-date color is set down as an extremely careless and indifferent mortal, and she is severely criticised for her lack of taste.

For ladies' autumn dresses and costumes a golden shade of brown is the correct thing and will be in great demand this season.

The Diamond Dye Fast Brown, Golden Shade, for Wool, will produce this shade in all its full richness and beauty. Any faded or soiled wool dress of any light color can be quite renewed for another year's wear at a very trifling cost.

Ask your dealer for Diamond Dye Fast Brown, Golden Shade. Do not accept the common dyes sold by some dealers for the sake of extra profit.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best remedy ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhea, cholera, and all summer complaints, relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

Time destroys the speculations of man; but it confirms the judgment of Nature.—Cleopatra.

Dyspepsia Cured. Shiloh's Vitisalizer immediately relieves Sour Stomach, Coming up of Food Distress, and is the great kidney and liver trouble. Sold by all druggists.

Western Ontario.

Five Barns Have Been Set on Fire in Chatham Township.

Ex-Mayor Titus, of Blenheim, Very Badly Injured.

Windsor's Real Estate Valued by the Assessor at $5,163,914—Norwood's Cheese Factory Burned.

Charles Wesley Pray, Alvinston, Lambton county, has been appointed bailiff.

The receipts of the Guelph Central Exhibition were $7,700 for the two days, and the expenditure about the same.

Mr. Dugald McCarthy, employed in Still's handle factory, St. Thomas, had his left thumb taken off in a shaper on Saturday.

According to the latest assessment Galt's population is 7,418, with taxable property, real and personal, to the amount of $2,322,350.

The brick work is now completed on the new Trinity Church at Mitchell. The carpenters are pushing the inside work along rapidly.

Gordon Loop, of Kingsville, had his hand so badly smashed in the duster at the Kingsville woolen mill that it had to be amputated.

At a special meeting of the directors of the Howard Branch Agricultural Society arrangements were made to have a bicycle race take place, open to the country.

Mrs. McIntosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Westcott, of West Lorne, died Sunday evening of cancer of the breast.

A 5-year-old boy named Benetaneau was going to visit his uncle, P. Benetaneau, of Sandwich. He jumped off the car before it had stopped and had his scalp badly cut.

The Dresden Methodist board of control received $150 insurance for damage done to the spire of the church by lightning. Contract for repairing and painting was let for $157.

The estate of T. W. G. Cale, of Stratford, shows liabilities of $1,085 25, and assets of $37 12. The preferred claims, amounting to $157 54, and costs amounting to $50, will be more than the assets.

Mr. Orville St. John Scott, son of Rev. W. E. Scott, of Ridgeway, has passed a successful entrance examination at Berkeley Divinity College, Middletown, Connecticut, and was awarded a classical scholarship with $125.

The death of Mr. Hannah, assistant stationer at Chatham, occurred on Saturday after a brief illness. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. D. D. Black, of Chatham, and Miss Hannah, of the Elgin county clerk's office.

All horsemen and friends of Mr. Frank Helmer, of Aymer, will be very sorry to hear that the beautiful little pacer, Gipsy J., had to be killed because of falling and breaking her leg in the third heat of a race at Malone, N. Y.

The concert in aid of the Bothwell Methodist paragon fund in the town hall last week was a success. Misses Sussex and Baylie and Messrs. Reid and Davis assisted in the programme. Twenty-five dollars was taken in at the door.

Charles F. Erret, of Chatham, has been appointed by the Woodstock Collegiate Institute board to the temporary position of English master of the junior class. Mr. Erret received the appointment out of 23 applicants. His salary will be at the rate of $600 per annum.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

Monday morning a fire, which originated from some unknown cause in the boiler room, destroyed the Norwood cheese factory, owned by E. C. Squire. About $2,300 worth of cheese, which was insured for $100,000, was lost.

MUNYON PRAISED

People in Every Walk of Life Unite in Praising His Humane Work.

THEY SPEAK THE TRUTH

Well-Known Citizens Tell of Benefits Received—His Grand Work in London.

MUNYON'S SKILLED PHYSICIANS

Will Give You a Careful Examination and Advise the Best Course to Pursue to Get Well.

NOT A CENT FOR MEDICAL ADVICE

MR. ANDREW KEENE.

at the Home for Aged People, Richmond street, London, Ont., says: "I am 61 years of age, and suffered from rheumatism for eleven years. I was first attacked during that period of time, and had been under a number of expert doctors in the United States, and also Canada, for months at a time, but they could not cure or even help me. I have used a number of supposed good remedies, and have applied every liniment that I thought would help me—but all in vain. My condition was such that sleep was out of the question, during one of these attacks. My appetite was

London Advertiser.

FOUNDED BY JOHN CAMERON IN 1862.

The Daily Advertiser.

TWO EDITIONS.

Daily, by mail, per year (8 to 16 pages) $4.00
Daily, by mail, for three months $1.00
All subscriptions payable in advance

Western Advertiser

(OUR WEEKLY EDITION.)

By mail, per annum $7.50

Advertising Rates made known on application at office. Add $5.00 communications to

ADVERTISER PRINTING CO. (LIMITED)

LONDON - CANADA.

JOHN CAMERON, President and
Manager, P.R.God's in His heaven,
All's right with the world.
—Browning.

London, Tuesday, October 5, 1897.

A Famous Letter Revived.

It is noteworthy that at the recent trial of Mr. Grenier for libelling Mr. Jarte, the Deputy Minister of Public Works at Ottawa, an appointee of Sir Hector Langevin when he was Minister, gave important testimony in regard to the question of tendering, raised by the introduction of the letter written by a Mr. Pettit to a public tenderer, in which occurred the now famous phrase, "Business is business." Hitherto the attempt has always been made by Opposition orators and newspapers to make-believe that Mr. Jarte wrote the letter, and that it was a corrupt transaction. The Deputy Minister, however, testified that the Public Works Department had simply followed the ordinary custom in writing to Mr. Pettit, the defeated Liberal candidate in Terrebonne, regarding the awarding of a coal contract, when there were several equally low tenders, which led to the "business is business" letter. He produced letters similar to that written to Mr. Pettit, which were written to Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, Hon. George E. Foster and Hon. W. H. Montague in 1895 by the department under similar circumstances, asking which tenderer should get the contract. He also produced similar telegrams to Mr. McKeen, M. P. for Cape Breton, and to Mr. McDougall, M. P. for Pictou. So far as Mr. Jarte was concerned, therefore, his action in regard to the matter was perfectly straightforward and in accordance with the methods pursued by the department. Why is it that there is such persistency in misrepresenting the Minister? The Opposition tacticians surely do not hope to gain anything by their unfairness.

The Canadian (England) Gazette announces that a marked change is surely joining over the reputation of Canadian butter in British markets, especially those of London and Manchester. "It," said a large Scotch dealer to Prof. Robertson the other day, after examining a lot of Canadian creamery butter fresh from a cold storage chamber, "yon Canadians can send butter like that all the time, you will take a first place in the markets here." That is just what the Canadians mean to do. Already they are making good headway in Britain, in the year ended Aug. 31, 1897, foreign countries supplied 88.6 per cent of British butter imports, and the colonies only 11.4 per cent. But of that colonial contribution, Canada sent $2,823 cwt., a marked improvement upon former returns. All Australia sent 198,142 cwt., and New Zealand 71,753 cwt. Of the total British cheese imports of 2,449,043 cwt., Canada sent no less than 1,394,322 cwt., or 57 per cent of the total British cheese import. Recent London prices for Canadian cheddar have averaged 45s 6d per cwt. That is what quality does!

Bicycle Collisions.

Recent accidents through reckless riding of bicycles are causing a demand for more vigorous enforcement of the law against "scorching," and if need be for severer penalties against transgressors. The accident in this city, reported in The Advertiser yesterday, is a case in illustration. A lady is knocked down and is seriously injured by two men riding a tandem. They decamp, leaving their victim helpless on the street. Is not their action an acknowledgment of guilt? In any case, it was a shameful exhibition of inhumanity, and it is to be hoped there are few wheelmen who are animated by a like spirit.

The necessity for compelling carefulness in riding is emphasized by reliable statistics of the accidents which took place in the United States during the past month. There were in all 818 accidents reported to wheelmen alone, 33 resulting fatally at the time and 26 finally causing death. Collisions with other riders caused 227 accidents, 5 fatalities and 3 probably so. Other statistics show: Collisions with vehicles, 128; with street cars, 33; dogs, 9; hogs, 1; chickens, 1; cows, 2; thrown from wheels, 233; fell over embankments, 8; breakage of machine, 25. Over-exertion injured four and killed four. Three were disabled by holes in the ground, and five were hurt by slipping of wheel. Miscellaneous causes injured fourteen, while ten were hurt by unknown agencies.

We have no doubt that if statistics had been accumulated of accidents in this country, the number would, in proportion to population, have been as great, if not greater. The probability is, indeed, that far more people are killed or injured by the agency of the wheel in a week than are killed or injured on all the railway systems of the country.

This is a state of affairs calculated to cause alarm and to induce caution. In many cities on the other side the necessity for protecting the public against the foolhardiness of the comparatively few wheelmen who care little for the safety of themselves or their fellows, has been fully recognized. The rate of speed is not only stipulated, as in this city, but it is enacted that wheelmen must sit erect while passing along the thoroughfares, so that they may the better use their eyes, and be the less tempted to "scorch." It may be that it will be necessary also to generally enact that the wheelman who collides with a person shall be held to be criminally guilty if he rides off immediately after an accident, and before necessary help has been rendered.

Hon. Mr. Jarte's political enemies refuse to accept the verdict of the jury, guided by the charge of a judge who, as he was a Conservative politician before he was put on the bench. This determination upon the part of the Opposition partisans may surprise some people; but the Opposition attitude might have been expected. Mr. Jarte is hated and traduced, because at one time he was a Conservative, and saw fit to change his allegiance and to work for a change of Administration.

Death of J. S. Smith, ex-M.P.P.

We regret to have to chronicle the death, at 4 a.m. on Monday, of Mr. James S. Smith, Maple Lodge, McGillivray township. Mr. Smith had been ailing for some time, and his death was not unexpected. He had lived in the township for 41 years, and was for a long period a leader in every movement for the advancement of the common good of the community. In 1869 he organized the McGillivray Agricultural Society, and held the office of president for sixteen years. In 1863 he was elected reeve of McGillivray, and held the office till 1896, being one of the county councilors at the time McGillivray was detached from Huron and added to Middlesex. Since then Mr. Smith has always taken a lively interest in municipal affairs. For two Parliaments—from Confederation till 1875—he sat in the Ontario Legislature for North Middlesex. Though not given to much speaking, he was recognized by Hon. Edward Blake and other leaders of the Liberal party as an able representative, and because of his varied experience he gave valuable aid in the shaping of legislation. As a farmer, Mr. Smith held progressive views. He was one of the most successful stock raisers in Ontario, and he naturally prided himself on his flocks and herds. Mr. Smith was a man of kindly disposition, and he had a host of friends, who will much regret to hear of his death. His family are all grown up.

The funeral takes place tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

Our School System.

There was a non-political gathering, to celebrate the opening of a new school, in Hamilton the other day. Mr. Adam Brown, who but recently represented Hamilton in the House of Commons in the Conservative interest, highly praised Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Minister of Education. He said that the member for West Middlesex was a great man who had performed great services to his country, and deserved a statue like that by which the memory of Egerton Ryerson is perpetuated. Senator Sanford, another of the speakers, and the leading Conservative in Hamilton, gave testimony to the practical nature of the Ontario school system. He said that in the big business establishments of the west, and even in Mexico, he finds the reputation of our Canadian youth for ability and trustworthiness is well known and that they are favorites for good positions. He quoted a great manufacturer of Chicago in the same strain. All this is true. Canadians take first place wherever they go. They hold their own with the best of them. Indeed, our exhibit of school books and appliances at the World's Fair, Chicago, beat the world. When other provinces decide on changes in their school system, they almost invariably copy from Ontario.

It is now in order for Mr. Whitney and his Opposition disgruntled associates to assert that Mr. Brown and Senator Sanford and all who agree with them know nothing about what they are talking.

A FORMER LONDONER PRAISED.

[Vancouver, B. C. World.]
The Nanaimo Review, in its last issue, warmly approves the selection of Mr. George Bartley, a well known worker in the realm of labor in this city, to the position of chairman of the local association appointed by the Trades and Labor Congress, whose sessions were held a few days since in Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Bartley has been a consistent advocate in the cause, and is as staunch a Liberal as the city of London (Ont.) ever produced.

"SNOW BOUND."

[New York Press.]

It's dark. It's cold. It's hot. Mosquitoes as big as croton bugs. Ground frozen solid forty feet deep. No enough food for even the dogs. No pretty girls. Scummy. Typhoid fever. Some good dust for the lucky ones—if they don't die grubbing for it. That's winter in the Klondike.

Chapter of Casualties.

Little Lad Poisoned With Morphine Pills.

Six People Killed at a Railway Crossing.

A Simcoe Man Drowned—Railway Engineer Fatally Shot—Other Mishaps.

PILLS POISONED THE BABY.

Hamilton, Oct. 5.—Aaron Jacobs, the 4½-year-old son of Mrs. Jacobs, of Buffalo, who is at present staying at 27 King street east, Toronto, obtained a pill box on Saturday, containing two one-eighth grains of morphine, and swallowed the same. The child died about 1:30 p.m. Dr. Snider and another doctor did all they could to save him, but without avail.

THE DEADLY LEVEL CROSSING.

Willow Springs, Mo., Oct. 5.—A passenger train on the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis Railroad ran into a wagon, containing seven persons, at Deadman's Cut, three miles north of here, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, instantly killing six and fatally injuring the other. Those killed are: Philip L. Wooten, Philip Wooten, Jun. Amasa Wooten, Dora Wooten, Mrs. Francis Mabrey and infant child, 4 months old. Philip Wooten's wife is so badly hurt she cannot live. The train was stopped and the remains of the dead and injured were brought here. Conductor Hall says proper signals for the crossing were given, but they were not heard. The crossing is considered one of the most dangerous in the country, being a curve and a heavy grade.

FATALLY SHOT.

Winnipeg, Oct. 5.—Mr. Allen Kline, an engineer on the Northern Pacific Railway, died at the general hospital yesterday morning from serious gunshot wounds sustained while out shooting near Morris on Saturday last. He had been with some friends on Horse Lake after ducks, and was stepping from the boat at the landing, when he slipped and his gun discharged, the full charge entering his right lung.

A SIMCOE MAN DROWNED.

Simcoe, Ont., Oct. 5.—Word was received here of the drowning of John Cope, formerly of this town, while on his way to the Klondike. He was a member of the firm of Cope & Young, who carried on business here and at Victoria. He joined one of the earliest expeditions to the Klondike, and was accompanied by H. C. Stuart, formerly teller of the Bank of Hamilton here.

FATAL FIRE.

Batavia, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Healy Sumner's farm house in Pembroke, 14 miles from Batavia, was destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and his daughter Clara, 7 years old, was burned to death. Mary, 10 years old, was so badly burned that she will die. Emma, 15 years old, jumped from the upper window and escaped serious injury. Her father was seriously burned while trying to save Clara, who lost her life. The origin of the fire is unknown.

BROKE HIS NECK.

Owen Sound, Oct. 5.—Hugh Fletcher, an eccentric old Scotchman, was driving home with a neighbor named Huston, and was seated on the side of the rack of the wagon, when he fell from his seat and was injured. Huston complained that his back was badly hurt, but nothing serious was anticipated. After getting on the wagon, Huston spoke to Fletcher, and receiving no reply, took his hand and found he was dead. Dr. Allan Cameron, coroner, investigated the circumstances, and found that Fletcher's neck had been broken.

WATER FIVE CENTS A QUART

Wells and Springs in Arkansas Have Gone Dry.

Oseola, Ark., Oct. 5.—Owing to the long-continued drought in this vicinity, wells and springs have gone entirely dry, and the people now are compelled to buy water for drinking purposes. Water sells rapidly at 5 cents a quart, and the demand greatly exceeds the supply.

RED ROUGH HANDS

Itching, scaly, bleeding palms, chapped nails, and painful finger ends, pimples, blackheads, oily, mothly skin, dry, thin, and falling hair, itching, and all other skin troubles, are cured by CUTICURA SOAP, and gentle moistening with CUTICURA (ointment), the great skin cure.

THE E. B. EDDY CO., LIMITED,
HULL, CANADA.

It sold throughout the world. For Sale Everywhere. "How to Produce Soft, White Hands," free. ITCHING HUMORS Instantly relieved by CUTICURA.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

PAIN CURED IN AN INSTANT.

Let Radway's Ready Relief be used on the first indication of Pain or Uneasiness. It is a Cure for all Diseases or Sicknesses. The Cure will be made before the family doctor would ordinarily reach the house.

Cures the worst pains in from one to twenty minutes.

A CURE FOR ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

A half to a teaspoonful of Ready Relief in a half tumbler of water, repeated as often as the discharge continues, and a flannel saturated with Ready Relief placed over the stomach and bowels, will afford immediate relief and soon effect a cure.

Internally—A half to a teaspoonful in half a tumbler of water, repeated as often as the discharge continues, and a flannel saturated with Ready Relief placed over the stomach and bowels, will afford immediate relief and soon effect a cure.

Travelers should always carry a bottle of Ready Relief with them. A few drops in water will prevent sickness or pains from change of water. It is better than French brandy or other stimulants.

Price 25c per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Radway's Pills

Purely vegetable, act without pain, elegantly coated, tasteless, small and easy to take. Radway's Pills assist nature, stimulating to healthy activity the liver, bowels and other digestive organs, leaving the bowels in a natural condition after effects.

Liver Troubles.

Dr. Radway & Co., New York:
Dear Sirs: I have been sick for nearly two years and have been doctoring with some of the most expert doctors of the United States. I have been bathing and drinking hot water at the Hot Springs, Ark., but it seemed everything failed to do me good. After I saw your advertisement I thought I would try your Pills, and have nearly used two boxes: been taking two at bedtime and one after breakfast, and they have done me more good than anything else I have tried. My trouble has been with the liver. My skin and eyes were all yellow. I had sleep, drowsy feelings; felt like a drunk man; pain right above the navel, like as if I was bile on top of the stomach. My bowels were very constipated. My mouth and tongue were sore most of the time. Appetite fair, but food did not digest, but settle heavy on my stomach, and some few months of food come up again. I could only eat light food that digested easily. Please send "Book of Advice." Respectfully,
BEN ZAUGG,
Hot Springs, Ark.

A Family Medication.

Radway & Co., Gentlemen: I have tried many kinds of pills and cannot find any that equal Radway's Pills. I have used Radway's Pills in my family and have given them to others in the country, and I have never had any complaint. Always given complete satisfaction. Yours truly,
(Signed) S. WELLS,
Fennell, N. C.

RADWAY'S PILLS cause perfect digestion, complete relief of all ailments of the bowels, and cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Female Complaints, Torpid Liver, Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc. Go to a Box. At Druggists, or by Mail "Book of Advice" Free. RADWAY & CO., No. 7 St. Helen street, Montreal, Canada.

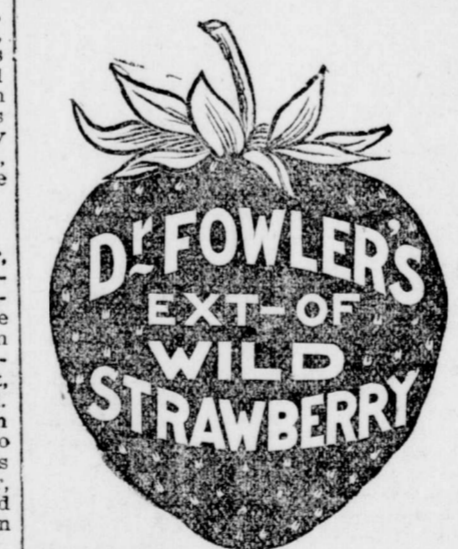

THE J. C. McLaren Belting Co.

Pure Oak Tanned

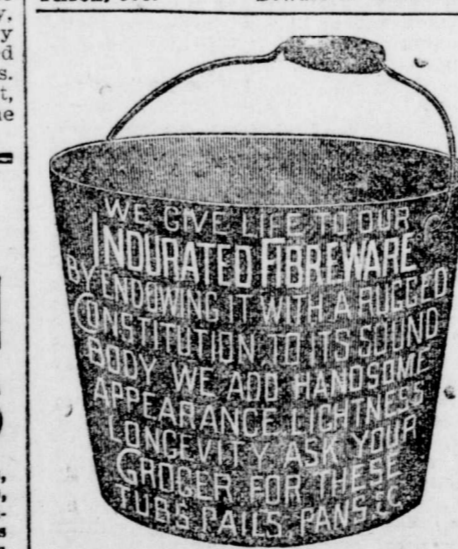

BELTING

Forty years experience in the belting business has placed our goods as the first on the market.

Montreal, Toronto

GUARANTY
COLIC, CHOLERA, CHOLERA-MORBUS, DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY,
And all SUMMER COMPLAINTS OF Children or Adults.
PRICE, 35c.

THE E. B. EDDY CO., LIMITED,
HULL, CANADA.

Heaven's gates are not so highly arched as princes' palaces; they that enter there must go upon their knees. —Daniel Webster.

Carpet Sweepers.

FURNITURE CITY,
DIAMOND MEDAL.
GRAND RAPIDS.

Enterprise Meat Choppers

REID'S HARDWARE,
118 North Side Dundas St., London.

Mammoth Livery

Hacks, Coupes, Landaus, Busses and Light Livery. Saddle Horses, Sale and Boarding Stable. Open day and night. Phone 503.

A. G. STROYAN —189—
Dundas St.

City Bindery...

BOCK & FYSH,

Formerly of E. H. Kordes' Bindery, now open for all kinds of work.
436 1/2 RICHMOND STREET

In a first-class household soap you should have primarily sterling quality. No brand excels

SWEET HOME SOAP.

Another consideration is quantity. Sweet Home Soap is the largest cake sold for the price. Insist on your grocer giving you the best. A price for every consumer of Sweet Home. No guesswork. Noblanks.

...THE....

LONDON LIFE

INSURANCE CO.

Head Office, - - London, Ont.

Invested Assets Over - $600,000 00

Government Deposit - - 60,000 00

JOHN MCCLARY, Pres.

A. O. JEFFERY, Vice-Pres.

Special term, whole life, limited payment life and various term endowment policies issued on as favorable terms as afforded by any company in Canada. Also Guaranteed 5 Per Cent Income Bonds, than which nothing more desirable has yet been devised.

Money to loan at lowest current rates of interest, repayable monthly, quarterly, half-yearly, yearly, or at end of stated periods, as may be arranged.

For full particulars apply to

J. G. RICHTER, or JAS. A. THOMAS,
Manager. City Agent.

172 and 174 Dundas Street

LADIES,

SEE

THE

CELEBRATED

P. D.

CORSETS

BEFORE

BUYING.

'Twill pay you, 'twill please you; 'twill satisfy you as no other corset.

—SOLD ONLY AT—

Bayley's

Remember This.

We guarantee our treatment. If your hair is falling out you had better call on once.

Madame Ireland's Parlors

211, Dundas Street.

BLOOD POISON

HAVE YOU Sore Throat, Pimples, Coppery Tint, Itching, or any other skin trouble? Write COOK BROS. & CO., 307 Marquette Temple, Chicago, Ill., for proof of cure. Capital, $500,000. Worst case cured in 15 to 30 days. 100-page book free.

OYSTERS.

Fresh daily. Served in all styles Meals at all hours.

DINNER - - - 25c

Stevens & Nicol, European Hotel,
208 205, Dundas Street.

Blankets.

The present is a good time to buy blankets, and Chapman's is a good place at which to buy them. Our Blankets are Canadian—another way of saying they are rather fine ones. The wool of which they were made was clipped from sheep raised by Canadians. Canadian skill was responsible for its evolution into the blankets we sell. Here are some honest Canadian values.

$2 25 } White Wool Blankets, large size, heavy weight..... { $2 25

$2 50 } Another line, very large—large, indeed, as the ones for which you usually pay $4 00..... { $2 50

$3 00 $3 50 } Super All-Wool White Blankets, { $3 00 $3 50
$4 00 $4 50 } splendid value at..... { $4 00 $4 50
$5 00 } { $5 00

68 Cents to } Gray and White Cotton Blankets, { 68 Cents to 89 Cents. } with fancy borders only..... { 89 Cents.

Flannels.

The word "Farrago," might be made to apply to our Flannels and Shirtings. There's a medley of flannel values here. They all harmonize because they're all pitched in the bargain key. Here's a bar or two.

10c Yard } Heavy Union Flannel, 26 inches in width..... { 10c Yard

12 1-2c Yard } Wool Flannel, light and dark colors, plain or twilled, 26 in. wide { 12 1-2c Yard

15c Yard. } Same goods as above and same shades, 28 inches wide..... { 15c Yard.

20c, 22c, 25c } Fine All-Wool Flannels, from 25 to 28 inches in width, all the best makes..... { 20c, 22c, 25c
28c Yard. } { 28c Yard.

25c, 30c, 35c, } Very special line of White All-Wool Welsh and Saxon Flannels, ranging from 25 to 36 in. in width { 25c, 30c, 35c,
38c, 40c, 45c } { 38c, 40c, 45c
Yard. } { Yard.

25c Yard. } Very special line of Military Flannels for men's shirts—unshrinkable, worth 38c, for..... { 25c Yard.

Flannelettes.

Flannelette is like a hair pin, it can be put to an untold number of uses. A wrapper is a comforting thing, suggestive of home and hearth and coziness. It may, too, be elegant and beautiful. We show a very handsome lot of Flannelettes and Wrapperettes, in conventional and floral designs. They are characterized by variety, richness and warmth of coloring and design. If you know how many yards go into your wrapper, you may judge the cost of one by this—

10c and } Fancy Flannelettes, in red and green, { 10c and
12 1/2c Yard } brown and bronze, very rich, figures, checks and stripes at..... { 12 1/2c Yard

A similar line in blue and mauve, and black and white.

12 1/2c Yard } Fancy Reversible Flannelettes, in black and white, stripes and checks, guaranteed fast colors, very beautiful effects and rare value at..... { 12 1/2c Yard

J. H. Chapman & Co.

126 and 128 Dundas St.,

LONDON - - - ONTARIO.

ing considerable star in the Window Shade line. All we ask is that you inspect our stock and prices before buying.

E. N. HUNT
190 DUNDAS STREET.

FAITHFUL—TILL THE END

"So late," says she, rather faintly. "And you have had no dinner, and there is still a long ride before you. Oh! I am so sorry. How selfish of me to keep you. Your dinner will be quite spoiled by this time."

"And the cook furious," says he, pulling up the agony, "he laughs gaily. 'Do you know I had forgotten all about it, but now that you remind me of it, I am starving. And you—where is your dinner? You were not the only selfish one, you see. I forgot all about yours. Let me ring the bell and order you something.'"

"Oh! as for me, I can have something at any moment. But I want to tell the truth, I am not hungry."

"That's nonsense," says Wortley. "Every right-minded person is hungry at eight o'clock. I am, for one. See here. I'll make a compact with you. If you will promise to eat your dinner, I'll promise to stay and eat it with you. It will be basely inopportune to say no to that, as I shall certainly get no dinner, or, at all events, a most uncomfortable one, if I go home now."

This naturally settles it. Women, as a rule, are not inopportune, and it goes to Nell's heart to think of his being hungry here in her own house—as it is for the moment.

"Ring the bell," says she promptly, and order obeyed with alacrity by him, and which brings Marshall on the spot in a minute or two.

"Will you bring me some dinner here, Marshall?" says Nell. "And, too," she hesitates.

"And will you bring me some, too, Marshall?" puts in Sir Stephen, coming bodily to his own rescue, as much as Nell's. "And will you tell the cook that I should take it as a favor if she would try for once to regard me as a regular customer instead of a guest?"

Marshall has gone away, discreetly smiling, only to presently reappear again, headed by old Jenkins, the butler, who bustles in full of importance—with a dignified air, and a tray most excellently loaded.

And now a little table is drawn close to Nell's couch, and a tray is laid upon it, with its chicken, delicately roasted, and some finely-sliced ham, and a very special delicacy, as much as the other necessities, and at Sir Stephen's elbow another little table to be looked at after, with a jelly, and a small dish of champagne, and biscuits and some curacoea.

It is quite a pleasant little dinner, in spite of everything, and there can be no doubt but that Nell is very much the better for it. Had he not been there to persuade her to eat—to coax her to have a little bit of chicken, a mere suspicion of jelly, half a wine-glass of champagne—she would unquestionably have gone to bed without anything, or that poor substitute for something, upon which she has fallen back in her anxiety and grief—a cup of tea. But in her anxiety to make him eat, she had eaten, too, and is now feeling stronger and more hopeful. However, thinking of him and the good dinner he had missed at home, she grows remorseful.

"You have had a wretched dinner," says she regretfully.

"I have had the best dinner I ever had in my life," returns he, "and undoubtedly the most enjoyable one. I also consider I have won a victory. I have made it do something against your will. You have eaten something, too."

Nell reflects on this. Certainly, he has finished the chicken and the ham, and there is only as much jelly left as one could swear by. Perhaps he has not been so ill-treated after all.

"I think you must go now," says she gently.

"I suppose I must. Can I do anything for you before I go? You—the others being away—is there nothing I can do?"

"Nothing, thank you," blushing faintly. "Marshall can do all I want. She holds out her hand to him, and, taking it, he looks at her with a penetrating glance.

"You will not think too much? You will try to be hopeful, and to sleep?"

"Yes, yes," she smiles up at him. He hesitates a moment, then, stooping, presses for the second time a kiss upon her hand, and goes.

The storm has risen and is now howling madly—dashing showers of rain falling between the gusts of wind, but through the ride homeward her vision travels—and then Nell, with her head upon his arm, falls into a slumber, the memory of the little friendly dinner.

The Very Finest In the Land...

Norwood Ceylon Tea.

Nothing Like It.

Ordinary price in large cities, $5.00 per lb.

We offer a special lot at 75c per lb.

to introduce High Grade Tea.

Fitzgerald,

Seandrett & Co.,

160 DUNDAS STREET.

that tiny impromptu meal that could hardly go by so dignified a name. He had been allowed to help her, to tend on her, to tell her that this was good for her, or that. They had dined together. They two alone! Oh! if only all had gone well with her, they two might have dined together all their lives, he always tending, caring for her—her servant—her slave.

CHAPTER LVIII.
The storm is still rising, and now blinding, violent showers of rain are dashing among the darkened roadways—making more full the already swollen rivulets that run by the edges of them—his clashing like hail against the windows of the carriage! The noise of their angry battery seems to make more deadly the silence of the occupants of it.

Not a word has been said by either of them since leaving Glaston Park. What word, indeed, was there to be said? All the naked, miserable, unexpecting and therefore (thrice hideous) truth had been told, and to waste further words over it seemed obviously impossible. To thrust a wedge of reality into a still greater state of reality—what good could come of that?

Yet the silence was ghastly. The more so, in that both, in an unconscious way felt nothing could break it. Cecilia, lying in her corner of the carriage dead and blind to everything save the question, "Is it life or death that lies before me at the end of my drive?"

—could neither be spoken had she tried, and Glaston would not.

Every now and then a flash of lightning lit up the countryside, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

Once, when the carriage in the natural darkness that usually follows upon the supernatural brilliancy of the lightning flash, was driven over a huge stone, threatening to overturn it, Cecilia threw out her hand to steady herself, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

At last some stray light from the lamp of the carriage, showing it bare, storm-swept, desolate. Sometimes the flashes illuminated the inside of the carriage, showing no less a storm in there, and no wait less of desolation. Both faces were wet, as if turned into stone, but there was misery (if of a different quality) in the eyes of each.

His eyes grew compressed as that word "lover" came to him, and an almost brutal expression replaced the usual gentleness of his face.

Tenderly, Reverently.

The Treatment That Is Due to the Aged.

Rev. Dr. Talmage Draws a Lesson From an Interesting Bible Scene.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Dr. Talmage shows a scene of tenderness and reverence, and tells us how to treat old people. His text is Genesis, xiv., 28—

"I will go and see him before I die." Jacob had long since passed the hundred-year milestone. In those times people were distinguished for longevity. Among the grand old people of the world, the shepherd of the flock, Jacob, the shepherd of the flock, he had a bad lot of boys. They were jealous and ambitious and, as the patriarchs were, they were not to be trusted.

Joseph, however, seemed to be an exception; but he had been gone many years, and the probability was that he was dead. As sometimes now in a house you will find kept at the table a vacant chair, a plate, a knife, a fork, or some deceased member of the family, so Jacob kept in his heart a place for his beloved Joseph. The patriarch was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead, is living in an Egyptian palace with all the investiture of prime minister, next to the king, in the mightiest empire in all the world! The news was too sudden and abrupt in the past when he hears a wagon rumbling to the front door. He gets up to see who has arrived, and his long-absent son from Egypt comes in and announces to him that Joseph, instead of being dead,

EVENING CLASSES

Will be organized at the
FOREST CITY
BUSINESS & SHORTHAND
COLLEGE, LONDON, ONT.
ON MONDAY, OCT. 4.
Inquire at college office for particulars.
J. V. WESTERVELT, principal.
Y. M. C. A. Building.

FAIRBAIRN
MERCHANT
TAILOR.
Opp. City Hall, Upstairs.

WIVES,
SISTERS,
MOTHERS,

Do you like to make home comfortable? Begin by papering that room you spend most of your time in. Now is the time to do it. We've got a nice stock of paper to select from. Prices are moderate.

R. L. LAVIS, 434 Richmond Street.

Another Wedding Invitation

Established 1831

That means a wedding present. Sometimes it's difficult to know just what to give. We're ready for you. Have just received a handsome stock of novelties.

H. DAVIS & SON,
JEWELERS,
170 Dundas St.
Ladies' Belts at reduced prices to clear out.

R. K. COWAN,
BARRISTER, ETC.,
County Buildings, Court House Square.

SAY!

If you want to buy your Coal at bottom prices just try the C. P. R. Coal and Wood Yard before placing your order.
Summer Wood, $3 per cord.
Best Beech and Maple, $4.50 per cord.

Geo. McNeil,
Cor. C. P. R. Tracks
and Richmond St.
Phone 383.

London Business University.

Night School.

Fall term begins Monday, Sept. 20. Enter at once and get the full benefits of whole term.

W. N. Yerex, B.C., Principal.

Change Your Diet

Try our confectionery for a change and be delighted. Our lunch parlor is always at your command for rest and refreshment.

KENT'S,
209 Dundas Street.

FITZGERALD AND

FITZGERALD

Barristers, 111 Dundas St., Fitzgerald Block

There He Goes

To the place where he'll get a good smoke for $5.

J. GOLDNER,
206 Dundas Street.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Stoves, Stoves, Stoves.

Box stoves, big stoves, cook stoves, tile stoves, parlor stoves—all kinds of stoves and furniture, bedroom suites, mattresses, pillows, feather beds and mattresses cleaned. Stoves bought at HUNT & SONS, 363 to 397, Richmond Street north. Telephone, 397.

We guard against low-grade furniture, and also have a desire to please our customers. We keep only furniture of the best, at lowest prices. TRAF-FORD'S, 55 and 57 King Street.

Excursion to Chicago.

On Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 and 2, ticket agents in Canada will sell round trip tickets to Chicago via Wabash Railroad, at less than the one-way fare. All tickets should read via Detroit and Wabash, not via the short and best route to the Windy City. Trains leave London 11:55 a.m. and 8:25 p.m.; solid vestibule trains for Chicago. Detailed information from any railroad agent, or J. A. Richardson, Canadian Passenger agent, northeast corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto. 834

At 402 Talbot street, T. C. THORN-HILL'S jewelry store, all sorts of watches, clocks, etc., can be thoroughly repaired at the shortest notice, and at moderate prices. The Umbrella and Parasol Hospital.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nuffly this danger with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—a pulmonary acknowledged remedy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swollen neck and croup in the back, and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claim to public confidence.

Gun Repairing.

—Fine Breech-Loading Gun
—and Rifle Repairing
—Specialty with Us.

We have an established reputation throughout Canada for fine gun repairing, and can do the most difficult work in moderate prices. Bring in your guns and rifles and have them put in order for fall shooting.

W. Gurd & Co.,

185 Dundas St., London.

SOUTHCOTT'S

Invite an inspection of the new stock of fall overcoats and suits. Satisfaction in

"FIT & FINISH GUARANTEED"

361 Richmond Street.

MOSTLY FAIR AND WARM—

SHOWERS IN SOME PLACES.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—11 p.m.—A shallow area of low pressure now covers Manitoba and the upper lake region, and the pressure is highest over the New England and middle Atlantic states. Light showers have occurred over the Lake Superior district. Elsewhere in Canada the weather has remained fine.

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Esquimaux, 43-58; Calgary, 44-72; Qu'Appelle, 38-66; Winnipeg, 35-70; Port Arthur, 50-54; Parry Sound, 46-70; Toronto, 38-66; Ottawa, 36-72; Montreal, 42-66; Quebec, 42-60; Halifax, 40-63.

PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—11 a.m.—Probabilities for 24 hours for lower lakes region: Fresh southerly to westerly winds; mostly fair and warm; showers in some places.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory yesterday were 74 and 33.5 above.

Something For Every Day.

Johnston Bros.' Brand.

You never tire of it. Equal to the best made. Delivered all over the city.

LOVERS

of a good smoke buy their cigars and tobaccos from

W. J. PORTWOOD, 384 Richmond St. Opposite City Hall.

In the Dining-Room.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 6.

BREAKFAST—Nutmeg melon. Cracked wheat, with cream. Croquettes. Hot biscuit. Coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed potatoes with grated cheese. Boston baked beans. Baked apples. Tea.

DINNER—Meat pie. Scalloped oysters. Browned sweet potatoes. Tomato salad. Prune soufflé. Cheese balls. Coffee.

Out of these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Put a pint of meat, ground or chopped very fine—ground is best. Cold roast or pieces of left-over steak are excellent for this purpose. Add to the meat a little chopped onion, one-half of a small onion, chopped fine; some minced parsley and one teaspoonful of salt. Put into a pan three tablespoonfuls of flour and two tablespoonfuls of butter. Set on the stove and stir until melted. Add gradually three-fourths cup of rich milk, next add three-fourths cup of stock. Stir until the mixture is the consistency of thick cream; pour this over the seasoned meat; mix thoroughly and set aside until cold. When used for breakfast, let it stand mixed over night. When used for dinner, add with the hands into any desired shape. Roll in cracker crumbs, then in white bread crumbs, then in cracker crumbs and drop into boiling fat, a few at a time, until a rich brown color is obtained. This is an economic, delicious breakfast dish.

Creamed Potatoes, with Cheese.—Peel five ordinary sized potatoes and cut into small cubes. Boil until tender, then pour off the water and drain. With generous half-cup of milk, one tablespoonful of butter, half-teaspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper. Cover over with grated cheese. Set in the oven to brown, and serve quickly.

Scalloped Oysters, or Oyster Plant.—Boil the oysters till tender; peel and cut crosswise in slices half an inch in thickness. Grease the bottom of a baking-dish and cover with salispry. Sprinkle over this a little salt, pepper and bits of butter. Add a layer of cracker crumbs; then a layer of salispry, seasoned as before. Let the top layer be of cracker crumbs. Pour over milk enough to fairly cover it and bake.

Tomato Salad.—Select medium-sized tomatoes. Peel carefully and scoop out the center. Set on ice to chill. When ready to serve fill the cavity with chopped celery and chopped nuts (not too fine). Cover with a teaspoonful of salad dressing. Serve on lettuce leaves or sprigs of parsley or the ends of the celery.

Prune Soufflé.—Steam eighteen prunes till soft; remove the stones and chop very fine. Add to this one cup of pulverized sugar. Have beaten very stiff the whites of eight eggs. Add this to the fruit and flavor with one teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Butter a baking-dish and bake in very cool oven for 20 minutes. Serve cold with whipped cream.

Cheese Balls.—To one cup of grated state cheese add one-third of a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of red pepper and a pinch of celery salt. Beat the whites of two eggs stiff; mix together. Mold with the hands into balls the size of walnuts. Drop two at a time into a kettle of boiling lard. With a silver fork or a wire spoon keep the Fur Argument.

No matter how fine the fur if the garment hasn't style and fit—the whole effect is wrong. A practical knowledge of designing, making and fitting, besides the cutting, is needed in fur apparel construction. A practical expert here to help every fur be more stylish and more becoming. Prices are so low that means the lowest possible. While all kinds of furs with varied styles are shown—yet the art of repairing and remodeling old furs is not lost sight of by us.

MILNE, SPITTAL & CO.,

Hatters and Furriers,
146 Dundas Street.

London Advertiser.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

107.....Business Office.

134.....Editorial Rooms.

175.....Job Department.

A Local Budget

—Leslie Griffith, of Byron, left on Friday last to take a course at the Guelph Agricultural College.

—Mr. Pringle, manager of the Bank of Toronto, who has been holidaying in Atlantic City, has returned home. Mrs. Pringle is still at the seaside.

—Rev. Dr. McCabe will preach in King Street Presbyterian Church on Friday evening at the preparatory service. Next Sunday communion will be held.

—In the report of the Colborne Street Sunday school anniversary, the name of Mr. Charles Minness was unavoidably omitted. Mr. Minness rendered music for several of the pieces during the evening.

—Miss Welburn, book-keeper for the Sterling Coconut Company, and a graduate of the Forest City Business College, has secured a more lucrative position with the London bolt and hinge works. Her many friends wish her every success.

—Mrs. Charles Chantier, mother of Mr. Frederick Chantier, coal and wood merchant, of this city, died yesterday morning at the age of 61 years, after a long illness. Mrs. Chantier, prior to her death, had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Sampson, 159 Oxford Street, from which the funeral took place this afternoon.

—It is rumored that Fred Jenkins, of Cleveland, who has many friends in London, will be appointed leader of the Centenary Church choir, Hamilton, and that Prof. Parker will discharge the duties of organist only. Mr. Jenkins formerly lived in Hamilton.

—Mrs. Charles Chantier, mother of Mr. Frederick Chantier, coal and wood merchant, of this city, died yesterday morning at the age of 61 years, after a long illness. Mrs. Chantier, prior to her death, had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Sampson, 159 Oxford Street, from which the funeral took place this afternoon.

—No. 2 committee of the board of education met last night to consider the advisability of erecting a two-roomed school on the Colborne street south property. Thirty tenders (for information) were submitted for a frame, a veneer and a brick building. The board will be recommended to erect a brick two-roomed school at a cost of about $2,700.

—Persons who have noticed that there are fewer sparrows in the streets than usual need not think that the noisy little birds are passing. This is the time for their annual junket into the country, when they go out to take a look over the fields and visit their country cousins. When their snow belated to fly, or even before, they will return to the city and settle down for the winter.

—The McClary Manufacturing Company, of this city, is about to establish a factory in Montreal, and is looking for a site upon which to build. The company have a handsome five-story show room on St. Peter street, but the purpose of the factory will in no way interfere with that, nor yet with the number of men employed here. The idea to manufacture cheaper grades down there, instead of having to ship the raw material here for manufacture and then ship it back again.

—Christ Church was handsomely decorated Sunday on the occasion of the annual thanksgiving services, when an impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Taylor, of St. Mary's. Fruit, vegetables, grain and flowers were placed in all convenient places in profusion, and presented a picturesque appearance. The choir on the occasion acquitted themselves admirably under the direction of Mr. James T. Dalton, the leader. This evening the annual harvest home festival and thanksgiving concert will be held under the direction of Mr. Dalton.

—Mrs. Rowan, wife of Mr. Martin Rowan, and one of Hamilton's oldest and best-known citizens, died at her husband's residence, Aurora street, on Saturday night. She was in her 88th year, and had lived in Hamilton ever since 1839. She was the mother of Mr. Robert Rowan, of this city; Mrs. John Young, of Detroit; Messrs. James, Charles and Thomas, of Hamilton;

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED

direct from France some of the finest goods ever brought to the city, composing

French Peas in Tins.
French Peas in Glass.
Mushrooms in Tins.
Mushrooms in Glass.
Pitted Olives.
Capers.
Boneless Sardines.

We can sell these goods at exceptionally low prices considering the quality, and would invite you to see them.

T. R. ROWAT & Co., 284 Dundas St., Phone 817.

Mrs. Wilson, of Chicago, and Mrs. McDonald, of Brooklyn. Thirteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Rowan celebrated their golden wedding and had a family reunion.

—The October meeting of the Mission to Lepers was held in Somerset Hall Monday afternoon. Mrs. Robertson occupied the chair. The opening devotional exercises were conducted by Mr. Morrison, who gave a helpful and encouraging talk on cross-bearing in the Christian life. The sacred solo, "Come Unto Me," was exceedingly well rendered by Miss Cannon, and Miss McArthur, of St. Paul's. In an article entitled "Christmas with Miss Read at Chaudais," a pathetic description of the distribution of Christmas gifts to the leper children of that asylum. It was arranged that the annual thank-offering meeting of the society be held the first Monday in November.

—The Lift-Up Circle of King's Daughters of Dundas Street Methodist Church held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. The meeting was a large attendance, and Mrs. Beckett, the president, occupied the chair. Miss Scandrett opened with a Bible reading, after which business was taken up. It was decided to have a charity social, without admission, in a couple of weeks, to which all will be invited to bring articles of clothing, for distribution among the deserving poor.

—Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active member of the King Street Presbyterian Church, and of the Ladies' Aid connected with it. She had a wide circle of friends, and was highly respected by her death. The husband and one son, Mr. Wm. Morrison, engineer on the C. P. R., running out of Toronto, survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. P. MORRISON.

Mrs. Morrison, wife of Mr. Peter Morrison, 589 Princess avenue, engineer, of the C. P. R., died at St. Joseph's Hospital last morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased lady was 56 years of age, and for a long time had been a sufferer with internal troubles. She was taken to St. Joseph's for an operation on Saturday. The deceased lady was an active