THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL ARRIVAL IN TORONTO OF LORD

ORDERED Our stock of Serges and Summer Tweeds is the largest and finest in the lieutenant-governor, the mayor, the mainister of education, Colonel Gzowski, A. D. C., and other prominent citizens. There was quite a large turn-out of people. A well-mounted body-guard attended to receive his excellency. After shaking hands all round, including some old men in the crowd who pressed forward to enjoy that honor. Lord cluding some old men in the crowd who pressed forward to enjoy that honor, Lord Lorne and Hon. J. B. Robinson entered a carriage and were driven to government house. The remainder of the party, with the exception of Rev. Dr. McGregor, who is the guest of Mr. H. W. Darling, went to the hotels.

After luncheon at the gnbernatorial residence the marginis drave out with Columbia.

After luncheon at the gnbernatorial residence, the marquis drove out with Col. Gzowski, A.D.C. Subsequently his excellency and one of his aides took a drive through the city with the lieutenant-governor, visiting the weather observatory in the Queen's park, and honoring Hon. G. W. Allan with a call at Moss park.

There was a dinner party at government housein the evening, when the following select few met Lord Lorne: Mr. Justice Morrison, Hon. Adam Crooks and Miss Crooks, Lieut-Col. Gzowski- and Mrs. Gzowski.

Lieut-Col. Gzowski and Mrs. Gzowski, Hon. Alex. Morris and Mrs. Morris, Hon. Gr. W. Allan and Miss Allan, and Mr. J.

From the dast number we give a few brief extracts:—

One of Many.—The importance of keeping up policies of life insurance is illustrated forcibly in the case of N. Cothier, of Plantarenet, Ont. He took of the a policy of 11.000-in the APTNA LIFE, Dec. 15, 1879. When the second premium became due. Dec. 15, 1839 he had decided not to continue it, believing his prespects for a long life better than the astronge. The agent used every available argument to have him continue, but without cheef. In sixteen the strong the large of his fandiance policy he was killed while felling trees for his employer. His death was nearly instantaneous. By his refusal to pay the Company 50, 27, the leaves his family in emburrassed circumstances, in which a thousand dollars would have been a fortune.

MATCHED ÆTNA ENDOWMENTS.—The ÆTNA LIFE is disbursing to its trons—holders of matured endowments—an average of over two thousand bilars per day. The satisfactory results given by the Company are handsemely knowledged in the following letters, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

Dear Sir: I desire to acknowledge with my heartiest thanks the handsome treatment I have received from your noble Life Company, the FTNA of Hertford. Conn. The returns for my annual payments received from you last year, and this, on the maturity of my two endownent policies, have more than net my expectations. You have paid me a good interest for all the moneys I have put into your bands; you kept my life insured for the ten years to the full amount of the policies; and new, when freed it most, you pay me the full sum in a laung. Thave never made any investment that pleased me more. Yours very truly, Inswich, Mass., April 24, 1861.

Dear Sir: I have this day received payment of my ten-year endowment policy which I took out in the ETNA. On this policy I paid to the company (2,55810), and received in return, 84,191,43, leaving a balance as interest on my investment of $632.26. Another policy of $902.09 falling due at the same time, has also been promptly paid. Lam so well satisfied with my investment that I have taken out another policy for $6,000,00. Yours truly, GEO. SERIOUS SHOOTING CASE.

Information was received at No. 3 station last night of a serious shooting case in the extreme west end. George Sutherland, a boy employed in Tolton's news store, Queen street west near Parkdale, pointed a revolver at two children—Samuel Bernhard, a lad of about eleven, and who were standing at the store door with his sister—and pulled the trigger, probably supposing that the weapon was not loaded. It went off, the ball passing through the boy's shoulder, and probably one of his lungs, and thence striking the girl in the outer hip. Dr. Lyrd attended the children, who live in Parkdale. The boy's wound is considered very dangerous.
