Supported by MR. EDWIN ARDEN.

"Were Nature just to man from his first hour
He need not ask for mercy. Then 'tis for us
The toys of Nature—to be both just and merciful.
For so only can the wrong she does be undone."

Theatrical People

Are pretty good judges of Furs. Visiting nearly every city in this country each year, they have opportunities for observing style, quality and prices possessed by the people of no other profession. It is a fact that many performers whose companies are booked to play London postpone their purchases until they get here, when they promptly start for our store.

SATISFACTION

There is a great satisfaction when drinking a cup of Coffee in knowing positively that it is the best Coffee possible for anyone to have. That is the assurance when you sip a cup of our Mocha or Java at 40c. per lb. The very flavor is enough to make you smack your lips, and if you were to pay double the price, quality could not be higher. The same can be said of our Teas also, as the following list will show:

BELOW THE BELT

There is no blow you can hit a man that he'll feel like one aimed at his pocketbook. When you hit him there, you hit him in the tenderest part of his anatomy. When he buys a lottery ticket for a dollar and draws nothing but his breath, he feels hurt.

When he spends a dime for a Cigar and it smells like cooking cabbage, his pride is wounded. If he deals with us nothing like this happens. We hit him right in his pocketbook, too, but we touch him so lightly that he enjoys the novelty.

M. O'MEARA,
PROPRIETOR.

'Tis almost second nature for an actor to relate stories, even of a funeral nature, in as entertaining a manner as possible.

Mr. Goodwin is accredited with talking about it the other day.

"For instance," said he, "what's the use of going into all the harrowing details. Leave something to the imagination. Now, take for example, suppose you read something like this in the paper:

"In Boston the other day, a man thought he could cross the track in advance of a locomotive. The services at the grave were very impressive." Or

"A man in Maryland ate fifty raw oysters on a wager. The silver trimmings on his coffin cost $12.50." Or

"A Chicago man warned his wife not to light the fire with kerosene. She did not heed the warning. Her clothes fit his second wife admirably well." Or

"A Londoner got tired of buying coal haphazard, because it was cheap, and now buys it from Cameron. As a result the doctor never calls, and he and his family are happy all the time." 'Tis brief, but really all-sufficient. Office, Hiscox Building; Yard, Burwell St., at G. T. R.

 OF HANLON'S

"SUPERBA"

New and Magnificent in every particular...

Manager Roote has arranged an exceptionally attractive offering for an early appearance in the new version of Hanlon's "SUPERBA," which comes this season better equipped than ever; a production unsurpassed in the amusing, bewildering and gorgeous effects; a performance remarkable for a multiplicity of original and marvelous features of pantomimic, vaudeville, spectacular and musical entertainment, by a cast of over fifty brilliant artists; the mechanism of the scenic effects alone requires forty stage hands.

Among some of the attractive specialties, besides the gorgeousness of costumal and light effects, the antics of that master of clowns, Chas. Guyer, will be seen the wonderful Rossi Bros. in their original acrobatic specialties, a charming and attractive female whistler, Nellie Daly, the popular song-bird of the company, cartoons of popular personages of the present day, and others. Half-a-dozen new and brilliant ballets, exquisite gems of melody, dazzling costumal revelations, new tricks, illusions and startling mechanical surprises. "SUPERBA" is now the largest and most perfect scenic spectacle en tour, and in fact the only production of its kind in the world. Pleasing in its entirety, every moment one of enjoyment, containing the best, most acceptable and entertaining offerings that have created unbounded enthusiasm at every performance.
