(d) The person or persons so admitted to honorary membership shall not be required to pay any entrance fee or subscription.

SUPERNUMERARY MEMBERS.

IX. (a) If a member leaves the Province of Nova Scotia, he may make a written application to the committee before the first day of January, and, with its approval, and by payment of an annual subscription of five dollars, become a supernumerary member, and during his absence he shall be exempt from the payment of the ordinary annual subscription. He shall be liable, however, to the payment of the ordinary annual subscription for the year in which he departs from the Province and also for the year in which he returns to it, less the five dollars so paid as above, provided he remains within the Province for more than one month from the date of his return, and if he remains that length of time only, he shall be entitled to the privileges of the club for that period.

(b) No member's name shall be placed or retained on the supernumerary list unless he makes payment of the current year's subscription of five dollars before the second day of February.

PRIVILEGED MEMBERS.

X. (a) The committee may elect the following persons as privileged members:

Such members shall pay a subscription of ten dollars for that period, but shall not be required to pay any entrance fee. (g) If a privileged member, who has been elected as such on the ground that his residence in Halifax is temporary or uncertain or liable to be terminated by the occurrence of circumstances beyond his control, has continuously resided within the County of Halifax for upwards of two years, the committee may require him to pay for a period of five years the sum of ten dollars a year in addition to the ordinary annual subscription, and if
