TORONTO'S ANSWER TO APPEAL WAS $505,859 IN COLD CASH

Returns Are Incomplete and Those in Charge of the Work Expect at Least Twenty Thousand Dollars More.

TORONTO'S answer to the appeal made by the British Red Cross Society is announced to be $505,859, with the returns not complete. When Noel Marshall made this statement last night at the meeting of Red Cross workers, the 1800 people who were crowded into Convocation Hall burst into applause and handkerchiefs were waved while all rose to their feet to rejoice in the showing that had been made in the four-day campaign. When Mrs. Plumtre brought in a report of the work which the women of Toronto had done, it was learned for the first time that the half-million mark had been passed.

SCHOOL CHILDREN HANDING IN THEIR MONEY

Mayor Church welcoming the school children at the city hall as they brought their Red Cross contributions yesterday afternoon.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S RESPONSE BROUGHT $17,700 FOR FUND

WHAT THE SCHOOL CHILDREN GAVE. Contributions Were Taken to City Hall in Bags, Where Mayor Church and Prominent Citizens Welcomed Children and Took the Money. TORONTO has not seen a more inspiring sight since the outbreak of war than was witnessed yesterday when the school children of the city placed their offerings to the British Red Cross fund on a table in front of the city hall, where Mayor Church was shown to receive the contributions. The schools of the city, including the staff of the board of education and the teachers and supervisors, collected approximately $17,700. Of this amount $7650 was contributed by the teachers and supervisors; superintendent of buildings department, $1200; medical inspection staff, $211.50; general office staff, $108. The balance of the total was made up by the children of the 82 schools of the city.

YORK COUNTY GAVE THOUSANDS THOUSANDS MORE ARE TO COME

Reeve Griffith and Members of the Council Highly Gratified at Results, as Collection Will Not Be Concluded for Some Time. WHILE practically all the towns and villages in York County were actively represented in the British Red Cross Society canvass yesterday, many of the townships had, thru the stress of farm work and other causes, decided to hold over for two, and in some cases, three weeks, any active participation in the work of raising funds. Wherever the canvass was undertaken yesterday the results were of the most gratifying nature, the receipts in almost every case largely exceeding the hopes of the promoters.

ONTARIO TOWNS GAVE HANDSOME SUMS TO FUND

Villages and Municipalities All Are Exceeding the Amounts Expected. MANY TO HEAR FROM. Hamilton Gave Forty-Five Thousand and Ottawa Forty Thousand.

By a Staff Reporter. HAMILTON, Oct. 22.—It is estimated that more than $46,000 will be realized from the British Red Cross Society campaign here yesterday, which means that the objective will be exceeded by $10,000. The figures compiled last night showed that over $41,000 has so far been realized, and it is expected that this amount will be considerably supplemented by donations that are forthcoming today. A large portion of the collections made in the public schools and in the leading theatres and some of the churches are not included, while many prominent citizens have promised to make further donations to the fund. Thousands at Concert. All day long people gathered into the city hall and paid in their subscriptions and in this way $22,800 was realized. Hundreds of young girls and women sold flags on the streets, and $11,200 was taken in. Not one person escaped being flagged, and amounts ranging from five cents to $50 were dropped into the boxes. Thousands at Concert. Thousands of people attended the patriotic band concert given by the 12th Royal Regimental Band at Queen's Park and the patriotic meeting that was held in conjunction with it. An interesting illustrated lecture on the British navy was delivered by J. H. Collinson, while addresses were given by Mayor Waters and Major George H. Williams. During the meeting Mayor waters assumed the role of auctioneer and in this way realized $175 for the fund. He sold an English sovereign, for which Geo. Hope gave $100; a gold coin, which had been presented by Mrs. Whitehead, Ontario avenue, which brought $33, and several flags which were purchased for five dollars and one dollar. In his address Mayor Williams, who was recently appointed chief recruiting officer for the second military division, stated that no city in Canada has rendered greater assistance to the empire than Hamilton. It has supplied more men and more money for war and patriotic purposes than any other city according to population and has assisted the empire in many other ways. INGERBOLL RESPONDS. NO GENERAL ELECTION UNTIL END OF WAR?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Favorable to Extension of Parliamentary Term.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 20.—It seems certain that there will be no general election in Canada for some time to come, and probably none until after the war is over. It is stated authoritatively in political circles that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has expressed himself as an extension of the term of the present parliament.

There will be no session of parliament until January, but the house will in all likelihood meet directly after the new year. It was thought for some time that there would be a fall sitting but there is no necessity for this as the minister of finance has enough money to meet domestic needs and war necessities.

King George has subscribed $25,000, and by the sale of badges and many other articles it is expected a very large sum will be realized. Many of the theatres are to give the total receipts of their afternoon and evening performances, and the owners of all theatres have sent game pieces into the city to be sold to the bidders. There also will be special concerts and exhibitions at which admission fees will be charged and the receipts turned over to the fund.

Since the commencement of the war upwards of $10,000,000 has been raised by these societies not including the funds recently collected in the colonies.

TUMBLER SETS

UNDER OUR POPULAR COUPON PLAN HAS exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the manufacturers.

The distribution by this paper will be discontinued after Saturday, 30th inst., after which the goods will be marketed through the usual commercial channels. The unique method, employed by the manufacturers, of introducing a new product through a syndicate of newspapers, distributing them on the coupon plan, has been a most pronounced success. The World feels that they have performed a good service in giving their readers an opportunity to obtain these very elegant glasses at a price which does not pay the selling charges. The few readers who have not yet obtained a set will be envious of the successful ones when they see the great value contained in these tumblers. The World is primarily interested in giving its readers the very best newspaper published, in this or any other country, and World readers can rest assured that no article will be offered through this publication unless it has real merit behind it. Those of our readers who desire a set before we withdraw them on the 30th inst., would do well to clip the coupon today and send, or call, with it at the earliest opportunity before the above date, to either the Toronto or Hamilton office of The World. Mail orders will be filled as promptly as possible on receipt of orders. See coupon on Page 5.

LABOR TROUPE'S NOT SO SERIOUS

Much Exaggeration Over Situation in England, Declare British Delegates

BAR CONSCRIPTION

Only Three Hundred Thousand Men More Available for Recruitment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Labor troubles in England have been much exaggerated by the press and by others, whose motives are economic and not patriotic, according to Ernest Bevin and Charles G. Ammon, fraternal delegates of the British Trades Union Conference, who arrived here today on the steamer Orduna.

"Laboring men of England affiliated with the various unions are firmly opposed to conscription," said Mr. Bevin. "We are now enlisting as fast as exemptions from military service will permit, and insinuations that we are not loyal to the government are resented. Under the law employees of railroads, docks, telegraph, transport and postal services are exempt from military service, as well as all employees of munition works."

"Our fight against conscription is an economic one, having in view possible conditions that will exist after the war is over. What we have now represents more than 100 years of concerted action and work, and to ask us to give up these conditions and accept conscription is asking more than is required of landlords and manufacturers."

Mr. Bevin also said that labor unions were not opposed to working in positions previously held by men in industrial pursuits. "All that we ask is that women be not introduced into factories and railway work at less pay than is accorded to men, and that the factories where women are now employed they are being trained under the direction of men."

Sir Adam Beck Expects to Do Well for Eastern Ontario

TWO LEASES HELD UP

Powers Other Than Water Powers Behind Obstruction to System.

Special to The Toronto World. KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 21.—That he is still hopeful of getting hydro-electric power for Kingston was the statement of Sir Adam Beck when seen at the sports at the Royal Military College.

Sir Adam said he was sorry that the Hydro-Electric Commission could not have given the east supply long before this, but the commission was not to blame. The commission had in view two sources of supply in eastern Ontario, one at Waddington, N.Y., and the other at Trent, in both cases impediments had been put in the way of the commission acquiring leases of the water rights. Application had been made to the Dominion Government for the Trent water power leases, but these were not yet forthcoming.

With regard to High Falls Sir Adam said that 20,000 horse-power was available there and 6000 was being supplied to the City of Ottawa. "These power lines will do a great deal for the water power development in eastern Ontario."

BRITISH CENSOR NEEDS A COURSE IN POETRY

Commons Devotes Some Attention to Recent Deletions in Despatches.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The British censor's antipathy to poetry, as evidenced recently by deletions of lines of Kipling and Browning when quoted in despatches from the front, was gravely considered in the house of commons this afternoon, when Ronald McNeill, author and Unionist member of parliament for St. Augustine's division of Kent, asked Sir John A. Simon, secretary for home affairs, what poets could be quoted with impunity.

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited.

It will prevent delay if letters contain "subscriptions," "orders for papers," "complaints," etc., addressed to the Circulation Department.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 22.

A Pause for Consideration.

Premier Asquith's illness recalls the situation in the play "Dissolud" when the manipulator of the Buns Canal purchase found it convenient to be indisposed for a few days in order to baffle his opponents.

We do not mean to suggest that Premier Asquith's illness was assumed for the occasion, but it has had its effect in settling the situation. Men of all parties have had a space in which to consider and consideration in such circumstances invariably has a moderating influence.

This happily seems unlikely, and Sir Edward Carson's fine speech in explanation of his withdrawal must have the effect as it appears to have, to strengthen the government. Sir Edward has never shown to better advantage.

Events move rapidly in these days, and by the time Mr. Asquith returns to his place the unfolding circumstances may show that his reputation for having been born lucky has been enhanced by new developments.

It was stated yesterday that the clubs generally would observe the terms of any arrangement which might be mutually agreed upon, and the Toronto Club will set the pace. It is a commendable action on the part of those concerned and follows the precedent set by the King himself in banishing all kinds of liquors from his household during the war.

It will do much to strengthen the hands of the government in the action taken in the interests of the army, and it will help those of all classes who are affected by the license legislation to feel that they are not being made the bearers of a special burden which others are relieved.

Efficiency and Economy. Commissioner Harris should be supported in his stand against the arrogant ignorance which assails him in the fulfilment of his duties. He has a difficult position at best, but when those who ought to be most intelligent in his support and most enlightened as to the proper policy to be pursued in carrying on the work of his department, act as the aldermen of twenty years ago used to act, it is necessary for him to take a strong stand, as he did yesterday.

We have not the slightest doubt that he will be justified in all that he has done. Only the man who has done right can take a strong stand and refuse to be browbeaten by those who begin to think about the approach of election time, and feel the necessity of making those fake plays which are so diverting to the experienced, but so fatal to those who most need to understand.

The incident which occasioned Mr. Harris' challenge illustrates the wisdom of the proposal which has been made to lay the budget before the electors as a campaign document. It should be ready by the beginning of December, and not be left over to be the toy of aldermanic manipulation in the spring.

It is most damaging to the interests of the city that any elected person should be allowed to play the economy card at this time of year without any responsibility whatever, and then, if he obtains a seat in council, be given the opportunity to escape his policy under the cloak of a new deal.

The heads of departments must be prepared to stand a lot of badgering while they are in their present anomalous position, bearing all the responsibility, but with no guarantee of authority beyond the public favor of those who may be moved by their own interests as much as by that of the public.

The public has grown wiser and the council has also improved since the time when the late W. T. Jennings resigned in disgust at the wire-pulling and lobbying of the aldermen of his day.

Get the Men and Money, Too.

Sir Leo Chiosso Money is an authority on financial matters among the Liberals of Great Britain and has been a strong supporter of the Asquith government. He has been taking an independent line for some weeks with regard to the conduct of the war and especially with respect to the need for an energetic recruiting policy.

He adds his testimony to that of so many others that hundreds of eligible young men are to be met constantly who are obviously neither makers of munitions nor essential producers. They ought to be in the ranks.

There are ten millions of men between 16 and 46 in Britain, and Sir Leo considers it childish to suggest that all these males are in khaki, making munitions, or in the export trade.

Before the war Britain was lending to overseas borrowers two hundred million pounds sterling a year, or roughly, $1,000,000,000. Now that the war is on Britain is lending about 50 per cent. more than this amount.

The navy can be supported and the allies supplied with money, and the necessary soldiers can be raised as well. Great Britain has not only its own credit to pledge, says Sir Leo. British investors have about $20,000,000,000 of foreign and colonial securities.

British investors have about $20,000,000,000 of foreign and colonial securities. It is ordinarily favorable position is put taken advantage of it could only be on account of extraordinary incompetence on the part of responsible ministers.

"Those who urge that we are in financial difficulties," remarks Sir Leo, "had really better think the matter over again; they are talking the worst sort of pessimism. I am glad to know that some of the most eminent financiers in the country fully share the opinion I have expressed here in plain language, but I should not hesitate to express it if I were the only man to hold my view."

The army has been admitted by Premier Asquith to number 2,600,000 men, including the original army, reserves and territorials. Only sixty miles of a line is held in France, and properly to sustain the battle there, we should hold a line of 100 or 120 miles.

Big Eyes in New York.

It is supposed in certain quarters in Toronto that any one who looks ahead a few years and prepares for the future is to be classed with idiots and criminals. Fortunately this view only obtains among a few who are not competent authorities on standards of intelligence. Foresight is not confined to Toronto, and the huge cities of the new world, with their rapid growth and unusual problems, present many suggestions that may be of the greatest benefit to Toronto, which is just entering the stage of metropolitan growth.

One of the most recent proposals in New York has been put forward by a Canadian, a civil engineer of the University of Toronto, and a doctor of science of the same institution, honors candidate Dr. T. Kennard Thompson, with engineering experience of the highest importance, has developed the faculty known locally as "big eyes," and denounced by the incompetents aforesaid under that head. He has recognized the immense value to the huge city of Manhattan of having further opportunity to expand, and New York not being so happily situated as Toronto, which is able to extend her limits to the advantage of all concerned whenever the citizens determine public rather than private benefit, he has outlined a plan for adding fifty

ASK RECOGNITION FROM GOVERNMENT... Chiropractors and Osteopaths Want Right to Establish College

HISTORY OF PRACTICES... Dr. R. C. Barkley Presents Case - Explains Why Authority is Sought.

At the opening hearing of the Ontario Medical Education Commission, Mr. Justice Hodgins yesterday morning heard the case of the chiropractors from two of its doctors, Dr. R. C. Barkley, London, and Dr. D. W. Hamilton, Hamilton, and the Canadian College of Manotherapy.

According to Dr. R. C. Barkley the chiropractors and osteopaths of the province wanted recognition by the government and the right to found a college.

For the benefit of the commission he gave a short history of the practice which he said were recognized in 45 states of the union, and there were 12 colleges in the United States. In Ontario there were 135 practicing osteopaths, 25 of them in Toronto.

Dr. Barkley told the commission that the druggists doctors wanted recognition partly because they had been bitterly attacked by the medical men and that many young Canadians are being sent to study the science when they find it has no government recognition in Ontario.

Asked to specify just what the bodies he represented asked of the government the doctor replied: "The right to treat patients in hospitals, to visit 'sanitariums' to examine for insurability, to sign death certificates."

The Canadian College of Manotherapy was a union which was formed to teach the combined practice of osteopathy and chiropractic, said Dr. Colville, Hamilton, president of the union.

He said that the medical men, only we believe in the medical men, only we believe in the medical men, only we believe in the medical men.

His college asked government recognition and the right to examine for entry into friendly societies.

Justice Hodgins adjourned until this morning.

Trotting Horses Are Ad Wolgast's Fad

Adolph Wolgast, who won the light-weight championship from Battling Nelson and lost the title on a foul to Willie Ritchie, divides his time between prize-ring and race track. Wolgast, sharp as a razor, is not wasting his coin trying to pick winning thoroughbreds, says Dick Collins in the St. Louis Republic. He never saw a running track, and all the king's horses, mules and zebras couldn't drag him on one. Trotters and pacers are Ad's pets. He drives 'em, too. Saturday he drove his trotter, Shamrock, to victory over Country Jay in a race for all pacing and trotting events at Marion, Mich. The latter won the first two heats, Shamrock the last three. Country Jay is the pacer that won the $5000 Chamber of Commerce Pacing Stake at Detroit. Country Jay is 18 years old. Wolgast was to have boxed Young Wallace at Marquette, Mich., Saturday night, but was so busy cooling out his trotter that he missed the train.
