GAINS NEAR VERDUN

Foe Claims Capture of French Position on Meuse's Banks.

Berlin, March 6, via Sayville.—The German headquarters report of March 6 reads:

"Western theatre: The weather being bright, fighting activity at many places on the front increased as compared with the preceding day. North of the Somme the British, after a strong fire, attacked south of Pierre-Yvaert forest. After a violent struggle one trench section on the road from Bouchavesnes to Molins (north of Peronne) remained in their hands, otherwise they were repulsed.

"On the east bank of the Meuse our troops took French positions in the Carrières wood about 1,500 metres in breadth, and repulsed counter-thrusts delivered at night. Also on the south-east edge of the Forest forest an important point of terrain was captured from the French.

"In addition to sanguinary losses, where were our own troops, our recon-structing troops advancing beyond the lines gained, the enemy lost six officers and 572 other ranks as prisoners, 18 machine guns and 25 quick-firers. In the very numerous air engage-ments yesterday our enemies lost eighteen airplanes, and one was shot down from the ground. Our loss was four airplanes.

"Eastern theatre and Macedonian front: Fighting activity was unimportant."

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

THE British army is continuing its pressure against the Germans on the Ancre and it has made further progress at points northwest of Iries and north of Puisieux-au-Mont. Field Marshal Haig gives no further particulars of this operation. In his bulletin from the front last night he also reports the making of a successful raid against the German trenches east of Bouchavesnes early yesterday morning and the discovery and dis-arming of the enemy while massing for a counter-attack against his lost trenches in this region.

Latest unofficial news from the British front apparently shows that the British high command does not plan the making of any radical de-parture from its method of defeating the Germans, begun last year on the Somme. A despatch from London says that the operations during the spring and summer, it is hoped, will prove decisive. It follows that in order to make them decisive inside of five or six months, the allies plan to carry them out on a gigantic scale. Their gunners have now a lavish supply of shells, but while the Germans are husbanding and counting their shells at the present time, they, it is known, are accumulating reserves of explosives for the terrific fighting ahead. Germany also greatly increased her shell production in the past winter, and her gunners are still efficient. The enemy artillery has not shared in the deterioration of his infantry since last autumn, and his army chiefs therefore will mainly depend on their big guns to save them from final defeat.

Also, as noted at various times in these columns in the past two months, and not merely one week ago, the British have extended their front considerably, and they are sending more reinforcements of men and artillery to the Somme, it is improbable that they will extend their lines much further, for they have twice the distance to go to reach their objective—Berlin—as the French have, and they therefore require a con-centration about double the number of men per mile of front that the

CUBA KEENLY ON ALERT FOR GERMAN INTRIGUES

Two Teutons Have Been Arrested, One on Suspicion of Being a Spy.

Havana, March 6.—Since the news reached Cuba of the German plan to embark Mexico and Japan with the United States, much interest has been taken in the stories of German in-trigue in Cuba, with the object of fomenting rebellion. Before the text of the Zimmerman note was made public, little credence was placed in such stories, but the Cuban public generally is now becoming more in-clined to this view. Two Germans have been arrested thus far in Cuba, one of them known to be a close friend of ex-President Gomez, one of the leaders of the revolution. The other is held on suspicion of being a spy; he is alleged to have been caught in the act of making drawings of the coast near Pinar del Rio.

AWAIT "OVERT ACT"

U. S. Not Inclined to Force Issue on Submarine Question.

Washington, March 6.—Austria's reply to the American request for a clearer definition of her attitude in the submarine situation was stated officially here today to leave the door open for further negotiations, delaying temporarily at least the break which has been regarded as inevitable since the severance of relations between the United States and Germany.

Altho in substance the long com-munication upholds and defends the unrestricted warfare waged by Ger-mans, it is couched in most friendly terms, and points out that "Austrian submarines solely are operating in the Adriatic and Mediterranean, and therefore an encroachment on Ameri-can interests hardly is to be feared."

COACHES OVERTURN SCORE ARE INJURED

Two Toronto Men Hurt When C. P. R. Express is Derailed Near Trenton.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE

Four Cars Turn Turtle Over a Twenty-Five Foot Embankment.

Four persons, two from Toronto, were badly hurt, and about twenty passengers sustained slight cuts and bruises, yesterday afternoon, when the last four coaches of the C.P.R. east-bound express, leaving Toronto at noon, were derailed near Trenton, about one hundred miles east of To-ronto, and turned turtle over a 25-foot embankment, rolling into a gravel pit.

The two injured persons, whose names are the only ones so far known, are: Fred Donaldson, 208 Blairview avenue, master mechanic of the C.P.R. West Toronto station; fractured shoulder and arm.

Mr. Kirk of Toronto, whose initials are not known; leg broken. Donaldson and Kirk, with four others who were suffering from scalp wounds and cuts about the face, were removed to the Belleville hospital, where medical treatment was rendered. The other coaches of the train did not leave the track. The cause of the accident had not been determined, so far as known, by C.P.R. officials last night, as it was supposed that a broken rail was responsible. The last car of the train was a parlor car. The side of the embankment over which the four coaches dropped is precipitous, and the fact that none of the passengers was killed or sustained serious injury is considered remarkable.

Soon after word had been received of the wreck a crew was sent to re-construct the track. Eastbound trains following the express were not long delayed because of the wreck.

Foreign Secretary Unable to Explain How Note Be-came Known.

Berlin, March 6, via Tuckerton, March 6.—The expected criticism of the government's ill-starred German-Mexican project failed to materialize in today's session of the reichstag budget committee. After an executive sitting of six hours the committee un-animously endorsed the action of the foreign office by unanimous vote. The government's efforts to negotiate an alliance in the eventuality of war with the United States was approved as being within the legitimate scope of military precautions.

The committee expressed regrets at the misfortune which resulted in the interception of Foreign Secretary Zim-mermann's note. Responsibility for its loss cannot be fixed until former Ambassador von Bernstorff arrives from the United States.

ZIMMERMANN'S ADMISSION. London, March 6.—A Reuter des-patch from Amsterdam says that Foreign Secretary Zimmermann in a statement before the reichstag said: "We were looking out for all of us, in the event of these being the prospect of war with America. It was a natural and justified precaution. I am not sorry that, thru its publication in America, it also became known in Japan."

"For these instructions a secure way was chosen, which at present is at Germany's disposal. How the Americans came into possession of the text, which went to America in special secret code, we do not know. That these instructions should have fallen into American hands is a misfortune, but that does not alter the fact that the step was necessary for our patriotic interests. "Least of all, are they in America justified in being angry about our action, which would be erroneous to suppose that the step made a particularly deep impres-sion on the minds of the American people. Justifiable defensive action in the event of war."

The duke addressed the company in his triple capacity as president of the Empire League Club, Royal Automobile Club and Royal Overseas Of-ficers' Club.

Lieut.-Col. Beckett Dies in German Lines—Lieut.-Col. Kemball of Vancouver Falls in Fighting—Canadians Heavily Damage Foe Positions.

London, March 6.—The following communique was issued today by the Canadian war records office:

The main event of the week on the Canadian corps front was a raid of a German line on a narrow extended scale than usual. In fact, the "raid" was really a "minor operation," cov-ering as it did a frontage of nearly 200 yards and penetrating the enemy lines to a depth of 100 yards in one place. The whole affair was carried out with great gallantry and the "raid" of prisoners amounted to one officer and 44 other ranks, besides great damage to the enemy's defences, dugouts and trenches, not to mention the heavy casualties.

The troops engaged encountered stiff opposition before reaching their objectives. "No Man's Land" at this particular point is a narrow strip of holes, the ground being torn to pieces by months of continuous fighting. The ground rises gently from our right brigade front to the enemy lines. Over such a terrain the troops on the right advanced despite a heavy rifle and machine gun fire. The enemy front line was reached and crossed, his dugouts were destroyed and such Germans as were left were killed.

Two Officers Killed. The heaviest fighting occurred when the support line was reached. Here Lieut.-Col. Kemball, C.B., was killed. He was in the thickest of the fighting, leading his men into the disputed trench. Lieut.-Col. Beckett was also men till their objective was all but reached, but he was killed while col-lecting his men, scattered by crossing the mass of shell holes and craters. Their objective was reached.

After one and a half hours in the enemy lines, during which time great damage was done and a great amount of information gained, our troops retired. During the retirement the enemy suffered heavily from our artillery fire, which closed in on the enemy trenches as they left the German trenches.

In addition to this important operation no less than five smaller raids were carried out with slight success.

Enter Foe Trenches. At 3 a.m. on the 27th of February a party entered the enemy trenches. The net result of the expedition was three prisoners, the establishing of important identifications, at least ten Germans seen dead in their trenches and 11 occupied dugouts bombed. Our casualties were slight.

On the following day at 6 o'clock a.m. the battalion on the left of that which was responsible for the above enterprise carried out a raid. Two hundred yards of trench were bom-barded, four dugouts, in which were Ger-mans who refused to come out, were blown up, and the enemy trenches were found to be badly knocked about by our shell fire. Our casualties again were only two men slightly wounded.

Early in the week of Feb 26 the enemy made one or more attempts to imitate the dash raids which are carried out almost daily at one point or another on the Canadian front. Since the last effort they have been content to act wholly on the defensive, for apparently they are now convinced that raiding the Canadian lines does not pay.

On the night in question a party of 15 Germans rushed one of our Lewis gun posts. The night was extremely dark and the enemy raid could not be detected until it was too late. The two men on duty with the gun one rushed to the dugout nearby to warn the rest of the post. The German was too close for the gunner to train his gun on them and they were able to overpower the gunner and grab his gun. This success was evidently the limit of their ambition, for, without attempting anything further, they ran off with the gun. They were pursued across No Man's Land by the gun crew, who threw bombs at them with such success that the Huns dropped the gun and fled.

Meanwhile a sergeant and corporal on duty in the trench nearby ordered a "stand to." The corporal went along the trench to the right and the ser-geant to the left. The corporal met three Germans and was ordered to halt in his hand he held a pistol used for firing star shells. This he promptly discharged in the face of the leading German, and he also fired his rifle. He was wounded in the jaw himself. At the same time the party fled, leaving a sack of bombs in the trench.

Brigade Retaliates. On March 3, the brigade whose front was raided by the enemy early in the week, retaliated with a raid, which was distinctly more successful than the spurious attempt of the Germans. A small party crossed the enemy's lines, bombed half a dozen dugouts and re-turned within half an hour with ten prisoners.

From the above brief chronicle of events it may be seen that the week has been one of continued activity. As the weather improves, so the activity increases. The enemy is given no rest, the artillery fire continually destroys his dugouts and trenches and harasses his communications, while almost nightly his trenches are enter-ed at many points on the line.

PROHIBITIONISTS OPEN CONVENTION

Ontario Branch of Alliance Expresses Gratification at Hotels Closing.

WANT DOMINION ACT

Dominant Note Sounded Demands No Let-Up Until Victory is Nation-Wide.

Gratification for the success which has attended their campaign against the liquor traffic, and enthusiasm for still greater efforts in the future was manifested by the hundreds of delegates who gathered at the provincial prohibition convention under the auspices of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance.

The convention opened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with the address of welcome by Mayor Church. In the presence of Charles E. Steele of Port Colborne expressed his pleasure in granting the franchise to women. He said the people of Ontario should be proud to have the women of the United States, chief among them being Dr. E. J. Moore of Washington.

The struggle for the people of the century had rebelled against the liquor traffic and many attempts had been made by the organized liquor interests to keep it from being a man sober by law. The liquor traffic is a business which will not be driven out of the country until it is completely destroyed.

Owing to an exaggerated unofficial report sent out from Ottawa many people believed that the Canadians had moved down to the Ancre and were engaged in a full offensive operation.

Treating Herewith of the New Coats for Women

Voluminous, Trim-fitting Wraps in Gabardine, Velours, Burella Cloth, Wool Poplin, Tweed and Serge, Abounding in Pleats and Pockets, and Emphasizing the Vogue of Huge Collars—Line and Detail Invariably Contributing to the Prevailing Barrel Silhouette.

A. Motoring, travelling, stormy weather—all three claim this sturdy coat of Donegal tweed as an ideal garment for the conditions they impose. Made in loose-fitting Raglan style, it will slip on easily over suit or frock, the belt emerging at the back from either side of a wide pleat effect. In color it is dark brown, flecked with white, the straps provided to draw the sleeves in snugly at the wrist, and to fasten the collar up close at the neck, being of chocolate brown kid. Price, $27.50.

B. With a swirl of skirt and glow of brilliant color, this handsome coat offers itself with especial eagerness to her who seeks for a modish wrap for dining, or the afternoon tea party. Old gold velours, combined with gold and black checked velours, are employed for its fashioning; Raglan sleeves, wide circular skirt, and tie giraffe being distinctive features in its make-up. It is lined throughout with gold color satin. Price, $37.50.

C. In the fashionable burella cloth—like a beautifully refined and softened burial—is this smart coat, which is rendered trim and distinctive by many box plaits. The yoke, which is visible in front, characterizes the back also, where two mother of pearl buckles keep the little tie belt in place. Pussy willow, quaintly flowered, serves by way of lining throughout. The model may be had in a delightful shade of Saxe blue, in navy and in gold. The price is $37.50.

E. Journey far and wide and you might not be able to find a more stunning motor coat than this, which tops the column of sketches to the right. It fulfills the season's demand for brilliant color, the checks in the warm, shawl-like fabric of which it is composed being worked out in gold, black and white. It boasts great wide-armed sleeves, enormous pockets, which taper at the top and pass along to the back in the form of a belt, and a generous collar, which, if you so wish, will muffle up snugly around the throat. It is one of the well-known Kenyon coats—price $48.50.

D. Promising splendid service as a general utility coat, this trim model with the deep backed collar is developed in navy blue wool poplin, the cuffs and collar showing the modish heavy stitching in green silk twist. The pockets and groups of pleats at either side produce the desirable width at the hips. The waist-length lining is of blue satin, and the over-collar of white flannel, embroidered in rose and green. A splendid value at $25.00.

F. Huge pockets and a shoestring giraffe are the seal of the mode on this attractive coat. It is composed of gold velours, with a simplicity of cut which qualifies it for wide usefulness. A three-quarter length lining of crepe de Chine in a charming Paisley pattern of green, blue and rose is an interesting detail. The price is $32.50.

Coats From Paris, London and New York, at $37.50 and $46.75
ON SALE IN WOMEN'S COAT DEPARTMENT ON THURSDAY AT 10.30 A.M.

EVERY COAT IN THE OFFERING bears evidence of its distinguished origin. The labels of some of them are inscribed with such far-famed names as Bradley of London, and Bernard, Jenny, Drecol, Premet, Georgette, Brandt and Cheruit of Paris. Every model is a worthy achievement in fashionable tailoring, a happy illustration of the season's new thought in material, color and design.

Velours, Bolivia cloth, gabardine, Poiret twill, serge, broadcloth, Jersey cloth, khaki-kool—these are some of the fabrics represented, the wide selection of color including navy and Saxe blue, nigger and rookie brown, tan, black, and the bright gold yellow, emerald green and sunset rose of new vogue.

The coats will be divided into two groups and placed on sale, a special price-attraction, on Thursday morning at 10.30 o'clock, at $37.50 and $46.75.

Such Smart Coats for Misses—Styles for Every Need of the Youthful Wearer

Models Galore in Serge, Gabardine and Shepherd's Check for College or Business Wear, and a Host of Others in Velours, Poiret Twill, Bolivia and Burella Cloth to Serve for Dress, Street and Motor Use.

This is Interesting

THE grass and apple greenness of the Spring toggery—have you noticed how insistent it is? Among the new suits there are green jersey models galore, suggesting themselves most eloquently for golf, tennis, motoring and country club usefulness. White crepe de Chine and khaki-kool dresses, bordered, collared and cuffed with clear leaf green, are among the most interesting of the frocks of the sports variety. The green velours coat is considered one of the smartest of wraps, and where skirts, blouses and sweater coats are concerned the new models tell the same tale. Those who count green as their pet color may indulge their fancy to the top bent.

Evening gowns hailing from Paris and New York hint at the return of the Empire waistline and its accompanying slowness of skirt. One very lovely French model in coral charmeuse and silver lace, which is on exhibit in the little Rose and Grey costume rooms, is designed along these lines, and numerous other illustrations of the trend will be found in the adjacent showcases.

Blouses and skirts of the popular sports species have an interesting setting amid the flowering dogwood trees on the big platform in the centre of the Third Floor. Gay, tropical colors prevail, but demure greys and tans are not lacking. And how many of the khaki-kool skirts have drawstring bags to match them—good generous-sized bags, capable of holding knitting or a good bundle of needlework.

Oriental embroidery is a modish finishing touch on some of the most alluring of the new frocks and blouses. The Phoenix, the fabulous bird of China and Japan, is a favorite motif.

The Scribe.

K. Fortunate are you who capture this uncommonly attractive coat. It is a New York model, beautifully tailored of Belgian blue Poiret twill, with cuffs and deep, picturesque collar of sand color faille. The fullness is confined at the waist-line by groups of close shirring at either side of the back and front, under which passes a narrow belt, with long giraffe ends. The coat has a half lining of blue satin, and is priced $45.00.

L. A delightful little general utility coat is this model with the wide collar and big pockets. It is plainly tailored in fine velours of a leather tan shade, lined to the waist with satin of the same tone. Belt, collar and pockets are ornamented with smoke pearl buttons. Price, $32.50.

M. An interesting instance this, of the season's craze for bright colors, for the model is developed in rose burella cloth. Note the long, close row of self-covered buttons, the double belt confining the side pleats, the pair of small pockets, and the light over-collar. The latter is of creamy flannel, embroidered in vari-colored silks, and the half lining of white crepe de Chine, flowered with tiny colored pastes. Price, $45.50.

GROWTH OF FEDERATION DESCRIBED IN LECTURE

Large Audience Hears First of University Series Commemorating Confederation.

That women take their new political powers seriously was well illustrated by the number who crowded the recital hall of the Conservatory of Music last night to hear the first of a series of lectures given by the University of Toronto in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Dominion of Canada. The lecture, given by Prof. Geo. M. Wrong, head of the department of history of the university, faced an audience that might well be taken for the delegates of a suffrage convention.

Prof. Wrong dealt with "The Creation of the Federal System in Canada" in his usual clear academic style, relieved by his keen sense of humor, and brought home to his hearers the struggles out of which the Dominion of Canada as we know it came into being. How the gentle, British officers in Canada fraternized with the rugged French soldiers and looked down on the British traders causing a class cleavage and later a racial one was described. Sir Guy Carleton decided that Canada should be the home of any large number of British, therefore, it would be best to hold it as a French colony subject to Britain. The Quebec Act consequently went far in concessions to the French and the Roman Catholic Church.

The influx of U. E. Loyalists brought a change that resulted in the division of the country into two sections, by which the inhabitants, while having self-government, were to continue their native customs and creeds. Theorists were in favor of making English customs as well as self-government common to both sections, but the next attempt to a racial feeling was by having the trouble was with the four provinces with one parliament, an attempt that resulted in French domination of the country had passed to the crown of a government policy of union in national affairs relating to racial provinciality.

Nova Scotia entered as a new factor, and finally in 1864 at Quebec the representatives of the four provinces met in the skeleton of a union. A single state with the various units having prescribed powers, and a united States with certain powers delegated to a central body.

"Canada, like the United States, has the right to be proud of the makers of her federal system," said Prof. Wrong after a comparison of the leaders in the two countries. He held the non-doctrine of "dominion" that was substituted in England out of deference to the States, but thought the word might yet be changed.

RECOMMENDS POSTPONING OF ACTION ON UNION

A memorial presented by Rev. J. A. Mustard, asking that the present distress union be postponed, was adopted at the regular meeting of the Toronto Presbytery in St. James' Church, Gerrard street, and will be forwarded to the general assembly. No discussion on the memorial took place. The resolution on church union which was to have been presented will not be submitted now until the April session.

Rev. James Wilson, pastor of Dovercourt Road Church, was elected moderator for the meeting. The following commissioners were elected: Rev. John Nell, Rev. James Ballantyne, Rev. James Carmichael, J. W. Bell, Rev. J. D. Morrow, Dr. T. H. Winchester, S. H. Pickett, Dr. Milligan, S. B. Rohold, S. R. Robinson, R. C. Campbell, Dr. Mackay and R. C. Tibb.
