TOM LUNGBOAT AND AGOOSTE TO RACE

Date Fixed for March 11 and Distance Will be Fifteen Miles—Sol Mizitz's Boat Called

TORONTO, March 7.—The wrangling which has attended the negotiations for a race between Tom Lungboat and Agooste has been renewed yesterday with the result that Managers Staples and Sol Mizitz have at last arranged a race. The distance will be fifteen miles, and Sol Mizitz won't race without a side bet, a Gentile accommodated him and even called his $500 bluff with a certified check, which he placed in the hands of Tom Flanagan. Agooste said that he was almost afraid to go back to his tribunes without the running Longboat and would have stayed down here six months if necessary to get a race with the "Blue Chief". The date is fixed on the 11th, at Riverside rink.

COBALT DEFEATED BY THE WANDERERS

MONTREAL, Que. March 5.—On the night of the season, the Wanderers to-night defeated Cobalt by a score of 7 to 2. The game was a better one than the score would indicate. This leaves the way clear for the meeting of Ottawa and Wanderers on Saturday night. The Ottawa game with Kenora to-night was postponed on account of the poor ice, and unless the weather turns colder, the Wanderers game on Saturday will also have to be postponed.

THEY ACTUALLY CURE RHEUMATISM

Gin Pills Prove It

It is one thing to claim to cure Rheumatism. It is quite another to do it. Gin Pills bear out every claim we make, for they are not a "favorite prescription" or a "marvellous discovery" or a "wonderful secret preparation." They are simply a common-sense, scientific combination of medicines that have proved their value in Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, and Disorders of the Liver.

WESTERN IMMIGRATION TO BREAK ALL RECORDS

ARRIVALS FROM THE UNITED STATES THIS YEAR WILL EXCEED THE ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND MARK

OTTAWA, March 2.—The influx of settlers in the Canadian West this year promises to greatly surpass all previous records. Reports received by the Immigration department indicate that the arrivals from the American states, particularly from the Northwest, will exceed the one hundred thousand mark. During the first month of the year there has been an increase of over 100 per cent. in the number of entries taken up. The total number of entries for January was 2,088 as compared with 1,298 in January of last year, an increase of 1,300. Americans led with 935 homestead entries, and there were in addition 42 returning Canadians from the United States. Entries by Canadians totaled 602. English immigrants took 211 homesteads, Scotch 77 and Irish 29. The remaining 413 homesteads were taken up during the month were by people from other European countries.

TRIES TO STOP WEDDING OF DIVORCED MAN; KICKED OUT

EASTON, Md., March 2.—Tony Saunders, of Harlock, Dorchester county, and Miss Margaret Ford, of the latter place, were married last Tuesday. Nothing very remarkable about that, is there?

But word has just reached here that the wedding was attended by some rather unusual circumstances, and therefore this yarn.

Now, Tony had been married before, and had been divorced. This, of course, was known to everybody, and particularly to the bride, and nothing was thought of it. The Little Unity Methodist Protestant Church was crowded when the bride party entered and took its place before the altar. The Rev. George E. Hooker started the ceremony and had just pronounced the words, "If any one can show just cause why these two should not be joined together, let him now speak, or forever hereafter hold his peace," when there came an interruption.

As the tale is told, John Harper, a gentleman of the holiness profession, who had entered the church just behind the bride party, rushed up the aisle, Bible in hand, crying:

"Stop! I stop it! He is a divorced man! It is against the law of God! You have no right to marry him! You are violating God's law! You will all go to—"

The bride almost collapsed and the church was filled with excitement. Before the bride party were to start on their honeymoon trip, he took the same train, and all the way to Preston he stood before them, preaching to them that they had violated God's law, and dire punishment would be their fate. Fortunately for Harper, Mr. Saunders is of a forbearing disposition.

PROMINENT GENERALS OF BASE BALL GAME

Men Had No Equals in Their Time—Conclude Mack is Big Today—A Review of Conditions

NEW YORK, March 2.—Baseball managers in league big and little are about to experience the usual trials and tribulations. Thousands of fans all over the United States are ready to praise or condemn them, as the case may be.

While in many instances managers are not to blame for the poor work of players on the diamond, it is customary to score them in the hour of defeat or land them in the hour of success. The men who win or lose games rarely receive credit or censure which belongs to them. Really first-class managers are scarce. It is hard to find a team leader directing the play either in uniform or on the bench who is constantly successful year in and year out.

When the Giants won the pennant in 1907 and 1908 John McGraw was hailed as the best manager in the business. He was clearly entitled to the praise, because of the skill displayed in whipping the New York team into winning form.

But it is a fact that McGraw had the good fortune to get the assistance of such famous ball players as Matthewson, Bresnahan, Devlin, Donlin and others who outclassed men on rival teams.

McGraw is still a first-class manager, but he hasn't been able to win a pennant for five years, so that meanwhile the managerial crown has been worn in turn by Frank Chance, of the Chicago Cubs, Fred Clarke, of the Champion Pirates, with Hugh Jennings, of the Detroit Tigers, sharing the honors.

It is freely admitted that these managers possess sterling qualities, but they have not been able to handle ball players, but they have not been able to handle ball players, but they have not been able to handle ball players.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

It is a glad and proper thing to be the originator of a proved success. The article that has caught on to your fingers may be bigger than your whole body. It doesn't count nothing unless you have it. It is the discovery of a commodity that supplies a great need, and which is first widely advertised, and then is first widely used by your new production and made it.

It has been exactly like that with H. P. Sauer, The Sauer Vinegar Company of England, the largest firm of malt vinegars in the world, has been an original brewer in the world, has been an original brewer in the world, has been an original brewer in the world.

WRIGHT A STAR MANAGER

When professional baseball first began to be a business, Harry Wright was the star manager. He had charge of the old Bostonians, who won the national championship in 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876 and 1877. Wright played himself when the first three pennants were won, covering a period of five years and swinging a mighty bat.

LOUIS LADDY, A NATIVE OF ST. PETER'S

Cape Breton, now a resident in Boston, formerly of St. John, has had his quota of affliction within the last three weeks. At the beginning of that period his wife committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid, and two days later Louis himself succumbed to the fever brought on by viewing his mother's dying agonies. While his wife was in the hospital, he was so ill that he was unable to do anything for her. The police had searched for him during that time, but no person in the house had been able to tell them where he worked.

It is proposed to hold the regular sessions of the convention in the Convention Hall which has the greatest capacity of any hall in the city.

Other managers who have done well in the big league are mentioned here, but there is enough evidence to prove that the leaders of the present day are no more skillful than some of those who enjoyed popularity long ago.

It is well to note that Boston is the banner town in point of pennant winners, for first honors in the big league were carried off by Hub teams in 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1877, 1878, 1882, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1897, 1898, 1903 and 1910.

MR. DURANT AND THE COUNCIL. Evidently some of the aldermen do not like the way Mr. Durant has conducted affairs in connection with the proposed refinery. They are of the opinion that he should have been more outspoken with regard to his intentions, and have taken the Council into his confidence in his negotiations with the government. Possibly this is the proper view. It must be admitted that Mr. Durant's course from the very start has been lacking in that frankness which should exist between the two friendly parties to a mutually profitable agreement. But at the same time it may be that in conducting his negotiations Mr. Durant has followed the course most clearly calculated to assure his own success, and that he has no intention of even appearing to be other than openly with the city. He has secured from the Council a promise of the transfer of a certain property on the harbor front, this pledge being given on the understanding—whether explicitly stated or not—that the site was required for the construction of a sugar refinery. It is now believed that he has agreed with the government to transfer this property to the I. C. R. in exchange for an adjoining site upon which the refinery is to be built. It certainly was not the Council's intention to dispose of its land to the I. C. R. and on this seeming departure from the original agreement some explanation is expected. Yet while some of the aldermen may feel that they have been slighted in this matter, while they may consider that Mr. Durant could have explained at the start exactly what he intended, it will not be wise to let personal sentiment interfere with the success of so important an industrial proposition as the city's land is given to the refinery or to the I. C. R. cannot make such a serious difference as would seem to be implied by statements of certain aldermen. The city was giving away the land anyway in exchange for a refinery. If the refinery is built and the other conditions of the agreement fulfilled, it does not matter much who owns the land—since St. John is willing to part with it. Certainly the scheme should not be held up by any private prejudices. The best thing to do is for the aldermen and Mr. Durant to get together and have a heart to heart talk over the whole affair.

TARIFF DISCUSSION. Secretary of State Knox is so eager to obtain for the United States more advantageous terms under the Canadian tariff, that he has sent a commission to Ottawa to negotiate with the Government. Mr. Knox continues, however, to maintain that this country grants to France, under the new treaty, lower rates on certain articles than are given the United States, and declares that this discrimination must be removed before a final agreement can be reached. This is the only one left of the multitudinous arguments arrayed against Canada when the application of the new United States tariff was first brought up for consideration. In its eagerness to bring Canada into closer relations, the United States has willingly forgotten everything else. And the self-satisfied republic has also reached the conclusion that since the Dominion holds the winning cards and since this country is the most profitable of all markets, the question must be handled very carefully. Contrary to Washington's expectations, Canada did not rush across the line with prayers and pleadings for the advantages of the minimum tariff. In fact Canada has paid absolutely no attention to the matter in so far as seeking concessions is concerned. This country does not require any favors. There is a difference of opinion as to whether discrimination against the United States is to be applied in the French-Canadian treaty. Mr. Fielding holds that there is no such discrimination. His view, however, will not decide the application of the United States tariff. But it is equally true that the opinion of Mr. Knox and his commissioners does not determine Canada's attitude. This country is not seeking concessions nor making more friendly terms; it is the United States that makes the application. Under the circumstances, the Washington authorities must accept Canada's interpretation of the French treaty, or suffer disappointment.

THE TUBERCULOSIS REPORT. The report of the commission on the prevention of tuberculosis contains much that is of interest and value. The least important of all its suggestions relates to the establishment of a sanatorium. Other recommendations, which can be carried out at moderate cost are made, and these may be believed will be far more effective than the creation of a hospital for the direct treatment of a few cases. If a sanatorium were the only available method of combating this disease there could be nothing but unanimous and hearty support of the project. But the commissioners have found—although they do not say so in as many words—that other methodes produce better results, at a smaller outlay, and when the financial aspect of the matter is to be considered—as it must be in the present case—this phase is deserving of attention. It is found that by the dissemination of practical knowledge the death rate from consumption has been, in some places, reduced by fifty per cent. By putting tuberculosis on the list of contagious diseases, compelling notification by medical attendants, instructing the people generally as to the best methods of preventing the spread of the disease, and rendering practical assistance in the way of dispensaries, etc., more can be accomplished than by half a dozen sanatoria. The latter are splendid institutions and no doubt carry on an important part of the work. But it is very doubtful whether more good cannot be accomplished by other methods and at less cost. Certainly the sanatorium is recognized as a valuable aid in an anti-tuberculosis campaign, and the establishment of such an institution in New Brunswick would undoubtedly prove a profitable investment even from the economic standpoint. But more good can be done with the same expenditure, by other methods.

The Standard contends that the newly completed commercial treaty with France is a useless agreement. At any rate, its immediate result was apparent in St. John a few weeks ago when record-breaking shipments of Canadian goods to France commenced from this port.

HAZEN MUM ON VALLEY RAILWAY. Resolution That No Information Be Given in House.

Mr. Tweeddale's Motion to Indorse Project Voted Down—Burchill Wants a Plebiscite.

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 3.—The St. John Valley Railway scheme again occupied the attention of the assembly at yesterday's session. There was a lengthy debate on the matter, which ended in a decision that the Government express no opinion in the matter, until the bill had been brought down. Mr. Tweeddale's motion that the scheme be endorsed started the Government members and Mr. Slipp followed with an amendment that no information be given in the House.

Mr. Tweeddale, in moving his resolution, said that the majority of the members would treat the question respectively of party politics. The read was an absolute necessity and should be made to pay. It was to be regretted that the C. T. P. road had not been constructed down the valley and that the present question would never have arisen. The opposition members took the position that the Federal Government would operate the road as part of the I. C. R., there would be no objection to the issue of government bonds to the extent of $25,000 a mile.

Mr. Slipp reviewed the history of the late Government's construction of the Valley Road scheme. He moved a lengthy resolution, expressing the wish that further information be secured from the Federal Government. The resolution also protested against the passing of any opinion on the matter until the bill had been brought down.

Mr. Munro seconded the resolution moved by Mr. Slipp. An amendment was moved by Mr. Burchill that the Legislature express its sympathy with the people along the St. John Valley, but that it should be desirable to guarantee bonds at present before the question is submitted to a plebiscite. Mr. Burchill strongly condemned any action of the Government which would guarantee bonds without taking a plebiscite on the matter.

Mr. Burchill's amendment was seconded by Mr. Currie, who thought the time had elapsed when the province should stop building railways. On the question being put to the members, Mr. Slipp's resolution was carried by a vote of 27 to 14.

RHEUMATISM CURED. ZAM-BUK RUBBED WELL IN IS A SURE REMEDY.

As soon as you feel any deep-seated pain in the joints, back, wrists or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand and rub it well in. The penetrating power of this "embrocation-balm" is exceedingly great, and once having reached the seat of pain, it removes it speedily. It also ends the stiffness, which is so unpleasant.

Frequent rubbings of the afflicted parts with Zam-Buk will not only drive out all pain, reduce swelling, etc., but will strengthen the skin and tissues, and enable them to resist cold and damp.

Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 25 Guy Avenue, Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely with rheumatism, and tried one treatment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm whenever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on, or felt the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pain, driving them out completely, and I am now quite cured."

This case, and scores of similar cases reported to us, is proof that Zam-Buk's penetrating and healing power is very great. In addition to its use as an embrocation, it is a sure cure for skin diseases, such as eczema, ring-worm, ulcers, blood-poisoning, scap-sore, etc., and is the finest known "first aid." For piles, it is a specific. Gives certain ease. All druggists and stores, at 50 cents box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

When you hear a criticism of yourself what is your first feeling? Resentment, probably. That's just nature—an impulse of mental self-protection as much instinctive as it is to raise your arm to shield your face from a blow or draw back your hand when you touch something hot.

But what's your second feeling? Tell me that and I will tell you how much of a man or woman you are. If your second impulse is to seek some motive for your critic's disparagement of you, such as his envy or inability to understand you—well, you are not the man I hoped you were.

For I wanted you, as soon as this flash of resentment was over, to ask yourself, "Isn't that criticism just?" "Am I not selfish?" "Am I not too prone to talk about myself?" "Am I not ungrateful?" "Am I not inclined to sulk if I don't get my way?" And then I wanted you—so far as it is possible for a judge to sit on his own case—to answer that question honestly.

The man who regards criticism as an insult is the man who never gets anywhere in life. The man whose monument the next generation is going to build is the man who looked on criticism as a foundation on which to rear a fair structure of character and accomplishment.

"He is a very brilliant and talented man," some one said to me of a friend the other day, "but he simply can't bear to be criticised." And I thought to myself, "That devalues the value of his brilliance and talents about in two."

In a city where I once lived is a store which employs several bright young women as critics. Their job is simply to find as much fault as they possibly can with the way the store is run. Signs, furthermore, are printed all over the store asking salespeople and patrons to criticize any detail which they think might be improved upon.

Do I need to add that this shop is one of the most flourishing, progressive and most imitated in the city? Hardly. It would be difficult to find a more successful business in the city. The owners of a big factory now here paid out ten thousand dollars last year simply to have some experts whose sole business is criticizing other people's business, come and find fault with the way they were running things.

And as a corollary that factory is bringing in much more money today than ever before. The successful business man, you see, are the men who not only permit but welcome and even pay large sums for criticism. It is the development of your character of less importance than the building up of a business?

Is the conduct of your life of less importance than the management of a shop or factory? Isn't criticism as invaluable to you as to the business man? Think it over.

THE PERILS OF DUELING. Henri Bernstein, the dramatist, engaged by a hostile critic in a Paris paper, challenged the critic, M. Chevassu to mortal combat, says a writer in Success Magazine. The challenge was promptly accepted, and the duel was arranged in the time-honored French fashion. Unfortunately, it rained hard on the fatal day. The pistols had to be loaded under umbrellas, and the eminent surgeons present had to try to protect their principals from the elements. At the word, Chevassu, whose pen is more formidable than his pistol, fired far over the dramatist's head, while Bernstein, who suddenly thought of a new plot for a play, completely forgot to shoot. However, since the critic's high hat and frock coat were totally ruined by the rain and Bernstein caught a bad cold in his head, honor was satisfied. But it is not true that the civilized nations of the world united to put a stop to the unsanitary practice of dueling.

MATRIMONIAL RECIPE. Knicker—Can a couple live on bread and cheese and kisses? Bookie—They can, provided the kisses are home-made and the bread isn't discouraged. Love—going to kill myself. Theatrical Manager—Hold on a minute. If you're bound to do it, won't you be good enough to leave a note saying you did it for love of Miss Starr, our leading lady? It's a dull season, and every little helps.

IT WOULD ALL HELP. Theatrical Manager—Hi, there! What are you doing with that pistol? Discouraged—Love—going to kill myself. Theatrical Manager—Hold on a minute. A COLUMN FOR WOMEN

Fashions and Fads. Some of the newest showings of satin, which promises to be very popular, have diagonal stripes from six to eight inches wide, in self-tone, of course.

Narrow bands of fur are supplanting velvet and ribbon for the collars. Chinchilla is, of course, a favorite for brunettes and white sable is in favor for blondes.

A new and more or less economic note in millinery is to place the trimming at the back. Bunches of egrettes and a great hedge of feathers rise upstanding at the base of the hat.

The spangled fan continues as popular as ever. In some of the new ones the fan is made of gold lace and spangled with sequins in colors, red, black or green being especially effective.

Among the new features of the tailor, collar designs are simulated collars, collar designs of the coats cut separate and attached to the waist line.

Leading milliners on the side of the water are saying that the Chanticleer vogues is a fever to acute to last long. They predict that its influence will have spent itself soon after Easter.

Household Hints. A light wooden box should be provided for baby's toys. A solution of oxalic acid is good to clean copper and brass.

Green vegetables are best cooked in open vessels to save the color. A sun bath is of more value to health than much warming by the fire.

To give a richer flavor to the roast, lard it with drippings instead of water. A piece of ham bones added to vegetable or stock soup will improve the flavor.

Candles will last much longer if they are kept on ice 24 hours before using. To cure the sting of wasp or bee, mix common earth with water and apply.

One teaspoon of ammonia to a quart of water will clean gold or silver jewelry. Hardly any better fastening cloth can be found than the blue pinning line.

To let vines climb up on wooden walls will seriously damage them, as it promotes decay. If an oven is too hot, the temperature may be lowered by opening the lid of the range a trifle.

When making painted oysters it is essential to have the pan piping hot before putting anything into it. When making sweet croquettes add a little sugar to the crumbs in which the croquettes are to be rolled.

A pinch of salt and soda added to water in which tough meat or vegetables are boiled will make them more tender. Price of pattern, 10 cents.

MADE A ROUGH HOUSE OF NON UNION BAKERY

A Dozen Armed Toughs Wrecked New York Shop Today, Severely Beating 17 Employees

NEW YORK, March 2.—A gang of a dozen armed men attacked a non-union bakery on Allen street today, beat up badly the half-dozen men employed there, threw quantities of ground glass in the batches of dough being prepared and made a wreck of the place. Three of the bakers were badly injured by being beaten over the head with revolver butts after being compelled at the weapons point to hand over the contents of the cash drawer. The bakers fought back with rolling pins and other handy implements, but were overmatched and only saved from further harm by the arrival of the police, who arrested four of the assailants. The police class the attack as an aftermath of the recent bakers' strike, which aroused violent animosity in the east side districts affected.

INDIA'S TAX ON SILVER IS BOMBHELL IN SILVER MARKET

If Market is to be Saved From Demoralization, Sharp Curtailment of Output May be Necessary, Say Some Authorities

—Others Take More Hopeful View

LONDON, March 2.—In the Indian budget of 1910-11 the import duty on silver has been increased from 2 per cent. to 4 annas an ounce and on petroleum from 1d. to 1 1/2d. a gallon. An official of one of the leading banking institutions having extensive dealings with the Far East, referring to the proposed increase of 11 per cent. in the tax on silver imports to India, said: "Presumably this step is taken to raise additional revenue by the government. Not since September, 1907, has the Indian government been a purchaser of silver. All the white metal going to that country has been taken by the merchants, and distributed through the bazaars. The government itself not being in the market for silver supposedly designs to increase its income through imposing an additional revenue tax on the merchants.

PRICES MAY DECLINE FURTHER.

The effect of such an increased tax will be to temporarily throw the silver market into some confusion, but within the course of a few months, after readjustment has taken place, I believe, India will be quite as large a purchaser as before. The fall of 9-10d. in the price of silver in the London market last week was the direct result of the new move which may be followed by a further decline in the quotations."

Some other authorities on silver were inclined to take a less hopeful view of the situation, contending that a 16 per cent. tax would be absolutely prohibitive to the imports of the white metal to India and that consequently a sharp curtailment in output would have to be effected, if the market was to be saved from demoralization. This view, however, did not prevail among the larger dealers and banking institutions.

INDIA A BIG CONSUMER.

During the year ended Dec. 31 last, India took about half the total amount of silver imported into Great Britain. The imports of the white metal reported at London amounted to £21,000,000, and the exports from there aggregated £12,000,000, of which £5,700,000 went to India. London, practically speaking, is the world's clearing house for silver, and the above statistics therefore indicate the importance of India as a purchaser in the silver market.

BOMBHELL IN SILVER MARKET.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Edward Brush, vice-president of the American Smelting and Refining Company, said in reference to the increased duty proposed by the India government on silver: "The India government has thrown a bombshell into the silver market. It has apparently come out of a clear sky, and no intimation whatever had either reached the general trade or even the large eastern banks. The duty for the past ten or fifteen years has been five per cent. on the value of the imports. The new duty is to be a four annas per Troy ounce. At the present value of silver this will make a duty of sixteen per cent. The reasons for this additional duty are, of course, problematical. At the time of the imposition of the duty of five per cent. the matter was thoroughly discussed, and those in favor of the duty favored it because they desired to discourage the importation of silver into India. It, however, had no such effect whatever, apparently, and in the opinion of students of the subject who have had a wide banking experience in India even the imposition of a duty of sixteen per cent. will not permanently discourage the importation of silver, and its distribution by the bazaars to the natives. The Indian knows no other method of saving such small hoardings as circumstances permit, except by either buying chunks of silver or manufacturing it into bracelets or other ornaments for the women of India.

DEMAND WILL CONTINUE.

The accumulation of silver in India will be of course enhanced in value over the delivery price from London by the amount of this duty, and undoubtedly such accumulation as they may now have in India, which is reported to be much less than that of six months or a year ago, will be distributed and consumed before new buying will take place. For this reason the London market has declined so heavily. If, however, the consumption of silver in India is not to be affected by this tax, which undoubtedly will be the case unless silver is produced in India, then the price of silver will not be permanently affected. The consumption of silver in India will simply be taxed to this increased extent, as naturally the parity of value will be reached at London and the cost of delivery and duty will be paid by the buyer.

CHINA WANTS SILVER.

"At the present time there is a very lively demand for silver in China, which is likely to increase. On account of the low price of silver and its high price of commodities which are usually imported into China, these imports have been very much restricted and exports have been encouraged and the balance of trade.

"It will be most interesting to note the reasons for the India government for this added duty, and also to note the effect, if any, which it will have on the consumption of silver in India.

WHITE PLAGUE REPORT MADE

Commission Recommends Opening of Sanitarium

Dispersaries for Hospital's — Knowledge of Tuberculosis Should be Spread

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 2.—This afternoon the Premier presented to the house the report of the commission on tuberculosis. The report is quite lengthy and goes fully into the history of tuberculosis, its origin and spread. To a slight extent the disease is hereditary, but for the most part is infectious. There is no doubt in the commission's mind that sanitariums are most essential for the treatment of disease, especially in its incipient state. A sub-committee was appointed by the commission and this committee visited Montreal, Boston, New York and other places, and set forth the knowledge obtained. The commission after receiving this report and considering the question fully, recommends, among other things, that there should be spread knowledge in regard to the disease to the patient himself and to those he may come in contact with as to the general public, that there

Had a Bad Cough For a Number of Years.

Mrs. A. E. Brown, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "I have had a very bad cough every winter for a number of years which I was afraid would turn into consumption. I tried a great many remedies but only received temporary relief until I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after taking two bottles my cough was cured. I am never without a bottle of Norway Pine Syrup."

Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that when a person catches cold it must be attended to immediately or serious results may follow.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the medicine you need. It strikes at the foundation of all throat and lung complaints, relieving or curing all Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, Sore Throat, etc., and preventing Pneumonia and Consumption.

So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it. Don't be imposed upon but insist on getting "Dr. Wood's."

should be compulsory notification, that there should be an examination of the situation in each case that a nurse should visit the homes of the sick, that ventilation of all public buildings should be had, that board of health should take greater interest in the disease, that the provincial board of health should be clothed with power and stimulated to take an active interest in the matter and instruct country boards the special person qualified should be appointed to direct the several boards and keep statistics.

The commission suggest that special dispensaries for tuberculosis should form a part of the branch of all hospitals, that a travelling educational exhibit on tuberculosis should be obtained, accompanied by lectures and should be made a part of all provincial exhibitions and agricultural shows, etc. It is well to acquire a library in order that the people may become more educated and that a chapter of tuberculosis should be inserted in the Health Reader. The commission recommend the establishing of a sanitarium in the province and under this head discuss the situation of the site, the form of building and the superintendent. Regarding the site they say that such building should be near the centre of population, on elevated ground, easy of access, with a good outlook. As to the form of building, the commission recommend as being the right sample. There should be an administration building in connection. The superintendent should be a man trained and have full knowledge of tuberculosis.

OTTAWA, Mar. 2.—The total value of the mineral production of Canada during 1909 was a little over ninety million dollars, an increase of nearly five millions as compared with the preceding year. INTERESTING DISCUSSION ON THE NEW ATTACHMENT BILL

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 3.—The law practice and Procedure committee met this morning and took up consideration of the bill to provide for attachment in certain cases. In addition to members of the committee there were present, Messrs. A. H. Hanington, W. E. Foster, T. H. Somerville, J. C. Harrison, W. H. Barnaby, C. H. Peters, of St. John and R. F. Randolph and S. B. Neil, of Fredericton.

Mr. W. H. Barnaby said the bill was the result of thoughtful consideration in the part of the Board of Trade. The members felt that something should be done to protect the interests of tradesmen whose delinquent estates were insufficient to pay their debts in full. The bill as prepared dealt with this condition of affairs and the Board thought it contained nothing more than was reasonable in the interests of the trading community.

W. E. Foster said conditions had undergone considerable change in recent years. If the law was altered he felt that it would be the best law on the subject in the country, fair both to creditors and debtors. No power was sought to deal with unfortunate who were honest, but only those who wilfully tried to evade their creditors. The bill provided that a man in difficulties might apply to the court for protection and while his affairs were being straightened out his business could go on and the best arrangement possible might be made. On the other hand as matters were at present as soon as it became known that a man was in difficulty each creditor immediately took steps to look after his own interests to the detriment of the remainder.

A. H. Hanington said the old attachment act allowed any creditor to issue an attachment on his own motion without any leave from the court, and this practice led to considerable abuse. The present bill was intended to place private debtors under similar provisions to those contained in the winding up act relating to companies. This bill would be a most useful supplement to the creditors relief act, providing as it did for all creditors to come in ratably. At the present time a debtor might tell his creditors he could only pay so much on the dollar, and while creditors were considering the debtor went on disposing of his goods and putting money in his pocket.

Among the passengers on the Corcan which sails this afternoon is Commander Edwards, of the Royal Navy, who is returning from Squidman at Furlough, which he will spend in the Old Country.

NEW D. S. A. IS A NEW BRUNSWICKER
Capt. F. W. L. Moore Was Born at Chatham

Served in South Africa for Eight Years—Country No Longer Offers Opportunities for Englishmen
Capt. F. W. L. Moore, the recently appointed district adjutant for No. 8 military district, in succession to Col. O'Brien, is in the city preparing to take up his new duties. A New Brunswicker by birth, he has had a varied and interesting career since taking up the military profession. He served in South Africa during the Boer war and remained there until last year. In conversation with the Star today he gave a résumé of his experiences of the present situation in South Africa and the trend of affairs in the new federation.

Capt. Moore was born at Chatham, N. B., but his family afterward moved to Charlottetown. There he received his education there, graduating from Prince of Wales College. While practicing law there he was deeply interested in military matters, and for ten years served as captain in the fourth B. regiment of garrison artillery. At the outbreak of the South African war he applied for a commission in the first contingent, but as there was no vacancy he accepted a captaincy in the Royal Canadian Artillery and went to Quebec to fill a vacancy there.

When the South African Constabulary was organized, he was appointed to that body and sailed for South Africa with them in 1901. The corps was divided into three sections of 500 men each and he took one of them to Heidelberg. Capt. Moore served with them until the end of the war in 1902, and then accepted the post of district commander in the Transvaal. He was afterwards connected with the depot troops at Pretoria and took part in operations in cavalry and pick work before going to Eastern Transvaal as assistant district commander. He retired from the S. A. C. in 1904 and went to Natal, where he became chief constable at Pietermaritzburg. He then returned to Canada in August he took a course at Kingsford Hall, and completed the instruction course at Halifax.

Spreading of present opinions in South Africa, Capt. Moore said that the country had established more rapidly than they had expected, and that the country was finally disintegrated, after having been reduced to a shambles. The force was organized with a strength of 25,000, but it was found too large for the country. The same cause had led the Imperial authorities to discard the idea of keeping a large force in the country. The British had half again between England and India, and after building expensive railways they had torn them down two years later.

Speaking of the result of the formation of the South African Constabulary, Capt. Moore said that it had turned out to be a disappointment. The Constabulary was practically forced into the formation of the Constabulary. The Constabulary was practically forced into the formation of the Constabulary. The Constabulary was practically forced into the formation of the Constabulary.

A Comparison of Methods
leaves the balance always on the side of the student equipped with the most modern methods. The stone age bookkeeper had a flat rock for a ledger, and a stone chisel for a pen. He made one entry a day, perhaps, if he was lucky. The modern bookkeeper has the Burroughs Adding and Listing Machine, and he can only make entries at the rate of 80 a minute, and add them up in no time at all. It is one of the marvels of the day.

New Health and Strength for Weak and Ailing Girls
Can be Had Through the Rich, Red Blood Made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

There comes a time in the life of almost every girl when sickness attacks her. The strain upon her blood supply is too great, and there comes a time when she is unable to continue her studies unless I found a speedy cure. I tried several tonics prescribed by the doctor, but they proved useless. My mother urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I finally consented to do so. I had hardly finished the second box before a change for the better took place, and the use of a few boxes more fully restored my health, and I have since been well and strong. I feel that I cannot say too much in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I strongly recommend them to other ailing girls.

WILL NOT ALIENATE HARBOR FRONTAGE

Members of Council Opposed to Duration Transfer and Sale to C.P.R.—Harbor Committee Meets This Afternoon

That the Durant agreement will not go through in its present form is the opinion of a number of the members of the common council. They feel that the city has been tricked into the present situation and they are strongly adverse to parting with any section of the harbor front without good reason being shown for the transfer. The same sentiment has had its influence on the project to offer the West Side wharves for sale to the C. P. R., and it is possible that the committee appointed to look after the matter will not take the trip. The latter subject will be discussed at the meeting of the harbor committee this afternoon, but as plans showing the property exchanges proposed by Mr. Durant have not yet come to hand the refinery proposition will not be taken up.

The regular monthly meeting of the treasury board will be held this evening.

P. E. I. CHAMPIONS WANT TO PLAY HERE

The Crystals Asking for Dads—Other Outside Teams Coming When Weather Gets Colder

The Crystals hockey septette of Summerside, champions of the Prince Edward Island League, have wired to the management of the All-St. John team asking for dates for matches here. The Crystals would prove a fine attraction. Manager Clawson wired back assuring the island boys a good guarantee. If cold weather comes the matches will take place next week. The Crystals would not be for the start trophy, but would give the locals a chance to show their abilities against one of the fastest teams in Eastern Canada.

The Crescents of Halifax are another team that the locals wish to bring to St. John. Mr. Clawson telegraphed yesterday to F. H. Stuart, manager of the Crescents, requesting matches with his team here on March 8, 11 or 12. As the Crescents are now in good standing with the M. P. A. A. the team will likely make the trip to St. John.

The "Amherst" Ramblers will arrive in the city on Saturday afternoon for their match in the evening with the locals.

BETTER GET MARRIED BY LOCAL CLERGYMAN

Registrar Jones' Advice to the Greek Couple—Similar Case Here Six or Seven Years Ago

Registrar Jones said this morning that the marriage of Constantinos and Anna of the Greek community would be legally performed, only by a minister who was registered in the province. The law was plain that marriages performed by outside clergymen would not be recognized. He would advise the parties to be married by a local clergyman.

A similar question was brought up in September, 1902. A Halifax clergyman officiated at the marriage of his brother in this city. Mr. Jones' opinion was asked as to the legality of the ceremony. He interviewed the then Attorney-General, Hon. William Pugsley. The clergyman in question said that he was a native of St. John and had resided in the province for many years. Mr. Jones in his reply regretted to inform the clergyman that the marriage was not legal and the best course would be for the clergyman to secure registration and re-marry the couple.

POMERANIAN IS NOW THIRTEEN DAYS AT SEA

Probably Meeting Rough Weather—The Cassandra Sails This Afternoon—Movements of Other Vessels

Donaldson liner Cassandra, in command of Capt. Mitchell, will sail from the steamer, this afternoon, for Glasgow direct between 4 and 6 o'clock this afternoon. The steamer will carry a very large general cargo. The Cassandra has 25 passengers on board.

At the local Allan line office this morning a report was received from the Hesperian, with 600 passengers from Liverpool for this port. The steamer was 280 miles southeast of Cape Race at 9.30 o'clock this morning. She will reach Halifax on Saturday. The steamer will come to St. John on Sunday night or Monday morning.

Allan liner Pomeranian, with passengers and cargo, from London via Havre, was not reported today. The steamer is now thirteen days out from Havre and evidently is meeting with rough weather.

C. P. R. steamer Empress of Britain should reach Halifax on Friday. The steamer has 1441 passengers on board. She will come around to St. John on Saturday afternoon. Captain J. R. Gambell, is scheduled to sail from Grand Point tomorrow. Passengers for the Corsican arrived from the west today. The steamer is taking a large cargo for Liverpool.

The police found a string of beads on Carleton street yesterday. The owner can obtain them at the North End police station.

CHAIN GANG MEMBERS REFUSED TO WORK

Two of Them Went on Strike Today and Are Having a Quiet Time in Jail

Solitary confinement or breaking stone is the option given jail prisoners. This morning a couple of the gang went on strike and they are now being punished by being placed in the black-hole. This morning Guards Collins and Beckett left the jail with fourteen men to work breaking stone near Holy Trinity Church. Two of the gang refused to go to work, and the gang were marched back to jail again. The two who refused duty were placed in the black-hole. It is seldom that a prisoner refuses to work on the gang. One of the strikers is a big old country tough who is doing a term for creating a disturbance in the Mulvickon Army Metropole and assaulting one of the inmates.

MANY BAD BOYS

Speaking on the question of disorderly boys this morning Chief of Police Clark said that there were a large number of very bad boys in the city. It is not in any one section of the city that the bad ones are located, but in almost every section. There are continual complaints to the central station asking for officers to disperse disorderly crowds of boys. Last night Policeman Sheehan was summoned to Elliott Row, where a crowd of boys were making a great amount of noise, and smashed windows in Miss Cassie Hanan's house. Two boys named Cowell and Sheehan have been reported by the officer and will be dealt with in the police court.
