THE KAISER MADE HALF MILLION GERMAN SOLDIERS AVAILABLE AGAINST ALLIES, BUT MIGHTY BATTLE WITHOUT COLLOSSAL BATTERING FROM LEGENBURG EQUAL IN HISTORY

Counted on Troubles in Ireland Preventing Great Britain from Keeping Faith With Her Friends—Deemed it an Opportunity Mistake on Part of Allies Will Enable Germans to Reach Paris.

Special Cable to The Standard from International News Service. By Sir Hiram S. Maxim.

London, Aug. 15.—I have seen this coming for a long time. Four great continental powers have been straining every nerve to see how large an army they could raise and equip. They had these armies and like a boy with a plaything, they wanted to use them.

It appears to me that the Kaiser was anxious for war. He was of the opinion that he had the strongest army the world had ever known. He deemed this a favorable time to strike because the Irish troubles that he would support her friends. The Kaiser fully expected no opposition would be offered to the march of a large portion of his army through Belgium in order to attack France. Now that Serbia has been quite successful in keeping Austrians out of her country, the colours of great Germany will sweep down upon Germany and Austria like an avalanche in about three weeks.

French and Belgians are very much alike, they have the same system of fortifications. A great deal has been done in the last twenty years to make the eastern frontier of France impenetrable. They have a great variety of defensive works of great strength, not only that, but French artillery is much more powerful than the world's.

RUSSIA WILL KEEP AUSTRIA BUSY

Austria has a very large army, but she Austrians will have all they can do and get out of their own country, to say nothing of keeping them out of Germany.

JAPAN GIVES GERMANY UNTIL AUG. 23 TO ACCEPT HER TERMS

Unconditional Acceptance Alone Will Satisfy Mikado — Demands Turning Over of Kiau Chau Pending its Return to China, Also Disarming of German Warships in Far East

Tokio, Aug. 15.—2:30 p. m.—Japan has sent an ultimatum to Germany demanding that she withdraw her warships and evacuate Kiau Chau. Unless Germany unconditionally accepts by August 23 Japan will take military action. The news that Japan has sent an ultimatum to Germany is officially confirmed.

The newspaper Jiji Shimpo, which usually well informed, in an extra, gives some additional details of the Japanese ultimatum to Germany, according to the Jiji, and besides demanding the turning over of Kiau Chau to Japan, pending its return to China, asks that the German warships in the Far East waters be disarmed and the forts in Kiau Chau, Germany is also required to withdraw all her warships from the China Sea.

Copies of the Japanese ultimatum to Germany were handed to the Chinese government and the foreign legations today. As it is not considered likely that Germany will comply with the Japanese demands, preparations are proceeding for a campaign by force of arms. Three British regiments in China have received instructions to hold themselves in readiness for transportation.

The statement in the Japanese ultimatum that Japan proposed to return Kiau Chau to China is regarded highly by Chinese officials. The Chinese foreign board announced tonight that China realizes she cannot forcibly prevent the return of her territory, she however, strengthening her forces at Taisan, with the view of repelling Chinese troops beyond the fifty kilometre limit allowed German troops for manoeuvres.

According to Japanese figures the German troops at Taisan number 8,500. There are several hundred recruits at the various treaty ports. It is not known where the German fleet has gone; it left port about ten days ago with colliers.

The text of Japan's ultimatum has created a profound impression although it had been predicted that Japan was making ready to participate in the war.

I.C.R. ELEVATOR TO BE REBUILT, CONCRETE AND STEEL STRUCTURE.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—A new elevator of steel and concrete construction and thoroughly modern in type and equipment will be built for the I. C. R. to replace the one destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. The site of the new structure has not yet been announced. F. P. Gulemus, manager of the I. C. R., has been summoned to Ottawa to discuss matters affecting the terminals at St. John. He will be here during the present week.

PARLIAMENT MEETS TUESDAY FOR WAR SESSION

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—Members of the House of Commons have commenced to arrive in the capital for the "war session" to be opened on Tuesday with a special session from the Throne commencing at 10 o'clock.

While this session is almost certain to be the shortest on record, it is likely that half a dozen bills, all of a more or less urgent nature will be placed upon the statute books of the Dominion. First in point of importance will be the supply bill, whereby the government will be authorized to provide the money necessary to equip Canada's overseas forces, defend our coasts, maintain all the additional additional services due to war conditions and pay for our gift of one million bags of flour to the government of Great Britain.

Of practically equal importance will be the general bill to be introduced giving the government power to take any additional steps necessary for the defence of Canada as well as ratifying what has been already done without specific legislative authorities.

Another important measure will be one giving the government power to exercise its authority in such a manner as to prevent any undue increase in the price of foodstuffs. The details of this legislation have not been announced but it is understood that parliament will give the government the power to fix the prices at reasonable figures.

It is also regarded as practically certain that legislation will be enacted at the approaching session authorizing the government to declare a moratorium at any time upon the state of war exists. The effect of a moratorium proclamation is to postpone the payment of interest on the public debt, or to limit for such time and subject to such terms and conditions as the government may determine. So far there has been no necessity, however, for issuing such a proclamation. In Canada, nor is it expected, that such necessity is at all likely to arise in the future. It may, however, be considered advisable to enact a general moratorium act to be brought into effect in whole or in part, by proclamation should emergency arise. Both Great Britain and France have recently declared moratorium for limited periods.

KINGS COUNTY HELPS

Sussex, Aug. 15.—Sussex attended the efforts of the ladies of Sussex, Apschall and Waterford in their campaign for funds towards the hospital ship which the ladies of Canada proposed to donate to the Empire. As the result of collections they secured the sum of $197.46 which was forwarded to the central executive of Toronto. The members of the finance committee which had the matter in hand were Mesdames L. R. Murray, J. M. Kincaid, N. W. Favelle, and Arthur Robinson, all of Sussex.

Moreover, it is pointed out that Germany is making preparations day and night at Kiau Chau, where it is storing provisions, while its warships are scouring the seas of eastern Asia, to the great detriment of commerce, and that its converted cruisers are setting English merchant vessels. Such actions, it is argued, directly calculated to disturb the peace of eastern Asia and accordingly, after full and frank communication with Britain, the great has found herself compelled to send an ultimatum to Germany.

Germans Hurl All Available Troops Against Allies in Desperate Attempt to Turn Left Flank --- Allies' Artillery Effective in Checking Invaders' Attack --- German Infantry Driven Back in Attempt to Break Through Denders Lines --- General Joffe Takes Command of Allied Forces in Belgium --- Austrians Lose Thousands in Fight on Austro-Serbian Border.

Paris, Aug. 15.—3:55 p. m.—The conditions under which the great battle between the Germans and the allied forces will probably be fought are made the subject of an official communication issued by the French minister of war this afternoon. By its development, and the nature of the ground over which the battle will be fought, the communication says that this vast engagement will differ profoundly from the battles of other times.

"By reason of the abandonment of the attack which the Germans planned against Nancy," says the communication, "our concentration has been carried out with regularity and in its entirety and thus the whole of the French army will battle with the whole of the German forces, with the exception of those German troops concentrated on the eastern frontier of the empire."

"The violation of the neutrality of Belgium has extended the Belgian and French lines to the frontier of Holland. The next battle, therefore, will be fought on the western frontier, with several millions of men on each side.

"It is this enormous extension of effectiveness and of front which will characterize the battle and it will be profoundly different from all other battles.

"When two adversaries engage in battle along a front of from twenty to thirty kilometers (thirteen to twenty miles), the engagement is characterized by two features—it is rapid and immediately decisive. With a front extending over four hundred kilometers (266 miles) it is not likely to be the same.

"It would appear impossible, from all the evidence, that one of the adversaries would be able to gain a decisive advantage upon this front of 400 kilometers. The operations along so great a line would have varying fortunes. We will have an advantage at other points, and the line of battle will continue to be modified until one of the adversaries succeeds by co-ordination of movements and mass of effort to gain at some point, the superiority of which will dislodge the other side and mark the end of the first battle.

"These observations have for their object the preparation of the public for a battle in new form, and without precedent in history."

The communication adds that news of definite results need not be expected for at least eight days or longer.

CONFIRMS STORY OF GERMAN OFFICER'S SUICIDE

London, Aug. 15.—A despatch to the Central News Agency from its Paris correspondent says General Daniling, commander of the German fifteenth army corps, is in a hospital at the front on account of a bullet which passed through his neck.

The Brussels correspondent of the Star says a Belgian officer who escaped from Liege brought details of the death of General Von Emmich, commander of the German army corps in the West. The correspondent says it is stated that General Von Emmich's unlimited confidence in the German army and its style of fighting was shattered by the events around Liege.

INTERNAL REVOLUTION IN PROGRESS IN GERMANY SPELLS KAISER'S DOOM

(Special cable to The Standard through the International News Service)

London, Aug. 15.—The Central News says the following appeal from Berlin has been addressed to the British Humanity League:

"Dear Comrades: At last the clouds have burst. We cannot at this hour refrain from sending a message of fraternal greeting to you who have foreseen and prepared for the carnage which must precede millions of tolls.

"Crushed by its internal weight, nakedly revealing itself, we see uncurbed a tyrant surrounded by parasites now directing the most devilish and selfish campaign ever waged against humanity.

"With tollers in all lands we have no quarrel today. We extend our hands in heartfelt friendship to every Belgian, French and British democrat.

"We know the internal revolution now proceeding in our midst will depose the despot whose insatiable egotism is draining Europe with the blood of its workers and wage earners.

"This letter reaches you by the hand of a trusted Dutch comrade, who is risking his life in the peoples' cause."

with marked density north. Their front seems to follow the course of the Ourthe river, then the frontier, which is crossed at Longwy and Clercy. A large part of this front has been brilliantly carried by the French and the German columns are now falling back. They left behind many dead and wounded, in addition to prisoners.

Engagement Between Germans and Allies Will Reveal New Form of Fighting—Decisive Victory at First Almost an Impossibility—Czar Promises Complete Autonomy to Poland.

London, Aug. 15, 3 p. m.—St. Petersburg despatch to the Lloyd News says a newspaper correspondent who has just arrived from Warsaw reports that city quiet up to the time he left. He says that a lively campaign is being waged by German sympathizers along the border for the support of the Kaiser.

A Polish newspaper correspondent under German supervision at Czestochowa, is publishing accounts of German successes. In its latest issue it reported that Sweden and Japan had declared war upon Russia.

GERMANS SUPPORT POLES

ROME, VIA PARIS, AUG. 15. 5 P. M.—The commanders of Italian steamers arriving from the Orient state that the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau did not escape unmolested. They were attacked several times by English cruisers, which, however, were not able to overtake them. It is believed that the Germans took refuge in the Dardanelles only after they had been damaged.

Although Italy has on hand grain sufficient to last several months, the closure of the Dardanelles, through which the bulk of importations comes, and the suspension of exports from Argentina compel the Italian people to turn to the United States for future provisions. The government has already received offers from the American market and the transportation of grain will be facilitated as Italy will assume the war risks.

MADRID, VIA PARIS, AUG. 15. 2:35 P. M.—The government has decreed a suspension of the tariff on coal and grain.

PARIS, AUG. 15, 2:35 P. M.—The police have prohibited the sale of abanthe bars violating the order will be closed.

London, Aug. 15, 6:50 a. m.—An Exchange Telegraph Company despatch from Athens, Italy, reports the arrival there of the English consul from Trieste. The consul states that he had practically no news of the fate of the Italian declared war against Austria.

London, Aug. 15, 5:50 a. m.—The Alliance line steamship called to the Donaldson liner Athena sailed today from Glasgow for Montreal.

troops also continue to make progress and the Germans are retreating.

London, Aug. 15.—A Reuter despatch from Rome says that the Paris correspondent of the Tribune Heart planations from Constantinople regarding the concentration of Turkish troops on the frontier. Unless the reply is satisfactory, Greece will mobilize forthwith.

"In upper Vosges, the French

the officer declared that Von Emmich's unlimited confidence in the German army and its style of fighting was shattered by the events around Liege.

STATES WILL SEND JAPAN'S ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY

Washington, Aug. 16.—Owing to cable interruption, Japan has not been able to deliver its ultimatum to Germany, and the United States will undertake to communicate it to Berlin.

Copenhagen, via London, Aug. 16.—According to a special message from Berlin twenty-three Russian generals and admirals, including the former commander-in-chief of the Black Sea fleet, have been interned by the German authorities.

London, Aug. 16.—A Reuter despatch from Stockholm says that Col. Moercke has been appointed minister of war in place of Dr. Hammarskjold who retains his position as premier.

NEW ENGLANDERS KEEN TO JOIN CANADA'S ARMY

Several young men from States cross to Canada in hopes of enlisting—War an absorbing topic in States just now.

Boston, Aug. 13.—New England athletes and their friends are greatly interested in the Canadian A. A. U. championships to be held at Charlottetown on Aug. 19. The track and field championship committees of the New England Amateur Athletic Association is selecting five men to go to Prince Edward Island. It was hoped that Howard P. Drew, the crack sprinter, would be able to compete but he finds it impossible to leave Springfield at that time. Pending the settlement of a dispute Drew will hail from Los Angeles, Calif., although he claims he is eligible to represent a New England club.

A large number of Massachusetts people, many of them former residents of Prince Edward Island will go to Charlottetown for the celebration.

Mrs. Lillian M. Glover of Waltham, formerly of Arichat, C. B., widow of the murdered laundryman, Clarence M. Glover, is the defendant in a suit for $4,000 brought by Nell H. Strome, a detective. Strome says he was employed by Mrs. Glover on May 1, 1911, as an investigator, and that she agreed to pay him $8 per day. He said he was so employed until July, 1913, but was not paid for his work. He says she owes him $2,484 at $6 per day for 414 days, and interest. Since Glover's death his estate of $30,000 has been largely consumed by court expenses and legal fees. The defendant in the murder trial was an Arichat girl who was acquitted. She has since married.

A number of men have left Boston, Lowell, Lawrence, Lynn and other points for Canada in the hope of being able to fight for Great Britain. They hoped to enlist in Canada and thus be able to see a European battle-field. There is considerable excitement in the French centres of New England among the French-speaking people of New England, like those of Canada are strongly in favor of the side of Great Britain, and many of them say they would gladly fight, if they had it. England owes Canada today to the French who fought for her against the Americans. Why shouldn't Canadian French be anxious to fight for the British flag as quickly as for France? I want to say emphatically that every Canadian French citizen is true blue to the British colors.

Dr. Joseph E. Lamoreaux, president of the Lowell La Fayette Club, and a leader among the Canadian French of that city, spoke of the situation as follows: "Frenchmen in the British colony to the north will do what they have always done before when the English interests were attacked there. They will support England to the full. French hatred of Britain died so long ago it is forgotten. Frenchmen everywhere on this side of the water are taking matters coolly. England cannot lose. France cannot lose. There is no danger to the Canadians from sea or land. We Canadian French do not ask for protection. The United States would protect us from a foreign power by reason of the Monroe doctrine, and we trust her."

The German steamer Wilhelms, from Montreal, was not captured and towed into Halifax as reported by several Canadian newspapers. The Wilhelms succeeded in getting to Boston last week, and is still here. The big $5,000,000 Londoner steamship, the sister of the Hamburg-American line is lying idle here. She is the largest steamer ever in this port and would be a valuable prize.

The city of Boston has given temporary employment to about half of 3,000 longshoremen and freight handlers thrown out of work by the tying up of vessels due to the war. The men have been put on sewer construction.

Regarding the war's effect on New England's vast shoe and leather industry, Secretary Thomas F. Anderson of the New England Shoe and Leather Association, formerly of Halifax, says: "The war comes at a time when the shoe and leather business is considerably below par. It is not so much a question of good business becoming bad as of bad becoming worse. The worst thing that could happen to the trade would be a continuance of the present depression in this country. As far as the supply of raw material is concerned I am afraid we must look for the shortage in hides and skins to become more and more acute as time progresses. We must face the fact that as far as America is concerned there is an absolute lack of means of communication, and that the war is being waged between the carrying nations of the world. The immediate situation depends a good deal on whether large shipments of hides that are now on the water to meet fall manufacturing requirements reach this country safely. Many hides that come from the east are shipped by German lines to London or Liverpool and then transhipped by British lines to America. Such shipments as these would run a double risk of capture. As regards manufactured shoes I am afraid we must look to lose a certain percentage of the export trade in leather and shoes. The total value of American exports of shoes is about $18,000,000 annually. Although this seems a big figure it is only four per cent of the total trade.

Many textile mills using French and German dyes-stuffs will probably have to close within five or six weeks, as the supply will be cut off by the war. The copper mines of the United States, which are being worked at an estimated cost of 70,000,000 pounds a month. Several mines have been closed entirely and others have reduced output 10 per cent.

FOUR VICTIMS OF NEGRO'S BRUTALITY

Spring Green, Wis., Aug. 15.—A negro armed with a hand axe, today ended the romance of Mamah Bouton Borthwick, formerly Mrs. Edwin H. Cheney, of Oakpark, Ill., and Frank L. Lloyd Wright, a wealthy Chicago architect, with whom she has lived as a wife, since 1911.

Setting fire to the elaborate bungalow built by Wright for Mrs. Borthwick here, after his estrangement from his wife, the negro stood outside and attempted to brain Mrs. Borthwick and eight other occupants of the family and employees, as they fled from the flames. He succeeded in ending Mrs. Borthwick's life and the lives of three others, John Borthwick, the thirteen year old son, Martha Borthwick, Cheney, her ten year old daughter, and Emil Burdell, a draughtsman. Probably fatally injuring three and seriously wounding the remainder. The negro displayed fiendish ingenuity in arranging his victims for the slaughter.

All were in the dining room when he lighted a rug soaked in gasoline in front of the door, according to Wm. Weston, the least seriously hurt. At the moment the room was in flames. But no means of egress, a window, was left.

Mrs. Borthwick was the first to put her head through the window. The negro waiting outside, struck her down with one blow, crushing her skull, then dragged her body out and waited for the next. Little John Cheney followed. His head was split open. Then Burdell fell.

As each one put his head out the negro struck, killing or stunning his victim.

Carlton disappeared after the killing but after a search of several hours had been made for him reappeared and surrendered. He was hurried into an automobile and rushed to the Iowa county jail, eighteen miles away. He is thought to be insane.

GANDY & ALLISON - 3 and 4 North Wharf

A Modern Suburban Home

This is a very pretty gambrel-roofed cottage, of a type that has been growing in favor steadily in the past few years. It has beautiful lines, but is very simply designed.
From the porch you enter a square reception hall with artistic staircase and beautiful splendid and balustraded entrances to the living and dining rooms. Living room is well lighted and cheerful with pretty open fireplace. Dining room has a bay, and is a pleasant, good-sized room, with plate rail around it. There is a convenient pantry and well lighted kitchen with stairs to basement accessible both from kitchen and outside by a lobby.
On the second floor there are four bedrooms with good closets. Linen closet in bath room. Two low rooms could be planned in attic, but in this case allowance would have to be made for staircase which would take space from one of the second floor rooms.
The exterior is finished, but this house would look well with cement, pebble-dashed walls, which would add somewhat to cost.
First story, nine feet; second story eight feet six inches; width thirty-three feet six inches; depth fifty-three feet six inches. Foundation stone or brick; cemented cellar. Shingle roof.
Following items show cost of constructing:
Excavation $175
Millwork 700
Stonework 250
Plumbing, etc. 230
Carpenter work 600
Painting and glazing 250
Hardware 95
Plastering 300
Lumber 1500
Hot air heating 100
Total 3,500

Eighteen volunteers from St. Stephen and other Charlotte County points joined the 7th Regiment volunteers for active service at the military depot on Saturday.

BIG DEMAND FOR GOVERNMENT RAILWAY PUBLICATIONS.

Requests Received from all Quarters of the Globe for Useful and Valuable People's Railway Publications.

Included in the large mail that reach the General Offices at Moncton requests for the various publications issued by the Railway bulk large these days. So insistent has been the demand that a reprint of this year's issue of "Storied Halifax," "St. John, the City of the Loyalists," "The Garden of the Gulf" and "Bras d'Or Lake" has been necessary.
Requests have been received from many quarters of the Globe, the British Isles, India, China, from nearly every state of the Union and every Province of the Dominion, and some of these letters are not without their amusing and occasionally pathetic side. One applicant wrote to the trouble of actually reproducing the Railway's Magazine advertisement in detail, even to the drawing of the Moosehead trade mark, and the various rules used to make an attractive display. Another excused himself for writing with pencil as he had been an invalid for years and could not use a pen. But here is the gem of the season, written by a young lady to her mother. Reminiscent of Pickwick papers in its frequent reference to the inner man, and Alfred Jingle in its method of description; it also recalls Oliver Twist and is alleged insatiable appetite:
"Summerside, P. E. I.
"Dear Mamma: Arrived here safely Monday night. Boat very late, not the least bit seasick. Ate a big supper on the boat, and then tea, cream, lobster and chocolates on land.
"This is a swell place. Am just dying to get home to tell all about it. Went out to four fox ranches this morning. I got a date with a caretaker to take some snaps of the foxes at feeding time.
"There is a family here from Ontario. Classy, educated, money, nice—but with the greatest thirst for information I ever saw. Tell papa for Goodness' sake to send over some of that I. C. R. literature. The father would simple devour it, the girls go into spasms, and the mamma would say 'very lovely.'
"We were out to an Island Tea about six miles from here this afternoon. Fellow took us out. Name, 'Ben Bolt.' He stayed for tea, but we couldn't be bothered with him in the parlor with the 'Missus', and are in our rooms writing letters. Am catching snufflers for the literature. I have told him all I know and need assistance."
Needless to say the railway rendered first aid.

THE WAR NEWS

The line of conflict between the allies and the German forces on the Franco-German frontier is daily extending, and from descriptions furnished in the despatches it appears that the rival forces are now engaged for a distance of from eighty to 100 miles, while movements of troops and preparations for conflict along the remainder of the frontier give ground for the belief that, in a day or two the greatest battle in all history will be in full swing.

"WHY CANADA SHOULD BE CONFIDENT"

Under the above caption, the Financial Post of August 15th publishes a logical, common sense article dealing with the duty of Canada and Canadians in the present situation. The Post agrees that the first duty confronting the country is that of assistance to the Empire in sustenance and defence, but the next duty, and one which is scarcely of secondary importance is to keep business and industry in this broad Dominion proceeding as nearly as possible upon normal lines.

In battle over such a spread of territory it is impossible to judge, from instances at any one point, the success or failure of the complete movement, and days will probably pass before sufficient information is forthcoming to tell what has happened. The official statement from the British news bureau is most reassuring. It shows for one thing that the German soldier does not possess the superior prowess with which he has been credited.

From the Austro-Serbian frontier comes the word that the Serbians and Montenegrins, in conjunction, have succeeded in defeating Austrian forces sent against them, while there are also accounts of Russian successes on the Russian border. Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of the famous gun which bears his name, and an artillery authority of note, expresses the opinion that the war will be brief. Germany on land, he says, but one chance in ten of success, while her chance against the might of the allied navies is so small as to be almost negligible.

JAPAN'S ULTIMATUM

The Japanese government has addressed an ultimatum to the German government, demanding the evacuation of certain ports in the Pacific now held by Germany, the withdrawal of all German warships from Pacific waters, and other concessions. Unless the terms of the Japanese are accepted by August 23rd a declaration of war will follow.

The Anglo-Japanese alliance provides that, under certain conditions, each nation shall assist the other but whether, by the terms of the treaty, the Japanese are bound to participate in the present conflict is open to question.

Some newspapers have peculiar ideas regarding the size and population of the British Islands. An exchange referring to Canada's gift of one million bags of flour to Great Britain and endeavoring to impress its readers with the magnitude of the gift, explained that it would be sufficient to give each family in Great Britain one bag of flour.

The Kaiser for many years has claimed to be the war lord of Europe, but his soldiers in Belgium are prepared to testify that, as yet, he is a long way from becoming the Liege lord.

Japan has given Germany a weak force to be reckoned with by any power and its aid in the present conflict will not be most welcome.

It is but fair to the Emperor of Germany to say that his plan of campaign would have worked out perfectly if the other nations had only behaved as he expected them to.

"Let it be remembered that while we must lay aside something to pay our share of the cost of the war, we have at our back storehouses of natural wealth scarcely yet touched. As the canities of Europe place a higher value on our wheat and other exportable crops, so will the same calamities—the result of militarism and competition—make the peaceful land of Canada more attractive to some of the best people of Europe whose hopes and lands, generation after generation, have been despoiled or devastated by war."

Under the above caption, the Financial Post of August 15th publishes a logical, common sense article dealing with the duty of Canada and Canadians in the present situation. The Post agrees that the first duty confronting the country is that of assistance to the Empire in sustenance and defence, but the next duty, and one which is scarcely of secondary importance is to keep business and industry in this broad Dominion proceeding as nearly as possible upon normal lines.

"But for this to be accomplished, the situation must be faced with courage and confidence on the part of everyone. Investors must continue to invest, bankers must continue to lend, the Stock Exchange must continue to deal, and every one according to his ability must endeavor to work hard in order that individual incomes, and therefore the income of the whole nation, may be maintained at the highest possible level."

"A little over a century ago, when the nation was at war with Napoleon, its income was a very small one, being less than one-eighth of what it is at present, and in a comparatively small space of time the British people succeeded in raising about £1,000,000,000 of money for war purposes, and so great was their confidence and courage that at the end of the great war, which severely taxed their resources, they were stronger and wealthier than they had been at the beginning."

"Canada's natural resources, as yet barely touched, from any temporary lull in our progress, from whatever cause, we can, therefore, recover our services more quickly than any other Motherland after her world struggle of a century ago, if our people are of the same heart and industry, and we are confident they are. Courage in the fight for the Empire is not more necessary than courage in the maintenance of the industry and commerce of the country."

The Kaiser for many years has claimed to be the war lord of Europe, but his soldiers in Belgium are prepared to testify that, as yet, he is a long way from becoming the Liege lord.

Japan has given Germany a weak force to be reckoned with by any power and its aid in the present conflict will not be most welcome.

It is but fair to the Emperor of Germany to say that his plan of campaign would have worked out perfectly if the other nations had only behaved as he expected them to.

HISTORIC DAYS IN CANADA

On this day in 1759 the British army before Quebec, already gloomy and dejected because of the disaster at Beauport, was cast further into the doings of despair by the news that Wolfe was seriously ill. Distress and anxiety had so worn upon the feeble frame of the hero that his spirit could no longer sustain him, and for a little time, as he himself admitted, he considered himself a ruined man.

THE PASSING DAY

A BRITISH VICTORY. A hundred years ago the war between Great Britain and the United States was drawing to a dreary close, with both sides heartily tired of the struggle, and eager for peace.

It was just a century ago today, August 17, 1814, that an English fleet gained one of many victories that left a large part of Maine in their possession. On that date a British fleet from Halifax fell in with the American war vessel, the John Adams. The latter was driven into the Penobscot River, where it was scuttled by the crew to prevent capture.

Under the direction of Maj-Gen. Shepley, the British fleet, consisting of the St. Croix, the forts at Castine and Machias were destroyed by the marines before leaving. Maj-Gen. Gerard Goselin was appointed British governor of the territory and it was not until April of 1815 that Maine was turned back to Massachusetts, of which it was then a part.

The large part of Maine which was charged, had not afforded the northeastern States proper protection. New England's great shipping industry, Massachusetts issued a circular to her towns were in constant fear of assault. The British had burned several vessels and a factory at Wareham, and had sailed at Scituate, a few miles from Boston.

Long before the declaration of war Massachusetts had opposed a recourse to force. The State Legislature had issued an address to the people in which they declared themselves unable to find any satisfactory solution of it, but in an habitual and impolitic predilection for France, this sentiment continued to be entertained by large numbers of New Englanders, and from the outset they had refused to put their State troops at the disposal of the federal government.

In October of 1814 the talk of cessation from the Union reached a critical point. Massachusetts issued a circular against the continuance of the war, and the Legislature called for a convention of delegates from all the New England States to consider their public grievances. The convention was held in Hartford, and it was openly alleged that some of the delegates favored restoration of British rule.

THE KAISER RESPONSIBLE FOR THE WAR

Present conflict a fight against militarism and despotism, opinion of Rev. Ralph Houghton.

That the present struggle in Europe had not been caused so much by the assassination of two Austrian subjects as by the despotism of one man, the greed of territory and the endeavor to make Germany a world power, was the opinion expressed by Rev. Ralph J. Houghton, during his sermon in Congregational church last evening.

A former Emperor of Germany had brought her army up to a very high mark and it had been the boast of the present Emperor that he would make the navy a force in the world and a means for protecting the German commerce in whatever part of the world it might be. It was very evident that the Emperor was urging the formation of a strong navy for the purpose of meeting England. It had been pointed out that Germany did not need a navy against France or Russia, but only against England.

Kaiser Responsible.

It was not the people of Germany but the Emperor who was responsible for the present slaughter that was going on in Europe. God had been almost forgotten by Germany in the exaltation of the German race.

The Germans had counted on all the nations of Europe uniting with her in the fight against England, but God had evidently worked against her in the fight against militarism and despotism and in favor of peace and democracy. For this great democracy the English speaking people stood and England had given freedom to many.

In opening his address he referred to the spirit that was abroad among our young people. They were careless of the soul so immersed were they in the pleasures of the passing day. He thought it was not surprising that Sir Rider Haggard was so impressed by the flippancy of the present day. The present war in Europe was not considered as seriously as it should. For years the Germans had been building the army and navy for the struggle.

GERMANY'S IDEA.

Although the nineteenth century was not German, the twentieth would be, was the idea of the despot.

Rev. Mr. Haughton quoted from "Imperial Germany," a book by a German statesman in which he speaks of the formation of a new empire and the spread of German power throughout the world.

The present was a war between Teuton and Saxon, between militarism and democracy, between tyranny and freedom. So far, however, events had not come out as the Emperor planned, and it might truly be said in this case that "Man proposed but God disposed."

Democracy had gathered around the prayer of all Anglo-Saxon people tonight was "God Bless the great British Empire."

In closing Mr. Haughton urged his hearers not to forget God nor consider the present war as a joke.

STEADFAST TO THE BEST TRADITIONS

Rev. E. B. Hooper in thrilling address to foreign service men—"Be Ye Faithful Unto Death."

A special service was held in St. Paul's church yesterday morning when about 125 officers and men of the 62nd Regiment marched from the armory to the church headed by the regimental band. Captain H. E. C. Sturdee was in command of the men with Lieutenant Morgan and Welch. The most appearance of the soldiers was the occasion for much favorable comment by the many who witnessed the turn-out.

Rev. E. B. Hooper, chaplain of the regiment, took as the text of a short but eloquent sermon, "Be ye faithful unto death." He impressed upon the men the importance of remaining steadfast to the best traditions of the true soldier. None could tell, he said, to what magnitude the existing warlike spirit of the nations would attain; it is impossible to foresee what will be the ultimate result of the appeal to the sword which today is the one important matter confronting us.

True manhood should ever be the aim of the soldier who wears the uniform of the King. Before long many of those present would be wearing the khaki uniform and be called upon to fight in a war of vast consequences. He had no doubt, he said, that all those who would leave these shores for far-off lands to assist the mother country in circumstances of grave peril would acquit themselves as Canadians had done before, in fighting in a cause that he felt sure would have the blessing of God.

During the service the national anthem was played by the band, the congregation joining in singing it with the greatest heartiness.

PRINCE OF TECK LIKELY TO GO TO THE FRONT

LONDON, AUG 16.—It is now almost certain that Prince Alexander of Teck's departure for Canada will be indefinitely postponed. Instead he will see service with his regiment, the Second Life Guards.

It is also more than likely that Hon. Mr. Peiry's stay here will be indefinitely prolonged.

ST. JOHN EXHIBITION
September 5th to 12th
The Only Big Fair This Year in the Maritime Provinces

This season's Exhibition will include as one of its principal features, the most extensive agricultural display yet presented to the people of this province. Particular attention has been given to this portion of the Exhibition and it will be far above the standard.

In the amusement line a programme has been arranged superior to anything hitherto attempted in St. John. Heading the list of attractions is Motor Polo, intensely exciting, games being played every afternoon and evening. There will be in addition many other high class acts so that visitors to the fair need never lack entertainment.

The Industrial Section of the St. John Exhibition has been growing with each succeeding show, and the display to be made next month will, judging from the applications for space, surpass anything seen in the past.

On three days of the week the Dog Show will be held, this feature in itself commanding a large share of attention.

IMPOSSIBLE TO COUNT THE COST OF WAR

Rev. Wellington Camp points to awful loss of life—Terrible effect of conflict.

In the Leinster street Baptist church last evening Rev. Wellington Camp preached a sermon from the text: Jesus said to Peter: Put up your sword; they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. In opening the preacher said the present war situation was such as to make thoughtful people sick and sore at heart, and to ask themselves why this war should be. It was impossible to count the cost of war. The money losses alone were staggering, and the loss of lives was worse than any property loss. The choicest of the young men, the flower of the nation went forth to war. Then there was the interference with commerce, closing ports, putting up the prices of necessities and bringing privation and suffering to a vast number of people. More serious still were the moral and religious losses which war entailed. Nothing good came out of war.

Christ would sheath every sword, stop the mouths of cannon, abolish the carnage and butchery, the hate and the passion of war.

He believed England would conquer because England stood for righteousness, but he deprecated the idea of glorying in war or boasting of the prowess of British arms. He expressed the opinion that out of this war would come the possibility of universal peace. He said that if he had his way he would close all the amusement houses, and have the churches kept open for prayer, as it was a time for heartfelt prayer and thought.

FREDERICTON YOUNG LADY HURT IN A JUMP FROM WINDOW

FREDERICTON, N. B., AUG 15.—The hypo-chondriacal lady, under the operation of the filtration plant of Fredericton's water supply system will cost more as a result of the European war. All prices have been withdrawn by the wholesale houses, and it is impossible to tell how far the prices will rise. Fortunately the city has received 1,000 lbs. of the hypo-chloride just before war was declared and this supply will, it is said, last for six months.

Stories of pathos, even in Fredericton, are being created by the war situation. A young lady, who has been of a highly nervous temperament, is reported to have been so

ORDERED TO TRAIN THE VOLUNTEERS

Word received from Militia Department—Artillery at Partridge Island—Infantry under canvas.

Col. Armstrong has received word to mobilize the volunteers for foreign service with the artillery, and to proceed at once to train them. All volunteers who have passed the medical examination will be required to report for duty at Partridge Island, and they will be put on pay from the day they report for service. It is the intention to organize two separate batteries on the island, one composed of the volunteers for foreign service and the other of the men who will remain with the composite battery formed for home service. The local artillery officers have been authorized to recruit about 30 additional men, which will bring the artillery contingent for foreign service from this section up to about 150 men. The men will be quartered on the island until such time as they are ordered to Quebec to take ship for foreign service and will be kept busy training.

Yesterday morning Archdeacon Raymond visited the island and conducted divine service for the benefit of the men.

The infantry volunteers recruited by Col. J. L. McAvity went under canvas last evening, being encamped on the Barrack Square. This detachment, which has strength of 135 men, is under the command of Capt. Sturdee and Lieut. Morgan and Lieut. Welch. The men have put in a good deal of drilling since they mobilized and hereafter will be kept under canvas to harden them up for the campaign. It is expected these men may be sent to Quebec this week, but definite orders are still awaited.

The Army Medical Corps has already mobilized a large body of men, with quarters at the armory, and are getting in five or six recruits every day. About 70 men will be sent forward for foreign service and about 150 will be recruited for home duty.

The Signal Corps will be mobilized in a day or so. Seven men are expected here today from Prince Edward Island, who have volunteered for foreign service with the Signal Corps. Nova Scotia will also supply a contingent to this corps.

worked up over her fiance having enlisted to go on active service that she jumped from the window of her home in an effort to commit suicide. The young woman's condition is also said to have been brought about partly through her having taken some medicine which had been prescribed for her by a physician and which had a bad effect. Her foot was badly injured in the fall and some small bones may be broken, but her condition is not serious.

STANLEY HARGREAVE, millionaire, after a miraculous escape from the den of the gang of brilliant thieves, known as the Black Hand, lives the life of a recluse for eighteen years. Hargreave one night enters a Broadway restaurant and there comes face to face with the gang leader, Why?

BRINE crawled from his uncomfortable hiding place. His clothes were soiled and damp, his hair gone. By a hair's breadth he had escaped the clever trap laid for him. Hargreave was alive, he had escaped. Brine was certain of this fact as he was of his own breathing.

By the dim light of her bedroom candle Florence read the note which had found entrance so strangely and mysteriously into her room. Her face was pale and her hands trembled as she read.

she would appear some time during the afternoon, and sure enough he did, she could no more resist the desire to see and talk to her than he could resist breathing. There was no use denying it; the world had suddenly turned at a new angle, presenting a new face, a rosette vision. It rather subdued his easy banter.

He drew a chair beside the piano and watched her fingers, white as the ivory keys, flutter up and down the board. She played Chopin for him, Mendelssohn, Grieg, and Chaminade; and she played them in a surprisingly scholarly fashion.

Who was this? wondered Brine. He was sitting in the music cabinet, when she finally stopped. "You don't, by any chance, know 'The Maiden's Prayer'?"

CANADIAN HORSE MEN FOR FRONT

That Lord Roberts has suggested the advisability of raising three brigades of Canadian cavalry for foreign service was the word that reached local militia officers yesterday.

The government only planned on sending a small body of seasoned cavalry with the first contingent to be dispatched to the front, but it is understood that following out the suggestion of Lord Roberts the matter of raising a cavalry force of three brigades is now being inquired into with a view to finding out how long it would take to raise such a force.

James Dunlavy Either Drowned or Killed Outright, and Frank Dykeman and Frank Craft Badly Burned—Gasoline Tank Exploded Before They Could Swim Away.

As the result of an explosion in their motor boat, which was arising in the harbor about eleven o'clock last evening, James Dunlavy of Union Street West, was reported drowned while Frank Dykeman and Frank Craft were badly burned.

The men were out cruising in the harbor when the gasoline in the bottom of the boat burst into flame and in a few seconds the whole boat was like a fiery furnace.

The two men rescued were taken to West St. John while the motorboat was towed into the Ballast Wharf slip.

Dykeman and Craft were burned quite badly about the arms and face but their burns were not considered serious.

Dunlavy was said to be unmarried and an employee of the Maritime Nail Works.

MYSTIC LIGHTS ON BAULD MOUNTAIN, ONLY SURVEYORS

Geodetic men working at night bring thoughts of German spies to farmers in vicinity—Search by soldiers discloses true situation.

Considerable excitement was caused about the city on Saturday by a report that a party of Germans had established a signal station on Bauld Mountain, near Wetaford and were signalling at night.

The militia authorities did not take much stock in the report that Germans were on the mountain signalling, but that it was felt that whoever might be on the mountain using lights at night might be in danger of being shot by some excited natives, and it is unlawful for private parties to display signal lights from high places in wartime.

A signal officer with four men were detailed to go to Bauld Mountain and investigate the matter. They went up by automobile Saturday afternoon, and about six o'clock came upon the supposed Germans at supper in their camp on the mountain side.

Several parties of men attached to the geodetic survey are at work near St. John and at Annapolis, and their manoeuvres are somewhat mysterious and likely to excite the ignorant, it is likely they will be warned to be careful until matters quite down somewhat.

Was seen to stagger and fall in shallow pool—Believed he was afflicted with heart disease.

A sad accident occurred at Great Salmon River yesterday when M. Foster Howe, of Millisvale, Kings county, was drowned in about three feet of water.

Mr. Howe was just casting his line when he was observed to stagger and fall into the pool. He made no sound, and as the water was shallow it is supposed he was afflicted with heart disease.

The body was taken to St. Martins and thence to Millisvale and the funeral will take place today.

Daughters of Michael Flynn, of Lepreaux, hid in tree when darkness fell—Parents anxious.

The four children, ranging in age from seven to twelve years of age, of Michael Flynn of Lepreaux, had a trying experience Saturday night, when they lost their way in the woods and were compelled to remain in the open all night.

The children started out Saturday morning to gather berries and after filling the baskets started for home late in the afternoon.

As soon as daylight came they started out on the road three miles from their home. They were then able to make their way home, arriving about eleven o'clock.

When the children did not return home Saturday night their parents became greatly alarmed and several of the neighbors went out with lanterns in a search for the lost ones.
