"He was impressed by the wonderful order and conduct of the great assembly." Of whom could this be said? No one should hesitate to answer promptly, Hon. Newton Wesley Rowell. The fact that men who had been facing death in the trenches shortly before were able to throw off dull care and enter heartily into the sports; that they should exhibit such lightness of heart under the shadow of death; that their patriotism which had carried them overseas would not permit any Hun plots to interfere with the celebration of their national holiday; all these passed unnoticed. No one seemed to be drunk or disorderly, no one behaved otherwise than a gentleman, and Mr. Rowell was nothing to grieve his spirit. He could almost feel repaid for having missed the Methodist conference this year and

and, and left him no option but to unclothe his mailed and release his military gains.
Does any sane patriot doubt that this would be the of events? "Surrender" is a word that has no place in British vocabulary, and, God helping us, it shall not be joined at this crisis of our fate.

JIMMY COON UP A TREE.
When Cousin Bruin, the big Black Bear, was up in that Bee-Tree, with that huge piece of honeycomb in his right hand, and his own right arm dripping with lovely honey, he never offered anyone a single little bite. This was awfully selfish and greedy. But Cousin Bruin has very bad table manners when he finds honey, and he just makes a big pig of himself.

And the crowd below yelled out: "Say, there, you big Cousin Bruin, don't be a pig! Throw down some honeycomb for us fellows!"

But Cousin Bruin didn't seem to hear a word they said. And he kept stuffing himself with that delicious honey. And the crowd below got awfully angry, and all began to climb that tree. It was very funny to see Jimmy Coon and his

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL BOX

Who Has Clothes to Spare?
Dear Miss Grey,—Do you think some of the mothers who write you would have some old clothes that their children have grown out of? I know a family of 7 years, the next about 5 or 6, a boy 15 months old, and I regret to say, a baby 2 months old. The mother is in the hospital seriously ill, and her father had to stay from work to care for his wife until she was taken to the hospital. He has to pay $1 per day for her being there, and is paying some one to keep two of the children, while the mother is keeping the two babies.

The poor man is in a bad shape with many expenses. If you may, will you kindly get this in the paper as quickly as possible and send an answer to write dress if they have some clothes to spare?

I will pay expenses of parcels if delivered. Hoping I have slight asked too much, and thanking you in anticipation, I am, yours truly, MRS. W. C. King.

Ans.—I can assure you of my personal sympathy for these people, and shall be only too glad to give space to your appeal. Now, is anyone ready to help?

Those Satisfy Hams.
Dear Miss Grey,—Have been an interested reader of the Mail-Box Department for some time, and have used some of the recipes and found them very good. Would like to say to "New Subscriber" that she is fortunate to have home salted hams these times when meat is so very high. I think she would find by soaking in cold water to extract the salt and fry a golden brown the ham would be healthful, as one would scarcely say both the ham, as it would not go so far. Besides, we must all practice economy these times when meat is so much needed to feed our soldier boys. I will sign myself, COUNTRY WOMAN.

P.S.—Am inclosing stamps for the stocking-foot pattern, which seems to be in great demand, and which I shall be very grateful for.

Ans.—"New Subscriber" will be very pleased to read your hint in regard to cooking the ham. Call again, Country Woman, we'll be glad to see you.

Crochet Pattern Wanted.
Dear Miss Grey,—I would be very much obliged if some of the readers who have a pattern for a crocheted collar for a waist would send it to me. I prefer a round one, but a square one would do. I will send the pattern back if the sender wishes it returned. Please keep my envelope for a few days, in case several patterns come in. With thanks, I am, VERY ANXIOUS.

Ans.—This appeal is referred to our readers. Somebody please look up your crochet patterns and be good enough to loan one to "Very Anxious."

NO SUNDAY DELIVERY TO MILK CONDENSER BY BURNSIDE FARMERS

Unanimously Decide Against Breaking Sabbath at a Special Meeting.

PUTNAM, July 7.—The patrons of the Burnside branch of the Borden Condensed Milk Company are not in favor of delivery of milk on Sunday. They went on record unanimously to this effect at a meeting held at the factory when a motion by J. Francis, seconded by R. McVicar, went through without dissent.

The necessity of food conservation during the war measure was put forward by R. B. Hutt of the Borden factory at Ingersoll. All had found it necessary to change their methods of living to aid in winning the war, he said, and the food control act made one liable for the loss of food. The company had lost large quantities of milk and to overcome this had decided on Sunday delivery.

It was not necessary to deliver milk on Sunday, but the company would not have the milk on the day following. No hardship was put on the farmer, the proposal being only intended for the hot weather, or until about the end of September, when the night delivery meant the breaking of the Sabbath for the factory hands.

As the present demand for condensed milk continued Saturday night and Sunday morning milk would not be made in time to meet the demand, he said.

He also replied to W. Brumpton that the factory would not cook Sunday morning's milk.

James Francis said that as much money had been made from cheese and pigs as at the condensing factory, with no Sunday delivery.

James Rath thought the condenser a waste. "Cheese and hogs beat it all to pieces," he added.

Shannon brought forward the question of Sunday work from the hired man's standpoint, while Dugal McVicar asked whether breaking the Sabbath was helping to win the war, granted saving milk products was.

Rev. Mr. Herbert spoke regarding the danger in the present proposal of lowering our moral standard.

H. Longfield said if the condenser wanted the milk on Sunday he thought they would have to have it.

The motion that those present were not in favor of Sunday delivery of milk was then put and carried unanimously.

H. Matthews suggested that a committee be formed in conjunction with the Borden Condensed Milk Company, moved that a committee be formed to look after the interests of the patrons of Burnside, and named the following: H. Matthews, F. Atkins, Charles Rath, Dugal McVicar, George Huntley.

Owing to lack of interest the meeting dispersed without a vote being taken on this motion.

H. Matthews was chairman, being proposed by R. McVicar and James O'Neill, while Charles R. Boulding was secretary, proposed by G. Boxall and F. Atkins.

FIREMEN'S CASE TO BE PREPARED THIS EVENING
A special committee of the trades and labor council and the Firemen's union will meet tonight to decide what representations are to be made to the special committee of Mayor C. R. Somerville, Controller C. H. Merryfield and Ald. F. E. Harley, appointed by the council to deal with the case.

Mayor Somerville will not be back until Tuesday night, and the other members of the committee will leave consideration of the case until he returns. By that time, it is said, the firemen will have the details of their case in shape to back up their request that they be granted a conciliation board.

THE FRENCH PEOPLE KNOW
They are a race of scientists. When a new thing is done by them it is done properly. Tonal-iron capsules, the new French salatin medicine, is proving so efficient and giving such remarkable results in cases of nervousness, anaemia, system weakness, rheumatism and other conditions brought about by impure blood that they are the talk of the country. They are on sale at all drug stores, or will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. Tonal-iron Company, Box 184, London, Ont.

DISTRICT ORANGEMEN MARCHED TO CHURCH WITH CITY LODGES

More Than Eight Hundred Were in Line on Sunday.

More than 800 Orangemen of this city and district attended the annual church parade on Sunday afternoon from the Orange Hall, Market Lane, to the Memorial Methodist Church.

Three hundred brethren from St. Thomas were in line, besides members of the range lodge from Ingersoll, Woodstock and Stratford. A large number of Indians from Muncy, Oneida and Chippewa tribes were also represented in the parade.

The London district was led by the Hackett pipe and drum band, and the St. Thomas lodges by the St. Thomas pipe and drum band. The parade was the largest held by the Orangemen in this city for many years. Many members were in uniform.

All the district and county officers were present. An address of welcome was delivered by John Francis at the church, and was responded to by District Master W. Langford. Seven grand masters of this district took up the collection.

Rev. B. H. Robinson of the Memorial Methodist Church conducted the services at 3 o'clock.

"The constitution of Orangemen is based on the open word of God," he said. "That open word is the story of a great upward movement of human history. Its history of the past has made it a great religious and moral contribution to the life of the world."

"In the last four years Orangemen have made for itself a high place in the present great struggle for humanity and liberty. Nearly 100,000 members of the Orange lodges in Canada are now in the war or are training to go."

"The battle of Gideon and his band was a battle in which God and humanity were fighting together that God's purpose might continue to express them in the life of the nation," said Rev. Mr. Robinson.

YOUNG PEOPLE TAKING HOLIDAYS TO ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL COURSE

A number of Methodist young people of the city and Western Ontario have made a point of taking holidays at this time, in order to attend the summer school at Alma College, St. Thomas, under the auspices of the London Methodist Conference, which opens today.

Rev. W. E. Millson is president of the summer school and, as usual, there is a large registration. Not only is valuable instruction afforded in straw study, but there are pleasant recreation features as well.

Rev. H. T. Ferguson of Central Methodist Church, this city, conducts the devotional hour at 9:45 o'clock each morning.

ONLY TWO VOLUNTEERS REPORT ON SATURDAY

Recruiting was slow at the local mobilization centre Saturday, only two volunteers enlisting for service. One volunteer came from Windsor and the other was accepted in this city.

Three defaulters and three apprehended men under the military service act appeared before the medical board at the mobilization centre Saturday.

Two men were placed in category A, one in B and three in category C. All were attached to the W. O. R.

The following are the names of volunteers accepted Saturday: Leo Caza, C. E., Windsor; J. Thorne, C. O. C., London.

CARLINGTON TEACHER COMING TO DORCHESTER

DORCHESTER, July 6.—Miss Hattie E. Babb, of Carlington, has been engaged as junior teacher for the public school in Dorchester.

The Rev. E. Page of Nilestown circuit, has left for his new charge at Coatsworth.

John Finch, who was so seriously injured in the recent motor accident in London, is still recovering at his home here. Her head was so badly cut as to necessitate quite a number of stitches.

MARY PICKFORD FILM GREAT COMEDY DRAMA AT MAJESTIC TODAY

"Sweetheart of the Screen" To Be Seen Today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mary Pickford is surrounded by an exceptionally capable cast in "How Could You, Jean?" her new Artcraft production, which is classified as a comedy drama with the accent on the comedy. Spottiswoode, Aitken, who played in many early Griffith productions, including "The Birth of a Nation," in which he was Dr. Cameron, and Herbert Standing, who has appeared in dozens of Paramount and Artcraft photoplays, have excellent parts. Casson Ferguson plays the leading juvenile role.

Miss Pickford's new picture, "How Could You, Jean?" will be presented at the Majestic Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday, and it seems certain that the capacity of the theatre will be taxed by "Our Mary's" admirers.

In addition to Billy Rhodes comedy and a News Weekly, an excellent film of the reception accorded the Duke of Devonshire at Windsor will be shown.

A comedy drama of universal interest and charm. Special comedies, the latest News Weeklies, and vaudeville, Weber & Sobrell, complete a great show.

HELENA EMPLOYEES HAD SPLENDID PICNIC AT PORT STANLEY

Fifteenth Annual Outing Was Attended by Crowd of 200.

The fifteenth annual picnic of the employees of the Helena Costume Company was held at Port Stanley on Saturday, and about 200 were present. The picnicers left London on the 10:30 a.m. car, and upon arrival at the lakeshore the fun commenced, there being many events on the program which called for very comic antics on the part of the participants.

The party set down to dinner and supper, provided by a local caterer, and immediately after the latter meal Charles Briggs was presented with an electric reading lamp on the occasion of his having just completed twenty years of service as a cutter with the company. The lamp was presented on behalf of the Helena Costume Club by Allen Carwell, and the address was read by Miss E. Kompass. Mr. Briggs, although taken by surprise, replied suitably.

The baseball game staged between the married men and single men, although a trifle one-sided, was a very interesting affair. The former team won the laurels to the tune of 21 to 12. Crisps hitting two home runs for the benedicts.

The following were successful in the various events on the program: Necktie race—1 E. Little, 2 W. Palmer, 3 J. Wilson.

Needle-threading race—1 A. Carwell, 2 R. Element, 3 J. Wilson.
