ENTENTE TO OPEN WAR ON TURK REBELS

BRITISH AND GREEK FORCES TO OPEN ATTACK TO DRIVE TURK BANDITS FROM SCUTARI

General Ironsides Will Comma nd Attacking Forces—Campaign Will Be Waged To Clear Entire Peninsula of the Nationalists—Latest Atrocity of Radicals Was Burning To Death in Church of Nearly 2,000 Greeks—British Torpedoboats Destroy Riva, On Black Sea, a Stronghold of Insurgents.

Constantinople, July 19.—(By the Associated Press).—The British and Greeks are preparing to clear the Scutari peninsula of all Nationalists and establish a line from Ismid to Chileh on the Black Sea, which will control the bandit raids against Bosphorus towns and check communications between Angora and Constantinople through the Scutari peninsula mountains.

Gen. Ironsides of the British forces probably will command the troops. His headquarters will be Ismid. Two British divisions already are available. These will be increased to an army corps. Two Greek regiments will be used.

Turkish Nationalists continue to raid Greek villages on the south shore of the Gulf of Ismid. The Greek Patriarch reports that Fouladjik, a Greek village, with a population of 2,000, near Karamorsal, was virtually wiped out July 15. The Greeks were shut inside the church, which was set on fire. The Patriarch reports that there are only 150 Greeks alive in the village. The Entente is preparing for a campaign for the extermination of bandits. They will issue a warning that all villages which shelter or assist the Nationalists will be shelled or burned. British torpedoboat destroyers have shelled and ruined Riva, a Nationalist stronghold on the Black Sea, near the entrance to the Bosphorus, and are carrying out spasmodic bombardments elsewhere against the Nationalists on the Scutari peninsula, who are shortly to be attacked by land forces from the east.

GIVES 453 DIVORCE PAPERS IN 2 WEEKS

Chicago Judge Ordered To Clean Up Calendar, Does It.

Chicago, July 19.—Judge Frank Johnston Jun. believes he has established a record in the granting of divorce decrees in the circuit court here. He has been hearing divorces two weeks and Saturday he signed his four hundred and fifty-third decree.

He was assigned to this branch of the circuit court two weeks ago with instructions to clean up the badly clogged calendar. He heard nothing but divorce cases, signing decrees during the noon recess, before court convened in the morning and after adjournment in the evening. All the cases he heard were uncontested and he was able to handle them quickly.

Many racy stories tales of wild matrimonial adventure, of cruelty and neglect of the lures of vampish women and the failings and weaknesses of halfportion men were to be found in the records of these more than 400 cases which turned loose 906 persons to try it all over again or forever after dodge matrimony.

LOVER'S SQUEEZE BREAKS FOUR OF OHIO GIRL'S RIBS

Goshen, Ind., July 18.—Miss Laura Ott of Tiffin, Ohio, who is a guest at the home of Paul-Barr, in this city, is wearing a plaster cast, the result of four of her ribs having been broken by her sweetheart, John Leaderer of Goshen, formerly of the United States navy. Miss Ott told the physician called to attend her that upon returning from a carnival with Leaderer she sat in his lap in a porch swing, and that he squeezed her so hard when she tried to leave him that the injury resulted. Until he became aware of the circumstances the doctor thought Miss Ott was afflicted with appendicitis.

Doug Warns Mary That Her Skirts Are Short Enough

Motion Picture Star Copies European Styles.

Paris, July 19.—Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford arrived in Paris today. Mary's skirts now are 10 inches from the ground, whereas they nearly touched the ground while the couple were in Chicago recently.

"Douglas loves to have me look grown-up," said Mary. "He fancied adding an inch or two to my skirt would make me more dignified. In America it looked all right, because they were not much longer than others. When we went to Italy, even Germany, they were too conspicuous and far from short by contrast. I had Fernanda, my maid, keep on shortening them until now they are about right. Douglas agreed to it, but he warned against making them any shorter."

Doug says he wants to play D'Artagnan with a French company in "The Three Musketeers," as a part of the new idea he has developed while in Europe. He plans to organize a company in each country to have the correct local color.

This is Mary's first trip to Europe. She is impressed with the first sight of the Dutch and French girls whom she has played many times in imagination.

Doug buys perfume for himself in Paris, but never puts it on his handkerchiefs or clothes. He uses it on his hands and waves his hands like a fan in front of his face.

"It is very restful after a hard day's rehearsal," he said.

SUGAR PRICES ADVANCED.

Halifax, July 19.—Jobbers here have been advised that the Acadia sugar refinery has advanced the price of sugar three cents per pound, so that a bag of 100 pounds, which formerly sold to the retailer for $21.10 will now cost $24.10.

SECOND PARTY OF CAMPERS LEAVES FOR PORT STANLEY

Fourteen Families, Including Fifty-Two Children, in Party.

CHECK IS SENT FOR $50

Generous Citizen Helps To Make Outing More Enjoyable.

The second camping party under the auspices of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, left today for Port Stanley. Sixty-six people left on the 10:29 L. and P. S. car, comprising fourteen families. There are 52 children. At the first camp there were fifteen families and 52 children.

An evidence that people are taking an active interest was shown when Ed. Lance, secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission received a check from a prominent citizen for $50.

The second party will be under the same supervision as the first. The same rules will govern, and a very pleasant time is expected.

Ed. Lance is looking for volunteers to go to the camp once a week and give the kiddies a treat in the way of an ice cream cone a-piece, a ride on the merry-go-round or some other thing that youngsters always look forward to when they go to Port.

The Rotary Club has loaned the commission half a dozen hammocks. The locations for these have not as yet been chosen, but they will be put up in the course of a few days.

The party will be in camp for twelve days, and will return on the last day of July. There will be four parties of soldiers' wives and families spend the majority of the summer at the camp.

FRIENDS OF JOACHIM DENY HIS RASH ACT RESULT OF SCANDAL

Financial Difficulties Was the Real Cause of His Melancholy.

EX-EMPRESS' FAVORITE

Brooded Because of Criticism Leveled At His Father, the Former Kaiser.

Berlin, July 19.—Prince Eitel, questioned as to the motive for his brother's suicide, declined to make any statement, referring the correspondent, at the same time, to the official announcement that Joachim was suffering from a "fit of excessive dementia."

The body was transferred to Potsdam chapel yesterday morning. Prince Joachim was the least talented of the emperor's sons. He held the rank of captain, but, according to statements made now, he was never actively at the front. He leaves one son.

The whereabouts of Prince Adalbert, Prince August William and Prince Oscar are unknown. The former crown princess is reported to be staying on Rugen Island.

Friends of Prince Joachim deny stories in Berlin that his suicide at Potsdam Sunday was brought about by scandal. They say that aside from his marital disappointments, the prince was acutely embarrassed through his restricted finances. Like his brothers, he is believed to have been sadly in need of funds, owing to the limited allowance from the crown funds permitted him by the Prussian Government.

Prince Joachim is also reported to have been brooding over the ultimate fate of the royal house, and the criticism to which his father has been subjected in Germany.

By those who were close to the Hohenzollern family when it was in power in Berlin, Prince Joachim is declared to have been the favorite son of the former German empress, and fears are expressed that the news of his suicide may have a fatal effect on her, as she recently suffered an acute recurrence of her heart trouble.

EX-KAISER SHOCKED WHEN INFORMED OF HIS SON'S SUICIDE

Doorn, Holland, July 19.—By the Associated Press.—The announcement of Prince Joachim's death came to Doorn Castle like a thunderbolt.

The former German empress, who during the past week has again been seriously troubled by her heart ailment, is believed not to have been informed of the tragedy. The ex-emperor, however, has been told of it, and has been greatly affected by the untimely end of his favorite son.

Prince Joachim saw his parents quite recently, it having been only the middle of June when he paid them a visit at Doorn Castle here.

WOMAN TO BE CANDIDATE.

Grand Rapids, July 19.—Mrs. Aletha Wheeler of Grand Rapids, linotype operator employed in the Government printing office at Washington, D. C., has announced her candidacy for the Republican congressional nomination in the fifth Michigan district. "I am a laboring woman," she said. "I think laboring women should have representation in the halls of Congress."

THREE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Goderich Youths Hurled Out When Speeding Car Struck Gravel.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Blyth, July 19.—Three Goderich boys were seriously injured Sunday afternoon about two miles from here when the automobile in which they were riding with two other boys struck a stretch of new gravel and turned completely over.

One youth named Curry was internally injured; another, Young, had his collarbone broken, and a third, Wilson, his arm badly lacerated.

With a boy named Price, whose father owned the car, which they took from Goderich, and Mountain, another youth, they were speeding at a very fast rate when the accident occurred, it is said. The car was badly smashed.

THIEVES MAKE THIRD HAUL OF CIGARETTES FROM LOCAL FACTORY

Got Away With 8,500 "Smokes" Early This Morning.

The third robbery within three weeks in the premises of George E. Coleman & Co.'s, cigar manufacturers and wholesale tobacconists, 342 Ridout street, was perpetrated some time between 1 and 3 o'clock Monday morning. The burglars secured more than 8,500 cigarettes, valued at $150. Entrance was gained through the front door of the store, and it is believed a key was used.

In the last two robberies the thieves broke windows to gain entrance into the factory.

Mr. Coleman stated that he was at the factory Sunday afternoon and everything was in order. At 1 o'clock the policeman on the beat tried the door, and it was locked. Upon trying the door again at 3:10 o'clock he found it unlocked and notified Mr. Coleman. Upon Mr. Coleman's arrival he found that a large supply of his stock was missing and notified the authorities at once.

Mr. Coleman stated that all the windows are covered with heavy wire screening, and this may be the reason for the burglars making their entrance through the front door.

LIGHTNING KILLED TEAM.

Londesboro, July 19.—During the heavy electrical storm that swept this district yesterday a valuable team of horses belonging to John Garrett while pasturing in the field were struck by lightning and instantly killed. They were valued at about $300. Much grain is lying flat and much of the wheat that was cut and in the sheaf was blown down and badly soaked.

CAPTAIN BURTON WILL GET ANOTHER CHANCE AT SHAMROCK'S HELM

Sir Thomas Lipton Declines To Make Further Comment.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 19.—Captain William P. Burton will eb given another chance at the wheel of Shamrock IV. Sir Thomas Lipton would not say this afternoon what developments might be expected after tomorrow's race with the American defender Resolute for the America's Cup, nor would he deny that he and his advisers on the steam yacht Victoria had virtually decided to remove Captain Burton from the tiller of the cup challenger after Saturday's contest, in which Captain Burton's handling of the Lipton craft had been severely criticized.

Sir Thomas was somewhat perturbed when he read in the newspapers of plans for supplanting Captain Burton.

"Captain Burton will be at the wheel tomorrow. I understand," said Sir Thomas this afternoon. "After that, I cannot say, and, of course, I will not talk about it."

It was the general belief aboard the Victoria today that Captain Burton had asked for another chance to sail the challenger and that it had been granted him. Captain Burton could not be seen.

Sir Thomas showed the correspondents a telegram he had received from King Alfonso of Sprin, which read: "Delighted to hear of your victory. Go on."

Sir Thomas supplied King Alfonso with the skipper and crew of the king's yacht, the Espana.

COMMODORE JARVIS MAY TAKE WHEEL OF SHAMROCK IV.

New York, July 19.—According to the New York Times this morning, Commodore Aemelius Jarvis of Toronto, the well-known Canadian yachtsman, is mentioned as a possible successor to Mr. Burton as helmsman of the Shamrock IV. The newspaper says in part: "Mr. Jarvis is recognized in the United States as being an able man at the wheel, and one of the group who is most conversant with American racing conditions."

KITCHENER FRM MAKES BIG SALE IN NEW YORK

New York, July 19.—(By the Canadian Press).—An important sale of salt cake has been made to New York interests by the Salt and Potash Company of Kitchener, Ont., of which the president is A. J. Gough of Sellers-Gough, and the managing director, W. G. Welchel, formerly M. P. for North Waterloo.

The company owns extensive salt deposits at Dana, Sask., a few miles from Saskatoon.

Sydney, N. S., July 19.—That the Duke of Devonshire has again postponed his visit to Cape Breton, and will not be in Sydney until July 31, is the announcement received by Mayor Fitzgerald from the vice-regal party's secretary. His excellency was expected here on the 21st.

SCORES OF BRITISH SOLDIERS INJURED WHEN SINN FEINERS IN CORK BOMB ARMY LORRIES

CLAIMS EXPENDITURE OF $100,000 FOR RESERVOIR ILLEGAL

Never Approved by Legislature, Declares Labor Committee Secretary.

TREASURER'S COMMENT

Vote by People All Was Necessary, Declares Mr. Bell.

That the $100,000 expenditure being made for an addition to the Springbank reservoir is illegal because it has not been approved by the Legislature, was the claim made today by W. G. Tite, secretary of the labor representation committee.

Although an appropriation of this amount was authorized by the people at the election in January, it needed the formal consent of the Legislature before debentures could be issued, Mr. Tite says. With this in view a clause was inserted in the London bill. As the whole measure was thrown out by the Legislature, Mr. Tite asserts that the public utilities commission never received authority to go ahead with the work.

Further Evidence.

Further evidence of this is to be found in the fact that the commission is asking the city council for permission to appeal to the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for authority to issue $85,000 debentures for waterworks extensions; $80,000 for electrical extensions, and $100,000 for the reservoir, he stated. If the commission has power to issue the reservoir debentures why is it making an appeal to the railway board for this amount, as well as for the electrical and water main extensions, Mr. Tite asks.

Commissioners Comment.

"Mr. Tite ought to put on a gown and practice law. Why doesn't he get to be mayor, if he has bright notions like that all the time?" was the reply which Commissioner Jared Vining made to Mr. Tite's claims when interviewed by The Advertiser.

City Treasurer Bell said there was no doubt as to the legality of the debentures, as quantities of them were being sold.

"Once they were approved by the people they were quite legal," he said. "There was no need to put a clause in the London bill about them, except that it would confirm the people's vote and make it a little easier to sell the bonds. If there had been no other clauses for the bill I do not think we would have troubled to go to Toronto about this."

GERMAN MINISTER SAYS HIS COUNTRY PAYING HIGH PRICE

Dr. Walter Simons Comments On Results of the Spa Conference.

Berlin, July 19.—"We saved the Ruhr from invasion, but we paid a big price for it," is the way that Dr. Walter Simons, minister of foreign affairs, epitomized the result of the meeting at Spa last week between the Germans and the allies, according to a news agency report.

"Germany's Calvary," is the caption in today's issues of the Zeitung Am Mittag, which says: "From Versailles to Spa, then Geneva, and then Brussels. Where will it end?"

Doremund General Anzeiger comments on the surprise it must have been to the conference when Otto Hue, president of the German Miners' National Association, told the conferees that a half million German miners were ready to lay down their tools unless they were adequately fed. "A new force," says the newspaper, "manifested itself when Hue put it plainly—No food, no coal."

Civilians in Irish City Attac k Military Conveyances Loaded With Soldiers—Twenty-Nine Bombs Thrown—Total of Casualties Since Start o f Reign of Terror Last Night Is Well Over the 100 Mark—Guerilla Tactics Are Used by Attackers.

Cork, July 19.—Two military lorries loaded with soldiers, which passed through the streets of Cork at 3 o'clock this morning, were attacked by civilians with bombs and blown up. Between 60 and 70 soldiers were injured. The civilians threw 29 bombs.

This attack followed a night of terror into which the city was plunged as a result of street fighting, in which Sinn Feiners and the military participated. Two men were killed and some 40 were wounded in the gun fighting, which brought the total of casualties well over the 100 mark.

The Sinn Feiners used the guerilla tactics which had been outlined in the plan of campaign of the Republican army.

YOUNG WOMAN SHOOTS MAN WHO DECLINED TO LOVE HER INSTEAD OF WIFE AND FAMILY

Pauline Meglitsch of Chicago Commits Suicide After Firing Bullet Into Head of Julius Jonas — Woman Leaves a Note Explaining Reason For Act—Jonas Is in Hospital in a Critical Condition.

Chicago, Ill., July 19.—Miss Pauline Meglitsch, 36 years old, a bookkeeper, shot Julius Jonas, 48 years old, a traveling salesman, and then killed herself in her home on the north side yesterday, according to the police.

Jonas, who has a wife and four children, was taken to a hospital, where it was reported his condition is critical. He had been separated from his wife about five years, the police were told, and had boarded with the Meglitsch family several months.

Last March, Mrs. Jonas, who is a sister of Leo Feist, New York music publisher, filed suit for separate maintenance against her husband, naming Pauline Meglitsch, officials said, but a conference in the office of Mrs. Jonas' attorney, a reconciliation was said to have been effected.

The bullet severed Jonas' optic nerve, leaving him blind. In a letter addressed "To the Public," the woman said: "I tried to get Jule to kiss me last night but he refused. He said he loved his wife and family more than he did me and that he was through with me. He said he was going back to his wife and family and he seemed to mean what he said."

The truck driver is held by the police.

MEXICAN INSURGENT GENERAL EXECUTED

Summary Justice Meted Out To Rebel.

Mexico City, July 19.—(By the Associated Press).—Gen. Jesus Guajardo, an insurgent, who was sentenced to death by a summary court-martial at Monterey Saturday night, charged with rebellion, was executed Sunday morning by a firing squad.

Guajardo, who was reported to have killed Gen. Emiliano Zapata, bandit chief in the state of Morelos, more than a year ago, rebelled recently en route to Chihuahua with 1,200 men. It was stated that few followed him in the revolt. He was pursued closely by the defacto government forces and captured Saturday near Monterey shortly after the arrest of Gen. Padblo Gonzales, who conducted the attack on Monterey.

AUSTRALIAN BISHOP MAY BE BARRED FROM ENTERING IRELAND

London, July 19.—The question as to whether the Most Rev. Daniel Mannix, archbishop of Melbourne, Australia, shall be barred from Ireland, in view of his recent utterances in the United States, is under consideration by the British Government.

This statement was made by Andrew Bonar Law, the Government spokesman, in the House of Commons today, in answer to a question as to whether the Government would not prevent Archbishop Mannix from visiting Ireland, because his presence and speeches might be likely to increase the difficulties already existing.

Mr. Bonar Law evaded answering when asked by a member of the House whether representations had been made to the Vatican regarding the speeches of Archbishop Mannix.

RAILWAY CHIEFS TO PASS UPON BOARD'S AWARD

Meeting of Union Officials Is Being Held in Chicago.

2,000,000 ARE AFFECTED

If Rejected, Concerted Action Will Be Taken by the Men.

Chicago, July 19.—The fi... grand council meeting for more than a year of executives, general chairmen and general committeemen of the sixteen recognized railroad brotherhoods opened in Chicago today to pass upon the wage award of the railway labor board. The board's decision, it has been announced, will be made public tomorrow.

Although the board has no legal jurisdiction over Canada, its decision will, in fact, be operative in the Dominion as the Canadian Pacific is reported to have undertaken to incorporate the findings of the United States board in an agreement with the Canadian brotherhood. Vice-President Hay of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks of Winnipeg is among those attending today's meeting.

According to union rules all questions of a wage increase must be submitted to a referendum vote of the entire membership of the unions, but it was pointed out today that the call for the grand council stated the purpose of the gathering to be "to consider and pass finally upon the award made by the board." Under these circumstances it was not known whether the board's award would be submitted to a referendum or whether final action would be taken by the union chiefs in session here. Leaders today declined to comment on the matter.

2,000,000 Are Affected.

In connection with the discussion of probable referendum tomorrow, it was pointed out that a vote by the entire membership of the brotherhoods would require a month or more, and that the union leaders were opposed to delay in the final acceptance or rejection of the award.

Samuel E. Heberting, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America, declared last night that if it decided that the award was unsatisfactory "concerted action would be taken by the sixteen brotherhoods."

The wage increases asked by the road workers, of whom there are 2,000,000 would total more than 600,000,000. The demands range from 20 per cent for shopmen to 6 cents per hour for maintenance of way em-

LABOR OPPOSED TO GAS RATES

Passes Resolution Asking Civic Authorities To Prevent Their Being Charged.

Labor is opposed to the gas rates arranged at a recent gas committee meeting and intends to do all in its power to prevent the charging of them, according to William Tite, secretary of the Labor representation executive committee, which passed a resolution on Saturday night, expressing its dissatisfaction with the charges. The text of the resolution follows:

"Resolved, that whereas the City Gas Company has imposed a ready-to-serve charge, that the charge being illegal and the mayor and the city council having no power to grant the same, that the city council being responsible to the citizens for seeing that the gas company lives up to its agreement, which expressly states that the company may not raise the price of gas to consumers beyond 90 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, that the mayor and council use all the means in their power to restrain them from so doing."

Regarding the question of the public utilities commission seeking to obtain $265,000 without a referendum of the people, the labor committee will probably interview the Government or follow some similar plan of action. The objection is that the civic law does not allow a civic body to expend an amount exceeding $25,000 without the consent of the people by means of the ballot.

Commissioner Ellis of the Ontario Railway Board has expressed himself as willing to meet a delegation of labor men to discuss the London Street Railway situation.

NARROWLY ESCAPES DROWNING AT PORT

Youth Tries To Swim From Bathhouse To Pier, Return.

A local youth had a narrow escape from death by drowning when he essayed to swim from the L. and P. S. Railway bathhouse to the new pier and return, at Port Stanley Saturday afternoon. He managed to reach the pier, but upon arrival there in a fatigued condition failed to locate a projection on the cement to serve as a handhold while he rested.

Lieut. W. E. Nuttal of this city, working on his yacht moored nearby, noted the youth in difficulty, and rushing to his assistance pulled him up onto the pier, but not before the boy had gone down for the first time. The rescued one became violently ill after being helped from the water, but after a prolonged rest walked back to the bathhouse and donned his clothes, postponing the return swim indefinitely.

GEO. POOLE WINS CROP COMPETITION

Norwich, July 19.—The twelve fields of fall wheat entered in the standing field crop competition conducted by the North Norwich Agricultural Society, were judged by Mr. Boyd, one of the department judges, and the awards placed as follows: First, Geo. A. Poole, New Dundam; 2, Alex. Rettie, Norwich; 3, John Wilson, Burgessville; 4, B. G. Palmer, Norwich; 5, E. Burpee Palmer, Norwich; 6, Harmon MacPherson, Norwich; 7, Howard Jull, Norwich.

In some cases it was found that the Hessian fly had damaged the crop. Favorable comment was made by the judge in a number of cases on the purity of the crop and freedom from other kinds of grain.

Spring grain crops in the district, particularly oats, give promise of yields much above the average.

MANY ACRES OF CORN DESTROYED BY GRUBS

Thorndale, July 19.—Farmers in this locality state that the fall wheat is an excellent crop, but the spring wheat will be very light. There is every prospect of a bumper oat crop, but the hay is very light. A number of the farmers have several acres of sugar beets, and due to the favorable weather these are making rapid progress.

A great many acres of corn have been almost totally destroyed by two types of grubs. In fields where slag or fertilizer was used the corn has not been attacked by any destructive insects, and is in a splendid condition.

As the St. Marys Flax Milling Company leased a large area of land in the eastern part of West Nissouri, there is a large acreage of flax in that district, and it is reported to be a splendid crop.

The Thorndale Public Library has purchased a consignment of books valued at over $90.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE AT D. S. PERRIN FIRE

Two thousand dollars damage was done, mostly by water, as the result of a fire breaking out in the bakeshop of the D. S. Perrin Company at 12:20 o'clock on Sunday morning. The cause was said to be an overheated oven. The blaze was extinguished by means of chemicals, but the water which was spread about by means of the sprinkler system contributed greatly to the loss. On Sunday at 2:15 p.m. the department had a run to 367 King street. It proved to be a false alarm, the turning on of which was caused by a smoking motor in a vacuum cleaner.

CONCERT POSTPONED.

The Sunday band concert, which was to have been given in Victoria Park by the W. O. R. band under the auspices of the Isabel Hampton Chapter of the I. O. D. E., was postponed because of the threatening weather.

SECOND OF SERIES.

A large audience attended the second of a series of concerts, the G. W. V. A. band is giving in Queen's Park in aid of the War Veterans' Memorial Fund.

MERRYMAKERS FROM ALL WESTERN ONTARIO GATHER AT SPRINGBANK SATURDAY

London Crowds Augmented by Chatham, Windsor Residents—Dennis Picnickers Numbered in Hundreds—I. X. L. Employees Hold Annual Outing—All Saints' Choir Picnics.

Four picnics were held at the city park on Saturday. Fine weather brought most of the employees of the factories to their annual outing. All races were keenly contested, and by the enthusiasm shown for picnics, it is predicted that many factories in the city will have a winter one.

E. R. Dennis, general manager of the Dennis Wire and Iron Works Company, Limited, in speaking to his employees at their outing said: "It is a great pleasure for me to be present at our annual picnic. With this outing a success, I can see nothing in our road for us to have a winter picnic, where we can get inside and get better acquainted with one another."

Over three hundred employees, with their wives and families, attended the Dennis outing. All enjoyed a good time, and the lunch provided by the ladies was a "regular" supper.

Throughout the afternoon the kiddies were supplied with ice cream cones and after the ball game was completed each one was given a bag of candy. An extra prize was in each bag. Balloons, cupie dolls and other things to amuse them were given out.

Ball Game.

The main event of the day was the ball game between the Ornamental Demons and Steel Equipment Pirates. The game ended with the iron demons winning by a score of 9 to 3. Both teams played hard, owing to the fact that each member of the winning team was to receive three dollars.

When the ball game was over the picnickers sat down to lunch, and speeches were given by the conveners of the several committees.

The prizes were of the very best. Cut glass, china, silk hose and many other useful and handsome awards were supplied by the officials of the factory.

Following are the names of those in charge of the refreshments: Misses E. Housen and E. Brown, Messrs. J. Snowdon, Sen., G. Hotham, L. Dean, A. Dobson and F. Harding. Each one deserves special mention for their efforts in connection with the arranging and serving of the supper.

Race Results.

HEAVY RAINFALL IS OVERTAXING SEWER SYSTEM

South London Is Especially Affected by Incessant Showers.

So much trouble with London's inadequate storm-sewer system is being caused by the abnormal rainfall that Ald. E. R. Seabrook is endeavoring to have a special meeting of the city council called to deal with the matter. Most of the trouble has occurred in South London, and as an alderman for that district he has kept in close touch with the citizens who have been complaining.

West Beaconsfield avenue, formerly Railway street, has been added to the list of the streets where sewers are causing trouble. A deputation from that street has laid a complaint with the alderman.

Combination of the sanitary and storm water sewer systems is the whole cause of the trouble, Mr. Seabrook said today. Bruce and Edward streets have suffered particularly.

System Overloaded.

Owing to the fact that there are no storm water sewers on this street the rain water has been drained into the sanitary system. This was not built in expectation of such heavy demands, and in a heavy rain is totally inadequate to carry off the water. The lines meet with larger ones near the outlet to the river, and as they take up practically the whole outlet the water in the smaller line is backed up until it overflows in cellars and out of the catch basins.

The sewer on Bruce street was built while that territory was part of Middlesex County. It is thought that conditions here can be improved by installing a number of manholes and cleaning the pipes. This will not prove a solution to the Edward and Beaconsfield troubles.

Favors New Sewers.

Ald. Seabrook has suggestions to make which he believes will help to improve the situation, but he would not make these public until he had had a consultation with the city engineer. He is strongly in favor of an adequate storm sewer system for the whole city as well as South London, and also favors the building of a sewage disposal plant on the site of the present sewage beds. These, he asserts, are becoming clogged up and need remodeling or replacement by a modern system.

BELIEVES PLAN WILL WORK WELL

Wet Weather Prevented Test of 10 o'Clock Sunday Cars.

While weather conditions prevented an accurate estimate of the success of 10 o'clock Sunday car service yesterday the new plan will prove satisfactory to both the traveling public and the street railway company. C. B. King, manager for the Ontario Railway Board believes.

Owing to the heavy rain the streets were practically deserted until after 10 o'clock Sunday, so that the fact that cars were not in operation made little difference. The only objection came from people who intended leaving the city on early morning trains. These were comparatively few in number. Mr. King stated that reports which the railway had received for some months past indicated that the early morning traffic was practically nil.

Springbank cars commenced an hourly service at 9:30. A small saving will be effected by the change, equal to the cost of operating one car on each line for two hours.

MAGISTRATE FAVORS POLICE COMMISSION

Questions Legality of Recent Action At Walkerville.

Members of the local police commission remain reticent regarding a probable meeting of that body for the purpose of appointing a new chief of police here. However, The Advertiser police reporter set out on a new task, and approaching Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon in his Carling street sanctum, asked his opinion on the action of the Walkerville town council in recently dismissing the police commission there and taking over the reins of police administration.

"I am not sure," said Magistrate Graydon, "but I do not think that the Walkerville council was acting legally when it did so. I wish they would do the same thing here, and it would relieve me of a lot of responsibility. However, I realize that administration of the police by a commission is the best method. I do not want to give an official opinion on the Walkerville situation."

County Judge Talbot Macbeth, who is also a member of the London Police Commission, was interviewed on the subject.

"I did not know that Walkerville was a city and entitled to a police commission," was his first comment. "Why don't you ask a solicitor about it?"

The scribe then informed him that as county judge he was the solicitor for the public to which he replied: "Consult the municipal act, I am not in the habit of giving out information for publication." The reporter agreed with the judge on the last statement, and gave it up as a bad job.

But the fact remains that the Walkerville Police Commission is on a forced vacation, and London is without a permanent chief of police.

NORTH BAY, July 18.—North Bay is preparing for the visit here on Monday of the 200 members of the Michigan Pikes Association, who are on a 1,300-mile motor tour through Ontario and Michigan, and the rough places in the roads are being made smooth for them. Mayor Ferguson of this town, will pilot the tourists from Powassan here and will be accompanied by President Thomas Wallace of the Northern Motor League, and J. O. McKerrow, inspector of roads. A banquet will be held here Monday night and among the speakers will be Hon. E. C. Biggs, minister of public works for Ontario. The town is being decorated for the occasion.

GET WARM WELCOME.

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., July 18.—The Michigan Pikes Association tourists were given a warm welcome here Saturday night, after having been welcomed at Aurora, Bradford, Orillia and Gravenhurst on their way here from Toronto.

A big crowd was waiting to receive them at Barrie, but they missed their way and had to skip that town. The tourists were taken on a trip through some of the Muskoka lakes today. They will camp at North Bay tomorrow night.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

BEAUTY AND UGLINESS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—Now that a new collegiate institute is going to be built there is a great deal of discussion as to where it shall be located, and as to the number and size of the buildings. There is, however, very little said as to the style and appearance of the new building or buildings.

Most citizens are very careful to marry beautiful women, or at any rate women whom they think are beautiful; they will also do their best to secure a beautiful house or garden; but many do not worry when such architectural monstrosities as the First Presbyterian Church, St. Luke's, Broughdale; Dundas Centre Methodist, the Tecumseh House, the Grand Trunk station, and the Tecumseh avenue or Talbot street schools are imposed upon this and future generations.

As regards shchools, this city is certainly above the average, and has reason to be proud of such buildings as the Simcoe street or the Alexandra schools, and as regards other buildings, the Hydro offices, the Advertiser Job Printing, the new Holeproof Hosiery Buildings, are at any rate far superior to most of the churches.

So if we are to have a new collegiate let us have a temple that is in some degree worthy of the God of wisdom and of light. It is true that we cannot do as well as the ancient Greeks and Romans, or the Gothic architects of the middle ages, but let us do the best we can and not accept some design because the architect has a pull with the council or for some other sordid reason.

One of our London professors lately wrote to the press advocating the adoption of the "Modified Gothic" style for the new building. "Modified Gothic" does not necessarily mean the use of the pointed arch, which I hope the professor does not advocate, as that kind of Gothic is extinct. There is no modern architect who knows how to use or how to design the pointed windows and doorways of mediaeval times.

The churches still demand the pointed arch, heaven knows why, unless it is that for some unaccountable reason they imagine that there is something essentially religious about it.

Some modern architects have been partially successful in its use, as, for instance, in the English Parliament Building, which, like the curate's egg, is "good in parts." But generally such efforts are a dismal failure, as, for instance, in our own Parliament Buildings, wherein the arches are about as badly designed as they can be. As for the corridors of that building, when one thinks of the beautiful cloisters in which the old Catholic monks used to walk and pray and meditate, the parliament corridors remind one of a gaol. I am sure that the old monks would have broken their vows or run away if they had to live in them.

I affirm, without hesitation, that the new Parliament Buildings are a failure, certainly no better than the old ones, and they constitute the worst crime of which the Borden Government has yet been guilty, because instead of using the people's millions in erecting a building that would represent the highest ideal of modern architecture, and which would have been "a thing of beauty and a joy forever," they have erected a conglomeration which is neither fish, flesh, nor fowl; an empty convention in stone.

In building or any other art our lowest ideals and our highest may be expressed; let us, at least in public buildings express the highest, and not slavishly imitate a nation or age that is no more.

In mediaeval times European cities competed with each other, not as to which could build the highest skyscraper or the most expensive church, but as to who could build with the greatest perfection and beauty. In this way were created such miracles as Rheims, Cologne, Strasburg, Milan, Antwerp and Salisbury Cathedrals, and St. Peter's, Rome.

Even the small dwelling houses in those days were often works of art and not a mere assemblage of bricks and mortar. The common people knew and loved good architecture when they saw it, for the same reason the poorest Italians whistle grand opera, because the finest examples are constantly before their eyes and ears. It is for precisely the same reason some people appreciate good gin or good cigars, or good tea, or good company, because they have been brought up on these things, it has been part of their environment.

There are, however, exceptions to every rule, and it has remained for a Canadian, Mr. Hambridge, a native of Ingersoll, to rediscover for the world the laws and rules of proportion which enabled the Greeks to build temples of such marvelous perfection and beauty, which have never been equalled or excelled from that day to this.

Perhaps the nearest we have ever come to the perfection of Greek architecture is in St. George's Hall, Liverpool. But then the Borden Government did not in that case give the job to one of its favorites, but Liverpool instituted a national competition, and the prize was won by a poor, unknown young architect.

Soon after the completion of the building this young man died from an illness brought on by the tremendous mental strain required to emulate Greek perfection by sheer force of genius, without the aid of the mathematical formula with which the Greeks worked. In European villages we often meet with quite inexpensive buildings, which are nevertheless so beautiful that strangers from distant lands go out of their way to see them. Without additional expense we may have a collegiate institute that will rival any in North America, but we shall at least have to exercise as much artistic sense as we do in judging the lines of a horse, a dog, a chair, a flower or a woman, which, according to Mr. Hambridge, all conform to the same laws of static symmetry. He left Dundee twenty years ago, and has worked since as a farmhand at an average wage of $22 a month. RUPTURE KILLS 7,000 ANNUALLY
Seven thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificate being marked "Rupture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling) of the affliction and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a truss, appliance, or whatever name you choose to call it? At best, the truss is only a makeshift—a false prop against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The binding pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nourishment.
But science has found a way, and every truss sufferer in the land is invited to make a FREE test right in the privacy of their own home. The PLAPAO method is unquestionably the most scientific, logical and successful self-treatment for rupture the world has ever known.
The PLAPAO PAD when adhering closely to the body cannot possibly slip or shift out of place therefore, cannot chafe or pinch. Soft as velvet—easy to apply—inexpensive. To be used whilst you work and whilst you sleep. No straps, buckles or springs attached.
Learn how to close the hernial opening as nature intended so the rupture CAN'T come down. Send your name today to PLAPAO CO., Block 418, St. Louis, Mo., for FREE trial Plapao and the information necessary.

WEATHER CONDITIONS DELAY PAVING WORK

Better Progress, However, Is Being Made Than Last Season.

Weather conditions are slowing up paving work, but in spite of this better progress is being made than last year. The concrete is far ahead of the surfacing owing to the delay caused by a breakdown at the paving plant. The surfacing of Rectory street has been completed, as well as the bylaw providing for a pavement on York street as far east as Burwell. A second bylaw, carrying this pavement out to Adelaide street, may be completed Tuesday. Work will be commenced then on the last stretch of Rectory street.

Concrete has been laid on Waterloo street from Harvard street to Cheapside. The other concrete-laying gang is now occupied on Lyle street.

Rain has prevented rapid work in oiling the streets, but nearly all the city's oil supply has been exhausted. City Engineer Brazier estimated today that there was sufficient for only one day's work. Every effort is being made to obtain further supplies.

BUILDING FIGURES BEHIND LAST YEAR

Building prospects for the month are improving slightly, but will have to make rapid progress if they are to equal the total rolled up in July, 1919. To date 51 permits have been issued for a total of $63,250, compared to $171,205 in July last year. The total for the year is still a comfortable distance ahead of 1919, owing to the lead attained in the earlier months of this year. The aggregate expenditure on building thus far is estimated at $867,420, compared to $719,230 at the end of July last year.

John Futherbough took out a permit today for a one-story brick residence on Huron street, to cost $8,000. The housing commission took out a permit to build a two-story brick house for William Spence on Blackfriars street. William Mortimer is the builder, and the price is $4,310.

COPPERS DATED 1914 ONLY WORTH ONE CENT

The local banks are being invaded almost every day by crowds of children, who do not come to open bank accounts, much to the clerk's disappointment. They all have the same query to put to the clerks: "Will ya please tell me how much ya can get for a 1914 cent?" The answer from the bored clerk is: "It is of the same value as any other cent." The youngsters go away disappointed that they do not receive a percentage on 1914 coppers, many of which have been hoarded up during the past weeks until holiday-time.

A rumor has been circulated among the children that 1914 coppers are of more value than any other because of the commencement of the world war in that year.

JULY PROMISES TO BE WETTEST MONTH

Unless somebody who is looking after the weather turns off the rain spigot, July, 1920, promises to live in history as one of the wettest months ever recorded. With half the month gone the rainfall totals almost six inches—to be exact, 5.85 inches. Sunday's downpour added .27 of an inch.

The rainfall is affecting the crops. If more rain comes before the potato crop is dug it is thought the spuds will be very scarce and high in price this winter.

The hay crop has been affected in many sections by the rain. Last week it was thought that the crops were going to benefit by the cold wind, but it did not las long enough. The heads on most of the grain are out, and only sun is needed to make what there is going to be show up well.

LADS WERE PILOTED HOME BY FORMER WARD OF SHELTER

Much Anxiety Was Caused Over Four Youths' Absence.

What looked like wholesale desertion from the Children's Shelter Sunday afternoon proved to be merely a temporary absence of a few young gentlemen on an exploring expedition. Four youthful adventurers left the home shortly before 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon with the Askin Street Methodist Sunday school as their destination. They arrived safely, but at the conclusion of the lesson set out in an entirely different direction to that in which lay home and supper.

Their official guardians became worried when they had not appeared by nightfall, and a search party was being organized when two of the absentees appeared under convoy of a 12-year-old protector, who was formerly a ward of the society. He had met the boys wondering around near the river and advised them that after all there was no place like home. Just to prove it, he conveyed them to the front walls and instructed them to tell the matron that he would be around to see her some time, as he really liked the place and would like to stay for a week just for old time's sake.

The other section of the quartet turned up a few minutes later under the direction of a kind-hearted citizen. They were grieved somewhat that any alarm had been felt for them.

"You might have known that we would come back when it was dark," they said.

HORSE INJURED.—When a frightened team backed into a Canadian Express Company's wagon standing in front of the company's sheds today, one of the wheels caught and jammed a leg of one of the company's horses against the tongue of the wagon. The wheel was so tightly wedged it had to be removed from the axle before the horse could be freed. The animal was slightly injured.

ALLEGED BIGAMIST, GIRL GIVES SELF UP

Viola Bender, Port Huron, Surrenders To Detroit Police.

Detroit, July 19.—Five feet and 90 pounds of neat femininity, nattily attired and not looking the 19 years of age later admitted, walked into police headquarters Saturday night and asked Detective Sergeant John Heffron to arrest her. After he recovered from his surprise and had made some queries, Heffron learned she is Viola Bender, for whom a warrant charging bigamy was awaiting service.

Viola told Heffron she was twice married, that though it was all right because her first husband, a United States sailor, had been arrested as a deserter and was, she said, now awaiting sentence at Great Lakes, Ill. Therefore, she had made a second venture.

News of the former marriage was brought to the mother of the second husband, Heffron said, and the warrant was issued. Meanwhile Viola had gone to Albany to work and did not know the police wanted her until Friday, when she returned to her home at Port Huron and her parents informed her.

If they are approved they will be recommended to the commisson, and arrangements for making the initial payment of 10 per cent will be made through the Chamber of Commerce.

TO PULL FLAX.—Twenty-five more boys and twelve more men will be sent to the Bruce Bradley farm at Jeannette's Creek, Tuesday by S. F. Glass, M.P., to work a large farm in which Mr. Glass and other district men are interested. Thirty boys and ten men are already at work, having gone to Jeannette's Creek from London last week. A new flax-pulling machine will be demonstrated on the farm Tuesday.

RELIABILITY RUN.—Secretary C. E. Bernard of the London Motor Club is planning a "reliability run" for the club members. Plans are not very definite yet, but it will probably be sametime in August, and the Grand Bend is considered the most desirable point to make the run to and back. Prizes will be ordered for the best time in which the run is made, the least amount of gasoline used and various other competitions will be arranged.

SHORT $15,000.—It was announced at Salvation Army headquarters today that the welfare building fund fell short $15,000 in their recent campaign. If the money is received, it will go towards the building of a Children's Hospital. A campaign will be started in the fall to make up the amount. All the organizations waiting for their share of the money will receive it when the objective of $15,000 is reached.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Eula Kennedy of Wortley road spent the week-end at Exeter with Miss Jessie Manson.

Miss Ruth Shosenberg of this city visited with her aunt, Mrs. T. H. Newell, over the week-end.

NEW BRIDGE MAY SOLVE THE PROBLEM

Port Stanley harbor problems will be solved, temporarily at least, according to S. F. Glass, M. P., by the raising of the bridge on Bridge street to permit fishing-boats and other smaller vessels to dock in an inside harbor, leaving the outer harbor clear for larger boats. The Canadian Government is preparing to undertake the work at once. Elgin County Council making a grant towards the raising of the bridge, and Port Stanley Village undertaking sufficient contribution to the project to provide for its maintenance. Work on dredging, deepening and widening the inside harbor will be begun at once. It is expected that the local authorities having agreed to a separation of the harbor traffic at the suggestion of the Dominion authorities, the Government will be prepared to make more generous appropriations to the harbor in subsequent years.

WILL RUSH CARS BACK.

As the result of an order received by railroads throughout Canada that empty coal cars must be rushed back to the mines immediately they are unloaded, it is expected by local officials that a larger coal supply will be available throughout the country in the near future. A shortage of coal cars has been the chief cause of the prevailing shortage of coal, it is claimed, and this shortage has been accentuated by the misuse of cars while on foreign lines.

Because of a general shortage of rolling stock empty coal hoppers have been put to other uses than hauling coal. This illegitimate use of the cars has caused an acute shortage at the mines. As the order is being observed by all railroads there will be undoubtedly a greater movement of coal within the next few weeks.

TO STOP PILFERING.

Steps are being taken by the local express companies to stop the pilfering of fruit from baskets, which it is claimed is causing serious losses to the companies. In a statement issued by one of the agents it is alleged that hardly a basket arrives at its destination without having been tampered with by petty thieves.

REDUCED 25 PER CENT.

Although the claim-reduction campaign, which is being waged among the employees of the G. T. R., has been in progress for only six months, the number of claims made by shippers because of losses has been reduced by 25 per cent, according to Superintendent C. F. Forrester, of the local division. The campaign will be continued until every employee of the freight and transportation departments has been educated in the proper methods of handling freight.

Despite the fact that the number of claims have been decreased compared with the corresponding period of last year, the monetary loss has been as great, if not greater. Mr. Forrester said this was due entirely to the decreased value of the dollar, which has materially increased the value of shipments.

Meet Every Month.

Meetings are held every month at different points throughout the system. In the London division they are held in Hamilton, St. Catherines, Paris, Sarnia, in this city, or at any other point where the greatest number of employees can be gathered together. Committees representing different departments are appointed to hear lectures, and they in turn pass the instructions to their fellow employees.

When the losses from handling have been reduced to the lowest possible figure a campaign will be waged among the shippers. Already the shippers are being compelled to use proper containers, as stipulated by the Canadian Freight Association, because all employees of the G. T. R. have been instructed to refuse shipments which are improperly packed, according to Mr. Forrester.

WAGE SCALE INCREASED.

As a result of the government taking over the G. T. R. the wage scale of the employees of the Canadian Express Company, west of Winnipeg, have been increased to the scale paid on the Canadian National roads, according to local officials of the expressmen's branch of C. B. R. E. It is felt that this is the first step to a general increase all over the Canadian Express Company's system.

SHORTAGE OF RAILS.

Work on laying the 100-pound rails on the G. T. R. between Paris and Sarnia is completely tied up because of the shortage of rails, according to Superintendent C. F. Forrester of the local division. A further supply of rails is not expected until the 1st of August.

BRIG.-GEN. MITCHELL REPLACES RUSSELL ON HYDRO INQUIRY

The Motor Car Manufacturer Withdraws Because of Criticisms.

Toronto, July 19.—Mr. I. A. Russell, president of the Russell Motor Car Company, has resigned as a member of the royal commission to investigate and report on hydro radials, and has been succeeded by Brig-Gen. C. H. Mitchell, C.M.G., dean of the faculty of applied science.

On Friday last, because of certain criticisms on account of his connection with the motor car business, Mr. Russell wrote Attorney-General Raney, asking that his appointment be reconsidered and that someone else be chosen in his stead. Hon. Mr. Raney today stated the Government had reluctantly consented to Mr. Russell's withdrawal, and had selected Brig.-Gen. Mitchell, who is at present in British Columbia, but who has wired acceptance of the appointment.

Some preparatory work will have to be undertaken, and by that time Brig.-Gen. Mitchell, who is expected to be back in about ten days, will be ready to act. The meeting of the commission, which was called this afternoon at Osgoode Hall, was of an informal character. Mr. A. F. MacCallum of Ottawa, one of the members, was out of town when the wire was delivered and could not attend. Justice Sutherland (chairman), Fred Bancroft and W. A. Amos are the other commissioners. Among other things the commission will have power to name its secretary and counsel.

PRESENTED WITH SILVER.

GUELPH, July 18.—G. E. Black, who recently resigned his position as assistant director of F. Unit, D. S. C. R., at Speedwell Hospital, was honored by the staff of that institution and a number of intimate friends tonight, when he was presented with a handsome silver tea service. Mr. Black leaves shortly to take a responsible position at Sarnia. He is succeeded by Lieut.-Col. E. G. Shannon, who has been deputy to Mr. Black for the last nine months.

DURHAM, July 17.—The Masonic Lodge of Durham has been making great strides in membership lately. On Friday a number of visiting Masons from Toronto were here and formed the Durham Chapter, Royal Arch Masons. At the close of business proceedings a banquet was tendered the visiting delegates in the public library. Grand Scribe T. Smith of Toronto was toastmaster, and toasts were drunk to "The King," "Our Country," "Visiting Brethren," "The Ladies," "New Chapter," "New Members." D. B. Patterson of Owen Sound was present and enlivened the evening with selections.

CLEMENCEAU STATUE SHOWS HIM STANDING AT EDGE OF TRENCH

Sculptor Depicts Him Surrounded by His Beloved Poilus.

Paris, July 18.—Clemenceau is shown at the front, standing at the edge of a trench, with his friends the French poilus below and about him, in the monument to be erected in his native country, the Vendee, early next year.

Francois Sicard, the sculptor, is chiselling the group work out of hard Burgundian stone. Unfinished, the work is already said to visualize with great character, the scene so often pictured of the old "Tiger," mentally and almost physically, fighting for France.

The premier's figure stands eight feet high. He is, as always in the war days, wearing the long, loose overcoat and the soft, slouchily-crumpled hat, leaning on a cane. His face is toward the enemy, his eyes watching the horizon, following indications given him by a seated officer with maps, beside him. On his right are grouped soldiers and in the trench below are more of the men in the ranks, looking with mingled astonishment and admiration at their minister of war.

The scene is said by critics to be vividly natural, rough and muddy, but heroic and full of the color and character of war days.

"CRIMINOLOGY" BY LIFER RATED BEST

Author Had "Inside" Experience Under Twelve Wardens.

Salem, Ore., July 18.—Based on his own "inside" experience behind the walls of the Oregon penitentiary under twelve different wardens, and supplemented by data and information gathered from many of the larger penal institutions throughout the United States, Jesse P. Webb, a "lifer" in state's prison here, has produced "The American Prison System," a 262-page book, said by many to be the most able and comprehensive presentation of the subject yet published.

The book is replete with data and information concerning the prison systems and the conditions which make for crime and criminals, with which these institutions are filled.

Its contents include chapters on "The System," "Jaisy," "Homes and Reform Schools," "The Penitentiary," "The Shyster Lawyer," "Impartial Law," "Circumstantial and Perjured Evidence," "Prison Sentences," "Employment for Prisoners," "Prisons and Religion," "Capital Punishment" and "Mail Privileges."

DEATH OF J. T. LAWLER.

INGERSOLL, July 18.—The death of John Thomas Lawler, a widely-known farmer, occurred at his home in West Oxford on Saturday. He had been ill for slightly more than two weeks, death resulting from pneumonia. He was born in the district and had resided there continuously. He was in his 55th year, and leaves a wife and young son. Interment will be made in the Ingersoll Rural Cemetery Monday afternoon.

A special sermon was preached in the Methodist Church tonight by the pastor, Rev. E. Sheppard, to the members of the three Foresters lodges of the town, the A. O. F., C. O. F. and I. O. F. The attendance from each lodge was large.

ARBITRATION BOARD WILL GET DATA ON COURT HOUSE COSTS

Joint Meeting To Discuss Situation Is Called For September 10.

A board of arbitration appointed for the purpose of fixing the amounts payable by the city of London and county of Middlesex toward the maintenance of the courthouse here, met in the county buildings today, but adjourned until Friday, September 10. The adjournment was made to enable the board to obtain data on the situation.

K. W. McKay, editor of the Municipal World, St. Thomas, representing the city of London; C. St. Clair Leitch, barrister, of St. Thomas, representing the county of Middlesex, and Judge F. C. Wallace of Woodstock, as the third member, constituted the arbitration board. Judge Wallace acted as chairman at the meeting.

City Solicitor T. G. Meredith and County Solicitor J. C. Elliott were present on behalf of their respective clients. The maintenance costs are usually distributed between the city and city by arbitration, and the last agreement between these two municipalities expired December 31, 1917. Since that time the matter was allowed to drag until the present. Any decision made by the arbitration board will become retroactive to December 31, 1917.

Negro Hits High Spots With Mob Giving Chase

Colored Man Escapes Lynching Owing To Ability As Runner.

Sydney, N. S., July 19.—Fleetness of foot was all that saved a New Waterford negro from severe injury, if not from lynching, Saturday.

The man, who was accused of molesting a white girl of 14, was pursued by a crowd of angry miners for a mile and a half, until he escaped in thick underbrush.

A coal company employee located the man in a shack at No. 16 colliery, but the fugitive got away through a window and started to run. In a few minutes the miners came pouring out of the colliery, joining in pursuit until the mine was idle. The crowd chased the negro out on to the Sydney and Louisburg Railway track a mile and a half to thick woods, where he made a safe getaway.

DOCTOR DECLARES CASE WAS STOLEN

The black leather medicine case found in possession of Joseph Ruddy, a soldier in training at Carling Heights, by the local police, and which Ruddy informed Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon in police court Friday that he had picked up in the street, has been claimed by Dr. Percy Banghart. The claimant informed the police that it was stolen from his auto last Thursday evening.

Ruddy was charged with having drugs unlawfully in his possession, and declared in police court that he was in search of a constable to turn in the case and drugs contained therein when arrested. He asserted that he found it on the street near the owner's office. Ruddy was allowed his freedom by the court, but the case and drugs were confiscated by order of the magistrate, who stated that in his opinion they had been stolen from a local doctor.

Dr. Banghart informed the police that some expensive drugs were missing from the case, and the authorities are of the opinion that the thieves after taking what they wanted threw the case into the street, where Ruddy found it.

RIDGETOWN

RIDGETOWN, July 17.—Duart village, eight miles east of Ridgetown, has a case of smallpox. A seventeen-year-old youth named McCallum is the victim. Where he contracted the disease is a mystery, as there are no cases in the district and the only time the boy has been away from home lately was on July 1, when he was in Strathroy.

Workmen are busily engaged preparing Main street for paving. A Toronto firm has the contract and their excavator has finished taking off about a foot of the top surface. A drainage system and gas mains are now being put in. The contract has also been let for paving Erie street south and the work will be done this summer if cement can be secured.

Mrs. John J. Holmes, Victoria avenue, met with a painful accident when she made a mis-step and fell off the veranda, alighting against a hammock post, the hook on which caught under her arm, tearing the flesh so that several stitches were required to close the wound.

While nothing definite has been given out it is almost certain that the Government highway will follow Talbot street west of St. Thomas. The road commissioners on Talbot street in this district have received notice from "the powers that be" not to do any more work on that thoroughfare, and this is taken to indicate that the road will go that way and that it will be put through without delay.

Herb. McDonald, who has been foreman of the Dominion Newspaper for about a quarter of a century, has been appointed clerk of the town of Ridgetown to succed the late D. Cochrane, who filled the office for about 35 years. The new treasurer is H. A. Mallory.

Tobacco growers have been hard hit by the wire worm this season, one grower losing eight acres out of ten. Another grower on the 12th concession had his plants so badly trimmed that he plowed up the whole field and put in another crop. Hail has also damaged the crop in some parts, but notwithstanding the drawbacks there are many fine fields.

Ridgetown has been known for many years as the greatest bean-growing district in the province, but of late years the acreage has showed a falling off. This year, however, interest has been revived and the crop looks fine. W. Bennett, east of town, has 50 acres that promise an abundant yield. They have been thoroughly cultivated and present a fine picture to the eye.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF MRS. MANN.

After an illness of two months' duration, Mrs. Minnie M. Mann, widow of George T. Mann, died at her home, 291 Princess avenue, on Sunday evening. Mrs. Mann was a life-long resident of London, and a member of the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Mann, who before her marriage was Miss Minnie McGeary, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McGeary of Brantford, had been a resident of London for many years.

She took a keen interest in all the activities of the First Methodist Church, of which she was a member, having served for many years as president of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was also at the time of her death a member of the board of the Protestant Orphan's Home.

The family consists of two sons, William George and Frank Nellis, and two daughters, Mrs. H. R. Laurie and Miss Grace E. All reside in London. Mrs. D. J. Waterous of Brantford and Mrs. J. W. Graham, Toronto, are sisters. Their mother, Mrs. John McGeary, of Brantford, passed away only two weeks ago.

The funeral of Mrs. Mann takes place from the family residence Tuesday afternoon.

DEATH OF MR. HALL.

The death of Thomas Edward Hall of Lucan occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital on Sunday morning. The funeral will be held on Tuesday from the undertaking parlors of John Ferguson's Sons to Woodland Cemetery.

BRICKLAYERS ARE NOT LIKELY TO STRIKE

Will Not Go Out Unless All Building Trades Quit.

One more contractor, Charles Simpson, accepted the 70-cent wage scale demanded by the striking hodcarriers on Saturday, and will probably employ half a dozen of the men now on strike. Several were engaged on Saturday. This contractor is not a member of the Builders' Exchange, so that the contractors represented in the latter body still present an unbroken rank in their decision to make no compromise with the strikers. No negotiations have been have been made between the strikers and the exchange for several weeks, the strike being now in the fourth week of its duration.

What action will be taken by the Bricklayers' Union is still unknown. It was announced today that an international organizer has been sent for by the bricklayers.

It was further admitted that there will be no sympathetic strike on the part of the bricklayers unless all the other building trades lay down their tools, too, and this question has not yet been considered by some of the trades, who will meet Tuesday evening.

So far only small contractors have acceded to the demands of the hodcarriers, namely, 70 cents an hour. Ten cents less was what the hodcarriers actually struck for, the members of the Builders' Exchange refusing to pay 70 cents an hour.

It is understood that the hodcarriers still would compromise for 65 cents, but the Builders' Exchange has announced through its officers that a compromise is out of the question. Fifty-five cents an hour is the very best offer the exchange will make.

CLAIM LAD WAS HIT WITH BARREL STAVE

Case Will Be Heard in Police Court On Wednesday.

The wheels of justice ground speedily in the Carling street mill today. Stephen Pedanquot, 256 Horton street, was charged by Eleanor Taylor, 710 Nelson street, that he did unlawfully assault Chester Taylor, a juvenile, by striking him on the head with a barrel stave to occasion bodily harm. The case was adjourned until Wednesday. The assault is alleged to have been committed in a local barrel works where defendant, who is an Indian, is employed. The victim of the assault appeared in police court with his head swathed in bandages.

One drunk, $10 and costs was the verdict of the court.

J. H. Clampit, F. C. Wilson, D. C. Hannah and C. Stryker settled out of court for breaches of the motor vehicles act to the tune of $5 and costs each, while Alex. Craven paid $2 for breaking a city bylaw.

DISAPPEARANCE OF LITTLE GIRLS ROUSES THOROLD

Tots, 4 and 6 Years Old, Not Seen Since Tuesday Afternoon.

DAVID McNEIL HELD

Was Arrested At Port Dalhousie—Report Says Girl Seen With Him.

ST. CATHARINES July 18. — Two little girls of Thorold, Catharine Beecham, 6 years old, and Margaret Boucock, 4 years of age, disappeared last Tuesday, and nothing has been heard or seen of them since.

The Boucock girl was seen Tuesday afternoon, it is said, walking along the high bank of the Welland ship canal ditch, east of Thorold, with David McNeil, the little girl carrying a doll at the time and being held by the hand by McNeil, to whom she was talking. McNeil is in jail awaiting an appearance before a magistrate next Friday. The Boucock girl knew him well, and was often at his place, it is said.

McNeil was arrested at Port Dalhousie the night following the disappearance of the children. Searching parties were out today trying to find some trace of the missing tots, but no clue was obtained.

The canal has been dragged, without the mystery being cleared up. The whole countryside is aroused over the affair.

HESSIAN FLY AND WEEVIL REDUCE WHEAT YIELD BY FOUR-FIFTHS IN ELGIN

Fields Look as If Herd of Cattle Had Passed Through.

ST. THOMAS, July 18.—Extensive damage, valued at thousands of dollars, is reported as having been done to the wheat fields of Elgin County, where the Hessian fly has been very busy in the western townships and the weevil in the eastern part of the county.

So extensive has been the ravages of the weevil that not a few acres of growing wheat looks as if a herd of cattle had passed through the grain. Around Rodney in the western part of the county, wheat fields which promised from 30 to 40 bushels to the acre will, it is said, not yield a fifth of that because of the fly.

Farmers whose farms have escaped the ravages of the fly, credit their good luck to having planted their seed later in the season.

RECORD IN SHEEP BREEDING MADE BY PILKINGTON FARMER

34 Ewes Produce 81 Lambs—Are Rearing 73 of Them.

GUELPH, July 18.—A record in sheep breeding has been established in this vicinity this year by Alex. Maitland, the well-known Leicester breeder, of Pilkington. Eleven ewes owned by Mr. Maitland have produced a total of 33 lambs, each having three, while 23 other ewes on his farm are now mothering 48 lambs. Three of the eleven ewes are now raising their three offspring, while the remaining eight each lost one, but still have two under their care.

SAYS BRITISH SPY AND POLICE SYSTEM WHOLLY ROOTED OUT

Boland Says Irish Hold Lucas Hostage For Cabinet Minister.

NEW YORK, July 17.—(By the Canadian Press).—Having apparently eluded the British authorities a second time Harry J. Boland, secretary of the Sinn Fein organization and aide to President De Valera of the unrecognized Irish Republic, turned up in New York yesterday after a visit to Ireland.

Boland left this city several months ago. About a year ago Boland escaped from Ireland, where he was "wanted" and came to the United States to prepare the way for his chief.

In an interview Boland said that the thing that impressed him most in Ireland was "the absolute rooting out of the British spy and police system."

Went Undisguised.

"I went about undisguised," he went on, "known to everybody in the country districts and in Dublin itself. I visited my home, took Mrs. De Valera for a motor ride, attended three great football matches, and all this time the British authorities did not know I was in Ireland.

"The British army is a laughing-stock in Ireland and is helpless," says the Sinn Fein leader. "Shall I tell you how I watched them get some milk in one town? An armored car, jammed with men drove up to a shop. The officers in charge and some of the men entered and negotiated for some milk. Of course, the shopkeeper refused to serve them. They took the milk, left money on the counter, loaded the milk on the armored car and departed with the guards on the alert."

Hostage For Barton.

After stating that Gen. Lucas, who was taken prisoner by the Sinn Feiners, is held as a hostage for R. C. Barton, Sinn Fein minister of agriculture, and that he is being well treated, Boland continued: "It does not matter a penny piece to Ireland if recognition is not accorded the republic in your time or my time. The people over there have already won their republic, whether this is officially recognized or not. They have even over-subscribed a loan of half a million pounds for the republic, and they are determined that it will take more than the five years and million lives Mr. Lloyd George threatens us to bring them back to subjection."

UNKNOWN MEN SHOOT OFFICIAL OF IRISH POLICE

Smyth's Speech Ordering Men To Shoot With Effect Recalled.

SOLDIERS KILL VETERAN

Former Soldier Bayonetted To Death by Military At Belfast.

BELFAST, July 18.—Commissioner Smyth of the Royal Irish Constabulary was shot dead in the Country Club at Cork last night by fourteen armed men who forced their way past the doormen. Smyth was found by the intruders sitting with friends, one of them District Inspector Sprague. Several men fired point-blank at Commissioner Smyth, who rose, but fell dead while endeavoring to reach the door. Mr. Sprague was wounded during the fusillade. Mr. Smyth was the divisional commissioner for the Munster Royal Irish Constabulary.

Smyth was a captain of the 15th Sikhs during the war and won the Victoria Cross. He lost his left arm during the fighting and returned to England with the rank of colonel. He received his commissionership a few months ago.

Speech to Police.

Mr. Smyth's name figured prominently in the House of Commons during the last week in connection with a speech he made to the police at Listowel, County Kerry, June 19, in which it was declared he ordered his men not to be afraid to shoot with effect. He had just returned to Ireland from London, where he gave the Irish office an explanation in regard to affairs in Ireland.

An inquest will be held tomorrow if jurors can be obtained to serve.

No arrests have been made in connection with the killing of Mr. Smyth. People passing the club at the time had no idea that a tragedy was being enacted inside. It was over in a few minutes. A moving picture show adjacent to the club was closing when the shooting occurred, and the murderers mingled with the crowd and escaped.

Another Account.

Another account of the shooting of Commissioner Smyth says that on entering the smoking room one of the assassins exclaimed: "Where is he?" Then turning to the victim he said: "Were not your orders to shoot at sight? Well, you are in sight, so prepare." Whereupon three shots were fired.

Smyth staggered and rushed toward the assailants, only to be met by another volley. He fell against the wall, and, seeing that their object had been accomplished, the assassins left the room.

Inspector Sprague was struck by a bullet which glanced off the wall.

HOLD-UP IN NORTH.

BELFAST, Ireland, July 17.—One of the most significant hold-ups of a mail train occurred shortly after last midnight, when 100 men stopped and ransacked at Donaghmore a mail train running from Dublin and Belfast to Londonderry.

The trainmen were lined up on the right-of-way and covered with pistols while the mails were rifled. While these hold-ups are becoming common in the south of Ireland, they are less frequent in the north, where the loyalist population appears more interested in assisting the military and police in arresting the perpetrators of hold-ups.

SOLDIERS KILLS VETERAN.

BELFAST, July 18.—A former soldier was bayonetted and killed by the military here today.

The man's name was John Burke. He was employed in a local chemical works. On the wall above the spot where he died the following was written:

SPRACKLIN TO REPEAT CHARGE TO SANDWICH COUNCIL MONDAY NIGHT

Will Be Supported By Rev. J. Cockburn and Deputation of Citizens.

WINDSOR, July 18.—Supported by the Rev. John Coburn, who has conducted a thorough investigation into conditions prevailing in connection with the liquor traffic in the border cities on behalf of the temperance reform deparment of the Methodist Church of Canada, the Border Ministerial Association and a large delegation of citizens, Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, pastor of the Sandwich Methodist Church, will make his charge of conditions in Sandwich to the town council Monday night.

Took No Action.

Following his sensational revelations some weeks ago of the bold and open manner in which liquor was alleged to have been sold in various places in Sandwich, the drunken men and women who become intoxicated in roadhouses near and in that town, the seeming disinterest of the police department and its negligence of duty, and the smuggling of liquor permitted to go on between Sandwich and Detroit; a probe was promised by Mayor Donnelly and the members of the council, who later backed down on their decision and demanded that the charges be placed in writing.

Threatened With Libel.

In the meantime threats of libel proceedings were made against the minister by Beverly Trumble, proprietor of the Chappell House, and Alois Masters, 83-year-old chief of police of the county town, who, Spracklin declared, has been sitting on the front veranda of the Chappell House while drunken men and women staggered out of the building and fell over him.

Will Demand Probe.

Monday night's session of the council promises to eclipse anything of the nature in the history of the town, and the delegation, representing considerable weight in public sentiment, will demand an immediate and thorough probe into the situation.

He tried to swim to the bank, but was carried rapidly down below the lower bridge, where he disappeared just after having waved his hand to the people on the bank watching the tragedy.

In an effort to save the man a row boat was launched from the Canadian shore, but when he was carried out into dangerous water by the current the attempt had to be given up.

A healthy body means healthy arteries. The railways are the arteries of Canada

IN the operation of railways Canadians hold high reputations.

The chief Canadian systems are operated over great stretches of territory presenting widely different problems.

Their traffic obligations fluctuate rapidly with the seasons.

Climatic conditions are sometimes difficult. Unusual foresight, skill and determination are called for.

Yet the only unfailing highways for the heavy traffic across the New World from China to France during the war—were Canadian railways.

Canada alone among the allied countries had no war-time transportation crisis. When foreign roads choked under their loads she relieved them of millions of tons. At a time when ships were the need of the hour no ship lost time in any Canadian port through failure of the railways to deliver cargoes at the docks.

To-day the Canadian producer still commands the fastest, the most dependable and the cheapest railway service in the world.

But the foresight that made this record possible could do nothing without MONEY! The skill that kept terminals uncongested had to be backed with MONEY! The determination that drove crippled engines ahead in the face of 40-below gales and mounting snow would in the long run have been useless without MONEY!

Thus to-day the alarming fall in the net revenues of the railways is a menace to railway efficiency. It injures railway credit. It dissolves the reserves needful to meet the expanding needs of a growing country. It imperils national prosperity.

Increased freight rates are imperative therefore, not merely on behalf of railways but in the interests of Canada itself!

In July 1918 the Canadian roads were threatened with a general strike. To prevent this public catastrophe they agreed to follow the American scale of wage increases. The Government of Canada meantime allowed freight rate increases intended to make up the cost of these new wage rates.

Leaving aside all question of increased cost of material, the new wages cost the railways of Canada an extra eighty million dollars for the first year alone.

The new rates yielded them an additional forty-three millions!

The annual deficit on wages alone was thirty-seven millions and is constantly growing!

FARMERS AND LABOR TO UNITE FOR ELECTIONS

Conference Held Between United Farmers and Independent Labor Party.

Executives Have Had Matter Under Consideration For Nine Months.

SARNIA, July 18.—There was a large attendance of delegates from the West Lambton U. F. O. at a joint meeting of the United Farmers and the Independent Labor party of the city, held here on Saturday for the purpose of deciding whether the two parties shall unite forces in the expected Federal elections as they did in the recent provincial election.

The executive of the two organizations have been in conference on the matter on several occasions during the past nine months.

LABOR SCORES KIDNAPPING OF O.B.U. ORGANIZER

Winnipeg Defence Meeting Condemns Police Interference.

WINNIPEG, July 18.—The "kidnapping" of W. Christophers, One Big Union organizer, who three weeks ago was conveyed in an automobile from Beinfait, Sask., to the United States, side of the border and told not to return on pain of being tarred and feathered, was condemned by a mass meeting here this afternoon under the auspices of the Winnipeg Labor Defence Committee.

The meeting passed a resolution condemning the "whole business of the police interfering with the workers' activities and refusing to do their duty in protecting the workers against the tricks of the capitalists."

A special committee was formed to "secure justice for the workers in the Bienfait district." A business agent of the One Big Union reported that in Bienfait, Taylortown and other villages in this district he had been shadowed by mounted and provincial police. He had been forced to hold meetings in the bush. He asserted things had come to a terrible pass when that was the state of affairs in a Canadian district.

F. J. Dixon, M. L. A., was chairman of the meeting.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS PLAN TO TRANSPORT 30,000 TO THE WEST

Manitoba Harvest Will Start Before August 20 Is Expectation.

OTTAWA, July 18.—(By the Canadian Press.)—At an important conference between representatives of the passenger departments of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways and the minister and officials of the department of labor, the question of recruiting and transportation of labor for the western harvest was discussed.

About 40,000 harvesters will be needed and an effort is to be made to recruit 30,000 in the east. It is thought that probably 5,000 harvester hands will be secured in British Columbia, most of whom will be placed in the province of Alberta. It is probable that the first excursion from the east will reach Winnipeg August 10. The Manitoba harvest will start prior to that date, according to the present indications, but the employment service plans to recruit a sufficient number of workers from the local labor supply to meet the demand until the first quota of workers from the east arrives.

CROP PROSPECTS GOOD.

CALGARY, July 18.—The Calgary Herald describing crop conditions existing today says in part:

Correspondents in a large number of centres in Alberta all point to continued satisfactory crop prospects.

Many of the correspondents state that in places where the ground is of a sandy nature there is ample moisture to carry the crops to harvest.

One of the most satisfactory features during the last week has been the absence of any appreciable amount of damage from other causes.

One of the largest hay crops ever raised in the province is now assured. There will be an enormous quantity of green feed.

There is not at the present any dearth of labor, but there is a prospect of a shortage at harvest time.

YOUNGEST SON OF EX-GERMAN KAISER COMMITS SUICIDE

Prince Joachim Kills Himself Because of Financial Troubles.

BERLIN, July 19.—(By Associated Press.)—Prince Joachim of Hohenzollern, youngest son of former Emperor William, committed suicide today in Potsdam.

Joachim is believed to have been in financial straits. He recently was divorced.

BERLIN, July 18.—Later advices say Prince Joachim shot himself Saturday in his residence, the villa Leignitz, Potsdam. He was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he died a few hours later.

Joachim recently had been suffering from great mental depression.

The only member of the former imperial family now in Potsdam is Eitel Frederick, the former emperor's second son.

Prince Joachim was born on December 17, 1890, in Berlin. He served during the late war on both the western and eastern fronts. During the first year of the war he was wounded in the fighting in France. When he recovered he was transferred to the Russian front, where he had several narrow escapes from capture and afterwards suffered a serious illness.

After the defeat of the Germans there were rumors that Emperor William would abdicate in favor of Joachim.

The prince was married in 1916 to Princess Marie Augustine of Anhalt, who then was just 17 years old. A dispatch from Paris early in the present year said Joachim had brought a suit for divorce.

SPECIAL PATROL OF RIVER FRONT ORDERED

Unlighted Small Craft Menace To Traffic, Declares Customs Officer.

WINDSOR, July 18.—A spe[illegible]rol of the riverfront on the Can[illegible]e of the Detroit River has bee[illegible]dered by A. T. Montreuil, collector of customs for the ports of Windsor and Walkerville, following reports to that office that scores of American launches are operating off the Canadian shore without lights, and landing without permission on the Canadian shore.

The crafts, which are alleged to be disregarding the customs regulations, are thought to be engaged in rum-running. Mr. Montreuil, in taking action to stop this proceeding, characterized the small boats and launches so operating as a serious menace to traffic on the river, and declared the licenses of such boats should be promptly taken away. The failure to comply with the act in this respect is a fine of $500 or confiscation of the boat, or both.

Strict vigilance is also being maintained by the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police to aid in the chase of law-evading vessels.

SIMCOE MAN MUST REFUND PRICE FOR FARM, SAYS COURT

Calder Sold 200 Acres To Englishman At Big Profit.

TORONTO, July 18.—John A. Calder of Simcoe, Ont., sold a 200-acre farm in Clarke Township, Durham County, Ont., to Francis Kennedy, a recent arrival from England, for $14,500, of which $10,000 was paid in cash. A few days previously, Calder, according to evidence given in the case, which found its way into court at Osgoode Hall, had bought the farm for $9,225, of which $2,225 was in cash, and the remainder covered by mortgage.

Mr. Justice Lennox found that there had been false representations in connection with the sale, and made an order rescinding the deal and enjoining Calder to return to Kennedy the $10,000 cash paid by the latter, and pay interest on the money from the date of the deal in April last.

In giving judgment, Mr. Justice Lennox said: "It is only one of the many instances of the easy acquisition of British money by the adroit action of a person who ought to have some sympathy with a man who comes to Canada to confront new conditions, as in this case."

Says He Whipped and Kicked Her and Handcuffed Her in Cellar.

The child says that dry bread and a cup of water were left on the cellar steps for her. She was thus ill-treated, she says, because early in the morning she had asked for something to eat. She managed to free herself and was taken charge of by a neighbor.

Farr was arrested Saturday night on a charge of cruelty.

Wheat cutting will be in practically full swing next week. CARVELL TALKS COAL MOVEMENT AT WASHINGTON

Efforts To Avoid Transportation Delays—Conference Continues.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Movement of a winter stock of United States coal to central Canada was considered here yesterday by members of the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada and the United States Interstate Commerce Commission. No decision was reached at the conference, which will be resumed on Monday.

F. B. Carvell, chairman of the board of railway commissioners, and Commissioner McLean are here representing the Canadian side of the question. Discussion yesterday was understood to have centered about plans to prevent transportation delays and the advisability of giving priority in movement to coal shipments.

Prepayment of freight charges on goods shipped into Canada from the United States was also discussed. Because of the adverse exchange rate the Canadian representatives oppose payments in American money at the Canadian end of the haul, as is necessary on through rates. It is believed probable that an effort will be made to divide the through rate, so that the money will be accepted in each country for the portion of the haul made there.

MOVED, NOT BY HATE OF BRITISH, BUT LOVE OF IRELAND--MANNIX

Australian Bishop Given Reception At Madison Square Garden.

NEW YORK, July 18.—A crowd that filled Madison Square Garden to overflowing and required police reserves to handle, tonight took part in a reception tendered Archbishop Daniel Mannix of Melbourne, Australia. The churchman arrived here yesterday on his way to Rome, where he will be received by the Pope.

Prolonged cheering greeted the archbishop as he stepped upon the platform, accompanied by Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes, New York, and Eamon De Valera, president of the Irish Republic.

After a five-minute demonstration in his honor had subsided Archbishop Mannix said:

"Ireland is a small nation, but it has a very long arm. Evidently it reaches to New York and I can assure you that it reaches to Melbourne also.

"It has been delicately suggested that I may not be allowed to land on British soil. I have no intention of landing on British soil. I am going to land on the soil of the Irish Republic.

"You and I are not here because we are enemies of any nation. We are not here by reason of any hate that we bear the British people. We are here from love of Ireland. We are here because we believe in the principles so nobly enunciated by President Wilson and because we want to apply those principles to England and Ireland as well as to Germany and Belgium."

EFFORT TO CONSERVE HELIUM NOW GOING TO WASTE RAPIDLY

Industrial Research Council Makes Appropriation For Purpose.

TORONTO, July 18.—Conservation of helium, which is now going to waste at an estimated rate of one million feet a month, is hoped for by the honorary council of scientific and industrial research, in the research by Prof. J. C. McLellan of the University of Toronto, into the properties of helium to determine its uses in lamps, amplifying valves and high resistances.

In order that Prof. McLennan may carry on his research work, an appropriation of $5,000 has been made.

Helium gas, which is valued at 10c per cubic foot, is found chiefly in the Bow River gas field near Calgary. So far as in known, helium is not found in any other part of the British Empire. It has been found valuable for inflating heavier-than-air craft, and it is proposed to find other uses for it.

ALBERTA FARMERS AGAINST REMOVAL OF WHEAT CONTROL

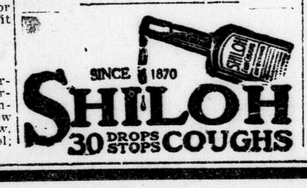

CALGARY, July 18.—The question of the Federal Government not controlling the 1920 wheat crop is rapidly becoming a very live matter with the United Farmers of Alberta. The executive of that organiaztion is now in session, and will fully discuss the situation. H. W. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, stated that a resolution would be adopted by the board which would be forwarded to the Government.

Mr. Wood was very emphatic in his opinion that farmers would not get the full value of their wheat on an open market. There would, he said, be a very large margin in price between producer and consumer.

Again, wheat cannot be handled so economically by open trading as by a centralized buying and selling agency.

SASKATCHEWAN PROTESTS.

REGINA, July 18. — Farmers of Saskatchewan, the leading wheat growing province of the Dominion, are up in arms over the removal of the Canada wheat control board, but as yet their protests have resulted in no further action than strong words. PREDICT GOOD CROPS IN NORTHERN DAKOTA, RESULT OF RAINS

For First Time in Five Years Outlook Is Bright.

Minot, N. D., July 18.—For the first time in five years indications point to good crops in Northwestern North Dakota, according to reports received here by bankers. Heavy rains of the past few weeks have given good impetus to growing grains, and crops are in excellent condition, the reports say.

Corn acreage in the northwestern part of the state, bankers estimate, has been increased 35 to 40 per cent over past seasons, while a large percentage of flax also has been sown.

The labor situation on North Dakota farms has improved greatly, and in the opinion of United States employment officials here will be no lack of labor in the harvest fields. Many inquiries have been received from persons in the east who wish to work on North Dakota farms during the harvest. The usual number of college students are expected to be in the fields; many inquiries have already been received from them. Wages being paid by the farmers now are unusually high.

SYSTEM OF LIGHT RAILWAYS.

The Toronto Globe has the following:

Hydro radials will stimulate agriculture. In Belgium, which has the most highly developed system of light railways in the world, hundreds of thousands of artisans who work in cities and towns live in the country and cultivate gardens.

A system of light railways should be encouraged.

The best light railway in the province, running over a road used as a coach road before there was a railway of any kind in Canada, built without any cost to any of the municipalities through which it ran, and the first railway to use Hydro power, and in a district where very many people who worked in the cities through which it ran lived in the country or villages through which it ran, was put out of business by the hydro-electric. What kind of encouragement was this?

On account of its location, the greater part of the road over which it ran has been taken over as part of the National Highway.

Some day another light hydro railway will be built over the very road destroyed by the hydro-electric. It may take some time, but its necessity and convenience to the people served by it, and its value to the city of London in bringing in more buyers than any other railway entering the city, will some day cause it to be rebuilt. That will in part atone for the heartless crime of its destruction. Would such destruction be caused if the Hydro Commission was a department of government?

THE NEW AMERICAN PARTY.

The Committee of Forty-Eight which has launched a new American political party in the United States, has not started anything that is likely to cause the two great parties much anxiety. The convention which nominated for the presidency was supposed to be made up of liberals and progressives. It turned out, however, that it was the extremists, the Red element, that was represented. The name "Labor-Farmer" is deceptive, as the Labor part of the alliance is made up largely of the outlaw aggregation which is opposed to the American Federation of Labor, and the farmers who participated acted for a very small number of the farmers of the United States. The attempt was made to coalesce a number of separate independent political organizations that have always had their sword out against all other political bodies. They have been intolerant rather than liberal. Such a body lacks the harmony necessary to success.

Above all, the new party is strongly tainted with the direct action, revolutionary ideas that by interference with the nation's war activities during the struggle, and later through industrial strife, so greatly exasperated the American people. This year the mass of American voters will follow one of the two old parties as safely and sanely progressive at an hour when conservatism and caution are most necessary.

ON THE PSYCHOLOGY OF GOSSIP.

The crime par excellence of the present century, according to our contemporary psychologists and moralists, is the crime of being colorless. The greater the complexity of the tendencies which contend for supremacy in the state known as deligeration—when we oscillate between the relative better morality of this and that action—will we have more and more a legitimate claim to the title of moral beings. We do not predicate morality of the animals in that their actions involve no prior deliberation, but are spontaneous, barring the cases of the more highly developed domestic animals who do manifest the disposition to reflection on occasion.

It should be our aim to develop the "maximum of life" or "internal fecundity," as opposed to inner sterility. Those who are of the latter type are designated as colorless. There are some people who are not very good and not very bad, passing through life uncensured, unnoticed and unsung. Browning, the poet, who sang of self-glorification in a life of eternal strife, recognized this truth. The great Jean-Jacques Rousseau wrote: "If man's mind had remained free and pure, what merit would there be to love and follow the order established in the universe and to disturb which would give him no advantage? He would be happy, no doubt, but his happiness would not be of the most sublime kind, which is the glory of virtue and a good conscience."

The individual addicted to gossip is one who dissipates this internal energy on an unworthy object. Their inner mental and emotional fertility requires exercise, so they must needs resort to this superficial means of satisfying the inner demand in lieu of expending their superabundance of soul-force in a life of noble endeavor. In the happy expression of Ella Wheeler Wilcox, it is misdirected force. People who manifest the tendency to gossip about their neighbors, ever seeking to resurrect a scandal, should seek wider interests, and give to their aimless life a goal. Concentration on and devotion to an ideal would permit of no deviation in the form of gossip. The increase of powers should mean an increase of obligations, but the scandal-monger evades the latter. He becomes inebriated by that form of mental indulgence known as gossip.

The gossip is alert, wide-awake, with an active imagination. The fictions of little children, which cannot be deemed moral lies in that the object is not to dissimulate but to express the imaginative faculty, is regarded as the germ of art. The mental state of those who gossip is in some respects analogous to the fictions of children. The gossip then may be the inarticulate artist, who experiences the irresistible craving to express but who has no adequate conception of the mode.

MOTORS AND THE PARK.

It would seem that Victoria Park at least should be free from the menace of motors. Victoria Park, so beautifully set almost in the heart of London, is quite small enough to be traversed on foot by all who wish to explore its beauty. Instead of this quite justifiable restriction, motors, bicycles and motorcycles are allowed to whizz through the winding roads, insolently honking their way with shriek, siren and whistle, desecrating the bird songs, changing the fragrance of the flower-scented air to an odor of gasoline and interrupting the leisurely enjoyment of those who should here, if anywhere, be free to loiter and enjoy the beauties of nature without anxiously hesitating at the roadway's edge to ascertain the whim of the driver of a motor whose very rate of traveling makes it impossible for the occupants to realize that there are beauties of flower, shrub and tree to be enjoyed by those who have not forgotten the art of walking.

MACKENZIE KING'S SPEECH.

(Work for Rockefeller Foundation a great service to labor.)

Let me say, so that there can be no misunderstanding as to the nature of any of the work done, at any time, that all of it was in the nature of assisting in the formation of joint industrial councils, much along the line recommended in the report of the Whitley committee, and which at a conference held in the city of Ottawa last summer between employers and employees, was indorsed as a method of procedure highly in the interests of both capital and labor. It consisted in setting out known and orderly methods of procedure for the adjustment of industrial differences, in the providing of machinery for conciliation and arbitration for the prevention and settlement of industrial controversies; in giving to labor a voice in the determination of its own working and living conditions, and in the framing of joint agreements as to terms of employment, working and living conditions by which rights were specifically defined and to which reference could be made in case of dispute between employer and employees. In every instance there was a provision that nothing in the arrangements come to, or in the agreements made, should deprive any man of the right to belong to any legitimate union. I mention that lest by any chance there might be an endeavor from any quarter to misconstrue anything in that connection.

I have taken the trouble to find the dispatch which appeared in the Chicago papers, and to which reference was made in our own papers, and which I take to be the ground upon which the gentlemen in Montreal had based their reference to a continuing relationship on my part with some American companies. The following is the dispatch as it appears in the Chicago Tribune of February 19, 1920. It is headed: "11,000 Standard Oil Aids Fix Own Pay Rate—Get 11.11 Per Cent Boost and Six-Day Week," and is as follows:

11,000 Standard Oil Aids Fix Own Pay Raise. Get 11.11% Boost and Six-Day Week.

A wage increase of 11.11 per cent for 11,000 refinery workers was announced yesterday by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana. Coincidentally, all shift men go from a seven-day week to a six-day week, a radical change in the company's manufacturing policy. The new schedule becomes effective on March 1, and it applies in refineries at Whiting, Ind., Wood River, Ill., Sugar Creek, Mo., and Caspar and Greybull, Wyo.

What is most significant is the fact that the new wage and hour schedule was worked out by the employees themselves, through the agency of their industrial councils.

Last June, as a step in "democracy in industry," the Standard Oil Company established an employees' council system, drawn up by W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party in Canada. Through joint committees, on which the men and management have equal representation, the workers were given a direct voice in the adjustment of wages and hours.

Work Out Six-Day System.

The process of gasoline manufacture is such that refineries must be operated every hour of the day, every day of the week. Up to 1915, shift workers worked twelve-hour shifts seven days a week. The company in that year put in an eight-hour shift with an increase, giving the men as much pay for eight hours work as they had been getting for twelve. But the seven-day week was continued.

After the industrial council system was adopted, Col. R. W. Stewart, head of the board of directors, asked the employees' councils to work out a scheme that would make a six-day week practicable.

The result is a new schedule, which gives all shift workers 32 consecutive hours off each week. Under the old plan the men worked 56 hours a week; under the new they work 50.4, or a net reduction of 4.6 hours a week. The 11.11 per cent increase in wages makes the pay for six days equal to that received under the old seven-day week.

Others Also Boosted.

A similar increase of 11.11 per cent in hourly wages is also declared for refinery workers other than shift men. Hours are not to be changed, except that men working 44 hours a week may increase it to 48 hours if they wish. This affects common laborers, machinists, blacksmiths, boiler makers and others.

"PILOTS OF THE PURPLE TWILIGHT."

[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

England is arousing itself, as one result of the continuing development of aviation, to a greater and greater use of the air in making rapid exchanges in commerce as a means of affording employments and lowering prices. And increasing evidences along the line of such activities indicate that Tennyson's native land is not so very far away from a full realization of his prophetic lines:

"Saw the heavens fill with commerce, argosies of magic sails, Pilots of the purple twilight, dropping down with costly bales."

CLAY AND CORK FOR INSULATION.

[Indianapolis News.]

A new heat insulating material, composed of a mixture of a special clay and cork, has been discovered by a Norwegian engineer. The clay and cork mixture is burned, and the result is the formation of a very light substance that is said to be eminently suitable for all heat-insulating purposes.

NO ONE SAFE.

[Montreal Gazette.]

It used to be that in the forest, wood choppers, stray cows, wandering anglers, tramps and the like were safe from the rifle of the huntsman during the close season, but now comes news of a tragedy in Nova Scotia. A man with a rifle, perceiving a farmer barking a tree, thought he was a deer and shot him dead. Close season or open, no one is safe from the wild hunter.

Now that Mr. Cox has set the fashion, Democrats all over the United States will resume the long-forgotten practice of kissing their wives first.

CANNING IMPORTANT.

[Hamilton Spectator.]

Despite the high cost of fruits, sugar and vegetables, housewives will make a serious blunder if they curtail activities along the line of home canning. Operators of canning factories frankly declare that the greater costs of products on the farms, transportation expense, higher wages to factory workers, and increased prices of containers make it impossible to keep prices even at present levels. The food situation emphasizes the importance of every housewife canning to the limit of her ability.

"He got it from me," continued Mr. Aylmore. "The handwriting on the scrap of paper is mine, hurriedly scrawled. He wanted legal advice. As I knew very little about lawyers, I told him that if he called on Mr. Breton, Mr. Breton would be able to tell him of a first-class, sharp solicitor. I wrote down Mr. Breton's address for him on a scrap of paper which he tore off a letter that he took from his pocket. By the bye, I observe that when his body was found there was nothing on it in the shape of papers or money. I am quite sure that when I left him he had a lot of gold on him, those diamonds, and breast pocket full of letters."

"Where did you leave him, sir?" asked Spargo. "You left the hotel together, I believe?"

"Yes. We strolled along when we left it. Having once met, we had much to talk of, and it was a fine night. We walked across Waterloo bridge, and very shortly afterward he left me. And that is really all I know. My own impression——" He paused for a moment, and Spargo waited silently.

"My own impression—though I confess it may seem to have no very solid grounds—is that Marbury was decoyed to where he was found, and was robbed and murdered by some person who knew he had valuables on him. There is the fact that he was robbed, at any rate."

"I've a notion," said Breton, diffidently. "Mayn't be worth much, but I've had it, all the same. Some fellow-passenger of Marbury's may have tracked him all day—Middle Temple lane's pretty lonely at night, you know."

No one made any comment upon this suggestion, and on Spargo looking at Mr. Aylmore, the member of parliament rose and glanced at the door.

"Well, that's all I can tell you, Mr. Spargo," he said. "You see, it's not much, after all. Of course there'll be an inquest on Marbury, and I shall have to retell it. But you're welcome to print what I've told you."

Spargo left Breton with his future father-in-law and went away toward Scotland Yard. He and Rathbury had promised to share news—now he had some to communicate.

CHAPTER VIII

The Man From the Safe Deposit.

Spargo found Rathbury sitting alone in a small, somewhat dismal apartment, which was chiefly remarkable for the business-like paucity of its furnishings and its indefinable air of secrecy. There was a plain writing table and a hard chair or two; a map of London, much discolored, on the wall; a few faded photographs of eminent bands in the world of crime, and a similar number of well-thumbed books of reference. The detective himself, when Spargo was shown in to him, was seated at the table, chewing an unlighted cigar, and engaged in the apparently aimless task of drawing hieroglyphics on scraps of paper. He looked up as the journalist entered and held out his hand.

"Well, I congratulate you on what you stuck in the Watchman this morning," he said. "Made extra good reading, I thought. They did right to let you tackle that job. Going straight through with it now, I suppose, Mr. Spargo?"

Spargo dropped into the chair nearest to Rathbury's right hand. He lighted a cigarette, and, having blown out a whiff of smoke, nodded his head in a fashion which indicated that the detective might consider his question answered in the affirmative.

"Look here," he said. "We settled yesterday, didn't we, that you and I are to consider ourselves partners, as it were, in this job? That's all right," he continued, as Rathbury nodded very quietly. "Very well—have you made any further progress?"

Rathbury put his thumbs in the armholes of his waistcoat, and, leaning back in his chair, shook his head.

"Frankly, I haven't," he replied. "Of course there's a lot being done in the usual official routine way. We've men out making various inquiries. We're inquiring about Marbury's voyage to England. All that we know up to now is that he was certainly a passenger on a liner which landed at Southampton, in accordance with what he told those people at the Anglo-Orient, that he left the ship in the usual way, and was understood to take the train to town, as he did. That's all. There's nothing in that. We've cabled to Melbourne for any news of him from there. But I expect little from that."

"All right," said Spargo. "And what are you doing—you, yourself? Because if we're to share facts I must know what my partner's after. Just now you seem to be drawing."

Rathbury laughed.

"Well, to tell you the truth," he said, "when I want to work things out I come into this room—it's quiet, as you see—and I scribble anything on paper while I think. I was figuring on my next step, and——"

"Do you see it?" asked Spargo quickly.

"Well, I want to find the man who went with Marbury into that hotel," replied Rathbury. "It seems to me——"

Spargo wagged his finger at his fellow-contriver.

"I've found him," he said. "That's what I wrote that article for—to find him. I knew it would find him. I've never had any training in your sort of work, but I knew that article would get him. And it has got him."

Rathbury accorded the journalist a look of admiration.

"Good!" he said. "And who is he?"

"I'll tell you the story," answered Spargo, "and in a summary. This morning a man named Webster, a farmer, a visitor to London, came to me at the office, and said that being at the House of Commons last night he witnessed a meeting between Marbury and a man who was evidently a member of parliament, and saw them go away together. I showed him an album of photographs of the present members, and he immediately recognized the portrait of one of them as the man in question. I thereupon took the portrait to the Anglo-Orient Hotel; Mrs. Walters also at once recognized it as that of the man who came to the hotel with Marbury, stopped with him a while in his room, and left with him. The man is Mr. Stephen Aylmore, the member for Brookminster."

Rathbury expressed his feelings in a sharp whistle. "I know him!" he said. "Of course—I remember Mrs. Walters' description now. But his is a familiar type—tall, grey-bearded, well-dressed. Um!—well, we'll have to see Mr. Aylmore at once."

"I've seen him," said Spargo. "Naturally! For, you see, Mrs. Walters gave me a bit more evidence. This morning they found a loose diamond on the floor of number twenty, and after it was found the waiter who took the drinks up to Marbury and his guest that night remembered that when he entered the room the two gentlemen were looking at a paper full of similar objects. So then I went on to see Mr. Aylmore. You know young Breton, the barrister?—you met him with me, you remember?"

"The young fellow whose name and address were found on Marbury," replied Rathbury. "I remember."

"Breton is engaged to Aylmore's daughter," continued Spargo. "Breton took me to Aylmore's club, and Aylmore gives a plain, straightforword account of the matter, which he granted me leave to print. It clears up a lot of things. Aylmore knew Marbury over twenty years ago. He lost sight of him. They met accidentally in the lobby of the House on the evening preceding the murder. Marbury told him that he wanted his advice about those rare things, Australian diamonds. He went back with him to his hotel and spent a while with him; then they walked out together as far as Waterloo bridge, where Aylmore left him and went home. Further, the scrap of grey paper is accounted for. Marbury wanted the address of a smart solicitor; Aylmore didn't know of one, but told Marbury that if he called on young Breton he'd know, and would put him in the way to find one. Aylmore wrote Breton's address down. That's Aylmore's story. But it's got an important addition. Aylmore says that when he left Marbury, Marbury had on him a quantity of those diamonds in a wash-leather bag, a lot of gold, and a breast pocket full of letters and papers. Now, there was nothing on him when he was found dead in Middle Temple lane."

Spargo stopped and lighted a fresh cigarette.

"That's all I know," he said. "What do you make of it?"

Rathbury leaned back in his chair in his apparently favorite attitude, and stared hard at the dusty ceiling above him.

Poetry and Jest

WASHED OUT.

[London Sunday Pictorial.]

In opposing mixed bathing, Councillor Donald Clark of Tonbridge, says no woman, however beautiful, can stand the test of appearing in a damp and bedraggled condition:

Phyllis of the wavy tresses,
Sunny smile and eyes of blue,
Dainty hats and pretty dresses,
Can it be that this is you?
Is this damp, dishevelled, spluttering,
Dripping, shivering, blue-nosed fright
She to whom I late was uttering
Words of love, enraptured quite?
Phyllis, our romance is shattered—
My avowals I revoke;
Paddling might not much have mattered,
But my love won't stand a soak.

PATIENCE.

"Is your boy Josh patient and persevering?"

"In some respects," replied Farmer Corntossel. "He stands in fine for an hour, if necessary, to buy a ticket to a picture show."

WHEN I REMEMBER YOU.

[Kevin Logue, in The Bookman.]

When I remember you there falls
A silence in my mind,
As after gusty intervals
Settles the weary wind,
And a far voice in the stillness calls,
Silver, and very kind.

Then I give over matching words
Against an old despair,
And I know the sky would fill with birds,
With song would fill the air,
If you could see the broken shreds
Of the life I yet must bear.

You did not shatter it, but I
Broke it into my hands;
Wherefore my sky is a silent sky
And all lands twilight lands;
Of pride that towered as heaven high
There is not one wall stands.

AN EXPERT SILENCED.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.]

"I notice you powder your nose several times per hour," said the efficiency expert.

"I do," admitted the pretty stenographer, "but I don't go around poking it into other people's business."

UNSHACKLED THOUGHTS ON CHIVALRY, ETC.

[Franklin P. Adams.]

Yesterday afternoon, while I was Walking on Worth street,
A gust of wind blew my hat off.
I swore, petulantly, but somewhat noisily,
A young woman had been near, walking behind me;
She must have heard me, I thought.
And I was ashamed, and embarrassedly sorry.
So I said to her: "If you heard me, I beg your pardon."
But she gave me a frightened look
And ran across the street,
Seeking a policeman.
So I thought, why waste five hours trying to versify the incident?
Vers libre would serve her right.

IT WORKED.

[Pearson's Weekly.]

"And you broke off the engagement?" said one young man.

"Yes, not brutally, you know. But I managed it."

"How?"

"Told her what my salary is."

AN OLD-FASHIONED GARDEN.

[Julia C. R. Dorr.]

An old-fashioned garden? Yes, my dear,
No doubt it is. I was thinking here,
Only today, as I sat in the sun,
How fair was the scene I looked upon;
Yet wondered still, with a vague surprise.
How it might look to other eyes.

So quiet it is, so cool and still,
In the green retreat of the shady hill!
And you scarce can tell, as you look within,
Where the garden ends and the woods begin.
But here, where we stand, what a blaze of light,
What a wealth of color, makes glad the sight!

Red roses burn in the morning glow;
White roses proffer their cups of snow;
In scarlet and crimson and cloth of gold
The zinnias flaunt, and the marigold;
And stately and tall the lilies stand,
Like vestal virgins, on either hand.

Here gay sweet peas, like butterflies,
Flutter and dance under summer skies;
Blue violets here in the shade are set,
With a border of fragrant mignonette;
And here are pansies and columbine,
And the burning stars of the cypress vine.

Stately hollyhocks, row on row,
Golden sunflowers, all aglow,
Scarlet poppies and larkspurs blue,
Asters of every shade and hue;
And over the wall like a trail of fire
The red nasturtium climbs higher and higher.

ONE THING CERTAIN.

[Saskatoon Phoenix.]

Henri Bourassa says that the Meighen ministry will get no support in Quebec. We would not like to go that far, but we are sure that nine provinces of the Dominion will give it a minority vote.

SEVEN LIGHTS.

[Aileen Ward.]

At eventime there comes to me
A vision, and when shadows come,
It seems to let me clearly see
A row of lights: I count each one.

The lamp of Sacrifice is lit,
And by it stands the light of Truth;
The lamp of Power is next to it,
And Beauty next in line, forsooth.

The lamp of Life near Beauty stands,
And sheds its rays of noble gleams;
And Valor kneels to touch the hands
Of Recompense: O dust of dreams!

The light Obedience shines bright:
It leads afar—its beams are true,
It beckons on, by day and night,
Just as it beckoned, dear, to you,

Bright are these lights that constant shine;
Each night the vision fair I see;
But brightest of the lighted line,
The last calm lamp—fond Memory.

BLAME IT ON THE EDITOR.

Bringing with him an electric atmosphere, the man strode into the newspaper office and banged his stick on the counter. "Where's the editor?" he shouted angrily. "He's—he's out!" replied the clerk nervously. "What's he done this time?" "In that advertisement for my valveless motor," stormed the visitor, "he's turned the second 'v' into a 'u'!"

IN LOVE'S GARDEN

[Frank L. Stanton.]

This is the oldtime garden, still fair as fair can be,
Where Jenny, of the bright eyes, had the sweetest smile for me;
The same sweet walks and places, although long years have gone, Since in the starlight at the gate she pinned the violets on.

Lives, they may sever,
Nevermore to meet,
But love lives forever,
And Memory is sweet.

The twilight bells are ringing even now
across the hills,
And still I hear the calling of the hidden whippoorwills:
They're singing now as sweetly as in the Maytime lands
Where once we knew the first sweet joy that comes of holding hands.

Lives they may sever,
But hearts faithful beat;
Love lives forever,
And Memory is sweet.

Oh, days that passed in music, you come with light again,
And in our hearts the love dwells while eyes are dimmed with rain:
And memories, like roses, still in our pathway throng,
And sorrow for a lost dream is tender-
sweet with song.

Lives, they may sever,

Miss Dorothy Watson is enjoying a holiday at Port Stanley.

Miss Edna Elcoat of New York City is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Corbett, Tecumseh avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tanton have returned to the city after a delightful holiday in Muskoka.

Mrs. T. W. Collister, Ardagh Apartments, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Charles Forrester at "The Nook," Erie Rest, Port Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Carter and daughter Marjorie, Toronto, are spending a few days in the city, the guests of Mrs. F. C. Wanless, Byron avenue.

Mr. Chester Clarke, manager of the Prince George Hotel, Toronto, has returned to that city after spending two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Clarke, Wharncliffe road.

The engagement is announced of Miss May Anderson Fraser, B.A., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fraser, Dalkeith, Ont., to Dr. W. H. McMillan, B.A. (late captain with C. A. M. C. in France), eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus McMillan, Blenheim, Ont. The marriage will take place the latter part of July.

The garden tea held on the Western University grounds for the summer school on Friday afternoon last, was one of the most delightful functions of the year. The tables, prettily decorated with daisies and delphiniums, in the purple and white colors of the university, were set out close to the bank overlooking the river. Mrs. Crane and Mrs. Neville presided over the tea and coffee urns, while Mrs. Louise Wood cut the ices. Miss Marjorie Ross was responsible for the table decorations.

Tea followed a hike to the new university site in the north of the city, while the evening was of a literary nature, Dr. Durham and Dr. Hart giving readings; Miss Sullivan, Miss Seighon and Mrs. Holmes musical numbers. A dance brought this very enjoyable day to a close.

WILKER—GLEESON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gleeson of Claremont, Ont., was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their youngest daughter, Margaret, became the bride of Mr. Milton J. Wilker of Tavistock. Miss Minnie Gleeson acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. B. Gleeson assisted the groom. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. Timbert of Claremont in the presence of about thirty of the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom, including guests from Fort William, Buffalo, Toronto, Tavistock, Oshawa, Uxbridge and Claremont. The bride looked charming as she was escorted on the arm of her father, gowned in white charmeuse, and carrying a shower bouquet of cream roses. Her traveling suit was navy blue serge, with hat to match. The gift of the groom to the bride was a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a gold necklace set in pearls, and a pearl tie to the groomsman. Following the supper the couple motored to Toronto. From there they will take an extended trip to Kingston, the Thousand Islands and other points both east and west. On returning Mr. and Mrs. Wilker will reside in Claremont, where for some years Mr. Wilker has been principal of the continuation school.

WARREN—ATKIN.

A very pleasant event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Atkin, Springfield, on Wednesday afternoon, when their youngest daughter, Martha Louise, became the wife of J. Earl Warren, of Harrietsville. At the appointed time the bride entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, and took her place beside the groom, in front of a beautifully arranged bank of ferns, flowers and maple leaves. The bridal couple were unattended. Miss Clara Lindsay, of Aylmer, played the wedding music, while the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Barnby, the bride's pastor.

The bride looked very sweet in her wedding gown of Alice blue georgette, trimmed with satin and pearls. After the ceremony the company sat down to a dainty lunch, at which four girl friends of the bride assisted, Misses Florence Newell, Leah Winter, Mary McNeil and Olive Nesbitt. The bride was the recipient of many very beautiful gifts, the groom's present being a diamond pendant. To the pianist he gave a handsome brooch.

The happy couple motored to Ingersoll and took the train for St. Lawrence and Thousand Islands. The bride's going-away costume was of sand Jersey cloth with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warren will be at home at Harrietsville after August 1. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Morris of Putnam, Mr. I. Warren, Mrs. C. B. Atkin and Capt. Isaac Atkin of Montreal.

HOME ECONOMICS

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

THE NURSERY OR ITS EQUIVALENT.

"And where is the nursery?" was the first question asked in our house by the visiting English boy, with his clear, soft voice and pretty English speech. Most Canadian homes have no nursery. We are accustomed to complain humorously that our whole houses belong to our children, but I often wonder whether our children might not complain, without humor, that they have no place of their own.

Modern study shows that a child is so different from an adult—that his needs are really different, not just smaller needs of the same kind. He needs different furniture, different food, different pleasures, different discipline, and different companionship. The best way to assure him these things is to give him a place of his own, where he may have them—a room, if possible; if not, part of a room, or at very least, a desk or box where he may keep his own property and know the joy of real ownership, unchallenged and undisturbed.

The problem of domestic service does not permit us to have such an organized system for our children as the nursery system has come to be in England, and if it did, we should not wish it. But adapted to our ideals and conditions, the root idea of the nursery, not as a means of getting children out of the way, but as a recognition of their right to a place and things of their own in the house, is of very great value.

A child's pride of possession can be used to teach him respect for other people's things, and generosity. Nobody can know how dear other people's things are to them, except through his knowledge of how dear his own are to him. Nobody can learn to give until he is aware that he has something. You will find that the nursery or its equivalent is an excellent basis for training children to respect their own and other people's possessions, and that is a long step in social training.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

ALTHEA.

One of the most confusing names in feminine nomenclature is Althea. Extraordinarily beautiful, and belonging absolutely to the aristocracy, it is constantly jostled and confused by a host of other names. Althea, be is said, is an individual. The name means "wholesome," and not "true," as is generally believed. The latter significance is generally given because it is confused with Alathea, sometimes known as Letty.

The real Althea, which comes from the Greek word meaning healthy or wholesome, belonged in ancient times to the unfortunate mother of Meleager. It persisted as a feminine name in ancient Greece, but is now more often used to designate a genus of mallows, or, rather, to allude to their healing power.

It comes to us through literary channels, and maintains its somewhat isolated state, never having descended to anything like common usage.

As Althea is a rare name, so is her talismanic gem, the star sapphire. It is a jewel which promises her great achievement along artistic lines and protects her from evil. Saturday is her lucky day, and 5 her lucky number.

OUTDOOR ACCIDENTS, HOW TO TREAT THEM

Children Are Constantly Getting Bitten in Summer Time.

If the baby is stung by an insect like a bee or wasp, very often the little sting of the insect may be seen still in the wound; if so, it should be pulled out with a pair of small tweezers, and then either water or ammonia or spirits of camphor should be applied, and after this a cold, wet compress should be bound around the part to prevent swelling. Either two tablespoonfuls of alcohol and four tablespoonfuls of ice water or plain witch hazel may be used for the cold compress.

A soft handkerchief or a little pad of gauze is dipped in the solution and laid over the wound, being changed every few minutes for the first hour in order to keep it cold. Later it may be bound over the place and changed every hour or two. If nothing else is at hand mud may be used until the child can be taken home and the more cleanly treatment begun.

Mosquito Bites.

Mosquito bites may be treated in much the same way as bites of larger insects, the ammonia water or spirits of camphor being used as above. Bathing the bites with bicarbonate of soda water or with witch hazel will also help to prevent excessive itching.

Dog bites are much more dangerous, but not every dog that bites has hydrophobia. The dog that has bitten the child must be kept chained and under close observation until it can be decided whether the dog is mad or not.

The wound should be very thoroughly pressed out under warm water, and allowed to bleed well, or else it may have to be sucked out and a cold, wet compress applied. If the dog is mad without a doubt, then the wound must be quickly cauterized with a red-hot iron or with some strong acid like carbolic acid. The proper serum treatment must then be given by a physician.

Bites of other small animals like cats or rats may be treated the same as dog bites.

Snake Bites.

If the bite is from a snake the above treatment may be tried, but if the snake is known to be a venomous one a strong cord should be tied around the limb above the bite to keep the poison from entering the general circulation until a doctor can be reached. Stimulants are sometimes needed also in the case of snake bites. Twenty grains of permanganate of potash to each ounce of water should be used as a wash for the snake-bite wound.

If the child cuts his foot or hand on a sharp shell, or runs a rusty nail into some part, the wound should be squeezed well under warm water and allowed to bleed considerably, then washed out with a solution of bichloride of mercury 1-5000, or with alcohol, and then painted with iodine and bound up to prevent dirt from getting into the wound. If neglected, tetanus—or lockjaw—may result from a wound of this kind.

Poisonous Weeds.

There are many berries, weeds, mushrooms and similar growths in the woods that are more or less poisonous; if a child eats any of these things the first thing to do is to try to empty the stomach as quickly as possible. An emetic will be needed and the one most likely to be at hand is common salt. A glass of warm water should have in it as much salt as it will dissolve; this should be given the child and will often cause vomiting. If not, try any of the following: Half a teaspoonful of powdered alum stirred into some syrup or molasses; a teaspoonful of mustard mixed up in two glasses of lukewarm water; or one teaspoonful of syrup of ipecac, which may be repeated every fifteen minutes until vomiting takes place.

The stomach must be emptied in any case; then tannic acid may be given, in the form of very strong tea, if not at hand otherwise. If there is much prostration, stimulant—as hot tea or strong coffee—may be needed.

Poisonous Mushrooms.

If a certain species of poisonous mushroom has been eaten, and this happens to be known, atropine is a specific. The mother will not be able to get the drugs needed, but she may begin the right treatment at once by giving the emetic and the hot tea or coffee until a doctor can be procured to attend to the child.

Young children playing on the beach sometimes put small pebbles up the nose and the mother is at a loss to know how to get these down. First try compressing one side of the nose while the child blows hard on the side in which the stone is located. Then try tickling the nose with a feather, so that the child will sneeze. If this does not bring the stone out; then try letting the child smell of a little pepper, which will usually bring a good sneeze and dislodge the stone. When all these remedies fail do not attempt to dislodge the stone with a hairpin or some other article, as you will be more apt to get it farther up, but take the child at once to the nearest doctor.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

A song in the heart is worth two in the book.—Arthur Stringer.

Scalloped Veal and Corn.

One cup cold cooked veal, 2 tablespoons butter or substitute, salt and pepper, 1 cup sweet corn, 1½ cups sweet milk, 3 tablespoons flour, stale breadcrumbs.

Place the butter in a double boiler and when melted blend in the flour; pour the milk on gradually while stirring and continue stirring until smooth and thick. Season well with salt and pepper, then stir in the corn. To one-half of this mixture add the chopped meat. Place a layer of bread-crumbs in the bottom of a baking-dish, place over this some of the remaining white stock, then the corn-and-meat mixture. Cover with the remaining white sauce and bread-crumbs. Dot with a little butter and bake in a hot oven until brown.

Breakfast Bacon with Catchup Gravy.

Thin slices of bacon, 1-3 cup tomato catchup, 1 small onion.

Pan broil the bacon until crisp, and place on a hot platter. To the fat in the pan add the minced onion and fry until brown, then add the catchup. Heat and pour over the meat.

Pork and Corn Chowder.

One-half pound salt pork, two large potatoes, one cup milk or stock, one can corn, two onions, salt and pepper.

Cut the pork up into bits and fry a nice brown, then add the chopped onions, the potatoes peeled and cut into dice. Cover with boiling water and cook until the meat and potatoes are nearly tender, then add the canned sweet corn (canned peas may be substituted for the corn) and the milk; cook ten minutes longer. Place a few crackers in a dish, pour the chowder over them and serve hot.

Casserole Hash.

Two cups left-over meat, one cup chopped carrots, milk and fat, one cup chopped potato, three onions (chopped), salt and pepper.

The meat as well as the vegetables should be run through the food-chopper; mix the ingredients thoroughly together, season well with salt and pepper and a little chopped parsley, if you like. Place in a baking dish or casserole, pour over about a cup of milk. Cover with breadcrumbs with a little shredded suet. Cover and bake for one hour or more in a slow oven. A cup of raw chopped steak may be used instead of the left-over meat, and stock may be used instead of milk. Serve hot with pickles.

Mexican Con Carne.

One pound beans, 1 quart tomatoes, two large onions, salt, pepper and chilli powder, one-half pound steak or sausage, one-sixth pound of suet, one sweet pepper, one cup soup-stock.

Soak the beans overnight, and boil until tender, then add the suet, meat (chopped) and the onion. These can all be run through the food-chopper; then add the beans, the tomatoes and the stock and the seasoning. Simmer together for about twenty minutes and serve hot. The sweet pepper should be chopped and added to the other ingredients.

VERANDA CHATS.

A dime for C. H. F. and will you please forward the inclosed letter to "Isabel?" Thanking you sincerely.

PATRIOTIC.

Ans.—Letter forwarded. Thanks for dime for fund.

Yes, here comes bookworm again! Who brought me this time? "Summer Breeze," of course. So, if I'm real good I can stay till evening. How nice!

Now, "Summer Breeze," push over in that hammock, there that's comfy. You know I'm not very big north and south, but when it comes to east and west—well. Sure, I'm willin' to correspond wid ye, and Cynthia, like the dear she is, will send you my address.

I don't believe I'll talk books this time. It's much too warm. Suffice it to say I've read "oodles" of 'em since I last called.

Now, Cynthia, what would you do with a child like me, who isn't musical and therefore feels rather stupid at gatherings? Of course, if books are mentioned, it is all right then.

Is our Ura Kidd on a vacation or why her long silence? Come along, my dear. We miss your gentle voice. I must fade away, so good-night, the same, PEGGY MAC.

Ans.—Your address is off to Summer Breeze, Peggy Mac. I am sure you will prove to be kindred spirits. Learn the appreciated part of a good listener at musical gathering. Don't feel stupid, just remember you have a wealth of material to draw from for conversations, and where possible interest your friends in book talk, which I am quite sure you could do without being considered a "high-brow."

Inclosed find 10 cents for the hospital fund. Please send me the stocking-foot pattern. MRS. E. G.

Mount Brydges.

Ans.—Pattern mailed. Thanks for hospital dime.

I noticed my request in the Mail-Box for a cure on asthma had been sent off to Mrs. Home-at-Times, but up to the present I have not heard from her. Perhaps my self-addressed envelope went astray. So here goes another, so kindly forward this on. Miss Grey. Some time ago I saw someone was needing a recipe for Fudge cake. This has been well tested by many.

Fudge Cake.

One cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cocoa, ¼ cup butter, 1 egg, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, ½ cup sour milk, 1½ cups flour, ¼ cup boiling water, vanilla flavoring.

ONE OF MANY ENGLISH WAR BRIDES.

P. S.—Inclosed ten cents for C. H. F.

Ans.—Thank you for dime for fund and for recipe. Have forwarded your request again to Mrs. Home-at-Times.

I am an interested reader of your page and receive a great deal of help from it.

I saw where a grandmother wanted a cure for dropsy. I will send her one, which I think is good, as I have used it.

Cure for Dropsy—One teacupful of milkweed root, steeped in a pint of hot water, 1 teacupful of juniper berries (pound them in a cloth and steep in a pint of hot water). Strain, put all together with a pint of gin. Shake well and take a wineglassful three times a day, or as much as will act on the kidneys freely.

I am sending you 25 cents for the Sick Children's Hospital. I wonder if any of the Mail-Box could send me the words of the old song, "The Stone That Keeps Rolling Will Gather No Moss."

Wishing the Mail-Box every success and hope my letter is not too long, I will send a stamped envelope with my address.

ANOTHER GRANDMOTHER.

Ans.—I am pleased to have on hand the song you wanted, which was sent in some time ago from Mum, and which I have pleasure in sending to you. Thank you for the contribution to the hospital fund and for the recipe for dropsy, . . . is very interesting to get a letter fi . . so far away. Please write to us again.

Requests.

As I am a new member to your page, I will only say a few words. I would like to correspond with someone about 12 years old. Hoping to see this in print I will close, DAFFODIL.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been reading your column for some time, and have been very much interested, besides gaining some useful information. I read where one of the circle was offering some crocheting work for sale, so thought perhaps I might dispose of some yokes, suitable for either corset covers or nightgowns.

I am so confident of success that I am sending stamp for reply. Hoping to hear from you soon, SHAMROCK.

Ans.—I am putting your letter in the Mail-Box, Shamrock, but it must be the last of its kind to appear. Much as we should like to accommodate readers in this way it has been found an impossibility to encourage commercializing our columns, as it savors of advertising. I am sorry, but I am sure we shall have the co-operation and understanding of all the Mail-Box readers and contributors in this matter.

From Mutt and Jeff.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to your Mail-Box, and hope to see it published. Like all the others, I am coming for help. Would you please send me the stocking-foot pattern? My twin brother, Mutt, intends to write also. I will sign my name, JEFF.

Dear Cynthia,—This being my first letter to the Mail-Box I will not write much. Please send me that much demanded "S. F. P." You can tell by my writing that I am Jeff's brother, MUTT.

A Chain of Prayer.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to your Mail-Box and I hope it will not be much trouble to you. I find your page very interesting. I would like your opinion of "The Endless Chain of Prayer." I received a letter today, and this is how it read: "The Endless Chain of Prayer: 'Lord, bless our soldier and sailor boys and keep them in the hollow of Thy hand.' This was sent to me and has been around the world. Copy it and send to seven friends and see what will happen. It is said all who write it will be taken care of, and all who pass it by will meet a misfortune. Start on the day you receive it and you will meet with some great joy. Please do not break the chain. It is said to be originated in the field of Flanders."

Now, Miss Grey, what do you think of it. There was no name signed. I have no faith in it, and do not intend to copy it. Do you think I will meet with any misfortune? Hoping to see this in print, also the opinion of others, I will sign myself BROOKITE.

Ans.—I believe, Brookite, that "more things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of," and that, as Ralph Connor's Sky Pilot told the cowboys, "Men can't live without Christ and be men." I think there is nothing too small to pray about, and I cannot understand how one can go through the most joyous or the saddest hours of life, or the needs of every day, without prayer; nevertheless, I am quite sure that your failure to continue the chain letters will bring to you no misfortune. Prayer is not prompted by fear, but by reverence and love, let us hope.

TALKS ON HEALTH

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is inclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

The Second Summer Bugaboo.

"And as this is his second summer," writes one novice mother, "should I dress him warmly? . . . He is cutting his back teeth . . ."

Another amateur writes: "Kindly inform me what would be the best diet for a sixteen-months-old baby, cutting teeth, and entering upon his second summer."

It would be anomalous if a baby of that age, or in fact any age from six or eight months upward, were not cutting teeth. Most of us are engaged in the physiological business of cutting teeth from the age of six months or thereabouts up to twenty-four years or thereabouts. But we endeavor to explain any ill-health or sickness we happen to have in that period as in some way associated with the physiological business only when we happen to be under the sway of some unenlightened neighbor or untutored nurse.

In recent years the baby specialists who devote their spare time to writing pamphlets and books on "How To Keep the Baby," have been slowly but surely eliminating the antique ideas about the second summer and cutting teeth and all that superstitious sort of thing.

Cutting teeth is not a disease. It is a normal function. It no more accounts for disturbance of health than does growing. If "growing pains" are a reality, then something ought to be done to stop babies from six months to twenty-four years of age from cutting teeth. It is certainly scandalous the way they keep doing that. Cutting teeth, as a pathological myth, ought to be carefully laid away in cotton wool on the same shelf in the museum of medical antiquities that holds the ancient delusion about change of life or age as an explanation for ill-health. There is no disease condition which a child may be truly said to "outgrow," but the world has about outgrown these childish notions, now that the nostrum monger's almanac is no longer taken seriously by sensible folk.

An infant's second summer is of course less difficult for him than his first summer was. He can endure more of unintelligent care now; his food is more likely to approach reasonable requirements; his own activity assures him better air than he was permitted to have in his first summer; his peregrinations cover him with more of visible dirt which calls for more bathing, and there is nothing like a bath a couple of times a day in hot weather to keep a feller fit.

If infants of an earlier day suffered in the second summer it was because by that time they were off the breast and on the bottle, and everyone must admit that what our grandmothers didn't know about the preparation and care of an infant's food was a bookful. If baby's chance to survive the second year in grandma's day was just about one-third as good as it is today, thanks to better knowledge of the proper handling and preparation of a baby's food today.

Clean pure raw milk should be the mainstay and bulk of the diet in the second summer. Certified milk, if available, by all means; but pasteurized milk if the cleanliness of the supply is in doubt; or boil the milk five minutes before putting it on ice through the hot weather, if it is not vouched for by your health department.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Old Sores.

1. Is it possible for sores of any kind to run into cancer if treatment is neglected? 2. Will sores, if allowed to run, be injurious to general health? 3. Could you give me a formula for a salve that would probably cure a sore of long standing? (Mrs. J. M.)

A.—1. A simple ulcer which remains long unhealed may eventually undergo cancerous degeneration. 2. Neglected ulcers or sores certainly do not benefit health; the mere running or discharge from such a sore in no wise weakens or impairs health. 3. No, because no salve or other remedy is likely to cure all sores. An ulcer must be treated according to its nature—there is no remedy which is advisable for all sores irrespective of their character. Likewise there is no sore, unless it is cancer, which may not be healed by intelligent treatment by a physician. Most of the "running sores" and ulcers of long standing are so merely because no intelligent treatment has been sought; victims are strangely content to trifle with such troubles and seldom seek medical care.

The Simps and Saltpetre.

. . . he has told me of the saltpetre which was used in the food for the soldiers and has asked what I thought of his taking it. . . . he has neither accepted the fellows' advice to "forget his future wife and his notions of the sacredness of his responsibility toward her" nor has he been willing to descend to the sort of thing the medical authorities in the army advocated. . . .

A.—To what army do you refer? Certainly not the American nor the Canadian. You are sadly misinformed. The saltpetre yarn is an imaginary thing told to simpletons by their kind. It was not used in the food for soldiers, and has no effect upon sexual life in any case.

THE PERFORMING DOGS.

Part Six.

Were ever little dogs so excited as the performing dogs were that night! Even old Ching was getting excited, and when a quiet Chinese dog like Ching gets excited there is something unusual in the air. Roderick had thought of the plan, but it was Dandy's wise old head that worked it out. Dandy had told each little dog what he or she was to do when the moment came. They learned their part well and promised to carry it out.

"Now, remember," Dandy gave his final instructions. "Mira is the smallest, so he will start first. Then comes Ching, for he is so big and slow; then Roderick, for he is young and nervous. Then Mimso, then Wiffet, then Tibby, and then me. Tibby and I can come last, because we can run so fast. Remember, there is to be no crowding, but lots of barking and growling." The dogs understood.

Never had Biggs' dogs performed so well as they did that night. Every little dog did his part without a mistake, and they did it so quickly and so willingly that even Biggs was surprised. There would certainly be nothing to punish for that night. But the act was not over. Just at the moment for the last trick with the flag, Mira dashed across the stage; after her was Ching, then followed Roderick, then Mimso, then Wiffet, then Tibby and Dandy together. Down the steps at the side of the stage they went, and down the aisle of the theatre they rushed, barking and growling. Of course, the people in the seats thought that was part of the act, and so did the ushers at the back of the theatre, for they did not close the doors. Out of the open doors rushed the dogs, and they were almost around the corner before Biggs recovered from his surprise, and was able to start after them. When he appeared at the theatre door there was not a dog in sight. They had disappeared into the dark night. For many minutes he whistled and whistled, but no dog returned in answer, and all that night he searched, but no dogs could he find. The performing dogs had started out to escape, and escape they had. We'll follow their adventures in our next story.

Mint Decides To Put Six Umpires On Job At Once

$100 Will Be Levied On Each Club To Look After Extra Expense—Official Scorers To Be Disciplined.

KITCHENER, July 18.—The question of enlarging the staff of umpires was discussed at a meeting of the Michigan-Ontario Baseball League directors here this afternoon.

President George Mains stated that there had been difficulty experienced in most leagues this season in securing umpires, and the difficulties he had met with were no exception to the rule. His recommendation that a staff of six officials be employed was adopted, and an assessment of $100 was levied on each club, payable by July 24, to provide for the extra expense.

President Maines reported that the present vacancies would be filled at an early date.

Hereafter the official scorers will be under the supervision of the league president, and scores not sent in five days after the completion of any series will result in a fine being imposed, or, if necessary, the appointment of another scorer.

The suggestion was made by President Maines for the consideration of the clubs until the annual meeting that the guarantee for next season be increased to $150, of which the league treasury is to receive 15 per cent.

Don De Lopez won in straight heats, beating the big favorite Mignolia in easy fashion.

Two points for a win; one point for a draw.

The Old Timers versus Princess Patricias special fixture was the most enjoyable and emphatically the most amusing game played on Carling Heights this season.

Not being a W. F. A. game, no free fights took place, and both players and spectators enjoyed themselves to a marked degree. Everyone was happy.

The game itself was extraordinary fast; in fact, so fast that it took the referee, Charles Tagg, all his time to keep in touch with the play. He had (owing to war disabilities) to depend on his keen eyesight to keep track of the ball and players.

The referee used a stop watch for the occasion that did not stop running, no doubt owing to the fast play that took place.

That was an exceedingly "lively" action on the referee's part when he tooted his whistle just as the Pats located the net at the finish of the game.

Smith, P. U., between the sticks for the Old Timers, saved the situation times without number for his side.

Sergt. (Sam) Hacking, D. C. M., as right back, played a "clinker" of a game, making "prisoners" of many good shots that were drove in.

Jimmy Green, "Wasps," in the left back position, played his usual brilliant and aggressive game, taking a run down the whole length of the field and nearly scoring.

Jack Lewis, G. T. R., vice-president of the league, as right half, shows some of his old-time "Links" flashes of play.

Whilst Tommy Hodkinson, P. U.'s, as centre half, excelled himself, showing some of his old-time Blackburn football pointers.

Leigh, as left half substitution, for an old warrior in the left half position, though playing well, received many pointers through coming in contact with the old-timers.

Barney Devlin, as outside right, played a remarkable game, driving in some splendid shots and scoring the second goal for his side.

Someone shouted to the Old Timers' inside right (Bissett) to miss it, and he did.

The captain of the team, John Cunliffe, as centre pivot, played up to expectations, scoring from a penalty kick conceded the Old Timers.

When old John scored he jumped in the air just like a young blood, congratulations being afterwards showered on him, there being no bricks handy.

Bob Sims, the league grievance committeeman, an old "Brocher," played a very tricky game in the inside left position.

Whilst Matt Morgan, vice-captain, as outside left, left some of the opposing defence outside at times, there being nothing the matter with Matt on his night's play.

It was not very hard to keep tab on Tagg, who remained stationary throughout the game, and who took special "note" of everything that transpired appertaining to the game.

Lance-Corp. Wallace, in goal for Princess Pats, saved some remarkably clever shots sent in to him.

Capt. Edgar, M. C., and Sergt. ("Shiner") Wright, in the full back position, played their old-time, reliable and forceful game.

Whilst Mitchell, Spiers and Black, as the half back trio, fed their forwards to perfection.

Lance-Corp. Woodward and Bandsman Harber played a clean, fast game.

Lieut. James, as centre forward, worked hard all the way through, nearly putting his arm out at one stage of the game.

Bandsman Sheedy and Wee Madden on the left wing played well together, the former being the "Pats'" goal getter.

All the ladies present, in conjunction with Lieut. Alland the other "Pats" officers present were tickled to death with the game, and as they are desirous of having another one just like it staged in the near future, the league no doubt will accommodate them.

Ball, Great War Vets., Bros. Whitworth and Barrett, P. U.'s, Bramell, Fudge and Asken, "Wasps," were interested spectators.

Richards-Wilcox played their last league game against Great War Vets. last Thursday, forfeiting their Saturday game to Army and Navy Vets., the Great War Vets. winning out by 3—0.

Richards-Wilcox have been very unlucky in the league series, losing many games, owing to injuries and sickness.

We wish them better luck in the cup ties.

Mr. Mitchell, the manager of the team, and their erstwhile secretary and player, Mr. Jewkes, have worked hard for the club's success.

Wallace, their present goalie, who is a great soccer enthusiast, makes a very good custodian.

Collins, another soccer booster, as right back, plays a very consistent back game.

Brock, their left back, late of McClary's and Emma Gees, has broken up many rushes made by opposing forwards.

Laver, one of the very few Canadian players in the league, is improving fast as a right half-back.

Monk and Nixon also work like Trojans, but all three should feed their forwards to a greater extent than they have been doing of late.

Brakley and Jewkes make a splendid right wing.

Shaw, as centre forward, is a good pivot.

Cook, their inside left, who has been picked by the league to play against Sarnia City, August 2, is a remarkably brilliant player, who has been on the injured list lately, but who is, we are glad to state, all right again.

Ball, their outside left, is a robust player, and ▮inces matters right through his team's games.

Messrs. Cunliffe, Morgan, Sims, Bowie and Tagg, the selecting committee chosen to pick the league team against Sarnia City, has selected the following players to represent the league on August 2 (Civic Holiday).

Goal, Whitworth, Public Utilities; right back, Herring, Grand Army Vets; left back, Green, G. T. R.; right half, Whitworth, Public Utilities; centre half, Smith (captain), public utilities; left half, Marshall, Great War Vets; outside right, Haber, Princess Pats; inside right, Lieut. James, Princess Pats; centre forward, Bell, G. T. R.; inside left, Cook, Richards-Wilcox; outside left, Richardson, Great War Vets.

Reserves—Capt. Edgar, M. C., Princess Pats; Askew, G. T. R.; Lownie, G. T. R.

Referee—S. Evans, Strathroy.

The Sarnia aggregation will be selected from the following well-known players: Mr. Millan, J. McNair, P. Fleming, R. Thorpe, A. Crompton, G. Baxter, W. Waller, J. Hobin, W. Hicks, H. Mitchell, J. Brady, T. Willis, A. Swan and T. Weston.

The Sarnia boys are all old country players, with the exception of J. Brady. He is a Canadian of Irish descent, one of the best players the Borderers have.

The Sarnia City team were last year's City League champions, and this year are going strong for honors again.

They have played six games, winning them all, scoring nineten goals to three registered against them.

It will therefore be seen that the Sarnia bunch is a strong aggregation and will take lots of beating.

Charles Green, the Great War Vets' injured player, we are glad to state, is progressing favorably.

Toronto Scottish has sent the league a check for $25 towards the Charles Green fund. Good old Scottish!

The tickets for the great benefit game at Springbank on August 2 are out. Buy one!

Mr. Robert Sims, the league's grievance committeeman, has been elected financial secretary-treasurer, pro tem. Capt. William Bowie, the present treasurer, being due to leave the city for St. John shortly.

The league games for this week are as follows: Army and Navy Vets. vs. Emma Gees on Carling Heights, Monday, July 19, kickoff [illegible] p.m.; referee, Barney Devlin. Tuesday 20, Carling Heights at 6:30, Grand Trunk vs. Grand Army Vets.; Referee McCready. Friday, July 23, Carling Heights, 6:30, Great War Vets vs. Grand Trunk; referee, Sergt. Sam Hacking. This game should prove mighty interesting, as the first game the Great War Vets played in the league competition on May 1, the Wasps, only managed to pull through the game by 1 to 0, and as the result of the game has a great bearing for second honors, the game will be exceedingly interesting and instructive and worth going miles to see. Saturday, July 24, at Springbank Park, the Army and Navy Vets face the Public Utilities; referee, Sergt. McCready.

Tied Up Again.

London Grand Trunk played a great game against St. Thomas Rovers on Carling Heights Saturday night before two thousand enthusiastic soccer fans, this being the replay game in the Senior W. F. A. three-corner tie. The Wasps won a hard and fast game by 1 to 0.

As the first game resulted in a win for St. Thomas Rovers by 1 to 0, the teams are therefore in the same position as when they started. No doubt another game will be arranged to play off the tie in a sudden-death game on neutral grounds.

The Wasps should have won on Saturday, as they had by far the best of the play.

Although we must admit that the St. Thomas Rovers are no slouches at the game.

The Wasps, along with the sporting fraternity present, claimed that the referee, Mr. Farr, St. Thomas, should have given one penalty against the Rovers in the first period, and at least two in the second half for barefaced handling of the ball by the Rovers' players.

The majority present seemed to claim that the second goal Bearchill scored was a legitimate and fair goal, all admitting that Bearchill was at first offside, but was played on sides by the Rovers playing the ball prior to Bearchill scoring.

Of course, the referee's decisions are final, even although they may be farfetched at times, so what's the use?

The Wasps' defence, Garrow, Ganney and Green, were in splendid form Saturday, the former excelling himself between the sticks.

Brown, Potter and Askew, in the half back division, played a clean, clever game.

The Wasps' forwards all played well, their inside right playing a brilliant game.

The league wishes to thank Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore for financial assistance rendered the association.

Public Utilities in the last nine league games played, have won eight and drawn one, defeating Great War Vets. in another game that was ordered replayed.

During the progress of the Richards-Wilcox versus Great War Vets. league game last Thursday, on Carling Heights, a lady spectator picked up a cuff link belonging to one of the players, which she handed over to one of the league's officials, and which the owner can have by getting in touch with the secretary of the league.

Dissatisfied, Lipton Takes Skipper From Challenger's Wheel

Decision To Supplant Capt. William Burton in Cup Race—Designer Nicholson or Capt. Neill Are Likely Choices For Tuesday's Race.

SANDY HOOK, July 18.—Sir Thomas Lipton plans to take Captain William P. Burton from the wheel of the cup challenger, Shamrock IV.

The decision to supplant Captain Burton as skipper of the Lipton sloop was practically reached at a series of conference today of Sir Thomas Lipton, Captain H. L. Garrett, representative of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club on board the Resolute; Charles Nicholson, designer of the Shamrock, and Col. Duncan F. Neill, personal representative of Sir Thomas on board the Shamrock.

When the Lipton 70-footer is found at the starting line for Tuesday's race, either Col. Neill ro Designer Nicholson will probably be in command.

Choice Is Nicholson.

Sir Thomas' choice for skipper of the challenger is Mr. Nicholson, who not only designed but built the Shamrock, as well as is also a yachtsman of ability, as shown in his contests in England. Whether Captain Burton and his wife, who sails on the challenger as the sloop's time-keeper, will remain on board the Shamrock after the wheel has been taken from the Gosport skipper is not known, but the belief on Sir Thomas' steam yacht tonight was that Mr. Burton would not care to sail on the challenger under the circumstances.

The removal of a captain from a cup yacht during the progress of an America's Cup match is believed to be without precedent in the history of cup racing. Sir Thomas would not talk of Captain Burton's removal or any of the circumstances bearing upon it, other than to say tonight, when asked about the last two races, that things were not going as satisfactory as they might. Sir Thomas continued to say that he is more than satisfied with the design and sailing ability of his latest challenger.

Not Going Well.

That things were not going well in the handling of the Shamrock in the last two races was not concealed either on board Sir Thomas Lipton's steam yacht Victoria, where Sir Thomas' associates and friends watched the race, or on the tender Killarney, where officers and crew of the challenger are housed.

The climax in the situation, in which even the crews engaged on scuttlebutt talk nightly after the races, came last night, when the Shamrock lost ground because of changes in headsails during the first leg to windward.

Skipper Adams was complimented on the skill with which he hunted out the vagrant breezes and kept the Resolute moving, while the Shamrock was continually in trouble floundering helplessly in oily soft spots where there was no wind and getting so becalmed that she fell far behind the defender.

Last night after the race Sir Thomas was joking those on board the Shamrock, saying: "Did you really see the Resolute? Could you see her? You must have fine binoculars."

Most Talked Of.

Col. Neill and Designer Nicholson are the most talked of on the Victoria to take the wheel of the Shamrock. Col. Neill is one of the best yachtsmen in England, and was selected to sail the Shamrock in these races when running before the wind. There was a suggestion that Captain Alfred Diaper, skipper of the 23-meter Shamrock, the trial horse for the cup challenger, might be chosen to succeed Captain Burton.

The 23-meter Shamrock lies at her moorings near the challenger in the Horseshoe. If Captain Diaper is selected to pilot the sloop it is within range of possibility that the new skipper may replace some of the crew on Shamrock with sailors taken from the 23-meter boat. Captain Diaper has a well-trained crew which has shown finely in the trial races with the Shamrock off Sandy Hook.

The two cup yachts lay quietly at anchor in the Horseshoe today, and the crews remained at their quarters in their tenders. A smart 18-knot southwester sang in the rigging, causing much lamentation among the sailormen that such wind never seemed to prevail on race days.

CAUSED NO SURPRISE.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The decision of Sir Thomas Lipton to relieve Captain Burton of the challenger Shamrock IV. came as no surprise to those who followed the race yesterday aboard the Irish baronet's chartered steam yacht the Victoria.

While Sir Thomas himself had refused to discuss the events on Saturday and those closest to him were equally silent, it was generally known that part, if not all the poor showing made by the challenger at the first turn buoy had been directly attributed on the Victoria's bridge to mishandling of the big racer.

Sir Thomas was aft on the Victoria when the turn was made and did not come to the bridge until the Resolute was far away on the second leg with her towering sails growing shadowy in the hazy distance. As he came to the rail he asked where the racers were.

"There is the Resolute," replied the officer to whom he spoke, pointing ahead and handing him glasses.

"Where's Shamrock?" demanded the owner without another look at the Resolute.

The officer swung his arm in a great circle. "There," he said, and Sir Thomas with only a brief glance turned to the starboard wing of the bridge and dropped down in his chair. There was every indication of disappointment in his attitude.

A conference between the baronet and his closst friends and yachting experts followed.

INTER-CLUB BALL

In the first game of the second series of the Inter-Club League the Manhattans defeated the Alerts by the score of 7 to 3. The game was played at Port Stanley before a large crowd. Leeds, who pitched for the Alerts, gave his opponents nine hits and six passes, while Thompson allowed eight hits. Outside of his wildness Leeds hurled a good game, striking out 12 men.

ESTELLE WILL BE IN GAME THIS WEEK

BRANTFORD, July 18.—Scout James McGuire of the Detroit Americans will spend next week in Brantford looking over the M.-O. talent. Manager Lee of the Red Sox on Saturday let Pitcher Richardson, secured from Syracuse, go to the Saginaw club. Richardson pitched one game for Brantford and lost a close one. Surplus material necessitated cutting down the roster. Dixie Walker has agreed to report here on August 1, and Tom Estelle, who has been ill with diphtheria, will be in the game again this week.

EXETER AGAIN DEFENDS MINTEE TROPHY.

The London Thistles journeyed to Exeter last Thursday in an attempt to lift the Mintee Trophy, only to meet the same fate that the London Elmwoods met a week previously. The Thistles, however, were only two shots down, as against Elmwoods' nineteen.

In the Exter-London Thistles games it was R. N. Creech's great and at times sensational bowling that was responsible for his win over F. N. Allen by thirteen shots, which kept C. K. Bluett's brilliant win over R. G. Seldon by eleven shots from bringing back the trophy.

The scores of both London clubs were:

EXETER HOLDS MINTEE CUP

There is a bit of doubt reigning in the Thistle and Elmwood clubs regarding the lifting of the Mintee trophy, which was won by Heaman and Creech of Exeter some time ago. The week before last the Elmwoods sent down two of their best skips, in Speiran and Hartry, to bring it back, and they met the fate of a 51 to 32 score at the end of the play.

The Thistles made the trip last week, and they also came in for a beating, Allen and Bluett being defeated by Seldon and Creech, 36 to 34. Bluett made a good showing against his opposing skip, beating him by nine shots, but Creech took Allen into camp, 21 to 8, and saved the Exeter bacon and the trophy. It is expected that the Thistles will make another attempt to raise the cup with the strongest team that can be pulled together.

TRIBE COLLECTS 11TH STRAIGHT WIN ON SATURDAY 7 TO 0

Bullard Slammed For 12 Hits, While Carmen Allows Two.

TIGER SCOUT IN STAND

Kuhn and Briger Both Collect Pairs of Doubles.

Carmen pitched a two-hit game for London's eleventh straight win, blanking the Custers 7 to 0 over at Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon. The Custers glimmed one lonesome hit in the first inning and another in their last of the ninth, but in between that looked on the score board like an exchange quotation on the Russian rouble. Those figures say that Carmen pitched a whale of a game, but they're not sticking strictly to the truth, for the little south-sider wasn't pitching anywhere near his best game, as one strikeout attests. However, the rest of the help were playing top form in the fielding end of the game, and gobbled up everything that came their eight ways.

"Doc" Bullard was rolled for a round dozen hits and all this in face of the fact that Jimmy McGuire, the veteran scout of the Detroit Tigers, was an onlooker. The scout was also taking a peep at Pittenger, who went in, charley-horse and all, and mussed up Boyle's hot one in the sixth. However, he looked very good, except for this blotch. Five of the twelve hits Bullard was liberal with were for extra bags, Kuhn and Briger both getting a pair of doubles, while Kennedy broke away with a triple.

The winning run came in the first. Calbert, who had got aboard through an error, being scored by Kuhn's two-bagger.

Bullard was let alone until the sixth, when Shay singled and got to third through a sacrifice and a high pop. He was scored by Briger's double and Joe was pushed across the pan on Crichlow's single to centre. Crichlow came in on Pitt's single to the same spot and made the third out when caught at second.

In the eighth three more tallies were marked up, Shay mussing up arrangements again with a single. He was hurried around by Calbert's single and Kuhn sacrificed to first and scored Shay. Briger's second two-bagger brought in Kuhn, and Joe was brought in on Crichlow's single through short, making a nice slide of it on the third button. Pittenger's fly to right hit Crichlow into a double at second.

BISLEY SCORES

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 18.—(By Canadian Associated Press.)—The 1920 King's Prize man, Sergeant Morgan, is a South African, and belongs to the Witwatersrand Rifles. He is 27 years of age and a lifelong teetotaler. He has been shooting since 1906 and visited Bisley as a cadet in 1909. In South Africa he was employed in the mines as an electrician. He won the Natal Cup under King's Prize conditions. He served during the war first in West Africa and then under General Smuts in East Africa. His aggregate of 281 is 28 points better than Loveday of New Zealand, last year's prize man secured. The winner was chaired around camp after the final of the King's Prize competition on Saturday. There was, owing to the rain, a smaller attendance of general spectators than usual.

The winner and the remainder of the South African team will proceed to the Olympic sports. They have done well at Bisley, winning the King's, St. George's, Kolapore and Alexandra, besides being second in every one of the newspaper trophy competitions. Major Utton of Toronto, in the King's made 22 above last year's leading Canadian, but at the 600-yard target put a central on the wrong target.

Captain Crowe of Guelph at the last finished with three misses. Sergeant James Boa of Montreal at the 300-yard range started with a bunch of centrals. At 600 his first five were inners. Major Utton's targets were all varied. Major Northover of Winnipeg, who was second in the King's Prize last year, yesterday forced away his illness. He opened at the 300 with bulls, but his score later included a magpie and two inners.

After five centrals at the middle range he finished with a miss. Leading scorers in the King's Prize competition were:

Captain Elliott, Somersets, 276, second; Petty Officer Morton, navy, 275, third; Sergt.-Major Phillips, Berkshires, 275, fourth; Sergt. Reid, Gordons, 275, fifth; Corp. Howard Maines, 272, sixth; Major Utton, 35th; Major Northover, 52nd; Sergt. Boa, 55th; Captain Crowe, 99th.

Loveday was 10th. The elder Fulton, a gold medalist, was 10th, and the younger Fulton, gold medalist in 1912 and this year's bronze medalist, was 19th. Captain Noey, the silver medalist this year, visited Bisley annually and made a post entry. He borrowed a rifle and managed to finish 21st. Sergt. Mackey, another gold medalist, was 47th.

Cook was hit quite freely by the Beavers, Frank Eckstein, who took Andy Kyle's place in left field, marking his re-entry into the game with a perfect batting average, having four hits in as many times at bat. Kyle injured his leg while running to first at the opening of the game. "Lefty" Schwartz has been released. Umpires McKee and Huhn failed to put in an appearance today and the game was handled by two players, who gave fair satisfaction. The score: R.H.E.

MORRISETTE IN FORM.

HAMILTON, July 17.—Hamilton took the odd game of the series with Flint by winning easily today, 7 to 1. Bill Morrisette, the locals' "ace," allowed but five scattered hits, two of which were scratchy, and the visitors weren't in the chase after the third inning. The Tigers bunched four hits for as many runs in the third, and got three more hits and three runs in the eighth. Bodecker was strong in six innings, but was hit hard in bunches in the other two innings. Some of the snappiest fielding of the season was witnessed. President Maines was an interested spectator.

KENT POLICE CHASE AND MOTOR LAUNCH RUM RUNNERS IN AUTO

Smuggler's Boat Proves the Speediest and They Escape Arrest.

CHATHAM, July 17.—In a chase in which automobiles and motor launches took part, eighteen cases of Old Crow and Bourbon whiskey and four barrels of alcohol were seized by the county police Friday morning. Elmer Rowe of Mount Clemens, Mich., was arrested as he was loading some of the "booze" onto a wagon, which, he admitted later on, was to have been transferred to a high-powered motor launch.

The booze was consigned to this city in the fictitious names of Roy Henderson and T. Ellison. High Constable Peters of the county police trailed Rowe and arrested him and then proceeded to get acquainted with the two men who were in the boat, which was anchored in the Thames. The "two," however, saw the police first and immediately "up anchor" and made a break for the lake.

CHASE MOTOR LAUNCH.

The county police followed in an automobile along the river bank, but were unable to head off the launch, which raced down the river at a speed of about 45 miles per hour. At the mouth of the river the police encountered a short delay in securing a launch, which proved less speedy than the fugitive and the "rum-runners" got away.

In a statement to the police Rowe gave the name of the owner of the launch as Verner, but did not know the name of the other man. He alleged that the booze was purchased by Verner.

NOT INVITED TO MEETING.

According to a statement issued Friday by General Manager F. W. James of the Union Natural Gas Company, it was learned that no invitation had been extended to the officials of the company to be present at the special meeting held in Windsor Friday. In answer to a query he stated that the company's capital is $6,000,000, and the appraisal value covering the entire properties and holdings is approximately $20,000,000.

DID NOT GIVE AID.

Several Chatham motorists experienced a narrow escape from a serious accident last evening when an auto, driven by Chas. H. Dunn, turned turtle into the Chinnick drain, concession 5, Raleigh Township. Jack Calder had his arm injured and other members of the party received a severe shaking up. A party of motorists who witnessed the accident, stopped and looked at the car and then proceeded without offering assistance.

SAGACITY OF HORSES SAVES CHILD'S LIFE

Saw Little One Hidden in Cardboard Carton and Avoided Striking It.

ST. THOMAS, July 18.—The almost human intelligence of a team of horses owned by the Grand Trunk carting agency in this city is being much commented upon, even to the suggesting that the team should be honored by the Humane Society's medal.

The story of the horses' sagacity, the team is known as the "gray team," is to the effect that in her play the little daughter of Arthur Bailey had hidden herself in a large cardboard cartoon while on a crossing, near the delivery stables, when the team, drawing a heavy load of merchandise, came along. The horses saw what the driver apparently failed to notice, the danger of the little one crouched all unmindful of any threatened harm in the cardboard shelter and stepped aside, unmindful of the driver's pull back to a straight course, with the result that instead of the box and its inmate being crushed under the wheels of the lorry, it was merely pushed aside, and the little one escaped with only a slight bruise.

MAYOR OF BRANTFORD WOULD CONTEST SEAT WITH HON. W. E. RANEY

Wants Test of Public Opinion On Government's Hydro-Radial Policy.

BRANTFORD, July 18.—In a lengthy letter in reply to Hon. W. E. Raney, attorney-general, on the hydro radial issue, Mayor MacBride on Saturday challenged the resignation of Mr. Raney and offered to contest with him the seat vacated by Hon. Mr. Cody, as a test of public opinion as to whether the Government or its critics were right in the appointment of a commission to investigate the question of hydro radials.

Rumors that a permanent appointment had been made to the position of crown attorney in this county were denied on Saturday by Hon. W. E. Raney, over the long distance phone, although it was intimated that an appointment would be made in the near future. The position is being temporarily held by M. W. McEwen, and the appointment is said to rest between Mr. McEwen and W. M. Charlton.

Knill and Miss McAllister; piano solos, Miss Alma Lawrence; recitations, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Graham, Miss Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham presided. BLENHEIM

BLENHEIM, July 17.—An agreement has been finally come to by the school board with the staff of the continuation and public school and all have been offered re-engagement, which has been accepted as follows:

Mr. Gould, $1,700; Mrs. Curry, $1,400; Miss Jean McLean, $1,100; Miss Alice Griffith, $900; Miss Marjorie Kinister, $800; Miss Maud Teskey, $800; Miss Alice Samson, $900; Miss Gladys Kindree, $700; Miss Cora Putman, $950.

The board found it necessary in order to retain the present staff to raise the salaries and this they did. The cost of education, like most other things, is higher than formerly and the board finds that their estimates for the year will exceed those of last year by at least $2,000.

Early potato growers in this district have begun digging their crop, and from reports coming in the yield is good and the quality fine. At present prices some are realizing over $500 per acre, which is considered the equal of any other crop this year.

According to a notice just received by the postmaster from Ottawa a large quantity of mail matter, such as registrations of births, marriages and deaths, which formerly passed as free, are no longer to be so.

DEATH OF J. E. JOTHAM.

GALT, July 17.—John E. Jotham, north Water street, died Friday evening at the hospital following an operation for appendicitis performed on Wednesday. The news of his death came as a great surprise. He had not been in the best of health since suffering from the flu, but was only taken seriously ill on Tuesday. He was in his 38th year and had lived here for the past twenty years, and for the past three years had been in business for himself, conducting the largest barbershop in the city. He was exceptionally popular and a supporter of all kinds of sports. The body was taken to Fergus this morning, where burial takes place on Monday. A sister, Mrs. S. G. Gordon of Fergus, survives.

The employees of the Goldie & McCulloch works, with their wives and families, numbering about 1,000, held their annual picnic this afternoon in Victoria Park and a most enjoyable time was spent in races and games, with dancing in the pavilion.

Alex. Morrison of Creemore, who today forwarded his report of the judging of the 23 fields entered in the standing field crop competition in wheat of the South Waterloo Agricultural Society, finds that the average of fields was below normal.

TWO MORE ARE ADDED TO DIRECTORATE OF BIG STEEL CORPORATION

St. John, N. B., July 19.—At a meeting of the directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation, held Saturday, two new directors were added to the directorate.

The new members are D. H. McDougall, president of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, and Dr. W. L. McDougall, president of the Century Coal Company of Montreal.

The development marks another step towards the consummation of the big steel, coal and shipping consolidation, the British Empire Steel Corporation, and it is likely that there will be developments within the next few days further interlocking the component parts of the consolidation. It is regarded as likely that Roy M. Wolvin, president of the Dominion Steel Corporation, and the prospective chief executive of the British Steel Corporation will shortly be elected to the Nova Scotia board, thus further associating the two great steel and coal producers of the Dominion.

WALL STREET.

New York, July 19—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The trend of prices was distinctly downward at the sluggish opening of today's stock market. Developments over the week-end, particularly the railroad industrial situation, were not of a hopeful character, and the shorts promtply renewed their recent selling tactics. Steels, equipments and oils were especially vulnerable, losses in those shares extending from large fractions to a point. Motors and their specialties recorded nominal gains and rails were irregular.

Noon.—Rails began to sag when reports from Chicago indicated that the railroad organizations would probably reject the proposed award of the United States labor board. Active transportations averaged 1 point declines, and Canadian Pacific lost 2 points. Reactions among oils became more extensive, Pan-American falling 2¾ points and Mexican Petroleum 4¼. Steels and equipments also made further recessions, especially Bethlehem, Republic and Vanadium, while motors and related specialties lost their early advantage and considerably more. Foreign exchange was heavy, the London rate falling almost 2c under last week's final quotation. Call money opened at 9 per cent.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

HAY IS SCARCE AND IN ACTIVE DEMAND AT $33 TO $36

New Crop Sold Today at From $25 To $28 a Ton.

Threatening weather was responsible again today for a small attendance on the local market. The few farmers who came in nearly all brought fowl for sale.

Spring chickens and ducks were the feature. Ducks were a little easier, prices dropping from $1.90 to $1.60. Spring ducks are quoted at $1.25 to $1.60 each. Chickens brought from 40c a pound, retail, and 30c a pound, wholesale. Ducks brought from 30c to 35c a pound. The maximum price is a little firmer. Old fowl sold from 23c to 25c a pound. The prices for old fowl for some time have been from 28c to 30c a pound.

Hay is very scarce, and several buyers for first-class grades were ready to pay from $33 to $36 per ton. In some sections the hay crop is spoiled by too much rain, and not enough sunshine. New hay continues to sell from $25 to $28 per ton.

Several bags of wheat were offered today. The price paid was $2 per bushel. This has been the ruling quotation for some time.

No fruit was offered, although the demand is very active. Cherries are beginning to slacken off. By the end of this week it is thought that the season will be almost over. No strawberries are expected this week, and, if any are offered, they are expected to be of the inferior grades.

Butter and eggs remain firm, and are unchanged from Saturday. The demand is active.

Live hogs and fat sows are firm and in good demand. The price for fat sows is $15.25 a cwt. Live hogs bring $19.25 a cwt.

No changes in the prices of hides were recorded.

So We Say---Don't Delay

A vacation on the Great Lakes. Six days of rest, fresh air, fun on shipboard, excellent meals and trips ashore of greatest interest. The fresh, bracing breezes of Huron and Superior, the enchanting, unspoiled beauty of the St. Mary's River, the famous "Soo" Locks, the Elevator Towns of Port Arthur and Fort William, and, finally, Duluth—the gateway of the West.

Together, as one family, we travel 1,600 miles. We dance every week-day evening on the beautiful ballroom deck. We promenade in companies. We picnic all together at Lake Huron Beach, near Sarnia. We enjoy the trip by train to Kakabeka Falls, near Port Arthur. In fact, we find we can scarcely crowd everything we wish to do into this seven-day voyage. Make your reservations NOW.

FORCED TO TAKE SON FROM SCHOOL

Grateful Mother Tells How Tanlac Brought Back Her Boy's Health.

"I am more grateful than I can tell you for what Tanlac has done for our boy, Arthur, for it has completely restored his health and built him up wonderfully," was the statement made by Mrs. Florence Mulines of 62 Peter street, Toronto, the other day.

"His illness was brought about by the air raids. During the war, we were in England, and you people here can't imagine what we went through when those terrible zeppelins and gothas came over, dropping their bombs and aerial torpedoes, and the noise of our guns trying to shoot down the German aircraft was as terrifying as though one was actually at the front. As the result of that experience, Arthur, who is just fifteen, got into a frightfully nervous condition, which affected his general health as well. We had the greatest difficulty to get him to eat, and his stomach was all upset, for he had indigestion very bad and his food formed gas and turned sour. He was always complaining of terrible headaches, and had spells of dizziness. He got into such a badly rundown condition at last that we had to keep him away from school. He lost all his boyish activity and spirits, and at night would lie awake for hours. We tried everything we could think of to try and build him up and make him well, but nothing seemed to meet his case.

"Then when the war was over, we came out here to Canada and heard about Tanlac, and got some for him. Very soon we noticed that he was eating much better, and sleeping soundly at night. It wasn't very long before he was playing just like other boys, and was full of life, and everybody was remarking what a wonderful change had come over him. He has gained eleven pounds in weight, and is today a bright, healthy, happy boy. How can I help praising Tanlac, and you may be sure that I shall always recommend it whenever I get the chance."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

EXPLAINS STATEMENTS REAGRDING MEMBER OF THE ROYAL COMMISSION

J. W. Lyon Says Press Gave Varying Reports of His Speech.

GUELPH, July 18.—J. W. Lyon, president of the Hydro-Electric Railway Association, has addressed the following letter to Mr. Justice Sutherland, one of the members of the Royal Commission appointed by the Ontario Government to investigate and report on the soundness of the hydro radial scheme.

THE LETTER.

Guelph, July 18.—His Honor Mr. Justice Sutherland, Windsor, Ont.:

"Dear Sir,—As the press reports of my statement at the public meeting held in Guelph on July 15, vary considerably, I feel it my duty both to you and myself to make this clear. My statement was as follows:

"'At a meeting held in Windsor, I believe in 1908, to discuss the plebiscite for bylaw re hydro power, after I had explained the provisions of the bylaw, you arose and said:

"'Mr. Lyon seems to have explained this bylaw to the satisfaction of the audience, but not to my satisfaction,' and that you then spoke and argued against the hydro bylaw and against my statements concerning the bylaw, all of which is perfectly correct. I did not say you had spoken for an hour and a quarter. I did not say you always had been opposed to hydro, and I know nothing of your attitude toward hydro power or hydro radials. I only know you spoke against the passing of the bylaw referred to, which was the first hydro bylaw voted in Windsor I believe in 1908.

"Yours truly,
"J. W. LYON,
"President Hydro-Electric Railway Association."

THE DREAD PYORRHEA BEGINS WITH BLEEDING GUMS

Pyorrhea's infecting germs cause many ills. Medical science has proven this.

Diseased conditions, which not long ago doctors were unable to trace to a cause, are now known often to be the result of Pyorrhea germs that breed in pockets about the teeth. Rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders and other diseases have been traced in many cases to this Pyorrhea infection.

Don't let Pyorrhea work its wicked will on your body. Visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection.

And watch your gums yourself. Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, begins with tender and bleeding gums; then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of poisons generated at their base.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U. S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

VETERANS DECORATE GRAVES OF THEIR DEAD COMRADES

License Inspector Seized Liquor—Owner Fined $400 and Costs.

STRATFORD, July 18.—Today witnessed the annual decoration service of the local war veterans and there was a large turnout. Mayor Stevenson presided and after his address the name of the deceased comrades were read. The decoration of the grave followed a selection by the G. W. V. A. Band. Rev. S. A. Macdonell of St. Paul's Church gave an address. After the hymn "Abide With Me" had been sung, the veterans bowed their heads in silent prayer for their dead comrades.

DEATH OF MRS. G. B. GUERIN.

At the general hospital on Friday evening, Eva Drolet, wife of John B. Guerin, died, aged 28 years. Her husband, her parents, two brothers and three sisters survive.

FINED $400 AND COSTS.

As a result of the seizure of six cases and a number of bottles of liquor by License Inspector Elliott, Charles Livingstone, Cambria street, appeared before Magistrate Makins and was fined $400 and costs for selling whiskey contrary to the Ontario temperance act. He pleaded guilty.

ASK FOR "NO ACTION."

SEND MOTHERS TO PAY FINES.

WINDSOR, July 18.—Summoned to court for being drunk, Frank Ryan and James Brown, the latter only 19 years old, both of Detroit, did not appear on Saturday to answer the charges, but sent their mothers across on the ferry with enough money to plead guilty and pay their fines.

LARGE INDUSTRIAL FIRMS CHOOSE PORT STANLEY AS SCENE OF ANNUAL OUTINGS

McClary Mfg. Company Responsible For Attendance of 2,000 At Lakeside—Cleveland Store Journeys to Canadian Soil For Second Time — The Weatherman Smiles.

With the weatherman doing his best on Saturday, Port Stanley was the scene of four successful picnics, the lakeside resort being the mecca for thousands of merrymakers from London, St. Thomas and Cleveland.

McClary's annual picnic was by far the largest, more than two thousand employees and their families attending the joyful event. Possibly the most exciting feature of the stovemounters' picnic was the baseball game between the uptown and the downtown works. Errors were the order of the day for the uptown aggregation, but as the team was only picked a few days prior to the outing there was not much time to practice other than by voice. They managed to squeeze one run out of the downtown demons. A. Buchanan captained the winners, and J. Stewart was the leader of the losers. The umpires were J. Smith and J. Allen. The score was 16 to 1.

Although Invererie Heights was crowded to capacity with the merry picnickers, there were no serious casualties. The only person needing first aid was Mr. Smith of McClary's, who bumped into a tree while participating in the blindfold race. He had the side of his face and his forehead badly scraped. The nurse at No. 4 Nursing Division Hospital attended to his injuries.

Kiddies' Attraction.

Free ice cream cones was the great attraction for the kiddies, as the refreshment committee expected, and in order that all might have their share, 80 gallons were ordered. This amount filled more than 5,000 ice cream cones.

The prizes for the sport events were cash, and to even up the prizes no person was entitled to more than two except for open events. The majority of the employees left London on the chartered train at 8:30 o'clock.

More than 100 employees left in the morning, and at 11 o'clock the first nine events on the program were run off. Luncheon was then served, and after a short rest the remainder of the sport events were staged. As a special event a contest was arranged to find the mysterious person. It proved both funny and interesting until W. Hobbs approached Miss Robertson with the query, "Are you the mysterious person of the H. J. Jones picnic crowd?" and received the answer, "I am." At The Theaters

"COURAGE OF MARGE O'DOONE" AT ALLEN.

One of the most thrilling scenes ever presented in a motion picture is the blood-stirring death battle between two giant grizzly bears in "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," the special film adaptation of James Oliver Curwood's novel of the Canadian wilderness which is shown at the Allen today, tomorrow and Wednesday.

This is another of those exceptional Curwood productions, and as great a screen success as his two former pictures, "Back to God's Country" and "The River's End." A picture of exceptional scenic beauty, it is replete with thrills; a splendid, wholesome romance of frontier life, where men battle with fists and gun for the wealth of the new countries, and pit nerve and muscle and brain in the struggle for love and happiness.

Special comedies, scenics and overture by the Allen concert orchestra will complete the program.

Labor men are requested to attend the showing of the great labor picture, "The Great Shadow," which is to be shown at the Allen Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

AT LOEW'S.

Coolest Spot in London.

Can a lawyer win a case for both sides? This question is answered in the affirmative in "Young Mrs. Winthrop," the Paramount-Artcraft picture in which Ethel Clayton is coming to Loew's today, Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Clayton has the role of Mrs. Winthrop, a young wife who misjudges her husband and thinks he is carrying on an affair with another woman. Her pleasure-loving instincts and his absorption to his business leads to their estrangement. The death of their 5-year-old girl drives them further apart. It is a wise old family lawyer, whom both have come to consult, regarding a divorce, that reconciles them.

An excellent bill of vaudeville, a sizzling Big V Comic, and the always-looked-for Loew Screen Pictorial completes an entertainment that should more than please first-of-the-week patrons. b

AT THE PATRICIA.

Of all the roles William Farnum has played—and he has been an actor from the age of 15—none has fitted him better than his latest, that of Will Steele in the new William Fox production, "The Joyous Troublemakers," which comes to the Patricia Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

This is saying a great deal, for Mr. Farnum has created many roles that are written in stage history. For five years he played the principal character in the epoch-making drama, "Ben Hur." For two years he was leading man with Olga Nethersole. He was long a successful stage star. And all this happened before he began his tremendous series of screen successes.

P. S. B. M.,

Port Stanley Beach Movies.

Dainty Mae Murray will be the feature attraction at Port tonight in the thrilling melodrama, "The Twin Pawns." Leonce Perret, whose most recent success is "The Thirteenth Chair," not only directed "Twin Pawns," but produced it and adapted the screen version from the novel by Wilkie Collins, the famous English novelist, entitled "The Woman in White." Mr. Perret brought the story up to date and gave it an American setting, with the action taking place in steel mill district of Pennsylvania and New York City. "Twin Pawns" has all suspense, thrills and romance, that any picture enthusiast could wish for. A special comedy, "By Order of the Court," and the Pathe News, with special music, will complete the program for beacherites for the next three days. Undoubtedly capacity crowds will be on hand to view Mae Murray, as she is a general favorite in London.

FAIR ATTENDANCE AT ADVENTIST SERVICE

Evangelist Explains Daniel's Interpretation of Dream of Nebuchadnezzar.

Evangelistic services under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventist Church organization were opened Sunday evening in a large tent on Central avenue near Waterloo street, and will be continued every evening throughout the remainder of the summer. There was a fairly encouraging attendance Sunday evening, and despite the annoyance of mosquitoes, the audience was unusually attentive, and followed with close interest an exposition of Biblical prophecy based on the dream of Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, which Daniel recalled to the king's mind, and interpreted.

Evangelist O. D. Cardey of Toronto, with the graphic assistance of a wooden image in sections, explained interpretations given by Daniel, and identified the head of gold with the kingdom of Babylon; the breast of silver with the empire of Medes and Persians; the body of brass with the Macedonian Empire; the legs of iron with the Roman Empire, and the feet of mixed iron and clay and ten toes of like mixture with the ten kingdoms of modern Europe, which have developed from the divisions of the Roman Empire. The close, intermarriage of the ruling families of Europe of today and previous to the great war, was clearly prophesied in the second chapter of Daniel, according to Mr. Cardey, an effort being evident in this prevailing royal custom of the intermarriage of cousins to reunite the ten nations into which the Roman Empire had been broken. The effort will be futile, however, according to Adventist interpretation of the Bible, and the Kingdom of Christ will destroy and supplant the temporal kingdoms of today. Christ's coming is close at hand, and the kings referred to are the monarchs at present, or until lately, on the thrones of Europe.

Among the workers taking part in the service Sunday evening were: Prof. N. H. Saunders of Oshawa Seminary; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Smith of Brantford; Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Heald of Toronto, and Miss Mabel McDougall of Ottawa. Pictures will be shown at the week-night services.

Present passenger service leaving Parry Sound at 10:15 a.m. daily for Key Junction and returning from Key Junction at 3:40 p.m. daily will be withdrawn when the period mentioned above.

NO COMPROMISE IN LIFE OF CHRISTIAN

Strength Only Good by Rigid Consistency—Church Must Take Stand.

"No question was ever settled by a compromise because compromise invariably leads to further difficulties," said Rev. N. S. McKechnie, preaching in the Wortley Road Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Taking as his subject "No Compromise With Evil," he pointed out that although there was a great tendency towards compromising, especially in the modern church, there could be no compromise in the Christian's life, for strength is only gained through rigid consistency.

"In the church," he said "one continually hears the question 'Should we not adopt the method of the music hall or the theatre to attract the crowds?' Every one does it and it gets results, so is it not right to get the crowds into the church? Despite the fact that these methods may attract the crowds the church cannot adopt them and stand consistent for the ideals it should stand," he said. "The church must stand only for good even if it stands alone."

This fact was proven centuries ago, according to Mr. McKechnie. In the early ages when the Christian church was in its infancy it came in contact with Rome and later the barbarous tribe, which conquered that empire. A compromise with the ceremonies of the pagan religion resulted. The church even to this day is suffering as the result of that compromise.

There could be no compromise in the Christian's life, for no Christian ever gained anything by hauling down the flag, the speaker said. It did not help him and it did not help the world. There was a temptation to compromise with the majority, but it should be remembered that God has always spoken through the few. The Christian, he said, could not give so much of his life to Christ and so much to the world.

In the question of temperance there could be no compromise. A man could not follow the line of intemperance between the first or second glass or the second and third. The only clean line could be drawn at total abstinence.

WORLD NOT BETTER, ASSERTS PREACHER

Seek God and Do Our Work, Part of Allegiance.

Rev. W. L. Armitage, in speaking to a large congregation at St. James' Anglican Church Sunday morning, chose as his text verse 10, chapter 19 of the Book of Samuel. "Why speak ye not a word of bringing the right king back." Rev. Armitage based his sermon on the rebellion of Absalom against his father, David. He pointed out clearly that we are not doing the work we should in regards to giving allegiance and loyalty to the rightful King.

"We are giving allegiance and loyalty to others instead of the rightful King. God is looked upon as the Saviour of the church and not as the King. We should keep Him as King, both in our everyday life and in our work. Some say the world is better, but it is not so. We look back to the pre-war days and we found that we were forgetting God. What was the result? Wars, revolutions, hardships and all those things that come as a result of not thinking of God. People are seeking pleasure and luxury. What will be the result? Another revolution. We must seek God and do our work as being part of our allegiance to Him, which it is, and we prosper. The solution of not bringing the right King to the throne is unrest among the nations, hardships, revolutions and all that we have gone through during the four and a half years of war we have had."

UNION SERVICES HELD IN FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. W. J. Knox was in charge of the union services of St. Andrew's and the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, preaching in the morning in St. Andrew's and in the evening at the First Church. In the course of his sermon Rev. W. J. Knox devoted his talk to the matter of educating children that they might be of the greatest possible value to the community. He outlined the manner in which the character and personality of the child should be developed.
