Foresters Ready For Big Push

Sometime about Wednesday midnight the class of '63 Foresters will embark on their gruelling bed-push to Mt. A.

Starting point will be somewhere on the Fredericton-Woodstock road. At 1:00 p.m. Thursday the UNB contingent will meet with a Mt. A. team in front of the Moncton Post Office for an ensuing race to Mt. A. This race will inaugurate the Mount Allison Winter Carnival. Rules limit the squads to 30 men each. Bed wheels must not exceed a 12" diameter. Upon reaching Mt. A. the '63 Foresters will be treated to a supper and the opening night show 'Meet the Travelers'.

The '63 Foresters plan to make this 'pushathon' a class effort. However at this time transportation is a weak point. Any interested people with cars are encouraged to contact Tom Irwin. All gas will be paid for.

BULLETIN

Notice has just been received that an enthusiastic group of Acadia students has just entered the bed-pushathon craze with a push of over 300 miles. They started from Wolfville on Friday night and made a return trip to Halifax and back. The extra miles were put on by continuing the route from Acadia to Bridgewater. Total time was 39 hours, 3 minutes.

The above plans by the '63 Foresters may now undergo extensive changes due to the unexpected results from Acadia.

DR. A. L. LEVINE TO SPEAK ON ECONOMICS

The last in a series of four lectures on population problems, sponsored by the University of New Brunswick Scientific Society, will be delivered in the Auditorium of Loring Bailey Hall on the UNB Campus at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, February 14. The lecturer will be Dr. A. L. Levine of the UNB Department of Economics who will speak on "populations and man (an economists view)".

In the first lecture of the series Dr. B. M. Hagmeier of the Department of Biology at the university gave a biologists view of the subject, the second lecture dealt with "populations and insects" by Dr. R. F. Morris of the Forest Biology Laboratory, Department of Agriculture of Canada, and Dr. L. M. Dickie, of the St. Andrew's Biological station dealt with "populations and fishes" in the third lecture of the series.

SRC Nominations Show Student Interest

The list of nominations for the positions on the SRC have been received and compiled. On the whole they show that this year there is more interest in the SRC in contrast with the apathy which was prevalent last year. Only two offices of the SRC executive were decided by acclamation. They were Robert Little (3rd Arts) for 1st Vice-President and Mary Trites (2nd Nursing) for 2nd Vice-President.

The contestants for SRC President are Frederik Eaton (3rd Arts), Derek Oland (3rd Business) and Robert Gauthier (4th Civil Engineering). Running for Secretary of the SRC are Mary Chalmers (1st Nursing) and Jean Thompson (1st Arts). Three second year Business students are contesting for Treasurer. NEW PARTY CLUB TO HAVE SPEAKER

Wednesday, 15th Feb., the New Party Club will be addressed by the National New Party organizer, Mr. R. D. Sparham. Mr. Sparham will outline the role of New Party clubs throughout Canada.

All interested are invited to attend the meeting which will be held in the Amphitheatre, Room 136, Carleton Hall at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday.

Robichaud At UNB Tomorrow Night

Premier Louis Robichaud will speak to UNB students tomorrow night. In his first opportunity to speak to the student body since taking office as Premier last June, he will be featured as guest speaker at a public meeting sponsored by the UNB Liberal Club. Club President, Ed Bell, has stressed the fact that this meeting is to be informative rather than political in nature.

The meeting will get under way at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday night in the auditorium of the new Physics and Biology Building, Loring Bailey Hall. Students will be on hand to guide guests from the Student's Centre to the auditorium. The Rally, which is expected to last for approximately one hour, will be followed by a reception in the Lounge of the Student's Centre, where students will be served refreshments and have an opportunity to meet the Premier.

As well as the many students who are expected, a cordial invitation has been extended to the faculty and the general public to attend. In addition to the Premier, there will be several members of the provincial cabinet present, together with officials from the university administration. Since his address at Convocation last fall, the Premier has shown great interest in the University and its students. Shortly after that address, our Chancellor, Lord Beaverbrook, termed the Hon. Mr. Robichaud as "one of the greatest orators of the time" and called him "a second Laurier". Lord Beaverbrook said that he was sorry that so few of the students had been to Convocation and that they could learn much by listening to speakers such as the Premier.

It was with this in mind that the UNB Liberal Club arranged to have the Premier speak at this meeting. Always a colourful speaker, Premier Robichaud will be the highlight of a meeting that will not bore its guests with Club business. However, the executive of the Club have expressed concern over one point... the last time the Hon. Mr. Robichaud spoke to the student body, it was in Memorial Hall, last February... and he brought the ceiling down... literally, in a shower of plaster.

DEBATE CHALLENGE FROM SRC PREXY CANDIDATE

SRC presidential candidate, Bob Gauthier, has opened his campaign with a flair reminiscent to the Kennedy-Nixon debates by challenging his two opponents to a public debate.

The other two candidates, Fred Eaton and Derek Oland, have both expressed their willingness to participate in such an affair.

Fred Eaton stated, "I am perfectly willing to participate in such a debate."

Derek Oland declared, "I would be very glad to meet my two opponents providing terms are acceptable."

Mr. Gauthier's formal challenge is as follows: "In the best interests of the voters, I am making myself available and I hope the other two candidates will also be available for a public debate, during which questions from the floor can be discussed."

A meeting of the three candidates will decide time, place and methods which will govern this event. Further details on Radio UNB.

Model UN in Montreal

From Feb. 1st to the 4th, over 300 university students from over 60 North American universities met in Montreal for the 3rd Annual Universities Model United Nations. Two countries were represented by the UNB delegation, Cyprus by Roger Harley and Greece by Pat Sylvester and Mike Nyenhuis. The sessions of the Model General Assembly considered resolutions proposing increases in the size of the UN Security Council, the expulsion of the Union of South Africa from the UN, and the question of Cuban-American relations.

During the debate on the resolution concerning S. A. Mr. Harley moved an amendment co-sponsored by ten other delegations calling for the placing of the mandated territory of South-West Africa under direct UN control. Although such a resolution had received the required two-thirds majority vote in UNB's Model UN the previous weekend, it failed to carry in Montreal, being defeated in favour of a most conservative amendment sponsored by India (Princeton).

Two panel discussions were held during the four days; the first dealt with topic "South America — Evolution or Revolution?" and second centered on "Africa-Democracy incompatible in 1961?" The latter split into three discussion groups and Mr. Sylvester was selected to head one of these.

The sessions were sponsored by the University of Montreal, McGill University, Sir George Williams University and Loyola College.

The delegates from UNB were selected by a committee of the local International Affairs Club.

Notice To Senior Class

Unforeseen circumstances have caused a cancellation of the Senior Class Party until March 10.

Election Interest

An upsurge in student interest in the forthcoming Students' Representative Council elections has been indicated by the number of nominations turned in for the various positions.

Three capable and energetic students have entered the race for the presidency of the Council. These three have numerous qualifications which will be thoroughly presented to the voters before election day.

An added fillip for student voters is the proposed public debate and question period, involving the three candidates. Besides being of considerable spectator interest, this will provide everyone with a first-hand opportunity of assessing the contestants.

Women Our Mother Never Told Us About

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following has been adapted from the Dalhousie Gazette but the situation described applies equally as well to UNB.

It was with great regret that we noticed one chilly day last week that the women of Dalhousie are once again back to their old habits. Walking behind a group of girls as they strolled across the campus, our observer paled at the sight of a pair of purple legs clearly standing out among the properly attired ones. Having assured himself, after his initial fear, that the Martians had not landed, he went forward to investigate. There before him was that abominable article of female apparel — the leotard.

We weathered the storm of the sack and chemise only to find a worse fate in store for us. These were replaced by something far more hideous and horrible than man had ever dreamed. Today we think we can tell what is nature and what is chemistry, but at the same time this blessing is completely overshadowed by the almost terrifying appearance of colored legs.

It does pain us to see members of the fair sex going obviously out of their way to dress poorly. Like any mortal man, we only ask that women dress comfortably and look reasonably attractive. Surely they, like other women in Canada, can keep warm without going to such extremes.

Our mothers warned us about all kinds of evil women. But never did they say anything about females who would hide their shapely limbs under such detracting garments.

Segregation In U.S.A.

by SUSAN DODDRIDGE

On January twelfth, two Negro students were suspended from the University of Georgia as a "safety measure" following the demonstrations that resulted from their entry into the college. Nearly two thousand students and townspeople had gathered around the residence where the co-ed, Charlayne Hunter, was living, thrown rocks and chanted, "Go home . . .!" Later the police arrested eight Ku Klux Klansmen, two of whom were deputy sheriffs in Atlanta. This is only one of a series of incidents that have occurred since the ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court authorizing or demanding integration.

How can people, who call themselves Christians, who live in a supposedly democratic country treat their fellow human beings in such a manner? (One would question their form of democracy, considering that two deputy sheriffs were members of the Ku Klux Klan.)

Why do these people feel as they do? Clearly it is not a case of something to be explained logically — it is an emotional reaction, such as any ignorant mob would display. It is based not on reason but on blind fear and prejudice. Where do these emotions originate? — through careful teaching by parents. Children aren't interested in the colour of their skin except as a matter of curiosity. It is only when their parents show their attitude toward Negroes that children attach any significance to the colour of their skin. As the child becomes older he adopts his parent's attitude and in turn passes it on to his own children.

What kind of an attitude is this? They say that Negroes are inferior but they neglect to add that they have not had in many cases equal opportunities for education and advancement. Their living standards may be low in many places, but could they be otherwise when Negroes are crowded into certain areas of cities, such as Harlem, and are kept out of the so-called better districts? Only by alleviating such conditions can Negroes be given the chance to show that they are not inferior, but equal.

Whether people like it or not the law will be enforced. Gradually integration will occur despite protests and riots. Through contact over a period of time many people will come to realize that Negroes are no different at all, except in the colour of their skin. After all, basically, this matter of liking someone or disliking them is not something between "races" but between individuals.

UNB Grad Nominated

A University of New Brunswick graduate, J. Prescott Skillen of Hamilton, Ontario, has been nominated to be vice-president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, representing the Canada district.

THE COLUMN

by Ed BELL

This time next week . . . the elections. It will be the same old story . . . half of the candidates will get in because of student apathy (nobody else thought it was important enough to run) . . . half of us will vote (the other half couldn't be bothered) . . . and then everyone will settle down to worry about final examinations (not study . . . just worry).

The one election which will draw much interest will be the race for SRC President. Two candidates seem to be waging a battle for the job . . . a battle which promises to be as close as last year's. Last year the battle was more or less between the Engineering and the Business faculties . . . with the Engineers winning out (Bless their 'il ol' hearts!). This year the battle appears to be one, not of faculties, but of personalities. The names of a famous family with liquid assets and the name of a famous mail-order company seem to be competing for the top place. It is to the credit of both that family fortunes will not be flaunted at each other or at the student body . . . this is a battle between two men, being waged on their own ability.

It might be of interest to know a little bit about another well-heeled young man who recently won an election. The fact that he and his family had money was not brought out in the campaign (although 180 million people were well aware of it), but after the election there was much teasing about the family fortunes. Finally the winner of the election quipped to newsmen, ("Dad sent me a telegram the night before the election. It said, 'Don't buy any more votes than you have to . . . I'm not paying for a landslide'").

The election of the rest of next year's SRC will be uneventful. Even executive positions will be filled by acclamation. Then there is the matter of the elections of the four political clubs for seats in the Model Parliament to be held in early March. Platforms and candidates will be based on federal politics, even if the candidates are not of federal calibre. But the purpose of the Model Parliament is to give them the opportunity to gain experience so that someday they can be. So a vote of yours wouldn't hurt . . . To those who may want to be different in the elections . . . in any part of the elections, "a mark-in" ballot is counted only as a spoiled ballot.

Wot say, people . . . why don't we all vote? You know, it may just give the people who win quite a boost to know that all the student body thought their position was important enough to vote for . . . and if we can convince the winners that their job is important . . . maybe they'll do a better job. It's worth a try. Isn't it?

STAN WILSON

To give you a run down on the success story of this entertainer would be rather pointless and not particularly original in the light of the many recent publicity stories which have already dealt with that side of his career. Instead, in interviewing Stan, I tried to stay on the personal level.

There's no getting around it, Stan is not only a terrific personality but a fabulous folk singer, sincerely devoted to his art and his audience. This was certainly evident, when for two hours, he kept a wild crowd in almost complete silence in the FHS auditorium. Whether you met Stan personally or only met him through his singing it was apparent that he was not just a singer come to sing and leave but a friend, fast becoming one of us, AS STAN SAID — "In returning to UNB, I feel that I'm back home".

Since Stan was called at the last minute, we were quite lucky to have had him return for this year's Winter Carnival. In order to get here, Stan cancelled his shows at the Hungry i, and travelling light (two guitars and one suit case of show clothes and casual wear), boarded a plane for Canada (his second trip to Canada—the first was also to UNB), on the condition that he be back in Frisco on time for his nine-thirty show Saturday night. Despite previous arrangements with the airlines somebody goofed with the baggage and delayed the show in Fredericton for half an hour. According to Stan, "The trip was sure worth it and I was greatly moved by the audience Wednesday evening".

Stan, who rewrites most of the folk songs he uses, explained that he does considerable research on each song before presenting it to his audience. He mentioned that sometimes the background of a folk song is as interesting or more so than the song itself. "Kitch" for example, (not that the song isn't interesting) comes from Trinidad and was written by Lord Kitchener about his own experiences—what a life. Among his collection of folk songs Stan prefers "John Henry", "Ash Grove" and "Scarlet Ribbons".

Derek Oland Popular Choice

Early reports indicate Derek Oland, candidate for SRC President in next week's election, is receiving wide support from students in all faculties.

Those signing Derek Oland's nomination sheet were Paul Belyea, Alar Chandler, Ed Daughney, Pam Keirstead, Tony Little, Carol MacPherson, Jim Murphy, Elwin Sherrard, Peter Snowball, and Ross Webster.

Anyone For Singing?

This article has been written by the new Music Director, Mr. Start, as an appeal for renewed interest and activity in the UNB Choral Society.

The Choral Society appears to have been hibernating for the past month. Undoubtedly there are some who would regard this as only natural, considering the colossal amount of work and energy which is generated over the Carnival Season. However, as the new Director of Music, I really would like to see the Society revive before both the year, and myself, become any older.

This appeal is addressed not only to present members who have reached a useful standard of attainment, but also to all students who are interested in group singing, and desire to sing along with others — not forgetting Mitch. Two qualifications only are necessary: the ability to breathe and a decided propensity for emitting audible noises when exhaling. The more flourishing our membership, the greater will be our scope and capabilities.

I would like to see the Society in a position to participate in local festivals concerts and important functions in the academic year, as and when this proves to be convenient.

In order to do this, it is necessary to lay the foundations now. The next weekly rehearsal is timed for 7 p.m. at Memorial Hall today.

Please come along and bring with you your enthusiasm and your friends.

At this time of year when the thermometer gets miserable and the wind gets miserable and a fellow gets up the hill with ears like a pair of cauliflowers he gets to thinking of the coming summer. To the freshman this will mean a romantic, adventurous summer, like watching T.V.'s Klondike from a soft chair. To the old experienced hand it means mixing up a new batch of fly dope and figuring out how much liquid refreshment the old pack will hold.

The time for breaking in compassmen is drawing nearer and nearer. Some of these people are hard to train. For example, trying to show an Elvis fan how to chop a tree and he doesn't dig the beat.

After a week or so, the compassman no longer curses when he hears the "roll-out" call, but pretends he doesn't hear it like the rest. Just as the training process is almost to the point when the chain sings through the bush, along comes blueberry season. Then the speed of the chain varies directly with the distance between blueberry patches and inversely at the time of day.

During the latter half of the summer the compassman gets smart and starts telling the cruiser where they are standing, while the cruiser gazes with cross-eyes at his photos desperately trying to find where he is. After the flies go away and the so-called "Protege" realizes that he controls the compass, he plunges madly through the bush in hopes of losing the cruiser who all along has been bragging that he needs nothing but his photos to get around safely.

At the close of summer the compassman becomes dominant as he glides the cruiser back to camp each day while the poor soul is still seeing everything stereo including the last plot that they forgot to finish.

Defensive stalwarts - McGillivary, Inch, Tweedie

DEVILS SNEAK BY ST. THOMAS

Before a large UNB representation in Chatham on Saturday night the Devils edged the Tommies 4-3 in a fast, tight contest. The rejuvenated Devils scored the opening marker for only the 5th time this season and were never behind in their quest for a second place finish in the NB-PEI loop.

Dave Inch, recovering from a slight slump, was instrumental in the UNB win, coming up with 29 saves as opposed to 19 for Raymond in the STC net. Inch was phenomenal in closing the door on two Tommie breakins by the ever-dangerous Ed Hospodar and Gary Allen in the second period.

Though owning the marginal play, the Tommies were too loose around their own net to cope with the sustained Devil attack. Coach Kelly went with his big scoring lines, centered by Andrea and Oke for most of the night.

Goals for the Devils were counted by Oke, Marchant, Andrea and Morrow. Scorers for the Tommies were Jones with two and Gulliver.

Rich "Pooch" Clark had his six-game scoring spree stopped when his drive at 5:10 of the first stanza fell from Raymond's glove to roll along the goal-line.

Both Don Morrow and Ed Hospodar suffered facial injuries during the game and were out temporarily.

The Devils had to take the game by a two-goal margin in order to be assured of a second place finish. The big tally of the contest came at 19:20 of the finale with star Brian Jones springing STC from a 4-2 deficit. Thus the UNB pucksters must now aim for at least a tie over Mt. A. in this Friday's fixture in Sackville to gain a playoff berth.

Commenting after the Saturday tussle, defensive star Red McGillivary stated, "I think the club has a lot more potential; and if we play like this next Friday, we're going to take Mt. A."

Mermaids - Runners Up

by ANNE SELIG

The UNB Mermaids placed second to the Halifax Neptunes in the Halifax YMCA Open Invitational Swimming and Diving Meet, held in Halifax on Saturday. Other teams competing were Shearwater, Acadia, Halifax City Recreation, and Scarborough Police Youth Club. The 'Y' Neptunes also won the UNB Winter Carnival Swimming and Diving Meet two week-ends ago. However, this is not so bad for the Mermaids as it may first appear. Because of the small difference in points in the meet totals on Saturday, 11 as compared to 31 in the Winter Carnival Meet, the girls are confidently anticipating their next encounter with the Neptunes on March 4 at the Maritime Open Invitational Swimming and Diving Meet. Outstanding for the Neptunes was Jill Robinson who won the Butterfly and Freestyle events.

The Diving section of the meet proved to be the eye-opening event. UNB's Georgina Elton and Heather McKinnon of the Neptunes found stiff competition from two members of the Scarborough Police Youth Club.

Total team standings were as follows, diving competitions not included in team totals.

'Y' Neptunes	49
UNB Mermaids	37
Shearwater	22
Halifax City Recreation	8

BLOOMERS WIN IN MONTREAL

The Red Bloomers returned from Montreal yesterday having topped both their Upper Canadian opponents in games at MacDonald College. The Ladies Varsity basketball team, coached by Miss Sylvia Shaw, defeated Carleton University of Ottawa, Friday night, 53-23, and MacDonald College, Saturday night, 67-28. This was the first time the UNB girls have met Ontario-Quebec competition, and the victories extended their winning streak to 32 games.

In the Carleton game, top scorers for the Bloomers were Sandy Pomeroy with 23 points and Mary MacAfee with 13.

In the Saturday night game with MacDonald, the UNB coeds, led by Barb Barnes with 23 points, completely outclassed the Montreal girls. Sandy Pomeroy of the Bloomers scored 18 points, JoAnn Carr, 15 and Mary MacAfee, 11. Top point-getter for MacDonald was Sue Porter with 15.

The Red Bloomers are last year's Maritime Intercollegiate champs. They are well on their way to winning the title again, having defeated Mount A, Acadia and their most powerful opponents, Dalhousie, in games earlier this year.

J.V. BEAVERS

Friday night at the packed Camp Gagetown pool, the Junior Varsity Beavers clobbered the Army Combines with a 96 to 59 score. The underwater-lighted twenty-five meter pool was churned up for more than an hour as the Beavers only lost two of the ten events. With the efficiently run meet inaugurating competitive swimming at the Camp for the first time in two years, the Gagetown soldiers put forth a fine effort as they managed to place second in most events.

Top men for the Beavers were Herb Mitton in the 50 Butterfly, Bruce McDonald in the 100 meter Freestyle, Al Bene in the 100 Breast, Gil Leach in the 100 Back, Charlie Sullivan in the 200 Freestyle and Steve Jones in the 400 meter Freestyle.

In the two crowd-pleasing relays, the Beavers plowed ahead for easy

RAIDER CAMP DROPS FIVE GAMES

by DAVE HYNDMAN

It was a black weekend in the UNB basketball camp this week as the big Red dropped games to Aroostook State Teacher's College, and Ricker College, both of Maine, while their junior counterparts dropped three — one to Ricker JV's; one to St. John CYO, and one to the University Grads by the close score of 67-66.

The Raiders travelled to Ricker Friday night and after winning a thriller of a game here a few week-ends ago 60-57, they dropped to Ricker by 25 points losing 81-56. The JV's, who travelled with the Raiders, did the same thing as they dropped their game to Ricker JV's 77-63 after winning on their home floor.

The Educators were led by super star Ray Bishop who hit for 23 points with his two-handed jumper and was closely followed by Ed Avery who hit the mesh for 22.

Roy Miller, scoring only 10 points was the big star in the Red Raider camp as he played one of the most notable games seen on the floor this year. Checking Bishop to only 23 points (he has been averaging 32 a game all season), rebounding on both boards, and leading the offensive attack, Roy was 90 per cent of the Raider team. (Ed. note — If we had five more Millers, we would in all probability have a team of championship calibre.)

Don Morgan, who led the Raiders with 19 points, ended his first good weekend of the year as he hit in double figures in both games and was a scoring threat at all times.

The JV's were led by the 'Mouse' once again as he hit for 55 points over the weekend but it was not enough as they dropped both weekend games.

The Grads, on a tremendous team effort, stormed back after losing during Winter Carnival weekend and beat the JV's 67-66 by controlling both back boards.

In the New Brunswick Senior action the JV's travelled to St. John Saturday and dropped their third game of the weekend to the St. John CYO Club 70-57.

Editors Note: In regard to the coach of the Red Raiders, feeling here on campus is that his poor display of sportsmanship last Friday night on the floor of the Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium may be one of the main reasons for their loss.)

wins over the Army crews. In the 400 meter Freestyle, the team of Jones, Leach, Barry and Preston Thom entered the event for the much needed practice for next week's McGill Meet. They beat their closest competitors by three lengths of the long pool coming home in a time of 4 minutes, 25 seconds to set a new record for the Army pool.

Following the meet, the Camp Commanding Officer, who is an avid swimmer himself, laid on a full course meal for the competitors. Judging by the lively and inspired conversations after the meal, UNB's ambassadors in the guise of the Beavers have once more cemented friendship with the Army.
