PUBLIC MEETING

Votes For Appropriation For Boy Scout Work by Narrow Margin

There was a good attendance of citizens at the public meeting on Wednesday evening to consider the proposition to include in the town budget a sum not more than two thousand dollars annually for the carrying on of the work of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides in Wolfville. Mayor Sutherland was in the chair and after the notice calling the meeting had been read by Mr. R. W. Ford, Town Clerk, the following resolution was moved by Mr. H. W. Phinney and seconded by Dr. W. L. Archibald. Both these gentlemen spoke of the good work that had been done in the town through the medium of the Boy Scout movement, and emphasized the fact that a continuance of the work depended upon the favorable consideration by the meeting of the resolution offered.

The ratepayers of the town of Wolfville, by the town council in public meeting duly convened, under provisions of "The Towns' Incorporation Act", for the purpose of taking into consideration a resolution of the council proposing an annual appropriation and assessment of a sum not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars, for the benefit of the Boy Scout Association and Girl Guides, so called, having duly considered such resolution and proposal, do now resolve as follows:

(a) This meeting approves of such resolution of the council and of the proposed appropriation and assessment.

(b) The ratepayers authorize the town council to, annually, pay out of the town funds for the purposes of the Boy Scout Association and of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides a sum, not to exceed but which may in the discretion of the council be less than, the sum of Two Thousand Dollars and to assess the town therefor.

(c) Such expenditure may, in any year, by resolution of the council, be discontinued, if the council, in its opinion, deems the affairs of the Boy Scout's Association and of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides to be improperly or inefficiently maintained or conducted.

(d) The ratepayers authorize the town council to apply to the Legislature for power and authority to make such appropriations and assessments and to regulate the expenditure thereof.

Among the speakers were Councillors Cox and Whidden, Dr. DeWolfe, Dr. Wheelock, Dr. Eaton, Messrs. L. E. Shaw, C. M. Gormley and others.

The proposition was discussed thoroughly and the vote when finally taken resulted in 44 voted for the resolution to $8 against.

OUR PRIZE CONTEST

Time Again Extended at Request of Would be Competitors

At the request of a number of persons in different parts of the county who desire to compete we have decided to extend the time for receiving contributions until the end of the year. It is most desirable that this contest should be taken part in by as large a number as possible and that every section should be represented.

A brief explanation of the terms of the contest may not be amiss in view of the possibility that previous notices may have been overlooked by some person interested.

The competition is for the best biographical sketch of any native of Kings county over fifty years of age and the first prize will be two dollars with a second prize of one dollar. The sketch must not exceed four hundred words and any person residing in the county is eligible to compete.

All papers should be type written if possible although this is not imperative, and will become the property of THE ACADIAN to be used in any way thought best by the publishers.

The competition will be closed positively on Dec. 31st. when the papers will be placed in the hands of the competent judges, who will select the prize-winners and report through the columns of this paper.

Any further information will be furnished on request at this office, and young and old in every section of the county are cordially invited to take part in the competition which, it is hoped, may prove both interesting and profitable to all.

ADA MARION HAYES

The death of Miss Ada Marion Hayes, daughter of Mr. Johnathan Hayes occurred at the home of her father on Saturday last after an illness of several years duration. Miss Hayes was a splendid type of Christian womanhood and her many friends in this town where she had spent practically her whole life heard with real sorrow of her death. She was a graduate of Acadia Seminary in the class of 1893 and of Acadia University in the class of 1896. During the war she was a faithful member of the Red Cross and gave of her time and means unflinchingly for her country's need. She is survived by her father, one brother, Garfield, of Coldbrook, and seven sisters, Mrs. Griffin, of Woodville; Mrs. Simson, of Wolfville; and Laura, Carrie, Sara, Miriam and Ina, at home. The funeral was held on Monday a tennoon, the service being conducted by Rev. Dr. MacDonald assisted by Rev. Dr. Chute. The interment was in the family lot at Willow Bank Cemetery.

Interesting Budget of Items From Important Centre of the County

Mr. George Blenkhorn is in town on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Blenkhorn. For the past two years he has been residing in Stoneham Mass., at the home of his uncle, D. James Blenkhorn, and expects to return after Christmas to resume his work there.

Mr. S. T. Chipman is erecting a store on the lot adjacent to Fred Jodrey's. Excavation for the cellar is in progress now.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bryne are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Word was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Freeman Banks (nee Elsie Blois) youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Blois, of Canning. Since her marriage Mrs. Banks had resided in East Boston. The news came as a great shock to family and friends.

Mr. Scott Blenkhorn is installing an electric motor in his axe factory in place of the steam power. Messrs. Melvin and Baxter are doing the work.

Dr. H. F. Gosse and family are in town, guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Gosse. Dr. Gosse will remain here and practice the medical profession.

The death of Mr. James Blenkhorn, Sr. occurred at his home, Look Off, on Wednesday, Nov. 15th. Arnold, of Mass.; Mrs. Kempton Bezanon, of Port Williams; Mrs. Jess Taylor, of Medford; Mrs. Roy Sheffield, of Look Off; and Mrs. Mason Bennett, of Scott's Bay Road; and one sister, Mrs. Mason Huntley, of Scott's Bay, five brothers; William, John, Isiah, Enoch and Joseph all predeceased him. Besides his farming activities Mr. Blenkhorn was a workman on most of the vessels built in this county during his manhood, and his associates as well as his family will feel the loss of a genial, kind-hearted man. Burial was in the family lot at Pereaux on the 17th. Rev. Harry Barber officiating. A large number were in attendance.

The serious illness of Wesley McBride, of Massachusetts, is reported.

John W. Sanford has sold his house on Queen street to Blanchard Blenkhorn. The mentioning of Queen street recalls to memory some of its early residents. The late Thomas McBride may be called the pioneer on that thoroughfare, the old house afterwards occupied by the late James Schofield whose son Harding now lives on the north side of the street, having been removed to Pereaux, when the C. V. railway was built. This house sheltered the family of Thomas McBride, Maurice, Wesley, Gideon, Noble Malcolm, Fletcher, Elizabeth and Agnes. The last two named sons are still valued residents of this vicinity. The north side was first built on by Hezekiah Newcomb, the house afterward being owned and occupied by Henry Jackson, Andrew Jackson, John Blenkhorn and Joseph Challen were the early neighbors.

WOLFVILLE V. O. N.

Plans Canvass For Worthy Cause

On the 11th. of November, Miss Harry arrived in Wolfville to begin her work as a V. O. Nurse in our midst. We little thought, then, that one trained nurse would or could accomplish so much work outside the exacting field of nursing, as Miss Harry has done, while attending most faithfully to those needing her services as nurse. The problems of social uplift and of child welfare lie so close to her heart that she makes them her own problems and with all her powers, fearlessly and persistently attempts to solve them. The result is that Disease, Illiteracy, Poverty and Vice are being brought to light and dealt with in an intelligent manner. We, as a town, are gradually awakening to a sense of our responsibility in these matters. We depend upon Miss Harry for leadership and are glad to pledge her our moral and financial support.

During the year, since last November, we have received:

From special individual gifts	$ 76.00
From house to house canvass	528.26
From the I. O. D. E.	300.00
From Town of Wolfville	300.00
From fees of nurse	427.40
From bank interest	5.36
Total	$1637.02

The expenditures to date, are, in total, $1479.72

Balances on hand $157.30. This balance allows for the payment of Miss Harry's salary and telephone bill on November 30th. When that is paid, our balance will be only $39.80.

Mrs. funds are needed in order to carry on for another year. We propose to have a house to house canvass on Dec. 4. We cannot count upon large special individual contributions again amounting to $76.00, as last year, though such would be gladly received. Consequently, we aim at $600.00 in our canvass which is more than we got in our previous canvass. If more than $600.00 is forthcoming it will lessen the burden of the Town and of the I. O. D. E. the latter of which has donated $10.00 in small amounts for emergency cases at Miss Harry's request.

The plan of the December canvass is that of last January in that envelopes will be left at the doors, several days in advance, stating the cause and leaving a blank space to be filled with the amount contributed and the name of the donor. These envelopes will be called for on December 4th. Please have them ready so the collectors need not wait.

We cannot do without Miss Harry. We cannot support Miss Harry without money. This canvass furnishes a grand opportunity for one and all to contribute to the town welfare through the support of our V. O. nurse. Give cheerfully and give generously.

FRUIT EXHIBIT

United Fruit Companies too Late for Apple Show

Nova Scotia people may have wondered why the United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia, Limited, was not mentioned in connection with the show in London. The explanation is contained in the following letter to Mr. McMahon, manager of the companies:

Dear Mr. McMahon—Although you will note with some satisfaction, it will perhaps only add to regrets, that on account of the delayed voyage of the S. S. Maine, your exhibits arrived in London too late to compete, we would advise you that we quote the following from a report signed by Mr. Turner, dated London, the 1st. inst:

"At our visit at the Palace yesterday we satisfied ourselves that if the United Fruit Company's boxes had been here in time they would have taken all the available prizes, in view of the fact that the fruit is tip-top and splendid condition. We have explained the circumstances to Mr. Carey, Mr. Forsythe-Smith and Major Murphy, the latter representing the Nova Scotia Government, and they with us regret very much that these apples arrived too late for judgment."

Yours faithfully,

(Sgd.) J. & H. Goodwin, Ltd.

This exhibit was packed by Fred Herbin and Wilbert Lightfoot at the packing-house of the Wolfville Fruit Company under the direction of the manager, Mr. H. A. Peck, and members of the Company. Sincere regret is felt that the fruit did not arrive in time to compete in the big show.

WOLFVILLE CITIZENS

Listen to Interesting Addresses in the Interests of Public Health.

No person who was present at the meeting on Thursday evening of last week at the Baptist church could fail being convinced of the intelligent interest that Wolfville is taking in the continent-wide propaganda for the control of cancer.

Mayor Sutherland presided over the gathering which was large and thoroughly representative. Rev. G. W. Miller, the president of the County Red Cross, was the first speaker. He made a strong plea for the Red Cross as a peacetime institution. Dr. C. E. Avery deWitt also made a brief address on the value of regular medical examinations to prevent disease. The chief interest of the evening was centred on Dr. J. G. MacDougall, of Halifax, who gave an excellent lecture on the control of cancer, in which, in lucid and untechnical terms, he discussed its origin, manifestations and cure. He painted a hopeful picture of the day when an enlightened public, learning to take the disease in time, would see cancer yield to scientific treatment.

The thanks of the audience to Dr. MacDougall were moved by Dr. J. H. MacDonald, who took occasion to pay a tribute to the fine work done by Dr. deWitt in the line of preventive medicine among the Acadia-students. The motion was supported by Dr. Frank E. Wheelock and adopted.

GOOD ROADS (?)

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Dear Mr. Editor,—As the road work is about through for this year I should like to say a word regarding the work done generally in Kings county and refer to the conditions at Greenfield and Davison Street in particular. Of course they had their little scraper at work and that was all right when the wind did not blow and there were no cars run to blow the dust away. Then they had the road-machine which they kept in line with the wheel-track so as not to interfere with the gutter. If they had fixed some of the mud-holes the road would have been better than it is to-day but the fact is that everybody up this way pays in their highway taxes and get nothing out of it for after the work was done the Davison Street men had to turn to and do a mud-hole that a man got stuck in and had to be filled up in order to make the road passable. So if Mr. Weaver drives over this road and passes it I think it is about time for a change in management. There has been a lot of money spent but too many government supporters to be fed, and hence present conditions.

MAKING USE OF THE NEWS-PAPERS

A newspaper, whether a weekly or a daily, is regarded as the one institution in the world which continues to draw manna from Heaven, and thus exists purely for philanthropic purposes.

Owners of newspapers discovered some years ago that the crop of manna was a failure and that there was no seed for further sowing. In other words, the press was so put in the brow-sweating class. In recent years the press has endeavored to impress upon the public the difference between advertising and news. Some success has been achieved, but nothing like general success.

Every person, every business and every institution loves favorable publicity, but there are countless thousands who still ask for free publicity. The general public cannot conceive the number of requests for free advertising that the weekly press receives each week, not only from local sources, but from governments, political parties, manufacturers, corporations of all kinds, lawyers, and wild-catters. The press asks only for fair consideration. When money is to be made through publicity that is advertising, then the press is entitled to be paid for its services.

There are two classes of free advertising seekers, viz., the possessors or representatives of wealth who figure that their own estimate of their own importance will over-awe the press; the next big class is the timid who have no faith in themselves, ideas, wares or products, but hope to ride in at the expense of somebody else. Both classes are finding the press is no longer conducted without a cost system.

The fair, open and above board advertisers find the news columns of the press always open to them; in fact, the press goes out of its way to advance their interests.

One of the greatest pleasures the press has is advancing the interests of individuals, corporations or institutions. But the press is a business and there are certain things money is needed for, such as wages, overhead, living expenses, and then of course there are taxes—strange isn't it? Yet many had an idea the press lived by good deeds alone. "Running a paper is no Garden of Eden existence"; and there are many who agree with this statement.

DRESS ECONOMY

If you can't afford to have many new frocks in the year, choose one very good one, and do not be ashamed to be seen in it "over and over" again. A well-cut dress or tailored suit will always be smart and in good taste.

Don't indulge in many little accessories. They run away with a lot of money.

Buy good boots and shoes, and see that they are suitable for the occasion.

"Why do you always carry your umbrella?" asked the inquisitive boy. "Because it can't walk by itself," answered the old man.

IT IS CORRECT

To answer promptly all social invitations that need to be accepted or declined. To delay shows a lack of consideration and causes unnecessary worry for the one who is offering the entertainment.

Formal invitations are answered in the third person, but informal ones should be friendly and cordial in tone.

To use the salutation "Dear Madam" or "Dear Sir" in correspondence only in cases of extreme formality.

For ordinary social correspondence one uses "Dear Miss Blank" or "My Dear Miss Blank."

The form "Dear Friend" or "Dear Miss" is never used—by discriminating persons.

To listen as well as talk. You know there is no more subtle form of appreciation than that of the interested listener.

Draw out your guests and persuade them to talk, rather than occupy the centre of the floor yourself.

The tactful hostess directs, but never dominates, conversation.

To take the outside of the walk, if you are a man, when accompanying two women, instead of walking between them. Remember that it is never considered correct for a man to take a woman's arm unless she is feeble and needs assistance, nor is it correct for a man to grasp a woman by the elbow when crossing the street.

ARE YOU SAVING OR SPENDING?

When you read the histories of most of the manufacturing companies of the world, you will find that they were started by someone who knew how to work hard and was thrifty. All these men may have had at the start was a few hundred dollars, but if they hadn't had the few hundred dollars they never could have started business at all.

Even a man who goes into business with a push-cart must have some capital, else he cannot buy the cart nor his little stock of goods.

In the early days John D. Rockefeller kept a record of every cent he spent and he never spent a cent unnecessarily.

Andrew Carnegie got his start by saving what he could out of his small wages and investing it wisely.

Men are starting fortunes today exactly the same way.

Are you saving or spending?—Tom Dreier, in Forbes Magazine, N. Y.

LONG DRESSES NOT POPULAR

New York, Oct. 28—The ankle length skirt was officially and permanently removed from the wardrobe of three hundred thousand New York women yesterday by the action of delegates to the convention of the New York city federation of women's clubs, in voting unanimously to wear dresses no longer than seven inches from the ground. The resolution sounding the death knell of the long skirt, urged women everywhere to free themselves from apparel now being introduced and having edges that nearly swept the ground to carry germ-laden dirt into the home. The club women so urged that the garments be made of sufficient material to permit perfect freedom of all parts of the body.

SANCTUARY WOOD

By Major Frederick Davy, O. B. E. It is specially fitting during this month—in which we celebrate the fourth anniversary of the Armistice—to recall to mind the sterling heroism and endurance and suffering of the brave men who united their efforts to bring it about. Sanctuary Wood! The words conjure a pretty picture. Leafy foliage rustling in the breeze, delicate winding paths almost hidden in overhanging verdure, bird voices in the branches and an ancient hallowed shrine with perhaps a dainty spring and trickling rivulet close by—these are some of the ideas conjured to view by the words "Sanctuary Wood." But the Sanctuary Wood of the great war presents a vastly different spectacle. How ghastly it looks from afar. Of the hundreds, of once beautiful oaks not one remains whole. Leaves? Not a leaf has escaped the scorching, withering blast which swept across this ground. Stumps, scarred and pitted—some crowned by huge rosettes of splintering plinters—and the split and battered trunks lying at all angles on the ground, are all that remain to tell that on this spot was once a shady wood. Every foot of this devastated area is packed with human interest and signs of human suffering. Over and over again first one side then the other has turned its artillery upon it. Over and over again has a torrent of humanity streamed across it and at last mingling with the clay of mother earth lie friend and foe alike. They lie here uncouneted. One pitch dark night in a swirling shower of rain they came across, two gallant Canadian regiments, firmly, determinedly, and irresistibly, and won once more from the enemy this blistered and torn corner of the world now known as Sanctuary Wood. Baptized with the blood of Canada's sons, its earth pressed by their heroic footsteps, its air sanctified by their sterling devotion and lofty hope, how appropriate is its name! Once again this year the writer visited the scene. Sanctuary Wood now presents a different appearance. A low under-bush covers it and many of the stumps of the trees that remain have sprouted into foliage. Nature's hand has been at work to cover the scars of war. A smooth, firm macadam road built by the Canadian Government under the direction of Brig.-Gen. Hughes, of the Canadian Engineers, connects the scene with the Merin Road at a spot which, during the war, was known as Hell Fire Corner. On either side of the road young maple trees—brought from Canada—have been planted and when they grow to maturity the thoroughfare will have the appearance of many a country highway in the Dominion. The high ground overlooking the wood and a large part of the former Ypres salient, has been prepared to receive a noble Canadian monument that will tell to all succeeding ages the story of the heroic defense of the ground by the Canadian forces.—The Canadian Red Cross.

SEEKING INFORMATION

A gentleman while on location away in the backwoods was accosted by a stranger when leaving a log-wood cabin. "Whose hut is this?"—"Moggs." "What is it built of?"—"Logs." "Any neighbors?"—"Frogs." "What's the soil?"—"Bogs." "What do you live on?"—"Hogs." "How do you catch them?"—"Dogs."

PERPETUAL YOUTH

And now the great city of Paris sends us word that everyone may live to be 150 years old. The encouraging information was imparted to the French Geographical Society by Drs. Javorski and Yacht, noted French scientists. These gentlemen explain that their system consists of muscular injection of new cells for old ones. Presumably if the worn-out cells are caught in time—that is before the tissues break down—we have the secret of perpetual youth, in appearance, at least. Wonderful! In these days of the wireless telephone it is dangerous to laugh at anything, yet there is a pretty fancy in the possibility of a mail order service to permit the withering unfortunates in remote sections to "Buy Our Guaranteed Life Cells, with Patent Injector" at so much per throw; $100 for one more year of life. Paris has sent to us some wonderful medical fakirs in the past—men and women who have posed as the cure-alls of everything from tuberculosis to the pip. It might be well to follow Sigbee's advice and "suspend judgement" on this latest Haps Anderson news report.

AUTO CAR TIPS

Children should never be allowed to play around an automobile. The exhaust gas forced out of the muffler should be colorless and almost odorless. The most essential tools for a repair kit are: jack, tire wrench, pump, hammer, pliers, roll of tape, screw-driver, pocketknife, tow rope, file, oil can and plenty of wire. Go over your supply of spare parts and repair kit, and see that all items are supplied. Tube patches, repair cement, valve plungers and caps are soon used up. Noise in the starter is a sure sign of trouble, which may be induced by broken or badly worn teeth, a bent armature shaft, a loose armature bearing or badly meshed teeth. When a nut cannot be removed with an ordinary wrench, heat the wrench and allow it to remain on the nut for a period. The nut can be removed without much trouble, as the heat will expand it before the bolt to which it is secured is warmed. Go over the steering gear occasionally to see if any part is coming loose. If this mechanism fails, there is usually a serious accident. If all parts are tight put oil or grease wherever necessary, and then see if there is any lost motion at the steering wheel. If there is an inch or so, it should be taken out. Details differ with different designs but they all have some means of adjustment. Have this attended to at the service station. School had been proceeding for about an hour when a boy calmly took an orange from his pocket and began to eat it. The teacher saw him. "Go out into the schoolyard and finish your meal," he said sarcastically. To his surprise the lad quietly rose and moved towards the door, then he turned. "Please, sir," he said, "could my little brother come too, 'cos half of it is his?"

THE SPIDER KNEW THE VALUE OF ADVERTISING

At one time Mark Twain worked on a small newspaper called the Enterprise. State news was the objection of some, while others claimed that the editorials were poor, but Twain had a ready reply for every objection, as indicated by the following report to a complaint: "One day I received a letter from a subscriber saying that he had found a spider pressed between the pages of his paper. He wanted to know if this signified good or bad luck. I replied: "The finding of a spider in your copy of the Enterprise was neither good nor bad luck. That spider was merely looking over our pages to find out what merchant was not advertising in them, so that he could spin his web across his door, knowing that he would lead a free and undisturbed existence forever after."

—The World Retailer.

WHY HE WANTED IT

Mr. H. G. Wells, whose new novel, "The Secret Places of the Heart," has caused something of a sensation, is telling a story of an incident that happened at a public dinner. Mr. Wells was telling his neighbor what he would do to improve the world. The latter listened with attention and approval, but added: "I think that it is absolutely necessary for health that all water used for drinking and cooking should be boiled." "You are a doctor, I suppose?" said the novelist. "No, sir" was the reply. "I am in the coal business."

BREAKING IT GENTLY

A New York silk merchant went to the bank to get his note renewed. "I am sorry," said the banker, "but it will be absolutely impossible for me to renew your note." The silk merchant's face paled. After a moment of thought he looked up at the banker and asked: "Were you ever in the silk business?" "Why of course not," answered the banker. "Well, you're in it now," said the silk merchant as he picked up his hat and went out.

ON TIME

The lack of punctuality upon a certain railway has given rise to many amusing stories. It is said that once when a man found a train starting at the correct time he complimented the guard. "Right to a tick," he said. "You've got a bad name, but it's a case of a certain gentleman never being so black as he's painted." The guard merely gave a gentle smile. "This train, sir," he said, without a trace of embarrassment, "is not to-day's train. It is yesterday's."

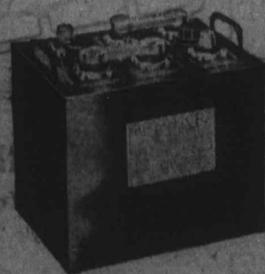

SURPRISED MOTHER

The missionary society was meeting at our house and the woman who was to lead the devotionals took the elastic band from her Bible, laid it on her lap and began to turn the pages to find the passage she was to read. During the solemn silence my young son marched over to her and, picking up the elastic, he announced: "Why, that's my mother's garter!"—Grit.

EDICATION

That ignorance is refreshing, some people seem to think, but I shall never use it as my customary drink. You'll hardly find a pizen that's deadlier than this—it makes me hoppin' mad to hear that "Ignorance is bliss." I don't expect to ever be prorated as a fool, or hear myself referred to, as the kind-folk of the mule—I stick to edication, as a heap the safest plan to cultivate the nobleness that makes a bigger man. A surface-edication, I hardly could endorse. You can't sock wisdom on a man, like rubbin' down a horse. You don't heap knowledge on yer skin, the same a linyment. You swallow, an' digest it, or its never with a cen! You can garner information with a keen-observin' eye, an' store it in yer attic, till you need it, by-an'-by. You can eat a chunk of wisdom with an appetite that's smart, and it never swells yer head up, nor solidifies the heart. So, I take my edication, by the good old-fashioned plan, which puts it in the system, instead of on the man!

SPEEDERS

When I see a bird a-flyin' high above the feathered flock, sorter givin' the impression that he comes of better stock,—that egotistic fledglin' is within his vested rights, an' you can't convince him different, till he breaks a wing an' lights. A racer's apt to chuckle when he spurts a neck ahead,—there's a powerful temptation to become a thoroughbred, so I allers cheer the leader with a lively heart an' hand, but there's pitfalls on a racetrack that a hoss don't understand. I like to watch the trotters when they hold their noses high. It does me good to holler, as they go a-tearin' by,—but it's painful to consider, as they spurn the level track,—the aftermath is awful when the winner breaks his back! So I'd ruther sorter live along, without no extra spurts, and run no risk of landin' whar the landin' allers hurts. With honest bread an' butter, an' a decent place to stay, I'll live a whole lots longer, an' die the natural way.

Every Dollar Comes Back With Substantial Dividends

A satisfactory medical examination secures him a Capital Return Policy—combining Savings, Insurance, and Investment.

His policy means good health and future success, which improves his standing in the eyes of a certain "important person."

His tendency to save and invest creates a favorable impression upon his employers.

He finds his savings of great assistance in buying a home.

And as time goes on he is enabled to enjoy many of the good things of life.

Have you ever heard of an absolutely safe investment, purchased by instalments, which does not require the payments to be completed if you become disabled, but instead, pays you a monthly income as long as you live?—which cancels all further payments in event of death and pays immediately the full amount you had set out to save?—or, at the end of 20 years, absolutely guarantees to return to you every dollar you have deposited in annual premiums, with substantial dividends?

The Capital Return Policy

is a new departure in life insurance policies which the Canada Life introduced to the public. It has carried out the above program for a great number of policyholders who wisely took advantage of it.

This Policy Gives You---

- 1. Immediate Life Insurance protection for your home. 2. Cash values, available in emergencies, which, with the substantial dividends added at stated intervals, make your policy a valuable business asset. 3. At the end of 20 years you can draw out all you have paid in, along with dividends which have been compounding at interest.— Or, you can take a Special Cash Guarantee, along with the accumulated dividends, and continue the policy (fully paid for) earning dividends as long as you live.— Or, this Special Cash Guarantee may be applied to increase the amount of your policy—for example, a $5,000 policy would be raised to more than $7,500.

And in addition---

Suppose some day you should become totally and permanently disabled through accident or illness. Immediately all further deposits would cease, and you would receive $50.00 a month as long as you live—and the $5,000 would be paid in full at your death. (This feature is added for a small extra payment yearly, which is not returnable with the regular deposits.)

Personal and Social

Prof. A. B. Balcom left on Friday last for Boston to represent Acadia at the annual meeting of the New England Alumni.

Mr. George Frizzle and little son, of Hantsport, were guests over the week end at the home of Mrs. (Capt.) Lockhart, Acadia street.

Miss Ella McCrow, of Halifax, Grand Patron of the Sons of Temperance, was in Wolfville on Tuesday night in the interest of the juvenile work of the order in this county.

Mrs. W. D. Fullerton, of Hantsport, spent Sunday last in Wolfville visiting her daughter, Miss Hilda Fullerton. While in town Mrs. Fullerton was the guest of Mrs. R. H. Foster.

Mrs. (Dr.) Elliott recently visited at her old home at St. Stephen, N. B., and on her return was accompanied by her mother and sister, Mrs. Haley and Miss Jean Haley, who will spend the winter in Wolfville.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith L. Walker, of Halifax, were over Sunday visitors in Wolfville guests at the home of Dr. J. A. M. Hemmison. Dr. Walker found wonderful changes here since 1885, when he graduated from Acadia of which institution he is still a warm friend.

Mrs. Fred Primrose and little daughter are leaving this morning for Baltimore where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Primrose was formerly a resident of that city and has a son there with whom she will visit. Her many Wolfville friends will gladly welcome her back in the spring.

Mr. Arthur H. Jones, of Wolfville, was one of the delegates who attended the big Y. M. C. A. international convention at Atlantic City, where he spoke on "Immigration from a Canadian viewpoint". Before returning to his home here Mr. Jones, who during the summer has been stationed at Quebec City looking after the interests of immigrants to this country for the Y. M. C. A., will visit New York and Philadelphia in order to study United States methods of dealing with immigration problems.

Principal Silver recently received a telegram from the assistant vice-president of the Chase National Bank, New York, announcing that Rufus Earle Burgess had joined the staff of the bank which is the largest concern of the kind in that city. Mr. Burgess, who recently left Wolfville, was a graduate of the High School in the class of 1922, one of the five successful pupils out of twenty-seven when passing from Grammar to High School. His many friends in the home town are pleased to learn of his promotion and will join THE ACADIAN in wishing him abundant success in his new home.

G. W. V. A. NOTES

The regular meeting of the G. W. V. A. will be held on next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested. Special business will be under discussion, including nomination of officers.

What Does Your Car Cost You?

Ever figure out what it costs in the course of a year for repairs? And how quickly your car is going to the junkman?

Some men have done it—and got scared.

Whatever the expense you can reduce it; whatever the life of your car you can double it if you master the working of your car from the ground up, from the inside out.

The Gasoline Automobiles Course of the N. S. Technical College gives you this information by mail in 10 easy lessons, at less than cost ($6 in fact). The cost will be repaid in the repair bills you save; the time spent studying (spare hours, in your home) by the breakdowns on the road and the delays in the garage that you will avoid. PROVING A REAL SERVICE

The Wolfville-Kentville bus service appears to be meeting with very satisfactory success and is certainly proving itself a very great public convenience. Since it was inaugurated five weeks ago the bus has made regular trips and has been well patronized. It furnishes dependable transportation between the two towns and is also of considerable value to the sections lying between. The promoters of the undertaking well deserve every encouragement that can possibly be extended to them and we bespeak for the enterprise a generous patronage. As time goes on the business is bound to increase greatly.

The December issue of Rod and Gun in Canada is one which may truly be said to combine quantity and quality, and the many readers of this national sportsman's journal will no doubt take a lot of keen delight out of this number, and concluding issue for 1922. There are several splendid articles and a number of particularly good stories, among them the humorous yarn, "They Went Fishing." The Guns and Ammunition department contains highly valuable articles by J. R. Mattson and E. T. D. Francis. J. W. Winsor excels in "Blanketing" while the Trap Line and Kennel Departments have a lot of good things for everybody. Many other items of outstanding merit feature the December issue.

THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY AND ITS TASK

The legal machinery described above is not merely provided in case of some possible need. These conditions actually exist throughout the province, even within the limits of this town. Perhaps a few statistics may help to bring out the magnitude of the problem. The Superintendent, Mr. Blois, reports that in 1921, 81 children (were) delivered to the care of the Superintendent under the Act; 41 children placed in foster-homes; 4 children returned to parents; 206 cases investigated; 1500 interviews with people seeking advice and assistance regarding children; 500 visits to foster-homes. Also, '99 children delivered to the Children's Aid Societies under the Act; 65 children placed in foster-homes. The number of cases investigated and the number of interviews he had reported. A conservative estimate would be: 300 cases investigated, 3000 interviews. Since the Act came into effect more than 1100 children have been taken care of by the Superintendent and the Children's Aid Societies; and over 1000 children have been placed on probation from Juvenile Courts. (From the Ninth Annual Report of the Superintendent, etc. page 53)
Examination of the books of Mr. Herbert Stairs, agent of the Children's Aid Society of King's County, shows that in the calendar year 1921, the Province paid towards the support of children in this county alone $775.56; the municipality of King's County paid for board and clothing of children in temporary homes $1755.27, and for expenses of apprehension and detention, and court fees $87.90; and in part payment of the agent salary (the remainder coming from Annapolis and West Hants, Mr. Stairs acting as agent for those counties also)

$500.00. The figures covering traveling expenses, etc. for the calendar year are not available, but for the fiscal year covered by the report of Mr. C. A. Patrinquin, Secretary-Treasurer, the expenditures were $370.62. If we may assume that this last item, covering largely the same period, is practically equivalent to the true figure for the calendar year, we have for this one county during the year 1921, an expense of $3489.35 for the care of neglected children. The per capita expense is not very great, but the total amount would make a very welcome addition to the income of the public schools. The second item is larger than that paid by any other municipality, given, $1755.27 from the municipality, town, or city for the fiscal year ending September 30th, 1921. Even the city of Halifax paid only $1491.54. Cape Breton County paid 1653.15. It seems justifiable to bespeak a thoughtful consideration of the causes of the conditions which the Children's Aid Societies are endeavoring to correct.
In a considerable proportion of the cases dealt with by the Society, children have to be cared for because the mother is forced, through death, illness or other misfortune of the father, sometimes because deserted by the father, to leave the home to earn a living. Occasionally children are left entirely alone in the world. Society must, of course, always be prepared to give such children a home. It is now universally recognized that a home with a private family is best. The services of the Society are often of great value to mothers, and are very essential in caring for orphans. These cases, however, do not often constitute a very difficult social problem. There are always good people ready to welcome to their homes such children as the two shown here with Mr. Stairs.
This total does not include payments for maintenance of delinquent children sent to reformatory institutions.

port for 1921 (Ninth Annual Report, etc. page 25) gives, among others, the following case:
"A terrible case of cruelty was reported and investigated. A young step-mother was punishing her step-children, a little girl and two little boys, by holding the tips of their fingers on the hot stove until they were blistered. The girl and an older brother told me the story at school when I interviewed them, but when I visited the home the step-mother denied it and called the children in and asked them who had burned their fingers. In evident fear they said they had done it themselves. So many rumors and such indignation were abroad among the neighbors that she was summoned to appear with the children. She failed to come but her husband came without the children. The Judge charged him with a warning to his wife and further investigation was made by the President J. D. McMillan, but he found, the neighbors were reticent, evidently unwilling to be mixed up in the affair. We think she has been more careful since, however."
As an example of filth, we may cite another case from the records of the local Society. The father of the family in question went over with the Expeditionary Forces, leaving the wife and five children, who received the usual allowance from the government. On his return, the man found his family living in a state that we shall not attempt to describe. It is enough to say that no farmer would permit his hogs to endure the like.
The father secured employment in a lumbercamp, but was discharged because he had become infested with vermin in the "home" to which he had returned from the war. He appealed to the Society, and four of the children were taken by Mr. Stairs. The accompanying picture shows their condition upon arrival at the court. The baby was entirely naked when taken from the house. Otherwise, this picture accurately represents their home life. All these children are now living in good homes, and will become useful citizens.

It is hardly necessary to argue that immorality on the part of parents is conducive to juvenile delinquency. The Society has frequently found it necessary to remove children on this account; and has even had to care for little girls who have been assaulted by their own fathers. The laws dealing with such cases, and with seduction and rape, are adequate, but it has repeatedly been found difficult to secure conviction. "Crimes against young girls are altogether too frequent, and the fact that too many hardened villains have escaped without punishment, does not tend to reduce the number of such cases. It is understood that evidence in crimes like these is hard to obtain, but there should be no disposition to spare the guilty party." (from the Report for 1915 of the Superintendent of Neglected Children for Alberta, Mr. A. M. McDonald)
For the closely related problem of illegitimacy, there is at present no adequate provision. An excellent bill, requiring the father to pay medical and other expenses of the mother "during the three months next preceding the birth of the child, at the birth and during such period after the birth as may in the opinion of the Judge have been or be necessary in connection with, or as a consequence of, the birth of such child," etc., and to contribute towards the maintenance of the child until the child attains the age of sixteen years," was proposed at the last session, but not passed.

Such, bill should be passed as soon as possible.

Unfortunately, a large proportion of the cases are not so promising. Children have to be removed from their homes because of cruelty, filth, degrading moral conditions, etc. E.G., one baby was taken by the local Society because the mother was in the habit of kicking it about the floor when it crept in her way. Mrs. Bertha Putnam, agent for the Children's Aid Society of New Glasgow, in her re-scribe. It is enough to say that no farmer would permit his hogs to endure the like.

GIRL GUIDES OF HALIFAX

This company of Girl Guides of Trinity Hall, Halifax has just performed a notable action which attests their talent in many ways. The entire company with its juniors in five rehearsals learned the "Song of Empire" and "Hurrah, Hurrah Britannia", with its dramatic chorus, so well that after a group of them sang at the Heraldic Display Ceremonies of the College of Arms of Canada at the Victoria Art School, they were requested to repeat the same in full ranks at the Great War Veterans Fair held at the Armories. Not only did their charming manner offer a contrast to the usual coldness, stupidity and indifference encountered elsewhere, but fifteen of them took an unexpected interest in heraldry and genealogy and brought to the representative of the College of Arms, armorial designs and legends of family history beyond the sea from Scotland and England.
The personal intelligence, friendly manner, courtesy and talent of this company of fair girl guides must form an ideal of admiration to all those who have been in their presence. Their Captain, Miss Walters, is to be congratulated on this subject, and no doubt something of it is praise ought to be reserved for her.

Minard's Liniment Co., Ltd.
Gentlemen—I have used Minard's Liniment and have found it a good remedy. After the explosion I was pretty well shaken up, having quite a number of bruises and cuts, but thanks to Minard's Liniment I am my old self again. It healed the sores and bruises and gave me much relief. It is true to its name as the King of Pain, for it stopped the pain almost at once. I first noticed the ad in the Montreal Standard and decided to invest in a bottle, for which I am not sorry, but can say with truth that I am thankful for it having done all it claimed to do, and in my case much more, and a satisfied customer is the best advertisement possible find. That is my view of it and I think that you will agree with me too.
Yours very truly,
ALEXANDER STAIN,

MAKING COLORS FAST

To preserve the colors of gingham, printed lawns, etc., and before washing almost any colored fabrics, it is recommended to soak them for some time in water to every gallon of which is added a spoonful of ox-gall. A strong, clear tea of common hay will preserve the color of French linens. Vinegar in the rinsing water for pink and green fabrics will brighten these colors, and soda answers the same purpose for both purple and blue. The colors of the above fabrics may be preserved by using a strong, milkwarm lather of white soap, putting the dress into it instead of rubbing it on the material, stirring into a first and second tub of rinsing water a large table-spoonful of ox-gall. To prepare ox-gall for washing colored articles empty it into a bottle, put in a handful of salt and keep it closely corked. A teaspoonful to five gallons of the rinsing water will suffice.

MUSIC HELPS THE MIND

A leading educationalist has this to say concerning the value of music: "I cannot think of an ideal home without music, for it would surely be very incomplete without it. To me, the beauty of music cannot be described in words. There seems to be no state of mind that one can be in in which music is not welcome. Even in the Bible we read that David played on the harp for Saul to quiet his troubled mind. We need music every day in our home more than any other place for the good of our mind and body.

"The benefits of music are also reaching the hospitals, the homes of the sick, and busy people after a hard day's work find it refreshing to come home and hear its soothing strains.

"We also enjoy music in our homes of learning—the schools. The school orchestra and the songs we sing in assembly make us feel more like starting out on the day's study in an excellent mood."

SCHOOLBOY HOWLERS

Here are some more schoolboy howlers:

Ambiguity means telling the truth when you don't mean to.

The flammelette peril means petticoat government.

Much butter is imported from Denmark because Danish cows have greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours.

A triangle is a square with only three corners.

The principal vegetable and mineral products in America are tinned meat and barking strictors.

The temperate zone is the region where no one drinks too much.

A corpse is a dead gentleman; a corpse is a dead lady.

To keep milk from turning sour you should leave it in the cow.

To the question, "How would you divide four potatoes among five persons?" came the answer "Mash 'em."

A ROMAN CATHOLIC ON A METHODIST LEG.

Dr. Grenfell, after amputating the limb of a Roman Catholic patient, wrote an appeal for a wooden leg to enable the man to move about. This was published in the Congregationalist, and read by a Baptist woman whose husband, a Methodist who had worn a wooden leg, had just died. So the Methodist leg given by a Baptist woman in answer to a Congregational appeal is now being used as a perfectly good interdenominational understanding.

MY PRAYER

I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be A Pleasant road; I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me Aught of its load. I do not ask that flowers should always spring Beneath my feet, I know too well the poison and the sting Of things too sweet.

I do not ask my cross to understand, My way to see; Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand, And follow Thee. Joy is like restless day; but peace divine Like quiet night. Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine Through peace to light. Amen.

Only two Canadians have incomes over a million dollars. Wonder who the other one is.

"WHAT YOUR HUSBAND NEEDS"

"One night my husband came home looking so ill and worn out that I thought he would faint. I knew there had been something wrong with him for some time, but I could not get him to tell me what it was. Finally he confessed he was tired and sore all over. I made him go to bed. Next morning he insisted upon going to work although he was anything but well. I knew that his trouble was partly due to worry because for some months before he had been out of work. This put us so heavily in debt that the grocer and butcher refused to give us more credit. It was being out of work that worried my husband. He wouldn't eat because he was afraid there would not be enough food for the children. We were so poor that we had to keep the children from school because they had no clothes. I knew that if I could only get my husband strong and well again everything would be all right. He is a carpenter by trade and when in good health earns good wages and he is always sober and industrious. But I knew that it was impossible for any man to do good work when he was ill and worried. I decided to speak to our old family doctor, who had retired from practice. When I explained how we were situated he gladly offered to do all he could to help us, although he didn't like to interfere with the new doctor's practice. Finally he said, "What your husband needs is a good tonic and I know of nothing better than Carnol." I thought that if our old family doctor recommends Carnol it must be all right. On my way home I got a bottle and before the first bottle had been used, my husband was a changed man. After he had taken four bottles his appetite returned, he had more energy, that tired look in his eyes disappeared and what is most important his wages have been more than doubled and he is now superintendent of the wood working shop in which he formerly worked as a carpenter. Thanks to Carnol our troubles are over and we are once more a happy and contented family."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.
