CHAPTER XVI.

The earl had judged rightly—the drive seemed to have brought new life to his sister. She chatted gaily, breathing the soft air with avidity, and his hope rose higher and higher as he gazed at her animated face. They had turned into the park, which was filled with carriages and equestrians, and Margery, who had been only once before in this part of London, grew interested in watching the groups of people passing to and fro.

Lord Court's eyes wandered from his sister's face to hers, and a sense of peace such as he had never felt in the past four years crept into his heart. Lady Enid saw his eyes turned on Margery, and she smiled to herself a happy little smile; she felt that these two would be friends, and she thought pleased her. Just as they were turning to leave the park, a gentleman rode up to the carriage and entered into conversation with the earl and Lady Enid. Margery sat back and let her eyes and thoughts wander. She watched, with a smile on her face, two children struggling for a doll, heedless of the voice of their nurse; then suddenly the smile faded, and her heart seemed to stand still. Beneath the trees to their right a party of riders was just moving on—a woman between two men, followed by two grooms. Margery's cheeks blanched, and her hands trembled; she knew that graceful form only too well. It was Vane Charteris—Vane Charteris, with the smile of content, the glow of perfect happiness on her lovely face; and beside her rode Stuart Crosbie. Margery had looked but once, yet she saw only too well. Vane had turned with a smile to her lover, and he, bending close to her, was murmuring words of tenderness of which might have been guessed by the earnest gaze that accompanied them.

Margery drew back in her seat, as they passed; it was a moment of bitter agony. She had thought herself schooled to meet sorrow, that she was able to be firm, that she had cast out all love and despair from her heart, and filled it with a desire for utter forgetfulness. Now she saw herself in her weakness. The very sight of Vane Charteris brought back the humiliation she had suffered, while the sight of Stuart, the man who had deceived her, insulted her, wrecked her life at its very beginning, brought back the tumultuous joy of that evening in the Weald Wood, the never-ending sorrow of her loss. Ah, she might be as brave as she would, away, but a glimpse of his face had broken down all the barriers that pride had been setting up during these past weeks, and left her as weak as a child.

Turning to speak to her, Lord Court saw her pallor and look of pain. "Something is troubling her," he thought. "She is too young, too fair to look so distressed." Ignoring her apparent faintness, he gave his orders to the footman, and they were driven home.

Margery all that evening was quiet, almost depressed. She knew she might have remained in her own room, had she so wished, but she shrank from being left alone with her thoughts, from the confession of her own weakness; and she sat with Lady Enid, who, full of the pleasure of her drive, chatted and laughed gaily, not noticing her friend's changed manner. But, though it escaped her, it was quickly detected by her brother, and the pale face of the young girl, the unpeppable depth of sadness in her eyes, touched him with deep sympathy. He came easily and gracefully to her rescue. He took the book from her hand when Stuart Crosbie. Margery had looked but once, yet she saw only too well. Vane had turned with a smile to her lover, and he, bending close to her, was murmuring words of tenderness of which might have been guessed by the earnest gaze that accompanied them.

Margery drew back in her seat, as they passed; it was a moment of bitter agony. She had thought herself schooled to meet sorrow, that she was able to be firm, that she had cast out all love and despair from her heart, and filled it with a desire for utter of Carnol. Before finishing the first bottle, I found my strength coming back. I took five bottles and in eight months I gained twenty-five pounds. Today I feel better than I have felt for twenty-five years. I recommend Carnol to all suffering from weakness or run down condition. I always keep a bottle in the house. Carnol is wonderful for children, especially for colds when taken in hot water. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine, as all my neighbors knew my condition. I trust that these words will be a help to all suffering from heart trouble. It affords me the greatest pleasure to recommend this medicine as a most powerful tonic and it has made me feel better than I ever did in my life."—Mrs. James F. Dunn, 256 Yonge Street, Midland, Ont.

Lady Enid, she retired to her room. The night hours passed slowly and heavily; she could not sleep. Her mind was haunted by the vision of two forms with the radiance of a great happiness in their eyes. Was London, then, so small that she must be tortured by their faces wherever she went? And her secret—would not that be discovered? They had not seen her to-day, but who could tell whether she might not meet them again? She felt low-spirited and disheartened for a time, then grew gradually easier in her mind. In a week, perhaps, they would leave London, and down at Court Manor she would have peace, if not happiness. Comforted by this thought, she fell asleep just as the gray dawn was breaking, her troubles forgotten for the time in dreams.

For the next three days life went on as it had before Lord Court arrived. Margery took her solitary walks in the square garden, secure from all fears there, and Lady Enid declared herself much better. As the end of the week drew near, Margery felt her heart lighten. Only a few hours more, and she would be safe for a long time!

"Have you your canvas and all the necessaries for our pictures, Nugent?" asked Lady Enid, on the afternoon of the day before that fixed for their departure.

"I have one or two little commissions to execute this afternoon," returned the earl; "then I shall be quite prepared for work."

"Let us go with you; it is a lovely day."

"But the fatigue!" he said, warningly. "Remember, Enid, there is the journey to-morrow."

"I shall enjoy it," Lady Enid murmured, a little plaintively.

"Then come, by all means, my darling."

With a beating heart, Margery put on her hat; faint would she have stayed at home, but she could think of no excuse, and she did not like to spoil Lady Enid's pleasure. She shrank from the idea of seeing those two faces again, and the chance of being recognized.

The earl was waiting for her at the foot of the stairs.

"Enid has sent me for you, Miss Daw," he said, hurriedly, "but I was most anxious to speak to you for a minute alone. Tell me honestly, do you think she wishes this journey to-morrow? Sometimes I fancy I see a hopeless longing in her eyes, and it almost makes my heart ache."

"Indeed, Lord Court," Margery answered, earnestly, "I am sure Lady Enid lives in the very thought of going to her old home. She has talked of it so often. Please do not distress yourself; I have seen that look on her eyes, too, but I do not think it means more than a longing to be well."

She put out her hand timidly, and he raised it to his lips.

"Thank you," he said, gently; "you always comfort me, Miss Daw."

Their eyes met for an instant, and he saw again the deep sadness in hers.

"Enid is waiting," he said; "let us go to the carriage."

This time they drove through the streets, and Margery forced herself to talk and smile, though she was trembling with fear. If her smile died away suddenly, and if her voice had not the true ring, it was only the earl who remarked it. Lady Enid, lying back on her couch, was too interested in all that was passing to see the effort and notice the constraint.

At last all the commissions were executed, and it was with a sigh of relief that Margery found the carriage was rolling homeward.

"Shall I ever learn her sorrow?" the earl wondered, as they bowed along, noting her sweet face. "It is only one who has suffered as I have who looks as she does—yet that is impossible in her young life."

Margery met his earnest, questioning gaze; the color rose to her cheeks and she was about to make some remark, when suddenly, to her amazement, the earl leaned forward and pulled her on one side; then followed a sharp shock to the carriage. Dimly she saw a huge impending mass above her, and heard voices raised in alarm; then her senses cleared, and she saw the earl standing in the street, the footman beside him, and a crowd of people hurrying toward.

THE USUAL WAY.

The young man flew on hasty feet to reach his rented cottage, wherein his wife, serene and sweet, was cooking a wholesome potato. "I have good news," she heard him shriek, "the boss has looked me over, he raised my pay ten bones a week, and now we are in clover. The boss has eyes for sterling worth, and so he boosts my wages; as I am full of harmless mirth, excuse my jocund rages. And now my salary is fat, we'll buy ourselves a Lizzie; I'll get myself a stovepipe hat, and raiment glad and daisy. I am no more a hard luck dub, for paltry wages grabin'; I'll have to join the country club, and buy a mountain cabin. I know a hundred things we need, for I've long been yearning so don't you shopping rags with speed, the wealth we must be burning." "Oh, Charles Adolphus," cries the wife, "your news has made me happy; it takes the shadow from my life, and makes it gay and snappy. Now we can buy some Persian rugs, and paintings by old masters, and statuettes and artware jugs, and gems and mustard plasters." The grand wife, in falsetto whine, speaks up, like any misery: "To put the money down in brine methinks would be much wiser." "What bores these dippy greybeards are!" the young folks cry together; "let's go and choose a nifty car, with seats of Spanish leather."

Just Folks.

By EDGAR GUEST.

JUST A LITTLE GIRL OR TWO.

Just a little girl or two, Like her mother, through and through, Fond of pretty frocks and dresses, Ribbons red and ribbons blue, And she seems to understand That a man's heart is a land To be ravaged by whimp! And a chubby little hand.

Just a tiny girl whose eyes Wear the splendor of surprise, Only two years old, yet truly As a woman worldly wise, Knows the value of a tear And has known it for a year, And the magic of its luster If a man is standing near.

Only two and she has learned How a man's head can be turned By the loving kiss she gives him, And her little pleasures earned; Knows her face against his cheek Makes her grunt old daddy meek! Only two, and knows already Just the spot where he is weak!

White grapes, halved, seeded, mixed with nut meats and served on lettuce with French dressing and crisp waters, make a very dainty salad course.

By Ruth Cameron.

WHEN THE UNIVERSE SEEMS OUT OF TUNE.

I don't suppose anyone can remain on the best of terms with all his friends all the time.

Ups and downs occur in friendships as well as in other circumstances of life. One friend does not seem to fit in with our mood, his mannerisms bore us temporarily, and we turn to another friend for awhile knowing (if we have learned to understand ourselves) that presently we shall turn back refreshed to the first friend.

Which is inevitable and does not signify that anything is wrong either with us or the friend.

When No One Pleases Us.

But there is another state of mind that comes to most of us once in a while that does signify something. I mean the state of mind when all of our friends seem to bore or irritate us.

When we feel that everyone is critical and unkind.

When we seem to have vendettas on hand with almost all of our friends and acquaintances.

When we think the whole world is in some way out of tune, ably it is some form of mental or physical ill health.

The Cure.

Get more sleep and more exercise. Simplify your schedule and stop driving yourself as though you were a slave. Do something kind for someone. Get out of doors. Go on a long walk. Go to bed right after dinner for a few nights. Get as far away from your job as possible for a few hours, or a few days, if that's possible. Go to the public library and ask the librarian to give you some book of stirring and courage inspiring biography that will make you ashamed of your grouches. Have your tonsils out, or your eyes examined.

It all depends on what ails you, what the cure should be. But if you can lay hold of the realization that it is you and not the rest of the world that is out of joint you have taken the first and most inspiring step toward a cure.

The Will

There comes a time in the life of every man when he must leave his worldly possessions to the care of another. In anticipation of this, therefore, the first obligation resting on an individual who is possessed of property is the making of a will, and this should be done before the capacities become impaired by time or the ravages of disease.

Financial War Threatens Between Germany and Rumania

France May Seek Another Loan in U.S.A. —Britain Will Co-operate in an International Movement For Disarmament— An Amendment to B.N.A. Act Suggested.

FRANCE WILL CO-OPERATE IN ARMS CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Feb. 19. The Daily Mail says the British Government has decided to co-operate with the United States in an endeavour to build up another International Armament Conference. The newspaper adds that Austin Chamberlain, the British Foreign Secretary, has arranged with Frank B. Kellogg, the retiring United States Ambassador, who is to become Secretary of State, on March 4th, to attend such a conference during the summer if an agreement can be reached with the other powers.

FRANCE TO BORROW.

PARIS, Feb. 19. The promise of a $100,000,000 loan for improvement of French finances and another $35,000,000 for devastated regions, to be floated in the United States, as soon as the Budget is definitely balanced and voted, was one of the remedies for France's troubled financial and economic situation advanced by Finance Minister Clemenceau in the course of an address before the Chamber of Deputies this morning.

AN ECONOMIC WAR BREWING.

BUCHAREST, Feb. 19. Economic and financial war is threatened between Rumania and Germany. The German Government recently placed an embargo on the payment of all bills due Rumania and struck the "Let" off the Berlin Exchange list. It is reported to-day that the Rumanian Government is planning retaliatory measures.

PRIZE CREW CHARGED WITH LOOTING.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 19. Charges that the prize crew from the coastguard cutter Tampa looted the Lusenburg schr. #### CONVICTION OF B. N. A. NO INDICATION OF DISCONTENT.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19. The debate was resumed to-day on the resolution of W. F. McLean, Conservative, South York, proposing an amendment to the British North America Act. Sir Henry Drayton said Canada's difficulties in regard to the B. N. A. were not constitutional but sectional. It was not the structure of the use of the structure that was at fault. There had been talk, harmful so far as Canada was concerned, taken by outsiders as indicative of discontent within the Empire. Thomas Vren, Liberal, Lotbiniere, agreed with the Minister of Justice that no charge should be made without consulting all parties, to the original agreement, meaning the Proclamation. Hon. T. A. Crear favored the resolution. It was not disloyal, he thought, to discuss a question of such moment to Canada as a nation.

SEVERAL LABOURERS KILLED ON NAVIGATOR.

KINGSTON, B.W.I., Feb. 19. Several labourers were killed when the Canadian Government steamer Navigator, caught fire at Barbados, when five hundred drums of gasoline exploded. The steamer was lost outside the harbor and set on fire. It is believed she was sunk.

GRAIN COMMISSION COSTS.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19. The cost to date of the Royal Grain Survey Commission which has just reported to the Government on Grain Marketing in Canada is $167,506. The total cost is expected to be $169,707.

WOULD HAVE HUGHES AT THE HEAD.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 19. J. L. Kraft, treasurer of the International Council of religious education, proposed to a meeting here yesterday that Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State, be offered the position of head of the organization at a thousand dollars a year salary. The council representing 25 million students in Sunday school vocational schools and college religious education courses, had a deficit last year of $23,000, according to L. W. St. John, N.B., President of the Board of Trustees. The total budget for the coming year is $26,000 he said.

S. JOHN HAD CRIME WAVE.

OXFORD, N.S., Feb. 19. Oxford and vicinity is in the throes of a crime wave, two holdups accompanied by violent assaults and three burglaries having taken place within the past few days. The latest offence was last night when Edward King was rendered unconscious as he was about to enter a driveway and robbed of $200 cash and his horse and sleigh, in which his assailant disappeared.

CELEBRATING JUBILAND.

LONDON, Feb. 19. The House of Commons this afternoon passed on its third reading the Anglo-Italian bill embodying the cession of Jubiland to Italy. (The ceded territory is a big strip of Kenya Colony, British East Africa, adjoining Italian Somaliland). Lieut. Colonel Amery, Secretary for the Colonies, announced on behalf of the government that as soon as the treaty was ratified it would be registered with the League of Nations.

DIED FROM FRACTURED SKULL.

TRURO, N.S., Feb. 19. Mrs. Benjamin McLeod, 47, of this place, fell down stairs yesterday afternoon while doing her housework, sustained a fractured skull and died several hours later.

TOO OLD TO CHANGE HER WAYS.

SAN PEDRO, Calif., Feb. 19. Mrs. S. Huncoy, aged 102, when given the alternative of $100 fine or thirty days in jail for illegal possession of liquor, promptly chose the jail sentence. "I have been drinking liquor all my life and I don't intend to stop now," she told the court.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

MONTREAL, Que., Feb. 19. Brother Usmar pleaded not guilty to-day to the charge of manslaughter. He was remanded to jail to May 10th.

SOVIET SHIPBUILDING PLAN.

MOSCOW, Feb. 19. The Soviet Government has approved a scheme to build 120 merchant vessels, all in Soviet dockyards during 1925 to 1929. Fifty-six of the vessels are destined for the Black Sea trade.

GERMANY'S ALLEGED VIOLATIONS.

PARIS, Feb. 18. The controversy between the Allies and Germany as to whether they have been violations of the disarmament clauses of the Versailles Treaty and what probably will be the consequences of these, will come to a sharp issue, it is believed in French official circles. The report of the Military Control Commission is in the hands of Marshal Foch and his colleagues of the Allied Military Committee, and will come before the Ambassadors' Council within a day or two. Although subsidiary controversy is likely to arise as to the publication of the report, its essential features are already known, and the Allied opinion indicates that Marshal Foch and his associates in the Ambassadors' Council and Allied Governments will find that the Reich has flagrantly violated its engagements with respect to the maintenance of a general staff equal in importance to that prior to 1914 and is engaged in the training of recruits on a scale that enables her to proceed for the eventual mobilization of a force several times greater than the army that the treaty allowed her to keep up.

C. L. B. Cadets

Recent orders of the Newfoundland Regiment C. L. B. contain the following. The Lieut. Colonel commanding is pleased to place on record his appreciation of the services rendered to the Brigade by Captain Alexander Morris, Bandmaster. The Officer Commanding is pleased to appoint Staff Sergeant E. Vavasour and Staff Sergeant A. Peet to be Assistant Bandmasters. We congratulate Staff Sergeant Vavasour and Peet on their promotions and all ranks wish them luck in their new duties and responsibilities. The Band is the pride of the Regiment and in the new Bandmaster and his assistant the Brigade has every confidence that the Band will maintain its traditions. Owing to the death of Lord Grenfell, Headquarters, London, has ordered all Officers and warrant officers shall wear mourning consisting of a black crepe band, on his left arm, 3 1/4 inches wide whenever uniform is worn from date until February 28th.

On Wednesday, February 18th the Regiment sent a Guard of Honour under Corporal Baker on the occasion of the opening of the House of Assembly. The lads marched splendidly and we congratulate Corporal Baker on his squad.

Grand Falls Company reports 38 on the roll for January and an average attendance of ten only. Lance Corporal R. Hanson and Pte H. LeMoine are on leave. The Hockey team is the "bright spot" and is leading in the Grand Falls League Series. Headquarters sends congratulations to the hockey boys on their great success. Why hockey is over no doubt the attendance at parades will come into its own and the Company maintain its old attendance record.

Trinity East—Port Rexton H. Company reports fifty on the roll for January and an average attendance of 22 including officers. The regular parades commenced January 15th. The Company is divided now into two sections with two squads in each section—an admirable arrangement. All lads of Trinity East—Port Rexton are very keen to make the Company smart and efficient. Captain Fitzgerald, O.C., and officers are doing very enthusiastic and efficient work and are proud of the lads, and every thing is going with a swing.

Overseas ex C.L.B. members write as follows: Corporal Groves of the Royal Gunners School, Stanley Barracks, Toronto writes cheerfully that he is taking a course there and hopes to pass his exams and secure his Sergeant's stripes as well. All ranks are delighted to hear of Corporal Groves success. Our old friend Ken Poole son of the late Mr. T. S. Poole, of Grand Falls writes cheerfully from 1130 Hertle Avenue, Buffalo, N.Y. He has married an American lady. He is doing splendidly in his line of work. He enlisted with the Canadian Forces during the war, and saw service in France. He met some of the Nfld. Regimental officers there and says that they were all "Princes". He sends kind regards to all ranks at home.

The following lads were awarded long service medals for five years good conduct. Corporal H. Baker, Lance Corporal V. Cranford, G. Stone, Pte. L. Pearcey, Corporal A. Whitten, of the orderly room has been granted one months leave of absence. Lance Corporal Fred Barrett of the Reserve is reported to be doing great work in charge of camps at Corner Brook construction work. He visited the city on leave last week and some of the officers who met him were pleased to hear of his progress, and wish him continued success in his new position.

Thursday night's parade 101 all ranks answered the roll. The following officers were on duty. Brigade Major Williams, Captains Len Stuck P. B. Rendell, Lieut. A. B. Perlin, W. R. Mott, Eric Jerrett, John An-draws, E. Chate and Acting Sergt. Major Brian Rees.

Burin Company sends along payment for equipment and reports they had a C.L.B. Entertainment on January 27th which was a social and financial success. The Chaplain Rev. J. A. Meaden, gave a very interesting lantern lecture on the C.L.B. work in England. The Company gave a splendid exhibition of drill under war veteran Martin, officer in charge of physical drill. The Burin C.L.B. Ladies' Auxiliary served tea and refreshments and held a sale of candy. Over sixty dollars was realized and St. John's Headquarters Staff are delighted to see Burin Company flourish and hear of the splendid support given the lads by the Church folk and others. The Chaplain is giving the boys a lecture on educational subjects every fortnight which is proving to be very helpful and interesting during the dull winter months.

The annual meeting of the Battalion Band was held this week. Reports were presented and the following bandmen elected for 1925:—Hon. President, Capt. A. Morris; President, Staff Sgt. A. Peet; Vice-President, Sergt. Harry Grant; Secretary, Sergt. T. Pottier; Treasurer, Sergt. T. Kelly; Auditors, Pte. Roland Williams and J. Escott; Executive Committee, Sergt. D. Williar, Corp. A. Wiseman; Property Supervisor, Lance Corp. S. Saunders; Caretaker, Pte. J. Adams. At the close of the meeting President A. Peet presented Captain A. Morris with a substantial present as a memento of happy hours with the Band of the Old Brigade.

On February 10th, the Annual Meeting of the C.L.B. Athletic Association took place. The reports and accounts were all very satisfactory. The new officers elected for 1925 are: Hon. President, Lt.-Col. Walter F. Rendell, C.B.E., O.C.; 1st Vice-President, Captain L. T. Stick; 2nd Vice-Pres., Capt. S. E. Horsley; 3rd Vice-President, Mr. John Crane; Chairman of the Council Captain P. B. Rendell; Vice-Chairman 2nd Lieut. Ern Chafe; Hon. Secretary, R.Q.M. Guy Shears; Assistant Secretary, R.S.M. E. W. Best; Hon. Treasurer, Corp. Gower Stone; Gymnasium Captain, Sergt. C. Keats; and the following Executive Committee, Lieut. John Andrews, Sergt. Major Bursell, Sergts. Cook, LaPasse, Corporals Badcock, Rabbits, Udle with Chairman Captain P. B. Rendell. Part of their new program will be a Boxing Tournament on St. George's Day, April 23rd and a big indoor sports programme after Lent.

We congratulate Lieut. John Andrews, C.L.B. and formerly of the Nfld. Regiment on his recent appointment as Superintendent of the "Shannon Munn Memorial" of the Church of England Orphanage, who will assume his duties on March 1st. Mrs. Andrews will assist him in the position as Matron. Mr. Andrews is well fitted for the position and all ranks wish him and Mrs. Andrews every success in their new work.—Q.

MUTT AND JEFF— AN ALLIGATOR NOT ONLY LIKES WATER, BUT IT ALSO LIKES TENDER DUCKS

—By Bud Fisher

Excellent Play Well Acted by Arlie Marks Co.

"TURN TO THE RIGHT" OPENS IN CASINO THEATRE.

It is the exquisite combination of human interest and comedy, the blending, in fact, of all the tried-and-proven elements essential to the success of drama that give Arlie Marks Co.'s presentation of "Turn to the Right" the flattering distinction of being paralleled to the original success. Last night's audience at the Casino was very enthusiastic and at times applauded vigorously.

Miss Arlie Marks in the role of Elsie Phillips won the hearts of her hosts of friends and admirers. She lived every moment of the role. Miss Marks puts such a realistic effect into her work that makes you forget that she is acting. Miss Agnes Stutz is seen to excellent advantage in the character of Mrs. Bascomb, the kind old lady who is always anxious to do something for somebody. Joe Bascomb is very cleverly enacted by Paul Brady who gives a masterful performance of the role. Lindsay Perrin and Ray Wasmund as Gilly and Muggs had full control of the humorous side of the plot and they certainly fulfilled their pleasant obligations to the complete satisfaction of the audience. W. L. Phillips as Deacon Tillinger, plays a genuine realistic character. Mel Thompson makes his debut in this bill as Mr. Morgan and fits the requirements of the role perfectly. Clarence Kane is alert to the situation, and in the role of Sammy (who returns from New York) is exceptionally fine. A Paul D'Almeida gives a forceful performance of Mr. Callahan of the Secret Service. Peggy Logan and Merle Scott give satisfactory performances of Jessie Green and Betty Bascomb.

The atmosphere of the bill is correct to a detail. The settings are beautiful and the costumes appropriate. The vaudeville was supplied by Billy Phillips, Clarence Kane, Jas. Daley, Merle Scott, Peggy Logan and Susie McDonald and all excelled themselves in their respective turns. If you enjoy an entertainment that is so distinctly different from what you have been used to, just see "Turn to the Right" as played by The Arlie Marks Players in the Casino.

"Chu Chin Chow" Has Arrived in City

THE NICKEL WILL SCREEN IT ON MONDAY.

One of the really gigantic pictures ever made in "Chu Chin Chow" which has arrived in St. John's and is to be seen at the Nickel Theatre on Monday.

Two continents have magnificent spectacle of love, thrills and exotic beauty. The stage sensation from which this tremendous screen attraction was made, held London spell-bound for five years—enthralled New York for three years. Now it comes to the screen, a far greater entertainment than ever the record-breaking stage success. The screen has taken this entrancing story of a desert dancer enthroned in the purple glory of a Queen and made of it a brilliant entertainment vehicle.

Betty Blythe in the leading role of this picture outshines her "Queen of Sheba" triumph, because its romantic story is absorbingly thrilling from start to finish. It's magnificent—its spectacular—it's a picture that contains all the elements of real entertainment. It's brand new and comes to the Nickel before playing in many of the big American theatres.

SCATHING ARRANGMENT OF THE POLICE SYSTEM.

The administration of the Police force in Montreal is antiquated and is fitted only for a city of one hundred people and not for a city of a million such as Montreal. The superior officers are often revealed. Jealousy among detectives prevents efficiency work. We have also found that in the department there is a great amount of ignorance, a lack of initiative, a lack of instruction, lack of cooperation in the work and those in charge; also a failure on the part of the superior officers to study each man individually in order to know his character, his honesty and his ability to do his work. Proof of this is seen in the John, Hicks, and Racine cases.

The Chief should be entirely independent of all outside influences and have the control of the Executive and the Alderman. It has also been proven that the Chief cannot act on his own initiative and that the law does not permit him to make nominations or to dismiss or promote his men. Each was a part of a scathing denunciation of the Police System, as given by Arthur Brossard, K.C., one of the lawyers for the petitioners in the judicial probe, which has been in progress since September, 1924. He characterized the Chief of Police as being incompetent, and as the victim of a vicious system. He recommended the dismissal of the Chief, Captain Forget and, Sauro, Inspector Robert, some of the detectives and policemen, as they were unworthy of the confidence placed in them by the public. Mr. Brossard attacked the system whereby certain police officers acted as go-betweens between the public and the police, and that these officers acted as a disgrace, and that these officers were allowed to remain open, despite the laws against them. He also pointed out that officers are lax in their duties. Speaking on the Chief's responsibilities, he said:—The position of Chief of Police is the most important in the administration of the City of Montreal. In effect the Chief is the guardian of the lives and safety of the citizens. It is incumbent upon him to force the respect of the city laws. He is exposed to all sorts of temptations and the snares of such nature as to make him swerve from the path of duty; in consequence, he should be a man well instructed, of great character, good organizer, completely independent of all influence, of a reputation above all suspicion and should command the greatest respect and confidence of the population. His officers should be of the same caliber and he should be able to depend upon their judgment, discretion and honesty on all occasions. The position of constable also calls for many qualifications. He should be honest, patient, punctual on duty, active, vigilant, respectful and courteous on all occasions, ready to respect the laws, submissive to discipline of his superiors whom he should respect and esteem. It is to be hoped that public opinion will be respected and that a change for the better will be put in force.

SUMMARY OF VITAL STATISTICS FOR TWO MONTHS.

During the months of November and December there were 1517 deaths in the city from all causes, according to the Health Department report, published January 20th. Tuberculosis as usual led the field with a total of 129 victims while cancer and Bright's disease were tied for second place with 104 deaths each. Pneumonia and broncho-pneumonia were responsible for 69 deaths respectively, while diphtheria, scarlatina and measles claimed 59 victims.

There were 32 deaths due to accidents while there were 946 deaths due to other causes.

There was a slight increase in infant mortality during the year, 3,151 children dying from various causes as compared with 3,057 in 1923. There were 211 deaths in December alone compared with 185 the previous year. During the last two months of 1924, 1914 cases of contagious diseases were reported to the health department, there being 812 in November and 1102 in December. Scarlet fever had its innings during these two months there being 496 cases reported. Measles also spread its ravages, 433 cases being reported from various sources. The white plague showed a slight decrease over previous months, 193 cases claiming the attention of the authorities. During 1924, 1143 cases were reported, as against 1230 in 1923.

There was an all round increase in contagious disease during 1924 over the previous year. In 1923 there were 8,774 cases, while in 1924 there were 9,237. Smallpox reared its insidious head for the first time in five years, 9 cases being reported during 1924. It is pointed out, however, that all these cases originated in outside sources and were brought here by sailors or other strangers. There was a very appreciable decrease in influenza, 95 cases being reported last year as compared with 377 in 1923. Summing up, Dr. Boucher, Director of Health, reports decreases last year in more

THE THUGS ARE STILL OPERATING.

Even in the early hours of the evening thugs still take a chance. Three thugs, each holding a gun, held up and robbed Wilfrid Benard, driver for Ekers Brewery, while he was on his way home at 6 o'clock. He was relieved of $180 cash and a $23 cheque.

The hold-up occurred at the corner of St. Norbert Street and City Hall Avenue.

THE COLD WAS INTENSE DURING A PART OF JANUARY.

Whew! Cold and very, very cold. The middle of the month of January started with a cold spell that was simply trying in many respects. Snow storms, a high, biting wind, fog, which increased the severity of the temperature, and sub-zero weather for a week, made life uncomfortable for thousands, especially the poor. The glittering frost shone like myriads of jewels, and grew resplendent with the sun's rays, or the electric lights, but the populace still shivered. Yes, a penetrating frost, mingled with the dampness that defied the heaviest clothing as proof against it. Plumbers had to work day and night thawing out frozen pipes and repairing radiators. Furnace men worked overtime to try and supply the necessary heat in houses and apartments. Here are some of the places and the temperature:—Montreal, 15 below; Westmount, 10 below; St. Lambert, 22 to 27 below; Verdun, 20 below; Lachine, 32 below; St. Anne's, 17 below; Carterville, 38 below; Montreal East, 40 below. Lennoxville capped the climax at 45 below. In other parts of the Province, the temperature ranged from 30 to 38 below.

ALL THE HOSPITALS ARE OVERCROWDED.

The city hospitals are taxed to capacity and hundreds of patients cannot be accommodated. In the last few days some institutions here had to absolutely refuse emergency and ambulance calls for the want of accommodation. Dr. Hayward, Supt. of the Montreal General says that the hospitals in Montreal have not been growing in proportion to the population and that the situation is growing worse and worse every year and now a climax has been reached.

HE HAD LOST HIS BEST FRIEND AND ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

"In all the world—go where you will— You'll never find another. Who'll stick to you through good or ill. And love you like a mother." Love for his best friend, his mother, and grieved at his loss, for she had passed away only six weeks ago, made a 16 year old High School boy so lonely and despondent, that he attempted suicide by sending a bullet from a 32 calibre pistol crashing through the course of the bullet, and he was found in a dying condition. As his brother gathered the youth in his arms, he asked him what he had done. "I'm dying," murmured the boy lifting up his head. "I did it because I want to be with my mother." The doctors at the Montreal General Hospital say that his chances for recovery are slim.

THE PROVINCIAL GOVT. SHOW A SURPLUS.

Under the heading of "The Provincial Finances," the Montreal Herald says editorially:— "The Hon. Mr. Taschereau, in his reply to the Speech from the Throne, had some words of warning as well as of congratulation, in regard to the state of the Provincial finances. His remarks in alluding to the surplus of nearly $1,500,000 for the past year deserve special emphasis at this time." He said:

"We closed the last fiscal year with a surplus of about a million and a half. We have ground for congratulations in this fact, especially when we notice that the last fiscal year in the rich and great province of Ontario closed with a deficit of $15,000,000, and that the Treasurer of that province expects a deficit of $8,000,000 for this year, and that the other provinces of Canada could not make ends meet. During the 28 years that the Liberal party has been in power, there has been constant succession of surpluses, the result being that our credit in the money markets is of the highest. At the same time we have not spared needed expenditures for our roads, for public instruction in all its ramifications, for agriculture, colonization, for forest protection, and for steel bridges. The only danger to-day for us is that our very prosperity results in appeals and demands from all sides, so much so that we should fall to be good administrators if we granted them all.

"The crisis is still acute, times are still hard, the European markets are almost closed and there is in some directions a vicious pessimism which stops initiative and paralyzes efforts. All this requires prudence and economy on our part. "The people of Canada are crushed under taxes. It is hard for a young country. I have no wish to seek the causes nor to place the blame, but if new demands require new taxes, I say without hesitation, no. I would

The Obstacle To Disarmament

A foreign message yesterday told of a proposal for a new arms conference which had originated in the United States. Another message stated that Great Britain proposed to spend $21,000,000 on her air force.

In view of the fact that the Mission, in spite of the many objections placed in their way by the German authorities, found that the manufacture of arms and ammunition had been proceeding apace in the country, it is not surprising that the powers situated within striking distance of Germany have shown little anxiety to strip themselves bare of their means of protection, and thereby place themselves at the mercy of an unrepentant and unforgiving enemy.

Recently indignation protests were made by Germany because the Allied powers had decided that the Cologne bridgehead must still be held. They were grieved at the lack of faith shown in their sincerity, and were highly offended when accused of having violated the disarmament terms imposed by the Treaty of Versailles.

Britain has again expressed her desire to co-operate with the United States in arranging another armament conference. Her attitude on this question is consistent with the policy, from which she has never departed, to live at peace with her neighbors. She has maintained at an enormous expense a great navy with that object in view, and if to-day another plan can be devised whereby the peace of the world will be guaranteed, she would gladly adopt it and relieve her people of the burden of this responsibility.

Inclinations, however, are one thing and must only too often yield to circumstances. The fact which has to be considered is that Germany still entertains the hope of becoming a dominating world power, and as long as there is any possibility of her accomplishing that end, her neighbors must remain ready for any emergency. Centrally situated, she would continue to be a menace to the powers which surround her, if she were permitted to build up another huge armament. Disarmed, she would feel at the mercy of those powers, for her faith in them is no stronger than their faith in her. The only solution would seem to be a binding agreement between the powers to prevent any aggressive action against Germany as soon as it was found that her armaments had been reduced in accordance with the terms laid down.

One of the chief difficulties has been to enforce this condition upon Germany. Marshal Foch has already shown in a practical manner his ability to make her come to terms, and if he were given a free hand in devising ways and means of pulling her teeth, he would no doubt make a complete job of it.

Postal Changes Suggested

It is understood that certain changes are about to be made in the staff of officials in the General Post Office. We trust that if such is the case, the Government will follow the principal so ably outlined by the Hon. J. Alex. Robinson in referring to this very question on Wednesday, that appointments should be made on the basis of service and efficiency rather than upon political influences, or any other consideration.

The girls in question are employed in a city clothing factory, one earning $3.00 per week, and the other $5.00. Judgment was given in favor of the plaintiff. The girls were ordered to pay over to their mother $1.50 and $2.50 per week, respectively.

PEPYS BEHIND THE SCENES

Feb. 19th.—Coming down to breakfast this morning, do find but one small egg awaiting me, and upon enquiring the cause my wife do tell me that eggs are now so dear in price that she may not afford to buy as many as formerly. Indeed, she says, I am fortunate to have one since they are now more than 80 cents a dozen, which is a price beyond all reason. But Lord, was but a year ago that I did buy them in Bay d'Espoir for as little as 25 cents the dozen, and did little think they would cost so much as now. Anon abroad, and meeting Povey he tells me how Mr. LeBaron, her, the wife, Deputy Minister of Posts do resign up his office and Mr. Rodder, that was at one time Superintendent of the Anglican Orphanage is appointed in his stead.

In my mail this day comes a great multitude of news sheets out of England, which I am wont to read with the greatest interest, but God forgive me, finding cross word puzzles on each page of them I did get so mad that I did destroy the lot without reading them. This night to the Club and to play at Bridge, but do suffer the damndest ill-fortune, and lose enough to keep me all the seven-night in tobacco. So home, in high ill-humour and to bed.

M. C. L. I.

At the M.C.L.I. last evening the following Resolution was debated before a large attendance: "Resolved that Belief is more fundamental than Conduct." The Speakers were: Affirmative, Messrs. George P. Jones, J. H. Bowden and Edgecombe; Negative: Messrs. William White, A. E. Hayward and Tucker.

The affirmative speakers maintained that Belief was in an altogether different realm from Conduct. Belief has to do with the verities of religion. It is the assent of the mind to truth. Faith and Belief are synonymous terms. They are therefore, indivisible forces in every man's life. Conduct, on the other hand, is in the tangible. It may or may not have rules to govern it. Belief and Faith apply essentially to religious life. It must be accredited to the worthies, Enoch, Noah, Moses, Gleason, Isaiah, Samuel and the prophets. Then later John the Baptist, then Jesus Christ himself and his Apostles. In our modern days we have our believers in our explorers and inventors. All ages claim and show the effects of belief on its heroes.

Conduct is the immediate outcome of Belief. Faith is primary and eternal. Conduct is the product of the child of Belief. Be it in business, be it in religion, Belief come first. Conduct follows as the day the night.

The speakers for the negative did not discount Belief. They recognized its importance. The whole question laid in the word "fundamental"; and the subject did not limit "Belief" to "Christian Belief." Business firms advertise their slogans "Honesty is the best policy," "Quality profits, quick returns." Politicians promise in manifestos, "Reforms"; but the business man and the politician fall in their conduct they fail to measure up to the standards they have set.

In religion hundreds of millions believe in Jesus Christ. In life but a small number live these beliefs. The missionaries tried preaching first, but "faith without works is dead." Therefore schools and hospitals were built. Their conduct in this educating the child and healing the sick proved the effective force. One must practice what one preaches. Without practicing preaching is vain.

The speaking was general and spontaneous, no time being lost. Messrs. J. Moore, F. Moore, Garf, R. Hearder, Randall, Kelloway, Newbury, Bursley, C. Moore, A. E. Partin, Bart, White, Theo. Soper, Edgecombe followed each other rapidly. Only Messrs. Kelloway and Hearder sustained the negative. Mr. Whitway spoke most interestingly, impartially exhibiting the discussion. Moses had faith to believe a tap on a rock would produce a water supply. According to his conduct he will take his departure at the great day. We find that the earliest possession of the Matron of the Garden was belief to which an opponent at once replied, on a test only. Mr. White's closing address was very fine and undoubtedly swung votes his way so that after Mr. James' closing speech the vote showed a majority of one only for the affirmative. Captain Keen was the chairman during the debate.

PROSPERO TO BRING SEALERS.—The Government have made arrangements to send the S.S. Prospero north as far as Valeyfield, to bring the sealers from Bonavista Bay and other ports, to engage in the forthcoming seal-fishing. The ship sails from here on Friday next.

THE TRAINS.—The east bound train is delayed west of Deer Lake, on account of a derailment. Yesterday's west bound train is making good progress across country. The local train arrived on time. The Trepassey train went out at 11.30 for points as far as Renew.

LILLIAN COWAN. An esteemed and popular lady of this city in the person of Lillian Cowan, passed away yesterday at her home, 31 Queen's Road, after a protracted illness. Miss Cowan was the youngest daughter of Mr. John Cowan the Commission Merchant, and the late Julia Cowan. Deceased had been confined to her bed by illness for the past seven months. About four months ago, a change for the better took place, and there was every hope of her recovery. A renewed attack unexpectedly followed and despite all that loving hands could do she gradually grew worse and resigned to the Divine Will and passed peacefully away. In Church circles, Miss Cowan was a noble worker, particularly in the Sunday School class of the Congregational Church of which she was a devoted member and her passing will be deeply regretted. She leaves to mourn, besides her father, five brothers, Ernest, Henry E., Peter H., Albert, of Western Canada and Edward of Montreal and one sister Florence to whom the Telegram extends sympathy.

JOHN J. KEEFE. John J. Keefe died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter P. Roder, 164 First St., following a short illness. He was for 50 years a member of Typographical Union No. 6. He was born in St. John's, Nfld., 79 years ago and was a resident of Brooklyn for 55 years. He is survived by his daughter and three sons, Walter A., J. J. and Geo. C. Keefe. A mass of requiem will be said in St. Agatha's R. C. Church at 10.30 o'clock and interment will be in St. John's Cemetery.

The speaking was dignified and interesting. The program consisted of a variety of songs, recitations and plays. The choir gave a most effective performance. The evening was a most successful one. The various numbers were as follows:— Piano Solo—A. B. Walker. Song—Miss Lagasmed. Recitation—Ann Adey. Song—Miss Jean Taylor. Song—G. King. Dialogue—Messdames Simmonds and Osbourne. ("Mrs. Smith's Boarder.") Song—Miss M. Coyal. Lantern Lecture by Rev. Mr. Elliott of St. Thomas's Church. Subject: "Gallipoli."

The concert was faultlessly rendered, the various items being encored. The Rev. and learned lecturer's description of his subject was treated in such fashion that all present followed him with keen interest. In view of the limited time at the disposal of the lecturer a vast amount of information was imparted. Past Master, Bro. Ken Ruby proposed a vote of thanks to the performers who contributed to the concert programme, and to Rev. Mr. Elliott for his lecture, and also to the ladies who assisted the Committee at the table. This was duly seconded in a wholehearted manner by P.M. Bro. S. R. Penney and carried by acclamation. The chairman and much pleasure in conveying the sentiments thus expressed. Rev. Mr. Elliott acknowledged for the performers and also for himself. The singing of the National Anthem concluded a very enjoyable evening. S.R.P.

Victoria Hall was filled to its utmost capacity, standing room being left at a premium last night when Leung Loyal Orange Lodge No. 1282, held its first concert, lantern lecture and social hour for 1925. The event was an unqualified success, and reflects very creditably on the energetic Committee who made the necessary arrangements. The W.M., Bro. W. H. Pike, occupied the chair and in his usual dignified way gave prestige to the successful programme. The various numbers were as follows:—

B. I. S. Dance Monday Night

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the B. I. S. have practically completed arrangements for the big dance to be held in the club rooms Monday night. As this will be the last dance given before Lent, the ladies have made special arrangements in order to make it an extra special attraction. The Prince's orchestra has prepared special music for the occasion, including some of the latest American musical hits and jazz specialties. The L. & A. Committee has likewise a very interesting programme to attend to, and it is a foregone conclusion that this, which is known as "The Special Dance," will be one of the most enjoyable ever held in the club rooms.

Employees Reunion

At the Oddfellows' Hall on Tuesday night, the employees of G. Knowling, Ltd., spent a very pleasant time, some sixty couples being present. The hall was very nicely decorated for the occasion, the firm's colors being prominently displayed. The guests of the evening were Messrs. P. H. and W. U. Knowling, directors of the firm. Dancing commenced at 9 p.m. and continued until the wee sma' hours of the morning, the programme consisting of fourteen dance numbers with many extras. Messrs. Jas. Butler, A. Andrews and O. Moore acted as floor managers in a very creditable manner. Music was provided by Miss M. Farrell, at the piano, assisted by J. Peasey, with drums and effects. The K. A. C. Orchestra, comprising seven pieces, carried their first appearance and certainly did credit to themselves. The elimination dance was won by O. Moore and Miss E. Moore, who were presented with prizes by P. H. Knowling, who heartily congratulated them. During the interval supper was served under the direction of Miss Hynes, while the orchestra played some splendid selections which were greatly enjoyed and made the social hours pass pleasantly. All present voted the evening one of the most enjoyable they had ever spent.

West Bound Freight Train

DERAILED NEAR DEER LAKE. Last night, about 8 o'clock, a derailment occurred six miles west of Deer Lake, when the push pull, engine and one box car, of a west bound freight, left the rails, and railroad traffic is now held up as a result. The rails where the run-off occurred, were covered with a thick coating of frozen snow, hence the derailment. The engine left the track and remained practically upright on the roadbed. A gang of section men, with wrecking appliances, arrived at the scene shortly after the accident and set to work to place the engine on the rails. The job was expected to be accomplished by this afternoon. The east bound express is held up at Deer Lake as a result and she is not expected to reach the city before to-morrow night. The damages are not very extensive.

IN THE REALMS OF SPORT

LAST NIGHT'S HOCKEY.
ST. BON'S ..... 7
TERRA NOVAS ..... 6

The final game of the League hockey series took place last night between the St. Bon's and Terras. The attendance was the smallest for the season, and the game, which was only a fair exhibition, terminated in a win for St. Bon's after a play off, by a score of seven goals to six.

First Period
 Play commenced promptly at 7.30 on an excellent sheet of ice. The exhibition handed out during this period was only fair, and only one goal was scored, by Skinner, for St. Bon's after eleven minutes of play.

Second Period
 Upon resumption of play the game gradually grew better, and the players showed a revival of their previous form. The long lay-off apparently had a bad effect. The Terras staged an onslaught on their opponent's goal, and Ryan was given a busy time in clearing dead on wheels. The equalizing goal was sent in by Canning, three minutes from the start. Play then transferred from end to end, with both defences showing up well. Terras renewed the attack with Canning showing up prominently and, during one of his rushes, the puck was slipped over to Field, who banged in No. 2. Scarcely had the dust been centred when Canning went in by his lone and scored No. 3. St. Bon's then came to life and pressed hard. Phelan and Halley were getting in some good individual rushes, but their play was repeatedly upset by the Terras' defence. Three minutes later Skinner availed of an opening and scored No. 2 for St. Bon's. This was repeated by Field for the Terras, a minute later, and before the goal sounded Peters made a good run past Ryan for a pretty goal. The score board then showed Terras 5; St. Bon's, 2.

Third Period
 The final session saw some very exciting play, with both teams striving hard to outgeneral the other. St. Bon's lead in the attack, and ere long

Cahill and Phelan had found the net. With only a one goal difference victory for either team looked very uncertain. A few minutes later Canning made another of his good runs and was successful, thus giving the Terras a two goal lead. St. Bon's, quite undaunted, played harder than ever, and by smart play in the latter half of the period, they were successful in equalizing the score before the gong had sounded. Cahill and Phelan doing the needful. Terras, 6; St. Bon's, 6.

Overtime Play
 After the players had received a brief rest, play was continued. No scoring resulted in the first five minutes. Shortly after ends had changed Furlong scored what proved to be the winning goal. The game ended St. Bon's 7; Terras, 6.

The final standing of the teams is as follows:—

Goals	Points
St. Bon's	10
Terras	8
St. John's	6
St. Peter's	4
St. George's	2
St. James	1
St. Paul's	0

INDOOR SPORTS MEET.
 The annual ice sports of the G.W.V.A., which were supposed to have taken place on Wednesday night, but were called off owing to ice conditions, will take place to-night at the Prince's Rink. The programme consists of 3 mile and 1 mile championship races, and League and Inter-Collegiate relay races. All these items promise to be keenly contested and good races are anticipated. Following this programme there will be general skating, the C.L.B. Band playing 10 bands.

BENEFIT FOR ICEMEN.
 All arrangements are now practically completed for the annual ice-men's benefit night, and the date has been set down for next Tuesday night. A splendid sports programme has been arranged, full particulars of which will appear in our advertising columns to-morrow. A large list of entries has already been sent in and the programme promises to be an interesting one.

INTER CLUB CARD TOURNEY.
 B.I.S. Players The Victors.
 The final game of the inter-club card tournament between the members of the B.I.S. and K. of C. was played at the B.I.S. rooms last night, and was equally as enjoyable as the previous games had been. The usual number of games were played and at the close it was found that the B.I.S. team had again carried off the honors as they did in the total for the whole series. For the highest table, it was found that two teams from each club had the same number of points, making a play off necessary. In this play-off Brocklehurst and G. Galway, B. I. S. Royalty, are unquestionably of first class quality; the containers indeed are not as ornate and expensive as certain continental productions; but they are at least in good taste, and Messrs. Pears' are satisfied to cater to Ladies and Gentlemen who prefer to have value inside, rather than outside, the container. The Toilet articles selected for Pears' Golden Series are: Pears' Talcum Powder in pink and white.

CURLING.
 The "Victoria" trophy was played for last night, four teams from each division participating. The Greens defeated the Reds by seven points, and the Blues were victorious over the Whites by three points. The Blues and Greens will now play off for the pennant for 1925.

Yesterday, which was Consultation Afternoon at the Child Welfare Centre, was marked as a special day. Miss Arlie Marks of the Casino Theatre came to take an interest in the work. She charmed many of the babies with her happy smile, and the babies did their best with smiles too. Miss Marks promised to come again before she leaves. There were 29 babies and toddlers at the Centre. His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland, on his way down from the Registrar General's Office, was surprised to find how busy we were. His Lordship with a very kindly interest talked with Dr. Fallon about Welfare Work in Newfoundland.

RE-BROADCASTING

There are two methods of remotely containing the operation of a broadcasting station. Possibly the more familiar method is that in which ordinary telephone lines are used to carry the pick-up program from the scene of action to the broadcasting station. This scheme is used almost daily in broadcasting sporting events from an athletic field. The announcer reports the action directly from the field and his voice is carried over a regular telephone line to the studio where it is amplified and fed into the broadcasting outfit.
 Similar methods are used to broadcast important events from three or four stations at the same time. In this case, however, the regular telephone lines are replaced by toll lines, which are owned and maintained by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Western Union Telegraph Company.
 The other method, which bids fair to offer keen competition to wire methods of handling the broadcasts, is that which was inaugurated by the Westinghouse people from station KDKA. For some time KDKA has been broadcasting on two wavelengths at the same time. One wave is their standard 325-meter one and the other a 97-meter wave. The first can be picked up on the standard broadcast receivers but the 97-meter wave requires special apparatus which is not ordinarily found in the average home. KDKA's 97-meter program is picked up by KFKX, another Westinghouse station at Hastings, Nebraska. An ordinary detector and 2-stage audio amplifier receiver designed for 97-meter reception is used at KFKX. The signals from KDKA are passed through the receiver into a special 2-stage power amplifier, and then fed into KFKX's 260-meter transmitter. This makes reception from KDKA, via KFKX, much more reliable than were people in the mid-west to rely on KDKA alone.

 Following closely in the footsteps of KDKA's pioneer work in rebroadcasting, the General Electric people at Schenectady have outfitted a truck which has a medium-powered short wave broadcasting station which can be driven from location to location. WGY's 330-meter broadcasting station is supplied with programs from this short-wave truck outfit. Then WJAZ, the Zenith Radio Corporation portable truck broadcasting station supplies their high-power station in like manner.
 It is not prophesying too much when we say that some day there will be such a network of Rebroadcasting stations that the whole country can be "tied together" with simultaneous transmission of one program from one place, all relaying being done by radio instead of by telephone wires.

Yesterday, which was Consultation Afternoon at the Child Welfare Centre, was marked as a special day. Miss Arlie Marks of the Casino Theatre came to take an interest in the work. She charmed many of the babies with her happy smile, and the babies did their best with smiles too. Miss Marks promised to come again before she leaves. There were 29 babies and toddlers at the Centre. His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland, on his way down from the Registrar General's Office, was surprised to find how busy we were. His Lordship with a very kindly interest talked with Dr. Fallon about Welfare Work in Newfoundland.

Proceedings at the Legislative Council

OFFICIAL REPORT.

HON. MR. ELLIS wished to express his regret that our venerable friend and colleague, Hon. J. D. Ryan, has found it necessary because of failing health to resign the Presidency of the Chamber. During the five years he filled the office he well maintained its traditions and by his courtesy and consideration earned the respect and esteem of the members. He was sure that every member of this House would join with him in the hope that he may be spared for many years to come.

Equally he congratulated the Hon. President on his re-appointment to the Presidency. He felt that it is only necessary to say with regard to him that our experience of his previous incumbency of this office, and our knowledge of the manner in which he had carried out the duties of the various posts of trust and responsibility which he had filled in the public life of the Colony, guarantee us that his term of office, which he trusted would be a long one, will be marked by a procedure satisfactory to this House and creditable to himself.

He was sorry at the loss to the Chamber of Sir Edgar Bowring and Mr. Bell. Sir Edgar was the senior member of our mercantile community, the representative of one of the oldest firms connected with the general trade of Newfoundland. As a member of the House he could speak with an authority that few could approach and on all questions his wide experience of the larger world outside made his opinions of great value. As a public spirited citizen he had had few equals, the gift of Bowring Park to the City of St. John's by his firm was largely due to him, and every worthy movement within the community found in him a generous supporter. His withdrawal from the country, which is rumoured, will be generally regretted, and nowhere, he thought, more than in this House.

Mr. Bell, while not long a member, was still a useful one, especially on all questions relative to ship-building and industries associated with it. In addition he had a practical experience of our cod fisheries, and his judgment in all such matters was sound, and his speeches, if few, were to the point. He will carry into retirement the best wishes of all who were associated with him in this House.

He would now add a word of welcome to the new members—Hon. Dr. Robinson, Hon. Mr. Alderdice and Hon. Mr. Ayre. Hon. Dr. Robinson enters this House for the second time, not the third time. He was here in 1888 as Colonial Secretary, but resigned after a year to contest a constituency, and entered the Lower House with the same portfolio. He returned to this Chamber in 1910, and remained here until 1916, when he resigned to become Postmaster General. He is with us again, and the Hon. gentleman trusted if he leaves us again it will be to fill a position equally as honorable and equally responsible. He brings to the service of this House a great experience gained from periods spent in both Chambers, in Cabinet Offices and in the administration of public departments. Of the three gentlemen, Mr. Ellis knew him best. He had been associated with him in voluntary tasks, in which he has given the best of service. He felt satisfied that he will exhibit the same energy, ability and judgment in his work in this Chamber, and the House will be the gainer by his presence.

Hon. Mr. Alderdice is a member of a family prominent in both our commercial and political life in the past. His uncles, Messrs. Monroe, were the founders of our rope-making industry, they built up one of the greatest industrial concerns, and as the present President and Manager of the Colonial Cordage Company, he is maintaining their records. His uncle, the late Hon. Moses Monroe, was for many years a member of this House, and he felt sure that in Hon. Mr. Alderdice, he will have a worthy successor. The late Moses Monroe was an outstanding man in his day and generation, who gave yeoman service to this, his adopted country, as a progressive merchant, an enlightened legislator and an earnest worker for municipal welfare.

Hon. Mr. Ayre is one of the rare cases in this country of the second generation of a family finding a place in this House, and it is still more rare to find two examples of this in the House at the same time. Mr. Ayre's father was a respected member of this House for many years, and a similar case is that of the Hon. Mr. Shea, whose father occupied the Presidency of this Council for a long period. Among the most competent and progressive business men of Water Street, Hon. Mr. Ayre stands foremost, and as one of the principals of the firm of Ayre & Sons, he is rightly looked upon as one of our Captains of Commerce. That he will play as helpful a part in the works of this House as his father did, we feel certain, and it is a welcome circumstance that men of executive capacity, who have proved successes at the head of large industrial concerns, should be called to the deliberations of this Chamber.

With reference to His Excellency's speech, Hon. Mr. Ellis said in the first place he considered it one that the Legislature and the country should welcome among the most important and inspiring for many years. It foretold enactments of the first order covering nearly every phase of our life as a country, and these various measures should be fruitful in beneficial results in years to come. As the Hon. proposer of the motion for the Address in Reply has covered the various sections very fully, he would not deal with them in detail, but merely scan them in passing, but proposed to discuss somewhat fully one or two subjects on which he thought he could claim to speak with some special knowledge. We rejoice in the growing prosperity of the Colony. The success of last year's codfishery was a great help towards this and is stimulating an increased prosecution of that industry the coming summer. The construction of the Humber is also a great help, and if the new Gander enterprise takes shape a further impulse upward will be given. The best proof of our increased prosperity is the splendid result of the loan floated a day or two ago, which shows the restoration of confidence in the Colony among outside investors.

The only cloud on our horizon is the situation at Bell Island, and he thought opinion will be unanimous in endorsing the stand taken by the Premier.

Regarding the Labrador Boundary, it is evident that matters have not advanced sufficiently to make any announcement possible just now, but it will be helpful to the Government to say that we feel every confidence that the best interests of this country are safe in the hands of the Prime Minister and his colleagues. The same is true of the administrative problems involved in such matters as unemployment, abuses in public departments and services, extravagances and waste in expenditure, and inefficiency in many quarters. The people of the country watched with the keenest interest the effort of the Government to clean up our public affairs, and will wish them every good fortune in the work they have thus undertaken. It is good to know that the country's finances are so satisfactory, that a surplus is in sight, and that the duties are taken off the fishermen's necessities, and that the Government feel they can remove the income tax without disturbing our financial equilibrium. The decision to provide a new steamer for the Cabot Strait service is a commendable one, and equally so is the decision to re-rail part of the main line of the railway, and to make extensive repairs to the Dry Dock. The necessity for all these betterments will be generally recognized, and the decision of the Government to deal with them so promptly will, he felt sure, meet with the approval of the people. A re-distribution Bill will be welcomed, and the creation of one man seats is certainly a step in the right direction.

Rumor says that a Woman Suffrage Bill is to be introduced in the other Chamber, though not as a Government measure; nevertheless he understood from its advocates that it is their right, and it comes to us in this House, he thought its passage here is also assured, judging by the declarations in favor of it made by most Honourable Members, when a petition in favor of it was before this House two or three sessions back. He thought the time was ripe for its return. He had seen the operation of Woman's Suffrage in the United States, and all authorities are agreed that it has been a beneficial measure.

The two matters about which he would like to speak at some length are those of Tourist Traffic and Municipal Reform. He strongly commended the effort to promote Tourist Traffic. The Hon. gentleman had been visiting California for the past few years, and could truthfully assert that Tourist Traffic has been one of the largest agencies in building up that State. He was glad to see that a good Road Bill is being introduced, because good roads count for almost more than anything else in attracting tourists, as most of them bring their motor cars, therefore the inclusion of a Motor Traffic Bill is also to be welcomed, because proper regulation of motor vehicles is indispensable. Next in importance to good roads is the providing of good hotels. This is something we should deal with also because you can never attract the most desirable class of tourists until you can furnish them with modern hotel accommodations. The possibilities are infinite. He had noticed, for example, and it is mainly because of tourist traffic that the City of Los Angeles has grown in population from a hundred thousand to over a million the past twenty-four years, and other cities and towns in Southern California, such as San Diego, Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, San Bernardino, Pasadena, Glendale, River Side, Long Beach show proportionately a similar increase in population during the same period, and the State of California has now more motor cars than any other State in the Union, except New York. To come nearer home even in Nova Scotia, tourists left seven million dollars last year, according to a statement by Colonel Montgomery, President of the Halifax Board of Trade, in the Halifax Herald of Dec. 21st, and he predicted that catering for tourists could become Nova Scotia's greatest industry. There's no reason why the same sort of thing should not result here, and he hoped the Government will be encouraged to continue on with the policy, as there was no limit to the possibilities for influx of capital and new industries from some who might visit us.

As to the Bill for the creation of Municipal Institutions in the outports, he thought this a step in the right direction. He had had some experience, as Honourable members knew, in the Municipal affairs in St. John's, and he thought that our larger outports, and especially towns like Grand Falls and Corner Brook, should have similar machinery. It is well that people in these and other communities, should be given the handling of their own affairs, invested with responsibilities, and educated in the way of governing themselves.

With these measures outlined in the Speech before us to-day, and the financial and other bills that will also come before us, a busy session is assured, and one, that he hoped, will be fruitful of good results for this country and those who dwell within it. He had much pleasure, therefore, in seconding the motion for the appointment of a committee to draft an Address in Reply to the most gracious speech of His Excellency the Governor.

HON. MR. MORINE did not intend to take part in the debate at the present time and moved that it be deferred until next meeting of the Council, and from time to time in order that the address would be fully considered and intelligently discussed. He wished to associate himself with the preceding speaker in his personal references. He regretted the illness of former President Hon. J. D. Ryan, but rejoiced that one of such experience and aptitude as Hon. Sir P. T. McGrath had assumed that honoured post. He regretted also that Hon. Sir E. R. Bowring was about to sever his connections with the Council and the country. Sir Edgar stood far ahead of any other citizen in his generosity and practical assistance to the country. All admired him for his character and his worth, and he hoped to see him back again to the country and possibly to his seat in the Legislative Chamber. He wished to refer briefly to Hon. Dr. Robinson and Mr. Alderdice. By a coincidence Hon. Dr. Robinson came in with the same Government as himself in 1897, and resigned his seat in Bonavista District for him (Hon. Mr. Morine) in order that he might occupy it. It was a pleasure to him to be able to take part in having Doctor Robinson restored to his seat in the House. With reference to Hon. Mr. Alderdice he was under a deep debt of gratitude to his uncle, the late Hon. Moses Monroe, and he hoped the new member would follow in his uncle's footsteps. It was gratifying to see the large attendance of members in the Chamber. Indeed it was inspiring and he hoped it forecasted the interest that would be taken in dealing with the session. In moving the adjournment of the House he hoped for a full discussion on every measure that would be introduced. Most of the Bills to come before the House are already on the way, and he hoped for an early closing. In the meantime members could be better employed than discussing the Speech from the Throne.

HON. MR. GIBBS gave notice of question:—
To ask the Hon. Leader of the Government to lay on the Table of the House a statement showing, (a) the number of people receiving alms in St. John's; (b) the weekly or other amount which is paid; (c) the weekly expenditure, and (d) the amount expended to date.

To ask the Hon. Leader of the Government to lay on the Table of the House what amount of subsidy is now being paid by the Dominion of Canada in respect of the steamship service maintained by the Newfoundland Government between Sydney and Port aux Basques.

To ask the Hon. Leader of the Government to lay on the Table of the House copies of all correspondence between the Government of the Republic of the United States of America and the Government of Newfoundland in relation to claims made by the Government of the Republic of the United States of America for licenses and other fees collected by the Government of Newfoundland from fishing vessels of the United States of America.

HON. MR. MORINE moved adjournment until 4 p.m. Friday.

Household Notes.

Heat Brazil nuts slightly, then crack the shells and the nuts will come out whole.

Mice will not bother books or papers if moth balls have been scattered through them.

A little dried powdered mint gives a nice flavor to pea soup. Serve with tiny dumplings.

An appetizing sandwich filling is grated cheese mixed with finely chopped onion and mayonnaise.

A very simple icing is made by rubbing confectioners' sugar smooth with any kind of fruit juice.

Marshmallows are very novel when tinted a pale green and delicately flavored with peppermint.

When cut flowers begin to fade, drop an aspirin tablet into their water. It will revive and freshen them for several days.

Watch your tongue

The tongue is the mirror of the digestive tract and upon its surface is reflected the result of digestive disorders. Examine your tongue frequently and when you find it coated with "fur", or unnatural in appearance, heed Nature's signal.

Indigestion, biliousness, dizziness and constipation are responsible for most of the ills of mankind. Sleeplessness, headaches, nervousness and many ills follow in their train. Restore your digestion by using Beecham's Pills. They clear the tongue, remove the bad taste, strengthen the stomach and bowels, activate the liver, promote the digestion and assimilation of food and make you feel strong and well.

AIR FORCES VERSUS NAVY.

Feb. 9.—Congress for the past few days has been the scene of heated controversy on the subject of the nation's air forces, and charges and counter-charges of a serious nature have been freely made in and outside the Senate. The principle figures in the conflict are Brigadier-General Mitchell, Asst. Chief of the Army Air Forces, and Secretary of War Weeks. The outcome of the shakeup will in all probability be a general reorganization of the United States defence forces, with greater attention given to air equipment than has been contemplated heretofore. Meantime the report of the House Aircraft Committee, which may be made on Feb. 20, is awaited with keen interest by the public as it is expected the report will contain facts and recommendations of a startling nature. Amongst other things it is expected the following major recommendation will be made:—

That an air ministry be established to head a unified air service.

That an aircraft college be established to train aspirants for commissions in the air service.

That suitable aircraft be constructed immediately for national defence.

That the entire matter of defence be investigated immediately. In announcing that he would introduce a bill that will take the U.S. first line of defence from the water and put it in the air, Representative James V. McClintic of Oklahoma, member of the House Naval Affairs Committee said yesterday:—

"Instead of battleships, this nation must have immediately several Zeppelin-type airships of approximately 10,000,000 cubic feet gas capacity—ships that can carry fifty airplanes and journey across the Atlantic and return without stopping.

"We need battleships only to protect our commerce, and we have them already; but we must have great airships.

"The effectiveness of aerial bombs on ships has been suppressed from the public; but now the public knows—three years after their effectiveness was demonstrated."

STONE IS VINDICATED.

By a vote of 71 to 6, the Senate has ratified the nomination of Attorney General Stone as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Stone's appointment was held up on the plea that his action in the matter of the prosecution of Senator Wheeler of Montana on a fraud charge required investigation, and his opponents demanded that Stone should give an account of himself in this connection in open session. This the Attorney General did and the result was that instead of Wheeler being proved the martyr which his friends claimed he was, a very different face was given the whole situation. The insurgent element in the Senate imagined they had stumbled on a note written by the mother was found by the police. This note said:—

CAPTAIN BARTLETT TELLS OF ALASKA.

Capt. Robert A. Bartlett was the speaker before the members of the National Geographic Society and visitors on Saturday. Referring to his address the Washington Star had the following:—

Scenes in Nome, Alaska, showing kennels of sledge dogs, such as those that carried diphtheria antitoxin into the ice-bound city, were displayed last evening before members of the National Geographic Society by Capt. Robert A. Bartlett, aide to Peary on his trip to the North Pole. Capt. Bartlett made a trip into Alaska last summer on the famous Coast Guard ship, the Bear, travelling as a representative of the National Geographic Society, to obtain data as to the feasibility of the use of aircraft in Polar exploration. The weather was remarkably pleasant, the lecturer declared, and on only one occasion, at St. Michaels, did he encounter winds much above 10 miles an hour.

THE CANADIAN PULPWOOD EM-BARGO.

Discussing the proposed embargo on the exportation of pulp wood from Canada, the Washington Times contends that Canada is unfair and unjust to the United States in thus seeking to cut off this country's supply of raw material for her pulp and paper mills. The Times says the promise that the embargo will bring factories to Canada is false and that such action would result in Canada's ceasing to be the source of this country's supply, in which event the United States would immediately start to develop her resources in Alaska and the Southern States. Continuing, the article in question says the conservation plea which Canada uses as an excuse for the embargo is manifestly without foundation, as 90 per cent. of the forest lands of Canada are Crown lands and these are covered with an embargo already. Of the remaining ten per cent. of Canada's forest lands, only a little more than one-half of one per cent. of the annual consumption is exported pulp wood, and this figure is so small as to make the conservation plea ridiculous. In the next breath, however, the statement is made that "this figure does represent something like 20 per cent. of the pulp wood which now enters into the American manufacture of paper."

S.S. Newfoundland Launched, Jan. 24th

The following clipping in reference to the new Furness Liner Newfoundland, is taken from the Shipping World Jan. 28th, 1925:—

Newfoundland.—This passenger and cargo steamer was launched by Messrs. Vickers, Ltd., Barrow-in-Furness for the Warren Line (Liverpool), Ltd. (Messrs. Furness Withy & Co., Ltd.) She is intended for the Liverpool-Newfoundland service, and special attention has been given to the structure at the forward end to enable the vessel to withstand the severe conditions of the North Atlantic. Length overall, 423 feet; length, b.p., 405 feet; breadth moulded, 55 feet 3 inches; depth moulded to upper deck, 34 feet 4 inches. She has a gross tonnage of 5,520, and a deadweight of about 3,500 tons on a draught of 25 feet 3 inches. She has been constructed under the supervision of Lloyd's and is classed 100 A1. Built with a straight stem and cruiser stern, she has three complete decks and also bridge, forecastle and boat decks. Accommodation is provided for 100 first class and 80 third class passengers, while the crew totals 100. Six lifeboats are carried, operated by Quirk davits. The bridge deck is designed entirely for the accommodation of first class passengers and has 18 twoberth cabins and two cabin-de-luxe. The first class smoke room, bar, lounge, and music room, etc., are arranged on this deck. On the upper deck amidships is accommodation for the remainder of the first class passengers and a roomy dining saloon. Messrs. Hampton & Sons, of London, have received the contract for the decoration of all the public rooms. The refrigerating outfit has been supplied by Messrs. J. & R. Hall, Ltd. The holds and 'tween decks throughout the vessel are specially arranged for grain transport and two of the 'tween deck spaces are insulated. The vessel is to be propelled by one set of four crank inverted, vertical direct-acting surface-condensing quadruple-expansion engines, having cylinders 31, 43, 62, and 90 by 57 in. stroke and capable of developing 5,500 h.p. when running at about 80 r.p.m. The engines are balanced on the Yarrow-Schlick-Tweedy system. The propeller is four-bladed, of solid bronze, and the thrust block of the ordinary horse shoe type. Steam is generated at 215 lb. per sq. in. by five s.e. cylindrical boilers each 16 ft. 9 in. internal diameter by 12 ft. long. The boilers are arranged to burn either coal or oil under Howden's forced draught. The launching ceremony was performed by Lady Lewis, wife of Sir Frederick Lewis, Bart., chairman of Messrs. Furness Withy & Co., Ltd., and associated companies.

When it is considered that this proposed embargo would disturb this great industry and increase the price which every American reader would pay for newspapers, magazines and books, the matter will be seen to merit the consideration of the Government at Washington.

Municipal Council

WEEKLY MEETING.
The regular weekly meeting of the Council was held yesterday afternoon. The Mayor presided and Councillors Messrs. G. H. Collier, Ryan, and others were present.
Communication was read from the Prime Minister, in which he expresses his willingness to meet a deputation of the Council to discuss Municipal matters mentioned in communication forwarded him.
Mr. F. E. Pittman, General Passenger, Nfld. Govt. Railway, informed the Council they were now in possession of a descriptive, illustrated booklet for distribution to the United States and in other parts of Europe; that it was intended to make the booklet as attractive as possible, and in this connection would be glad if the Council would let them have any pictures of Bowring Park available, as well as one of the first points of call for ships coming to the country by the Bowring Park line, etc. The Council do not have any views or cuts of this kind, but will endeavour to secure them for him.
Application was read from E. J. O'Connell for position of Returning Officer for the forthcoming Municipal Election. At the present time the Council are taking up this matter, but application was ordered placed on the agenda for future reference.
Mr. M. Organ applied for position of Assessor. There being no objection the application was ordered to be referred to the Assessor.
Application of W. Chancy for position of driver on motor sprinkler was referred to the Assessor.
Application for supply of parts to the Dump Truck was awarded F. J. Ryan.
The request of R. H. Volsey, of the Bowring Park Tax Service, the Council met at its next regular meeting; it is to be given Mr. Martin to the Bowring Park house No. 3 Central Street, near Sebastian St., subject to the approval of the City Engineer. At the reading of weekly reports from the various departments, as well as that of the Medical Officer of Health and the passing of requisitions and weekly accounts, the meeting adjourned.

"The Wolf Man"
A Novel Love Story

Gilbert, whose work in "Cameo" and other notable Fox productions, has made him one of the most popular idols of the screen, does his best acting in the latest production from the Fox studios, "The Wolf Man," which opened a three day run at the Majestic Theatre last night. The role of the Honorable Gertrude, victim of a dual personality, is played by the influence of drink, Gilbert portrays the typical English gentleman at one point and with startling contrast, becomes "The Wolf Man," without pity or conscience, slayer. Vivid scenes of luxurious life in London, are followed by the starkness of existence in the back woods of Canada, where the terrible Gerald is driven by his obsession.
Johnson and Evans scored a knockout. Their selections were easily the best that we have heard for some time and it is a safe assertion that they are more popular with movie goers to-day than at any time during their brief theatrical career. The following items were featured: "Kentucky," "Will I Do," "Goo Goo Goo Good-bye," "In the Garden of my Heart," "Still Have Someone Else After Me."
The same bill will be repeated to-morrow and the special matinee for children to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow night.
The Majestic Management is making special preparations for Masterpiece Drama, a most stupendous production "Monna Vanna" which will be on Monday. Full particulars in tomorrow's paper.

Nomination Meeting

A meeting of St. Andrew's Society last night, the following officers were nominated:—
President—H. D. Reid.
V.P.—R. G. Reid.
V.P.—D. McIntosh.
Secretary—L. McDougall.
The committee of twenty were also nominated, nine of whom will be elected on the election on Thursday night.

P.A. Annual Meeting

All friends of the Society for the Protection of Animals will note that the annual general meeting of the Society takes place at 8 o'clock to-morrow in the Grenfell Hall. His Excellency the Governor will preside and will address the meeting which, it is hoped, will be largely attended.

There's little satisfaction in coaxing customers in one day with the bait of some "scheme" or deal, only to lose them to-morrow, when someone else does the same thing. That's not the kind of customers that make for permanent success of the grocer.

If we have Babbitt's Borax right one day and "almost as good" the next—sold it on a "drive" one day and at the "regular price" the next—there wouldn't be any "regular price"—or quality either.
