GREAT POWERS

Are always neutral in small squabbles.

SO IT IS WITH
PREST & HEPBURN
In the leather war now going on between their opponents on the south side of Wyndham-st.

WE do not believe in bosh and blarney, but deal with facts, and leave the verdict in the hands of the intelligent people of Wellington.
We are prepared to prove, and we positively affirm, notwithstanding all the puffing and blowing which has become the order of the day, that PREST & HEPBURN, Wyndham Street, Guelph, manufacture more.

BOOTS AND SHOES

And employ double the number of Workmen of any other establishment in the County of Wellington. We invite the public to call and look through our Factory, and they will be convinced that we are telling the truth, and nothing but the truth.
A great deal has been said for and against machine made Boots and Shoes. Now we believe, and we are confident that every well-balanced mind in Wellington will agree with us, that the less machinery used in manufacturing Boots and Shoes the better. All our staple Boots and Shoes are made by hand, which may be admitted is superior to any machine made goods. We have on hand the largest and best assortment of Boots and Shoes ever offered to the people of Wellington, which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest.

Remember that our work is warranted, and no second price. Repairs done as usual.

FRIDAY EV'NG, APRIL 2, 1869.

TOWN ITEMS.

Don't forget Mr. Easton's second lecture on temperance-to-night. Admission free.

A handsome new buggy from Bruce's Carriage Shop, Guelph, awaits the acceptance of the Incumbent of St. John's Church, Elora.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. John Hillyard
Cameron of Toronto, and Col. Barretto, of London, are in town, and stopping at the Colson House.

The St. George's Society of Guelph will hold their annual meeting very shortly, and decide in what manner to celebrate the anniversary of their patron saint.

SUGAR IS KING.—Read the mammoth advertisement of E. O'Donnell & Co., in another part of to-day's paper. Great inducements are offered by them to housekeepers, especially in the precious commodities of tea and sugar.

GOOD WORDS AND SUNDAY MAGAZINE.
—Mr. Thos. J. Day has sent us Good Words and Sunday Magazine for April.
They are filled as usual with most interesting and instructive reading matter, including continuations of the stories now being published in them. These two periodicals form the best family reading which can be obtained. For sale at Day's Bookstore.

SHOOTING MATCH.—A match took place at the Range yesterday (Thursday) afternoon between three hotel-keepers and three tinsmiths, in which the latter came off victorious by seventeen shots.
The Enfield was the rifle used, and the ranges were at two and three hundred yards. The sides were—Messrs. D. Bunyan, M. Deady and D. Heffernan, against Messrs. John Colman, Wm. Young and Wm. Stanley. In the evening the vanquished entertained their opponents at an oyster supper at Bunyan's Dominion Saloon, which passed off in the most pleasant manner.

Percy Gaston again in Trouble.

Many of our readers in Guelph will remember Percy Gaston, (colored) who some years ago lived in this town, and whose trial for the alleged burning of his store created no little excitement at the time. At this trial he refused to employ a counsel; but defended himself with considerable ability and shrewdness, closing up with a speech, in which he reviewed the evidence at length. The result of the trial was, that he was acquitted. He did not remain in Guelph, however, as the feeling there was strong against him, being generally considered guilty of the crime. He went off to the United States; and on the war breaking out he enlisted in the Northern army, according to the story told by some of his friends. Be that as it may he returned to Toronto in 1864, and was employed as a barber.

He was arrested the other day for breaking into Osgoode Hall, and stealing $47 worth of postage stamps. The Telegraph states that the white woman who lives with him, when examined, says she distinctly remembered the night of the robbery at the Hall. She went to bed that night at about nine o'clock. At midnight Gaston got up and left the house, and at half past one or two he returned. He fumbled around in the dark, opened one of his trunks, and after putting something into it locked it again.
In reply to the girl's enquiries, he said he had gone out to see a friend about something important, which he had forgotten early in the evening. A day or two after that she saw in his possession a number of postage stamps, red and blue. They were in sheets. She was sure they were in sheets. She was sure they were postage stamps as she examined them closely.

The police on searching his trunk found a deposit book of the Toronto Savings Bank, showing that on February 10th—a few days after the Hall robbery —he had deposited $45—two dollars less than the value of the stamps stolen. A short time before his arrest he had drawn $5, leaving $40 still lying there to his credit. All this constitutes a chain of pretty strong circumstantial evidence against Gaston, and will be used against him in court, together with whatever else can be scraped together. In addition to all this, it is supposed, that Gaston is an escaped convict, as he answers the description of a fellow who broke out of prison at Jackson, Michigan, a short time ago. He will no doubt be committed for trial for the Osgoode Hall robbery.

Complimentary Supper.

Understanding that Mr. Joseph O'Connor, late proprietor of the Wellington Hotel, was about to remove with his family to New York, a number of his most intimate friends—about twenty in all—assembled at the Queen's Hotel, and entertained him to an oyster supper. After the edibles had been disposed of, the company indulged for a time in songs, anecdotes, &c. Mr. Martin Ryan then proposed the health of "Our Guest," preluding the toast with a few well-chosen remarks, expressive of sorrow at parting with such a worthy and esteemed friend. In the course of his speech he alluded to the splendid prospects of Mr.
O'Connor, both in a social and business point of view, in the new home to which he was going, and declared his conviction that there were very few in any town in Canada who would not be glad to leave their homes if they had the same chance of making a fortune that Mr. O'Connor had. Mr. O'Connor made a very feeling reply. He thanked the gentlemen present for the honor they had done him, and assured them that the recollection of this evening would be long treasured up in his memory. He regretted leaving Guelph, and said that, though he had a better prospect of making money in New York, his heart would always turn with fondness to his native home. Besides his nearest relatives he had many kind friends in Guelph whom he could never forget, and he hoped that, though he must now bid them good bye, they would not be long separated, as he intended to re-visit Canada frequently. He concluded his remarks by again thanking the gentlemen present for the compliment they had paid him, assuring them that he felt and appreciated their kindness.—Cos.

News from the County.

The revival services continue in Fergus with unabated interest.

Mr. E. H. Newman will be appointed official assignee for Elora.

Robert Leech, Esq., has resigned his position as Captain of the Howick Volunteer Company.

The Rev. R. L. Tucker was presented with a beautiful cutter, upon his departure for Orangeville.

A new post-office has been established on the Owen Sound Road, in the township of Arthur, under the name of Rivers-town.

Capt. John Hollinghead of the Arthur Volunteer Rifle Company, received a first class certificate at the Military School, Toronto, recently.

The Bachelor's Social, held in the basement of the Wesleyan Church, Elora, on the 26th ult., was quite a success, over $30 having been realized.

Mr. Thomas Tribe, of Winterbourne-late of Elora, fell about a fortnight ago, striking his shoulders and the back part of his head on the icy ground, rupturing a small blood vessel.

A pleasant reunion was held in the Orange Hall, Mount Forest, on Monday evening last, by the members of the Literary Club, and of the Mount Forest Division of Sons of Temperance.

The Montreal Telegraph line to Listowel will be erected about the first of May. The poles are all laid down, and as soon as the weather permits, men will be set to work placing them in position.

Revival meetings have been and still are held in the Primitive Methodist Church, on the 10th line of Peel, which are productive of much good. Several have professed themselves benefited by them.

FAIRS.—The next regular monthly cattle fair takes place in Fergus, on Thursday, 22nd April. A fair is to be held at Durham on the previous Tuesday, and at Mount Forest on the previous Wednesday.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, ELORA.—At the vestry meeting of this church on Easter Monday, Messrs. James Arkell and T.
Farrow were appointed Churchwardens, and Messrs. H. Smith, J. Arkell and W.
Lapenotiere, delegates to the Diocesan Synod.

BAD ROADS.—A farmer from Erasmos informs us that the roads in many parts of that township are in a wretched condition. People from other localities have the same story to tell, and consequently very little produce or wool is coming into town at present.

Elora, says the Express, can boast of one of the largest, and one of the smallest babies in the Dominion. The former weighed eighteen pounds two ounces one hour after its birth, and the latter one pound and a quarter. "Like master like men," does not hold good in this instance.

NEW SAW MILL.—Mr. James Wilson, one of the most enterprising men in Fergus, and proprietor of the Monkland Mills, has erected a new stone saw mill, near his mills, fitted it up in the most modern style, secured several thousand logs, and is busily employed in cutting them up.

Some 1,600 fine pieces of timber, which have been taken out of Peel and Mary-borough, during the winter, are now being placed upon skids, preparatory to a plunge into the river. The lumbering operations being over for this season, the boats have been paid off, and nothing now remains but to ship the timber.

TO COME UP AGAIN.—The Fergus
News Record says that the Rev. Mr.
Smellie has notified his brother ministers that he intends at the next meeting of the Presbytery of Guelph, to move that the Court reconsider the delivrance given on the 23rd ult., in reference to the report of the Commission appointed to visit that, and ascertain the present state of religion there.

ANOTHER EFFORT.—A petition is in circulation in the Township of West Gar-rafraxa, asking the Council to submit a by-law for $10,000, as aid toward the Wellington, Grey, and Bruce Railway, providing the annual tax therefor does not exceed $2.25 per hundred acres. So soon as a majority of the ratepayers sign it, the by-law will be prepared and submitted.

PIGEON MATCH.—A pigeon match for ten dollars, with eight birds on each side, came off yesterday (Thursday) afternoon at Wm. Hewer's hotel, Puslinch Plains, between Mr. Thos. Hewer, of Guelph Township, and Mr. David King, of Puslinch. The former gentleman succeeded in killing five birds to three by his opponent, and thus came off the winner by two birds. Several "scrub" matches came off afterwards which afforded much diversion.

COMMENCED OPERATIONS.—On Monday last, Messrs. Connell and Smith, contractors for the clearing of the work on part of the line of road, commenced work at Reynolds's bush, near Elora, and are busily engaged cutting down the trees. A little farther down the line, Mr.
Schone has eight men clearing the track through his farm. Between four and five hundred men will soon be employed on the work, and there is every prospect that the road will be opened before Christmas.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the 24th ult.
a fatal accident occurred to Mr. H. Warnock, while engaged chopping on the farm of Mr. Alex. Burke, 14th concession East Garafraxa. It appears that while he was chopping down a tree another one which was lodged in it fell and struck him on the head. He was taken to the residence of Mr. Burke, and medical aid was sent for, but of no avail. He died the next day about two o'clock after having survived about twenty four hours after the accident. He was a young man about eighteen years of age, and was greatly respected by all who knew him.

The World Over.

Kossuth gets his living by copying

It is said the Government of Ontario intend to publish an Emigration Gazette for circulation in Europe chiefly.

An artist who is painting the nine muses can only find eight girls in New York who are beautiful enough for models.

It is now reported that Sir George E.
Cartier would not leave England till today, and that Mr. McDougall left on the 25th ult.

H. W. Beecher intends going abroad this summer, and his congregation proposes giving him $40,000 to defray the expenses of the trip.

NOT DEAD.—The story circulated by the St. Catharines Journal that Mr. Ferguson, the blind piper, was dead, turns out to be a canard.

John Sandfield has been practising on a velocipede. He was thrown and had his shirt collar spoiled. The velocipede was ten feet high—to match the shirt collar.

The centenary anniversary of the birth of Napoleon I., which will occur on the merchants in Hamilton, have failed; li-will make an arrangement with their creditors.

It is estimated that the snow in Tuckerman's ravine, in the White Mountains, is at least one thousand feet deep. Hopes are entertained of a magnificent snow arch there next August.

Mr. Miller, of Listowel, merchant,

Evening Mercury.

TOWN ITEMS.

Don't forget Mr. Easton's second lecture on temperance to-night. Admission free.

A handsome new buggy from Bruce's Carriage Shop, Guelph, awaits the acceptance of the Incumbent of St. John's Church, Elora.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. John Hillyard Cameron of Toronto, and Col. Barretto, of London, are in town, and stopping at the Condon House.

The St. George's Society of Guelph will hold their annual meeting very shortly, and decide in what manner to celebrate the anniversary of their patron saint.

SUGAR IS KING.—Read the mammoth advertisement of E. O'Donnell & Co. in another part of to-day's paper. Great inducements are offered by them to housekeepers, especially in the precious commodities of tea and sugar.

GOOD WORDS AND SUNDAY MAGAZINE.—Mr. Thos. J. Day has sent us Good Words and Sunday Magazine for April. They are filled as usual with most interesting and instructive reading matter, including continuations of the stories now being published in them. These two periodicals form the best family reading which can be obtained. For sale at Day's Bookstore.

SHOOTING MATCH.—A match took place at the Range yesterday (Thursday) afternoon between three hotel-keepers and three tinsmiths, in which the latter came off victorious by seventeen shots. The Enfield was the rifle used, and the ranges were at two and three hundred yards. The sides were Messrs. D. Bunyan, M. Deady and D. Hefferman, against Messrs. John Conson, Wm. Horning and Wm. Sunley. In the evening the vanquished entertained their opponents at an oyster supper at Bunyan's Dominion Saloon, which passed off in the most pleasant manner.

Many of our readers in Guelph will remember Percy Gaston, (colored) who some years ago lived in this town, and whose trial for the alleged burning of his store created no little excitement at the time. At the trial he refused to employ a counsel; but defended himself with considerable ability and shrewdness, closing up with a speech, in which he reviewed the evidence at length. The result of the trial was, that he was acquitted. He did not remain in Guelph, however, as the feeling there was strong against him, being generally considered guilty of the crime. He went off to the United States; and on the war breaking out he enlisted in the Northern army, according to the story told by some of his friends. Be that as it may he returned to Toronto in 1864, and was employed as a barber.

He was arrested the other day for breaking into Osgoode Hall, and stealing $47 worth of postage stamps. The Telegraph states that the white woman who lives with him, when examined, says she distinctly remembered the night of the robbery at the Hall. She went to bed that night at about nine o'clock. At midnight Gaston got up and left the house, and at half past one or two he returned. He fumbled around in the dark, opened one of his trunks, and after putting something into it locked it again. In reply to the girl's enquiries, he said he had gone out to see a friend about something important, which he had forgotten early in the evening. A day or two after that she saw in his possession a number of postage stamps, red and blue. They were in sheets. She was sure they were in sheets. She was sure they were in sheets. She was sure they were postage stamps as she examined them closely.

The police on searching his trunk found a deposit book of the Toronto Savings Bank, showing that on February 10th—a few days after the Hall robbery—he had deposited $40—two dollars less than the value of the stamps stolen. A short time before his arrest he had drawn $5, leaving $40 still lying there to his credit. All this constitutes a chain of pretty strong circumstantial evidence against Gaston, and will be used against him in court, together with whatever else can be scraped together.

In addition to all this, it is supposed that Gaston is an escaped convict, as he answers the description of a fellow who broke out of prison at Jackson, Michigan, a short time ago. He will no doubt be committed for trial for the Osgoode Hall robbery.

Complimentary Supper.

Understanding that Mr. Joseph O'Connor, late proprietor of the Wellington Hotel, was about to remove with his family to New York, a number of his most intimate friends—about twenty in all—gathered at the Queen's Hotel, and entertained him to an oyster supper. After the edibles had been disposed of, the company indulged for a time in songs, anecdotes, &c. Mr. Martin Ryan then proposed the toast of "Our Guest," precluding the toast with a few well-chosen remarks, expressive of sorrow at parting with such a worthy and esteemed friend. In the course of his speech he alluded to the splendid prospects of Mr. O'Connor, both in a social and business point of view, in the new home to which he was going, and declared his conviction that there were very few in any town in Canada who would not be glad to leave their homes if they had the same chance of making a fortune that Mr. O'Connor had. Mr. O'Connor made a very feeling reply. He thanked the gentlemen present for the honor they had done him, and assured them that the recollection of this evening would be long treasured up in his memory. He regretted leaving Guelph, and said that though he had a better prospect of making money in New York, his heart would always turn with fondness to his native home. Besides his nearest relatives he had many kind friends in Guelph whom he could never forget, and he hoped that, though he must now bid them good bye, they would not be long separated, as he intended to re-visit Canada frequently. He concluded his remarks by again thanking the gentlemen present for the compliment they had paid him, assuring them that he felt and appreciated their kindness. —Colt.

News from the County.

The revival services continue in Fergus with unabated interest.

Mr. E. H. Newman will be appointed official assignee for Elora.

Robert Leech, Esq., has resigned his position as Captain of the Howick Volunteer Company.

The Rev. R. L. Tucker was presented with a beautiful cutter, upon his departure for Orangeville.

A new post-office has been established on the Owen Sound Road, in the township of Arthur, under the name of Rivers-town.

Capt. John Hollinghead of the Arthur Volunteer Rifle Company, received a first class certificate at the Military School, Toronto, recently.

The Bachelor's Social, held in the basement of the Wesleyan Church, Elora, on the 26th ult., was quite a success, over $30 having been realized.

Mr. Thomas Tribe, of Winterbourne, late of Elora, fell about a fortnight ago, striking his shoulders and the back part of his head on the icy ground, rupturing a small blood vessel.

A pleasant reunion was held in the Orange Hall, Mount Forest, on Monday evening last, by the members of the Literary Club, and of the Mount Forest Division of Sons of Temperance.

The Montreal Telegraph line to Listowel will be erected about the first of May. The poles are all laid down, and as soon as the weather permits, men will be set to work placing them in position.

Revival meetings have been and still are held in the Primitive Methodist Church, on the 10th line of Peel, which are productive of much good. Several have professed themselves benefited by them.

FAIRS.—The next regular monthly cattle fair takes place in Fergus, on Thursday, 22nd April. A fair is to be held at Durham on the previous Tuesday, and at Mount Forest on the previous Wednesday.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, ELORA.—At the vestry meeting of this church on Easter Monday, Messrs. James Arkell and T. Farrow were appointed Churchwardens, and Messrs. H. Smith, J. Arkell and W. Lapointe, delegates to the Diocesan Synod.

BAD ROADS.—A farmer from Eramosa informs us that the roads in many parts of that township are in a wretched condition. People from other localities have the same story to tell, and consequently very little produce or wool is coming into town at present.

Elora, says the Express, can boast of one of the largest, and one of the smallest babies in the Dominion. The former weighed eighteen pounds two ounces one hour after its birth, and the latter one pound and a quarter. "Like mother like men," does not hold good in this instance.

NEW SAW MILL.—Mr. James Wilson, one of the most enterprising men in Fergus, and proprietor of the Monkland Mills, has erected a new stone saw mill, near his mills, fitted it up in the most modern style, secured several thousand logs, and is busily employed in cutting them up.

Some 1,000 fine pieces of timber, which have been taken out of Peel and Maryborough, during the winter, are now being placed upon skids, preparatory to a plunge into the river. The lumbering operations being over for this season, the loads have been paid off, and nothing now remains but to ship the timber.

TO COME UP AGAIN.—The Fergus News Record says that the Rev. Mr. Smellie has notified his brother ministers that he intends at the next meeting of the Presbytery of Guelph, to move that the Court reconsider the deliverance given on the 23rd ult., in reference to the report of the Commission appointed to visit Galt, and ascertain the present state of religion there.

ANOTHER EFFORT.—A petition is in circulation in the Township of West Garafraxa, asking the Council to submit a bill by-law for $10,000, as aid toward the Wellington, Grey, and Bruce Railway, providing the annual tax therefor does not exceed $2.25 per hundred acres. So soon as a majority of the ratepayers sign it, the by-law will be prepared and submitted.

PIGEON MATCH.—A pigeon match for ten dollars, with eight birds on each side, came off yesterday (Thursday) afternoon at Wm. Hewer's hotel, Puslinch Plains, between Mr. Thos. Hewer, of Guelph Township, and Mr. David King, of Puslinch. The former gentleman succeeded in killing five birds to three by his opponent, and thus came off the winner by two birds. Several "scrub" matches came off afterwards which afforded much diversion.

COMMENCED OPERATIONS.—On Monday last, Messrs. Connell and Smith, contractors for the clearing of the work on part of the line of road, commenced work at Reynolds' bush, near Elora, and are busily engaged cutting down the trees. A little farther down the line, Mr. Schone has eight men clearing the track through his farm. Between four and five hundred men will soon be employed on the work, and there is every prospect that the road will be opened before Christmas.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the 24th ult., a fatal accident occurred to Mr. H. Warnock, while engaged chopping on the farm of Mr. Alex. Burke, 14th concession East Garafraxa. It appears that while he was chopping down a tree another one which was lodged in it fell and struck him on the head. He was taken to the residence of Mr. Burke, and medical aid was sent for, but of no avail. He died the next day about two o'clock, after having survived about twenty-four hours after the accident. He was a young man about eighteen years of age, and was greatly respected by all who knew him.

NEWFOUNDLAND AND THE CONFEDERATION.

In one of the most dreary and stormy portions of the blue Atlantic, isolated, and presenting a most uninviting appearance, is the island of Newfoundland, the nearest part of the American continent to Europe, and soon to become, it is now almost certain, part and parcel of this Dominion. The terms upon which Newfoundland agrees to enter the Confederacy are similar to those proposed by the Quebec Conference in 1864, with the exception of an increase of $25,000 a year to be paid her in consideration of the transfer of her crown lands, mines, and minerals—in all $175,000 for the transfer of the revenues derived from these sources.—There are several other large sums to be paid by the general government to this little island, and altogether her annual subsidy will be $408,922 for the purposes of local government.—This appears to be rather a heavy sum of money to pay, looking at the size of the island and its small population of 130,000—just about the number of inhabitants in Montreal; but the commercial importance of Newfoundland must not be overlooked, nor the fact that its entrance into the Confederacy must not be undervalued. As the time will come when Canada will be an independent nation, it is our interest to hold control over an island which commands the waters of our eastern coast, and reap the benefits of its enormous fisheries. So early as the beginning of the seventeenth century the great Lord Bacon gave it as his opinion that the seas around Newfoundland contained a richer treasure than the mines of Mexico and Peru, and this statement has since been borne out. The soil of Newfoundland is generally poor—rock and sand being the chief ingredients, and where there is any show of vegetation, stunted trees are the principal feature. In the interior there is a little soil which yields fair crops, but not more than enough to meet the demand of home consumption. What nature denies in one respect she generally makes up for in another, and in her fisheries alone Newfoundland has the source of a great trade; and with a little attention its pecuniary value could be greatly increased, as the Americans well know. The internal resources of the country are also much greater than is generally supposed, for coal, gypsum, lead, and copper mines exist in abundance—in fact the mineral wealth of Newfoundland is capable of far greater development. From its insular position, and little worth as an agricultural country, Newfoundland has attracted few emigrants to its shores, and consequently its progress in wealth and development has been very slow though steady. As soon as it becomes a member of the Confederacy, and free trade is established between it and the other provinces, its future prosperity will be ensured.

The Hon. Ambrose Shea, who was one of the most earnest advocates of Confederation in 1864, has been deputed to go to Ottawa and submit the terms upon which Newfoundland will join the Union, to the Dominion Cabinet, and there is little doubt that these terms will be accepted. Sir J. A. Macdonald, who flung some two hundred thousand dollars to disaffected Nova Scotia, is not a very likely man to haggle over an additional $25,000 to Newfoundland over the amount offered about five years ago. There is one consolation, and that is, that the question of Union is to be submitted to the people before it can be carried; and the adoption of this sensible plan will enable Newfoundland to keep clear of the rocks on which Nova Scotia was stranded. Because the electors of the latter were never consulted as to their wishes in the matter of Confederation, they have made their Province just what Mr. Howe said they would—"a little Ireland in Canada"—and judging from the annexation leagues in New Brunswick, and the recent orations of anti-Union candidates, the people of that Province are not much better satisfied with an arrangement which was entered into without their consent. Both of these Provinces have been a source of uneasiness to the others since July, 1867; but in the case of Newfoundland, it is pleasant to find that the lesson afforded to our politicians has not been lost, and that the people to whom they owe their positions are to have a voice when a matter of so great importance as annexation of their country to another is proposed.

PROCLAMATING.—Mr. James Ross, M. P., will close the Crown Lands office in Elora on Tuesday next, unless, in the meantime, his successor is appointed. On his election to Parliament, Mr. Ross forwarded his resignation to the Crown Land Department, but he has heard nothing of the matter since. Why does not Mr. Ferrier see to this? He very soon settled the Registrarship, and as he is the only member for Wellington the immaculate John Sandfield consults, we should think he would soon manage this little matter also, and have his brother-in-law appointed without delay.

The Midnight Murder in Toronto.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES AT GUELPH.
Our readers were startled yesterday by the account in the Toronto Telegram of a horrible murder committed in that city by Mr. D. Seave, whereby Mr. Thomas Pheeline, an esteemed citizen, was brought to an untimely end. The news of this fatal catastrophe was generally discredited; but the distressing tidings were confirmed when, early yesterday morning, the corpse of poor Tom Pheeline, who it appears was once a resident of this town, was brought up by an early train from Toronto and left at a well-known and popular saloon on West Market Square, from which place the funeral cortege started last night, attended by a large body of our citizens—the pall bearers being old Mr. Eyo and Mr. Thomas Jia. The painful event caused a great sensation throughout town, and we may be allowed to utter the fervent prayer, Rest quiet in peace.

Guelph, Ontario.

We have pleasure in making known to you the arrival of all of our IMPORTATIONS DIRECT FROM THE PLACES OF PRODUCTION, for the Spring Trade, and of saying that at no previous time have we been in the same position to offer you such an assortment to select from: the Varieties of Styles, Fabrics and Yarns in the various Departments are so varied and new that they call for an immediate inspection, in order that the taste and care shown in purchasing be fully appreciated.

We are safe in saying that no other House in the business in Guelph can approach the variety of our Stock to select from; and the prices at which our entire Stock will be offered must command immediate sale.

We are desirous of impressing this fact upon all intending buyers, that it is UTTERLY IMPOSSIBLE for any other House in the Trade TO COMPLETE WITH US, for this reason: We have no second profit to pay; we buy direct from the Manufacturers in Britain ourselves; and as all others in the Dry Goods business here purchase their Goods at second hand from wholesale houses in Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton, paying these importers their profit (as a profit they must have,) and then adding their own profit on before selling you the Goods here, it certainly cannot fail to convince you of the great truth that we assert, that our Goods must be at least twenty per cent under ordinary prices in other Stores in Guelph.

A call is respectfully solicited, when we feel confident that we will show you to your entire satisfaction that we are working for the mutual advantage of each.
Yours very respectfully,

DR. BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER.

Is one of the safest and most reliable Remedies in existence for the speedy cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Sore Throat, Asthma, Diphtheria, Difficulty of Breathing, Pleuritic Pain in the Side and Breast, Quinsy, Bleeding of the Lungs, and all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, including that worst of diseases—Consumption. This remedy is also valuable in Liver Complaints, Inflammation of the Kidneys or Urinary Organs, and all Internal Inflammation. This really superior remedy should be in the possession of every family, as a timely use of it in case of a recent cold will afford immediate relief, while cases of long standing and of apparently incurable character readily yield to its wonderful soothing and curative properties. Its universal adoption to the wants of mankind makes it an indispensable necessity in every household. The Balsamic virtues of the Wild Evergreen as an agent in the cure of the numerous diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, which always in our ever varying climate prevail in a greater or a less degree we well know, but the power of relieving, healing and curing these diseases is enhanced when by scientific principles it is combined with other ingredients of equal value as healing agents. Until recently that terrible disease, Consumption, has been considered an affliction beyond the reach of medicine, or the healing art. But a new era in the management of Pulmonary Diseases seems to be dawning upon the scientific medical world, and since many distinguished physicians have acknowledged that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, few there are who attempt to controvert their opinion. Price $1.00.

Dr. J. Briggs' Unrivalled Pile Remedy.

Is mild, yet efficacious, and warranted to cure Internal, External, Bleeding and Itching Piles, in the most satisfactory manner, without the least unpleasant sensation. It is well known that thousands upon thousands have been afflicted with this disease, many of whom have sought for relief, but have gone to their long homes without it. The number is incredible who are dragging out a miserable existence at the present day, searching and trying for a remedy. We would say to those who suffer, go and get a box of Briggs' Pile Remedy, and the trial will not be in vain. The relief is immediate, and a cure soon effected. Price $1.00.

Dr. J. Briggs' Modern Curative

Is without doubt the purest, mildest and most efficacious remedy ever discovered. It affords immediate relief and rapid cure of Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, and also all Flesh Wounds and Skin Diseases such as Cuts, Bruises, Scalds and Frost Bites, Bites of Insects, Sore Lips, Sore Nose, Chapped Hands, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Ringworms, Ulcers, Sore Feet, Festered, Chafed Flesh, Sore Nipples, Caked Breasts, Cancerous Scars, White Swellings, Scald Head, Scurry, Gunshot Wounds, &c. The proprietor in offering this compound to the public has the most undoubted confidence in its success, as it is composed of the most healing and pain-relieving substance known to mankind. The Curative, from the purity of its ingredients, will remain for years as sweet as when first made. Lard, suet and other animal fat or oily substances have had their day. It is well known that the Scarcas Salves and Ointments in the market soon become rancid and unfit for use. This Modern Curative is the best household remedy in the world—simple and pleasant in its application, certain and effectual in its results. Price 50 cts and $1.

It is sold by E. HARVEY & CO., Guelph, and by all the leading Druggists and Chemists in the Province and elsewhere. Dr. J. BRIGGS & CO., Proprietors, No. 6 King Street, corner of Yonge, Toronto, and 55 Broadway, N. Y.

Jeannie Sinclair, OR THE LILY OF THE STRATH.

"And so you have," exclaimed the Baronet bitterly. "Twenty years ago, when I knew not of what you were capable, you executed a most daring crime to gain that which you falsely say is your natural right. Regret, remorse, or repentance you have not known. Not one word have you ever spoken to tell me of the fate of my child. Still, you have schemed and plotted in vain, and you shall find it so."

"Shall I?" echoed Lynedoch, with a sinister smile. "Yes, you will best understand the meaning of your own words—a man must yield when he cannot better do."

"Ay, when he cannot better do," repeated the other with ferocious significance. "It has not come to that with me yet. Fergus Sinclair, the game between us is nearly played out, and it is mine to win."

"Why, what foolish boasting is this?" demanded the Baronet, fixing his eyes on the demonic countenance of his cousin, on which was becoming every moment more legible the murderous purpose he had come to execute.

"Stand aside, I say," added Sir Fergus, half in rage, half in fear, as he looked upon the dreadful expression of his cousin's face. "No!" shouted Lynedoch, whose hell of hate was now stirred to ungovernable fury. "For days and days I watched for this opportunity. I have followed you hither for one purpose only—kill you."

He sprang upon him as he spoke, and before the amazed Baronet realized any danger, Lynedoch had clutched him by the throat and began to bear him backwards towards the mouth of the well.

"Good God, Lynedoch, are you mad?" gasped Sir Fergus, as an apprehension of the reality of his cousin's desperate purpose dawned upon him. "Merciful Heaven! Lynedoch, Lynedoch—you do not intend to murder me?"

"I do," hissed Lynedoch, as with desperate energy he strove to drag him to the well. In an instant the Baronet fully understood the dreadful nature of his position, and what Lynedoch intended to do, and the utmost horror seized his soul. Frantically he began to struggle against the strength his murderer was putting forth to hurl him into the abyss, and, prompted alike by the love of life and the fear of death, the strength he was able to put forth against him was beyond what his age could have produced, and was also more than Lynedoch had calculated on. The latter was much the younger and stronger man, and the fiendish passion in his soul added power to his heavier frame. The advantage, therefore, lay with him, and the issue could not but ultimately turn in his favour. But the desperation of despair is terrible to cope with, even in the weakest, and when a man finds that his life depends on the effort of the moment, gigantic is the might which that moment can furnish him.

The struggle was something terrible, and for a time appeared to be equal. Had Lynedoch quailed now or wavered in his purpose, the Baronet might have freed himself from his grasp and fled, but there was no change and no relenting. Nay, if possible, the ruthless determination was more settled, the fiendish ferocity more roused, the murderer's soul, and the more desperately Sir Fergus, the fiercer and more unalterable grew Lynedoch's resolution.

In the mountain solitude the struggle went on in perfect silence, but for the hard breathing and writhing contortions of the combatants, who glared into each other's eyes, and read there the thoughts of each other's heart. Sir Fergus thought no longer of beseeching his cousin to forego his purpose and spare his life. The lurid, hellish light in these blazing eyes told him such beseeching would be in vain, and that if there was any hope for him it lay in himself and his own exertions alone.

But soon this hope, faint at first, died away, as Sir Fergus felt his strength—desperate through instinctive terror had made it—yielding before the power of the other, and bit by bit he was forced nearer to the brink of the well. Oh, God! to be hurled down that black and horrid chasm to a cruel and bloody death; to be murdered so foully, and his fate never to be known—this flashed upon the victim's mind with all the freshness of a new horror, and, as he felt the hopeless contest coming to a close, his heaving breast sent forth a yell of despairing agony, which roused the very echoes of the gorge, and broke with startling effect the profound silence of the wilderness.

In that far solitude, however, no help was at hand. Yet was the deadly, desperate struggle not without an observer, for far up the ivied wall of the ruined fortress a pair of eyes were gleaming forth from a narrow loophole, watching with silent intensity the tragic scene below. Nothing but those eyes were visible, and they shone through the darkness of the interior with flashes of diamond brightness. Gradually, however, as the mortal contest came to its dread climax these piercing eyes came forward and outward, and between the ivy branches a head was thrust—a head with nothing but its natural covering of a mass of matted coal-black hair, and a face dark as olive, the expression of which was sharp and keen, while the features were forbidding and repulsive.

Unconscious, however, of the silent and weird-looking human presence above them, the cousins maintained their desperate struggle—Lynedoch's strength gaining more and more the mastery every moment.

"THAT BAUBLE."—Lord Charles Russell, Sergeant-at-Arms, has got dreadfully enraged about the mace which he has to lug out and into the House of Commons, and which he treats, it is reported, as badly as the clown in the pantomime used to treat the babies, by banging them about. Lord Charles Russell is not athletic, the mace is heavy, and it is a new job to him. He used to get the second Clerk of Parliament to lug it in and out; but the latter being of an enquiring turn of mind, discovered that that was the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms, and as he had no inclination to tire himself out, and become macerated by his exertions in carrying the mace, he compelled Lord Charles to shoulder his own mace, in spite of some peppery remarks, and after some spicy correspondence. The mace is the same as that ordered out by Oliver Cromwell, and with which he closed the Rump Parliament.

HONEST CABMAN.—On Wednesday a cabman drove a stranger to the Hamilton depot in time for the morning Toronto train. Soon after the departure of the train he discovered a pocket book, in his cab, containing $200. He immediately telegraphed to the conductor of the train at Oakville, apprising him of the discovery. The conductor made enquiry and found the owner; the latter took the first train for Hamilton and reached here last evening. Finding the cabman, he received his own with great joy; and, requiring the cost of the telegram, paid it with a show of magnanimity that would have done credit to the boldest "Jenkins" on the staff. "The cost of the telegram was seventy-five cents," said the cabman. "Oh! well," said the owner, "there are eighty cents; never mind the change!" He didn't.

It is a source of gratification to us to know that Dr. Briggs, the chiropodist, has met with the patronage in this city that his skill merits. Crowds have gathered daily to be relieved from every conceivable form of dis-ease of the feet, which was accomplished without the slightest pain. If any of our readers, who are suffering from corns, bunions, in-verted nails, or any disease of the feet, have put off seeing the Doctor, we would say, go at once, and take our word for it, you will thank us for the advice.—Hamilton Times.

NEURALGIA, or Trisolorous, is one of the most painful affections to which the human family is subject. It more commonly occurs in the nerves of the face, though it is met with in different parts of the head, in the breast, hip-joint, and in other parts of the body and limbs. Its attack is usually sudden and the paroxysm of pain varies in its duration. The pain is agonising, excruciating, and shooting along the nerves like a shock of electricity, frequently feeling as if red hot wire were thrust into the parts, and after the pain passes away, a numbness remains for awhile. At these times, instead of attacking suddenly, it comes with a slight heat, or sense of itching or numbness, which augments in severity more or less rapidly. The pain increases from time to time until it becomes almost insupportable. Dr. B. Harvey's Remedy is a positive remedy. Sold by B. Harvey & Co., Guelph, and druggists and country merchants every where.

DYSPEPSIA.
There is no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, (a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron), as Dyspepsia. The most inveterate forms of this disease have been cured by this medicine, as ample testimony of some of our first citizens proves.

From the venerable Archdeacon Scott, D. D.
Dunham, O. E.—I am an inveterate dyspeptic more than 25 years standing. I have been wonderfully benefited in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself or the reality. Persons who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me.

Another clergyman writes as follows:—My voyage to Europe has been indefinitely postponed. I have discovered the "Fountain of Health" on this side of the Atlantic. Three bottles of Peruvian Syrup have rescued me from the fangs of the band Dyspepsia.

A pamphlet of 32 pages containing a history of this remarkable remedy, with a treatise on "Iron as a medicine," will be sent free to any address. The genuine has "Peruvian Syrup" blown in the glass.
