MAILED PRISONERS SHOT HIS ASSASSIN SABRED

Major-General Von der Launitz, Chief of the St. Petersburg Police, Murdered by Revolutionary—Bullet Entered Base of Brain—Brilliant Assembly Witnessed Tragedy.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 3.—Major-General Von der Launitz, prefect of police of St. Petersburg, was shot and killed by a young man at the Institute of Experimental Medicine this afternoon.

Von der Launitz, at the invitation of Prince Peter Alexandrovich, Duke of Oldenburg, husband of the Grand Duchess Olga, youngest sister of Emperor Nicholas, was attending the consecration of the Institute chapel, during the service there and while standing near several high officials the prefect was approached from the rear by a young man who drew a revolver and shot him in the base of the brain.

As the assassin turned to flee, one of the officers present, Major-General von der Launitz, shot him in the back of the head and killed him. The identity of the assassin has not been established.

The authorship of the crime has been traced to the fighting organization of the Social Revolutionists, who recently resolved to resume full terrorist activity. The organization to-night issued the customary proclamation, avowing and justifying the assassination which was accomplished with an ease that has struck terror into the hearts of all other officials on the revolutionary death list.

The assassin was about 22 years old, and apparently belonged to the intellectual working class. The police affirm he was a Jew. He was provided with a card of admission to the dedication of the church, but here no money was taken. The authorities have not been able to learn how he obtained this invitation to the ceremony, which was extremely secret.

Prince Peter Alexandrovich, Duke of Oldenburg, is a patron of the Institute. Among the present guests were his wife, Grand Duchess Olga, youngest sister of Emperor Nicholas; Princess Eugenia Emilianovna, who is the daughter of a prominent nobleman; and other persons prominent at court.

That General Von der Launitz was to attend the consecration of the church of the Institute, the terrorists must have learned from sources within the police department. The prefect was escorted to the church by a military body guard of secret service men, but not one of them had the slightest suspicion of the murder.

SIGNS OF TIMES IN LEGISLATION

Suggestions Made in the Inaugural Addresses of Various State Governors—Control of Corporations.

Albany, N.Y., Jan. 3.—In his inaugural address Governor Hughes thus referred to public service corporations:

"Proper means for the regulation of the operations of railroad corporations should be supplied. For want of it, pernicious favoritism has been practiced. Secret rebates have been allowed, and there have been unjust discriminations in rates and in furnishing facilities for transportation. Those who have sought to monopolize trade have thus been enabled to crush competition and to grow in wealth and power by crowding out their rivals who have been deprived of access to markets upon equal terms. These abuses are not to be tolerated; Congress has legislated upon the subject with reference to interstate commerce, where naturally the subject is more prominent. But domestic commerce must be regulated by the state, and the state should exercise its power to secure impartial treatment to shippers and the maintenance of reasonable rates. There is also need of regulation and strict supervision to insure adequate service and due regard for the convenience and safety of the public. The most practicable way of attaining these ends is for the legislature to confer proper power upon a subordinate administrative body.

"Not only are the new facilities needed, which should be planned with reference both to immediate and future needs, but there is urgent necessity for more strict supervision to secure better service on existing lines. In some portions of the city antiquated and unsafe bridges are still being used, and the maintenance of these bridges is a matter of public convenience and safety. It is imperative that the state should exercise its power to compel the corporations to perform their public duty."

RAIN HELPS CANDIDATES ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION

Few Offices of Trades and Labor Council Will Be Contested.

Two resolutions were passed in the Trades and Labor Council last night, directly in opposition to two passed by the C.M.A. last week. They came in response to a circular letter from the Dominion Trades Congress, asking the council to protest against Senator McMillen's amendment to the Conciliation Act, which will prohibit international union officers coming into this country from the United States to take part in strikes, and further asking the council's approval of Mr. Verville's bill, which fixed the day-work on public works at 8 hours per day. Both were endorsed.

Nominations of officers for the ensuing year, owing to an unusually poor attendance on account of the inclement weather, resulted in most of the nominees being elected by acclamation. The election for the rest taken place at the next meeting, when one office which will be hotly contested is that of vice-president, between the socialist and labor element. Both factions will undoubtedly send a candidate. The vice-chairman is generally considered a stepping stone to the next year's presidency. The candidates are J. H. Kennedy (labor), and Fred Bancroft (socialist).

The other nominations are: President, W. T. Thompson (acclamation); recording secretary, John Gardner (acclamation); financial secretary, Chas. Goldsmith (acclamation); treasurer, Isaac Sanderson (acclamation); sergeant at arms, Jas. Hickingbottom (acclamation); outside clerk, J. T. Richardson (acclamation); legislative committee, Hungford R. H. Cox, W. T. Rawlinson, W. R. Steep, Jas. Picard (acclamation); executive committee, Fred Bancroft, T. Thompson, Robt. Hungford, Fred Bancroft and R. H. Cox; advisory committee to the official organ (left over), special committee on the workmen's housing problem, Fred Bancroft, J. E. Virtue, Robt. Hungford, T. McCarthy and Sheldon (acclamation); organization committee, Jas. Picard, T. C. Vadden, T. H. Gibbons, J. Griffin and Jas. Bennett (acclamation); municipal committee, Robt. Hungford, Wm. Worrall, J. E. Virtue, J. T. Richardson, and W. R. Steep (acclamation); legislative committee, John Gardner, J. T. Richardson, R. H. Cox, Jas. Ralph, and Jas. Watt (acclamation); educational committee, Delegates Brant, Jas. Hickingbottom, Donat, Jas. Stewart and Barton (acclamation).

WANT TO INDUCE WINDSOR TO SELL LIGHTING PLANT

Windsor, Jan. 3.—Capitalists who are behind the plan to buy the Windsor electric light plant and light the city at a cost of $25,000, are not likely to get the aid of the city council, which has been asked to make up any hope of bringing Niagara power to this city, as its cost would make its use prohibitive.

A bill was to be voted upon next Monday authorizing the expenditure of twelve thousand dollars upon the present plan.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

People Versus Cataract Issue In Hamilton Fight

Ald. Stewart in Front To Relieve City of Burden of Power Monopoly—Target for Abuse of Gibsons' Belted Press—Why "Spec" Boils Party Nominee.

Hamilton, Jan. 3.—(Special.)—The majority election on Monday next promises to be one of the warmest in recent years in Hamilton; not that there is much doubt of the result; as Ald. Stewart's friends confidently predict a majority for him of from 400 to 800, but on account of the big fight put up by Ald. Findlay's Cataract power allies, The Spectator and The Times.

There is no longer any doubt in the minds of the majority of people but that Findlay's chief support is the Cataract monopoly, which has been entrenched in Hamilton for a decade or more, and which is only recently coming to a realization of the fact that the people are in earnest in demanding a fair deal. True, he is running as the Liberal candidate for mayor, but the fact of the Spectator, which has never before been thrown over the party nominee, straining every pore to elect him is a sure index that the political feature is being subordinated to the interests of J. M. Gibson, the Southams and the other power managers.

The Spec's Hammer.
The Spectator has been hammering away at Stewart for the past year and a half. He has been a majority possibility ever since the election of Mr. Biggar, and The Spectator has done its best to prevent his rise. For four years Ald. Stewart has been chairman of the board of works. He had some things to say about the paper's course in the past, like the most notable thing being his refusal to allow The Spectator editorial room to frame his policy and dictate his actions on important civic matters. There is a good story to tell in this connection. But whatever may have suggested the paper's course in the past, it is abundantly evident that the "spec" that the Cataract power crowd has received in the past few months has resulted in the Spectator's efforts to put out of municipal politics the one man whose course has been most displeasing to the power company.

Conservatives Sore.
Among Conservatives there is nothing but condemnation of the action of the party organ—not so much on account of its efforts to discredit Ald. Stewart, but for its championing of the "man" of the Cataract monopoly. Findlay's course in the council has not been particularly popular with the Conservatives. These people can hardly disguise their feelings in this campaign, but they are fortunate in not having to come out into the open with brass bands and banners, and in having two newspaper supporters in The Spectator and The Times.

The Spectator was not always on Cataract champion. Its owners had a few hundred dollars in the company. Everybody that had a hundred dollars to spare put it into Cataract to start it going, relying on the versatility of John Patterson in not allowing it to come out into the open with brass bands and banners, and in having two newspaper supporters in The Spectator and The Times.

Anything That May Knock.
Ald. Stewart is charged with boasting that he has the Orange vote solid, and that also will get a big slice of the "Mick" vote.

This is the wording of a Times election story to-day, and illustrates the character of the campaign waged by Stewart's opponents.

Another of the journalistic tactics of the Findlay people is an interview with a horseman, who charges Stewart with being on both sides of the fence at once. The horseman is a scientist, and holds office in a Presbyterian Church, and is president of the Hamilton Riding Association. He says of the sport, "It would seem that, in assisting many legitimate enterprises, Ald. Stewart is making a great blunder."

ANOTHER HOLLOWAY CHARGE.
Another charge of fraud is to be laid against T. W. Holloway, in that he did obtain $27,000 from the University of Toronto as commission on the sale of university property, said sale being alleged to have virtually been made to himself.

Holloway was too ill to appear in court yesterday, his case was remanded until Tuesday.

HAMILTON LABOR CANDIDATES

Twelve for Aldermen and Two for School Trustees.

The Labor party of Hamilton, after due deliberation, decided to place a number of candidates in the field at the municipal election, which takes place on Monday, Jan. 7.

The City Council of Hamilton has been run on strict party lines for the last six or seven years, which has not worked to the benefit of the city. A great number of citizens have become dissatisfied at the way the business men, who have controlled the council, have opened their eyes to the fact that the Labor party has placed twelve candidates for aldermanic honors in the field, who are pledged to support the following platform:

- (1) Free and compulsory education.
- (2) Municipal ownership of all public utilities.
- (3) Proposed to electric or other railways running thru Dundurn or other parks.
- (4) Labor representation on all public boards.
- (5) Investigation of action of the police on night clubs.
- (6) Printing of assessment rolls for distribution to the citizens.
- (7) Proposed to granting any concession to the Hamilton Tramway Company or Cataract Power Company.
- (8) Construction of public works by day labor.

The following have been nominated for alderman by the Independent Labor party: Wm. Worrall, H. J. Haiford, Anderson, J. A. Williamson, J. Peebles, W. J. Ryan, R. Cross, P. McBride and Charles Bird sr.

The following is a short sketch of each candidate:

A. W. Wilkes is a prominent Labor man. As president of the Printing and Bookbinding Union, he has been a hard worker in the Labor cause. He is also a prominent Knight of Pythias, and has held the office of district deputy. If elected, he will be heard from in the future.

John Peebles, jeweler, is a strictly independent man, who has been secretary of the Hamilton Trades and Labor Council, and owing to the manner in which he attends to the duties of his office, he will be heard from in the future.

Williamson, grocer, West Bay-st., is a son of an old Laborer, who for twenty years was a bridge carpenter on the G.T.R. In his business life he is well known in Labor circles, and is a friend of the wage-earners. He is outspoken in his views and will support the Labor platform, and is supported by the Hamilton and its supporters in the interest of the people at all times.

Charles Bird sr., president of the Iron Moulders' Union for a number of years, has been a member of the city council for the past three years, and is a well-known member of the right party.

STRANGE SHOOTING AFFAIR SENDS MAN TO HOSPITAL

Revolver Bullet in Leg of Norman M. Cardle, Assaulted While Walking on Street.

Hamilton, Jan. 2.—(Special).—There was a strange shooting affair tonight about 10 o'clock. As Norman M. Cardle, 49 Cathcart-street, was walking along Kelly-street, a man darted out of an alleyway exclaiming "You're the man I want to see." With that he pulled a revolver and shot Cardle. The bullet entered Cardle's leg about the knee, and he was taken to the city hospital, where the bullet was removed. His assailant made his escape. Cardle says that he has the slightest idea of who his assailant is or the motive for shooting.

STREET RAILWAY EQUIPMENT

The city's case against the Hamilton Street Railway Company, which is being heard before the Ontario railway and municipal board, the board will make a personal inspection of the cars and roadways. Martin Haley, track superintendent of the company, made the assailing statement that the tracks are in good enough condition to make it safe for cars to travel at the rate of 60 miles an hour. An important point brought out by George S. Kerr, who is acting for the city, was that the cost of power charged up by the Ontario Power Co. to the street railway increased over $150,000 in 1904, an increase of over 25 per cent. The power was generated by steam. W. C. Hawkins, the general manager, was asked the price paid by the city for street lighting, $32.50 a lamp a year, which is a fair average price, F. D. Pearson, the attorney of the company, said the Ontario Power Co., which originated the street railway and other utilities, charged interest on all that it did for the subsidiary companies. An immediate order for the repair of the cars.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S HEALTH

Dr. Roberts, the medical health officer, waited upon the internal management committee of the board, of education this evening, and asked the trustees to provide for a careful inspection with reference to the health of the school children. A special committee was named to investigate and report. The resignations of Misses Wallace and Vallance, public school teachers, were accepted. Misses A. Hobson and M. L. Gray were appointed. The committee will meet next Thursday evening, previous to the board of education meeting, to deal with the increase in teachers' salaries.

RAN AMUCK WITH A KNIFE.

Drunken Italian Attacks Two Men on Agnes St.—Tragedy Averted.

P. C. Welch of No. 2 division was attracted to the corner of Queen's-avenue and Agnes-street by shouting and cries of police. He found a drunken Italian with a knife in his hand struggling in the grip of two men. The Italian, Andri Salagen, was arrested on two charges, of drunkenness and of attempting to wound.

The two men, William Pradenburg of 165 Seaton-street, and William Grell of 105 Parliament-street, say that the Italian stopped them brandishing a knife and shouting that he would kill them. A struggle then ensued, and the timely arrival of the policeman probably prevented a tragedy, for the man say the Italian fought like a demon.

The knife, which Salagen carried, was not much larger than the usual pocket knife, but it was sharpened at both sides and looked very much like a stiletto.

LAKE ERIE BOUNDARY.

Waterways Commission Will Likely Decide That It's All Right.

The question of the boundary of Lake Erie and the Chicago drainage project engaged the attention of the international waterways commission yesterday. A statement was issued to the effect that an agreement had been reached on the former matter, but publicity is not to be given it until the Dominion and United States governments have had it submitted to them and have given their approval.

It is considered probable that the present boundaries will remain practically unchanged.

No decision was reached on the drainage proposition.

THREE WEEKS ADJOURNMENT FOR G.T.R.'S APPLICATION

Request Will Be Made by City - Public Meetings to Decide on Best Course.

An effort will be made by Mayor Coatsworth, on behalf of the city and others interested, to have the hearing of the application of the G.T.R. and C.N.R., for right of way thru East Toronto, postponed for three weeks, from Jan. 16, the date now set. The city members, but some other members of the club, rather militated against a representation as the occasion warranted.

J. P. Biebling presided. No official pronouncements were made by any of the speakers, but the general tone, humorous and social sentiment than technical and professional. The toast of the King and Queen was drunk and three cheers. That of "Our Country" was responded to with even greater enthusiasm and Prof. Gairbraith, as well as Thos. White, in their remarks in reply, showed Canada as the most desirable country in every respect to be found on that planet known as earth. The next toast, "The City of Toronto," was coupled with the name of Charles E. Good, who fully demonstrated that the City of Toronto was the finest and most progressive "Sister Societies" brought Mr. Smith and Dillon Mills to their feet, the latter representing the Canadian Institute.

He was severely cut about the head, remaining unconscious for some time. He was taken into Dr. Millican's hospital and seven stitches placed in the wound.

PERMISSION TO BUILD THE NEW LINE.

It is recognized that the obstacles to be taken some time before a start can be made on it. At present the company's officials do not expect to get started on close to two years to build it.

Establishing Rights.

"By the present application they will, however, establish their rights to the route, and be prepared for the Canadian Pacific or the Canadian Northern may make."

ENGINEERS' BANQUET.

Pleasant Annual Function Held at the Club Rooms Last Night.

The Engineers' Club of Toronto held their annual dinner last night in their club rooms, 98 West King-street. There was a considerable attendance of members, but some other members of the club, rather militated against a representation as the occasion warranted.

J. P. Biebling presided. No official pronouncements were made by any of the speakers, but the general tone, humorous and social sentiment than technical and professional. The toast of the King and Queen was drunk and three cheers. That of "Our Country" was responded to with even greater enthusiasm and Prof. Gairbraith, as well as Thos. ### ELDON GIVEN APPOINTMENT AS PERMANENT POSITION

Board of Education of 1906 Give Technical High School a Principial as a Farewell Gift.

R. H. Eldon, assistant principal of the Technical School, was permanently appointed to succeed Principal Pakenham at the final meeting of the 1906 board of education last night. There was a certain degree of sentiment which would have been generally agreed that Mr. Eldon possessed the required ability, and the recommendation of the retiring principal carried proper weight.

Resolutions were also passed, recognizing the services of Trustees Davis and Smallpiece, the former a defeated and the latter a retiring member of the board.

The report of the management committee, recommending the temporary appointment of Mr. Eldon, brought forth a motion by Trustee J. Simpson that he be appointed permanently.

Dr. Ogden criticized the report of the committee as not being unanimous. Trustee H. Simpson thought Mr. Eldon should be principal until the school was moved to its new establishment.

The judgment of Principal Pakenham was moved to its new establishment. The resignation of Mr. Eldon was accepted. Chairman Shaw declared that the deputation visiting United States schools had not met the equal of Mr. Eldon.

The appointment went thru on the following vote: Mr. Simpson, 10; For—Trustees J. Simpson, Shaw, Dineen, Leves, Brown and Smallpiece 4.

Against—Trustees H. Simpson, Parkinson, Ogden, Kent and Rawlinson 3.

Trustee Parkinson wanted the permanent appointment made unanimous, but Dr. Ogden dissented.

Dr. Axon, secretary of the Clinton Hooker Club, has written the O.H.A. regarding alleged roughness on the part of M. McIver of Goderich in the game at Goderich Jan. 1, between Clinton and the home team. - WINTER IN THE SOUTH.
"Come in—the water's fine," they are saying in Florida these days. There's a most interesting picture of shark fishing.
- JUNCTION BALL CHAMPIONS.
Capital group picture of the All-Stars baseball team, winners of the Toronto Junction League.
- NEW HIGH SCHOOL.
The new high school in East Toronto is a rather imposing structure. There's a fine picture of it in The Sunday World.
- THE "DANDY COPPERS"
The stalwarts of Division No. 1, Toronto police force, make a fine picture. The group is well presented.
- HAMILTON'S KILTIES.
A splendid picture is given of the excellent band of the 91st Regiment of Highlanders, Hamilton.
- Fine portrait of the late Sir William Pearce Howland.
Portraits of Mayor Coatsworth and the mayors.
- Portrait of George Bogues, a Listowel boy, who has achieved success on the American lyric stage.
- Portrait of W. F. Cumming, a star runner of the Central Y.M.C.A. Harriers.
- "GEE WHIZ!"
Coasting—that's all. But it's a great picture.
- There is no other illustrated paper "just as good" for Toronto readers as The Sunday World. It tells the news in picture—news of first local interest. If it is worth a picture you'll find it in

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will commence an engagement of one week at the Princess Theatre next Monday evening, with Mrs. Madge Carr as the queen, motherly Mrs. Wiggs, Mrs. Edith Taliferro, a gifted young actress impersonates the character of Loretta, whose runaway flight from the orphanage with Little Tommy has been chosen by Mrs. Anne Crawford, Flaxner as the great plot of her dramatic version of Mrs. Alice Hagan's two famous stories. The comedy interest centres in the hitherto-provoking episode of Mrs. Stubbins and his matrimonial designs upon little Mrs. Hazy, the meek and shiftless neighbor of Mrs. Wiggs. This portion of the original has been elaborated to a notable extent. There will be Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

The atmosphere and scenes of Richard Carter's most successful comic next week, the first time in Toronto, are all Japanese. Both sets are laid in a public garden in the City of Tokio. There are, of course, Geisha girls, queer-looking Japanese soldiers, of the old kind, gorgeously costumed Japanese officials, and a beautiful white and pink cherry blossom effect over the whole place. Into this delightful, luscious land, a band of impetuous play actors, members of an American comic opera company, are projected. The presenting company is one of the best musical organizations in the country.

Few authors now writing for the stage have a greater following or stancher adherents than Lincoln J. Carter, whose latest melodrama, "White Prince Burns," comes to the Majestic next week. He has again demonstrated his ability to quickly find an extraordinary scene around which to write a most extraordinary play—an earthquake and a fire scene—which will go down in history as one of the greatest pieces of stage craft ever witnessed.

The Dining and Parlor Car Service on the Grand Trunk is excellent. No necessity to hurry a meal before leaving home when the best of everything at reasonable rates is served in the handsome cafe and buffet parlor cars. Buffet parlor cars are attached to trains leaving Toronto 8.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. for Niagara Falls and Buffalo, 4.30 p.m. for London and Galt; parlor cars are on the 7.35 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. for London and Detroit, 9.00 a.m. for Montreal and 1.45 p.m. for North Bay. Reservations and tickets may be secured at city ticket office, northwest corner King and Yonge-streets.

A Presentation. The recent resignations of several of the public school principals have necessitated several promotions. Among other transfers has been that of W. E. Smith of Rose-avenue school to the principalship of Bolton-avenue school, so the parents and pupils of the former school have presented Mr. Smith with a handsome set of Robert Louis Stevenson's works.

Ottawa and Montreal Trains. Through sleepers leave for Ottawa and Montreal every night at 10 p.m. on the C.P.R.'s eastern flyer from Chicago. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the magnificent compartment car Canada forms part of the equipment; other nights drawing-rooms are available in the sleepers. ## DIVIDING UP THE COST OF JAMES ST. EXTENSION

Lengthy Representations Made Before Judge Winchester by Property Owners Interested.

Further hearing of the appeals against the revised assessment for the cost of James-street extension will not be heard till after the city council meeting of Jan. 14, Judge Winchester yesterday agreeing to an adjournment at the instance of J. H. Macdonald, counsel for the T. Eaton Company. Mr. Macdonald said he wished to have time to get up a petition against the extension as an alternative to the plan of assessment, and the judge afterwards stated he would permit matters to stand.

Among the legal counsel present when the hearing began yesterday were: C. H. Ritchie, K.C., for the Simpson estate; J. H. Macdonald for the T. Eaton Company; E. A. DuVernet for the W. D. Raymond for the R. Simpson Company; W. J. Thurston for the Adams' Furniture Company; A. W. Briggs, for the Methodist Book Room; George T. Bell, for A. M. Orpen; James Baird, for W. F. Maclean, M.P.; H. M. East, for J. R. Beamish; J. H. Richardson, for the Continental Life Insurance Company; W. D. McPherson, K.C., for the Whaley, Royce Company; and H. E. Redman for the Joseph Cavthra estate.

Commissioner's Opinion. Assessment Commissioner Forman said he still favored a width of 105 feet, creating a square of 105 feet, which might be used for street cars. While he thought the city's share of the cost should be generous, his instructions had been to report on a plan of a street 66 feet wide, on which the city was to pay one-third. Property farther north on Queen-street than 70 feet, the depth of the corner lots fronting on Queen-street, was not being assessed, as it would not be benefited. He understood that the extension was for the public benefit. Mr. Forman didn't think pedestrians on Richmond-street would be much inconvenienced when the Simpson Company began loading its wagons on the extension.

H. H. Williams, the real estate manager called by Mr. Macdonald for the T. Eaton Company, declared that James-street had good outlets to Yonge-street, and that the pedestrian traffic was greater on Richmond-street than on Queen-street since the operation of the loop, while the further the further divert traffic to Richmond-street. To Mr. DuVernet he said that the stores profited by the extension, and that a 96-foot street wouldn't relieve the congestion. The traffic developing at Richmond and Yonge-streets would require a width of 105 feet.

A. G. Strathy, another real estate man, estimated that the city should pay 65 per cent. of the cost, and H. R. Mars said that it could not be determined beforehand what property would be benefited by the opening of a new street.

Property Benefited. At the afternoon sitting F. J. Stewart gave the opinion, as a real estate dealer, that property above Queen-street, on James-street would not benefit, and that the A. M. Orpen block of land, extending 115 feet east from Queen-street, on the south side of Queen-street, with a depth of 96 feet, would also receive no benefit.

J. W. Flavelle claimed for the William Davies Company that the store adjoining the Adams Company, on Queen-street, would receive no advantage, but that rather the extension would divert traffic to the south. The city should pay one-third of the cost, and the property on the east side of Queen-street would be benefited by the extension, but only by extending thru to Front-street would important new traffic be opened up.

Judge Winchester said there was evidence that the Richmond-street loop would afford public relief. Mr. Flavelle admitted that the Simpson Company would profit thru having an entrance on James-street, but was positive in declaring no benefit would be done to property on the north side of Queen-street, or on James-street above Queen-street.

"A miserable, absurdly narrow street," was the term applied by Mr. DuVernet to the proposed extension. He, too, complained that the city was assessing itself too lightly, and that the property on the east side was being taxed too heavily. Judge Winchester said that the property on the west side, which property might be all amalgamated in the future. Mr. DuVernet vigorously declared against the "absurd narrowness" of the city's plan of streets, which had been made for a small town. There should be a large open space in front of the city hall in case of a great fire or other cause of public panic.

Trade. Mr. Macdonald's plea for the T. Eaton Company was that trade would be carried south. It was ridiculous to assume that a street would increase property values to the north. Mr. Macdonald said that he would try to get up a petition among the property owners affected, to be submitted at the city council meeting on Jan. 14. Mr. Thurston's opinion was that, as the Adams Company was being assessed, so also should be the properties adjoining it on the east.

Mr. Bell argued that if the Orpen property were assessed its entire length the assessment should extend as far north as Albert-street. He sought to establish that Judge Winchester had power to allot the city's share, but his honor held otherwise, remarking, however, that he would compel the city to widen the street to 105 feet and bear the cost, if he had the right to do so.

Mr. Bell quoted the testimony of Mr. Mars as to the extension of property on the present James-street from advantage, but the court was not much impressed.

"That's a feature about these real estate men; they all say their own interests are not benefited," he commented. The judge agreed with James Baird representing The World, that the south side of Richmond-street would benefit by the extension. Mr. Baird considered that The World establishment at the northwest corner of Richmond and James-street extended would tend to enhance surrounding land values. His clients, he said, were prepared to abide by the assessment fixed. Mr. Richardson held that the new Continental Life Building at the southeast corner of E. and Richmond-streets would gain nothing. The assessment is $5000.

Richmond Street's Share. "All the expert witnesses said Richmond-street would be benefited," pointed out H. E. Redman for the Joseph Cavthra estate, southwest corner of Yonge and Richmond-streets, with a frontage of 20 feet on Yonge-street, and a depth of 78 feet on Richmond-street, objected to the $5000 levy, claiming that the traffic was now so great it could not be added to with advantage. W. D. McPherson also objected on behalf of Whaley, Royce & Co. Mr. Briggs, for the Methodist Book Room, asserted that neither the running of cars nor the extension would be of advantage to his clients. A. F. Lobb, representing the R. H. Lear estate, owning 25-27 West Richmond-street, with a 50-foot frontage, said his clients were satisfied. The court then adjourned.

NO POLITICAL BIAS. Brantford, Jan. 3.—(Special).—The O. I. E. enquiry was resumed this afternoon, when an examination of Dr. A. J. Marquis, G. Raymond and F. Lewis was held as to the general workings of the institution. John Nicholson, a pupil, submitted evidence for the defence that students were allowed to go to political meetings of both parties. Pupils had attended the resort of the Conservative workers, where a conference was arranged with the candidate, Brewer. Principal Gardiner's defence will be forthcoming to-morrow.

MEANS, THE PENITENTIARY.
Chicago Judge Layton Down the Law to Standard Oil Officials.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Judge Landis, in the United States district court, today overruled the demurrer to eight indictments against the Standard Oil Company for accepting rebates from railroad companies. As to two others, the demurrer was sustained on account of technical defects in the indictments. Judge Landis said it was his duty to "enforce the will of congress, as expressed in the written enactment."
The ultimate object of the law, he declared, to be "the establishment of uniform railroad rates, reasonable in amount." The Elkins law had failed to accomplish this, he declared, and the rate law was enacted to strengthen it. A mere fine was prescribed by the former law, but the latest statute adds the penalty of imprisonment in the penitentiary.
He declared that it was the purpose of congress in the rate law "to punish all indicted prior offenders, whose conduct it was, more than all other causes combined, that moved congress to enact the rigid and far-reaching measure of June 29."

NEWS SURE TO LEAK OUT.
and its Generally the Wrong Man who's Blamed for it.

Cabinet ministers are working overtime to overtake the tasks imperative in view of the meeting of the house on Jan. 24. Only three weeks remain to prepare legislation, estimates, and all the other incidental duties.

A number of appointments are awaiting ratification, but nothing is disclosed until his honor the lieutenant-governor signs the orders.

The delay by making this reference to his honor naturally leads to unofficial announcements thru such channels as the relatives and friends of the fortunate appointees. In consequence, several trustworthy officials have from time to time been accused of "leaking" to the press.

The assumption is, of course, absurd, but it leads to much discomfort among the more confidential officials. The dignity of his honor, however, is not sustained, and ministers are getting wise about the dignity of the press.

It is rumored, in addition to the proposed Arthur H. Sydere to be clerk of the legislature, Lieut.-Col. Delamare, at present and for many years postmaster at the house, will succeed to the vacant clerkship.

Major Bech, whose influence extends from West Huron, and who has done temporary service for the government, is mentioned for the postmastership.

J. M. Eastman, Morrisburg, is clerk of the 15th division court of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, vice P. R. Chambers, resigned.

J. Fenwick Fournier is bailiff of the 15th division court of Prescott and Russell, vice A. Mulloy, resigned.

W. H. Redmond, West Gravenhurst, is clerk of the second division court of Muskoka, vice Albert Hill, resigned.

A PRETTY ODD WAIST.

6752—Chemisette and gump effects are very popular just now, and will no doubt remain in vogue for some time to come. The waist sketched is one of simple grace, closing as it does in surprise style. Narrow tucks on the shoulder in front add breadth of shoulder, while those in the back do away with any tendency to plainness. The sleeves may be finished with a long or narrow cuff or short, if preferred. A design of this kind is excellent for the suit blouse or one to be worn upon nice occasions. Any of the soft worsteds, challis, pongee or silk might be used in its development.

The Culture of the Physical.
"How can I hear what you mean when what you are is forever thundering in my ears," so said Emerson a few decades ago, and yet we still continue to see the vast majority going about with bodies that not only speak of ugly things, but that fairly scream with a thousand tongues.
We are so liable to forget that our physical expression is a truer index of our habitual thought than the written word. A strong chest, well-rounded shoulders, well-carried, indicates courage, freedom, dignity and purpose.
It bespeaks character, coming from within and reacting upon morals, developing the thought and mind of which it is expressive. Standing with depressed chest and cramped lungs pains the nerves in an analogous state. A sound mind only lives in a sound body.
The time was when life was considered unholy, but to the modern woman vitality is as precious in the sight of God as intelligence. The delicacy of the early Victorian period is no longer fashionable, but many have not yet come to the acceptance of the theory that the test of health is happy sensation continuous.
The appearance of men and women, as we see them on the street, in business offices, or in drawing-rooms, as well as in our public schools, and the little systematic attention given to physical exercise are sufficient to show us that, as a nation, we have no conception of that physical education requires.
It is astonishing in view of the past, and in view of the future, that men do not see that, in a democratic government, we must depend upon the strength and power of the men and women who carry it forward; that nothing is attained without the rounding of the whole individual.
In this the Greeks have been the despair of all succeeding ages. Nowhere else has there been such personal education, and the secret of their success was that they made physical culture the basis of all.
Health and beauty are developed and preserved more by proper daily habits concerning those things which are called the common necessities of life than by any extraordinary efforts.
In self-culture each person has to begin with what he finds himself to be, and do the best he can with the material furnished. Someone has said that no woman is to blame for not being beautiful at 16, but she has only herself to blame if she is not beautiful at 40.
We must take careful thought as to food, drink, clothing, sleep, light, bathing and the hundred and one things that may mar or make the harmony of our lives.
We must put ourselves in touch with the best physical culture systems of our day, and we must strictly adhere to regular daily exercise, excepting that which is necessary for the necessities of life.

THE CULTURE OF THE PHYSICAL.
Still, even if we are unable to join classes and enjoy gymnastics, yet each of us may do much for the higher cultivation of our physical self by taking a little thought.
Nerves.
"Nerves" is the disease of the hour. Women are growing prematurely old and wrinkled by the receding of vital force. That tired expression and spiritless glance of numbers of women is pitiable.
"A man is as old as his hairs; a woman is as old as she looks and feels."
For perfect strength a woman must cultivate above all things poise—that greatest of all powers which comes alone thru silence and rest. The habit of wasting nerve force with every movement must be corrected.
Watch the tense strain on the faces of women in our large cities. Do you wonder that wrinkles come prematurely? We sit in our cars or carriages, with nerve and muscle tense, wasting energy sufficient to walk the distance.
Then in our walking, where is the ease and grace and rhythm that extends no unnecessary nerve force? The genuine walk is recuperative. It tones the nerves as rhythm of music. One repeatedly hears: "I see plenty of exercise; I walk every day."
The walk of the average woman is not good exercise, excepting that it takes one out into the open air. The vital organs are thrown out of poise. It is rare to find a man or woman with weight on the balls of the feet. Everywhere we see energy being wasted, spines being jarred and all rhythmic movement disturbed by swinging the body from the hips and by that peculiar twitch common to nervous women.
Apathy, and is realising that to go thru life with vital forces at a low ebb is to do herself grave injury and injustice. All her days should be full of strength and she should feel the ecstasy of life.
To be truly well is to be full of the vim and energy of the child, with its recuperative power.
No woman does herself or humanity justice unless she retains or regains this "joy of living."

OBITUARY.
Geo. E. Broadfield.
George E. Broadfield of the firm of McMahon, Broadfield & Co., Toronto, accompanied by his wife left Toronto early in November last on a business trip to Europe. After some stay in England, Mr. Broadfield proceeded to the continent. A few days later he complained of a severe pain in his side, and later, he was unable to go to Dresden and consult a specialist. Mr. Broadfield arrived in Dresden on Dec. 4, and consulted well-known specialists. The diagnosis indicated appendicitis, but the doctors did not inform him just then to that effect. A day or so later his illness became so alarming that his doctors informed him that an operation would have to be performed for appendicitis. Mr. Broadfield immediately wired to his wife, who was then in England, to come to him at once, which she did, but she could not arrive at Dresden before the following evening. In the evening of that same day the operation was successfully performed, and afterwards he was quite cheerful and without pain. Soon after he fell asleep, and died in his sleep shortly after midnight on the morning of Dec. 8, before his wife had reached him. The body was embalmed and went over to Hamburg to be taken to Canada by first steamer. Mrs. Broadfield returned to Toronto immediately.
Mr. Broadfield was born in Hamilton, Canada, and lived there for many years. The partnership between him and his partner was formed in Hamilton, where the firm was in business some years prior to their removal to Toronto. Mr. Broadfield was a merchant of superior ability, and was widely and favorably known among business men, in both America and Europe. The funeral will take place

PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS SEVERAL "PARTIES" IN IT

Joe Martin a Candidate in Vancouver and Victoria on the Independent Platform.

Politics in British Columbia have already reached the bubbling point.

The latest story from Vancouver says Duncan Ross, M. P., who is going west in the same car with McInnes, has his orders from Ottawa to help McInnes put B. C. in the Liberal column. Rumor has it that Ross has already resigned his federal seat to run in Simulmunkam for the local house, and will start a G. T. P. paper in Prince Rupert.

Both the railway and the Dominion Government are taking a heavy hand in this election. It is not unlikely the voters will resist it by returning Tories.

The election is not a real issue before the electors save this interference by Ottawa.

FUNERAL OF SIR WM. HOWLAND Large Attendance of Old Friends of the Dead Statesman.

Yesterday afternoon the last rites were paid to the remains of the late Sir William Howland, C.B., K.C.M.G.

The weather could scarcely have been more gloomy, as from early morning a heavy fog enshrouded everything and the rain fell steadily during the whole day. This, however, in no wise prevented a large attendance of Toronto's most prominent citizens as well as full representation of civil commercial and provincial administrations to pay the last marks to the scene in St. James' Cathedral was solemn and impressive. The seats were filled largely by men whose hair was white and heads bowed down with age, many of whom had been warm friends of the deceased, and had shared with him in many of the strenuous phases of his career.

In the heavily gold braided uniform which he wore as lieutenant-governor and also when he was knighted

At his residence, from early morning a continuous stream of mourners

SOLDIERS WANT THE CANTEN

Lack of It is One Reason for Secrecy of Recruits.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Not in recent years, except in war times, has the United States army been so badly in need of men as at present.

A recent recruiting address to all officers of the central recruiting service, called attention to the fact that recruits are needed in large numbers.

Recruiting officers are enjoined to redouble their efforts.

It is declared at the war department that the present prosperity and the labor famine of the country are more or less responsible for the condition.

and it was stated that a nascent of the lack of the canteen, many men were refusing to enlist.

Incidentally, it was noted that an effort will be made to make army life more attractive and to impress the men with the idea that they are enlisted as soldiers and not as laboring men.
