ACIDS IN STOMACH MAKE FOOD SOUR

CAUSE INDIGESTION
"Experience has taught me that most people who complain of stomach trouble and indigestion possess stomachs that are perfectly healthy and normal," says a well-known authority. The real trouble, which causes all the sourness, gas and pain, is excessive acid in the stomach. This acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, sours and ferments the food before the point of digestion is reached. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases. They give only temporary relief, do not correct the cause and often do great harm. A better plan, if you suffer after eating, is to drink a glass of hot Magnesia water made from a teaspoonful or four tablets of pure Bismarck Magnesia which can be obtained from any reliable druggist. This instantly neutralizes the acid, sweetens the stomach and your meal digests naturally without pain. Try this for a few weeks and see if your stomach does not feel one hundred per cent. better.

ROTHESAY I. O. D. E.

The Duke of Rothesay chapter of the I. O. D. E., at its meeting yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. John Davidson, appointed a committee to take charge of making the costumes for the Empire Day celebrations in the Rothesay Consolidated school. The children will present a playlette and the chapter has undertaken to provide all the costumes required. Mrs. W. S. Allison, the regent, presided at the meeting and much business was dealt with. The sum of $10 was voted to the Boy Scouts' Association and arrangements were made for holding a rummage sale next week. The chapter voted its contribution towards the soldiers' scholarship at the U. N. B. and also voted its share of the expense of sending a delegate to the annual meeting of the national chapter in Vancouver. Plans for the summer's work were outlined and it was decided that the next

THE PARIS TRIAL

At the afternoon session of the circuit court, in the third trial of John Paris, yesterday, the cross-examination of Wilson Robinson was continued and completed.
Burton McMullin, employe of the Eastern Hat & Cap Company, produced three leaves from the loose leaf ledger of the company showing a cash item of ninety cents charged against Mr. Ogilvy under date of August 2. When Mr. Byrne raised some objection regarding the evidence in connection with this document the judge said that the crown had been drawing the strongest inferences against the production of the ledger and he thought it would be a manifest injustice to the prisoner not to admit the leaves.
Burton Richardson, driver of an automobile for the Brookfield Creamery of Truro, said that he saw two young colored men in the Spencers' garage on August 2 while witness was there having some work done.
On cross-examination he said he fixed the date by the garage bill for the repairs. Alonso Bagnell appeared in the court room at the request of the attorney-general. Witness said he had seen Bagnell at the garage several times. He could not say whether he had seen Bagnell there on August 2.
To Mr. Vernon, on cross-examination, he said Alonso Bagnell was an employe of his (witness) partner, John N. Spencer, who operated an ice cream car on the side. Bagnell drove this ice cream car.
Witness knew that Bagnell was fixing a transmission drum in the ice cream car. An account of this, dated July 30, in the day book was submitted in evidence.
To Mr. Vernon, on re-direct examination, witness said that he would judge that it would take the best part of three days to do the work in connection with fixing the transmission.
Archie Paris, Truro, sleeping car porter, said that on the evening of August 3 he saw John Paris at the Truro station and that he, John Paris and a man called "Lulu" Maxwell had left Truro on train No. 9 on the night of August 3 and arrived in St. John the following morning, August 4.
Cross-examined by Mr. Byrne, witness told of the way he and Maxwell rode in a double seat and of John Paris getting into the seat a short time before the train got to Moncton.
Witness said he had not told Detective Power Maxwell's other name. He did not know Maxwell's correct first name. He did know he was called "Lulu." He thought he had not told Detective Power that John Paris was on the train. He said that he knew that Detective Power had come to him to inquire about the case and he thought that the detective was asking him about people other than John Paris who were on the train.
The court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

SOME ONE FREES COMMERCIAL MAN

Ottawa, May 3.—Somewhere in Hull there is a man or woman whose conscience would not allow punishment of Alfred Packwood, a commercial traveller, who was accused of stealing $106. Packwood was arrested following the disappearance of $106 from Mrs. Adelaide Aubrey's store. Today Mrs. Aubrey informed the court that some person unknown had thrown a handkerchief into the store early this morning. The handkerchief contained $106. As Packwood was then in jail he could not have made the restitution, and the court acceded to a motion for honorable acquittal.

C. P. AND WEST INDIES

When the "Sicilian" arrived at St. John from the West Indies last week she brought to Canada a heavy cargo of bananas from Jamaica which arrived in perfect market condition. This is the first shipment of bananas to Canada from Jamaica in more than eight years and it is expected that this will lead to the development of this export on a large scale.

The increasing popularity of Jamaican products in the Canadian market is becoming more evident each month. An article entitled "Advertising in Jamaica" in the Commercial Intelligence Journal of the Department of Trade and Commerce, in the April 22 issue, is of special interest to Canadian exporters. So important have been the developments in Canadian trade with the West Indies that the regular passenger and freight service offered by the "Sicilian" between St. John, Boston, Havana and Kingston, placed its large cargo ship the "Montezuma" in this service.

The "Montezuma" is now loading at Kingston, whence she will proceed to Savannah-la-Mar and Aradale, Bay, Jamaica, returning to Kingston, from which port she will sail direct to Montreal. Her first arrival at that port will be about May 20. The "Montezuma" will then inaugurate a new service between Montreal, Bermuda, Barbados, Trinidad and Demerara.

The Canadian Pacific freighter "Batavia" which has been in the Trans-Atlantic service, is to be diverted to the West-Indies trade. Her first southbound trip is scheduled for June 18 from Montreal to Bermuda, Barbados, Trinidad and Demerara.

At the present time the cargoes carried to Cuba and the West Indies by the Canadian Pacific "Sicilian" and "Montezuma" consist principally of Canadian potatoes, codfish, newspaper, beer, sugar, grapefruit, oranges, bananas, coconuts, pineapples and coconuts.

When the "Montezuma" and "Batavia" connect Montreal with the new ports, Demerara, British Guiana, will send to Canada coconuts, rice, rubber, cocoa and coffee. Barbados will offer sugar, molasses, rum and cotton. Trinidad's exports show great variety and include cocoa, sugar, molasses, rum, coconuts, fruit, asphalt, petroleum and rubber.

PLANES SPOT THE SEALS OFF NEWFOUNDLAND

English Fliers Get 10 Cents a Head on Catch Resulting from Report—Cross Belle Isle Straits.

The use of the airplane for exploitation purposes in Newfoundland was described in New York the other day by Alan S. Butler, a young English flier and sportsman who with two friends has organized the "Aerial Surveying Company" with headquarters in St. John's. Mr. Butler said that the accomplishments in Newfoundland last winter had started a new era in aviation, and that the possibilities of the commercial development of a country like Newfoundland were unlimited.

Mr. Butler is on his way home to England to buy new equipment with which to extend the operations of the company this fall. He is booked to sail on the Aquitania. At the Ritz-Carlton yesterday he told of the many phases of commercial aviation in which he and his friends had engaged, including mail carrying to districts which had previously been shut off from communication for weeks at a time; seal "spotting" by planes and direction of the seal boats by radio, and surveying of large tracts of timberland from the air.

Mr. Butler, who is 23 years old, is a director and one of the principal stockholders of the De Havilland Aircraft Company. He competed in the last year's Derby in England, and his associates in the Newfoundland enterprise are Major Sidney F. Cotton, an Englishman, and V. S. Bennett, whose father is politically prominent in Newfoundland.

Three planes were used in the exploitation work last winter—a Westland, a Martinsyde and a De Havilland. The hangar was at St. John's, the base of the company is at Botwood, on the northernmost point of Newfoundland. Supplies are sent from England and are distributed during the summer to a number of sub-bases, including points in Labrador.

In the seal hunting the planes cover a distance of about 300 miles over the Atlantic north of Labrador. The seals are "spotted" in much the same manner that army fliers spotted enemy batteries, and the locations are sent by radio to the boats, which break their way through the ice to the locations given. A contract has been made with a conference of Newfoundland seal hunters by which the "Aerial Surveying Company" receives 10 cents for every seal under three years of age as a result of information sent from the planes. Mr. Butler said that the planes had found hundreds of thousands of seals during March, which is the principal season for seal hunting off Newfoundland.

Surveying of timberland by airplane had proved very successful, Mr. Butler said. "Surveying and inspection of a tract that would have taken two years working on the ground has been accomplished in an hour," he said. "By airplane photographs it is possible to get a very accurate picture of a tract, showing just what parts, if any, have been burned out."

The mails have been carried during the winter to many points in the interior of Labrador that previously have been reached only by dog trails, which during the winter Belle Isle Straits, between Labrador and Newfoundland, are filled with floating ice, and they are seldom crossed. The only means of communication, therefore, is by dog trails.

SEKS TO DIVORCE COURT. Ex-Gov. Warfield's Daughter Brings Suit Again Polish Nobleman

Baltimore, Md., May 4.—Mrs. Louise Warfield Ledochowska, daughter of Governor Edwin Warfield, has filed a petition at Elliot City, asking divorce from Count Vladimir Ledochowska of Warsaw on grounds of abandonment and infidelity. She asks the custody of their three minor children and permanent alimony.

The petition asserts that the count abandoned his wife and children in April, 1919, without cause. It is alleged that the count has been guilty of infidelity at Nice and Monte Carlo with women whose identity is unknown to the plaintiff.

Mrs. Warfield became acquainted with Count Ledochowska in Honolulu in 1912. Ex-Governor Warfield at first objected to the match, but later gave his consent. At the time of her marriage in May, 1913, Miss Warfield was called one of the most beautiful girls in Maryland.

THE WESTERN OUTLOOK.

A press despatch says that wheat seeding in Manitoba will be in splendid shape by May 13, and that the total acreage is expected to exceed last year's $5,000,000 acres. A special correspondent of the Toronto Globe, writing from Souris, Man., on April 30 said: "Seeding is now general throughout this southwestern section of Manitoba, and if the present weather continues practically all the wheat will be sown by the middle of this week. For the last ten days ideal seeding weather has prevailed throughout the west, and farmers have been hard at work since Saturday last cropping the land. Heavy rain and snow storms last week have, I understand, held back the work in Saskatchewan and Alberta, but it is expected that seeding will be general throughout the west this week. Here the seed is going into the land under the most favorable conditions. There is an abundance of moisture, and the soil could not work up better. The seed bed is ideal, and since seeding commenced there has been no change in the weather to retard progress."

Of course a favorable seeding season may be followed by poor growing weather, but the Globe's correspondent feels a feeling of optimism increasing in the west, and he believes conditions there have been exaggerated in reports sent to the east. A good crop this year would remove many of the farmer's troubles, and he is greatly heartened by the present outlook. Wholesale merchants in Winnipeg are encouraged by the point that they have increased the number of travelers on the road. The whole business outlook may therefore be said to be gradually improving.

NURSES AND CHILD WELFARE.

Some interesting remarks regarding child welfare were made last week at the annual meeting of the social service department of the Children's Memorial Hospital in Montreal. Dr. J. Fraser expressed the view that greater attention paid to children between the time of birth and the age of five years would be strongly felt in the coming generation, meaning obviously that better nourishment and the removal of defects would result in better physical and mental health and general efficiency. We are told that "in comparing social service work for young children in Canada with that in France and England, Dr. Fraser pointed out the difference in the extent of government aid and direction, and expressed the hope that within the near future there would be greater attention paid to child welfare on the part of governments and municipalities." The need of trained child welfare workers, becomes more and more obvious, and the public health nurse is the most efficient and useful agency for spreading the comparatively new gospel among the people. The sooner governments and municipal authorities cooperate heartily the sooner the infant mortality rate will be reduced, and a generation free from the removable defects of young childhood will emerge. Some interesting data on this subject may be found in the last annual report of the Nova Scotia department of health. In most of the counties of that province public health nurses are now employed, and a summary of the report on their work says: "The nurses have been assigned more particularly to work in the schools, in order to ascertain the physical defects under which the pupils labor, with the object of determining a practical means of having the defects corrected. Working for an average period of seven and a half months, these nurses examined nearly 31,000 school children, and from the data available it would appear that approximately 70 per cent of the pupils were found to be suffering from one or more defects. This would indicate a very serious condition of affairs were it not that the greater number of defects were remediable. Much of the most common defects is dental caries, but diseased tonsils, adenoids and defective sight and hearing are each all too common. Approximately twenty per cent of the defects found had been corrected when the report was published." The experience of Nova Scotia is the experience wherever public health nurses are employed. It is the duty of governments and municipal authorities to support the work, for its successful conduct means that a large percentage of children will be freed from defects which hinder progress in the schools and injuriously affect their future health and progress in life.

RAKE-OFF FROM GAMBLING.

Regarding the proposal of the Ontario government to share in the profits of race-track gambling the Montreal Gazette says: "The government of Ontario, which draws considerable percentage of its much-needed revenue from the taxation of racing associations, is about to levy an additional impost amounting to five per cent of all the money which passes through the betting machines on Ontario tracks. The provincial treasurer is said to estimate the additional revenue to be derived from this source at two and one-half million dollars, from which it will be seen that the odds on all bets will be rather in favor of the government. Mr. Drury and his colleagues are opposed to the race-track betting upon moral grounds. They regard it as an evil which should be eradicated, but they cannot give effect to this opinion by legislation because of the constitutional limitation upon the authority of the legislature. The members of the government, individually and collectively, condemn the system under which, as alleged by them, gentlemen higher up in the racing world derive large incomes from the betting which takes place. They look upon the money as tainted. Nevertheless, it is money, and the spending propensities of the government are such that the provincial treasurer must think twice before he turns aside from any opportunity of relieving the steady drain upon the exchequer. Moreover, the principle of having been admitted—if it is a principle—by the taxation already imposed upon racing associations, it is going only a little further to share directly in the bet themselves, and this is what Mr. Smith (the treasurer) proposed to do."

HE WARNS AGAINST "RUBBING ALCOHOL."

Toronto, May 4—A new compound known as "rubbing alcohol" now on the market is said to have a deadly kick, and the Ontario license board has issued a friendly warning to "boozers generally." The warning, which is sent over the signature of W. S. Dingman, vice chairman of the board, contains the following: "Boozers generally should give this rubbing alcohol a wide berth," the circular also gives the details of the death of a man at Brantford who drank some of the stuff.

GOOD-BYE.

For every parting, be it short or long. We have none other word than this: Good-bye! Whether it's uttered with a smile or sigh, With soft embrace, or marked by hand-grip strong, We own no better charm to speed along The friend whose path shall soon be divergent. From ours—so passion-full is this our cry, Or whispered blessing, or faith's trusting song.

And some say: "Fare you well." That's less indeed, Yet all the same; for who shall fare or do Aught well, in time of gladness or in deed, Without such tender peace and vantage true, As God alone can give? Hence our wise words. The best word coined: "Good-bye; God-be-with-you." —Lady Lindsay.

CREATOR OF NICK DIED PENNILESS.

(New York Times.) Frederick Van Rensselaer Dey, sixty-one years old, originator of the "Nick and Niece" detective stories, shot himself to death in his room at the Hotel Bristol, 3 East Twenty-seventh street, yesterday afternoon, according to Charles E. MacLean, managing editor for Street & Smith, who first published the "Nick Carter" stories. Mr. MacLean had gone to the hotel after receipt by Ormond G. Smith, president of the firm, of a letter from Mr. Dey announcing his intention. He knocked at Mr. Dey's door but got no response. Then he called and found the door locked and the door was forced. The body lay upon the bed. Mr. Dey had shaved and dressed himself, and the bullet shattered a nearby mirror. Death, said Charles Norris, chief medical examiner, was instantaneous. On the body several papers and letters were found. Other letters, announcing the intended suicide, were received by friends. One, sent to Major Joseph Cavanaugh, a consulting engineer and old friend of Dey, was dated April 21. "Dear Joe:—This will rather shock you, but I am sending it to you just the same, because I want you for old times' sake to do something for me after I have gone. For I'm going West, and I can't stand the thought of growing old and becoming a burden." The letter ended with a request to Major Cavanaugh to help get an aged brother, Warren S. Dey, seventy-six years old, into a home. It was dated April 21. Another note to Deputy Police Commissioner Raurot read: "Dear old Joe: Please forgive me, and please be good to and help Hattie, my wife. I can't stand the gasp, Joe, so I'm going out. Everything is going to smash, and me with it!" The Nick Carter Detective Library was first published by Street & Smith in New York in 1890, according to a published letter of Mr. Dey's. The first story was entitled "Nick Carter, Detective," by "A Celebrated Author." The series later became the Nick Carter Weekly, by "Nick Carter."

BRANTFORD CIEHF RESIGNS OFFICE.

Brantford, Ont., May 4—The last phase of the police investigation has been reached. After eighteen years' service as a chief constable, Chief of Police Charles Slemien handed in his resignation to the police commissioners. It was accepted, a grant of two months' pay. Sergeant Donnelly was appointed acting chief. The suspension of the chief constable, Detective Schuler and Constable Stewart was confirmed, and the trio dismissed from the city.

Appearing for his father, Chief Slemien, the late son, J. A. D. Slemien, addressed the board, mentioning his father's long service as a chief of police in Brantford. He recalled Mr. Gregory's report and his recommendation for the chief's retirement and mentioned the suggestion put forth by a prominent citizen before Mr. Gregory that the chief be retired on a pension. His father was just free of wrong doing. It was doubtful if some of the evidence seen before the commissioner would be accepted in a court of law. The chief was a man of sixty-six years of age. Mr. Gregory's finding the police board to set upon. His father's financial situation was not strong and a retirement would mean that he would necessarily have to seek another position. Mr. Blake doubted very much if the police board had legal right to grant a retiring allowance. Judge Hardy thought, too, that it was doubtful, and even if it was granted it might be stopped at the city council. He expressed sympathy with the chief in his position. The suggestion that recommendation for a grant to the chief might be sent to the council was ventured by his honor.

An interesting session of the Epworth League of the Carmarthen street Methodist church was held last evening with the pastor of the church, Rev. E. J. FIND SEVEN STILL IN A SINGLE HOME.

Largest Seizure Known in Toronto—Strong Odor of Whiskey Caused Neighbors to Make Complaint. (Mail and Empire.) Many thirsty Toronto citizens who have been wont to patronize the bootlegger produce will bemoan the fate which befell probably one of the city's largest illicit liquor enterprises last night at a house on Kingston road, where five stills in operation and two others which were undergoing repairs were seized and confiscated. As a result of the raid, two men are in custody, charged with operating an illicit liquor still and violating the Inland Revenue Act. They are Albert Aris and John Cohen, both living at the Kingston road address. Aris is named as owner of the distilling apparatus and Cohen as his helper and fellow operator. The stills seized have each a capacity of twenty-five gallons. Among the other miscellaneous stuff found in the raid were about 100 barrels of mash, a large quantity of sugar, corn and the various other ingredients that go to make up the "moonshine" brand of whiskey. The raid was carried out by P. C. Shepherd, Barron and Lawlor, of Main street station, and Inland Revenue Officer Chivrel.

In Full Blast. There have been many complaints for weeks past concerning the suspected manufacture of the home-distilled commodity, residents in the vicinity of the house having been assailed nightly by the strong odor of whiskey that emanated from the dwelling. Consequently, upon information supplied to them, the officers from Main street and Inland Revenue stations proceeded to the house last night while the process of distillation was in operation. The stills were partly dismantled, and the resident in the down-stairs part of the house, and managed to creep upon the two men while they were engaged in their nocturnal toil. Five of the stills, the police say, were going full blast when they opened the door, and Aris and Cohen hurriedly moved about tending the bubbling receptacles in an atmosphere of steam and pungent smell. The remaining stills were partly dismantled, and were evidently undergoing repairs. Cornered, Aris and Cohen made no attempt of resistance. While they were conveyed to Main street station and their locked up, the officers set to work to dismantle the stills and the various distilling impediments, and get rid of the liquid ingredients they did not need as they were against their prisoners. The bootleg whiskey and various other liquids contained in jars, crocks and barrels were being studied. Through the windows and the contents scattered broadcast. "It is almost doubtful the largest seizure of illicit liquor stills made in Toronto at one time."

RICHARD CROKER. While the passing of Richard Croker is dismissed in a few lines by some papers, says a London cable, others publish obituary notices which consist mostly of biographical details of his career. The Daily Telegraph has a two-column memoir by T. P. O'Connor, who says among other things: "He dined with me one night in the House of Commons and I had a full opportunity of studying him, and he was worth studying. What did you think of the silent Napoleon? asked an American who was also present. He was certainly a client. He never spoke a word throughout the dinner. Wine did not unloose his tongue, for he drank nothing but ginger beer. His face might have been that of a prize fighter. With grim lips tightly pressed together, with heavy brows, close cropped beard, a face impassive, vigorous and self contained, and a figure rugged, strong and thickset he certainly looked the part." Referring to impression of Croker on other occasions, O'Connor says: "It was strange to hear this man after he had uttered some phrase that struck you as Napoleonic in its vision and its audacity and had given other indications of natural genius in the governing of men stray into such phrases as 'thin mind,' the last word in Irish wit of grammar and of correct pronunciation."

MATTERS BEFORE DIOCESAN SYNOD

Several important matters were considered at the afternoon session of the Anglican Diocesan Synod at Fredericton yesterday. The report of the synod representative on the Maritime home for girls was received and adopted. This home is located at Truro. There are at present sixty-eight girls in the home, twenty-one being from New Brunswick. The financial condition is most satisfactory. The income for maintenance has more than equalled expenditures. The training is thorough in school work, sewing, laundry and domestic science. Light, healthful outside work is carried on with a splendid garden which supplies the needs of the home. The diocese of Fredericton is however behind in its payments to this institution to the extent of $2,000.

The order of business was suspended and a motion passed that the nomination for the election of officers to the provincial synod be held at that session and that the balloting take place on Thursday morning. Upon the motion of Canon Smithers the synod gave an expression of the deep loss which the church had suffered in the death of the late Hon. Charles J. Oman, of Hillsboro. Motion by Father Young. The following motion, introduced by Rev. J. V. Young and seconded by Canon Smithers, was adopted unanimously: "Whereas, the situation of the Maritime Home for Women (at Moncton) has altered since the last synod of four denominations, viz., Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptist and Church of England, were united; be it resolved, that this synod affirm its willingness to contribute the same proportion of support as last year, and that the bishop appoint three men to act for the time being on the committee."

The Baptists have withdrawn from the agreement made a year ago respecting the proposed erection of this home at Moncton by the four communions combined. On motion the synod proceeded to place in nomination the names of the delegates to the provincial synod. Twelve of the clergy and twelve of the laity took place on Thursday morning. Nominations for the various other committees were then made. Votes for Women. The report of the secretary of the synod relating to the adding of the seal of the synod to certain documents was read and adopted. The secretary made his report concerning the amending of the Church of England act of 1912 in accordance with the will of the synod of 1920, so that women are now allowed to vote at all meetings for the election of vestrymen and church wardens. This report was adopted. During the course of the afternoon his lordship said that owing to the unsatisfactory quality of the altar wine secured from the liquor commission, he had secured samples of wines supplied by various foreign firms. A committee composed of Dean Neale and the rural deans was appointed to investigate the quality of these samples. An adjournment came earlier than usual because of the reception for the delegates held at Bishopscourt by His Lordship and Mrs. Richardson. The reception was largely attended and a most enjoyable time was spent. Several hundred persons were in attendance. Tonight the missionary work of the Church of England in the Far East was illustrated by motion pictures at the Fraser Memorial hall. There was a large attendance. Mr. Powell, a returned missionary from Japan, was the speaker.

STATESMEN OF CANADA TALK TO THE EDITORS

Montreal, May 4—Sir Lomer Gouin, minister of justice, and Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, voiced their views on the powers and responsibilities of the press at a convention banquet of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association at the Windsor last night. Sir Lomer urged the opportunity of brushing away inter-provincial and inter-provincial bickerings and jealousies while Mr. Meighen dwelt on the international situation and the power of the press to help to straighten this out, and expressed the opinion that the press was not doing its best to help leading statesmen of the world to solve the immense problems of the day. A telegram of regret at inability to attend was read from the premier. J. H. Woods of Calgary, responding to the toast of Present Day Problems, said that Canada could handle all her material problems, but the most important were ethical, and among the latter was the problem of east and west and he urged editors to restrain themselves in making reflections on other parts of the dominion.

$100,000 FOR A SALVATION ARMY MATERNITY HOSP.

Through the Efforts of Dalhousie University, Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundations Contributed $50,000 Each—Cheques Handed to Commissioner Sowton at Opening of Institution.

(Halifax Chronicle.)
Born with a silver spoon in its mouth, time worn as an adage, was pregnant with meaning to the Salvation Army Maternity Hospital, Halifax, when on Saturday afternoon President Macdonald of Dalhousie University handed to Commissioner Charles Sowton, head of the Army in Canada, two cheques for $50,000 each, making a total gift of $100,000 from the Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundations. The occasion was the opening of the new Maternity Hospital—it was the birth day of the institution, proclaimed as one of the finest in all Canada. The gifts of these two great benefactors, in the aggregate one of the largest gifts made to humane institutions in the history of the province, place the hospital practically clear of debt upon its building.

The opening of the hospital on Saturday was the culmination of strenuous efforts which were made at a time when the nation, suffering heavy losses of its manhood in war, were awakened to the immeasurable value of the conservation of infant life. Halifax felt the need of every factor which would tend toward the lowering of the infant mortality.

Through the medium of the Salvation Army the building opened and consecrated Saturday is a monument to the humanitarian and philanthropic attitude of the citizenship of the city, adding another institution to those who are making the city a centre of scientific effort for the advancement of mankind.

The hospital was officially declared opened by Lieut.-Governor Grant, who, referring to the fact that he would be officiating later in the afternoon at the prorogation of the House of Assembly, humorously said, "I am opening one house and closing another."

The principal part of the opening programme was performed in the reception hall, which was packed with people, the crowd filling the corridors and entrance. The programme included addresses from Governor Grant, Colonel Gideon Miller, the Salvation Army Architect, who designed the building; Commissioner Sowton, who acted as chairman; Mayor Parker, one of his last official acts; President Macdonald of Dalhousie University; Mr. J. T. Wilson, who was captain of the army of collectors raising the first $150,000, and to whom tribute was paid by the Governor and the audience; Dr. Hattie, Provincial Health Officer; Mrs. Dennis, representing the Women's Council; and Mrs. Morrow, the Provincial Regent of the Daughters of the Empire. The band of the local Salvation Army, stationed on the lawn opposite the main entrance played during the afternoon. Many people remained during and after the ceremony inspecting the building and having tea with the officials.

Governor Grant expressed deep, sincere appreciation for the ideas, the courage, optimism, faith and service of the Salvation Army, and he felt that those Today Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were still dazed.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

CONTAINS NO ALUM

To reach the highest point of perfection in the manufacture of baking powder, many years of scientific experimental work by expert chemists are required to determine the exact proportions of the ingredients and the proper method of blending same to produce a baking powder of the maximum leavening quality and at the same time obviate the possibility of deterioration without the use of ingredients so frequently used as preservatives.

This is the reason that MAGIC BAKING POWDER has become so universally used from coast to coast and has earned by demonstration the reputation of being Canada's perfect baking powder.

LEECHES IN DEMAND ONCE MORE IN PARIS

Fashionable Doctors in Etoile Quarter are Giving Those Animals Vogue.

Paris, May 4.—Whenever you had a headache or a pain in the old days they put leeches on you — the nasty slimy things that get in your way as you walk through your garden after rain. Many a prince and court beauty had to submit to having dozens of those things applied to their persons, where today a delicate and painless surgical operation relieves the situation. When contemporaries of Peppy used to "get blood to the head" (a common cranial disturbance with "three bottle men" of the period) leeches would be hurriedly sent for.

For some reasons impossible to fathom there has been an increased demand for leeches in Paris in the past few months—as if there had arisen, among the folk of another generation, a certain unbelief in our rapidly advancing medical science. At all events, where one leech dealer had sufficed for Paris these five and twenty years, a second and a third have recently set up in business.

At the time of the war, 1870, there were not fewer than a dozen prosperous leech dealers in Paris, but that was virtually before the day of Lister, and not long after first fruit had been borne of the teachings of Pasteur—for it took several decades for the latter to attain complete recognition.

Now, certain fashionable doctors in the Etoile section are beginning to put leeches a la mode again, with a consequent demand for more—and tenacious—leeches.

Fifty years ago leeches cost 250 francs per 1,000, but since then, contrary to most things, prices have fallen. Until a few months ago you could get a really efficient 1,000 leeches in Paris for a mere bagatelle of sixty francs.

But profiteering has now set in. Leech dealers are springing up here and there, and the price per 1,000 has gone up to 100 francs. Leeches are caught in an attractive manner. You first get your leeches from Turkey, then you train them to suck dead horses thrown into ponds.

For some reasons impossible to fathom there has been an increased demand for leeches in Paris in the past few months—as if there had arisen, among the folk of another generation, a certain unbelief in our rapidly advancing medical science. At all events, where one leech dealer had sufficed for Paris these five and twenty years, a second and a third have recently set up in business.

PICKET A CHURCH AND NAG NEWLY WEDS

Rhode Island Strikers Escort Bride's Auto, Then Pursue the Married Couple.

Pawtucket, R. I., May 4.—Strike sympathizers picketed a church where an employe of the Crown Manufacturing Company, whose mill is affected by the textile strike, was married.

Two hundred men and women, after waiting at the bride's home, escorted her automobile to the church. Many entered the church, while others waited outside and marched round the building.

The newly wedded waited in the church thirty minutes after the ceremony to escape the crowd, and then left by a side door.

They were driven in an automobile to a photographer's studio, where they had to run the gauntlet again before starting on their honeymoon.

ALL EVIDENCE IN THIS AFTERNOON

This is the Expectation in the Trial of John Paris.

Truro Policeman Repeats the Testimony Given at Previous Trial—Says He is Sure He Saw Accused in Truro on August 2.

It is now expected that all the evidence in the third trial of John Paris, charged with the murder of Sadie McCullay on August 2, will be in the forenoon. The last witness for the defence, Ira Boss, was on the stand at adjournment for lunch and is understood to be the crown will call one more witness in rebuttal this afternoon. The evidence of Mr. Boss and that of John A. Maxwell, colored, occupied the whole of the session.

The Harvest Excursion.
 John Maxwell, driller, Truro, otherwise known as "Lulu" was the first witness heard this morning, said on the night of August 2 he left Truro on his way to the west for harvesting. He arrived in St. John on the morning of August 4. He said he saw John Paris on that train.

To the attorney-general, the witness said that he returned from the west about Oct. 27. He knew John Paris since last May. Witness said the statement he made at the last trial that he had not again met accused until August 2 was untrue. He saw Paris again on July 29, 28, 26 when a fight took place between John Paris and Noble Paris. He saw him again on August 2. He knew John Byard again and knew that there were over here for the last trial but went home without giving evidence.

The witness said there were many named Paris living close together on "the island" William McNaught, he said used to live in the vicinity of colored section. He knew Miss McKernan to see her on August 2. He said he saw John Paris at Truro station on Sunday night, July 31. On August 2 he first saw John Paris a few minutes after the train left Truro. Archie Paris was in the same seat as the witness on the train. He did not remember if Archie Paris produced a pass for the conductor or paid his fare. He did not remember hearing that a harvest excursion train left Truro, on August 4.

He said he did not know John Paris until he was with him and Archie until an hour or so before they reached St. John. He paid $4.65 for his ticket to St. John and $2.00 from there to Winnipeg. He remained in St. John all the day of August 4.

To the judge the witness said he did not know anyone in Truro who resembled John Paris. He was sure it was he who came to St. John with him on August 3.

Truro Policeman.
 Ira Boss, police officer, and sanitary inspector, Truro, told of a search for a can of stolen cream at "Smith's Island" on August 2. He saw the accused there, and heard him speak to Chief Fraser.

On cross-examination, Boss told the attorney-general that Chief of Police Fraser was to St. John for the last trial but did not think he gave any evidence. He fixed August 2 by a Chautauque parade and a paragraph in which it was reported that a parade had taken place the day before. He also read from a copy of date of July 30, an advertisement of a Chautauque parade on Monday, August 1, called "Lucky Number" parade for children. Witness, however, was certain the parade took place on August 2.

He said Chief Fraser was mistaken when he said at the first trial the chief, Boss and Mr. McLellan went to the island together on August 2.

The attorney-general asked the witness if the chief had told him that the St. John police requested information regarding where Paris was on August 1, 2 and 3. Mr. Vernon objected and the question was disallowed.

The judge would not allow the attorney-general to cross-question the witness on evidence given by another witness at a previous trial.

The witness said he was not at the island on August 3, 4, or 5. He was not sure about August 6. He said his vacation began early in July. He would not swear that Chief Fraser was to the island on August 2 and that he was not there with the chief on August 4. He said it was reported after August 2 that the can was hidden in William Byard's yard. He would not swear that Mr. McLellan and the chief went to the island on August 2, and found no cream. It was not on the 4th that he went to the island.

He said he did not come to the first trial because he was not subpoenaed. The judge remarked that the police did their full duty if they disclosed their knowledge to either the crown or the defence. The duty of calling them as witnesses then lay with the counsel.

Continuing the witness said he did not see the warrant on August 2. He could not say why he could not fix the date he was to the island by the Chautauque before finding the warrant on September 27. He did not know what the chief did with the warrant on his return from the island.

Adjournment was made until 2.30 o'clock.

DISTRESS UNDOUBTEDLY INCREASING AMONG FAMISHING CHILDREN

STATEMENT BY SIR BENJAMIN ROBERTSON

Thousands of lives of famishing children have been jeopardized through misleading reports that the famine conditions in Russia were over.

300,000 against 867,000 now to be fed by the Save the Children Fund and the A. R. A. I would request, therefore, that every effort be made to help the Save the Children Fund to increase the number to be fed as distress is undoubtedly increasing.

Sir Benjamin Robertson recently returned from an inspection of the famine area undertaken with the approval of the British Government and is transmitting this message from Sir Benjamin, the hour is expressed by Lord Wealdale that the Canadian people will take all possible measures to help the Save the Children Fund to carry out their programme and if possible increase it.

"I have consulted Sir Benjamin Robertson, chairman of the All British Appeal of which we are part and under whose direction we are working regarding your cable on famine conditions. Sir Benjamin Robertson says—

The present programme of the American Relief Administration is to distribute 317,000 rations to adults in the Saratov area where the British Save the Children Fund Organization is administering relief. The total population of the Saratov district is 4,740,000 and the Save the Children Fund is preparing to feed up to 800,000 children in kitchens, and a further 250,000 adults in addition to the A. R. A. programme.

OLD TIMES RECALLED

Albert County Letter Tells of One of the Earliest Sea Captains—The Buried Gold.

A Hopewell Hill, Albert County, correspondent writing of the old burying ground in that neighborhood, says in part—

"But of all the pioneers whose names look out from the old headstones, few are so prominent as the activities of old Snoddy as that of Captain John Dudgeon who settled here in the early days and was early one of the spectacular figures of local history. One of the earliest of the Shepody mariners, Captain Dudgeon sailed the waters of Fundy with great success, when no top-horns or coast lights existed to warn the seaman of the dangers of the rock-bound bay. It is told of this pioneer captain that his little vessel was built and equipped entirely by his own hands—hull, spars, rigging and sails. Several years ago there could still be seen, partly buried in the mud on the Shepody marsh, the keel and more of the timbers of the little schooner, where it had been lying 100 years or more. Some of the bricks were still there that had been used in the little fireplace, for the vessel then carried no stoves. Capt. Dudgeon's days were the days of Spanish gold, and this fact was remembered a few years ago when a Hopewell man, a descendant of Capt. Dudgeon, who lived on the old original property, found, up a brook near the present house, a Spanish doubloon, value $17, and two smaller gold coins, in perfect condition. Through the tradition of the day, that Capt. Dudgeon had paid off a farm hand in money somewhere in safe keeping for a night had gone up the brook and buried it in the earth, the little schooner story said, being able to find the spot. When the gold coins were found a few years ago the old story at once came to mind. Capt. Dudgeon had nine daughters who married in the community and had many descendants. Although a headstone marked his death, the old man's grave is elsewhere. While on a visit to a relative in Ohio he took sick and died and was buried there. But it will be long before the Dudgeon name disappears from local history."

FIVE CHINAMEN ARE SHOT IN ST. JOHN'S

(Canadian Press Despatch) St. John's, Nfld., May 3.—A Chinese laundryman shot and killed three other Chinamen here tonight and inflicted a probably fatal wound upon himself. The motive for the shooting is not known. The murderer also shot and seriously wounded a fourth Chinese. The one who was shot and wounded was employed in another laundry. It was the first murder in this city in more than twenty years. There has been a small Chinese colony here for twenty-five years and it has had a reputation for peacefulness.

NO SECRET TREATY

Merely Agreement on Economic Concessions to Italian Firms in Asia Minor. Genoa, May 4.—Regarding the alleged secret pact between Italy and the Anglo government, the Italian spokesman said last night that no pact, treaty or agreement of any kind exists between Italy and Anglo. About two months ago, when Signor Schanzer, Italian foreign minister, was in Paris for a meeting of the allied premiers, he received proposals from the Turkish government at Constantinople suggesting that an agreement on economic concessions to be granted Italian firms in Asia Minor.

Having nothing to conceal, the minister showed the proposals to Premier Poincaré and Lord Curzon, who made no objections to them. Signor Schanzer replied favorably to the proposals, and, according to the spokesman, is awaiting a letter pledging the Turkish government to grant the concessions agreed upon. When the letter arrives it will be immediately communicated to France and Great Britain.

WAR GAME WAS KEENLY FOUGHT; RESULT A DRAW

The war game in the Armoria last evening resulted in a draw, but not until after a hot engagement lasting from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock last evening, supper being served by the garrison officers' mess at 8 o'clock. Three sets of maps were in use, one each for the opposing sides, the Reds and Blues, and one in a central room for the umpire, Lieut.-Col. H. C. Sparling, D.S.O. After the moves had been terminated, the umpire called both sides, numbering about twenty each, into his room and announced the result, at the same time reviewing the situation of the battle as it stood and offering some constructive criticism. Colonel Sparling said that, though inexperienced, those taking part had done well. The Blue commander was Lieut.-Col. E. C. Weyman, and others taking part on his side were Major John R. OPERATORS NOT FOR A FEDERAL COAL INQUIRY

Those on Wages Negotiation Board Say it Would Tend to Confuse Present Situation.

New York, May 4.—Athracite coal operators on the joint sub-committee on wages negotiations yesterday refused to subscribe to a resolution offered by the miners, calling upon federal officials to begin an immediate investigation of the athracite industry from mine to consumer. The miners allege that prices to the consumer were excessive, that reductions were essential to the public welfare, that in distribution and sale of the product were imperiling rights of capital and labor to fair returns, that freight rates were exorbitant and destined to handicap producers not owning railroads, that fair rates to tide-water would cut $2.63 a ton from the price to the consumer and that needless agencies for distribution added unwarranted margins of profit to retail prices.

In refusing to sign the resolution Samuel D. Warriner, spokesman for the operators, declared they did not propose to join the miners in a course which would tend to confuse rather than clarify the situation, on issue "not within the jurisdiction of the joint committee to miners and operators constituted to negotiate a new contract covering wages and working conditions."

Wife's Application For Annulment Rejected—No Evidence of Descent, Court Says. New York, May 4.—Justice Stephen Callahan, in the Queens Supreme Court yesterday, denied the application of Mrs. Borna for annulment of her marriage to Jose Borna, formerly a newspaper man of this city but now connected with the Chicago Journal of Commerce. Mrs. Borna had asked for an annulment on the grounds that her husband had negro blood.

Berthoin will return to Genoa on Friday, having the full approval of the government. This announcement was made this afternoon at the conclusion of the cabinet meeting. M. NO SECRET TREATY

Merely Agreement on Economic Concessions to Italian Firms in Asia Minor. Genoa, May 4.—Regarding the alleged secret pact between Italy and the Anglo government, the Italian spokesman said last night that no pact, treaty or agreement of any kind exists between Italy and Anglo. About two months ago, when Signor Schanzer, Italian foreign minister, was in Paris for a meeting of the allied premiers, he received proposals from the Turkish government at Constantinople suggesting that an agreement on economic concessions to be granted Italian firms in Asia Minor.

Having nothing to conceal, the minister showed the proposals to Premier Poincaré and Lord Curzon, who made no objections to them. Signor Schanzer replied favorably to the proposals, and, according to the spokesman, is awaiting a letter pledging the Turkish government to grant the concessions agreed upon. When the letter arrives it will be immediately communicated to France and Great Britain.

organization, a certificate was filed with the Central Trust Company of Illinois by which the transfer of all property, good will and rights of the Chicago Opera Association was made certain and the so-called Chicago Permanent Opera Plan was made effective. Mr. Insull explained the newly completed alignment thus— "At the time I started in to raise the additional money required to complete the guaranty of $500,000 per year for five years, without which continuance of grand opera in Chicago on an adequate scale could not be considered, I was told that the original subscriptions to this guaranty fund amounted to $251,000. Since that time the women's committee has secured subscriptions amounting to $85,500 per year, a committee which I organized, and which was composed largely of public utility officials and employees, have secured subscriptions amounting to $176,500 a year. This makes a total of $227,000 of new subscriptions secured this spring. "If all the original $251,000 of subscriptions prove to be good—and there is no reason to believe they are not good, as each consists of personally signed curbs—the total guaranty fund now amounts to $224,480."

BENNIE SWIM IS IN SERIOUS STATE

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Woodstock, May 3.—Bennie Swim, the condemned murderer, is in a state of total collapse. Since his sentence he has raved almost continuously, except when under the influence of opiates. Yesterday it took four men to hold him while administering treatment. He refuses to eat and today is apparently growing weaker. His clothes are torn in shreds, he lies on the floor most of the time and is a most pitiable looking object. A death watch is with him day and night. In the opinion of attendants, if he continues to decline he will not survive to meet his death on the gallows.

OPTIMISM AT THE C. P. R. MEETING

Montreal, May 3.—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway was held at the head office of the company here at noon today. Proceedings were of a purely formal nature. The usual large number of shareholders were present and displayed much interest in the address of President E. W. Beatty. The president's address was of an optimistic nature and after laying down his belief in the adoption by the country of a more constructive immigration policy, he referred to conditions in the country itself, pointing to the general recovery which was taking place at present in both industry and business. President Beatty expressed regret at the death of Sir John Eaton, a former director of the company.

Three directors of the company completed their four year term of office: Lord Shaughnessy, J. K. L. Ross and Sir Thomas Skinner.

A new by-law was presented for the approval of the meeting providing that holders of certificates for debenture stock carrying interest may, if the directors so determine, surrender their certificates in bearer form and be entitled to receive in return a certificate registered in the holder's name, bearing the same interest and payable at the same times, but without coupons. Similarly, holders of such bearer certificates may at any time surrender same in exchange for coupon bearing certificates.

At a meeting of the board of directors held immediately after the annual meeting, Lord Shaughnessy was elected chairman of the company, E. W. Beatty, president, and Grant Hall, vice-president. The following were appointed to the executive committee: B. Angus, E. W. Beatty, Grant Hall, Sir Herbert Holt, Sir Vincent Meredith, Sir Edmund Osler, and Lord Shaughnessy.

Freight Rates.
Referring to freight rates President Beatty said that in his opinion, it was an entirely erroneous impression that existing freight rates were the cause rather than the result of present economic conditions, the most important of which from a transportation standpoint were the present scale of wages and working conditions. "It is the view of the directors," the president said, "that the scaling downwards of freight rates should be begun with reductions on basic commodities. Notwithstanding the willingness of the companies to make sacrifices in their revenues in the hope that a lower scale of rates in basic commodities would give an impetus to business activity, they have been precluded from agreeing on a definite policy because of the approaching expiration on July 1 next of the provisions of the railway act allowing the railway commission to make rates irrespective of agreements statutory or otherwise."

Time to think of Rugs for Summer Homes—

For the summer home, indoors or out, whether it's lakeshore cottage, bungalow or mountain camp, Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs are surely the perfect floor-covering. Rain and sun and dust have no effect on the rich colorings and firm waterproof surface of these rugs. No need to roll them up at night or when summer showers threaten. They're so little trouble to take care of. A light mopping leaves them spick and span—no dusty sweeping or back-breaking scrubbing. And they hug the floor tight without any fastenings—never wrinkle or curl up at the edges or corners to trip unwary feet. The cost is so low as to make them practical for use in Summer only, though they are for year-round use as well. The patterns—all masterpieces of the rug designer's art—will lend charm and colorful beauty to any room in your home. Congoleum Rugs are just as artistic as they are practical and economical. Look for the Gold Seal that is pasted on the face of all genuine Congoleum Gold-Seal Art-Rugs. Be sure it's there before you buy. It is a positive pledge and assurance of your satisfaction.

At the annual meeting of the W. M. S. of St. David's church yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. R. C. The society members felt they would like to re-invest the money in a similar way and they are offering it again to some St. David's girl or boy who wishes to prepare for some definite religious work.

PHILADELPHIA MUCH INTERESTED IN HILTON BELVEA

His Entry For Gold Cup Contest Welcomed — Duran and Others Must Get Into Big Race.

A letter from Russell H. Johnson, Jr., chairman of the committee in charge of the race in the Schuylkill River on June 3 for the championship of the continent, contains official confirmation that John Hanlon Duran's challenge has been accepted. The Argonaut rowers will race against Gilmore and Rooney to decide which of the trio, if any, are to meet Belyea, Hoover and Costello. Mr. Johnson makes it plain that none of the men in the preliminary race of June 1 are certain of getting into the big race. The committee will view the race and if, in their opinion, the showings made by the winner justifies it, he will be allowed to be at the starting line with the other three. All the rowers are signing their desire to be on the committee that they want smooth water, so the race will be staged at five o'clock in the evening. If there is a strong breeze, the pistol will not crack until the wind has subsided. Mr. Johnson is not sure of the date, Jane S. but says that so far as he is sure of now, it will be that day. All the other rowers are practicing daily with lanes rowing watching them.

The indications are that a record will be set for the race for the Gold Cup, Mr. Johnson says, and all arrangements are being made to that end. He says he was very glad to learn that Belyea would leave soon for the course and that his coming was arousing great interest.

What Alberta Man Says of Dodd's Kidney Pills

States He Found Sore Relief For Neuritis, Backache and Rheumatism in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Red Water, Alta., May 3.—(Special.) "I cannot be without Dodd's Kidney Pills at home. I have found them a sure relief for neuritis, backache and rheumatism."

That is the statement of Mr. M. Tachuk, a well-known resident here. No stronger recommendation of a standard remedy was ever penned or spoken. Recommendations of Dodd's Kidney Pills come from the heart. They are the voluntary statements of men and women who have suffered and found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

That Mr. Tachuk found relief for his neuritis, backache and rheumatism in Dodd's Kidney Pills is only natural. All of them are caused by poison in the blood that defective kidneys have failed to strain out.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not make strong healthy kidneys.

UNFAIR ATTACKS ON PRES. A. W. COVEY

A very fair sample of the gross unfairness with which President A. W. Covey of the maritime branch of the A. A. U. of C. is treated by some sport writers and others is illustrated by a battery of questions fired at him in the Halifax Herald. Consider two of them:

"1. Why did President Covey refuse the request of three Halifax clubs to hold the meeting at Amherst, which, according to the constitution, shall be held where three or more clubs favor?"

The request for the meeting was received on April 4. The notices calling the meeting in St. John had been mailed on March 30.

"2. Why several clubs, such as the St. John Diving Association, East End Improvement League and others, were admitted shortly before the meeting and allowed voting power on matters that involved baseball and hockey clubs?"

There is no St. John Diving Association. The East End Improvement League was one of the original clubs when the M. P. B. A. U. of C. was reorganized in 1919, and is a promoter of all branches of athletic sport.

Equally conclusive answers could be given to the other questions.

Take another illustration. The Pictou delegate at the Amherst meeting last Saturday night said he was a member of the A. A. U. board of governors, but was never invited to a meeting until this year. The fact is that the Pictou Amateur Athletic Association did not affiliate with the A. A. U. until March of this year.

NOT HYPOCRISY BUT CLEAN SPORT

(Amherst News)

The News takes this opportunity of stating that it is out and out for clean sport. Sport is today like radio, highly complex. It is no longer simply a consideration for growing youths. It is sought to achieve a certain end. While we as paper are not concerned so much about names who are concerned about principles. We know that we must have honesty in our games or dishonesty throughout our whole social, industrial and domestic fabric. There is no getting away from it. As in sport so in life.

So here we make an appeal for honesty. True sport demands an adherence to rules. No honest person even attempts to change the rules after setting but the pure.

ST. PETER'S TEAM TO START TRAINING

Have Been Ordered to Report for Practice This Evening — Improvements Made to Grounds.

Extensive improvements have been made to St. Peter's baseball park since last fall. A section of the hill in left field has been removed, the main field partly sodded, leveled and rolled, and a new bleacher erected in left center field. The grounds are rapidly rounding into shape for the opening of the season, and the work has so far advanced that members of the team have been ordered to report for practice this evening.

From the present outlook St. Peter's will compete during the major portion of the season with visiting teams, which have already been arranged for to come here from various parts of the eastern states. There is also talk of a second team being organized in the city to provide local competition. John White, who managed the Giants, winners of the city championship in 1918, is behind the movement and is said to have signed several of the players who were with the Commercial Club team last season.

Some young players will be given a tryout with St. Peter's this year and if they make good will be retained to substitute for the regulars in event of sickness, accidents, etc. Joseph Dever has been appointed manager of the team, and Gerard McGowan captain.

The News takes this opportunity of stating that it is out and out for clean sport. Sport is today like radio, highly complex. It is no longer simply a consideration for growing youths. It is sought to achieve a certain end. While we as paper are not concerned so much about names who are concerned about principles. We know that we must have honesty in our games or dishonesty throughout our whole social, industrial and domestic fabric. There is no getting away from it. As in sport so in life.

So here we make an appeal for honesty. True sport demands an adherence to rules. No honest person even attempts to change the rules after setting but the pure.

London, May 3.—Queens' Park, the famous Scottish amateur soccer team, which was one of this year's relegated clubs, is expected to resign from the league sooner than submit to the humiliation of playing in the Scottish second league.

ST. PETER'S TEAM TO START TRAINING

Have Been Ordered to Report for Practice This Evening — Improvements Made to Grounds.

Extensive improvements have been made to St. Peter's baseball park since last fall. A section of the hill in left field has been removed, the main field partly sodded, leveled and rolled, and a new bleacher erected in left center field. The grounds are rapidly rounding into shape for the opening of the season, and the work has so far advanced that members of the team have been ordered to report for practice this evening.

From the present outlook St. Peter's will compete during the major portion of the season with visiting teams, which have already been arranged for to come here from various parts of the eastern states. There is also talk of a second team being organized in the city to provide local competition. John White, who managed the Giants, winners of the city championship in 1918, is behind the movement and is said to have signed several of the players who were with the Commercial Club team last season.

Some young players will be given a tryout with St. Peter's this year and if they make good will be retained to substitute for the regulars in event of sickness, accidents, etc. Joseph Dever has been appointed manager of the team, and Gerard McGowan captain.

In A Great Hotel? No, On A Ship!

WHEN the Great Eastern was built—even the present generation remembers her as the world's greatest ship 60 years ago—she was finished like a ship, with low-ceiled cabins. Nowadays they build steamships that have lofty interiors like a modern hotel, or metropolitan club. These pictures, taken on the latest ocean liner, the White Star Line, which is double the size of the Great Eastern, show the degree of spaciousness and luxury that the ship of 1922 has attained. The picture with the colonnade was taken in the ship's lounge, or social hall; the other is in the dining room, which seats 500 people at small tables.

BLAME POLICE FOR KILLING IN CELL

East St. Louis Authorities Ask Chief of Force, Chief Detective and 7 Patrolmen to Resign.

St. Louis, May 4.—The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners of East St. Louis has submitted a report to the county council recommending Chief of Police W. J. Mulconery, Chief of Detectives James Nevill and seven other police officials to the rank of patrolman with a suspension of thirty days and a request for their resignation.

This action for the investigation into the death of John Campanella, an Italian whose death, while a prisoner, in the East St. Louis jail several weeks ago is said to have been caused by a beating he received at the hands of detectives during a third degree examination.

Other prisoners, including Mrs. Campanella, who was held for investigation, reported, however, that they heard Campanella scream and pray when closeted with policemen for questioning.

An inquiry was ordered and Dr. Downey L. Harris announced that there was no evidence of strangulation and said the prisoner's death was probably caused by blows on the head.

Besides Mulconery and Nevill, the men affected by the ruling of the Fire and Police Board are: Lieutenants of Police Harry Bishop, Joseph Schrader and Harry Walsh, Detectives Albert Wilson, Harry Scheutz and Luther Helig and Police Sergeant Mathew O'Flaherty.

The report of the police and fire board was prepared and signed by George Roe, chairman of the board, and Dr. F. C. Little, a member. The third member, John Shannon, was present, but refused to sign the document. Little and Roe then took their recommendations to the city council. The term of Roe expired today and he is not slated for reappointment.

The nine members of the police force announced that in defence of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners they would not resign, but would keep their places.

Their decision was based on a statement of Corporation Counsel Leroy Proulx that the board had no authority to demote, suspend or discharge them without first filing written charges of misconduct.

The evening was spent in a dispute over the interpretation of the statutes under which East St. Louis as a commission ruled city is incorporated.

A beautiful skin is Miss Canada's Birthright

Any Canadian girl can achieve it The Choice is with her own self—

A little care and knowledge of how to treat the skin, a little care and judgment in the selection of her toilet soap, just a little determination to make the most of herself, to help nature beautify her and—her skin may glow with the radiance of health and beauty. Her complexion, free from blackheads, pimples, blemishes, etc., will give her wonderful new attraction for her friends—make her beautiful in fact.

Skin cleansing is ALL important This is not a lecture against the use of rouge and powders. They are good, but the great danger lies in using them over and over again without thoroughly cleansing the skin between each application. Thus, an artificial "skin" of grease, grit and perspiration is formed which clogs up the pores, resulting in a coarse, sallow, sticky skin.

WINSOME—the soap paragon Naturally, the soap is very important. A soap, with cheap, impure materials, or too quickly and improperly made, may cleanse the skin but will do more harm than good. Choose Winsome, the new toilet soap—most pleasant to use, for you can always depend on its supreme quality, its gentle cleansing power, its wonderful purity.

A simple WINSOME treatment Make a lather in warm water with Winsome Soap. Use both hands and gently massage every inch of the face and neck, work the fingers into the skin and take a little time to it. Then rinse thoroughly and dry with a soft towel. If your skin is naturally dry, use a little Winsome Vanishing Cream before you wash, and a little after. If your skin is naturally oily, wash in warm water, but rinse in cold. Keep this up daily and neither rouges or powders, nor rough winds or hot sun, can injure your skin. Winsome Soap will make it naturally robust and glowing with colour and beauty.
