LABOR'S TRIBUTE TO MONARCHY IN ENGLAND EXPRESSED BY MRS. SNOWDEN

She states that the Labor party is theoretically republican, but republicanism has never been a plank of the Labor party, and unless it is possible to show that monarchy is responsible for the existence of poverty the endeavor to remove it and to change it for some other form of government would be sheer waste of time.

HOLIDAY TRAVEL.

Railway travel for the holiday today was not so good as May 24, according to local officials, but this is due to the fact that there were really two holidays for May 24 as the 25th fell on Sunday. Despite this, many took advantage of the fine weather and went picknicking to the summer resorts.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

(Toronto Globe.) A millionaire or million heiress has inspired a waiting world through Harper's Bazaar how much she spends in a year on clothes, and how she explains that she is not extravagant, and it may be that she is astonished at her own moderation. If she spent $300,000 a year on her wardrobe, she would have less to spend on other things, so she is content with a modest $8,000. She gives many details which would be useful to those of our lady readers who are desirous of keeping their expenditure down to $8,000 a year, but the exigencies of space and time will permit only a few of these particulars. In one respect, at least, she is like her poorer sisters, she makes her money go far.

DEPENDING ON HOW YOU LOOK AT IT.

(William Lyon Phelps in Scribner's.) When one thinks of the vast fully displayed in human history, it is easy to despise human nature; but when one thinks of the vast number of hospital beds, with little money, little education, little ability, nevertheless put up a brave front and meet the day's work with uncomplaining serenity, then it is impossible not to see that human nature is sublime.

Parallel Seams

First in the shape and now in the seams, Men's Oxford's disport fresh turns of fashion. You'd think that blunted French taper was all a man would want to look newly dressed in June. But you change your mind once you spot the neatness of separated seams. On a Toney Red Calf at $7.50 those hairline stitches do create a powerful harmony of color and line.

Develop well-dressed Speed!

But, that does not mean dress so you look "fast." Take the mirror into your confidence and let its reflections form your decision. For big men here are the quiet unobtrusive fabrics. For the small man here are the smart suitings. For the average man here are patterns with personality—plus. Suits to suit every man from $25 to $50. STRICTER REGULATION OF ST. JOHN TAXIS AIMED AT IN NEW CITY BY-LAWS

Inspection, Licensing, Fares and Other Features Gone Into—Must Yet Pass the Common Council.

There is to be a general going over of the whole taxi-cab situation in St. John. Loose methods are not to be permitted to prevail and stringent regulations are to govern the situation.

The matter of efficient control of the taxi-cabs of the city, in the interest of the public and the operators of the cars, has been a live issue for some time and this spring the taxi men prepared a set of by-laws which they presented to the Commissioner of Safety. These have been gone over carefully by the city solicitor and representatives of the taxi owners and a draft prepared for submission to the council. This draft was submitted to the council yesterday by Commissioner Hating and after some discussion was recommended for adoption with a changing in the wording which will leave the issuing of licenses in the hands of the Mayor instead of placing it in the hands of the Board.

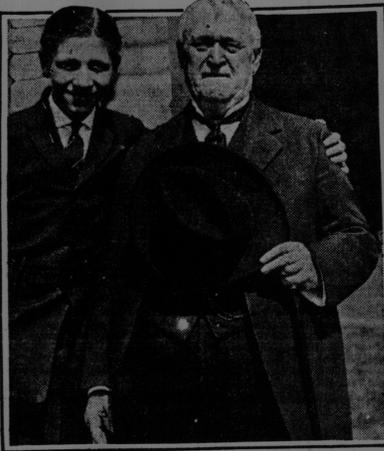

Following is the text of the by-law as presented yesterday: 1. A Board, consisting of the Chief of Police, one person appointed by the Commissioner of Public Safety and one person selected from among their number by those to whom taxi-cab licenses are issued, shall have power to enforce the provisions of this by-law. Until such last mentioned member shall have been selected the Chief of Police and the person appointed by the Commissioner of Public Safety shall constitute the Board.

2. No person shall keep or operate any motor taxi-cab or other motor vehicle for the conveyance of persons within the limits of the City of St. John for gain unless he shall have obtained and continue to hold a taxi-cab license issued by the Board. 3. Each taxi-cab license issued by the Board shall be expressed to take effect on January the thirty-first of the year for which it is issued. Unless the Board shall deem it advisable owing to special circumstances no license shall be issued after the first day of February in any year or for a period of less than one year. The fee payable for a taxi-cab license whether issued for the whole or part of any year shall be $15.

4. Any person to whom such a taxi-cab license is issued shall operate his taxi-cab for the full term of such license in force and a sufficient ground for the cancellation of or refusal to renew his license by the board in case any person to whom a taxi-cab license has been issued is incapacitated by illness, accident or other like cause from operating a taxi-cab shall notify the board when his incapacity has terminated.

5. If any person to whom a taxi-cab license is issued dies, becomes insolvent or leaves the city, a license for the unexpired portion of the term of such license may be issued to the purchaser of his equipment provided such purchaser is a fit and proper person to be granted a license.

A SENATOR AND HIS PAGE

Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina thinks a lot of this page boy. And the lad thinks the senator is about the finest man ever.

and who employ drivers to operate such motor taxi-cabs. Each of such owners shall obtain from the board the same number of "taxi-cab owners' licenses" as he employs drivers. He shall keep the board informed of the names of the drivers employed by him. He shall issue to each driver employed by him one of his licenses. Whenever a person to whom taxi-cab owners' licenses have been issued ceases to employ a driver and engages another in his place he may transfer the license issued by him to his former employer to the driver engaged in his stead. The provisions of this by-law shall apply to persons to whom "taxi-cab owners' licenses" are issued and their employees to the same extent as to those to whom ordinary taxi-cab licenses are issued.

19. Each application for the issue of a license under this by-law shall be made to the board by the applicant in person. The by-law has yet to be passed by the Common Council.

20. Any person to whom a taxi-cab license is issued shall display on the inside of his taxi-cab a card to be furnished by the board setting out the fare as fixed in paragraph 13 of this by-law.

21. Whenever a taxi-cab is hired within the limits of the City of Saint John to undertake a trip in whole or in part outside the limits of the City of Saint John the fare shall be agreed upon before the commencement of the trip by the intending passenger or passengers and the licensee in charge of such taxi-cab; the licensee is forbidden to commence such a trip until such an agreement has been made. Proof of what appears to the board to be an extortionate charge for such service outside the limits of the City of Saint John may be taken into consideration by the board in determining whether a person making such a charge is a suitable person to be licensed under this by-law.

22. If any person to whom a taxi-cab license is issued violates any of the provisions of this by-law he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $20 for each offence and in addition to said penalty he shall, if the board so decides, forfeit his license and be disqualified to hold a license thereafter. Any penalty imposed under this section shall not be recovered with costs before the Police Magistrate of the City of Saint John on the information of any member of the board or of any ratenayer of the said city by summary conviction in the same manner and with like effect as other penalties are recovered and enforced before the Police Magistrate; and such penalties shall, when collected, be paid into the hands of the Chamberlain of the City of Saint John and form part of the funds of the corporation of the said city.

23. There shall be issued by the board in addition to the ordinary taxi-cab licenses "taxi-cab owners' licenses" which shall be issued only to persons who own two or more motor taxi-cabs

SUPER AIRSHIP TO BE ENGLAND'S ANSWER TO THE FRENCH SUCCESS

Proposal to Build Fifty Aerial Leviathans for Peace and War.

London, June 3.—(United Press.) Construction of a gigantic super-airship, to be the first of a fleet of British aerial leviathans—primarily for commerce, but potential for war—is being considered by the cabinet, upon a favorable sub-committee report.

The dramatically successful flight of the French aviator, Lieut. Pelletier D'Oisy, in passing the British round-the-world flyer, Commander McLaren, has spurred sentiment here for increased British air strength.

Unless a new conference can be called to limit aerial construction, many European authorities apprehend a race between the great powers for air supremacy which will bring greater expenditures, greater tax burdens—and possibly eventually in a greater war—than preceding competitions in naval or military forces.

A Race With France Officially no government authority here says in so many words that England must enter an aircraft construction race with France.

The government has already voted a programme of large increases in army airplanes—although not sufficient to overtake the French lead.

The first giant airship will have a capacity of 5,000,000 cubic feet, an air displacement of 150 tons, a carrying capacity of forty-four tons, or of 200 passengers and eleven tons of freight.

It will be able to make a non-stop flight from London to Australia in five days and nights, or to maintain a speed of eighty miles an hour for 10,000 miles without stopping.

The maximum non-stop cruising range with a light cargo will be 24,000 miles at forty miles an hour, with a maximum time in the air without light, of twenty-five days and nights.

Commander Dennis Burnley, who prepared the plan which has been reported by a cabinet committee and is now before the cabinet itself, recommends that the first air leviathan, if successful, be followed by the construction of fifty similar ships, to establish commercial services to Australia, New Zealand, China, India, Africa, the West Indies and Canada.

GRANDDADDY FROG GOES SHOPPING.

"Where are the boys?" he asked, looking around.

Tingling! went the door in daddy? I haven't seen you a con's Mister Bags' store as old Granddaddy Frog hopped in.

If You Are Not Well Here is Your Key to Health!

Hattonford, Alta.—"Being run-down after the flu I was in a weakened condition, had dizzy spells and shortness of breath, followed by faintness. The middle age period made things seem as though I'd never feel well again, but I was determined not to give up. Hearing of Dr. Pierce's famous Golden Medical Discovery I sent for a bottle, followed the directions, and soon felt less tired and faint, and finally I got back to my normal state. I have thanked God many times for the restoration of my health so I could remain with my family, and I gladly recommend this Discovery of Dr. Pierce's. For it is so pure, and worth a trial to any one who is run-down."—Mrs. Gertrude White, Crystal Springs Farm, Golden Medical Discovery is put up in Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgebury, Ont., and sold by all druggists in both tablets and liquid. Send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package of tablets. Write Dr. Pierce, Great Invalids Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice.

FOR 15 YEARS WAS TROUBLED WITH ECZEMA

There is no other remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters that can possibly give such relief to all sufferers from eczema, salt rheum and all other diseases of the blood for the reason that this old and well tried remedy goes right to the seat of the trouble and completely and permanently drives these diseases out of the system by cleansing the blood and making it pure and rich.

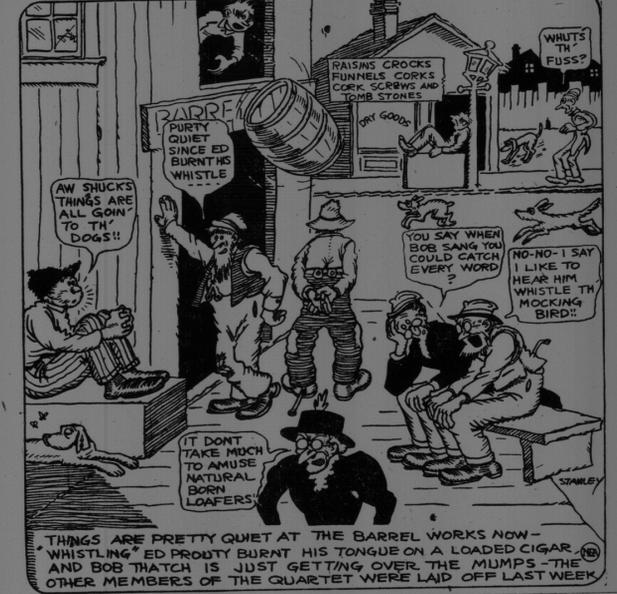

Mr. F. W. H. Schultz, Pembroke, Ont., writes: "Having been troubled with eczema for fifteen years, during which time I tried everything I could think of, including doctors, but without getting anything to do me much good, I finally decided to take Burdock Blood Bitters, and I was certainly surprised to find that two weeks after I had started to take it I was relieved of my trouble. This was nine months ago and I have not had a sign of it since. I surely wish to thank you for this wonderful medicine and strongly recommend it to anyone suffering from the same trouble as I had."

"I'll take them," said Granddaddy reaching for his pocketbook. "Wrap 'em up and I'll take 'em along. It's a good thing I know how to walk on three legs."

When the rubbers were wrapped up in a nice neat package, the old frog gentleman hopped away to the place in the mud beside the pond where his grandchildren and their mother lived in a lily-pod house. In went Granddaddy, as proud as Punch. "Where are the boys?" he asked, looking around. "I haven't seen them since the day they were born. That was just one month ago today. This is their birthday and I've brought them each a present."

"Eczema All Over Arms Suffered for 12 Years"

Mrs. Murray Hough, Warton, Ont., writes: "I had eczema for twelve years. Every once in a while it would break out and spread all over my arms. I tried all kinds of treatments to relieve it, but without success. One Spring it broke out and nothing gave me relief, even the salve I got from the doctor did no good. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and it healed the eczema in a short time. That is over a year ago, and I have had no return of the trouble."

Regular Sleep

"That child certainly does sleep," Mr. Mann would observe as he tiptoed into the room. "Yes—thank goodness," Mrs. Mann would echo. "We don't have much trouble in that direction." But there are many who do. The active, playful child needs a great deal of sleep and rest—the more the better. The minimum amount of sleep that statisticians allow for children from two to four years is 12 hours. And from four to six years 11 hours. Sleep and rest insure a greater resistance when illness comes. Also it helps to retain weight and increase it. Children who get insufficient sleep are soon likely to show it through losses in weight. Fatigue is also likely to follow, with loss of appetite, irritability and nervousness. The child should have its own bedroom in the open, if possible—or in a well ventilated room. A daytime nap should be insisted upon, and there should be great regularity in the time of this nap as well as in the child's bedtime. Be sure to make your child keep regular sleeping hours—and get the habit yourself.

HELP FOR CONVALESCENT

DRECO is rapidly restoring Mrs. Robin's system. Stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys all recovering normal health and strength as corrective and tonic properties of great herbal remedy build her up.

The period of convalescence after a severe illness or operation, is often a long, weary one. Nature, exhausted, has no resources left to rebuild the organs to their customary health and strength. Her cry is for a tonic to help her and the best and most reliable tonic for the purpose is Dreco, made from the pure extracts of herbs, roots, bark and leaves and rich in health building properties. Mrs. Robin, of 154 Dorchester street, East, Montreal, tells how wonderfully Dreco is restoring her strength after a serious operation.

"I am just out of the hospital," says Mrs. Robin. "where I was operated on for a tumor. I was nervous and could not sleep and was badly constipated and had about resigned myself to a long, weary period of weakness, when I saw Dreco advertised and decided to try its tonic properties."

"I have only taken one bottle of it, but am up and doing again and able to do all my work as though I had not been in the hospital at all."

Dreco contains no mercury, poisons or habit forming drugs. Its pure herbal juices tone and regulate all the important organs of digestion and purify the blood, too, thereby benefitting and strengthening the whole body.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

A Daily Menu For The Stout and Thin

EAT AND--

Lose Weight—Gain Weight

One whole large orange, 1 cup creamed dried beef on 2 pieces whole wheat toast, 1 cup beef greens, 2 lamb chops en casserole, 4 ounces watercress with lemon juice, 4 ounces fresh cherries, 1 toasted gluten roll, 1 whole wheat roll, 1 pint skimmed milk.

Total calories, 1194. Protein, 306; fat, 283; carbohydrate, 623. Iron, .0187.

The creamed dried beef is made with skimmed milk, about four of the very thin slices of beef in the average butcher shop and about one dessert-spoon of butter. Pick the beef into bits and "fry" them in butter, then stir in one tablespoon of flour and when the mixture is well blended slowly add milk, stirring constantly.

The ordinary creamed dried beef is made with whole milk and much more butter it's quite necessary to make the diet dish separately. Made with skimmed milk as suggested the total calories, exclusive of toast, amount to 281.

Lamb chops carefully trimmed, peas, carrots and string beans are used in the casserole dish.

One whole large orange, 1/2 cup cooked wheat cereal with 1 dessert-spoon sugar and 1/4 cup cream, 4 cornmeal pancakes with 2 tablespoons butter and 4 tablespoons maple syrup, 2 heaping tablespoons potato souffle, 1 cup creamed dried beef or 2 pork chops, 4 tablespoons apple sauce, 1 cup beef greens with 4 tablespoons hot tartar sauce, 1 cup cream of mushroom soup, 2 lamb chops en casserole, 4 ounces watercress with 2 tablespoons French dressing, 4 ounces fresh cherries, 4 tablespoons frozen rice pudding, 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 2 nut rolls, 2 slices bread, 8 tablespoons butter, 1 pint whole milk, 3 new potatoes in parsley butter.

Total calories, 4067. Protein, 466; fat, 1691; carbohydrate, 1910. Iron, .0191 gram.

As it's sometimes a bother to make two creamed dishes the pork chops and apple sauce are suggested for the evening menu.

Left-over mashed potatoes are combined with eggs beaten separately and baked in individual molds or one large one for the potato souffle.

The rice pudding is suggested for the luncheon dessert. No eggs are used. The rice is cooked until soft in milk and water, combined with sugar and sifted steamed or canned fruit pulp. Half the bulk of rice is the proportion for the whipped cream that is folded in just before freezing.

Phillips, Margaret Corkery; educational, Miss M. H. McCloskey, convener; Miss Kathleen Lundy and Mrs. Alfred Dever; entertainment, Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald, convener; Mrs. A. Quinn, Mrs. Fred Roderick and Mrs. J. D. Dever; immigration, Mrs. J. G. Quinn, convener; Miss Ida Kegan and Miss Marie Hansen; sewing, Miss Alice Dever, convener; press, Miss Mary MacDonald. Father Cloran spoke especially of the Sisters of Service, commending this cause to the interest and support of the league.

The meeting closed with the singing of "Holy God."

The annual inspection of cadet corps in the city was commenced yesterday by Capt. D. V. Palin. SCIENCE SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS PLANNED

Courses Will Begin in Sussex on July 15, Director Announces.

A. C. Gorham, M. Sc., director of elementary agricultural education in New Brunswick, was in the city yesterday on business in connection with the opening of the teachers' camp rural science school at Sussex on July 15. The school will be in session for four weeks and Mr. Gorham said yesterday that the prospects looked very good for a large attendance of teachers and a successful and enjoyable season.

Mr. Gorham addressed the students at the Provincial Normal School in Fredericton recently and the rural science school proved a great attraction to his audience. Many of the Normal School students are planning to attend the summer school. The military authorities have granted the use of the camp grounds at Sussex, as well as one of the bungalows, a certain number of bell tents and other equipment. Those who wish it will camp out while attending the summer school.

Grants Provided.

During the last four summers the rural science camp has been a splendid success. For those teachers who successfully complete one term at the summer school and who put in and maintain a garden at their school, the Government provides a special grant of $30. To those who have taken two summer course a grant of $50 will be paid.

The rural science course consists of nature study, physics of the farm and home, cereal husbandry and plant physiology, horticulture, school gardening and home projects and rural recreational work, including folk dances and games. The course will be made as practical as possible and already the school garden has been put in condition for planting. Some experimental plots are already in and space has been left for practical gardening by the students.

Sports are a special feature of the rural science school always and amongst the sports for which facilities will be provided are baseball, tennis, volley ball and others. The river affords excellent opportunities for bathing and for instruction in swimming. The course will be held in full while at the summer school in previous years.

TO DISCUSS SETTLEMENT. Col. Used Kellogg's Bran 2 months—constipation gone after suffering 3 years

Three years of suffering with constipation. What happiness was his when Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, restored his health. But read his letter.

"Dear Sir:—This is what I think of your Krumbled Bran. I would not be without it for anything in the world. For three years I used all kinds of medicines for constipation, and only got temporary relief. I was advised by a doctor to use Kellogg's Bran, and since I began using it I don't have to take pills or anything else. I have used it for two months, and my constipation has left me. I feel better now than I have for three years." (Name and address on request.)

Kellogg's Bran brings results because it is ALL bran. You can't get constipation with halfway measures—with bran which is only part bran. It takes ALL bran to be 100 per cent effective.

Because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. It acts naturally—just as nature acts. It stimulates the intestine and makes it function regularly. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will refund your money.

Kellogg's Bran is a delicious nut-like flavor. Quite different from ordinary, unpalatable bran. You will like it as a cereal, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the recipes given on every package.

Eat two tablespoons of Kellogg's Bran every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. Made in Toronto, Canada. Sold by all grocers.

MANY WORLD TOPICS ARE READY FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL

Reduction of Armaments Will Again be a Subject for Discussion.

Geneva, June 3.—When Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia goes to the United States in July to take part in the round table conferences at Williams College he will bear a new title, that of President of the Council of the League of Nations. Dr. Benes will serve as president of the June meeting of the league council, and he will continue in office until the following meeting of the council, which will be in the closing days of August.

President Benes will call the June session of the council together at Geneva on the 11th of this month. That is the date fixed by an official league communiqué, which proceeds to present the agenda of the meeting. Like the March session, the June gathering will take up matters of special interest to the American people. Jeremiah Smith, Jr., of Boston, will come back from Budapest to make his first report about his new job, which is that of managing the financial reconstruction of Hungary. Simultaneously Dr. Zimmermann, who has done fine things for the League of Nations in the rehabilitation of Austria, will visit Geneva to give a further account of Austria's progress towards recovery.

Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the Greek refugee land settlement commission, will be in the United States to report on the progress of the Greek refugee question and decide what steps should be taken on the project. A report should be drawn on the project. A report should be drawn on the project.

Reduction of armaments, which has come to the fore again as a result of President Coolidge's idea to convene a new international conference at some auspicious moment, will figure as one of the most important items on the June agenda.

The council also will have before it the draft of the convention for control of international traffic in arms which was made up at Paris in the presence of Joseph C. Grew, now under-secretary of state at Washington. Similarly, the sub-committee which recently met in Prague to frame a convention for the control of the private manufacture of arms will submit its conclusions to the council.

Other items on the programme include slavery, unsettled matters concerning the rights of German residents in Poland, the traffic in women and children, the Danzig question, the work of the health committee, the report of the economic committee which will presumably submit a convention dealing with unfair competition in business, and finally the financial committee's report on the budget of the League of Nations itself. This budget is so satisfactory that the league debt incurred in purchasing its present home at Geneva is entirely wiped out.

Thinking and Talking

A candidate, rushing to address a meeting at a by-election, was accosted by a friend. "What do you think of the political situation now?" he was asked. "Don't bother me," responded the politician. "I've got to talk. This is no time to think."—Yorkshire Post.

AMENDMENT LOST WITHOUT A VOTE

Drayton Proposal for Committee on C. N. R. Estimates is Defeated.

Ottawa, June 3.—Sir Henry Drayton's amendment calling for a committee to consider estimates for the Canadian National Railways and the Mercantile Marine was declared lost shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. There was no vote.

Drayton Motion. Ottawa, June 2.—Debate today on the railway budget brought a move from Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance in the late Government, for the appointment of a standing committee of the House to consider the estimates for the Canadian National Railway system and the Government Merchant Marine. To the committee would be referred all questions involving new capital commitments and the disposition of properties and assets. It would have power of inquiry similar to those now possessed by the Public Accounts Committee. The motion technically before the House was one to go into supply on the railway estimates and Sir Henry's motion was in amendment thereto.

The motion read: "A select standing committee on National Railways and shipping is hereby appointed, to consider the estimates for the Canadian National Railway system and the Mercantile Marine, and all questions involving new capital commitments and the disposition of properties and assets, and that as well as said committee be referred during each session the annual reports of the said system and Mercantile Marine, for such enquiry as may be exercised by, and with such powers of enquiry as possessed by, the select standing committee on public accounts with relation to the Auditor General's reports; and further, that said committee be entrusted to make recommendations to this House as to what further, if any, details or improvement of method should appear in said annual reports; provided, however, the whole of such powers shall be so limited that no enquiry of operation the enquiry into which would be in the opinion of the management be prejudicial to the system or to the interests of the public; and that the report of the committee be made a subject of enquiry; and that rule No. 10 ought to be amended accordingly."

Sir Henry stressed the need for a thorough understanding of the actual financial condition of the National Railways.

Should Be No Mystery. The first principle of success for the Canadian National Railways was that there should be no mystery as to their actual financial conditions. Up to the present it had not been possible to get this first principle. For instance, a newspaper had interpreted the statement of the Minister of Railways on Thursday, June 1st, as meaning that there was a net improvement over the previous year of $5,217,561, while another newspaper the same day had put the net improvement at $12,000,000; and Sir Henry Thornton in a statement appearing today had claimed a net improvement of at least $20,000,000.

Sir Henry then quoted utterances by Premier Bennett in the House in 1920, in which he had advocated a larger measure of information for Parliament in regard to the affairs of the National Railways.

The Hotel Scribe. Dealing with the Hotel Scribe, Sir Henry read extensively from the correspondence which had been brought down, to justify his demand for the appointment of a committee. Sir Henry quoted a cable from the president of the Canadian National Railways, the agent of that company in London to be forwarded to Commissioner Roy in Paris, in which Sir Henry Thornton stated: "I kept trying my customary pace and found that I couldn't get any control and I was being beaten badly because it was forcing the attack and he was letting me lose on my errors."

"Finally I decided that I must let him carry the game and see how he played. I started chopping them back at him and he started driving them all over the place, and I won on his errors."

Just as soon as Miss Wills gets the feel of the English ball and gets the game regulated to strange turf, if she does, she will have to jump to Paris and change her style completely for the Olympic matches.

The tennis matches in Paris are to be played on clay courts, which is an American-made ball. Had Miss Wills been able to play first in Paris, she certainly would have been on the very top of her game, because she has done all her training on clay courts and has done most of all her playing there.

It is apparent that Miss Suzanne Lenglen knew there would be a handicap in changing her whole style so abruptly if she went to Wimbledon for the British championship and there is no doubt that she made a wise decision when she passed up the Wimbledon trip and chose to remain at home and practice on clay with the American ball.

Recent reports from Paris indicate that Miss Lenglen's illness was actually physical, and was not the result of mental faintness that might have been the result of thinking too much about the second American menace to her crown.

The world's champion is said to have jaundice and, if so, it is a clinch that she will not be in condition to play her best game in July. Some good tennis critics, who returned from Paris, recently said that the American champion could beat Suzanne if she played the French girl the right way.

They referred to the "Elden" theory that victory can be won by running down the opponent by knocking him down. They seemed to think that Miss Lenglen will not be in condition to play the opponent as from a changed pace attack, but that she would outlast any player in the world who wanted to stand up and throw them at her.

It is very probable that the young American champion will not have to be told what kind of a game to play against Lenglen and if she should need some advice, there will be some competent counsel with her.

UNDER HANDICAP ON FOREIGN TRIP

Helen Wills Looked On as Strong Opponent for Susanne.

By HENRY L. FARRELL. New York, June 3.—(United Press)—In making her first invasion of Europe in quest of the world's tennis championship, Miss Helen Wills, the 18-year-old American champion, will be handicapped by the schedule which will make her play her first game in England.

Miss Wills is just away from the clay courts of her home club in Berkeley, where she has been playing a fast driving game against male opponents.

In England she will have to play upon strange turf with an English ball. That there is a great difference between playing with an English ball and with an American ball on Forest Hills' sod was made strikingly apparent last summer when the British woman's team came over here and were disastrously beaten by the American female stars.

No one would deny after those Wimbledon Cup matches at Forest Hills that the British ladies did not play their best game and their excuse that they could get the feel of the English ball and get the swing of the American ball was accepted as everything but an alibi. The English ladies were too gracious to abate themselves, and all the internationalists who saw the matches told what the trouble was before the guests felt it polite to discuss the matter which brought about their downfall.

Even though she will have a month's vacation to acclimate herself to British living, the popular young California champion will find when she takes the court for actual competition that she may have to make her game as she goes along.

Such a competent critic as young Vivian Richards believes that the handicap of the English ball is going to be the biggest handicap that Miss Wills will be asked to carry in her Wimbledon Cup matches and in the British championships at Wimbledon.

"The English ball," he says, "is smaller and much softer than our ball. The turf over there is also much softer and it is hard to get the feel of the ball."

"When I played my first match in England," he continued, "I was totally at sea. I was playing against Washer, the Belgian star, and it was fortunate that he was having the same trouble. I kept trying my customary pace and found that I couldn't get any control and I was being beaten badly because it was forcing the attack and he was letting me lose on my errors."

"Finally I decided that I must let him carry the game and see how he played. I started chopping them back at him and he started driving them all over the place, and I won on his errors."

Just as soon as Miss Wills gets the feel of the English ball and gets the game regulated to strange turf, if she does, she will have to jump to Paris and change her style completely for the Olympic matches.

RUSSIA DESIRES PEACE IN BALKANS, SAYS SOVIET CHIEF

Leader of Delegation at London Says Czarist Policy Abandoned.

London, June 3.—(United Press)—"Russia wants peace in the Balkans; Moscow has abandoned 'map changing' policies of the old Czarist regime; therefore any talk of Russia starting an offensive and igniting the Balkan powder magazine is mere foolishness."

Christian Rakovsky, chief of the Soviet delegation here, gave this authoritative assurance in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

Rakovsky is assistant commissary of Foreign Affairs in the Soviet Foreign office, and is the biggest Soviet leader who has ever officially visited England. Writer, diplomat and revolutionist, he speaks five languages.

Today in Western Europe, Rakovsky is known as Russia's mouthpiece. "We have rejected the imperial policy of the Czarist government which was aiming at the subjugation of the Balkan peoples to its policies and its interests," he said.

"The Czarist government were still existent, and all the secret treaties were carried out, by which Constantine and part of Thrace were ceded to the Czarist government, Roumania and Bulgaria would, in fact, be Russian provinces."

"We are not, however, indifferent to what takes place on our frontier. Not taking into account the formation of the new Salvage Corps and Fire Police Company. The constitution and by-laws of the new company were received. The members number twenty-five. The officers are as follows: Captain, William Crookshank; lieutenant, A. Carl Walter; secretary, J. Herbert Maxwell; treasurer, Maurice Maxwell; surgeon, D. A. L. Gerow; foreman, No. 1 District, Robert Blair; foreman, No. 2 District, Robert Blair; members of the Salvage Corps, Cecil Holder, Fred D. Allen, J. Guy Burden, G. Hedley Forbes, Leslie Mavor, J. D. White, A. Owen Branscombe, L. Robert Hawkins, William Bearico.

With pleasing remarks from members of the committee regarding this volunteer company offering for service, the company was accepted and are now on duty, while the constitution and by-laws will be considered later. The captain and secretary are former members of No. 1 Salvage Corps and Fire Police Company, No. 1, St. John, and are well acquainted with their duties as the House of Bishops.

The Council also took up the matter of street paving and decided to finish two blocks of Westmorland street, from Brunswick to Charlotte, with permanent paving.

TRAINMEN TAKE COURT ACTION

Ask Damages From Conductors' Organization for Loss of Seniority.

Winnipeg, June 2.—Affecting the seniority rights of all trainmen on the Canadian National Railways and possibly, if successful, pay adjustments back to 1920 a court action has been commenced in the Court of King's Bench against the Order of Railway Conductors by Thomas L. Shannon, of Transcona, Man., and William D. Stinson, of Sioux Lookout, Ont.

The trainmen say that the organization "induced" the Canadian National Railways to "dump" the seniority rights of Grand Trunk employes with those of Canadian National men so that the former were placed far down on the list for promotion. A claim is made that each of the plaintiffs has suffered damage to the extent of $2,600 and an injunction is asked restraining the defendants from interfering with the contractual rights of the plaintiffs. J. J. Andrews, Q. C., is representing the plaintiffs. No date has been set for the hearing.

ENGLAND SEEKS TO CURB TRUSTS

Promoting Legislation to Regulate Activities of Big Combines.

London, June 3 (United Press)—England has fifty-five trusts and doesn't know what to do with them. Sidney Webb, who is president of the Board of Trade and as such a member of Ramsay MacDonald's Labor Government, is now drawing up a bill designed to curb alleged profiteering of these huge combinations.

They are all over the place, from shipping to building materials and cotton thread. Some of them, like the wall-paper trust, pay wages twice as high as they paid in the "good old days" of cut-throat competition, and are for that reason firmly entrenched in the affections of the English workman.

But some others are not conspicuous for benevolence. As the Englishman sees it, Theodore Roosevelt was right when he said there were "good trusts" and "bad trusts," the "good trusts" being those that shared with their men and the consuming public the benefits of co-operative production and marketing, while the "bad trusts" shared "nothing with nobody."

Trust regulation is a pet subject of Webb's, and the Board of Trade has been working on the question for some time. Several experts have made a close study of the workings of the "Sherman Anti-Trust Act" and there is a good deal of curiosity to see whether the British Government will borrow anything from American experience.

Meanwhile Webb's plans are a closely kept secret.

VETS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

Defeat Shamrocks in a Game Featured by Timely Hitting.

The Vets kept up their winning streak last night by again defeating the Shamrocks by a score of 7 to 2. The Vets hit well and timely and gave good support to Towle who appeared on the mound for the first time this season. He pitched consistently throughout the game and kept the play well in hand. Hansen was on the mound for the Shamrocks.

Although they lost, the North End team made a better showing and it is expected that in a few days they will be sufficiently strengthened to put up a superior brand of ball.

Among the features of the game was home run cleft by Eddie Ramsay who drove a high fly to deep right in the first inning which took a high sound and disappeared over the gate at the entrance of the park.

Art Finamore started to play center field for the Shamrocks, but again injured his leg and had to retire. Parlee who was on first was sent to center and Gill was sent back to first. Lowey made his initial appearance with the Shamrocks and played well.

The following are the official box score and summary:

WANT A PRICE SET ON CAPITAL PACER

The Fredericton Driving and Sporting Club has been asked to place a price on Chesley H. Seary, 205 1/2, a pacer which was purchased in Kentucky some time ago as Fredericton's entry in the free-for-all on the Maine and New Brunswick Circuit for 1924. The request that a price be placed on the son of Silver Axworthy came from Harry H. Stok of Springfield, Ohio, upon whose recommendation the pacer was selected. Bert Lint of this city, who was commissioned to inspect fast record horses available to become Fredericton's representative in the coming season's speed battles. The price which the Fredericton Driving and Sporting Club paid for Chesley H. Seary was $7,500, but since then Mr. Stok's letters to officers of the local organization has predicted that he was a $10,000 pacer, and it is here believed that a price be placed on the son of Silver Axworthy in training at the Springfield track is prepared to pay some amount in five figures for him. No price has been named for the horse, however, and the attitude of local sportsmen who made his purchase possible seems to be that he is "not for sale."—Fredericton Clearer.

THE ATHLETES

Johnny Dee, coach at the Rothesay training camp for Olympic aspirants, said this afternoon that he has prohibited the use of pasturized milk during the training season. He reports that the athletes are all in the pink of condition and he is now keeping a close watch on them to prevent them from going stale. He plans to have the final workout next Thursday and to leave for Montreal Friday morning.

Pat Whipple, a boxer in the 142 pound class, reported at the camp this morning. Coach Dee said it was too late for the youngster to attempt any strenuous training, but he would do everything he could to get him ready for the trials here, Wednesday and Thursday.

CONFIRMS FINE ON "MICKY" McBEATH

Pres. W. S. Hooper Stands Back of Umpire Mahoney's Decision.

W. S. Hooper, president of the N. B. professional baseball league, has confirmed the fine of $5 imposed on Shortstop McBeath of Fredericton by Umpire Mahoney in the Fredericton-G. W. V. A. league fixture on the East End grounds last Friday evening. It will be remembered by the fans who were present at last Friday's game that McBeath precipitated himself into a quarrel with the umpire when the latter gave his decision on one of Shields' offerings. McBeath refused to go to the bench when first ordered to do so by Mr. Mahoney and even motioned as if to strike the umpire. McBeath did retire when the watch was put upon him and thus publicly demonstrated that the umpire's word is law when a game is in progress.

SPARKS HITS TWO RUTHIAN CLOUTS

Machine Gunners Continue Winning Streak to Four Straight.

Proceedings on the South End diamond last evening got muzzed up considerably through the antics of a rangy youngster by the name of "Eddie" Sparks, whose two Ruthian swats were largely responsible for the Machine Gunners' close win over the St. John Baptist outfit, 8 to 7. Mr. Sparks, much to the disgust of the admirers of the team who have visions of the pennant going to the Army. It was anything but championship ball last night, with long distance hard hitting on both sides and some terribly sloppy fielding.

final stages, scoring a run in the sixth, but Niles held them off for two more innings and the game was over. Walter Doyle opened the festivities for the Saints but when the Gunners started pasting his offerings all over the lot, he was yanked and Cynd Moore inserted in the breach. Callaghan, who played the Cutler Mill outfit last year, showed up well at third for the Saints, getting a nice triple in the bargain.

Conlon, who twirled for the Fairville boys, allowed but four hits and struck out six opponents.

MILLION PERSONS SEE HOLIDAY SPORTS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

Close to a million persons, it is estimated, watched Memorial Day athletic contests throughout the United States, making it one of the biggest days in the history of sport. At the Indianapolis auto races alone there were 40,000 present, and the major league baseball games drew 250,000. It is estimated that 350,000 saw the holiday double-headers in the thirty minor leagues, and that 75,000 attended the college baseball games, in addition to the 25,000 who saw the racing at Belmont Park and the uncounted thousands who watched the many track, and field, tennis, golf, polo, rowing, boxing, wrestling and marathons contests in this country. The figures for some of the chief events follow:

FEATURE RACES AT MOOSEPATH

Classes Well Filled and the Horses are in Good Condition.

One of the big attractions today will be the races at Moosepath Park. All of the local trotters and pacers will be there, and some keen competition is expected in every event. S. E. Rice will have his new importations on the track and fans are eagerly awaiting an opportunity to see them perform. They have been working out daily and are said to be in the pink of condition. According to some reports that have leaked out it would not be surprising if the track record was equalled or bettered. There will be three classes, the free-for-all, a named race, and a colts' race. All are well filled, and with ideal weather conditions prevailing it is expected that some thrilling brushes will result. The races start at 2:30 sharp, and the starters and judges will be in the building by 1:30. The races will be few and far between.

Philadelphia, June 3.—Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. GOING TO HAMPTON.

The St. Luke's A. A. C. baseball team of the city Intermediate League left today for Hampton play the senior team there in a game this afternoon. Manager Adams announced last night that the following players would make the trip: C. Bourke, H. Morris, H. Stackhouse, L. McBeth, H. McMurray, Cy Murray, A. Griffin, S. Kincaid, Cy Mowry, W. Moore and Ray Cunningham. McMurray and Bourke will probably do the honors for the Saints in the box.

VETS OFF TO FREDERICTON.

The Vets baseball team left by automobile this morning for Fredericton, where they will play two games, one this morning and the second this afternoon. "Lefty" Falon and Jean Tippetts were expected to perform on the mound for the local boys.

ROYALS VS. TROJANS.

The holiday attraction for the South End grounds this afternoon is an exhibition game between the Royals and Trojans. Usually, the Trojans have come off the better in these snappy contests. Either Freddie Diggs or Earl Nelson will pitch for the Royals. The Trojans will be greatly strengthened by the addition of Wiley, who played second base last year for St. George's.

UNABLE TO ARRANGE SPEECH.

Rev. Canon F. J. Scott was to arrive in Fredericton this morning to attend the meeting of the Anglican Provincial Synod and while in the capital will give an address on "The Battlefield Revisited," under the auspices of the G. W. V. A. It had been hoped that Canon Scott might come to St. John and give his lecture here but arrangements could not be completed.

VILLIAN HUSBANDS!

They're Best Kind, Says Elsie Ferguson, Marrying One Who Now is Greeted With Kisses Instead of Hisses

(By Maurice Henle)

Great Neck, N. Y.—If you must have a villain in your life, marry him!

Miss Ferguson's marriage to Frederick Worlock, the villain of her last play, "The Moonflower," still is making Broadway buzz.

"And why shouldn't stage villains make good husbands?" asks Miss Ferguson. "It seems to me there is every reason for them to make the best of husbands. They make no pretense of being perfect on the stage. They are thoroughly human. It would be very difficult indeed for them here to be so faultless in private life."

"Stage villains have a broader viewpoint of life because of the very nature of their parts. And while, of course, there is utterly no connection between an actor's part on the stage and his conduct in private life, still, generally speaking, it is strange that many stage heroes with apparently every virtue have proved rather villainous husbands, and that villains on the stage, roundly hissed, were most lovable husbands once they took off their whiskers and left the stage door."

Besides, warns Miss Ferguson, consider the temptation that confronts the sleek matinee-idol. Most of them have five or six secretaries answering mash notes from infatuated women. And how about the villain? He is heeded by stage-door Henriettes? He most certainly is not!

Miss Ferguson is good-naturedly peeved at the unexpected prominence of her marriage to the villainous

Worlock. She believes that an actress's private life is entirely her own and that it doesn't concern the public in any way. She laughed heartily when looking once more at the picture showing Worlock with his crop of stage whiskers and she confidently believes many will think that he failed to discard them when he left the stage of "The Moonflower" when that show closed.

The beautiful star is reluctant to talk about her private life. But she did say that in her opinion she only lasting relationship between any two people must be based on a firm companionship. Worlock is an English actor. His only American appearances have been in "The Wheel of Life" and "The Moonflower," both of which starred Miss Ferguson.

IMPERIAL PICTURE "THE PRODIGAL SON" IS MASTERPIECE

"The Prodigal Son" Makes a Hit With Large Gatherings.

A genuine British film-play! What a real treat, at least what a diversion. The Canadian public delights in the better kinds of pictures, no matter what their nationality, but to taste occasionally of the best things that Mother Britain produces is like a delicious desert. Such a picture is "The Prodigal Son," which opened a three-day run at the Imperial last evening to representative summer crowds.

With flags flying today in honor of King George, with the Wembley Empire fair in full swing, the Imperial will be a veritable tragi-comedy with the same girl that grips from start to finish. England's foremost actors and actresses essay the roles, though the types are in most cases of the Danish (Jocund) people. The volcanic mountains of Iceland, the Jökull range of mountains, sheep-herding, the famous blonde-haired ponies of that land, quaint homes and the queer little capital, Reykjavik, not to mention Monte Carlo, Nice, London, Paris—all real scenes with the same players—constitute a veritable travesty with the story.

The scenes are all genuine as to geography, even the Iceland base of the long picture. That's why yesterday's patrons of the Imperial were so deeply impressed with this perfectly-placed fiction of Hall Caine's. It was what might be termed 100 per cent in detail and artistic. For something quite different indeed in motion pictures it is well worth the visit and for those who stay in town its enjoyment will make the holiday worth while.

HIS PARTING SHOT.

Egbert Durand has a fund of anecdotes concerning the stage. Here is one:

"A minor actor was cast in a play in which he had to, in answer to a suggestion, 'I have one doubt.' The four words were all he had to speak, but the mastery of the Scottish speech was beyond the ability of the super-artist in the piece, not to mention the author and the producer, and the stage manager told him that he would have to find somebody else in his own way to say the words, and at last passing out of favor and the sea traffic was almost entirely steamship for which the city could provide no rail connection. Some time was required to make the trip, and Canadian vessels calling at Portland received a Government subsidy.

The C. P. R. had been completed from Montreal to Vancouver in November, 1885, when Sir William Van Horne, the last spike of the super-structure work at Carrigachane in the Rocky Mountains. Much jubilation.

The short line to St. John through Maine was commenced about two years later and the two years to build in 1888, while the line was still under construction, and had been brought only as far as a few miles beyond Greenville, R. E. Armstrong, now secretary of the St. John Board of Trade, who was then a reporter on the St. John Globe, was sent to get the story of the construction work. He interviewed contractors and officials and saw some of the difficult spots the railway builders were negotiating. Not only was there great jubilation on the day when the first C. P. R. train arrived in St. John, but to make sure that the company appreciated their enthusiasm the citizens held a summer carnival and electric exhibition on July 22 of that year to celebrate the opening of the Canadian Pacific Railway (short line) to St. John.

The coming of the C. P. R. to the city has been one of the greatest factors in its upbuilding and development.

"KING OF KOKOMO" IS OUT TO BREAK BROADWAY'S BACK

(By MAXWELL HYDE)

New York, June 3.—King Kennedy has come from Kokomo to break Broadway's back! He has undertaken the world's biggest job, a task that has shattered thousands before him.

Ever since Broadway has been Broadway the hundreds of cities and towns in this country have reluctantly given up many of their youth that the latter might come to the Gay White Way to make good.

They want to be actors, producers, writers, singers. The others are smashed, never to rise again.

And into this maelstrom of swirling lights and painted faces has come King Kennedy of Kokomo, a youth of 20. On his face is a smile of confidence—but not over-confidence. Whether the smile will be there on Dec. 1 next remains a question, for—

Young Kennedy gives himself up until that day to make good. He is not a success in the theatrical world must come quickly, or it may forever remain behind. On Dec. 1 he will be of age. He has promised the folk back home that he will entertain serious aspirations for the stage only until his 21st birthday. If it hasn't come then, he will go back and his dabbling in the theatre will henceforth assume the form of a hobby.

King Kennedy does not have to make good on Broadway. He comes of a family in Kokomo that is extremely wealthy. It is one of the old and substantial families of the Indiana city. The Kennedy estate in Kokomo is a big one and it is to manage this estate that his mother and friends want him to return for good.

"I'll all tommyrot, you're wanting to be a great actor," they told him. "Just give me until Dec. 1," he pleaded, and his mother's made good by then, if I don't see success here, I'll quit Broadway without a word and I'll come back willingly. It isn't that he doesn't like Kokomo. He likes fame in the theatre better. It has always been that way. Back home when a boy he would buy books, stage and act parts. Then, as he grew older, he would participate in school dramas. The ambition to succeed on the stage is burning more brightly now than ever.

"I have been told of the young people who came to Broadway before to make good," he says. "Some of them have been ruined by their good fortune, and some because they didn't know how to handle money—had never had it before.

"That would never happen to me. Two blocks away is the famous New York Athletic Club. The Plaza Hotel is just down the street. On every side of him is wealth and success. Probably if he surrounds himself with wealth he will so steel himself for the terrible grind, the grind of "breaking in," that lies before all who King Kennedy makes good!

King Kennedy from Kokomo. In the background you see him strolling down Broadway with Peggy Shannon who has achieved some measure of the fame King seeks for himself.

Kennedy has chosen an apartment in one of the expensive sections of New York. It overlooks Central Park. But one block away is Columbus Circle and city. "PRINCESS" IS HED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Vaudeville Star Who Played Here is Accused of Manslaughter.

Those who will remember the romantic marriage of the vaudeville artist, Princess Nai Tai Tai, to G. B. MacDonald of Halifax, which took place during an engagement which the Princess played at the Charlottetown district for nearly a year, will be interested in the following, which appeared in a recent issue of the Boston Post:

"The Princess Nai Tai Tai, known to vaudeville as the Princess Nai Tai Tai, was married by a most unfortunate accident last night when with the Princess at the wheel, her motor car knocked down and killed Henry E. Bemis, sixty-seven, a milk dealer well known in the Charlottetown district for nearly fifty years.

"The fatality occurred at the corner of Medford and Chelsea streets, Charlestown. "Mr. Bemis was already dead when Dr. Abraham Haskins of 80 Green street, Boston, reached the Chelsea Naval Hospital with him.

"The Princess Nai Tai Tai, in private life Mrs. Amalia Parker, 29, and a divorcee, Philadelphia, was placed under arrest by Special Officer Bonner, Station 15, on a charge of manslaughter. "Unable to furnish cash bail, she was brought to the city proper and lodged in the House of Detention. At midnight she was still expecting a bondsman.

"With the actress in her car at the time of the accident were two men, one of whom she described as Richard Roscov of Baltimore.

"The marriage of the 'princess' took place in Halifax just after completing an engagement at the St. John Opera House.

Finds Plagiarism In "Bird of Paradise" Plot

New York, June 3.—Justice Erlanger has granted judgment in favor of Mrs. Grace A. Fendler in her accounting action against Richard W. Tully, playwright, and Oliver Morosco, producer of the play, "Bird of Paradise," which Mrs. Fendler contended contained part of her own play, "In Hawaii."

PLAY FALLS FLAT; ANOTHER GOES BIG

New York, June 2.—(United Press) Now that "All God's Chillun Got Wings" has proved to be of migratory importance, a really interesting fact has been demonstrated. Very soon these wings will take the sensational discussed Eugene O'Neill drama from the Provincetown playhouse to the stockhouse, and all those wild rumors of race riots and social upsets will be calmed.

When the Provincetown players first announced production of this play in a colored actor plays opposite a white woman, there was no thought whatever of sensationalism. But someone started one of those "riot" movements and when the most postponed premier was finally announced a few innocent souls were all agog to be on hand to see the excitement. But there was no excitement and the play was so dull and ineffectual that even with the artificial respiration it couldn't be kept alive.

If the riot starters had let the Provincetown go their way, there would not have been a handful of people in the United States who would have known anything about the inlaid race hatred drama lurking in the play "All God's Chillun Got Wings" was as published in the "American Mercury," the second issue of this "intellectual" magazine. So far as I have been able to judge, no one who read it thought it worth while getting excited over. It was not stimulating of controversy, or of anything else. It is in fact merely an episode of two people—a white girl marrying a negro with whom from childhood she had been thrown in contact. The white woman is of the city's dregs, the negro is of the upward strugglers of a developing race. And one race hatred drama lurking in the play, being tied to a drab who eventually goes insane through the "humiliation" of her misalliance.

On the other hand—as it were—laugh bounds of the Great White Way will follow the trail to the Casino, where "I'll Say She Is" is featuring the Fonz Marc Brothers. The book and lyrics are by Will B. Johnston and the music is by Tom Johnston. These comedians are versatile vaudevillians, fresh from the Keith circuit, introduce side-splitting fun a-plenty. Two of the brothers especially are full of talent. Besides this there are chorus girls exceeding fair to look upon, and Lotta Miles, the "Beauty," is certainly all of that.

A Slight Flaw "Don't you think Brown is a perfect gentleman?" "He would be if he didn't know it."

QUEEN SQUARE TODAY FINE HOLIDAY PROGRAM

JANE NOVACK in "DIVORCE" A vital photo-drama that will pierce deep into the heart and soul of every man, woman and child who sees it. You see it to your very future happiness to see this mighty picture. FOX NEWS

The great sorrow of childhood, the rending of parental ties, the disintegration of home, is poignantly pictured in "Divorce," a volcanic arraignment of ill-considered marriage and hasty divorce, which is the attraction now at the Queen Square Theatre, with Jane Novak and John Bowers in the principal roles.

Placed in "neutral" homes or in institutions, no more to come home from school to buttered bread and jam as only mothers can prepare that delicacy of childhood; gone the exquisite hours when they were tucked in bed with fairy tales, no one to hear their sobbing tales of injustice, nor to bandage their scratched knees—do mothers and fathers ever pause to think of the children's side in their mad rush for the divorce courts?

No greater argument for an abatement of convenient divorces can be put forward than that advanced in this penetrating screen drama. The lesson is driven home by a startling twist in the plot in which the daughter of a divorcee, who as a child, mourned the dissolution of home ties via the usual judicial route, takes matters in her own hands and gives her own child the experience of the grief that once was hers. How she brings a drifting, plundering husband to his senses—and to his own bedside—makes drama of the most tingling description.

This picture will be shown for the last three times today.

35TH ANNIVERSARY OF C.P.R. LINE HERE

First Montreal Train Arrived June 3, 1889—Engineer Still in City.

It was 35 years ago yesterday that the first C. P. R. train left Montreal at 8:30 p.m. for St. John on the new short route, and it was on June 3, 1889, 8:15 p.m. that the train entered St. John station with Thomas McKenna as engineer. Mr. McKenna recently retired from the railway service and is enjoying well earned rest and relaxation at his home in West St. John. Before the C. P. R. was brought to St. John rail connection with Upper Canadian cities and the West was by the old Intercolonial route only. The new Brunswick Railway which gave connection with Boston, was described as beginning nowhere and going nowhere. St. John had fallen upon gloomy days at that time. Sailing ships were

OPERA HOUSE HAS LARGE CROWDS FOR OPENING PICTURE "ROSITA"

There was no doubt that the choice of the Opera House management of the opening vehicle for its summertime programme was a popular one, for Mary Pickford's big new feature, "Rosita," it was an entirely new and different Mary, however, for the little movie queen appeared in her first really grown-up role, but she made even a greater success of it than in any of her former parts.

The famous Mary Pickford curls, of golden hue, are coiffed high in Spanish style of the Nineteenth century, while Miss Pickford, wearing gorgeous gown with long streaming train, appears lithe and sinuous, revealing a seldom seen phase of the personality of the world's greatest actress. "Rosita" is an entirely different story from anything Mary Pickford ever before done.

A thrilling tale of Spanish romance is unfolded in swiftly moving scenes; glimpses of carnival and palatial splendor blended into a story of dramatic intensity interpreted with human frailties, comedy intrigue, suspense and mounted on a production of gigantic proportions, abounding in melodrama and love.

As Rosita, Mary Pickford appears in many scenes of dramatic intensity, and while she is seen in the role of an emotional actress, Miss Pickford has played many emotional scenes heretofore, therefore it is not in this sense, a new Mary—just a grown-up Mary. Pickford never fully revealed until the present.

The portrayal of the King of Spain is entrusted to the eminent actor, Hubert Blinn. While this is Mr. Blinn's first important appearance on the screen, his fame as a stage celebrity is well known. Miss Rich is playing her first costume role and strikes a new note in her portrayal of this character.

George Walsh who plays the hero, Don Diego, Count of Alcala, a Spanish cavalier, is ideally suited for this important role. He requires no introduction to movie fans, being one of the best known leading men on the screen.

Charles Belcher who plays the part of the Prime Minister, is a most interesting character actor. The roles he has assumed are numerous. His masterful portrayal presents him in a role long to be remembered. The lesser roles in "Rosita" are played by most capable actors and actresses suitable for the types.

THURSDAY D. W. GRIFFITH Will Present THE WHITE ROSE

THE MOTHERLAND'S RICHEST CONTRIBUTION to the increasing gallery of exquisite film works. Not a picture, perhaps, that introduces any new photographic trick or sensational ensemble or upheaval, but an intensely human portrayal of a bride's fickleness, an impetuous lover's moral weakness, a humble herdman's constancy. Played to the very breath of reality and emotional power by a company of stage realists seldom if ever equalled on a St. John screen. A different sort of high-class picture.

Scenes in Reykjavik, the quaint capital of Iceland. Scenes in London, Paris, Nice and in Monte Carlo. A superb cast of England's very best male and female players.

Wonderfully picturesque and genuinely real scenery. Incidental to the story the travel pictures are lovely. Acclaimed by America's most exacting critics a work of art.

HOW HALIFAX TOOK "THE BAT" BY THE CARROLL PLAYERS

Acadian Recorder: Not for some time with a dramatic attraction has there been such a throng at the Majestic Theatre as last evening. For fully 20 minutes before the performance commenced there was a steady stream of people through the door, with the result the theatre was thronged. The reason was the return of Edna Preston, the Halifax favorite, and the first presentation of "The Bat," the theatrical sensation of two continents. . . . It is given a splendid performance by the excellent company, which is under the management of F. James Carroll, with every part being capably portrayed.

Chronicle: There can be no doubt of the popularity of Miss Edna Preston in this community. . . . The audience sat for three hours laughing uproariously, or holding its breath, or shuddering, and wishing with "Lassie Allen" for even a mousethole into which it could crawl. . . . It was a splendid performance all through. Miss Preston is well supported, Miss Dorrit Kelton did an extremely clever bit of work as Miss Van-Gorder. An old friend, James Swift, was excellent as "Billy," the Jap. butcher. The rest of the company were new to Halifax, but all won laurels for their work.

IMPERIA GRAND HOLIDAY PROGRAMME!

British Super-Feature Enacted by London's Foremost Players Story by English Author SIR HALL CAINE'S MASTERPIECE — In Ten Entrancing Reels of Pictures — "THE PRODIGAL SON"

THE MOTHERLAND'S RICHEST CONTRIBUTION to the increasing gallery of exquisite film works. Not a picture, perhaps, that introduces any new photographic trick or sensational ensemble or upheaval, but an intensely human portrayal of a bride's fickleness, an impetuous lover's moral weakness, a humble herdman's constancy. Played to the very breath of reality and emotional power by a company of stage realists seldom if ever equalled on a St. John screen. A different sort of high-class picture.

Scenes in Reykjavik, the quaint capital of Iceland. Scenes in London, Paris, Nice and in Monte Carlo. A superb cast of England's very best male and female players.

Wonderfully picturesque and genuinely real scenery. Incidental to the story the travel pictures are lovely. Acclaimed by America's most exacting critics a work of art.

REGINALD SHAMPER DEAD IN MONTREAL

St. John Man Succumbs Suddenly to Attack of Pneumonia.

Friends of Reginald L. Shamper, of this city, who had been employed with the C. P. R. at Montreal were shocked to learn of his death which took place suddenly last evening in Montreal after only a brief illness. Word was received on Saturday that he was being taken to hospital suffering with pneumonia and his father, Charles Shamper, left for Montreal. Yesterday a wire from Mr. Shamper was to the effect that his son was improving and the news which reached the city today, therefore, came as a great shock.

Mr. Shamper was formerly a traveler for the Dominion Rubber Co. Ltd., in this district and was well and favorably known by a great many people. Besides his father, who is with the Civic Hydro Commission and was formerly with the Western Union Telegraph Co., he is survived by his mother, his wife and two children, who are residing at South Bay with Mrs. Shamper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Peterson, and two brothers, residing in the west. The sympathy of many friends will be extended to the bereaved family.

MERCHANT CHEERY UNDER FIRE LOSS

J. D. Creaghan of Newcastle Here—Will Hasten Re-building.

That plans for the rebuilding of their store at Newcastle were now under way and just as soon as the debris could be cleared away the work of construction would be commenced, was said this morning to a reporter of the Times-Star by J. D. Creaghan, senior partner of the firm of J. D. Creaghan & Co., who was in the city.

Mr. Creaghan said the loss had not been so great as anticipated, and there had been very little interruption of business as they had been able to draw on their other stores at Chatham and Moncton for supplies while getting a new stock into Newcastle. The night of the fire three stores had been leased and these would be used until the new building was complete.

He was enthusiastic over the outlook for business in general at Newcastle and said a banner summer was looked for there.

LOOKS WELL FOR PHIL MACDONALD. Athlete Measured for Olympic Suit is Word Received Here.

If being measured for an Olympic track suit is any indication that the favored one is almost sure of a place on Canada's Olympic team, then "Phil" MacDonald's name is as good as on the list. The tall young islander is daily working out at Toronto now, according to Ray Pendleton, Y. M. C. A. secretary at Charlottetown, P. E. I. "Phil's" home town. "Yes, sir," said Hiram, "we ain't like you folks here in town. We got out the flags on the King's Birthday."

"Do you remember," said the reporter, "when it used to be the Queen's Birthday?"

"I do so," said Hiram, "and we still live it as Victoria Day. I mind when I was a little feller the old folks used to tell what a fine woman the Queen was—an' how she was loved by everybody. An' on the twenty-fourth o' May we'd go pickin' Mayflowers or fishin' or herin' a picnic or a good time o' some sort. I'll never forget one twenty-fourth when me an' Hiram was out with a party pickin' Mayflowers. I guess that was the day we first found out we wanted to keep company. I didn't hev much to say an' nuther did Hiram—but we done a lot o' talkin' with our eyes. I guess we was both as ever was—but I was tryin' to make up poetry that night when the moon was shinin'. Say—I'm gittin' foolish—Good-day."

SEEKS PROVINCE OLYMPIC GRANT

A. W. Covey Goes to Fredericton to Interview Government.

A. W. Covey, president of the M. P. A. A. U. of Canada, will leave tomorrow morning for Fredericton to interview the Provincial Government with respect to a grant from the province for the Canadian Olympic fund. The meeting has been arranged through Hon. Dr. F. E. Roberts, Minister of Health.

Mr. Covey expects to be accompanied by a small delegation. He says that several New Brunswick athletes are almost sure to make the Olympic team the province should bear its share of the expenses. "Charlie" Gorman and Hilton Bolyard have been sent over practically at the expense of St. John citizens but as "Billy" Maynes and "Zan" Miller are almost sure to go a portion of their expenses should be borne by the province, in the opinion of Mr. Covey.
