POINTERS.

There are no pew rents, the entire income being raised by voluntary contributions through envelopes and plate collections.

It is confidently expected that every one attending the church will be as liberal as circumstances will allow, and as God has prospered him or her.

Everyone is earnestly urged to contribute a fixed sum weekly, so that the officers may know what income to expect.

God's plan is giving a tenth of our income. Study this question in the Bible.

If any one of the congregation is sick, tell the pastor. Don't wait for some one else to do it.

Tell the pastor of any family, or individual, lately come into the town, attending the Methodist Church.

ANNUAL REPORT
—OF THE—
CAMBRIDGE STREET
METHODIST CHURCH,
LINDSAY,
FOR THE YEAR 1895.

Greeting.

To the Members of the Church and Congregation :

Again we present our Annual Report, containing, among other things, a record in detail of the Church's givings for local purposes, and in the summary, for connexional purposes as well.

We have suffered severely during the year from deaths and removals—a total loss from these causes of forty.

The attendance upon public worship is not less, but rather more, and upon the social services about as usual.

There are many sources of encouragement, but many reasons as well for enquiry whether or not we are accomplishing all we ought and can. The Church is composed of individuals. The question therefore is a personal one. Opportunity and responsibility measure each other. Much is given before much is required, and privilege invites to service before responsibility commands. The willing service is at once more acceptable and more effective than that which is enforced. Let us ever remember that a Church is prosperous not by reason of what comes into it, but by what goes out from it,—not its gettings, but by its GIVINGS, its DOINGS.

Do we seek the salvation of souls that the Church may prosper, or the prosperity of the Church that souls may be saved? Do we ever mistake the means for the end? Let our prayer and aim be that "the pleasure of the Lord may prosper in our hands."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Hon. President, Rev. S. J. Shorey; President, R. B. Irvine; Vice-President, Miss B. Bowes; Rec. Secretary, Miss Davidson; Cor. Secretary, Miss A. Ward; Treasurer, Mr. F. A. Robinson.

During the past year this society has been doing its work as usual and its weekly meetings have been found real helpful to those who attend. Our membership, owing to so many removals, is not as large as last year, yet in looking over our roll we find a number of new names who have thus been brought into closer connection with our church, and we trust in closer connection with our Master. We set the Fulton System of giving to missions on a good basis and have now about $15 on hand which we will devote to missions. In addition to the officers we have seven active committees, all doing good work.

Our membership is as follows:

INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTIONS

During the year a large number of contributors have removed from Lindsay, a number have died, and a number have not contributed as liberally as in former years. For these reasons the contributions have considerably fallen off during the year.

Since there are no pew rents it is confidently expected that every one attending the church will contribute liberally, so that the officers may keep the church up to its present state of efficiency.

Those marked with a star are contributions for part of the year.

W. H. STEVENS, Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FUND.

The purpose of this fund is to educate the young people of the congregation in systematic giving. Although the effort in this work has in a measure been successful, yet a great many of our young people have not availed themselves of the privilege of, in this way, assisting the cause of God. Let our young people give this matter a fair consideration and it is believed that all will gladly do what seems just and right.
