THE TARIFF AGREEMENT

The Best news from Ottawa since the announcement of the British preference is that contained in our despatches this morning...

THE TARIFF AGREEMENT

Free lumber, free fish, free farm products of practically all kinds—these in themselves constitute a group of articles the removal of the duty from which would send the value of every acre of land in Canada...

The American manufacturers, who, according to Conservative alarmists, would flood this market with all sorts of goods if Sir Wilfrid Laurier began to negotiate in tariff matters...

In New Brunswick, in Prince Edward Island, and in Nova Scotia, the proposed schedules will be greeted with outright enthusiasm...

Parliament and Congress give force to the agreement tomorrow.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues have the courage of their convictions. A certain set of their opponents have erred on persistently against the peril of any trade negotiations whatsoever with the United States...

ST. JOHN AND COMMISSION

The proposal that the electors of St. John city shall vote on the question of adopting the elective commission form of government is beginning to occupy considerable space in the newspapers of the day...

First and foremost, however, the thing most needed is the fullest possible information on the subject, so that, when we come to a plebiscite, a great majority of the electors will possess sufficient information to enable them to decide for their own knowledge whether or not a commission is the form of civic government demanded by local conditions.

AT THE BORDEN CLUB

Premier Hazen and Hon. Mr. Fleming entertained the members of the Borden Club and an enthusiastic Standard reporter on Thursday evening by speeches which the Standard regards as without equal in the political history of the world.

One line of inquiry that should be followed in this connection would embrace St. John's experience during the last fifteen years under a Mayor and a council of seventeen aldermen. How have the several branches of the city government been administered during that time?

Everybody, probably, remembers a decision frequently arrived at by the Council to the effect that heads of departments must be competent men and that they should be given a free hand and held responsible for results.

Free lumber, free fish, free farm products of practically all kinds—these in themselves constitute a group of articles the removal of the duty from which would send the value of every acre of land in Canada...

For some years past civic affairs have been in such condition that it has been difficult to persuade representative men to give their time to the Council, and in the average year the vote electing the aldermen has been very small in proportion to the list of eligible voters.

For some years past civic affairs have been in such condition that it has been difficult to persuade representative men to give their time to the Council, and in the average year the vote electing the aldermen has been very small in proportion to the list of eligible voters.

This year St. John turns expectantly and confidently toward a period of expansion and improvement, and it is to take advantage to the full of the rising tide...

Our principal manufacturing industries are not affected. The duty on agricultural implements, on soft coal, on flour and some other articles, is not proposed to be abolished...

Some of these men will fit in with the new plan if it is adopted, but some of them will inevitably be superseded. Naturally, perhaps, they are opposed to any idea of change, and particularly to any idea of a change sweeping enough to give St. John the fresh start it needs in the way of a sharply business-like and progressive administration of its affairs.

THE MANUFACTURERS AND FREER TRADE

Mr. W. H. Rowley, president of the Canadian Manufacturers Association, tells us that when the association meets this week to discuss the Fielding agreement...

CAUSES OF CIVIC MISRULE

There are many who are willing to sacrifice for their country when the sound of the trumpet summons to war, but in the weak piping time of peace they are unwilling to give a little attention or a little effort to the public good.

THE GUIDES AND GAME PROTECTION

Messrs. Murdoch MacKenzie and Charles Raines, president and vice-president, respectively, of the New Brunswick Guides' Association, have been quoted in the Standard and in the Globe as having said that they "do not wish to be regarded in any sense as criticizing the efforts of a political party."

A RISING TIDE

In 1900 the number of British settlers going to the United States was 47,973, and to British North America 7,303. For eleven months of 1910 the number of British settlers going to the United States was 76,830 and to British North America 118,542.

NOTE AND COMMENT

If the United States adopts the trade agreement the Winter Port will feel the benefit at once. So will the whole province. And for P. E. Island this measure of free trade would give an immense impetus.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

THE TEXAS CLIMATE

By Alexander E. Sweet

Alexander Edwin Sweet, editor, was born in St. John, N. B., on March 23, 1841. He went to school in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and in 1859 went to Europe, where he entered the Polytechnic Institute in Karlsruhe, Ger. In 1863 he returned to Texas and served in the confederate army in the 3rd Texas Cavalry. He practiced law in San Antonio, Texas, and later began his journalistic career there. In 1884 he moved to New York City, and there published, with J. Arroyo Knox, the weekly journal entitled "Texas Sitings." He died in New York City, N. Y., May 20, 1901.

In the early days of the republic of Texas, and even after annexation, many of the white men who came to western Texas from all parts of the United States had strong sanitary reasons for preferring a change of climate. To be more explicit the most of the invalids had been threatened with throat disease. So sudden and dangerous is this disease that the slightest delay in moving to a new and milder climate is apt to be fatal.

Toward the middle of April the early peep appears, and all nature, and the druggist smiles, ushering in the long and lingering summer time when the bare crannies of the church of the Holy Embarrassment rattle from one end of fair and sunny Texas to the other. Such is a short synopsis of the varying features of the Texas climate.

CONGRESS TACKLES TAFT LEAST COPE CHURCH BURIED AT MARYSVILLE

Prompt Action Taken in the House

Committee Said to Be Favorable to Rush It Through

Fears That Senate May Hold It Up. But Threat of an Extra Session May Change Their Views—Democrats Favorable to Reciprocity.

Washington, Jan. 29.—To carry into effect the terms of the reciprocity agreement, concluded by representatives of Canada and the United States, the first move was made yesterday when Representative McCall, of Massachusetts, a member of the ways and means committee, presented the American bill on the subject. The bill was referred to the committee on ways and means, which will take it up next week.

The introduction of the bill by the Massachusetts member, instead of Mr. Payne, of New York, chairman of the ways and means committee, occasioned some comment. It is interpreted in many quarters to indicate that Mr. McCall will take a prominent part in steering the bill through the committee, and in engineering its progress on the floor of the house.

While members of the committee decline to discuss their prospective attitude on the measure, it has become fairly well established that the McCall bill will pass through committee and come out on the floor of the house within a comparatively short time.

The first move will be to take up the bill at a meeting early in the week and determine if hearings will be held on the measure. It is the opinion of several members of the committee now that if certain delegations, representing industries seriously affected by the lowering of tariff rates, wish to have their views on the committee, an opportunity will be afforded them before any final action is taken.

No Extended Hearings. There will be no extended hearings, however, and no opening of the bars to all of the tariff arguments that might be introduced for and against the terms of the new agreement. The members of the committee believe that the facts upon which the various items were fairly elicited in the hearings held during the preparation of the Payne-Aldrich bill, and that to renew extensive hearings upon the reciprocity agreement would needlessly and dangerously delay its consideration by the house.

As a bill to raise revenue it will be subject to amendment and change, unless a rule of closure is first put through the house prohibiting amendments and forcing the house to vote on the bill as presented. The effectiveness of the whole agreement for this reason is the opinion of those who favor the approval of the Canadian pact that the vote on the balance and the rules committee will have to prepare a rule providing for its consideration as a whole and without amendment.

The impression has been strengthened that President Taft's determination to see that the reciprocity measure is passed at this session is such that he will resort to an extra session if it becomes necessary to bring the matter to final consideration in both houses of congress.

The Senate May Defeat It. The extra session talk has caused no little worry at the capital. The leaders of the house frankly do not believe that an extra session will be necessary, even in the light of the short time remaining in this session, to dispose of the trade agreement in both houses. If defeat comes for the measure, it is expected in the senate. The Democrats of the house after a fairly careful study of the bill, disposed to accept the treaty and to support it in debate and with their votes. They look on it both as a tariff change in line with Democratic theory, and as a serious attempt on the part of a Republican president to take the tariff out of politics and elevate it above political dispute.

Imports from Canada. Figures of the 1910 trade movements between Canada and the United States in the more important of the articles named in the pending reciprocity agreement were compiled today by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor. They are:

HAZEL DIDN'T HEAL BREACH AMONG ALBERT CO. TORIES

Premier's Recent Visit to Constituency Not Marked by a Love Feast.

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 28.—The recent Conservative meeting at Albert appeared to have warmed the hearts of the faithful, no matter how far it fell short of allaying the animosity that has existed, and which President Taft's determination to see that the reciprocity measure is passed at this session is such that he will resort to an extra session if it becomes necessary to bring the matter to final consideration in both houses of congress.

The Senate May Defeat It. The extra session talk has caused no little worry at the capital. The leaders of the house frankly do not believe that an extra session will be necessary, even in the light of the short time remaining in this session, to dispose of the trade agreement in both houses. If defeat comes for the measure, it is expected in the senate. The Democrats of the house after a fairly careful study of the bill, disposed to accept the treaty and to support it in debate and with their votes. They look on it both as a tariff change in line with Democratic theory, and as a serious attempt on the part of a Republican president to take the tariff out of politics and elevate it above political dispute.

Representative McCall has been the subject of some speculation because he comes from a state that has complained bitterly against the free fish provisions of the agreement. Mr. McCall declined today to declare himself upon the specific terms of the new agreement, but he made no secret of his thorough approval of the plan for reciprocal arrangements between the two countries.

Several members of the committee, whose respective positions have been similarly in doubt, have indicated clearly the fact that the ways and means committee will under no circumstances fail to report the bill promptly, and have given intimations that the report is likely to be favorable to the treaty, as it came from the president's hands.

The McCall bill, after indicating the duties that are to be levied upon Canadian products, provides that they shall become effective as soon as the president ascertains and issues a proclamation showing that Canada is levying similar duties

Will Call an Extra Session if Congress Turns Down Trade Agreement

British Government Pleased at Prospect of Reciprocity—High Protectionists on Both Sides of the Border Laying Plans to Defeat Pact—Gloucester Up in Arms and Portland is Pleased—Will Benefit Both Countries, Says Toronto Globe

Washington, D. C., Jan. 27.—Snags began to loom up in the pathway of the Canadian reciprocity agreement before it had been in the hands of congress twenty-four hours, and confident predictions of its failure were made by pillars of the protectionist faith. It was said that even should the house accept the terms of the proposed arrangement it could not pass the senate.

These dire prophecies were carried to the White House by members who visited the president, but Mr. Taft received them with smiles which indicated that one defeat would not turn him from his purpose. If his own party fails to seize the initiative, he will not be slow to take the operation this reciprocal trade pact, the president, it is believed, will not hesitate to submit his programme to the Democratic caucus.

Gloucester Up in Arms. Gloucester, Mass., Jan. 27.—Special sessions of the city council, the board of trade and the Master Mariners' Association, the last two meeting jointly, were held today, at which steps were taken toward united opposition to that part of the proposed reciprocity treaty which deals with fish.

Would Call Extra Session. "The president was never more in earnest in his life," he said. "He would not hesitate to call an extra session, if he thought such a course would do the business."

Portland Pleased. Portland, Me., Jan. 27.—Leading fish dealers in this city today expressed the opinion that the fish clause of the proposed reciprocity agreement, which would result in great benefit to the industry in this city.

Senate Against It. It is in the senate that the barriers now look formidable. A Republican majority of the finance committee said today that not one of the majority of that body favored the proposed arrangement.

British Government Pleased. London, Jan. 27.—The scope of the reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada came as a surprise to the British public. No one had expected so many changes to the free list or such important tariff reductions as the details of the proposed measure revealed.

HOPEWELL CAPE CARNIVAL. Hopewell Cape, N. B., Jan. 27.—On Wednesday evening a carnival was held in the new rink of Harold Tingley. Hopewell Cape. The event, although the first of its kind in the community, proved a success in every way.

Tariff Reformers' Lament. The tariff reformers and strong imperialists, however, are not enthusiastic. The tariff reformers consider that the proposed measure demonstrates that while the United Kingdom remains a free trade country, Great Britain cannot compete with foreigners for the trade of its colonies.

Quebec Stamp Exchange (Read). P. O. Box 178, QUEBEC, Canada.

Wood Pulp and Paper.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Neither the ways and means committee of the house, nor the finance committee of the senate took steps today to consider the proposed Canadian reciprocity agreement, but it is expected that as soon as there has been sufficient informal discussion to measure the sentiment in the two branches of congress, meetings of the committee will be held.

The provisions affecting wood pulp and paper which is the subject of much discussion among house members. Representative Mann, of Illinois, who headed the entire paper situation three years ago, said today: "The provision in regard to pulp and paper will at once admit duty free pulp and paper which is now in Canada, as distinguished from the public or crown lands. Whenever any province or Canadian manufacturer is restricted on the exportation of pulp and paper manufactured in Canada from crown lands pulp will also come in free."

Optimism at Washington. Optimism as to the outcome of the reciprocity agreement was at the White House. The president's congressional callers today were reticent.

Manufacturers' Association Doesn't Like It. Ottawa, Jan. 27.—The views of W. B. Rowley, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, do not coincide with those who framed the proposed new tariff arrangements between Canada and the United States is evident from a statement which he handed out tonight.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.
Portland, Me, Jan 26—Notice is given by the Lighthouse Board that on Dec 22 a horizontally striped second class tall type buoy was established to mark the 1/4 foot shoal recently discovered about 1/4 mile 42 deg 30 min from Indian Island
light, Penobscot Bay (Me).
The buoy is moored on the following bearings:
The Graves Beacon, 51 degs; Mark
Island Point beacon, 86 deg 30 min; Negro Island light-house, 37 deg. About the same date Deadman Point buoy, a perpendicular striped spar was permanently discontinued. Approximate position of buoy, lat 41 10 34 N, lon 69 02 30 W.
Portland, Me, Jan 24—Roaring Bull spar buoy No 1, Winter Harbor (Me.), was replaced Jan 19; Moon ledge spar buoy No
5, Sullivan Harbor (Mount Desert Ferry),
Frenchman Bay (Me.), was replaced Jan 20.
Green Island ledge spar buoy No 1, Eggenoggin Reach, was replaced Jan 20,
and Gateway Rocks, HS spar buoy, Deer Island Thoroughfare, was replaced Jan 20,
all having been found missing. Roaring Bull ledge gas and whistling buoy was re-lighted Jan 19; Old Man ledge gas and whistling buoy was re-lighted Jan 22.
Captain Carmine, of Herriot destroyer Seneca, which has been out in search of the wreckage reported by steamer Lusitania in lat 40 17' N, lon 71 20' W, reports that he cruised carefully near the position
given but could find no signs of the detailing.
Captain William Quinn, who piloted the steamer Idaho (Br), through Vineyard Sound Wednesday night of last week, reports that the gas buoy in Pollock Rip area has been sighted and a new bell buoy placed in the position of the one which was carried away. Captain Quinn said the old buoy was NE by E, three miles from Pollock Rip lightship.

CHANGES IN PRICE
OF PORK AND LARD
Outside of a few changes in the prices of pork and lard, market quotations remain practically about the same as last week.

DECEASED WITH AGREEMENT
Local Men Express Views on New Tariff Arrangement

Sheep Raising in Province Likely One Good Result—Everything in Our Favor—Wide Market Opened for All Products of the Farm.
The local merchants are greatly pleased with the new tariff agreement and predict great benefit for the maritime provinces.
While many of them are waiting to study the list carefully before expressing their views in detail, they seem to be delighted with the new schedule which they hope will be ratified by both the governments.

Thomas Gorman.
The Telegraph here presents a picture
showing what the new army which Hon.
Mr. Pugsley's interest in St. John is making possible, is now a settled fact. The contractor, M. Sullivan, is now advertising for tenders for removing the old houses on the site of the new building. The armory, which is to be an imposing structure of brick and stone, will face east in Carmarthen street, extending along Sheffield street to Sydney, running parallel to the present drill hall.

These were only a few instances Mr.
Gorman said that he had picked out after a hurried glance over the schedule, but from what he had already read he was able to see that the arrangement was a big thing for Canada and the maritime provinces.
A. O. Skinner.
A. O. Skinner thought there was no question as to the benefit the dominion would derive from the new tariff. He thought when Canada could get free trade with at least 50,000,000 people, for there were that many within a reasonable freight distance in the United States, that the 5,000,000 or 7,000,000 people of Canada who were getting an open market were getting the better of the arrangement. The government had been subsidizing foreign goods at a great distance and now they were opening the markets that were literally at Canada's door. The new tariff ought to appeal to all producers in the dominion.

D. J. Brown.
D. J. Brown, of the firm of Macaulay Bro. & Co., said he had not had time to read the new list very carefully but from what he had read he thought the new arrangement regarding fish, lumber, agricultural products and coal would be a great benefit to the dominion. He would like to have seen lined added to the list. Generally speaking the tariff would be a great thing for the maritime provinces.
Many other merchants, while stating that they thought the new agreement would result in a great impetus to trade throughout the dominion, said that they had not had time so carefully into the matter and therefore would prefer not to discuss it at the present time.

Sheep Raising Here.
A citizen who is closely in touch with the live stock business in the maritime provinces said yesterday that the new tariff arrangement with the United States would be a great impetus to sheep raising in these provinces. With the restrictions removed it would be possible to import sheep and there were no better farm lands in the province of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and P. E. I. It was also probable, he said, that many horses would also be brought in and the raising of horses would be taken up in earnest.

F. A. Peters.
Fred. A. Peters, of C. H. Peters & Sons, said he did not feel like expressing an opinion on the outcome of the tariff agreement at the present time, although in a general way he believed reciprocity in natural products should be beneficial to New Brunswick. He would open a wide market for all products of the farm and should provide advantages to the growers of potatoes, hay and other similar articles.
Mr. Peters said the United States potato market was a very large one, and in some years when the local supply was inadequate, New Brunswick dealers would like to find it particularly profitable to sell there. There should always be a good market in the States for hay and for some other lines on which the American prices
are now much higher than the local prices,
and with free entry to the States the price of hay would likely take quite an advance.

John E. Moore.
John E. Moore, speaking with reference to the lumber business, said he regarded a reciprocity arrangement as a great thing for the maritime provinces. The near market was the best market and he believed that with lumber made free the United States would never again impose a duty on it. The manufacturers of laths and shingles would be particularly benefited and if pulp and paper is made free it would not surprise him to see the large American interests that now have timber limits in various parts of New Brunswick, establishing paper mills in this province
as it would be more advantageous to manufacture at the source of supply than to ship the pulpwood or pulp to the States.

HANDSOME NEW HEADQUARTERS
FOR THE MILITIA IN ST. JOHN

The Telegraph here presents a picture showing what the new army which Hon. Mr. Pugsley's interest in St. John is making possible, is now a settled fact. The contractor, M. Sullivan, is now advertising for tenders for removing the old houses on the site of the new building. The armory, which is to be an imposing structure of brick and stone, will face east in Carmarthen street, extending along Sheffield street to Sydney, running parallel to the present drill hall.

J. S. Gibbon.
The New Brunswick coal mining industry will receive a stimulus from the proposed reciprocity arrangements, is the opinion of J. S. Gibbon, who is largely interested in mines in this province. The reduction of the duty on bituminous coal from 85 to 45 cents per ton will help to increase the exports to the eastern States.
The readjustment of the schedules on slack
