ALL WORKING TO WIN WAR IN THE OLD LAND

Capt. W. Bentham Home From Overseas—Escape From Submarine

U-BOAT DESTROYED

"In six months in England I did not see one case of drunkenness among Canadian soldiers. The war is going to make us a better, broad-minded lot of men, it is going to break down the barriers of religious divisions, and unite us instead in bonds of brotherhood."

Such is the conception held by Capt. W. Bentham, 26 Richmond street, who arrived home yesterday after service in England since September last, prior to which time he was paymaster of the 2nd Depot Regiment, C.A.F., at Hamilton.

Capt. Bentham's homeward voyage was signalized by a near-submarine attack, three deaths aboard ship and a drowning. Of the U-boat attack, and its frustration, Capt. Bentham tells a very brief story.

"It happened about half-past eight in the morning, when we were off the coast of Ireland. Most of us were below at breakfast, when we heard the sound of guns. The destroyers which were escorting us dropped two depth bombs, and got the sub. It was only a few yards from us, but there was a destroyer between."

At Shorncliffe and Witley camps, Capt. Bentham saw a large number of Brantford men, including Lieut.-Col. Cutcliffe, Major McLean, Major Newman, Lieut. Bunnell, Lieut. Oxtoby, and Lieut. Sheppard. He has high praise for the work of the British food controllers.

"The ration system is down to a science there," he declares. "Rich and poor are served alike. Civilian rations, when I sailed, were a pound and a quarter of beef a week, one ounce of tea per week and half a pound of sugar. Potatoes and fish are to be had aplenty. In the old land everyone is doing their bit. The thing which struck me most forcibly was the manner in which women are taking up manual labor, and serving as transport drivers, railway porters—it is marvelous the way they have turned in, everyone is working to win the war."

The air raid is commencing to wear upon the nerves of the public, according to Capt. Bentham; the novelty has worn off, and people are beginning to dread the air attacks. Capt. Bentham was in London during the raid in which the publishing office of John Bull, and the Covent Gardens were struck.

British Were Yesterday Pressed Back From Mezieres But all Teuton Attempts Against Demuin Failed After Sharp Fighting—German Offensive Gives Numerous Indications of Waning Strength, and Allies Prepare Counter Stroke

London, March 30.—The Germans attacking yesterday at Demuin and Mezieres pressed back the British from Mezieres, the War Office announced. All the enemy's attempts to capture Demuin broke down after sharp fighting which lasted through the afternoon.

The statement follows:
"North of the Somme only local actions have taken place. South of the Somme the enemy's attacks yesterday at Demuin and Mezieres succeeded in pressing back our troops from the latter village. We secured a number of prisoners in our counter-attacks. At Demuin all the enemy's attempts to capture the village broke down after sharp fighting which lasted throughout the afternoon."

"During the past week our cavalry have fought with great gallantry, both mounted and dismounted, and repulsed the enemy, inflicting heavy losses on him in numerous engagements."

THE SITUATION SUMMARIZED.

Fighting on the battle front between the Scarpe and the Oise having diminished greatly except between Albert and Montdidier, Allied forces are being made ready for a counter-blow against the Germans, whose strength has given numerous indications of waning. General Foch, who played a memorable role in stopping the first German rush toward Paris and the channel ports, has been given command of the British, French and American armies in the present operation.

Repulsed in attempts to widen their salient by pressing back the northern and southern wings, the Germans have driven forward in the apex of their wedge toward Amiens and are now astride the Somme about twelve miles east of that important point. Between the Somme and the Avre, the British have retired to a line through Hamel, Marcel Cave and Neuville. Just south of Albert, however, the British hold to the line of the Ancre, which makes a salient into the German line that may prove dangerous to a further enemy advance.

General Foch's appointment to the chief command not only brings into Allied hands under one hand, but indicates that the momentum for a strong counter-offensive probably has arrived. With the Allied reserves and American divisions for a mobile force and the British and French holding the enemy on their flank, General Foch will have full scope for his strategical powers.

The wings of the German salient are its weak points and the Germans find it impossible to hold them. The situation is unchanged.

SEVENTY FIVE KILLED WHEN SHELL HIT CHURCH

Long Range Bombardment of Paris Continues; Huns Desecrate Places of Worship—Swiss Counsellor Among Those Killed.

Paris, March 29.—Seventy-five persons were killed and ninety wounded, most of them women and children, when a shell fired by a German long-range gun fell on a church in the region of Paris while Good Friday services were being held, according to an official communication issued this evening.

Among those killed was H. Stroehlin, Counsellor of the Swiss Legation in Paris.

This same church was struck by a shell during the celebration of High Mass last Sunday and many casualties resulted.

The killing of the women and children who were praying in the church, has caused a feeling of horror and intense indignation in Paris. The German explosive missile fell amid a gathering of peace-loving people who were beseeching Heaven to send an enduring peace on the day they were commemorating the greatest sacrifice ever offered that peace should reign on earth.

Foaling runs high in Paris to-night. It is no peace crowd that walks the streets or congregates in the cafes, theatres and churches. The stern resolution to conduct the war to a successful termination, is written on the face of everyone. The American Red Cross once more distinguished itself in rescuing injured persons from the streets.

M. Gresseau in the Chamber of Deputies late to-night, referring to the disaster, said:
"The barbarian enemy resumed his bombardment on Good Friday and his victims are numerous. It is with extreme sorrow and intense indignation that I note most of them were assembled in churches. We must not forget that justice and right shall have the last word before God and before man."

Jean Bon, Socialist leader, said:
"At the moment when women, children and the aged were imploring Heaven to end this horrible butchery, the roof of the church, shattered by steel, responded with blood to their prayers."
"We add our indignat protest to those of the faithful against the crimes of false believers who mix blood with prayers. In France, England and America there will be another conception of justice!"

ATTENDED CONVENTION

Some fifteen or twenty delegates from the Trades and Labor Council, Independent Labor Party and local unions journeyed to Toronto yesterday to attend a meeting under the auspices of the Dominion Trades Congress with a view to forming a new third party in Canada. Labor men, farmers, and Socialists were represented on the floor of the meeting. After much discussion, a platform was adopted similar to the British Labor Party in the old land, and the new organization was formed. Mayor McBride of this city was placed on a committee with others to prepare by-laws, etc. to be presented to the different organizations for ratification.

RIOT IN QUEBEC

Military Forces Were Called Out to Quell Disturbances

Quebec, March 29.—The military were called out shortly before 11 o'clock to-night to save Quebec from a mob, which, under some directing spirits, put the Upper Town under a sway of riot and terrorism and capped its acts by wrecking the Chronicle and L'Evenement offices, breaking into the Auditorium building, destroying all the documents in the Registrar's office, and then setting fire to the building.

The soldiers broke through about ten thousand people, half of whom were onlookers, and forming into a square in front of the burning building presented a solid array of bayonets from four sides of the square, before which even the most violent drew back.

The mob began to disperse just before midnight and soldiers were soon left in sole possession of the streets.

The newspaper offices attacked were those of The Chronicle Publishing Company, owned by Major-General David Watson, commanding the Fourth Canadian Division in France, and L'Evenement. Both plants were wrecked during anti-

CAR PLUNGED OVER BRIDGE; BOY DROWNED

Motoring Fatality Occurred In East Ward on Thurs- day Night.

DRIVER IS INJURED

Plunging over the Murray street bridge shortly after nine o'clock Thursday night, a Ford car carried nine year old Charlie Ellison to his death in the waters of the canal, while Andrew Ellison, the driver of the car, is lying seriously injured in the hospital. Thomas C. Ellison, the father of the boy, escaped with minor injuries, as did also Cecil Robinson, a companion.

Lost Control of Car

The fatality, which is one of the saddest in Brantford's history, is intensified by the fact that, Thomas C. Ellison, 14 Webbing street, the owner of the car, made the last payment on it only Thursday afternoon, and was on his way home when the accident occurred. With him in the car were his brother, Andrew Ellison, who was driving, his son Charles Ellison and Cecil Robinson, a friend of the latter. The party was on its way to the cinema, just west of the bridge.

Reception by W.C.T.U.

Collection Made For Silver Thimble and Trinket Fund Was on Exhibition

There was a large turnout at the Y.M.C.A. Thursday night last when the ladies of the W.C.T.U. held a reception for the people who had so kindly donated the large display of trinkets and silverware for the soldiers' free drinks. Many articles were sold at an advance of the price they would bring when remitted, and on Monday there will be an auction of some articles that would not bring much when melted over.

A very pleasing program was given by the following: Piano solo, Miss Fuller; chairman's address by Rev. Mr. Martin; solo, Mr. Passmore. Then followed an address by Rev. Mr. Lavell, lately returned from the front. He spoke of the good work of the Y.M.C.A. and also how the W.C.T.U. had so generously been furnishing free hot drinks through their three representative among the Y.M.C.A. workers. The boys were very appreciative and realized they were being helped both physically and spiritually—and the need, was very great.

Next came a piano solo by Miss Eloise Beard, followed by a recitation by Master Leslie Brown, and a violin solo by Miss Fuller. Rewards were then given to the successful competitors in the drawings that have been displayed in store windows. This was done by Mr. Adam Shultz. The first prize was to Miss Wrightman, second to Miss Foster, third to Miss Eleanor Hart, fourth to Miss Constance Labarre. The full amount of money raised will be given out after the Schubert Choir concert, which will be for the benefit of this fund, and due notice will be given as to the date.

MERCHANTS CORNER

If everybody knew all about your goods, what they were like and why they were good, they would still require advertising.

All increase of 100 per cent. in volume of business in less than two years' time is some record—and all due to advertising. The Stanley works had been manufacturing hardware for twenty-four years. Two years ago they started to advertise. As a result the total business for 1916 was three times that of 1915, and the business for 1917, up to date of this fund, and due notice will be given as to the date.

Say Bourassa Deserves Trial By Court Martial

By Courier Leased Wire
Montreal, March 30.—L'Evenement of Quebec, whose offices were wrecked last night, yesterday published a communication which stated that if Henri Bourassa were in France he would be sent before a court-martial on account of his seditionist articles. "His articles are directed against the Allies and especially against England, which he constantly represents under the worst possible colors. His articles are of the most criminal and seditious character and have done an irreparable wrong to the French-Canadian and the Province of Quebec, a great many of our people being influenced by his crazy doctrines."

Many rumors and distorted rumors spread throughout the city immediately following the accident. One version reported that at least one man had been killed, in addition to the drowning of the boy; another, that two men and two women were pinned beneath the wreckage of the car at the bottom of the canal; another gained circulation yesterday to the effect that Mr. Andrew Ellison (Continued on page four)

BRANTFORD LED ALL CITIES

In Bank Clearings Last Week

Gain in This City Was Over Fifty Per Cent.

Toronto, March 28.—A general improvement in trade conditions is reflected in the substantial increase made in the majority of Canadian cities reporting bank clearances for the week ending Thursday. There were three cities that showed a falling-off as compared with the same week-day period in 1917 but in the three instances the decreases were not heavy ones. The greatest increase of all the Canadian cities reporting was made by Brantford, with the week's total at $1,020,543. The gain amounted to $352,890, or 52.85 per cent. Vancouver was second with clearings at $9,123,785, the increase being $2,881,529, or 46.81 per cent.

Total clearings for all cities reporting amounted to $173,130,765, an increase of $21,509,294, or 14.74 per cent., over the same week in 1917.

What Society is doing

THE KNITTERS
(Henrietta Keith, in Boston Transcript.)
The needles flash, the needles fly;
Never a "slacker" here, not one.
Faster and faster they must fly
For father, lover, brother, son.
From trenches dank, from chilling rain,
From frozen decks and biting blast
The sad cry comes again, again—
"Oh, send us warmth and send it fast!"

"The shell's sharp shriek we bravely meet
We shrink not from the deadly gas
But deadlier cold and frozen feet!
Oh, let this cup of anguish pass!"
In mansion and in cottage small
The needles flash, the needles fly,
How could our hearts deny that call
How could our hearts forget that cry.

The eager children leave their play,
The granny with her trembling hand,
She sits and knits the living day
All through the land, all through the land.
Go lay your 'brodery frames away
Oh, merry maidens, girlhood sweet
Put by the dance, the matinee
Gay revels—fling them at your feet.

Oh, women of America!
To you the suffering soldiers cry
Hear their beseeching S.O.S.
And faster, faster needles ply.

J. M. YOUNG & COMPANY

A good deal of interest is being centered just now in the civic banquet which will be given next Thursday evening in the Masonic Hall for the returned soldiers. The guests of honor being those of the first contingent, who recently arrived in the city. Mayor MacBride, Alderman Harp, Secretary Hutchings and Mr. George A. MacDonald of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, and Mrs. W. C. Livingston, president of the Women's Patriotic League, and Mrs. J. J. Hurley comprise the special committee which have charge of the banquet. Mayor MacBride has placed Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Hurley and the ladies of the W. F. L. in charge of the refreshments, and these energetic and capable ladies will also look after the serving of the men, and a most delightful evening is anticipated.

Many Brantford friends of the former well known residents of this city, Mrs. J. J. Gibbons, Mrs. R. G. O. Thomson, Mrs. A. G. Northway and Mrs. George Baker, who have been so actively associated with the Garden Craft Club sale, which has been the centre of attraction all week in Toronto, will be interested in the following extract from The Globe:

Year by year the Garden Craft Club improves upon itself, and that means that its members accomplish something that seems quite impossible. This year the club's sale was set in the premises formerly occupied by Jenkins' antique shop, and here all sorts of bird-houses, rustic furniture, fascinating garden and gardening accessories, mugs and soap, bubble sets, and so on, were put on sale, the results to go, as usual, to patriotic purposes.

All sorts of novelties met the eye, among them a long basket for laying sweet peas and roses when cut, weather cocks made by a returned soldier, old friends in the shape of hanging baskets made of bark, garden aprons and trays edged with wicker and made of glass laid over real leather; a butterfly, and other real bits of beauty.

Besides the bird-houses made up, all of which are artistic delights, there are some that are merely cut out, but not made up, the pieces being put together with the proper kind of nails into a package which makes a splendid present for a small boy with a carpentering turn, or other real bit of beauty.

A committee composed of Mrs. Lorne Mitchell, Mrs. R. G. Thomson, Mrs. A. G. Northway, Mrs. Harold Mara, Mrs. J. J. Wright, Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. Frank Allan, Miss Edith Statway and Miss Isabel Nairn.

THE SITUATION
 The position of affairs on the western front is still serious enough, but speaking generally the outlook may be classed as somewhat better. Enemy attempts in force at Arras and Vimy have met with a severe defeat except in the centre of the line where the Allies have taken steps to strengthen their resistance. The appointment of Gen. Foch as supreme commander, is a highly important move, and has been welcomed both in England and the States. He is spoken of as a strategist of the highest order, and will receive the heartiest co-operation of Field Marshal Haig, and the other commanders. One head is manifestly a great desideratum at the present time. German papers are not nearly so confident as they were, but destruction of British prestige still continues to be their great demand.
 Since the present fighting started, the Germans claim to have taken 70,000 prisoners and 1,100 guns, but this is almost certainly an exaggeration.
 A Good Friday massacre of church worshippers in Paris by means of a shell from the long distance gun, constitutes still one more evidence of Hun atrociousness.
 A despatch from England says that the people there fully realize that the present is a time of crisis for England and the Empire, and that all minor differences have been forgotten in the presenting of an undivided and self-sacrificing purpose. A like feeling becomes more and more necessary in Canada.

STERN MEASURES NEEDED IN QUEBEC
 The outbreak in Quebec City in connection with the Military Service Act is simply an illustration of the resentment which prevails more or less openly throughout that province with reference to the measure.
 The number of men excused there, and the delay with regard to appeals, has developed into a farce, and stern measures are evidently a necessity.
 The spectacle, with the war at its crisis and every man needed, is sickening. Without any more to do, Quebec should be brought to time.

THE HYDRO SUCCESS
 When the Whitney Government first decided to embark upon the Hydro Electric project, the idea was to free the people from the monopoly of capitalist companies in the matter of "white coal" and to reduce the cost of service.
 There were dire predictions as to what would happen to the Province and the Municipalities in connection with the undertaking. The private corporation ran first of all declared that the thing could not be done, and then that it would end in financial disaster. As a matter of fact, no more successful enterprise on behalf of the plain people was ever launched anywhere. Hydro has not alone vastly reduced the price of electric lighting and power, but it has also made a magnificent showing on its own account.
 The Niagara system showed last year a net profit of $486,930; the Severn system had a surplus of $50,469; the Eugenie Falls was $31,934 ahead; the Waddell Falls system was $9,551 to the good; the lesser Muskoka systems $3,063; the St. Lawrence one $4,602 and the Port Arthur system $5,277.
 What would have been the condition of affairs during these days had the movement so effectively under the administration of Sir Adam Beck not been in the field?
 That the project should be backed to the limit for even wider achievements no one doubts, who has the interests of the people at all at heart, and with such an example, public ownership might well be extended in many other directions.

SIDELIGHTS AT OTTAWA
H. F. Gadsby's Weekly Letter From the Capital—Interesting Pen Pictures of Union Government Leaders

BY H. F. GADSBY.
 Ottawa, March 30.—"That was a ripping good joke Sir George made to-day," said the Hon. Frank Carvell as he came out of the Green Chamber arm-in-arm with the Hon. Dr. Reid.
 Just imagine it—Frank Carvell fighting Frank of yore old time, Carvell whom good Conservatives used to regard as the devil's own scourge, Carvell the thorn in every self-satisfaction's side, breathing sweet nothings into Dr. Reid's ear and passing compliments to Sir George Foster! Oh these intimacies of the council table! These amazing friendships of Union Government! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction.
 Not that Sir George Foster does not deserve all the compliments Frank Carvell can pay him. For some years now I have watched Sir George ripening and mellowing, his mordant satire turning into gentle humor under the sun of brotherly love and one way and another getting as near heaven as a politician can. Sir George looks over his shoulder at a long, useful life, and he has become very tolerant of his fellow men on both sides of politics. I miss my guess if he was not ready for Union Government a good six months in advance of the rest of his colleagues—such was the mood of amity he had achieved.
 And now Sir George is making jokes—jokes which attract the attention and arouse the admiration of that ancient and robustious enemy, Frank Carvell! They must be great jokes—to command the praise of such a truculent critic. But then Sir George can turn the laugh on anybody or anything. Only the other day he had an argument with a Mogul engine at the Union Station in Toronto which changed the engine's point of view and no doubt broadened Sir George's sense of humor. At all events Sir George did something then to which no other orator in or out of Parliament has ever aspired. But this feat of derring-do was not enough. Lying on the flat of his back, with his hands tied down by his side, Sir George piled up a majority of sixteen thousand. If a man can do that with a majority by means of an absent treatment what can he do when he is up and busy? Some joker is Sir George. No wonder Fighting Frank Carvell takes off his hat—he hits "that many" encounters in his life, most of them successful, but he has never yet taken a fall out of a locomotive. All one can wish for Sir George now is that he may live forever.

An interesting conjuncture is the Hon. James Calder and the Hon. Newton Rowell. They are seat-mates and the Press Gallery has already christened them the Two Moustaches, the contrast being quite as marked as the symbolism. The Hon. Mr. Calder has a moustache of generous proportions, not as drooping as that of the walrus, nor yet as bristling as that of Frank Oliver, but an impressive ornament, just the same, and fairly typical of the breezy western spirit. It is in fact built to resist the weather, and blizzards have raged through it with as little harm to the fabric as the gentle chinook. Mr. Calder's moustache hints to me of spacious skies, wide horizons, and broad opinions well ventilated by the keen air of the prairies. I have a great deal of faith in it.
 The Hon. Mr. Rowell's moustache is of an entirely different character. It is black and might be luxuriant if it were allowed to have its own way, but, like Mr. Rowell, it is under the strictest moral discipline. Its close-croppedness seems to represent all the propriety of the offets east and all the goodness of Toronto. Some day Mr. Rowell will wax that moustache and that day will see him hailed as good fellow and taken to the bosom of the average sterner who has passed through enough fire to become human.
 Just here is the place to say that Mr. Rowell has in him the makings of a useful statesman. He is honest, earnest, industrious, and eloquent. Really eloquent—no wind, no padding—the eloquence of compact language, close reasoning, and definite purpose. On the hustings or in Parliament Mr. Rowell makes equally good speeches. He never

When the alarm was first turned in Thursday night, Chief Lewis was summoned from a meeting of the fire and light committee in the city hall, and at once made his way in his car to the scene of the disaster. He was at work in the water upon the arrival of the waggons with the lifeboat.
 "And we didn't lose any time," a fireman pointed out. Purchase of a motor truck for the purpose of transporting the lifeboat has already been authorized by the city council and the only delay now is in the selection of the make of truck to be bought. Meanwhile, it is pointed out that the firemen have had two trips to the Murray street bridge this spring, while drowning alarms are often received from points much farther distant, in which case every moment is precious in reaching the scene.
 It takes courage and capital to advise the fairest of prophets, and which foresees the future, instead of a profit eye, which sees only the present. It takes a restless spirit that isn't content with anything but leadership.

Margaret Garrett's Husband
 By JANE PHELPS

CENTERED ROMANCE.
CHAPTER XVII.
 All the romance my life had held was centered around Robert Garrett. Other young men who had paid me careless or semi-serious attentions had counted for nothing at the time; now they were almost forgotten. I had room only in heart, mind and life for one man, my husband.
 There was no real friendship possible between Bob's friends and me. Their outlook on life was so radically different, and I was so set in my ideas, my convictions, I was not sufficiently trained in the ways of the world, not wise, nor vicious enough to make them care for my companionship, more than I cared for theirs. One always feels these things even though unexpected.
 I began to resent Bob's admiration for beautiful or interesting things which other men or books. This attitude was an unconscious one at first; but gradually I consciously rebelled. I loved him dearly, my very life belonged to him; his should belong to me in the same way, also what meaning had the marriage ceremony?
 But when I tried to make Bob see how I felt; tried to explain my convictions, I noticed a growing impatience. This was so slight at first that it was little more than a flash, but both his impatience and my knowledge of it grew daily.
 "I do wish you wouldn't be so free, talk so excitedly to people who call; you never do when we are alone." Elmer Root and his wife—I did not like her, a silly little blonde musician—had called, and in discussing music, the writers of grand opera, with Mrs. Root, I could see her husband's head to death.
 "Mrs. Root may be doll-faced as you call her, but she is a very bright woman, and an authority on musical matters. Her knowledge of written music is wonderful; and makes her very interesting."
 "Well I think it terribly bad form to discuss by the hour, something your wife doesn't understand—especially with another woman."
 "You play very well—Margaret, I should think you would like to inform yourself and be interested in the technique of music. I really believe you play better than Mrs. Root does."
 "Thank you! and as long as I do, why not be satisfied without wanting me to be interested in the history of all the old dead musicians?"
 Bob flushed, started to speak, then waited. Finally he said: "These questions lead nowhere. You have your ideas about all these things I have mine. As long as we don't agree—and it seems never will, why spend our time talking about them?"

THE GRAND
 Good horses were the order of the day afternoon and evening at the Grand yesterday, when the charming religious photo play "Ramona," in keeping with the week, was presented for the first time. The cast of the picture is of unusual merit, and the entire production highly pleasing. The story is laid in California in the days of the olden missions there. The picture will be shown again this afternoon and to-night.

Military Service Act Important Announcement to All EXEMPTED MEN and to the Public Generally IN dealing with the very large number of claims for exemption brought forward for consideration in connection with Class 1 under the Military Service Act, it has occurred, as was inevitable, that as a result of false statements and difficulties put in the way of investigation, some individuals have secured exemption whose proper place is in the Army. It is not the intention of the Government to allow these men to evade permanently their obligation to bear their part in the military defence of the Country and of the ideals for which we are fighting. To do so would defeat the purpose of the Act, and cause grave injustice to men in the second class necessarily called out to fill their places. Exemptions Granted on False Grounds It is, therefore, proposed to scrutinize carefully all exemptions granted to date in order to separate those which have been granted on false or insufficient grounds from those that are well founded. With this object in view the various Registrars under the Military Service Act have been instructed to issue a series of questionnaires to exempted men. These questionnaires must be filled up correctly and returned promptly under penalty of forfeiture of exemption for failure to do so. Exempted Men Who Have Changed Address It is therefore important in their own interest that all exempted men who have changed their address since their exemption was granted and who have not already notified the Registrar of such change should notify him at once. Under the Regulations it is the duty of exempted men to keep the Registrar advised of any change of address, and failure to receive the questionnaire by reason of neglect of this duty must be treated as equivalent to failure to return the questionnaire after receipt. Citizens Urged to Assist In many instances information has been furnished by members of the public which has led to the cancellation of exemptions obtained by false or misleading statements. Further co-operation of this character is invited. The Government regard it as the Duty of all loyal citizens, not only to the Country, but to the men at the front, to assist in this way in securing reinforcements on a just and legal basis. Correspondence of this character will be treated as strictly confidential and will receive the fullest investigation. CHARLES J. DOHERTY, Minister of Justice. Correspondence should be directed to C. Leslie Wilson, Registrar under the Military Service Act, Toronto, Ont. 401B

NEWS FROM NORFOLK COUNTY

OFFICERS TAXED IN IMPERIAL ARMY

Tax Increases With Salary; News Notes From Simcoe

(From our own Correspondent) Simcoe, March 30.—In the Imperial Army there is not advantage in promotion from the rank of lieutenant to captain, or captain to major, from a pecuniary standpoint. The increase in pay is more than offset by the increase in war tax. Major Simpson's war tax is about $240 a year. Capt. Burt and Capt. Jaques, who understand pay each about $125 war tax on every pound sterling of pay, and yet some young men in Simcoe complain about a poll tax of $3 a year.

Capt. H. L. Selby writes to say he has returned to duty on the far-stretched line; that he ran across Lt. Murray Dillon at Rouen and that the latter was wearing the Military Cross, though he professed he did not know what Dillon had seen, few, if any, of the Norfolk boys since a short time after going to France. Word has been received that Pte. Robert Nell is back in England and possibly slated for home soon.

Lost His Way Home
Douglas Brown of Grimsby drove a truck load of produce to Hamilton last Tuesday, and after disposing of part of the load, apparently lost his way home. He came out to Brantford and next morning landed in Simcoe with the auto truck about the same time as Chief Canning received a wire advising him that Brown was wanted for making off with $150. About fifteen minutes after Brown was in the cooler, where he spent what he claimed was a very long day. J. L. Koukle, chief of police of Grimsby, came over in the afternoon and left for home with Brown, the latter driving the car. Brown claimed here that he got while in Hamilton something stronger than sap from the maple. He was quite "mentent."

With the Churches
There was a good attendance at Trinity and St. Mary's churches yesterday morning. In the evening the usual Friday evening lecture gave way to an intercessory service, very fitting after the news that the Canadians were entering the great battle.

The usual Good Friday concert was held at St. James' Methodist church. The choir of the church sang opening and closing choruses, and the remainder of the programme was a varied selection of vocal solos, duets and trios.

From Central Africa
Rev. Arthur J. Bowen of Chicago, a friend, and for the week-end a guest of the pastor, will at evening service give an illustrated lecture at St. Paul's on his life and experiences among the savages of Central Africa. All Returned Soldiers Preferably, but not necessarily, in uniform, are requested to parade at the armories at 10.30 to-morrow and proceed to Trinity church for the service.

Are you Selling your Soul for the Lure of the City?

An Announcement Addressed Particularly to Single Men—and Their Employers

NOTE—In listing the following classes of labour from which farm help may be reasonably drawn, we respectfully exclude all returned soldiers engaged in these occupations. They have already DONE THEIR NATIONAL SERVICE.

- Shoe Shiners
- St. L. Fountain Dispensers
- Jewelry Salesmen
- Shoe Salesmen
- Men's Wear Salesmen
- Women's Wear Salesmen
- Florist's Salesmen
- And every other class that can be included under the heading of Store Clerks or Store Salesmen.
- Commercial Travellers
- Lunch Counter Waiters
- Hotel Waiters
- Bell Boys
- Restaurant Clerks
- Book-keepers
- Typists
- General Office Assistants
- Theatre Ushers
- Grocers' Assistants
- Hardware Assistants
- Drug Store Assistants
- Messenger and Delivery Boys
- Shipping Clerks
- Warehousemen
- Music Store Salesmen
- Cheffeurs
- Carters
- Bread Route Men
- Milk Route Men
- Street Car Conductors
- Elevator Operators
- All General Labourers who can reasonably be spared.
- House to House Canvassers of all Classes and Grades.

This list by no means includes all. There are many other non-essential occupations in our times, and those who are engaged in them would do well to consider their abandonment in favour of farm work.

Get away for a moment from the clamour of the street; go into your room, at once, or to-night if you are not now at home, and ask yourself this question:

"Have I actually done anything that could count as National Service for my country during the forty bloody months of her suffering?"

Put down in hours the actual time that you have worked. Then, if before your conscience you can say, fearlessly, that you have done a man's service to your country, well and good—we know that you will do even more. But if there is the thought drumming through your mind that all—everything—that you have done, is a mere nothing, just a sop to conscience, then as you are worthy of your manhood, make a speedy decision to devote the next few months of your life to National Service.

Outside of our armed forces only one kind of civilian labour ranks as National Service for men. That is Service on a farm.

That is why the Government in all seriousness exempted the farmer and the farmer's helper from military service.

If you are not quite sure whether your work could be done by a woman consult the list of occupations. These do not include all occupations. There are many others.

Sheer necessity urges that many men in these occupations should give place immediately to women, while they, the men, take up farm work temporarily.

This applies particularly to single men who can move with little or no inconvenience. Positions can also be found for married men who wish to move their families to the country.

Issued by the Labour Committee, Dr. W. A. Riddell, Chairman, Organization of Resources Committee, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Organized Labour Endorses This Crusade—Remember That!

In a memorandum to members they specifically, as a matter of national necessity, agree to:

- (a) The exemption from compulsory military service of all farm help.
- (b) The substitution of female for male help in order that certain classes of male help may be released for essential National Labour Service, that is, Farm Labour.
- (c) The stipulation that women who temporarily replace men who go upon the farm shall receive the same pay for service equal to the man replaced, so that the rates of wages for men shall not be lowered.

Farm Wages are Good

At present farm wages with board are in many cases equal to, if not better, than city wages without board. So that the handicap of wages should not be magnified.

A day of reckoning is coming; a day when that irresistible force, Public Opinion, will judge a man by his work, and will judge employers by the work they are retaining men to do.

Men and women will look hard at the clerks in stores, offices, warehouses and factories. We are down to elements to-day, and our people will not tolerate the thought that while so many of our sons are perishing in the bloody struggle in France, so many men are doing work that can easily and efficiently be done by women without sacrifice to their womanhood or health.

Remember Your Effort is Voluntary

The production of food is the paramount work of Canada to-day. In going to work upon a farm, the farm is actually your channel of National Service. That is the attitude you should take towards the matter.

We owe it to our nationhood and to our Allies, who stand with us through the Ordeal by Battle to see that no effort is spared to insure to them a sufficient food supply.

Don't dismiss this matter from your mind. Enroll for service quickly. Send your application to the District Representative of the Department of Agriculture in your County, or apply at the local public employment bureau or fill out the coupon below and mail it to the address given.

DR. W. A. RIDDELL, Chairman, Labour Committee, Organization of Resources Committee, 15 Queen's Park, Toronto.

THE SPRING TONIC FOR PALE, THIN PEOPLE

If You Want to Gain in Weight and Recover Your Appetite, Energy and Ambition, Try This Well Known Remedy.

With the passing of winter many people feel weak, depressed and easily tired. The body lacks that vital force and energy which pure blood alone can give. In a word, while not exactly sick, the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon them, and a blood-building, nerve-restoring tonic is needed to give renewed health and energy. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an all-year-round blood builder and nerve tonic, but they are especially useful in the spring. Every dose helps to make new, rich, red blood, and with this new blood returning strength, cheerfulness and good health quickly follows.

If you are pale and sallow, easily tired, or breathless at the least exertion; if your complexion is poor, or if you are troubled with pimples or eruptions, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are just what you need to put you right. If you have twinges of rheumatism, are subject to headaches or backaches, if you are irritable or nervous, if your sleep does not refresh you, or your appetite is poor, you need the treatment which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills alone can give—you need the new blood, new health and new energy this medicine always brings.

A COMPLETE WRECK
Mrs. C. Forsythe, R. R. No. 2, Fisherville, Ont., says: "At the age of fourteen my daughter Viola was feeling very much run down in the spring. Then she was attacked with whooping cough which left her a complete wreck. She had no appetite, could not sleep well nights and was subject to chills which sometimes kept her in bed for the day. She was doctoring steadily, but not apparently getting the least benefit, and I naturally grew very anxious. One of my neighbors suggested giving her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got a box. When she began using the pills she weighed only 87 pounds. Before the box was all gone I sent and got six more boxes and under their use she constantly grew stronger. Her appetite improved, the color came back to her cheeks, she could sleep well, and feels and looks like a different person, and with all this while using the pills she gained 20 pounds in weight."

A SALLOW COMPLEXION
Miss Gladys Marshall, Chatham, Ont., says: "I suffered from nervousness and my blood was in a very poor condition. My face broke out in pimples and my complexion was very sallow. I took doctors' medicine but without beneficial results. I was feeling much discouraged when a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I used in all six boxes, and was overjoyed to find that my complexion had become quite clear, pimples had disappeared, my nerves were strengthened and my old-time health and ambition returned. I shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Notwithstanding the increased cost of all drugs, there has been no change in the price of our Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They can be had through any medicine dealer at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, or will be sent on receipt of price by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GIRLS! YOU CAN LIFT THEM OFF

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift your sore, touchy corns, right out

A noted Cincinnati authority discovered a new ether compound and called it frezone and a quarter ounce of it now can be had for a few cents at any drug store. You simply apply a few drops of this magic frezone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off with the fingers. You feel no pain, not a particle of soreness, either when applying frezone or afterwards, and it doesn't even irritate the skin. Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses, just shrivel up and lift off like a charm. Try it. Women should keep it on their dressers and never let a corn ache twice.

WHY AUTOMOBILE IS THE GREATEST UTILITY OF WORLD

Motor Car Enables Any Business to Extend Range of Operations

There is no doubt in most minds that the motor car is the world's greatest utility. There is nothing that succeeds like success, according to the old adage, but success is dependent to an unlimited degree of personality in this respect, the automobile has an undoubted advantage. If you telegraph to a man with whom you are doing business, all he can get out of you is the concrete message which is contained in the telegram. He learns practically nothing about you. Similarly, if you use the telephone, your message indicates little of your personality.

On the other hand, if a man has an automobile he can get to the office of the party with whom he wishes to do business, and through his actual presence, his personality, dual, can bring all the force of his personality to bear. The great influence which this element in business brings, makes the business man desirous of using not only the fullest possible extent and this the automobile enables him to do. Helping the World to Speed Up. The world, too, is speeding up, and there is no utility which is fitting in all this process more admirably than the motor car. The terrible rush and hurry of modern life is at best, a strain on every individual engaged in business, but the utilization of automobiles lessens the strain to a considerable extent.

From the commercial side of the case, there is no doubt that the motor car enables any business concern to extend its range of operations. It provides economy of time and economy of expense over other methods. If business were dependent on horse traffic, it would be impossible to carry on our enterprises on the enormous scale that we are doing to-day. After making a team of horses pull a load to a place ten miles away, making it a twenty-mile round trip, it would be necessary to rest them up on the following day. Furthermore, the horses would have to be fed while not in use.

The advantage in motor transportation is obvious. The auto is tireless and with proper care, no machine should have to be in the repair shop more than two or three days in the year. At the same time, the motor vehicle is doing ten times as much work while in operation as the horses could do.

Opening Up the Country. One of the biggest things that the motor car has done is the opening up of new towns that had to be neglected in the past. If business men were forced to travel by train, they would find it possible to stop off at only four or five towns on the railroad line in a day. It would never pay them to go into the smaller towns which were not in the immediate vicinity of railroad stations. The advent of the motor car did away with this condition of affairs. By means of it, every business opportunity can be grasped. The small towns no longer are passed by the auto owner, for it is a simple matter to run from one town to another in his car. This has resulted not alone in the expansion of business, but in the development of new and desirable towns of considerable size.

Another handicap of railroad transportation that must not be overlooked is the fact that railroad trains cannot be run every fifteen or twenty minutes to every place a man might want to reach. Suppose for instance that an agent or solicitor should want to make two important towns in any county in Western Ontario. He reaches one and completes his business, but when he gets to the railroad station he has to wait possibly two or three hours before he can get a train to the next stop he wants to make. The automobile, on the other hand, provides an economy of time that is of great value to the busy agent.

Changing Complexion of City Life. Too much importance cannot be attached to the fact that the motor car is changing the complexion of city life. It is not necessary to tell of the delights of suburban life in the spring and summer of the year. Almost everybody appreciates them, but they have been hard to reach in the past and the possibility of enjoying them was open only to a few. The automobile not only makes access to these sections open to more people, but it makes suburban residence much livelier and attractive. Home development is not following steel rails any more; there are no restrictions on it. This leads to the belief that the motor car is the greatest force operating against congested living conditions.

From the standpoint of health, automobiles have a dual advantage. They open up the country with its clear, fresh air and thus improve the general health. On the side of prevention they have the merit of bringing relief to the sick or injured in the quickest possible time. Many lives might be lost but for the automobile, which enables the doctor to respond to emergency calls or brings the ambulance to the assistance of the sufferer.

A War-Time Salvation. At the present time the motor car is evidencing its merit to a remarkable degree. It is the salvation of our business in these war times, because the railroads have been utterly incapable of coping with the extraordinary situation with which the traffic of the country has been confronted. If we could not use the automobile for conveyance by trucks the great business institutions of the country would have to suspend operations. The curtailment of freight carrying on the roads has shown more completely than any arguments could do what a great and powerful asset the country has in its automobile industry.

In brief, the reasons for believing that the motor car is the world's greatest utility are that it saves energy, saves time, reduces cost, develops business, promotes health and permits the spread of population.

When your competitor does something that attracts attention don't find fault. Get busy and do something a little better so that people will forget him and commence to talk about you.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Double its beauty in just a few moments. "Danderine" makes your hair thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful. Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No Get a small bottle of Knowlton's difference how dull, faded, brittle Danderine from any drug store or and scraggy, just moisten a cloth towel counter for a few cents, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment amazing—your hair will be light, beautiful hair and lots of it if you pearance of abundance; an incom- will just try a little Danderine.

Get Behind the Wheel of a Ford and Drive

TRY it just once! Ask your friend to let you "pilot" his car on an open stretch. You'll like it, and will be surprised how easily the Ford is handled and driven.

If you have never felt the thrill of driving your own car, there is something good in store for you. It is vastly different from just riding—being a passenger. And especially so if you drive a Ford.

Young boys, girls, women and even grandfathers—thousands of them—are driving Ford cars and enjoying it. A Ford stops and starts in traffic with exceptional ease and smoothness, while on country roads and hills its strength and power show to advantage.

Buy a Ford and you will want to be behind "the wheel" constantly.

SALVATION ARMY GAVE CONCERT

At the Salvation Army Citadel last night a very successful supper and concert was held. The event is an annual one and the attendance at this Easter's concert was the best on record.

Over two hundred sat down at supper and were well served by a hard working committee of the sisters of the Band.

Mr. J. R. Fennell proved a very able chairman and an excellent program was given:
March "America," by band; recitation, Mr. G. Mully; song, by Songsters; Instrumental trio, "Always the Same is Jesus," Bros. Budd and Knight; and singing, W. Court, pianoforte solo, Gold Medal March, W. Knight, Jr.; Selection "A Soldier of the Army," by Band; vocal duet, "Calvary" Mrs. Maslin and M. Allen; march, by band; recitation, "The Wives' Song," by Songsters; dialogue, Bros. C. and T. Uden; instrumental duet, "Is the Story True," Bros. Knight and Allen; Bible reading, March Sergeant; song, "The Lord is My Shepherd," by band.

The concert opened with a few well chosen remarks of the chairman, who commented upon the excellent attendance, and paid a tribute to the work of the Band. The Adjutant Osborne brought the evening to a close with a short speech, in which he praised highly the accomplishments of Bandmaster Marshall and the band locally. The success of the event is due largely to the efforts of Bandmaster Maslin and the assistance of the Adjutant, the members of the band and a committee of the ladies. The proceeds will effect a substantial sum in the finances of the band.

Special Easter services will be held by the Salvation Army workers to-morrow. At 6:30 a.m. an early morning service will be held with the Love Feast at 7 o'clock. At 11 o'clock dedicatory services will be held.

Colonel and Mrs. Chandler of Toronto will conduct the Easter afternoon meeting. This will also be a "Flower and Egg" service. Those attending are asked to bring a newly laid egg with a verse inscribed on it. These and the flowers contributed will be sent to the Hospitals. A number of new recruits will be enrolled to-morrow afternoon.

At the evening service the "Honor Roll" will be unveiled. Over 40 members of the local Salvation Army workers are now overseas. It is hoped that a large number of war veterans will attend the evening service.

Old Ends of News
It has been estimated that about 275,000 tons of coal is consumed annually in the district served by the L. E. and N. and that 225,000 tons of other merchandise, and this coal would be brought in by Dover at once if the facilities at this Port were provided.

Pretty nearly time for the silent policemen and the water at the drinking fountains.

The saw mills and the construction work at the cannery factory did not observe Good Friday. Messrs. McSloy and Schuyler bought a horse for the industrial farm yesterday.

At Horace Keelmen's sale on Wednesday, two liters of pigs with sows, sold, one for $120 and one for $121.

The question has arisen as to the legal right to levy on an assessment basis or even on a frontage basis, for street watering or oiling, on selected streets. Up to the present, council has operated on an old by-law (1913) which has not been altered since the statutes were revised.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT
Eat less meat if you feel Back-ache or have Bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat should flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's uric acids waste get about four ounces of the local Salvation Army glass of salts in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent litla-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR

Sheet metal workers in Hamilton have succeeded in their negotiations with the employers and have had the minimum wage rate raised from 45 to 50 cents per hour.

In Montreal quite a number of the local trades unions have passed resolutions to pay per capita tax on their entire membership to the newly organized labor party.

Because of a shortage of skilled mechanics at outside points on the system, the C. P. R. recently had to temporarily transfer machinists from the Angus shop in Montreal to fill the existing vacancies.

Things are very busy in Prince Rupert in railroad circles. The Grand Trunk Pacific shops are working full time and overtime right along. The employees are solidly organized and going after an eight-hour day in the near future. A new roundhouse and station will be started immediately. This place is on the map, it is growing fast and will bear some watching hereafter.

The Stratford City Council have increased the salaries of all firemen $20 a year and arranged that the fire brigade and cemetery workers be paid semi-monthly instead of monthly, as heretofore.

The master painters in Vancouver have granted the new wage schedule of $5 a day requested by the local union of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, which has made remarkable headway since the commencement of the year, having initiated up to the commencement of March nearly 100 new members.

The British Columbia Mine Inspection Department reports that since 1877 to the end of 1917, the number of fatal accidents in the coal mines of the province have amounted to 1,132. It may also be stated that the number of casualties since 1904 have enormously increased.

In Winnipeg the trades unionists, socialists, single-taxers and other progressives are all uniting with the new labor party. The one slogan used by all progressives is "We have got to get together," and they are getting together. In Brandon the labor union are all out pulling for the labor party. Independent political action is taking a firm grip on the industrial masses in the prairie province, and they are going to make trouble for the old liners, who are beginning to realize what's ahead.

Chinese labor is one of the big problems the butcher workers are up against. The employment of this class of labor in packing plants and stores is causing an immense amount of dissatisfaction in the province of British Columbia, and the union propose to take drastic action in the near future, unless the "yellow peril" is removed. The returned soldiers are solidly behind organized labor on this question, as the Chinese are securing positions made vacant by men going overseas which there is no reason whatever why returned men should not fill.

The mechanical crafts in the big G. T. R. shops in Stratford are now solidly organized. The I.A.M. alone has gone up from 12 members to 500 inside of two years. In fact, things look so good that steps are already being taken to organize a big Labor Day demonstration on the first Monday in September, and it is proposed to get the Trades and Labor Council that has been defunct for a few years now, reorganized and put the Classic City back in the running as one of the best organized railroad centres in the Province of Ontario.

The first annual convention of the Ontario Provincial Council of Boot and Shoe Workers, composed of local unions affiliated with the International Union, will be held in London on August 2nd next. The new organization held a conference in Toronto last August and framed up a constitution. A busy meeting was recently held in Galt at which every local union in the province was represented. The council went to work immediately to organize Chinese labor under any pretext whatever, and favoring fair wage clauses in all Government contracts similar to those in operation in all other countries entered upon by the British Government.

As is well known, owing to conditions growing out of the war, there has been great danger that the splendid quarter million dollar Labor temple in Vancouver would be lost to the movement, dull times prior to the war and the continued pressure of hard times afterwards, which prevailed in the west long after things had begun to hum in Eastern Canada, coupled with a considerable mortgage upon the property, did not offer a very encouraging outlook that the magnificent headquarters could be saved. The directors of the temple, however, have put up a game fight, and the outlook has considerably improved, and the revenues of the temple have increased most encouragingly of late and a new campaign is now being waged that gives every evidence of proving successful. We note by the B. C. Federationist that it is now proposed that every local union in the province will be asked to see that an effort is made to secure every union man as a shareholder. The canvass so far has been most successful, many of the unions already visited have taken action, and within one week the pipe fitters and wooden brigades, the teamsters and chauffeurs, and civic employees decided to purchase three shares for each of their members. It now begins to look as though the promoters of the temple will soon be in a position to announce that the company is on a sound footing once more.

The employees on six thousand miles of railway tracks are covered by the recent new wage schedules agreed to between Federal Trades and the management of the Grand Trunk Railway System.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, goes gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

Diapiesin and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach. Wonder what upset your stomach which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well don't bother. If your stomach is in revolt; if you are gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapiesin and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of the indigestion distress.

WOODMEN OF WORLDHELD GALA NIGHT

Head Consul Commander For Canada Visited Local Encampment

Camp No. 12, Woodmen of the World held his evening on Thursday, the occasion being an open meeting of the members and their lady friends in honor of the official visit of Head Consul Commander D. Cinnamon of Lindsay. The attendance was of very large proportions, and the success of the event, unqualified, the chair was ably occupied by the local Consul Commander, A. E. Lee, making special reference to the present situation. He also recounted many examples of patriotism in ancient days, enumerating the names of famous heroes, some of whom, he declared, were greater than the men of the allied armies to-day.

Canada, Mr. Cinnamon pointed out, first came into prominence after the South African war, and would hold a position of even greater importance in the future. He went on to touch upon the strength of the Woodmen of the World, which boasted over 800,000 members in Canada and the United States. The Canadian branch had paid over $1,500,000 to the benefit of the order, and to-day enjoyed a better financial position than ever before; it had $100,000 more than was needed to make it one hundred per cent solvent, as well as having set aside $20,000 for war exigencies. After touching upon the work being done by the Woodmen of the World in protecting the homes of Canada, Mr. Cinnamon in conclusion presented his photo to Camp No. 12.

A pleasing musical program was rendered, comprising an instrumental solo by Mr. Arthur Chrysler, a song by Sovereign E. H. Friend, two recitations by Miss Tench, and a violin solo by Mr. Stuart Gamble, ably accompanied by Mr. D. L. Wright. The serving of refreshments served to bring a successful evening to a fitting close.

"BEATS ANYTHING I'VE EVER SEEN"

McEwen Relieved by Tanlac After Suffering for Ten Long Years

"I have the best reasons in the world for speaking up for Tanlac," said James McEwen of 263 Palmerston avenue, Toronto, recently.

"About ten years ago," he continued, "I began suffering from a disordered stomach and kidneys, and since that time I hardly knew what it was to feel well until now. Sometimes the pains in my back would get so severe that I would just have to stop whatever I happened to be doing and lie down. I suffered so I couldn't get any rest scarcely, and many a night I had to put hot water bottles to my back to ease the pain. I never had one bit of appetite, and what little I managed to eat always gave me indigestion. My food seemed to lay in my stomach like lead and make trouble for me. I just felt tired, worn out and bad all the time, and not so long ago I got in such a bad shape that I couldn't do a bit of work for three months.

"During these ten years I tried everything I knew about, but nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac. Tanlac has relieved me entirely and it beats anything I've ever seen. The pain has all disappeared from my back, and my kidneys never bother me at all. My appetite is great, and I never feel a sign of indigestion. I sleep like a child every night and am feeling just fine all the time, and I am more than glad to let everybody know what I think of Tanlac." Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Robertson Drug Store, in Paris by Apps Ltd., in Mt. Vernon by A. Yocaman, in Middleport by William Peddie, in Onondaga by Neil McPhadden.

School Section No. 23 only, as the city has been already thoroughly covered. Bellview Red Cross Society are very energetic and deserve much credit for the great amount of work which they have accomplished; hospital supplies, pyjamas, quilts, and dozens of pairs of socks are sent overseas every few months. As the work is increasing, and the price of material high, they feel the urgent need of more money. It is hoped when the collectors call they will be kindly received and rewarded for their work with a generous subscription.

The officers of Bellview Red Cross Society are as follows: Hon. Pres. Mrs. J. J. Hurley, President, Mrs. J. T. Grantham, Vice-President, Mrs. E. S. Davidson.

Sec. Treas. Mrs. Otha Southwood, Finance committee, Mrs. Jno. T. Grantham, Mrs. E. S. Davidson, Mrs. Otha Southwood, Mrs. Carl Baisden, Sec. Treasurer.

All the cratts in Winnipeg are looking for wage increases this spring and several of them for reduction in working hours as well. At the present time, it looks as though many of them will get most of what they are going after.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

"THE HIDDEN HAND."
Mabel Hamilton, who has made an enviable reputation for herself in the legitimate drama and in the motion picture world, is adding to her laurels by his excellent work as Jack Ramsey, the secret service operative, who is the hero of "The Hidden Hand," the Pathe serial which will be shown at the Brant Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"THE PRICE OF FOLLY."
A woman's desire for social standing and a man's greed for wealth make interesting themes about which has been woven a strong two-reel drama in Pathe's series "The Price of Folly." It is called "Sold for Gold," and will be seen at the Brant, featuring Ruth Roland, the first of next week.

"EVE'S DAUGHTER."
There is Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday a company of Irish players to hold forth at the Brant Theatre in Billie Burke's newest Paramount photoplay, "Eve's Daughter." This is merely a coincidence because the production is not in the least an Irish story, but worthy of mention from its very unusualness. From Director James Kirkwood, nicknamed "Irish" Kirkwood by his friends, to Miss Burke herself, the personnel is Celtic. Thomas Melgan, Riley Hatch, Clarence Doyle, Florence Flynn, Ivy Shannon, Henry Lee and John Carney are a few of the typically Irish names in the cast. "Eve's Daughter," which was written by Almeta Ramsey, is an adaptation of the stage play of that name produced this year and starring Grace George.

"KEYS OF THE RIGHTEOUS."
At the Brant Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, clever Enid Bennett is making a long looked for reappearance on the screen, this time under the Paramount banner in "The Keys of the Righteous." Miss Bennett, with William S. Hart, Dorothy Dalton and Charles Ray, followed Thomas H. Ince when he became affiliated with Paramount and Arcturist pictures and is the last of the four to appear.

"The Keys of the Righteous" is a story of Wisconsin and deals with the struggle of a family of Mary Manning to keep together a family composed of a crusty old grandfather who has never forgiven her invalid mother for marrying his son, a drunken derelict, and one kindly uncle, almost her only friend. The other friend, however, is handsome young Tom Gale, a lumber cruiser who stands by through thick and thin. A happy ending is interestingly brought about.

"BEWARE OF STRANGERS."
Not so very long ago the public prints were crowded with accounts of the operations of a syndicate formed of confidence men and women, so shrewd and daring that their exploits seemed almost unbelievable. Their operations brought out the warning, "Beware of Strangers, men or women," from Mayor Hays, the famous States Attorney of Chicago, Ill., and William A. Pinkerton, the famous detective, stated that the only way to combat blackmailers was by publicity. The Selig Polyscope Company has filmed a wonderful drama written by Gilson Willets and based upon the operations of "The International Syndicate." It tells of the methods employed by the high-class criminals in separating the public from its money it tells a blood-stirring story of love and hate in the underworld, it proves that "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," and also that "the wages of sin are death." One of the most capable companies of players ever appearing in a feature production carry out the tale of love and adventure. These stars include Thos. Santschi, Vivian Rich, Ed. Coxen, Bessie Epton, Jack Richardson, Fritz Brunette, Frank Clark, Eugenie Bessener and others. The settings are superb, the lighting effects beautiful, the story is thrilling and the action tense. Manager Moule of the Rex theatre announces "Beware of Strangers" for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Music and Drama
"THE BRANT"
A holiday bill at the Brant Theatre is always a guarantee of high class entertainment, and the present week-end is no exception. It is many moons since a picture possessing more spontaneous comedy merit has been seen here than does "The Floor Below," starring pliant Mabel Normand in a story of modern newspaper life. The irresistible Gwyneth Paltrow, the copy girl, is her own inimitable self, and her vivid personality maintains the comedy element, while the more serious story is developing. Belmont and Company have a number of trained comedy birds, whose singlets is of unusual merit, while the vocal and instrumental imitations are of equal merit. The third episode of "The Hidden Hand," featuring Doris Kenyon, and a showing of the Pathe Gazette, conclude the motion picture program.

THE REX.
Vivian Martin is seen at the Rex the last of this week in "A Petticoat Pilot," a romance of the Atlantic coast, and of life among the fisherfolk, which affords the talented star ample scope for her versatility, as the picture traces her life from early girlhood up. Charles Chaplin is an added attraction in "The Count," one of his greatest comedy successes. That the picture has been seen here before will prove a stimulus rather than a detriment, for Charlie as the pseudo count is a figure to provoke gods and men to mirth. Perry and Davis, the Palm Beach Rubes, present a laughable comedy offering, with the toothy episode, "Wanganza and the Woman" draws near a close, but interest is maintained unflinchingly.

Ezekiah Dill, the role played by Stuart Holmes in "The Broadway Sport," to be seen at the Rex the first of next week, is a gruff who works as a clerk in the Hour mill owned by the local power company, Hector Sweet (Dan Mason). He grasps the affections of a spinster spinster (Mabel Rutley) for a hopeless ambition to win the village belle, Sadie Sweet (Wanda Petit), Boss's daughter.

When Dill ventures from the office Main street turns up its nose at his thick lensed specs, his baggy clothes and awkward gait.

The awe in which Dill was held is best shown by the fact that two yeggs undertook to break the mill safe while he was working in the office.

As they open the door Dill becomes unusually bold, pushes them into the vault and locks the door. After clephoning the boss he spots a roll of money on the floor.

Dill grasps the money as a drowning man a straw. What a figure he could cut with that in New York!

As he stands clutching the roll of bills Dill's mind quits its humble station for the White Lights.

In the hotel where Dill stops is a wealthy old man who would like to make a will if he had any relatives to whom to leave his property. His lawyer (J. Sullivan) undertakes to supply a few kin and gets Dill to pose as a long-lost nephew.

The will is made, the old man dies and Dill gets his fortune and starts back home forgetting his fifty-fifty understanding with the lawyer.

When Dill returns home a wedding is in progress. Fearing it is his little Sadie, he rushes into the church, carries off the grumbling bride-to-be and puts her in his auto. Then he lifts her veil and finds she is the spinster. Dill abandons the auto and flees on foot.

The arrival of his boss, Sadie and the constables interrupt Dill's dream.

Half dazed, he still stands there grasping the roll of money. Little Sadie rushes up to him, throws her arms about his neck and snuggles her golden head on her hero's shoulder.

Even old man Sweet praises his clerk's bravery as the constables drag the half-suffocated yeggs from the safe.

GARDENING AS A MEANS OF THRIFT
Prize Winning Essays Written By Public School Pupils for Thrift League—Sound Reasons For Cultivation of Vacant Lots Given.

The Courier gives to-day two more of the prize winning essays written by Public School children last year for the Thrift League.

GARDENING AS A MEANS OF THRIFT.
(By Chas. Woods, Grade 8, Alexandria School.)

"The great European war is now on. We must do all we can to help the Allies win the war. How can we boys and girls, men and women help to win the war? Some work in munition factories and make shells, some men enlist, some work in factories where the soldiers' shoes are made. The Allies need food and clothing for their soldiers. If we are careful about our shoes and clothing so that the soldiers can have more shoes and uniforms, we shall be helping the Allies. By having a garden in our backyard or on a small plot near our dwelling house is another of the ways to help the Allies.

By having a garden in our backyard or close by our house, we shall save time and money. We shall get vegetables fresh from our garden and shall get healthful exercise by working there. We can save time by going out into the garden and getting some fresh vegetables instead of having to walk to market to get the store to buy them. If you buy your vegetables at the market they are wilted and soft. If you have a garden you can get them fresh any time you want them.

We can save money by buying about one dollar's worth of seeds and getting about enough vegetables to last all summer, whereas if we had no garden we should have had to pay ten or twelve dollars for vegetables. Of course, you have to spend time in caring for the garden, but there are not many men who would not enjoy getting out into the cool fresh air and work in the garden for an hour or two after work. The time you spend caring for your garden would not nearly amount to the time you would spend going to the market or to the store after them and you will not get near as much enjoyment.

By working in the garden you will learn numerous things about the soil, the kinds of vegetables, the seeds, which to destroy and which to leave in the ground. At the end of the summer you will be in a very healthy condition if you work in the garden and when you go to weed your garden you will not pull up all the vegetables instead of the weeds.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sallow, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with puffy or muddy complexions; instead of the multitude of "narrow wrecks," "hollows," "brain fags," and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-checked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colic and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion, are urged to obtain a quarter ton and who are constipated very pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate to quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation.

that which we have, and making it go a long way; not trying to starve ourselves; remember, but giving enough to the body to keep it in working order then putting the rest away for a rainy day.

In gardening there are a great many who love the flower garden. Now, couldn't those people, instead of having these sort of gardens, be thrifty and use that space to grow vegetables, say, to even support their own family on a while; and if they have more than enough to do themselves, sell the rest. Would you not call them thrifty?

Again, if we look close enough to the problem we will find that there are a great many young boys and even men who could take the places of the older ones capable of fighting on the farms, to look after the gardens. There are not only men, but women who could do this. This would be all helping in the great cause.

In a town there are very often large parks and other tracts of land. This land could be rented to the citizens and they could work it and plant vegetables.

Some people are apt to say "Why can't we have flowers; they add to the beauty of a garden. In answer to this question, we may ask them if the growing of good stuffs is not more important.

There are a great many ways in which we may make our gardens pretty, by the many varieties of the vegetables.

In conclusion I think that unless the people of Canada begin right now and practice the art of Thrift, the Dominion in less than two years will be a complete ruin.

Lack of Food—Threatens the Battle Line

"The food wanted by mankind does not exist. The word 'shortage' is not strong enough. The whole world is up against a nasty thing, familiar to the people of India, called 'famine'."
—Lord Rhoads,
Britain's Food Controller.

One year ago, only the enemy was on rations.

To-day, Great Britain, France and Italy, are on rations.

To-day, Germany controls the wheat lands of Roumania, Russia, Poland and Ukraine.

To-day, the shadows of hunger, famine, disease and death hang over the Allies.

Upon the 1918 crop from Canada and the United States depends the fate of the democratic peoples of the world.

If that crop is sufficient the Allies can be fed.

If that crop is not sufficient the Allies may have to accept a German peace.

That Battle-Line in France and Flanders Must Not Want

Do you realize what a German Peace would mean to Canada?

Germany covets our natural resources—our agricultural and mineral wealth, our forests, our fisheries, everything that is Canada's.

Germany won't be satisfied with European territory, with teeming masses, wrangling factions and depleted natural resources. She wants colonies—big, thinly-populated countries in temperate zones for her sons and daughters to go to propagate their kind.

The Kaiser would sacrifice millions of Germans to-morrow if he thought that by so doing he could set foot on Canada's shores as Conqueror.

And what's more, the Germans would offer themselves for the sacrifice, so great is their subjection to the military ideal.

The only thing that balks German ambition is that battle line from the North Sea to Switzerland—and the British Navy.

The Only Thing That Sustains Our Men on Land and Sea—Is Food

What are we, each one of us, prepared to do to insure that Food supply?

Germany, by her submarine campaign, has seen that great Armada, the British Mercantile Marine, shrink in volume.

Germany has seen South America, Australia, New Zealand, India and far away outposts of the Empire practically cut off from supplying food to the Motherland because of the lack of ships.

Forty million Allied men and women having been put on war work, food production has dangerously decreased in Europe.

These forty million consume more food than when they were in ordinary occupations, and there are fewer men for farming. Hence an increased demand and decreased supplies.

The harvest of France was one-third less in 1917 than 1916, and this year must be smaller still, owing to lack of fertilizers, which cannot be supplied through shortage of shipping.

The world's decrease in live stock, as compared to 1913, is approximately 115,000,000 head.

Herbert Hoover Says:

"Our European Allies are dependent upon us for greater quantities of food than we have ever before exported. They are the first line of our defence. Our money, our ships, our life blood, and not least of all, OUR FOOD supply, must be of a common stock."

"In pre-war times, Britain, France, Italy and Belgium yearly imported more than 750,000,000 bushels of grain, plus vast quantities of meats and fats."

"The submarine destruction of shipping has made it necessary to abandon the hope of bringing food from South America, Australasia and India."

"Food must, therefore, be shipped from Canada and the United States—the nearest and safest route."

"Canadian and United States supplies are normally 350,000,000 bushels short of the Allied needs. By greater production and conservation Canada and the United States must combine to increase the export of grain by 150,000,000 bushels."

"The remaining shortage of 200,000,000 bushels must be overcome by greater reduction in consumption in the allied countries. And this is being done by Britain, France and Italy rationing their people."

"From two and a half years of contact with the German Army I have come out of the horror with the complete conviction that autocracy is a political faith and a system that directly endangers and jeopardizes the future of our race—that threatens our very independence. It has, however, been able to command a complete inspiration of devotion and self-sacrifice in its people to the interest of their nation. The German farmer, in the name of the Fatherland, supports a nation two-thirds as large as the United States and threatens to subject the world from an area one-half the size of Ontario."

"My vision of war is not of an academic problem to be solved by discussion. To me it is a vision of brave, dying men and suffering women and children, for service on whose behalf the greater exertion of the Allies' farmers comes as a direct necessity and a direct plea. The Canadian and the United States citizen who sees war as I see it, needs no inducement and no inspiration but the thought that every spade full of earth turned, and every animal reared is lessening human suffering and guaranteeing the liberty of the world."

Lloyd George's Warning

"I fear the disciplined people behind the German Army, the rationed family and the determination of wife and sister and daughter and mother to stand and starve—so that their fighting men may be fed—I fear it more than the Imperial German Army itself."

Britain is now on Food Rations.
France is now on Food Rations.
Italy is on the verge of starvation. Only continuous support from us can enable us to hold out.

Only with a disciplined people behind can we hope to win. The rationed British Nation, blood of our blood, bone of our bone, are proudly paying the price and sharing with France and Italy their limited stock of food. For in this there is mighty pride, a conscious measuring of their glory with the best traditions of ancient Sparta, and of Imperial Rome, for Britons know that upon them rests the burden of saving humanity. The story of their service shall ring and echo forever along the hill tops of history.

To Send More Food to Our Allies Is Not Charity

It is war. The Allies have a right to demand it. They have a right to resent the offer of only what is "left over." Those who are fighting the common battle for civilization and for our protection have a higher claim than had Lazarus, to only the "crumbs that fall from the rich man's table."

The Canadian people must recognize that Our Allies have the first claim on our food supplies.

As the shipping situation makes the Allies dependent upon the North American continent for food, it is vitally necessary that Canada should increase her production of food in order to take a larger part in providing for the Allies' requirements. This is especially urgent as the maintenance of a large United States army in the European field will cause a very heavy drain on that country's food resources.

There must be no peace without victory.

For nearly four years Germany has been struggling against the powers of law and order. She has failed so far to make good her escape with her booty by superior strength and skill. And now she is attempting by intrigue, suggestion, device and propaganda to divert the attention of her antagonists from the struggle itself, and thus to gain her ends by relaxing the strength and skill of her antagonists.

What she can gain from these tactics is plain to all the world in the sorrowful experience of Russia.

Germany's most dangerous weapon is not her Zeppelin—that is obsolete. Not her submarine—that can be overcome. Not her machine-like army—that has been repeatedly hurled back by the living armies of freedom. Her most dangerous weapon is her propaganda of peace.

While with her hands she murders and despoils, with her voice she invites to parleys.

When Liberty is in Peril There is Threat of Lasting Disaster in the Very Word "Peace"

Lord Leverhulme, long known in Canada as Sir William Lever, who knows well the German mind, in a recent interview stated:

"You will never be able to dictate terms to Germany—she is beaten. The argument you mention is founded on the dangerous fallacy that because Germany is sick of this war she is sick of war in general. She isn't. I doubt if her Government is even sick of this war. You've read the speech of that old brigand, Hertling. Is there any sign of repentance in that speech? Is it a chastened speech? Is it the speech of a statesman who wants disarmament and a league of nations? No! Germany is back in her mood of 1914. She believes she has won now. And if we talk of peace she HAS won it. Why, it would be better a thousand times that every man in England should be dead than that Germany should issue from this war with the feeling of a conqueror. You hear people use the phrase, 'to the last man, and the last shilling,' and you think it is only a bit of rhetoric, but to my mind it's the most solemn and absolute truth. I mean when I say it that it would in very truth be a million times better for the people of these islands to be dead, every one of them, rather than live on as the vassals of a triumphant Prussia."

How can any lover of liberty remain insensible to this peril?

Food means Victory and the world made safe for democracy—

Lack of food means disaster and subjugation to Germany.

The Citizens of Ontario Must Lead This Mighty Crusade for Greater Food Production

They did it last year and will do it again.

As the greatest food-producing Province, Ontario must maintain her leadership in America. Great are our opportunities—our responsibility is tremendous.

Upon every man and woman, boy and girl, rests a personal obligation to serve. Every pound of food produced, in whatever form, is a contribution to the Cause of Freedom.

Ontario farmers should sow 500,000 acres of spring wheat.

Every Ontario farmer whose land is at all suitable should put an extra five acres into wheat, even at the expense of another crop.

What YOU Can Do to Help

At all costs production must be maintained.

That's why farmers and farmers' sons are being exempted from military service. Working on a farm is equivalent to service in the Second Line Trenches.

To enable the farmer to do the work two factors are essential. The first is Time. Whatever we are to do must be done at once. Nature waits for no man. The second is Labor. Many farmers cannot plant the acres they would because they cannot get the necessary help. Many are afraid to increase their acreage because they fear they would not be able to cultivate and harvest an unusual crop after they had raised it.

The burden is not one to be placed solely upon the farmer. Neither can it be placed upon the townsman. It is a personal obligation upon every man, woman, boy and girl, in every farm, town and city home in the Province of Ontario.

AWAY WITH CRITICISM—CO-OPERATE! Mr. City man, don't say that the farmer should do so-and-so, and thus allow criticism in this hour of our Nation's peril to cripple your effort.

Mr. Farmer, don't hastily underestimate the value the city man can be to you.

Get Together in the Fight For Liberty

Let us not lament what MIGHT be, but earnestly face what MUST be.

Fifteen thousand boys between the ages of fifteen and nineteen must be organized as "Soldiers of the Soil" to work on Ontario farms this season.

Farmers can get one or more of these boys by applying to their District Representatives or to the Public Employment Bureaux at Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton or London.

Unmarried men, exempted from military service, are urged to take up farm work. Married men who have had previous experience on a farm are urged to resume farm work for a season. Employers of labor are asked to assist men to take up farm work.

We urge the farmers and the townsmen to get together for greater production in the interests of a free people and democracy.

Let the Organization of Resources Committee, your District Representatives or the Public Employment Bureaux act as your intermediaries.

When we have done our best, the cry for food cannot be wholly met.

For the rest—our Allies are tightening their belts.

Organization of Resources Committee

Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ontario.
CHAIRMAN: His Honor Sir John S. Hendrie, B.C.M.G., C.M.G., Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. VICE-CHAIRMAN: Honorable Sir William H. Hearst, K.C., Minister of Ontario. WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq., Member of the Opposition. SECRETARY: Albert H. Abbott, Esq., P.E.D.

The only thing that balks German ambition is the battle line in France and—the British Navy. The only thing that sustains our men on land and sea is Food.

DO NOT BUY CAR WITH EYES SHUT

Selection Should be Made on Basis of Kind and Amount of Service Desired

When a farmer buys a cow or a horse he knows what qualities he wants the animal to possess. He does not stop at a superficial examination but examines his prospective purchase with minute detail. No one could pass off on him, for instance, a heavy, slow-moving work-horse as a good driver, or best cattle as good dairy cows. Certain characteristics classify them unmistakably in his mind.

If you judge an automobile on the same principle you need have no doubt, confusion or uncertainty in choosing a car to meet your needs and desires. However inexperienced in automobiles you may happen to be, when you buy a car you want certain definite qualities. The sum represents the full measure of motor-car satisfaction.

You naturally want to be sure of a satisfactory performance, which means not only power but safety and economy as well, inasmuch as the all-important function of an automobile is to take you where you want to go, when you want to go, in a safe and comfortable manner, reliability of performance should be the first characteristic to look for in choosing a car.

You want the utmost degree of comfort and convenience in operating and caring for your car. These sound like small things, and perhaps they seem that way to the man who has never driven and has not only to repair his own car but to maintain it at a certain fixed standard, but they mean much to the experienced driver and driver who has had the benefit of the comfort and ease of a well-constructed car.

Will the Machine Stand Hard Use? The rougher the roads in your locality, the deeper the sand or the heavier the clay, the higher and steeper the hills, the more you should concern yourself with the power, safety and durability of the machine.

Will it operate through snowdrifts? Will it crack and groan and get out of order because the road is bumpy? Will the sand reach up and drive you down? Will the clay hug it to its unyielding bosom? Will these things must be carefully considered? They should not be passed over lightly but the experience of the world's great auto engineers should be used to aid your own judgment.

You want a substantial, yet a graceful appearance in your car. You want that 3 or 4 year satisfaction is to be lasting. You want it too because of the impression of value it will have on others. Then a brightly enameled, highly-polished hood, with its glossy surface of its outer shell, is to be avoided.

You want to get all these advantages in the greatest possible degree at the lowest price for which they can be obtained. That is natural, that is human nature.

Should Expect Service? And finally, as an automobile is a machine and needs, therefore, occasional adjustments, and eventually the possible replacing of worn parts, you want to be sure that in these respects your car will meet all your ordinary needs, with a generous margin over for emergencies.

See the car itself. Examine it for the points noted. Note its beauty, its fit, its ride, its drive, its other words, put the car to the test of actual use.

After you have made your purchase you naturally want to make your car go further and last longer at minimum upkeep expense and to do this you should remember a few pointers like these:

When a motor stands all night the oil of course runs off the cylinder walls and bearings down into the crank case. Consequently it is going to take a few minutes to lubricate these parts properly and care should be exercised that the oil is eliminated and not simply dragged from one part of the crank case to the other.

The best way to warm a motor is to let it run slowly for three or four minutes. By doing that you give the oil a chance to work up on a cylinder walls, pistons and bearings.

If every car owner will be careful about this there will be a considerable saving in gasoline and oil and a reduction in repair bills. Having a motor cause excessive waste of gasoline and oil, and in time may cause irreparable damage. The patriotic thing to do is to be economical of gasoline and oil as you are of sugar and coal. It is the easiest, best and cheapest thing to do.

Cars are seldom kept well lubricated that do not have all their lubrication points accessible located, for owners are adverse to assuming converted attitudes in order to screw down grease cups. It is, however, when a part has to be removed that inaccessibility is most annoying and most expensive, for it often happens that in order to remove a worn or broken part many hours, if not days, of garage labor are required to pull down all the interfering parts and the same amount of time to put them together again, while the actual replacement of the damaged part is the work of minutes, and its cost is but a very small item in the bill.
