Dear Sir Arthur:

I enclose herewith a copy of a letter received by me from Archdeacon Scott, of Quebec.

I know very little of the Labrador situation, though it was partially explained to me
by Miss Boswell.

In the circumstances, perhaps you will be good enough to reply to Archdeacon Scott.

Yours very truly,

ST. MATTHEW'S RECTORY
QUEBEC.

April 14th, 1927.

Dear Mr. Beatty:

Miss Boswell, of Quebec, and Mrs. Williams, wife of our Bishop, have got up a little fund to pay the expenses of a few university men who would care to go to Labrador next Summer and do some school work there, as a matter of social service.

The people along that dreary coast have very few opportunities of getting even an ordinary education and we think it would be a great help to them to have, free of charge, the help which some decent and enthusiastic young men might give them in the matter of education. Our Church, to which almost all the people there belong, has had missions there for many years. But, of course, there are isolated places where the children receive very little instruction. Dr. Grenfell is able to secure many American workers, both men and women, for his work in Newfoundland Labrador and it seems only right that Canada, and Quebec especially, should do its part to that underprivileged district.

I was down there the Summer before last and I wished, if it were possible, that people in these parts should make Labrador a real centre of social work. A visit there might be trying in some ways but it would be interesting and we have a duty to the people in our own Province.

I wonder if you could see your way to getting McGill to adopt Labrador or take it under its wing and encourage the idea of both men and women making it the sphere of unselfish social work. Dr.

Grenfell has a hospital at Harrington Harbour but more could be done in the way of improving the lot of the people. It surely would be an inspiration to a big University to feel it had a call to minister to the needs of people in our own gates. I am sure Sir Arthur Currie would be glad to throw in his interest into the scheme and perhaps you might talk over the matter with him.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) F.G. Scott,

Archdeacon of Quebec

The Venerable Archdeacon Scott,
St. Matthew's Rectory,
Quebec, P.Q.

My dear Colonel:-

Mr. Beatty has passed over to me your letter addressed to him written from Quebec on April 14th.

When Miss Boswell visited here in the winter I spoke to the President of the Students' Council (Mr. Amaron) about the possibility of getting some McGill students to do social work in Labrador during the summer vacation. Not long ago Mr. Amaron told me that he had not succeeded in his efforts to induce McGill students to take up this work. He also told me that Miss Boswell wished to arrange a meeting of students in order that you might address them. Honestly, I felt that such a meeting would be a failure, because at this time of the year, close as it is to examinations, the students would not turn out to hear you or any one else on such a question.

I understand from Miss Boswell's letter to Mr. Amaron that you have all the young ladies you want for the summer and that it is men workers whom you most need. Frankly, I do not think that anything further can be done this spring. No one knows the student body better than Mr. Amaron, who has been here for seven years and who received his final degree (Theology) only the other day. I am sure that if he was unsuccessful in inducing any men to take up the Labrador work, there would be no use at this time of the year in making further efforts.

I promise you to bring the matter before the student body next Fall, and I agree with you that it is a work with which McGill might very well associate itself. Our interest, though, could not involve any financial obligations and would have to be confined to inducing students to take up this teaching or social work for the summer. We could, of course, supply them with lanterns and slides to make lectures more interesting, but the University has no money to devote to social work of the kind mentioned.

With all kind wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

April 20th, 1927.

Sir Arthur Currie,
McGill University,
Montreal.

Dear Sir Arthur:

Miss Boswell, the Secretary of the Committee for securing voluntary teachers for the Canadian Labrador, was in town yesterday and I had a telephone conversation with her. She tells me that the Committee has been successful in securing a sufficient number of voluntary teachers for this year's work and consequently the support of $200.00 which Mr. Beatty promised for two teachers, will not be required. However, they have been unable to secure a person who would act as the lecturer in co-operation with the Extra-Mural Department of McGill University. I believe that Col. Bovey has a man in mind, and I have one myself, either of whom would take over the position, but neither could do so unless some remuneration were provided. Miss Boswell asks whether the money which Mr. Beatty has promised could be directed to this purpose, instead of for teachers, for whom it is not required this year. If this were possible, it would enable the Committee and the Extra-Mural Department to send a lecturer to Labrador, and one cannot over estimate the value of such a move.

~~_____~~ Miss Boswell also would like to know whether Mr. Beatty would be willing to contribute a sum next year, similar to the one which he has so willingly promised for this year.

I understood that the gentleman who interviewed Mr. Beatty and received the promise of his support, would also write to the Committee, informing them of the fact, but Miss Boswell tells me that this has not been done. She feels that the Committee should have an official communication with this information, and has asked me if you would send it to her at 19 St. Genevieve Ave., The Cape, Quebec City, P.Q. or send it to me and I will forward it to her.

Yours very sincerely,

General Secretary.

April 10th, 1930.

E. W. Beatty, Esq., K.C., LL.D.,
Chancellor of McGill University,
Canadian Pacific Railway Company,
M O N T R E A L.

Dear Mr. Chancellor:-

I am forwarding herewith a copy of a letter which I have received from the Student Christian Association of McGill regarding the Student Teachers for Labrador.

The work which Miss Boswell and her group desire to have done in this area divides into two parts. In the first place there is the work with children. This is really Primary Education and is, properly speaking, a liability of the Province. The Provincial authorities are, as a matter of fact, doing something. They have completed some of the school houses and so provided facilities hitherto lacking.

The group interested is anxious to have a lecturer who will travel up and down the shore visiting not only places where these schools are but other places as well, and giving lectures under the Department of Extra-Mural Relations.

You will note that Mr. Stewart's letter states that the sum of two hundred dollars which you promised is not now required for the purpose for which it was originally asked, namely, the work among children, and suggests that it be applied, ^{whether you} to the salary of this lecturer. Miss Boswell also inquired ^{you} would make a similar provision in future years.

We had this proposal before us some time ago, and decided that this work, while very desirable, was not quite in line with what we were doing, and that we should not expend University funds on it.

If you desire to make provision this year it will be possible to find a suitable lecturer of the type required, and he can be supplied with the necessary materials - lantern slides, etc.

As the matter is one entirely for yourself, I do not venture on any suggestions, I do think, however, that the Province should accept some responsibility for Adult Education in these remote parts of the Province, as well as for Primary Education. It seems at least doubtful, therefore, whether anyone should commit himself for an indefinite period.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.

24th March, 1930.

Dear Sir Arthur,-

I had an interview this morning with Mr. Guy Smith at the request of Mr. F. E. Meredith, pursuant to a letter of introduction addressed to him by Doctor Hamilton of Quebec. Mr. Smith is taking a special course in commerce at McGill University and has written his examination for a position as junior Canadian Trade Commissioner. He had intended spending the summer in Labrador as a teacher and it was in connection with securing teachers for this summer that he came to see me. It seems there are practically no applicants from McGill for these positions, because, while the Labrador Societies pay all expenses, transportation and other, there is no salary attached to student-teacher positions. Bishop's University grant $100.00 to each of two men whom they send, and Mr. Smith suggests that McGill, or its friends, might do the same. He has spoken to Colonel Bovey, who gave him little encouragement. This is the work in which Miss Bothwell and Canon Scott are personally interested.

I told Mr. Smith all I could do would be to call the matter to your attention.

I will be very glad, of course, to be responsible for the $200.00 required, provided two suitable students can be secured.

Sincerely yours,

General Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal, McGill University,

The Venerable Archdeacon Scott,

Quebec.

My dear Archdeacon:-

Referring to your communication with Mr. Beatty regarding the Labrador Coast, we shall be very pleased to try and arrange a meeting of students which you could address.

Will you be so good as to write to the Reverend H.R. Avison, B.A., B.D., Strathcona Hall, 348 Sherbrooke Street, West and let him know on what date you could come to Montreal for the purpose. It would probably be best for you to give some choice of dates, as there are so many engagements during the term.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Wilfrid Bovey,

February 14, 1927.

Miss Ethel Hurlbatt,
Warden, Royal Victoria College,
Montreal.

Dear Miss Hurlbatt:-

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th inst.

It seems to me not at all necessary to go to the trouble of having a University committee, as this does not appear to be required by Dr. Parmelee. I would make the following suggestions:-

That Miss Boswell give you a notice to post as you suggest. This is an outside not a University venture and must be treated as such.

That women candidates be interviewed by yourself and that men candidates should be approved by Dean MacKay, acting not on behalf of the University but on behalf of the promoters of this excellent plan. I am sure Dean MacKay would do this if he were asked.

It may appear to you that we are throwing cold water on the plan, but I am afraid that we must from the outset establish the fact that the University as such is not responsible for its execution.

Yours sincerely,

Wilfrid Bovey.

Dear Mr. Crone:-

I have your letter of yesterday and wish to thank you for the two copies of the Lakeshore Review.

I am enclosing herewith $1.00, being the amount of the annual subscription and would ask you to send the magazine to the Ste. Anne de Bellevue Hospital. I am usually so busy that I seldom read a magazine of any kind.

I congratulate you upon the manner in which the Review is turned out. The workmanship is splendid and the contents interesting, but I would ask you not to print my opinion.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.

Dear Sir Arthur Currie:-

The Lakeshore Review has now been a year established. During that time, despite the obvious difficulties Canadian magazines have to face, it has trebled its circulation and more than doubled its advertising.

It is an essentially Canadian and British publication, devoted to the Lakeshores and general suburban interests around Montreal. It is clean and constructive, and has character.

Various nice things have been said about the Review by subscribers and others who are leaders in commercial, civic, social and religious life, and I wish to print a number of these. Would you please look over the copies of the Review which are sent to you under separate cover, and if you feel that it is worth while encouraging this home product, would you be good enough to write a word or two which I could incorporate in the series of kindly references?

Yours very truly,

Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal,
McGill University,
Montreal.

Dear Sir:-

Among my collections of Oil Paintings, I have an outstanding picture painted by Mr. Suzor Cote, titled "THE HARVEST".

This picture has considerable History attached to it, for the reason it was painted in 1911, at Arthabaska, P.Q., the birth-place of the Artist, and where the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier completed his studies. The size of this picture is approximately 7' by 11'6", and is the Masterpiece of this well known Artist.

On account of this picture being somewhat large for my residence, I would dispose of it at a reasonable figure, conditionally it remained in Canada, preferably in the Province of Quebec. The picture and frame are in most excellent condition, and can be seen at the Writer's residence, 420, Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, Montreal.

The Artist, SUZOR COTE, needs no introduction, in fact, he is considered among the leading Artists of the World.

Yours very truly.

Dear Sir Arthur,

I have received your letter of April 5th. enclosing an article on Fuel Exhaustion by F.W.Harding of the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, Limited, and I have, as requested, written to Mr. Harding with reference to the article in question.

I have also received your letter of April 19th. enclosing a communication from Mr. P.J.Lally, of the Lally Lacrosse Manufacturing Co. Mr. Lally's question with reference to the bending of hickory can best be answered by the Forest Products Laboratory, and I have consequently sent Mr. Lally's letter to W.Kynoch, B.Sc., Superintendent of the Forest Products Laboratories, with the request that he will take this matter up with Mr.Lally directly. I have communicated with Mr.Kynoch by telephone, and he tells me that he thinks he can assist Mr. Lally in his difficulties.

I remain,

Yours very sincerely,
