The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contains the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Séminaire de Québec
Bibliothèque

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Mr. Dunkin's resignation as Treasurer of Quebec.

Mr. Casault stated that the Honourable Mr. Irvine was to have been present, but that unforeseen circumstances had prevented his attending; however he was informed that the Honourable Mr. Chauveau, the Premier of the Quebec Government, intended to be in Ottawa that day, and until receiving instructions from him, Mr. Ritchie and himself declined to assume any definite responsibility in the matter, in consequence of the change in Mr. Dunkin's position.

Mr. Wood, the Treasurer of Ontario, and Mr. Cameron with him, stated that they were prepared to proceed, on behalf of Ontario, with full responsibility for the Government of Ontario.

The Arbitrators reserved judgment until the next day, to which they then adjourned, to meet in the same place, at 11 o'clock, a.m.

TENTH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

The Arbitrators met on the eighteenth day of February, at their last place of meeting, at 11 o'clock, a.m., pursuant to adjournment. All the Arbitrators

All the Arbitrators present.

- Question were present. The same persons appeared for Ontario and Quebec respectively as were present at the last meeting ; when the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, the Arbitrator chosen by Quebec, delivered the opinion of the Court of Arbitrators on the point argued at the previous meeting, raised by the Counsel for Quebec, namely, "that the Court of Arbitration had no jurisdiction over the subject matter of the assets enumerated in the Fourth Schedule to the British North America Act, 1867," and the following judgment was unanimously pronounced by the Court of Arbitration :—
- Judgment of Arbitrators. "The Arbitrators having heard Counsel upon the objection raised in behalf of the Government of Quebec, to their jurisdiction over the subject matter of 10
"the assets enumerated in Schedule Four of the British North America Act, 1867, and duly considered the question, are of opinion, and do adjudge, that
"the assets so enumerated make part of the property and assets, the division
"and adjustment whereof has been referred to them under the provisions of "Section 142 of the said Act ; and that they have by the said Act authority to "divide and adjust the same."
- Proposition of Mr. Cameron—principle or mode of division. Mr. Cameron then on behalf of Ontario, proposed to go into the argument upon the proposition as to the principle or mode of the apportionment of the excess of debt over and above $62,500,000 of the late Province of Canada, between Ontario and Quebec, and the division between them of the assets belonging to the late Province 20 of Canada under the British North America Act, 1867, to which Messrs. Casault and Ritchie objected, contending that such a course would be exceptional.
- Objected to by Messrs. Casault and Ritchie. After hearing counsel on both sides as to whether the hearing of the argument on that point (the principle and mode of apportionment of the excess of debt and the division of the assets), and a decision thereon at that stage of the arbitration, would or would not expedite the business, the Arbitrators reserved judgment until next meeting.
- Argument heard. The Arbitrators then adjourned until Monday, the twentieth day of February, 1870, at 11 o'clock a.m. 30
- Adjournment.

ELEVENTH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

- All the Arbitrators present. The Arbitrators met at the place last aforesaid, on the twentieth day of February, 1870, at 11 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment. All the Arbitrators were present. The same persons were present for Ontario and Quebec respectively, as were present at the last meeting.
- Decision of Arbitrators. The Arbitrators declared their opinion that it was not desirable to interfere with the ordinary mode of proceedings in such cases ; and that, therefore, they would not at present hear the argument upon the point raised by Mr. Cameron and objected to by Quebec.
- Argument heard on Indian Annuities. By agreement the Counsel proceeded to the argument on the claim of 40
Quebec to charge against Ontario, the capitalized portion of the "Indian Annuities."

Mr. Cameron opened the case, and closed his argument on behalf of Ontario, contending that the basis of the population or the basis of the origin of local debts, was the correct and proper principle and mode on which such apportionment and division should take place.

A letter from Messrs. Casault and Ritchie, addressed to the Arbitrators, was received, enquiring whether two printed pamphlets, one purporting to be "Mr. Wood's Argument before the Arbitrators," the other styled "Proceedings of the Provincial Arbitrators, Ontario and Quebec," are to be received by the Arbitrators. Secondly: Whether the publication of the latter had been authorized by them, and whether such Report is correct? Whereupon the following minute was agreed to:—

10 "1. That the said pamphlets had been received, but had not been accepted by the Arbitrators as part of the proceedings before them. Letter of Messrs. Casault and Ritchie as to two pamphlets.

"2. That the publication of the pamphlet styled 'Proceedings of Provincial Arbitrators Ontario and Quebec,' was not authorized by them, and that they are not prepared to enter into a comparison of the alleged Report with their Record of proceedings. Minute of Arbitrators on the pamphlets.

NINETEENTH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

The Arbitrators met on Saturday, the twenty-eighth day of May, 1870, and continued their investigations and discussions. Propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day.

30 The Honourable Charles Dewey Day submitted the following propositions:—

"1. It is proposed that the relation of Upper and Lower Canada created by the Union Act, of 1840, be regarded as an association in the nature of a universal partnership; and that the division and adjustment of the debts and assets under the British North America Act, 1867, be made according to the rules which govern in such associations, in so far as they can be made to apply.

"2. It is proposed that the state of indebtedness of each of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada at the time of the Union in 1841, be taken into consideration by the Arbitrators, with a view to charge the Provinces of Ontario and “Quebec respectively with the debt due by Upper Canada and Lower Canada respectively at that time; and that the remainder of the surplus debt (excess of debt of the late Province of Canada over and above $62,500,000) after such debts have been deducted from it (and charged to the respective Provinces), be equally divided between the said Provinces.

“3. It is proposed that the assets specified in the Fourth Schedule to the British North America Act, 1867, and all other assets to be divided and adjusted under the authority of that Act, be divided equally, according to their value.”

1st proposition negated.

Upon the question on the first proposition of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day being put, it was negated as follows: For the proposition, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day; against it, the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson and the Honourable John Hamilton Gray.

2nd proposition negated.

Upon the question on the second proposition of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day being put, it was negated as follows: For the second proposition, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day; against it, the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson and the Honourable John Hamilton Gray.

3rd proposition negated.

Upon the question on the third proposition of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day being put, it was decided in the negative as follows: For the third proposition, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day; against it, the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson and the Honourable John Hamilton Gray.

Whole three propositions negated.

So the whole three propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day were rejected.

Grounds of dissent of the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson to the propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day.

The Honourable David Lewis Macpherson then submitted the following grounds of dissent to the above propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, which were entered on the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Arbitrators, viz:—

David Lewis Macpherson to the propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day.

“1. Because, in his opinion, the Union of 1841 between Upper Canada and Lower Canada was not analogous to an ordinary association or partnership between individuals, and that the rules of law applicable to the latter are not applicable to a political union, effected by the authority of a Parliamentary power, between two Provinces.

“2. Because, in his opinion, the Arbitrators have no authority to inquire into or consider the financial condition of Upper Canada and Lower Canada respectively, anterior to or at the time of their union in 1841, with a view of rectifying, at the expense of Ontario, any supposed advantage alleged by the Counsel for Quebec—alleged unjustly, in his (Mr. Macpherson’s) opinion—to have accrued to Upper Canada under the Union Act of 1840.

“3. Because, in his opinion, if the Arbitrators were to do so, they would transcend their power, and would inflict gross injustice on Ontario, by imposing upon that Province eleven-fourteenths of the whole surplus debt (that is, the excess of the debt of the late Province of Canada over and above $62,500,000), or reducing it to figures, and assuming the excess of debt to be $10,500,000, it would cast upon Ontario the sum of $8,250,000, and upon Quebec $2,250,000.

“4. Because, in his opinion, while the propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day profess to favour an equal division of the debts and assets

"the result of a division under them would be most unequal and unjust, inasmuch as Quebec would get one-half of the value of the assets, while required to bear only three-fourteenths of the surplus debt."

The Honourable David Lewis Macpherson then submitted the following proposition, namely :—

"That the division and adjustment of the surplus debt, and of the assets owned conjointly by Ontario and Quebec, be upon the basis of the population of those Provinces as shown by the census of 1861."

Upon the question on this proposition being put, it was negatived on the following division :—For the proposition, the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson ; against it, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, and the Honourable John Hamilton Gray.

So the proposition of the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson was rejected. The Honourable John Hamilton Gray then expressed his reasons for dissenting from the propositions laid down by the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, which were entered on the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Arbitrators, as follows :—

"Because, for the reasons already assigned, he thinks the Union of Upper and Lower Canada by the Imperial Act of 1840 cannot be likened to a partnership or mercantile association of any character, and that the Arbitrators have no power and ought not to enter into the consideration of the political or financial state of Upper or Lower Canada previous to the Union, or the equivalents or inducements influencing the Imperial Government or the Provinces, which led to it. That the Union of 1841, in pursuance of that Act, concludes all enquiry into matters antecedent thereto, and that from that time, for all purposes now under their consideration, Upper and Lower Canada must be regarded as one, and the present division and adjustment be decided on grounds entirely irrespective of the position of either Upper or Lower Canada at the time of the Union."

He then submitted the following proposition :—

"That the division and adjustment of the surplus debt and assets, owned conjointly by Ontario and Quebec, and enumerated in Schedule Four of the British North America Act, 1867, be based upon the origin of the debts, and that the expenditure made in creating each of said assets be taken as the value thereof ; the Arbitrators having no right to enquire into or adjudicate upon the policy or advantages of expenditures made by authority of Parliament."

Upon the question on this proposition being put, it was affirmed on the following division :—For the proposition, the Honourable John Hamilton Gray, and the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson ; against it, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day. So the proposition of the Honourable John Hamilton Gray passed in the affirmative.

The Honourable David Lewis Macpherson at the same time submitted the following Memorandum, to be entered on the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Arbitrators, which was accordingly done, viz :—

"That while adhering to his preference for population as the basis for division and adjustment of the debts, credits, liabilities, properties and assets of Upper Canada and Lower Canada, he nevertheless assents to Colonel Gray's proposition, with the view of arriving at some basis, and believing that under it a just award may be made."

Proposition of the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson negatived.

Reasons of the Honourable John Hamilton Gray for dissenting from the propositions of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day.

Proposition submitted by the Honourable John Hamilton Gray.

Affirmed.

Memorandum of the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson.

Judgment
ordered to be communicated.

It was then ordered that the following Judgment be communicated to the Counsel of both Provinces.

JUDGMENT.

Judgment.

The Arbitrators under the British North America Act, 1867, having carefully considered the statements made and the propositions submitted respectively by and on the behalf of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and having heard Counsel at length thereupon, do award and adjudge as follows :—

“ 1st. That the Imperial Act of Union, 3rd and 4th Victoria, Chapter 35, “ did not create in fact or in law any partnership between Upper and Lower “ Canada, nor any such relations as arise from a state of co-partnership between 10 “ individuals.

“ 2nd. That the Arbitrators have no power or authority to enter upon any “ enquiry into the relative state of the debts and credits of the Provinces of “ Upper and Lower Canada, respectively, at the time of their Union in 1841, “ into the Province of Canada.

“ 3rd. That the division and adjustment between Ontario and Quebec of “ the surplus debt—beyond $62,500,000—for which under the 112th Section of “ the B. N. A. Act, 1867, Ontario and Quebec are conjointly liable to Canada, “ shall be based upon the origin of the several items of the debts incurred by “ the creation of the assets mentioned in the Fourth Schedule to that Act, and 20 “ shall be apportioned and borne separately by Ontario and Quebec, as the same “ may be adjudged to have been originated for the local benefit of either ; and “ where the debt has been incurred in the creation of an asset for the common “ benefit of both Provinces, and shall be so adjudged, such debt shall be divided “ and borne equally by both.

“ 4th. That where the debt under consideration shall not come within the “ purview of the Fourth Schedule, whether the same shall or shall not have left “ an asset, reference shall be had to its origin under the same rule as in the last “ preceding section laid down.

“ 5th. That the assets enumerated in the Fourth Schedule to the B. N. A. 30 “ Act, 1867, and declared by the 113th Section to be the property of Ontario “ and Quebec conjointly, shall be divided and adjusted, and appropriated or “ allowed for, upon the same basis.

“ 6th. That the expenditure made by the creation of each of the said assets, “ shall be taken as the value thereof : and where no asset has been left, the “ amount paid shall be taken as the debt incurred—the Arbitrators having no “ right to enter into or adjudicate upon the policy or advantages of expenditures “ or debts incurred by authority of, and passed upon by Parliament.

“ 7th. It is therefore ordered that, in accordance with the above decision, “ the Counsel for the said Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, do proceed with 40 “ their respective cases.

“ J. H. GRAY,
“ D. L. MACPHERSON.

“ Montreal, May 28th, 1870.”

Arbitrators
adjourned.

The Arbitrators then adjourned to meet at Montreal, on some future day to be agreed on.

The Honourable Charles Dewey Day, subsequently to the adjournment, requested that the decision arrived at should not be communicated to Counsel until he could be heard from in a few days.

Subsequently, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day sent to the other two Arbitrators, to be entered upon the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Arbitrators, his dissent from the foregoing judgment or decision, which is as follows:—

Dissent of the Hon.
Chas. Dewey
Day.

DISSENT

of the Hon. Charles Dewey Day to the foregoing decision of the Arbitrators.

“The undersigned Arbitrator dissents from the foregoing award and judgment of the Hon. D. L. Macpherson and the Hon. J. H. Gray, two of the Arbitrators appointed under the B. N. A. Act, 1867.

“1st. Because the said award and judgment purports to be founded on propositions which, in the opinion of the undersigned, are erroneous in fact and in law, and inconsistent with the just rights of the Province of Quebec.

“2nd. Because the relation of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, created by the Union of 1841, ought to be regarded as an association in the nature of a universal partnership, and the rules for the division and adjustment of the debts and assets of Upper and Lower Canada, under the authority of the said Act, ought to be those which govern such associations, in so far as they can be made to apply in the present case.

“3rd. Because the state of indebtedness of each of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, at the time of the Union of 1841, ought to be taken into consideration by the Arbitrators, with a view to charge the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec respectively with the debt due by each of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada at that time—and the remainder of the surplus debt of the late Province of Canada ought to be equally divided between the said Provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

“4th. Because the assets specified in Schedule Four, and all other assets to be divided under the authority of the said Act, ought to be divided equally according to their value.

“5th. And therefore the undersigned presents an award and judgment based upon his foregoing propositions, and upon the reasons assigned in his printed opinion (marked B) in the terms following, which in his view of the case ought to be rendered, namely:—The Arbitrators, under the B. N. A. Act, 1867, having seen and examined the propositions submitted on the part of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec respectively, for the division and adjustment of the debts and assets of Upper Canada and Lower Canada, under the authority of the said Act, and having heard Counsel for the said Provinces respectively upon each of the said propositions, after due consideration thereof, are of opinion that the propositions submitted on behalf of the Province of Ontario do not, nor does either of them, furnish any legal or sufficient rule or just basis for such division and adjustment; and they do award and adjudge that the said division and adjustment ought to be made according to the rules which govern the partition of the debts and property of associations known as universal partnerships, in so far as such rules can be made to apply. And the Arbitrators having also heard Counsel for the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec respectively, upon the

"objection made in behalf of the former Province to the jurisdiction and authority of the Arbitrators to enquire into the state of the debts or credits of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada prior to the Union of 1841, or to deal in any way with either the debts or credits with which either Province came into the Union at that time, and duly considered the same, are of opinion that the said objection is unfounded, and that they have authority and are bound by the provisions of the said Act to enquire into the state of the debts and credits of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, existing at the time of the Union of 1841, and so to deal with them as may be necessary for a just, lawful and complete division and adjustment of the debts and assets of the said Provinces. 10
 "And thereupon it is ordered that the Counsel for the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec do proceed, in accordance with the foregoing judgment, to submit such statements in support of their respective claims as they may deem expedient.

"C. D. DAY,
 "Arbitrator."

TWENTIETH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

All the Arbitrators present.

The Arbitrators met at the City of Montreal, in the room of the Court of Appeals, on the fifth day of July, 1870, pursuant to agreement and notice to all parties. All the Arbitrators were present. There appeared on behalf of Quebec 20 the Honourable Mr. Robertson, Treasurer, the Honourable Mr. Chauveau, the Premier, the Honourable Mr. Irvine, Solicitor-General, and Mr. Ritchie; and on behalf of Ontario, the Honourable J. Sandfield Macdonald, Premier, the Honourable Mr. Wood, Treasurer, and the Honourable J. Hillyard Cameron.

Hon. J. H. Gray submitted a communication from the Government of Quebec. Copy of Report of a Committee of the Executive Council of Quebec.

The Honourable John Hamilton Gray submitted a communication from the Government of Quebec, that had been addressed to each of the Arbitrators separately, which was read, and is as follows:—

"Copy of a Report of a Committee of the Honourable the Executive Council, approved by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, on the sixth day of June, 1870. 30

"No. 131. On the requirements of the British North America Act of 1867, respecting the Judgment of the Arbitrators. 30

"The Honourable the Treasurer of the Province reports that it is the opinion of the law officers of the Crown that, whereas the 142nd section of the B.N.A. Act of 1867 enacts that the division and adjustment of the debts, credits, liabilities, properties and assets of Upper Canada and Lower Canada shall be referred to the arbitrament of three arbitrators, it is essential to the validity of any decision to be given by such arbitrators, that their judgment should be unanimously concurred in. He, therefore, recommends that a despatch be transmitted to His Excellency the Governor-General with the views of this 40
 Government, and requesting that no judgment of the said Arbitrators which is not so unanimously concurred in be received. 40

"The Committee concur in the foregoing report, and submit the same for the Lieutenant-Governor's approval.

After the reading of the foregoing papers, an irregular discussion took place between Counsel on both sides, as to the order of proceedings, in which considerable time was spent without any definite conclusion having been arrived at.

The Arbitrators then adjourned, to meet again at the same place the next day at 10 o'clock, a.m.

TWENTY-FIRST MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

The Arbitrators met at the place of their last preceding meeting on Wednesday, the 6th day of July, 1870, pursuant to adjournment. All the Arbitrators were present, as also all the parties for Ontario and Quebec respectively as 20 were present on the last preceding meeting.

The Honourable J. Hillyard Cameron called upon the Arbitrators to pronounce their decision upon the points argued before them in the month of February, 1870, and upon which it was understood a judgment would be delivered at the present meeting.

The Honourable Mr. Irvine demanded that before any decision on these points was delivered, Counsel on behalf of Quebec should be heard on the point of "unanimity" raised by the Government of Quebec. After hearing argument of Counsel on both sides on this point, the Arbitrators delivered their opinions seriatim.

30 Honourable Charles Dewey Day was of opinion that Counsel should be heard on the question of unanimity before the formal announcement of the said decision.

The Honourable David Lewis Macpherson was of opinion that the decision should be announced at once.

The Honourable John Hamilton Gray concurred in the views of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, that, before the decision was announced, the argument of Counsel should be heard on the question of unanimity.

A majority deciding in favour of the proposition of Quebec, the argument was proceeded with.

40 Messrs. Ritchie and Irvine were heard on behalf of Quebec, and Messrs.
Cameron and Wood on behalf of Ontario; and Mr. Irvine was heard in reply.

The Arbitrators then adjourned the next day at ten o'clock, a.m.

TWENTY-SECOND MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

The Arbitrators met at the place of their last meeting on the seventh day

All the Arbitrators present. of July, 1870. Present: All the Arbitrators and all the parties as at the last preceding meeting.

Arbitrators adjourned. The Arbitrators stated that, in consequence of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day not feeling very well, they should adjourn until the next day at ten o'clock a.m.

TWENTY-THIRD MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

All the Arbitrators present. The Arbitrators met at the place of their last meeting on the eighth day of July, 1870, at ten o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment. Present: All the Arbitrators and all parties as at the last preceding meeting, with the exception of Messrs. Robertson and Irvine Difference of opinion as to delivery of judgment. The Arbitrators announced that there was a difference of opinion between them respecting the delivery of any preliminary judgment; the Arbitrator for Ontario contending that the judgment should be delivered; the Arbitrator for Quebec, on the other hand, being of opinion that it should be reserved until the final hearing of all arguments on both sides, when it might be delivered or not, as rendered necessary or unnecessary by the points raised being otherwise disposed of, or remaining to be adjudicated upon. The Arbitrator appointed by the Dominion thereupon desired an adjournment until next day, at eleven o'clock, to determine as to the course to be pursued; and an adjournment took place accordingly.

Arbitrators adjourned.

TWENTY-FOURTH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

All the Arbitrators present. The Arbitrators met at the place of their last meeting on the ninth day of July, 1870, at eleven o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment. All the Arbitrators were present, and all parties as at the last preceding meeting.

The Honourable John Hamilton Gray, the Arbitrator appointed by the Dominion, then read the following opinion respecting the delivery of the judgment or decision of the Arbitrators on the points argued in the month of February last, as follows:—

Opinion of Hon. J. H. Gray.

OPINION OF THE ARBITRATOR appointed by the Dominion Government.

"In deciding on the point of difference between my two colleagues, it is necessary briefly to recur to certain facts. In the arguments that took place at Ottawa, in February last, upon the different modes for the adjustment and division of the debts and assets referred to us under the 142nd Section of the B. N. A. Act, the Arbitrators were called upon by the Counsel for Ontario to dispose of, in the first instance, the important question of partnership raised by the Counsel for Quebec. This was objected to by the latter, and, after consideration, the Arbitrators on the following day sustained the objection. The arguments were then continued for several days by the Counsel on both sides, and the several modes of division suggested by Ontario and Quebec including the above question of partnership, were fully discussed, some of the members of the Government of each of those Provinces being present each day; and the Arbitrators, at the close of the argument, were urgently pressed by the Counsel on both sides to determine and declare the mode under which the division and adjustment should proceed, as preliminary to any further action, notwithstanding that the Arbitrators had previously expressed their “opinion that decisions on these preliminary points were not desirable, but that “it would be better to go on, enter fully into the case on both sides and decide “upon the whole as ultimately might be deemed right. Opinion—

Continued.

“In accordance with the wishes expressed both by Ontario and Quebec,
 “and solely in accordance with those wishes, the Arbitrators did proceed to “consider the questions submitted and the arguments, and after a long and “laborious consultation, extending over several days, held at Montreal in May “last, came to a decision, but which decision was not unanimous. That decision “was by the three Arbitrators ordered to be entered in the minute book, and “to be communicated to the Counsel for the two Provinces respectively. At “the subsequent request of the Arbitrator for Quebec, made to the other two “Arbitrators separately after their adjournment on the 28th May last, that “communication was delayed for a short time, and was, on further request “still further delayed. The decision was entered as directed. About the “16th June last, the Arbitrators severally received from the Government of “Quebec a Minute of Council of that Government, expressing the opinion of “the law officers of that Government, that it was essential to the validity of “any decision by the Arbitrators that their judgment should be unanimously “concurred in.

“The communication of the decision arrived at on the 28th May last, was “therefore postponed until the action of the Arbitrators could be determined “on this point at their meeting, which was to take place at Montreal, on the “first Tuesday in July, though the Arbitrator for Ontario demanded that the “Counsel of both Governments should have the decision communicated to them “in obedience to the order made in that behalf, and unanimously concurred in
 “by all the Arbitrators.

“On the first day of the meeting in July, at Montreal, the fact of the “receipt of this communication from the Government of Quebec was announced.
 “A demand was then made on behalf of the Government of Quebec, that “Counsel should forthwith be heard on that point; and after denial by the “Counsel for Ontario of the right of the Government of Quebec to make any com“munication to the Arbitrators which was not at the same time made to the Coun“sel or Government of Ontario, and a demand made that a decision arrived at in “May last should be first declared, the question was submitted, and the Arbitrators “decided by a majority that Quebec should be heard on the point of unanimity.

“After full argument, the Arbitrators adjourned until the 7th, and then “further adjourned until the 8th. At the meeting on the 8th, the Arbitrator “appointed by the Dominion, announced that there was a difference of opinion “between his colleagues. That the Arbitrator for Quebec expressed his objec“tion to the announcement of the decision arrived at on the 28th May last, or
 “of any other preliminary decision hereafter, and reiterated the views on the “impolicy of such a course, already stated by him, but which course at the re“quest of the Counsel on both sides had been departed from; further adding “his belief that such announcement would tend to prevent a harmonious con“clusion. That the Arbitrator for Ontario, on the contrary, contended that, at “the request of both parties, they had come to a decision; that the decision
 “had already been communicated unofficially by both Arbitrators to their re“spective Governments; that those Governments had a right to its announce-

“ment, and that it was the duty of the Arbitrators to make the communication previously ordered. That all efforts to produce an agreement between his colleagues had failed, and that it was therefore necessary for him to take twenty-four hours to consider the course he should pursue.

“A discussion, as you are aware, arose on this statement, but resulted in no amicable arrangement, and I have now to decide.

“If this was a private matter there would be no difficulty about it. Parties having agreed to a reference, and having requested a decision, whether interlocutory or final, must take it unless by consent it is abandoned.

“The point now to be considered is, whether in an important public matter, such as this arbitration between Ontario and Quebec, sufficient grounds exist for a departure from the ordinary mode.

“I have exhausted every effort to bring about an agreement on this point between my two colleagues, and have delayed giving any opinion until compelled by the necessity of the arbitration being either abandoned or proceeded with. A week has elapsed in unavailing efforts to do so, and I am most reluctantly compelled to decide.

“I have to observe that the decision of the 28th May last is not final. It is not like an award of the arbitrators on the division and adjustment. It is only an opinion of the majority of them as to the best mode to proceed in the division. If in working it out it is found to operate unfairly, it is open to be reviewed and rescinded, and such other mode adopted as may be shown to lead to a fairer result. It is admitted by the Arbitrator for Quebec that in proceeding under this mode, the enquiry will necessarily expand itself into the consideration of much that would be embraced under the view of partnership advocated by himself; but it does not admit the existence of a partnership, or limit the investigation to the rules which would govern a partnership.

“No application has been made to have the matter re-heard or re-argued, or any grounds taken, or alleged, to set aside the decision, or any reason assigned why it should not be pronounced at this meeting, save that one party does not wish it, and that its delivery may tend to prevent a harmonious conclusion. If both parties would assent to this, there would be an end of the matter, for clearly every effort should be made to attain that end.

“The third Arbitrator undoubtedly has a discretion, but the exercise of that discretion must be on reasonable grounds. It should not be the mere expression of an arbitrary will. One party demands the delivery of the decision at the meeting as part of the compact on which the arguments were heard and the discussion took place. The other admits the compact, but objects to its being carried out.

“The power to withhold judgments ready to be pronounced is frequently exercised by tribunals and judges, when it is manifest the interests of the parties concerned will be promoted; but it is generally by consent, and never against the will of one of the parties, without good cause shown.

“The decision in this case was communicated by both Arbitrators to their respective Governments unofficially, and I cannot see any objection to doing openly what each one has in that respect undertaken to do in his individual capacity.

“When the judgment is formally pronounced, it will then be optional with “either Government to assign the grounds of objection, and move for a re-hearing or rescinding. Opinion—

Continued.

“No party will go on with a reference or argument if after both parties have agreed to the submission, and have been heard—one may render it nugatory the moment he learns the result.

“I have been most desirous to concur with the views expressed by the Arbitrator for Quebec; but I have sought in vain for some rational ground on which, if compelled to decide, a refusal to announce the decision on the 28th of May last could be based.

10 “I cannot find that the decision will inflict any wrong on the party objecting. It is not conclusive. It is a mere mode of enquiry, and open to correction. The decision made by us is no iron rule, but simply in the light of a guide to be construed liberally.

“It is now earnestly to be hoped that, in view of the great interests at stake, the parties will proceed without further delay, and that both will unite in endeavouring to effect a just distribution by the mode recommended, or failing that, by some other mode.

20 “I agree, therefore, with Mr. Macpherson, that the decision arrived at on the 28th of May last, should be formally announced to the Counsel and Provinces concerned.

“J. H. GRAY.”

After the foregoing expression of opinion, the Honourable Charles Dewey Hon. C. D.
Day resigns. Day stated that he could no longer act in the arbitration, as he could not agree in the decision arrived at on the 28th of May; and that he had, therefore, that morning placed his resignation in the hands of the Government at Quebec. He thereupon handed to Messrs. Macpherson and Gray a written notice to that effect, and withdrew.

Mr. Chauveau then stated that his Government had received the Honourable Charles Dewey Day's resignation. His resignation received by Quebec.

30 On the motion of Mr. Cameron, the decision of the 28th May was formally read and pronounced. Decision of 28th May read.

The Honourable Charles Dewey Day's dissent thereto was also read. Dissent also read.

Mr. Ritchie then presented and requested the following memorandum to be filed:—

40 “The undersigned, of Counsel for the Province of Quebec, hereby respectfully represents that the Honourable John Hamilton Gray, the Arbitrator appointed by the Government of Canada, under the provisions of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, has become and now is disqualified to act as Arbitrator, inasmuch as the said the Honourable John Hamilton Gray is now, and for a considerable time past has been, a resident of Ontario; and prays that all proceedings upon this arbitration be stayed until the Government of Canada shall have appointed a duly qualified Arbitrator in the place and stead of the Honourable John Hamilton Gray, so disqualified as aforesaid. The Attorney-General for Ontario proposed to proceed with the investigation. The Arbitrators declined to take further proceedings that day, and decided to adjourn, to meet again at Montreal, on some future day to be agreed upon, and to be notified to all parties.

NOTE.—On the 11th day of July, 1870, the Provincial Secretary of Quebec wrote to the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson and to the Honourable John Hamilton Gray the following letter which was sent to each of them :—

“SIR,—I have the honour, by command of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, to inform you that the Honourable Charles D. Day has tendered his resignation as Arbitrator of the Province of Quebec, under the 142nd section of the British North America Act of 1867, and to request that you will be pleased to stay proceedings until such time as the Government of Quebec, who have the said resignation under consideration, have come to a decision upon the subject.

TWENTY-SIXTH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

Arbitrators
present :
Hon. D. L.
Macpherson
and Hon.
J. H. Gray.

The Arbitrators met at the St. Lawrence Hall, in the City of Montreal, on the twenty-first day of July, 1870, at two o'clock, p.m., pursuant to notice given to all parties. The Arbitrators present were the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson and the Honourable John Hamilton Gray. The Honourable John Hillyard Cameron, the Honourable John Sandfield Macdonald, and the Honourable E. B. Wood were present on behalf of Ontario, and the Honourable George Irvine, Solicitor-General, and T. W. Ritchie, Esq., appeared on behalf of Quebec.

The notice to the Honourable Charles Dewey Day of the meeting to be held that day was then produced and read; the same having been duly posted, and is as follows:—

“Toronto, July 12th, 1870.

“DEAR SIR,—We beg to notify you that we shall meet at the St. Lawrence Hall Hotel, in Montreal, on Thursday, the twenty-first instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, to proceed with the arbitration between Ontario and Quebec under the B. N. A. Act, 1867.

Notice to attend meeting of Arbitrators given to Hon. C. D. Day.

“We are, dear Sir,

“Yours very truly,

“D. L. MACPHERSON, } Arbitrators.”
 “J. H. GRAY, }

A similar notice at the same time was sent to Mr. Ritchie, as Counsel for Quebec, which he admitted he had received.

Mr. Cameron then called for the delivery of the judgment of the Arbitrators on the question of “unanimity,” which had been argued before them at a previous meeting in Montreal.

Notice to Quebec.

Judgment on question of “unanimity” called for.

The Arbitrators then stated that they had severally received, from the Government of Quebec, a communication, which was read and is as follows:—

“Province of Quebec,

“Secretary’s Office, Quebec, 19th July, 1870.

Communication informing Arbitrators that resignation of Hon. C. D. Day accepted by Quebec.

“SIR,—I have the honour to inform you that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to accept the resignation of the Hon. Chas. Dewey Day as Arbitrator of the Province of Quebec, under the 142nd Section of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, and request that you will be pleased to stay further proceedings until such time as you receive notice as to their intentions from the Government of this Province.

“I have, &c.,

“P. J. O. CHAUVEAU.”

“The Hon. J. H. Gray, Ottawa.
 Mr. Ritchie thereupon handed in the revocation, by the Government of Quebec, of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day’s appointment, requesting the same to be filed. It is as follows:

Revocation of Hon. C. D. Day’s appointment as Arbitrator for Quebec.

Protest by Quebec
against further action.
Demand by Ontario that proceedings should go on.

Thereupon Mr. Irvine rose and protested against further action being taken by the Arbitrators, stating that he considered the Arbitration determined, and that he and Mr. Ritchie would withdraw from all further proceedings.

The Attorney-General of Ontario and Mr. Cameron stated that they considered the Arbitration in full force, and in no way affected by the resignation of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, or the revocation of his authority, and that they were ready, and demanded that the proceedings should go on. 30

The Arbitrator chosen by the Dominion thereupon read the judgment of himself and Mr. Macpherson upon the question of the necessity of unanimity raised and argued before them on the 6th day of July, 1870, and which is as follows:—

JUDGMENT UPON THE QUESTION OF "UNANIMITY."

Judgment
on the question of
"unanimi-ty."

" At our last meeting a question was raised by the Counsel for Quebec, under " instructions from their Government (a copy of the Order in Council having been " transmitted to each of the Arbitrators) which would then have been decided but " for the abrupt withdrawal of Judge Day, and our subsequent immediate adjourn" ment, namely:—'That it is essential to the validity of any decision to be given " 'by the Arbitrators that their judgment should be unanimously concurred in.' It 40
" remains for me now to express the decision of the Arbitrators on that question.

" It is to be regretted that a position of this important character should not " have been taken before it was known that there was a division of opinion be" tween the Arbitrators; and it may well be assumed that it would hardly have " escaped the attention of so accomplished a jurist as Judge Day, the Arbitrator of Quebec, had he deemed it tenable, and in such case that he would, under the Judgment circumstances of that decision, undoubtedly have brought it to the notice of his —Continued co-arbitrators. The learned Judge heard the argument, but left with us no expression of his opinion, save that the Arbitration was one of a public nature.

 The views, therefore, now delivered are those of the remaining two Arbitrators, and consequently of a majority.

In matters of private reference the law is plain, that unless the terms of the submission provide that a majority may rule, all must agree in the award, or it would not be binding. The impracticability in private affairs of working out an arbitration, if unanimity was essential, led to the adoption in almost all cases of submission, of the majority clause, or the alternative provision of an umpire. So essential to the successful conducting of an arbitration has this become, that in the ordinary form of arbitration bonds, or of rules of reference, one of these clauses is almost always found inserted. Without such clause, in private arbitration, it is admitted unanimity is requisite. The point now is:
 Does the same rule apply to public references or arbitrations? to which class, it is conceded, the present enquiry belongs—the 142nd section of the B. N. A.
 Act, 1867, under which the arbitration is held, containing no such clause.

Mr. Irvine, the Solicitor-General for Quebec, has properly narrowed the question to this point.

Mr. Ritchie, in his argument for Quebec, cited Caldwell on Arbitration,
 p. 202, to prove that undoubted position as to private arbitrations. In the note to that page by the able American editor, who republished the work in the United States, we find the following remark:—

“There is a wide distinction to be observed between the case of a power conferred for a public purpose, and an authority of a private nature. In the latter case, if the authority is conferred on several persons, it must be jointly exercised, while in the former it may be exercised by a majority.”

Further on, at page 204, he says, ‘that referees appointed under a statute must all meet and hear the parties, but the decision of the majority will be binding.’ The correctness of these views is sustained by the citation of many authorities.

In the case of Green against Millar, Johnson’s New York Rep., p. 38, as far back as 1810, it is clearly laid down:—

“When an authority is confided to several persons for a private purpose, all must join in the act; aliter in matters of public concern.’ Thompson, J.— “A controversy between these parties was submitted to five arbitrators. The submission did not provide that a less number than the whole might make an award. All the arbitrators met and heard the proofs and allegations of the parties, but four only agreed on the award made. And whether the award be binding is the question now before the court. No case has been cited by the counsel where this question has been directly decided. I am, however, satisfied that as a submission to arbitrators is a delegation of power for a mere private purpose, it is necessary that all the arbitrators should concur in the award unless it is otherwise provided by the parties. In matters of public concern a different rule seems to prevail; there the voice of the majority shall govern.’ In the case of Grindly vs. Barker, 1 Bos. and Pul. 236, Eyre C. J.

Judgment " says — It is now pretty well established that when a number of persons are —Continued " entrusted with power not of mere private confidence, but in some respects of " a general nature, and all of them are regularly assembled, the majority will " include the minority, and their act will be the act of the whole.' The same " principle was recognized by the Court of K. B. in the case of King vs. Beaton,
 " 3rd Term Rep. 592. See also Paley on Agency, 3rd Am. Ed., pages 177, 8,
 " Note G.; and Croker vs. Crane, 21 Wendell, 211-18. In ex parte Rogers,
 " 7th Vol. Cowen U. S. Rep. 526, and Note A, pages 530 and 535, the whole
 " position is ably and thoroughly reviewed; and in a long note citing the English
 " authorities, as well as the American, bearing upon the same point, the distinc- 10
 " tion between public and private reference and the duties and powers resulting " therefrom, are clearly shown, and the power of the majority to decide clearly " established. The English cases upon the point are not so direct, but in the reason-
 " ing of those which have been cited, or can be found, the same principle clearly
 " manifests itself. In the Courts of the United States, decisions are constantly
 " found bearing upon circumstances similar to those in our own Dominion.
 " The varied nature of the business of that country, the different aspects under " which questions arise, from their position as a congregation of States, the daily
 " development of new conflicts of rights arising from the expanding nature of " their society, raise questions which do not come up in England, but the solution 20
 " of which, after all, in the absence of any particular local statutory provisions, " is governed by the law of England. Under these circumstances our Courts are " in the habit of taking these decisions as guides. These then determine that
 " in matters of Public Arbitration or Reference, though provision to that effect
 " be not specifically made, the decision of a majority shall be incident to the " reference. The 142nd Sec. of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, must come within this " rule. Were it not so intended, the section would be superfluous because any " one party in a great question of public importance could prevent a decision.

"To work out the reasoning of the Counsel of Quebec to its legitimate
 " conclusion would place absolute power in the hands of the third or Dominion 30
 " Arbitrator. I have supposed that, on points on which Ontario and Quebec " were agreed, it was my duty at once to assent, and that under such circum" stances, whether I differed or not, was of no consequence; but as the powers
 " of all the Arbitrators must be co-equal, if unanimity is essential, I might, by " simply disagreeing, prevent an award, even when both Ontario and Quebec,
 " the parties interested, had agreed upon it. Such a position is untenable. Mr.
 " Macpherson and myself are, therefore, of opinion that the decision of a " majority must govern.

Affidavit of Mr. Ritchie same as Mr. Irvine's. Petition annexed to Writ. The affidavit made by T. W. Ritchie, Counsel for Quebec, was in substance the same as that of the Honourable George Irvine.

Appended to the writ was the petition of the Honourable Gedeon Ouimet, Attorney-General for Quebec, to the Chief Justice and Justices of the Superior Court, setting forth the facts stated in the foregoing affidavits, and praying for a Writ of Prohibition against the Honourable John Hamilton Gray and the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson to restrain them from further proceeding upon the said Arbitration. The Writ of Prohibition commanded the said two Arbitrators to refrain from further proceeding in the said Arbitration, and required them to show cause why they should not so refrain, on Thursday, the 40 first day of September then next.

Arbitrators adjourned, and directed notice of next meeting to be given to Quebec. The Arbitrators, after reading the foregoing papers, adjourned until Thursday, the fourth day of August then next, to meet at Osgoode Hall, in the City of Toronto, at twelve o'clock noon, to proceed with the said Arbitration, and they directed that due notice of the time and place of such meeting should be given to the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, and to T. W. Ritchie, Esq., the Counsel for Quebec.

NOTE.—On the 7th November, 1871, the Writ of Prohibition was quashed by Mr. Justice Beaudry. Writ of prohibition quashed.

The Honourable JOHN HAMILTON GRAY, now of the City of Ottawa in Ontario, Esquire, and the Honourable DAVID LEWIS MACPHERSON, of the City of Toronto in Ontario aforesaid, Esquire.....Defendants.

The Honourable Gédéon Ouimet, Attorney-General for Lower Canada, on behalf of Her Majesty, and the Defendants, by their Counsel, having been heard before me, one of the Judges of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, on the exception declinatoire filed by the said Defendants to the Writ of Prohibition 20 issued in this cause. After examination of the proceedings and proof of record, and mature deliberation being had; considering that the said Defendants are not by their commission respectively invested with the powers and jurisdiction of a court, nor could they, under the Imperial Statute intituled, The British North America Act of 1867, be considered as forming a Court, and having the powers and jurisdiction of a Court; and considering that under Article 1031 of the Code of Civil Procedure of Lower Canada, writ of Prohibition can only be addressed to Courts exceeding their jurisdiction: and considering, therefore, that the writ of Prohibition issued in this cause has issued im- 30 providently, I do hereby maintain the said exception declinatoire, and do quash the said writ and proceedings had thereon, and do relieve the said Defendants from further answering the Petition of the said Attorney General.

TWENTY-NINTH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS

Present : The Arbitrators met at Osgoode Hall, in the City of Toronto, on the fourth day of August, 1870, pursuant to adjournment. Present—The Arbitrators, the Honourable John Hamilton Gray and the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson; the Honourable Charles Dewey Day not being present. Messrs. Cameron and Wood appeared on behalf of Ontario; no one appearing on behalf of Quebec.

Hon. J. H. Gray and Hon. D. L. Macpherson.
Hon. C. D. Day being absent.
Notice to Arbitrator and Counsel for Quebec to meet in Toronto.

Mr. Cameron produced a notice which he stated he had personally posted to the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, to the Honourable George Irvine, Solicitor-General for Quebec, and to T. W. Ritchie, Esq., Counsel for Quebec, which notice is as follows :—

“ In the matter of the Arbitration

“ Between the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario.

“ The undersigned Arbitrators in the above matter, have adjourned until “ Thursday, the fourth day of August, 1870, then to meet at Osgoode Hall, “ Toronto, at twelve o'clock noon, to proceed with the Arbitration.

“ Montreal, twenty-third day of July, 1870.

“ D. L. MACPHERSON,
“ J. H. GRAY.”

Endorsed on the back were these words, “ Mailed from Toronto on the twenty-eighth day of July, 1870. J. H. C.”

Service of Quo Warranto upon Hon. J. H. Gray.

The Honourable John Hamilton Gray reported that after the adjournment at Montreal, on the twenty-third day of July last past, just before leaving Montreal by the evening train, he was served by a Bailiff or Sheriff's Officer, with a Writ of Quo Warranto, to show cause by what authority he exercised the office of an Arbitrator—he having (it was said) become a resident of Ontario.

Allegations in support of Writ.

The Petition and affidavits in support thereof alleged inter alia—That for more than a year then last past, the said John Hamilton Gray had been and then was a resident in Ontario, to wit, in the City of Ottawa, in the said Province of Ontario; that by reason of the premises and by-law, the said John Hamilton Gray had become, and then was, disqualified to sit or act as Arbitrator in the said matter, or to form one of the said Board of Arbitrators; and that, notwithstanding such disqualification, and notwithstanding that the Province of Quebec had formally objected to his so doing, the said John Hamilton Gray illegally persisted in acting, and did then act, upon the said Board of Arbitrators, which was a public Board, and then, to wit; at Montreal aforesaid, illegally usurped, held and exercised, the said office of Arbitrator in the said matter, which was a public office.

Order for issue of writ.

The order of Mr. Justice Beaudry thereon was as follows :—

“ Having seen the Petition of the Honourable Gedeon Onimet, foregoing, and affidavits, thereto annexed, in support thereof, it is ordered that a writ of Summons Quo Warranto do issue as prayed, to summon the said John Hamilton Gray in said Petition named, to appear before one of the Judges of the Superior Court to answer in the premises, at the Court House, in the City of Montreal aforesaid, on the First day of September next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon.

“ Montreal, 23rd July, 1870.”

The Arbitrators waited an hour, and, no one appearing on behalf of Quebec, expressed their desire to the Counsel for Ontario, to bear argument upon the subject of the jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Quebec by Writ of Prohibition, to restrain them from proceeding with the said Arbitration; whereupon Mr Cameron proceeded to argue the question. After the Arbitrators adjourned until next day at twelve o'clock noon, to meet at the same place.

Jurisdiction of Superior Courts, Quebec, over Arbitrators argued. Arbitrators adjourned.

NOTE.—The writ Quo Warranto was quashed by Mr. Justice Beaudry on the 20th September, 1872.

Quo Warranto quashed by Mr. Justice Beaudry.

The Judgment is as follows:—

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC : }
DISTRICT OF MONTREAL }

Superior Court for Lower Canada.

The Twentieth day of September, eighteen hundred and seventy-two.

Present—Honourable JUDGE BEAUDRY.

Honourable GEDEON OUMET, of the City and District of Montreal, No. 1803. Attorney-General for the Province of Quebec, Pro Regina.Plaintiff, vs.

The Honourable JOHN HAMILTON GRAY, of the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario Defendant.

Judgment quashing Quo Warranto.

After having heard the parties by their Attorneys, examined the proceedings, the documents produced, and the evidence adduced, and having maturely considered the whole: Whereas by the British North America Act (1867) Section 142 it is decreed that “ the division and adjustment of the debts “ credits liabilities properties and assets of Upper and Lower Canada, shall “ be referred to the arbitrament of three Arbitrators, one chosen by the “ Government of Ontario, one by the Government of Quebec, and one by the “ Government of Canada, and whereas it is further decreed in and by the “ same section of the said Act that the Arbitrator chosen by the Government “ of Canada shall not be a resident either in Ontario or in Quebec.”

Judgment.
Continued.

WHEREAS the Defendant in this cause was appointed an Arbitrator pursuant to the said section of the above cited Act by the Government of Canada by a Commission under the Great Seal of the Dominion, dated the twenty-third of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and is therein designated as being of the City of St. John in the Province of New Brunswick.

WHEREAS it is admitted by the said Defendant, that in July eighteen hundred and seventy, before the present action was instituted, he had ceased to have his domicile and place of business in the said Province of New Brunswick, and that before the said month of July eighteen hundred and seventy, he had established his domicile and residence at Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, 10 where he resided at that time and since the institution of the said action.

WHEREAS, however, there is no evidence that the said Defendant has, since he has established his residence and domicile at Ottawa, as aforesaid, exercised or attempted to exercise the functions of Arbitrator for the purposes of the said section of the British North America Act of 1867, within the limits of the Province of Quebec, as alleged in the information of the Honourable Gédéon Ouimet in the name of Her Majesty in such a manner as to warrant the intervention and control of the Superior Court for Lower Canada or of any of the Judges of the said Court in conformity with article 1016 of the Code of Procedure for Lower Canada. 20

We, Judge of the Superior Court, do dismiss the information and action of the Honourable Gédéon Ouimet, and do relieve the Defendant of the said information and demand. 20

This Judgment was subsequently affirmed on appeal.

Statement
of Mr. Gray
as to his alleged disqualification.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE HONOURABLE JOHN HAMILTON GRAY'S STATEMENT OF THIS DATE AS TO HIS ALLEGED DISQUALIFICATION TO ACT AS AN ARBITRATOR.

" I have been all my life a resident of the Province of New Brunswick, and unless my sojourn at the Capital of the Dominion as after mentioned may constitute an exception, never resided elsewhere. 30

" In 1867, I was, and for many years previous had been, residing in the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick; and at the general election in 1867, was returned a member of the House of Commons for the City and County of St. John.

" On the twenty-third day of May, 1868, I was chosen by the Government of Canada as an Arbitrator, under the 142nd section of 'The British North America Act, 1867,' during my attendance in the Second Session of the First Parliament of the Dominion of Canada. After the close of the Session I returned home to my residence in the City of St. John, in New Brunswick, where I remained with my family until midsummer of the year 1868, when I was summoned by Sir John A. Macdonald, the Premier of the Government of the Dominion, to Ottawa, to assume the duties of Arbitrator. 40 “ Understanding the work of the arbitration would consume some two or three years, I demised my house and premises in St. John for a term of years ; and in the month of September, 1868, I repaired to Ottawa, taking along with me my wife and children, I went to Ottawa expressly to discharge my duties as Arbitrator, but with no intention whatever of becoming a resident either in Quebec or Ontario. Mr. Gray's statement—

“ Regarding my stay in Ottawa only as temporary, I took lodgings for myself and family in the Russell Hotel, where I continued for nearly two years.

10 “ When I arrived in Ottawa in September, 1868 I found the preparatory accounts, especially those relating to the debt of the late Province of Canada, were not ready, and in all probability would not be completed for some time.

“ In the mean time I was requested by the head of the Government at Ottawa, to prepare a report on the assimilation of the laws of Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, a work which I performed.

“ Before the Arbitrators commenced their regular sittings, I also spent a good deal of time in investigating the financial legislation, and the complicated accounts, of the late Province of Canada, and the relative bearing of these 20 “ accounts to the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec ; these accounts running over a period of nearly twenty-seven years—that is, from the Union in 1841, to Confederation in 1867.

“ The first regular meeting of the Arbitrators took place on the 31st of August, 1869, at the City of Ottawa, when the joint actual work of the arbitration really commenced.

“ During all this time, I was, as I have already remarked, lodging and boarding at a hotel, and refused excellent offers of ready furnished dwelling-houses, regarding my stay in Ottawa only as temporary, and terminable with the conclusion of the arbitration.

30 “ The City of Ottawa is situate on the river Ottawa, and separated from Quebec only by that river. I should think nearly one-half the population is what is called ‘ Lower Canada French.’

“ Towards the close of the year 1869, seeing that the arbitration was likely to take more time than I had anticipated, and my family being tired of hotel life, I took a house, but it was purely accidental that I selected one in Ontario instead of in Quebec ; that is, on the South side, instead of the North side, of the river Ottawa. In the first instance, I had chosen one in Quebec, but the inconvenience at times in crossing the river, finally determined the choice of a house on the south side of the river.

40 “ At the time of my appointment, as I have already stated, I was a resident of St. John. I came to Ottawa, the Capital of the Dominion, to discharge official duties, temporary in their nature, with no intention or purpose of becoming a resident in either Quebec or Ontario. I was obliged to be somewhere, and it was manifestly for the convenience of the public and of all parties concerned as well as of myself, that I should be at the Capital of the Dominion, lying on the confines of the two Provinces interested in the arbitra-

Mr. Gray's statement—Continued. “tion, and where the public sentiment was as much ‘Lower Canadian’ as ‘Upper Canadian,’ and where access could be had to all necessary papers and documents, rather than in Montreal or in Toronto

“If the mere matter of temporary residence during the arbitration is to be excepted to, it would seem that it would be impossible that the arbitration can be carried on except at some place out of both Ontario and Quebec.

“I am still occupying the house in Ottawa I took in the latter part of the year 1869, but my sojourn there is only temporary.

“I have become a resident neither in Quebec nor in Ontario. My real domicile or residence, according to my view, is now, as it was when I was chosen 10
“Arbitrator, in the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick. I have not acquired nor do I own any property either in Ontario or in Quebec, except some household furniture of small value.

“I close this memorandum by remarking that it is somewhat singular, that Quebec should have attended twenty-three meetings of the Arbitrators without discovering the fact that I, have become a resident in Ontario, and that that fact should only be discovered now that I differ in opinion from the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, the Arbitrator chosen by Quebec.

“I think I must disregard the exception taken to my residence by Quebec, 20
“and go on and complete the arbitration.

“(Signed)

J. H. GRAY.

“Dated, 4th August, 1870.”

THIRTIETH MEETING OF ARBITRATORS.

Present:
Hon. J. H. Gray and
Hon. D. L. Macpherson.

The Arbitrators met on the fifth day of August, 1870. Present: The Honourable John Hamilton Gray and the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson—the Honourable Charles Dewey Day not being present. Messrs Cameron and Wood appeared on behalf of Ontario; no one appearing on behalf of Quebec.

Hon. C. D. Day being absent.

The Arbitrators stated that they were ready to deliver their opinion upon the question of the authority and power of the Superior Courts of Quebec, to 30 restrain them by prohibition from proceeding in the said Arbitration, argued the day before.

OPINION OF THE HONOURABLE DAVID LEWIS MACPHERSON.

Opinion of the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson.

“The two Arbitrators now present meet under circumstances calling for the most careful circumspection and thoughtfulness.

“The Province of Quebec is not represented before them.

“The Counsel for Ontario calls upon them to proceed with the evidence and to make their award.

“The retirement of the Arbitrator for Quebec, sanctioned by the Government of that Province, was formally communicated to the Arbitrators when 40
“they met at Montreal, on the twenty-first July last, by an official letter from

“ the Premier and Secretary, the Honourable Mr. Chauveau, in which he further preferred the extraordinary request that the remaining Arbitrators ‘ will be pleased to stay further proceedings until such time as they receive notice ‘ as to their intentions from the Government of this Province, — the Province of Quebec.”

Continued.

“ A request to stay proceedings until the Government of Quebec should determine whether they would appoint another Arbitrator, was shortly afterwards made by the Counsel for that Province, and was, upon consideration, refused by the Arbitrators; whereupon the Counsel for Quebec declared that the Province would no longer be a party to the Arbitration, and withdrew.”

“ Further, each of the two Arbitrators now present was, since the retirement of the Arbitrator for Quebec, served, while in the City of Montreal, with a writ issued from the Superior Court of the Province of Quebec, the purport of which is to prohibit them from the further exercise of their functions, until a new Arbitrator should be named for that Province, or to show cause to the contrary on the first September next.”

“ The Arbitrators noticed that neither the letter of Mr. Chauveau, nor the application of the Counsel for Quebec, named any time within which it was expected such new appointment would be made.”

“ The retirement of the Quebec Arbitrator took place on the 9th of July, Mr. Chauveau’s letter is dated on the 19th, and on the 22nd the writ was obtained and served. But up to this moment the Arbitrators are not informed that any new Arbitrator is appointed, nor in fact that it is the intention of the Government of Quebec to make a new appointment.”

“ If the Government of Quebec has power under the statute to appoint another Arbitrator, and if it is their intention to do so, they have had more than reasonable time for the purpose, since their acceptance of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day’s resignation. It was the indefinite character of the delay asked for, which induced the Arbitrators to refuse it. The writ which was issued and served almost immediately after that refusal is equally indefinite, and might tend to create the impression that delay in completing the award, and not to obtain a reasonable time to appoint another Arbitrator, was the object really desired.”

“ It appears to me, who am unskilled in legal technicalities, taking an equitable, common-sense view of the question, to be beyond reasonable doubt that no provincial tribunal has, or can claim, any jurisdiction to examine into or decide any question referred to arbitration by the 142nd Section of the British North America Act, 1867, and it may be confidently asserted that the Imperial Parliament intended the award to be absolutely final. But other and not unimportant legal questions (even if not really difficult) present themselves which, if insisted on, must be determined by some competent tribunal.”

“ Can one of the Arbitrators, who has undertaken and entered upon the duties assigned by the Statute, and who is under no mental or physical disability, retire from, or abandon, these duties before their completion? This question is not one on which the other Arbitrators can be expected to express an opinion.”

“ It is, however, connected with the, perhaps, more strictly legal inquiry :

Opinion of
Hon. D. L.
Macpherson
-Continued.

“ Does the Act of the Imperial Parliament authorize the withdrawal of an “ Arbitrator with or without the concurrence of the party who appointed him?
“ and does it provide for the substitution of another in his place? Again, are “ the Arbitrators, who (though respectively appointed by the Governments of “ the Dominion and of the two Provinces) derive all their power and authority
“ from the Imperial Statute, amenable to any provincial or local tribunal in “ matters falling strictly within the scope of their powers and duties ?

“ The Statute itself does not in terms confer any authority whatever, with “ regard to the reference, on any tribunal but the Arbitrators. Can there “ then by implication arise a power to delay, which might be so exercised as to “ defeat the object of the enactment? The parties interested are the Provinces “ of Ontario and Quebec. Can either of them, as a matter of legal or moral “ justice, call upon one of its own Courts to interrupt or control the proceedings
“ of a jurisdiction created for the sole purpose of deciding rights and interests
“ as between the two Provinces ?

“ If so, the authority must belong equally to the Courts of either Province,
“ and what would be the effect of a not impossible conflict between them in “ their directions to the Arbitrators or otherwise ?

“ These, and perhaps other questions, are opened by the events above stated.

“ They have been seriously and dispassionately considered, and not the less
“ that their determination may involve personal responsibilities to an extent
“ which could not be, and was not, anticipated when the Arbitrators accepted “ their appointment. I feel, however, that the first duty of the Arbitrators is “ to make a just award; that they are not responsible for the embarrassment “ which the present state of things has given rise to, and which adds greatly to “ their responsibility, while it increases, if possible, their anxiety to do right.

“ By simply performing what they believe to be their duty, if they do any “ thing (while impartially exercising their best judgment) that, may be looked “ upon as prejudicial to the interests of Quebec in the voluntary absence of “ Counsel for that Province, the just responsibility cannot be charged upon them.

“ If in proceeding, they act illegally, their award will not be binding, and “ can do no injury. If it should be binding, the loss of the judgment and assist“ ance of an Arbitrator for the Province of Quebec, however much the remain“ ing Arbitrators may regret it, and especially that they are deprived of the “ valuable aid of the Arbitrator who has resigned, is not their fault. The with“ drawal was his act, and it has been deliberately adopted by his Government,
“ who have taken legal steps in one of their own Courts by their Attorney-“ General, to stop further proceedings. They have thus placed the Arbitrators
“ in the invidious position of either retracting their refusal to grant indefinite “ delay to the Province of Quebec, or of being placed in conflict with one of the “ highest tribunals of that Province.

“ As a public functionary in the matter, as well as in my private capacity,
“ I desire to evince in every proper way my profound respect for the Court “ whose process has been served on the Arbitrators. But it appears to me they “ cannot, without a virtual abdication of their functions as Arbitrators, accept “ as a justification for a departure from their previously declared opinion, the “ preliminary order of prohibition (which I venture to think will not be finally “confirmed) of a tribunal of that Province whose Arbitrator’s course has unnecessarily brought about this complication. I am of opinion that the Arbitrators will best discharge the trust reposed in them by proceeding with the reference and making, without unnecessary delay, an award which shall divide and adjust the debts, credits, liabilities, assets and properties of Upper and Lower Canada.

Opinion of
Hon. D. L.
Macpherson
—Continued.

“As already pointed out, if they have under the circumstances no power to make an award, the attempt to make one will create no prejudice to either party.

10 “If they have the power, the duty arising under the Statute from an acceptance of their appointment imperatively requires them not by any act of theirs to suffer the time occupied and the cost occasioned by the proceedings so far taken to be utterly wasted, or to unnecessarily postpone the rendering of a final award.

“The Government of the Province of Quebec, and the Arbitrator appointed by them have had due notice that the present meeting would be held for the purpose of proceeding with business, and that it would be competent for the Arbitrators, therefore, to proceed, in accordance with well established rules.

20 “In order, however, to remove any possibility of misapprehension or doubt, I think it better, under the peculiar circumstances, that notice should now be given to the Province of Quebec and to the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, of the intention of the Arbitrators to proceed in accordance with the opinions just expressed, and that the Arbitrators should adjourn until Wednesday, the 17th instant, giving notice to all parties to the reference that on that day they will proceed, should the Government of Quebec not think proper to be represented or to assign any new or sufficient reason for their absence.

“D. L. MACPHERSON,
“Arbitrator.

30 “Toronto, August 5th, 1870.”

OPINION OF THE HONOURABLE JOHN HAMILTON GRAY.

“My colleague, the Arbitrator for Ontario, having expressed a desire to adjourn for a week or ten days, in order to afford time for a notification to the Government of Quebec that the Arbitrators would certainly proceed in the absence of Arbitrator or Counsel on their part, unless at the next meeting they are represented—I shall most certainly concur. I think we should exhaust every reasonable effort to induce co-operation in this matter: but in order to prevent the delay, which is now granted, being in any way attributed to a doubt as to the power or intention of the Arbitrators to proceed, it is as well to explain with distinctness the views of the Arbitrators on the authority or the power of the Courts of any of the Provinces to prohibit or restrain their proceedings. With the highest respect for the Courts of Quebec, on any

able John

“matter coming within their jurisdiction, it is plain this Arbitration does not.
“It derives its authority from an Imperial Act. The Government and Province “of Quebec, of which those Courts form a constituent part, is simply a party to “the Arbitration; another Province, whose Courts and Government are entirely “independent of and beyond the jurisdiction of the Courts of Quebec, is the “other party; while the Dominion Government simply appoints the third “Arbitrator by the authority of the Imperial Act. These constitute the tri“bunal. How is it possible that a subordinate part of one of the two Provinces
“—because the Courts are only parts of the whole machine of Government—
“can control the action of another Province and Government, and of the Arbi- 10 “trator appointed by a third Government, in a matter of submission, to which “the Province (whose Courts assume the authority) only appoints one out “of three co-equal Arbitrators? How can the Courts of Quebec restrain the “Province of Ontario, or the Arbitrator appointed by the Government of that “Province, or the Arbitrator appointed by the Dominion Government, in a “matter in which the whole proceedings may be carried on outside of the Pro“vince or the territorial jurisdiction to which their process can possibly run?
“If so, the Courts of the other Provinces must have equal jurisdiction; and how “absurd would it then be for the Courts of Ontario to come forward and punish “the Arbitrators for not proceeding—for not discharging the duties they had 20 “undertaken!—punished by Quebec for going on!—punished by Ontario for “not going on! Can any construction of the language of the Imperial Statute “sanction such a conflict of jurisdiction? But even if the proceedings were “held within the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of the Courts of one of the “Provinces, the subject matter itself, and the parties proceeding therein, may “be and are, as regards the subject matter, entirely exempt from that jurisdic“tion. Apart from the common-sense view of such a question, which must “strike every man, the Courts of law in England have left no doubt upon the “point. The highest authorities, both in Chancery and Common Law, have “decided that even where proceedings in arbitration were carried on within the 30 “locality over which the Courts had jurisdiction, and in which their process had “full force, yet the Courts would exercise no jurisdiction to restrain an Arbi“trator from making his award, unless there was something in the conduct of “the parties to the reference which rendered such interference necessary. The “principle being as laid down by Kerr on Injunctions, page 142, that ‘there is “no original jurisdiction of the Court in the nature of a writ of prohibition to “restrain an Arbitrator from proceeding to make an award.’ Mr. Cameron “cited a great many cases in which this position is illustrated and sustained;
“among others the King v. Bardell and others, 5 A. & E., page 619; Harcourt
“v. Ramsbottom, 1 Jacob & Walker, Chy. Rep. 504; Pope v. Lord Duncannon; 40
“9 Simons Rep. 177; the Newry & Enniskillen Ry. Co. v. the Ulster Ry. Co., 8 “De Gex, McN. & G. 486. In Pope v. Lord Duncannon, where the plaintiffs had “revoked the authority of their Arbitrator and notified the defendant, and their “Arbitrator had refused to act, but the other Arbitrators had notwithstanding “proceeded and made their award, the Court refused to restrain the defendant
“from acting upon the award—the Vice-Chancellor saying: ‘As in this case “there is nothing whatever to show that the power which the plaintiffs had " given to the Arbitrator was revoked upon any just or reasonable grounds, I

 " am bound to conclude the revocation was a wanton and capricious exercise
 " of authority upon their parts, and consequently the motion must be refused.
 " The resignation of the Honourable Charles Dewey Day and the revocation of " his authority by the Quebec Government was no act of Ontario or of the Arbi" trator appointed by the Dominion, and it is therefore difficult to see why the " Province of Ontario should be prejudiced by that act, or why the Arbitrator
 " appointed by the Government of Ontario, or the Arbitrator appointed by the " Dominion Government, should not proceed to discharge their duty. In the case 10 " of the King v. Bardell (5 Adolphus & Ellis, 619), during the argument, Judge
 " Patteson says: 'Is there any instance in which the Court has interfered to pre" vent an Arbitrator making an award after revocation? The award may be a " nullity when made, but that is a different point.' Platt replies, 'Search has " been made for precedents, but none have been found.' Blackstone's Com" mentaries, vol. 3, edition of 1862, page 117, says: 'A prohibition is a writ
 " issuing properly only out of the Court of Queen's Bench, being a prerogative
 " one: but for the furtherance of justice it may also now be had in some cases
 " out of the Court of Chancery, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, directed to the " judge and parties of a suit in any inferior court, commanding them to cease 20 " from the prosecution thereof, upon a suggestion that either the cause origi" nally or some collateral matter arising therein, does not belong to that juris" diction, but to the cognizance of some other court.' If old Blackstone is " still law,—and the Imperial Act, British North America Act, 1867, is still in " force—no other Court but the Arbitrators' Court can have cognizance of the " Arbitration. But apart from these authorities, on broad constitutional grounds,
 " the right of the Courts of Quebec to interfere with the proceedings of a tribu" nal created under authority of an Imperial Statute, acting on a subject " matter exclusively within its own jurisdiction and for which it was created, is " denied. It is greatly to be regretted that there was no counsel—as in the 30 " case of the unanimity question—to argue the other side; but as has been
 " remarked by my colleague, that is not our fault. If these legal questions are " to be raised on every occasion, it was manifestly of the highest importance
 " that the Honourable Charles Dewey Day should have remained at his post.
 " He did not resign—so far as we know—because he differed with his colleagues
 " in concluding that the decisions of the Arbitrators need not be unanimous.
 " He assigned no such reason for his resignation, and on that question gave no " decision, and, so far as his colleagues know, expressed no opinion; although " he was present at the argument, and subsequently looked into the authorities
 " with his colleagues. His resignation, as stated at the time, was on other 40 " grounds; but whether they have his able assistance or not, the remaining
 " Arbitrators must proceed with the work, and decide on all questions as they " arise according to the best of their judgment.

Joint Address of Legislative Council and Assembly of Quebec.

The following is a Joint Address presented by the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Quebec to His Excellency the Governor-General.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable John, Baron Lisgar of Lisgar and Ballieborough, in the County of Cavan, Ireland, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, One of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor General of Canada, and Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Island of Prince Edward, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Excellency :

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Quebec, in Provincial Legislature assembled, humbly approach Your Excellency for the purpose of representing :—

That, according to the provisions of the One hundred and forty-second Section of the British North America Act, 1867, the division and adjustment of the debts, credits, liabilities, properties, and assets of Upper and Lower Canada should have been referred to the arbitrament of three Arbitrators, one chosen by the Government of Ontario, one by the Government of Quebec, and the third by the Government of Canada, the last-mentioned not to be a resident either in Ontario or in Quebec.

That the Honourable Charles Dewey Day having been appointed Arbitrator by the Province of Quebec, the Honourable David Lewis Macpherson by the Province of Ontario, and the Honourable John Hamilton Gray by the Government of Canada, and the last named Arbitrator having taken up his residence in Ottawa, the Government of the Province of Quebec have deemed it incumbent upon them to protest against his continuing in office, and to express both to the Government of Canada and to the Arbitrators themselves, their firm conviction that to carry out the true intent and meaning of the British North America Act, the decision of the Arbitrators should be unanimous.

That subsequently, on the ninth day of July last, the Honourable Charles Dewey Day, the Arbitrator appointed by the Province of Quebec, differing in opinion with the other Arbitrators respecting a preliminary judgment, which appeared to him based upon pretensions at once unfounded in fact and in law, and deeming that, by the rendering of that judgment, the examination of the question would be restricted by the inflexible rule of an erroneous judgment, and that it would be, therefore, impossible to arrive at any equitable and satisfactory conclusion, felt it to be his duty to resign his office.

That such resignation having been accepted by the Government of the Province of Quebec, notice thereof was immediately given, to wit, on the eleventh day of July last, to the Government of Canada, and to Messrs. Gray and Macpherson ; the Government of the Province of Quebec, at the same time, protesting against any ulterior action on the part of the Arbitration Commission, which was thus rendered incomplete. Address—

Continued.

That, notwithstanding the representations so made to them, Messrs. Gray and Macpherson entered upon the examination of the questions submitted by the two Provinces, without the Province of Quebec being in any way represented, and on the third day of September last, rendered a pretended award, against which His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec, by despatch, dated the thirteenth day of September last, and addressed to His Excellency the Governor-General, protested as unjust and illegal.

10 That the injustice of the said pretended award is evident, from the same having been rendered wholly in the interest of the Province of Ontario, and from the fact that, while Messrs. Gray and Macpherson refused to take into consideration the relative financial positions of the two Provinces at the time of the Union, they have taken into consideration the object and nature of certain items of expenditure as having been incurred in one or the other section of the Province of Canada from the period of the Union to Confederation: that the said pretended award is further unjust, inasmuch as the division of the credits, properties, and assets of the late Province of Canada, does not even proceed upon the same basis and principles as those which appear to have been adopted in 20 relation to the division of the balance of the debt, and does not rest upon any principle whatsoever, but is purely arbitrary, and favours the Province of Ontario at the expense of the Province of Quebec; that, lastly, the provisions of the said pretended award fully justify the apprehensions of the distinguished lawyer selected by this Province as its Arbitrator, and the firm and independent line of conduct which he adopted in the interests of justice.

That the said pretended award is absolutely illegal, null, and void, for the reasons hereinbefore set forth, and also as having been rendered by two Arbitrators, who, by the resignation of their colleague, remained without any power or jurisdiction, and that, therefore, the intentions of the British North America
30 Act have not been carried out, and no valid title has been conferred upon either Province in relation to the credits, properties, and assets, which it was the duty of the said Arbitrators to apportion and divide between the two Provinces.

That the Province of Quebec can neither submit to its property being disposed of, or to any sum whatever being exacted from it; nor can it accept any property, credits, or assets in virtue of the said pretended award, and that it is bound to resist, and will resist by all means within its power, the execution of the said pretended award, claiming as it does that justice be done, and that its rights, as recognized by the British North America Act, be maintained.

Wherefore, we humbly pray that Your Excellency will be pleased to adopt 40 such measures as are best calculated to insure justice to this Province.

C. B. DE BOUCHERVILLE,
Speaker of the Legislative Council.

J. G. BLANCHET,
Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Statement
by Ontario in respect of objections raised in Address.

NOTE.—Ontario disputes the various grounds of objection which, in the above documents, the Executive Council and the Legislative Assembly of Quebec made to the award, both those objections relating to the merits and all others; Ontario affirming that the award was made in good faith by two gentlemen of honour, experience and ability, that the award was not unjust to Quebec; that it was not made in the interest of Ontario, or to the prejudice of Quebec; and that in fact it is much less favourable to Ontario than Ontario justly demanded before the Arbitrators.

Order of
His Excellency the Governor-General-in-Council, dated 27th
February,
1871.

The following is a copy of an order passed by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council : 10

W. H. LEE,
Clerk, Privy Council.

To the Honourable
The Secretary of State for the Provinces.

Memorandum by the Honourable Minister of Justice of Canada.

In the matter of the Arbitration under "The British North America Act, 1867," between the Province of Ontario and Quebec, referred to the undersigned, he has the honour to report—

That under the 142nd Section of the said Act, the following Arbitrators were appointed, viz. :— 30

The Hon. David Lewis Macpherson, by the Government of Ontario,

The Hon. Charles Dewey Day, by the Government of Quebec, and

The Hon. John Hamilton Gray, of St. John, New Brunswick, by the Government of Canada (his appointment dating from 21st March, 1868).

That by a Despatch from the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec to the Secretary of State for the Provinces, bearing date the 11th July last, an Order of the Executive Council of that Province was transmitted for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor-General, which Order in Council sets forth, that "Whereas the Hon. J. H. Gray has resided for more than one year, and has become a resident in the Province of Ontario, and has become thereby disquali- 40 fied to act as such Arbitrator, it has become the duty of this Province to object to the said Hon. John Hamilton Gray acting as such Arbitrator."

That by a Despatch of the same date, the Lieutenant-Governor transmitted two letters, dated 9th July from the Hon. Charles Dewey Day, addressed to the Provincial Secretary of Quebec, resigning his appointment as Arbitrator under the Section above cited.

That by a subsequent Despatch of the 19th July, the Lieutenant-Governor submitted a copy of an Order of his Council, accepting the resignation of Mr. Day, as the Arbitrator named for the Province of Quebec

10 That by a letter, dated the 5th of September, Messrs. Gray and Macpherson, the other two Arbitrators transmitted a copy of the award made by them under the said Act, stated that such award had been made in triplicate and sent also to the Governments of Ontario and Quebec.

That the award is signed only by Messrs. Gray and Macpherson, and after reciting that the three Arbitrators were appointed by the several Governments as above-mentioned, proceeds to state that "the said Arbitrators having taken upon themselves the burthen of the said Arbitration," the said John Hamilton Gray and David Lewis Macpherson, being a majority of the said Arbitrators, do hereby award, order, and adjudge of and upon the premises, as follows, that is 20 to say, &c., &c., &c.

That by a Despatch from the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, dated the 14th September, a copy of an Order of the Executive Council of Quebec was transmitted, protesting, for the reasons therein given, against any force or validity being given to the pretended judgment or award of the said two Arbitrators by the Federal Authority, and advising of the intention of the Government "to appeal for redress and justice in every constitutional mode which it is the privilege of British subjects under the British Crown to exercise when suffering under injustice or wrong from the hands of any."

That by a subsequent Despatch, dated 22nd December last, from the 30 Lieutenant-Governor, he transmitted an Address from the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Quebec to His Excellency the Governor-General, setting out—That the Hon. J. H. Gray having taken up his residence at Ottawa, the Government of Quebec having deemed it incumbent to protest against his continuing in office, and to express their conviction that the decision of the Arbitrators should be unanimous; that the Arbitrator appointed by the Province of Quebec resigned his office, that such resignation was accepted, and that the Government of Quebec at the same time protested against any ulterior action on the part of the Commission which was thus rendered incomplete. That Messrs. Gray and Macpherson, notwithstanding such representation, entered upon the examination of the Questions submitted by the two 40 Provinces, without the Province of Quebec being in any way represented, and made their award, against which the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec protested as unjust and illegal. That the injustice of the pretended award is evident from the facts stated in the Address. That the pretended award is absolutely illegal, null and void, for the reasons therein set forth, and as having been rendered by two Arbitrators, who, by the resignation of their colleague, remained without power or jurisdiction. That, therefore, the intention of "The British North America Act" had not been carried out, and no title has been conferred upon either Province in relation to the credits, properties and assets, which it was the duty of the said Arbitrators to apportion and divide between the two Provinces. That the Province of Quebec can neither submit to its property being disposed of, or to any sum whatever being exacted from, nor can it accept any property, credits or assets in virtue of the pretended award, and will resist by all the means within its power the execution of the said pretended award; claiming as it does, that justice be done, and that its rights, as represented by the British North America Act be maintained. They, therefore, pray that His Excellency the Governor-General will be pleased to adopt such measures as are best calculated to ensure justice to that Province.

The case now stands thus :—

The Government of Ontario maintains the validity of the award—The Government of Quebec contends that it is altogether illegal and void, and declares its intention of appealing for redress and justice in every constitutional mode, and the Legislature of Quebec, also protesting against its validity, asks the Governor-General to adopt measures to protect the rights of that Province.

Now the Government of Canada has no power or means of intervening between the parties, of enforcing the award as valid, or setting it aside as invalid, or of granting the redress, or the measure of protection sought for by the Legislature of Quebec. It is for the Government of Ontario, if it desires to enforce the award, to take such steps as it may be advised that the law allows for that purpose, and it is for the Province of Quebec to take the necessary legal steps to resist any action on the part of that of Ontario.

If the question of the validity of the award becomes a matter of litigation either Province will have the power of carrying it by appeal from the decision of any inferior tribunal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council as the Court of last resort.

If the Governments of the two Provinces were to agree on a statement or special case, with the view of submitting the question of the validity of the award to the Judicial Committee, it would be the duty of His Excellency the Governor-General, on being prayed so to do, to transmit such special case to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, with a request that it shall be submitted to such Judicial Committee for their opinion, under the 4th clause of the Imperial Act, 3 and 4 William IV., chapter 41.

If the two Governments do not agree upon a joint submission of the case, it will be in the power of either Government to pray Her Majesty to refer the case, as stated by it, for the opinion of the Judicial Committee.

As it is obvious that if the Governor in Council were to assume to decide the questions in dispute, the Province against whom such decision would be given would not accept or submit to it, and as such decision would have no legal force whatever, the undersigned recommends that no expression of opinion be given by His Excellency in Council, and for the same reasons the undersigned refrains from making any report on the legal questions.

Under present circumstances, and until the questions raised respecting the award are settled by judicial decision, the undersigned is of opinion that no action with respect to it can properly be taken by the Governor in Council.

JOHN A. MACDONALD.

Act of Parliament of Canada re-adjusting amounts payable in respect of debts of Provinces.

On 23rd May, 1873, the following Act was passed by the Parliament of Canada :—

An Act to re-adjust the amounts payable to and chargeable against the several Provinces of Canada by the Dominion Government so far as they depend on the debt with which they respectively entered the Union.

Whereas by the provisions of the British North America Act, 1867, and by the terms and conditions under which the Provinces of British Columbia and Manitoba were admitted into the Dominion, Canada became liable for the debts and liabilities of each Province, existing at the time of its becoming part of the Dominion, subject to the provision that each Province should, in account with Canada, be charged with interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the amount by which its said debts and liabilities exceeded, or should receive interest at the same rate by half-yearly payments in advance, on the amount by which its said debts and liabilities fell short of, certain fixed amounts :

And whereas the amount fixed as aforesaid in the case of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, conjointly (as having theretofore formed the Province of Canada), was sixty-two million five hundred thousand dollars ($62,500,000), and the debt of the said late Province, as now ascertained, exceeded the said sum by ten million five hundred and six thousand and eighty-eight dollars and eighty-four cents ($10,506,088.84) for the interest as aforesaid on which the said two Provinces were chargeable in account with Canada :

And whereas it is expedient to relieve the said Provinces of Ontario and Quebec from the said charge, and for that purpose hereafter to consider the fixed amount in their case as increased by the said sum of ten million five hundred and six thousand and eighty-eight dollars and eighty-four cents ; and to compensate the other Provinces for this addition to the general debt of Canada : Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows :

1. In the accounts between the several Provinces of Canada and the Dominion, the amounts payable to, and chargeable against, the said Provinces respectively, in so far as they depend on the amount of debt with which each Province entered the Union, shall be calculated and allowed as if the sum fixed by the one hundred and twelfth section of the British North America Act, 1867, were increased from sixty-two millions five hundred thousand dollars, to the sum of seventy-three millions six thousand and eighty-eight dollars and eighty-four cents, and as if the amounts fixed as aforesaid, as respects the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick by The British North America Act, 1867, and as respects the Provinces of British Columbia and Manitoba by the terms and conditions on which they were admitted into the Dominion, were increased in the same proportion.

2. The subsidies to the several Provinces, in July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, shall be paid in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Act.

3. All sums payable under this Act shall be a charge upon and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada, and accounted for in like manner as other moneys payable for like purposes out of the same.

The questions for the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council are as follows :—

1. Whether under the circumstances herein before stated, the said John Hamilton Gray had become disqualified to act, or continue acting, as Arbitrator.
2. Whether, after a hearing before the three Arbitrators, two of them could legally render a decision or award; and if yea, could they do so in the absence
10 of the third.
3. Whether, after the subsequent ex parte hearing before two Arbitrators in the absence of the third, these two could legally render a decision.
4. Whether the arbitrator appointed by Quebec had the right to resign; whether the Government of Quebec had the right to accept his resignation and to revoke his appointment; and whether such resignation or revocation was effectual and valid.
5. Whether, after one of the Arbitrators had so resigned his office, and his resignation had been so accepted, and his authority had been so revoked, the remaining two could legally proceed to hear the case, and to make a final award.
- 20 6. And whether the award of the 3rd of September, 1870, by the said Honourable David Lewis Macpherson and John Hamilton Gray is valid (save as affected by the Dominion Act above set forth), or is null and void.

O. MOWAT, for Ontario.
C. B. DE BOUCHERVILLE, for Quebec.
