PEACE TALK IN PROPAGANDA OF GERMANS IDLE

London Times Article on "The Dove and The Ance"—Verdun and The Ance

London, Nov. 24.—(New York Times cable)—The London Times this morning has a leading article entitled "The Dove and the Ance." It says: "The German dove is cooing again with desperate vigor across the Atlantic. We knew his monotonous voice would be raised anew with the winter. It is seasonal. If it is earlier than usual this year, Verdun and the Ance may account for the phenomenon."

"We are not in the least impressed by his benevolent plans for the pacification of the world. It was always malevolent England who obstructed them. There were others, of course, but they varied; England was always there, harping, subsidizing, fighting and refusing 'the freedom of the seas.' She would not make peace herself and would not suffer him to impose peace on others; therefore, she was an enemy of the human race."

"Napoleon was quite as sincere as the German squallor. He truly desired peace. He was truly ready to make it at almost any moment of his career and he truly charged England with refusing it and urging others to refuse it. We did so because the only peace he wanted was a peace which would leave him supreme in Europe, consecrate the triumph of 'militarism' and put it in his power to prepare fresh wars."

CARRANZA TROOPS AND VILLA'S MEN BOTH LOSE HEAVILY

Culhuacan City, Mex., Nov. 23.—(Delayed by military censor.)—One general and 100 men of the Carranza forces were killed during the fighting today between Carranza troops and Villa bandits. Four hundred men of the Villa command are known to have been killed and left on the battlefield.

HUNGARIAN PREMIER RETAINS HIS POSITION

London, Nov. 24.—Emperor Charles of Austria has sent an autograph letter to Premier Tisza of Hungary confirming him and the Hungarian ministers in their posts. So says a Budapest despatch to Reuter's by way of Amsterdam.

French In Forty Attacks In Air

Guynemer Accounts For 23rd Enemy Machine; Two in One Day—Artillery Work on Western Front

Paris, Nov. 23.—The French war office reports: "On the Somme front there has been a fairly spirited bombardment in the region of Sailly-Saillais and at the sugar works of Ablaincourt."

"In Alsace a surprise attack delivered by us upon a German trench at Hilsenfurt, resulted in our bringing back some prisoners. We sustained no losses. The night passed quietly elsewhere along the front."

"During the day of November 23, in Lorraine, three British airplanes engaged several German machines in combat. One enemy airplane was brought down in the forest of Gremercy. During the same day, on the Somme front, French aviators delivered no fewer than forty aerial attacks in the course of which five enemy machines were brought to the ground. Sergeant Flechere brought down his sixth enemy machine and Lieut. Doullin gained a victory over his tenth German aeroplane."

"During the day of Nov. 22, Sub-Lieutenant George Guynemer brought down two enemy aeroplanes in the region of Faisy. This brings to twenty-three the number of enemy machines brought to earth by this pilot."

"Six of our aeroplanes have thrown down fifteen shells of 120 millimetres upon the town of Bruyeres. Another unit of one of our squadrons has bombarded the aviation ground at Gréville. Between 8.40 p.m. and 7 p.m. a total of 151 shells of 120 millimetres were dropped at this point."

"On the night of November 23-24, four French aviators bombarded the job as they are working so satisfactorily that it is believed that the repairs will be completed, the cleaning finished and the water turned on again by midnight tonight. Under the terms of their contract the pipe cleaning company is responsible for all breaks which occur while they are working and the city officials could take no hand in the matter. This is said to be one of the unavoidable inconveniences associated with such work, but the ultimate results are expected to more than compensate for the trouble."

Russians Are On Advance In Dobrudja

Delayed Official Roumanian Reports Received—Favorable News From Monastir Region

Bucharest, Nov. 24.—Roumanian forces have assumed the offensive in the Province of Dobrudja since the official statement issued today by the Roumanian war department, and have advanced along the entire front, capturing several towns about fifteen miles north of the Tohrnavo-Constanza railroad line.

Petrograd, Nov. 24.—The Russians have begun an advance in Dobrudja. The Roumanian official communication of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, which all have reached London, throw little light on the German advance to Cretova. Tuesday's report stated there were desperate struggles in the All Valley in the region of Veresti, Albecht, Surpatai, Monastir and Koga. The Roumanians had moved toward the west of Cretova, a wireless despatch makes the following correction in the text of Thursday's communique as originally received:—"Our troops have withdrawn from the Jul Valley and now occupy the positions held on the previous day." The words "held on the previous day" were omitted in the original communication.

Paris, Nov. 24.—Entente forces on the Macedonian front are making progress in their attacks on the Germano-Bulgarian lines, according to today's war office announcement. The gain of further ground during the continuation of the battle east of Monastir is reported, while to the west the Italians continuing their progress, have reached Nijpole.

Bucharest, Nov. 24.—An attempt to cross the Danube, thirty-five miles southwest of Giurgiu, on the railroad leading northward to Bucharest, has been made by Teutonic forces. The attempt was made at Zimnita, which is about miles southwest of Bucharest.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Local attacks have been made by Entente forces on the Germano-Bulgarian lines in the Monastir region.

Orsova and Turnu-Severin, both on the Danube, have been captured by Austro-German troops.

Lake Presba region, on the Macedonian front, west of the Monastir district is reported.

QUEBEC ARCH BURNED TO GROUND

Splendid Building in Limoilou Paris VALUED AT $180,000

Was Rebuilt After Conflagration 15 Years Ago—Another to Take Its Place as Soon as Possible

Quebec, Nov. 24.—The splendid church of Limoilou Parish, this city, was burned to the ground early today. It was valued at close to $180,000 and was protected by only partial insurance.

The flames were discovered a little before five o'clock this morning by the furnace hand. When he entered the church he found it filled with smoke, apparently coming out of the furnace rooms. Firemen were quickly on the scene but the fire had gained too much headway and, despite a general alarm that brought the whole of Quebec's fire department to the scene, the steeple crashed down among the blazing ruins at half past six o'clock.

This is Limoilou's second church fire. The present structure had been erected after the old one was destroyed by fire some fifteen years ago. The present structure had been finished only a few months ago, for the parish had to wait some years to embellish and decorate the church. These works are not yet paid for and this morning's fire is a heavy blow to the parish, which is under the guidance of the Capuchin Fathers. The edifice will be rebuilt immediately.

IS SIR SAM TO OPPOSE KEMP AT THE POLLS?

It was reported about the streets today that Sir Sam Hughes is likely to oppose his successor, Hon. Mr. Kemp, in Toronto East. One or two Conservative papers in Toronto have been defying Sir Sam to take this step, and the fact that this might appeal to his sporting blood may be responsible for the rumor.

Mr. Kemp had a majority of 4,801 in East Toronto in 1911, but was beaten there in 1908 by Joseph Russell, an independent candidate.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—Hon. A. E. Kemp, the new minister of militia, took over the administration of his department today, combining his work with that of the war purchasing commission. Until the necessary by-election in East Toronto is over, Mr. Kemp will probably be out of town part of the time and in that period, and generally, he will have the assistance of F. B. McCurdy, M.P., the parliamentary secretary, to whom much of the routine work will be assigned.

Grows Worse Each Day In Belgium

Statement Sent to Pope and King Alfonso—Priest Bringing Refugees to America

Lille Aulay and Givet. The Germans boast of having already deported 850,000 men."

The Hague, via London, Nov. 24.—Father John B. Deville of Chicago, has started for Belgium on his fourth trip to bring out old men, women and children to rejoin their relatives in America. Three hundred of these refugees are ready to leave East and West Flanders. No one has been permitted to leave these districts by the German authorities for more than twelve months.

Have, Nov. 24.—The following telegram has been sent by the Belgian minister of foreign affairs to the Belgian ministers at Rome and Madrid to be communicated to Pope Benedict and King Alfonso:—"The situation in Belgium is becoming day by day more frightful. The raids on valid Belgians now extend throughout the whole country. If they are not sent to work in Germany in munition factories they are sent to the occupied parts of France to work on systems of trenches and the strategic railways of

BRITISH CAPTURE OF LARGE SUBMARINE

Said to Have Got German Pirate Craft in the Mediterranean Sea

Milan, via Paris, Nov. 24.—British naval forces recently captured a large German submarine, according to the Corriere De La Sera. The newspaper says that a British minesweeper landed thirteen sailors and two officers of the crew of the submarine at an Italian port.

BOSTON SPEAKERS PREDICT ANOTHER OUTBREAK IN IRELAND

New York, Nov. 24.—An Associated Press despatch from Boston says:—"Speakers who asked for funds to support another revolution in Ireland, asserting that 'the Dublin rebels are going to fight again and fight very soon,' obtained subscriptions at a meeting here last night. The money, it was said, will be used to purchase rifles so that, when the next rebellion breaks the rebels will have modern guns instead of clubs and pitchforks."

The meeting, at which a tribute was paid to Irish patriots of other years, was addressed by Peter Gordon of New York and Luke Dillon of Philadelphia.

FOUNDED FAMOUS COLONY

Elliott, Mass., Nov. 24.—Miss Sarah J. Farmer, founder of the Greenacre colony, died at the Farmer homestead here last night. She was among the early settlers of Plymouth county, Massachusetts.

The Maxim automatic gun was invented in 1864 in London and was immediately adopted by the British government which used it in the war with Matabele. Some years later Sir Hiram, created a baronet by Queen Victoria, after having become naturalized as an Englishman, invented the first smokeless powder. In 1894 Sir Hiram Maxim invented a heavier than air flying machine which raised itself from the ground carrying a driver and passenger. This was nine years before the first practicable airplane was created by the Wright Brothers. Sir Hiram's machine was a ponderous affair and broke down in its early trial. In 1915 the inventor was appointed a member of the invention board created by the government to meet the needs of the war.

NEW PREMIER FOR RUSSIA

Petrograd, Nov. 24.—The appointment of M. Treppoff as premier is announced in the newspapers. The Council of the Empire has been adjourned by imperial ukase until December 2.

The despatch does not identify the Treppoff referred to, but the most prominent of that name is Alexander Fedorovich Treppoff, minister of railways.

LATER London, Nov. 24.—Alexander Treppoff, Russian minister of railways, has been appointed premier, according to a Reuter despatch from Petrograd. The retiring premier, M. Sturmer, has been appointed grand chamberlain of the imperial court, retaining his functions as a member of the council of the empire. Petrograd newspapers say that the appointment of M. Treppoff as premier implies the necessity that the government make a communication to parliament explaining the impending problems connected with the work of the government.

YOUTHFUL MURDERER IS EXECUTED IN ST. JOHN'S

Fifteen Hundred Morbidly Curious Gather Outside Jail

Aged Mother All Night at Gate Seeking Admittance—He Had Killed Farmer at Whose Home He Had Been Befriended

St. John's, Que., Nov. 24.—After a full confession of his guilt, Dollard Lepine, alias Jean, alias Paul Renaud, twenty-one year old murderer of Albert Wing, a St. Luc farmer, paid the death penalty, in the yard of St. John's jail this morning.

Outside the jail gates Lepine's aged mother, who had tried in vain to gain admittance all night, wept bitterly, standing among a crowd of at least 1,600. The execution was performed by Arthur Ellis, who has officiated at many, passed without incident. The body was given to the boy's mother.

The crowd round the jail building was held back by a guard of 150 soldiers with fixed bayonets, in charge of officers from the St. John's barracks. The police had some difficulty in dealing with the crowd after the execution, but Detectives Lorrain and Akin kept the doors until they could be closed. About 125 people were in the yard to witness the execution.

Late one afternoon in April Lepine called on Wing's farm and to gain admittance all night, wept bitterly, standing among a crowd of at least 1,600. The execution was performed by Arthur Ellis, who has officiated at many, passed without incident. The body was given to the boy's mother.

TAKES J. P. MORGAN'S PLACE

James McLean to be Cathedral Trustee—Finance, Too Busy

New York, Nov. 24.—James McLean will serve as a trustee of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in place of J. P. Morgan, who was chosen at the recent convention of the New York Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church. The announcement was made by Dean William M. Grosvenor of the cathedral, following the receipt of a cablegram from Mr. Morgan, now in England, who declined to serve on account of the press of other business.

NEW GIANT GUNS

16-inch Type of 50-Calibre to be Tried for American Battleships.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Battleships authorized this year will carry the most powerful guns of which the navy has any authentic information. Rear Admiral Strauss, Chief of Ordnance, told the House naval committee he expected to complete and prove a sixteen-inch 50-calibre gun early next year.

"We have a very good sixteen-inch 45-calibre gun," he said, "but the 50-calibre weapon will be the largest gun in the world of which we have any authentic information. We wish to build and prove the gun, however, before adopting it for new ships."

Four battleships, bids for which soon will be awarded by the navy department, will each carry eight sixteen-inch 45-calibre guns. The three ships congress is expected to authorize this winter will each carry twelve sixteen-inch 50-calibre guns if the department's hopes are carried out. Admiral Strauss said the 50-calibre gun would weigh 128 tons as against 100 tons for the 45-calibre weapon, and would have greater penetrating force and range.

Catarrh Leads To Consumption

Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the voice, deranges the digestion, and breaks down the general health.

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOV. 24, 1916.

SOME CIVIC PROBLEMS

In the matter of taxation reform, St. John must go either forward or back. Even if the amount of money raised for civic expenditure today can be spent to better advantage—and probably some of it can, perhaps much of it can—it nevertheless is necessary to raise a larger sum annually if the various public services are to be brought up to a proper level of efficiency.

Commissioners are prepared to show that the taxpayers here, or a great body of them, are in favor of the proposed changes, and that any real opposition to them springs from a minority of the population.

NEW LAND POLICY

The Quebec legislature has approved a project designed to play a big part in the further colonization of that province. Legislation covering the new plan provides that:

But it is necessary to face this fact: that the conditions revealed in the Taxation Commission's report, and supported by evidence which no one can controvert, constitute an overwhelmingly strong argument for a change, and for the adoption of a more modern, a more courageous, a more progressive system of assessment and taxation.

Now, experience tells us that there will be no popular uprising which will sweep the Mayor and Commissioners off their feet and into headlong advocacy of some real measure of taxation justice.

TO A BLACK GREYHOUND (From The London Poetry Review) Shining black in the shining light, Inky black in the golden sun,

And they expected more even than that. They expected, if not harmony, at least business co-operation at City Hall.

How they do hang on! Presidential Candidate Hughes only this week conceded defeat. Hon. W. J. Bowser, beaten in British Columbia two months ago, resigned only yesterday.

There are signs that the war will bring new markets and large orders for Canadian fish.

In the opinion of men in position to know just what is going on in the war on all fronts, speculation as to the duration of the contest is idle.

ROME, Nov. 24.—The Pope is working daily with Cardinal Gasparri on an allocution which he will deliver in a secret consistory on Dec. 4.

Are You Worn Out? Does night find you exhausted—nerves unsettled—too tired to rest?

LIGHTER VEIN. The famous author and the author who was not so famous traveled together to a seaside inn.

"I want to talk to you about this young friend of mine," he said. "He is now in the writing game, and earns very little money."

"Henry, dear," announced Mrs. Updote, "you will have to admit that I am a pretty good business manager after all."

"Um-huh!" replied Mr. Updote. "Yes, I see, my dear; but why didn't you both ride home for your dinner in the first place?"

German Artery at Grandcourt

Until This is Cut Supplies Will Continue—At Night Along it Pours Blood of Life for Germans

London, Nov. 24—There have been no infantry action on the Somme or Ancre fronts since the British thrust which reached the outskirts of Grandcourt on Saturday. There was considerable shelling by artillery against the new British front on both sides of the Ancre yesterday, however. A renewal of the attack on Grandcourt may be expected as soon as the weather will permit operations, as the Grandcourt road is the German artery for supplies and troops. The long road above the marshes of the Ancre crooks a sharp elbow where it enters the village of Grandcourt, and is converted from there on to the purposes of a broad village street.

operation, though, has gained for itself a character of singular remoteness. It is not merely that it is fortified like a miniature Metz, but from the points at which one could see it it peeped about its sheltering bosom of hill distantly and aloofly.

But Grandcourt is no longer so remote—"Nous les laurons," in the good phrase of our good ally.

VICIOUS ELEPHANT HANGED Because the few into a rage, attacked and killed her trainer while playing at Kingsport, Penn., some weeks ago, a large female elephant attached to a traveling circus was condemned to death by the state authorities and executed.

Without provocation the great beast seized the man with her trunk, hammered him against the ground, and then crushed his body by stamping upon it. According to some reports, this was her eighth victim.

When the circus reached Erwin a few days later the animal was ordered to be killed. Suitable poisons for accomplishing this were not available and hanging seemed to be the most practical means of carrying out the sentence.

To get her near the tracks, other elephants had to be used to push and drive her ahead. Finally chains were looped about the beast's neck and she was pulled forward and lifted free from the ground by the crane. From the December Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Henry Miller, Cattleman, Gave $20,000,000 to His Daughter—Collectors Face Problem

Because he chose, three years before German butcher boy, working long hours in Washington market, to the position of the most powerful cattleman in the west—a live best magnate who ruled on the ranges and in the market.
Mr. Miller, who died in his 91st year, came from Wurttemberg, Germany, in the autumn of 1847. For a time he worked as a porter in a small hotel, looking about meanwhile for a place as a butcher.

Theodore Loges, for years in the creamery products business in the old New York market, recalls stories his father had told about "Potdam"—as Miller was called. Loges said that the late cattle king when he went to work in the market had a rather slender stock of English, and because of his lingual mistakes and his good nature, generally, was the target for all jokes.

Miller, as Loges remembered it, was always delighted to take charge of the repair of the silk hats the master butchers, known as the "Knickerbockers," used to kick about the market at the close of business on Saturday night. Under the custom in the market it was considered a slighting of the profession for any butcher not to appear behind his counter with a high hat, and it was thought bad taste if the meat seller at the end of a prosperous week failed to destroy the hat. The apprentice butchers, Miller among them, could not afford to get them, the coming cattle king was selected to gather up the broken hats and repair them for the use of his fellow
"prentices."

In 1849 young Miller was one of the first of the market men to be smitten with the gold fever. For a year he saved, and in December, 1850, he arrived in San Francisco, where finding that gold was not to be had for the asking he obtained employment as a butcher.
Within ten months he had saved enough to go into business for himself, and when later the miners began to return to "Frisco" and spend their wealth with a happy disregard for the value of things Miller was one of the tradesmen who grew wealthy.

In 1857 Charles Lux, a cattleman with a small ranch in Nevada, went to San Francisco seeking capital with which to branch out. Lux had options on great tracts of land and was ambitious to start a huge cattle-rising project he had thought out. Finally he met Miller and the latter agreed to finance the undertaking, acting as a "silent" partner.
Eventually, however, the possibilities of the plan presented themselves so strongly to Miller that he forsook his trade and became an active associate of Lux.

The new firm soon acquired 800,000 acres of grazing land in California and nearly 500,000 more acres in Oregon and Nevada. Starting with herds of hundreds, the partners ran their live stock up yearly. At one time they owned more than 80,000 head of cattle and 100,000 sheep, necessitating the hiring of thousands of men. In 1887 Mr. Lux died and the business was incorporated, Mr. Miller retaining large interests in it, but become only semi-active on the ranches.

The firm owned tracts in Arizona,
Idaho, Nevada, Montana, Washington, California and Oregon. So great was the extent of the Miller holdings that the cowboys used to describe them thus:
"Miller summers his cattle in Canada and winters them in Mexico." Several celebrated characters of the west got their start on Miller ranches, among them Denver Sherman, champion rider of bareback steers, and rated the second horseman of the world; and Butch Mac-Neil, who even now wanders from ranch to ranch in Montana with his "chuck" wagon, and noted for his
"doughnuts," hot biscuits and his pies.

IS THIS COLLEGE LIFE?

Scholarship Regarded as a Necessary Evil, Says a Writer.

Many students look upon scholarship as a menial servant in the household of college life, tolerated for a time in order that the abode may be free to welcome its convivial guests. They regard the social light of the fraternity and the hero of the gridiron as the most promising candidates for success in life.

The valdicatorian appears to them too much confined in his interests to meet successfully anything beyond the artificial tasks of the classroom. He, poor fellow, is supposed to be doomed to failure in real life. Wherefore, the respectability of "the gentlemen's grade" and the sign of mediocrity in scholarship. Wherefore the epithet "grid," with its superlative "great grid," which sums up the contempt of the "good fellow" for the man who makes hard study his chief collegiate interest.

In many a student group the boy who thus speeds up and passes his fellows is treated as a "scab." And in many a faculty group the "desecrated belief" is never to have come at all.

Such ideas find fertile ground in the high schools, and the seed sown even to the virgin soil of the kindergarten.
The new tree of life—the painless education by the "do what you please, when you please, how you please method"—is said to have been imported from Italy.
But its foliage is much like our native stock of the American college variety.

Even upon the correspondence schools are grafted some branches of the tree

Germans Blockaded In East Africa

General Smuts Drives Them to Rufiji Valley Where Country is Malarious— Puts Enemy Into a Bad Position

A new, and probably the last phase of the German operations in East Africa has now developed, in which General Smuts' object is to drive into the Rufiji valley and there blockade the remaining German forces. This valley is unhealthy and malarious, and is likely to become untenable after the "lesser rains." The enemy at present is occupying positions from the neighborhood of Kibambwe to the delta of the Rufiji facing General Smuts' main body.

The result of the combined operations of the British and Belgian forces has been to limit the enemy to a confined area in the southeastern portion of the colony, of which all the ports on the coast and all the main lines of approach are held by the Allies.

The following announcement has been made by the British War Office: With the dislodgement of the main enemy forces from the Uiguru hills as the result of Lieutenant-General Smuts' operations during the last days of September, the campaign entered upon a new phase.

Since the initial encounters east and south of Kilimanjaro in March, the German command had fought a prolonged series of rearguard actions on selected ground, and their main pre-occupation had been evasion of our repeated encircling movements.

A more prolonged stand on and immediately south of the Central Railway was probably intended, but the energy of our pursuit resulted in the enemy being driven from the hills with considerable losses, and a marked deterioration in morale. The bulk of his heavy artillery and ammunition, together with many depots and stores of war materiel, was destroyed or abandoned.

To gain time for the rest and reorganization of his remaining forces, the enemy retreated into the area traversed by the Lower Rufiji River, and occupied positions extending from the neighborhood of Kibambwe to the delta, with strong detachments on the Mgeta River, astride the Kisaki-Kibambwe road, facing General Smuts' main body, and numerous other posts north and south of the river, particularly in the Kisai and Matumbi hills south of the delta. With in this area the majority of outlying detachments were concentrated.

The country between the Mgeta and the Rufiji rivers is traversed by only one practicable track, the Kisaki-Kibambwe road above-mentioned. All to the eastward of that track is an area of salt-marsh, in which drinking water is unobtainable in the present dry season.

The entire Rufiji valley and delta is unhealthy and malarious in the highest degree, and is likely to become untenable after the event of the "lesser rains" due in October.

Lieutenant-General Smuts' recent operations have been framed with the object of driving into the Rufiji valley the enemy posts established to north and south, whilst according to the bulk of his forces the period of rest earned by an advance prolonged virtually continuously through seven months, and in an especially difficult and frequently almost unknown country. A number of minor columns have been engaged in clearing the country southeast of Dares-Salaam and northwest and west of Kilwa.

Meanwhile the Belgian forces, converging on Tabora from the direction of Lake Victoria and Kigoma, had achieved a conspicuous success in the defeat, between September 18-22, of the German force under the command of Major-General Wahle, based on that centre. The survivors of that force were driven eastward along the Central Railway, finally turning south towards Neu-Iringa in an attempt to effect a junction with the main enemy concentration on the Rufiji. Simultaneously the Portuguese forces in Mocimboa crossed the Rovuma river and advanced northwards, driving back the minor German detachments opposed to them.

The bulk of the retreating enemy forces are, therefore, confined in a limited area in the southeastern portion of the colony, of which all the ports on the coast and all the main lines of approach are held by our and allied forces.

His Majesty has conferred the distinction of Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George upon General Tombeur, commanding the Belgian forces in the Congo, in recognition of his valuable services in co-operation with the British forces in the recent successful operations in German East Africa.

Britain's Generous Handling Of Crude Rubber Situation

Has Held Down Cost of Rubber Footwear While Prices of Other Necessities Soar

When, some twenty years ago, Great Britain began to establish great rubber plantations in her tropical Dominions, the outside world's industrial experts laughed in scorn. Were there not thousands of square miles of wild rubber trees in Brazil and elsewhere simply waiting to be tapped? Were not the marvellous chemists of Germany working diligently to devise a process for making synthetic rubber at a fraction of the cost of the natural article? Britain, they averred, was wasting time and money.

Six years ago the price of crude rubber jumped to $3.00 a pound, because the 60,000 or 70,000 tons which seemed to be the limit of the forests fell far short of the enormously increasing demand—and the synthetic rubber promised by Germany failed to materialize. The 8,200 tons produced by the British plantations in 1910 was more than welcomed, and the scoffing ceased. By 1914 the plantations were producing nearly 100,000 tons, or 60% of the world's supply, and the price had been reduced to one-third of the 1910 figures. This year the plantations are contributing 150,000 tons—75% of the total production—and Britain holds a monopoly which has been of vital importance in the War.

Controlling the seas as well as the supply, the British Government has effectually cut off the Teutons, while providing an abundance for the Allies. To neutrals, who might easily have been forced to pay any price, the monopoly has been truly a benevolent one, for so long as they resell none to the Germans, they get all the rubber they want at a lower price than before the war.

No nation, neutral or belligerent, benefits more generally from Britain's foresight and generosity in this matter than Canada. Besides the general use of the scores of rubber products, practically every Canadian uses rubber footwear more or less for at least six months of the year. Now that leather has gone up 80%, and shoes are costing two to five dollars a pair more than normal, the advantage of wearing rubbers and overshoes this winter is strongly emphasized. They cost so little compared to the shoes whose term of service they practically double, that it certainly is economy to wear them at every sign of bad weather. And there's another point, even more important:

The need for leather at the Front is so great, and the scarcity so serious, that it is a patriotic duty to save it all we can by wearing rubbers and overshoes.

A feature of the closing of the Cathedral high tea and sale last evening was the intense interest displayed in the voting contest for the most popular policeman on the local force. Last evening Policeman Dunahue started the night with 64 and he was the leader. When the polling booth was declared closed Inspector Caples had a total of 2,470, with Dunahue second, having 2,277; and with McNamee in third place with 1,488. Inspector Caples by his grand vote becomes the winner of the $25 in gold.

The fair generally was a success last night, despite the rather inclement weather. All the booths did a thriving business and altogether the fair has been a grand success. The voting was in charge of Miss Dillon, Joseph Kennedy and Fred McGuire, and they made a big success of the undertaking.

German Leader Forced to Desert His Breakfast

Flees Aboard Mule, Abandoning Breakfast and Comfort as Highlanders Dash in Upon His Headquarters

(New York Tribune.)

Paris, Nov. 18.—How the capture of Beaumont by the British conferred the title of General von Pyjamas upon a Palastian German commander is told by E. de Feuquieres in the "Petit Parisien."

Eight days before the successful attack of the British the baggage train of the new commander unnumbered in front of a Beaumont distillery, the capacious cellar of which the doughty general had chosen as his headquarters.

The picture of the Kaiser was assigned to the place of honor—the dining room. Beneath it his devoted subject installed a noble keg of Muenchener beer, flanked on either side by the cartridge of a "155" shell. These emblems were not only symbolic of the warlike spirit of the general, but had a utilitarian purpose as well, for a magnum of champagne was planted in each shell.

In this Spartan apartment the general breakfasted each morning in pajamas. He was in this simple garb and his accustomed place when the shock of the British shell began. He had already devoured three fried eggs and was contemplating a slice of ham. He belloyed a command to his orderly, an old Silesian peasant.

"What beasts those English are!" he shouted. "Go see if they are not going to let me finish my breakfast in peace."

Despite his forceful commands it was evident that the general was not himself, for as the orderly left the room he deserted the table with its sizzling ham and walked to the keg. He had drawn a glass of beer when a sergeant rushed in unannounced.

"The English are masters of the trenches! The village is about to be taken!" he shouted with a perfunctory salute.

The general swore like the Flanders veteran he was, and spilled the beer on his pajamas. Heedless of the accident he fumbled here and there searching for his tunic. It was not to be found, and the concussion of the great guns had already given way to the crackling fire of rifles.

The sergeant opened the door invitingly and the unkulured yells of the Highlanders as they clambered into the German trenches smote the general's ear.

Abruptly giving over the search for his tunic, abandoning the ham, the keg, the shells with their hidden treasure and the Kaiser's picture, the general dashed up the stairs.

Tethered at the very doorstep was a fortunate creature whose breakfast had not been disturbed by shell fire or Highland yells. It was a lowly donkey, such as carried fags in more peaceful times, and it munched contentedly from a nose-bag.

This providential beast proved to be the means of the general's escape. While his pajamas flapped in the keen air and his slippered heels beat a devil's tattoo on the flanks of the amazed donkey, whose nosebag spilled grain at every jump lent an air of hilarity to the scene, the general out-glimped John himself, and eventually arrived safe and sound behind his own lines.

The story was told by the Silesian orderly, for whom no donkey was provided. He, together with the ham, the keg, the shells and the Kaiser's picture, fell into the hands of the victors.

HAD INDIGESTION COULD KEEP NOTHING ON STOMACH

Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble. The stomach becomes upset and you have a raw, debilitated feeling in it.

After a meal you feel that you must get rid of that nasty, bilious, burning sensation; that souring and rising of the food which is so unpleasant and in many cases very painful.

It is not necessary for you to be troubled with indigestion when Burdock Blood Bitters may be so easily obtained. This old and well-known remedy, which is a combination of nature's best roots, herbs, barks and berries will cure indigestion and all stomach troubles.

Mr. Lazare Savoy, Pokemouche, N.B., writes: "About two years ago I was troubled with indigestion that had I could keep nothing on my stomach. I was sorely disappointed in everything I tried to relieve me. At last a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I took four bottles and can now eat anything that is set in front of me."

That grand old medicine, B.B.B., has been on the market for the past forty years, and we claim, without any fear of contradiction, that it is the best cure for all stomach troubles.

SAYS THAT ADMIRALTY IS LACKING IN VIGOR

The London Mail Critiques Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour

London, Nov. 24.—According to The Mail, the Admiralty has refused to accept the decisions of the Air Board with reference to the apportionment of airplanes between the army and the navy, and Mr. Balfour supports the refusal.

The Mail contents editorially that Premier Asquith ought to decide between the two boards, but laments that he does nothing. It further complains that the Admiralty has not been remarkably successful in its air service, and declares that it lacks freshness and vigor.

Referring to the increase in the number of ships sunk by submarines, the Mail says: "It is a question of life and death. The submarine blockade must be broken, or it will break us. This is no time for slack or feeble administration." After paying a tribute to Mr. Balfour's personality, the paper adds:

"But he is nearly seventy. Charm and amiability do not, unfortunately, win wars, and if Mr. Balfour, with all his grace and tact, is obstructive, the prime minister would serve his country well by taking the occasion to make an invigorating change at the Admiralty."

The Telegraph, referring to the demand for a secret session of parliament, in which to discuss various phases of the war, says that naval affairs are the chief concern. The paper intimates the possibility that Mr. Balfour may address a private meeting of the members of the House of Commons in regard to the naval situation.

To Sterilize the Uniforms

Woman Bacteriologist Has Method for Minimizing Wound Infections

Paris, Nov. 24.—Miss Mary Davies, bacteriologist for the Robert Walton Gelet Research Fund, has just completed experiments at Les Oranges Hospital, where Dr. Jos. A. Blake is head, which mark another advance in minimizing wound infections contracted on the battlefield.

One of the greatest causes of infection found in all military hospitals has been pieces of uniforms shot into the body.

Miss Davies' experiments consist in treatment of cloth by antiseptic substances, so that after months of subjection to all forms of dirt and germs it remains absolutely sterile. Results of the experiments are now in the hands of the French and British authorities, with a view to having all uniforms at the front treated with the Davies preparation. In England the preparation has the approval of David Lloyd George, so for the next consignment of cloths sent to the "Tommies" such sterilization has been ordered. Aside from preventing infection of wounds, the preparation has another great advantage. In the words of Miss Davies: "Body lice, which are the greatest discomfort of trench life, will henceforth find these antiseptic substances entirely inimical to their well-being."

Experimented on Guinea Pigs.

Operations proving the utility for the preparation were made at Les Oranges laboratories by Dr. Kenneth Taylor. The subjects were guinea pigs and both non-treated and sterilized cloths were used. In the latter cases the cloth was subjected to the most severe exposure, such as being smeared with garden soil, known to contain tetanus and other deadly germs. Also the cloth was left lying about on the earth and later on a roof for weeks before being injected into the pigs. In all cases the pigs remained well, while in cases where pieces cut from uniforms of French soldiers were injected the pigs invariably died.

The basis for the treatment is a combination of cresol and soft soap. Miss Davies, summarizing her report to the government, says: "The practice of periodically impregnating the clothing of armies upon active service will fully repay the cost in reducing the proportion of highly septic wounds."

Miss Davies is the woman who inoculated herself with gangrene bacilli a year ago to prove the efficacy of Taylor's preparation.

New Beaconfield School

At the meeting of the ratepayers of Lancaster school division No. 1, it was decided to authorize the trustees to expend an amount not more than $25,000 for the erection of a new building to replace the present Tower School, which was considered to be too small and in other ways inadequate for the present requirements.

RECRUITING OFFICE
DECLARED A BLIND PIG
Sgt. Perrin, American Legion, and Pte. Kearney Heavily Punished

Sarnia, Nov. 24.—As the result of a raid by the police Saturday night, the recruiting office of the 218th (American Legion) Battalion at the ferry dock is closed today. Sgt. Henry C. Perrin, officer in charge, and Pte. Bernard A. Kearney are in jail, and unless heavy fines, totaling several hundred dollars, which were imposed on the two men this morning, are paid they will have to go to prison for a term of ten months. Judging from evidence produced this morning, the recruiting office was conducted as a "blind-pig" and the charge registered against Sgt. Perrin was that of being intoxicated while a second charge was made of having furnished others with liquor. Sgt. Perrin was convicted on both charges, and his total fines are $380.25 or six months in the provincial reformatory. Pte. Kearney was fined $280.25 of six months in the reformatory. Both men were sent to jail in default of their fines. Their arrest has been reported to headquarters. Perrin is an American, and enlisted in the Canadian service some time ago.

$10,000 A YEAR FOR A CHILD
High Cost of Maids and Governesses Worry the Wallaces.

New York, Nov. 24.—Annie Marie Wallace, seven-year-old granddaughter of the late John Wallace, for many years a member of the New York Stock Exchange, who is entitled to the income of trust funds aggregating more than $100,000 under the wills of her grandfather, Allen Wallace, wants more than $10,000 a year for her maintenance. She is now living at Bagnina, Italy, with her mother, Mrs. Francis L. Wallace. The child is the great-great-granddaughter of Commodore Vanderbilt. This was disclosed in the Surrogate's Court when Abraham Greenberg, appointed referee to determine the amount necessary for the child's support, filed his report. He found that $8,500 a year was sufficient, because Mrs. Wallace would supply $2,000 a year additional from her own fortune. The expenses of both Mrs. Wallace and her daughter are estimated at $22,000 a year. The expenditure of $10,500 a year for Miss Wallace is required for the following: Governess, maid, dancing instructor, gymnasium instructor, music teacher, chauffeur, a private suite of rooms, including bedroom, playroom and maid's room, separate table at meal times, a pet donkey and dogs. Her clothing costs $100 a month.

CO-OPERATIVE PLAN FOR BOSTON CITY EMPLOYEES

Boston, Nov. 24.—Mayor Curley has suggested to the City of Boston Employees' Credit Union that the 15,000 city employees purchase the necessities of life under the co-operative system. The mayor pointed out that the average family uses about four tons of coal a year and said that if the collective purchasing scheme was in operation it would be possible to buy 40,000 tons of coal at wholesale prices, subject to delivery when required and subject to payment when delivered. Other necessities could be participated in the same way, he said. Directors of the union will vote on the mayor's plan.

A shoemaker was fitting a customer with a pair of boots, when the buyer observed that he had but one objection to them; which was that the soles were a little too thick. "If that is all," replied the shoemaker, "put on the boots and the objection will gradually wear away."

Australia Wants Canadian Fish

British Army and the Public Too Clamoring for it—Want all Varieties—Big Market, Profitable Business, and a Great Saving to Great Britain

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 24.—Major Hughie Green of Prince Albert, who has put Canadian fish on the map in England and Europe, is back in Canada, after a stay of ten months overseas. As a result of his efforts and organizing ability upwards of two and a half million pounds of Canadian fresh fish have been sent to the Canadian troops in England, who are now receiving fresh fish once a week and smoked fish twice a week for breakfast.

In addition the War Office has undertaken to take large quantities and the first consignment of a million and half pounds is now being dispatched, representing an average value of eight cents a pound to the Canadian industry. All Canada Can Produce.

If Canada can produce it, and he has no doubt that she can, Major Green declares that Great Britain can take up to five million pounds of fresh fish a week, while arrangements are being made to secure for the allies canned fish of various sorts. Ten million cans a week can be placed if available.

Major Green is at present representing the British Board of Trade in organizing the sending of the quantities required. He will be here for some time. For the Hospitals.

In addition to the demand for fish for rations, the War Office is negotiating for the securing of the finer species of Canadian fish such as halibut and salmon for the hospitals and convalescent homes.

"Once the Canadian fish business has been thoroughly organized to produce to capacity," said Major Green, "the War Office orders alone, not making allowance for public demand, will mean a million dollars a week to Canada. And even if the war was to stop tomorrow, Canadian frozen fish is on the map of England to stay henceforth and for evermore." "We are laying the fish down at prices from 100 to 150 per cent. lower than it could be purchased in England for before. The saving to the British people as a substitute for beef will be enormous."

Australia Interested.

Prior to his departure for Canada, Major Green received a communication from Sir Thomas B. Robinson, representing the Australian government. In this letter, Sir Thomas says, "I was so pleased with the Canadian halibut that I managed to secure three other fish, one of which I am sending to the Lord Mayor, one to Right Hon. Lewis Harcourt, and another to Right Hon. Walter Runciman. If you have an opportunity of telling General Sir Sam Hughes what we are doing in this connection, I feel sure he will be interested."

Had Weak Back and Kidneys

SUFFERED SO MUCH HARDLY MOVE IN BED

When the back becomes weak and starts to ache and pain it is a sure sign that the kidneys are not performing their functions properly. On the first sign of any weakness or pain in the back Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They are a remedy for the kidneys only and make right for the seat of the trouble.

Mr. Francis McInnis, Woodbine, N.S., writes: "I deem it my duty to let you know the wonderful results I have received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. For a long time I had been suffering from weak back and kidneys. I used to suffer the most at night, and sometimes I could hardly move in bed with the pain. I could not do hard labor. A friend advised me to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and I am glad I did for the pain in my kidneys is gone, my back is strong, and I can perform any hard labor and get my good night's sleep. I only used three boxes of the pills."

"Doan's" are the original kidney pill. Put up in an oblong grey box. The trade mark is "Maple Leaf." Price 50c. per box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Specify "Doan's" when ordering direct.

SPEND MONEY WITH PATRIOTIC DEALERS

Soldiers' Wives of South Vancouver Have Interesting Plan—Window Cards Indicate Those Who Support Patriotic Fund

Vancouver, Nov. 24.—The truth of the old adage that "Union is Strength" has been rediscovered by the soldiers' wives of South Vancouver. In this suburb there are 724 families being helped by the Canadian Patriotic Fund. The soldiers' wives and mothers have formed, among themselves, an association. They meet regularly for social intercourse. They contribute time, service and money to patriotic causes. They stand by one another in trouble. They restrain any member of their group who may be inclined by extravagance to bring discredit on the Patriotic Fund.

This body of women is just beginning to find what power they can exert. Their combined monthly cash income amounts to about $80,000. Not satisfied with the way in which the South Vancouver merchants are contributing to the Patriotic Fund, they have determined to use their power to enlarge the shopkeepers' horizon. They have recently had printed a small window card indicating that Mr. Shopkeeper is giving to the Patriotic Fund. Where this is the case, the card is put in his window and the soldiers' wives spend money where the card appears. Acting on the principle that "One Good Turn Deserves Another" the soldiers' wives of South Vancouver have become an important influence in swelling the receipts of the Patriotic Fund.

SPORT NEWS OF THE DAY HOME AND ABROAD

TURF Guy Axworthy Brings $20,000 New York, Nov. 23.—A record price was paid for a consignment of weanlings at the Old Glory horse sale here. Thirty-two "babies" belonging to C. K. G. Billings brought $21,875, and his five-year-old gelding, Ben Billings, sold for $3,700, making a total of $25,575 for his consignment. With the exception of three, all the weanlings are by Harvest.

Race Horses are Burned Baltimore, Md., Nov. 22.—Eight valuable racing horses were burned in a fire which destroyed two stables yesterday at the Bowie track. Preparations were being made for the afternoon's sport when the fire broke out. Several of the hostlers and jockeys risked their lives to save the eighty-eight horses, some of which had their tails and manes singed. The horses lost were: Chelsea and Battles Baby, owned by Mrs. E. Arlington; Running Shot, owned by Ralph Earle; Father Riley, owned by R. E. Watkins; Joyland, owned by Edward Moore; Yellowstone and Corsican, owned by J. G. Wagner, and Ballygunn, owned by F. A. Herald. Two other horses, Bonanza and Rose Juliette, were badly injured and King Box was slightly burned. The total loss was about $25,000. Yellowstone, valued at $10,000, was one of the season's best two-year-olds and had won four or five straight races during the early part of the Maryland fall racing season. Father Riley, a popular racer, had been rescued from the blazing stable, but broke away and dashed back into the flames. All the trainers and employes lost their personal belongings. RING Fulton Must Make Good Promoter Jack Curley declares that Fred Fulton will probably be Willard's next opponent, but the Minnesota giant must prove his metal by fighting several elimination bouts. Denver promoters plan to match Fulton with Joe Banda, California heavyweight, Charlie Welner, and another man not yet named, in fifteen or twenty-round bouts. If Fulton stands the test and defeats these three, he will be given a crack at Willard in a twenty-round decision fight to be put on at Denver. A Promising Youngster Les Darcey, Australian boxer, has a sparring partner named Jim Tracy, whose figure, will be the man to defeat

Willard. He is only 18 years old, weighs 182 pounds, and stands 6 feet 4 inches. FOOTBALL Asks Support of Students Speaking before a meeting of 1,000 students in Harvard Union at Cambridge, Mass., on Wednesday night, Coach Percy D. Haughton of the football team, warned them to beware of over-confidence because "it is an insidious disease and has beaten many a Harvard team before this time." He criticized the students for their lack of support of the team at the Brown game on last Saturday, and urged them to go to New Haven "to holler until you are black in the face and so hoarse that you can't whisper." Pointing to the Harvard varsity team which was seated on the stage, Coach Haughton said: "These fellows are going to outplay and outfight Yale, but it is up to you fellows to out-cheer Yale in the stands." CURLING Carleton Club Meets. The annual meeting of the Carleton Curling Club was held in their rink last evening. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Samuel Irons, president; Harry Lingley, vice-president; Harold Mayes, secretary-treasurer. Managing committee: H. L. Lingley, S. M. U. S. Athletes Are Back From Sweden

Return With All Kinds of Laurels—Joe Loomis Gives Facts About Trip Abroad

New York, Nov. 23.—Returning with all kinds of laurels tacked to their trophy belts, the American team of athletes which recently made a competitive tour of Scandinavia, are home. Ted Meredith, Joe Loomis, Andy Ward, Bob Simpson, and Fred Murray are the men. Joe Loomis gives some interesting facts about their trip. He says they were handicapped by the weather, with the thermometer at 22 and 28. He says: "Both Norwegians and Swedes have shown the highest type of friendship to us. They are true sportsmen and gentlemen. Because of the ridiculous rule of no penalty for false starting, there was a terrible mess when the final heat of the 100 metres took place. "The Scandinavians will not hold their marks, and as the result, there were seven false starts. After the seventh break the referee set the three Scandinavians back one metre each. They were quite disappointed as they started digging their new holes. Then we decided that we could not gain much glory in beating them that way, so asked that they be allowed to come over to the line again. It was granted, and luckily we got away to an even start on the next try. "Our act proved to be a good one to the crowd, which gave us a big hand when we finished in this order: Loomis first, Ward second, Simpson third, Rusland fourth, Holstrom fifth, Frogner sixth. "Much credit must be given to Harleman, of Stockholm, for his wonderful performance in the pole vault. This youngster did twelve feet ten inches against the wind and on a cold day. He has perfect form, and I would not be surprised if he should break the world's record some day. "Boilin gained great prestige when he beat Meredith in the 800 metres. He is a good man and can do 1.54 in a short time."

ly be late in December. At yesterday's sessions there was a lengthy discussion as to the Dominion exhibition grant of $50,000 to which the N. S. Provincial exhibition is entitled next year in the ordinary rotation of provinces. The matter was left to the decision of the Dominion government. The standing date for the opening of next year's exhibition, Sept. 2nd, was approved. The commission has made an offer of $75,000 for the Monaghan homestead property the acquisition of which would give the exhibition grounds the complete block. Publication for appropriation proceedings are to be advertised. With the Monaghan property acquired there would be some changes in the location of the exhibition buildings on the grounds, which would be practically laid out with the main entrance at the corner of Windsor and Almon streets. The arrangement of the 1916-17 prize list was left open for the present pending the Dominion government's decision as to the $50,000 grant.

POLICE COURT

A young man was before the police court today on a charge of peering into windows after night in the vicinity of Mecklenburg street. Policeman McAineh said that he was on special duty last night about 11.15 o'clock as a result of complaints that had reached the police officials, that an individual was for the last few weeks back going about at night in Mecklenburg street, between Wentworth and Carmarthen streets, and was causing annoyance to people in the houses by glaring in under the window shades.

The magistrate remanded the defendant saying that he was liable to nine months in jail.

Albert Scils was charged with begging. He was remanded.

Louis Dritz, charged with the theft of a rope from the Wiggins Slip, West End, by A. B. Ruddle, was remanded until Monday. The value of the article is placed at $12.

Joseph Flynn was also remanded on the charge of drunkenness and tampering with a fire alarm box in Mill street, after Policeman Corner had testified. Several other prisoners were fined the usual amount for drunkenness.

The court imposed the penalty of $10 for not sounding the horn and allowed the fine in the other case to stand.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Albert Murphy and Miss Catherine, both of Roxbury; and two sons, Vincent, of Roxbury, and Joseph H., of West St. John. "OFF TO THE FISHING GROUND"

(From "The Watchman and Other Poems" by L. M. Montgomery, author of "Anne of Green Gables.")

Oh, 'tis a glad and heartsome thing
To wake ere the night be done
And steer the course that our fathers steered
In the path of the rising sun.
The wind and welkin and wave are ours
Wherever our bourns is found.
And we envy no landsman his dream
and sleep,
When we're off to the fishing ground.

"The Old Man's Grave."

There is something very kindly and tender in her touch, a gentle sympathy with the varying moods of nature, and a singular charm and nimbleness of expression. "The Old Man's Grave" is a good example.

Make it where the winds may sweep
Through the pine-leaves soft and deep,
And the murmur of the sea,
Come across the orient lee,
And the falling raindrops sing
Gently to his slumbering.

Make it where the meadows wide
Greenly lie on every side,
Harvest fields be reaped and trod,
Westering slopes of clover sod,
Orchard lands where bloom and blow
Trees be planted long ago.

Make it where the starshine dim
May be always close to him.
And the sunrise story spread Lavishly around his bed,
And the dew grasses creep
Tenderly above his sleep.

Since these things to him were dear
Through full many a well-spent year,
It is surely meet their grace
Should be on his resting-place,
And the murmur of the sea
Be his dirge eternally.

THE POLICE

The police force is considerably crippled with the absence of men from duty because of sickness. With the small force the fact that several are away is much felt. The many friends of Inspector Thomas Caples will regret to hear that he is very ill in his home and has not been able to be at headquarters for some days. He has a severe cold and complications have set in and, according to the police officials, he is none too well. Policeman Henriksen is also confined to his home with a poisoned hand. He was arresting a prisoner some time ago and his hand was accidentally scratched. Later inflammation set in and he has been unable to be on duty for a week.

DEATH OF JOSEPH SEYMOUR

General regret was expressed this morning when it was learned that Joseph Seymour of this city had passed away at his residence, 264 Caramarthen street, after a lingering illness. Although he was falling in health for some time, yet death came suddenly and unexpectedly.

Mr. Seymour was seventy-five years of age and was one of the best known men in the city, and was for many years employed on the St. John Telegraph, for considerable time as day foreman.

He was much thought of by those who knew him and by those with whom he worked. His ever genial manner won for him a host of friends, who will learn of his death with deep regret.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Hutchings of this city; two brothers, E. N. and William Seymour of Boston, and two sisters, Miss Seymour and Mrs. Alexander Robinson, also of Boston.

D. J. & CO.

Financial Items—There is a good deal of talk of a powerful bear party having been formed to work the stock market lower, many references being made in this connection to the stiffening of call money rates of the last day or two, and the possibilities in that connection during the next two weeks, because of loan requirements. Private advices are very unfavorable in tone with regard to the Mexican situation. Nothing definite is given but there is a state of caution inspired as a result of information alleged to come from Washington in the last few days. It has been responsible for some of the selling of so-called Mexicans.

Press Comment—The west is a seller of numerous war stocks.

Sun—"Money made from speculation in industrial shares and from fortunate developments of business has been invested in the seasoned rails."

Wall Street Journal—"The technical position of the market seems to be much stronger than has been generally assumed by the professional element; due in great part to direct absorption of securities by investors."
