JUDGMENT IN STREET RAILWAY AND CITY CASE; ALSO IN THE MATTER OF THE VALUATORS

Fredericton, N. B., June 29.—In the supreme court this morning judgment was given in the following cases: St. John Railway Company vs. City of St. John.—McLeod, C. J., delivered judgment that the city, after renouncing the rails under Section II, Victoria, Chapter 85, had not the power to compel the company to change the pattern of rails when replaced. With regard to the foundation for the rails the court held that the company must restore the tracks to the level with the grade so fixed, and it must supply a foundation sufficient to keep its tracks at the grade fixed by the city. The city cannot determine what that foundation shall be. It is enough if the foundation provided by the company is sufficient to keep the rails level with the street whatever the grade of the street.

Nothing being said in the stated case as to costs, and no mention of them being made in argument, the court made no order for costs. In the municipality of St. John vs. the Board of Valuers, the property of several companies therein mentioned was to be valued at an amount for which valuation thereon is fixed for assessment purposes by the special act in the case of each. Buildings used exclusively as places of worship and sites with grounds surrounding the same, upon which no other buildings are erected, in the City of St. John are, within the meaning of sub-section 2 of the general rates and taxes and are not to be included in the valuation made by the valuator. It may be that the result of this holding bears hardly upon the parishes, churches and church lands which are not covered by the special act, but it is a matter for the legislature and not for the court. The court does not wish to be understood as deciding that the facts stated, an action would lie against the board of valuers, and this case may not serve as a precedent binding the court to hear cases that may be similarly stated in future. In St. John and Quebec Ry. Co. vs. Fraser, Limited, McLeod, C. J., delivered judgment, reducing the amount of damages to $1,000 and entering it $500. This case had to do with land negotiations in connection with the Victoria railway in this city. The court held that the negotiations had been under way and plans filed before the Fraser purchased the property from the Bank of Nova Scotia. Senator Dennis, wife and two daughters arrived from Ottawa last night on their way to their home in Halifax. They left for St. John this morning.

DR. CORBET SENDS PEELE OF GERMAN SHELL TO FATHER

Policeman George Corbet yesterday received a letter and a small package from his son, Captain G. G. Corbet, M. D., who is with the Canadian troops in France. The package contained a piece of a German shell. Captain Corbet explained that it was a piece of shell which came very near striking him a few nights before writing. He received an order to depart with several assistants: other part of the battle field and while enroute there heard the roar of the shell coming towards them. His horse stopped and the shell landed about thirty feet away. The piece he sent to his father landed in the bath a few feet behind his horse. Other shells passed overhead. He wrote of the bravery of the men on the firing line and said that they were picked out for gallantry he considered that there was hardly a man who would sacrifice his life to aid a wounded comrade.

SHAMEFUL EXPOSURE.

"I had been advised by some of the leading members of the government to get that money back if I could."

The speaker was Mr. W. F. Garland, M. P., and the money referred to was $6,000 of the $20,000 which he admitted he received through his clerk Powell from the government, as profit on a $40,000 sale of surgical supplies to the militia department.

All this came out in evidence before the Royal Commission at Ottawa yesterday, along with the further information that Mr. T. M. Birkett, son of a former Conservative M. P., and head of a supply company which was organized when the Borden government went into power, sold to the militia department for $22 binoculars which cost him $17.

By the way, the readers of the Standard today did not have the pleasure of reading the news about Mr. Garland and Mr. Birkett. That paper contains no reference whatever to yesterday's revelations at Ottawa.

Who were the leading members of the Borden government who advised Mr. Garland, M. P., to get back from Clerk Powell that $6,000 which figured in the army supplies enquiry? This money, which was clear graft, was refunded after the enquiry was begun in the public accounts committee.

Who were those members of the government? Why did they make that suggestion to Mr. Garland? The people are asking these questions, and there does not seem to be any good reason for withholding the answer.

It is not surprising that a clergyman should find in political conditions at Ottawa, Fredericton and Winnipeg cause for seething denunciation. Never in Canada's history was there anything to compare with those conditions, and the most disheartening feature of the case is the silence of leading members of the Conservative party, who ought to repudiate leaders under whose very noses the carnival of graft went on without interruption until the Liberals literally forced an investigation.

FANTASTIC TALE OF GERMAN BASE AT JAVA

Stores of Arms and Ammunition. Purchased in East, Said to Have Been Shipped to Batavia

San Francisco, June 29.—That the Germans are planting a military base on the Dutch island of Java, under the nose of England's largest colonial possession, to foster a revolution in India and supplementing this with a secret naval and submarine base at Batavia to prey upon the shipping of the allies is a story told here.

land, off Lower California, and there transferred the cargo to the Maverick. Further confirmation is given to story by the arrival in San Francisco of many Hindoo natives, expressing friendship for Germany, the presence here of a Hindoo revolutionist paper believed to have support of the Germans, and the warnings of the British Admiralty to merchantmen to beware of the Maverick. Lieutenant Ter Porren, aviator and officer in the Dutch East Indian army with headquarters in Batavia, arrived here today to close contracts for $1,000,000 worth of rifles, machine guns, aeroplane motors and powder.

AMUSEMENTS STRIKING VITAGRAPH; BUNNY COMEDY AND RICH VAUDEVILLE

Imperial Opens the Week With Excellent Programme of Entertainment. Bunth & Rudd can well lay claim to the title of Croquet Comedians, for nothing more eccentric or more outlandish in getup and action, could possibly be conceived, than their act and the way it is performed. If one had the privilege of meeting these well-known Keth performers of the stage, they would marvel at the state of mind into which they must transport themselves in order to produce such ridiculous fun behind the footlights, for both Mr. Bunth and Mr. Rudd are gentlemen of subdued tastes and well-seasoned with wide travel and experience. In fact they are even poorer as civilians despite the fact that they are screamingly funny to the public. Their act is a three-part Vitagraph, dealing with modern warfare, such innovations as the hurling of bombs from aeroplanes, and the German occupying the well known system of spying employed by certain countries. The production is up-to-date in every particular, the cast includes the best players of the Vitagraph Co. Altogether the production is powerful and quite out of the ordinary. The late John Barry is seen in a bright little comedy entitled Bunny Boy's Hat For His Bride, in which Miss Flora Finch plays the opposite role. The Animated Weekly with new subjects should be interesting to all. On the whole the Imperial presents another strong attraction which is well worth seeing.

On Wednesday, Thursday a genuine treat is in store in the Jesse L. Lasko presentation of Marguerite Clark, the favorite of the moment, in Harold McGrath's famous story, The Goose Girl. This is a drama of love and adventure in the ideal realm of romance, mid-Europe. The scenic wealth with which this production is invested and the perfect atmosphere of the play, make the whole play a veritable delight. The Imperial sincerely promises further confirmation is given to story in this territory in the Goose Girl.

LARGE AUDIENCE BIDS WELCOME TO MUSICAL COMEDY ENTERTAINERS

Jingle and Fun and Dancing in Bright Variety at the Opera House

The opening of the Empire Musical Comedy Company at the Opera House last night was marked by a large audience, and a hearty reception for their programme. The bill was of a different class from the run of musical comedy or revue which is presented in this city, the late season or two, as it brought more into play a variety of amusement, and a hearty reception for their programme. CHAPLIN HERE AGAIN

Getting Acquainted is a Side-splitter—More Good Features at Unique. Well fortified with cane, his famous feet, moustache and hat, Charlie Chaplin appeared on the screen of the Unique Theatre yesterday and for fully fifteen minutes more than upheld the universal reputation he has won for being the greatest and most laughable comedian in photo-play land. The subject this week, Getting Acquainted, presents a side-splitting farce of more than ordinary merit. In the role of the first, the eccentric Charles makes a hilarious and the various comedy climaxes were reached in a manner that was heartily enjoyed by the most select patron. Excellent laughing material was supplied by the different adventures of Chaplin and Mabel Normand in the park, while the never-resting eye of the law was also responsible for many humorous situations that brought unintermitted laughter from the audience. Another feature on the programme, one that is always found interesting was the Gaumont Graphic. This week it presents living views of the British Lanciers moving to the front, London Fusiliers in camp, the Indian contingents, the Canadian troops marching to their English camp, and some excellent views of the German occupying forces of Ostend which it is claimed were taken by a British operator at the risk of his life.

LYRIC ATTRACTIVE Dainty Singing and Dancing Act; Excellent Vaudeville and Pictures

A dainty combination of singing and dancing by America's favorite vaudevillians, Hathaway and Mack, is the vaudeville attraction at the Lyric Theatre the first three days of this week, and the engagement will prove one of the most pleasing of any attraction that has been seen at the Lyric in some time. Miss Mack, a dainty petite society dancer and mimic, strikes the chord of popular favor and her different dance numbers were warmly applauded at every performance yesterday. Mr. Hathaway possesses a sweet, spry voice and is heard to advantage in several of the latest song compositions. A sort of a novelty in the singing line is introduced by the introduction of the timely song, Let's Help One Another.

HOW GERMANY GETS HER FOOD SUPPLY

Enormous Quantities Sent Through Switzerland—Much Even From France? London, June 29.—Enormous quantities of foodstuffs are pouring into Germany through Switzerland, according to M. Jacques Dhur, a French expert in international law. It seems that a convention ratified between France and Switzerland on July 29, 1914, provides that in case of war, France shall supply the federal government of Switzerland with 800,000 tons of cereals a year. According to M. Dhur, 100 trucks each loaded with holiday programmes for the latter part of the week will include the eccentric comedy duo, Wilbur and Herrington.

FIRE MACHINE GUN FROM OFFICER'S BACK

Heroism of Lieutenant Campbell—Wounded in Action—Canadian Battalion's Experiences

London, June 23—Further particulars of the gallant work achieved by the 1st (Western Ontario) Battalion last week are to hand. The battalion was subjected to a heavy fire on the left when it went forward and captured for the time being three trenches. The charges were led by Major Smith, the battalion having been reinforced by men from the 10th Edmonton Fusiliers. A number of Edmonton men are among the wounded. If the division on the left had been able to advance with the same rapidity the trenches would undoubtedly have been reinforced by men from the 10th Edmonton Fusiliers. A number of Edmonton men are among the wounded. The first forward movement was made by mine explosions in the enemy trench. "Gas Devils" the Cry. Dust and debris assisted in obscuring the Canadian advance. Nevertheless the Germans maintained a hot local fire. The Canadians advanced shouting "Gas Devils" which appears to have been the agreed battle cry. On their arrival at the first trench a number of Germans were found chained by the waist and pedicled to the machine guns. "A majority of the Germans had already gone," said an Edmonton man today who took part in the engagement, "but some remained pumping lead into us as long as they could. When we reached them they threw up their hands crying, 'Comrades.'" Campbell's Heroism. A thrilling story is narrated concerning the heroism of Lieut. Campbell, of the machine gun section. After reaching one of the enemy trenches he was unable to get a satisfactory position for his machine gun. It was when the Germans were pouring a heavy fire, not only from the trench, but on the left of the Canadian. Lieut. Campbell, desirous of meeting the attack on the left, knelt in the trench and supported the gun on his back while the corporal fired. Campbell was severely wounded. The machine gun section in high terms of his brilliant example of courage at all times. A number of wounded have just arrived in England, many being treated in the Canadian hospital at Cliveden.

SMITH AND DARRAH COMMITTED FOR TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGE

Woodstock, N. B., June 23—Charles Smith and Stephen Darrah, charged with the murder of Frederick Green on the night of May 7, were sent up for trial before the supreme court after the preliminary examination conducted by Police Magistrate Holyoke today. J. C. Hartley, K. C. represented the crown and Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., appeared for the defence. Aaron Green, father of the victim, was the first witness and told of the disappearance of his son, and the identification of the body found in the St. John River. Charles R. Green, brother of the late Frederick Green, corroborated his father's evidence. Mrs. Mabel Kinney swore that on the night of May 7, Charles Smith came to her house to borrow a lantern to find his hat, which he said he had lost on the bridge. This was about 11 o'clock. She next saw Smith when he returned the lantern the same night. He came into the house and in a few minutes Green came in. Smith said: "Don't let him or I will kill him." When Green came in his face was swollen and bloody and he said to Smith: "Look at my face." Smith said: "You hit me first and don't contradict me or I will kill you." Green went out, followed by Smith, and she did not see Green again. She saw Smith again and Darrah was with him. They had all been drinking and Darrah had lost his cap and asked for one to wear home. She gave him one. It was a very dark night and raining. It was near 12 o'clock when they were at his house. George Kinney's evidence was about the same given by his wife. Mrs. Elizabeth Stiles, Wilbur Smith and Jack Scriber all testified to hearing the men wrangling that night. Alfred Adams gave evidence as to finding a coat and shoe on the morning of May 8, also a broken bottle, while crossing the bridge. Willard Hopkins said the coat had blood on the front and sleeve. He took the coat and shoe home and the last time he saw it was three weeks ago. Mr. Jones, for the defence, said unless a post-mortem examination had been held it was almost impossible to determine the cause of death, whether by drowning or otherwise. Mr. Hartley said he had arranged for Dr. Mullin to come and give evidence, if necessary. He assured Mr. Jones that the evidence taken at the inquest would be given him for examination. Mr. Jones said there was no evidence whatever against Darrah. According to the evidence of Wilbur Smith, he was unconscious from drinking. He would ask for his discharge in regard to Smith there is some evidence that he had been fighting with Green and there would perhaps be a reason to hold, but Darrah was simply drunk and should be discharged from custody. The magistrate decided that as the case was so serious he would have to hold

THE PATRIOTIC FUND IN CITY OF WINNIPEG

When England declared war in August last, the Winnipeg Industrial Bureau, an organization composed of representatives of twenty-eight business houses of Winnipeg, called a public meeting of citizens the day following the declaration of war, and formulated a plan to aid in war relief work. Thus was born the Patriotic Fund, to which in sixty days following $800,000 was subscribed. The Winnipeg Patriotic Fund has a double purpose, first, for the relief of soldiers' dependents in Manitoba, and second, for the relief of distress caused by unemployment due to the war.

At a recent meeting reports for the nine months ended May 31 of the Patriotic Fund were submitted. Of the total $800,000 pledged there has been paid in cash to May 31 the sum of $600,780. At the present time the Patriotic Fund has the care of 2,179 families, representing a total of more than 10,000 wives, mothers and dependents. In addition, these lady visitors after investigating the wants of a family make charges in the finance committee of the Patriotic Fund and are allotted a sum sufficient to relieve any distress existing in that particular family.

In investigating and handling the families of soldiers' dependents, the work is carried on chiefly through the central office, of which Charles F. Holand, commissioner of the Industrial Bureau, is in charge. A soldier's wife has her monthly allowance mailed direct to her on a given date each month.

The total cost of administration in connection with the patriotic organization up to the present time has been $4,880, which is 1.21 per cent of the money disbursed. A great deal of voluntary assistance has been furnished by public spirited citizens.

The executive appointed a sub-committee called the approval committee. It meets daily and passes upon all applications received. A subsistence scale, which represents an amount of $100, approval committee judge sufficient to enable a family to be decently maintained, is carried out in dealing with all soldiers' cases. As an illustration, a wife and two children will receive from the Patriotic Fund $25 a month. In addition to this the wife receives from the Canadian government her separation al-

L. J. SEIDENSTICKER OF REFINERY IN STATEMENT AS TO HIS POSITION

"It is unfortunate at this time that there should be an impression abroad that there is anything foreign in the complexion of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Ltd. I can assure you that there is not. The men behind the directors, are men whose interests are those of your country and your cause and whose actions should be above suspicion. As for myself, I do own an unhappy name but there is nothing German about me but I am an American citizen, my mother was purely English, my sympathies are with the Allies and their cause."

This statement was made by L. J. Seidensticker, superintendent of the Atlantic Sugar Refinery, at a meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday, in response to congratulatory remarks following his very thorough exposition of the manufacture of sugar as carried on in the big refinery.

He added that it had been found necessary to employ some Germans before the outbreak of war, as most of the available sugar experts were German-Americans. Mr. Seidensticker also referred lightly to the rumors that the refinery was importing powder and explosives, and explained that this was the result of a mistake which had been made for explosives.

Another speaker at the club was Rev. W. T. Gunn, D. D., general secretary of the Congregational church in Canada. He urged two features of business and industry which, he appeared, had been lacking in Canada. These were to deal cleanly and to deal kindly. Business men had seemed to forget, there was another fellow but were looking only for themselves.

In dealing with his second point, Rev. Gunn urged that the people of Canada should suspend judgment on aliens until their real motives were known, and their sympathies probed. It had been the intention of the authorities to intern the members of whole churches in Brantford simply because they were Armenians and as such, Turkish subjects. Some German-speaking residents of Calgary had been given the cold shoulder and yet they had come from Russia and their relatives were fighting on our side.

Commissioner Wigmore presided. T. H. Estabrook moved that H. G. Mart, seconded, the vote of thanks to Mr. Seidensticker.

Had Heart Trouble FOR YEARS.
Weighted 87 Lbs.
New Weights 138 Lbs.

Miss Beatrice Longhead, Staples, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had heart trouble for quite a few years. I doctored for it, and altogether my bill amounted to $400, and still no cure. One day when very sick I was lying on a couch close to where some almanacs were hanging. I took one down, and was reading about what 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills' cured, and thought I would try them. I got six boxes to start with; have only taken three boxes and I never felt so well in my life as I do now. I only weighed 87 pounds when I started to take them, and now I weigh 138 pounds. I hope all poor sufferers will be benefited by them as I have been."

Wherever there is any weakness of the heart, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will strengthen it and build up a strong healthy system.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous
 Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure

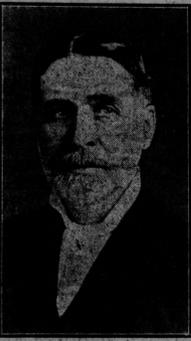

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bicarbonate of soda, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub himself on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bicarbonate of soda from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.

MAYOR FRINK'S APPEAL TO CITY AND PROVINCE

A plainly worded, straight-forward statement on the duty of recruiting in the city and province has been prepared by Mayor Frink. It is something more than an appeal in its directness of application. It will serve to bring back the imperative need for more men as the best contribution to the Canadian share in empire safety—a need that is likely to become more marked as the summer advances and the prospects of another winter campaign become more obvious. Soon, too, another call for men may be looked for in the province, for it has already been stated that the 64th battalion is to be commanded by Lieut. Col. Montgomery Campbell, and that a field battery of artillery is to be raised in the Maritime provinces.

MAYOR FRINK

The world's article follows:

SOCIALISTIC PREACHING.

All signs indicate that England, as a nation, must again undergo a trial by fire. Disquieting as it may be, the freely admitted fact is that the United Kingdom is not meeting the requirements of the crisis, and in a fight for life must go down in the dust unless the entire nation realizes the peril and rises to the emergency.

So much Socialistic preaching, so much raising of the labor union above the state, has created a class composed of the masses. The English workmen as a class no longer rever the Empire.

The leading newspapers in the United States have strongly expressed the British cause, and most prominent among them is the New York Herald. The above words appear in its editorial columns of Friday the 25th June, and reflect generally public opinion in the United States, among British residents and the majority of those citizens of the United States, who are allied with us in blood and feeling.

SHADOW OF ANOTHER EMPIRE. The statement that English workmen "as a class, no longer rever the Empire," can be made the subject of much debate, but there can be no controversy on this point—that the workmen form the great majority of the people of Great Britain, and if it be true that the majority do not rever the Empire, who will? If it be true that they are passive and indifferent to the Empire and its destiny (but the case has not been proven by any means), they are bound to learn to render obedience and do reverence to another Empire, even against their will.

UNSCRUPULOUS ENEMY. The enemy have shown on the field of battle and on the sea, that they are devoid of the sense of honor. They have shown in the fair land of Belgium brutality and bestiality which make the foulest pages of history blush, and the unbridled crime and carnage which would ensue if England were invaded can be imagined, but let us trust to God, may never be described.

THOSE WHO DARE. All honor, glory, and reward to the hundreds of men who have left this city and province to give their lives to preserve the Empire and all that is dear to us. Here where life-light has flashed out in the thicket for victory, and in thoughts of homes, men, who are seeking with all the strength and vitality that is within them for the flag of Britain and the freedom of the world.

say at this momentous period, fraught with the gravest responsibilities ever cast upon British people, that there exists within the borders of this province at least five thousand men, physically fit, and from whom a bare eight hundred have displayed sufficient courage and patriotism to unshrink the sword in defence of their homes? Will the thousands and more young men who throng the streets of this city day after day and night after night without domestic tie or encumbrance be content to shuffle along the road set apart for hybrid Britons, or will they rally to the Nelson call "and do their duty?"

Let it not be said—even from the mouths of those who bear a friendly neutrality towards us—that the United Empire is not meeting the requirements of the crisis, and in a fight for life must go down to the dust, unless the entire nation realizes the peril and rises to the emergency? But rather let us insist that Canada is doing her duty in the hour and to a man, that it will be a roll of impetuous honor, in the hour of victory and for our successors in the centuries to come. The ribs of the Empire are being forged anew. No true Briton lives who would not prefer to have been a laggon in the fire rather than have lived without an act or deed, to make an imprint on the fabric of British history. In the hour of the Lion's call let there be no weakling cry, but a full-throated roar from this province by the sea.

Yours truly, JAMES H. FRINK, Mayor.

EXPECT ITALY TO JOIN IN DARDANELLES FIGHTING

Declaration of War Looked For Very Soon—The Situation on The Dniester—That Interview With Pope

Paris, June 28, 9.45 p.m.—Announcement was made at the French ministry of war today that according to the Italian press Italy has broken diplomatic relations with Turkey. Italy, it is added, will send troops to the Dardanelles.

Berlin, June 28.—The Italian newspaper are jubilant, says the Overseas News Agency, over the announcement that Italy is to participate in the operations against the Dardanelles by sending a fleet, under the Duke of Abruzzi, to release the larger British warships for important work elsewhere.

A declaration of war by Turkey is said to be considered imminent, and the Rome newspapers are quoted as expressing the belief that Italy's action will signify a new era in the politics of the Orient.

London, June 28, 10.40 p.m.—Berlin reports the fall of the Galician town of Halicz, and says that the Austro-Germans have crossed the Dniester river, which means that the five days desperate rear-guard action by the Russians has ended in their retirement. However, the stubborn resistance of this flank of the forces of Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, has undoubtedly enabled him to reform his lines along the River Bug, virtually without interference.

The River San now takes the place of the Dniester as the scene of a sanguinary battle in the Russian effort to prevent the investment of Warsaw. Petrograd admits the retirement of the Russians to the River Gnila Lips, which is some eighty miles from the front, and falls into the Dniester at Halicz, but military experts do not expect heavy fighting along the river. They express the opinion that the next serious battle probably will occur along the Zlota Lips river, which runs parallel to the Gnila Lips further eastward, where the Russians would benefit by the railroad with which the Tarnopol line connects. These operations and plans, according to military men, confirm the theory that the Dniester forces were merely covering for the northern army.

The re-organized Russian cabinet has returned to Petrograd, after a brief conference with the Emperor and Grand Duke Nicholas. The Russian press devotes considerable attention to the re-organization of the cabinet, the convocation of the Duma and the mobilization of industry for war purposes, one writer declaring that the pronouns "we" and "they" as applied to distinguish the government from the people, will now cease to exist.

General Politrakov, who has been designated as minister of war, following the Russo-Japanese war. He has the reputation of being an excellent soldier and organizer, and enjoys considerable popularity on account of his liberal views.

Through passes 5,000 feet in altitude the Italians have entered the Austrian territory south of Riva on the western border of Italy. The news is now within six miles of Riva, which is the only important town on this lake within the limits of the Italian zone.

The Munitions Bill will not become a law until next Thursday, the committee stage having been postponed at the request of David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, for further conference with the workers.

PORTIONS OF INTERVIEW WITH THE POPE REVEALED. Rome, June 28, via Paris, 8.55 p.m.—An interview published in the Corriere D'Italia this morning with Cardinal Pietro Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, arouses great interest in Rome, as it is entirely taken up with the interview obtained last week by Louis Latapie, a member of the staff of the Paris La Liberte, with Pope Benedict.

The secretary of state says: "M. Latapie invented entirely many grave assertions. You must remember that the phrase 'isolated from the context' cannot reproduce faithfully a thought, or what is worse, it gives a meaning entirely false.

"For instance, take the quotation regarding hostages in Berlin. What confusion! The pontiff is made to mix the Jews of Galicia, the Austrian priests of Cremona and the Belgian prelates, all of which, according to M. Latapie, was covered in the allocation of January 22.

"With regard to the Jews, it was in March that Austria-Hungary sent a protest to the Holy See. The protest was not mentioned, as the Vatican could not condemn Russia on the sole affirmation of Austria-Hungary.

"The Pope was informed that Italy had taken some parish priests of the towns occupied at hostages, but the Bishop of Cremona informed him that they were being treated with every respect. Indeed, the pontiff furnishes them with funds for masses. The Pope knows all this perfectly. How, then, could he be in a category with the Belgian and French hostages, or with the Jews of Russia.

"With regard to Gen. Von Bissing, the German governor of Belgium, neither the holy father nor the secretary of state ever received a letter or a communication from him directly or indirectly. Thus the Pope could not refer to such a letter, and he did not. The letter was born of the fervid imagination of M. Latapie.

Cardinal Gasparri denies that Pope Benedict said: "It was under the pontificate of Pius X., when asked by M. Latapie if it was necessary to inquire whether the neutrality of Belgium had been violated, but the secretary of state does not say what words the pontiff used.

"But much graver is the confusion of M. Latapie when he speaks of the relations between the Holy See and Italy, continued Cardinal Gasparri. "The following is the real opinion of the pontiff.

"It is true that he wished Italy to remain outside the conflict upon receiving concessions from Austria, because he desired that Italy should not suffer the horrors of war, and he was preoccupied with the delicate position of the church if Italy entered the conflict. War once declared, the church became entirely neutral. It has not in any way tried to prevent Catholics from doing their duty, according to their conscience, and it has done everything for the spiritual welfare of the soldiers.

"The pontiff recognizes that the Italian government has done everything possible to attenuate any difficulties that might arise between it and the Holy See. The Vatican's correspondence is not being touched. But that does mean that the situation of the Holy See is normal. It does not intend to create an embarrassment for the government.

"The holy father much deplored the sinking of the Lusitania, but he could not pronounce directly on it because there was before him a question of fact regarding which each side makes different assertions."

Cardinal Gasparri ended the interview by saying: "With regard to what concerns me personally, I saw M. Latapie only a few minutes. In that time the diplomatic relations between the Holy See and France were not mentioned. M. Latapie would have done better had he maintained the promise he formally gave me not to publish anything without previous authorization. But as that formal promise was not sufficient to preserve the Holy See from such deplorable indiscretions, M. Latapie will have the honor of being the last journalist to be received by the holy father during the war."

LIFE AT CAMP SUSSEX

Some Eight Hundred Men Under Canvas—The Work and Other Features

Camp Sussex, June 29. There is hardly one feature of a military camp, which is without interest, and to one unacquainted with a camp life, its arrangement and direction would probably come as a great revelation of what perfect organization can do. Here in Sussex camp are more than 800 men—quite a good-sized town—who, like the patriarchs of old, have their domicile under canvas. This 80th Battalion comprises some of the best men in the province, and it is necessary that the very best accommodations be provided. To afford this, the highest point of land on the camp ground has been occupied, that which lies in an extreme easterly direction from the railroad track and just above the amphitheatre which nature has formed.

Here are placed 120 bell tents, distant about forty feet from each other and into each of these tents come seven or eight recruits, bringing with them all of this world's goods which as soldiers of the British Empire are permitted to carry. The tents have board floors and each man is provided with a sufficient quantity of blankets to give him comfort. At least there has been no complaint heard although in the early part of May when the camp was first established, the weather was damp and cold.

The full establishment of the 80th is 1,100 men, divided into four companies of 250 each, designated A, B, C, and D, and each company has its own row of tents at the end of which is the company cook house. Each cook house draws its own rations and here for ten or twelve hours every day a squad of men are employed cutting wood, making fires, roasting beef, cooking bread and preparing for that fundamental part and soldier called sometimes "the inner man."

Each man is responsible for his own kit and lines up at the cook house at the appointed hour to receive what is forthcoming. A sample bill of fare for dinner may be cited as two large slices of bread, mashed potatoes, a large portion of beef, or boiled beef, butter, bread, and a mug of tea. The portions served are always generous and little complaint has been heard on this score.

Just what demands are made upon a soldier may be gleaned from the following sample of a day's orders—6.45 to 7.30, physical drill; 8 to 9.30, squad drill (without arms); 10 to 11, musketry; 11 to 12, noon, squad drill (with arms); 2 to 3, extended order; 8 to 5, outpost. Sometimes there are parades at night, but most frequently the men have the evening for their own purposes.

When a recruit arrives he is placed in a special recruit squad where special instruction is given until such time as he is posted to some company.

The social and religious life of the camp is not neglected. Base-ball leagues have been formed and each company

WORK AND PLAY FOR BOYS IN THE GREAT OUT-OF-DOORS

Nearly every agency conducting an all-round programme of activities for boys has discovered that their work is not complete without some kind of a summer camp or outing which takes the boys away from their usual surroundings and gives them an opportunity to live under canvas, away from the piles of brick and stone we call cities; in the open air; to breathe pure oxygen; to bathe in sun and water; to sleep upon a bed of boughs; to hear the whisper of the trees; to sit beside the camp fire when the sun is set; to ply the oar and wield the paddle; to dive in the cool waters of the lake; to watch the stars and to commune night and day with God's great out-of-doors.

The object of the modern camp is to provide an attractive, safe and beneficial place to which parents may send their boys during the summer vacation; where they will be enabled to satisfy their natural longing for out-of-door life, and where the programme is such that it will help in the all-round development of the boy's character. It aims not only to help boys grow physically and mentally but morally, and religion is the basis of morality. The religious life of the camp is not the dry morbid and unnatural thing that boys are sometimes liable to imagine, but rather strong helpful and enjoyable. To get the right conception of the Christian life is essential to the life of the boy.

The sociability that abounds in the life of the modern camp is one of its most attractive features. The little tent groups become happy families of congenial companions; the camp itself a self-contained community where happiness reigns supreme. Expression is given to these feelings in the stunts performed around the camp-fire, the circus, the minstrel shows, concerts and even the holidays of the camp are pervaded by this spirit and elation are among the most enjoyable features of camp life.

The instruction programme of the camp of today is unique in many respects. In many camps such things as First Aid to the Injured, swimming, diving, life saving, signalling, wrestling, track and field athletics, camp craft and photography are taught the boys at certain morning periods and few boys leave camp without learning at least some of the many useful things taught.

The boys are taught war machines and games and writing and reading privileges are provided by the Y. M. C. A. The chaplain has distributed a great mass of reading material in the camp and his Bible class on Sunday afternoons has been of great interest to those who have inclinations in that direction. One of the obligations of military life here is that every man attend the church parade on Sunday.

So far the morale of the camp has been of very high standard and it is not often that so many men drawn from all ranks get together whose department is as good as that of the 80th Battalion.

HURRY AMMUNITION FROM STATES FOR THE ALLIES. New York, June 28.—It was reported here today that several concerns making war supplies for the Allies had begun shipments nearly a month ahead of the schedule previously indicated.

The Bethlehem Steel Company was today reported to have been sending out 35,000 loaded three-inch shrapnel shells for the British field artillery every day since last Monday. The Dupont powder Company was also, it was said, delivering considerable shipments of raw explosives, and it was understood that the Stevens Arms Company, whose plant was bought by the Westinghouse Electric Company for the purpose of turning out Lee-Metford rifles for the British army, was beginning to deliver guns for export.

PRaise FOR 6TH C. M. R. The 2nd Mounted Brigade at Valcartier is made up of the 4th, 5th and 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles. Following is an extract from Brigade order No. 2, which was posted at Valcartier on June 28 after inspection by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught:

"His Royal Highness Field Marshal the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, desires the camp commandant to convey to the troops his great pleasure at his visit to camp. He expressed himself especially pleased and gratified at the high state of efficiency already attained by the 2nd Mounted Brigade.

"His Royal Highness also noted with satisfaction the seal and energy displayed by officers and men of other units and proposes at a later date to visit the camp to note the progress made by them."

HAD LOST BOTH ARMS, SAID ONE REPORT

Cables Used in Effort to Learn About Sergt. Alex. Wood Whitehead

Friends of Sergeant Alexander Wood Whitehead of the Princess Patricia's are anxiously awaiting word in reply to cabled inquiries regarding his fate. He was recently reported as missing after the charge of the Patricia's from which only 180 out of 700 men returned. Since then another soldier in a letter to friends here, said he had heard that Whitehead had lost both his arms and was in a hospital. As there has been no official corroboration of this Rev. H. A. Collins has cabled to the War Office and to Whitehead's brother, asking for further news.

Mr. Whitehead was a native of London, and has been in St. John for several years. He was a member of the staff of Macaulay Brothers & Co. Deeply interested in church work he had been licensed a lay reader and resided with Rev. H. A. Collins in the clergy house of the Mission Church, St. John Baptist.
