SAILORS' STRIKE AFFECTS ATLANTIC SHIPS

FEAR WALKOUT WILL EXTEND TO LIVERPOOL

HULL CREW QUILTS

Elder Liner Forced to Delay Sailing For South Africa Today

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The unofficial strike of British seamen against an announced reduction of £1 monthly today continued its gradual extension, and at Hull the Elder liner Melville, due to sail for the west coast of Africa, was delayed by failure of the crew to sign for the voyage. It was expected, however, that a new crew would be obtained this afternoon.

The position as regards the Royal Mail liner Aranza, and the White Star liner Majestic, which have been threatened with delay at Southampton, was reported unchanged, but officials of the two companies expressed belief that the vessels would obtain men in time for their scheduled sailings.

LIVERPOOL NEXT. While thus far, no liners have been delayed in departing from Liverpool, it is feared the walkout will be extended to that port, shortly, as Edmund Shirewell, parliamentary secretary to the Department of Mines in Ramsay MacDonald's Laborite government, has arrived there to organize the men.

Early this afternoon 180 firemen and 80 seamen of the Majestic turned in their articles, but despite this the port authorities said the vessel would not sail. White Star officials declared they would obtain a sufficient crew for departure tomorrow.

DOGS TICKETED. All the entrances to the Southampton docks are picketed, however, and the strikers say alternatives cannot be obtained locally. In addition to the Majestic and Aranza, three other vessels, the Royal Mail liners Aragua and Glamorganshire, and the Union Castle mail liner Edinburgh Castle, are affected by the strike, at Southampton.

PEACE REIGNS AS HARD COAL MINERS QUIT

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 1.—Long necked, rough skinned creatures who waddled across the surface of earth long before man, monkeys and evolution, were heard of, are living in the depths of Okanagan Lake, in the southern interior of British Columbia, it was reported by John P. 158,000 MEN IDLE TODAY IN PENNSYLVANIA

No Show of Feeling As Last Squads Drop Tools

PITTS PROTECTED

First Shift of 10,000 Maintenance Men Start Policing Of Shafts

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 1.—A peaceful but complete stoppage of the hard coal fields was reported today, as a result of the suspension instituted by 158,000 mine workers, at midnight, terminating the late two-year contract with the operators. Attempts to negotiate a renewal have so far failed.

The departure of the last squads of the men was unmarked by any show of feeling.

MAINTENANCE MEN ON. The first shift of the 10,000 maintenance men, who will police the mines throughout the suspension by mutual agreement with the owners, took their assigned places without any hitch. These men are required by the Union to contribute $5 from each semi-monthly pay to the union emergency fund.

The operators will thus be indirectly contributing about $100,000 a month to the union's war chest.

All through the night, the coal trains tolled over the mountain grades—loaded gondolas outward bound; long strings of "empties" rattling back to mines for fresh loads. Railroad officials expect in another 40 hours, to dispose of the traffic rush which reached its peak just before the week-end. Their success, however, will also spell the laying off of some 10,000 railroad men, shop employees and train crews on local and through coal runs.

HOLIDAY ACTIVITY. The coal mining towns saw holiday activity today. Amusement centres throughout the region, had a heavy attendance of miners and their families. "Miners Days" were advertised here and there.

Many of the men, domestically inclined, indicated they planned to go spend the time at home; putting on porches, patching roofs, attending to improvements long put off for lack of time. The hammer and paint brush for the time being, are to replace the pick and shovel.

The closing day of the old contract was marked by a gradual tapering off in production throughout the fields. Many of the miners failed to return yesterday from the week-end. Various collieries operated short handed.

NEWSPAPER SEIZED BY ROME PREFECT

The Tribuna Carried Editorial Attacking Fascist Policies of Disziplin.

ROME, Sept. 1.—One of the editions of the newspaper Tribuna, was seized yesterday by order of the Prefect because it contained an editorial attacking the rigid policy of repressive discipline of the part of the Fascists imposed by Roberto Farinacci, secretary general of that party. A few copies of the banned edition escaped seizure.

The editorial in question alleges that the Fascist party under Farinacci, has been carrying discipline to an absurd degree, and declares that the militia was no longer intended merely to enforce order for all alike, but to stir up new enemies for the sake of an opportunity to fight in the name of discipline.

"There was a time," says the newspaper, "when Mussolini, as the type of Mussolini," and asks, "is there still a Mussolini in the party?"

ROYAL BANK NOW ABSORBS UNION

Former Grows to Institution With More Than 900 Branches.

Eight Hundred of These are in Canada—Story of Progress is Told.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—To the mind of the average person the name The Royal Bank of Canada, does not adequately convey the manifold activities of this Canadian institution with over 900 branches in Canada and with over 100 branches established in such countries as Cuba, the British and French West Indies, Haiti, Argentina, Brazil, British Honduras, British Guiana, Costa Rica, Colombia, Peru, Uruguay, Venezuela, as well as in London, New York, Paris and Barcelona.

The Royal Bank of Canada has gone much to foster Canadian trade abroad and the value of its service to exporters and importers lies, not in its regular banking business alone, but also in its willingness at all times to supply information regarding markets and marketing conditions, tariffs and confidential credit reports, etc. The value of this type of service is to be found in the fact that information is gathered direct by Managers who are not only on the spot, but know intimately the local conditions.

In a little over fifty years, The Royal Bank of Canada has grown from a purely local bank to an institution of international importance and today holds a foremost position amongst the great banks of the world.

The Royal Bank of Canada was incorporated in 1868 and its name was changed to the present title on January 1, 1901. The Head Office was transferred from Halifax to Montreal on March 2, 1907.

POLICY OF EXPANSION. During the last two decades, a vigorous policy of expansion has been followed. The assets of The Union Bank of Halifax were purchased by The Royal Bank of Canada on November 1, 1910; of The Trades Bank of Canada on September 1, 1912; of The Quebec Bank on January 2, 1917, and of The Northern Crown Bank on July 2, 1918.

The bank's facilities for serving the public in Canada have been greatly increased by the purchase of The Union Bank of Canada, announcement of which was made by The Minister of Finance at Ottawa, on May 22, 1925, and which was unanimously ratified by the shareholders of both banks on July 31. At the meeting of The Royal Bank shareholders held at the Head Office in Montreal, it was decided to increase the authorized capital of the Bank from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000, and it has always been the practice of the Bank to keep its authorized capital somewhat higher than its paid-up capital.

The purchase of The Union Bank of Canada has added another 270 offices to The Royal Bank's original chain of branches in Canada, thus giving the Bank a total of over 900 branches in the Dominion and more than 100 abroad. The merger will bring the total assets of The Royal Bank of Canada well over 700 million dollars with deposits of over $600,000,000.

The absorption of the branches of The Union Bank of Canada by The Royal Bank of Canada was effected on September 1, 1925.

DIVERS MAY WORK AT 500 FT. DEPTH

Anti-Friction Suit Invented—May Mean Much in Treasure Recovery.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The invention of an anti-friction diving suit for use under the sea at a depth of 500 feet, which may make possible the working of virgin pearl fisheries and the recovery of hitherto inaccessible wrecks, is described by Sir Frederick Young.

"Hitherto it has been possible to get divers down to deep levels of the ocean," Sir Frederick explained, "but owing to the terrific pressure below 200 feet the divers have been unable to move their limbs, and so could do nothing.

The new invention, which is in the hands of a syndicate who will probably try it out in the Scottish lochs, may make it possible for divers to work freely at a depth of 500 feet.

"The principle of the device is the production of a counter-pressure, whereby the diver can, by a mechanical means, move his limbs at a depth where hitherto he has been helpless on account of the pressure making the joints immovable." The specially constructed anti-friction joints are the new features of the diving suit.

DISQUIETING RUMORS.

The rumors which have come to these provinces that the Railway Commission might render a decision in regard to freight rates affecting another portion of the country before the case for the Maritime Provinces has been presented for consideration are of no disquieting nature that the Board of Trade of this city, as well as Premier Rhodes of Nova Scotia, deemed it in the public interest to wire the Railway Commission urging that no such action be taken.

It is said that Mr. Armand Lavergne may be the Conservative candidate in Bagot, Quebec, in the coming federal election. Time was when Mr. Lavergne was very far from being Conservative in his point of view.

Women as Drivers

Pump, dark-haired women make the best auto drivers, according to Harry Rosen, Toledo auto salesman and demonstrator.

UP TO PRESIDENT BEATTY.

Our friend the sea serpent appears to have disappeared into the limbo of past eras. Feeling, no doubt, that the press and the public yearn for something to take the place of the monster and excite the imagination, the people dwelling around Okanagan Lake have discovered a lake serpent.

This is very interesting and thrilling, but there is a dark suspicion that Sir Henry Thornton may be at the bottom of the story.

"Women always have the right of way. They never are wrong in an accident. It's the other fellow's fault, always."

Beverbrook and the Governor-General

In the course of an editorial on the Governor-Generalship of Canada, the London Daily Express, (Lord Beaverbrook's paper), in advocating the appointment of Admiral Lord Beatty says:

"The atmosphere which surrounds the relations between Canada and Britain is peculiarly difficult just now. The efforts of British statesmen to evolve, in the first place Great Britain and in the second place the rest of the Empire, in the tangle of European military commitments, have tended to throw Canada into the diplomatic orbit of the American Republic—which is resolute to keep out of Europe."

Can Animals Talk?

Nearly a century and a half ago an Austrian author named Votiel published a book in which he set down what were purported to be the conversations of cats, dogs, chickens, etc.

To say the least, however, it is doubtful whether animals carry on conversations consisting of a variety of words in the sense that human beings do. But there is no question that by changing quality of the voice animals do convey variations of emotion in precisely the same way that we ourselves convey them.

While man uses a variety of vowel sounds and an even larger number of consonants, the individual members of the animal kingdom makes use of only two or three of each, sometimes even only one of each.

In the case of the lamb, the vowel is the short "a," which is used in such a word as "hand." As the animal grows the cavity increases in size, but does not alter materially in shape.

By reason of their greater lingual proficiency, the dog and the donkey introduce a slight change into their cry. The dog follows the broad "u" sound by the broad "oo" the alteration of vowel sound being effected by the gradual closing of the mouth.

The cat is one of the few animals which include three vowels in their repertoire. After the preliminary humming of the "m," with the lips closed, it gives vent to "ee," "ah" and "oo" in succession.

Small birds are mostly associated with the vowel "ee," owing to the small cavity through which the tone is projected. As to consonants, "k" and "g" are almost the only ones used by birds.

Trades of Animals and Insects.

A list of the things that animals and insects do is ingeniously given by R. C. Dagne as follows:

Bees are geometers. The cells are constructed so that with the least quantity of material they have the largest space and least possible loss of gaps.

The mole is a meteorologist. He is an electrician. The nautilus is a navigator. He raises and lowers sails, casts and weighs anchor, and performs other nautical acts.

Whole tribes of birds are musicians. The beaver is an architect, builder and wood cutter. He cuts down trees and erects houses and dams.

The weaver is a civil engineer. He not only builds houses for himself, but aqueducts and drains to keep them dry.

Wags and hornets manufacture paper, and it is said that the invention of paper as we have it is due to the fact that a Mongolian got the idea from watching hornets make their nests out of a pulp which they got from weeds and straw and other vegetation.

Caterpillars make silk threads, and here again the invention of silk got their first ideas of manufacturing silk fabrics.

Ants are architects and military geniuses. They construct their affairs on the co-operative or socialistic plan, and may be also regarded as statesmen.

The squirrel is a ferryman. With a chip or a piece of bark for a boat and his tail for a sail he crosses the stream.

Dogs, wolves, lions, tigers, panthers, are great hunters, and often when they have more meat than they can eat at a meal they will dig a hole in the ground, put the meat in it, then cover it with earth and leaves.

Much has been written by men trying to explain the difference between animal instinct and human reason. There is a difference in degree certainly, but it is hard to determine just what point instinct stops and reason begins.

Jumping the Seas (Boston Post)

A year ago today the American round-the-world flyers were in Greenland, preparing for their last dash down the North American coast.

The approaching attempt, however, of American aviators to jump from California to Hawaii and of French fliers to leap from Paris to New York should again stimulate progress in ocean flight.

It seems almost inevitable that the flying ship, whether airplane or dirigible, must within a few years challenge the supremacy of the steamship. Oceanic flights like these near at hand bring closer the day.

Say That Maritimes Should Advertise More

That there was room for the wider advertising of the Maritime Provinces and that there was no doubt that they had been neglected were opinions expressed by members of the party of 10 British journalists now touring Canada as guests of the Canadian Pacific Railway when they passed through Saint John last night on their way to Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and the West of Canada.

They were particularly struck by the similarity between the farms of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and those in the Old Country and expressed the opinion that the Maritime farming districts would make admirable homes for British settlers, especially those who had had some experience with the raising of chickens and fruit in addition to the other branches of agriculture.

PROTECTION FOR SEALS

SITKA, Alaska, Sept. 1.—But one year remains of the 11-year treaty signed by Canada, Japan, Russia and the United States, whereby the protection of the seal rookeries of the Pribilof Islands was handed over to the American government. However, at the end of the period it is believed that another similar and perhaps more stringent protective act will be promulgated.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Naming the Maid. Blank—"Why do you call the maid Radio?" Tank—"She's always listening-in!"

Only One Way. "Didn't you tell me you got into Mrs. Thompson's good graces by asking her if she were her daughter or herself?" "Yes, what about it?" "Well, I tried the same plan with the daughter and it didn't work a bit."

No Reason. Rufus—"Don't you suggest men and women, big boys, be an elephant at even worm will turn." Goofus—"Dat shows jes' how foolish you is—then's yourself to worm. What do or worm want to turn too, when it's de same on the udder side?"

Fiekie. Jack—"You know, that girl reminds me a lot of a magazine." Jack—"Which one, Popular?" Jack—"None. 'Everybody's.'"

What Did She Mean? (Smiles.) "Yes, when she wasn't looking I kissed her." "What did she do?" "Refused to look at me for the rest of the evening."

Flights of Fancy. The children were busy at play in the nursery. "Don't you wish you were a bird and could fly?" suggested Beryl. "I'd much rather be an elephant and squirt water down by nose," answered her brother.—London Post.

MAKES MOTION

Councillor O'Brien moved that the Municipality accede to the request of the New Brunswick Power Company for an advance of $26,000, providing that the company enter into an agreement with the Municipality to hand over the $2,000 paid annually for lighting, and to pay the difference between that sum and the sum due for three yearly periods.

The letter was addressed to Councillor John T. O'Brien, of the Lancaster Highway Board. It said that in connection with the improvement of highways in Lancaster the company had expended about $15,000 in rebuilding tracks and found it impossible to finance the proposed relaying work, amounting to about $26,000 in the section from Fairville Corner to the bridge. It asked that the board advance the amount in order to permit the company to carry on its work, and offered the repayment of the sum in three yearly instalments for three years after the completion of the work in Prince street. He thought the company was having a hard time to finance rebuilding at the present time.

QUESTION OF SECURITY

Councillor John T. O'Brien, to whom the letter was addressed, said he had been approached by M. A. Pooler, general manager of the Power Company, in regard to the matter, and that the letter was the outcome. He said there had been a choice of the Bridge road and Prince street when the matter of financing the road work was talked, and it had been decided to complete the work in Prince street. He thought the company was having a hard time to finance rebuilding at the present time.

RESOLUTION CARRIES

Councillor Wigmore said that he would support the motion, in spite of the fact that it was bad business and was not to be voted for the motion as he was not sure that the city might not be liable in case of a lapse.

POWER CO. LOAN PLAN ENDORSED

County Financial Committee Will Ask Council to Advance $26,000.

Light Money Will be Security—Councillor Frink Votes Against Proposition.

The finance committee of the Municipal Council yesterday afternoon passed a resolution asking the council to accede to the written request of the New Brunswick Power Company for the advance by the Parish of Lancaster of a loan of $26,000 to finance the work of resurfacing and rebuilding the tracks from Fairville Corner to the highway bridge over the Reversing Falls.

The motion was passed with one dissenting vote after several members of the committee had criticized the action as poor business and a bad precedent, but supported it on the grounds that it was the only visible remedy for the very bad condition of the highway.

TO KEEP LIGHT MONEY.

The motion contained a clause calling on the New Brunswick Power Company to let the parish hold the money annually paid for lighting, about $2,000 during the time of payment of the sum advanced, and to pay the difference between that sum and the sum due for three yearly periods.

The letter was addressed to Councillor John T. O'Brien, of the Lancaster Highway Board. It said that in connection with the improvement of highways in Lancaster the company had expended about $15,000 in rebuilding tracks and found it impossible to finance the proposed relaying work, amounting to about $26,000 in the section from Fairville Corner to the bridge. DIMMING LAW IS UNDER FIRE

Jury Urges Periodical Government Inspection of Auto Lights

Harry Stone Freed of Blame in Connection With Death of Louine Amburg.

Beside exonerating Harry Stone, 27 Bentley street, the driver of the car which struck Louine Amburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Amburg, 1874 Erin street, in Robbsey avenue, near the Crosby molasses factory Saturday evening, the jury dying at the General Public Hospital that night as a result of injuries received when struck, the jury spanned to inquire into the death of the girl at the inquest held in the Court House last night, strongly recommended that the Provincial Government change the present dimming law and replace same with periodical Government inspection of automobile lights.

VIEWS ON LIGHTS.

"We feel that the death of Louine Amburg was largely due to the present inefficient dimming regulations. We further recommend that a law requiring lights on all other vehicles should be strictly enforced." This was the final clause in the verdict returned by the jury. Coroner H. A. Porter presided. The jury was composed of John Bates, foreman; J. Arthur Lindsay, J. M. Dincock, L. O. Patchell, Harry Lugin, Harry Coleman and Isaac Webber.

SEVEN WITNESSES.

Seven witnesses were called. Doctor Perry Kane, intern at the General Public Hospital, who was present when the Amburg girl was admitted to the institution; Harry Stone, driver of the car, which struck the girl; Clement Moore, the 18-year-old boy, who took the Amburg girl for a ride on his bicycle on Saturday evening; Charles Fennell, Rothersey avenue, into whose house the girl was carried after the accident; Mrs. Fennell, Miss Catherine McCrossin, a neighbor and finally Mrs. Joseph Amburg, mother of the girl.

DRIVER TESTIFIES.

Harry Stone, the driver of the car, said that he was coming towards the city and arrived at the Crosby molasses factory at about 8:30 o'clock. He would judge that he was proceeding at a rate of seven or eight miles an hour. A car approached going towards Rothersey. Witness asserted that this car did not dim its lights and the glare was blinding in its effect. Witness reported that the other car was traveling at a "good rate."

Mr. Stone testified that beside being blinded by the other car's headlights, he was practically forced into the ditch as the oncoming motor was in the centre of the road. In answer to J. Starr Tait, who was present in the interests of Stone, witness said he was alone on a pleasure ride and had had nothing to drink for three weeks preceding the accident.

BOY'S EVIDENCE.

Clement Moore, 26 Hanover street, said that the girl had asked him to take her for a ride on his bicycle. They went out to the Crosby plant, turned and stopped, as she complained of being tired. He was sitting on the bicycle and the girl was standing between him and the road when they were struck. The rest of Moore's evidence was practically identical with Stone's.

Exhibition Speech Making Monday

The form of the opening of the Saint John Exhibition will be changed this year, the opening proper on Saturday night simply consisting of a salvo of bombs and the flashing on of the lights. The speeches which usually accompany this event will be deferred until Labor Day, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when they will be given just previous to the amusement show before the grandstand.

The exhibition will be run on standard time for two reasons. The first is to accommodate the visitors from outside the city who are using that time and the second is to give the working man in the city an extra hour to enjoy the show.

Barrow, the business manager of the club, said today: "Find us a customer, somebody who will take Ruth's contract, and his upkeep, his overhead in gray hairs, care, toll and trouble, and we might talk business. Can you think of any club owner who would want to undertake such a job?"

Just Some of the Thrillers AT SAINT JOHN EXHIBITION

Girl flung around by Whip 50 feet high in bullet-speed acrobatics. . . . Bike Rider dashes down 100 feet incline, soars 75 feet, kicks clear of Bike and Dives into 30 inches of water. . . . Trained White Arab Steeds in bareback tricks, led by Cæsar, the Peerless Dancing Horse. . . . Bounding Acrobatic Clown Troupe. . . . Champion Fancy Roller Skaters. . . . And World's Leading Ladies' Symphony Orchestra—greatest musical treat in many years.

Four Famous Concerts Daily

It cost nearly a fortune to get the FADETTES for the Saint John Exhibition of Sept. 5-12. No such Musical Feast in fifteen years. No such Exhibition, for that matter in fifteen years. By now the Fadettes have travelled fifty times the length of the world, playing only at the biggest Shows and Theatres of all. But Saint John has landed them. Hear them play the most treasured music treats, any one you care to ask for.

Don't See This If You Have a Weak Heart

Down the long tall Hill races the Mad Bike Rider—Fearless Knight! High up! Up into the Air he is shot!—Bike and all—He Breaks Clear of the Bike—Twists His Body slowly—Why he is Coming Down Face First!—Gracious! Seventy-five feet Down—Swish! into thirty inches of Water—and SAFE!

Performing Horse Troupe

No such feats of grace and cleverness have appeared in Circus history to equal the performance of Holland's Famous Hippodrome Horses. The great-grandparents of the Hollands were noted Bareback Riders—so were their grandparents—so in turn were their fathers and mothers. But critics everywhere who remember those of old say the Hollands hit a new high mark in both stunts and beauty of turn-out.

LAUGH! You'll Almost Die

The three Everetts are the darndest of Clowns. They never stop, hardly give you a chance to get over the laugh. You just can't keep your face in shape and you need a hanky handy to stop those fun-fed tears.

When the High Whip Cracks

FIFTY feet aloft, swinging and swaying at the tiny tip of a thin and springy Steel Whip—Ruth Clayton plays, performs and passes from peril to peril—while hearts stop beating below.

Fast ground tumbling, comedy acrobatics and bounding on the trampoline. They're in the air all the time. The trampoline won't let their feet stay on the ground and they go somersaulting, bumping in mid air, doing the craziest things that Clowns get away with.

AS the Whip flies back and forth and round and round under the wind and her whirling acrobatics, Ruth does everything but fall if she can keep from being thrown. From one contortion to another, from one trapeze stunt to another and finally—holding on only by her teeth, she speeds down in a spin so terrific you see but a graceful blur.

Then they do a Barber skit and another called the Dynamite Factory. But that would be telling. See them at the Saint John Exhibition—and die happy.

Charming Roller Skaters

Round they go—in and out—in the poetry of rhythmic motion—intricate and graceful figures and novelty roller skating. Wheeler and Wheeler are known far and wide for their sensational turns—pivots, splits, toe spins and double whirling.

See everything at the Saint John Exhibition—Sept. 5 to 12.

PREMIER-ELECT BAXTER TO PRESENT CHIEF TROPHY AT BANQUET

CITY LEAGUE CLOSING TO BE HELD SEPT. 9 Final Arrangements Being Completed For End of Season

PREMIER-elect Baxter will present the gold watch to the player selected as the most valuable one of the closing banquet of the City Senior League in the Admiral Beatty Hotel on the night of Wednesday, September 9, according to announcement this morning. Hon. Dr. Baxter said, when approached on the matter by the league president, that so far as he was aware there is no other important engagements which would interfere with his being present. He said he would be very glad to present the watch, if at all possible to do so. With this promise the committee in charge is going ahead and have completed arrangements with Manager Peters of the Admiral Beatty for the holding of the banquet on the night of September 9 when the trophies won during the year will be presented.

WILL PRESENT CUPS Other prominent men who will be present will include His Worship Mayor Potts, Commissioner Wigmore, J. C. Chesley, Frank White, honorary president of the seniors, H. Arthur Peters and others. (Hon. Mr. Wigmore will present his trophy to "Bunker" Murphy, the league's leading pitcher, while Mr. Chesley will present his cup to Paul Fraser, the league's leading base stealer. The cup donated by the Admiral Beatty Hotel for the leading batter goes to Earl Nelson, the assembly star of the Royals, and this will be presented by Manager Peters. Mayor Potts, it is expected, will present the McLellan Cup to the Water Department team, champions of the City League, while the Draper-McNard trophy, also won by the Watermen, will be presented by Ray Hanson, former sporting editor of The Times-Star. There will be an orchestra in attendance and an entertainment programme is planned with "Steve" Matthews in the leading role. Altogether, it should be a gala night in the history of amateur baseball.

JURY SELECTED The jury to select the most valuable player has finally been selected and ballots for voting will go forward the latter part of the week. The name of this player will not be announced until the closing banquet. Nearly 100 reservations, including ball players and complimentary, have been made and sport boosters are planning to attend. It is expected a general gathering will be present to do honor to the winners. Tickets for the banquet, which are limited, will go on sale early next week.

SOCCER SERIES TO OPEN THURSDAY Sons of England and St. Andrews Clash First For McAvity Cup. Representatives of the Sons of England and the St. Andrew's soccer football clubs met in the Allison ground clubhouse last evening and decided to play a series of three games for the McAvity cup. The games will be played on the Allison grounds and will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock in order to get in as much play as possible before darkness sets in. The first game between these two teams will be played Thursday evening and the second on Tuesday next. If a third game is necessary, the date will be decided upon later. The soccer games played on the Barrack Green last year drew large crowds of followers of this branch of sport to the scene of action. The two teams in the league this year are well matched and are expected to put up a great battle in the opening game Thursday evening.

MODEL YACHT RACES The Model Yacht Club will hold races for the 80-inch and "C" class yachts on the Lily Lake course tonight.

SENATORS' GRIP ON TITLE TIGHTENING Crucial 2-Game Series With Athletics Starts Today at Capital. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Connie Mack brought his battered Philadelphia Cobbers back from the west today to give battle to Washington in the first round of a final stand to rescue the American League leadership from the tightening grip of Clark Griffith's Senators. A two-game series starts at the capital today. The road trip of the Mackmen through the west dimmed their pennant hopes. Two wins in twelve starts constituted the fourth straight triumph over the Phillies, 10 to 3. Good pitching by Meadows, and powerful hitting, gave the leaders an advantage of seven and one-half games over the Giants. The Boston Braves, fighting to climb from the senior circuit pit, edged within two points of seventh place by squaring their series with the Giants two games apiece. Bunched hits off Kaufman, gave the Hub victory at 5-3.

Finnish Athletes From Montreal To Compete at Halifax Saturday

12,000 FANS PRESENT AT BRAVES' FIELD FOR TRAYNOR TESTIMONIAL

His first name is Harold and his favorite dish is pie. So they call him "Pie" Traynor, the best third baseman under the big tent. Last week at Boston, 12,000 fans crowded into the Braves' park to show their appreciation of his sterling worth. They gave him an apple pie, three feet in circumference with a bushel of apples in it; a diamond stickpin; a gold wrist watch; a $200 travelling bag; diamond cuff links. We are not so much interested in what he got, but WHY he got it. Maybe, the secret is contained in a little story told of him by his uncle, "Steve" Matthews, of this city, who was present at the celebration, and who returned Saturday. After the game was over, Traynor discovered his diamond cuff links had been stolen. He put a note in the Boston papers asking whoever took them to be a sport and return them. A guess who showed up the next morning? A little ragged urchin, who said, "Gee, Mr. Traynor, I didn't know they were yours. I thought they belonged to some swell guy. I couldn't keep them when I found it was you." "Pie" Traynor gave him $50 and his blessing. "But the boy hung around and looked up at 'Pie' rather wistfully. 'Say, could you give me a baseball with your name on it, to show the kids in my block?'" "Pie" Traynor gave him five. "Is it any wonder they think so much of him up around here? This boy is 26 years old. He earns $9,000 a year. Next year he will get $12,000. He bought his mother a house and a sedan this year. He sends her regularly a weekly sum that would stagger you." He's a real boy and we are all proud he has Bluenose blood in him.

INGRAHAM'S FINE SHOWING IN JUNIOR SINGLES WAS SURPRISE OF BIG MEET

The excitement attendant to the holding of the Maritime championship regatta on Saturday last still has not died down and the many surprises and upsets furnish a lively topic in local sporting circles. Chief of the surprises was the remarkable showing made by Ronald Inghram, the seventeen-year-old High School boy, who made such a sensational showing in the junior singles. One Saint John man who was present said this morning "Inghram was the hero of the regatta and was given a great ovation." He unfortunately, turned the buoy wrongly little from his performance as the mile race was due solely through inexperience. He is a well-built boy and much is expected from him in future contests. The Halifax Herald says regarding the senior and junior events: Defeat of favorites was in all events. The opening shock of the regatta was when Joe Reardon, young Jubilee sculler, won easily the senior single sculls. While Reardon was one of the favorites and lost the event last year by a few feet, the entrance of Alfred Scallion, harbor champion and clubber last evening and decided to play a series of three games for the McAvity cup. The games will be played on the Allison grounds and will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock in order to get in as much play as possible before darkness sets in. The first game between these two teams will be played Thursday evening and the second on Tuesday next. If a third game is necessary, the date will be decided upon later. The soccer games played on the Barrack Green last year drew large crowds of followers of this branch of sport to the scene of action. The two teams in the league this year are well matched and are expected to put up a great battle in the opening game Thursday evening.

Games Tonight In the South End League this evening, the Trojans and Saint Johns are scheduled for what promises to be a hard-fought battle. The Trojans now are leading in the fight for the cup but the Saints still have a chance to overtake them. Kerr and Tippett probably will be the opposing twisters. On the Fair Vale diamond this evening the Fair Vale Seniors will play an exhibition game with the Fair Vale Warriors.

MONCTON TEAM MAY PLAY HERE ON SATURDAY

MONCTON may play here on Saturday in the semi-finals of the New Brunswick senior baseball championships, according to W. E. Stirling, vice president of the Maritime Amateur Union, who has taken over complete charge of the provincial play-offs, this morning. This is just a tentative arrangement yet and is dependent on a win for the Water Dept. team, champions of the City League, over the Sussex team, champions of the Kings county league, at Sussex tonight, and also on a clean-up of the series now going on in Moncton between the M. A. A. and Cardinals. The M. A. A. beat their rivals in the first game on Saturday last 14 to 4 and these two teams meet again tonight. A win for the M. A. A. will give them the city title and the right to meet the Watermen here Saturday, provided the Watermen polish off Sussex tonight. Mr. Stirling said that Bathurst, winners of the North Shore League, and Chatham, winners of the Miramichi League, were scheduled to play this evening in the first game of a series to decide the northern championship. He said he had been advised by E. W. Walling, amateur representative at Chatham that the second game would be played on Thursday night of this week. If these three series can be cleaned up this week, the latter part of next week should see the way clear for the New Brunswick finals. Just at this juncture, it looks like Chatham and the Watermen but then the dope is always being upset. Handled with probably hurt for the local champions tonight. The Watermen are taking along their strongest lineup. CHATHAM, N. B., Aug. 31.—Chatham again leads the Miramichi League by virtue of their victory over Nelson. This was the final game on the schedule. The game was one of the best witnessed here this season. Veno pitched a no-hit, no-run game. The locals touched Briggs, the visiting hurler, for two strikeouts. This is the fourth time the locals have topped the league. They have been winners since its inception four years ago. This is their second year to hold the Burchill Cup, donated by the league last year by G. P. Burchill. Handled with probably hurt for the local champions tonight. The Watermen are taking along their strongest lineup.

However, I intend to discuss these matters with my husband when he returns." There is no friction between my husband and I," she said. "Reports of it are nonsense." She also denied reports that she is preparing to sue her husband for $100,000 and separation maintenance.

Appreciation "TACK" DALTON and "Bunker" Murphy, two of the most popular ball players of the City Senior League, who between them won most of their games for the St. John the Baptists by their exceptionally fine pitching this year, were pleasantly surprised last evening by members of the baseball committee, who called at their respective homes and presented them with a handsome club bag, each with a handsome club bag. The initials of each were inscribed on the gifts. E. Lowe, chairman, made the presentations, being accompanied by S. Daley and L. McGivern. Both are college boys who won their B. A. degrees this year and who intend pursuing their studies still further. Murphy may go to Boston, and it is understood. Dalton may go to McGill, although nothing definite has been settled yet. Both boys ranked with the leading pitchers this year, Murphy winning the handsome Wigmore Trophy as leader.

PENNSYLVANIA JUDGE FOR LOCAL DOG SHOW IN EXHIBITION WEEK

Close to 200 entries were received by the committee in charge of the annual dog show, run by the New Brunswick Kennel Club in conjunction with the Saint John Exhibition, up to late last night, according to a report made by Francis Kerr. Although the entries were to have closed yesterday, the committee has decided to extend the closing entry date until tonight. Several Upper Canadian entries are expected in this morning's mail and it is felt that many local dog owners will enter their canines today. Today, tomorrow and Thursday, the cups to be awarded the winning dogs will be on exhibition in George Gray's window, Main street, and after that in the show windows of W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd. The usual ribbon trophies will also be presented.

Ten Commandments Proves Wonderful Picturization of Biblical Story

Theatre is Thronged—Striking Scene as Red Sea Waters Divide for Israelites.

"The Ten Commandments" at the Imperial Theatre casts a wide net and may well gather in all the intelligent people of Saint John or any other community. It filled the big theatre three times to utmost capacity yesterday. Its appeal is comprehensive and takes in the fundamentalist, the modernist, the liberalist, the sceptic, the Hebrew, the Christian—everybody.

As an Egyptian spectacle, it will appeal to some because of its gorgeous representation of Pharaoh's magnificence, the solemn temples, avenues of Sphinxes, strange and costly apparel, multitudes of harem and chariots, and the stupendous figure of Pharaoh himself—handsome, haughty, scornful, cruel, a man unrivaled in appearance in recent drama.

The theatrical handling of the delivery from slavery and the exodus from Pharaoh's cities is remarkably carried out. Herds of sheep and goats, camels and oxen, asses and cattle, thronging out over the desert. One may question whether Pharaoh was historically what tradition represents him to be. But his character today is as irrefragable as that of Richard III. Still we are learning something about the Egyptians and this picture will certainly excite a vivid interest.

Pharaoh is shown just after the ninth plague, and still he refuses to let Israel go. Moses comes before him as haughty and as assertive as Pharaoh himself, and these historic interviews are tenaciously dramatic.

The picture does not profess to show all the 600,000 men, besides children, which the record states left Egypt, but there is a fair showing and when the column of several thousand oxen get into the desert the films are finely colored, so that the cattle, the costumes, the trappings and baggage, as well as the desert sands, are strikingly natural.

Then comes the rally of Pharaoh, enraged over the death of his first-born. His great assembly of 600 chariots and horses, and the pursuit over the sands is a wonderful scene. The Hebrew people have arrived at the Red Sea and hope of escape seems to have vanished. Moses prayerfully implores Divine succor and there is a division of the waters on the right hand and the left, so that the Israelites do get over on dry ground. Pharaoh gave the order to plunge into the narrow way between the walls of water. The overwhelming of his host is as sensational as anything ever seen on the screen. The great waves break over the chariots and horses and they are buried under vast torrents of water, while the shattered fragments are tossed on the boiling waves. After this Moses goes to Sinai and receives the commandments amid dazzling and startling lightnings—a thrilling effect.

While Moses is busy carving the tablets of stone, Aaron grows idolatrous and sets up the golden image of the calf. It inspires the Hebrews to Bacchanalian orgies. Moses sees this and expresses his righteous disapproval by flinging the tablets of stone at the golden image, whereupon a devastating blast of lightning shivers it to pieces.

This turns out to be only the prelude to a highly up-to-date modern episode in which, to begin with, a wholesome mother reads the story just illustrated to her two sons, one of whom declares: "That's all bunk, mother. The Ten Commandments were buried with Queen Victoria," while the other son preserves a proper reverence for his mother and her faith.

How these two sons—Richard Dix and Monte Blue—take divergent paths in life, how their love affairs become entangled, what happens to them in the succeeding six reels, is a powerful application of the Ten Commandments to our life of today. The double drama is a powerful preaching and the production as a whole truly wonderful.

"THE TRAIL RIDER" HAS MANY THRILLS

Buck Jones and Mack Sennett Entertain at Gaiety Theatre.

What's in a thrill? To see Buck Jones in "The Trail Rider" at the Gaiety Theatre is the best answer in the world to the question. This William Fox production started a two-day run last night. The film is an adaptation of George Washington Ogden's novel about the old cattle days in Kansas, when men rode the border to keep diseased herds from crossing the line into the "Crydane State". There are battles galore, acres of cattle, more picturesque landscape than can be rolled up in a dream tent and a well-strung story that holds interest all the way.

Never in this great terrestrial sphere could a director get a man to do those stunts against his will as are done by Buck Jones. That hombre can toss a wicked shooting iron as ever spit flame.

There are two girls in this picture, Nancy Deaver and Lucy Fox. A fellow needs a jury to help him decide which is the prettier. At that, they would probably be unable to agree.

A Lyman Howe "Hodge Podge" and a two-reel Sennett comedy rounds out the bill, which will be shown for the last time tonight.

LAUGHTER RULES AT OPERA HOUSE

Abie's Irish Rose, Great New York Success, Presented.

Saint John Theatre Patrons See It for First Time, and Enthuse.

The eccentricities of two of the principal races that go to make up the American public—the Irish and the Hebrews—form the foundation upon which Anne Nichols has built the record-smashing comedy, "Abie's Irish Rose," which was presented to Saint John audiences for the first time last evening in the Opera House. It is no wonder that the play achieved the success that it has in the principal cities of the United States and Canada from the overture until the final curtain there is not a dull moment; laugh follows upon laugh so closely that the action and dialogue must be suspended in order to give the audience an opportunity to recover its breath; there was no doubt that every minute of the performance was enjoyed to the utmost.

As to the play, its record speaks for itself. For the cast, each member was assigned a part for which nature and his or her own special talent fitted him or her to perfection. But while each of the players presented an almost flawless interpretation, there was one character that stood out, and for which all the others seemed to form a complement.

That character was Solomon Levy, played by Nat Koff. His every word and gesture were to the manner born and the wealth of comedy with which he presented his role was picked up and echoed and re-echoed in peals and roars of laughter by the large audience. Second only to him, however, was the limelight role of Patrick Joseph Murphy, his vis-a-vis, played in a finished manner by John McCabe.

When these two came together the sparks began to fly and it was only through the conciliatory efforts of their respective friends, Rabbi Jacob Samuels, excellently portrayed by F. B. Hersome, and Father Wialden, formed in fine style by Thomas McGrath, that there was not copious bloodshed at several stages in the action of the play.

In the name parts Miss Dorothy Webb, as Rosemary Murphy, and Ted W. Gibson, as Abraham Levy, children of the warring parents, both left nothing to be desired. They worked out a pretty love story, which ran the gamut of all the parental objections and obstructions, to a pleasing finality, which in its achievement necessitated no less than three separate weddings.

Directed by a Methodist minister, next by the rabbi and finally by the priest. And just for good measure, into the

COMEDY AND THRILLS AT QUEEN SQUARE

"Zander The Great" is Fast Moving Story With Plenty Heart Interest.

"Zander the Great," the famous stage play, adapted for the screen by Frances Marion and starring Marion Davies, was shown at the Queen Square Theatre last night. Perhaps never in her career has Miss Davies been so admirably cast as in the role of "Mamie," the demure, whimsical yet humorous heroine of "Zander the Great."

A different angle and a new twist play are injected the characters of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cohen, a laugh-provoking pair, of which the female member exercises a decided domination—both physically and spiritually—over the other half of the combination. Into the hands of Marty Ford and Miss Ida Singer are these two mirth-making roles placed, and it would be difficult to make a better selection. They live the parts, and in the living they carry their audience along on a tidal wave of side-splitting humor that cannot be denied them.

Miss Gladys Brown and Helen Lombly made attractive flower girls, while as bridesmaids, Misses Edna Price, Yvonne Stage, Gertrude McPherson and Alice Wialden were very charming.

The stage settings and electrical effects were complete and appropriate while the Opera House orchestra, under the direction of J. Bayard Currie, gave a fine musical programme during the intervals.

Judging by last night's performance, "Abie's Irish Rose" is bound to sustain the reputation it has achieved already and the engagement at the Opera House, which continues all week, should be popular.

DOMESTIC DRAMA IS PALACE FEATURE

"Alimony" Proves Great Picture—Larry Semon Also in Roaring Comedy.

"Alimony," an interesting domestic problem play, presented on the screen, was the attraction that drew a large audience to the Palace Theatre last evening.

The play is by A. T. Locke and depicts the danger that lies in wait for married couples who, though happy in poverty, encounter difficulties when money begins to roll in. As an entirely new twist, "Alimony" proves to be the one thing which brings them together after a divorce.

"Alimony" is the woman's story all through, and Grace Darmond, at the magnificent wife who believed that the same bluntness which brought her husband success would guide him safely through the shoals of prosperity, is a distinct and charming personality.

Warner Baxter, as Jimmie, her misguided husband, makes an exceedingly difficult role convincing.

Making her American film debut in "Alimony" is a well-known English actress, leading roles for years on the continent with Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree. Miss Ruby Miller as Gloria, the "other woman," does highly creditable acting.

Larry Semon is shown in "The Cloud Hopper," one of his latest comedy creations. Tonight is the last showing of these two fine pictures at the Palace.

Producer of "Sea Hawk" Repeats Triumph in "Her Husband's Secret."

Picture fans who have seen racy, jazzy melodramas and serio-comedies aplenty during the past few months will do well to visit the Unique Theatre to view Frank Lloyd's "Her Husband's Secret." This first National adaptation of the May Edgington Saturday Evening Post story, "Judgment," is decidedly different from anything seen in a long time and—delightfully different.

It is a story which should appeal to all classes; it should entertain the younger generation, and mother and father and grandpa and grandma can enjoy it equally.

Lloyd, whose "The Sea Hawk" will long cling to our memory, proves himself a rare artist in the development of the action. He works with broad sweeping strokes and with the finest of detail. The thrilling climax to the picture makes one's blood fairly turn cold, yet the romance of the two couples is so delicately handled that the reviewer feels like an intruder as the games in the garden and at the fireside flicker past. Indeed, "Her Husband's Secret" is no ordinary entertainment—it is in the class with the best.

Mrs. F. P. Cowgill Comes From Atlanta to Old Home Here

Speaks of Phases of Activities as Supervisor of Children's Home.

After an absence of seven years from Saint John, Mrs. F. P. Cowgill of Atlanta, Georgia, arrived on the Governor Dinwoodey this morning to renew associations among her many friends. She was formerly a prominent worker in Trinity church here. Mrs. Cowgill has suffered bereavement since leaving here in the loss of her husband, who died in 1921. She took up social service work and is now district supervisor of the Georgia Children's Home in Atlanta. Mrs. Cowgill is here for a visit and will take a six months' course in Philadelphia in intensive family case work before returning to her duties in the south. From what she says of the work, it is similar to that done here in the Children's Aid Home, which is a teaching home for children who need homes and who must be made fit for them before being placed.

Mrs. Cowgill said that the difficulty of financing was overcome largely by the method of raising money for community affairs in Atlanta. Instead of numerous community drives or tag days, one big drive was held for the "community chest." She was enthusiastic about the work and expected to visit the Children's Aid here and to compare the home with the one in Atlanta. As the children must have particular care to be brought into a proper physical and moral state, only 50 were allowed in the home at a time, she said. All the field workers and supervisors were women, as they were considered more competent to judge of the requirements of children and the homes in which they should be placed. The superintendent is a man. Visits are made at unexpected times to investigate the homes where the children are fostered and every care is taken to see that everything is satisfactory.

Mrs. Cowgill is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Oscar England, with whom she resides in Atlanta. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Peck at their home in East Saint John. They will visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Culver at their summer place at Day's Landing. They sailed from Savannah, taking the whole journey by water.

SCHOOLS RECEIVE FLAGS TOMORROW

St. Vincent's and New Albert Get Emblems of Supremacy in Sport.

Three long pennants bearing the legend "School Champs 1925" have been completed for presentation to St. Vincent's school, Cliff street, and New Albert school, West End. They were made at the order of Imperial Theatre and grace the spangles of these buildings until the next schoolboy athletic meet is held in Loyalist Day, 1926.

The first award, for the larger boys up to Grade 8, is of blue bunting with white lettering. The second award, for Class 2, or intermediate boys, goes to the new Albert school, and is of red bunting with white lettering. The Class 3 white flag with blue lettering was also won by St. Vincent's. The pennants will be handed over to the principals of the respective buildings tomorrow and it is expected will be flown at once. They are to be the annual contribution of the West Siders Theatre in support of the movement to foster healthy, athletic rivalry amongst the younger boy element. The High School comes in the inter-scholastic category with Rothesay Collegiate school, Fredericton High and like groups, and does not figure in these sports.

POINTS WON.

In the meet last May 18 and 20th the St. Vincent's larger boys won 15 points against New Albert's. The medium sized boys of New Albert won these events with 14 points over St. Vincent's 5, and the smallest boys of St. Vincent's defeated the West Siders 13 to 8. The other buildings trailed behind.

Physical Director Harry Hutton of the Y. M. A. under whose direction these schoolboy meets are held each year, is enthusiastic with the prospects of next year's lineup of embryo athletes. The meet will probably be held on the Allison Grounds or in West Saint John.

HARBOR RECEIPTS.

The Saint John harbor receipts for August of this year were nearly $600 greater than for the same month of 1924, the figures being: 1924, $3,462.72; 1925, $4,063.41, a gain of $600.69. This increase is reported largely due to the activity in sugar and potatoes during the month.

PRESBYTERY MEETS

The Presbytery of the Continuing Church is to meet this afternoon in Knox church. The main business for consideration is the resignation of Rev. J. W. Britton from St. Matthew's church. It was said Mr. Britton is going to Nova Scotia, to become minister of the church at Guysboro.

ARTILLERY PARADE.

The 8th N. B. Medium Brigade of Artillery will parade to St. John's (Stone) church on Sunday morning, September 13, and will deposit the brigade colors in that church. The parade will start from the Armory and Lieut.-Col. Norman P. McLeod will be in command.

RETURN TO SCOTLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Walker of Scotland, who have been visiting for a year in Los Angeles, Cal., with their children, who reside there, are now guests of their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Storey and Mr. Storey, 129 Victoria street. BIRTHDAY GIFT

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Johnson and sons, of Cedar street, have returned after an automobile trip to several cities in Massachusetts. While in Lowell, Mrs. Johnson visited her cousin, Miss Eva Butler, who entertained socially for her guest on the occasion of the former's birthday. A beautiful pearl ring was presented to her by the guests.

WILL TAKE SOME TIME.

Conditions governing the return to school of the children this autumn are such that it will probably be a month before the real basic figure of attendance can be gleaned. It is conjectured the attendance is fully up to average, barring the definite quota forced to stay with their families in suburban resorts. Many parents, however, are sending their children to school on commutation railway tickets.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, eh," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "us farmers is called hicks an' hayseeds an' know-nothings—but it takes a town feller to git the ribbon."

"You will have to explain," said the reporter.

"Well," said Hiram, "some fellers from town was out to my place the other day an' they wanted to see my cows. One of 'em talked as if he knowed more about cows than any old mooseback in The Settlements. He showed the other fellers what he called the good p'int of my cattle—an' then he said he alius liked them there Alderale cows."

"Well," said the reporter, "what's wrong with that?"

"He said Alderale cows," said Hiram. "Well," said the reporter, "weren't they?"

"A sound as of one in extreme distress came from Hiram's lips. Then he said: "No—they wasn't Alderale—they was Plymouth Rocks."

HAS BEEN 48 YEARS SISTER OF CHARITY

Sister Cecilia Retired Yesterday as Mother Superior of Mater Misericordiae Home.

Sister Cecilia, who for a number of years has been Mother Superior at the Mater Misericordiae Home, Sydney street, left the institution yesterday for a brief respite at the branch house of the Sisters of Charity in West Saint John before retiring to the mother institution in Cliff street, where she will enjoy a protracted rest after 48 years of faithful service. Sister Mary Austin, who acted as secretary under Sister Cecilia at the Home, succeeds to the superintendency of the Sydney street institution. She is a native of Brewer, Maine.

48 YEARS OF SERVICE.

Sister Cecilia, born in Saint John, took her vows soon after the Saint John fire, and, after a period of work in the Cliff street orphanage, was the first to take charge of the Mater Misericordiae Home. Her next duty was in the Silver Falls Industrial Home, followed by the organization of the Infants' Home in the late Judge Trueman property, Coburg street. After this period of service had been well established she was again put in charge of the Home in Sydney street, from which she has now retired.

KINDLY REMEMBERED.

She is one of the best-known religious of the Maritime Provinces. Possessed of keen executive ability and thoroughly familiar with local conditions, her long period of service has been in a large measure the history of Catholic benevolent progress in this community. She has endeared herself deeply to thousands of boys and girls who came under her mothering care in the many years passed and is kindly remembered by them in their adult and self-sustaining positions today. Her care of the aged in the Mater Misericordiae Home has been similarly appreciated.

HOME FROM WEST TO RESUME TEACHING

Miss Evelyn Greany Visited in California—Goes to Woodstock Vocational School.

Miss Evelyn Greany, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Greany, arrived in Saint John yesterday from San Francisco, where she had been visiting her two sisters, Miss Katherine and Miss S. Greany, also her brother, Frank S. Greany, who is now in the vocational school at Woodstock, N. B., where she has been located for several years.

WILL STAY IN EAST.

Miss Greany reports that her relatives in the West are getting along nicely and some time ago removed from their original location at Los Angeles to the Californian metropolis, where they are lucratively engaged. Frank Greany is manager in a large shoe store. She prefers to stay in the East, where she has become greatly interested in vocational school work. In her class at Woodstock she has many boys and girls from outlying districts, among whom, she says, vocational training is proving a great boon.

OUR NEW SCHOOL.

Concerning the $400,000 Vocational school being erected on Douglas avenue, Miss Greany thinks it will be of tremendous value to the boys and girls of this thickly populated district, and should prove one of the strongest influences in shaping the course of many who without it might drift into unsuitable and consequently unprofitable workday lives.

WM. S. LINGLEY IS DEAD IN MONTREAL

Former Saint John Man Was Cousin of City Chamberlain Here.

He is survived by one brother, Arthur G. of Butte, Mont., three sisters, Mrs. Robert Fair of Butte, Miss Alice K. Lingley of the teaching staff of the public schools here, and Mrs. E. R. Teed of Woodstock. D. G. Lingley, city chamberlain, is a cousin. Miss Alice Lingley and Mrs. Teed will leave this afternoon for Montreal.

Expect Large Number Here at Red Cross Meet

At the New Brunswick Red Cross convention on Thursday of next week in the Admiral Beatty Hotel, it is expected that there will be a large number of delegates from provincial points attending. Fifteen dollars was received yesterday from the Beaver Harbor branch as a donation to the expenses of the provincial office.

September is the Time To Paint

Fall is the ideal time for exterior painting, because buildings are thoroughly dried out and the moderate Fall weather permits the paint to dry thoroughly.

Protect your property from winter's rain and snow, for it's the rough winter weather that's hardest on buildings.

"Hand and Ring" Paint wears wonderfully well and lasts longer. It will save the expensive repairs you will undoubtedly have to make if your building goes unprotected.
