A DYING RACE. It is predicted that within a few generations the race of native Hawaiians will become extinct. The main cause, as set forth by Lucien C. Warner in the Outlook, are intermarriage and the poor state of health of the pure bloods. Their total number has been reduced from 70,000 in 1853 to less than 20,000 in 1900.

HIS FIRST SMOKE KILLED HIM. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 19.—A coroner's inquest upon the death of ten-year-old William Black, who on Sunday smoked his first cigar, has shown that the lad died in convulsions at a hospital after having been given an emetic which brought to light the stump of a cigar. The boy recovered consciousness shortly before he died, and said he had swallowed it accidentally while attempting to smoke for the first time.

MINERS UNIONS SEEK REVENGE.

Rebellion is Threatened Out in Colorado. Maddened by Military Rule, Miners Will Demand an Eye for an Eye.

DENVER, Colo., May 20.—A statement has been issued by the executive board of the Federation of Miners relative to their views on the strike situation in Colorado and the imprisonment of the governor in a military "bull pen" of Camp, H. Meyer, president of the federation.

Concerning "the infamy and barbarism of military rule in Colorado" the statement says: "For six days the president of our organization has languished in the confines of a military camp."

When did it become lawful for a corporation-monoged governor to clothe himself in the cloak of military necessity, and kidnap and imprison an American citizen, who is guilty of no crime, but whose sturdy and unflinching manhood refuses to give quarter to the impeachable foe who have decreed that the Western Federation of Miners shall be exterminated from the boundaries of Colorado?

The governor of the state, with but sixteen soldiers on duty, in San Miguel county, continues the reign of martial law, and he will continue to do so until the government has secured a reliable source there.

THE JAPANESE LOSS. TOKYO, May 20.—The loss of life incurred by the sinking of the cruiser Yoshino, included Capt. Sasaki, Commander Hirose, three first lieutenants, six second lieutenants, five midshipmen, a paymaster, surgeon, three engineers, cadets and eight boatswain mates. Of the crew the number lost is unknown.

JAPS DRIVEN BACK FROM FENG WANG CHEN.

Report That Japs Were Defeated in Severe Battle--Hot Fighting at Port Arthur--Russians Encouraged.

NEW CHANG, May 20, 7 a. m.—The reports of the Japanese retreat to Feng Wang Chen are officially confirmed. The Japanese numbering 20,000 men came upon 2,000 Russians in a strong position on Monday, sixty miles west of Feng Wang Chen. It being unwise to risk a battle the Japanese retreated in good order and with great rapidity.

On Monday the Japanese retreated in good order and with great rapidity. An unofficial Russian authority says a pitched battle was not fought, but rumor says there was considerable loss on both sides during the clashes with the Cosacks harassing the flanks of the Japanese. This deviation presumably was executing a reconnaissance. The pursuit was checked when the main body of the Japanese was rejoined. This news apparently accounts for the withdrawal to an unknown destination of the Japanese.

RUSSIAN PLANS. LONDON, May 20.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says the Russians will draw to Kaupauts, concentrating Kukumen, 100 miles to the northeast, to support their new bases at Kalytan and Tieling, whither the stores and munitions are being taken from Mukden and Liao Yang. It is reported, the correspondent says, that 10,000 Russians have been sent to Kaiping, below New Chang, to check the Japanese advance.

THE JAPANESE LOSS. TOKYO, May 20.—The loss of life incurred by the sinking of the cruiser Yoshino, included Capt. Sasaki, Commander Hirose, three first lieutenants, six second lieutenants, five midshipmen, a paymaster, surgeon, three engineers, cadets and eight boatswain mates. DR. SMITH IS A CANDIDATE.

Says He Will Run for the Local House. He is Probably After Surveyor Generalship—George Robertson's Chances are Very Small.

Some days ago the Star made a forecast, based on good authority, of the situation with respect to provincial politics in this city. The following day the Telegraph said that not one of the Star's guesses was correct. One of the guesses of the Star was confirmed this morning in a manner that can hardly be disputed, and in all probability the other statements will be confirmed by the events.

DR. SMITH'S CANDIDACY. Dr. Smith, who has been mentioned most assuredly here, has been confirmed by a Star reporter if he intended to be a government candidate in the coming provincial elections, replied that most assuredly he did. He says he has received the best assurance that his candidature would be acceptable to the party in the form of a requisition to which more than one thousand signatures have been attached.

THE LOCAL POLITICAL SITUATION. The local political situation is already becoming quite a common topic about the street. Dr. Smith's name as a candidate is frequently mentioned. Varied opinions are still expressed as to who will get the surveyor-generalship. Some of George Robertson's friends continue to think that he is the man most entitled to it. There are many big Liberals, however, who think that it would be fatal to the cause of the government in the city if Mr. Robertson were given the plum, which undoubtedly would be desirable, but which they think he could not safely carry through an election.

A prominent Liberal, talking to the Star this morning, said that he personally would not favor Mr. Robertson for the surveyor-generalship, for the reason that Mr. Robertson has lost too much in prestige here. He thought that if Mr. Smith succeeded in winning his election he would be the man for the position.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Special despatches to the International Mercantile agency describe a general trade revival this week at prominent western and southwestern centers. The stimulus is noteworthy in contrast with conditions existing during the previous month, which has its basis on more reasonable weather and increased orders for spring stock. Jobbing centres report a material addition to the volume of "re-stock" business, with a tendency among many merchants to duplicate orders previously given for spring goods. Dry goods have been particularly active with a healthy demand for both spring and fall stocks.

Another combination that tends to make the average commercial Jack a dull boy is all work and no pay.

THE PENOBSCOT DELAYED. The Eastern Line steamer, Penobscot has not yet arrived in port nor has any explanation been received as to her mysterious delay. She left Portland for St. John yesterday morning at nine o'clock and should have arrived here last night. It is known that the weather along the coast was not the most favorable for a quick passage.

BASEBALL TONIGHT. At half past ten the captains of the St. John and Clippier ball teams decided to play tonight, despite wet grounds. The game will start at 45 o'clock and the batteries will be Cape and Cooper for the Clippiers, and George and Footley, for St. Joseph's.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION. BOY WANTED—Apply to PATTERSON & CO., 20, JOHN STREET. WANTED—One or two furnished rooms in central locality. Address B, care Star Office.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast—There are likely to be a few showers today and tonight, Saturday, moderate to fresh westerly winds, clearing with a little higher temperature. Synopses—Rain has fallen heavily in all localities. Winds to Banks and American ports, moderate to fresh easterly, shifting to westerly. Bermuda reports rain with light southwest winds.

ST. JOHN MEN IN PERIL. How Dr. Pugsley, L. A. Currey F. G. Spencer and G. V. Moirnerney Escaped From a Fire.

OTTAWA, May 19.—Fire in the bakery of the Russell at 5.30 this morning filled the big hotel with smoke and created a universal panic.

Dr. Pugsley gracefully slid down stairs and escaped for a cab.

Premier Murray of Nova Scotia, dodged all injury and hit the street quickly.

C. N. Skinner was the coolest man of the New Brunswick bunch, with Daniel Mullin a close second.

Fred G. Spencer, manager for Nordica, awakened by the alarm, went down stairs in undress uniform and stood on the street for a time.

Col. Donville, who was there, hunted on his clothes, left his valuables behind and escorted Dr. Pugsley and Recorder Skinner up to rooms in the senate.

OTTAWA, May 19.—After routine today the house took up the third reading of the R. F. gold brick deal.

Debate was continued after recess, all amendments being voted down by the government.

Borden of Halifax, took occasion to remark that had order prevailed in the house and that he could not hear one word spoken on the other side of the house.

The house adjourned at 9.40 till next Wednesday, when the Grand Trunk Pacific debate will be resumed to be closed on Thursday night.

Press Press, government organ, says this evening: "Thomas Malcolm of Edmundston, N. B., the man who is building a town and railway, is in the city. He has nothing to say for publication just yet."

Militia general orders issued today say Lt. Stanley B. Smith and Lt. W. Vassie are authorized to join the provincial school of artillery at St. John.

H. M. STANLEY.

Carry him gently through the crowded streets. And bear him in the Abbey's silent nave; There let us take a last farewell of him.

Not his to work for one small city's weal, Or e'en one nation's destinies to plan; His was the larger work, the greater field.

Not his to work for one small city's weal, Or e'en one nation's destinies to plan; His was the larger work, the greater field.

Pause for a moment by the marble tomb Of one in life he loved and held so dear, Who poured his heart's life out 'mid Africa's gloom; There let us weep and shed a silent tear.

Full many a mile did Stanley travel Through Africa's woods and o'er her sunburnt plains, To find this lonely wanderer; when at last They met, twas but to greet and part again.

But now at last, upon the other shore, They greet as friend to friend, and heart to heart; Their troubles ended and their labors done, "They go not out for aye," nor ever part.

That new gold planted from the Russian emperor sent out to the Far East a few days ago is evidently getting in its line work already.

LOCAL NEWS.

A large crowd attended the entertainment given in the Free Baptist Church, Carlton, last evening.

A Halifax despatch received here last night stated that the bark Plymouth, which recently put in there on account of trouble experienced on her voyage from St. John to Buenos Ayres, had completed repairs and cleared for her destination.

An entertainment was given by Rev. Mr. Coffin and his jubilee singers last night at the Salvation Army barracks at Indiantown.

At a meeting of the Maritime Auer Light Company, Ltd., directors yesterday afternoon, it was decided to go into voluntary liquidation.

Trains on the Hampton & St. Martins railway are now running regularly.

GOOD MUSIC.

The musical recital by the pupils of John Lloyd, in the York Theatre last night, drew a large and fashionable audience.

The first number was the Garden Scene from Gounod's Faust.

Miss Helen Fowler gave a pretty rendering of three dainty songs, well suited to her sweet, expressive voice.

The Carnival of Venice was sung most accurately with variations by Mrs. Dexter Allen.

True Love Land was sung by Walter Bedding with splendid voice and manner.

HAS FOUND A HOME.

Young Girl Who Suffered in St. John Will go to Amherst.

The young woman Lizzie Pike, whose misfortunes were chronicled a few days ago, has been offered a good home where she may earn an honest living.

On Wednesday last Dr. J. F. Macaulay, who has been attending the patient, received a letter from a man in Amherst. The writer stated that he had read of Miss Pike's rather hard treatment, and feeling sorry for the girl whom he believed to be not naturally bad, he wanted to offer a home to herself and little one.

Dr. Macaulay found that the writer of the letter was a prosperous stone mason, and last the offer before the girl. She gladly accepted the chance, and having almost completely recovered from her illness, will go at once to Amherst, if indeed, she has not already gone.

ANGLING AS DONE IN JAPAN. Bamboo Rods and Horsehair Lines Generally Used—Lively Sport With Big Fish.

Some interesting facts about angling in Japan are given by a Canadian of Lachina, Canada, who was engaged in business there.

The common trout of Japan, the iwana, is probably our brown trout. The fish range in size from one to three pounds, but though hatcheries have been producing large batches of the young fry for nearly 40 years the difficulty in finding faithful gamekeepers has given poachers the opportunity of keeping down the numbers of the fish, so that fishing is by no means profitable near the cities.

Peaschens seem to depend mainly upon nets of strange construction made of wickerwork, and slung upon poles commonly in the murderous fashion of the dip net or scoop nets so well known on this continent.

In conjunction with these nets a spy box is used, generally a rude wooden affair with one side gone, and a wooden hole in the opposite side through which when the box is submerged, the bottom of the river may be clearly seen.

So expert do the poachers become that they boast of being able to take every fish they sight through their boxes. This they do by an adroit use of their nets, and with a spear to make all sure at the end.

Another favorite plan, as sometimes happens, a great number of trout have been sighted in a hole, is to drop a bag of quicklime to the bottom at the same time, when as the lime attacks the fish are driven gasping to the surface where they are speared or netted, or even picked out by the man who stands or floats at the outlet of the hole.

At the present moment the poacher from the lane of the Japanese community from an angler's point of view. Strangely enough, the common method of fishing in Japan is the one sometimes found among the French Canadian habitants along the banks of the St. Lawrence. A long line with ground bait attached is fastened to a pole which is set leaning in a crooked hook either on the bank or in a boat, and a bell is so hung to the rod that when the fish bites the bell rings, and the victim is quickly yanked out by main strength.

It will surprise no one who has heard of their marvelous dexterity and their powers of imitation to learn that in trying artificial flies the Japanese workmen cannot be excelled. Their flies never come to pieces, and they are always true to pattern and name.

It is true that the workman is an adept with his brush and pigments, and that the flies made after use, but this is not always a serious fault in that country of changeable skies and water colorings. These are a pretty little fly, very popular locally, and very tempting to the trout on bright days, which could hardly be made at reasonable prices anywhere but in that place of cheap careflessness.

LOGS COMING ALONG.

Murray & Gregory Hope to Have Theirs All in Safe Water Shortly.

Reports from up river indicate that most of the lumber drives are getting along exceptionally well, and the lumbermen are pleased with the prospects of getting their logs down before the water falls.

Fraser Gregory received a letter Wednesday night from Fladen Chenard, stating that his Black River drive was coming along all right and that more than three-quarters of it was then below the boundary line. About 1,500 pieces were left along Rocky Creek. This is Murray & Gregory's most important drive, and it looks now as if there would not be a great deal of trouble with it.

Despite reports to the contrary, no authentic intelligence of the hanging up of Kilmurn's drive on head-waters has been received. The last letter received from him, dated several days ago, reported that he had satisfactory progress, and hoped to have his drive out in a fortnight. Since then the river has fallen to a considerable extent and the snow has wasted in the woods, but as yet there is no real cause for alarm over the situation.

Randolph & Baker's drive on the Chemung is in difficulties. The contractors have the drive, and their own men, who were hired over by a representative of the firm, left in the night a short time since. A. H. P. Randolph immediately proceeded to the drive, and no word has been received from him since his departure.

STRUCK BY A CAR.

G. D. Reid of Paradise Row Was Thrown from His Carriage.

G. D. Reid of Paradise Row called at the Sun office last evening to tell about a collision between street car No. 23 and his carriage, which occurred on Paradise row between seven and eight o'clock. Mr. Reid said he was driving in a light covered carriage on the north side of the street. He was going along at a good trot and had just passed the car. It was then stopped, waiting for a lady to get aboard. Mr. Reid continued to move along at a fair pace, and on coming opposite his gate, turned to the right and started to cross the street. He did so the carriage was struck by the car, which was coming along pretty fast on the main track. One wheel, a shaft, and the top of the wagon was smashed, the whole thing was overturned, and Mr. Reid, who had his arm slightly injured. The horse was also thrown down, but was not hurt.

Mr. Reid claimed that the car bell was not rung. Being in a closed carriage, he did not notice that the car was so close to him. He never imagined it could catch up to him so soon. He is rather angry at the carelessness or whatever it may have been of the motorman. Mr. Reid threatens to sell the horse and what remains of the wagon, and to walk in the future.

NEPTUNES' PROGRAMME.

The Boys Will Put Feathers in Their Hair and have a Lot of War Canoes.

The Neptune Rowing Club held a meeting in their rooms last night to make arrangements for their part in the Tercentenary celebration. As was stated, they have secured the peculiar looking craft now lying in Market slip, which they will rebuild to resemble Champlain's vessel. In addition they will have a flotilla of thirty or forty canoes, and two large war canoes which will accompany the flotilla when it goes out to meet the ship on its arrival.

An invitation has also been sent to the Fredericton Canoe Club, to have members present with their own canoes, which will add to the size of the flotilla. It is expected that at least 150 persons, dressed as Indians, with their own costumes and weapons, will man the canoes, and the chief will welcome the explorers as Champlain would have done. The ship will have two small cannon placed in position on board, and will enter the harbor at high tide on the 24th, which will be about 10 o'clock in the morning.

BISHOP FARLEY'S STORY.

(Argonaut.) Bishop Farley, who has been visiting the Vatican, finds that Pope Pius has a keen sense of humor, and reports that he greatly enjoyed the following story: It was of Con Creggan's father, who, on his deathbed, was making his will, and in order that he might have strength to do so, was plentifully supplied by punch by Con and a group of neighbors.

"Ah, Con, Con! Just touch my lips once more with the jug. What, my son, do watered the continued."

"No, indeed, father, dear, while a low murmur of pity chorused through the cabin; 'but it's the taste that's laivin' ye.'"

FIREMEN ARE WILLING.

All Companies Will do Their Best to Make Tercentenary a Success.

A largely attended meeting of firemen was held last night in No. 1 hook and ladder house. Chief was in the chair, and besides the firemen Mayor White was present.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting, namely, to consider what steps the firemen should take with regard to a torch light procession during the Tercentenary week. Mayor White said he hoped every-thing that could be done to make a success of the coming celebration would be done. The committee had allotted to the fire brigade $50 per company. He suggested that the amount was not large, but the money was limited. He thought the celebration would bring a larger number of spectators than anything formerly held in St. John, and both as mayor and as a citizen he hoped every-thing that could be done to make the celebration as successful as possible. In answer to questions Mayor White explained the system of finance to be adopted: the $50 would be allotted to each company.

It was suggested that it would be better for the sum to be handed to the captain of each company. They would have no difficulty in spending the money. Mayor White said that if they could give $100 they would gladly do so. A night parade will be cheaper than a day one. Continuing, he said: "I don't want this organization or any other to think that the committee wish to dole out the money. The committee will have to supervise financial matters, but the $50 will be handed over to the captain of each company, and I have no doubt that every cent will be well spent."

The chairman remarked that representatives of the salvage corps were present and he would like them to go in with whatever was decided upon, as they would greatly add to the strength of a parade.

Capt. Green had no doubt of No. 1 company turning out and they would try and make the procession the best yet. He thought their full strength of 55 men might be counted on. Capt. White said that No. 2 was willing to do all possible for success. The assurance of the mayor that $50 would be given to each company removed all doubt. No. 2 had intended turning out if they had to go alone. He would be very glad to join the firemen.

It was moved and seconded that the firemen take part in the procession on any day suggested by the mayor, and that Nos. 1 and 2 Salvage Corps be invited to join them. This resolution was carried unanimously. Mayor White thanked the chief for the hearing and for their decision. It had removed any doubts he had, which after all were quite unnecessary, for he knew the firemen would do all in their power when the matter had been laid before them. The chief thanked the mayor for his explanations and the meeting adjourned.

James Joslyn, of Washademoak, was tried in the Criminal Court yesterday, charged with burning some hoop poles belonging to a man named Lewis. It was shown that Joslyn, who said to be half-witted, was bribed by John Phillips to burn the poles for 25 cents.

Joslyn was sentenced to six months in the county jail, and it is stated that Phillips will be prosecuted.

Among the beautiful tributes that were sent "in loving remembrance" of Reginald W. Armstrong, were the following from Halifax: A large floral cross from the staff of the Bank of Montreal, a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. John Stairs, flowers from F. H. O'Leary and Beresford O'Leary, a cross from Miss Keillogg's Bible Class, a wreath of roses from the staff of the Industrial League, and a wreath from the Rothery College students.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE BANQUET. Notables in the City to Attend the Dinner Tonight.

Hon. J. W. Longley, attorney general of Nova Scotia, W. F. Cockshutt, a prominent business man of Brantford, Ont., and Watson Griffin, editor of the periodical Industrial Canada, of Toronto, arrived in the city this morning to attend the banquet of the Industrial League at the Dufferin Hotel tonight.

Wm. Cockshutt's presence at the banquet is considered fortunate, owing to the fact that probably no man in Canada has a wider acquaintance with Canadian industries and commerce and can therefore speak authoritatively on these questions.

Speaking to the Star this morning, Mr. Cockshutt said that Canadian business men are very anxious to have the Dominion government adopt a policy which will go for the uplifting of Canadian transportation. The G. T. E. scheme, he said, did not certainly seem calculated to effect that end.

SCOW BROKE IN TWO. The attempt to raise the scow, loaded with scrap iron from the S. S. St. John City, which sank recently at Long Wharf, has ended in failure. Chains were run around the scow, which contained about 70 tons of iron, and these chains were attached to a scow floating above, so that when the tide raised it would lift them both and they could be towed ashore and beached. This was successfully done once, but on the second attempt with shorter chains the scow broke in two, one part going to sea and the other floating into the Market Slip, where it was an object of interest this morning.

WHAT WILL STREET RY. DO? A statement appeared in a morning paper to the effect that in all probability the St. John Street Railway Co. would have cars running to Bay Shore this summer. Manager Earle, of the street railway company, told the Star this morning that if such was the case he was entirely ignorant of the matter, and did not know what reason there could be for such a statement. As to what the company proposed to do on the West Side Mr. Earle had nothing to say.

The Norwegian bark Ophelia, 1177 tons, will load coal at Campbellton for Adelaide, Australia, at 60 shillings.

FRUIT PEDDLERS WILL FIGHT

Action Taken in Their Behalf—It's a Question of Interpretation of the Law.

There is a new development in the fruit peddlars trouble, and the matter will be referred to the recorder as soon as he returns from Ottawa. A few days ago Mayor White decided that this business must stop and issued orders to this effect. Only one license had been taken out, and that was by Anthony Nikitopoulos, who was informed that his license would be refunded. Sergt. Campbell, who has been looking after the matter, now says that this license has been passed about from one to another, the peddlars working on the principal that all seems look alike. Yesterday Geo. Chagoris and Salvo Canadris declined to go out of business and moved to Charlottetown. Sergt. Ross then chased them beyond the city line, but before doing so they showed him Nikitopoulos' license. The west side sergeant told them to take the license back to City Hall and get the money. Then they became indignant and said they would fight the matter out, with the result that this morning Chris Nichols has taken up the cudgel on behalf of those whom Chris says are good law-abiding citizens.

It was when Chris interfered that the matter was more thoroughly looked into at City Hall, and it was found that the by-law under which action will be taken says positively that there shall be no peddling of fruit. This is in the section covering market fees, etc. Now the question that the recorder will be asked to decide is whether this by-law, which was made many years ago, was intended to cover apples, pears, etc., or in other words only such fruit as the farmers would bring to the market. As proof that the by-laws were only intended to protect the lessees of the market it is shown by the fact that if a man brings a cartload of potatoes to the city he is at liberty to sell from door to door, provided he pays the market tolls.

CENTRAL RAILWAY OPEN AGAIN

Arrangements Concluded Which Guarantee a Daily Service to Chipman, for the Present.

Arrangements have at last been effected with the New Brunswick Coal and Lumber Company whereby the people of Chipman are guaranteed a daily service over the Central Railway, at least for the present. Senator King told the Star this morning that he was not yet in a position to speak with any definiteness as to the arrangements were but he was sure that they were of a kind satisfactory to all concerned. The credit of effecting the arrangements is due to E. G. Evans, whose management of the Central Railway comes at an end by the first of June.

Beginning with Monday a train will run daily between Norton and Chipman. Section men and train hands have intimated their willingness to resume work under the new arrangements. The mails, which have been hung up for some time will be taken through today by wagon. Senator King will remain in the city until Monday.

ROYAL HOTEL IMPROVEMENTS.

The Royal Hotel office has recently undergone a complete spring renovating and is now resplendent in a coat of new paint, light colors with gold trimmings. The new place is in addition this morning two new and very handsome electric fans, which were especially imported for the Royal. The design is a very pretty one, each socket, of which there are many, representing a rose bud. Underneath this brilliant cluster hangs a small globe of colored glass, enclosing a powerful light, the whole making a very pretty effect.

It was the intention of Messrs. Raymond and Doherty to enlarge the hotel office this year, and G. Ernest Fairweather had prepared, but it was found that the time was too short to accomplish the extensive work intended, which would include the present writing room in the office, so the work was postponed, but will be done next winter or early spring. When completed the Royal will have one of the largest and undoubtedly the finest hotel office in lower Canada.

NEW LIQUOR LICENSE CHAIRMAN

There is much talk as to who will be the next chairman of the Liquor License Commission, since Dr. Smith has announced his intention to retire. The name of Thos. A. Linton is mentioned as a probable successor to Dr. Smith, but it appears that this could not be the case owing to the fact that a new commissioner never becomes a chairman. A commissioner must serve a year before he is entitled to the chairmanship.

It is said that the saloon keepers are strongly opposed to Mr. Linton becoming a commissioner for the reason that he was one of the Dock street merchants who tried to re-arrange the saloons on that street, and also to limit their number.

THE INNOCENT MAIDS.

There will be a whirlwind of clean, wholesome fun at the York Theatre May 23 and 24, when The Innocent Maids Company, one of the prime favorites of the burlesque and vaudeville fields, will pay their visit. The artists who supply the vaudeville part are Foley and Dale, Louise Satour, Blackford and West, Cornwell and Hunter and The Garden Trio.

Two bright and breezy burlesques are on the bill, the opening one, The Magic Hat, and the closing called A Lottery Ticket. Both include new songs and ensemble songs by capable soloists and twenty charming, handsomely gowned girls.

RECENT DEATHS.

The sudden death occurred at Stanley last Saturday of Mrs. David Douglas, deceased, who was 44 years old, had been ill for some time. A husband, six sons and two daughters are left to mourn.

The death occurred at Stanley hospital on Sunday afternoon of Joe Gallivan of Covered Bridge, aged 17. Deceased was a native of the Dominion. This is the first death to take place in the Stanley hospital.

The death of Mrs. Wilmet, wife of the late W. Wilmet, of Campbell, occurred last Friday, 14th inst. of pneumonia.

Ernest J. Wallace, one of Halifax's best known young men, passed away at Boston yesterday after a short illness from pneumonia. An announcement of his death was received with surprise and regret by his numerous friends and acquaintances, as on Tuesday a telegram, received in the city, stated that he was much better and would probably recover. He was a young man, and his early demise will be deeply felt by his relatives, who will have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.—Halifax Recorder.
