

HUGE CROWDS AT FUNERALS OF OFFICERS

Dublin Streets Lined Twenty Deep as Murdered British Are Taken to England.

NO OUTBREAKS OF ANY DESCRIPTION

Black and Tans Saw That Crowds Were Respectful as Caskets Taken Away.

Dublin, Nov. 25.—Enormous crowds, standing twenty deep, lined both sides of the route and witnessed one of the most impressive military corteges Dublin ever had seen when the coffins of the officers assassinated here last Sunday were taken away by way of the North quay to the north wall, where they were placed on board a torpedo boat destroyer bound for England.

The throngs, composed largely of women and girls, showed the utmost respect for the dead, and as far as is known, no untoward incident detracted from the solemnity of the occasion.

All Stood Respectful. The men and boys in the gathering uncovered as the lengthy procession passed, and the silence maintained was so profound that no sound was audible between the intervals of the dirges played by the bands, except the noise of the lumbering gun carriages bearing the coffins, the clatter of the hoofs of the cavalry horses, the tread of the marching soldiers and the dropping of airplanes flying in groups of three high above the cortege.

All Shops Closed. In accordance with the request of the British Government all shops and public houses, and even the hotel doors remained closed from ten o'clock in the morning until one o'clock this afternoon. The only exception to the general rule was along the line of the funeral march, which was congested long before ten o'clock with almost countless thousands of persons.

The funeral was an imposing one. Every arm of the British forces in Ireland was represented and by a large contingent.

Covered With Flags. Each coffin was covered with a Union Jack. Gunners carried the floral tributes. The coffins of the ten auxiliary police officers were borne by light lorries of the police department. Three large bands were in the procession. According to some reports there were instances where members of the crowds standing along the side of the Liffey at times failed to uncover as the coffins passed, and that "Black and Tans" circling among them threw the hats of the men into the river. The "Black and Tans" are said also to have ordered several shops which failed to close to put up their shutters and to have raided a restaurant which had remained open.

FOX INDUSTRY NOW ON PAYING BASIS IN P. E. I.

Speculative Element Has Been Eliminated Says Ex-Premier 'Arsenaault in Address.

PAIR SOLD ONCE FOR OVER $25,000

Japanese Are at Fox Exhibit Studying Animals for Benefit of Jap Trade.

Montreal, Nov. 25.—Speaking at the Kiwanis luncheon here today Hon. A. S. Arsenault, ex-premier of Prince Edward Island dealt with the history of the silver fox breeding industry and its prospects for the future, raising the initial stages, live foxes were sold for $2,000 a pair but in 1915 a pair was sold for $25,000. With the outbreak of war the bottom fell out of speculation and the price fell to $5,000 a pair and then to any figure that could be realized. The majority of the companies are now on a dividend-paying basis and the speculative period had passed. The industry, Mr. Arsenault concluded, was now on a permanent paying basis.

Dr. S. Matsumura, Professor of entomology at the Imperial University of Sapporo, Japan, is daily attending the silver fox exhibition here, with a view of gaining information in regard to the raising of foxes, the industry having been introduced into Japan last year.

Further results in the classifying of the animals given out today showed that Prince Edward Island raised all prizes awarded, not a single entry from other provinces or from the United States succeeded in carrying off a trophy.

RUMOR BORDEN MAY GO SOON TO THE BENCH

Ottawa Hears He May Replace Sir Louis Davies at an Early Date.

EX-PREMIER WILL LECTURE AT VARSITY

Constitutional Law to be Department of Sir Robert Borden at the University.

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—The Ottawa Citizen today publishes the following: "Sir Robert Borden, former Prime Minister, will spend the winter in Ottawa and will take his seat in parliament as a private member for the coming session. During the winter Sir Robert is to deliver a course of lectures on constitutional subjects at the University of Toronto.

There is a good deal of speculation as to Sir Robert's future but the impression which strongly prevails is that he will ultimately replace Sir Louis Davies, as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. Sir Louis is 75 years of age and in September next will complete twenty years on the bench. Under the act a judge of his age who had served twenty years may retire at full salary or as superannuation.

Sir Robert's aptitude for the bench is unquestioned, and when a vacancy arises, if he should desire the position there will be no doubt of his appointment.

LONG BATTLE AGAINST SEA BEFORE DEATH

Shediac Island Resident Was Six Hours Exposed to Furious Waves in Row Boat.

TRIED TO WALK ASHORE ON ICE

Horried Watchers Ashore Saw Thomas Fongere Sink to His Death in Icy Waters.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Nov. 25.—Drowned in slight of scores unable to render assistance was the tragic fate of Thomas Fongere, a resident of Shediac Island, who attempted to reach the mainland on Wednesday morning during the heavy gale and storm that prevailed along the coast. He left Shediac island about ten o'clock in a rowboat alone to cross Shediac Bay to Shediac bridge. When about two hundred yards from the mainland his boat caught in the heavy slush and he was unable to extricate himself.

His predicament was observed from the mainland and efforts were made to reach him, but without avail. Fongere remained in his perilous position until half past four in the afternoon. Being benumbed by the cold and fearing that there was little chance of help reaching him he decided, rather than face freezing to death or drowning during the night, to try and reach shore by walking over the drift snow and ice.

Put Boards On Feet. He fastened a couple of boards on his feet to act as snow shoes and started ashore. He succeeded in getting only a few yards from the boat when he fell. He was seen by several spectators on shore. It was the opinion of those devising means to reach the unfortunate man that had he remained in the boat he would have been rescued. He leaves a wife and family of 9 or 10 children who live on Shediac Island.

CROWDS AT MASS FOR MACSWINEY START A FIGHT

British Flag in New York on Club Opposite St. Patrick's Church Cause of the Riot.

PRIEST APPEALS IN VAIN FOR ORDER

Dozen Heads Broken by Bricks and Club Building Windows Smashed in Battle

New York, Nov. 25.—The usual quiet observance of Thanksgiving Day here was violently interrupted shortly after noon today when crowds who had attended a high regatta in memory of Terence MacSwiney, former Mayor of Cork, rioted at the sight of a British flag decorating the facade of the Union Club across Fifth Avenue from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

A fight participated in by hundreds of Irish sympathizers in the course of which shattered windows of the club were plate-glass windows of the club were shattered by missiles hurled by members of the mob, order was restored when a cordon of 200 police established itself around the beleaguered building.

Flag Stayed Up. The Union Jack, which was the cause of the assault, though taken down by the superintendent at the first demand of the crowd, and subsequently replaced by order of police officers, was still draped over the sidewalk with the emblems of France and the United States when the fracas ended.

When the clamor of the first rush on the offending banner was at its height, the Rt. Rev. Michael J. LaVoile, rector of St. Patrick's, clad in his ministerial robes, rushed out of the church and pleaded in vain with the leaders to quell the disturbance. After mounted and motor cycle police had dispersed the assaulting forces, a survey of the field of battle revealed casualties including a dozen or more slightly injured, who had been struck by flying bricks and all who were in the lower floor of the club had been smashed.

UNITED STATES. Secretary of State Colby has sent a long protest to London regarding the mandates by the League of Nations. There was a riot in New York yesterday at a mass for the late Terence MacSwiney because a British flag was displayed.

THE BRITISH ISLES. An enormous crowd witnessed the funeral of the murdered British officers in Dublin; all was orderly, although Black and Tans were compelled to make some bystanders uncover their heads. Martial law will not be declared in Ireland yet, says Lloyd George.

EUROPE. Serbia, Greece and Rumania have protested to the League of Nations against the admission of Bulgaria.

Mr. West said that the strike situation remains the same as far as the men are concerned. Nothing has transpired which points to a settlement. Situation is Unchanged. At Sydney Mines there is apparently no change in the strike situation as far as coal shipments are concerned. Today 2,900 tons of coal were taken over to the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company plant. The provisional crews from the Nova Scotia Steel Company offices were still running the engines.

During the last few days men have been employed working four batteries at the coke ovens on the steel plant in order to protect them from the weather. This is taken as conclusive evidence that the plant will be shut down for a prolonged period. However, the Scotia officials stated today that this precaution is being taken independent of the time the works will be idle.

AMERICANS TO SEEK MANDATE RULE RIGHTS

Secretary of State Colby Sends Ct. Britain Long Document Outlining U. S. View.

MESOPOTAMIAN OIL FIELDS THE TROUBLE

America Refuses to Go to League Meetings But Insists Upon Knowing All Business

Washington, Nov. 25.—The Government of the United States has informed Great Britain that it does not propose to be excluded from participation in the rights and privileges accorded under mandates provided in the treaty of peace. Furthermore, it expects to be heard regarding the terms of those mandates before they are put in force.

The position of the United States is set forth in a note by Secretary of State Colby to Earl Curzon, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and the specific question discussed is that of the Mesopotamian petroleum fields.

A Reply to British. Mr. Colby's note is dated November 20, and was made public today, following its delivery to the British Foreign Office early this week. It is in reply to a British note of August 9 last, which had never been made public, and which deals with the application of the principles of equality of treatment to the territories of the Near East to be placed under British mandate.

The United States note takes issue with what is described as the British position that mandate agreements and treaties are to be considered only by states that are members of the League of Nations.

TOM MOORE TO SEE PREMIER ON HANNA'S ORDER

Labor Protests in All Parts of Dominion at the Regulation of the C. N. R.

Claim Rules BLOCK RIGHTS

If C.N.R. Enforces Rule Labor Fears Other Employers May Try Same Plan.

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—Labor's objection to the recent order of President D. B. Hanna, of the Canadian National Railways dismissing any employee who takes part in politics, is to be placed before Premier Meighen by Tom Moore, President of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress in an interview which is expected to take place this week. The feeling of labor is stated to be that despite the government's stand that the C. N. R. has been taken out of politics, this order is an interference with the rights of citizenship and as such the government must take action to have it rescinded.

Many Protests Sent. Scores of resolutions protesting against the order are being received from all parts of the Dominion, and it is expected to furnish material for some interesting discussion at the convention of division number four of railway employees, which is being held in Toronto next week. Members of this division are stated to feel very strongly against President Hanna's order. It is understood that if possible labor will demand a clear statement from the government as to what it proposes to do in regard to President Hanna's order.

The Labor View. The Trades and Labor Congress officers take the stand, according to Mr. Moore that inasmuch as the franchise act clearly defines that every person shall have the right to time off to vote, though he or she may vote against their employers' personal interest, the government is bound by the principle that every person should have a similar right to take his or her part in the administration of the country and in the election of administrators.

Other Company's Rights. Acceptance of the Hanna order, according to Mr. Moore, would simply mean that other corporations, if a man sought to run for office against whom they had cause for dislike, could pass a rule discharging that man.

Since it is claimed that the Canadian National Railways have been taken out of the hands of any government department as to management, labor holds that any employee of that system is entitled to exercise his rights of citizenship to the fullest extent which includes being a candidate for public office and the holding of public positions if he is elected to them.

STEEL PLANT MAY BE SHUT A LONG TIME

Dominion Iron Puts Men at Work Covering Over Batteries of Coke Ovens.

SYDNEY MINES ARE STILL VERY BUSY

Unions Deny That Ultimatum Was Prepared by Them and That Workers Blindly Led.

Sydney, N. S. W., Nov. 25.—George K. Work, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers will tomorrow officially deny the allegation of officials of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company made today that the striking railwaymen followed their leaders blindly, and knew not what they were doing when they presented their ultimatum to the company, resulting in the closing down of the plant and the throwing out of work of 2,000 men.

In a statement given out today the officials of the Steel Company declared that the terms of the seven hour ultimatum were determined by the leaders alone and was unknown even to the committee which presented them.

Mr. West said that the strike situation remains the same as far as the men are concerned. Nothing has transpired which points to a settlement. Situation is Unchanged. At Sydney Mines there is apparently no change in the strike situation as far as coal shipments are concerned. Today 2,900 tons of coal were taken over to the Scotia Steel and Coal Company plant. The provisional crews from the Nova Scotia Steel Company offices were still running the engines.

During the last few days men have been employed working four batteries at the coke ovens on the steel plant in order to protect them from the weather. This is taken as conclusive evidence that the plant will be shut down for a prolonged period. However, the Scotia officials stated today that this precaution is being taken independent of the time the works will be idle.

CARGO TRAFFIC FOR OCEAN SHIPS WILL BE LIGHT

C.P.O.S. Official Announces New Plans for Company Next Season.

Montreal, Nov. 25.—Sir Thos. Fisher, in charge of C. P. O. S. activities in Great Britain, and who has arrived here on his company's business, stated today that cargo traffic between Canada and Great Britain would probably be very poor, both on account of the labor situation overseas and since the C. P. O. S. prospects for passenger traffic were extremely good. He could not say whether passenger rates would go up or come down, this depending largely on the cost of coal.

Referring to the Montreal service, Sir Thomas stated that next spring would see a weekly service of first-class boats between Montreal and Liverpool, and fortnightly service of the three class ships.

NO IRISH PEACE POSSIBLE UNTIL THE TERROR REIGN ENDS

Men Who Would Enter Negotiations Cannot Do So for Fear of Desperadoes.

London, Nov. 25.—The Irish problem again was brought up in the House of Commons today and the question of conciliation between the Irish people was raised. Premier Lloyd George giving his opinion in the matter declared: "I have always been convinced that no policy of conciliation is possible in Ireland until the reign of terror has been broken, for the very obvious reason that men in Ireland who would be prepared to enter into negotiations at the present time are in terror of their lives and cannot do so freely."

Premier Lloyd George in reply to questions in the House of Commons today said that the cabinet had decided not to impose martial law in Ireland at the present time. "Sir Edward Carson has inquired that he had received an invitation to appear before the committee of the self-constituted Council of One Hundred Americans, who are investigating the Irish situation. He adds that he would regard such an invitation as a gross impertinence."

The House of Lords today carried the second reading of the Home Bill, rejecting a proposal for adjournment. Committee stage commences Wednesday next.

RANDALL LOST BUT CREW SAFE

Vessel Went Down in Lake Ontario But Seamen Escaped to Small Island.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 25.—The crew of the steam barge John Randall, which was lost in a storm on Lake Ontario, on November 16, survived the sinking of their ship. AMERICANS TO SEEK MANDATE RULE RIGHTS

Secretary of State Colby Sends Gt. Britain Long Document Outlining U. S. View.

MESOPOTAMIAN OIL FIELDS THE TROUBLE

It states that the United States, as a participant in the war and a contractor in the petroleum issue, cannot consider any of the associated powers, the smallest not less than its self, disarmed from discussion in any of its consequences or from participation in the rights and privileges secured under the mandates provided in the treaties of peace.

Mr. Colby says in the note that the United States Government accepts the statement of the British Government that it has refrained from exploiting the petroleum resources of the mandated territories in question "and we come your pledge" that it is far from the intention of Great Britain "to establish any kind of monopoly or an unfair position in its own interest."

Wants Copy of Draft
Referring to the statement by the British Government that the draft mandates for Mesopotamia and Palestine, which had been prepared, will, when approved, be communicated to the council of the League of Nations, the secretary of state says "the United States is undoubtedly one of the powers directly interested in the terms of the mandate, and I therefore request that the draft mandates be communicated to this government for its consideration before their submission to the council of the League."

Predicts Economic Strife
"The fact cannot be ignored," Mr. Colby continues "that the reported resources of Mesopotamia have interested public opinion of the United States, Great Britain and other countries as subject of economic and political interest. Because of the fact that it has become an outstanding illustration of the kind of economic question with reference to which the mandate principle was especially designed, and indeed, a peculiarly critical test of the good faith of the nations who have given their adherence to the principle. This principle was accepted in the hope of obviating in the future those international difficulties that grow out of a desire for the exclusive control of the resources and markets of annexed territories."

Criticizes the British
Mr. Colby states that the United States Government "finds difficulty in reconciling" the special arrangement set forth in the so-called San Remo petroleum agreement between Great Britain and France, with the British Government's statement that the petroleum resources of Mesopotamia and freedom of action in regard thereto, will be secured to the future Arab state, as yet unorganized.

Referring to some "allusion" made in the original British note to American supremacy in the petroleum industry, Mr. Colby says to correct a misapprehension, "which your note reflects" he will state that the United States possesses only one-twelfth approximately of the petroleum resources of the world, and that the oil resources of no other nation have been so largely drawn upon for foreign needs.

Reason for Reference
"But it is not these aspects of oil production and supply, in so far as they apply to domestic interests to the United States with which I am concerned in this discussion," says the Secretary of State in conclusion, "I have alluded to them in order to correct confusing inferences liable to arise from certain departures, which I believe I discern in Your Lordship's communication from the underlying principles of a mandate as evolved and sought to be applied by the allied and associated powers to the territories brought under their temporary dominion by the joint struggle and common victory.

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

LIBERALS AND FARMERS

All Troubles of Dominion Says, Originated When reciprocity Was Defeated

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—That the great progressive forces in the Liberal, Farmers and Labor working toward a common aim against the Conservative government which has entered its mandate that there should be a working agreement between these three groups, the thought expressed by Hon. Charles Murphy, member for Russell, Ont., in the Dominion Parliament in the House of Commons, during the session, Mr. Murphy declared, had been no need of such a far-reaching party in the past, he said, because there was no such thing as a Conservative government under Tory administration.

The essential features of the Liberal and Farmer tariff platforms practically identical, Mr. Murphy said, and since the advent of the Farmers in the House of Commons they had voted with the Liberals on the government looked upon the similar in their aims and ideals. Mr. Murphy said, was evident from the fact that Sir George Foster had told the Farmers and Labor all the "wreckers" and such language "should be punished and that the best way to punish them was to elect a democratic government to whom the law was applied."

The result of an isolated case of the victory of the farmer can in the House of Commons, did not lessen the force of the Conservative platform. The result of an isolated case of the victory of the farmer can in the House of Commons, did not lessen the force of the Conservative platform.

THE STANDARD'S SPORTING SECTION

Nautical Blunders By Noted Writer

Commodore Stewart of Chatham Explains How Connolly Won Title

Over twenty years ago a sporting writer on a local daily was absent from the city on his vacation and another writer suggested a yacht race for him. This was the beginning of a series of articles in the wrong places with the result that Commodore J. L. Stewart of the Chatham World, who is recognized as an authority on sailing, took keen delight in picking out the bad spots which would readily be pointed out by any person familiar with sailing craft and he indignantly termed the writer as "The Backwater Reporter."

Much Boosted Writer

Among the writers covering these events were men from the Maritime Provinces as well as a few special writers from Boston, Mass. With only one exception (that being James B. Connolly) these writers were not boosted as wonderful marine writers; they were modest, wrote excellent accounts of the races which pleased their readers, received their expenses and were ready to take on some other work, but the man who was advertised in many of the leading papers as a wonderful marine writer was none other than James B. Connolly. In sections of this advertisement is a quotation alleged to be from the late president of the United States. This is not true, but it is a story by Jim Connolly. Further, the advertisement reads: "The only marine writer who hopes to compete with America's greatest writer of sea stories on this assignment is James B. Connolly." To have it said by Jim Connolly makes the setting perfect.

Was Certainly Enjoyed

Connolly is no doubt a brilliant writer, but if Frank Sibley of the Boston Globe, and Bert Ford of the Boston American had made the blunders that it credited to Connolly the Post would probably have had something to say. Connolly's other marine stories contained so many amazing blunders that his accounts of the schooner race contained, then, it is little wonder that Connolly's account of the race was not so far from the truth as you might think. The writer who hopes to compete with America's greatest writer of sea stories on this assignment is James B. Connolly. To have it said by Jim Connolly makes the setting perfect.

Commodore Stewart Takes Notice

Among the writers and keen observers at the Halifax races was Commodore Stewart of Chatham, and he took delight in the Chatham World in quoting the some of the mistakes made in the Connolly article.

The Commodore states that the St. John writer has lost the title of "Backwater Reporter," and the trophy, "Shout of Backwater," as it has been fairly won by Connolly and should be sent to him. He quotes Commodore Stewart as discovering "Backwater" from the Delawana's main peak to the rail and of their being set on a gybe. He also tells his readers how Epranto was "towed upon the windward shore by a schooner in the windward position and almost forced to go seaward on the race." The rocky island was right under our lee when Delawana began her desperate tacking. The Delawana began to fall in toward the rocky island according to this story. Connolly's address.

Connelly's Address

Not content with picking out these blunders by such a wonderful nautical writer as Connolly, the Commodore in his Saturday World takes another crack at Connolly when he picks up pieces Connolly's address to a Boston audience when he told his hearers that "With Epranto leading, the two schooners reached Devil's Island, and when Delawana swung over (gybed) for the next tack her main boom swung over our rail and was in danger of touching." Delawana, says the Commodore, "must have been tacking backward to make it possible for her main boom to touch the leading vessel."

Our sailors, Connolly said, "raced to the rail of the Epranto, seized the boom and held her off until she had lightened up." This he explains, was done to escape winning on a foul, as by rules of the race, if the mast of the other ship touched the competitor the ship that touched was automatically disqualified.

Commenting on this statement, the Commodore says: "Delawana must have been tacking badly, must have been on her beam end, when there was danger of her mast touching the other vessel."

The Chatham Commodore further says that "Mr. Connolly is happy in having so powerful an investigation and so uninformed an audience. Any sort of rot, told in a racy way, evidently goes in Boston."

Football Players Battle In The Mud

University of Pennsylvania Defeated Cornell Yesterday by Score of 23 to 0.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Battling in a sea of mud which slowed up the play, making footing and the handling of the ball hazardous, the University of Pennsylvania decisively defeated Cornell on Franklin Field today by the score of 23 to 0. A drizzling rain prevailed throughout the game but failed to drive the crowd of approximately 30,000 from the stands. Even the margin of the scores does not indicate the superiority of the red and blue team. Totally outclassed, Cornell was able to advance the ball past the Philadelphia's line, but once during the entire game and was forced to resort to a raged defensive in a desperate but vain attempt to withstand Penna. drives toward her goal line. The red and blue line was impregnable, repulsed the Ithaca attacks with apparent ease and recorded the unusual feat of blocking three Cornell kicks. The line tackling was fierce and sure.

Girl Scouts Learn Many Useful Arts

New York is Shown by Parade the Various Activities and Ideals.

New York's Girl Scouts who correspond to British Girl Guides have been holding a two week's campaign to raise a budget of $1,033,400. The following was their slogan:

Friday's Scout is rosy and strong. She camps and "takes" the whole day long. Saturday's Scout is happy and gay. For us the day is Sunday. While Sunday's Scout presents to you Her ununiformed back in the family pew!

The fund is to raise funds to mobilize the nation's girlhood in a great army for the country's good.

Some people have had an idea that Girl Scouts were sort of an imitation boy soldier that indulged in military tactics and long "hikes" on the march. New York at least, knows them for the regular "regular" girls that they are. On the first Saturday of their campaign they had a parade of 6,000 Girl Scouts up Fifth avenue to Central Park, where they presented a proposal. To illustrate how they put their slogan into action, groups of Girl Scouts on various floats in the parade washed and ironed, mended and mended, prepared for a hike, and then in multi-attended church in a final scene.

One of the most interesting sections of the parade was the International group representing many countries. A girl from each country which has a Scout organization (Britain, Canada, France, Palestine, Australia, Poland, Serbia, Belgium, Italy, Portugal, New Zealand and China), was in nature costume with the flag of her country.

Prohibit Betting On Race Course

Canada Concerned in Proposal to Enact Legislation in U. S. Congress to Prohibit.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Commenting editorially in its sporting column, the Globe today says that Canada is vitally concerned in the proposal to enact legislation in the United States Congress at its next session to prohibit betting on race courses, the publication of pari-mutuel dividends in newspapers and the dissemination of information before and after races that might facilitate the business of betting. The forces which brought about the prohibition enactment throughout the United States have been reinforced by other powerful reform organizations in this country on the racing interest. It is the latter think they can afford to ignore the activities of the proponents of the anti-betting enactment and continue to carry on, they are mistaken.

Tendler easily defeated Johnny Tillman, of Minneapolis, in an eight-round bout. Tendler led all the way and had Tillman cough up the shirt.

Tunney beat Lee Houck, of Lancaster, by a slight margin in a six-round fight. Tunney weighed 170 pounds and Houck 178.

Leslie won a hard fought eight-round bout with George Ward, of Kansas City.

Water Distillation in the Desert.

In the big desert of Chile there is a considerable amount of brackish water, but no water that either human beings or stock can drink. Science, however, has come to the aid of this rainless portion of the country in the form of an ingenious device, waterworks, consisting of a series of frames containing 20,000 square feet of glass. The panes of glass are arranged in the shape of a V, and under each pane is a shallow tank containing brackish water. The heat of the sun evaporates the water, which condenses upon the sloping glass and, made pure by this operation, it runs down in little channels at the bottom of the V and is carried away into the main canal. Every 1,000 gallons of brackish water is collected daily by this means.

Variety in Diamonds.

Each of the five mines owned and worked by the great De Beers Company in the Kimberley district produces diamonds with well marked characteristics. The Kimberley mine yields a good percentage of white and many yellow stones. Botolph Mine is famed for its large yellow diamonds. At Bultfontein small white and spotted stones are common. From the Wessels Mine come many beautiful deep orange-colored diamonds while the De Bours Mine shows a good percentage of tinted yellow and brown stones. The Premier Mine (Transvaal) yields a large number of "old-colored" stones. The Collins Mine is of exceptional purity. From the Johannesburg Mine is the Orange Free State the famous white-white stones are derived. The diamonds found in German Southwest Africa are small and yellowish in color.

Brunswick New or Old— which shall it be?

THERE ARE many ways to test a Phonograph before you buy. The choice is now distinct—NEW or OLD.

You CAN find out just how the Brunswick differs from the Phonographs of a few years ago.

You CAN find out whether the tone of the Brunswick is superior—on ANY record; whether or not it makes any good records BETTER. Before you buy any Phonograph, find out the shape of the "tone" chamber," or horn. What is it made of—cast-iron, tin or wood? Which do you think is best?

Can you understand every word of a song that you have never heard before? Can it say "S"?

What about the soprano's high notes? Does a Brass Band sound like a Brass Band or like an Orchestra? Can you tell a harp from a piano? Does the scratching of the stylus or jewel point distract your attention from the music? Does it annoy you?

Does it play every make of record—Brunswick, Victor, Columbia, Edison, etc.—with the correct needle, the correct position, the correct weight? Can these things be adjusted? Do you have to take something off or put something on in order to play different makes of records?

Your own ears will decide for the Brunswick, which is the only phonograph possessing these two exclusive inventions.

plays all makes of records exactly as they should be played. By a mere twist of the wrist the Ultona is instantly adjusted to play any make of record with the proper diaphragm, the correct needle, the exact weight. Nothing to take off or put on—no needles to change. And it actually does make your records last longer.

All-wood Oval Horn

built like a violin. Its oval shape and entire freedom from metal solve an old problem in acoustics by allowing tone waves to unfold in a way that is rich, mellow and, above all, natural.

Investigate---find out

Use your own ears—your own eyes—your own judgment. Hear the Brunswick NOW. A small payment on your Brunswick will reserve it for delivery Christmas Eve, so you will have music in your home on Christmas Day.

Hundred Dollar Fines Imposed

Citizens Plead Guilty With Failing to File Their Income Tax Statements.

The balance of the cases against the thirty-two citizens charged with failing to file their income tax statements for the year 1919, were concluded in the police court yesterday afternoon. All the offenders pleaded guilty and fines of $100 each will be imposed by Magistrate Hutchinson tomorrow at two o'clock.

Pleaded Guilty

Those who appeared before the court yesterday and pleaded guilty were Dr. A. Brewster, G. B. Acroft, Thos. J. Phillips, H. L. Macdonald and Jan. H. Pullin. Mr. Percy Howard, who through his absence from the city, was unable to be present yesterday, but who pleaded guilty at a previous hearing will also be amongst those fined next Thursday.

Dr. Brewster stated that as he did not keep books he had no means of determining his income and expenditures. He was the father of five children and thought he should not be liable under the act. He pleaded guilty to not having complied with the law.

James H. Pullin said that when he had first been notified he had filled out the statement to the best of his ability. Later he was advised by the department that it did not meet with the requirements, but he neglected to attend to the matter further. He pleaded guilty to failing to comply with the law.

H. L. Macdonald stated that he had given his 1919 statement to another to mail for him.

Hedley C. Wilson, accountant for the Income Tax branch of the finance department, stated that notices had been mailed Mr. Macdonald in July, August and October, but there was no record in the office to show that Mr. Macdonald had complied with the law.

Inspector Testifies

A. W. Sharp, income tax inspector, corroborated Mr. Wilson's evidence. In answer to Mr. Macdonald, he said he could not recall the defendant having the notices at his office or requesting him for additional papers to fill out during the year 1919. Mr. Macdonald pleaded guilty to the charge, and a magistrate stated that a fine of $100 each would be imposed on all violators of the law next Thursday at 2:30 P.M., E.C., who appeared for the department of finance, stated that it was the intention of the department to see that all persons who were required by the act to file income tax statements should be made to comply with the law. It was not the intention to allow any to evade paying the tax which others who were more conscientious had paid.

Will Ask Power To Erect Buildings

Municipal Buildings Committee Discussed Matter of New Municipal Building.

The municipal buildings committee met yesterday to further discuss the matter of a new municipal building. After this motion had passed the question as to the legality of the raising of a rate to cover the building was decided to hold another meeting at the call of the chair, after the chairman had received the advice of the county secretary on this phase of the matter.

The sum of $500 was ordered paid to C. S. Archibald for work in connection with the preliminary sketches for the new municipal building. A resolution authorizing the warden and county secretary to execute a release of the mortgage on the payment of $1,500 was passed.

SOUTH AMERICA HOLDS THE KEY

Balance of Power Rests With Representatives of That Continent.

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.
Copyright, 1920, By Public Ledger.
Geneva, Nov. 25.—The announcement of the league council's resolution and Viscount Latham's memorandum on the free city of Danzig is not alone a blow to Polish aspirations, but also to the influence of the French in European politics, which is evidenced also by today's developments in the assembly. Ex-Premier Rene Viviani showed his hand too soon, and a reaction against his leadership has already set in. Not since the early days of the assembly have the Liberals been so hopeful as today, and their fear that Viviani's policy might succeed in making the league assembly as innocuous as possible, to quote the recent French foreign office statement to Wythe Williams, Paris correspondent of the Public Ledger, no longer hangs like a cloud over their enthusiasm. They have not only hoped, but are convinced that this assembly, to use Viscount's phrase, will use its teeth on the reactionaries of Europe, bite through the opposition and go on record as a great world organization for reconstruction.

Sessions May Last Till Christmas. Judging from the amount of work which is being undertaken by league commissions, by the assembly and by the council, there is talk of the sessions continuing until Christmas. Besides the scope of the interests now before the assembly and one can see how its work today extends from Geneva to all parts of the world—from China and Danzig to Turkey; from Bolivia, Chile and Peru to China and Japan and from the South African mandate zones to central Europe. It is surprising that France should be so anxious to influence the actions of this body, when this assembly contains the possibility of upsetting the French diplomacy of international policies?

But France is not alone; Great Britain, too, is watching Geneva with hawk-eyes. This assembly has in one way upset already the calculations of the old-world diplomacy. It was thought, and in some quarters feared, that Great Britain with her six votes would dominate the league, but today South America holds the balance of power.

The fifteen votes of Argentine, Brazil, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Guatemala, Haiti, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Salvador, Uruguay and Venezuela are today the pivots of European diplomacy. The nation which can swing the vote of these countries and may still offer nations to decide every question that comes before the assembly. No persons in Geneva are more disappointed than the British that their six votes are as nothing compared to Latin America.

New Man in Sight. M. Viviani, with his eye on those nations and fresh from his personal visit to Argentina, and with the aid of his two whips on the floor of the assembly, is fighting for the leadership, but judging from today's developments

The bride was unattended. Many gifts to the bride were in evidence, the groom's being a substantial cheque. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Silas Gregg, Mrs. John Chow and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hunter of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hunter and Mrs. G. W. Armstrong of Moncton. After a luncheon had been served the bride and groom left on the evening train for St. John, and other points in New Brunswick and on their return will take up their residence at Mount-Ains Dale.

there is a new leader coming to the front—Filon, of Italy. That white haired statesman from Rome is now looked upon as the man who can win the support of the Liberals, of the small European neutrals and of the South Americans.

Must Watch Great Britain. Great Britain, however, is not to be overlooked. Her delegates here have with the exception of Barnes and Lord Robert Cecil, been mere observers. Mrs. Balfour's illness has been a valuable asset to the British, for this week Downing street has been able to listen and to plan for next week with Mr. Balfour here or the week after with Lloyd George. The tables may be turned and England, instead of Italy, may yet appear as the moderator between the French conservatives and the Cecil-Nansen-Argentine liberalists.

Opposition to France Increases. While speculations continue as to opposition to France increases. It was evident in the assembly today, when several speeches cautiously referred to Article XVIII, requiring the registration of treaties. France and Belgium have not registered the Franco-Polish military alliance, and that has caused much uneasiness. Poland has been defeated in Danzig. The league is sending a police force to Vilna and there is a possibility of similar action in Armenia.

Thus, throughout the conflict in Geneva between the Liberals and Conservatives, the league is going ahead, growing and developing. The assembly is bringing to the light of day the intrigues and policies which otherwise would be hidden behind diplomacy. The assembly is showing the world how rotten it is. To that extent the assembly is the world's mirror, and the hope of the Liberals is that when the peoples of the world see what is, and has been happening behind the scenes, they will want to back the league assembly in whatever it undertakes in the way of reconstruction and readjustment to defeat the century-old imperialism.

MEN AND BUSINESS

(By Richard Spillane)

New York, Nov. 23.—Advertising is a tremendous power if you know how to use it. But you must know how and where to employ its power or you will not get results.

Whether you are selling locomotives or soap, pianos or pinocchio decks, you must know your public and the mediums to utilize, and what is more, the way to phrase and present your story.

Old proofs, unexpected acknowledgments, come now and then of the virtue of the ad. One came floating in by the evening mail from the Recruiting Publicity Bureau of the United States army.

It was a note that read as follows: "Here are orders for four more pieces of copy in the United States army campaign, together with my continuing thanks for the way you are handling this matter."

All peace-time records for October recruiting were broken last month by 17,583 recruits. Wish I were able to tell you just how many came as a result of reading our advertisements in your paper, but that is not possible.

The signer was the chief of the bureau. Richard Airey, vice-president of the Roxana Petroleum Co., must have been spoofing when he told the members of the American Petroleum Institute that Europeans have no aspirations to control of the world's supply of oil.

The Roxana is a subsidiary of the Royal Dutch Shell, of which H. W. A. Detering, who has given great trouble to the Standard Oil than any other man or 1,000 men in the world, is the leading spirit.

PLENTY OF SHIPPING BUSINESS FOR ALL

International Marine Head Says Anglo-Saxon Interests Should Work Together. By WILLIAM G. BULTER. (Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Nov. 25.—There is plenty of business in the world for American, Canadian and British shipping companies, and we should individually increase our respective facilities, and put out after business and forget this dog-in-the-manger rivalry between the English speaking nations," said P. A. Franklin, president of the International Marine. He added that he had been busy here with arrangements for an extension of the services of the International Mercantile Marine between Germany, the United States and Great Britain. This proposed extension in the service is looked up by shipping circles as a challenge to the Harriman Lines which recently entered into a reciprocal trade deal with the Hamburg-American interests. Mr. Franklin returns to the United States this week.

GERMAN TOYS ARE FLOODING CANADA

Quarter Million Dollars' Worth Came in During Month of November. By FRANK TEWSON. (Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Nov. 25.—It is estimated that nearly a quarter of a million dollars worth of German toys have been shipped to Canada during November for the Christmas trade, which equals the total amount shipped from England to Canada from January to October. German toys are flooding the British market to such an extent that the British toy-making industry has been seriously crippled. The overseas department of foreign trade reports that toy import houses are already stocked with German goods and it is to late to take steps to restrict these imports. The trade department estimates that seventy-five per cent. of the toys on the British markets for Christmas are German made. They cost about half as much as the British made article it is reported.

STATUS UNALTERED IN EYES OF FLOCK

Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin Took Customary Part in Sunday's Service. Windsor, Nov. 23.—The fact that he must shortly face trial for the "killing and slaying" of Clarence Beverley Trumble, proprietor of the Chappelle House, Sandwich, has apparently not in any way altered the status of Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, pastor of the Methodist church in Sandwich, in the eyes of his flock. Sunday morning Mr. Spracklin, attired in the customary black coat and wearing a white tie, took his usual place on the rostrum of his little church and "gave out" the hymns and made the usual weekly announcements, much as he has always done.

One Advantage of Heaven.

The door closed behind an irate neighbor who had come to complain regarding certain of Tommy's shortcomings. A few moments later, as he was tearfully preparing for a prematurely early bedtime, he said to his mother: "I wish we lived in heaven, mother." His mother inquired the cause of his sudden aspiration toward better things. "Oh, well," he sighed, "you know the angels wouldn't be half as hard to please as the neighbors are."

Asks Expression Of Their Opinion

Central Labor Unions Sounded on Advisability of Forming Provincial Federation. President Campbell of the St. John Trade and Labor Council has recently addressed a letter to the various central councils throughout the province, asking for an expression of opinion on the advisability of forming provincial and inter-provincial federations in the Maritime Provinces for mutual help.

Obtain Best Results. Mr. Campbell, in commenting on the Provincial and Inter-Provincial Federation proposal, informs the Standard it is the opinion of the local Trades and Labor Council that the best results can be obtained for labor and the country in political affairs through such agencies.

These representatives need not necessarily be men who hold a union card, but they must be men who are broad-minded enough to see that what labor asks is not class legislation, but that their aims are built upon the broad principle of doing the greatest good to all people.

Conferred With General Manager

Railway and Steamship Clerks Had Conference Yesterday With J. M. Woodman.

A committee representing the railway and steamship clerks conferred with J. M. Woodman, general manager of C. P. R. New Brunswick Division, yesterday afternoon, relative to wage scale and working conditions for the shipping season about to open.

The members of the committee at the conference were greatly pleased with the consideration shown them by General Manager Woodman, and the desired evidence by him for a friendly solution of the problems up. They express the belief that an amicable adjustment of their differences will be arrived at. This afternoon the Clerks' Committee will meet representatives of the shipping companies.

Luscious Lobster Attractive Feature

St. John and Charlotte Season Opened 15th—High Prices Offered in States. The luscious lobster is now the attractive feature of the local fish markets. It is temptingly displayed and causes one to thoughtfully count one's toll and figure out how one can indulge in a desire for the "broiled live."

Considering the limited field now open to lobster fishermen, the receipts at the local markets have been quite satisfactory. The season opened November 15th for the Counties of St. John and Charlotte, and these will provide the only source of supply until about December 15th, when the Nova Scotia shore, east of Halifax, will be open. On the south shore of Nova Scotia the season will not be on until March, two months later than usual.

The retail price prevailing today is 40 cents per pound. Much of the catch by St. John and Charlotte lobstermen is finding its way to the Boston markets. High prices are being offered there, and local dealers are obliged to "bid up" in order to have sufficient stock to meet the demands here. In addition to the Boston demand there is the exchange rate, which adds a little extra profit to the local shipper, and a profit that must be met by the local retailer in his purchases, and the consumer pays it all.

Lectured Before Canadian Club

'The Enemies of Anglo-Saxon Solidarity' Subject of John A. Stewart of New York. Over two hundred members of the Canadian Club enjoyed a very interesting lecture yesterday evening at Bond's Restaurant by John A. Stewart, of New York, City Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Sea-Grave Institution, on the subject, "The Enemies of Anglo-Saxon Solidarity."

Pleased With Country. During the course of his address, Mr. Stewart stated: "I need not assure you that I find it a mighty pleasure to be with you here, but I am able to speak to you in a bane-like and conversational manner, rather than to speak from a public platform, addressing the Finance Committee of the Sea-Grave Institution, on the subject, 'The Enemies of Anglo-Saxon Solidarity.'"

The times which were often called good times have been found to be bad. Never was there such an opportunity for humanity as exists today.

Another Reduction In Price of Flour

A Further Drop of Fifty Cents Per Barrel Becomes Effective This Morning. Another reduction has occurred in the price of flour, and it becomes effective this morning. This time the recession amounts to 50 cents per barrel and will no doubt be joyously received by citizens as a whole who are hoping that a reduction in the price of bread per loaf will shortly take place.

One of the local bakers was interviewed yesterday evening and asked, in view of this further drop in the price of flour, if the cost of bread would go down. He replied that the recession was not sufficient to warrant a reduction in the price of bread, and that, roughly speaking, a drop of about $3 per barrel was necessary to permit a reduction in bread of one cent per loaf. This baker expressed the opinion that flour should further recede considerably within the next year, but until the total reductions amounted to about $2 per barrel the retail price of bread will remain as it is at present.

League of Nations

While on this subject, I suppose I may take the opportunity of answering an enquiry, which, no doubt, came into the minds of each and every one of you, and that is what is the status of the Republic of the United States on the League of Nations. There is no question whatever, notwithstanding anything you have heard to the contrary, that if a placid vote were taken in my country, that four-fifths of nine-tenths of the people would vote for a League of Nations of some sort, and for an alliance based on respect for other nations. Canada today stands in a most unique position; and that is, to interpret America to Great Britain and Great Britain to the United States, and can act as the link in the joining of the great English-speaking nations of the world.

Unfortunately, however, the League of Nations treaty as at present constituted is contrary to Article three of our constitution; but what the United States purposes to do is to ask the League of Nations to amend that part which is contrary to our constitution and we will gladly join. We assuredly want to join the League of Nations, and also join with Canada, Great Britain and the other English-speaking countries in combating the enemies of Anglo-Saxon solidarity. It is our earnest wish that Great Britain and our country should be eternal friends.
