Margaret felt that she was guilty, and hung her head in silence—guilty more over, of the strange thrill of joy and hope and pride with which she had listened to the story of John Weston's love.

"And what is all this that I hear about an expensive ball-dress that has been sent to you? Mrs. Gaylord went on. "If my husband has lavished money so foolishly on you, he will hear my opinion of his conduct in very plain terms."

The eventful day dawned at last; and with it came tidings that for a few moments damped Mrs. Gaylord's sunny self-

The Master of Pennraven, who had been in delicate health for years, had died suddenly at sea on his way home from Madeira. "If he only will come before the Master of Pennraven arrives, I will forgive him," she thought.

In one of the pauses of the music she heard a carriage drive to the door. In a few moments, the butler appeared, his eyes rolling with wonder.

After the Crimean War Turkey became the enfant gate of the Western Powers and especially of England. The Governments of France and England had guaranteed a four per cent. loan of $25,000,000 in 1855, and on the strength of this Turkey continued raising money until 1875, when she practically repudiated her debt, which had reached the sum of $9,000,000. Since that time France and England have paid the interest on the

In July, 1875, runners of disturbance in Bosnia and Herzegovina, commenced to circulate, and it soon became plain tha the Eastern question had reopened. The insurrections rapidly increased, and at last it was determined by some of the aspecial license. Rely upon it, Mrs. Gaylord will not refuse to receive you—as my bride. Will you go, Margaret?"

"Yes," she said frankly. "I shall be glad to go with you. You are the only person, except my Cousin Walter, who has been kind to me since my dear father died."

"But you quite understand that your life may be one of poverty and care? I don't wish to deceive you on that point; but I can promise to love you through it all until the end."

"That is all I ask—that and to make we have the love as point of the nation more in life and money than war, because and famine. John Weston's face looked radiantly handsome in this hour of triumph."

It has always been my dream of dreams to be loved for myself alone, Margaret. And now that dream is realized. A poor, shabby cripple, I have yet won the one woman in the world that I could love for my own dear wife.

"I dislike to hear you speak of yourself in that slighting sort of way," said Margaret. "I will not, my darling. I'll allude to myself as reverently as if I was the Master of Pennraven himself. Cherry Pectoral. No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trified with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. Conservatives was to be held last evening, when the Government candidate would be chosen. The Grit papers of St. John have offected considerable annoyance over the fact that the Government did not have the county and city elections simultaneously, and thus avoid the expense and trouble of the present contest. At first sight there is an apparent sincerity in the lament, but in view of the fact that the opposition are preparing for a ty in the lament, but in view of the fact that the opposition are preparing for a contest which will greatly increase the expense and trouble, when their theorizing could be at least partially brought into practical effect by avoiding an election which will bring no comfort to their already wounded spirits, the professions of regret are hypocritical in the extreme. Judging from the tone of the opposition papers the opportunity to again test the political pulse of the electorate is rather cheerfully embraced, so that crocodile tears are rather out of place now. Tears and more lamentation will be in order on the evening of the 24th. the evening of the 24th.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY COM-

The leading feature of the week's news is the completion of this great undertaking, the work having been completed within six years of the contract period, and possessing a railway equipment second to none on the Continent. The first train started from Montreal for the Rockies on the 2nd inst., the time made being over twenty-four miles an hour, including stoppages. There were sixteen through passengers in the pullman, and quite a number of passengers in the other cars. Her Majesty the Queen has cabled her congratulations to the people of Canada on the completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and has expressed her hopes for the future success of a work of such value and importance to the empire. RIEL.

The reports respecting the imprisoned rebel Riel are symewhat contradictory. In one paper it is stated that a medical commission, (consisting of Dr. Jukes, of Regina, Dr. Tourgeon, of the Mounted Police, and two others whose names are not given) has been appointed to inquire as to Riel's saulty, said commission to complete their examination in time to avoid a further postponement of the execution should the decision be unfavorable to the prisoner. In another paper it is stated that at a recent meeting of the Cabinet there was a great division of sentiment respecting the prisoner, five of the Ministers being in favor of commuting the sentence to imprisonave of the Ministers being in favor of commuting the sentence to imprisonment for life and eight in favor of carrying out the death penalty. Another paper states that the Minister of Justice has made a report to the Council on the Riel question, in which he has adopted the views of Bishop Grandin, in that the rebel leader should not be hanged, but that he should be incarcerated in a lunatic asylum. Whether this is to be done without Riel's sanity being inquired into is not stated. Whatever the course pursued there is no denving the fact that

The Flat Lands Salmon Club has been recently organized, with a membership of between thirty and forty persons. The object is ideutical with that of all similar organizations. The writer has been informed that the new Club has been informed that the new Club has leased all the principal fishing grounds from the Lovetdale waters down to Tide head. The members all belong to the maritime provinces, and are as fine and olly a lot of representatives of Isaak Walton as can be found in sporting circles anywhere. The fishing grounds secured are excellent, and will furnish grand sport, for which preparations are already being made. In answer to the above I state most positively that the election of the successor of the retiring trustee was not made a test question as to whether there should be a change in the management of our Grammar School. No suggestion of the kind was made. The retiring Trustee, of the kind was made. The retiring Trustee, the stated that H. A. Johnson, Trustee and Secretary of Trustees, said to him that he would do what he could to have Principal Ross dismissed. I may here mention that said H. A. Johnson had in a trifling matter taken offence at the Principal, which latter was sustained by the other Trustees after due consideration of the question in dispute, which was of a nature too trifling to mention here. But notwithstanding the interest educationally to this community, Johnson, who could not rise above his mythical grievance, replied, that if the Trustees would support him he would dismiss Principal Ross.

But notwithstanding the interest educationally to this community, Johnson, who could not rise above his mythical grievance, replied, that if the Trustees would support him he would dismiss Principal Ross.

Chas. H. LaBillois, Esq., M. P. P., the nominator of Chas. Stewart as trustee, on being questioned, denied that he had been canvassed by Johnson to nominate Stewart, and that he did not do so with the view in purpose of dismissing Principal Ross.

The ratepayers satisfied by this assurance, and thinking Mr. Stewart, above deceitful concealment of any such purpose, would act in honest conformity to the wishes of the ratepayers, was unaniunously elected.

This, corroborated by the following petition signed by about three quarters of the ratepayers, representing about eight tenths of the taxes collected for the support of the school in this district, will to the reading public be sufficient to show the gross incorrectness of the statement made by your informant, as it will also show any desiring the position, that meantime no other teacher, to put it fairly, will be accepted by this community.

WINS, allow me to say that I consider it a wonder and the best tonic I have ever used, having tried several others without having been benefitted any. I was induced to try your Quinine, from and Wine, and am now a new man, having gained by its use my former strength and activity, and as for my appetite, it never was better.

Very truly yours, ELIJAH NAVINS.

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to Cal-ifornia, he learned that one of the officers of the vessel had oured himself, during the vorage, of an obstinate disease by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AYER'S SARSAPARILLA in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure. Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND'S farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Hor-rible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enor-mously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direct tion, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. LELAND has personally used Ayer's Sarsaparilla for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases. We have Mr. LELAND'S permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary quasiva powers of to the extraordinary curative powers of AVER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. Mr. LELAND'S extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalited eradicator of blood poisons enables him to give inquirers much valuable information.
