ST. ANDREW'S DAY BANQUET ARRANGED

Caledonian Society Will Hold Their Annual Dinner in Waverly Hotel
The committee of the Caledonian Society who had charge of the arrangements for the St. Andrew's dinner have completed their work, the function being held in the Waverly Hotel on Friday, 28th. Nov. It is with great pleasure that the committee announce the fact that the speaker of the evening will be the Rev. J. J. McCaskill of St. John, who is chaplain of St. Andrew's Society there. The gentleman is well known as one of the best orators in the province, and the society are to be congratulated on being able to secure him for this, their first function since re-organization. Rev. Mr. McCaskill is greatly pleased that the society has been re-organized and is looking forward to meeting the members and helping along the society all he can. His trip will naturally be hurried as he has to preach to St. Andrew's Society in St. John on Sunday, but his welcome will be all the more sincere owing to the shortness of his visit. The dinner this year will be slightly different from previous years, the entertainment being almost exclusively confined to members of the society, very few outside invitations being issued. A general meeting of the society will be held on Friday, 21st, November, for the purpose of hearing reports from the executive, and proposing new members of the society. Names have been handed to the secretary for membership, and all who desire to join the society are urged to send in their names with the amount of the dues which are $1.00 for this year before the 19th of November when a meeting of the executive will be held. The invitations to the banquet will be made up from the membership roll as at the 21st of November so that all Scotsmen over the age of 18 should make application now, to their name going forward for this meeting. The membership, so far, has been most gratifying to the officers of the society, but there are many yet who were members of the old society who have not yet come forward, and they are urged to do so as soon as possible. Names would be included in the St. Andrew's Day celebration. Application for membership may be made direct to the secretary or to any of the members of the society, and it is in the service and there has been considerable agitation for some time past to have them increased. It is believed that they will be brought up to the level of those paid to employees of the customs department. This, it is stated, will apply not only to officials and employees in the department here, but also to inspectors, etc., at outside points throughout the dominion. It is also probable that clerks and employees of the dominion railway commission will at an early date be brought under the civil service commission. At present this department, though in reality a branch of the public service, is separate from the other departments. Many of the clerks employed are in charge of responsible and important work and really hold the positions of technical clerks, though their salaries are not commensurate with the importance of the position. It is believed that positions will be classified and salaries graded as under the civil service proper. Smallpox

BRITISH LUMBER FIRM HAS FAILED

Frank Harrison & Company of Liverpool are Reported in Financial Difficulty
Word reached the city yesterday that the firm of Frank Harrison and Company of Liverpool had failed with heavy liabilities. F. E. Neale of Chatham is the representative of the company on this side of the Atlantic and when asked last evening about the matter had but little to say other than the difficulties of the company are but temporary and that the losses have not been met through the lumber business but in stock speculations. There are no firms on this side of the Atlantic directly affected by the failure because the firm of Harrison always paid for the shipments of lumber in cash, and it is expected that everything will be fixed up satisfactorily in a short time. It has been hinted however, by lumber merchants that the losses are heavy and even worse than given out by the Canadian representative. The company were the largest importers of lumber from the Miramichi and Campbellton, and this season alone they have received about 80,000,000 superficial feet of lumber from that section of New Brunswick. The firm have been receiving and paying for New Brunswick lumber for the past two or fifteen years, and was one of the best known lumber firms in the world. Outside speculations, say the local lumber merchants, caused the failure, but further details have not reached here. In fact the first word of the failure was received here by cable on Saturday last. The matter caused much talk among local merchants yesterday but a number of them who were called on had little or nothing to say regarding it, and would only confirm the report that the firm had failed, and it was expected the loss would be heavy.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN ST. ANDREWS

Large Number are Present Each Evening Taking Part in The Meetings
The special services which commenced last Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church are still being continued and will finish next Wednesday evening. The week night meetings are being well attended, and have been a source of inspiration and a great help to all who have taken part in them. The meetings are addressed each evening by Rev. J. A. Stewart of Kew Beach church, Toronto, and he is assisted in the musical part of the work by Mr. T. H. Nichol, gospel singer. A pleasant feature of the meetings is the bright, hearty singing by a large combined choir from all the churches, every one doing their very best to help out all they can. To accompany the singers Mr. Nichol has been ably assisted by Mrs. D. C. Firth, Mrs. F. W. Campbell, Miss Tess Lingley, as well as the organist of the church, while Miss F. DeCoevront added to the musical part on Monday evening by singing a solo. Special meetings are being held for the children on certain afternoons, and many young folks have attended, and it is felt that these will indeed be a means of grace to the younger people. Last Sunday afternoon a meeting for men only was held at which a goodly number attended, but many more would have been present had it been earlier known that such a meeting would be held. Monday a special consecration meeting was attended by about the largest audience that has yet been at any of the meetings, and was a source of great blessing. Rev. Mr. Stewart is a quiet, yet forceful speaker and holds his audience well all the time of his address. The meetings which began at 7.30 each evening are preceeded at 7.15 by a short prayer meeting, then a song service is rendered by the choir, four or five well known hymns being rendered, in the singing of which the congregations always heartily join. The meetings are un denominational, and the spirit of unity in the King's business is shown by the numbers who attend from other churches, and thoroughly enjoyed. The services will be continued for another week, the timetable of which will be found among the church notices in another column.

COUNTY COURT HELD IN DALHOUSIE

Application For Habeas Corpus Granted
A sitting of the County Court with Judge McLatchey on the bench was held at Dalhousie on Tuesday, all the barristers from here being present. There were five cases on the docket, all non-jury, two of them being finished, and judgement on the others will be given in Campbellton. An application for a writ of Habeas Corpus was made to Judge McLatchey who after hearing the arguments granted the application and the prisoner who was serving a sentence for illegal selling of liquor was discharged.

QUEBEC LEGISLATURE HAS MANY IMPORTANT MATTERS TO BE DEALT WITH

Quebec, Que., Nov. 12.—The provincial legislature was opened this afternoon by Sir Francois Langellier the Lieutenant Governor with the traditional ceremonies. The session is expected to last until Christmas, and matters dealing with Montreal are expected to occupy a large part of it. The report of the license liquor traffic will also be presented. In the speech from the throne presented by Sir Francois Langellier, greetings were extended to the Duke and Duchess of Connaught on their return to Canada and congratulations to Her Royal Highness on recovering from her illness. The speech expresses the hope that the license commissioners' report will help the legislature to find a solution of the very complicated and difficult question of the sale of alcoholic liquors and the plague of intemperance. The speech mentions that the receipts of the province exceeds the expenditures for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913. Alusion is also made to the great activity in colonization and the contention made that still more could have been done in this connection, if the section of the transcontinental railway between Quebec and Cochrane had been completed. The wish is made that the provincial requests for additional subsidies from the Dominion government be favorably received, so that the province of Quebec can more promptly and fully carry on the work it has begun on highways and make larger grants to education. Preparations are under way, and on a very extensive scale, to establish the new Government parcel post service in Montreal and eastern Canada. The service, which goes into effect on January 1, 1914, is expected to be as fully taken advantage of as was that of the United States, and on the basis figures Montreal will probably be a clearing house for fifteen million parcels inside the first three months of the year. Simultaneously with the parcel post service establishment there, other cities under the control of the Montreal post office authorities are also being looked after and will have branch departments of the parcel post. The cities thus brought directly under the Montreal district in parcel post jurisdiction are: Sherbrooke, Quebec, Campbellton, Bathurst, Fredericton, Charlottetown, Chatham, Moncton, St. John, New Glasgow, Truro, Yarmouth, Sydney, and Halifax.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING FRIDAY

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the Town Clerk's office Friday evening, President Harquail in the chair. A letter from Supt. E. Price advising the Board that the West local had been ordered to stop at Athol to pick up and set down passengers at this point. As regards the erection of a shelter at Athol, this would have to stand until the amount of traffic was ascertained when the matter would be decided. The secretary and Mr. John M. Maclean were appointed a committee to press further in the matter. The matter of the wreck of the coal schooner on the edge of the harbor channel was brought up by Mr. W. D. Duncan, who made the suggestion that the matter be taken up with the proper department at Ottawa. Mr. Fairbanks thought that this obstruction was a serious matter. The force in going out in the spring may force it into the channel and become a serious obstruction to navigation. The bridge matter was up for discussion. Mr. A. McG. McDonald moved that the secretary write the Hon. John Morrissey, Chief Commissioner of Public Works for the province of New Brunswick asking him to come to Campbellton to look over the situation re the bridge, and when a date was set for the visit ask the local members for the county of Restigouche to be present at a meeting of the Board when this matter would be further discussed. The matter of a telephone pay station at Athol was also discussed and the secretary stated that the local manager said that it was not practicable as the company would have to string separate wires for this service. The matter of public pay stations was given some attention and it was shown that in the matter of such stations this town was not properly served. There is only one pay station on the ground floor of the Bank of Nova Scotia building and one at the St. Louis Hotel. President Harquail thought that there should be at least two or three additional pay stations on the front street and one at the I. C. E. depot. The committee which had charge of this matter were asked to continue their labors, and take the matter up with the head office of the telephone company. A general discussion took place on the building bylaws. A committee was appointed to supply the Busy East with articles relative to Campbellton.

BETTER PAY FOR REVENUE EMPLOYEES

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—Employees of the inland revenue department, both in the inside and outside service, will, it is stated here, have an increase in pay granted to them as soon as legislation can be introduced for this purpose at the coming session. The employees of this department are at present receiving salaries considerably below the average standard in the service and there has been considerable agitation for some time past to have them increased. It is believed that they will be brought up to the level of those paid to employees of the customs department. This, it is stated, will apply not only to officials and employees in the department here, but also to inspectors, etc., at outside points throughout the dominion. It is also probable that clerks and employees of the dominion railway commission will at an early date be brought under the civil service commission. A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poisoning! Not one speck of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again, As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again, As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing. The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 Delormier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. To-day—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp (to pay return postage). Address Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Skin Sufferers—Read!
We want all skin sufferers who have suffered for many years the tortures of disease and who have sought medical aid in vain, to read this.
We, as old established druggists of this community, wish to recommend to you a product that has given many relief and may mean the end of your agony. The product is a mild, simple wash, not a patent medicine concocted of various worthless drugs, but a scientific compound made of well known antiseptic ingredients. It is made in the D. D. D. Laboratories of Toronto and is called the D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema. This is a doctor's special prescription—one that has effected many wonderful cures.
The effect of D.D.D. is to soothe instantly, as soon as applied; then it penetrates the pores, destroys and throws off all disease germs and leaves the skin clean and healthy.
We are so confident of the marvelous power of D.D.D. that we have taken advantage of the manufacturers guarantee, to offer you a full size bottle on trial. You are to judge the merits of the remedy in your own particular case. If it doesn't help you, it costs you nothing.
D.D.D. Soap is made of the same healing ingredients. Ask us about it. A. McG. McDONALD.

LEGISLATION.

The session of the Provincial Legislature will soon be upon us, and as we are usually like the "cow's tail" a little behind, it would not be amiss for the council to get busy and have their plans made, for any legislation which they may require. There are certainly many things required, and among them two perhaps stand out very prominently, these being: preparation for the Town Hall, and the reconstruction of the assessment of this town. Regarding the latter question the Graphic some months ago spoke of the changes required on this, and we feel glad to know that at the recent convention of N. B. Municipalities this very subject was dealt with in a very able paper, and was put before the convention in the same manner as we did before our readers. No one can deny that our system of assessment is very out of date, and will never be improved until the Town appoints a resident assessor, who could overhaul the system, and put it on a proper business footing.

The present system is all right for a small community of 500 persons, but not for a town of our size, housing as it does so many moneyed industries,
and bright with so many possibilities of advancement. Now is the time to think the matter over and get prepared, not when the session is nearly over, and have our requests handed in the last day of the session.

REPRESENTATION

The Interprovincial Conference having passed a resolution declining to interfere in matters of Federal representation it is now certain that when re-distribution takes place New Brunswick will lose two members. According to an editorial published last week in the St. John Globe, St. John stands to lose one member and Victoria
would be effaced and one part of it added to Carleton Co., and the Mad-awaska end joined to Restigouche Co.
While the latter change has been public rumor for some time, it is by no means a settled conclusion. When the government comes to consider the large area of territory occupied by Restigouche Co., with prospects of great growth of population in the future, other changes might be suggested. In fact, if the future be considered, none of the northern counties should be disturbed. They are all growing fast in population, while the southern counties are losing or remaining at a stand still in population. Restigouche has doubled its population in twenty years. If one can judge by the growth of the towns of Campbellton and Dalhousie, with the opening of the country along the International, the population of the county will double before 1931. If so, we would then have a population of about 35,000.

This is about the number required now
according to terms laid down at confederation by which Quebec is to remain with 65 members for all time.
If you add to the expected population of Restigouche Co. in 1931, the number that Madawaska will probably have then, adding 10,000 of increase during that time for Madawaska, a member representing the joint counties would speak for a population of at least 60,000.

It is clear to an impartial eye that this would prove to be unfair. It is true that the government is considered with a difficult task in this matter,
and their only course is to decide what is in the best interests of all concerned, looking into the future, judging from changes during recent years.

THE POLITICS OF IT.

The St. John Globe in an editorial
on the proposed C. P. R. - I. C. R.
agreement with regard to the mail
steamers says:

"The issue before the people in connection with the mail service is a political one in the largest sense of the word. The interests of St. John, threatened by a railway traffic agreement that is regarded as highly discriminatory, are not the only interests involved. These might be considered as purely local. There is the Intercolonial Railway, for which the government of the country stands sponsor, and which is believed to face the burden not only of a bad bargain but
of a bargain directly levelled against one Canadian city and in the interests of another. There is the question of the good faith of politicians themselves, for it is difficult, if not impossible, to reconcile what is being permitted with their promise of no interference in the selection by the mail steamers of their terminal port.
There is, further, the general interest of all Canada in the mail service. The port that could give the quickest despatch is not to be the port because steamships have been influenced to abandon it for another port. The politics that is wanted in the consideration of the issues involved in the dispute is of that larger kind that knows no interest but the general interest.
That is why Conservatives and Liberals are standing shoulder to shoulder in St. John, and why personalities are as unnecessary as they are undesirable."

EVERY MAN WHOSE NAME IS ON THE VOTERS' LIST Should Become Familiar With the How's and

Where is the money being spent? Why has the purchasing power of a Five Dollar Bill decreased so greatly in the last few years?

ONLY THE SHREWD BUYER CAN ANSWER.

For the past few weeks we have been offering very exceptional values to the buyers of Mens and Boys' Suits and Overcoats. Suits and Overcoats a little above the average. Colorings that are good. Fabrics only that have proven their wearing qualities. Lots of Style and Dash.

The hundred of people that have taken advantage of this rare opportunity of securing satisfactory Clothing at the prices
proves that THE OBJECT OF EVERY SHREWD BUY-ER IS TO SAVE MONEY.

THIS PROFIT SHARING SALE WILL CONTINUE TILL DECEMBER 1ST.
Money you can save. For $17.85 you can buy a high class Bench Tailored Suit.

For $12.15 you buy the best $15.00 Overcoat we ever sold.

There is hundreds of dollars to be saved in Boys' Suits and Reefers alone. It's what you get at the price that pleases.

We have more than 150 Overcoats to show you made only in the latest styles. Dressy, light Coats in the fine Meltons. Great heavy Ulster Styles, made only in rough imported cloths that are warm.
The very appearance suggests comfort. Single and double breasted styles in fine Tweeds. Colorings that have proven to be the most popular shown this season. They won't last long at these prices, $9.00, 10.85, 12.15, 15.85 to 22.50.

Not one Suit, but 50 Suits your size. Selected because of the rich toned colorings and the heavy service giving materials. Fancy browns in stripes and checks, plain greys and solid colors, blues and blacks. The kind of Suits you expect to pay $4.00 or 5.00 more than we are now selling them at. The moving prices are $10.00, 11.50, 14.85, 16.85 to 21.15.
With most people money talks.

The Boy Problem is chiefly a matter of Clothes.
School Suits must be heavy and warm, at the same time "wear like iron." The Reeper Coats start at $2.93. There's still some 3.50 Garments from which to select your pet color. They will all go in about 10 days of this cold weather. The price helps.
Boys' Suits and Overcoats $2.93, 3.50, 4.15, 6.25 to 12.15.

Is there a man who can afford to pass up these honest values? Is's a matter of money and buying now will lengthen the life of the dollar bill. CLOTHES SATISFACTION WE GUARANTEE.

WORK OF N.B. FRUIT GROWERS ASSO.

Procures High Grade Fruit Trees and Spraying Materials for its Members

The association continues to do good work for the fruit growers and is creating a steady interest and increase in co-operative effort. During 1912 and 1913 the association supplied its members with nearly 30,000 fruit trees, most of which were sold at 22, 23, 24, and 25 cents per tree, and also with several thousand small fruits. The nurseries in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia have been supplied by the association with scions and buds taken from good bearing trees of the varieties most in demand in the province and consequently the supply of maritime grown trees of the best varieties true to name available for planting in New Brunswick in the spring of 1914, is practically twice as large as three years ago. As the bulk of the trees placed throughout the province annually by agents are sold at prices ranging from 30 to 45 cents and even to 50 cents per tree, it is easy to see that the association is saving its members hundreds of dollars in the purchase of their fruit trees. By ordering nursery stock in large quantities, the association gets the very best the nurseryman has to offer and gets it at wholesale or the lowest possible price, as the agent's commission and expenses are omitted. In a similar manner, a large quantity of spraying materials consisting of lime-sulphur and lead arsenate were purchased from Nova Scotia by the association and distributed to its members at cost price. Other supplies such as pruning tools and packing appliances and materials, etc., are secured at cost price on request.

PUNS FROM THE PENS OF POETS

When Mighty Bards of Lesser Degree Stooped to Play on Words.

It is not generally known that Milton, the author of "Paradise Lost," one of the most stately and majestic poems in the English language, once wrote a punning epitaph on the carrier who plied between Cambridge and London and "who sickened in the time of his vacancy being forbid to go to London by reason of the plague", to quote the poet's own words. This carrier was none other than that Hobson whose "choice" has become so famous. It appears that he used to let horses on hire, but no matter how pressing the need a traveller had to take the horses Hobson offered or none, so that today the phrase "Hobson's choice" is used to signify no choice at all.

Milton's poem written on the death of this carrier is too long to quote in full, but one or two passages will suffice to show with what skill he played with words:

Rest, that give all men life, gave him his death,
And too much breathing put him out of breath;
Nor ere its contradiction to affirm
Too long vacation hastened on his term."

And again he says, referring to Hobson's prosperity:

Yet (Strange to think) his wain was his increase.

Nor is Milton the only poet whose works have become immortal who stopped to pun. Shakespeare as is well known, was an inveterate punster and Dr. Johnson, in his preface to an edition of the poet's works, severely censures him for playing with words on serious occasions. For example, in answer to King Richard's question:

"What comfort man? How is't with ancient Gaunt?" the playwright puts into the mouth of Gaunt these words:

"O how that name befits my composition! Old Gaunt, indeed, and gaunt is being old. Within me gaunt has kept a tedious fast; and who abstained from meat that is not gaunt?"

Hamlet is made to pun, too. When the clown digging graves in the churchyard, in answer to the question "whose grave's this?" says "Mine, sir," Hamlet replies:

"I think it be thine indeed; for thou liest in't," and later adds: "Thou dost lie in't, to be in't and say it is thine; 'tis for the dead, not for the quick, therefore thou liest."

The puns of Tom Hood are well known. In "Faithless Sally Brown," "Faithless Nellie Gray," and "The Duel" to mention but a few, almost every line contains a pun. What could be written than the concluding verse of "Faithless Sally Brown?" His death which happened in his berth,

At forty-odd befall,
They went and told the sexton and
The sexton tolled the bell.
The poet Wither once lamented the decline of his family in the words, "The very name of Wither shows decay," and although the following verse penned by Lord Lytton to Lady Browne, is not the work of a poet so called it is well worth quoting:

When I was young and debonaire,
The brownest nymph to me was fair:
The fairest nymph to me is Brown,
But now I'm old and wiser grown

"I owe everything to my wife," said the man in the high collar.

"So? You're a nobleman, then?"

COARSE ATTACK ON BRITISH P. M. G.

Premier of Manitoba Outdoes Himself

Minnedosa, Man., Nov. 8.—At a meeting here last night, Sir Rodmond P. Roblin, Premier of Manitoba, speaking on education, condemned "men traducing Manitoba." Referring to Postmaster General Samuel, he said: "When you see meddlesome, impudent, slanderous Samuel, who by accident holds a portfolio in a British Government, making false statements at the dictation of a small grit coterie, who stuffed his jellybag of an Englishman to such an extent that he was willing to make a statement in the City of Montreal which he knew to be false you will know how to treat him. I can assure Mr. Samuel if he ever visits Manitoba again, he will be hailed before the bar of public opinion, and made to swallow his falsehoods."

ST. JOHN BOY KILLED IN SHAM BATTLE

Tragedy Happened When Companions Were Playing With Rifles "Like Indians"

St. John, N. B., Nov. 10.—Imitating, it is said, what they had seen in moving pictures, Arthur Donovan, the twelve-year-old son of ex-Councillor Jeremiah Donovan, of Silver Falls, and Joseph Caples, aged 14 years, son of Michael Caples, of the old Westmorland road, were participating in a skirmish with an imaginary enemy yesterday afternoon in the field in the rear of the Donovan home, when the Caples lad was shot in the right temple and almost instantly killed by a bullet from young Donovan's 22 calibre rifle, which he was using in play to protect his comrade from the enemy.

As in the picture, which it is said, the boys had seen, the Caples boy had fallen on "make believe wounds." The other boy was kneeling behind him with levelled rifle to protect him. The trigger was pulled, and at the same time Caples raised his head and received the bullet in the right temple. He died before anyone could reach him.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN BISLEY RULES

London, Nov. 9.—Colonel Crose of the National Rifle Association states that Colonel Ward of the War Office has accepted the membership of the Council of the National Rifle Association. In view of the persistent rumors of friction existing between the War Office and the National Rifle Association, which was likely to affect the future of the Bisley meets, the announcement will be particularly pleasing to Bisley votaries in Canada.

Colonel Crose also announced that the next Bisley meeting has been fixed to open on July 13 and that the following new regulations as to sighting shots have been made:

(1) That before the individual competitions in which each shot is separately signalled, and which is not shot for shoulder to shoulder, one compulsory nonconvertible sighting shot will be taken.

(2) There is to be no sighting shot before "A" competitions in which each shot is not separately signalled, "B" team competitions, "C" before the shooting, and "D" before shoulder to shoulder shooting.

(3) In match rifle competitions the target will have a central 24 inches in diameter to be marked with V, which counts 64 in service rifle competitions; bullseye at 500 yards will be reduced from 18 diameter to 16 inches.

The Council have decided to send a British rifle team to Australia next year, and have appointed Colonel Barlow commander, and Mr. J. P. Somers shooting captain.

Take the First Steps in St. John's Appeal Against Agreement

Recorder Baxter and Hon. William Pugsley, who have been selected to present the case for the city of St. John before the Railway Commission, when the Gutelius-Bosworth agreement is taken up, had a conference Friday to consider a line of action. They sent the following telegrams to Ottawa:

St. John, N. B., Nov. 7, 1913. Honorable Frank Cochrane, Ministers of Railways, Ottawa.

We have been appointed counsel to argue on behalf of St. John the question of the discriminatory character of the agreement made by Mr. Gutelius and Mr. Bosworth in respect to carrying freight and passengers between St. John and Halifax in connection with the mail steamers. We understand from telegram of Hon. Mr. Hazen to President Board of Trade that arrangements have been made with the Board of Railway Commissioners for hearing the case. We have wired the secretary asking when it will be convenient for board to take the matter up. Kindly arrange for Mr. Gutelius and Mr. Hayes to be present at hearing for examination.

JOHN B. M. BAXTER,
WILLIAM PUGSLEY.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 7, 1913. A. D. Cartwright, Secretary Board of Railway Commissioners, Ottawa:

Kindly inform us when it will be convenient for board to hear case. Also please request Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, Mr. McNicoll and Mr. Bosworth to be present for examination. We are asking minister to have Mr. Gutelius also present for examination.

The SIBYLA LORCHA

By HORA HAZE

As I spread the sheet that sinister appearing black damb at the bottom snote me with a sense of ill as acute as that of a rapier thrust, and the heavy, regular, upright chirography, with its odd 's' and 'p's, an awesomely familiar, was scarcely less disturbing.

Silently the girl and I ran through the dozen lines.

Like its two predecessors the letter had begun with the sentence:

"That which you have wrought shall in turn be wrought upon you."

No longer could this be regarded as idle boasting. It had become an edict of grave significance. And what followed only emphasized the proven force behind this series of singular communications.

"All having been performed as foretold, our power is demonstrated."

Then, simply, almost crudely, but of horrid poignancy, ran the words:

"Know then, that before the morning of the Eighth Day hence, as passed the face from the portrait, as passed the reflection from the mirror, so you, physically, will pass from sight of men into torment."

As I read my breath caught in my throat and my pulses paused. Evelyn pressed closer to my side, and I felt her shiver as with cold. The final words, solemn, admonitory, priest-like, were these:

"Say not Heaven is high above! Heaven ascends and descends about our deeds, daily inspecting us, where-soever we are."

Instantly she turned to me, and I saw there were tears on her cheeks, and that her long dark lashes were wet.

"You cannot tell him this, Philip," she said, her voice low but unflinching.

"No," I replied, "I cannot tell him. In his present condition, it might be fatal."

"And now he must get well," she declared, with decision. "He must be well enough in a few days to be moved. He shall not stop in this house any longer. He shall go where he can be protected, and these friends, whoever they are, cannot, or will not dare to follow."

As she spoke an inspiration came to me.

"The yacht," I said, impulsively she laid hold upon my arm, in a way she had.

"The Sibylla," she agreed, delightedly. "Of course. It will do everything for him."

"But what am I to tell him about this?" I asked, in perplexity.

"For a second she was thoughtful. "We couldn't imitate the writing, could we?" she asked.

"Oh, yes," I answered. "We could. I think I'd even guarantee to reproduce that hideous black thing, but—"

"But what?"

"We can't imitate the paper. The paper is so characteristic as any of the other features, if not indeed more so. And he knows that paper."

"Then you must just lie to him," she decided. "You must tell him the envelope was empty; and you must make him believe it."

Kashmir, on the other."

"You've seen something of them in this country, I suppose?"

"No, very little. I attended a dinner once at which Li Hung Chang was the guest of honor; and I've eaten chop suey in one of those Chinese eating palaces they have in Chicago. That's about the extent of my personal Chinese experience. But I have always been interested in the country and its people. I have read about everything that has been published on the subject. By the way, did they ever find out who killed that boy of Murphy's?"

"Not yet," I answered. "They've had some of his own kind under surveillance, but no more arrests have been made."

"Murphy was released?"

"Yes."

He took up his paper again and once more I applied myself to scanning.

Far away to the northeast I made out what appeared to me to be a sea-going tug or pilot boat, steaming, I thought, with rather unusual speed for a vessel of her class. It was not much of a discovery, but the waters had been very barren that morning, especially for the last two hours, and insignificant as this object was I felt in a manner rewarded for my vigil.

Half an hour later she had slipped out of sight and I was busy in an effort to pick her up again, when a cry from the lookout forward directed my attention to a floating speck possibly two miles or more dead ahead, and not more than a point off our course.

"Come," I said to Cameron, "let's go up on the bridge and have a look."

"And have our trouble for our pains?" he returned, incredulously. "It's probably some bit of wreckage, a box or a cask."

"Very well," I agreed, starting off alone. "Even a box or a cask is worth while as a variation."

When on nearer approach the drifting object proved to be a fisherman's dory, with a man, either dead or unconscious, plainly discernible in the bottom. I should hardly have been human had I not experienced a degree of satisfaction over Cameron's failure as a prophet. That, however, was the least abiding of my sensations. In an instant it had given way to anxiety concerning the boat's occupant and interest in the business-like manner in which MacLeod, the stocky young executive officer of the Sibylla, was preparing to pick up our find.

The engine room had been signaled half-speed ahead, and already a sailor with a coil of rope in hand was stationed at the forward gangway. I have frequently seen river pilots make landings that were marvellous of clever calculation, but I never saw any steering more accurately gauged than that by which MacLeod, here in the open sea, with the precarious swell and surge of ocean to combat, brought the yacht gliding within a bare three inches of the rolling dory's bow.

I was leaning over the rail as we came thus upon the castaway, and saw clearly enough for just a moment the huddled creature in oilskins, silent and motionless in the stem, with closed eyes and wet, dark hair matted upon his forehead. Then a sailor, dropping lightly into the boat, shut off my view for a little. There was a whir of tung line; an exchange of quick-spoken, and to me unintelligible, words between the sailor in the dory and a sailor standing beside me on the yacht's deck; and then, the line was taut and straining, and the dory, which had absconded off astern, was being brought up slowly alongside.

Now, I realized for the first time that our engines had stopped and that, save for the roll, we were almost stationary.

They were lifting the fisherman aboard when Cameron, at length aroused by the unusual, stroiled forward and joined me.

"There's your bit of wreckage," I observed, smiling.

"Poor devil!" he exclaimed, sympathetically. "He seems more dead than alive."

CHAPTER VIII.

Somewhere East of Nantucket. The Sibylla under stress of her powerful turbines was racing easily, reeling off her thirty knots with no seeming effort and scarcely a perceptible vibration. There had been a stiff breeze during the night, but it had died down at sunrise, and now, at noon, the sea was calm as the bosom of a nun. The sun blazed on the yacht's polished brasses, intensifying the snowy whiteness of her glossy paint, and turning to jeweled showers the spray which fell away from her sharp prow and caressed her long, sleek sides. It was wonderful weather for late October. On the nineteenth the temperature had risen to ninety in New York, breaking all records for that date; and now, two days later, here at the meeting of sound and ocean, with Point Judith just coming into view over our port bow, and Block Island a blur astern, our starboard beam, we sat, Cameron and I, shaded by spread awnings, on the after-deck, as though it were mid-summer. For he had been convinced by my righteous untruth, after repeated and emphatic dining, and had daily grown stronger; readily agreeing at length to a cruise along the coast, with Bar Harbor as objective.

"That is precisely what I had the Sibylla built for," he told me, when my suggestion found acceptance. "Did you ever notice the inscription on the brass tablet over the fireplace in the saloon? No? Well, it's this: 'Sibylla, when thou seest me faynt, address thyself the gods of my compatriots.'"

I found it in an old book, published in 1663, a poetic induction to 'The Mirror of Magistrates,' written by Thomas Sackville. You can fancy how my application distorts the original intention; but Sackville isn't likely to trouble me ever."

I repeat this explanation now mainly to indicate the improved temper of the speaker. His mind was blood

LIBERALS CARRIED BOTH THE SEATS

Double Victory For Gouin Government in Two Bye-Elections

Montreal, Nov. 11.—St. John's County and Huntingdon County, Quebec, in bye-elections yesterday both returned Liberal candidates to the Provincial Legislature, although in the first named it was an Independent Liberal that secured the seat, the nominee of the administration convention going down to defeat in a four-corner contest. In Huntingdon, Phillips, Liberal, had a majority of 380, with one poll still to be heard from, over Dr. Moore, Conservative. In St. John's, Marcellin Robert, Independent Liberal, had a plurality of 124 votes over Brossard, the Government nominee, whose total vote was 82, while Poulin, another Liberal, received 622 votes, and Trudeau Independent, had only two ballots marked for him throughout the whole riding. None of the Ministers took part in the St. John's contest, the party quarrel there having assumed such proportions previous to the election that the Government thought it the wiser plan to leave the field to the candidates themselves. In Huntingdon the provincial administration threw the whole weight of its support behind their candidate, fearing the personal popularity of Dr. Moore, the Conservative nominee.

THE PROVINCIAL FINANCES GOOD

The Ordinary Revenue for the Past Year is Nearly $1,500,000

Fredericton, Nov. 11.—While a complete statement of the provincial finances for the fiscal year ending on October 31st has not yet been completed, the books having been finally closed only yesterday, Hon. H. F. McLeod submitted a fairly complete memorandum to the executive council to-day. The estimated receipts in nearly every department were exceeded and while expenditures were also large, a surplus of not less than $10,000 will be shown on the year's operations. Crown lands have produced more money during the past year than any time in its history, the amount exceeding three-quarters of a million of dollars. In cash bonuses in connection with the new crown timber lands licenses about $252,000 has already been received, but this goes into a special fund and not into the consolidated revenue fund. Between $16,000 and $17,000 has been received during the year for crown land sinking fund. The territorial revenue receipts will exceed the $500,000 mark, notwithstanding the fact that there was a small lumber cut and that there was a falling off in the receipts from game licenses. The ordinary revenue of the Province of New Brunswick for the past fiscal year nearly reached the $1,500,000 mark.
