ROSEBERY CRITICISES CHAMBERLAIN.

London, April 29.—Ex-Prime Minister Lord Rosebery, in a speech at Rosedale last night, made an attack upon Mr. Chamberlain for his treatment of the Transvaal difficulty. A greater diplomatic comedy of errors, he said, had never been performed. He hoped that the Secretary of State for the Colonies would now exercise patience and discretion and curb his tongue. Then the negotiations might be satisfactorily concluded.

OPPOSITION TO THE NEW MINISTRY.

Paris, April 29.—It is generally expected that at Thursday's session of the Chamber the Cabinet will meet with vigorous opposition upon the part of the Radicals and Socialists. The latter have already declared a pitiless war upon the Meline Ministry, the formation of which, they assert, is unconstitutional and contrary to Parliamentary usage. The friends of M. Meline say he will not be deterred by this prospect, and it seems certain that with May Day close at hand, the Chamber will not care to overturn the Government. The newspapers, however, all regard a dissolution of Parliament as inevitable.

SHE CONFESSES.

London, April 29.—Mrs. Annie Dyer, the baby farmer, who, with her son-in-law, Arthur E. Palmer, is under arrest at Reading, charged with the murder of a number of infants, has written a confession, admitting the murders of which she is accused. It is probable that insanity will be her defense when her case comes to trial.

The coroner's jury at Reading yesterday returned a verdict of wilful murder against Mrs. Dyer. Overwhelming testimony was offered directly connecting the woman with the numerous cases of infanticide which were recently unearthed by the accidental discovery of infants' bodies in the Thames. In several instances the bodies were wrapped in cloth, which witnesses identified as having belonged to Mrs. Dyer, and in many other ways a clear case was made out against her.

SHOCKING MURDER.

Brussels, April 29. — A terrible drama has taken place in the fashionable suburb of Luxelles, near here. The Baroness Henry, aged 80, was discovered assassinated early Sunday morning at No. 5 Rue de l'Arbre Benit. The victim lived with her son. Two servants slept in an adjoining building, and one only in the attic at the top of the house. The baroness' son returned home about midnight and retired to rest. In the morning, the servants became uneasy at not seeing their mistress, who, despite her age, usually rose early. One of them went to the old lady's sleeping apartment, and there lay the baroness dead on her bed, the face showing that a fearful blow had been dealt her near the right eye during sleep, killing her on the spot. Robbery was clearly the motive of the crime, since a cupboard in the room was broken open. The thieves had entered by the street door. The police have absolutely no trace of the assassins.

PRESS COMMENT.

London, April 29.—The Daily News (Liberal), commenting this morning on the dispatches from Pretoria, says that the sentences of the leaders of the reform committee and the hardly less startling ones of the rank and file, will inevitably immediately aggravate the situation which President Kruger's reply to Mr. Chamberlain's invitation to visit England had rendered serious enough already. The severity of the sentences will make a greater impression because it was entirely unexpected. Sixty of the prisoners are the leading men of the Rand. Discussing the position of President Kruger, the paper says it cannot doubt that he will display the wisdom and moderation that he has already shown he understands. It considers President Kruger's reply, apart from his refusal to accept Mr. Chamberlain's invitation, as of somewhat disturbing import, and not a very hopeful augury of amicable relations.

The Morning Post says that the sentences will stir racial feeling and undo conciliation. The paper assumes that the punishment will be commuted.

The Chronicle assumes that even momentary alarm is causeless, and it thinks that the prisoners are likely to eventually escape with punishments out of proportion to the gravity of their offense.

The Times says: "The death sentences are regarded with equanimity here, solely because it is perceived that they cannot be executed. The same applies to the monstrous penalties imposed on the rank and file of the committee. The public does not rely upon President Kruger's magnanimity, but upon common sense." The Times and others dwell upon the likelihood of a revulsion of feeling against the Africanders everywhere in favor of the Uitlanders if the penalties are enforced.

KRUGER'S FIRMNESS.

The Transvaal President's Reply to the British Government.

Cape Town, April 29.—The text of President Kruger's reply to the invitation of the British Government, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, to visit England and discuss matters connected with the Transvaal and its future, is a voluminous document, and plainly indicates the firm attitude assumed by the Boer statesman.

The President begins by stating that his visit to England has always depended upon the settlement of a basis of discussion, and he regrets that the basis has not yet been reached. Continuing, he says:

"In a friendly spirit, but from the very first, the Government saw clearly and recorded its opinion that no foreign interference in the internal affairs of the Republic could be allowed. Mr. Chamberlain admits the justice of this position, yet he intimates that Great Britain desires that particular internal measures be taken by the Transvaal.

"The latter cannot allow to pass unnoticed the expression "admitted grievances," and, however well meant and observate, this Government must express regret that, having intimated its desire for a reconsideration of the London convention, in consequence of the inroad of Dr. Jameson, the position should be assumed that in the discussion the so-styled 'admitted grievances' must be included as a sine qua non in the event of a reconsideration of the convention being agreed to.

"The South African Republic has always been prepared to receive and consider in a friendly spirit the private suggestions of the Imperial Government regarding the interests of British subjects, although the South African Republic has never admitted the existence of the so-styled 'admitted grievances,' and must deny, on that account, that the right exists to create rebellious movements. It does not affect to be perfect or infallible, and has repeatedly declared that it is prepared to listen to just complaints presented in a constitutional manner by anyone. But the South African Republic is of the opinion that every step calculated to prolong the irritation existing in South Africa must be studiously avoided by the exercise of mutual forbearance and good-will.

"I feel confident you will recognize and appreciate the difficulty of my position. It appears to be wiser not to press the question of my proceeding to England any further at present, but to leave it open, especially in view of the coming session of the Volksraad, and that the desirability of my presence during at least a portion of the session, when important measures are to be considered, is apparent."

In regard to Mr. Chamberlain's proposal to guarantee the Transvaal protection from outside attack in exchange for a remedy of the Uitlanders' grievances, President Kruger says: "Something is offered the South African Republic which it already possessed, as the obligations and relations of the South African Republic to Great Britain, as recognized by international law, already precluded an attack upon the independence of the Republic."

The remainder of President Kruger's reply may be summed up as follows: The President remarks that if a revision of the London convention and superceding it by a treaty of amity and commerce containing the most favored nation clause cannot be discussed unless the alleged grievances are also discussed, the Government prefers to leave matters in statu quo, and will limit its demands to an indemnity for the Jameson raid.

In conclusion President Kruger says: "Under existing circumstances the South African Republic will not at present press a reconsideration of the London convention and a substitute for it of a treaty of amity and commerce, but will rest satisfied with pecuniary compensation and with the assurance that no violation of its territory will be repeated."

INTENSE EXCITEMENT

Caused by the Sentencing of the Johannesburg Reform Committee.

Johannesburg, April 29.—The most intense excitment was caused here when it was learned that the leaders had been sentenced to death and extremely severe sentences pronounced against the other members of the committee. A public meeting has been summoned to give expression to the popular disapproval of the action of the court.

Late reports received from Pretoria indicate that four instead of five of the leaders of the committee were sentenced to death, unless Mr. Leonard, one of those who signed the invitation to Dr. Jameson to go to the relief of Johannesburg is included. If he is the fifth man the sentence will be of no effect in his case, for he is now in England. No explanation is given in the dispatches of the inclusion of Mr. Curtis' name among the lesser members of the committee who were condemned to fine, imprisonment and banishment. It is thought, however, that the dispatch stating that his trial was postponed was erroneous.

A representative of the press tried to obtain an interveiw from Dr. Jameson, the leader of the ill-fated raid into the Transvaal, on the subject of the sentence imposed by the High Court at Pretoria upon the members of the Johannsburg Reform Committee. Dr. Jameson declined to discuss the matter beyond saying that he was astounded by the severity of the sentences, which rendered the position very serious.

A Washington dispatch says: Mr. Mahany (Rep., N. Y.) in the House yesterday asked for the immediate consideration of a resolution calling on the Secretary of State, in view of the report that John Hays Hammond, the American engineer, had been sentenced to death for treason in the Transvaal, South Africa, to safeguard his interests as an American citizen and interfere in his behalf if such action is deemed advisable. After some discussion, Mr. McCreary (Dem., Ky.) objected.

The California senators probably will ask through the State Department that clemency be shown Hammond, although Senator White says that in the face of a plea of guilty of high treason he is not sure that this Government could make a very strong representation. The belief is expressed here that Hammond, before returning to Pretoria, had some misunderstanding on the subject of the sentence to be pronounced, and that proceedings would follow the sentence. It is believed he will not be put to death.

COMMUTED!

The Sentence of the Transvaal Prisoners —Will Not Die.

Pretoria, April 29.—The sentence of death imposed upon Mr. John Hays Hammond, the American engineer; Col. Francis Rhodes, the brother of the former Premier of Cape Colony; Lional Phillips, president of the Chamber of Mines of Johannesburg, and George Farrar, proprietor of Country Life, of Johannesburg, have been commuted.

London, April 29.—Mr. Jos. Chamberlain has received the following dispatch, dated today, at Pretoria, from Sir J. A. De Wett, the British agent there: "Leyds, Secretary of State for the Transvaal, has just told me that the sentence of death has been taken off the four prisoners, Hammond, Rhodes, Farrar and Phillips. It is undecided what punishment will be substituted. The Executive Council is now engaged in considering the sentence of all the prisoners."

Latest Happenings in this Section of the Province.

The hour for closing bars in Woodstock has been changed from 9:30 to 10 p.m.

J. M. Hill, a Woodstock insurance agent, fell on an icy sidewalk last winter and hurt himself. He asks $1,000 damages from the town.

W. J. Valleau, superintendent of the Chatham waterworks, has resigned his office, worth $1,200 per year, to engage in construction work for an American company.

Jas. O'Hara, of Toronto, a brother of Robert O'Hara, master in Chancery, Chatham, and Frank O'Hara, of Baltimore, his son, have arrived in Chatham, called there by the serious illness of Robert.

George Mitchell, a Chatham music teacher, was convicted Monday of the larceny of $2 from a little girl, to whom he gave the wrong change after her purchase of a package of needles. Sentence was reserved. The prisoner admitted that while in jail he had broken up a bench in order to keep warm.

Steps are being taken by the mayor of Woodstock and County Crown Attorney Ball to investigate Policeman Allenby's evidence given at trial of Charles Titus some weeks ago. Allenby was asked to resign on the ground that his evidence was open to suspicion, but he refused and demanded a trial.

West Kent license commissioners have granted all the applications of present Chatham holders except four, which are reserved for further consideration. Of three new applicants two have been refused and one held over. In the other municipalities decision has been reserved in three instances. Two were refused.

At Allan's bridge nearly every afternoon a very old lady is looking anxiously over the rail into the water. The cause of her visits is because a few days ago when she was watching the floods of water going over the dam she sneezed and dropped her false teeth. She is 80 years of age, and her teeth were presented to her by her father when she was just out of her teens. They cost $50.—Guelph Herald.

Christopher Risley, the now notorious forger, acting upon the advice of his solicitor, appeared at the Brantford Police Court Monday, and changed his plea to guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses from the Bank of Montreal there. The money was, however, restored before the arrest, and the police magistrate took a lenient view of the case, sentencing the prisoner to 60 days in jail. Risley looked pale and anxious, and has lost his defiant air altogether. He will be wanted in Brockville, Montreal, and other places as soon as his term here has expired.

A BICYCLIST'S FATAL FALL.

Detroit, April 28.—John C. Yawkey, Jefferson avenue, manager of the Victor Manufacturing Company, died on Monday night. He was riding his bicycle up Washington avenue Saturday afternoon, when, in attempting to avoid a collision with a Grand avenue car, he had to throw himself from his wheel, and struck full length on the pavement. He was 35 years old.

A NOTED FORGER NABBED.

Pittsburg, April 29.—Intelligence has been received here of the capture in Guatemala of John L. Cowan, of this city, who disappeared last February, leaving his friends, relatives, creditors and victims about $200,000 short. Cowan was in the lumber business, and his victims are scattered over the lumber regions of Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Michigan and Canada. Forgery, note-raising and other forms of swindling are charged against him. Cowan will be brought back to the United States at once.

Fairly jumped into success—Pearline. Right from the very start. Notwithstanding all these hundreds of years of precedence behind that old-fashioned, back-breaking way of washing with soap, too.

Now, why was it? Why is it that hundreds of millions of packages of Pearline have been used in the few years since this washing-compound was invented? Just do your washing and cleaning with Pearline for a month, and you'll see. It takes away the rubbing, but without any risk of harm. That puts it at the head of every known aid for washing.

The Patent Whatisit!

It looks like sarsaparilla, smells like sarsaparilla, tastes like sarsaparilla, it is sarsa..... Stop! What is the name on the bottle? Is it Ayer? Then it is sarsaparilla; the best that is made. But the other kind, that looks and smells and tastes like sarsaparilla. What is it? That's it. It's whatisit. It's a conundrum. Give it up. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, alone, is made exclusively from the imported Honduran sarsaparilla plant, the variety richest in medicinal value and healing power. Possibly, this is why one bottle of Ayer's does as much work as three bottles of any other kind. At least, that is what people say who've tried others, and then tried Ayer's. Some go farther. There's GEORGE SMITH, Druggist, of Seymour, Conn., for example, who writes: "I will guarantee more benefit from one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla than by using half a dozen bottles of any other kind." That's the sort of record Ayer's Sarsaparilla is living up to. Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record—50 years of cures.

Fair Dealing

Is our watchword. We feel that owing to the great encouragement given to us by the ever-increasing patronage of the ladies of London and the surrounding country, that we are obliged to treat our patrons in such a manner that each and every one shall leave our establishment perfectly satisfied. Our customers are our best advertisements, and it is much to their appreciation of our business methods that has led to our undisputed success. The following are a few items that will persuade every judicious buyer to come down town and take advantage of our offerings.

Artistic Millinery.

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets, which for style, take precedence, over any other millinery exhibits, at prices more than consistently low. Beautiful works of original art and ingenuity. We have added to our stock all the latest and newest styles and shapes in untrimmed hats. Make comparisons as to quality and style, and you will decide that here is the place to buy.

Ladies' Sailors, mott'ed, in navy, blue and white, and brown and white, 75c.
Ladies' Sailors, in black, 75c.
Ladies' Walking Hats, in white, black and brown, from 25c up.
Children's Dress Hats, mottled, 75c.
Children's School Hats, plain and fancy straw, 15c up.
Shot and Fancy Ribbons.
Shot Chiffons, narrow widths, 10c and 15c.
Hat Buckles, in pearl, rhinestone, jet and steel, all prices.

Crochet Silk.

There has been such a demand for our Crochet Knitting Silk that we have secured another hundred boxes, which we will let go at the same price — remember, 5 cents per ball.

Laces.

This department is fairly overflowing with genuine bargains. No lady can afford to overlook this collection. There's no exaggeration of values. See for yourself.

Cream Silk Laces, wide widths, all prices, from 5c per yard up.
Full line of Black Laces from 5c per yard up.
Valenciennes Laces in butter and white, wide and narrow widths, all prices.

Shirt Waists.

There has been such a demand for our Shirt Waists, that we have been obliged to triplicate our order. We now have a big stock of these goods, and our prices are low. Don't pay fancy prices for these goods when they can be bought so cheap here.

A new line of White Lawn Shirt Waits, for 75c, $1 and $1 25.
Print Shirt Waists, laundered, extra large sized sleeves, fancy stripes, only 75c.
Ladies' Print Shirt Waists, dark and light colors, very nice, for 50c.
Ladies' Dark Print Blouses, 25c.

Linen Department.

This choice stock is the admiration of everyone who has seen it, and the low prices have made lasting friends of all who have bought. Here are a few items:

Damask Tray Covers, fringed, 15c, 20c and 25c.
Damask Linen Table Napkins, fringed, white and colored border, 35 each.
Damask Linen Table Napkins, 10c, 12½c, 15c and 20c each.
Unbleached Table Linen, from 15c up.
Bleached Table Linen, 35c to 75c.
Doilies, Center Pieces, Splashers, etc.
Fancy Stamped Table Covers, 25c each.
Fringe to match, worth 12½c, selling for 7c per yard.

We buy for cash, take all discounts, buy carefully, are always read to take advantage of any bargains which are offered. We make no losses, as everyone pays for the goods when they are purchased, and everyone pays cheerfully, realizing it is a money-saving method.

WAS HE THE RIPPER?

New York, April 29.—Carl Feigenbaum, who was electrocuted at Sing Sing Monday for murdering Mrs. Hoffman, is thought by his attorney, W. S. Lawton, to have been the original "Jack the Ripper." In conversations with the criminal he let many things slip which tended to connect him with the crimes, and he is known to have been in London and Wisconsin at the time of the mutilation of women at those places. "The man was a devil," says Lawton, "and his only motive for the crime was his inordinate desire for mutilation."

THE MAIDENS AND THE MUSKRATS.

Duluth, April 29.—A drove of muskrats, large, sleek fellows, almost the size of a cat, ran things for a time in one of the rooms of the Central High School the other day, and succeeded in causing a dismissal of the pupils till a war of extermination had been carried on. A recitation was in progress, when the animals made their appearance from a desk, where they had evidently been placed by some fun-loving scholars, and in a second the room was in an uproar. The young women jumped upon the desks, and from this safe position watched the boys chase the rats, some of which showed fight. The teacher, Miss Mussop, was chased around the room by one of the animals, which began to climb the chair on which she had taken refuge, when it was killed.

Dyspeptics who despair of a cure try Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound. It never fails.

Gentlemen: As a cure for dyspepsia I don't think Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound can be beaten. I suffered greatly with this trouble for a long time, and after trying numerous remedies, but without success, I took your Compound, and it has made me thoroughly better. My wife also has found your Celery-Nerve Compound most beneficial, she having used it as a tonic with the greatest success. F. Staneland.

Blotted Out!

A Dakota Town Wiped Off the Face of the Earth

By a Cyclone—Heavy Rain and Floods in the West.

Mitchell, S. D., April 29.—A severe cyclone struck near Spencer, taking a northerly course, destroying farm property and doing immense damage to crops. The little town of Epiphany lay directly in its path, and was completely wiped off the earth, not a building being left standing. Three persons were fatally and fifteen more or less seriously injured in the immediate vicinity. Wires are down and reports are meager. A family of five is reported killed outright near Montrose, but the report cannot be verified.

Omaha, Neb., April 29.—Torrents of water fell last night, causing great apprehension. People along Ames avenue and adjacent streets are packing their goods preparatory to leaving for higher and drier quarters. The Ames avenue sewer caved in, and 100 feet of wooden sidewalk floated away. Reports from the country round about show much damage.

Dubuque, Iowa, April 29.—Nearly two inches of rain fell in one hour and ten minutes, doing great damage to the streets and bridges. Both power houses and many residences were struck by lightning. The rainfall was the heaviest recorded since the flood of 1876.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 29.—In Clayton county last night the rain amounted to a flood, and all the rivers overflowed. Elkport, Iowa, was deluged, and Elk Creek is out of its banks and doing great damage to farm property. Heavy rain, accompanied by hail, covered the northern part of Iowa.

Clinton, Iowa, April 29.—A cloudburst brought the water up to the fence tops. The trains on the Chicago and Northwestern and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul were delayed several hours by washouts.

Sheboygan, Wis., April 29.—A terrific electrical storm, followed by a cloudburst, occurred there last night. Several buildings were struck by lightning and two dwellings burned. The electric street railway wires are on the ground, and many motors were burned out. The city fire alarm service was also destroyed, and all the open wires are down.

George and Walter Roberts, young unmarried men, tried to cross Valley River at Gilbert Plains, Man., on Monday with a team of horses. Both men and horses were drowned. The river was clear of ice, but the water was over eight feet deep. The bodies have not been found yet.

A young man of nineteen, named Brough, fell from a load of hay on which he was riding near his home, near Huntingdon, Ont., on Monday, and was instantly killed. One of the wheels passed over his neck.

Charles Sweeney was sentenced by Chancellor Boyd at Welland Tuesday to six years in penitentiary, for highway robbery, the victim being Customs Officer Young.

The Family Doctor

Could pack his grip and leave the country without inconveniencing anybody if men and women only knew the plain every-day principles underlying a healthy system. Take the kidneys for instance, possibly the most important organs in the whole body. When they are healthy the blood is pure, and it is almost impossible to get sick; when they are not healthy it is almost impossible to get well without restoring the kidneys to proper action.

Backache is the warning note of diseased kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills make weak kidneys strong, make diseased kidneys well. They never fail even in most distressing stages of kidney disease. A case in point was reported to one of our representatives the other day. Mr. Robert Bryanton, cooper, 419 Ontario street, London, Ont., states:

"For a long time I have been a sufferer from kidney complaint, with distressing pain in the back and rheumatic pains all over my body, particularly in my feet. I had an itching, burning sensation all over; sometimes it was almost intolerable. The urine was very high-colored and variable in quantity. I was very restless and weak, badly troubled at times with palpitation of the heart, so much so that I had to prop myself up in bed. In fact I was a physical wreck.

"I saw the Doan's Kidney Pills advertisement, and got a box from Strong's drug store. The result of taking them has been surprising to me. I am not a little better, but a great deal better. My back is all right, rheumatic pains almost gone; I scarcely notice them. Urine is natural in color and quantity, and all the disagreeable sensations have left me. I rest well and feel like work. The itching, burning sensation of my skin has disappeared, and beyond question the pills in removing my other troubles have relieved me of the palpitation of the heart and strengthened my entire system.

"I pronounce them the best medicine that I have ever taken, and I have tried a number of remedies for kidney troubles. I am really thankful for what they have done for me."

Your Rheumatics!

Been worse lately—tried all sorts of liniments and trash, but the old joints got no better. You haven't tried Templeton's Pink Powders tho'. They've a record for knocking out Rheumatism that's unrivalled. Try them and you'll be happily surprised at the prompt relief and permanent cure of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia and La Grippe, for which they are a specific

The Relief Column Is Expected to Reach Buluwayo.

Imprisonment, Banishment, and a Fine for 50 Transvaal Prisoners.

British Residents Angry and Boers Sullenly Defiant.

Strain May Be Renewed When the Question of Indemnity Comes Up—A Slight Skirmish.

Cape Town, April 29.—Further details received here from Pretoria say that at the close of the trial of the leading members of the Johannesburg Reform Committee yesterday the presiding judge, after summing up, said that it was his painful duty to pass sentence upon the prisoners who had pleaded guilty of high treason; but he expressed the hope that the executive would show the same clemency it had exhibited during the crisis which marked the beginning of the year. Then, amid the most intense, painful silence throughout the court room, the judge silently passed the sentence of death individually upon Lionel Phillips, president of the Chamber of Mines of Johannesburg; Col. Francis Rhodes, brother of Hon. Cecil Rhodes, formerly Premier of Cape Colony, and John Hays Hammond, the American engineer, manager of the De Beers mines. A few minutes later, the remaining 59 prisoners, including Joel Barnato, a nephew of Barney Barnato; Mr. Bettelheim, the Turkish consul and formerly Attorney-General of Cape Colony; J. W. Leonard, Capt. Mein, J. S. Curtis, W. B. Clement, J. Lawley, H. J. King and Mr. Lingham, all Americans, were sentenced to two years imprisonment, three years banishment, and to pay a fine of £2,000, in default of which they will undergo another year's imprisonment.

The news of the sentences was received with the greatest amazement here, at Johannesburg, and even at Pretoria, and caused the greatest excitement everywhere, even though it was generally understood that the four men sentenced to death would not be executed. The telegraph wires throughout the colony and the Transvaal were blocked with messages to and from Pretoria, business was at a standstill everywhere, and every man had a "what next?" expression on his face. The attitude of the British population was one of

ANGRY RESENTMENT.

The Boers were sullenly defiant. A message from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, was communicated to President Kruger last evening by Sir J. A. Dewett, the British agent at Pretoria. The President was calm, but it was evident to all that he felt the gravity of the situation most acutely. Later last night a rumor obtained circulation that the President was carefully going over the records of the trial and consulting with the legal authorities at Pretoria, with the result that he had decided to commute the death sentences to heavy fines and long terms of imprisonment, to be followed by banishment. The President, in exercising clemency, has only followed the course which he was expected to adopt under the circumstances. Later in the day the report that President Kruger had commuted the death sentences was confirmed, and there was still further relief on all sides and rejoicing in many quarters. The step, it is added, will have a decidedly beneficial effect upon the relations between the British and the Boers, even though it was anticipated. But the strain will be resumed when the question of Great Britain to the Transvaal comes up.

PAYING AN INDEMNITY

It is intimated here that the British Government will endeavor to shift the whole responsibility in the matter upon the shoulders of the British Chartered South Africa Company, and that the latter will have to foot the Transvaal bill of expenses when it is presented. Later in the day another dispatch from Pretoria announced that Dr. W. J. Leyds, Secretary of State for the Transvaal, had informed Sir J. A. Dewett, the British agent at Pretoria, that it had not yet been decided what punishment would be imposed upon the reform committee prisoners in place of the death sentence, and he also intimated that the Executive Council was reconsidering the sentences imposed upon all the other prisoners. This leads to the belief that the minor sentences will be lightened.

There was

outside of Buluwayo on Monday. A Matabele reconnoitering party attempted to surprise a picket near the Coolie Gardens, of that town. A few shots were exchanged; five natives were killed, and the Matabeles retired. A seven-pounder had been placed in position so as to command the gardens. The Matabeles have been sending couriers to all the native tribes in that part of South Africa saying that they have beaten the whites in every engagement, and urging them to rise and help the Matabeles exterminate their mutual enemies.

THE RELIEF COLUMN.

The work of building small blockhouse forts along the road leading to Mangwe, in order to keep the country clear for the advance of the relief force from Mafeking is being promptly carried out under Selous and Dawson. The relief column from Salisbury, headed by Cecil Rhodes, is now expected to reach Gwelo in about a week, good progress recently having been made.

BARNATO BITTEN.

The Diggers' News, of Johannesburg, says that Barney Barnato feels very bitter against the Transvaal authorities on account of the treatment received by the reform prisoners, and the sentences imposed upon them. The paper admits that he is closing all his mines and selling the lands belonging to the Barnato Company.

JAILED FOR KILLING A ROBIN.

Perth Amboy, N. J., April 29.—State Game Warden J. L. Tooker today arrested Theodore Tyrrell on a charge of having shot a robin. Tyrrell was arraigned before Justice Stryker. He was fined $20, and, not having the money, was sent to jail for 30 days.

Mrs. Celeste Coon, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parmelee's Pills according to directions under the head of 'Dyspepsia or Indigestion.' One box entirely cured me. I can now eat anything I choose without distressing me in the least." These pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used when a cathartic is required.

The Flimflammer.

Ernest Hoyle Pleads Guilty and Gets Off on Suspended Sentence.

The Alleged Pick-Pocket in Court—An Assault Case Which Arose Over a Dog—From the Central Prison to the Common Jail.

Ernest Hoyle, the flimflammer, who got in his sharp work on several city druggists on Saturday, was arraigned before Police Magistrate Parke this morning, and pleaded guilty. By the consent of the crown prosecutor, Mr. J. B. McKillop, Hoyle was allowed to go on suspended sentence, on condition that he leaves the city at once. Ready consent was given to this, and shortly after court, Hoyle was seen over the border, and started on the road to Windsor. Hoyle claims Kingston as his home.

John Smith, the alleged pickpocket, arrested at the Grand Trunk station on Saturday night by Constable Regan, was remanded until tomorrow, as the crown was not prepared to proceed with the two charges which have been preferred against the prisoner.

John Boyle was fined $10 or twenty days for assaulting John Lockyer, a market house butcher. Boyle, Lockyer and several others were standing on the market the other day, when a spaniel pup belonging to one of the party, broke away. After it was captured, Locker picked it up in one hand, when Boyle struck him in the mouth, and also on the left eye. Lockyer did not retaliate.

Boyle was not prepared to plead guilty, although he said if he struck Lockyer it was done on the spur of the moment. The magistrate then called the complainant.

"Did Boyle knock you down?" the magistrate asked for Lockyer, who is rather short of stature.

"No," replied Lockyer; "that is why I thought he was no good."

"Has he ever made threats to you?" continued the magistrate.

"No; but I heard that if he got off lightly in this case he was willing to spend another dollar or two to get even with me," said Lockyer.

The fine was imposed.

John Harris, a Chatham colored man, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly, and also assaulting Constable Regan at the G. T. R. depot at an early hour this morning. Harris was just released from the Central Prison yesterday, after serving an eighteen months' term for being implicated in a slashing affair in Kent's county town. He was given $7 by an association which looks after prisoners on their discharge from the Central, and with this he got his liquor. He claimed to be a personal acquaintance of Detective Regan. The magistrate overlooked the charge of drunk and disorderly, but for assaulting the officer, Harris was given the maximum sentence—two months at hard labor—with a promise of another trip to the Central if he appeared in court again.

Frank Sparks, a non-resident, was discharged. He got drunk he knew not where, and during a row, had the left side of his face badly battered. This was considered sufficient punishment.

Wm. Rolph, and Stephen Clancy, two true-looking sons of rest, who hailed from Trenton, N. J., were remanded for a week on a charge of vagrancy. Both men claimed that they were earning an honest living by making wire coat hangers, and other articles of that class, but several residents were called upon to prove that they had held up several people for money. Clancy has lost part of both his feet in an accident. The pair was remanded for a week to allow of inquiries being made regarding them.

Who Owned the Shirt?

The Big Bank Robbery at Forest Recalled

By a Clue Which Brought the Detectives to London on a Bootless Errand.

Up to the present time, the detectives have not been able to get any definite information as to the movements of the burglars who blew up the safe in Smith's private bank at Forest, some time ago. The burglary took place during the night, and if it had been discovered at an earlier hour in the day, it is possible that the thieves would have been captured, but as the affair did not become known until the clerk arrived to open the bank at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the burglars got a big start. Three men, whose movements have been traced from Forest to Kaiser's Corners, and from Kaiser's Corners to Strathroy, are believed to be the men who did the deed. Early on the following morning a farmer living near Kaiser's Corners had occasion to go to his hay mow for fodder for his cattle. He was very much astonished when he began to fork the hay to see a big burly tramp make his way out of the mow. He gave the tramp a setting-out, and started to take off more hay, when out tumbled another tramp. He gave them both a lecture, and proceeded to work again, when a third tramp emerged from the mow.

By this time the farmer thought that discretion was the better part of valor, and said nothing. He felt rather queer, and did not know but that he had stumbled across a county convention of Weary Walkers. Keeping a weather eye on the tines of the pitchfork, the tramps backed away, and made off. The night was cold, and the men had burrowed into the hay with their coats about their heads, and gone to sleep. One carried in his hand a small valise, and on this valise hinges another story.

Three boys living not far from Kaiser's Corners entered a vacant house to play. They observed a loose board in the floor, and, boylike, they lifted it up. Underneath they found a small valise, which was taken possession of by the police. It was found to contain the whole of the papers which were wrapped around the money stolen from the bank. It contained many of the names of the bank's customers, clearly establishing the connection.

But the valise also contained a starched shirt, with a London laundry ticket tacked thereon. This was thought to be a splendid clue, and the detectives came to London and investigated. At the laundry they found that the number on the shirt corresponded with the name of a well known bartender in this city. They visited him, and found that the shirt did not belong to him, but that the burglar, or whoever it was, must have given his name to the laundryman, or he must have had a similar name—a rather remarkable coincidence.

This ended the chase. There were in the safe at the time of the robbery, securities, mortgages, etc., for over $60,000, but these were not disturbed.

WORDS FOR WOMEN.

There Are Thousands Who Need Help—Why They Suffer—How They Can Get Relief.

Oh! what misery, what suffering, what anxiety and despair is endured by thousands of poor suffering women. They are women with pale faces, tired eyes, and drawn, weary looks, who feel sickly and worn out. Their lives are darkened, and they feel blue and depressed because they are troubled with some female complaint which gives them no rest. They suffer silently, patiently, and too often they keep on suffering.

There seems to be no relief! Day after day, they are tortured with headaches, backaches, pains in the limbs, bearing-down pains—pains everywhere. They suffer from dizziness, faintness, disordered stomach, nervousness, moodiness. They seem to be afflicted with almost every disease that was ever known. No wonder that such women cry for help and ask despairingly, "Is there nothing I can take to get rid of these awful feelings?"

This is a sad picture, but it is true to life! It reveals the actual condition of that vast number of women in whom the course of nature becomes interrupted. They suffer and they get no relief.

But if women only knew it, they might easily find help. There is a way to prevent and cure these distressing ailments. Many women have discovered that there is a remedy which will cure them. It is a remedy that has made thousands of weak, suffering women strong, healthy and well. This is what one woman has to say about it:

Mrs. Isabel Green, of Colchester, recently said: "For years I suffered with backache, bearing-down pains and various other ailments peculiar to womankind, and tried many remedies, but until I took Warner's Safe Cure I received no premanent relief. As the result of taking the safe cure, I now feel like a new woman, and have not had an ache or pain for two years past. I cheerfully recommend this remedy to every woman who suffers as I did."

No woman can afford to be without this valuable remedy. By using it, she can safely avoid every form of sickness and suffering. No other remedy equals it for building up the system and restoring lost health.

Every druggist keeps Warner's Safe Cure. Give it a trial!

Significance of Small Majorities.

Arrangements for the general election throughout the Dominion are once more in progress. There are now fewer preliminaries to take, because last winter the Government at Ottawa made every preparation to go to the country, and only desisted because it found the people overwhelmingly against its continuance in office. Thus the election has been postponed long past the customary time, and an extra session of Parliament has been held, at which the Government played at legislating, but it was foiled in its attempt to keep itself in power all summer or to pay out millions of dollars of unearned subsidies for questionable speculations.

The Liberals are far in advance of their opponents in putting candidates in the field, and a good deal of missionary work has already been accomplished. The recent bye-elections, too, have proved a powerful factor in educating the public mind to the great change which has come over the temper of the country since the master minds of Sir John Macdonald and Sir John Thompson, which for many years dominated the Conservative party, forever ceased to exercise control over their fellows.

It is one of the most remarkable occurrences in the history of Canadian public affairs that five out of seven bye-elections, held in constituencies largely chosen by the Administration, and hitherto strong adherents of the high tax policy, should overwhelmingly declare against them. When, for example, in the great commercial center of Montreal a Conservative majority of over 1,200 is wiped out and a majority of several hundreds is polled for Hon. James McShane, the Liberal candidate, there can be no minimizing the significance of the change in public sentiment which has been in progress for some years, and which has now reached a climax, as we are certain that the result of the general elections on June 23 will indicate. The adverse results in the other constituencies wrested from the men in power, and the tremendous decrease in the majorities in the two contests where they triumphed were equally marked. Men of all shades of opinion noted the change, and conceded its significance to be a foreshadowing of the defeat of the Administration on the day of the general election.

At the rate that the high tax combination has been going to pieces, it should not be a very difficult task for its opponents to defeat it. Let it not be forgotten that nearly one-half of the Conservative members in the House of Commons just dissolved —46 in all—were returned by majorities ranging from 1 up to 200, but not greater than the last-named figure. Of this number no fewer than 12 Conservative members in the Province of Ontario alone were given seats by majorities of less than 100. And that in a house which, in the first session of the Parliament elected in 1891, only gave the Conservatives a majority of 29. A number of Liberal M. P.s were elected by small majorities also.

We mention these facts to show our readers, especially in the country districts, the necessity for polling the full vote, even though to do so entails some bother. A few votes either way, in a comparatively small number of constituencies, might entirely change the general result. As the tide has in recent months been running strongly in favor of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, and the policy of which he is the exponent, which is fraught with great blessings to the long-suffering people of Canada, we may expect to see some surprising changes in favor of a change of government. But we must not forget that the advocates of class legislation have hitherto always fought hard, and that no matter how favorable the outlook a victory for the cause of good government can only come from honest hard work on the part of every one interested in securing a change at Ottawa. Those who organize most carefully to discover how every man in a constituency stands, and to get the full vote out on election day, will have a right to look for victory. But without the preliminaries being attended to, all may be lost. As no matter what political views one has hitherto entertained, we are all now interested in securing a change at Ottawa, there should be little difficulty in effectively organizing everywhere. Get in line.

Wool in Britain.

One effect of the brisk trade in Great Britain is the great demand for the best Lincolnshire wool. It has risen from 19 cents to 32 cents per pound within the last year, and other wools have advanced in sympathy. Britain is a wonderfully busy country. When her population was not half what it now is, and a restricted trade policy was pursued, many people were afraid that the motherland had begun to decay, and would be unable to advance. But who that looks at her progress, at the enormous increase in her population, in her business interests, and in her wealth, can say that Britain has not gone ahead? And she is still advancing. It is a wonderful record for trade freedom.

New Burial Regulations.

The new burial regulations passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature are very stringent, and if faithfully carried out by medical health officers and doctors, will make "graveyard insurance" an impossibility. Returns of all births, deaths and marriages must now be sent in to a division registrar promptly by the medical practitioners and other parties interested. Under the new statute, every physician is required to report the death to the medical health officer of the town or district before giving a death certificate. The latter shall make investigations and report to the division registrar, who will in turn, without charge issue a permit to bury the deceased. The law applies to all deaths, and puts heavy penalties on any undertaker, pall bearer, clergyman or grave digger who permits a burial without a certificate from the division registrar. Any doctor found to have furnished a false report as to the causes of death is subject to a $50 fine and discipline by the medical council. All breaches of the law must in future be reported to the Provincial authorities by the medical health officer, and prosecutions will follow. In the past, the local officers have in nearly every case made no effort to convict, and the registration has been very lax.

Robbery in High Places.

This country would have been robbed of three-quarters of a million dollars, for fictitious "extras" on the Soulanges Canal, but for Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and his friends backing up the Auditor-General, the overseeing engineer and the chief engineer of the Dominion; and standing by the decision of the late Sir John Thompson. The men now in power were most anxious to override the decision of all these men, but Mr. Laurier and his friends stood up for the taxpayers and the money was retained in the treasury. Millions of dollars have been thus squandered, as has been proved in Parliament, in opposition to the vote of Mr. Laurier and his friends. This money has been stolen, not spent on legitimate public works, as contended by the political beneficiaries. What a boon an expenditure of six or eight million dollars in providing work for the unemployed would have been during the past hard winter! It was not forthcoming, because it was stolen.

By the Way.

"We are, above all, Canadians, Canadians at Quebec, Canadians at Toronto, and Canadians from the shores of the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the famous mountains, whose feet are kissed by the waves of the Pacific. Our great object is the development of the work of Confederation."—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier.

The Berlin News (Conservative) reaches the conclusion that "elections are very disappointing." They certainly are to a political aggregation which has lost its grip—such, for example, as that which holds sway at Ottawa just now.

The Canadian Royal Commission to inquire into and report to Parliament on the subject of the liquor traffic, which resulted in a great waste of paper and printers' ink for a report of six or seven volumes which no one has ever read, has not deterred Salisbury's Government from appointing a like commission. By the terms of reference this commission is "to inquire into the operation and administration of the laws relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to examine and report on the proposals which may be made for amending the aforesaid laws in the public interest, due regard being had to the rights of individuals." The latter phase no doubt refers to the question of compensation, which the friends of the liquor traffic affirm that those engaged in it are entitled to. But there is not a word in the reference as to inquiry into the evils of the traffic, or how they may be eradicated or minimized. The commission is to consist of 24 members, and Lord Peel is to preside.

London increased her population at a more rapid rate in the revenue tariff decade of 1871-81 than she did in the high tax period of 1881-91. The last Dominion census proves that.

The Dominion Government donated $6,000 in postage to Mr. Ryckman, the patent medicine M. P., by circulating his sheet free of charge with the "stamp" of Ministers. The Monetary Times strongly condemns the expedient. It was a long-headed scheme of Hamilton's retiring M. P.

God's Garden.

Dr. Talmage's Sermon on This Subject and His Beautiful Imagery.

Snowdrops, Roses and Thorns—A Glorious Garden Full of Fruit.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—As the parks in Washington are abloom with hyacinths, and the gardens are being made, the simile dominant in this subject is very suggestive and practical. Dr. Talmage's text was Isaiah, lviii., 11: "Thou shalt be like a watered garden."

The Bible is a great poem. We have in it faultless rhythm, and bold imagery, and startling antithesis, and rapturous lyric, and sweet pastoral and instructive narrative and devotional psalm; thoughts expressed in style more solemn than that of Montgomery, more bold than that of Milton, more terrible than that of Dante, more natural than that of Wordsworth, more impassioned than that of Pollock, more tender than that of Cowper, more weird than that of Spencer.

This great poem brings all the gems of earth into its coronet, and it weaves the flames of judgment into its garlands. Everything this Book touches it makes beautiful, from the plain stones of the summer threshing floor to the daughters of Nahor filling the trough for the camels. From the fishpools of Heshbon up to the Psalmist praising God with the diapason of storm and whirl-wind, and Job's imagery of Orion, Arcturus and the Pleiades.

It is the garden spoken of in my text, the garden of the church, which belongs to Christ. He bought it, he planted it, he owns it, and he shall have it. Walter Scott, in his outlay at Abbotsford, ruined his fortune; and now, in the crimson flowers of those gardens, you can almost think or imagine that you see the blood of that old man's broken heart. The payment of the last one hundred thousand pounds sacrificed him. But I have to tell you that Christ's life and Christ's death were the outlay of this beautiful garden of the church, of which my text speaks. Oh, how many sighs and tears and pains and agonies! If the garden of the church belongs to Christ, certainly he has a right to walk in it. Come, then, O blessed Jesus, today; walk up and down those aisles, and pluck what thou wilt of sweetness for thyself.

The church in my text, is appropriately compared to a garden, because it is the place of choice flowers, of select fruits, and of thorough irrigation. That would be a strange garden in which there were no flowers. If nowhere else they would be along the borders on at the gateway. The homeliest taste will dictate something, if it be only the old-fashioned hollyhock, or dahlia, or daffodil; but if there be larger means, then you will find the Mexican cactus, and blazing azalea, and clustering oleander. Well, now, Christ comes to his garden, and he plants there some of the brightest spirits that ever flowered upon the world. Some of them are violets, inconspicuous, but sweet as heaven. You have to search and find them. They are, perhaps, more like the ranunculus, creeping sweetly along amid the thorns and briars of life, giving kiss for sting; and many a man who has had in his way some great black rock of trouble, has found that they have covered it all over with flowery jasmine, running in and out amid the crevices. These flowers in Christ's garden do not, like the sunflower, gaudy in the light, but wherever darkness hovers over a soul that needs to be comforted, there they stand, night-blooming cereuses.

But in Christ's garden there are plants that may better be compared to the Mexican cactus—thorns without, loveliness within; men with sharp points of character. Men pronounce them nothing but thorns, but Christ loves them notwithstanding all their sharpnesses. Many a man has had a very hard ground to cultivate, and it has only been through severe trial he has raised even the smallest crop of grace. A very harsh minister was talking to a very placid elder, and the placid elder said to the harsh minister: "Doctor, I do wish you would control your temper." "Ah," said the minister to the elder, "I control more temper in five minutes than you do in five years."

There are others planted in Christ's garden who are always radiant, always impressive—more like the roses of deep hue that we occasionally find, called "Giants of Battle." The Martin Luthers, St. Pauls, Chrysostoms, Wickliffes, Latimers and Samuel Rutherfords. What in other men is a spark in them is a conflagration. When they sweat, they sweat great drops of blood. When they pray, their prayers take fire. When they preach, it is a Pentecost. When they fight it is a Thermopylae. When they die, it is a martyrdom. You find a great many roses in the gardens, but only a few "Giants of Battle." Men say, "Why don't you have more of them in the church?" I say, "Why don't you have in the world more Humboldts and Wellingtons?" God gives to some ten talents, to another one.

In this garden of the church which Christ has planted, I also find the snow-drops, beautiful, but cold-looking, seemingly another phase of winter. I mean these Christians who are precise in their tastes, unimpassioned, pure as snow-drops, and as cold. They never run up to "C" above the staff. In their music of life they have no staccato passages. Christ planted them in the church, and they must be of some service or they would not be there.

But I have to tell you of a plant that was gathered up from all eternity, and that nineteen hundred years ago put forth its bloom never to wither. It is the passion plant of the cross! Prophets foretold it; Bethlehem shepherds looked upon it in the bud; the rocks shook at its bursting; and the dead got up in their winding-sheets to see its full bloom. It is a crimson flower—blood at the roots, blood on the branches, blood on all the leaves. its perfume is to fill all the nations. Its breath is heaven. Come, O winds, from the north, and winds from the south, and winds from the east, and winds from the west, and bear to all the earth the sweet-smelling savor of Christ, my Lord.

Again the church may be appropriately compared to a garden, because it is a place of fruits. The coarser fruits are planted in the orchard, or they are set out on the sunny hillside; but the choicest fruits are kept in the garden. So in the world outside the church, Christ has planted a great many beautiful things—patience, charity, generosity, integrity; but he intends the choicest fruits to be in the garden, and if they are not there, then shame on the church.

Religion is not a mere sentimentality. It is a practical, life-giving, healthful fruit—not posies, but apples. The church of Christ is a glorious garden, and it is full of fruit. I know there is some poor fruit in it. I know there are some weeds that ought to be thrown over the fence. You will find worm-eaten leaves in Fontainbleau, and insects that sting in the fairy groves of the Champs Elysees. You do not tear down and destroy the whole garden because there are a few specimens of gnarled fruit. I admit there are men and women in the church who ought not to be there; but let us be just and frank, and admit the fact that there are hundreds and thousands of glorious Christian men and women—holy, blessed, useful, consecrated and triumphant. There is no grander, nobler collection in all the earth than the collection of Christians.

Again, the church in my text is appropriately called a garden, because it is thoroughly irrigated. No garden could prosper long without plenty of water. I have seen a garden in the midst of a desert, yet blooming and luxuriant. All around us was dearth and barrenness; but there were pipes, aqueducts, reaching from this garden up to the mountains, and through those aqueducts the water came streaming down, and tossing up into beautiful fountains, until every root and leaf and flower was saturated. That is like the church. The church is a garden in the midst of a great desert of sin and suffering; but it is well irrigated; for "our eyes are unto the hills from whence cometh our help." From the mountains of God's strength there flow down rivers of gladness. "There is a river the stream whereof shall make glad the city of our God." Preaching the Gospel is one of the aqueducts. The Bible is another. Baptism and the Lord's Supper are aqueducts. Water to slack the thirst, water to wash the unclean, water tossed high up in the light of the Son of Righteousness, showing us the rainbow around the throne. Oh, was there ever a garden so thoroughly irrigated! You know that the beauty of Versailles and Chatsworth depends very much upon the great supply of water. I came to the latter place, Chatsworth, one day when strangers are not to be admitted; but by an inducement which always seemed as potent with an Englishman as an American, I got in, and then the gardener went far up above the stairs of stone and turned on the water. I saw it gleaming on the dry pavement, coming down from step to step, until it came so near I could hear the musical rush, and all over the high, broad stairs it came, foaming, flashing, roaring down until sunlight and wave in gleesome wrestle tumbled at my feet. So it is with the church of God. Everything comes from above; pardon from above, joy from above, adoption from above, sanctification from above.

Hark! I hear the latch of the garden-gate, and I look to see who is coming. I hear the voice of Christ: "I am coming into my garden." I say, "Come in, O Jesus! we have been waiting for thee; walk all through the paths. Look at the flowers; look at the fruit; pluck that which thou wilt for thyself." Jesus comes into the garden and up to that old man, and touches him, and says: Almost home, father; not many more aches for thee; I will never leave thee; take courage a little longer and I will steady thy tottering steps, and I will soothe thy troubles and give thee rest. Courage, old man." Then Christ goes up another garden path, and comes to a soul in trouble, and says, "Peace' all is well. I have seen thy tears. I have heard thy prayer. The sun shall not smite thee by day nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; he will preserve thy soul. Courage, O troubled spirit!"

THE COMING COMET!

It is Expected to Strike and Smash the Earth.

That is if its Tail Doesn't Swing it Around in Another Direction—Not Due for Some Time Yet.

There is, according to the authorities, a comet coming straight for the earth. It is coming at the rate of several thousand miles an hour, and when it reaches here there will be more or less trouble, and something will have to break. The astronomers in question think the earth will get a trifle the worst of it and are accordingly feeling anxious. It is due here unless somebody turns a switch, and sidetracks it, in less than nine hundred years, so no wonder the discoverers of that comet are anxious. But more things than a comet are due to arrive here before long. With the hot weather will come sickness and death. Spring, deadly spring, will reap its fearful harvest. There will come

Malaria,
Typhoid,
Diphtheria,
Bilious Complaints.
Blood Troubles,
Blotches and Boils.
Pimples and Eruptions,
Ague and Chills,
Rheumatism.

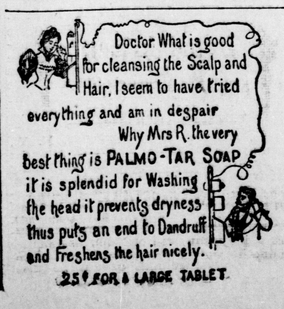

And hundreds of other complaints common to the season. There will be many a gap left at the table. Many a little coffin will be carried to its last resting place; many a home will be filled with sadness.

Take no chances. Prepare for spring. If you or your children are not strong and healthy get strong and healthy. If you are not well get well. If you are well keep well.

Scott's Sarsaparilla is what you want. It is the greatest blood purifier and spring tonic of the age. There is nothing like it on the market. Don't confound it with other weak imitations. It is easily the leading blood medicine of the day, as the splendid testimonials published elsewhere show. Try it.

Scott's Sarsaparilla is unlike most patent medicines. It does not profess to cure every disease under the sun. But it will cure all those that have the same common origin in disorders of the blood, liver, stomach and nervous centers.

More about Scott's Sarsaparilla tomorrow.

Itching

If there is one thing more than another which gratifies us, it is the great volume of hearty thanks which come from grateful parents for the cures Hood's Sarsaparilla has effected upon their children. The agony of despair turns to unspeakable joy as mothers and fathers see dreadful sores and eruptions gradually yield to the potent purifying power of this great medicine, and bright boys and girls given perfect health. Read this:

"When my baby was four weeks old, scrofulous eczema broke out on his body. He became literally covered with

Sores

When six months old the breaking out healed on his body, but his head, face and arms were a terrible sight. I passed many sleepless nights holding his little hands to keep him from scratching his face. I cannot tell what he suffered with the sores. One doctor attended him a year without avail. No one thought he would ever get well. He was almost a year old when I commenced to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla. He soon grew so much better that

Cured

I was able to rest at night. Gradually the sores on his head and arms healed, the burning and itching ceased, and he slept better. In 2 months he looked like another child, gained strength, was cured. I recommend all persons afflicted with eczema or any skin disease to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I feel assured that it will do wonders for others. I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for my poor little sufferer. It is hard to believe he is the same child, he is now such a big, hearty, fat boy, a very picture of health. If more people would give Hood's Sarsaparilla to their children, there would not be so many poor, delicate little ones." MRS. AGNES C. BAILEY, Box 91, McVeytown, Pennsylvania.

MINING ENCOURAGED.

The Ontario Government Decides to Give a Bounty.

Toronto, April 29.—The Ontario Government has decided to encourage the mining industry in the Province. An order in council provides that $1 bounty will be given for every amount of ore which produces one ton of smelted pig iron. This bounty will be given to miners. Mine owners and smelting companies must send in a record of their output, and an official will be appointed to look after the entire subject.

False Pride.

False pride has proved a stumbling block in many a man's career. The one opportunity of his life may present itself, and false pride steps in and ruins all. There is no disgrace attached to going to a hospital for the treatment of some peculiar disease. Why, then, should men who are not ashamed of being seen in a state of intoxication, or of persisting in a course which must end in misery and ruin to themselves and families, and perhaps in a drunkard's grave, be ashamed to go to such an institution as the Lakehurst Sanitarium to be cured of a habit which has become with them a veritable disease and over which they have no control? Lakhurst is not an asylum in which patients are imprisoned by bolts and bars, but a pleasant home-like residence. Surrounded by beautiful grounds running down to the lake shore; with its billiard and smoking-rooms and library, it affords the attractions of an ideal summer resort and club combined. There is also every facility for boating, tennis, and other outdoor amusements. The medical superintendent is a skilled specialist in the treatment of alcoholism, and the morphine and cigarette habits; and the staff of assistants is carefully selected. The course of treatment usually extends from a month to six weeks; and any patient who decides to take it may look forward with confidence to a permanent cure. General Elections.

Men of Ability Reject Office in Tupper's Cabinet.

Union of the Liberal and Patron Forces in North Ontario.

The Liberals Will Sweep Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island.

Kingston's Ex-M. P. Must Get an Office or He Will Knife the Government.

All the Conservative M.P.s in the Niagara Peninsula Take Refuge in Jobs.

Toronto, April 29.—It is reported here today that Sir Oliver Mowat, Premier of Ontario, will at an early day declare that it is absolutely for the welfare of Canada that there should be a change of Government at Ottawa. It need surprise no one if the veteran Premier takes a very prominent stand in favor of the return to power of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, of whom he has long been a warm personal friend. Nor need it cause astonishment if, in the event of a Liberal triumph, which now seems to be assured, Sir Oliver becomes a member of the new Government.

* * * *

Ottawa, April 29.—The difficulty experienced in getting any man of prominence to join the Tupper makeshift Cabinet delays the announcement as to its personnel. Herculean efforts have been made to get W. R. Meredith to join the Ministry, but without avail. A large deputation was sent to New York to see Mr. Chapleau, and urge him to join. They had a long conference with him on Sunday, and the result of the conference was a decision not to enter the Tupper Cabinet. This appears to be final, and it accords with Mr. Chapleau's reputation for political shrewdness. He sees that the Government are foredoomed to defeat and that it is too late to save them in Quebec. Some of the Conservative press mention Mr. B. B. Osler's name this morning, and make him the victim of a rumor that he has been offered a seat in the new Cabinet. As Mr. Osler has some knowledge as prosecutor in the McGreevy-Langevin scandals of the corrupt methods of Government at Ottawa under the present men, he is not likely to even treat the rumor seriously enough to deny. Since writing the above a correspondent saw Mr. Osler at the Rideau Club. He had nothing to say for publication beyond this, that some newspapers were making statements about him just as they were about Chief Justice Meredith, and without any more authority. "I am not in politics," he added; "I am in law. I came here to attend the assizes, and was in hope of getting away sooner. I am leaving tonight for Toronto, having finished my assize court cases." After all it looks as if Sir Charles Tupper was reduced to Col. Tisdale, who is one of the few Ontario Conservatives in the last House of Commons still without an office.

* * * *

Senator T. R. McInnes, of British Columbia, was formerly a resident of Kent county, Ont. Then he was a strong Conservative. Now he is enthusiastic as to the prospects of the Liberal candidates in several of the British Columbia constituencies, which is no longer a Conservative preserve. Thus the change proceeds.

* * * *

Sir Mackenzie Bowell had intended issuing a valedictory in the shape of a manifesto to the Canadian people, but on further consideration he decided not to do so. If he had done so, he would have been excused if he had got even with those who decapitated him, and whom he denounced in the Senate as a "nest of traitors." Sir Mackenzie will not sail for England until May 16, as steamship accommodation could not be obtained till that date. The departure of Sir Donald Smith and Mr. Fleming will also be delayed until that date.

* * * *

Mr. Leclaire, Conservative member for Terrebonne, is in town. He will not be a candidate at the coming elections, owing to ill-health. The high tax members are nearly all getting out on one excuse or another.

* * * *

Beaverton, April 28.—A joint convention of Patrons and Liberals of North Ontario was held here today for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the interests of both parties in the Dominion elections. The meeting was in every sense representative, delegates being present from every municipality in the riding, although, as one speaker stated, it is 185 miles long. The utmost harmony prevailed, and Mr. Duncan Graham, reeve of the county of Ontario, received the unanimous nomination of the assemblage, his nomination being moved by Mr. Robt. C. Brandon, Patron nominee, and seconded by Dr. H. S. Bingham, Liberal nominee, both of whom retired in his favor. The vote was a standing one and was received with enthusiasm, the convention taking up spontaneously "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," which sentiment very aptly represents the feeling throughout the riding towards the gentleman who is now the independent candidate. On the platform were a number of prominent gentlemen who fought the political battles of the riding in both parties in the past, all of whom thoroughly concurred in the wisdom of the selection. Mr. Graham enters upon the canvass at once, and will prove the most effective opponent the high tax candidate has met for a long time. Mr. McGillivray, the minority candidate in the bye-elections, would have been defeated if a union like this had been arranged in time.

* * * *

The Liberals of West Assiniboia will select a candidate at Moose Jaw next Saturday.

* * * *

Mr. Wm. Keys, well known in labor circles, has accepted a requisition to be a candidate in St. Anne's division of Montreal. The Liberal candidate is Hon. James McShane. The Conservative nominee is not yet selected.

* * * *

The Conservative party has no candidate for Addington county. Mr J. W. Bell, the candidate, in his address to the electors, states that he is opposed to interference with Manitoba, therefore Sir Charles Tupper will not tolerate him. Mr. Dawson is the Liberal nominee.

* * * *

Winnipeg, April 29.—Winnipeg Liberals will meet tomorrow evening, when Hon. Joseph Martin will receive the formal nomination as candidate for the city.

* * * *

Toronto Conservative conventions will be held as follows: East Toronto, Thursday, May 7. West Toronto, Friday, May 8. Center Toronto, Monday, May 11.

* * * *

Montreal, April 29.—Conservative management is paralyzed by the absence of recognized leaders, but the organization of the Liberals goes on unchecked. The electors of Vercheres and Chambly held a large and enthusiastic convention at St. Hubert yesterday afternoon. Every parish of the united counties was represented. Mr. Geoffrion, Q.C., was unanimously chosen and accepted the nomination. Another convention was held yesterday in Soulanges, and Dr. Bourbonnais, M.P.P., was unanimously chosen as the Liberal candidate.

* * * *

A Conservative ex-M.P. says that it is a good thing to have Hugh John Macdonald in the Cabinet. "His nose alone," he says, "is worth thousands of votes to the Government!" They must be hard up for a cry to conjure with when they have to fall back on the shape of a nose.

* * * *

The Star has this to say of the recent great Liberal demonstration in Montreal: "The Liberal demonstration in honor of the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was one of which that distinguished statesman may well be proud. In point of numbers and in the degree of enthusiasm which prevailed from start to finish it has been seldom equaled in this city or elsewhere. It was a spontaneous tribute on the part of the citizens of Canada's metropolis to the honorable gentleman's sterling integrity and charming personality."

* * * *

Ridgetown, April 29.—On Monday evening a meeting of the Liberal Club was held at the club rooms, when a debate took place on a motion offered, for the sake of causing a brisk debate, by Mr. Walter Mills at a previous meeting, to the effect that the Government were to be approved and the Opposition, led by Mr. Laurier, censured for their Parliamentary conduct. The chair was occupied by Mr. W. A. Gosnell. Mr. Mills opened the debate with an able speech, followed by Dr. Stalker. Messrs. E. McKay and J. R. Johnston supported Mr. Mills in the affirmative, while Messrs. W. E. Gundy and J. H. Dempster supported Dr. Stalker. Mr. E. Bowes made a good speech. He was not chosen on the debate, and took a stand independent of it. As a Catholic he would be perfectly satisfied in Manitoba with the Ontario system of school government. He had learned from missionary sources that only two places in Manitoba could support separate schools. Mr. Ferguson followed and took up the standing of the present candidate, Mr. Casey, and considered that gentleman's chances as never better to represent West Elgin in the Dominion Parliament when it again meets. A vote was then taken and a unanimous expression was given that Mr. Mills' motion should be voted down.

* * * *

The appointment of Mr. Patterson, of Colchester, N. S., as inspector of postoffices, and Mr. Davies as customs collector in the Yukon make 8 members of the House of Commons appointed to an office since the vote on the Manitoba school bill, and it is more than ever apparent that if offices had not been used as bribes in the majority of those cases the vote would have gone the other way. The appointment of Major Gourdeau as Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries is denounced by the officers in the department as an outrage, and the appointment of Mr. McDougald, of Pictou, N. S., as Commissioner of Customs is still worse, if possible, because he knows absolutely nothing of the custom law, and is in other ways utterly incompetent for the position.

In discussing Canada's greatest needs at the present time, Geo. R. Parkin, principal of Upper Canada College, puts foremost a higher standard of public life.

Toronto, April 29.—Premier Greenway was interviewed here yesterday. He had just come from New York, where he had been on private business, and was busy with his correspondence.

"I really haven't anything new to tell you," said Mr. Greenway. "I have been interviewed and interviewed. This is really what I have to say in a few words: There are bright prospects for immigration in Manitoba during the present season. I have not been invited by Mr. Laurier to give up the Premiership and enter his Cabinet. I have made no engagement to meet Sir Oliver Mowat during the day."

"How many Liberals will be elected in Manitoba?" was asked.

"I will be much surprised if six out of the seven are not successful," he answered. "Mr. Martin will easily defeat Hugh John Macdonald, and the only Conservative who will save his seat will be Mr. Lariviere.

"The leading question will be the remedial school bill. I don't know anything about the coalition of the Patrons and Liberals in the west, but I don't believe that the Patrons will at all injure the chances of the Liberals."

"What position will the majority of the Liberals take when they are elected?" was asked.

"They will be opponents of the Government," he answered.

"If Laurier should ultimately introduce remedial legislation, what would be their course?"

"That is a question that I have refrained from answering," said he. "It might depend on the bill."

Hon. L. H. Davies is confident of a Liberal sweep in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. He is directing the Maritime Province campaign, assisted by Premier Fielding, Attorney-General Langley and other brilliant blue-noses.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell, the deposed Premier, will in future make Belleville his home. Sir John Carling, being practically out of public life, will sell his home in Ottawa, and with Lady Carling, return to London to live.

Mr. George O'Keefe, M.P.P., of Ottawa, is in Toronto. He says that the Liberals have bright prospects of winning the two seats in the Capital City. The names mentioned as probable candidates are Mr. Wm. Henderson, Mr. Harry Bate, wholesale grocer, and Mr. Belcourt, crown attorney of Ottawa county.

* * * *

George Hume, Milton, will be the McCarthy Conservative candidate in Halton. John Waldie is the Liberal candidate. Mr. Henderson, the machine Conservative nominee, will also run.

Hon. Mr. Angers' friends in Quebec ridicule the rumors that he is likely to take office under Sir Charles Tupper.

Two great political meetings will be held shortly in Quebec—one at the Academy of Music in English for the English-speaking electors of the Center and West divisions, and one the next day in French in Quebec East for the benefit generally of the French-Canadian electors of the city. At both meetings, Mr. Laurier, who will be accompanied by Hon. Geo. W. Ross, the Ontario Minister of Education, and other leading Liberals, will deliver addresses.

Hamilton, April 29.—Every one of the Conservative M. P.s in the Niagara Peninsula have been given jobs by the dying Government at Ottawa. F. M. Carpenter, Wentworth, is the latest to make his collection. It is announced that he will be superintendent of a Government fruit farm to be set up in Saltfleet, with a salary of $2,000 a year.

Kingston, April 29.—J. H. Metcalf is home, and without the appointment of warden in his pocket, as predicted. Kingston influence, he says, has prevented his selection, "but," he added, "I am convinced there are enough loyal Conservatives in the Cabinet to see that I am given what was promised by a dead and a living Premier and what nearly every Conservative member of the last Parliament acknowledged my claim to.

"Sir John Thompson voluntarily offered me the position, and several of the Cabinet Ministers have given me assurances of their support. But the appointment was blocked last February.

"Yes, if I don't receive the appointment I will be a candidate, and I shall not wait until nomination day to announce myself. I will accept no other position than the wardenship, and if I become a candidate for Parliament I will not accept any position, but will if elected vote as I think proper without reference to the interest or the principles of the Conservative party." This extraordinary ultimatum is the talk of the town. It is expected to "fetch" the distracted managers at Ottawa.

FORTY MINERS ENTOMBED.

St. Louis, Mo., April 29.—A special from Chihuahua, Mexico, says that already over twenty dead bodies have been taken away at the mine which collapsed there last week, and there are 40 persons still entombed. The rescuing persons can hear the voices of those entombed, who are trying to work their way out towards the rescuing party. The cause of the cave-in was the giving way of the main support. The mine was very poorly timbered.

Get Rid of Neuralgia.

There is no use in fooling with neuralgia. It is a disease that gives way only to the most powerful remedies. No remedy yet discovered has given the grand results that invariably attends the employment of Polson's Nerviline. Nerviline is a positive specific for all nerve pains, and ought to be kept on hand in every family. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle.

"Ours."

Under the patronage of Lieut.-Col. Smith, D.A.G., and officers of the Seventh Battalion, a brilliant comedy by some of the best local talent, assisted by "E" Company, Seventh Fusiliers. Admission, 25 cents; reserved seats, 35 and 50 cents. Thursday, April 30, Grand Opera House.

172 and 174 Dundas Street.

FIFTY NINE CENTS

You have heard the story of people refusing sovereigns at a shilling apiece—it's an old one. The people were not of the up-to-date sort of today. A good thing is readily appreciated now-a-days.

Shirt Waists.

The buyer for the Shirt Waist Department seems to have a mania for quantities. Another lot came in today—case after case—boxes piled up, up, up; but the price—the price!

'Twas a Clever Stroke.

We actually trembled at the quantities; but quantities are nothing at such prices—hardly sovereigns for a shilling, but dollars for 59c. Proper patterns, proper cut, and proper colors. You will have to get your supply at once, if you want to save money on this purchase.

35 cents.

Another lot, limited in quantity, bought from the W. G. & R. Co., mostly starched fronts, perfect goods, worth treble the money, to clear 35c.

Ladies' Vests.

10c Long sleeve, fine-ribbed Vest, 10c.

12½c Fine Maco yarn, half sleeve, splendidly finished, with ribbon, full sized and shaped, 12½c.

15c Half sleeve, full fashioned vest, and worth 20c, our price 15c.

LAMBETH.

Lambeth, April 28.—The following is the report of the promotion and review examinations in school section No. 17, Westminster, Lambeth:

Senior Fourth—Nellie Clarke 597, Agnes Elson 556.

Junior Fourth—Nellie Vandermade 592, Jennie Mann 583, Vera McClelland 526, Lewis Eyer 493, Chester Bogue 468, Roy Bannatyne 463, George Sadler 421, Thomas Halls 408, Willie Routledge 356.

Senor Third—Flo Blatchford 474, Ruby Heard 403, Mabel Irvine 397, Eliza Tunks 392, Roy Mathers 380, Ada Evans 375, Lewis Blatchford 352, Cecella Mathers 350.

Senior Second—Eva Patrick 371, Flo Clarke 353, Lily Elson 274, Letty Elson 267, Clarence Routledge 239, Willie Foster 262, Lila Hall 235, Harry Vandermade 230.

On Sunday evening the Royal Templars of Lambeth held their anniversary service. Meeting at the hall, they formed into line and marched to the Methodist Church. Here Rev. Mr. Quance preached to the order a powerful sermon on the fall of Babylon, which, he said, was but a type of all sin and wickedness. From this he drew many thoughts, proving that in the great battle between right and wrong, the wrong must always be overcome. The success of the first annual parade must be very gratifying to all concerned.

The spring poet is indeed out, and in full feather. At their last meeting the Templars were treated to a genuine effusion. The songster has undoubted powers of imagination, and may yet develop into something.

The recent rains have somewhat set back the spring work, but today the farmers are busy in the fields.

BELMONT.

Belmont, April 28.—The sneak thief who stole Miss Tena Noble's school misses' satchel on Sunday, April 19, out of the family carriage at the Presbyterian meeting house during the service, has not returned it yet or its contents.

Mr. Lewis Boyd, late bookkeeper for George W. Olmstead, cigarmaker, of London, has engaged as junior clerk here with John Evans, sen., beginning May 1.

Mrs. Wm. Sutton moves into John and Robert McPherson's house, Friday, May 1. Very nice residence, and new.

Mr. Wilson McCrary, in South Dorchester, near here, has a gang of Indians cutting 500 cords of wood for his mill.

Shoals of various kinds of fish are returning to Kettle Creek here, and would be larger ones if the inspector paid a visit.

The sale of tile today, conducted by D. R. Debs, auctioneer, for J. B. Davenport, was successful.

At a meeting held here yesterday, and also in Yarmouth, by the Presbyterians, it was decided to build a brick residence for Rev. John Curry here at once, to cost not less than $2,000.

LUCAN.

("Advertiser" Business Agent, W. Hodgins.)

Lucan, April 28.—Mr. Arthur Atkinson, grain merchant, Winnipeg, starts for home on Wednesday, having spent the winter in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hodgins gave their many friends and well-wishers a genuine good time at their beautiful residence on Beach street on Monday night. Mr. Hodgins is about to remove his family to Montreal in a few days, where he has been engaged for some months past in the life insurance business. The large edifice was literally packed to the doors, and both music and dance were engaged in until late in the night. One of the most pleasing features of the occasion was the presentation to the host and hostess of a magnificent tea set, accompanied with a neatly worded address, to which Mr. Hodgins made a very feeling and suitable reply.

Master Alva McRoberts met with a painful accident on Wednesday while playing ball with some comrades. In trying to catch the ball, which was coming with terrific force, it struck between two of his fingers, and tore the flesh badly. Dr. Shaw dressed the wound.

A very interesting lecture on missionary work was delivered by Rev. Isaac Stringer, from the Mackenzie Basin, in Holy Trinity Church on Tuesday night. The church was well filled with a deeply interested and appreciative audience, who listened attentively while the reverend gentleman described the habits, customs and manners of a people little known by civilized man. A good collection was taken up in aid of the work.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London, April 27.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been found so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvelous cures through the use of this specific. In every drug store in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

CAPTURED THE MAYOR!

Women Hold Him Till He Promises to Reform the Morals of His City.

St. Joseph, Mich., April 28.—Forty women, leading members of local clubs and church societies, caught Mayor John V. Stern on the street, and, dragging him into a private house, demanded that he co-operate in a movement of reform.

They cried that the laws were not being enforced; that the sale of cigarettes was carried on with impunity; that young girls were being enticed away, and that boys of all ages were given liquor upon asking.

The mayor was kept a prisoner two hours, and did not escape until he had promised to submit the matter to the executive department of the city. The women demanded the adoption of a curfew bell, upon the ringing of which children of certain ages must retire from the streets.

DISCOVERY CONFIRMED.

The X Ray Is a Germicide—Will Kill Diphtheria Bacteria.

Chicago, April 28.—An X ray will kill the bacteria of diphtheria. So the electrical department of the University of Missouri at Columbia announces, after extensive experiments, to Prof. Henry Preston Pratt and Prof. Hugo Wrightman, of Chicago, the first to give the scientific world the positive assertion that disease germs in the human body could be killed by the use of the X ray. This confirmation of their own pioneer work was extremely gratifying. But a week ago they gave the result of their experiments which were received with some doubt by eastern scientists and with much skepticism abroad. To the doctors and scientists who criticised the possibility of the Chicago discovery being true, the confirmatory report from the University of Missouri will come as a surprise. Prof. Roentgen himself, when told by cable of the Chicago investigation and the result, replied that he had expected the experiments to result as they did. The X ray, he said, was a germicide.

The Bowels.

A constipated condition of the bowels causes the accumulation of waste and effete matter, which poisonously impregnates the whole system by being taken up by the blood. Hence Bad Blood, Headache, Biliousness, Fevers, Foul Humors, Pimples, Blotches, etc. Burdock acts thoroughly on the bowels, removing all effete and waste matter, and cleansing the entire system.

It heals all sores, ulcers, abscesses and broken out surfaces of the skin so completely that not even a scar is left. In all skin diseases it should be taken internally and applied externally, according to directions.

No. 6 Ward Vacancy.

In accordance with the act, Mayor Little has issued the warrant for a new election in No. 6 ward, a vacancy in the Board of Aldermen having been caused by the death of Ald. John Marshall. Nomination has been fixed for a week from tomorrow (Thursday), and the polling, if any, one week later. The name most prominently connected with the vacancy is that of Mr. Wm. Gerry, a well known and highly respected resident in the ward. Mr. Gerry would have been sent to the City Council by his fellow-taxpayers long before now, if he had consented to accept nomination. In response to the invitation of a large number of residents of the ward, however, he has now consented to be nominated. It was expected that he would be elected by acclamation, so popular is he, but today Mr. Robert Hilliard advertises that he is also a candidate, and there may be a contest at the polls.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—No. 1 ward Liberals meet tonight in the Oddfellows' Hall for campaign purposes.

—Dr. Bert Leys, of Detroit, is here on a short visit to his parents, Elmwood avenue.

—Mr. James Conard, superintendent at Gammage's greenhouses, is on a business trip to Chicago.

—Mr. J. Dufton and family, well-known and respected residents of this city, left for their new home in Clinton yesterday.

—Shortly before 1 o'clock the fire brigade was called out to a chimney fire at the residence of Mrs. Charnock, 572 Maitland street. No damage.

—Francis Davidson has been arrested in London West on charge of being drunk and disorderly. He comes up on Monday before Squire Lacey.

—The first boat of the Merchants' line will leave Port Stanley today. It will be the steamer Cuba, which laid up at St. Catharines during the winter.

—The city of Chatham has been chosen as the place in which to hold the annual C. P. R. picnic. The Chatham city council has voted $200 to assist the scheme.

—During the week ending April 20, 19,537,922 gallons of water were pumped into the reservoir at Springbank. There is over twelve feet of water in the pond at present.

—Rev. Duncan Robertson, the former pastor of the King Street Presbyterian Church, leaves for Winnipeg on the Grand Trunk tomorrow morning. Mrs. Robertson goes to Vancouver, B. C.

—A special meeting of the City Council has been called for tonight by the mayor, in response to a properly signed requisition. The Springbank agreement with the City Council will be again taken up, and it is thought that all the matters in dispute will be adjusted.

—Rev. Dr. Daniel delivered a very interesting lecture on Oliver Goldsmith in the Kensington Mission last evening. The chair was occupied by Mr. Thos. McCormick. The lecturer gave a graphic and entertaining description of Goldsmith's chequered life and his marvelous talents. He also dwelt on his home influences and the unique and amiable character of the writer's father.

—County Constables Ward and Northgreaves yesterday afternoon arrested three tramps near the old Newmarket race course, who are alleged to have insulted a number of women living in the neighborhood. Later in the day another trio were captured in the same vicinity. The names of the gang were given as W. Brown, Henry Smith, Joseph Rowe, Hugh Cameron, Wm. Douglass and Wm. Schlimm. They will come before Squire Lacey tomorrow.

—The choir of St. George's Church provided a pleasant entertainment at the school room last evening. Rev. Mr. Sage presided, and the programme arranged included vocal numbers by Mrs. Geoman, Miss Softley, Mr. Softley, Mr. Wallace, Miss Mutch, Mr. Forsythe, Miss Pickard, Miss Barnard and Mr. Webster; instrumental selections, Mrs. R. Graham and others, and a recitation by Mr. Burke. The numbers were well received, and several encores were given.

—Mr. C. R. Sayer, Y. M. C. A. secretary, London, Ont., will conduct a meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. tonight and every night this week.—Hamilton Times.

—A "curio" entertainment was given in the Askin Street Methodist lecture room last evening under the auspices of the Mission Circle. The attendance was large. The president, Mrs. Roe, presided. The programme included two choruses, by young ladies of the circle, under the direction of Mr. John Ward; curio exhibitions, in which many interesting things from the foreign fields were shown, and on which short descriptive addresses were given by Miss Cosford, Miss Laird, Mrs. A. E. Miller and Mrs. Wright; solos by Miss Baxter, a lesson by three little girls, an instrumental by Miss Clement, and a chorus by a number of young men.

—No. 6 Ward Liberal Club met last night and transacted considerable business. There was a large attendance. After sympathetic addresses by several of the members on the death of their first vice-president, the late Ald. Marshall, eulogizing his work and usefulness, the vacancy was filled by the election of Ald. Ed. Parnell. Mr. Thos. Walton was elected to the vacancy on the executive board. Arrangements were made to occupy the new club rooms on Friday next. The new quarters will be one of the new Gothic cottages next to No. 3 fire station on Bruce street, and will prove more commodious and comfortable. A committee was appointed to look after the refurnishing of the rooms and to make them cosy and inviting.

W. C. T. U. REGULAR MEETING.

A large audience assembled at Somerset Hall yesterday afternoon to hear Mrs. M. O. Kimball, of Fredonia, New York, tell of her experience in prison work.

Rev. Mr. Claris was also present at the meeting, and gave at the opening service a very profitable Bible reading from Nehemiah xiii., 15.

The educational programme on Sabbath observance which had been prepared for the day, was laid over for the next meeting.

Mrs. (Rev.) T. S. Johnston, Mrs. Mimms, South London, and several others will take part. The Shoppers' League will be formed and literature will be distributed to all prisoners.

THE SIXTH WARD ELECTION.

The city clerk has issued a proclamation setting the date of the election to fill the vacancy in the aldermanic representation of No. 6 ward. The nominations will take place on Thursday, May 7, between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock, noon, at James Connor's house, Bruce street. The polling will take place on May 14.

The polling subdivisions and deputy returning officers are the same as in the last municipal election:

Subdivision No. 1—John Bloomfield's house, Wellington street; James Rowland, deputy returning officer.

Subdivision No. 2—Alfred Cave's house, Marley Place; James Westland, deputy returning officer.

Subdivision No. 3—Mrs. Holborne's house, Euclid avenue; John G. Pritchett, deputy returning officer.

Subdivision No. 4—James Connor's house, Bruce street; James Thorburn, deputy returning officer.

Subdivision No. 5—S. S. Armitage's store, Wharncliffe highway and Stanley streets; Charles Hessell, deputy returning officer.

No Settlement Yet

In the Springbank Incline Railway Matter—Mr. Powell's Proposal Before the Water Commissioners.

Mr. Joseph Powell, of Hamilton, has been in the city for several days past in connection with his scheme to construct an inclined railway in the waterworks park at Springbank. At the meeting of the water commissioners yesterday afternoon, Mr. Powell presented his proposal in writing, by which it was indicated that the line was to be constructed at some point near the pump house, and that a steel observatory should be built near the reservoir. "It is our intention," said Mr. Powell, "to build an attractive, safe and convenient railway with double tracks. The hoisting apparatus will be provided with loose safety cables and equal weight and strength to prevent the possibility of any slip or accident. The roadbed will be equipped with 60 or 65 pound T rails, with a woven steel wire fence six feet high between the double tracks, and also on the outside. As this undertaking is a speculative venture, and the profits altogether problematic, and as the city is bound to be greatly benefited by it, the promoters feel that the city should meet them in the enterprise in a liberal manner by granting them the lease for 30 years, renewable at no greater amount than would make them tenants of the property."

Mr. Powell added that it would cost between $30,000 and $40,000 to build the railway, and that to make interest on the sum the promoters would have to chustle.

The commissioners were puzzled as to the conditions on which they should allow the line to be constructed.

Mr. Powell finally agreed to pay $200 a year, and the commissioners asked time to consider the matter.

TWO TROLLEY VICTIMS

In Toronto—One Dead, the Other Dying.

Toronto, Ont., April 29.—A fatal trolley accident occurred here this morning. As a car was speeding down an incline it came in contact with a wagon in which were two men named Chillman and Notley. Notley was thrown beneath the car and died shortly after he was extricated. Chillman's injuries will also prove fatal.

IN FLAMES!

Flesherton Has a Big Blaze—The Town Once Threatened.

Orangeville, Ont., April 29.—Word reached here early this morning that the town of Flesherton was in danger of being entirely wiped out by fire. Telegraphic communication is cut off as yet.

Flesherton, Ont., April 29.—The fire this morning at one time threatened to destroy the entire business portion of the town, but by heroic efforts of the citizens, was confined to Richardson's grain warehouse and a few adjoining buildings. Over 20,000 bushels of grain were destroyed.

It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

GUELPH'S BLOWING.

Mr. Wm. McIlroy, who some people thought was going to London, has finally decided to play baseball in Guelph for 1896. If anybody should ask you, he covers third bag. The London club will naturally feel bad in getting left on McIlroy, but some say they have only got their deserts, as they negotiated with him and offered him a substantial money consideration before the rules had been changed, and when the league was supposed to be purely amateur.—Guelph Mercury.

McILROY BACKS OUT.

Wm. McIlroy, of Guelph, who signed to play third base with the Alerts, has telegraphed that he will not come to London. The matter will be laid before the league board, and the Alerts will try to make him respect this contract. They had relied on him thoroughly to hold down third bag, and unless he comes, will be crippled to that extent. Guelph wants McIlroy badly.

TORONTO'S GOOD BALL.

Shamokin, Pa., April 29.—Jack Milligan's State League team proved to be easy prey for the Torontos in yesterday's game. The weather was very unfavorable for ball playing, but the visitors put up a snappy game, and batted the ball all over the field. Dineen pitched a strong game. Score:

LOVE AND LUCRE

The old woman stood sadly shivering; her poor old eyes, a little dimmed with tears, were directed southward toward the far-away vanishing point of the rough and narrow road which meandered over the moor and lost itself among the hills.

She was waiting for the arrival of a cart which a poor neighbor had promised to borrow, and take her and her few belongings to the nearest village, where there was a good road, over which she might walk to a place where paupers were taken care of. A narrow stream, which roared and rushed around over many a rock, ran at several points close to the road, and, swelled by heavy rains, had overflowed it to a depth of a foot or more. The old woman and the two men in the doorway of the hut stood and waited for the cart to come.

As they waited, heavy clouds began to rise in the north, and there was already a drizzle of rain. At last they saw a little black spot upon the road, which soon proved to be a cart drawn by a rough pony. On it came, until they could almost hear it splashing through the water where the stream had passed its bounds, or rattling over the rough stones in other places, but, to their surprise, there were two persons in the cart. Perhaps the boy Sawney had with him a traveler who was on his way north.

This was true. Sawney had picked up a traveler who was glad to find a conveyance going across the moor to his destination. This man was a quick-moving person in a heavy waterproof coat with its collar turned up over his ears.

As soon as the cart stopped near the hut he jumped down and approached the two men in the doorway.

"Is that the Widow McLeish?" he said, pointing to the old woman.

They assured him that he was correct, and he approached her.

"You are Mrs. Margaret McLeish?" said he.

She looked at him in a vague sort of way and nodded. "That's me," said she. "Is it pay for the cart you're after? If that's it, I must walk."

"Had you a son, Mrs. McLeish?" said the man.

"Ay," said she, and her face brightened a little.

"And what was his name?"

"Andy," was the answer.

"And his calling?"

"A sailor man."

"Well, then," said the traveler in the waterproof, "there is no doubt that you are the person I came here to see; I was told I should find you here, and here you are. I may as well tell you at once, Mrs. McLeish, that your son is dead."

"That is no news," she answered; "I knew that he must be dead."

"But I didn't come here only to tell you that. There is money coming to you through him, enough to make you comfortable for the rest of your life."

"Money" exclaimed the old woman. "To me?"

The two men who had been standing in the doorway of the hut drew near, and Sawney jumped down from the cart. The announcement made by the traveler was very interesting.

"Yes," said the man in the waterproof, pulling his collar up a little higher, for the rain was increasing, "you are to have one hundred and four pounds a year, Mrs. McLeish, and that's two pounds a week, you know, and you will have it as long as you live."

"Two pounds a week!" cried the old woman, her eyes shining out of her weazened old face like two grouse eggs in a nest. "From my Andy?"

"Yes, from your son," said the traveler; and as the rain was now much more than a drizzle, and as the wind was cold, he made his tale as short as possible.

He told her that her son had died far away in South America, and, from what he had gained there, one hundred and four pounds a year would be coming to her, and that she might rely on them as long as she lived. He did not state—for he was not acquainted with all the facts—that Shirley and Burke, when they were in San Francisco hunting up the heirs of the Castor's crew, had come upon traces of the A. McLeish whose body they had found in the desert, lying flat on its back, with a bag of gold clasped to its breast; that they had discovered by means of thea gent through whom McLeish had been in the habit of forwarding money to his mother, the address of the old woman, and, without saying anything to Captain Horn, they had determinerd to do something for her.

The fact that they had profited by the gold her son had carried away from the cave, was the main reason for this action, and although, as Shirley said, it might appear that the Scotch sailor was a thief, it was true, after all, he had as much right to a part of the gold he had taken as Captain Horn could have. Therefore, as they had possessed themselves of his treasure, they thought it but right that they should provide for hism other. So they bought an annuity for her in Edinburgh, thinking this better than sending her the total amount, which they considered to be her share, not knowing what manner of woman she might be, and they arranged that an agent should be sent to look her up, and announce to her her good fortune. It had taken a long time to attend to all these matters, and it was now late in the autumn.

"You must not stand out in the rain, Mrs. McLeish," said one of the men, and he urged her to come back into the hut. He said he would build a fire for her, and she and the gentleman from Edinburgh could sit down and talk over matters. No doubt there will be some money in hand, he said, out of which the rent could be paid; and, even if this should not be the case, he knew the landlord would be willing to wait a little under the circumstances.

"Is there money in hand for me?" asked the old woman.

"Yes," said the traveler. "The annuity was to begin with October, and it is now the first of November, so there is eight pounds due to you."

"Eight pounds!" she exclaimed after a moment's thought. "It must be more than that. There's 31 days in October!"

"That's all right, Mrs. McLeish," said the traveler. "I will pay you the right amount; but I really think you had better come into your house; for it is going to be a bad afternoon, and I must get away as soon as I can; I will go as I came, in the cart; for you won't want it now."

Mrs. McLeish stood up as straight as she could, and glanced from the traveler to the two men who had put her out of her home. Then, in the strongest terms her native Gaelic would afford, she addressed these two men. She assured them that, sooner than enter that contemptible little hut again, she would sleep on the bare moor. She told them to go to their master, and tell him that she did not want his house, and that he could live in it himself, if he chose; that she was going in the cart to Killimontrick, and she would take lodgings in the inn there until she could get a house fit for the habitation of the mother of a man like her son Andy; and that if their master had anything to say about the rent that was due; they could tell him that he had satisfied himself by turning her out of her home, and if he wanted anything more, he could whistle for it, or if he did not choose to do that, he could send his factor to whistle for it in the main street of Killimontrick.

"Come, Sawney, boy; put my two bundles in the cart, and then help me in; the gentleman will drive, and I'll sit on the seat beside him, and you can sit behind in the straw, and —— you're sure, sir, it's two pounds a week, sir?" she said to the traveler, who told her that she was right, and then she continued to Sawney, "I'll make your mother a present, which will help the poor old thing through the winter, and I'm sure she needs it.

With a heavier load than he had brought, the pony's head was turned homeward, and the cart rattled away over the rough stones and splashed through water on the roadway, and in the dark cloud which hung over the highest mountain beyond the moor, there came a little glint of lighter sky, as if the luster from the Incas' gold had penetrated even into this gloomy region.

The War in Cuba.

Dynamite Used to Wreck the Palace of the Governor at Havana.

Reported Death of Gen. Gomez—A Big American Expedition on the Way to Cuba.

Havana, April 29.—An explosion, believed to be due to dynamite, occurred in the palace of the Governor-General at 11:30 yesterday morning, while the correspondent of the Associated Press was waiting in the anteroom for the first batch of news of the day.

The detonation was sharp, and part of the palace fell in. The explosion occurred in a closet situated in a low story or basement under the City Hall. The walls were torn, great stones fell, and a printer belonging to the captain-general's office was wounded. It was at first believed that the steam boiler had exploded, but when it was found to be intact it was at once suspected that the insurgents were at the bottom of the trouble. The greatest excitement prevails.

New York, April 29.—A dispatch to the World from Havana says: Report is current that Gen. Gomez had a leg amputated and died from the effects of the operation. Another report is that he is well and has arrived at Placetas, twenty miles west of Santa Clara.

The Spaniards are still concentrating troops along the trocha. There must be 50,000 now operating against Gen. Maceo.

New York, April 29.—The Recorder says: The largest expedition ever sent to Cuba since the revolution broke out is now being organized in this city. It will be composed of several ships, and its chief object is to provide the army of Gen. Maximo Gomez with artillery.

A dispatch to the Madrid Imparchial from Havana says that a sharp fight has occurred at Puerto Maravi, between a band of insurgents and the gunboats of Pizarro and Alvarado. The commander of the Pizarro and another officer was seriously wounded. It is believed that the losses of the insurgents were heavy.

CHURCH TROUBLES.

The New York Presbytery Defies the General Assembly.

New York, April 29.—Monday's session of the New York Presbytery was exceedingly lively, and the result of a three hours' debate was that the Presbytery refuses to be governed by the General Assembly, and will issue licenses to ministers on its own account in spite of the protests of the latter body.

The trouble arose over an order of the General Assembly enjoining them not to receive under its care for licensure students who are pursuing or purpose to pursue their studies in theological seminaries respecting whose teaching the General Assembly disavows responsibility.

SUDDEN DEATH IN HAMILTON.

Hamilton, April 29.—There was a terribly sudden death in Hall & Co.'s grocery, Market Square, about 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, Mr. Allan Aldrich, a drummer, falling dead in an instant. Deceased was a representative of Heintz, Son & Co., pickles and vinegar manufacturers, Pittsburg, Pa., and was talking about his goods, when he said, "My head pains me," and sat on a stool. Mr. Hall went for a glass of water, and in the meantime Mr. Aldrich fell over on a bundle of mats and expired. Mr. Aldrich's father-in-law, Mr. V. O. Wisner, of Brantford, took the body to Brantford next morning. Mr. Aldrich and wife lived in a suburb of Buffalo. He was 61 years of age and had been on the road for 30 years.

Marriage is the only partnership not entered into on business principles, and that failures occur should not excite our special wonder.

STARVATION!

THE NEIGHBORS COULDN'T BELIEVE IT, BUT IT WAS SO.

HOW PEOPLE STARVE BEHIND LOCKED DOORS.

Young, beautiful, alone. She lay as if quietly sleeping. Kindly neighbors came too late with food and nourishment. They questioned with unbelieving wonder:

"Dead: Can it be?"

'Starvation? Impossible! O, if we had only come in yesterday! But the door was locked, we could not get in. Our own tables over-ran with plenty, while this poor and proud young heroine lay alone and starving. O, the pity of it; and IT NEED NEVER HAVE BEEN!"

What is starvation? How few understand it. How many starve unknowingly with plenty all about them. Is starvation a lack of bread and meat and milk and nourishing diet? Not always. Think of the thousands of consumptives who die every year surrounded with the choicest delicacies which loving hands can supply. The daintiest and most nutritious food, full of life-giving elements which somehow never reach the wasting lung tissues. Why not? Can you answer? No matter how much food is eaten, nor how well it is prepared, the patient gains no vitality, no energy, no nourishment, but grows weaker and sickller from day to day. The delicate food might as well be locked outside the door for all the good it does. Can you understand it? Do you know what is at the root of the trouble? The lungs are crying for healthy blood; they do not get it; they are starving; consumption is lung starvation.

There is no need of nine out of ten of the annual deaths from consumption. It can be cured. It IS cured. There is no more necessity of lung stravation than there is of any other kind of starvation. When the lungs are fed with healthy blood, they heal; they are restored; the patient recovers. This is not an imaginary case, not a mere theory; it is a proven fact. Thousands of so-called incurable consumptives are completely and permanently cured every year by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It makes rich and healthy blood. It enriches the circulation with life-giving corpuscles; it recharges and vitalizes the lung cells with a pure, fresh, health-giving current which nourishes, renews and builds up the tissues; heals the lungs, sound and strong; strengthens and repairs the throat and bronchial tubes, and invigorates the entire constitution.

In all the diseases of blood starvation the difficulty is to get to the starving tissues the nourishment for which they are perishing. It is at hand, but the diseased system will not take it. The doors of life, as we may say, are obstinately locked against relief. "The Golden Medical Discovery" unlocks them. It imparts power to the blood-making glands to extract sustenance from the food and manufacture an abundance of pure nutrition. "The Discovery" makes the stomach do its digestive work, and the liver perform its cleansing functions. Fresh life is poured into the circulation and the foul poisons are forced out.

All bronchial and throat affections and lingering coughs; debilitated "run-down" nervous conditions; digestive and bilious disorders; liver complaint; scrofula and other obscure diseases of mal-nutrition are simply different forms of starvation. Every cough is a call for nourishing blood; every twinge of pain is the cry of a starving nerve. Nervous prostration is only the starvation of the nervous system. Supply the circulation with healthy blood, and every nerve will drink up life and power. No nerve food or emulsion was ever invented equal to the "Golden Medical Discovery" in marvelous restorative influence on a shattered and broken down nervous system.

Corpulent people, whose superfluous flesh is only a burden, find the "Discovery" a tonic and strengthener, which does not add one ounce of adipose tissue or flabby fat; but by its clarifying effect upon the blood, maintains the even standard of robust, active, energetic health, creating force, hard muscle and solid flesh.

The life-long reputation of Dr. Pierce as a widely-experienced practitioner and eminent authority on the treatment of chronic diseases, makes his "Golden Medical Discovery" a recognized standard remedy throughout the world. For nearly thirty years he has been chief consulting physician to the Invalid's Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., the model sanitarium of America. During this period he, with his staff of physicians, has treated many thousands of patients and has probably had a wider experience with obstinate chronic diseases than any living physician. His prescriptions are universally esteemed as the product of rare familiarity with the materia medica, a deep understanding of human physiology and unique genius in adapting poweful, natural remedies to the cure of special diseases.

Womankind, by tens of thousands, have testified their gratitude for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of diseases peculiar to the special organism of women; and his "Pleasant Pellets" are everywhere accepted as the most perfect laxative and are a permanent cure for obstinate constipation.

The unparalleled superiority of these remedies is so well understood that the efforts of some unscrupulous druggists to substitute other medicines in place of Dr. Pierce's is unsuccessful with intelligent purchasers. They realize that the attempt is a direct imputation upon their own good sense and judgment of what they prefer, and resent it accordingly.

"I was so sick with dyspepsia that I could not eat anything for four months," writes Mrs. Rebecca F. Gardner, of Grafton, York county, Va. "I had to starve myself, as nothing would stay on my stomach. I tried almost everything, that people would tell me about, and nothing did me any good until one day in November last my husband got his mail and in it was one of your little books. I noticed the testimonials of some persons who had tried your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I was so badly off I could not eat even a cracker, but it would nearly kill me. I thought I was going to die. I weighed only 80 pounds. I took two bottles of the 'Discovery,' and, thank God, and your medicine, I am as well as I ever was, and now weigh 125 pounds. I have got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' now and that is a wonderful medicine for female weakness. I tell everybody about my cure, and all those who live close to me think it miraculous that I am looking so well. I was in bed most of the time. Could not do any work four months ago. Now I do all my housework and attend to some out-door work, such as attending to the cows and fowls."

"I feel like taking you by the hand and saying, 'Thank God, you have saved my wife,' for we had given her up." Thus writes Mr. Thomas McGill, of Blue Rock, Muskingum county, Ohio, to Dr. Pierce. "We sat by her when the doctor said she could not live till morning; so bad was her lung disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured her."

When Mrs. McGill's case was reported to the specialists of the Invalids' Hotel, she was suffering from pain in the chest, struggling for breath, hard dry cough; jarring hurt the chest; short breath; backache; uterine disease; feet and ankles swollen; was confined to house; was given up by her home physician. Her disease began six years before and was attended by bleeding from lungs.

"I can gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to all suffering from diseases for which you recommend it," writes Mr. John M. Hite, of Audubon, Audubon county, Iowa. "In the summer of 1888 I took a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and chest, and I suffered intensely with it. I tried several of our best physicians here and they gave up all hopes of my recovery, and my friends thought I would have to die, and I thought so myself, as the doctors did not know what was the matter with me. In the morning, on rising, I would cough and spit blood for two hours, and I was pale and weak and not able to work any. I then ran across Dr. Pierce's advertisement and came to the conclusion that I would try the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' as it was so highly recommended. I was greatly discouraged when I began the use of the 'Discovery,' but after I had taken four or five bottles I then noticed I was getting better, and I could stand it to work some, and kept on taking it till I took about twenty bottles. It has been five years since I took it and have had no return of that trouble since. I gladly recommend your medicine for I know it saved my life."

"I was troubled with throat and lung disease for about two years and lost strength so that I was unable to do much work," writes Mrs. Julia White, of Willow Creek, Blue Earth county, Minn. "I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and can say that it did more good than any other medicine that I ever took. I am now able to do my work, and enjoy good health."

"I am feeling well at the present time," writes Mrs. Traphagen, of No. 6 Front street, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. "I took fourteen bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I had chronic sore throat, hoarseness, sore chest, rheumatism in my arms, and was very much run down. The doctor here at home said one lung was effected and that I had symptoms of consumption. I know that the 'Golden Medical Discovery' was the cause of my regaining my health."

"Having felt it my duty to write to you of the good I received by taking your medicine," writes Mrs. Mira Mills, of Sardis, Big Stone county, Minn., "I now would say, that one year ago I was given up by my family physician and friends; all said I must die. My lungs were badly affected, and body reduced to a skeleton. My people commenced to give me your 'Medical Discovery,' and I soon began to mend. It was not long before I became well enough to take charge of my household duties again. I owe my recovery to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

"Before taking the 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. John Lincoln, of Glen Annan, Huron county, Ont., "I would have four or five bad coughing spells every day and would cough up mouthfuls of solid white froth, and before I took one bottle it stopped it. I could not walk across the room with the pain in my back, and sides; but soon the pain was all gone, and I could sleep well at night. My general health is much better since I have taken the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' although I have been obliged to work hard on a farm."

One of the most instructive and interesting works of the day is Dr. Pierce's free book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a thousand-and-eight-page volume of sensible, professional advice and accurate description of human physiology in every detail. Written in plain English, and with numerous receipts and prescriptions for home treatment of simple diseases, and illustrated with over 300 wood-cuts and colored plates. It is a complete family medical library in one volume. Six hundred and eighty thousand copies were sold at $1 50 each. The profit enables Dr. Pierce to send out the present edition of half a million copies absolutely free to any one who sends 21 cents in one-cent stamps (to pay the cost of customs and mailing only) and the little numbered coupon printed here, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is the president. The book is precisely the same as that sold for $1 50 except that this free edition is in heavy paper binding. If you prefer French cloth, embossed covers, send ten cents extra (31 cents in all) to pay the additional cost of this more handsome and more substantial binding.

FATAL FIRE—LOSS $250,000.

Paris, Texas, April 29.—A fire, involving loss of life and $250,000 worth of property, started in the three-story building of J. K. Bywaters, on South Main street, yesterday morning, and spread to the warehouse of M. F. Allen & Co., the Clements building and Hotel Peterson. The fire raged until seven o'clock. John Saulsman, a tie inspector, from Wister, I. T., was suffocated and burned to death. There is a suspicion that he was murdered and the building set on fire to conceal the crime. While the firemen were playing on the ruins, a wall fell, killing S. S. Ramsay and fatally injuring Louis Rootche.

The Time for Building

Up the system is at this season. The cold weather has made unusual drains upon the vital forces. The blood has become impoverished and impure, and all the functions of the body suffer in consequence. Dr. Arnott,

One of our leading physicians, after trying Postum Cereal, has decided to use it as a table beverage, to the exclusion of coffee, as it not only pleases his own taste, but also that of his family. The doctor states that in his belief there are at least 25 per cent of the inhabitants of the globe who should not drink coffee, on account of its injurious properties, but until Postum was brought to his notice he had not seen an article that would take its place, retaining a flavor of coffee, without being compounded with it, and if it is made of the ingredients claimed, it will be a blessing to humanity. Call on your grocer and try it. b

David Young, of Oxford county, Me., is 92 years old, and is now cutting a new set of teeth. He is remarkably healthy and agile, reading without glasses, and doing much of the work about his farm.

KNOCKED OUT BY HAILSTONES.

Cincinnati, April 29.—Miss Lenore Smith, a student at Mount Union College, while on her way home, was caught in the recent storm. She was struck on the head by the large hailstones, knocked down, and was unconscious for three hours. She has been ill ever since with concussion of the brain.

FOUND A WOMAN'S HEAD.

Buffalo, April 29.—John Hoag, a farmer near Orchard Park, procured a load of manure in this city, and took it to his farm. In spreading it on the land, he uncovered the head of a woman. The head was wrapped in a Buffalo newspaper, and there is a bullet hole in the occipital region. Hoag is unable to tell where he got the head, as he has been hauling manure from several livery stables. The police are trying to locate the body from which the head was severed.

HANGED HIM TO SAVE HIS LIFE.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 29.—Wm. Penn, an Indian living at Elmwood Place, was seriously injured about the spine on Jan. 2 by being buried under several tons of ice at Chester Lake ice house in St. Bernard. Since that time Penn has been unable to move, and his physicians decided to adopt heroic measures. The other evening he was hung by the neck and left in that position for several hours until his spine had again assumed its normal position. A strap was placed under his shoulders to avoid strangulation. He was able to walk about next morning.

Blood purified, disease cured, sickness and suffering prevented—this is the record made each year by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

One of the hardest things in all public functions is to keep the brass band from mistaking itself for the entire procession.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than a half-bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

—The executive of the Young Liberal Club will meet for the transaction of most important business tonight, Wednesday, at 8 o'clock sharp.

—The eighth annual convention of the Baptists of Ontario and Quebec will be held in the Olivet Baptist Church, Montreal, May 26 to June 2.

—The Berlin Daily News says: Mr. T. L. Belcher, the well-known London, Ont., commercial traveler, conducted a prayer meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. He is a genial, whole-souled gentleman, and makes friends wherever he goes. His meeting was largely attended.

—The regular weekly meeting of the water commissioners was held in the City Hall yesterday afternoon, Commissioners Judd (chairman) and Cowan, Secretary Elwood, Engineer Moore and Inspector Plastow being present. Engineer Moore gave notice that the loss by the fire at the waterworks storehouse on York street, amounted to $352 on building and $750 on stock. The chairman added that he had signed the claim paper and received a check for the insurance of the stock and that the company carrying the policy was prepared to give the commissioners a check for the amount of damage to the building. Mr. P. Walsh, 110 Dundas street, informed the board that he was willing to dispose of the Redmond Ponds, and would agree to the commissioners' making the purchase either with or without first testing the quality of the water. The matter was laid over for further consideration. The board granted a request from Mr. V. Cronyn, to have a meter placed in his residence on Dundas street. On the recommendation of the engineer, it was also decided to lay a main for four new cottages on Nightingale avenue, owned by Mr. A. Keenleyside, provided Mr. Keenleyside will guarantee the constant use of water in the places. The main will cost $250.

MUST SPARE THE REDBREASTS.

The Game Warden intends to open a campaign against the small boys and others who shoot robins and blue birds with catapults. The law is specific in protecting insectivorous birds, and almost all the common flyers except sparrows and crows come under that definition. The small boy must therefore confine his attentions to the latter birds and let robbins and blue birds alone.

SLEEPLESSNESS is due to nervous excitement. The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation necessitates great mental strain or worry, all suffer less or more from it. Sleep is the great restorer of a worried brain, and to get sleep cleanse the stomach from all impurities with a few doses of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, gelatine coated, containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

If you want a good, bright, cheerful light for the long nights, get Lilywhite Oil. Ask your grocer for it. It's the best lamp oil now offered. We don't supply peddlers. Gasoline, benzine, cylinder and machine oils at lowest price. 'Phone 307.—Empire Oil Co.

THEATRICAL SCANDAL.

Thomas Seabrooke, the Well Known Comedian, Sued for Alimony—Cruelty Alleged.

New York, April 29.—Thomas Q. Seabrooke, of comic opera fame, who is now appearing in "The Speculator" at the Fifth Avenue Theater, was yesterday served with a notice that on Thursday his wife will apply to Justice Smyth in the Supreme Court for alimony and counsel fee, pending her action for separation, on the ground of cruelty and abandonment. Mrs. Seabrooke is an actress. She was a footlight favorite when she and Seabrooke were married, July 24, 1883. She went under the stage name of Elvia Crox. Mrs. Seabrooke alleges that her husband beat her several times. On one of these occasions, she says, he tore her dress from her body. Intoxication is also alleged in the wife's affidavit.

Mrs. Seabrooke does not intend to get an absolute divorce, which would give him a chance to marry her rival. That is why she has merely begun action for separation. Mr. Hummel intends that the alimony shall be ample, if he can urge it on the courts, as Seabrooke's income is from $10,000 to $20,000 a year. He was recently offered $300 a week by A. M. Palmer.

EXODUS FROM QUEBEC.

Many French Canadians Going to New England This Season to Look for Work.

Quebec, April 29.—A great many French-Canadians are leaving the Province of Quebec for New England this spring. On the last train that passed safely over the iron bridge at St. Anseline, three minutes before it was carried away by the ice, were 148 Canadians going to the States in search of work. It is probable that the Grand Trunk, the Canadian Pacific, and their connections carry as many as the Quebec Central. This exodus has been going on for the last month, and will probably continue for some time. Over 60 operatives from the city of Quebec left here one day last week for New Hampshire. Most of the emigrants, however, are from country parishes below Quebec along the Intercolonial Railway. They want work as factory operatives, brickmakers, and farm hands.

It used to be said that many of the emigrants returned here at the end of the summer season, but this is now known to be incorrect in most cases, as the number of deserted farms in Quebec Province testifies.
