I. COURSE OF STUDY.

According to the Regulations of the College, the Full Course of Study extends over five Sessions, and is divided into a Literary Course of two Sessions, and a Theological Course of three Sessions. Candidates for admission to the Full Course must be prepared to pass the Matriculation Examination of the McGill University, in the following subjects:—

Classics, Mathematics, and English.

In Classics.—Latin Grammar, Greek Grammar, and one easy Latin and one easy Greek author. The authors recommended are:—Cæsar; Sallust; Virgil (Æneid B. I.); Xenophon (Anabasis, B. I.); Homer (Iliad B. I.).

In Mathematics.—Arithmetic; Algebra, to Simple Equations, inclusive; Euclid's Elements, Books I. II. and III.

In English.—Writing, dictation.

For the literary and scientific subjects of the Full Course, the students attend the classes of the Faculty of Arts in McGill College, according to the terms of affiliation with the University, in which Faculty the Full Course extends over four years and leads to the Degree of B.A. But in the Third and Fourth Years, Theological students are allowed exemption from attendance on certain classes, should they desire it. Thus the studies of the Third and Fourth Years of the Full Course are prosecuted simultaneously in the Faculty of Theology and in the Faculty of Arts. The work of the Fifth Year is confined to the Faculty of Theology.

The following is the course of study in the University which students in Theology must pass through in order to obtain the Degree of B.A. :—

First Year.—Classics; French or German or Hebrew; English Literature; Pure Mathematics; History; Elementary Chemistry.

Second Year.—Classics; French or German or Hebrew; English Literature; Logic; Pure Mathematics; Botany.

Third Year.—Classics; English Literature; Mental and Moral Philosophy; Mixed Mathematics; Zoology.

Fourth Year.—Classics; Mental and Moral Philosophy; Mixed Mathematics; Mineralogy and Geology.

The Theological Course proper begins with the Third Year of the Full Course, and extends over three full Sessions. It embraces the following subjects:—(1) Systematic Theology; (2) Historical Theology; (3) Pastoral Theology; (4) Homiletics; (5) Greek Testament Exegesis; (6) Church History; (7) Evidences and Biblical Literature.

In both Departments, the Session begins at the middle of September; and examinations are held at Christmas and at the end of the Session in the several subjects of the year. Students must pass these examinations as a condition of maintaining their proper status. Candidates who are admitted to the Theological Course proper ("Shorter"), in accordance with §3, Chap. IV. of the Regulations, are required to attend such classes in McGill College as the Faculty of Theology may deem expedient and also to pass the examinations of such classes.

Furthermore, he is expected to be as regular as possible in his attendance upon the services, ordinances and church-meetings of the Church to which he belongs during his College course.

(8) Moved by the Rev. J. A. R. DICKSON; seconded by the Rev. JOHN FRASER; and resolved:—

That this meeting, while cherishing the belief that the most earnest efforts are demanded in order to secure for the rising ministry as high a form of scholarship as possible, is, at the same time, deeply sensible of the supreme importance of the Holy Spirit's influence; and, therefore, earnestly asks the churches, as heretofore, to observe the second Sunday in October as a day of special prayer, that holy and gifted men may be called to the work of the ministry, and that all the operations of the College may prosper during the coming session.

(11) After special prayer and thanksgiving by the Rev. W. F. CLARKE, the Corporation adjourned.

RICHARD LEWIS,
Minute-Secretary.

Montreal, June the 8th, 1872.

V. REPORT FOR SESSION 1871-2.

The Board of Directors of the Congregational College of B. N. A. beg to submit to the Corporation the following as their Report of the proceedings and condition of the College during the thirty-third Session of its operations.

The Session of 1871-72 was formally opened with a public service in Zion Church in the presence of your Board, the professors and students of the College, and a goodly audience. An able address, on the topic of Theology in relation to Modern Thought, was delivered by the Rev. Chas. Chapman, M.A. Another pleasing feature of the proceedings was the delivery by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher of a stimulating and characteristic address to the students. The College is under great obligation to both Mr. Chapman and Mr. Beecher for their valuable services on this occasion.

The students immediately entered upon the work proper to the Session in the classes of the Faculty of Arts, McGill College, and in those of the Theological Course in this Institution. Their attendance and conduct, have been, on the whole, commendable:—of their progress your Board will report in the sequel.

During the past Session four Candidates for admission presented themselves, and, after the usual probation, they were admitted to the standing of students of the College taking the Full Course. Their names and churches are:—

- (1) Finlay Malcolm, Scotland, Ont.
- (2) Richard Burgess, East Tilbury, Ont.
- (3) James R. Black, Zion Church, Montreal.
- (4) Zenas Crowell, Liverpool, Nova Scotia.

Of those on the books during the previous Session the following have been in attendance the whole of this, viz:—(5) Duncan McGregor, B.A.; (6) R. W. Wallace; (7) D. D. Nighswander; (8) Joseph Griffith; (9) W. H. A. Claris; (10) John Allworth;

(11) E. D. Silcox; (12) Wm. McIntosh; (13) John W. Clarke. Thus there have been thirteen students on the books and funds of the College, and in actual attendance during the past Session. After the depression that existed a few years ago, this increase in number is gratifying.

The Session closed at the stated time and with the usual examinations, except in the class of Prof. Cornish. The Rev. Chas. Chapman, M.A., and the Rev. A. Duff, kindly gave their assistance in conducting the examinations in the Department of Theology, for which service the thanks of the College are due to these gentlemen.

In the final examination in the Faculty of Arts of the University, Messrs. Wallace and Allworth successfully passed for the degree of B.A., the former with First Rank Honours in Mental and Moral Philosophy.

The progress of the junior students in the work of the Faculty of Arts has not been altogether satisfactory to your Board. For this, large allowance must be made in favour of these students on the score of inadequate preparation and inexperience and unacquaintance with the methods of working pursued. It is greatly to be desired that pastors and churches were more conversant with the course of study and the amount and character of the preparation required for entrance, since in that case they would be in a better position for advice and recommendations to candidates for admission. Your Board are more firmly convinced than ever of the importance of insisting upon the students taking the Full Course of study in order to adequate preparation for their future work. The short Theological Course must be allowed only in carefully selected and exceptional cases. And they would have it made known throughout the churches that the Full Course of study, if honestly pursued, is one that is sufficient to occupy all the time and thought that the student can give to it, and to make his college-life anything but one of ease and indifference. But the training thus secured, and the knowledge thus gained, are a rich reward for all his toil, the value of which he will more highly appreciate every year of his public ministry.

The following students have completed their course and have received certificates to that fact from your Board, viz :—

Messrs. Duncan McGregor, B. A. ; R. W. Wallace, B. A. ; W. H. A. Clarris, and D. D. Nighswander. They leave enjoying the confidence and best wishes of your Board for their future usefulness and success.

The following are the reports of the work and examinations in the Department of Theology during the past Session.

(1) Dr. Wilkes reports as follows :—

The Session now closed has been one of regular and steady work without interruption on account of ill health on the part of either the teachers or pupils. There have been eight students in the Theological Department, of whom three have now completed their curriculum. One who has remained to complete his Arts Course and to graduate, finished in Theology last year, having enjoyed two sessions under the late Dr. Lillie. The four junior students have not attended any lectures, except a few in Homiletics, but they have taken part in the weekly class-exercises in plans of sermons, homilies, &c., and have been with us in our devotional services once a week.

Being apprehensive that, in some instances, too much had been required last Session of the students who were in the midst of their Arts Course, I made several subjects optional, confining the requirement of attendance to Lectures on Theology, Homiletics, Church History and Biblical Criticism. There were 42 on the first of these subjects, beginning with our Lord's Atonement, passing on to the blessings resulting therefrom, and ending with the Church and its Ordinances. The Homiletical Lectures numbered 14 in addition to the class-exercises. In Church History there were 35, using Kurtz as a text-book, including the 3rd period of the Ancient and Classical form of Development (A.D. 692-1453) the Mediæval and Germanic form of Development. First period, centuries 4-9; Second period, centuries 10-13; Third period centuries 14-15, and the Modern Germanic Development, century 16 (only from 1500 to 1540). Twenty was the number on Biblical Criticism; the part of that wide subject chosen being Old Testament Introduction. Of these we were indebted to the Rev. Charles Chapman, M.A.

for six on the Prophecies by Isaiah, containing a thorough examination of modern adverse criticism. The other fourteen that preceded them were on the Pentateuch, and the books of Joshua and Judges, including observations on the Hebrew language and literature. On two of the above subjects we had written examinations at Christmas as also at the close of the Session. Having a sufficient number of volunteers, I formed a class of five to complete the part of Westcott on the Canon left over from last Session;—a class of three to study Butler's Analogy, Part ii; and one of six to go through Barnes' Evidences of Christianity in the 19th Century. Written examinations have been held on all these subjects, the results of which will be found below. I have again to speak in the highest terms of the uniform punctuality, propriety of conduct, and diligence of the students.

The want of adequate pecuniary resources has grievously interfered with the proper growth of our library. This year we have ventured, rather in faith that money will be forthcoming than as having it in possession, somewhat to improve it by the addition of between forty and fifty volumes of valuable works. We have had also to expend $60.00 either in binding, or rebinding important volumes which must have been lost without it. I have to make special mention of the zeal and efficiency of Mr. Silcox in arranging the books, and superintending the work of reformation thus far accomplished.

The tabular statement of the examinations is placed below with the remark, that, while I personally conducted those at Christmas, the Rev. Charles Chapman, M.A., assisted in the matter of Old Testament Introduction, and the Rev. Archibald Duff in the remaining Sessional Examinations; for these services, and for Mr. Chapman's six able lectures, my thanks and those of the Board of Directors are due.

(2) Professor Cornish reports:—

The work of the class of the Greek Testament Exegesis was carried on regularly up to the Christmas vacation. Since that time, owing to my numerous and pressing engagements, I have been obliged to discontinue it. The early chapters of the Acts of the Apostles were read in class.

GEORGE CORNISH.

Montreal, April 9th, 1872.

The official returns of the standing, attendance, &c., of the students attending the classes of the Faculty of Arts in McGill College, have been duly furnished by the Dean of the Faculty, in accordance with the terms of the affiliation.

Your Board have much pleasure in reporting that the Principal has cheerfully acceded to the respectful invitation of the Corporation, and has spent the month of May in visiting churches, in the interests of the College. His report of his journey is of interest, and importance as a matter of record, and hence your Board recommend that it be printed in the Appendix to this Report. They attach very great importance to such a visitation, inasmuch as, apart from pecuniary considerations, it serves to put the College en rapport with the churches and affords an opportunity of giving valuable information on the studies of the students, the preparation and the amount of work required, and on the general condition of the Institution;—information which is found to be by no means unnecessary. The ignorance of men and churches on things of vital importance to their welfare is often found to be surprisingly great.

Your Board have further pleasure in reporting the completion of the Memorial Fund. The Secretary spent the best part of two months of his vacation in visiting churches in Ontario, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. He everywhere met with a very cordial reception and generous hospitality and willing co-operation on the part of both ministers and people. It is recommended that the Report of the Treasurer of the Fund, herewith presented, together with the subscription-list be printed in the Appendix. And further, that the Fund be placed in trust, and that Messrs. Henry Lyman, Geo. Hague, and Henry Vennor be appointed the Trustees. Your Board have deemed it necessary that the sum paid to Mrs. Lillie for the past year from the College Funds should be reimbursed from the assets of the Lillie Memorial Fund. The thanks of the Corporation are due to the Principal and Secretary for the valuable services they have, by their respective visitations, rendered to the College.

The statement of the Treasurer shows the financial condition of the College. The disbursements have amounted to $3,396.28; of this sum $300 do not fall within the working expenditure proper. The actual expenditure of the year has, therefore, been $3,096.28. The receipts have amounted to $3,669.21; these include $170.81, the balance in hand at the beginning of the year; $83.00 received on account of 1870-71; $1215.24, the grant of Colonial Missionary Society; and $1806.66 contributed by the Churches. Thus a balance of $272.93 is left in the hands of the Treasurer, a gratifying result when the enlarged expenditure of the Session is taken into account.

All which is respectfully submitted by your Board.

CHARLES CHAPMAN, M.A.,

Chairman,

GEORGE CORNISH, LL.D.,

Secretary.

VII. REPORT OF THE LILLIE MEMORIAL FUND.

As the Lillie Memorial Fund was sought for by order of the College Corporation, it is not needful in this report to explain its design, or to vindicate its creation. Suffice it to say, that after waiting sometime for spontaneous responses to printed circular appeals, which were not very productive, the Rev. Professor Cornish undertook an extensive visitation of the Churches, both in Ontario and the Maritime Provinces, which did prove happily successful. Dr. Wilkes undertook to ask friends in Montreal and in Sherbrooke for help, which was readily and liberally granted. The combined results of these efforts fulfilled the conditions on which the sum of £300 sterling was promised by the Colonial Missionary Society, accordingly that sum was obtained. Instructions were given to the Board of Directors on a former occasion to appropriate to this object the Port Stanley Chapel Fund, and such part of the Canada Permanent Building Society Stock as might be needful to complete the $5000. It has been the desire of the Board to encroach as little as practicable on that stock, and to make it the nucleus of a further endowment fund. Such additional endowment is obviously of great importance to the future efficiency of the Institution. Suitably to endow colleges is of recognized utility; and, while it would not be desirable to remove the claims of our College from the practical sympathy and regular aid of its friends, it would be very desirable to have an endowment of at least fifty thousand dollars. With this conviction, it is proposed to make what may be obtained, and may remain over the $5000, the commencement of an Endowment Fund, the appropriation of the revenue from which will form the subject of consideration after some sufficient definite sum is obtained.

The assets of the Fund derived from the several sources, indicated by appended lists and statements amount to $5,182.43.

The sum of three thousand dollars is now held by the Trustees appointed, in suitable bonds having security of the highest class; and they will further invest at the earliest proper opportunity. This fund is properly chargeable with the two years' annuity already paid; it has, indeed, repaid to the general treasury one of the years' annuity, but it is hoped that such repayment, extending over a number of years, will be forthcoming from the interest in excess of six per cent. which may be obtained.

All which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY WILKES,

Interim Treasurer of the L. M. F.

VIII. REPORT OF JOURNEY BY THE PRINCIPAL IN MAY, 1872.

Leaving the night train I reached Brockville early on the 2nd May, and proceeding by rail and stage to Lanark village, fulfilled my first appointment that evening, by preaching a sermon and describing our College work. There will be a contribution from this congregation which would not probably have been made but for the visit—amount $24. The following afternoon the appointment at Lanark First Church was fulfilled in like manner, and $9.25 handed to me as the collection. On Sunday, 5th May, preached twice in Brockville, where $4 were handed to me as part of a contribution which is to follow immediately. One young man connected with Lanark First Church may ere long become one of our students: Mr. Douglas is aiding him in preparation.

Tuesday evening, May 7th, I preached and, according to the course pursued in every instance, described our work and insisted on an annual contribution to the funds of the College, at Belleville; the next evening at Cold Springs, where Mr. Silcox is supplying; and the next at Cobourg occupied for the summer by Mr. Griffith. From the two places last named contributions will be at once taken up and forwarded. The following evening, Friday, I met in the same manner a congregation at Whitby, and received from Mr. Gibbs a contribution of $3 as an earnest of others to be now sought for and remitted.

On Sunday, 12th May, preached to three Congregations, Markham, nine miles onward Stouffville; and three miles further Altona. Though the usual contributions had been remitted, Mr. Day had announced a collection at the two places last named which yielded respectively $11.75 and $2.25. The congregations at the three places were satisfactory as to numbers and attention. The appointment at Manilla was not fulfilled, at the request of Mr. McGregor and friends; and that of Tuesday, at Rugby, failed because of trains behind time and connections missed. But on Wednesday and Thursday evenings I had good congregations in Mr. Sanderson's field, namely, at Oro, nine miles from Rugby, and at Vespra, six miles from Oro. Collection at Oro $4. I am indebted to Mr. Miller of Markham for the drive of nine miles on Sunday, to Mr. Day, for the drive to Altona, and to Mr. Sanderson for conveyance in his carriage about 30 miles on two days and the early morning of the third, free of all charge. On Friday evening a small congregation at Pine Grove listened attentively, and contributed $25.50, of which $16 were handed to me on account.

Hamilton occupied me twice on the Lord's Day, 19th, and we may hope that the future contribution of this vigorous and prosperous church will indicate that the services were not in vain, as affecting the interests of the College. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings were occupied in addressing Congregations at Fergus, Garafraza, Douglas, and Eramosa. Mr. Andrew Gerrie, Rev. Robt. Brown and Rev. M. Archer, and Mr. John Anderson each conferred gratuitous favours by driving me from place to place. The Eramosa Congregation handed me the handsome contribution of $34.60. An early start from Fergus and three lines of railway enabled me to meet Mr. Hindley at St. Thomas on Friday afternoon, Queen's birth-day, who drove me seven miles to Frome where, in the evening, I addressed the last congregation that assembled to listen to me as a deputation from the College Board. The day was my 24th from home, and the sermon and address the twenty-first. I received the kindest treatment throughout, and a generous hospitality from ministerial and other brethren. A very large number of young men in the aggregate have had their attention directed to the claims of our Divine Master upon His young servants in regard to the Christian Ministry. The nature of our college training and the duty of the churches to sustain this important institution have been set before the people in the various places visited. The sum of $84.85 was handed to me, and I hope that, before the accounts are closed, a larger sum additional will be paid in from the several places noted as to make collections, to which Frome should be added. Expenses $45.

Sunday and Monday, 26th and 27th May, were spent in London, taking part in the ordination and settlement, as pastor, of Mr. R. W. Wallace, B.A. But an account of these exercises does not belong to this Report.

HENRY WILKES.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE LILLIE MEMORIAL FUND.

N. B.—At the time of the decease of Dr. Lillie, his friends in Toronto, where a large part of his public life had been spent and most of his official work in Canada had been done, resolved on making a general local effort to raise a fund to be put in trust for the family. The sum of $1100, or thereabouts, was accordingly raised in Toronto alone. This fact is stated, as a matter of simple justice, to account for the absence of the name of Toronto in the following lists.

The payment to her of $300 from June 1, 1871-72, was out of the Fund and is charged below.
