PETERBORO, Aug. 2.—The Pets had another easy afternoon with Brants getting to Coose and Lill for 11 hits. The locals smashed all hard, getting four triples and a double. Manager Rowan lead the team getting three hits in four innings and scoring four runs. Belting retired with a headache in the fourth, Sterling finishing in easy fashion. The six run lead robbed the game of interest. Score:—

Dunlop, the London shortstop, has brought $1,500 from Cleveland. Brantford did a little better yesterday, having secured five runs. Cleveland won while the Athletics lost yesterday, which tightens up the American race still more. Brantford, Paris and Mt. Pleasant will be represented in the Twin City bowling tourney next week. The Hamilton race meet closes today, and the talent is all reported as having done exceedingly well. How far would New York be ahead to-day in the National were it not for good old Matty McGraw jumps into Chicago, loses two games and needs the most one badly. Mathewson pitches it, holds Chicago to five hits and wins. A sure thing that it is easier for Brantford to catch up to Hamilton than overtake Berlin in the Canadian League race. The lacrosse season, as far as Brantford is concerned, is officially ended. Although the local boys made a stir this year, it is admitted by the strongest supporters of the game that it is in the state of decadence. One of the reasons why baseball has secured a hold, is that there is a daily sustained interest in the American game, lacrosse is just a series spread out over a few weeks, and the people these days forget very readily.

BRANTFORD BOWLERS DID CLEVER WORK

Mr. I. Newsome of the Heathers Won First in the Singles at Buffalo Tournament. Brantford bowlers did not come home from the Buffalo tournament empty-handed. I. Newsome of the Heathers was successful in capturing the singles after a hard fight with Clark of Niagara Falls. The Heather bowler had a hard row to hoe, but he stuck to his guns, and by steady and consistent bowling was able to bring home the bacon. This is considered a great win, inasmuch as Mr. Newsome is but a young bowler, and the Telephone City bowlers and public in general are pleased to hear of his victory. Mr. Newsome wins a handsome silver cup and a coffee percolator. Messrs. Frank Read and J. S. Howie won as high as the semi-finals in the doubles, but were defeated by Phillips and Clark of Niagara Falls. These two were nevertheless inside the money. The successful pair won the cup that the Heathers won last year. D. G. Husband was a runner-up in the doubles, but just as he came to semi-finals he unfortunately lost to George Orr of the Toronto Granites. The Brantford bowlers on the whole made a very creditable showing, and were in the thickest of the fray from start to finish.

WON FROM GRAYS IN TEN INNINGS

Leafs at One Stage Had Lead of Six Runs, But It Was Not Enough.

TORONTO, Aug. 2.—It required ten innings yesterday before the Leafs put over the winning run on the Grays, although the issue should have been decided in the ninth but for a phenomenal catch by Center Fielder Powell. This extra inning session was made possible owing to the inability of "Buster" Brown to hold a six run lead, the visitors getting to his slants in such a manner that his removal came in the sixth inning, but with the locals still two to the good, Johnny Lash was the relief merchant, and allowed one run in the seventh and another in the ninth, thus tying it up, as Reisinger, who succeeded "Bill" Bailey in the third, grew better as the game progressed, and with a faster outfielder than Matty McIntyre, might have pulled the game out, as the former failed to get back in time to grab H. Bradley's drive in the tenth, which scored the winning run, although he did manage to stop it with his gloved hand, but was unable to clutch it. Score:— Toronto 11, Grays 8.

MONTEAL BEAT NEWARK

Royals Took Three Out of Four From the Leaders. MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—Montreal made it three out of four from the leaders, by defeating Newark yesterday 5 to 1. Lee was hit hard in the first and eighth innings. Smith was very effective in the pinches and was entitled to shut-out on his work. Slow work in the infield scored Newark's only run. Gilbody's single, Yeager's double and two outs scored two runs in the opener. Lee started the eighth with his only pass. Three singles and Almeida's double followed. Score:— Montreal 5, Newark 1.

BUFFALO BEAT JERSEY CITY

Frill Won His Own Game by Making a Single in the Seventh. BUFFALO, Aug. 2.—Brandon passed Stephens, filling the bases with two out and the score tied, in the seventh to get Jack Frill, and Frill promptly singled to left, driving in two runs, winning from the Bisons 6 to 3. Jersey City 1, Buffalo 6.

ORIOLES BEAT HUSTLERS

Maisel and Egan Each Knocked Out a Home Run. ROCHESTER, Aug. 2.—Baltimore got after D. Martin hard in the second innings yesterday, making four runs, and Hoff, who relieved him in the third, but was little better, Maisel hit the first ball pitched in the first for a home run, and Egan banged one over the left field fence in the second. Cottrell worked good. Score:— Baltimore 6, Rochester 1.

PHILLIES BET CINCINNATI

The Reds Made Many Errors and Dootin's Men Won by 5 to 1. CINCINNATI, Aug. 2.—Philadelphia prouted richly by errors and passed balls combined with a base on balls and a hit in the fourth inning when the Reds staged one of their famous weird spells and the visitors won 5 to 1. Score by innings:— Cincinnati 0, Philadelphia 5.

ATHLETICS LOST TO ST. LOUIS

The Game Went Only Seven Innings on Account of a Storm.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—St. Louis defeated Philadelphia yesterday 5 to 3. The start of the game was delayed twenty minutes by rain, and it ended at the close of the seventh because of darkness caused by an approaching storm. The visitors bunched two doubles off Bender in the sixth, which, coupled with wild throws by Barry and Collins, netted four runs. Score by innings:— St. Louis 5, Philadelphia 3.

CLEVELAND BEAT BOSTON

The Naps Batted Leonard, One of the Red Sox Pitchers, Hard. BOSTON, Aug. 2.—Leonard, one of the Red Sox pitchers, was easy yesterday for the Naps, who won the game 6 to 2, making it three straight. About 400 members of the Boston Lodge of Elks were guests of President McAleer, of the Red Sox, himself an Elk. Score by innings:— Boston 6, Cleveland 2.

WASHINGTON LOST TO DETROIT

Tigers Hit Groom for Six Runs in the Third Inning. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Detroit won the second game of the Washington series here yesterday afternoon 9 to 3 by hitting Groom hard in the third inning when six runs were scored. Gallia and Harper, the relief twirlers, held the Tigers well in check. Score by innings:— Detroit 9, Washington 3.

Soft Ball

The president of the Softball League, has called a meeting of the Executive Monday evening, in the Y. M. C. A.

NEW YORK WON FROM CHICAGO

Cubs Could Do Nothing With Mathewson After the First.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The Cubs took a few liberties with Christy Mathewson in the first inning of yesterday's game, then their liberties ceased. Matty saw one Cub run sully the plate and then settled down to the old familiar swinging masterful delivery, and pitched the Giants to their first victory in this series. The score was 5 to 2, and the outlook for victory wasn't real-bright for either club until the Giants' half of the ninth. Score by innings:— New York 5, Chicago 2.

BOSTON BLANKED ST. LOUIS

The Cardinals Got Only Two Bingles Off Hees. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—The Cardinals gave a pitiful exhibition of how not to play baseball yesterday afternoon against the Boston Braves, losing by score of 8 to 0. Dave, the kid pitcher from Akron, O., who made a favorable impression against the Giants in his first big league game, was exploded as a phenomenon, being hit to all quarters of the field, and contributing one of the errors that sent a run across the pan. Score by innings:— Boston 8, St. Louis 0.

WON IN THE TENTH

Pittsburgh Defeated Brooklyn by 4 Score of 3 to 2. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—It took the Pirates ten innings yesterday to defeat Brooklyn 4 to 3. It was a pitchers' battle in which Allen had the advantage in the first part of the game, and Adams at the finish. Pittsburgh one hit, scored one run in the first three innings; Adams was touched for a single, a double, and a triple. These hits mixed with a sacrifice fly and infield outs gave the Brooklyn two runs. Score by innings:— Pittsburgh 4, Brooklyn 3.

JACK JOHNSON'S OCEAN VOYAGE

He Entertained a Coterie of Friends Very Cordially While on Board.

MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—Social ostracism and rank rebellion marked the progress of Jack Johnson, the black fighter, across the Atlantic according to the story told here when the "Corinthian" came back from London and Havre. He had a merry time at sea, in spite of the trouble that his presence made the purser of the vessel, Jack made little difficulty himself—he was quiet and orderly all of the time—but a Montreal lady rebelled when the pugilist and his white wife were quartered opposite her cabin and made so much fuss that Jack had to be given another room.

The ship had just cleared Quebec when the Montreal lady sought the purser and said that she would not live for ten days opposite Mr. Jack Johnson and his wife. The official tried to prove to her that he was a very quiet man, but his explanations did not go. Nothing but his removal would suit her. The purser sought the fighter and suggested that he take cabin No. 13 on the upper deck, where he would have only half a dozen male associates while there would be no other woman on that deck. Jack rebelled at the mention of No. 13, declaring, it is said, that bad luck had dogged his path for the last year or two and that he did not care to break into Europe from such a fateful cabin.

The purser hastened to his pleading and gave him No. 17.

Held Daily Court
Jack held court daily with a small circle of friends in his cabin or the smoking room. His wife was left entirely to herself with the exception of one lady who took pity on her lonely state and spent several hours with her on the voyage. Both struck to their own quarters very closely and the other passengers made no attempt to draw them out.

Father Neptune took compassion on the black man, for he did not indulge in any capers that made him very sick. The voyage ended just in time to save the champagne cellar of the vessel from going dry, so the officers of the ship said. Jack did not consume so much of the liquor himself but the little coterie of friends with whom he had surrounded himself on the trip across were always ready for a little more and the pugilist was ready to see that they got it.

"Jack did not give us much trouble himself, but we were all glad when the other side was reached," that is the way the officers of the Corinthian expressed it.

BERLIN BEAT ST. THOMAS.
BERLIN, Aug. 2.—Berlin had no trouble in making it three in a row from St. Thomas by taking yesterday's game by 7-3. The Saints lacked fight and made it a listless affair. Auld had no difficulty in holding them down to six hits. Their two runs were scored on an error, and in the ninth Auld issued two passes which were good for a run, when Myers singled.

White's Hopes touched up Reilly freely and batted in five runs in the second inning. Manager Ort of the visitors, was banished from the grounds in the first when he disputed Jacobson's decision that Reilly had made a balk. He followed this up by telling Jacobson that he was not in a fit condition to handle the game, and he would play under protest. After that Jacobson's decisions were unquestioned and his work faultless. Score:

Berlin . . . . . 15100000-7 10 2

AMERICAN LEAGUE NOTES

Pitcher Lathrop, the University of Notre Dame man, awarded to the White Sox, has joined the allah's team.

Cleveland has a new pitcher, from Maysville, Ohio State League, Dasher by name. He is a left-hander.

Detroit asks waivers on Louden with the intention of sending him to Providence, but the Yankees blocked the transfer.

The Boston Red Sox have purchased Pitcher Radloff from the Manistee club of the Michigan State League. He is a left hander.

Manager Chance of the Yankees is reported to be after a Cuban pitcher named Lague, who has been playing with the Long Branch team of the New York-New Jersey League.

Three Nap pitchers, it is said, are using Christy Mathewson's fadeaway with success. They are Falkenberg, Gregg and Kahler. A year ago it was told us that Gregg was using Johnson's speed. Why the change of pace?

The Boston Traveler is responsible for an intimation that Charley Carr, now with Kansas City, may be the manager of the Red Sox when a new season opens, in spite of President McAleer's declaration that Carrigan is to hold the job.

Ed. Walsh was left behind when the White Sox went East, for the first time in eight years it is said, he has not been with the team on such a trip. Walsh is evidently all in and merely lobbed them over in the last two games he pitched in.

Paddy Green, the wonder worker that Arthur Irwin, peerless scout, hoisted on the Yankees, has not won a game in the Eastern Association this year, which is odd, since the peerless discoverer of talent declared him the most wonderful flinger of a ball he had ever lapped.

There is one less collegian on the Athletics. Manager Mack having released Dave Morey. He will play with the Fredericton team of the Maine-New Brunswick league for the rest of the season. Morey is said to have developed a sore arm, the result of overwork in college games.

The fans of Lewiston, Me., the home of the new manager of the Boston Red Sox, are planning to celebrate "Carrigan Day" on August 2 (to-day). About one thousand enthusiasts, accompanied by a band will journey to Boston to see Carrigan play and will give him a few valuables before the game takes place.

Johnny Lavan the new Brown shortstop played in the Michigan State League, two seasons, one season and part of another with the University of Michigan baseball team, after his league play, now the point arises, how could he play on the varsity team as an amateur after two years in professional ball.

Detroit, it is reported, will send Pitcher Zamloch to Providence. Lack of control and failure to hold men close to first are his faults, though it must be admitted he has pitched some high class ball. Detroit will go through the season with five pitchers, Dubuc, Willett, Lake, Daus and Hall. It will take a lot of hitting for that quintette to get by.

Joe Boehling was certainly helped by his breaking of the season's continuous win record by the White Sox errors and there is a dispute as to just how many misplays the Sox made in the game on July 23. One record gives them eight, counting five for Hal Chase, but the official score seems to have been charitable and charged Chase with but four.

Considerable has been made out of the offense of Pitcher Clarence Smith of the Chicago White Sox in pitching a game for a Chicago independent team on a recent Sunday morning, and one might imagine it to be a high and unusual crime. Smith meekly observes, however, that others have been doing like stunts and his chief offence seems to be in having been caught at it.

Jake Stahl, deposed manager of the Boston Red Sox, likes New England so well that he has taken a cottage near Boston on the seashore and will spend the summer there. This residence it is thought may remove Boston's greatest objection to him—that he hails from the west, instead of being born looking over the Black Bay, and that he is not of strictly Irish parentage.

To-day Walter Johnson will celebrate his sixth anniversary of service in the major league. He will pitch against the same team—Detroit—that he did as a rookie, and Washington fans are likely to present him with a loving cup. Special exercises are planned, it being suggested that President Wilson make the presentation speech.

Presidents Comiskey and McAleer, both laying claim to Catcher Daly of the Lowell team, were reported as having agreed to flip a coin to see which should have him. At the same time a Lynn critic was making these remarks: "Seven bases were purloined by the Lynn bunch from Catcher Daly of Lowell. He's the Red Sox plucked player, which a Boston paper enthusiastically terms the best player in the New England League. Arthur Harry Lord, the White Sox captain, was discussing first basemen the other day while his team had nothing to do, and he sure did pay a great tribute to Hal Chase. Here is what the third basemen of the White Sox has to say about the former Yankee player: "Chase will save any infielder 30 errors in a season if the pair would work together through the year. Look what Chase did for me in that one game at St. Louis. I would have had two big black marks to my discredit on that day. The papers would have said Lord's errors were responsible for the Sox losing to the Browns 6 to 3. If something like that, with Chase over there we don't have to worry. We can field the ball, shut our eyes and make a throw, and hell get it some way or other.

One would suppose that after the experience of the Chicago management has had with Walsh as the result of overworking him, precautions would be taken in handling the few other successful pitchers on the staff, yet such does not seem to be the case, says Ed. Grillo in the Washington Star. Russell, the young left hander, who has been the mainstay of the Sox this season, is being used, or abused, about the same as was Walsh in former years. He is constantly being pitched out of his turn, and as a result has lost much of his effectiveness. Trying to win a pennant or a lower position by overworking one or two pitchers has never proved a success, and the chances are that Callahan will find it a difficult matter to finish in the first division unless he nurses his good pitchers before it is too late.

President William H. Locke of the Phillies is still confined to his home and is unable to attend any of the games not interest himself in any manner with the club's affairs; just now. Absolute rest has been prescribed for him, and only two or three members of his family can see him. He is said to be much improved physically and by this kind of strict rest and freedom from any cares whatever, it is hoped to bring about his recovery.

EVERYBODY HAS A GOOD WORD FOR JOHNSON

USES THREE MITTS A YEAR

Walter's Speed Hard on Pads - Ainsmith Praises the Swede's Curve.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Few would care to dispute the assertion that Walter Johnson, the wonderful pitcher of the Washington Senators, has more speed than any other pitcher in the country.

This is generally acknowledged. It has come to be an established fact. Ball players who bat against him speak of his speed in terms of awe. Johnson is so splendid a pitcher he doesn't have to try and pitch across with his "friendly smacker." It is seldom the batters can reach the ball, much less crash into a position.

How Fast it Travels

Prominently we have read magazine articles in which the writers have guessed how fast a ball travels in the hands of certain pitchers. Hence what Hughes says about Johnson comes with real authority. He says a certain man in Hartford, Conn., whose business is in computing speed of projectiles for the ordinance department of the government, says Johnson's fast ball, which he ordinarily uses, travels 126 feet per second. There's a good point to consider.

Many players say Johnson never has opened up his last lever. Walter practically says the same thing. In other words he doesn't really know how much smoke he possesses. Some day he may let her rip, and then the public will be treated to a wonderful sight.

During a recent game Johnson unintentionally beamed a batter. You can say one thing about this great pitcher, he never tries to hit a batter, for he knows what danger there would be with a speeded merchant-like himself working.

Beans hit the batter on the side of the head. Yet it was travelling with such amazing speed an "egg" showed up under his eye an instant later. Just imagine what would have happened had he been struck directly in the forehead.

Players never tire of talking about Johnson. He is an idol with the White Sox. Although a wonderful pitcher he is the most modest. It's no wonder he is so popular. If he had a swelled head he would be panned by his rivals. But you never hear an unkind word about him.

Johnson says he seldom uses a curve. It has jokingly been said that you can't tell whether he has a "hook" or not—the ball goes so fast.

Catcher Ainsmith, the one man should know, because he stands behind the plate when Walter works, says he has an excellent "hook." He declares it breaks fast and wild. But he adds that Johnson is seldom driven into a corner where he has to try it.

Speed in the Pinches

There are times when batters have Johnson in a hole. What does the Washington pitcher do at such a time? Simply puts on a little more speed. Everybody who has seen him work knows how fast he pitches. There's absolutely no waste motion. He gets the ball, takes a short wind-up and lets go. He indulges in no delaying tactics, doesn't pose or loaf around. He knows what he's going to pitch and so does the catcher. It's a fast ball right over the plate.

Elucidated

"Henry, it says here that Mr Jackson petted the pill for three sacks. What does it mean?"

"Good heavens, Mary, can't you understand plain English? It means that he slugged the sphere safe and landed on the third pillow."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Why Mrs. Dionne Praises Dodd's Kidney Pills

Fine Old Quebec Lady Was Wasting Away When She Turned to Dodd's Kidney Pills and Found a New Lease of Life.

ST. MATHIEU, Rimouski Co., Que., July 28.—(Special)—"Publish it to all the world that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me." Those are the words of Mrs. Dionne, an old and respected resident of this place. And surely that cure was a wonderful one. Mrs. Dionne had reached the advanced age of sixty-nine years when ill-health overtook her. From 184 lbs. she wasted away till she weighed only 120 lbs. and she was a very sick woman, indeed. Speaking of her case, she says:

"My back and head ached, my heart troubled me, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing, and I perspired freely at night. I also had a pressure or sharp pain on the top of my head, and I found it difficult to collect my thoughts."

It was at this stage that Mrs. Dionne concluded that her trouble came from her kidneys, and she turned to Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box helped her. She took twelve boxes and is cured.

Dodd's Kidney Pills always help old people, because when the human body starts to wear out, the kidneys are the first to go. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys.

NATIONAL LEAGUE NOTES

The Cardinals have finally won a game on Ebbets Field, but the Phillies have still one to win on the Polo Grounds.

Albert Lefty Leifeld, sold by the Chicago Cubs to Atlanta, but refusing the transfer has been shipped to San Francisco instead and this time accepts the assignment.

The Brooklyn club announces the purchase of Pitcher Pfeiffer from the Grand Rapids Club of the Central League. Pfeiffer will report at the close of the Central League season.

Manager Evers of the Cubs has returned Catcher Jack Inglis to the Newburg team of the New York-New Jersey league. He has offered, however, to take the youngster on again next spring.

Reports from the Eastern Association are that Rollings, the infielder sent by the St. Louis Cardinals to New Haven, is developing into a great ball player. If true, the Cardinals certainly could use him.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean features the benching of Bresnahan with a cartoon showing Manager Evers picking a monkey wrench out of the engine of the Cub machine and saying that with the obstruction removed the car would run better.

The Chicago Cub team physician has taken a great load off the minds of all interested in base ball by his announcement that Heinie Zimmerman has no broken bones in his foot and that after a two weeks' rest his disposition, will be the same as ever.

There has been a great deal of discussion as to who got the best of the deal whereby Manager McGraw sent Ames, Groh and Devore to the Reds for Fromme. When the debate was over Fromme cut in by saying that he thought he got the best of it.

Cincinnati having secured waivers on Rafael Almeida, offered him to Nashville for $1,800, but that club would not pay the price, so he was sold to Montreal, though it is said the Cuban would have preferred to go south if a deal could have been arranged.

Zach Wheat, Carlisle Smith and Herb Morgan of Brooklyn have all become proud fathers since the season opened and two other "interesting events" are soon expected by the wives of Brooklyn players. Taking it all around the players have kept Dr. Stork busy this year.

Manager Johnny Evers after being quoted at length and in the first place as to Roger Bresnahan loading, disbelieving orders and what not, comes out with a denial that he ever said a word of it. Again we remark that denials are the stock in trade of magnates and managers.

Rumors from Cincinnati that Bob Bescher is to be traded from the Reds grow stronger. It is evident that he is not playing the ball expected of him by Tinker and there are alleged to be reasons. The latest story concerns a swap of the former speed merchant to the Giants.

Sammy Strang, now coach at West Point, Military Academy, thinks Schupp, the young left-hander with the Giants, the best southpaw he has seen in years. Sammy says Schupp has as much stuff as Marquand, Rube or any of them, his only weakness being a lack of experience.

Bescher of Cincinnati and Wingo of St. Louis are now members of the Luke McGloob League. In a game with the Giants, Wingo made a clean steal of third with Evans on the base. In a game with the Phillies Bescher doubled and walked off the field, under the impression that Paskert had caught the hit.

An odd story comes from Cincinnati. It is that Manager Tinker has told Pitcher Johnson he will fine him $10 every time he pitches a curved ball. Johnson says it is because there is so much stuff on his curve that the catchers can gauge it. It might be, however, that Tinker thinks a fast ball beats a round house.

Manager Bill Dahlen, who has been in base ball long enough to know a thing or two (perhaps he doesn't at that, all things considered) took Walker off when Baltimore released him. Walker's stay with Baltimore was about the legal limit—less than a week. There has been considerable talk pro and con as to whether the fault with Brooklyn was in Dahlen or the team. We now are confirmed in the belief that it's all with Dahlen.

It isn't only the present winning streak of the Giants that makes them look like sure pennant winners for the third time in succession. Another factor that gives the McGrawites greater strength than was credited to them in the early season dope is the pitching of Marquand, opines a New York admirer of the Rube. It was generally figured that the left-hander was certain to show a falling off in ability this season, and for a time his work made this opinion look good. But of late the Rube has pulled himself together and consequently McGraw must be credited with another trump card which he was not believed to possess. The Giants were strong and dangerous without Marquand's best form, but with the southpaw going his old speed, the pitching staff is improved to an extent that makes ousting New York look like a contract nest door to the impossible.

Pitcher Earl Moore must have been reading what Connie Mack had to say about the "hot belt," for when sold by the Phillies to the Cardinals he refused to accept the transfer, declaring he would not stand the St. Louis climate. The odd thing about it, however, was that he was willing to go to Cincinnati, which Mack also mentioned as being in the "hot belt," when Tinker manager of the Reds suggested a swap of Suggs for some Philly material. Moore informed Dooin that such a trade would suit him perfectly.

After the game at Ebbets Field, says a Brooklyn writer, Bill Dahlen looked for the Dodgers' jinx under second base. He removed the bag and dug into the earth but the jinx wasn't there. Within the last three weeks four Brooklyn players have sprained their ankles sliding into the middle sack. Stengel and Fisher were injured in this way on July 4. Cutsaw was injured in a similar manner a few days later. Hammond twisted his right leg as he stole the base and had to leave the game. Dahlen says he will find the jinx if it takes him the rest of the season.

It would not be such a blow to Pitcher Maurice Kent, this being shipped by Brooklyn to Toronto, if it were not announced from Brooklyn that he was let go to make room for Fred (Mysterious) Walker. That

NO DRINKING MAN NEED DESPAIR

The Neal Cure—Greatest of All Modern Discoveries—Offers a Means of Escape from the Curse of Drink. A cure of the Drink Habit is Guaranteed in Three Days no Matter Whether the Patient is a Hard and Constant Drinker, Social Tippler or Goes on Occasional Sprees.

There was wandering in the streets of Toronto lately a homeless man, who at one time held a splendid position. But drink was his downfall. To-day his wife, a cultured woman, works out by the day, endeavoring to support herself and little family. Think of it, you wives and mothers, who have homes of comfort and all that makes life worth living, what it would be to you to be deprived of these and forced to face the wash tub for an existence, as this poor wife has to do to-day?

But this home which was made a hell on earth through strong drink—as every drunkard's is—may be made into a heaven upon earth, as many have been made, as a result of the Neal Treatment. Three days only—the wonder of it!—to effect a cure and make the victim of strong drink a new man, physically, morally and mentally.

We undertake to guarantee to effect a cure of the Drink Habit in Three Days, no matter whether the patient is a hard and constant drinker, social tippler, or goes on occasional spears. Are you interested in a poor fellow going down, down, through the curse of drink? Then bring your influence to bear on him and bring him to the Neal Institute for treatment, drunk or sober, and we will undertake to remove the awful appetite for strong drink and deliver him to you a new man.

Here is an opportunity for REFORMATION SOCIETIES for INEBRIATES or any institution for the reformation of the drunkard, to test our ability to change the hard drinker into a new man, physically and mentally, in THREE DAYS' treatment.

We invite these Societies or any institution interested in the poor drunkard and the problem of dealing with him, to send us for treatment any victim of the drink habit, it makes no difference how much enslaved, and we guarantee to effect a cure in each and every case. Can you spend your money to better advantage or in a way that will bring in greater returns than in redeeming these victims of strong drink and giving back to their families kind fathers, brothers, husbands, and to the country most desirable citizens?

SHE CAN'T GET RID OF HER POSTOFFICE JOB

Has Three Mails a Week and 14 Patrons Track in Lots of Mud.

BACKUS, Minn., Aug. 2.—The postmistress of the smallest postoffice in the United States wants to quit and she can't. The government ignores her resignation. Her name is Mrs. Mary Armstrong of Wicklow. She is 71 and her husband, James, was a veteran of the Civil War. Fourteen persons get their mail at her log cabin, among towering pines, twelve miles from the nearest station. For more than two years she has been trying to persuade the post-office authorities to give the postoffice to some one else. Telling her office experiences, Mrs. Armstrong said: "I had to turn my best front room into a place for the accommodation of the office patrons. I had to set up a letter rack where my best rocker was to set alongside the front window, and the mail bags occupy the place I had picked out for the lounge. "Men come wading through the snow in winter and mud in summer and track my front room all up, and between them and Ed—that's my grandson—it keeps me busy with the dustpan. "The official duties in a big town must be simply awful," continued Mrs. Armstrong. "We have three mails a week and I have to sort the letters and papers for twelve persons and put them in the rural delivery sacks. Two other patrons call at the office for their mail. The red tape causes me to lose sleep. Reports have to be made to the Post Office Department as if the office were doing $1,000 worth of business daily."

TO GET AN AUTO, GO CATCH A FOX

It's the Certain Road to Riches Up in State of Maine—for Some.

BANGOR, Me., August 2.—When a Maine farmer wants an automobile, there are two quick ways of getting the money. One is to engage in potato farming in Aroostook, where the yield generally is 250 bushels to the acre, and where there are vast areas of new and as yet uncultivated land. The other way is a good deal quicker but not so certain. It is to go out and catch or shoot a black fox or a silver-gray fox.

Up in the town of Canaan last week Guy Nelson and Elmer Goodrich had some astonishing luck. They captured three black foxes, a mother and two pups, which they have sold to E. W. Wallace, a fox farmer of Milbridge, for $4,000.

Goodrich returned to Canaan on Tuesday with an automobile, and Nelson has put his money in the bank. Last fall Nelson captured a black fox and a silver-gray. His wife helped in the capture and he gave her half of the $2,800 received for the foxes, with which she bought an automobile.

Women have more sense than men. Women cry at weddings, but the men grin.

LADY CUNARD'S GUESTS TOOK OFF SHOES; ROMPED

Turned Out the Lights, Raced in Hotel's Corridor and Danced Ragtime.

VOTED MOST ENJOYABLE PARTY

Yet Some Are Likely to Feel Shocked at the Event.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 2.—Lady Cunard's most sensational party of the season at a big hotel here, a party of the hotel was reserved for the occasion. She had more than 100 guests at dinner at eight tables. The table was decorated in different colors of flowers of one color, heaped up profusely that only the edge of the table was left for plates. The dinner cost a huge sum.

After dinner, Lady Cunard's guests cleared the tables clean of flowers and seated themselves out in them. Many floral goddesses. Then the opera singers and Russian entertainers, the company and the music and dancing the guests took off their shoes, turned on the lights in the rooms and corridors and stood up and down, romped like children and danced ragtime, until they were tired out.

They all voted it the most enjoyable party of the season, for though the first of its kind, the others were not carried out on such a grand scale. All the notable Anglo-American beauties were present, as well as the noted English girls. Some said the party was to celebrate Lady Randolph Churchill's divorce, as she was there to receive congratulations from her friends.

Lady Cunard wore a brilliant gown of emerald green and gold, with a few diamonds. Mrs. Astor was in silver with blues. Mrs. Cecil Bingham wore a creation of turquoise brocade with turquoises and diamonds worn in an order across her corsage and diamond and turquoise crown. Mrs. Snow was in sea green chiffon and silver cloth. Lady Randolph Churchill wore deep sea blue with ornaments in her hair.

It is criminal to let a child play on a carpet unless it has been 'vacuum' cleaned."

Prof Rodugres, United States Expert Consulting Engineer, After Thoroughly Examining Our Machine Says:

"It is the first hand-power cleaner that I have examined that pleases me. The principal is mechanically correct: the construction is based on exact scientific principles. It not only removes all dirt and dust, but, on account of the excessive air displacement and continuous suction, removes the dirt and filth from under as well as from the top of the carpet with less effort than any other vacuum cleaner I have ever examined. In fact, it is the most complete dirt eater I have ever seen. The material used and the construction are both so nearly perfect that it is practically indestructible. If you will think for a minute, you will realize that a number of diseases are caused by germs and microbes in the filth brought into the house by dogs, cats, rats, flies, and the filth off your feet. Among the diseases that can be mentioned are diphtheria, typhoid fever, smallpox, scarlet fever, measles, whooping cough, grippe, spinal meningitis, pneumonia, erysipelas, cholera, yellow fever, malarial fever, tuberculosis, tonsillitis, cholera infantum, and a number of others. Were it possible to show you by means of the magnifying glass the filth and germs that are lodged in your carpets and rugs, you should be so frightened that you would immediately order a vacuum cleaner or abandon your carpets and rugs. Do not trifle with the health of your family!"

If you have no vacuum cleaner, in justice to your family's health, have a demonstrator call to-day. It will cost you nothing, and you will have a sanitary home. It is a health saver, labor saver, and money saver. It can be used every day, and does not wear the nap off the carpet, like ordinary sweeping; nothing to get out of order, runs quietly, a child can run it, and will last for years.

J. M. Werzke, A.M., M.D., the world's recognized authority on bacteriology, in a recent lecture, said:

"If all carpets and rugs were kept thoroughly cleaned, and all windows and doors thoroughly screened, our mortality from infectious diseases would be reduced 90 per cent; in fact, all Municipalities should enact laws to compel each householder to adopt and use a vacuum cleaner."

The Brantford Daily Courier has made arrangements to place a number of 1913 WIRELESS VACUUM CLEANERS. These cleaners are equipped with three bellows which are operated from backward and forward motion of the machine. For free demonstration telephone the Courier Office. Both phones 139.

COLONEL HARVEY IS HOPEFUL FOR THE WILSON REGIME

Editor of Harper's, in London, Discusses the Situation in the United States.

CONDITIONS ARE SOUND, CAPITAL WAITING

Economic Laws, He Says, Are Stronger Than Ordinary Statutes and Change Little by Legislation.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

COLONEL GEORGE HARVEY, of Harper's, who arrived here recently, and is staying for the month of August at Claridge's, was asked yesterday for his views on the Wilson administration.

"It is a case, as Disraeli said of the gentleman about to take a second wife, of hope over experience," he said.

"What is the nature of the hope?"

"That the administration will not be stigmatized by history as the initiator of class legislation in the United States."

Asked about business conditions and the tariff, Colonel Harvey said—

"Fundamental conditions in America are sound, but capital awaits the adjustment of the relations of government to business. That was inevitable. Economic laws are stronger than ordinary statutes and are affected little by executive mandate. Adjustment of the complicated relationship of manufacturing industries to reduced tariff duties cannot be made in a week or, sometimes, in a year. Nor can it be wrought out successfully by fine spun theory. Practical experience, covering sufficient time to determine the new relative positions of supply and demand, affords the only possible solution."

"The enactment of a tariff measure such as that now pending necessarily involves a certain period of industrial depression as a consequence of the inevitable uncertainty of experimentation. It is idle to maintain the contrary and it is equally shortsighted on the part of those in authority to hold out hopes that must, in the light of all experience, prove to be false and consequently disappointing. Far better to proceed with the people and rely upon their good judgment to recognize that so serious an operation, however essential to ultimate health and prosperity, cannot be performed without allowance of time for recuperation."

"That is the true and sure way to put into effect a needed period of industrial acting for the best interests of intelligent communities in response to their own command. The time has passed when a political party can succeed through misguidance. It must confide in the common intelligence and must rely upon the common patriotism and the common sense of the people for the payment of the comparatively small price requisite to the achievement of a great economic correction. If security lies not that way, fidelity is without shelter and popular government is a failure."

Colonel Harvey said that he expected the forthcoming tariff to be one, at least, which would benefit the consumer by reducing his cost of living, but he did not expect to see a change at once, probably not in time to furnish any capital to the democrats in the next Congressional elections. He thought that taking the duty off fish would permit the country to get a cheaper supply from Newfoundland and from the British Pacific coast.

"Meat should also be cheaper with the tariff off," said Colonel Harvey. "The American packers are now selling native beef in Europe for twenty-five per cent less than we have to pay at home. With the tariff off prices in the United States will have to come into line with those determined by the supply from Argentina and elsewhere."

Colonel Harvey also looks for satisfactory currency legislation in the United States soon, but not at the present session of Congress. He thinks a central system will be devised, somewhat on the order of the former Aldrich plan.

JEWELLED BAG LOST AT CHILDREN'S FETE

Theft Seems To Be Growing More Popular in Upper English Classes.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

HOW the habit of stealing is increasing among the upper classes, how unsafe it is for women to give sight of their bags or anything of all valuable in shops, clubs or hotels for a single moment was told in the HERALD recently.

This unpleasant fact is further illustrated by a story told by Lady Magdalen Williams-Bulkeley, who lost a gold chain purse, set with rubies, at select, fashionable Ranelagh, of all places.

"It was at the children's fete," she said, "and while having tea I put my black silk bag, containing the purse, on a chair beside the table. Then it came on to rain suddenly, and I went under a tree.

"Directly I reached shelter I remembered that I had left my bag behind, but the bag and purse had gone. Another lady who left her purse on the tea table close by suffered the same loss.

"The purse was a present, worth about £100. I advertised for it, but as it has not returned to me it must have been

This Association Has for Its Object the Conservation of This Pure Marvel of Beauty.

PARIS, August 2.

ARE you one of the "Amis de Versailles"?

Every one who has ever visited Versailles is a friend of Versailles, but not every friend of Versailles is one of the "Amis de Versailles."

If you are not one of the latter it is regrettable, and you would better repair the omission as quickly as possible. The more "Amis de Versailles" there are, the more actively at work the better. The aim of the Société des Amis de Versailles is to safeguard the monuments which represent the most artistic period, and perhaps the most glorious, in the history of France.

There is a weighty reason for calling attention at the present moment to the Société des Amis de Versailles. It is that the association is now in a position to work effectively to realize the objects for which it was created. By a Presidential decree, recently promulgated, the society is declared to be of public utility. The practical value of this declaration is immense. The Société des Amis de Versailles is now more than a group of individuals animated by a desire to prevent further vandalism and to protect historic Versailles. It is, since the signature of the decree by President Poincaré, an official organization, recognized by the State, empowered to receive donations and legacies and to participate with the State in the work of preserving Versailles as a veritable national heirloom.

As it is desirable that you become a member of the society, particularly if you have wealth and influence, a summary outline of its constitution is advisable.

The association known as the Société des Amis de Versailles was founded in Paris almost six years ago, that is, in December, 1907. Its purpose is to cooperate with the State in preserving and looking after the monuments and works of art which are the glory of Versailles.

Suffragettes ought to approve unreservedly of the Société des Amis de Versailles. It is an organization based on the principle of the equality of the sexes. Women are admitted in each category of membership and are eligible for appointment to every official post connected with the society.

What are those posts? The society is governed by a committee (Conseil d'Administration) of sixty members, elected at a general meeting for a term of four years, just as though the members were ordinary deputies. The committee elects a board, formed of a president, five vice-presidents, two general secretaries and a treasurer. All these posts are honorary. All the posts are elected for a year.

There is a list of honorary members, and an article in the constitution stipulating that no member of the Société des Amis de Versailles shall accept any salary or honorarium for work connected with the society.

NO CONTRIBUTIONS WASTED.

Thus every centime contributed to the association is utilized to improve and preserve historic Versailles. The upkeep of Versailles naturally necessitates heavy expenditure. How heavy may be judged from the fact that the State spent in two years—1875 to 1877—2,000,000 francs to restore the chapel in the palace. The restoration of the fountains in the park cost 500,000 francs; another 500,000 francs spent to put the domain of Versailles in good condition for the exhibition of 1889, and since then almost 200,000 francs have been expended to restore the facades looking on the marble courtyard, more than 100,000 francs on the facade of the Cour d'Honneur, almost 1,000,000 francs on the facade overlooking the park, 170,000 francs on the Trianons, 230,000 francs to restore the Orangerie, 225,000 francs to refurbish the Colonnade and almost 150,000 francs on the horseshoe fountain near the Grand Canal.

This list is merely a fraction of the outlay necessitated by the restoration and preservation of Versailles. Now that the Société des Amis de Versailles has received an official status it ought to render not only moral but also material support to the State. To do this it must have funds. Its revenues are derived from the annual subscriptions of members, the sums contributed by foundation members to forego the necessity of paying an annual subscription and the gifts of honorary members.

In order that the Société des Amis de Versailles may render services commensurate with its ambitious greater revenues are essential. Versailles is more than a miracle of beauty; it is one of the most glorious chapters in the history of France.

The whole civilized world is interested in the maintenance intact of Versailles as a historic monument. Every civilized being can help to maintain it by contributing to the funds of the Société des Amis de Versailles.

New Hotel Opens in Four Years

London Promoters Select Valuable Site Overlooking Buckingham Palace.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

A MAMMOTH new hotel overlooking Hyde Park—it is even averred by its promoters that it will be the largest and finest in the world—is to be erected, at a cost of $5,250,000, upon the site at present occupied by St. George's Hospital, but it will not be ready for opening within four years.

The project has been in the air for a considerable time, but it has only now been made definitely possible by the decision of the Westminster and St. George's Hospital governors to combine these institutions, to sell the sites upon which they stand and to build a joint hospital in South London, probably near Wandsworth Bridge.

Certain formalities, such as an arrangement with the Duke of Westminster for the rights of pre-emption over a certain portion of the site, have to be concluded, but the scheme is virtually cut and dried.

The site, which comprises the land upon which the hospital now stands, together with five mansions in Knightsbridge, rather more than an acre and a half, will cost $2,300,000. The purchaser is Mr. Malby-Deeley, M. P., who said:—"The site is, I think, admittedly the best in any great capital in the world, and I know them all. First of all, the hotel will overlook Buckingham Palace and the Green Park, which can never be built upon, and residents will enjoy the experience of being able to see from their own windows the King and Queen drive to and from the Palace. On another side the hotel will overlook Hyde Park, which also can never be built upon."

Society Is Deserting the Private Ballrooms

London Finds Hotel Accommodations Better Suited to Large Dancing Parties and None but Truly Palatial Residences Can Now Attract the Younger Sets.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

NOTHING is more significant of the change which has come over society during the last decade than the growth of what, till recently, was unheard of except in the suburbs—the dance given in a hotel. The "fashion" seemed to spring up in a night, for during this season the Ritz Hotel ballroom in particular has not been in darkness one single evening, Sunday excepted. In reality the change came gradually.

The beginning was the giving of dances in empty houses. An enterprising hostess suddenly realized the saving of war and tear to temper and furniture alike which would be gained by hiring for one night some large and convenient empty house, and this custom gradually crept in. But at the best the "empty house dance" is a poor thing. There is something depressing and temporary in the atmosphere of a house the upper rooms of which are known to be empty. Then, some one, greatly daring, decided to send out invitations for dancing at one of the big hotels.

The idea caught on, and now not only are the hotel dances more popular than any except at the really palatial houses, like Lansdowne or Derby House, but many young persons actually refuse to go to the dances at private houses. The fashionable girl of the period is not the maiden of twenty years ago, who was excited at the idea of a dance—any dance.

At a very recent ball at which several royal personages were present a quite young girl caused some amusement by confiding to her friends that she had come only because her chaperon had wept when she announced that it would be too much bother to go.

The truth is that another indispensable point to the up-to-date girl is the permission—or the possibility—of "taking her own men" to dances. Otherwise in the heterogeneous world of modern London she risks meeting none of her special friends. And at the very formal balls, with royalty present and decorations and full dress worn, she is not asked, of course, to take, nor dare she take, her own friends with her.

Simple Life Rules FOR MODERN BEAUTY

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

"Simple life" beauty culture seems to be the vogue now, and it is said English women are turning away from elaborate and expensive preparations in favor of the honest, old-fashioned remedies. A London expert advises washing the face only with water that has been previously boiled or distilled, and recommends—

Distilled water instead of expensive waxes.

Washes and rinses waters for the face. Lemons for blotching the skin. Buttermilk best for a wash and to drink. Cucumbers best for the complexion. Nettles (undistilled) against colds, beads to drink, as food for the skin. Cocoa butter instead of more complicated face lozels.

Disease Spread by Dirty Streets

Sanitary Experts Urge English Cities to Adopt Stringent Anti-Spitting Bylaw.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

THE methods by which disease is spread by the unthoughtful were explained by Dr. Morley Mathieson at the Sanitary Congress, held this year at Exeter.

Visitors to London, especially Americans, are often dismayed by the objectionable habit of the lower classes, and even of those who ought to know better, of spitting in the streets. It not infrequently happens that passersby on the sidewalks find themselves spat upon, not wilfully, perhaps, but carelessly, by passersby on omnibuses.

It was this habit of spitting that Dr. Mathieson took for his subject. "There are few circumstances that necessitate habitual spitting," he said. "Tobacco smoking, for example, ought not to call for it."

"While the most common infection distributed is that of tuberculosis, it is well known that casual organisms of many other diseases, such as pneumonia and cerebro-spinal meningitis, can be similarly spread. The part played by indiscriminate spitting in the one disease of consumption is, however, sufficiently illustrated of the need of compulsory control."

"The majority seem to regard habitual spitting as natural and necessary and observe neither care in the manner of disposal nor anything approaching privacy in the act. Spitting here, there and everywhere is regarded as a prerogative by the freeston Briton."

Airship Line to Connect London and the Provinces

Passenger Service to Manchester and Other Interior Cities and Regular Schedule to Paris. Promised by Promoters with English Built Machines.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

AN airship passenger service between London and Paris, between London and Manchester and other English cities will be commenced very shortly. The scheme is above all a commercial proposition, in which anything experimental will be eliminated.

Mr. E. C. Powell, of Lombard street, the originator of the proposal, says:—"Apart from the commercial aspects of the question we will endeavor to demonstrate by direct lessons the efficiency and safety of dirigible airships and to establish an airship building industry in Great Britain."

A start is to be made "as soon as possible." It is to be a passenger airship service similar to those which have been tried elsewhere, notably in Germany.

"We can make excellent aeroplanes in England to-day, but at present we cannot turn out an all-British airship. Our airship, however, will be built in England. Everything will be the result of the cooperation of British labor and capital, but at first it may be necessary to go abroad for some things. We shall start with a non-rigid or semi-rigid type of airship. These can be built more cheaply and more quickly than the rigid type, and they will all lighter than the rigid. On the other hand, the industry once thoroughly established, it will be necessary, as far as we know at present, to build rigid ships if we want larger vessels."

"The airship will be made to carry, normally, a dozen passengers, as well as a fair cargo. We have secured the services of the most competent and experienced men. And we shall begin the industry of airship building in England as far as possible."

FALCONRY IS NOT TO BE REVIVED, EXPERT THINKS

The Hon. G. W. Lascelles Discusses Exhibition of Hawking at Juvisy.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 1.

ASKED if the exhibition of hawking in the European press, indicated the revival of the ancient sport of falconry, the Hon. G. W. Lascelles, Deputy Surveyor of the New Forest, a royal domain at Lyndhurst, and himself a keen falconry enthusiast, said that modern conditions were all against any considerable development of falconry, but that it still had a certain number of enthusiastic devotees who had no intention of letting it die.

"If you seek to know if falconry is likely again to become a common, not to say the commonest, form of sport, as it once was, I can say positively that such a thing is impossible."

"The general enclosure of the whole of England, save only the various tracts of downs, renders it impossible to practice falconry except in a few parts. The men who happen to delight in this sport, and also live in a country where they are able to practice it, are few, while those who are so fond of it as to leave home for certain seasons and go to a suitable country for falconry are fewer still."

"Moreover, in these days of hurry and scurry big bags and rapid locomotion an old world sport which requires time and infinite patience, and is one of the most difficult to succeed in which man has ever attempted, is not in accord with the prevailing temperament of the modern sportsman, who wants everything made easy for him and looks for large results in a brief time."

"It is only occasionally that I meet young men who have the genuine sporting instinct in them and will spend time, food and patience in falconry, though those who can thus succeed will deem it the noblest sport in which man has ever indulged. Unfortunately, the man who could and would succeed are generally those whose occupations are such that they cannot devote the necessary time to it."

"Of all things falconry, being a purely wild sport, lends itself least to exhibitions on race courses or at aerodromes, such as have been the case in the newspapers. The account of what took place is enough to damn the whole performance in the eyes of any genuine sportsman. To fly hawks before an aerodrome crowd at places where they catch in a few seconds is just as near to real falconry as the chase of a hare or a fox by a pack of dogs around a circus would be a genuine exhibition of fox hunting as followed in this country."

"The whole civilized world is interested in the maintenance intact of Versailles as a historic monument. Every civilized being can help to maintain it by contributing to the funds of the Société des Amis de Versailles."

Are you one of the "Amis de Versailles"?

Mr. T. L. Wood, an official denial this morning in the option campaign in the Mr. Wood, "that no work by the executive commission, and it is an error."

Mr. Wood said he posed campaign off.

From other official there was considerable campaign. "There is of the executive, "the i has done temperance a Grey. Politics and ten the Rowell platform is sands of temperance the province. In fact, effect in Brantford."

BRUTAL MURDER AT FT. ALEX

Body of Indian Cut in Several Sacs River.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

SELKIRK, Man., Aug. 1. Fort Alexander with details of a brutal murder which took place between July 18 and 20.

Edward Sinclair, a trapper who lived with his children. He was last seen on the afternoon of July 18, according to his wife, he left his home on the morning of July 19, and search for his body on the shore of the Wapiti about a quarter of a mile from the house. Dr. Sinclair was then started and he was found tied up in a sack and weighted down with stones. The man's head was cut in two, and his body was found on the opposite bank of the river in a clump of trees in the side which a Hudson's Bay trapper had cut.

An inquest was held in front of witnesses examined whom was Charlotte Sinclair the dead man. She stated that she had seen the body of her husband in the river, and she was unwilling to witness a death scene. The jury brought in a verdict of murder.

"That Edward Sinclair was killed on the afternoon of July 18, and Sunday, July 20, under a tree. It is the said Edward Sinclair, and that Charles Sinclair should be held for further investigation."

Cotner Ross issued commitment and the warrant trial was held. Magistrate Schanor on ening. Mrs. Sinclair was taken to the provincial jail to investigation.

"How would you die staring you in the face? Humph, did you ever late and loaded and stare at you?"

"FOXGLOVE YEAR" THE FLORAL DESIGNATION

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 2.

They are calling this "foxglove year" in England on account of the unprecedented height and the magnificent blooms which these flowers have attained this season.

Foxgloves in New Gardens are eight feet high and look (by courtesy) has one which measures ten feet three inches. But even this is below the record of a plant in the garden of a woman in Bishop's Stortford, if her description of it in a letter to a London newspaper is to be credited. Her foxglove, a cream white variety, has a stem sixteen feet high, bearing 200 blooms and seed cases.

It is explained that the unusual wonders of the foxglove this summer are due to perfect conditions for the last two years. The foxglove is a biennial, and the warm, sunny summer of 1911 caused its complete and extensive fertilization by the bumble bee. The cloudy wet season of 1912 offered the best possible conditions for the development of the seedlings, while the mildness of last winter allowed them to grow on unchecked, bringing them into blossom at their earliest this summer.
